1. With reference to subject memorandum, the following is published for the information of all concerned.

2. SCAPIN 1673 was issued upon resumption of International Postal Service by the Ryukyus, and before Japan formally adhered to the Universal Postal Union and Agreements. The Japanese Government was directed to accept and transship any mail received at ports in Japan, addressed to the Ryukyus.

3. Since that time, Japan has been restored to full membership in the UPU and all matters covered by SCAPIN 1673 are now binding upon Japan under UPU Convention Agreements. The SCAPIN is, therefore, no longer necessary.
