National Help-Each-Other Common Chest & Red Cross Activities Funds Drive Plan

1948 National Help-Each-other Common Chest and Red Cross Activities Funds drive will be operated along the line of the similar plan for 1947, and the below is general description.

Campaigns of education

Whether the drive will end in success or in failure will depend on the manners of conducting campaigns of education. The people of all classes shall be informed over and over again the purpose and necessity of these social movements, and so atmosphere favorable to this drive must be created.

To put in practise one combination drive of social work common chest and Japan Red Cross activities funds, will very likely encounter some defficulties when attempted an explanation. However from consideration of different histories and different surroundings with which these two grow, their individualities should not be mixed, and care must be given to the following.

1. In trying to obtain the best results in conducting campaign of education equal emphases on these two sister movements may be made without bringing much outcome. It is desirable to keep, the ofjective and signifance which are naturally attached to the Help-Each-Other movement plainly distinctive from the Red Cross activities.

2. In conducting propaganda to the public alway link the two movements together, including their titles and objectives. This is desirable, because it is intended to maintain a common front, but when the occasion warrants the two may be treated in separation.

3. In work of popularization of this common enterprise it may be called as:

National Help-Each-Other Common Chest & Red Cross Activities Funds) drive.

4. When a box is used on the street to have money thrown in then print marks of the two activities on the front of the box.

(same when badges are used).

5. This common drive is operated as the result of the agreement which says:

"As a rule these two activities ought to be carried out in separation, but a common drive will be enforced for 1948 only from reason of too short period in preparation and the length of duration of the drive. The both parties are not bound whatsoever for the next year to this agreement."
So whether presentation of common front be made the next year or not is matter of uncertainty. It is therefore desirable that care be taken so that in case of separate drive from the next year on, nothing confusing for the public to grasp the idea be kept off from appearing.

6. In form of propaganda anything attractive may be encouraged, but vulgar and obnoxious expresions should be withheld.

Enforcement of funds collection

1. Period of enforcement:

From October 1 to October 31, (As a rule).

2. Description of the field activities:

This drive is not only up to the masses of citizenship, but also should be propelled by them. Especially young students should be appealed to make them organized as to launch cultural crusades and to work willingly in campaigns of helping each other:

So Give attention to the following.

(a) Children and middle school students will organize themselves in teams of funds-collection. The location of working place of each team will be designated before-hand.

(b) College students in teams will be made to make house-to-house calls in their own separate districts or areas.

(c) Through rural cultural bodies such as the youth corpses or the young women's organizations, or receiving positive cooperation from these, or with assistance of adult women's associations or public welfare workers, in parallel with cultural and artistic activities, those who conduct the campaign will solicit agrarian systems to volunteer to serve the purposes of the drive.

(d) The teams assigned to collection of big subscriptions will better come in contact with such special bodies which can aid them such as the industry clubs or chambers of commerce and so on.

3. Obtaining subscription promises:

(a) Pleading on big businessmen for promises of big subscriptions. In making this drive refer in advance to the records and books of the previous year.

4. House-to-house collections:

(a) In making appeal care must be taken so that mutual understanding be sought, and the offering must be proportionate to the ability of the donor. Any action which smucks of compulsion is better be refrained from.

But at each house an average expectation may be frankly told and voluntary efforts on the part of the donor to come up to that level may properly be suggested.

(b) In order to attain the goal set for a given town or village it may be well to form teams of workers from members of young men or womens bodies, or groups of children, students, public welfare workers, or members of any other organizations. These teams will take part in cultural or artistic movements in the town or village, and turn the proceeds of their own theatrical plays or picture showing into this fund. Or they may hold a country fair, where to sell vegetables, or accept free offering of articles and put them for sale. In this way money may be secured to a good amount.

(c) In cities thorough house-to-house solicitation is recommended. The workers will be equipped with lists of average amounts which are computated from the prefecture-set goal. In this case it may be well to separate solicitors' teams from collectors' teams.

(d) In front of each home which offered contribution, put a 'bill' which shows contribution is gratefully accepted.

5. The street drive:

(a) In making appeal to the passers-by in the street refrain from uttering doleful language. Use cheerful words which will resound delight of mutual help actions.

(b) During the street activities, consign given teams to definite places. Ask them never fail to appear in their places.

(c) Don't allow an unsightly collection box to be placed in the sight of the public, lest it will make the people feel not to throw money into it.

(d) To all donors, irrespective of the sizes of their contributions, each of them will receive a "loving feather."

6. Work place collection:

Cooperate with the spot organizations, and induce them, out of their own proposal, to develop campaigns of funds drive for "help each other".

7. School collection:

Join together with social lesson work. For practical training of this lesson enlist aids of school managements to arrange students in street or house call activities.

8. Tax-exempted show holding:

Admission tax now being turned as the prefectural tax, when the measures provided in Section 8 of Niigata Prefecture tax appraisal levy law and Item 4, Article 67, the Admittance Tax Law are taken, and obtained approval of the Governor, then tax payment will not be required.

9. The transaction tax:

The transaction tax was lately enacted: According to this law at every step, a thing on the move from its origination down to the ultimate consumer it will be subjected to levy of this tax. The form of this tax payment will be made by use of revenue stamps, or certificate stamps, or putting them on the receipt paper. If a certain facility or an organization takes trouble of making collection and produce them to the director of the finance bureau having jurisdiction over the area concerned, a certain prescribed fees will be given it. Therefore it may be well for such facility or organization to make arrangement with a company, a store, a bank or other bodies to get certificate stamps involved turned over to it, or join hand with others for agitation to make the people surrender the certificate stamps, due to them.

5. Deciding the goal.

Amount to be raised for the Community Chest and for the Japanese Red Cross Society will respectively be carefully assessed, and to these will be added the expense necessary for the campaign management. The total of these three will be considered as the goal of the campaign. The total and the amount to be raised for each party will be indicated to the people.

As an example if the amount to be raised are for the Community Chest 7,000,000 yen, for Red Cross 3,000,000 yen and for management 1,000,000 yen, the total 11,000,000 yen will be the goal.

6. Campaign Method.

(1) Publicizing the goal.

When a goal is decided the basis of calculation of the goal will be clearly indicated and publicized so that the people will trust in the cause and support the campaign.

(2) While the Community Chest and the Red Cross will cosely cooperate with each other, the special characteristics of each will be mutually respected as it relates to the conduct of their normal routine business and activities.

7. Publicity and collection.

For publicity purposes the names Community Chest and Red Cross as well as the purposes of both will appear on the same poster in so far as possible, while separate publicity is not forbidden covering routine activities.

(1) The token of contribution will be a red feather.

(2) Red Cross buttons will be given to those persons whose contributions to the Red Cross amont to its membership fee. (see paragraph 9 below).

(3) On the collection boxes already prepared by the Community Chest, the emblem of Red Cross will be added by the side of the mark for Community Chest. When Red Cross boxes are used, they will also carry Community Chest marks.

(4) Immunity certificate and the receipt will be in the name of both parties.

DECLASSIFIED E. O. 12065 SECTION 3-402 / NNDS NO. 1750 15

6. Campaign Method.

(1) Publicizing the goal.

When a goal is decided the basis of calculation of the goal will be clearly indicated and publicized so that the people will trust in the cause and support the campaign.

(2) While the Community Chest and the Red Cross will cosely cooperate with each other, the special characteristics of each will be mutually respected as it relates to the conduct of their normal routine business and activities.

7. Publicity and collection.

For publicity purposes the names Community Chest and Red Cross as well as the purposes of both will appear on the same poster in so far as possible, while separate publicity is not forbidden covering routine activities.

(1) The token of contribution will be a red feather.

(2) Red Cross buttons will be given to those persons whose contributions to the Red Cross amont to its membership fee. (see paragraph 9 below).

(3) On the collection boxes already prepared by the Community Chest, the emblem of Red Cross will be added by the side of the mark for Community Chest. When Red Cross boxes are used, they will also carry Community Chest marks.

(4) Immunity certificate and the receipt will be in the name of both parties.

DECLASSIFIED E. O. 12065 SECTION 3-402 / NND NO. 11303

8. Method of distribution of the fund raised.

In the first place the management expense will be subtracted from the total amount collected. The remainder will be divided for the Community Chest and the Red Cross through the fund raising secretariats according to the ratio of the respective goals.

In the example shown above, let us assume a total of 12,000,000 yen was raised. Subtracting management expense, the remainder will be:

¥ 12,000,000 - ¥ 1,000,000 = 11,000,000 yen

Pro rata divisions of this amount will be respectively:

C.C. ¥ 11,000,000 7/10 = 7,700,000 yen

R.C. ¥ 11,000,000 3/10 = 3,300,000 yen

The same pro rata division will apply in all cases, when the amount collected goes over the goal or when it falls short of the goal.

9. Treatment of the donors for membership in the Red Cross.

All the donors will be considered as having understood both the idea underlying the Community chest and the spirit of the Red Cross and have mede donations in sympathy of and to support these objectives. Accordingly all donors will become supporting members of the Japanese Red Cross Society.

The persons donating an amount which is equal to or is over the regular and the special Red Cross membership fees after the pro rata division is computed will be considered as such members.

Using the same ratio as in the above stated example, that is 3/10 for Red Cross, we get the following two equations:

¥ 100 × 3/10 = 30 yen

¥ 1,670 × 3/10 = 501 yen

The person donating 100 yen will be regular Red Cross members; and persons donating 1,670 yen will be special Red Cross members.

DECLASSIFIED E. O. 12065 SECTION 3-402 / NNDC 1705

10. Collection fee (Commission) or returning of the fund to the locality where such a fund was collected is strictly forbidden. The allocation of the fund for the paricipating members of the present campaign, namely the beneficiaries, in the cities, towns and villages does not fall under this rule.

11. Expenses.

(1) The campaign expenses in the center (for the joint efforts) will be borne by the two parties at the ratio of the total goals for the entire country for the community chest and the Red Cross respectively.

(2) Local Expenses.

a. In the same manner as in the above stated example the management expense amounting to 1,000,000 yen will be bone by the two parties as follows:

C.C. ¥ 1,000,000. X 7/10 = 700,000 yen

R.C. ¥ 1,000,000. X 3/10 = 300,000 yen

b. While the expenses will be borne pro rata by the two parties as shown above for the Joint Expenses, Independent expenditure for undertakings carried out separately, each will pay his own.

12. The details of the present agreement will be worked out by the fund raising secretaiats through the Joint Committee or the Liaison Conference, etc.
