LIKES NEW HOME

W. J. Stone and daughter, Imogen, of Paso Robles, arrived Saturday to join Mrs. Stone, who came a few days before. They will all remain here with friends in Glendale, their former home for a few years, until the last of the week. Last summer Mr. Stone joined two of his relatives living in Kankakee, Ill., in the purchase of 500 acres of land near Paso Robles, for fruit and almond culture. Mr. Stone is in full charge of the acreage, his two partners still living in Illinois. Owing to the great scarcity of young trees he has succeeded so far in setting only 55 acres of the land in almond and fruit trees, but he has 130 acres of as fine wheat, he says, as he ever saw. The price of land has advanced 250 per cent since the purchase was made last summer, hence the partners have decided to subdivide and sell off the greater part of the acreage. Mr. Stone plans to retain about 80 acres for a home place. (Continued on Page 4)

LARGELY ATTENDED LUNCHEON IS FOLLOWED BY BRIEF PROGRAM

The monthly all-day meeting of N. P. Banks Post and Corps which took place at G. A. R. Hall Friday was uneventful but most enjoyable. At the luncheon covers were laid for nearly one hundred.

The session which followed the luncheon was called to order by Mrs. Milligan, who introduced Comrade A. W. Scudder as the first speaker. He gave a fine talk on the army life of General John A. Logan, and presented the Post and Corps with a framed portrait of General Logan.

Comrade Tom Hall of Stanton Post, Los Angeles, also made a fine talk on patriotism, declaring that the Grand Army of the Republic is 100 per cent patriotic.

Comrade J. C. Mordough of Hollywood told of finding himself in Mexico, following the war, associated with a group of comrades who wished to organize a post. It was, of course, necessary to secure permission from President Diaz. This was obtained, a monument to dead comrades was erected and a memorial day arranged for, President Diaz sending his regimental band of 100 pieces to take part in the exercises. The program was short because the post wished to attend the funeral services of their comrade, William G. Watson.

VISIT MOUNT LOWE

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Beamon and family took Saturday off and went to Ye Alpine Tavern by trolley to enjoy good old-fashioned winter sports in the snow. It was the first time Mrs. Beamon had seen "the beautiful" in sixteen years except from a distance. They left Los Angeles at eight a. m. and did not return until the 7:15 p. m. car. After lunch they climbed to the summit and found deep snow with which they made a snow man taller than they were, taking pictures of it and of the landscape in general which was very beautiful, an expanse of snowy mountain peaks. Mrs. Beamon says she never saw such crowds at the Tavern, and it was difficult to secure seats in the dining room either at luncheon or dinner. The children had a royal time.

FROLIC IN SNOW

MR. AND MRS. TEMPLE AND FAMILY VISIT CAMP BALDY THROUGED WITH GUESTS

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Temple and children of 145 North Orange St. motored to Camp Baldy with a party of friends from Long Beach and had a frolic in the snow. Above the camp on the mountain sides and in the hollows it was quite deep. The scene was very beautiful with the branches of the trees snow-laden and the landscape covered with a white mantle, yet the air was balmy. So many journeyed to Camp Baldy that the roadway both going and coming was fairly black with autos, Mrs. Temple reports, and so great was the congestion of machines at the camp it was difficult to move about. All accommodations were exhausted Saturday night by visitors who came for the week-end.

SIMPSON-HANCOCK

Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock George Simpson of Albuquerque, N. M., was united in marriage with Miss Mabel E. Hancock of St. Albans, Vermont, at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. W. A. George, of 400 West Stocker Street, Dr. Clyde Monroe Crist of the First M. E. church officiating. Only Mr. and Mrs. George and Geo. M. Hancock, a brother of the bride, witnessed the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Simpson left that evening for a tour of the beach cities, from San Diego to San Francisco. They will then go to their home in Albuquerque, where Mr. Simpson is in the employ of the Santa Fe Ry. Co.

This wedding is the culmination of a romance which began in St. Albans, Vermont, where both bride and groom were living at that time. They were schoolmates and child sweethearts. When Miss Hancock came out to visit her sister in Glendale last October the early acquaintance was renewed by correspondence and Mr. Simpson came to see his prospective bride on Thanksgiving Day.

SCHOOL CHUMS DANCE

MR. AND MRS. RALPH MEEKER ENTERTAIN FOR THEIR SON WARREN

A very pretty social affair was enjoyed by young people of Glendale, Hollywood and Los Angeles when Mr. and Mrs. Ralph W. Meeker of 1320 East Colorado Street entertained with a dancing party for their son, Warren Meeker. Red roses were used in decoration of the living rooms and music for the dancing was furnished by home talent, Gerald Parker and Kenneth Whaley relieving each other at the piano, while saxophones were played by Gerald Toll and Edward Bowen, the drummer of the orchestra being Edward Bowen. The young people danced until the early hours and quite a supper was served by the hostess at the close of the program. The guest list included: Misses Marcella Miller of Glendale, Charlotte Johnson, Grace Neale, L. Burmister and Bonnie Mayle of Los Angeles, Jane Snyder, Esther Ralston, Dorothy Baird, Louise Gonzales, Evelyn Williams of Hollywood, Harriet Barnes, L. Rogers, of Los Angeles, Gertrude Hawkins, Mildred Meeker, Emily Hills and Martha Ray; Messrs. Gerald Toll, Gerald Parker, Kenneth Whaley, B. Dennison, Edward Bowen, Donald McLeod, Charles Johnson, of Los Angeles; Messrs. Chapman and Garrison of Los Angeles, Claud Fishman of Hollywood, Teddy Fithian of Hollywood, Paul Smith, Clarence Ralston, Sloan Freeman, Guy Wadsworth, Kenneth Whaley, Russell Tummel, Edward Hennis of Los Angeles, Roger Dennison, Edward Bowen, Zenas Smith, Warren Meeker, Mrs. Herman West.

PROGRAM COMMITTEE ENTERTAINED

The program committee of the Tuesday Afternoon Club was entertained Saturday by Mrs. W. E. Evans, its chairman, with a luncheon at the Mary Louise tea room in Los Angeles followed by a conference on the program for the two remaining months of the club year, May and June, the bulletin for which must soon be placed in the hands of the printers. In her invitations Mrs. Evans requested the ladies to attend an inquest upon the remains of the program fund, and the ladies had considerable amusement as well as serious business in planning the numbers which promise to be of considerable interest to club members. The ladies in the party were: Mrs. Mabel Franklin Ocker, Mrs. Charles H. Toll, Mrs. L. N. Hagood and Mrs. Evans.

THREE BICYCLES STOLEN

Three thefts of bicycles have been reported to the police in the past two days, one by Martin Noys of 408 North Kenwood, whose new Pierce was taken from the rear of Roberts and Echols' drug store; one, also new, by A. S. Chase of 400 Riverdale Drive, which was taken from in front of the Acme store; and old one by Ludwig Gossman, Jr., of 697 Sycamore Canyon Road, taken from in front of the High School building.

DEATH AND DESTRUCTION BY TORNAOES

TWO DISTINCT STORM AREAS, ONE IN GEORGIA AND ALABAMA, THE OTHER IN MIDDLE WEST

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

ATLANTA, Ga., March 29.—Between fifty and seventy persons were killed, hundreds injured, thousands made homeless, and millions of dollars' worth of property destroyed by the series of tornadoes which swept over portions of Georgia and Alabama yesterday and last night, according to reports received here today. At La Grange, Ga., more than forty persons were killed and scores injured. Three hundred are homeless.

GENEVA, Ind., March 29.—Six persons are dead here today and others fatally injured as a result of the tornado which swept Geneva and surrounding territory last night. Scores were wounded and buildings in the business district were laid flat as if a gigantic steam roller had passed over them.

Undated Dispatch.—The tornadoes which swept eight states on Sunday claimed a toll of approximately 125 lives, destroyed millions of dollars' worth of property and left hundreds of families homeless. Reports received here today showed there were two distinct storm areas, one in Georgia and Alabama and the other in the middle west. Fire followed in the wake of the storm in some cities, adding to the suffering. Food, hospital supplies, physicians, nurses and clothing were rushed to the stricken areas. The debris was combed in the hunt for the missing.

The western storm appeared first near St. Louis, where one person was killed. It swept northward into Wisconsin and finally spent itself in Lake Michigan.

CHICAGO, March 29.—Sixty-two lives were lost in the storm which tore through Chicago and surrounding territory Sunday. Revised figures at noon today were: Chicago and vicinity, 31; Indiana, 24; Michigan, 5; Missouri, 1; Wisconsin, 1. It was believed the death list would be increased as wire communication was restored with small outlying towns.

The property loss in Illinois alone will run into millions. At Elgin great destruction was wrought in the three minutes it took the tornado to pour through the main part of the town. The property loss was estimated at $1,500,000. The wreckage of homes, business blocks and other property in Chicago suburbs ran the loss into high figures.

In addition there were the losses of farmers whose improvements were gathered up by the storm and demolished.

In practically every locality touched by the storm Red Cross centers and National Guards were established. The guardsmen kept an eye on possible looters lured to the wreckage by rich booty left in the debris of department stores and residences. Rehabilitation was begun at once.

A feature of the storm that greatly interested meteorologists was the fact that apparently tornadoes were developed at different points by the storm which moved down from the northwest dipping its disastrous funnels at two or three points in Illinois, another in Michigan and still another in Indiana. At the same time destructive phenomena were observed in Oklahoma and Missouri. In Oklahoma the damage was confined to property.

The western skirts of the city of Chicago presented a picture of a war torn country. Crumpled masonry, hanging wires, twisted girders comprised the human ant hill over which thousands of persons swarmed today. The clearing away of the wreckage began today but the principal object of search was for victims claimed by the storm. Instances of miraculous escapes were numerous, and of freak movement of the storm which passed over the insane asylum at Dunning and leaped in full ferocity on Wilmette, one of the rich and fashionable lake shore suburbs of Chicago. At Dunning the insane patients scurried about the corridors in terror and were with difficulty controlled. The asylum was not touched by the wind and offered a refuge to the first hundreds wounded and to homeless refugees.

PROMINENT SINN FEIN MURDERED

DUBLIN, March 29.—Thomas Dwyer, prominent Sinn Fein leader, was called from his home at Thurles early today by an armed party and shot to death.

NO QUARTER IN GERMANY

COUNCIL OF AMBASSADORS REFUSES TO ALLOW HER TO RETAIN GUNBOATS OR AUXILIARY CRUISERS

PARIS, March 29.—The Council of Ambassadors today refused Germany's request that she be allowed to retain her gunboats and auxiliary cruisers. The council insisted on the immediate delivery of these vessels to the allies.

PRESIDENT'S TURKISH NOTE

HANDED TO FRENCH FOREIGN OFFICE BY HUGH WALLACE, AMERICAN AMBASSADOR

PARIS, March 29.—Hugh Wallace, American Ambassador, has handed to the French Foreign Office President Wilson's new note on the Turkish situation.

PLEASANT SURPRISE

OFFICERS OF GLEN EYRIE CHAPTER CALL UPON MISS FRANC KINCH

Miss Franc Kinch, who is to leave the first of the month for the north with her father and whose approaching marriage to Dr. William Gresham of Spokane has recently been announced, was pleasantly surprised Saturday evening by officers of Glen Eyrie Chapter of the Eastern Star. They assembled at the home of Mrs. J. E. Phillips and presented themselves as a party at the home of Miss Kinch, where they were made most welcome and spent an exceedingly pleasant social evening, Miss Kinch entertaining with piano numbers and Little Lois Naudain executing some charming fancy dances for which her mother played the accompaniment, Miss Schrader sang and some guessing games were played. One object of the little farewell visit was to present to Miss Kinch a set of handsome Madeira napkins as a remembrance from the chapter and substantial expression of its regard. Miss Kinch will be greatly missed in the organization and its members are hoping she will be able to persuade Dr. Gresham to transfer his residence to Southern California. The gift was much appreciated by its recipient, as she is greatly interested in the chapter to which she recently made a gift, and which she has served as Esther.

At the close of the evening refreshments which the guests had provided were served, those present being: Mrs. Sallie Braden, Worthy Matron; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Vesper, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Naudain, Mr. and Mrs. Carvel, Mrs. Fannie Parke, Mrs. Mabel Rudy, Miss May Cornwell, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur, Mr. and Mrs. Rattray, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Booth, Miss Kinch, S. C. Kinch and their house guests, Mr. and Mrs. Schrader, Mrs. Young and Miss Smith.

PINK AND WHITE PARTY

MISS MILDRED THORNTON AND MAHEL PULLIAM ENTERTAIN AT CARDS

Misses Mildred Thornton and Miss Myrtle Pulliam were hostesses at a charming card party last Friday evening at the home of Col. Tom Thornton, 301 North Brand boulevard. The color scheme was pink and white and the rooms were beautifully decorated with carnations, roses and freesias. Progressive five hundred was played and, curiously enough, John Allen Legge won the gentlemen's first prize and Mrs. Legge that for the ladies, while Owen Emery and his sister, Miss Waunita, won the booby prizes. Col. Thornton said the only discordant note of the evening was when he was basely ruled out of playing on the accusation that he was a "ringer," a professional trying to butt in on a game played by amateurs.

Refreshments of fruit punch, fruit salad, cake, coffee and candies were served during the evening.

Those present in addition to the young hostess and Col. Thornton and wife were Misses Alice Gray Beach, Gladys Justema, Waunita Emery, John Allen Legge and wife, Owen Emery, E. W. Richardson, R. M. Grumbling, Dwight Stephenson and Harold McElroy of Glendale, Misses Doris Willis, Anna Hughes, Margaret Thornton and Margaret Schurmer, Messrs. Randolph George and Harold Moore of Los Angeles.

BIRTHDAY CELEBRATION

Mrs. W. C. Wattles had the pleasure of being entertained in celebration of her birthday last Thursday with a luncheon and theatre party given by Mrs. Ernest Morgan of South Central avenue and Mrs. Joseph Webster of Park avenue. The group of friends included besides the ladies named Mrs. Hal Davenport, Mrs. Charles Barker, Mrs. Charles M. Turck, Mrs. John Hobbs, Mrs. Andrew Stephenson, Mrs. J. Herbert Smith. The ladies lunched at the chocolate shop and then went to the Mosco to see "Polly with a Past."

APRIL 3 LAST DAY TO REGISTER

Saturday, April 3, is the last day citizens wishing to vote in the primary elections can register. Spencer Robinson's office, 104 South Glendale avenue, the Glendale Book Store are registration offices and Mrs. Opal Greenwalt of 403 Oak Street, also has registration in charge.

AUTO CRASH

KISSEL DRIVEN BY G. C. SLATE SMASHES INTO G. E. WRIGHT'S SAXON

G. E. Wright, a piano tuner from Los Angeles, was driving west on Milford Saturday noon and when almost across Central avenue his machine was struck by one driven by G. C. Slate of 1151 North Columbus avenue, going north. The left hind wheel of Mr. Wright's car was smashed, every spoke being broken out, the left fender crumpled up and the brake mechanism ruined. Mr. Slate's car had the left front fender and headlight smashed and the frame badly wrenched. It was turned entirely around by the shock but not overturned. The other machine was pushed to one side and slewed around until it, too, stood facing the south.

Mr. Slate is a carpenter and came to Glendale a few weeks ago, attracted by the climate. He bought H. A. Michel's place at 1151 North Columbus avenue.

RECRUITS TO MOVIEDOM

Mr. and Mrs. J. Landers Stevens have just arrived from the North for film work. Mr. Stevens, who is a well-known leading man in the spoken drama on the San Francisco stage, has forsaken the "legitimate" to get experience in the movies. He will join the Metro Company and be associated with Bert Lyttell in his next big picture, which is as yet unnamed. It will be his initial appearance in the movies. He and Mrs. Stevens have settled in Glendale and are now living at 604 N. Louise Street. Mrs. Stevens is also an actress.

AUTO STOLEN AND RECOVERED

Melvin Miller, who recently drove from Denver, Colo., with his wife in his Buick roadster and is now living at 212 West Lomita Avenue, missed his machine Sunday morning from the garage where he was keeping it at 219 West Chestnut. Meantime Robert Priault of 128 W. Park Avenue had reported a deserted machine that had been standing in the center of the street in front of his house all night. Mr. Miller heard of it, went down there and discovered that it was his. It is supposed it was taken by joy riders and abandoned where it stopped when the gasoline failed. The guilty parties had evidently had a collision somewhere, as the front fenders and radiator were considerably bent and the engine was missing on several of the cylinders.

HONORING GUEST FROM VIRGINIA

Mrs. J. A. Crawford of 201 South Central avenue entertained at luncheon Friday in honor of Miss Louise Forsythe from Virginia, who, after living for some time in Boston came to Southern California to spend the winter. Other guests were Mrs. Joseph Rosenfeld and Mrs. Seeley Moe. A charming blue and gold color scheme was carried out with marigolds and irises in the floral decoration of the luncheon table and in other appointments.

GUESTS HONORED

MR. AND MRS. PAUL C. MASON ENTERTAIN FOR EASTERN RELATIVES AND FRIENDS

Mr. and Mrs. Paul C. Mason of 625 North Maryland Avenue entertained delightfully Saturday night in honor of relatives of Mr. Mason and of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Paul who have been spending the winter in Glendale as guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Smith of East Broadway and will soon leave for their home in High Point, North Carolina. It was quite an informal social evening, fine piano numbers being given by Professor Andrews and several guessing games entertaining the company. Partners in these games were secured by distributing divided conundrums which guests had to match up. Delicious refreshments of home-made cake and ice cream were served by the hostess at the close of the evening, her guest list including Mr. and Mrs. I. A. Ford, Mr. and Mrs. Andrews, Mr. and Mrs. Maranville, Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Long of Akron, Ohio, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Paul, Mr. and Mrs. George Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Shultz, recently from Colorado, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Burnham, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Hall and Mrs. L. L. Mason of San Fernando, Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Emerson, Eldon Ford, Miss Morris, Dr. and Mrs. T. F. Kellogg.

HOW WILL WOMEN VOTE?

It is estimated that seventeen million women will participate in the 1920 elections. What will be the influence of this new body of voters? The vigor with which women leaders have pushed the cause of suffrage gives promise of an equal vigor in pursuing political activities.

The greatest weakness in the working of our political system is the apathy of voters. The average American man is busy with his own affairs. Only when politics directs his affairs is he likely to take an active interest. Yet the majority in this country can have about anything they want when they want it, if they will interest themselves more actively and consistently in public affairs.

There is reason to hope that women will not allow themselves to fall into this apathy. They have carried on a long campaign for the ballot and they should appreciate the meaning and power of what they have with such difficulty won.

The country has the right to expect from them a new vitality of interest and constructiveness. Will they disappoint this hope?—Exchange.

THE RAILROADS

The master minds who represent the millions of common citizens—holders of railroad stocks and bonds—are once more in control of the nation's transportation. The government has relinquished its stewardship over railroads and express companies.

Millions have been lost—millions of hard-earned American dollars coming from millions of pockets. Many years of careful reorganization, reconstruction, replacement and improvements will be required to put the great arteries of travel once more into normal operating condition.

Americans should be tolerant, even sympathetic. The gathering together of shattered executive machinery; the re-establishment of the necessary esprit de corps, that cohesive force which goes to maintain discipline and interest in an organization—all these are phases of the problems requiring consummate judgment. They cannot be accomplished in a day.

But already the public sees faster train schedules and a new spirit of service manifested.—The Manufacturer.

BERGER STILL BERGERING

Every few weeks somebody calls attention again to the fact that Victor Berger, convicted on January 23, 1919, of violating the espionage act, is still at large. Renewed comment on the case is inspired at this time by the fact that last week it came up once more in the federal court at Chicago, and the defendant was granted an indefinite continuance with the consent of the prosecution—which is to say, with the consent of the government.

Berger, while a member of Congress, was adjudged guilty of a grave crime against his country, and sentenced to serve 20 years in prison. He had opposed every important step taken by the United States for the successful prosecution of the war, and in particular, he had used his influence to obstruct the army draft. There appears to be no question of his guilt. Congress, after long delay, investigated his record thoroughly and dispassionately, and pronounced him guilty by an almost unanimous vote. He himself has admitted his offenses, and aggravated them by glorying in them and taking every opportunity to repeat his un-American utterances.

Most intolerable of all is the fact that this man who, by all the rules of law, logic and common sense, ought to be shut up where he can do no further harm to his country, is still permitted to go about with untrammelled voice and pen, spreading the same old poison, interfering with Americanization work, strengthening his own alien-sympathetic constituency in its disloyalty and arousing widespread contempt for law and patriotism.—Long Beach Telegram.

THE SPIRIT OF MEMORIALS
As the spring blossoms into summer, we feel, some of us, the absence of those dear ones who have passed to "the beyond." We miss their kindnesses, their caresses. Ought we not to give actual expression to the loving remembrance in which they are held? We cannot honor our loved ones more, nor perpetuate their memory more effectively than by erecting a monument or marker properly carved, as a lasting tribute to our affection for them.

Easter markers can be had by placing your order at once with Glendale Monument Works, H. J. Reinhard, Proprietor, 1411 S. San Fernando Boulevard, near Forest Lawn. Phone Glendale 1246 or residence, 742-W.

STONED TO DEATH

At the First Methodist Church yesterday Dr. Crist spoke to large audiences morning and evening. The evening theme proved especially attractive, "An Official Member Who Was Stoned to Death." The texts used were Acts 6:5, 8 and Acts 7:59.

Dr. Crist said in part: "Stephen was a model church member. He was full of faith and of the Holy Ghost." We are not surprised that he was chosen to occupy a place on the official board. As a Christian he left such a shining record that all down the ages he has been praised. His term on the board was short, but it was crowded full of service. Stephen was one of the few Bible characters concerning whom we have no regrets.

"A victorious life," said the preacher, "is always a miracle; no matter when it is lived in, Stephen's day or in this. Stephen had fellowship with God, he was full of the Holy Ghost." The characteristics which resulted from this fellowship with the Divine are the essentials of success in the church today.

"First, Stephen was enthusiastic. He may not have made much noise, but he did things and he did them enthusiastically. Religious enthusiasm not only helps the church to win but it challenges the admiration of the world. We have the biggest job and it calls for the greatest earnestness.

"Stephen was bold. He did not invent new phrases to cover up his meaning. Read the 7th chapter of the Acts and get the stir in your blood. They stoned the preacher, but they could not kill the sermon. "Stephen was a man of shining face" which suggests that he was not only holy but happy. Some folks seem to think that piety and happiness are incompatible. That is one of the devil's biggest lies!

"What a fine church usher would Stephen have been. What a splendid representative of the Official Board to stand near the church entrance and welcome the folks. Stephen's spirit of sacrifice counted for much also. The fact that he finally died for Jesus, brought the living Christ into many a dead life.

"May we catch the spirit of Stephen! What successes will be ours! And when we come to death, we like this saint of old shall 'see Jesus.'"

LIKES NEW HOME

(Continued from Page 1) which he will stock with almond, peach, apple, pear and plum trees. He says that in some of the small valleys on the portion he has planned to retain, the conditions are ideal for apple culture and the fruit he has sampled that was raised in such valleys has the true Eastern flavor.

Mr. Stone is very much in love with his new location, but says he misses the Glendale friends. They have had 13 inches of rain there this season, which he says is ample, as the soil retains moisture a long time. All the crops and fruit are in splendid condition, giving promise of banner yields.

The Stones formerly lived at 641 North Brand, but sold the home there before they moved. Mr. Stone was engaged here in poultry raising having a small chicken ranch on North Louise which he called "Ancona Land."

Wonderful Results at 70 From Internal Baths

"Within the last month have had wonderful results and all inflammation has nearly subsided. I could hardly expect a woman over 70 to receive benefit from a trouble of long standing as quickly as a younger person. Money could not buy my 'J. B. L. Cascade' if I could not get another."

It is difficult to believe how many internal troubles internal bathing will relieve until you realize that physicians agree that 95% of human ailments are caused by accumulated waste in the lower intestine.

The "J. B. L. Cascade," the scientific method of internal bathing, removes, in a perfectly natural way all poisonous waste, and has been so successful in promoting health that over half a million intelligent Americans are now using it regularly.

It is the invention of Chas. A. Tyrrell, M. D., of New York, who for 25 years was a specialist on Internal Bathing, and it is now being shown and explained by Roberts & Echols in Glendale.

They will give you on request a very interesting booklet on Internal Bathing by Dr. Tyrrell, "Why Man of To-day Is Only 50% Efficient."

Ask for it to-day and know more about yourself and your functions than you ever have before.

The Pacific Electric has always intended to build a double track at the east end of its Arroyo Seco bridge near the ostrich farm, for fear there might be a collision of its cars there sometime. Last week the long-expected collision came, and now the double track is to be built. That was all the P. E. was waiting for. It just wanted to be sure there was danger of a collision.

HORNELET'S NEST BIRTHDAY OF JUNE AND JIMMIE HORNE CELEBRATED WITH PARTY

The beautiful little playhouse of the twin son and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Horne of Valley View Road was dedicated with a children's party Sunday afternoon in celebration of the third birthday of the twins. The little guests ranged in age from three to twelve years and had a royal good time. The playhouse, which has been named "Hornelet's Nest," was discovered to be filled with toys of every description, including about forty dolls and, of course, the children had a fine time inspecting, and playing with these treasures. Each child did some stunt to entertain the company, little Evelyn Apfel reciting in a very charming way "Little Orphan Annie." There was also music during the afternoon and elaborate party refreshments were served, each child having a handsome little cake bearing two candles—pink and blue. The little guests were: June Horne, Doris Hollister, Evelyn Apfel, Janet West, Florrie Payne, Edith O'Donnell, Audrey Labelle, Patricia Peirce, Isabel Phister and Bettie Mae Dunlap, James Horne, Frank West, Charles Rudel, James Apfel, George Hollister, Leonidas Shannon, and Paul Simon.

RANSOM D. GOSS BURIED FORMER PASTOR OFFICIATES—OLD FRIEND PAYS TRIBUTE

The funeral of Ransom Dana Goss, who died last Friday, was held this forenoon at 10:30. Dr. Clyde Monroe Crist, present pastor of the First M. E. Church, and Rev. B. Dudley Snudden, a former pastor and loving friend of the deceased, officiated. The latter spoke in high terms of the splendid Christian character of Mr. Goss and his loyalty to the church of his choice. Appropriate hymns were sung. The floral tributes were many and beautiful. Interment was in Grand View cemetery, where G. A. R. comrades conducted the services in accordance with their ritual. The pall bearers, all comrades, were: T. M. Barrett, C. C. Gillette, W. C. Collins, Frank Campbell, W. B. Pratt and Robert Taylor.

The following tribute is from J. A. Vaill of Pasadena, who had known and loved Mr. Goss for nearly half a century:

It was my good fortune to have known Ransom Dana Goss intimately and well for nearly fifty years, and now that he has been laid to rest in your beautiful cemetery, nestling close to the granite mountains he loved so well, kindly permit me space to express my admiration of his life and character.

It was but a few years after the close of the Civil War that we began a warm and lasting friendship at New Sharon, Iowa, whither he came with his family from Plainview, Minn. Brave of heart and patriotic to the core, he had enlisted before arriving at manhood's years to defend the honor of his country, its institutions and its flag. Modest as he was, he was willing to forgive those who sought to destroy the Union, so soon as they were willing to ask forgiveness but he never abated an ounce of loyalty and devotion to his country, and it was fitting that his former comrades in arms this day conducted the funeral service at his grave. It has been written that "the bravest are the tenderest" and Mr. Goss proved its truth every day of his life. He was remarkably kind and affectionate in his home, true as steel to friends, loving everybody and everybody loved him. I never heard an unkind word fall from his lips. His sympathy was as broad as the world of humanity. His heart throbbled for other's woes and his hand and purse were ever open to relieve the necessities of friend or stranger. Early in life he enlisted in the cause of Christianity and ever followed closely in the footsteps of the Divine Master. A brave soldier, a consistent Christian his life was a clean model for all who knew him. I never knew a more self-sacrificing or stainless life. Other feet may have run swiftly in the scarlet paths of sin, his never did. Heroically he trod the highway of the Lord and his is the reward of the righteous. His life was especially beautiful in his devotion to his lovely wife who was especially fitted to be singularly helpful to one so good and true. Only two years ago they celebrated their golden wedding at their beautiful bungalow home in this city and it was an occasion of rejoicing with all who knew them. Well and truly it may be said his last days were his best days. He never aspired to worldly riches or honors. He toiled earnestly, lived honestly to support his family in comfort and lay up treasure in heaven. In this jeweled city of the plain he was permitted to pass his ripening years in a lovely home surrounded by wife and children and grand-children and sleep at last beneath a wealth of semi-tropic bloom.

He loved his wife, courted her society. Her presence was to him a sweet and tender benediction. Only a few days before his death they walked in the garden among their beautiful flowers and at a time when his mind was beginning to wander. Turning to her he said: "Dear one, we will soon be in glory land and we are going there together." From that hour, through days and nights of delirium, until death came as a sweet release, they were traveling arm in arm from the lowlands of earth to the evergreen gardens of God.

Now that life's silvery cord is loosened and a weeping, loving, faithful wife must walk alone through the valley and shadow of the golden bond of life's sweet love is not broken, neither will her pitcher be empty at the fountain. May God's richest blessing be with the living and the dead.

GREIG PROGRAM WORKS OF GREAT NORSE COMPOSER INTERPRETED AT MUSIC SECTION MEETING

Members of the Music Section of the Tuesday Afternoon Club and their guests were entertained Friday afternoon by Mrs. Roy Masters at her home, 126 Burchett Street. After a short business session, conducted by Mrs. Charles Parker, curator of the section, a delightful program was presented, the composer, Greig, being the theme. Mrs. Calvin Whiting gave a short account of his life and then read the story of Ibsen's "Pere Gynt," and did it most beautifully. Mrs. Hagood played "In the Hall of the March King," "Ase's Death," "Anita's Dance," "Solvejg's Song," and the "Mourning Song," all from the Pere Gynt suite by Greig. Mrs. Frank Arnold sang "The Old Mother" and "The First Primrose," also by Greig.

Mrs. Danby of Hollywood, who was a guest, gave two Italian dialect "Gieseppe, the Barber." In response to encore she read "His Sister."

Refreshments of tea and cake were served by the hostess, assisted by Mesdames George Herald and Harry Greenwalt.

Members of the X. V. I. Club were entertained very pleasantly Saturday afternoon by Miss Carrie Cornwell at her home on North Kenwood Street. An Easter motif dominated the decorations and refreshments. Nearly all the members were present and their social afternoon together was a great success.

Mrs. W. D. McRae of 634 North Kenwood is at home after a minor operation at the French Hospital in Los Angeles on March 20. She is getting along very nicely but will be compelled to remain in bed another week, her mother, Mrs. Laura Bates, reports.

THRILLING TRIP MRS. B. F. COOK SUCCESSFULLY NEGOTIATES ROADS IN SAN DIEGO MOUNTAINS

Mrs. B. F. Cook of 334 West Harvard Street piloted a party of ladies by automobile to the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Minter in the mountains beyond San Diego where Mr. Minter is engaged in work on the Barrett Dam. On account of the snow in the mountains and rainstorms which have washed out the roads, it was quite a thrilling experience, but they came through without a single mishap and are well pleased with the performance of their car, the guests being enthusiastic in praise of the skill of their driver. In the party with Mrs. Cook were Mrs. C. A. Redmond, Mrs. William Dutton and Mrs. Ella Light. They left Wednesday morning and got back Sunday night. In spite of the hazards of the journey the ladies say they never enjoyed a trip more. It covered about 400 miles. Forty to fifty miles were through Cottonwood Canyon and six miles up a steep grade over bad roads and through mountain streams running bank full. The dwellers and tourists in Cottonwood Canyon had been stromboured for a good many days and Mrs. Cook's car was the first to come in from the outside world.

CHRISTIAN APPEALS FOREFUL MESSAGES DELIVERED AT CENTRAL CHRISTIAN CHURCH

There were fine services yesterday at the Central Christian church. In the morning the pastor, Rev. Clifford Cole, preached on "The Closed Door and a Waiting Christ," urging his hearers not to delay opening the doors of their hearts and letting the Savior in to bless their lives. There was a large attendance.

At the evening service the house was crowded and extra chairs had to be brought in. Excellent music was furnished by the choir and congregation. The subject of Evangelist Root was: "Repentance as Taught in the Bible." Repentance, he declared, is not alone sorrow for sin. Cain had that, and so did Herod, but neither changed their lives. Neither do sorrow and reformation constitute true repentance, he affirmed. Repentance, he declared, means turning about the obeying his Lord and Master in Christian baptism from which he arises to walk in newness of life. All of the statements made by the Evangelist were reinforced by quotations of Scripture.

AN APPEAL FOR HELP IN THE JEWISH CAMPAIGN

No campaign for funds to feed the hungry and starving, clothe the naked and encourage the down-trodden for the past centuries, has come before the people of Southern California with the same degree of urgency as this for Jewish Relief now going on this week.

It is just wonderful how men and women of all creeds and no creeds all classes are simply laying aside their age-long prejudices and animosities and taking hold of this thing. Everywhere volunteers are rising to the cause to do their bit in this most worthy cause for hungry humanity. This special call of God just grips their hearts as nothing else has done, for which funds are needed. It is not a matter of charity, nor alms; it is an expression of Brotherhood and feelings of fellow sympathy to the needy of our Lord's own people. Race, color, nationality, cuts no figure now when children are crying for more dry crusts and going to bed hungry. What is wasted in some of our hotels and boarding houses would go a long way to satisfy human necessity. Even the garbage can of the "dough-boys" over there children and mothers found a God-send. Cold is human sympathy, hard is the heart that shuts its doors against the appeal of hungry, innocent and helpless children, victims of those dreadful warring conditions of Europe.

This is the first time in history the patriotic Jew has gone outside his own race and blood asking for assistance, because the task is superhuman, when the need is so great in Poland, Galicia, Eastern and Central Europe.

Now for three long years the Jewish people of those regions have stood up against all reverses and burdens that came upon them by hostile armies, suffering all the barbarities and allotments of war.

Believing in the practice of the Christian spirit, this is the opportunity to demonstrate to the Jewish people our sympathy and interest and true Christian spirit of humanity as we have never done it before.

This is no time for any of us to throw our alms over our denominational fences, as though we are better and holier, for the true spirit of our Lord makes us broader, bigger, nobler of heart toward our Lord's own people by blood. We seldom stop to think of our Lord being a Jew. We love Him. And surely that same love must go out to those of His human race. The spirit of loving Christian interest shown the Jewish people in this crucial hour will serve under God's blessing to win thousands to Christianity and its Christ.

The quota for Glendale is $2500. Assuming there are 5000 homes in this city, that would make the mere pittance of 50 cents per home on the average. Who could refuse that mere "crust" to a starving child across the waters.

Workers we most need in this campaign to make it go. Forty canvassers put the religious canvass through in one day. Let us take hold of this thing with a vim and push it through, for we are well able to do it. Glendale never does things by halves. The comfort of the poor, the hungry, the orphan, the needy calls to the sympathy of every citizen of Glendale.

As we got behind the Armenian campaign and drove it to great success, so can we this one if we are willing. Come on, friends, let us do it. Call up Rev. R. W. Mottern, the District Director, phone 1218-J, and overwhelm him with applications to help in this most urgent cause for humanity.

TENTATIVE PLANS MADE FOR PRESIDENT WILSON TO GO TO WOODS HOLE

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, March 29.—Tentative plans have been made for President Wilson to spend a part of the summer at Woods Hole, Massachusetts, it was learned today. He will probably occupy the residence of Charles Crane, recently appointed Minister to China.

BIG TUBE SYSTEM FOR W. U.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 29.—(United Press).—The most extensive underground pneumatic tube system in the west and the third largest in the United States is nearing completion here.

It is being installed by the Western Union Telegraph company at a cost of almost $250,000.

The tubes—thirteen miles of them—will be in operation early in June—in time to facilitate the handling of the rush of business incidental to the democratic national convention.

There will be only two tube systems in the country larger than the one in process of construction here—those in New York and Chicago, both owned by the Western Union.

Eleven miles of copper tubing will win its way under the city's principal streets, connecting a score of branches with the main office of the company. In addition there will be two more miles of steel tubing in the buildings.

A 35-horse-power air compressor will propel carriers containing messages to and from the sub-stations and the main office.

Less than a minute will be required to send a message from any one of the twenty branches to the main office, or vice versa.

Officials of the company assert that approximately 63,000 messages are handled daily at present. Thousands more will be dispatched and received each day during convention time.

The tubes are two and a half inches in diameter and the majority of mileage will extend in tunnels under Market street.

Speed and efficiency are the chief objects of the tubes. The trudging messenger boy, or the uniformed lad astride a bicycle or a motorcycle will be less in evidence in the business district. They will have to walk but few steps in delivering telegrams to downtown business houses, and the greater part of the W. U. messenger force will be used in carrying messages to their destination from the branches, or to the branches to be relayed via tube to the main office.

Los Angeles, Seattle and Portland will have similar tube systems later. Officials of the company announced they are working on plans for these cities.

OREGON AND WASHINGTON BENEFIT

A reader of national publications gets a wholesome impression of western Oregon and Washington from the advertisements of jam plants and canneries which are advertising their products and thus developing the small fruit industry of these states.

Little do the farmers and general public of this section appreciate what these industries are doing to create prosperity and land values.

The advertising of these firms is turning the eyes of thousands of people toward the western valleys of Washington and Oregon where the five-acre berry farms are netting their owners more than the average 160-acre ranch did a few years ago before industry had made a market for farm products.

The raising of small fruits is a family industry in that a man and his family can care for a five-acre tract of raspberries, loganberries, strawberries or blackberries except the picking and this comes during vacation time when women and children do most of the work and have a vacation at the same time.

The problem now is to get sufficient acreage to supply the demands of the packing industry which has created a world market and brought prosperity to the farmer.

VIVISECTION MUST GO

The women of California are initiating a bill to stop the cruelties of vivisection as they have been practiced in medical colleges. The question of vivisection is pre-eminently a moral one.

Man has always yearned for justice, for Mercy and Compassion for himself; these qualities are what he is now asked to exercise in behalf of every living creature.

Opponents of vivisection hold:
First: That man has no right and should have no license to torture any creature for any purpose whatsoever.

Second: That after two thousand years of cruel experimentation upon living creatures medical science has not advanced in any degree except where vivisection plays little or no part.

Third: That some of the ablest surgeons and physicians and some of the brightest minds this world has ever produced have strongly denounced vivisection.

There are so many reunions of state and county and town societies by former residents from back east that one man in Altadena got lonesome and tried to find enough other people from his home town, "Woodsett, Merrimack county, New Hampshire," to hold a reunion and picnic. But he couldn't find a single one, so he got up a reunion and picnic all by himself, with no one else to reunite with or to help eat the provender. And he reports that he had a splendid time.

Several thousand dollars worth of the valuables stolen from guests at a Paso Robles hotel by the night clerk recently, belonged to a bride and groom on their wedding trip, and consisted of wedding gifts. Think of one wedding drawing several thousand dollars worth of gifts, and doubtless not a wedding of the first water at that. No wonder one old chap remarked that they ought to change the wording of wedding invitations from "Your presence is requested," to "Your presents are requested."

A Minneapolis man arrived in Los Angeles the other day and the next day was struck by an auto and went to the hospital for several weeks. One editor remarked that it was unnecessary to treat the man so roughly, as he intended to stay here some time anyway.

A tree peddler at Santa Ana was fined $200 for misrepresenting the kinds of trees he was selling. He might have been only demonstrating a new kind of tree grafting.

COMMERCIAL ARBITRATION IN CHICAGO, ILLINOIS

A rare bit of news appeared in the columns of this paper. It was to the effect that the Chicago Chamber of Commerce had been permitted by the city judges to arbitrate commercial lawsuits out of court. The suggestion was purely voluntary on the part of the Chamber of Commerce, whose purpose is merely to devise a plan that would be cheaper and quicker than the long delay of the courts. A committee of 13, appointed by the executive committee of the chamber for their fair-mindedness and sense of justice in addition to their understanding of commercial and legal matters, would be infinitely better qualified to smooth out twists and tangles than twelve laymen.

Here, in the opinion of the News, is a man-sized municipal service that deserves investigation by the local Chamber of Commerce. At first blush it seems to be an admirable plan, and the more so, when one turns to the enormous amount of litigation in the courts which the existence here of such a volunteer court might obviate. Might not this plan be practicable here?

Many of the commercial lawsuits are so-called friendly suits, but the mills of the law grind slowly and expensively. The lawyers have to earn a living. They deserve a living. Oftentimes their services are indispensable. But where the courts may be dispensed with altogether, and the whole train of attaches, judges, lawyers, juries, and all, is it not worth attempting?

The news from Chicago sounds strikingly like a far step towards friendliness and fairness, and towards elimination of long delays and bitterness between litigants. It seems to be worth studying by the Chamber of Commerce, the judges, the lawyers, the citizens, as a means not only toward peaceful settlements of disputes but as a tremendous saving in dollars and cents in lawyers' fees.—Birmingham News.

SHE WAS TOO WISE

George and Tom had each been married three months, and were comparing notes as to matrimony.

George was still very much in love with his wife, and soon began sounding her praises.

"She's a perfect angel!" he raved. "Why, man, I don't believe she could tell a lie to save her life!"

His friend eyed him sadly.

"You're lucky," he said, with a sigh. "My wife can tell a lie the instant I get it out of my mouth."

Editor Harry Iles of the South-west Contractor and Builder gets an editorial laugh out of the claim of the city water commissioner at San Diego, that the large numbers of fishes in the city reservoir there take up room that should be occupied by water, and also that each medium-sized fish consumes a pint or more of water per day. This presents a new problem of conduct in raising fish in reservoirs. The San Diego commissioner urges that the citizens go fishing as often as possible, so as to make more room in the reservoir for water. We are afraid that even though fish may consume a pint of water each day, if each citizen of San Diego were to catch at least one fish each day, the reservoir might not be able to see the pint.

THE AGE OF MAN

Scientists and artists have been working together to give us a picture, as reliable as possible, of the earliest man who lived upon our globe. In several museums we may now study statues or heads carefully reconstructed from the evidence discovered. The most interesting pictures, however, are made by constructing actual scenes in the caves or on the planes they once inhabited, and placing life like figures in them surrounded by the crude implements used in hunting and house-keeping. The age of man is, of course, disputed, and varies widely according to the different estimates. The so-called Neolithic man whose relics have been found in many parts of the world was probably 10,000 years old, perhaps much older. Many of the relics are believed by scientists to be 100,000 years old, while some scientists place the earliest man of whom we have any record as far back as 250,000 years. One way to measure their age is to calculate by our knowledge of geology how long it required to form the strata which cover the relics of the early man.—Boys' Life for February.

IDENTIFICATION CARDS FOR SERVICE MEN

Former service men, holders of Uncle Sam's War Risk Insurance, have received from the Bureau of War Risk Insurance an identification card bearing their name and insurance number, for ready reference, such as they carried while in the service, states Director R. G. Cholmeley-Jones of the Bureau.

This card will enable the men to give their correct insurance number when communicating with the Bureau of War Risk Insurance, and also serves for identification in case of sickness or accident.

Many of these cards are being returned to the Bureau by former service men instead of being retained. The Director requests all former service men who receive these identification cards to keep them.

LENGTHENING OF HUMAN LIFE

The application of knowledge of sanitation and hygiene has expressed itself in the lengthening of human life, slowly at first, only about 4 years during the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries, and faster, at the rate of nine years per century during three-fourths of the nineteenth century and about fourteen years during the latter part of the nineteenth and the beginning of this, the twentieth century. This does not signify that old people are growing older, but rather that the infant's chance of living is getting better every year, i. e., the average length of life is increasing.

Stricter sanitary measures result in a lower death rate, e. g., the crude death rate for the United States is about 14.2 per thousand (1917) while for India it is about 42 per thousand. After the American occupation of Havana the death rate fell from over fifty per thousand to about twenty per thousand. The control of yellow fever through the control of mosquitoes had much to do with this splendid result.

During a period of twelve years, from 1900 to 1912, the urban death rate for the registration area of the United States fell 21.2 per cent, while the rural death rate fell 8.6 per cent. It is a noteworthy fact that the rural death rate in California, for example, is higher than the urban death rate for the following diseases: typhoid fever, malaria, diarrhoea and enteritis (2 years and over), tuberculosis of the lungs, whooping cough, diphtheria, and diseases of the nervous system other than meningitis. In rural communities in the United States it is said that 400,000 persons die annually and about 2,000,000 others are seriously ill from infectious diseases, probably wholly traceable to parasitic organisms either plant or animal. And this in spite of the statement made by Pasteur that, "It is within the power of man to rid himself of every parasitic disease." This is the hopeful note in it all—man is given power over disease.

SEEK GOOD TURN OPPORTUNITIES

"We don't always have to seek the opportunity of doing a good turn," writes Lieut. Belvin W. Maynard, the "Flying Parson," in his article, "The Thrill of High Adventure," which appears in the February Boys' Life. "Sometimes the opportunity comes and lands right in our back yard. We only have to be ready to act the part of a real scout when the opportunity comes. It is easy to see how much I must have appreciated these kindnesses which meant victory to me; and let us remember that our good turns will be appreciated and may mean victory to someone else.

"We must be ready not only to do a good turn when the opportunity comes to us or when it comes into our pathway, but we should seek the opportunity. There is where the real happiness comes. Let us not wait for the opportunity to land on us, but let us land on the opportunity.

"There are so many ways to do a good turn that we should not be satisfied with one a day. Some of them might not involve much self-sacrifice, but still not to do them, however small, would be unworthy. Did you ever see a fellow's hat blow off and go rolling down the street, passing by many who would not stoop to pick it up for him? Did you ever watch a woman standing in the aisle of a street car holding a baby in her arms when there were many men seated? Did you ever watch a woman with small children and luggage try to board a train unaided? Did you ever walk along a lonely road and have car after car pass you without picking you up? Did you ever pass an elderly woman on the sidewalk, whose very image was a picture of want and misery, carrying more luggage than a man ought to carry?"

The papers hereabout are carrying the usual scare items that seed potatoes are very scarce this spring. And as usual, as soon as the prices of potatoes get high enough to suit the profiteers, (if the women's clubs don't spoil the scheme by their boycott to bring down the prices,) there will be plenty of potatoes appear on the market and open their little eyes to see which suckers got them.

We see no need of the Speedway near Los Angeles to furnish dangerous auto thrills and fatal accidents for the delectation of the multitude. The auto traffic on the streets of Los Angeles is just as dangerous as any speedway, and spectators who enjoy seeing people maimed or killed if they are not fortunate enough to jump for their lives in time, can do so by standing on the sidewalks of the downtown streets. And the performance is absolutely free, and goes on every day. Why pay money for what you can see for nothing?

Mr. Shove, of Kansas, visited in Orange last week. If he should meet Mr. Crowd who registered at an El Centro hotel recently, they both might have to hunt up Mr. Gitt of Los Angeles, who was at Redondo for a few days.
