"Aye," was the reply. "It's a hundred years old or more."

"Indeed," remarked the old man, "it's not exactly that. It's had three new heads and two new handles in the time."

RAILROAD STRIKE VOTE IS PLANNED

CHICAGO, May 29.—Strike vote on the $50,000,000 wage cut of maintenance of way railroad workers was planned today by E. M. Jewell, president of the railroad department of the American Federation of Labor.

Jewell said the 13.2 percent wage slash of the 400,000 members of his union announced by the United States railroad labor board, would bring pay below a living wage.

Figure out how much it would be WORTH to you to have a position paying the salary which you feel you can earn—then ADVERTISE and get it.

PORTLAND ROSE FESTIVAL STUNTS

PORTLAND, May 30.—Portland folk, now that the biennial primaries are over, are centering their attention upon the annual Rose Festival, to be held here this year, June 20 to 23, inclusive. One new stunt and the satisfaction of being assured of what is usually expected are the most recent developments in Roseland.

The new stunt has been outlined as follows: The three prettiest maids of each Oregon city or community entering floats in the grand floral pageant will be invited to officiate as members of Queen Harriet's retinue during the ceremonial attendant upon that worthy sovereign's arrival, reception, entertainment and coronation.

Many cities and towns have already made entries and a special invitation has been sent to those to start their campaigns for the election of the three prettiest maids to be found in their corporate limits.

This annual festival feature of which Portlanders have been assured is the visit of six destroyers from the Pacific fleet. The flotilla has been ordered to Portland for the festival and will be under the command of Commander L. N. McNair.

The ships are a part of the destroyers division 31, and are the Chauncey, Percival, Fuller, John Francis Burns, Farragut and Somers.

If you fail to advertise adequately, the tenant you ought to have may decide upon a place which will not suit him so well as your property would.

A young man was leaning out of the car window. A brakeman passed down the aisle and said to him: "I shouldn't do that, sir. It's dangerous. Only the other day—" The young man interrupted him insolently. "I can look out the window if I wish," he said.

"You have heard what the last witness said," persisted cousin, "and yet your evidence is to the contrary. Am I to infer that you wish to throw doubt on her veracity?"

The polite young man waved a deprecating hand. "Not at all," he replied. "I merely wish to make it clear what a liar I am if she's speaking the truth."

Pat Rooney had just opened a new home brew foundry and as it was a rainy day there were quite a number of Pat's friends in the place seeking shelter from the storm.

"This beer is awful," said the Englishman, "but I wouldn't dare let it stand for fear Pat would be insulted!"

"You're right," said Mike, sympathetically, "but I have a scheme. That fellow next to you has a raincoat on. Pour it into his pocket."

Truths in Epigram

Never leave that till tomorrow which you can do today.—Franklin (1706-1790).
To conduct great matters and never commit a fault is above the force of human nature.—Plutarch (46-120 A. D.).
Life is not life at all without delight.—Patmore (1823-1896).

DOGGING A RESPONSIBILITY

The senate has acted all along as though afraid to take up the bonus bill in real earnest. From the first the President has been frank in telling senators that as they pass the measure they must also make financial provision for meeting the terms. This is exactly what the senate appears not to desire to do.

BASED ON THE HARBOR

There are prospects for a half million Army and Navy Y. M. C. A. building at San Pedro. According to Admiral Eberle, commanding the Pacific fleet, there is no other point on the Pacific coast so logically to be made the site of the huge recreation center proposed.

IMPORTANCE OF NEWS

Columns are written about a film actor who seems to have become involved in matrimonial complexities. Every move made by the authorities in connection with the affair is heralded as a matter of vital importance.

CONJUGAL RIGHTS

The recent ruling of a divorce judge has won him a place in hot water, which must be an uncomfortable sort of element. He ruled that a man had a right to stay out nights and decline to tell his wife the reason, or where he had been.

wives, whose husbands presumably had been guilty of sporadic desertions from the family circle. Perhaps the judge was right in denying the divorce, but he will have difficulty in climbing out of his hot water pool through any showing that the privilege of absenting himself and withholding explanation properly belongs to the male head of the house.

JOHNSON AND ISOLATION

"As soon as a man in public life opposes foreign alliances for this country he is accused of wanting to make the United States a foreign nation." Thus Senator Johnson is quoted by a string of papers he has seemed of late to be serving with assiduity. Doubtless he said something of the sort, even though the papers so declaring are recognized as extremely bad authority on any question of fact.

A PERFECT WITNESS

In the most celebrated criminal case in England for over a generation, where an English gentleman, an attorney named Armstrong, was sentenced to death for poisoning his wife, the presiding judge, Mr. Justice Darling, went out of his way to do an unusual thing. He complimented Dr. Spilbury, a pathologist who gave testimony, upon "the extreme care and freedom from bias of his evidence."

THE LISTENING POST

The virtue of a monument lies not in its stone or bronze. Not in its graceful lines and its pleasing design. Not in any thing of material value or cost. Its virtue lies in its power to inspire. To recall some deed of sacrifice or splendor or heroism. To uplift the souls of us. To lead us again to dedicate ourselves to honor and duty.

SONGS OF THE POETS

Old Gardens—Arthur Upson (1877-1903)
The white rose tree that spent its musk For lovers' sweeter praise, The stately walks we sought at dusk, Have missed thee many days.

OBSERVED AT A GLANCE

By HENRY JAMES
Mayor Hylan of New York had no difficulty in bursting his gubernatorial boom. A certain area of California appears to have shifted to Arizona. Possibly it seeks a change of climate.

EASTERN POINT OF VIEW

AN IMPRESSIONISTIC HISTORIAN
[Boston Transcript]
One hundred college professors have been questioned regarding the merits of H. G. Wells as a historian, apropos of his "Outlines of History," and the consensus of their opinion seems to be to the effect that Mr. Wells is not a historian at all.

BETWEEN OURSELVES

By DELLA STEWART
Europe sends many visitors to our shores. Particularly noticeable this year have been the sojourners of two of its noted women. One, a super-flapper—brilliant, quick of wit and tongue, talented in many ways, with the richest of personal experiences to share with curious Americans.

TOO NEAR CAMPAIGN TIME

[Kansas City Star]
There is no chance for the present, the Washington correspondent of the Star says, to get measures considered in congress on their merits. It is too near campaign time. Everything now is considered from the aspect of politics, which is wholly different from the real aspect.

COMMENT ON DAY'S NEWS

By HENRY JAMES

There seems to have been in the rumor that Lloyd George was to resign nothing more than a glimmer of hope that he was in mood to do so, or that he might be asked to quit. Upon his appearance in congress to tell of the Genoa conference, he received a vote of confidence. It was not formally stated as being such a vote, but it upheld his course at the conference by a large majority.

HENRY JAMES

A newspaper writer says that Italians never sentence human beings to death, but that they give murderers a monopoly of killing. They do not stoop to murder, he declares, such conduct on their part setting a good example. This sounds very well, but it does not reveal the facts.

In meeting the President, the new German ambassador seems to have conducted himself with dignity and a nice appreciation of probable embarrassments. President Harding met him in a similar spirit. Now it is fair to regard the war as over. Missouri boys unearthed a deposit of snakes and killed 217. They were blue racers and blacksnares, not one of which had done a thing to deserve capital punishment.

WATCHING THE PARADE

By JOHN PILGRIM

My pastor says that, by and large, he believes the Bible. He reads some of it in the light of modern science, of course. But he believes most of it. All of it, he says, is headed in the right direction. Some of the things we disbelieve in are not in the Bible at all. They were put in by the early translators. So my pastor says.

DO YOU KNOW THAT?

Probably as much as $0 to $0 per cent of the soapstone quarried in the United States is waste, the bureau of mines declares as the result of a study of the production and utilization of this material. Ordinary tin cans are made of tin-plated steel. Usual practice demands open-hearth base for cans, but Bessemer steel is used for the bodies of the cans.

REV. McQUILKIN AT PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Preaches on Text, "Master Is Come and Calls for Thee"

Rev. Robert C. McQuilkin of Philadelphia, preached Sunday morning at the Presbyterian church...

The Master is here this morning! It would transform his service if we realized this. The great need is sense of reality.

Now look at the disciples, see how changed they were after Christ's resurrection. That rejoicing is something the unsaved one doesn't know anything about.

The disciples counted all they had as belonging to the Lord. We give ourselves, including all we may have. That He will give back 10,000 per cent.

It was easy as could be—when he had that precious feather out of Bobby Robin's tail to help him. The feather hadn't anything to do with it. Of course it had. It kept him from diving. You see, when a squirrel sails through the air he keeps his head down to see what branch he can catch and keeps his little paws out ready to grab it. It's really a dive. OLD TIME SPIRIT IN NAZARENE TENT The revival meetings at the Nazarene tent, Glendale avenue, near Broadway, are increasing in interest and the old-time revival is present. The speakers of the past week brought stirring messages and souls found their way to the altar of prayer, seeking God for pardon and purity. The prevailing feeling was the gratitude for the souls that have been saved and healed in their bodies and have found redemption through the blood of Jesus. Conviction is getting deeper and they are expecting greater results in the future.

EXPERTS tell us that it will be a long time before the price of labor, building material and lumber will drop to any appreciable extent. All agree that now is the time to build. Rents continue as high as ever, and although there will be some drop in rents it will be many years, if at all, before rents will come down to where they were before the war. Contractors and Builders, Supply Men and other lines on this page will be able to take care of your every need in the building line. See them before you build. $10,000 PLEDGED AT CASA VERDUGO FOR CHURCH

Extension Program Closes With Great Enthusiasm and Generosity

Sunday was an historic day at the Casa Verdugo Methodist church, for it was the day on which the extension program closed and a day on which subscriptions to the church fund reached a total of more than $10,000.

While the new church has been in use for a good many months, in conformity to the Methodist custom, dedication has been deferred until the money to pay for it had all been subscribed. Now it is in a position to go forward and complete its edifice according to the original plans.

It was a full day of special services. At 11 a. m. Dr. James Geisinger preached on "Joy and Enthusiasm in Remaking the World." The musical program included an anthem by the choir, "The King of Love" (Shelley), with Mr. Blaikie directing; vocal solo, "The Voice in the Wilderness" (Scott), sung by Mrs. R. D. Jones; "The Ninety and Nine" (Vampion), sung by Mrs. Blaikie.

An open-air mass meeting featured the afternoon at which James W. Foley gave a suitable and characteristic address which was followed by an address by Dr. Geisinger. At this service the choir sang "Break Forth With Joy" (Simper); J. V. Clark sang a solo, "The Lord Is My Light" (Allison), and Mrs. Charles A. Parker sang "Thou Will Keep Him in Perfect Peace" (Patten).

At the dedication service which was held at 4:30 p. m., Dr. W. L. Y. Davis, district superintendent, was assisted by Drs. Soper, Thayer and Norton. More music embellished this important service, the choir singing "Ye That Stand in the House of the Lord" (Spinney), Mrs. Waldo staging a solo, "O for a Closer Walk With God" (Foster), and Harry Robinson, soloist of the First Methodist church of Los Angeles, singing a solo.

La Crescenta

LA CRESCENTA, May 26.—A suspended sentence of 30 days was given W. L. Smith for burning brush without a permit on his acreage on Los Angeles avenue just north of Michigan avenue recently. The law requiring permits to burn brush or rubbish went into effect May 1. Permits can be obtained from C. J. Young and Charles Waste, fire warden of this district.

Wm. H. Leete of South Pasadena purchased a lot in the Cloud tract on Los Angeles avenue and will improve same with a home. Mr. Leete is one of the directors of the Southern Pacific Ry. and has long wanted to own a home in the La Crescenta valley.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Giles of New York were guests of Mrs. Charles Bowden of West Mayfield avenue during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Brown and little Mary Lee Brown of Glendale are week-end guests of their parents.

At the dedication service which was held at 4:30 p. m., Dr. W. L. Y. Davis, district superintendent, was assisted by Drs. Soper, Thayer and Norton. CHRISTIAN CIRCLE HAS BIRTHDAY

The Christian Circle club of Glendale celebrated its first birthday on Sunday afternoon by a splendid program given at the First Baptist church. There was special music by Mrs. H. McMullin of the Central Avenue Methodist church, accompanied by Mrs. Tuttle at the piano.

A letter of greeting was read from John E. Brown, evangelist. This was followed by a splendid address by Mrs. Neth, founder of the club. She started this work among the girls just a year ago. The club presented her with a beautiful bouquet of lavender and pink sweet peas, which are club flower and colors.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Brown of Los Angeles avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. F. K. Czerwinski and family were guests of friends in Torrance during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Baldridge are enjoying a motor trip through the northern part of the state. They will visit Oregon and Washington before their return and will be away about six weeks.

T. S. Winford left Thursday for New York City. He was called east on account of the serious illness of his mother.

Lawrence A. Potter Jr., who is the distributor of the Los Angeles Express and The Glendale Press, reports that his route that had 26 subscribers a few months ago has grown to 80 which is just another illustration of the rapid growth of the La Crescenta valley.

THOUGHT VALUES OF STILLNESS

Rev. Harley G. Preston Tells of Lost Art of Meditation

The greatest need of modern times is stillness, and time to meditate, was the thought of the Rev. Harley G. Preston, pastor of the Pacific avenue Methodist church, Sunday. He said in part: "One of the greatest needs of modern times, perhaps the greatest need, is to be called back to the fact that there is a kind of knowledge which can never be had except in stillness."

"This is the knowledge of God and the knowledge of self. God speaks to the human soul in the small still voice, and that voice cannot be heard in a crowd. 'Be still and know that I am God.' Commune with your own heart upon your bed and be still. 'He leadeth me beside the still waters.' 'Stand still and see the salvation of God,' etc.

"It would seem that meditation is almost as important as prayer. In fact, they are very closely related. And yet how little meditation there is today.

"And how little we know about stillness today. The realm of silence, why—it is a foreign word to most of us. When you begin to speak of stillness some people are actually afraid. A young lady who had been visiting the lake district of Scotland said to me not long ago, 'It was so still up there I became afraid.' She could hear her heart beat and she ran away."

"In countries where people are temperamentally calm and reflective it might not be necessary to insist on stillness as a condition of knowledge; but in a country like ours, where the commercial spirit is rampant and it is all push and rush and roar, it is well-nigh impossible to get any appreciation for the calm and unruffled and retired spaces of life."

"What a noisy, turbulent, restless people we Americans are! We get to going at such speed its about all we can do to hold still and quiet for a brief half hour in a public service. Isn't this so? In the American Legion hall we stand for 10 seconds in silence facing the West in memory of our departed comrades. Ten seconds seems quite a long time. One thing I like about the Quakers is that they don't get easily flustered and they live longer for it. It would do us all good to turn Quakers for a little while at least. We talk so much and so fast that we don't give God a chance on the line at all. Sometime when the wireless phone is perfected to such an extent that most anyone can use it at any time, there will be lots of noises in the air, won't there? I wonder if the Lord was to want to put in a word if He could find a single minute of silence in which to do it?"

"Over in Europe they speak of Americanitis. Americanitis is nervousness and its parents are hurry and worry. Ours is an age of rapid transit. Indeed, a writer in one of the magazines recently charged us with being drunk with rapid transit. Our fathers considered it a wonderful thing when they traveled 20 miles an hour. But now we fly 60 and 70 and they talk of making it a hundred."

"Everything is rushed today. At least that is the tendency. Boys are rushed through school, girls are rushed into society. Chickens are hatched by electricity. "Even death seems to be in a hurry, and instead of the lingering diseases of our fathers we are succumbing to apoplexy and heart failure. The motto of the hour is 'Work while it is day,' and it seems to be always day.

"Nineteen hundred years ago the world's greatest teacher said to His little circle of followers: 'Come apart into a place of solitude, away from the crowd and the noise, and let us rest awhile.' This is the need of the hour today, is it not?"

"And does not this restless activity of our day account in large measure for the shallowness which is so characteristic of the age? Hurry mars the excellence of our work. We are impatient. We do not take time to perfect our plans. We need solitude today if for no other reason, as an intellectual stimulus."

"You have heard of the conversation the poet Southey once had with an old Quaker lady. The poet was telling her with pride how fully his time was occupied. He went on to say how he studied Portuguese while he was shaving, how he translated Spanish an hour before breakfast, how he read all forenoon and wrote all afternoon, in short how every moment of the day was filled with something. The old lady listened until he had concluded, and then said: 'Friend, when does thee do thy thinking?'"

It was late in the evening. Suddenly the doorbell rang and the doctor, whose ear was well trained, awoke. Someone needed his services, he concluded, as he walked softly down the stairs and opened the door.

"Miss Caroline Tompkins?" said the late caller. Miss Tompkins was the doctor's cook. "She has retired," said the doctor. "This is for her," said the man, handing the doctor a package from which peeped flowers and buds and leaves. The man departed and the doctor closed the door.

And, a word to the wise—better buy some of their wonderful French pastry for dessert if you'd have a real treat for the family! Yum! it makes me hungry just to think of them!

WHILE WE'RE HERE, let's stop at the VIRGINIA BAKE SHOP, 634 East Broadway (in the East Broadway Public Market) for the Billadeau Brothers are masters in the art of baking! Have you ever tasted one of their delicious home-baked pies? Well, then you have indeed missed a rare treat, for they are pies such as mother'd like to bake! And, too, when buying from the Virginia Bake Shop, think of the time and effort you save, for the prices on their pies are really less than you can afford to bake at home!
