Cream of New Roses

Strong 2-year-old plants, 50c each, $5.00 per doz.; (Except Where Noted.)

Alexander Hill Gray—Deep lemon-yellow intensifying as the blooms develop; perfectly formed flower with high-pointed center.

Columbia (H. T.)—A new American Rose, by the veteran Rosarian, E. G. Hill. Vigorous grower of a true pink shade, deepening as it opens to a glowing pink.

Crusafer—The growth is heavy and flower stem strong. Blooms are big and double, rich velvety crimson. A free flowering red Rose that is a wonder.

Duchess of Albany—Sport from La France, retaining all characteristics of the type, with the bloom three or four shades darker.

Edward Mawley—Big, deep-petaled flowers of strong fragrance. Fine dark crimson.

Etoile de France—Gold Medal Rose of France. Flowers very large and borne on good, long, stiff stems; a lovely shade of clear crimson velvet; very fragrant.

Francis Scott Key (H. T.)—Flowers from large to very large, with sixty or more petals opening to high center. Magnificent deep red rose. Wherever it has been staged it has swept all competitors from the board and secured every prize it was entered for. Grand for the garden.

Frau Karl Druschki—(White American Beauty or Snow Queen.) An everywhere hardy, vigorous grower; splendid long buds, magnificent snow white blooms with large saucer-shaped petals. 75c.

General Superior Arnold Janssen—Deep, glowing rose of brightest color. Flowers large size, full and fragrant.

Helen Gould—One of the strongest growing and freest blooming Hybrid Teas; rich, glowing crimson. Buds long and pointed, forming full double blooms.

Hadley—Deep velvety crimson, retaining its brilliancy at all seasons. The variety is double and buds well formed. In fragrance excelled only by the American Beauty.

Heesier Beauty—Glowing crimson-scarlet with velvety crimson shadings. The bud is long, opening into magnificent bloom, dazzling in its velvety brilliance.

Jenkheer J. L. Mock—Strongest growing Hybrid Tea. Flowers of enormous size, magnificently formed, deep and double, exquisitely fragrant; color bright rich pink, faced carmine.

Kaiserin Augusta Victoria—A vigorous grower, buds pointed, flowers extra large, and very double. Color creamy white.

Killarney—Splendid rose, beautiful pointed buds and extra large flowers; bright coral pink, fragrant and beautiful.

Lady Hillingdon—Long, slender, pointed bud of deep apricot-yellow; very free flowering and a good grower; striking decorative rose. Awarded gold medal.

Lady Roberts—A rich golden yellow rose.

Mad. Butterfly—Ophelia-like in appearance, but far deeper and richer color. Very attractive.

Mad. Caroline Testout—Charming variety of LaFrance type; flowers large and double; bright satiny pink with rose center, strong grower; free flowering and fragrant.

Madame Jenny Guillemot—Deep saffron-yellow, opening canary with dark golden shadings; buds long and pointed, petals and blooms immense, beautiful upright grower and free bloomer.

Mrs. Aaron Ward—Coppery-orange in open bud, golden-orange when partly developed, pinkish-fawn of lovely shade when fully open, when it looks like a fluffy-silk rosette. Color effect of the whole flower is Indian yellow.

Ophelia—Salmon-flesh, shaded rose; large, and of perfect shape; excellent habit, flowers standing up well on long, stiff stems, produced in great profusion.

Radiance—Splendid and popular rose; deep pink in color. Produces heavy canes and wonderfully fine blooms.

Rhea Reid—Long buds, free-blooming and exquisitely fragrant, rich, dark velvety red.

Red Radiance—A glowing crimson sport of Radiance with all the magnificent qualities of the parent, enormous globular flowers on heavy canes, dazzling, crimson-scarlet.

Red Letter Day—Exceedingly beautiful rose of infinite grace and charm. Its velvety, brilliant, scarlet crimson buds and fully opened cactus-like flowers never fade, as reflex of petals is satiny crimson-scarlet.

Sunburst—A magnificent giant yellow rose, well adapted for outdoor growing. Buds long and pointed, borne singly on long, stout stems, superb orange copper, with deep orange center.

William R. Smith—Creamy white with shadings of pink. Beautiful in form and color; long stiff stems; vigorous growth; superb summer bedder.

White Killarney—An offspring of the famous pink Killarney, identical with it except that the flowers are pure white.

Select New, Rare and Scarce Roses

Strong, 2-year-old plants, 35c each; $4.00 per dozen

Augustine Guinoisseau (White LaFrance)—Sport from LaFrance, identical in habit, form and vigor, but in color a delicate blush.

Bessie Brown—A rose of transcendent beauty, large and full, color pure white, sometimes faintly flushed pink; petals enormous, shell shape.

Blumenschmidt—Pure, citron-yellow, outer petals edged tender rose. Sport from Mad. Francisca Kruger.

Bridesmaid—A fine, clear, dark pink.

Burbank—Free-flowering everbearing rose, by Burbank, known the world over as the "Wizard of Horticulture." Color deep pink.

Catherine Mermet—Bright flesh color, full and finely formed.

Cornelia Cook—A beautiful rose in great demand for its magnificent buds, which are large, perfect and pure white.

Etoile de Lyon — Beautiful chrome yellow, deepening at center to pure golden yellow.

F. R. Patzer — Beautiful and distinct rose of free-flowering character, color creamy-buff, back of petals delicate warm pink. Valuable for garden culture.

General de Tartas — A first-class rose for bedding, brilliant carmine, large size.

Golden Gate — Flowers large, double and full. Rich creamy white, tinged with yellow; petals large and frequently bordered with clear rose.

Gruss an Teplitz — As a bedding rose this is one of the finest. Color scarlet, shaded to velvety crimson.

Helen Good — A sport from the world-famous variety Maman Cochet. Delicate pink, each petal edged deeper.

Helen Cambier—Flowers large and full, varying from rosy-flesh and salmon to copper, an extra fine showy variety.

Every or White Golden Gate — Pure white.

Isabella Sprunt — Regular canary yellow, beautiful buds.

Jules Finger — Extra large, finely formed flowers; full and fragrant. Rosy scarlet, beautifully shaded with crimson.

La France — Oldest and best of the Hybrid Teas; deliciously fragrant; very large.

Louis Phillipe — Rich, dark, velvety-crimson; profuse bloomer.

Lucullus (The Black Rose) — Rich crimson; fragrant, a constant and profuse bloomer.

Madison — A greatly improved Bride. Best feature of Madison is foliage does not mildew. After being well established, Madison will cut as many flowers as Killarney.

Mad. Camille — Delicate rosy-flesh, changing to salmon-rose; immense double buds.

Mad. Francisca Kruger — Deep yellow, sometimes rich and glowing, at other times dark, with shadings of copper and rose; large and double.

Mad. Lombard — Extra full flowers; double; beautiful rose color; tinged salmon and buff; buds and reverse of petals crimson.

Mad. De Vetry — Satisfactory rose for general planting. Big clear buds, opening well, showing to great advantage. Rich crimson-scarlet.

Malmaison — Rich, creamy flesh, changing to lovely fawn with rose center; very large, perfectly double.

Maman Cochet — One of the best. Strong, vigorous growth; flowers large, of perfect form and produced on long stiff stems. Deep rose pink inner side of petals being silvery rose.

Marie Guillet—A standard variety of Tea Roses; splendid for any use, especially desirable for summer rose beds; pure white.

Marie Van Houtte — A lovely rose; color white tinged yellow; delicately shaded pale rose on outer petals; full and double, sweet tea scent.

Meteor — A rich, velvety-crimson, bright and striking; constant bloomer.

Mrs. B. R. Cant — Splendid garden rose; solid even color; bright, rosy pink, large size, perfectly double and full; heavy bloomer; particularly fine in the Fall, clean, handsome grower.

Queen Scarlet — A constant and profuse bloomer; color rich velvety-scarlet.

Safrano — Bright apricot yellow, tinged with rose; valued for its beautiful buds.

White Maman Cochet — Identical with Maman Cochet, except the color is white; very desirable. Best white rose grown.

Wellesley — Bright, clear, salmon, rose, reverse of petal silvery rose.

CLIMBING ROSES

Strong 2-year old 50c each; $5.00 per dozen.

American Pillar — Flowers are three to four inches across, a lovely shade of apple-blossom pink, with clear white eye and cluster of yellow stamens. These flowers are borne in immense bunches, lasting in perfection a long time, followed by brilliant red hips or berries, carried late into the winter.

Climbing American Beauty — Seedling from American Beauty with Wichuraiana and Tea Blood in its veins. Same color, size and fragrance as American Beauty, with addition of the climbing habit.

Climbing Kaiserin, or Mrs. Robert Peary — A most remarkable rose, an offspring of that grand variety Kaiserin Augusta Victoria.

Climbing Killarney — Strong growth, with beautiful deep bronze green foliage, bearing long, pointed buds and flowers on heavy shoots and canes. An exquisite shade of deep brilliant pink.

Climbing Marie Guillot — Semi-climbing habit, identical in bloom with Marie Guillot, the loveliest of all white roses.

Climbing Mad. C. Testout — An exact counterpart of C. Testout, in a vigorous climber.

Climbing Maman Cochet — No rose we grow is as popular as Maman Cochet. Here we have an exact counterpart of that variety, except it is a vigorous climber.

Climbing Meteor — A rich, velvety-crimson, very bright and striking; continuous and profuse bloomer; very sweet.

Climbing White Maman Cochet — If there is one rose standing out in the affections of people more than another it is White Maman Cochet. Here we have a climbing form that has become as popular a climber as its parent has as a bush rose.

Dorothy Perkins — Flowers are borne in large clusters; very double, with pretty crinkled petals; beautiful clear shell-pink, lasting a long time without fading.

Dr. W. Van Fleet — Flowers open to four inches and over in diameter. A delicate shade of flesh-pink deepening to rosy-flesh in center. Flowers are full and double, of delicate perfume; buds pointed.

Gardenia (The hardy Marechal Niel)—This rose has proven itself hardy in Virginia and Tennessee. Deep golden-yellow.

Hiawatha — Brilliant, ruby-carmine, with clear white eye and a mass of golden stamens; flowers are about one and a half inches across, produced in long pendulous sprays. Strong, vigorous growth with bright green, glossy foliage, retained all winter.

Lamarque — Pure white, with lemon-colored center, a good grower.

Madam Jules Graveraux — Splendid rose of highest value, long-pointed buds, extra large, double flowers, of excellent substance. A pretty shade of chamois yellow, with rosy-peach center.

Marechal Niel — The grandest rose of any kind or color. The immense size and dark yellow-golden color of Marechal Niel flowers are familiar to all. 25c, 35c up to $1.00 each.

Mary Washington — Flowers pure white, produced in large clusters from early Spring to frost. Strong grower; quite hardy.

Paul's Scarlet Climber — Brilliant, vivid scarlet. Flowers medium size, semi-double, produced in clusters of three to twenty flowers each on much branched canes, plants being covered with flowers from top to bottom. Strong climbing habit and perfectly hardy.

Red Dorothy Perkins, or Excelsa — Same as Dorothy Perkins with crimson flowers.

Reine Marie Henriette — Clear cherry red. A strong, vigorous grower and free bloomer.

Silver Moon — Flowers four and one-half inches and over in diameter. Pure white petals of great substance, beautifully cupped, forming a clematis-like flower.

Solfaterre — Sulphur-yellow; large, full, and handsome.

Tausendscheon, or Thousand Beauties — A climbing rose. Flowers upon first opening are most delicate shade of pink ever seen in a rose, might be described as white, delicately flushed pink, changing to rosy-carmine.

William Allen Richardson — Orange yellow; outer petals lighter; center coppery yellow; strong grower; good bloomer.

White Dorothy—Duplicate of Dorothy Perkins, except the color is white.

HYBRID PERPETUAL ROSES

Two-year-old plants, 50c each, $5.00 per dozen.

J. B. Clark — Color is unique among roses, deep scarlet shaded blackish crimson, with rich bloom like a plum; strong, large and beautifully formed. Awarded gold medal N. R. S.

Mad. Masson—Flowers as large as American Beauty, and same color. A deep rose of bright red; highly perfumed; constant and free bloomer. Fine.

Paul Neyren — Flowers immense; probably the largest rose grown, and one of the finest; color deep pink; very double and full; finely scented with no suspicion of coarseness.

PANSIES, GIANT MIXED

Plant in the Fall for Spring and Summer blooming. 50c per dozen. $3.50 per 100.

PEONIES

Strong, healthy, quick-blooming peonies.
