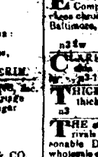
METHOD OF LEARNING TO READ IN 20 LESSONS.

MR. VANNIER—Surveyor, formerly Engineer on the Ohio, and author of the only approved and adopted method to teach Rapido Pavon in 20 Lessons, proposes to put this admirable method into practice, subject to pay for it only in case of success, which takes place every day, from 8 o'clock in the morning to 10 at night, at 180 Toulouse street, between Bourbon and Dauphine.

Three professors will apply the same alleviated method of instruction according to the intelligence of pupils, to writing, orthography, arithmetic geometry, algebra, surveying, fortification, navigation, book keeping, and accounts of all kinds. may 14 1838



WRITING.—Those who prefer a neat and expeditious hand writing, will be offered the best specials to call at Dolbear's Writing Academy, corner of Canal at the Exchange place. For the accommodation of business men, the academy will be open in a NIGHT CLASS commencing at half-past 7 o'clock.

The Academy having been in operation for several years, and having, during the present year, very largely increased, the publishers have reason to say that the public may rely upon the continuance in sustainable reputation which this institution at present possesses, and to furnish facilities as hitherto to engrossing a better business hand in a few days than is attainable by a practice of years according to other methods.
