Foreword

ENCLOSED you will find the contents of the 1932 YACK-
ETY YACK, subject to your criticism or to your approval.

It is a static piece of work, destined to remain as it is. That vitality and freshness which can be obtained from movement must ever be absent from its folds. Instead, we see but a moment in the life of the University; and a moment which all of us will recall with a multitude of pleasure, but mingled with some misgivings because we did not take just a little more advantage of its opportunities.

We, the members of the staff, have achieved our reward in the enjoyment that we have had in putting this book together. It contains no lesson of morality, nor is it a thing of great beauty. It is merely a group of memories which we hope will serve to forestay your old age just a little bit longer, and make your future recollections of the University just a little bit clearer.

Dedication

TO John Sprunt Hill the 1932 YACKETY YACK is dedicated in evidence of the high esteem in which he is held by University students of this generation.

To the University Mr. Hill, since his graduation with the Class of 1889, has been a pillar of support, as alumnus and citizen, as trustee and benefactor. As an example of the manner in which he has enriched the University's life, last year, with Mrs. Hill, he gave the University in a most modest way the new music auditorium and its pipe organ. A further example of his University interest is evidenced in the establishment and constant fostering of the North Carolina Collection of the University Library. As a member of the Executive Committee and chairman of the Building Committee of the University's Board of Trustees, Mr. Hill has ably devoted both time and energy in promotion of Alma Mater's welfare and the cause she espouses.

In the spirit of his great service to his State, and in the spirit in which he has builded himself into his University, this 1932 YACKETY YACK is gratefully dedicated.

The Inauguration of President Graham

THE inauguration of Frank Porter Graham as the eleventh president of the University of North Carolina was held in Kenan Memorial Stadium the morning of November 11, 1931, before an audience of over five thousand people.

A most impressive part of the ceremony was the long and colorful procession which gathered in groups from all parts of the campus to the starting point in front of the library, from which it passed beneath the new Morehead-Patterson Memorial carillon and proceeded on to Kenan Memorial Stadium. In this procession appeared representatives of the student body, members of Dr. Graham's graduating class of 1909, University alumni marshaled by Judge Earle Rives, officials of the Supreme Court of North Carolina, state officers and members of the General Assembly, University trustees, several hundred delegates of universities, colleges, and learned and professional societies throughout the state and nation with several representatives from foreign countries, the faculty of the University, Dr. Graham and the various speakers, and the student body.

Bishop J. Kenneth Pfohl opened the ceremonies with an invocation, after which Governor O. Max Gardner, who was presiding, introduced Haywood Parker, representative of the trustees, who in turn presented Dr. Graham. The Honorable W. J. Adams, Associate Justice, in the absence of Chief Justice W. P. Stacy, administered the oath of office and Governor Gardner delivered to the newly inducted president the seal and charter of the University.

President Graham in his inaugural address dedicated his life to the high goal of making the University "a stronghold of learning and an outpost of light and liberty among the frontiers of mankind." In a complete review he then explained the functions of the various departments of the University of North Carolina and gave his conception of the ideal university.

The first greeting to the new official came from Dean John C. McLennon of the University of Toronto, representing the learned societies. He pointed out the oddly assorted types of people with whom the new president would have to deal, and the difficulties arising from widely differing views and opinions. On behalf of the universities and colleges of the South, President Frank L. McVey of the University of Kentucky stated that a university president must be a far-sighted thinker and touched upon the long and honorable history of this University in which is taken a justifiable pride.

President Walter L. Lingle of Davidson brought greetings from the institutions of the state, characterizing President Graham as "a lover and servant of his fellow men—a man of God." Superintendent A. T. Allen for the state public school system thanked the new president for his coöperation and assured him of the hearty support of the North Carolina public school teachers and pupils.

Representing the alumni, Kemp D. Battle praised Frank Graham's ability as a leader and emphasized the dependence of the University upon his personality. Mayne Albright, president of the student body, pledged the undivided support of the students "in the fight for a nobler University and for a greater state." On behalf of the faculty Dr. H. U. Wilson brought the last greeting in expressing the confidence of the faculty in their new leader.

A benediction by Bishop Pfohl concluded the program at the stadium and the day's events were completed by a luncheon at which Presidents James Rowland Angell of Yale and Walter Dill Scott of Northwestern spoke, and an evening banquet presided over by President Harry Woodburn Chase of Illinois, and predecessor of Dr. Graham as president of the University of North Carolina.

THE GOVERNOR'S MESSAGE

With pride the State points to the work of the President, alumni, faculty, and students of the University in the present crisis. It is symbolic of that unquenchable spirit and indomitable will that has made possible the University as it is today.

OLIVER MAX GARDNER,
Governor of North Carolina.

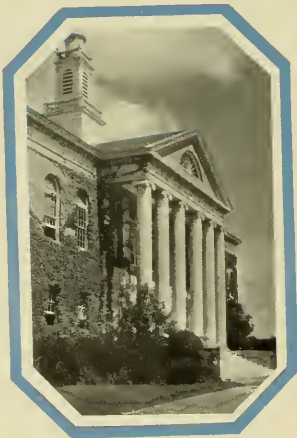

The President's Message

In this most critical year in the life of the University in the present century the student body has stood like a rock in the storm. With hundreds of students, faced with the necessity of going back to bankrupt homes and jobless towns, the student body started off the emergency loan fund with two thousand dollars. With a budget cut to a destructive point they put into the budget a saving spiritual power. The student body of 1931-32 will always be memorable for this contribution to the high traditions of this place. May their faith and courage carry over into the making of a nobler commonwealth. Wherever they may go alma mater will always reach across the continent and across the years and hold them tight to her great heart.

FRANK PORTER GRAHAM,
President of the University.

Football Season

With a galaxy of veteran linemen and a mere handful of seasoned backs, Coach Chuck Collins began early in September to prepare to meet such foes as Vanderbilt, Florida, Georgia, and Tennessee on successive Saturdays, along with Wake Forest, N. C. State, Georgia Tech, Davidson, Duke and Virginia scattered along the line, Coach Collins, from the start, determined to put a fighting team on the field. In spite of the fact that the season's record shows only four wins as compared to three ties and as many losses, the Tar Heels gave a good account of themselves in every encounter.

To fill the vacancies in the backfield, Bill Croom, Johnny Peacock, Haines Lassiter, Kay Thompson, Tom White, Smoky Ferebee, and Johnny Daniels came up from the reserves of last year, while Johnny Phipps was a helpful addition from the freshman team.

Johnny Branch, though lost to the team a good part of the season, returned to his old position for the Virginia game and turned in what was perhaps his greatest exhibition on Kenan field. The prodigal son returned and ended his football career at Carolina in a blaze of glory. Against Wake Forest he scored three times, running in his usual speedy manner, in the State game he again tallied three times, but the climax of his year's play came in the Georgia Tech game at Atlanta, when he sprinted eighty yards through a broken field for a Tar Heel score.

The line, composed of veterans, was the shining light of the Tar Heel eleven. It was effective from early season. Though composed of veterans, this line was light but speedy. The line, led by Ellis Fysal, guard, averaged about one hundred and eighty pounds to the man. Speed was the keynote. In one instance, June Underwood, tackle, ran a Vanderbilt halfback down from behind. Gilbreath was down fast under punts and in on every play. Staton Melver time and time again was in the opposition's backfield before the play could get underway. With Fysal, guard on the All-Southern second team, and Melver, Carolina had a fast, aggressive, hard-fighting, pair of guards. June Underwood and Harry Hodges took care of the tackle berths and both were a tower of strength in every game. On the ends, Theron Brown and Irwin Walker played sensational ball. The reserves also played an important part in the success of the line.

With all of this tried reserve material available for next year the prospects for a successful season are a great deal brighter than they were this past year. The same schedule is to be faced next fall as was met this year.

THE WAKE FOREST GAME

The 1931 edition of the Tar Heels made their debut on September 26 against Wake Forest. The final score, 37-0, was quite unexpected and was significant for two reasons. First it showed Carolina fans that the Tar Heel line was strong and also that the rookie backs could produce. The spirit of the team was good and the blocking was almost perfect. The outcome was quite satisfactory in view of the fact that Wake Forest presented a supposedly strong aggregation. Rip

McIVER

Slusser scored three times, while Johnny Peacock, rookie quarterback, raced eighty-five yards for a score from the kick-off in his varsity debut. Johnny Daniels and Kay Thompson, two more rookie backs, each scored once. Tom White, another rookie ran well in the back field and showed excellent promise.

THE VANDERBILT GAME

Vandy came next and the Tar Heels continued the fine spirit of the Wake Forest game. Outweighed nearly twenty pounds to the man, the Carolina line put up a stubborn defense. The final score was 13-0, one touchdown coming from a pass early in the game and the other was made off the second line late in the final quarter. Johnny Branch was the star of the game. He returned a punt forty-four yards late in the third period to launch the Tar Heels' only scoring threat but with the ball on Vandy's eight yard line Johnny was removed from the game exhausted. Ellis Fysal, played the most sensational game of his career at guard, appearing, for the most part, as a fifth man in the Commodore back field. Coach Collins inaugurated his new "Alumni" shift in this game and, perhaps as a consequence, the backs made several costly fumbles.

FLORIDA GAME

Florida was the second conference foe the Tar Heels encountered and the Battle of Gainsville was one of the most superbly fought games of the year, ending in a 0-0 deadlock. The Tar Heels were twice on the 'Gator one-foot line and once again they were down on the three yard line only to have each advance repulsed. The Tar Heels outgained Florida from scrimmage, piling up 219 yards as against 59 for the opponents. Carolina made 10 first downs to 4 for the 'Gators. In the line, Frank Smith, reserve tackle, Theron Brown, Erwin Walker, and Ellis Fysal all stood out, but the play of the first two Carolina Lines was more than creditable except in the goal-line thrusts. In the backfield, Rip Slusser and Johnny Branch were the shining lights. Johnny gained 62 yards in 12 tries while Rip checked in with 42 yards in 13 attempts.

GEORGIA GAME

WALKER

Fresh from a stinging defeat put on the Yale Bulldogs, Georgia came to Kenan stadium next to meet the Tar Heels, then in a crippled condition. Smith, McDade, in the line and Branch, Peacock, and Daniels in the backfield, were all out of play. The powerful Georgians entirely overpowered our Tar Heels and the final score was 32-7. Although the Tar Heels had Roberts, Georgia menace in the crushing 1930 victory, well covered, Key, diminutive halfback ran wild and averaged ten yards a try for the Georgians. Bill Croom, making his debut as a varsity ball-carrier, stood out for Carolina. He raced fifty-three yards for a score early in the game and then continued his performance with some excellent kicking. June Underwood and Staton McIver fought valiantly in the line and both Brown on the ends. Georgia was just too powerful and fight as they might, the Tar Heels were helpless.

turned in spectacular performances as did Erwin Walker and Theron Brown on the ends. Georgia was just too powerful and fight as they might, the Tar Heels were helpless.

TENNESSEE GAME

With the whole team showing wonderful spirit despite three discouraging performances, the Tar Heels once again lost a heart-breaker to the University of Tennessee 7-0. The highly touted Vols were played to a standstill by the determined Tar Heels and had it not been for a fumbled punt which Tennessee recovered deep in Carolina territory, the story might have been different. The All-American McEver was stopped dead, gaining 27 yards in 13 tries. Carolina came near tying the score in the third quarter when they lost the ball on downs on Tennessee's five and one-half yard line. The play of June Underwood in the line was by far the outstanding work as far as Carolina was concerned. He was in on every play, blocked one punt, and recovered another fumble. In the backfield the defensive play of Stuart Chandler and the punt returns of Smoky Ferebee stood out.

N. C. STATE GAME

What was probably the weirdest and most exciting game played this past year was the one with N. C. State in Raleigh which ended with the Tar Heels leading 18-15. The Carolina first team started the game and in the first sixteen minutes had run up a score of 18 points through the running of Rip Slusser. State looked easy and Collins decided to give the Tar Heel regulars their much needed rest so he sent in the second team. The substitutes played on even terms for the rest of the half but at the outset of the second half the Techs began to cut down the lead. A safety and a touchdown caused Collins to send back his first stringers only to have another score on them and a place-kick, ending the scoring. The team played well with Red Gilbreath and Staton McIver starring in the line while Rip Slusser stood out in the backfield.

GEORGIA TECH GAME

THOMPSON

The Tar Heels journeyed to Atlanta to meet Georgia Tech next and for the second time during the season the game ended in a tie, this time 19-19. The Tar Heels were off to a fast start and were leading at the half 13-6, but it seemed as though the Tornado could not be outdone and each advance of the Tar Heels was matched. With the score 19-13 in the Tar Heels' favor Tech crashed through for a score and made the point tying the count. The exciting part of the game came in the last few seconds when both teams resorted to aerials in vain. Rip Slusser ran eighty-five yards through the entire Tech team for a score and Bill Croom also got off on a forty-seven yard jaunt. Tom White, who scored our third touchdown, and Kay Thompson played well.

WHITE

DAVIDSON GAME

After a few words of tribute to the great Knute Rockne, Carolina and Davidson fought hard for sixty minutes and the outcome was a crushing 20-0 victory for the Tar Heels. The tiny Smoky Ferebee supplied the thrill of the day when he broke through the Davidson tackle and raced sixty-five yards for a score. Bill Croom made the other long run of the game, a brilliant dash off left tackle for another score after a thirty yard run. In the line the play of Staton McIver was brilliant. Emmett Strickland, substituting for the injured Underwood, also stood out, the 77 inch tackle made several of his famous pile-driving tackles.

DUKE GAME

The next game was with Duke in Durham and this was a repetition of the 1930 struggle save for the rain, the score being 0-0. Each team scored in the initial half only to have their scores erased due to a penalty and a step out of bounds. Captain Brewer skirted the Carolina end for seven yards and a score in the first quarter but was called back and Duke penalized for illegal use of hands. In the second quarter Tom White stepped thirteen yards for a score but the referee claimed he went out on the eight yard line. In the second half the tables turned and the Tar Heels held the upper hand but neither team was able to score. Red Gilbreath turned in his star performance of the season at center, battering Adkins, Duke star, so hard that he tossed two bad passes over the heads of the Duke backs. He was ably assisted by Harry Hodges and Cable Philpott who filled in nobly for the injured McIver. In the backfield John Phipps, Tom White, and Stuart Chandler were outstanding.

VIRGINIA GAME

The annual Thanksgiving game with Virginia was probably the most colorful encounter of the year. Virginia monopolized the play of the first half and were in front 6-0 when the third quarter began. Johnny Branch, who topped his three years' brilliant play by turning in his greatest exhibition, took a punt and dashed down the very sidelines for a score, but the point was missed the score being 6-6. Then the Tar Heels stiffened and from then on it was their game. Hanes Lassiter dived one yard over center for another score and this time Johnny Branch kicked the point ending the scoring at 13-7. Kay Thompson and Tom White joined Hanes Lassiter and Johnny Branch in the backfield spotlight and the whole line played jam-up football.

The freshman season was not as discouraging as the season's results would indicate, since the primary object of the freshman team here is to teach the freshmen the fundamentals of the game and prepare them for the varsity work. Several promising freshmen were sent up to Coach Collins after Coaches Sapp, Adkins, Farris, Ericson, and Ward had taught them the idea of the game as played here. Among these prospects the brightest perhaps are Daniels, Cox, and Ray, linemen; Jackson, Ogburn, McDonald, and Martin, backs, who will probably help materially in years to come.

Varsity Basketball Season

Opening the season with a first string team composed of three lettermen and two sophomores, the Carolina team, under the leadership of Coach Bo Shepherd, serving his first year as head coach of varsity basketball, compiled the best record of any Carolina basketball team since the three great teams of 1924-25-26.

The White Phantoms opened the intercollegiate season with an impressive 49-23 over the Guilford College Quakers. Following this with a 45-29 victory over the Wildcats of Davidson in their first Big Five game of the season, the Tar Heels seemed headed to go places. Prospects seemed even brighter after their 37-17 victory over Furman University, who later won the championship of the Palmetto state for the second year in succession with an undefeated record. Risking a spotless record the Tar Heels defeated the V. P. I. Gobblers 38-26 in their opening game of the Southern Conference season. Returning to Big Five play after a week's respite the Deacons of Wake Forest invaded the Tin Can only to be turned back by the Carolina quint, 32-17.

After a three day rest the Tar Heels engaged the Red Terrors of North Carolina State on their home court and, after amassing a 14-8 lead at halftime, were held to four points in the last half while the Wolfpack counted eleven points for a 19-18 victory. Duke was the next prey of the Phantoms, dropping a 37-20 decision in the Tin Can after the Tar Heels had gathered a 20-11 lead at halftime. What was even more important it was the first time a Carolina basketball team had defeated the Blue Devils since Carolina's last Big Five championship in 1929.

Following a 34-24 victory over Wake Forest in Raleigh, the Tar Heels began preparations for their first and only long trip of the season, a three game invasion of Virginia and Maryland. V. P. I. fell before the Tar Heels on Friday night by a 31-20 score. The following night the Tar Heels exhibited the same trouble that had given them their first defeat at the hands of North Carolina State. Against the Old Liners of Maryland the White Phantoms piled up a 20-11 lead at the end of the first half, but in the second period were held to five points while the 1930 champions of the Conference were amassing fifteen for a 26-25 victory. Monday night the Tar Heels visited Charlottesville for their annual game with the Cavaliers which they won in the closing minutes by a 26-24 score.

Returning home the Phantoms engaged Davidson in a return game and after being held to the little end of a 14-12 count in the first period by the second team, the Wildcats came back in the closing period to run up a 24-20 lead with five minutes of play left. However, the Tar Heels and Wilmer Hines were not to be denied that night and the Phantom forwards lived up to their nickname by counting twelve points, ten of which were credited to Hines, in the final five minutes for a 32-28 victory. The following Saturday the Tar Heel quint received its third defeat of the season at the hands of the Blue Devils in their return engagement on the Duke five's home court, bowing 24-18 after the Devils had counted a 13-6 lead at halftime.

Closing the pre-tournament season with home games with Maryland, Washington and Lee, and North Carolina State, the Tar Heels gathered a 32-26 upset over Maryland after holding the Old Liners to an eighteen-all tie at the close of the first half. The entire team functioned as a unit against Maryland and Carolina fans witnessed the best game seen in the Tin Can in several seasons as the Old Liners received their first and only defeat of the pre-tourney season. W. and L. howed 27-19 in a loosely played game the following night, and on Tuesday night the Phantoms closed a highly successful season with an overwhelming 36-17 defeat at the hands of North Carolina State to give the Wolfpack their third successive win over the Tar Heels in two years.

Ranking fourth in the Conference by reason of a tie between Kentucky and Maryland, both of whom had lost one game, the Tar Heels were conceded the "dark horse" position of the annual Southern Conference tournament. Defeating Tennessee 35-25 in the opening round the Tar Heels were considered little chance in their second game with the University of Kentucky, runner-up to Maryland in 1931. However, after Kentucky had jumped away to a 24-23 lead in the first half the Phantoms came back in the last half to come within one point of victory as the final minute began. With the ball in the possession of the Wildcats all hope seemed gone, but Weathers, Carolina's diminutive all-Southern Forward, came through to take the ball away from a Wildcat player and dribble half the length of the floor to give the Tar Heels a 43-42 victory in the biggest upset of the tournament. The following night the Phantoms eliminated Auburn, seeded number four, by a smashing 51-32 victory over the conquerors of North Carolina State.

Entering the finals for the first time since 1926, the Tar Heels were given a toss-up with Georgia's Bulldogs, but the Bulldogs continued their jinx over Carolina teams with a 26-24 victory after leading 18-16 at the end of the first half.

Southern sports scribes recognized the ability of the great Carolina five by unanimously placing Captain Tom Alexander, senior guard, and Virgil Weathers, speedy forward, on the annual all-Southern team, while Wilmer Hines, tennis star and leading scorer of the Big Five loop with 141 points, was given a second team berth, with Edwards, center, and McCachren, guard, being given honorable mention.

Boxing, 1932

Giving excellent accounts of themselves against some of the outstanding intercollegiate teams in the country, the 1931 edition of the University of North Carolina boxing stars went through a season for the first time in years with a percentage below the 500 mark. The Carolina troupe of battlers scored three triumphs over southern conference foes while losing to two southern loop aggregations. The Rowe-coached team lost to Penn State and Navy for the other two setbacks of the season, but in doing so gave great exhibitions of fighting.

Opening with Washington and Lee, Carolina scored a 5 to 2 victory. Levinson, Raymer, Lumpkin, Wadsworth and Brown annexing their bouts by decisions.

CAROLINA OUTFIGHTS DUKE

In the best meet of the season, the Tar Heel galaxy of fighters gave the Blue Devils of Duke a beating by the close score of 4 to 3. The outstanding match of the setto was Brown's win over Hyatt in the light heavy division. Williams vanquished Lloyd, who later won the southern conference title in the 115 pound class, Levinson battered Scott all over the ring for a decision, while Lumpkin got a technical knockout over Parrish.

Featured by knockouts, Carolina beat V. P. I., 6 to 1, with Williams, Levinson, Farris, and Brown gaining K. O.'s while Lumpkin and Wadsworth were winning decisions.

V. M. I. 5; CAROLINA 2

V. M. I. upset the dope to give the Tar Heels their first defeat of the 1931 season at Lexington when it captured five matches to Carolina's two, Williams and Levinson gaining decisions. Brown lost his first fight in this match.

CONFERENCE CHAMPS BEAT TAR HEELS 6 TO 1

In a meet with Virginia, conference champions of boxing for the last two seasons, Carolina put up stubborn opposition and made all the fights plenty difficult for the referee to pick winners. Williams won the sole victory of the evening when he knocked Sowers out. Levinson met his old jinx in Goldstein, southern conference champion, and lost a close decision, while Brown tasted defeat for the second time in succession when he lost to Reiss.

Presenting a team which always figures highly in national intercollegiate boxing history, Penn State's fine squad took a 5 to 2 decision over Coach Rowe's battlers. Levinson continued his fine work when he gained a technical knockout from Claire, while Brown gave Sussner a beating to take the second match for the Carolina team. A record crowd was well pleased with the showing the Tar Heels made against their first class opposition.

Journeying to Annapolis, Carolina lost another close fight 5 to 2, the score not being an indication of the closeness of the setos. Levinson and Brown won their matches against the Navy team, while close defeats were administered Williams, Raymer, Lumpkin, Wadsworth, and Wilson.

With six men entered in the southern conference tournament held in Charlottesville, Carolina had five winners in the first round. Brown lost to Page of Mississippi A. and M. who went on to capture the middleweight championship with a string of knockouts.

Levinson and Raymer fought well to survive the second round, while Williams, Wadsworth, and Lumpkin were eliminated in close struggles.

Bain of V. M. I. eked out a close victory over Raymer in the semi-finals, and Marty Levinson trimmed Rogers of Duke to enter the finals. Goldstein of Virginia, the defending champion, won the decision over Levinson in the finals after a thrilling battle.

With one or two exceptions the entire squad will be intact for next year, and the incoming frosh boxing team will comprise a varsity fighting squad which will warrant the enthusiastic support rendered the squad by the school.

FRESHMEN BOXING

Under the direction of Archie Allen, the North Carolina yearling squad completed a season which included four impressive victories and one close defeat. Ivey, Quarles, Berke, Gidinansky, Jenkins, Ray, Bendigo, and McDonald formed the freshmen squad, and with these men back next year, Coach Rowe's chances for a southern conference title are anything but pessimistic.

Wins were garnered over Duke, V. P. I., Virginia, and Oak Ridge, while a 4 to 3 decision went to V. M. I. over Allen's crew.

Track

Capturing first honors in the North Carolina state championship while taking fourth in the southern conference meet and garnering six out of seven victories in dual meets, the University of North Carolina retinue of track stars enjoyed a successful 1931 season under the able tutelage of Coach Bob Fetzer and Dale Ransom.

In the last eleven seasons, Carolina tracksters have built up the most impressive record of any southern conference track team by winning all but two dual meets, those losses being administered by Princeton and Penn State in close matches.

The first two meets of the year were at home, the Blue and White squad easily conquering the Presbyterian College and North Carolina State with scores of 88 to 38 and 99 to 27, respectively.

Journeying to Atlanta, the Tar Heels continued their victorious march by licking Georgia Tech, 89 to 37.

V. P. I. offered little competition in the next home encounter, the Carolina track troupe carrying off a 90 2-3 to 35 1-3 triumph.

CAROLINA BEATS DUKE

The Blue Devils from Duke University presented a well-balanced track coterie that made Carolina extend itself to the last event before a 68 to 58 win could be obtained for the Carolina partisans who saw the last home performance that afternoon.

Washington and Lee's fine squad almost sent the unbeaten Tar Heels from Lexington minus a victory, but after the final tabulations were made Carolina romped off with a close 64 2-3 to 61 1-3 victory.

PENN STATE DEFEATS CAROLINA

At State College, Pennsylvania, Coach Bob's squad lost its second dual meet in twelve years to Penn State's aggregation. The score of the meet was 74.4 to 51.6.

Without much trouble, the University of North Carolina swept through the North Carolina conference meet held in Greensboro, amassing 61 1-2 points to lead its nearest competitor, N. C. State who had 33 1-2. Davidson and Duke finished in third and fourth places, respectively.

DUNLAP

Baseball

The 1931 baseball season will go down in the annals of Tar Heel athletics as one of the most successful; in fact, the "team of sophomores" last year was the best club to represent Carolina since 1922 when the Tar Heels, coached by Bill Fetzer, won nineteen of twenty-one games. Last year the team won sixteen games, lost four, and tied two.

The team started the 1931 campaign with inexperienced battery material, in addition to an almost new squad, but as the season went on Coach Ashmore's combinations began to click, and the Tar Heels wound up their second Tri-State championship in three years. Carolina and Auburn, winner of the Dixie League race, were regarded as the two best teams in the conference.

DUKE DEFEATED AT LAST

The highlight of the season was the smashing of a four-year jinx at the hands of Duke University. The Tar Heels fell on McKeithan, Duke hurler, for six runs, while Captain-elect Longest was hurling the best game of his career. In past years, Carolina had dropped seven straight to the Blue Devils.

VIRGINIA DITTO

Another bright spot of the season was the three decisive defeats handed to Virginia. The Cavaliers were unable to cope with the heavy hitting and the fine pitching of the Tar Heel players and never had a chance to crash through for victory.

HINTON

After the season was over, it was announced that Bunn Hearn had been chosen to succeed Jim Ashmore as coach of the Tar Heels. Hearn coached Carolina baseball teams in 1917 and 1918 with more than fair success. Besides that, he has had over twenty years experience in professional baseball, having played with the New York Giants and the St. Louis Cardinals.

Carolina's wrestling team began with bright prospects with Captain Harry Tsumas, Percy Idol, and Pete Usher back from last year's state championship team. Several promising men from the freshman team bolstered the varsity, but the loss of Don Conklin, undefeated last year, was a serious handicap.

It was not until the fifth match that the matmen hit their stride with a win over North Carolina State, and no team beat the Tar Heels thereafter. The first match of the season with Duke University was closely contended. Carolina's tie with the West Point wrestlers was the highlight of the season.

Monograms were awarded to Captain Tsumas, W. O. Woodward, Percy Idol, J. M. Auman, Morton Hiller, Thad Hussey, Charles Lawson, Clarke Mathewson, and James Spell.

Tennis

The greatest array of tennis talent ever to grace a Carolina court formed the most successful team of the 1931-32 season. The unparalleled performance of Coach Kenfield's men made tennis—a minor sport—the most popular of the spring sports.

Both in the South and against the most formidable Northern teams Carolina was undefeated for the season, all the Southern victories having been by shutout figures. In tournaments play the State tourney saw all-Carolina finals, Bryan Grant winning the singles from Hines and two teaming up to take the doubles from their teammates, Yeomans and Hendlin. The latter pair represented Carolina in the Southern Conference matches and won the doubles; Yeomans was barely nosed out in the singles finals.

Carolina's championship squad was made up of champions: Grant, then 10th ranking in the country, was National Clay Courts winner in 1930. Wilmer Hines was National Junior Champion the same year, both Yeomans and Hendlin were past State Champs, while Lenoir Wright formerly won the South Atlantic Scholastics. Captain Graham and Abels completed the squad—the first ever to receive major letters.

IT is a pleasure for STETSON
"D" to style and tailor your clothes. Most of you are now planning to enter business. You are styling your life to your own taste—let us continue to tailor your clothes according to your style and taste.

UNDERWEAR

Some underwear gets under your skin whenever you think of the price. But not Hanes Summer Underwear! It's only 39c to $1.25. Yet it stands the tug-o'-wear, and holds its shape too. Hanes never looks as though it was just thrown on you. The size is right no matter how you're built!

Hanes is lower-priced than ever. But it's the same dependable Hanes! Suits that cost so little today are the same Hanes quality that had to be higher several years ago. That's not the case with all underwear. Some are cut in quality as well as price. So watch your step, and get Hanes.

Take hold of Hanes. Give it the old eagle-eye. Look at the seams. Feel the material. Test and try the buttons. You'll see in an instant that Hanes Underwear isn't just slapped together!

Now pull a shirt over your head . . . jump into a pair of shorts . . . button up, and look in a mirror. Notice the shirt across your chest, and down under the arms. It's as smooth as a drum-head. Now bend your knees. Kick your legs. Lean forward, backward, and to the sides. Nothing grips. Nothing rips! Yet there isn't a bit of excess.

BUILDERS DREAMS

VISIONS created by the imagination precede the achievement of any really great accomplishment. The ability to weave the threads of imagination into the finished fabric is equally important.

It has been the privilege of the EDWARDS & BROUGHTON COMPANY to interpret the ideas of the Staff and create in material form their vision.

Such able coöperation is one of the "visions" which precede the building of a successful business, and is a part of the working policy of the EDWARDS & BROUGHTON COMPANY.

You, too, may be proud of your annual.
