FRANCE SUFFERS AS RESULT OF STORM

Loss of Life is Reported; Fishing Craft Fail to Return to Their Ports

Houses Unroofed; Accident on Railroad Was Caused By Wind

Paris, Nov. 28.—A violent tempest yesterday wrought havoc both along the western seaboard and in the interior of France, occasioning also some loss of life.

At Nantes a rowboat ferrying homeward-bound workers from the shipyard across the Loire filled and sank when struck by a large wave, the eight occupants being drowned.

At the Sables d'Olonne a seaman was swept off a ketch while trying to make harbor and was drowned.

In the Cherbourg region houses were unroofed and trees uprooted, while a pontoon used in harbor work was torn from its moorings and driven against the steamer Cator, lying at anchor.

All steamship services to Havre were delayed.

RAILROAD ACCIDENT Near Lemans the wind started two freight cars, blowing them into a passenger train, and three persons were injured. Other freight cars were blown off the tracks at Champagnon, nearby, causing some delay in the Paris-Brest train service.

At the Brest aerodrome several sheds were unroofed and eight military aeroplanes damaged.

LABOR MEN HOSTS TO SON OF FORMER BRITISH PREMIER

Malcolm MacDonald, son of the Premier Ramsay MacDonald, was the guest of Thomas Uphill, labor member for Fernie, at luncheon in the parliamentary restaurant in the Parliament Buildings to-day. After luncheon Mr. MacDonald was given a distinguished visitors' chair on the floor of the House, where he was an interested auditor of this afternoon's debate.

LITTLE CHILD IS SMOTHERED IN BED

Death Takes Toll of Sleeping Infant by Accidental Suffocation

Pathetic in the extreme was the story told to Coroner Dr. E. C. Hart to-day at the inquest on the body of Josephine Harknett, six-week-old baby girl of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Harknett, 1325 Walnut Street. The infant was found dead yesterday morning by the distracted mother in the bed that the little tot had shared with her parents during the night.

When the mother returned to the bedroom to take up the infant, shortly before 8 a.m., it was to find the little tot purple in the face from lack of air. It is surmised that the infant rolled in its sleep until blankets shut off the air passage to the nose and mouth.

Suffocation followed. Medical help was called at once, but the infant was beyond human aid.

Dr. Hart, in explaining to the jury the facts of the case, stated he had called in an inquest to bring the facts of the case before the public, in that accidental smothering was a not infrequent tragedy that happened to tiny children. In this case there was no suggestion of any carelessness or circumstance other than unavoidable accident. The tragedy, pathetic as it was, would be a warning to parents generally of how easily death may take from their dearest possessions.

The jury returned a verdict of accidental death after momentary deliberation. The inquest was held at the McCall Funeral Company premises under City Police auspices.

Surplus Materials Being Sold by U.S. War Department

Washington, Nov. 28.—Sale of surplus materials valued at $125,000,000 by the War Department during the 1924 fiscal year at a return of about thirty-six per cent on the cost price was disclosed to-day in the annual report of Assistant Secretary Dwight Davis. As about half the articles sold were used materials or broken-up ammunition, he explained, the return against cost price was lower than in previous years.

Transfers and withdrawals brought the total of surplus dispositions during the year up to more than $187,000,000, and the total since the war up to $3,166,000,000.

ELECTION WAGER MADE MAN JUMP INTO ICY WATER

Belleville, Ont., Nov. 28.—Paying a wager he lost when E. Guss Porter was defeated in the West Hastings Federal by-election on Tuesday, a prominent resident of Frankfort Village, near here, dressed in his usual clothing, jumped a distance of eighteen feet from a bridge into the ice-cold Trent River while crowds of townspeople looked on.

BROADCASTING IN FRANCE IS TO BE STATE MONOPOLY

Paris, Nov. 28.—Pierre Robert, Under-Secretary of State for Posts, Telegraphs and Telephones, announced in the Chamber yesterday that he considered radio telephone broadcasting should be organized as a Government monopoly service. He proposed, he said, to submit a bill to that end to Parliament in due course.

SEA BOTTOM SCANNED FOR BODIES OF VICTIMS BY DIVERS IN GULF

No Technicalities Will Be Allowed to Stand in Way of Trial of Men Held in Gillis Murder Case if Evidence Warrants It, States United States Prosecuting Attorney Working With Provincial Police.

An assurance that Charles Morris, Harold Morris, Ray Cramer and Clarence Cheatwood, now facing extradition on charges of complicity in the murder of the late Capt. W. G. Gillis and William Gillis, would face a British court of justice eventually, no matter what delays were interposed by counsel for the defense, was indicated by Major Bert C. Ross, Deputy Prosecuting Attorney for Seattle County, to The Times to-day.

Major Ross, with Deputy Attorney T. H. Patterson; Deputy Sheriff Frank Anderson and other American law officers, are working hand in hand with the Provincial Police to bring the Gillis murder case to trial on Canadian soil. Paul Strumkins, alleged boatman for the hi-jack party, is already under arrest in this city. The four men mentioned as facing extradition proceedings are held in Seattle, pending preliminary argument on their case on December 19 in the King County courts.

Owen Baker and Harry P. Myers are fugitives with a price on their heads. Baker was arrested in an American city two weeks ago on a charge of drunkenness, and released before word of his arrest could be sent upon by the officers seeking the man on the major charge.

Yard by yard the sea floor at the place indicated by Strumkins to the police near Sidney Island is being searched for bodies. A strong tide that races through the narrow channel at that point makes difficult the work of the police in trying to locate the remains of Capt. Gillis and his son, shackled together with handcuffs and weighed down by the anchor of the Jerry.

That the remains of the bodies will be found is confidently expected by police heads here. The finding of the bodies is precedent to the holding of an inquest, whereas the bodies on open charges might face criminal indictment, if their connection with the case is established.

It is now known that the rounding up of the murder suspects was largely the work of Inspector E. Cruickshank of the Provincial Police, who, week after week, for close on three months, hunted in every row in the elimination of every man, woman and child that piles on the sound until, with inexorable force, police attention was drawn to his present solution. In this respect Inspector Cruickshank met reverse after reverse; the exploit of one theory after another, with dogged persistence that carried him through in what is now believed to be the end of the long trail.

Inspector Cruickshank was backed by sterling work on the part of Inspector Walter Owen and the staffs of the Victoria and Vancouver Provincial Police offices, all under Col. McNeill, superintendent of the provincial police. The Gillis murder case is still being investigated.

Final arguments were concluded this morning.

Sir John Simon, counsel for the bank, in a scathing denunciation of Robinson, declared this was the first time in the history of law that a man had the "hardhood" to come into court openly to obtain a stupendous sum of money which had been proved to have been the result of blackmail.

On the other hand, Lord Halsbury, representing Robinson, asserted that conspiracy had not been proved on the part of his client. He dismissed the sensational testimony of Montagu Newton to the effect that he had posed as the husband of Mrs. Robinson in the alleged fleeing of the Indian prince with the remark that "it was bought for £2,000."

It had been previously stated by counsel that Newton was paid £3,000 to testify regarding the alleged blackmail plot.

U. S. Company Is Planning Atlantic Airship Mails

Berlin, Nov. 28.—A weekly mail dirigible airship mail service between the United States and Europe will soon be started, Dr. Hugo Eckener, director of the Gothaer Company, who had charge of the ZR-7's transatlantic flight, said to-day. The Zeppelin-Gothaer combination does not intend to establish a passenger service for the present, he indicated, but believes an airship each way weekly carrying half-a-million letters, at twenty-five cents each would be business success.

Dr. Eckener expects soon to leave for Spain to arrange for a Madrid-Buenos Ayres service, to be operated on the same basis as the weekly service to and from the United States.

The dirigibles on that route would take four days—going from Europe and four and one-half days returning, he estimated.

The airship of the future will be larger than the ZR-7, according to Dr. Eckener, who predicted the capacity at from 100,000 to 310,000 cubic metres. With such a ship, he declared, the North Pole region could be easily explored.

As a measure for affecting easy landings for the big dirigibles, making a repetition of the trouble experienced on the occasion of the Los Angeles christening of the Los Angeles unlikely, Dr. Eckener suggests starting and landing at night when the sun is not shining and little gas need be blown off.

COMMUNIST LEADERS IN RUSSIA CARRY ON CAMPAIGN AGAINST TROTZKY

Washington, Nov. 28.—Informal discussions have been instituted between representatives of the French and United States Governments relative to a basis for funding the former's war-time debt to the United States.

LEO KAMENOFF

TROTZKY SILENT AS OPPONENTS ATTACK

His Assistant Carries on Work of Directing Soviet War Office

Moscow, Nov. 28.—The full text of the reports of Leo Kamenoff and M. Stalin attacking War Minister Trotsky have just been published. These reports heretofore have been confined to the inner circles of the Communist Party. Trotsky's career, prior to the 1917 revolution and during and after the Bolshevik coup, is carefully surveyed in forty columns of printed matter. Both Kamenoff and Stalin, the Soviet leaders, strive to show that Trotsky always has acted as a "Menshevik" and now has departed from pure Bolshevism and party idealism.

Kamenoff explains that the Central Committee of the party was compelled to inaugurate a campaign against Trotsky because his recent book, "Lessons of the 1917 Revolution," was being published under the ostensible protection of the Communist Party.

Stalin, who is a member of the executive committee of the Communist Party, comments unparaphrasingly on the War Minister's "heresy" and his alleged abandonment of orthodox Bolshevik principles. He accuses Trotsky of attempting to replace Lenin. He also urges members of the party to wage a relentless war against the military leader, as (Concluded on page 2)

Appeal is Desired in Home Bank Case

Toronto, Nov. 28.—Judge Coatsworth to-day refused to grant a certificate of reasonable doubt to facilitate an appeal to a higher court in the case of C. C. Barnard, K.C., of Montreal, who was a director of the Home Bank of Canada and who was convicted recently on three charges in connection with the collapse of the bank. It is understood counsel for Barnard will carry the motion for appeal to the Supreme Court of Ontario.

BRITISH DOCTOR AND TWO SYRIANS KILLED IN KHARTUM BEFORE DISORDER QUELLED

Two Platoons of Egyptian Troops Mutinied; British Force Obligated to Fire on Them; Cairo-Sudan Communications Cut; Twelve More Nationalists Arrested by British in Cairo; Further Arrests Promised by Egyptian Government.

Cairo, Nov. 28.—Two platoons of the Eleventh Sudanese at Khartum mutinied to-day and attacked the military hospital, killing one British and two Syrian doctors.

British troops fired on the mutineers, who suffered severe casualties.

Further details of the mutiny are not yet available. It is known, however, that a certain restlessness existed in the Eleventh Battalion last August.

A big meeting of the students at Alazabar called for to-day passed off without incident.

British cavalry and infantry again paraded Cairo this morning and aerial reconnaissances were carried out over the principal towns. All was reported quiet.

It is stated in official quarters, however, that it was expected if trouble broke out along the Nile, it would be in the Sudan. While a mutiny of troops was not an expected possibility, it was not left outside of calculations, and the Government feels that it has the position so well in hand that spreading of the disorders to Egypt is improbable.

The arrest and imprisonment of the leaders of the Egyptian extremists removes the greater danger to the situation in Cairo and Alexandria where any important outbreaks, it is thought, would be likely to start.

The new Egyptian Government has co-operated far with the British Government authorities as to assume responsibility for the arrest and imprisonment of these dangerous extremists now being carried out by the British, and the cessation of this will take no further action against the fanatics on its own responsibility.

The persons already arrested by the British have been turned over to the Egyptian authorities.

FOUR-YEAR TERM IS GIVEN MAN ON MORPHINE CHARGE

Vancouver, Nov. 28.—Four years' imprisonment in the penitentiary and a $500 fine, or in default of payment an additional three months' imprisonment, was the sentence imposed in county court here to-day by Judge Cayley upon F. Garham, convicted of distributing morphine by enclosing the drug in a parcel mailed to his wife in Victoria.

Judge Cayley, when passing sentence, said the man was an expense and a curse to the city. "We don't want him or his kind around. I will give him four years."

French Academy Has Three New Members

Paris, Nov. 28.—Three more "immortals" as the members of the French Academy are designated, were created yesterday. They are Georges Lecomte, president of the French Authors' Society; Emile Picard, mathematician, and Albert Benard, seventy-five-year-old artist, who has the distinction of being the first painter ever to enter the French Academy.

Following the recent assassination of the Sirdar, Major-General Sir Leo Stack, it was said a network of plots had been discovered, menacing the lives of British officials of all ranks in Egypt.

NOT A CRAIL TROUBLE London, Nov. 28.—The Egyptian Embassy in London confirms the news from Cairo that an outbreak among Egyptian troops at Khartum, but adds that it considers the outbreak was not due to any influence outside the battalion involved and is not connected officially with the troubles in Cairo.

The Cairo correspondent of The London Morning Post has called that it is reported that further arrests have been made. He is unable, however, to obtain confirmation. He adds that many more arrests are to be expected in the near future.

DUNCAN BOARD OF TRADE DISCUSSES LIVE ISSUES AT QUARTERLY MEETING

Establishment of Tannery Proposed to Help Farmers and Butchers in Disposing of Hides; Log Exportation Criticized.

Special to The Times

Duncan, Nov. 28.—The quarterly meeting of Duncan Board of Trade was held on Wednesday, the president, Dr. D. E. Kerr, in the chair. Those present were E. W. Neel, T. Pitt, S. R. Kirkham, O. T. Smythe, W. T. Corbishley, H. T. Reed, W. C. Tanner, A. H. Peterson, St. John Gray, H. R. Gray, D. Ford, F. G. Aldersey, E. G. Sanford, L. T. Brockway, R. Corfield, and E. T. Cresswell, secretary.

The president read his quarterly report on the various matters which have come before the board during the past three months, the main feature being the cementing of the relationship with the Victoria Chamber of Commerce and the various Boards of Trade of the Island. He also mentioned that the Knights of Pythias had accepted the board's invitation to hold its 1925 convention in Duncan, and that six new members had been added to the board.

The report was adopted and placed on record. Messrs. Fleming, Kirkham, Neel and the secretary were appointed a committee to arrange for a lecture by one of the university professors in the beginning of the year, a smoking concert will also be held as soon as convenient, Messrs. Aldersey, Pitt, Sanford and Brockway to arrange necessary details.

The transport service of the Dominion Express between the railway at Nanaimo and the wharf was discussed, and the matter referred to the transport committee for consideration.

TANNERY

Mr. Ford brought forward the idea of the possibility of establishing a tannery in the district. He mentioned the difficulty in disposing of hides which was experienced by farmers and butchers, and the suitability of Cowichan owing to the quantity of hemlock which would be available here for the process of tanning. This matter was referred to the industrial committee.

The subject of an embargo on un-manufactured lumber exported from British Columbia was discussed, and Mr. T. Pitt stated that on a recent trip through some of the adjoining states he had found three mills, managers of which told him that they were using British Columbia lumber as it was cheaper, found a better market, and at the same time preserved their own. A unanimous resolution was passed that the board go on record as being in favor of an embargo being placed on lumber exports, and desiring that the Associated Boards of Trade of the Island should take up the matter.

Major Rattray, Henry Humphreys, George Savage and V. H. Wilson were new members elected.

LADYSMITH TO HEAR LECTURE ON MINING

Professor Turnbull Will Speak at Meeting Next Month

Special to The Times

Ladysmith, Nov. 28.—A meeting of more than usual interest will be held in the Band Hall, Ladysmith, on Tuesday, December 16, at 8 p.m., when Professor Turnbull will deliver a lecture on "Mining, Ancient and Modern," under the auspices of the University of B.C. Extension Committee. Professor Turnbull is an excellent speaker, and his lecture should be most interesting to those engaged in mining and prospecting. No admission charge will be made, and it is to be hoped that a large audience will be present to encourage this effort to bring such lectures within reach of those who are unable to hear them at the university. T. A. Spruston will be in the chair, and a musical programme will be given as well.

GIRL GUIDES

A very enjoyable evening was spent last night in Goulds Hall, Ladysmith, under the auspices of the Girls' Guild of St. John's Church, the entertainment taking the form of a social, whist drive, followed by a dance. The prize winners for the whist drive were Miss F. Lloyd and J. Steele; consolation, Miss Hill. For the dance an impromptu orchestra of Misses F. Lloyd and V. Young supplied the music, which was very well received.

Robert Laird, an old-timer in this district, has been appointed caretaker of the Ladysmith Agricultural Hall.

PUBLIC MEETING AT DUNCAN TO DISCUSS ELECTRICAL ENERGY

Engineer Reports in Favor of Diesel Engine Installation

Hydro-electric Development Too Costly, Council Told

Special to The Times

Duncan, Nov. 28.—The Council have received a report from the engineer engaged to advise the best means of augmenting the city's supply of electrical energy.

The report was in favor of adding to the Diesel engine installation, and against hydro-electric power developed in the Cowichan River at Skutz Falls or buying in bulk from Chemainus Mill. The former plan would be costly and likely to meet with strenuous opposition from the Provincial Fisheries Department, it was thought. The Chemainus proposition was also not recommended.

COSTS

The cost of installing an additional 320 horsepower Diesel engine was estimated at $22,242. With a fifteen per cent. reduction in the price charged for current, this should be a paying scheme at once. The construction of an eleven-mile extension to Soanawa was also suggested. The estimated return from this would be $2,400 in the first year and $1,500 in the first year might be expected from this around Quamichan Lake.

PUBLIC MEETING

A public meeting has been called by the council for December 17, when A. C. Yull, the engineer, will be present and answer any questions in connection with his report.

APPEALS DECISION

H. A. McLean has been instructed to appeal against the decision handed down last week by Mr. Justice Morrison in the case of Cameron vs. City of Duncan.

the question whether a charge of murder will be laid against E-Ter-Goo-Yuk, an Eskimo, for the death of a tribesman, Oob-Pa-Tow-Yuk, north of Baker Lake, in the Northwest Territories, more than a year ago. It is understood, however, that steps to arrest the murder suspect will hardly be taken at present for several reasons. Some doubt exists as to the probability of obtaining a conviction on the available evidence, and as E-Ter-Goo-Yuk is in the Chukotka Bay district the cost of sending a patrol to locate him and the expense of transporting officers of the crown to hold a trial at Chukotka Inlet would be enormous.

A WORTHY SON

MANY MAY NOT HAVE shared the views to which Mr. Malcolm MacDonald gave expression in his address to the Canadian Club yesterday.

This worthy son of a worthy father combines a faculty for happy phrasing with a pleasing voice and manner, while his keen sense of humor supplied a convenient vehicle for the personal bias which he warned his audience to expect.

Mr. MacDonald did not labor the reason for the temporary Liberal eclipse. It would not have suited the topic of his address.

But political oblivion is often nearer to political triumph than figures and facts would have us believe. Mr. Baldwin found that out after the election of last year.

Mr. Malcolm MacDonald's tour round the world should be one of the best investments of his life. He will learn more by personal contact and through the interchange of ideas than he could ever learn by intensive study at home.

SEED GROWING

WHEN PEOPLE ON Vancouver Island are discussing the establishment of industries they very often overlook opportunities which lie near at hand.

This is an industry which is becoming increasingly important. Unlike many of the war time industries, which owed their origin to the disappearance of the usual avenues of supply, the production of root and flower seeds—to say nothing of the cultivation of bulbs—has established itself and should easily be capable of profitable expansion.

Seeds and bulbs raised on the Mainland and Vancouver Island are on exhibition at the Provincial Potato and Seed Show which is now being held in Vancouver.

are proof positive that the remarkable fertility of the soil and stability of climatic conditions in this part of the Province should be more extensively utilized for the development of this industry.

LOGS AGAIN

THE MORNING PAPER once again returns to the subject of log export and urges the reinvigorated Associated Boards of Trade to "take advantage of the Legislature being in session to press forward for an embargo on the export of unmanufactured logs."

In an address before the Gyro Club on Monday Mr. C. F. Davie, member for the lumbering constituency of Cowichan-Newcastle, as reported by the morning paper, discussed the timber situation on the Island and registered vigorous opposition to the proposal to place an embargo on unmanufactured logs.

Mr. Davie presented a riding on this Island in which the lumber industry maintains a very large number of electors. It is the one district in this part of the Province with which its member in the Legislature should be thoroughly familiar.

DR. FRANK CRANE ON "The Minute Swallows the Year"

A MINUTE'S carelessness may wreck a life of carefulness. A minute's failure sometimes overthrows years of success.

No man knows what a day may bring forth, but it is safe to say that the day contains no other things than the accumulated results of a man's own efforts.

We may go along for years and seem to be accomplishing nothing, but we are storing up energy against some critical hour, some hour when all our faculties shall be put to the test.

It is wrong to say that this critical time is merely a matter of luck. Opportunity may have much to do with success, but not everything.

The Editor:—Some little time ago, when it was definitely known that the building of the Crystal Gardens was assured and when suggestions were being sought from the citizens, generally, in connection with the project, I wrote you making the suggestion that a really fine concert pipe organ would be one of the best attractions and investments for a building of this nature.

Other People's Views

Letters addressed to the Editor and intended for publication must be short and legibly written. The longer an article the shorter the lines, and the more uniform the margins, the better.

CHURCH BAZAARS

To the Editor:—In your publication of November 26, I read an article which stated that some lady storekeeper had written a letter of protest to the mayor to the effect that women's organizations from churches and clubs were showing to take over empty stores for the purpose of holding bazaars.

In conclusion, would say I heartily agree with the lady storekeeper, church collections are the ideal, but until the people will come to church, give their tenth or better, why I guess we will have to carry on and take over the 565 for holding our bazaar.

MAJOR BURDE AND LABOR

To the Editor:—The following resolution was passed at our general meeting this afternoon: "That whereas unemployment directly affecting the working class is a social evil, and should be a question of the utmost importance to the labor members and members who purport to represent labor; and whereas R. J. Burde, member for Alberni, has repeatedly claimed both in the Legislature and outside that he represents labor; and whereas on November 26, 1924, on a motion of vital importance to the unemployed of Victoria, supported by the three duly accredited labor members, the said R. J. Burde did register his vote against the motion; therefore be it resolved that this meeting of the unemployed of Victoria, November 27, 1924, protest this action of R. J. Burde and repudiate his claim to represent labor, and the conduct of the motion, together with the motion he refused to support, namely, 'That the members meet the unemployed,' be sent to provincial headquarters of the Canadian Labor Party, the Albert Labor Council, the Labor members of the Legislature and the Victoria Daily papers."

THE NEW CHRISTIANITY

To the Editor:—A local preacher, endeavoring to stimulate a new interest in what to him apparently has developed into an infatuation with the new "Christianity," has been entertaining his audience with a series of diatribes against the legislators, dope peddlers, gossipers, religious fundamentalists and other "delivers" in the gulch of a sermon and thereby admitting of no question or debate at the time of utterance, these lurid and sweeping statements, many of which are based neither on fact nor logic, may have made some impression upon the minds of many who think themselves too busy to read.

YOUR HEALTH

WHAT SOME AMAZING FACTS DISCLOSE ABOUT YOUR BODY

By Royal S. Copeland, M.D.

Just now I happened to pick up a book that has a chapter devoted to statistics about the human body. You will be interested to learn some of these facts.

In the body are more than 600 muscles, each of which has a name. There are above a thousand miles of blood vessels, including 150 arteries important enough to name.

The lungs are made up of tiny cells, in miniature like the cells of honeycomb. There are over 1,000,000 of these. If their surfaces, all used in our breathing, could be spread out on something flat, they would require a space of 2,000 square feet. This area is equal to a city lot, 20 by 100 feet. No wonder we need lots of air!

By the time you reach your allotted three score years and ten your stomach generates every year five half billion beats. That dependable organ will have given five hundred thousand tons of blood.

If you have the average crop of hair covering it, it contains a quarter of a million separate and distinct hairs. Filling that head of yours is a brain and running out from it a nervous system, having in all about three thousand million nerve cells.

In your blood are corpuscles, red and white. Of the latter there are thirty billions and of the red corpuscles there are the almost incomprehensible number of 150 trillions.

The skin throws off a quart of sweat on a cool day, and almost that much in ten minutes if you are badly scared. The kidneys dispose of from one to three quarts of fluid daily.

Almost three pints of saliva are swallowed every twenty-four hours. It is hard to believe, but the stomach generates every year from five to ten quarts of gastric juice.

You cannot be well unless all the intricate parts of your body are in good condition. It is the simple life that gives you health and vigor.

There must be a diet which provides the elements necessary to keep blood, saliva, gastric juice, muscles, nerves and brain in good condition. You must drink enough water to supply the fluid and must keep the skin clean so that the sweat glands may have ready exit for their products.

We are indeed fearfully and wonderfully made. To do justice to all our parts there must be sensible and correct living.

MACDONALD SAYS LABOR INCREASED HOLD IN BRITAIN

Points to Million of Votes Gained in Last Elections in Old Land

Says Party Has Done Great Good; Recommends Radical Changes

Talking to an auditorium packed with interested listeners, Malcolm MacDonald, son of E. Premier Ramsay MacDonald of Great Britain, spoke last night at the Community Church and sounded a trumpet call of optimism which rang through the ranks of Labor in Victoria. "Do not be discouraged," said this young politician, "because the Labor Party has lost possession in No. 10 Downing Street, for we are going to move back in there. As a matter of fact, during the nine months we were there, we had only time to hang pictures on the wall, before we were called upon to move out again."

No sooner had Mr. MacDonald, followed by Labor members of the Provincial Legislature and leaders of the party here, stepped upon the platform, than the audience burst into applause, which was only silenced when the chairman rose to make his introductory remarks.

"Everyone in Britain is thankful that the Labor Party came into power, for in that short time of office the budget called for a reduction of taxation upon the necessary food-stuffs that ordinary poor people eat. The Government gave far greater assistance to the poor and to society generally than was the case under the former Liberal or Conservative regimes. It was also able to establish the fact that its work was to help society," declared the speaker.

HOUSING BILL

Mr. MacDonald referred to the Housing Bill. He said that there were 1,000,000 too few houses in Great Britain, and that the Government had tried to alleviate this unfortunate state of affairs, and had granted a subsidy to keep down rents which ordinary laborer could not afford to pay.

There had been other things done, including the increasing of the allowances for the unemployed. But all was done quietly and constitutionally. The verdict of the people was impossible to misunderstand, he asserted.

THE VERDICT

The people's verdict made it possible for us to come through the last election with an increase of over 1,000,000 votes, although we did lose seats in the House of Commons," said Mr. MacDonald, "and our vote polled increased from something over 4,500,000 to something over 5,500,000, an all within ten months."

This, he believed, was sufficient indication of the steady growth of sentiment in favor of Labor in the Old Country, to ensure, at some future time, possibly at the next general election, a sweeping victory for his party. He pointed out that although the Conservative majority in the House was a large one, the party actually polled only 7,500,000 votes, approximately, while the Labor Party polled 5,500,000 in round figures. Asked in regard to a proposition of Liberal and Conservative.

He exhorted the people to examine society as it existed in the present day. They must be ready to criticize it. They must be prepared to find the bad equal to the good. In short there was a change essential. This change was to be found in the bringing about of an end of private ownership of industry and capital. Production, under the present day state, only takes place to serve some selfish end, and not when it is needed for the public gain.

The speaker went into some detail speaking of land ownership, and saying that, in some instances, land owners had bought their holdings for little suspecting that mineral wealth lay beneath the sod. In ten years before 1922, he asserted, these men who had purchased land, and incidentally the miners thereon, had received £200,000,000 in royalties from mines. During the same period $600 mc. had been killed in work in these properties and their relatives had received only £1,500,000 in compensation. There were 40,000 land owners who came under the royalty system of reception, he said.

"Can you wonder," he asked, "that the Labor movement grows?"

Referring to the unemployment in Britain at the present time Mr. MacDonald said that the minister of work could not buy the essentials to support life. Therefore, he condemned the system of private control of industries, which resulted in destruction of life and happiness.

"We have come to the point," he said, "when this can no longer continue."

"I submit that there should be a more equal distribution of wealth. The demand for necessities will encourage and stimulate industry. In the public hands this would be desirable," he asserted.

In conclusion the speaker stated that it was necessary to reconsider the whole social structure, to prepare a system to take care of the world when the capitalism of to-day crashed to ruin.

There were other speakers on the platform, and from among the audience many questions were asked and answered.

On the platform with the speaker were R. H. Neelands, Labor member for South Vancouver; Thomas Uphill, Labor member for Victoria; J. Brown of Burnaby, and Major R. J. Burde, Independent, from Alberni. W. E. Pierce, vice-president of the Labor Party here, was chairman of the meeting and introduced the speaker.

Immediately following the address which Mr. MacDonald delivered, he was literally swamped with questions which he answered in a clear and concise manner, giving explanations and opinions which showed him to be thoroughly conversant with economic conditions in Great Britain.

WOODWARD URGES $10 POLL TAX ON ALL MEN IN B.C.

Proposes Levy That Would Catch Everyone; Asks P.P. Tax Abolition

Says B.C. House in London Costs Too Much and is Not Worth While

Imposition of a poll tax of $10 a year upon every man in British Columbia, "so as to catch many people who are enjoying all public utilities without contributing towards the cost of their upkeep," was proposed in the Legislature yesterday by Charles Woodward, Liberal, Vancouver.

Mr. Woodward felt that the Government should have abolished the Personal Property Tax this year in order that it penalized development of the country as it taxed estate owners of British Columbia, he said, had capital enough to develop its resources and he did not believe that the Province should seek abroad for capital any more than necessary.

KEEP INTEREST HERE

"Let us go slow and go sure and keep the interest at home," he urged. Explaining the injustice of the Personal Property Tax, Mr. Woodward pointed out that it penalized development by making the instruments of production taxable. Men who were starting farming operations, he said, were heavily penalized because their newly purchased stock was taxed. An income tax would be much fairer as it would collect money from those who could pay it, he affirmed.

When the Opposition applauded Mr. Woodward's remarks, "Why did you ever introduce the tax at all?" he added, however, that the Liberals should have been statesmen enough to abolish the levy before now. He pointed out that the Liberal Members for Vancouver had pledged themselves to support the abolition of the tax.

ATTACKS B.C. HOUSE

Mr. Woodward attacked the maintenance of B.C. House in London, which had cost $615,000. It had been very foolish, he said, to erect this building on rented land. The building, he said, was unnecessary and he did not believe that it was producing worth-while results. The cost of maintenance, he said, was $62,000 a year and he did not think it was a good investment.

To replace the Personal Property Tax Mr. Woodward suggested a broadening of taxation. He urged that every man pay a poll tax of $10 a year, the minimum amount of about 250,000 men. Everyone who

SCHOOL BOARD TO HELP RELIEF WORK

Action of Salty Wood on School Furnaces Discussed Last Night

A report of the Municipal Inspector, George H. Deane, on the teaching staff of the city schools, was the principal item before the City School Board in session last night with Trustee George Jay in the chair. Before going into camera to hear the report of the inspector the board dealt with a light list of communications.

A communication from H. H. Holland, secretary of the William Stevenson memorial committee, reminded the board of its promise in connection with the holding of the Peace essay contest in the schools, and asked that two delegates be appointed to a judging committee for that purpose.

Trustees Alexander G. Smith and D. P. W. Maunsell were accordingly appointed to act on behalf of the educational authorities in the joint board of judges. Sir Richard Lake and Dr. Leslie W. Clay have been appointed to the same committee by the World Alliance for the Promotion of Peace, and the memorial committee will supply the remaining two members of the judging board.

A letter from Alderman William Marchant, chairman of the council's unemployment committee, urged school use of municipally-cut birchwood at the rate of $5 a cord. Trustees H. O. Litchfield and J. L. Beckwith mentioned the wearing effect of salted wood on school furnaces, but voted in agreement with a motion by Trustee Alex. Pegen that the schools take twenty-five cords on approval at that figure, more to be used if the trial were satisfactory.

The schools now burn fir cordwood at the rate of $5.20 a cord, and trustees, though fully sympathetic with the work of relief fostered by the city, saw little real advantage in exposing costly furnaces to the action of saltwater soaked wood in combustion. Twenty-five cords could be absorbed with the regulation fuel. It was thought, without undue wear and tear on the boilers.

A letter from the Near Eastern relief committee giving the details of a plan for the nation-wide celebration of "Golden Rule Sunday" on December 7, won the approval of the board in so far as permission was granted to place posters with the schools in furtherance of the scheme. By this means those who are able will be asked to save on Sunday, December 7, the difference in food between a costly and a plain dinner, the saving to be pooled and sent to orphaned children in the Near East. Trustee Beckwith was warm in his support of the movement, to which fourteen nations are already lending their approval. The question of school co-operation in the plan was left in the hands of Inspector G. H. Deane to work out.

A sincere tribute to the life-work of the late E. W. Cornett, whose tragic death by drowning at Shawigan Lake shocked the city this summer, was paid by the board when passing reference to his name was made. His high devotion to duty was made the subject of a warm tribute by the board last night.

PLUMBING ACT TO STANDARDIZE WORK IN PROVINCE URGED

Sanitary Engineers and Plumbers Discuss Subject at Enjoyable Dinner

Problems confronting sanitary engineers and plumbers in modern plumbing and heating methods were discussed at a dinner under the auspices of the Victoria Sanitary and Heating Engineers at the Chamber of Commerce last night. There was a representative attendance of members of the Victoria Association and among the speakers were Dr. K. E. Young, Provincial Medical Health Officer; Dr. A. G. Price, Victoria Medical Health Officer; and K. F. Shade of Vancouver. Discussions of problems of sanitary engineers were also taken part in by those present.

Dr. Young dwelt on the bond existing between his department and sanitary engineers, both of whom were dealing with the same questions, the engineers from the practical side and his department from the theoretical side. The disposal of waste products was a vital problem for the health of a community, said the doctor in tracing the strides in sanitary methods. He spoke at length on septic tanks and offered valuable advice on the most sanitary tanks for installation. This depended largely on conditions, he said, and assured his audience that the Health Office was always at their disposal when advice was needed. No fool proof perfect tank to meet all conditions had yet been invented, he said. He thanked the engineers for their invitation which he said, showed a healthy desire to avail themselves of the opportunity of co-operating with the Health Department. There had been talk of the need of a law governing plumbing in this Province. There had been no concerted action, however, of the engineers, he pointed out, although he believed the plumbers would welcome an act that would enable them to quote a decent price and give a decent job. He hoped to prepare an act which would put plumbing throughout the Province on a standard base and protect both the plumber and the public.

COMMISSIONERS TO WATCH INTERESTS OF JAPAN'S TRADE

Five Will be Appointed in New Year to Newly Conceived Posts

Tokio, Nov. 27.—The appointment of Trade Commissioners to be stationed at important trade ports in foreign countries has been decided by the Department of Agriculture and Commerce, as the result of the abolition of commercial attaches by the Foreign Office in keeping with the administrative and financial readjustment policy. This problem has an important bearing upon the proposed regulations of the Export Trade Union in Japan as measures for developing the export trade of this country. The abolition of commercial attaches will cut the supply of official information on overseas trade conditions which will impede the development of the country's overseas trade, it is understood. The Department intends to station the trade commissioners at leading commercial centres of the world with the object of closely following the business situation of the foreign countries concerned. Necessary investigation of the reputation of Japanese commodities on foreign markets and the sphere of market for Japanese goods and reports thereof will be submitted to the Department.

The necessary estimates regarding the appointment of trade commissioners will be included in the next fiscal year's budget by the Department and five such commissioners are to be appointed to start with. They will be stationed in commercial centres in the United States, South America, South Seas, Australia and India or China. Reports submitted by these commissioners will then be distributed to various chambers of commerce and export associations. The Department will select these positions from among private persons and Government officials. The Trade Section will also be established in the Department to supervise the trade commissioners and export union.

NEW BRUNSWICK MAN FACES MURDER CHARGE

Fredericton, N. B., Nov. 28.—Harry D. Williams, charged with the double murder at Posterville, N.B., near the Maine border, Wednesday, of his half-sister's two daughters, Cynthia Foster, fourteen, and Olive, ten, whose bodies were found in his cabin, appeared in police court here yesterday and was remanded until December 15.

Yesterday afternoon the funerals of the two victims were held at Posterville.

At the inquest yesterday morning the bodies were viewed by the coroner's jury, after which the inquest was adjourned.

The girls, who were accustomed to do chores for their uncle after school hours, were found dead in his cabin when their continued absence from home led to a search being made. They had been bound, gagged, and brutally murdered. There were rifle shots in the heads.

A reporter who interviewed Williams in his cell asked him why he had given himself up.

"I found a crime had been committed at my cabin," he said. "I knew I would be suspected and blamed. I was shocked by what I had found, and after spending the night in the woods I thought I had better give myself up. So I went to John Foster's place, knowing he was a magistrate and was going to the house when they came out and met me."

"Did you reply, 'Not much of a one' when Magistrate Foster said, 'That is an awful crime you have committed' after you gave yourself up?" Williams was asked.

"I don't recall ever having made any such statement," was the reply.

CANADIAN FIGURES SHOW A DECREASE IN EMPLOYMENT

Ottawa, Nov. 28.—Employment in Canada had fallen off slightly by November 1 as compared with October 1, according to a bulletin issued by the Dominion Bureau of Statistics. The combined payrolls of 5,735 firms totaled 774,595 persons on October 1 and 762,848 on November 1. The index number therefore declined from 92.9 to 92 during October. On November 1, 1923, 1922 and 1921, the index figures stood at 93.3, 95.8 and 98.2, respectively. Employment in manufacturing as a whole declined; construction, hotels and shipping showed seasonal contractions, while logging, mining, steam railroad operation and trade registered considerable improvement.

FIFTH AVENUE NOW HAS BIRTHDAY PARTY

New York, Nov. 27.—Fifth Avenue, America's most famous Main Street, is celebrating its hundredth anniversary.

Fifth Avenue is the street on which New York holds its parades. It is the street on which women who "have nothing to wear" go shopping. It is the street on which all the George F. Babbitts of Gotham hold forth at corner-store taxicabs and monument unveilings.

There is more window shopping done on Fifth Avenue than on any two streets in the world. The ladies get ideas for dresses, cloaks and hats from Fifth Avenue windows for garments made at home or bought in cheaper stores.

Fifth Avenue, too, is the nation's greatest Peacock Alley. On Easter Sunday poor working girls, who have saved for months to buy fine feathers, parade with the richest families in America—and the casual passerby can't tell the difference between them.

There are more styles of architecture on Fifth Avenue than are to be seen on any other street in the country. Every aspiring architectural student should spend several weeks, at least, riding up and down the avenue.

The most significant thing about Fifth Avenue is that it is alien to all the rest of New York. While it is just an overgrown, Main Street it still is the most cosmopolitan of all New York thoroughfares. Yet it doesn't represent New York's mad rush as much as Broadway nor as much as Wall Street. Nor does it represent the great human drama of old race achieving new life in a new country, as the Bowery and other East Side streets do.

Fifth Avenue belongs to the country at large more than to New York.

NEW PRAYER BOOK BEING DISCUSSED

300,000 Members of Church of England Oppose Communion Service Alteration

Word "Obey" in Marriage Service Also Subject of Debate at Present

London, Nov. 28.—The Archbishop of Canterbury yesterday received a memorial signed by 300,000 churchmen against the proposed alternative form of the Communion service.

Bishop Knox, who has retired from the bishopric of Manchester, a diligent promoter of the memorial, claims the petitions represent only a small portion of the members of the Church of England, who will not be destroyed of tying the church to a rigid protestantism, are gravely disturbed by the continued advance of so-called Catholic clergy, who, it is feared, will foist this alternative form of the service, which admittedly goes far beyond the existing prayerbook service, upon unwilling congregations.

Other aspects of the proposed new prayerbook were under discussion this week by the House of Clergy, forming one branch of the National Assembly, which nowadays constitutes the legislative body, subject to ratification by Parliament.

MARRIAGE SERVICE

In dealing with the thorny subject of the word "obey" in the marriage service, the House of Clergy rejected a proposal that the priest should ask the bride if she would "love and comfort" instead of "obey and serve," but accepted the proposal that the bride's promise should run "love, cherish and serve until death do us part."

The same House yesterday rejected a proposal that men should wear wedding rings, but agreed that a prayer for the blessing of the ring on the bride's finger should be introduced.

ISLAND BUSINESS IS ENCOURAGING

Shipping Man Says Vancouver Island People Going to England

"Vancouver Island business is good so far as the Christmas sailings to the Old Country are concerned, and shipping men here benefit," said C. W. Whitehead, Cunard and Anchor-Donaldson Line agent at Vancouver, who has been up the island lately, arranging passages for this trip, and who arrived here last night. "I have been working on the Christmas bookings here for some time past," Mr. Whitehead said to-day, "and also on the West Indies cruise on board the Tuscania, and for both these trips I have succeeded in arousing a considerable interest and attracting a considerable proportion of business." Local agents also report similar progress.

There will be many Victorians who will go back to the Old Land for the Christmas season. The last Cunard ship to Great Britain is the Carmania, which leaves Halifax on December 14, and is taking a capacity passenger list. She will take this holiday crowd to the Old Country in plenty of time for the Christmas festive season.

The West Indies cruise, said Mr. Whitehead, is also a popular trip with many people from Vancouver Island. The Tuscania makes two of these trips, one from New York on January 22 and another on February 24. The vessel calls, southbound, at Havana, Jamaica, Colon, Cartagena, Curacao, Trinidad, Barbados, Martinique, St. Thomas, San Juan and northbound, at Bermuda. This tour is especially conducted and lasts for thirty days.

Mr. Whitehead said that special trains will carry the Christmas travelers to Halifax where the Carmania will await them, and that the last minute business was proving as much as the company's efforts on Vancouver Island have been very fruitful, he said.

DAYS OF PIRACY ARE NOT PAST

Stirring Tale of Gun Duel at Sea Told by French Supercargo

Halifax, Nov. 28.—The story of a battle with pirates off New York, matching in thrills old tales of the Spanish Main, was related by the supercargo of the French Steamer Franca, which arrived here yesterday bearing marks of the stirring scenes which took place on her deck.

Three days ago the supercargo said the Franca unloaded her cargo to a small schooner lying off Rum Row, and the crew retired for the night. The schooner, after standing by for some time, suddenly attacked the Franca. The stranger's crew, apparently bent on recovering the money paid for the cargo, swarmed over the side of the Franca and fought for the supercargo into his cabin.

He managed to escape, he said, and roused members of his crew, who, after a short gun battle drove the attacking party, composed of American and Canadian leaders, back to its own boat.

The Franca, a vessel of 1,300 tons, sailed from Hamburg on August 19, bound for the French port of Marseilles under command of Capt. Nicholas.

AWAY ON BUSINESS

A. H. Hebb, local agent for the Nippon Yusen Kaisha, left for the Nippon on a business trip to Cheonan, where he will be for a short time. It is a flying trip, and Mr. Hebb expects to be back in Victoria some time to-morrow.

WILL CARRY TIMBER TO ATLANTIC PORTS

Tatjana Will Load Cargo in Vancouver on Dec. 15, Charterers Announce

Wrecked so badly that even her owners surrendered her to the Pacific Salvage Company of Victoria, for salvage claims, the Tatjana, once last February, lying stranded upon the rocks at the entrance to Barclay Sound, is now well on the road to recovery at the Esquimalt drydock and under the hands of experts who are repairing her damaged hull. The vessel, too, has been chartered and will berth in Vancouver on December 15 to load lumber for the Southern Alberta Lumber Company, her destination is on the Atlantic seaboard.

Work on the ship is progressing favorably. Her owners have reported everything satisfactory and she will be free from the drydock in plenty of time to fulfill her contract and start loading December 15.

Her commander, Capt. J. M. Hewison, long connected with the Pacific Salvage Company, will have the honor of packing her bridge when once again she ploughs through the water in ocean trade.

The vessel, once under Norwegian registry, has been chartered to operate under the Canadian flag, and is now a Canadian registered craft.

CALIFORNIA SHIP HAD HEAVY LIST

Emma Alexander Arrived Last Night; President Grant Outbound To-day

The Emma Alexander, of the Admiral Line coast service, arrived in this port last night. She carries California points with a good passenger list for this city and a proportionately larger number for Seattle. Thirty persons embarked at Victoria last night and the usual cargo was also dropped off at this port.

The vessel experienced fine weather almost the whole way up the coast. There was a little fog close inshore, but this was to be expected, and the ship lost very little time over this circumstance.

The local agent for the Admiral Line, W. N. Allan, stated this morning that the President Grant was sailing to-night from this port. She would arrive at Victoria at 4 o'clock, and would probably leave at 5:30 p.m., so far as could be judged.

She will carry fifty passengers, taken aboard the ship at this port. The vessel also carries a considerable amount of freight.

Motorship Aorangi Will Take Her Place on Australasian Route

The Canadian-Australasian Royal Mail liner Makura has sailed from Auckland on time with a good freight consignment and a fair passenger list. This old favorite of the Antipodean run is making her last voyage to Victoria. She will arrive December 12, and then returns south. In March she will make a special voyage here, replacing the liner Niagara on the coast route.

By that time the Aorangi will be operating on the regular Canadian-Australasian schedule, and the Makura will proceed from Vancouver to San Francisco to take up her new route, replacing the S. Tahiti. The Canadian-Australasian service from Victoria to Hawaii, Fiji, New Zealand and other points in the Pacific will be maintained by the great motorship Aorangi and the huge steamship Niagara.

HAVE FAST TRAINS ON NATIONAL LINE

Canadian National Railways Progressive Policy Dictates Changes

Winnipeg, Nov. 25.—In line with the progressive policy adopted by the Canadian National Railways of bettering train services wherever possible, "The National" one of the company's crack trains providing service between the cities of Toronto and Winnipeg, on December 4 will be placed on the fastest running time between those two points. In the past this train has been the popular means of travel between those two cities, and it has also been used to a large extent by those traveling between Montreal and Winnipeg. Some time back, the opening of Long Lac cut-off provided a shorter route between the Ontario city and the metropolis of the west, and now, taking the fullest advantage of the new route, the running time of this train will be cut down to 37 hours 55 minutes, and coming east 41 hours 55 minutes. The present running time will be actually 37 hours 55 minutes coming east and 38 hours 55 minutes coming west. The added incentive for travelers, whether business men or tourists in the convenience of the new hours of departure and arrival westbound, will be that the train will arrive at Winnipeg at 9:40 a.m. on the morning of the next second day, in time for business appointments; also providing a full day in that city before the departure time of Train No. 1 for points further west.

The eastbound train, known as No. 4, will leave Winnipeg on the new schedule at 4:50 o'clock in the afternoon, arriving in Toronto at 7:20 a.m. of the second day. The arrival time at Toronto will be the same in the former schedule, which provides opportunity for breakfast, followed by a full day for travelers bound for Montreal and other points west of Winnipeg. The train will be running from points west of Winnipeg four hours additional in Toronto.

"The National" is one of the Canadian National Railway's all-steel equipped trains, including colonial car with lunch counter service, one first class coach, tourist sleeper, through dining and other standard sleepers. One of these sleepers runs through to Sudbury on the westbound train, being picked up at Sudbury on the eastbound train. Arriving at Toronto from Port Arthur on the eastbound train in connection with trains between Long Lac and Port Arthur. The third sleeper operates between Toronto and Edmonton, running west of Winnipeg in connection with trains between Long Lac and Port Arthur. Radio equipped compartment, observation, library, buffet cars are also operated on these trains.

It is said that "The National" provides everything that the traveler could wish for, including speed and comfort.

SEATTLE SHIPPING

Seattle, Nov. 25.—Cargoes offerings for Australian markets have shown an increase, according to local shipping agents. Coming direct to Puget Sound from Australia, the freighter Bolmen, handled here by the General Steamship Corporation, is to be dispatched direct from Honolulu to Seattle, during the coming voyage and again dispatched from Seattle at an early date, according to H. Adams, Seattle's manager of Alexander and Baldwin, local agents of the Matson Navigation Company.

The United States Shipping Board announced here yesterday that the quarterly Pacific Westbound conference is to be held December 5 in San Francisco.

The freighter Oduna of the Alaska Steamship Company shifted yesterday to Everett, Wash., where she is to complete her lumber cargo for the canal zone.

Electrically Heated

BREAK A CHEST COLD WITH HEAT OF RED PEPPERS

Ease your tight, aching chest. Stop the pain. Break up the congestion. Feel a bad cold loosen up in just a short time.

"Red Pepper Rub" is the cold remedy that brings quickest relief. It cannot hurt you and it certainly seems to do the trick. It loosens and drives the congestion and soreness right out. Nothing has such concentrated, penetrating heat as red peppers, and when heat penetrates right down into colds, congestions, aching muscles and sore, stiff joints relief comes at once.

The moment you apply Red Pepper Rub you feel the tingling heat. In three minutes the congested spot is warmed through and through. When you are suffering from a cold, rheumatism, backache, stiff neck or sore muscles, just get a jar of Rowley's Red Pepper Rub, made from red peppers at any drug store. You will have the quickest relief known. Always say "Rowley's."

SILK BUSINESS CHANGES HANDS

Much Export Produce in Hands of New Japanese Organization

The raw silk business formerly conducted in Japan by the Yokohama Ki-to Kaisha, Limited, is now being carried on by the Nippon Ki-to Kaisha, Limited, with Morimura, Arai and Company acting as the sole agents for the new company.

As the Nippon Ki-to Kaisha, Limited, has the backing of the powerful Mitsubishi organization which is intimately and actively connected with the reeling, banking and shipping interest of Japan, it expects to serve all customers even better than before.

The new company will have the services of the same raw silk experts as the old company did, and consequently the high standard of quality and dependable deliveries upon which the business was founded will be maintained, it is claimed.

OFFICIAL COMING

Lorne McCutcheon, foreign freight agent for the Canadian National Railways, whose headquarters are in Vancouver, will register in Victoria, at the Empress Hotel to-morrow. He is coming to this city on important business, it is understood.

CITY PAYS $131 DAY FOR WORKLESS

Thirty-five Put to Work Receive $3.75 a Day Each

Of 542 registered as unemployed at the City Hall the city has through the City Engineers' Department put thirty-five to work in the pressroom. The men work eight hours a day for five and a half days a week and receive $3.75 a day each, costing the city roughly $131 a day. At that rate the appropriation to provide work to relieve distress will last a little over a month with only thirty-four men employed and some criticism has been leveled by men in the corridors of the City Hall against the method of distributing the relief. While it is satisfactory to those few who are fortunate to get in a full week's work it leaves only a small percentage provided for, they point out, whereas if half a week's work were given more men would obtain an opportunity to get some measure of relief. At the same time it would save them the temporary difficulties and give them a chance to spend the remainder of the week searching for work.

SUPREME COURT SOON TO GIVE RATE DECISION

Cabinet Expected to Refer Crow's Nest Appeal to That Judicial Body

Ottawa, Nov. 28 (Canadian Press)—The Supreme Court of Canada in all probability will say the decisive word in the battle which has developed over the Crow's Nest Pass Freight Rate Agreement. Next Thursday the Privy Council will hear arguments against the judgment of the Railway Commissioners setting aside the Crow's Nest rates, but there seems little question that the decision of the Government will be to refer the matter to the Supreme Court. Questions of law and jurisdiction are, under the Railway Act, the special province of the Supreme Court, and appeals, unless questions of fact are involved, would naturally go to the judicial body.

LEAVE TO APPEAL
The probability of the whole case being turned over to the Supreme Court for final decision is increased by the action of the Railway Commission in granting leave to appeal the recent judgment. Though leave to appeal was granted, the board reserved the right to determine the form and nature of the question or questions to be submitted to the court. These are being determined with all reasonable speed, but it is quite impossible an appeal to the Supreme Court will be made prior to next Thursday, when the appeal to the Privy Council will take place. The questions will be available, however, and the members of the Government will know the points to be submitted to the Supreme Court. It seems unlikely that with these questions before it, the Government will take upon itself to give judgment in the matter. Suspension of the rates called for in the order of the Railway Commission until the Supreme Court renders its decision, however, might be granted.

Russian Note is Published in London
London, Nov. 28.—The reply of the Soviet Government to the two latest British notes rejecting the Russian treaties and repeating the belief in the authenticity of the Zinovieff letters, was presented to the Foreign Office this evening. The reply is confined to an expression of regret at the rejection of the treaties, the common assertion that the Soviet Government did its best to reach a basis of an agreement on questions of interest to the British Government and the entire British population and the refusal to take any responsibility for the feeling of discontent which the decision of the British Government will cause in both countries.

VOTE OF CONFIDENCE

Angora, Nov. 28.—The Turkish National Assembly has unanimously voted confidence in the new Cabinet.

Browns raises unemployment issue again with motion fixing responsibility on employers.

Fishermen's head wants operators exempted from eight-hour day law; would be disastrous, he says.

Pattullo gives House full details of timber export from British Columbia.

Charges against the administration of the Government Publicity Bureau will be answered in the Legislature either to-day or early next week by Hon. J. D. MacLean, former Provincial Secretary and now Minister of Finance. Foreshadowing the reply which he will make to the allegations of H. W. Hart, former head of the bureau, Dr. MacLean states officially in answer to questions on the order paper that the funds of the bureau were used only for proper purposes.

"The Bureau of Information," says Dr. MacLean, "was established for the purpose of instituting inquiries and collecting information relating to the industries, natural resources, trade and commerce, land, government, etc., of British Columbia, and disseminating or publishing this information in such manner and form as might be considered best adapted to promote the general interest of the Province. While placed under the Minister of Finance for administrative purposes, the Bureau of Information has to deal with matters pertaining to all branches of the public service."

Final settlement of the long dispute between the city of Victoria and the Westholme Lumber Company over the construction of the Sooke Lake Waterworks is asked in a petition filed with the Legislature by Ernest Temple, liquidator of the company. He urges that engineers be named immediately to arrange a settlement of the controversy.

Unemployment again
Unemployment will come before the House again when F. A. Brynne, Labor, Burnaby, moves the following resolution:

"Whereas the present system of the production of commodities occasion a permanent margin of unemployed workers:

"And whereas the natural resources of this Province are being exploited for profit without regard to the necessities of our citizens:

"And whereas the control of these natural resources in many cases is in the hands of alien capitalists employing underpaid and Oriental labor:

"And whereas many of His Majesty's lieges are thereby deprived of the right to earn the means of subsistence for themselves and their families:

"Therefore be it resolved, that in the opinion of this House, the first charge on industry should be the maintenance of the unemployed workers.

BURGLARY RIFE FOLLOWING STIR IN VANCOUVER

Ordered From Terminal City, Thieves Said to Have Filtered Into City

Taking advantage of the fact that the family were attending a church festival in the city, thieves entered the home of A. C. Charlton, 157 Wellington Avenue, on Wednesday evening and escaped with $400 in cash.

Mr. Charlton, a post office employee, left his home shortly before 8 o'clock, taking unusual care to see that everything was locked up and in order. The money was left in a purse in the pantry under some cloths.

When he returned it was to find the hall door standing open, and every corner of the house ransacked. Thieves had gone systematically from room to room, leaving no stone unturned that would give them articles of value. The $200 was in bills and silver in a purse that had been carefully hidden in the pantry, to find it 'buried' under the cloths.

Almost at the same time other premises were entered in the same vicinity, the loot in this case being confined to negligette and袍帽.

Another purse-snatching theft was recorded overnight, Mr. Hebben, 1154 King's Road, who reports that his daughter was robbed by a cyclist thief who rode up behind her on Cook Street and snatched a purse out of her hand before any outcry could be raised. The thief, a youth, made good his escape.

The cleaning up of Vancouver by police authorities is thought to have driven some of the outcasts into the city to find a precarious living in petty thefts and more daring ways. Action to curb the nuisance is being taken by the city police.

Christmas Fete.—On Tuesday, December 2, a Christmas fete and fancy fair will be held in the schoolroom of the congregational Church under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid. There will be stalls of miscellaneous and fancy articles, home cooking, novelty stunts, games, concert, etc. Afternoon teas will be served; also a cafeteria supper. The fete will be opened at 3 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Handy of Balfour Avenue, certainly the friends of the Burnside Lawn Bowling Club Saturday evening in a most acceptable and profitable manner in the interests of the club. Mrs. Boyd and Mr. Mann were the winners of the novel card game prizes. On Saturday next Mr. J. P. Hibben, a very active resident of the district, will be responsible for the arrangements of the tenth consecutive social of this popular series.

NO ADDITIONS TO SCHOOL STAFFS

Anticipated Resignations Will Balance Proposed Cuts
No new appointments will be required at the high school or in the public schools of Victoria for the next school year, the school trustees decided last night after discussing the matter in camera.

Vacancies created by anticipated resignations before the next school year starts will probably not be filled, as the number of teachers leaving their posts, it is expected, will fully balance the proposed reductions.

Christmas Fete.—On Tuesday, December 2, a Christmas fete and fancy fair will be held in the schoolroom of the congregational Church under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid. There will be stalls of miscellaneous and fancy articles, home cooking, novelty stunts, games, concert, etc. Afternoon teas will be served; also a cafeteria supper. The fete will be opened at 3 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Handy of Balfour Avenue, certainly the friends of the Burnside Lawn Bowling Club Saturday evening in a most acceptable and profitable manner in the interests of the club. Mrs. Boyd and Mr. Mann were the winners of the novel card game prizes. On Saturday next Mr. J. P. AT THE THEATRES

FINE SCENES IN CAPITOL SHOW WERE TAKEN IN ENGLAND

The authentic atmosphere, obtained by filming the exterior scenes in England in the exact spots described by Thomas Hardy, is one feature of Marshall Neilan's Metro-Goldwyn production of "Tess of the D'Urbervilles," a Louis B. Mayer presentation now showing at the Capitol Theatre.

Neilan had planned for several years to film Hardy's famous novel, and make it his greatest cinematic effort, with his wife, Blanche Sweet, in the title role.

Conflicting contracts prevented their doing it for several years and when the opportunity did arrive, Neilan determined to spare no pains or expense to make it the best production possible.

Consequently, he filmed a great many of the exterior scenes in West-sec-Stonehenge, and other places described by Hardy. Infinite care was devoted to detail and accuracy in the interior scenes; technical experts aided him in obtaining the best effect of the English interiors. The result is a picture almost perfect technically.

Opposite Miss Sweet in the role of Angel Clare is Conrad Nagel. The supporting cast includes Stuart Holmes, George Fawcett, Courtney Foote, Victory Bateman and many others.

"TEN COMMANDMENTS" ACHIEVED SUCCESS IN ALL BIG CITIES

Cecil B. De Mille's splendid dramatic spectacle, "The Ten Commandments," which is being shown at the Coliseum Theatre, achieved sensational success last season in New York, London, Chicago, Boston, Philadelphia and Los Angeles. The showings were confined to those cities up to the beginning of the present season. It is now being presented by a limited number of travelling companies, each with its own orchestra, and is being shown this season only in regular theatres.

CAREY'S OWN RANCH WAS USED IN FILMING "LIGHTNING RIDER"

The picturesque outdoor scenes in "The Lightning Rider," Hunt Stromberg's second production starring Harry Carey, will have a double interest for fans who are "in the know." For not only are they unrivalled in pictorial beauty, but they were filmed at the ranch of the star near Saucua, California.

Those who have heard of the Harry Carey Ranch and who know its fondness for its spreading acres will be intrigued at seeing him take on a fictional characterization in the realism of this setting.

In fact, "The Lightning Rider," in addition to being the most romantic and adventurous Carey vehicle to date will be a personally conducted tour which will need no baloney to attract crowds eager for insight into the personal lives of motion picture stars.

This is probably the first time that a star's home has been used as a setting for his picture. "The Lightning Rider" is at the Columbia Theatre for a three days' run.

A PIMPLY SKIN NEEDS SULPHUR

Any breaking out of the skin on face, neck, arms or body is overcome quickly by applying Mentho-Sulphur. The pimples seem to dry right up and go away, declares a noted skin specialist.

Nothing has ever been found to take the place of sulphur as a harmless and inexpensive. Just ask any druggist for a small jar of Rowles' Mentho-Sulphur and use it like cold cream.

HAROLD INVENTED CAR TO PROVIDE THRILLS IN PICTURE

Harold Lloyd introduces a new type of light automobile to the screen in his latest comedy, "Hot Water," showing this week at the Dominion Theatre. He is the sole creator, the inventor, and the producer. It is the "Butterfly Six" (no advertising intended), and if, through it, you don't receive more laughs than you have had for many a day, there is something wrong with your sense of humor. You'd better have some chiropractic treatments.

For the "Butterfly Six" is the center of one of the swiftest and funniest fictions that has ever been seen in one of Harold Lloyd's comedies. There are two other rib-tickling sequences in this picture that are guaranteed blue-chasers, but for originality and cleverness the one involving the "Butterfly Six" is the equal of either.

Harold takes the family out for a ride in his new car, or rather his wife's family takes him out in his car, and if there is anything that could happen to a new automobile, it doesn't in this picture. Mr. Lloyd will give the remains to the one telling what he forgot to put into the sequence.

This part of "Hot Water" was developed in Mr. Lloyd's mind, and is the consequence of a trip the noted comedian took to Big Bear Valley several years ago when the machine in which he was riding was involved in every kind of an accident, broke every part imaginable, and wound up in the worst grades on the mountain road. Lloyd never could forgive this incident, and in "Hot Water" he found just the spot to relate what was actually an experience of his own.

LUXURIOUS GOWNS WORN BY MURRAY ALL OF OWN DESIGN

Mae Murray, famous for the luxurious gowns she wears before the camera, designs all of her own costumes. Then she enlists the aid of leading couturiers in Paris and New York to execute her designs in dainty materials. In her latest Metro picture, "Mademoiselle Midnight," at the Playhouse Theatre this week, she appears in the prologue, wearing the hoop skirts and dainty furbelows and laces of the period of Napoleon III. In France, and in the main story, as a modern Mexican girl, wearing a variety of gowns of Spanish and French design, the last word in new fashions.

PARTNERS TURN FROM CLOAKS AND SUITS TO SCREENING BEAUTIES

Fifteen years ago, Montague Glass, seated in a tiny restaurant in the heart of the cloak and suit district of New York City, idled away a lunch hour and watched his fellow diners. He went away and worked for weeks. And then the American public, and eventually the entire world, was formally introduced to Messrs. Potash and Perlmutter.

These two argumentative partners inspired by the people Glass saw and the heated debates he listened to during that noon hour many years ago, have to-day shared their joys and their sorrows with people of practically every nation of the globe. Every language, including the Scandinavian, has heard their business debates, and laughed at the hearing. Potash and Perlmutter, through many short stories written by Mr. Glass and through five plays have gained international and everlasting fame. And yet their renown is spreading and their appeal has never lessened.

Today Potash and Perlmutter are in the movies. And not only in the movies, but in the theatre as well. They are movie producers and the trials and tribulations of their latest business venture in the subject of Samuel Goldwyn's production "The Inimitable Potash and Perlmutter," the first National Picture which will be the main attraction at the Capitol Theatre on Monday.

The picture is an adaptation of the play, "Business Before Pleasure," which has been transferred to the screen by Frances Norton. Alexander Carr and George Sidney play the inimitable Potash and Perlmutter, and others in the cast are Betty Blythe, Vera Gordon, Belle Bennett, Anders Randall, Peggy Shaw, David Butler and Joseph W. Girard.

MISCHA ELMAN IS GREAT WORKER

Mischa Elman, who will play here at the Royal Victoria Tuesday next, December 2, is probably the most strenuous musician in the world, and certain it is that the youthful artist is the most alive musician. He wastes no time. He is far from being a dreamer. Most people entertain the wrong notion that all artists are visionary. Elman is practical to the last degree.

After his morning bath he sits down to a modest breakfast of fruit, real tea and toast. Winter and summer that is practically his morning meal; coffee, he very seldom drinks, but he is very fond of a cup of tea. In New York each morning he gets lots of mail, which has to be answered; some of it he attends to, and the rest is given to his secretary or his manager. A brisk walk is then in order or possibly a spin in his car.

Returning from an hour in the air, Elman immediately opens his violin case, takes off his collar and proceeds to practice for an hour or perhaps two. Part of this he does himself and part with his accompanist.

Luncheon is another light meal, whether at home or on the road. If he has a concert to give that night, Elman is sure to take a nap in the afternoon about 5 o'clock. No afternoon goes by without more practice and a 4 o'clock tea and toast are absolutely necessary in his scheme of life. He never smokes nor touches alcohol.

The box office at the Royal will open on Friday morning at 10 o'clock.

GIVES FINE RECITAL

Clifford Prescott, a promising young basso of Victoria, gave a recital last Monday evening before a highly appreciative audience at Wesley Church.

Possessing a fine sonorous voice, the upper notes of which are still in process of development, the vocalist impressed his hearers by his sincerity of purpose and his fine declamation. That the recital constituted a

A Small Deposit and a New Piano or Player for Christmas

A very strong point is made at the show with the educational exhibits, particularly by the Department of Agriculture, seeking to restrict diseases, and illustrate remedial measures. All types of soil and crop preventive treatment are illustrated, and the cereal and root crop measures are profusely illustrated, as well as an exhibit from the Dominion seed authorities to show noxious weeds in arable land, and their effect on the soil.

TAKING THE POTATO BACK TO IRELAND

Tribute to Agricultural Conditions in B.C. Given by Deputy Minister

The proud fame of the Irish potato is now to pay tribute to the indigenous British Columbia tuber. An announcement that a trial shipment of certified British Columbian potatoes was to be sent shortly to the Plunkett Institute in Dublin was made by Dr. D. Warnock, Deputy Minister of Agriculture, at the opening of the R.C. Potato Show in Vancouver on Thursday afternoon.

Dr. Warnock alluded to the great hold of the Oriental on the land of this Province devoted to potatoes. He pointed out that certified seed was saving this Province from the loss of its prestige as a potato growing country. Tracing the history of the movement back to the time when British Columbia was able to win the Stillwell world trophy, he pointed out that as the Oriental went more and more into the potato business, the character of the produce declined. The Department looked about for a remedy and decided to push the certification of seed. New two factors were restoring British Columbia to the leading position as a potato growing country, firstly that the white certified seed growers had a large clientele in the Oriental growers, while the Dominion Government in its packing commission stipulated the grading of commercial stock. As a consequence the consumer no longer had to put up with stock feed, and the best more and more into the potato business, the character of the produce declined.

While speaking Dr. Warnock took occasion to answer the pessimists who criticized the status of agriculture in British Columbia. It was the second industry of the Province, the persons engaged in it were 60,000 according to recent estimate, were more prosperous than ever, and the department was constantly receiving letters expressing satisfaction as the status of the industry in all sections of the Province. Never in recent years had agriculture a more smiling face in British Columbia than in 1924, he submitted.

Dr. Warnock was preceded by Mayor W. R. Owen, who, in the absence of the Lieutenant-Governor, declared the show open. J. K. MacCrae, president of the Vancouver Board of Trade, presided, and was supported on the platform by Chris Spencer, chairman of the committees which had made the local arrangements for the exhibition.

Hinchliffe Moves To Force Vote on Government Defeat

Resolution of Lack of Confidence Climax to Warm Attack on Government

Efforts of the Conservative Opposition to force a vote of lack of confidence in the Government got under way in the Legislature yesterday when Joshua Hinchliffe, Conservative, Victoria, moved his amendment to the budget motion which, if carried, would automatically defeat the administration. Before a vote could be taken Thomas Uphill, Labor, Fernie, adjourned the budget debate then in progress.

Mr. Hinchliffe moved his motion after a long speech in which he vigorously assailed the Government. He protested against the Government's assertion that times in British Columbia are good. Wednesday's unemployed demonstration, he said, proved that things are not as rosy as the Government tried to make the people believe.

The Government, he said, was accusing municipal authorities of playing politics while Ministers of the Crown themselves had neglected business last Summer to tangle into up-country-by-election fights.

The Victoria member regretted that the Government had not abolished the Personal Property Tax at this session.

He urged the Government to continue the work of Returned Soldiers' Aid Commission.

Hon. J. D. Maclean, Minister of Finance, explained that the Commission's work would be continued, although perhaps not in the same way it had been carried on in the past.

Mr. Hinchliffe criticized the Elections Act and condemned the absence ballot.

After further castigation of the administration, the Victoria member exclaimed:

"This Government is too small, too petty to rise to its responsibilities and we cannot expect better times and more efficient administration until there is a change."

Mr. Hinchliffe claimed the Government was aware of an attempt to restrict the freedom of the voters of British Columbia. This, he declared, was another reason why the people were losing confidence in "responsible government."

He attacked the administration of the Mothers' Pensions Act, deeming that many instances of injustice had come to his attention.

The Victoria member declared that the charter given the women applicants under the Mothers' Pensions Act, had been "frittered away."

SWEET POTATOES AS HOME GROWN

Island Grower Originates New Variety of Potato

Many an epicure sighs often for native grown sweet potatoes. So dependent is British Columbia upon the imported variety that the efforts of H. H. Thompson of Summerland, to grow them, have aroused great interest, and many newspaper paragraphs have been written about the industry which he is fostering.

Mr. Thompson has an interesting exhibit at the B.C. Potato Show in Vancouver of these uncommon vegetables, among the varieties shown being Big Stem Jersey, Porto Rico, Okanagan Queen and others, about seven or eight varieties being shown.

It will surprise the Average potato grower who is willing to follow the well established lines of the older varieties that some of the growers are experimenting with new types. Philip Fremlin of Duncan, has an exhibit at the show which is attracting a great deal of attention called the Cowichan Leader, apparently of the Early Ohio group, at least it appears to have characteristics in common with that family of a flesh colored skin and ovoid shape. It is a small crop variety, of the kidney kind. New kinds of potatoes staged are Bain's Bonanza, from Chilliwack, and the Queensborough, from Lulu Island.

Search Made For Kidnapped Women

Melbourne, Australia, Nov. 28.—The Government expedition sent out to rescue the two white women reported to have been carried off by Arnheim Land blacks, after the wreck of the small steamer Douglas Mawson, has given up the search. It will consist of several parties of experienced bushmen, and will go overland from Darwin to Arnheim Land, using horses. The searchers will cover the country from several points.

Jealous maiden (to rival with a very thin young man): "Well, Maimie, I see you're planning to have a new fellow."
"What do you mean—planning?"
"Well, I see you've got the framework."

UNION-ADVOCATES TO STAND FIRM ON THEIR CHURCH BILL

If Committee Makes Changes They Will Fight Case in House

Notwithstanding the decision of the Private Bills Committee of the Legislature to amend the Church Union Bill in the interest of minorities of congregations the supporters of the Bill appeared before the committee this morning determined to proceed as far as possible.
"If the Committee wants to make amendments we shall oppose them," said their spokesman. "The Committee is not the last court of appeal. We are going to have the whole Bill gone through by the committee to see what comes of it. If the committee makes changes which are not satisfactory to us we shall try to have these amendments struck out and the original provisions restored when the Bill is before the House."
The Private Bills Committee was busy this morning with the Associated Growers' Bill and the Church Union measure was not reached until nearly time for luncheon.

Open Meeting of Automobile Club
Set For To-night

A great deal of interest is being taken in the open meeting for motorists, to be held under the auspices of the Automobile Club in the Empress Hotel this evening. A very interesting programme has been arranged, the principal item of which will be the address by the Attorney-General on the Motor Vehicles Act and the new amendments to it. The amendment recently introduced in the House providing for the licensing of drivers has caused considerable comment in motoring circles, and it is considered a good move on the part of the club in arranging this meeting where this new legislation will be fully explained. From present indications there will be a large attendance. The meeting is open to all motorists whether members of the club or not, and in view of the importance of the matters to be discussed every automobile owner is urged to make it a point to attend.

Champ Gatherer
of Legal Trial
Reports is Dead

New York, Nov. 28.—Judge Richard T. Morrison, ex-superior judge of New York County, has just died at seventy-six. For thirty-one years he lived at the Grand Hotel. That is believed a record for continued residence at one hotel.
His hobby was to collect newspapers containing accounts of noted legal trials. So assiduous was he that when he died they stood in great piles, seven and eight feet high, around his room.

TARIFF WAR SEEMS NEAR IN EUROPE

French Legislators Discussing Higher Duties; Belgian Rates Increased; German Changes

Paris, Nov. 28.—A tariff war between the countries of Europe is likely as a result of changes in schedules of duties already made or in the making. The French tariff bill, which is now before the Finance Committee of the Chamber of Deputies, although not yet passed, is understood to embody a sharp increase in all duties, except on foodstuffs, with a radically diminished margin between the minimum and maximum rates.

MINISTERS FOR UNION

Fifty-one ministers of the Westminster Presbyterian Church in Canada have signed a declaration of their intention to enter the United Church of Canada. The declaration and signatures follow: "To the members and adherents of the Westminster Church in Canada within the bounds of the Presbytery of Westminster: "Whereas our church, after long years of consideration, has finally decided to become a part of the United Church of Canada, we, the undersigned ministers of the Presbytery of Westminster, hereby make our declaration of loyalty to, and our intention to continue our ministry in the church of our fathers which is now entering the United Church of Canada."

LEADERS OF FAIRS MET IN TORONTO

Exhibition Problems in Canada Discussed at Gathering

Toronto, Nov. 28.—Numerous problems which have a relation to the welfare of fairs held in Canada were under discussion at the first annual meeting of the members of the Canadian Association of Exhibitions held here yesterday with D. T. Elderkin of Regina presiding. Representatives of exhibition boards in the chief cities of every province in Canada were in attendance, with the exception of Nova Scotia. The Western cities represented included Vancouver, New Westminster, Calgary, Regina, Saskatoon, Brandon and Winnipeg. Representatives were also present from several of the senior United States fair associations. Thomas Clarkson, Hastings, N.Z., who is in Toronto homeward bound from the Wembley Fair, was also present and spoke.

NEWSPAPERS BEST In a discussion on "advertising exhibitions," J. E. Hay, publicity director of the Canadian National Exhibition, Toronto, said that of all mediums for advertising, the newspapers, so far as the Toronto Exhibition was concerned, had proved to be the best. This opinion was also shared by John C. Simpson of Chicago. Thomas Clarkson of New Zealand, said Premier King, in speaking to him a few days ago, had predicted that Vancouver would be one of the greatest ports of the world.

Mr. Clarkson declared there was a wonderful market for Canadian fruit in New Zealand. Although the people of New Zealand would prefer to buy Canadian apples, they had only United States apples offered to them. EACH DAY HAS ITS COMPLEXION "But there she is, looking as beautiful as ever." "I referred to her last night's complexion."

REV. DR. P. S. GRANT IS FORCED TO TAKE REST New York, Nov. 28.—The Rev. Dr. Percy S. Grant, former rector of the fashionable Fifth Avenue Protestant Episcopal Church of the Ascension, was discharged from the New York Hospital yesterday. His physicians said he had been unable to sleep in the hospital and planned to go to his country home near Bedford Hills, N.Y., to recuperate. Dr. Grant was taken to the hospital last Sunday. Nerve specialists said he was suffering from a severe attack of anemia.

KU KLUX CROSS THAT BURNED IN HAMILTON—The framework of one of the Ku Klux crosses, the burning of which, on several occasions on the Hamilton mountain recently, caused some consternation in the ambitious city. The framework is of gas piping, which can be disconnected so it can be easily transported from place to place. When the cross is to be set ablaze, the framework is wrapped with oily rags and set on fire.

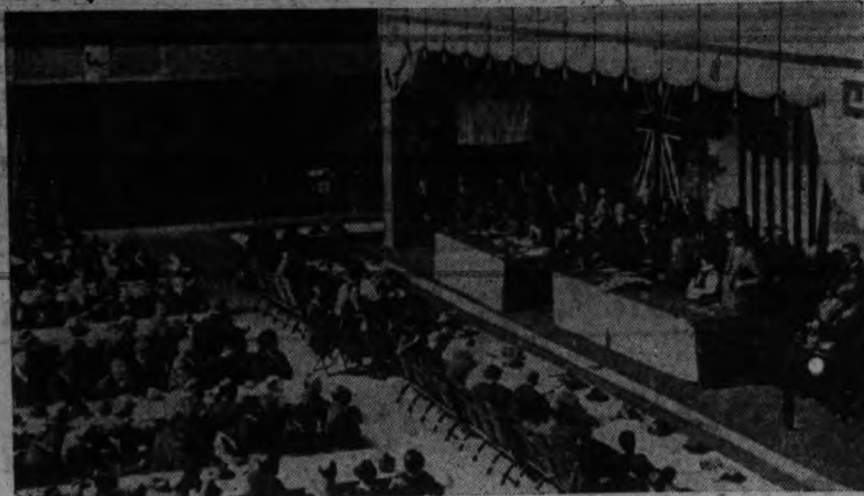

WEDS GOULD—Florence Amelia Bacon, daughter of a wealthy and socially prominent Dallas, Tex., family, has become the bride of Frank M. Gould, son of Edwin Gould, and grandson of Jay Gould. Her husband is a vice-president of the St. Louis Southwestern Railroad.

MYSTERIOUS "MR. A."—His Royal Highness, Rajah Sukhey Singh of Poonchm Kashmir, a young potentate of India, whom dispatches say was the victim in gigantic blackmail plot, involving a payment of $750,000.

"PARSON-COP"—The town of Braman, in the centre of Oklahoma's newest oil field, has a preacher-town marshal, Rev. L. L. Manning, "straight-shooting" parson, is busy enforcing the law on week days, and preaching in the Baptist Church on Sundays. Popular subscriptions are paying his salary.

A. F. OF L. IN SESSION IN EL PASO—This is the first picture of the American Federation of Labor's annual convention in session in El Paso, Tex. President Samuel M. Gompers is seen sitting in the big chair, at the middle table, in the centre of the stage. An El Paso city official is delivering an address of welcome to the delegates.

This is a little fish story. This fair lady of St. Petersburg, Fla., caught a tarpon and used the scales to trim a turban. Isn't that something?

JACK FROST TAKES THE HELM—Trawlers are coming into the Boston fish pier looking like this, thanks to an early wintry spell which spins ice gargoyles about the rails.

CHRYSANTHEMUM PERMIT—To prevent the spread of the corn borer in England all chrysanthemums must be inspected before wearing and the wearer must wear an inspection tag. Above is Miss Eleanore Passero of Boston, one of the many prepared to wear a brilliant posy at the Yale-Harvard football game.

REPRESENTS TURKEY—Fethi Bey, new premier of Turkey. He recently conducted the Iraq negotiations with Lord Parmoor of Britain.

MADE LONG FLIGHT—Captain Roy Maxwell, chief of the aviation service of the Ontario Department of Lands and Forests, and George Thompson, one of the expert aviation mechanics of the service, all ready to go aboard their flying boat for a flight from Toronto to Sault Ste. Marie. Maxwell is the aviator with the moustache. During the trip they had to land twice on account of bad weather.

And this, a big game story. Dietrich Wortman says this is the biggest buck killed in Adirondacks this season. It was brought down at Westport, near Lake Champlain.

Chas. Lincoln, eighty of South Orange, N.J., says if you want to remain young—dance! Charlie ought to know, because he still can shake as wicked a hoof as his granddaughter. Miss Miam Fisher, the high school belle shown with him.

THE NATURE FAHRS

BAD LUCK AGAIN—This picture of May Yeh is from Boston where shooting of her husband, Captain John Smuts, nephew of General Jan Smuts, Boer hero, is reported. She says it is another instance of her bad luck since she possessed the famous Hope diamond.

EXPENSIVE—Cutting his domestic tie will cost Cooley Butler, Minnesota multi-millionaire, more than a million dollars if Mrs. Rosella Butler, shown above, wins her suit filed in Los Angeles. She asks for $1,000,000 settlement, $100,000 for attorneys' fees, $20,000 costs and $3,000 a week pending outcome of the suit.

FLOODS HIT GERMANY—First picture of the floods which are causing great damage throughout Germany. The above is a scene in Frankfort where water surrounds the railroad and business section.

GIVES 50,000 JOBS A YEAR—William C. Deming is the world's biggest employer. As president of the United States Civil Service Commission, he hires 50,000 workers annually. About 200,000 take these tests annually. Fifty per cent. pass, and half of them receive appointments. In one examination alone—one for mail clerks—27,000 applications were received from all parts of the country.

EXHIBIT AI CAMERA DOESN'T LIE—Here's photographic proof of the fish stories. Captain Nathan Pierce (left) and Robert Handley may be expected to tell. The three giant tarpon were caught off Florida and weigh 97, 137 and 166 pounds respectively (left to right). Three hours of argument with the "big boys" pre-faced the landing of the fish.

DUAL ABILITY—Henry T. Dunker of Harvard eleven, is both an able athlete and scholar. He is president of the student council and captain of the track team, and has just won the Francis H. Burr scholarship.

NEW SERIAL STORY
Christine of the Hungry Heart
A Thrilling Love Story by Kathleen Norris

XXVII—A NEW INTEREST
This ended the immediate discussion of Alan, although both their minds were still full of him. They sat on idly, contentedly, Ivan's fingers locked, and gazing between his knees, Christine lying back in her big chair, her beautiful, vibrant hands set off by the deep curls of yellowed old lace, her slim ankles, in transparent silk stockings, disappearing into babyish velvet slippers, with rounded toes.
"Ivan," she asked suddenly, "have you ever been in love?"
"Nope," he said, with a faint scowl.
"I don't say that," he answered, after a pause. "Even to you!"
Christine, a little stirred and a little shocked, was silent.
"You know, a woman like you is a force, Chris," Ivan said presently, with apparent irrelevance. "I'm just beginning to realize how strong it is! Bodily strength is a force—facts, statistics, history and science—those are big forces! When I meet a multi-millionaire like young John Ford, as I did the other day—well, he may be dull, he may be nothing personally, but I look at him with a sort of awe. I can't help it. I say, 'You're a force, you're a world power!'"
"Genius like yours is a force, then, too, Ivan," Christine said smiling.
"Talent!" he said impatiently. "A sort of fortuitous gift! But about women—years ago you know, I read Aucassin and Nicolette, and Heloise and Abelard, and Beatrice."
"How furious you used to make Alan, calling it Bay-ar-tree-chee," Christine laughed. "When you were about fifteen! He's quoted it to me a thousand times!"
"It all seemed bunk to me," resumed Ivan simply. "It wasn't tangible—it was men making idiots of themselves, for nothing! But it came to me, awhile back— He paused, and when he spoke again it was in a lower tone. "It came to me," he said, "that the power you women wield is simply dynamic—it has the force of steam, shut up in a metal box! It is the world force—women, sweet, and silent, and patient—because, by the Lord, they can afford to be!" They can wait—because they know what they've got, yielding woman! Alan is restless, the wars, and the big bridges and the walled cities, and the thrones and churches—who builds them but some man for a beautiful, sweet and yielding woman! Alan is restless, women fret him and follow him, he doesn't belong anywhere—he isn't anything, and he meets you! Instantly, it's all concrete—work, of course, and a home, and a wife, and children—everything straight sailing! And you, who've already been a man's wife, and a mother, you can still give him his happiness—his mate—his life!"
"Ivan, you make me very proud!" Christine said, in a touched voice. "I had been feeling—so useless, somehow!"
"You!" he said, with a short laugh, and looked back at the fire.
"But Ivan," she added, "you sound

CANADA PLANNING BIG COLONIZATION DRIVE FOR FUTURE
Dr. W. J. Black Gets New Office in Charge of This Development Work

Montreal, Nov. 27.—Indicating an even more active policy on colonization, the appointment of Dr. W. J. Black, at present European manager, department of colonial matters, to the newly created position of director of colonization and development, with headquarters at Montreal, was announced today. Dr. Black will return to Canada from London at the beginning of the New Year and immediately complete the organization required for this new post. He will undertake the direction of all activities connected with colonization and development and will establish himself here for that purpose, it being considered that such work can be better directed from Canada.
With the transfer of Dr. Black from London to Montreal the European organization will be maintained and its activities will be continued in accordance with the present policy.
The creation of the post of director comes as the result of the growth of the departmental activities. It was rendered necessary by the decision of the Canadian National Railways to pursue an increasingly active policy of obtaining individuals of the best possible type from the British Isles and from certain sections of the continent of Europe to take up the colonization drive.

The organization, which has been built up on the other side now covers wide territory and is ready to invite the fullest possible opportunity. By means of this, it is intended to make a determined effort to procure for the vacant lands throughout all the provinces that population which is so essential to the general development and the development of a great home market.

LICENSES FOR ALL DRIVERS OF AUTOS
Toronto, Nov. 28.—Recommendations will be forwarded to the various Provincial Governments in Canada for the adoption of the principle of licensing every person operating a motor vehicle as the result of a decision made by the Inter-provincial Roads Conference, which closed here yesterday.

This is the system which is about to be adopted in British Columbia. It is understood the Ontario Government will adopt the principle at the next session of the Legislature.
Another recommendation made by the conference was that an educational campaign be undertaken by the Provincial Governments and regulations adopted to compel motorists to reduce speed to fifteen miles an hour within 300 feet of railways crossings and to compel motorbuses to come to a full stop in such areas.
Federal aid for provincial highways was endorsed as a principle and urban contribution to urban roads urged as a just measure.
The majority of the provinces were represented at the conference.

Great Granite Block Caused Two Deaths
Quebec, Nov. 28.—J. Laforte, forty, and Benjamin Tremblay, forty-two, employees of the Quebec Development Company at St. Joseph d'Alma, were instantly killed yesterday when a thirty-five ton block of granite which was being used as a counterweight for a cable fell from its moorings, rolled down the river bank and caught the two men in its path. A child also struck, escaped with serious injuries.

FARM INCREASE IN BRITAIN IS PLANNED
London, Nov. 28 (Canadian Press Cable)—A forward agricultural policy on the part of the Baldwin Government is foreshadowed in an official announcement stating the Government is convoking a conference of the owners of agricultural lands, farmers and farm laborers with representatives of the Government, and aims at the adoption of methods to maintain an increase of cultivated land and stimulate a maximum production of foodstuffs.
The statement declares the proposed conference should aim at an addition of at least 1,000,000 acres of cultivated land, but should not give undue attention to the production of wheat to the exclusion of livestock, dairying and other agricultural activities. It points out that in an emergency cultivated land can be diverted to wheat, whereas normally it is not a national necessity to grow wheat to a greater extent than is economically profitable.

TO-MORROW'S HOROSCOPE
By Genevieve Kemble
SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 29
An interesting and eventful day may be looked for, judging by the friendly positions of the powerful so-called malefic, Uranus, Saturn and Mars in sextile aspect with Luna, presaging removal of old obstructions and congestions, stimulating new enterprise and initiative and opening up opportunities involving important change, removal or journeys. It is time for action, but those in the employment of others are warned not to merit reproach or censure, although the matter is trifling. Those whose birthday it is are under excellent planetary auspices for an eventful and prosperous year. There is presage of a sudden change, removal or journey, incident to the breaking up of old stagnant and obstructing situations; and the new connections and enterprises should bring gratifying success. A child born on this day may be clever, industrious, persevering, enterprising and be well respected and liked, all of which should contribute to its success and prosperity.

ACIDS IN STOMACH CAUSE INDIGESTION
Create Gas, Sourness and Pain
How to Treat
Medical authorities state that nearly nine-tenths of the cases of stomach trouble, indigestion, sourness, burning, gas, bloating, nausea, etc., are due to an excess of hydrochloric acid in the stomach, and not as some believe to a lack of digestive juices. The delicate stomach lining is irritated, digestion is delayed and food sour, causing the disagreeable symptoms which every stomach sufferer knows so well.
Artificial digestants are not needed in such cases and may do real harm. They lay aside all digestive acids and instead get from any drugstore a few ounces of Bismarck Magnesia and take a teaspoonful in a quarter glass of water right after eating. This sweetens the stomach, prevents the formation of excess acid and there is no sourness, gas or pain. Bismarck Magnesia (in powder or tablet form—never liquid or milk) is harmless to the stomach, inexpensive to take and is the most efficient form of magnesia for stomach purposes. It is used by thousands of people who enjoy their meals with no more fear of indigestion. (Adv.)

extremely like a man who is falling in love! Mayn't I hear about it?"
For answer he gave her a long steady glance, and Chris began to feel her heart thump perilously. She was entirely at a loss. Why should anything Ivan Vlansey say, or didn't say, thrill her so oddly?
"Don't worry," he said then coolly. "Before I made a fool of myself, like other men, I'd get out!"
And then the children came in, rosy and furred, and there was much running back and forth with small mittens and overshoes, and tea was in joyous progress when Alan came home, pleased to sink into a chair and to find the four persons he loved best in the world harmoniously employed.
"There was the faintest self-consciousness in Christine's look, as she gave Ivan her hand in good-bye, at quarter to six. And she saw the deep color flood his brilliant skin as he took it. But nothing was said between them."
But what a mysterious vitality, what a new rush of interest and pleasure, this unexpected hour in the library gave to her life! Chris could hardly believe herself the same woman, as she trooped with Alan, and the children, and Cilly, upstairs.
The blood was dancing in her veins, life seemed to be singing and soaring with possibilities, and in the very centre of them all, the heart and hub and main-spring, was herself—beautiful, invincible, radiant Christine Montague once again!
Ivan—the had always hated him. Two hours ago she would have said that he was the last person in the world to whom she could spontaneously give her confidence. But now—now, it thrilled her from head to foot to think that she would see him again, whether she sought the opportunity for a meeting or not, and that when she did, the recollection of that hour would be uppermost in both their minds, and their relationship subtly altered by it, for all time.
Radiance and beauty returned to her; she did not question the rightness of any mood, of any friendship, that made her feel so good and so happy. That she and Ivan would be friendly—wasn't that far better than the old attitude of dislike and mistrust?
There was Ladies Day at the Players' Club, that week, a memorable day of Spring warmth, Spring enervation, lilacs and a new gown. Ivan took her to the club, and was the darling, the lion, of the day. Alan had said that he would call for them at six and did so, and he and Chris and Ivan came away together.
"Ivan, you make me very proud!" Christine said, in a touched voice. "I had been feeling—so useless, somehow!"
"You!" he said, with a short laugh, and looked back at the fire.
"But Ivan," she added, "you sound

Christine of the Hungry Heart
A Thrilling Love Story by Kathleen Norris

XXVII—A NEW INTEREST
This ended the immediate discussion of Alan, although both their minds were still full of him. They sat on idly, contentedly, Ivan's fingers locked, and gazing between his knees, Christine lying back in her big chair, her beautiful, vibrant hands set off by the deep curls of yellowed old lace, her slim ankles, in transparent silk stockings, disappearing into babyish velvet slippers, with rounded toes.
"Ivan," she asked suddenly, "have you ever been in love?"
"Nope," he said, with a faint scowl.
"I don't say that," he answered, after a pause. "Even to you!"
Christine, a little stirred and a little shocked, was silent.
"You know, a woman like you is a force, Chris," Ivan said presently, with apparent irrelevance. "I'm just beginning to realize how strong it is! Bodily strength is a force—facts, statistics, history and science—those are big forces! When I meet a multi-millionaire like young John Ford, as I did the other day—well, he may be dull, he may be nothing personally, but I look at him with a sort of awe. I can't help it. I say, 'You're a force, you're a world power!'"
"Genius like yours is a force, then, too, Ivan," Christine said smiling.
"Talent!" he said impatiently. "A sort of fortuitous gift! But about women—years ago you know, I read Aucassin and Nicolette, and Heloise and Abelard, and Beatrice."
"How furious you used to make Alan, calling it Bay-ar-tree-chee," Christine laughed. "When you were about fifteen! He's quoted it to me a thousand times!"
"It all seemed bunk to me," resumed Ivan simply. "It wasn't tangible—it was men making idiots of themselves, for nothing! But it came to me, awhile back— He paused, and when he spoke again it was in a lower tone. "It came to me," he said, "that the power you women wield is simply dynamic—it has the force of steam, shut up in a metal box! It is the world force—women, sweet, and silent, and patient—because, by the Lord, they can afford to be!" They can wait—because they know what they've got, yielding woman! Alan is restless, the wars, and the big bridges and the walled cities, and the thrones and churches—who builds them but some man for a beautiful, sweet and yielding woman! Alan is restless, women fret him and follow him, he doesn't belong anywhere—he isn't anything, and he meets you! Instantly, it's all concrete—work, of course, and a home, and a wife, and children—everything straight sailing! And you, who've already been a man's wife, and a mother, you can still give him his happiness—his mate—his life!"
"Ivan, you make me very proud!" Christine said, in a touched voice. "I had been feeling—so useless, somehow!"
"You!" he said, with a short laugh, and looked back at the fire.

BEDTIME STORY!
Uncle Wiggily and Tommie's Trick
(By Howard R. Garis)

"Come on, Tommie Kat!" barked Jackie Bow Wow one morning to the little pussy boy, the day after Thanksgiving. "Come on have a game of tag."
"Oh, no!" mewled Tommie, with a funny twist of his tail. "I'm going to do something else."
"What are you going to do?" Jackie wanted to know. "Is it fun?"
"Lots of fun!" laughed Tommie Kat. "I'm going to play a trick on Uncle Wiggily."
"What sort of a trick?" asked Jackie. "Are you going to put salt, instead of sugar in his carrot coffee?"
"No, not sagrarily that," mewled Tommie, almost choking over the hard word. "But there's a trick has to do with a carrot. Listen," and he looked around carefully to make sure no one but Jackie heard him. "I'm going to make a carrot out of wood, and paint it yellow, just like a real carrot. Then I'll take it to Uncle Wiggily and ask him to eat it. And when he bites on the hard, wooden carrot—won't that be a good trick?—Ha! Ha!"
"Ha! Ha!" laughed Jackie, as Tommie ran away to find a piece of wood out of which to make the carrot. "Ha! Ha!" But the more Jackie thought of it, the more he didn't like Tommie's trick. "Uncle Wiggily was good to me," barked Jackie softly. "He brought me some nice castor oil. I don't like tricks to be played on him."
So while Tommie was using his sharp claws to carve a carrot out of a piece of wood he had found, and while pussy boy was painting his cap yellow with the juice of some red carrots, Jackie ran over to Uncle Wiggily's hollow stump bungalow.
"Oh, Uncle Wiggily!" barked the doggie boy. "Tommie Kat is going to play a funny trick on you. He's going to give you a wooden carrot

"Well, then, why not drop you at home now, to change, and you come over and have dinner with Chris, and take her? How's that, Chris?"
"Lovely, for me," Chris's wonderful voice said, rather low.
She merely nodded good-bye to Ivan, and did not speak again on the trip home. Alan suspected that she was furious, and felt guilty and responsible. But as a matter of fact, making herself beautiful in full gold and blue brocade, laying out her great brilliant low down between her white forehead and the ripples of her magnificent hair, Chris was entirely unconscious of his very existence.

After a while over to the hollow stump bungalow came Tommie Kat with the yellow wooden carrot, which looked just like a real one.
"See what I brought you, Uncle Wiggily," mewled the pussy, holding out the trick carrot. "Take a nice, big bite!"

DOUGHT MAJOR BURDE TURNS HOUSE INTO BEDLAM WHILE HE ATTACKS EVERYONE IN SIGHT

"I'll Never Vote an Oliver Out to Put a Pooley in!" He Cries, While House Rocks, Speechless With Laughter, at His Crushing Witticisms; Hurls His Spears of Oratory in All Directions, Reserving a Large One for Dr. "Clam" Davies, and Accuses Tories of Deluding Unemployed.

Major Richard Burde, tall, independent and absolutely incorrigible member for Alberni, raised his lank figure in his place in the Legislature yesterday and turned that august body into a state of chronic pandemonium for a full hour while he launched a crushing attack on Conservatives and Liberals alike, but concluded with the emphatic assertion that he "would not vote an Oliver out to put a Pooley in."

Right and left, without regard to consequences, the representative of the Island's rugged West Coast, dealt his blows. With an overpowering, two-fisted humor that had Premier Oliver wiping the tears of laughter from his eyes and the entire House rocking and speechless, the Major ran through almost the whole gamut of Provincial affairs, aired his views on anything that came into his mind, conducted a well-planned assault on Dr. Clem Davies of this city—who he called "Dr. Clam"—and finally declared that if working conditions in British Columbia industry did not improve the population of this country would never increase.

"I hold no brief for the Liberal Party!" he cried after he had told the House just what he thought of the Conservatives for staging what he called a "Conservative demonstration" with the unemployed on the steps of the Parliament Buildings Wednesday. "But," he continued, turning fiercely upon R. H. Pooley, Conservative leader, "I would not vote a venerable old man like the Premier out to put an inexperienced young man like you on the job!"

The aristocracy of the Province he went on—while the Premier took off his glasses so that he could wipe the tears of amusement away—might not like the way Mr. Oliver ate blueberries, but it was not to these critics that the unemployed should look for aid. The Conservatives, he declared, were the "traditional enemies" of labor.

When C. F. Davis, Conservative, Cowichan-Newcastle, attempted to interrupt, the Major turned upon him with, "You're a young man yet! I was here when you and your built these Buildings and I want to say that they probably didn't know what kind of a Conservative you would be or they would have considered that interesting family event more thoroughly before you arrived!"

For whole minutes at a time business was held up while everyone shouted with laughter and the Major rained blows to make himself heard through the din that he had created. "Personally," he added, "I like Mr. Pooley. He is a splendid gentleman, but politically," he declared, referring to Mr. Pooley's old attacks on the liquor administration, "I will take a full every time I can out of a man who would cast for the resignation of three liquor commissioners because the brandy wouldn't burn on his plum pudding."

MAKES GOOD START

Major Burde had scarcely commenced when Mr. Speaker Buchman called him to order with the usual peculiar intonation of that word. "Please let me proceed, Mr. Speaker, without musical accompaniment!" the Major cried.

Then he congratulated Attorney-General Manson on his brilliant speech on the Janet Smith case yesterday—"the most convincing argument ever put across the floor of the House."

The Alberta Member announced breezily that he was "standing on his feet like a Cromwell or any other military genius like I am, determined not to grant supply to His Majesty until all grievances had been redressed.

When he declared that the unemployment demonstration yesterday had been a "Conservative demonstration," Mr. Pooley denied emphatically that he had known nothing of the demonstration before it began. Major Hayward also protested and declared that he had prevented such a gathering was not "Conservative in any sense," he said. He had watched the demonstration by invitation, he stated.

ACCUSES TORIES

"It wasn't the crowd that made the demonstration—it was the Leader of the Opposition and the first member for Victoria who made the demonstration," Major Burde fashed last.

"I made no demonstration," Mr. Pooley protested. But when he admitted that he had told the crowd that if the Government would not relieve unemployment he would make the question a political issue, a thunder of applause and jeers from the Government benches held up proceedings for several minutes.

ATTACKS POOLEY.

The Major then attacked Mr. Pooley for assailing his behavior in the House in a recent Mainland speech. "I am here on the floor of the House now!" he challenged. "If he observed the decorum I do here there will be greater respect in British Columbia for this Legislature!" Mr. Pooley retorted.

Major Burde replied that the greatest waste of time in the House was caused by Mr. Pooley's long arguments with the Government. Turning again to unemployment, the Major urged the members to forget party politics and seek a solution of the problem. He declared that about half of the crowd that stormed the Buildings yesterday would have been taken.

WONDERFUL SHOW OF ISLAND SEED

Conclusive Demonstration of Vancouver Island's High Grade Stock

The progress of seed growing on Vancouver Island is very clearly shown in the splendid exhibit at the British Columbia potato and seed show at Vancouver, now in progress. Some of the well-known commercial growers of seed like Crosland Brothers of Duncan, James of Salt Spring Island and Mathews of Lesbelle Farm, Westholme, are admirably represented. Their success with flower seeds has made them widely known, and the exhibits at the show illustrate both flower and vegetable seeds. The collections are beautifully staged and are a credit to the business of Vancouver Island.

Victoria growers are represented by George A. Robinson of Elk Lake two after publication it was impossible to buy a copy and one had to read a copy nailed up on a bulletin board.

He took the Oliver administration to task for permitting "individualistic group government," when the whole of the people, and not only Liberals, should be considered.

Attacking the McLean budget, Mr. Twigg asked why the Finance Minister had shown the estimated liquor profits as $1,700,000, when last year's profit was $2,000,000. He could not believe that there would be less liquor drunk in the Province in the future than in the past.

Discussing timber questions he took the Government to task for allowing the export of unmanufactured lumber and charged that the Export Advisory Committee, appointed to deal with log export, was "run" by the Government.

A. E. Munn, Liberal, Lillooet, and a former member of the committee, emphatically denied the imputation.

A thirty-minute argument arose over log export, Hon. T. D. Pattullo, Minister of Lands, declaring that the Government's policy was not in favor of log export, excepting where the industry would profit and Mr. Twigg persisting in his condemnation of exporting the raw.
