Mr. Peckham then called on Mr. Widener, who gave an address such as any would be proud to hear. It was essentially patriotic and carried with it a lesson for each and every one of us. He told of a man in a certain town in Nevada, who was aware of a great number of people in his country who were not supporting this government. He was told to get all the support possible for Liberty Bonds. He jumped on his horse, rode up to those "unpatriotic" citizens and said: "Now, look here, I'm a big guy (and he was) and I've got a big gun. Now you buy bonds or I'll use it and use it hard!" It is housing and feeding thousands of children in the War Zone to keep them away from the danger of gas and shell fire?

It has divided the entire War Zone into six main districts, with Red Cross workers at each point to distribute cooking utensils, agricultural implements, beds, bedding, food and clothing?

It provides builders and ready-to-put-up buildings to house the homeless in the devastated regions, often before the walls of the destroyed homes have cooled?

It is bringing over two hundred tons of supplies every day into Paris, from which one hundred and twenty-five tons are reshipped to branch warehouses over France?

It is providing an artificial limb factory outside of Paris, in addition to special plants for the making of splints?

Every cent of every dollar received for the Red Cross War Fund goes for War Relief.

The American Red Cross is the largest and most efficient organization for the relief of suffering that the World has ever seen.

It is made up almost entirely of volunteer workers, the higher executives being without exception men accustomed to large affairs, who are in almost all cases giving their services without pay. It is supported entirely by its membership fees and by voluntary contributions.

It is today bringing relief to suftering humanity, both military and civil, in every War-torn allied country. It plans to help the work of res-

It feeds and clothes entire popu-lations in times of great calamity.

It is there to help your soldier boy in his time of need.

With its thousands of workers, its tremendous stores and smooth-running transportation facilities, it is serving as America's advance guard and thus helping to win the war.

Congress authorizes it.

President Wilson heads it. The War Department audits its accounts.

Your Army, your Navy and your Allies enthusiastically endorse it.

Twenty-two million Americans have joined it.
