Miss Dreppard telephoned Mr. Bruppacher referring to the representation of Japanese interests by the Swiss Government and inquired as to the address to which informal communications transmitting death certificates (and similar information transmitted by the War Department) should be sent.

Mr. Bruppacher requested that such communications be transmitted direct to the Special Division of the Swiss Legation at 2514 Massachusetts Avenue, N.W.

Note: Mr. Bruppacher returned to Mr. Marcy around the eleventh of August death certificates of Japanese who died in the Philippines, which were transmitted informally to the Swiss Legation under cover of SWP's receipt form. Mr. Bruppacher in a telephone conversation with Mr. Marcy informed him that for the present the Swiss Legation desired to receive only information regarding Japanese nationals in the continental United States.
