

AIR CRAFT IN WAR

GENERAL USE OF FLYING MACHINES CHANGES MODE OF WARFARE

Intensive study of rival military organizations by the general staffs of European powers in the last half century has made it almost impossible for any nation to conceal much about the state of its army or navy. The fleets and armies of the great powers are all practically known quantities, and there is little probability that the British fleet or the German army would, in case of war, fail as thoroughly as did the Turkish army in 1912, or the Russian fleet in 1905. But there is a joker in the deck—the German airship fleet. Nobody knows what it can do, for it has never been tried. Indeed, there may be two jokers, for aeroplanes have never had a real war trial, and France is as superior in this branch of aviation as Germany is in dirigibles.

Owing to the relatively small size of the aerial establishments of the great powers, it is easier to conceal facts about them, so accurate figures are hard to get. The following compilation, however, has been made by Henry Woodhouse, managing editor of Flying, and represent probably the best statistics available to any one outside of the general staff:

Including dirigibles owned by private firms or individuals, but available for government use in time of war, Germany now has 34 airships available, Austria 9, and Italy 7. Of the German fliers about half are the large and very fast Zeppelin or Schutte-Lanz armored vessels, which form the most powerful air fleet in the world. France has 24 airships, Russia 11, and England 4, but these are all unarmored, very much smaller and slower than the zeppelins.

The Zeppelins, to be sure, have met with accidents of late, which show that they may be damaged by storms or explosions. The L-1 was wrecked in a storm off Helgoland in September, 1913, with the loss of 15 of her 22 men, and in October of the same year the L-2 exploded and burned in midair with the loss of her entire crew of 28. One or two of the various Zeppelins employed in passenger service have also been wrecked by storms, but in spite of these accidents there can be no doubt that they are the most powerful airships now aloft.

It has been proved that several hundred pounds of explosives can be dropped from one of the large dirigibles without endangering its equilibrium; guns of fairly heavy calibre are now mounted on almost all of them and they have at times attained great speed. Their large size makes them easy targets and it is a question how far the minute division of the gas chambers into compartments would neutralize the effect of high explosive shells; but their armor is proof against rifle fire. It is asserted that they are unable to make much speed against the wind, and thus would be easy marks for the light guns of a scattered fleet. But here again there is nothing certain to go by. Enthusiastic Germans hope that their air fleet could wreck the British navy or the French frontier fortresses, in spite of the numerous verticle firing guns which are now mounted on all warships and fortifications, but only the test could prove this.

The pictures illustrating various Bible themes now being shown by the I. B. S. A. at the Glendale theater opposite the sanitarium have aroused considerable interest among the people of Glendale, and large and appreciative crowds have witnessed the three parts already shown.

Part four will commence Sunday, August 9th, and will be shown at 3 and 8 p. m. every day until and including Wednesday, August 12th.

The last part is equally as instructive and interesting as the three preceding ones. This part includes a beautiful hand colored film entitled "Thrown to the Lions," and leaves an impression never to be forgotten of man's dominion over the animal creation.

Those not having seen the other parts of the creation pictures may obtain information regarding dates at which they may be seen in Los Angeles (at the Mozart theater, 730 South Grand avenue) by asking the ushers at the various entertainments at the Glendale theater this week.

This drama is a philanthropy, no collections being taken and no solicitations ever made. Don't fail to see this wonderful production.

Airships and motor vehicles are playing prominent part in scouting and outpost duty among the armies of Europe. The day of the horse in such service is pretty well passed.

STIRRING THEMES AT FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

Two impressive services have been planned for the First Baptist church for the coming Lord's day. At the morning service the pastor will conclude the series on "The Kingdom of Heaven" with a lecture entitled "The Kingdom of Heaven in the Book of Revelation." A lively interest has been taken in this course and the world's situation makes the theme of "The Kingdom of Heaven" and the principles of God's Kingdom timely.

At the evening service Rev. Troy has chosen for his theme, "European War and the Light of Prophecy." Bible students will be especially interested to hear this lecture by one who has made an exhaustive study of eschatology.

Male voices have been engaged to sing at both services.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Morning worship at 11 o'clock. Sermon topic, "Regeneration, What Is It?" Sunday school at 9:45. C. E. meeting at 6:30.

The Sunday morning sermon will be discussed at the prayer meeting next Wednesday evening at 7:30, which will be the last prayer meeting before the pastor leaves for a month's vacation.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH

The pastor will preach at both the services tomorrow. The morning subject will be "Things to Think About" and the evening's "The Prodigal Son."

At the Bible school Mrs. Dungan's class of boys will have charge of the devotional exercises at the close of the school instead of at the opening as was announced. This change is made so that a large number of the parents and friends of the boys will be present. It is hoped that a large number will be there to encourage them. Mrs. Dungan has had large experience in teaching boys and it is with great regret that she will have to give up the class in order to take Prof. Dungan east in the hope of improving his health.

The United States has the money, has the resources and has the pluck and resourcefulness to get along well in the midst of the war in Europe.

KEESLING IN GLENDALE

REPUBLICAN CANDIDATE FOR GOVERNOR CONFIDENT OF VICTORY

Francis V. Keesling, Republican candidate for governor of California, was looking after his interests in Glendale Friday morning. He has just completed a month's strenuous campaigning in the northern part of the state.

Speaking of the conditions through the state, Mr. Keesling said: "I have just concluded a trip through the Sacramento and San Joaquin valleys from Redding to Bakersfield. I have also visited Salinas, Santa Cruz and other cities on the coast, and I am in a position to say that there is absolutely no question but that the Republicans will elect the next governor of California."

Francis V. Keesling is a man who at thirty-eight has been spoken of as one of the most successful young men of his state. He is a native of California and one of the foremost attorneys in the state.

Mr. Keesling was born in San Jose February 17, 1877. He was educated in the grammar and high school of that city. He graduated from Stanford University in 1898, after working his way through.

Mr. Keesling was admitted to the bar and began the practice of law in San Francisco in 1898. Besides his extensive law practice, he has many private business interests. During the fire in San Francisco he earned the title of major in the national guard, where he entered the ranks as a private.

In private life Mr. Keesling is the father of three children, two sons and a daughter. Few men ever have been given such a magnificent vote as he received for lieutenant-governor four years ago when he was defeated only by the Progressive landslide.

His slogan for this campaign is "Good For Business." Mr. Keesling has a frank and pleasing personality.

K. OF P. MONTHLY AFFAIR

Members of the local Knights of Pythias chapter, together with their wives, enjoyed another one of those monthly jollifications Friday evening. At 6:30 o'clock a delicious chicken dinner was served in the lodge rooms to about forty guests, who later spent the evening at cards. The entire place was converted into a summer garden and a daisy one at that, for quantities of Shastas and fern adorned the banquet boards and tabourets in the corners.

Just before the tables were arranged for cards, all the Knights assembled and went through the evolution of their drill, thereby receiving the hearty applause of their audience.

Prizes awarded for highest scores fell to Miss George Duffet of Glendale and Mr. Knapp of Los Angeles, hosts and hostesses for the very pleasant evening having been Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Peckham, Mr. and Mrs. Daniels and Mr. and Mrs. Crofton.

POLITICAL SITUATION

Since stepping foot on California soil the latter part of February, 1913, the editor of the Glendale Evening News has been busy trying to study out the political situation in California, and now after having been in the position of an interested pupil for almost eighteen months, the writer is willing to confess that he is still at sea as to the intentions of the leaders of the various political parties. The main ambition seems to be to remain in office, or get elected to office.

DAKOTAN LOCATES HERE

Mr. E. B. Van Alstine has just completed and moved into his elegant $4000 home at 1447 Riverdale drive. He is a retired merchant of Mitchell, South Dakota, having been engaged in the agricultural implement business in that city for fifteen years. Mr. Van Alstine and his wife visited Southern California about a year ago looking for a suitable location in which to spend their declining years. After spending four months investigating the different suburban towns, he chose Glendale in preference to any place in Southern California.

The following past masters of the Masonic order left at 1:30 today to join brother Masons on a trip to San Diego, where they will remain at the U. S. Grant hotel until Sunday evening. Messrs. John Hobbs, C. W. McFadden, Richard C. Sternberg, Geo. U. Moyle, Ira Moyle, Dan Campbell and Harry Bettz. A number of Burbank Masons were also included in the nearly four hundred representatives.

TROPICO NOTES

IMPORTANT NEWS NOTES AND PERSONAL ITEMS FROM TROPICO

Mrs. Samuel A. Pollock and Miss Cora Hickman were the guests of Mrs. Eva May Blain of Los Angeles at an old-fashioned dancing party given at the Echo park clubhouse Friday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dutton and daughter, Mildred Dutton, of New York City, who have been the guests of Mr. Dutton's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Dutton of Virginia place, left for Provo, Utah, where Mr. Dutton, who is on the Empress circuit, was called to fill a vaudeville engagement.

Dan Campbell, president of the Bank of Tropico, leaves for San Diego this evening with a party of past masters of the Masonic lodges of Southern California, where the association will hold a meeting. Mrs. Campbell and the children have been in San Diego the past week.

After a pleasant visit at the ranch home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. George Nelson Lunn, at Irwindale, Allen Davenport has returned to his home on South Glendale avenue.

Miss Mary Jane Evans-Hough, who has been the guest of her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Will Waters of Pasadena the past week, will return to her home on North Central avenue Sunday.

CONDENSED WAR NEWS

Germany, undaunted by the loss of 25,000 men, continues the siege of Liege. The Belgians granted their enemy an armistice of twenty-four hours in which to collect their wounded and bury their dead.

A direct appeal to King Victor Emmanuel of Italy from the Kaiser was without success and Italy maintains her position of strict neutrality.

The report of an engagement between England and Germany in the North Sea has been denied.

Volunteers are enlisting in large numbers in England. English losses so far are confined to the cruiser Amphion. Official notice of the whereabouts of the British fleet has not been given out.

The French army has crossed the German border and will advance on Strassburg. Another detachment is marching to the support of the Belgians at Liege.

Russia has 6,000,000 men in the field and large Russian armies are reported to be advancing toward Germany.

The Austrian bombardment of Belgrade continues.

The French and Russian governments acknowledged the receipt of the tender of "good offices" of President Wilson.

SWEET CHILD SINGER AT CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH

At the regular 11 o'clock preaching service tomorrow morning at the Congregational church, Master Waldo Yard, a child nine years of age, who is possessed of a voice of marvelous sweetness and power, will sing "Love's Message," by Brockman, as the offertory.

The sermon will be delivered by the Rev. William R. Sloan, his subject being "I Am the Way, the Truth and the Life." There will be no evening service.

LEAVES FOR BOSTON

Mr. Charles O'Neill of 311 Lomita avenue will leave Monday, August 10th, for Boston, Mass., where he will visit his mother and old home. Mr. O'Neill is cashier in the Hibernian bank, Los Angeles, and has been granted a two months' leave of absence.

MRS. WOOD HOSTESS

WHITE RIBBONERS HOLD ENTHUSIASTIC MEETING—SPEECHES AND REFRESHMENTS

The beautiful home of Mrs. Ida Wood at the corner of Orange and Sixth streets was hospitably thrown open to White Ribboners Friday afternoon. There was a large attendance and an interesting session was held, with Mrs. Ruby J. Smart in the chair.

Mrs. Wood is enthusiastic for California "dry." As a hostess she proved to be ideal. The topic for the day was "Evangelistic Work of the W. C. T. U." By virtue of the fact, Mrs. Loveless is superintendent of that department, and she gave dignity to the meeting by an eloquent address.

Mrs. Loveless has served in many high offices of the W. C. T. U., also an editor, writer and public speaker. She with her good husband have done evangelistic work for years, following in the footsteps of the Great Teacher, who went about doing good.

The life of the speaker is an ornament to the principals of the W. C. T. U. In part, Mrs. Loveless said:

"The various departments of W. C. T. U. are like a great cable, each line carrying a gospel message."

Mrs. Knox was present and in her charming way gave two readings.

Mrs. Fuller also favored the ladies with a piano solo in a masterly way. She played "The Palms" with variations by Leybach. Both Mrs. Knox and Mrs. Fuller are favorite entertainers. They were given a rousing vote of thanks and the White Ribbon salute.

Mrs. Wood served delightful refreshments. The meeting adjourned to reassemble in two weeks at the country home of Mrs. Hartley on Verdugo road, when a picnic will be held. A day of pleasure is anticipated.

TRIPLE K EVENING PARTY

One of the most delightful social affairs of the current week was the evening party enjoyed recently by members of the Triple K Club, their husbands and friends, in the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Goodridge of 1432 West Colorado boulevard.

Potted plants and ferns were used by the hostess in adorning both the exterior and interior of her attractive house, which sheltered twenty guests who sat at cards and later rolled back the rugs and indulged in those good old-fashioned dances of the days of yore. Songs by Mrs. Cappell, Mr. F. Booth and Mr. Goodridge were also added features.

Mrs. Purce Curtis, Mrs. Plummer Van Sant, Mr. Andrew Wightman and Mr. Plummer Van Sant were awarded the first and second ladies' and gentlemen's prizes, these having been presented to the worthy during the serving of a dainty midnight collation. Fruit punch refreshed the guests during the early evening and was generously served by the gracious hostess, ably assisted by her daughter, Mrs. Charles Whipple.

GLENDALE'S BUILDING ACTIVITY

The aggregate of the building permits for July was $54,000, and now August is opening up with indications of a good month. Among the permits granted to date are: W. T. Rutter, 708 Raleigh street, dwelling, $1800, and W. A. Gibson, 718 Ninth street, dwelling, $4000. There are many additions and improvements that in the aggregate amount to considerable.

PAPER STOCK PURCHASED

The paper stock for the anniversary number of the Glendale Evening News was purchased this morning at a cost of $388. It is only with the united efforts of citizens and business concerns of Glendale that an illustrated publication, setting forth the merits of Glendale, the City Beautiful, can be made a success. Phone your wants and suggestions to Sunset 132, Home 2401.

EXCUSE FOR RAISING PRICES

The European war affords an excellent opportunity for big concerns to raise the price on many articles, and give as an excuse, supply cut off from Europe. Millions of dollars will be made by capitalists by advancing the price of merchandise which they purchased at the usual price. The buying public should have protection from the clutches of these speculators.

The poetic boast was "Better fifty years of Europe than a cycle of Cathay." But there are American tourists in the embattled regions just now who would paraphrase this to read: "Better fifty years at home, in peace, without a vacation, than a month in Europe in war time."

CAMPFIRE GIRLS HOME

OUTING IN CANYON AT CAMP BALDY PROVES GREAT SUCCESS

With the beauties of a wonderful trip thick upon their minds, members of the Campfire Girls, together with their chaperones, have returned from the glorious outing that held them captive for two weeks in the canyon near Camp Baldy.

Ideally located, the young ladies spent the days in traversing the hills and exploring regions of which they knew nothing. A climb to the top of Mt. Baldy was made by twelve members of the party, five of whom made the trip in daylight, while seven chose the moon as guidance. Those who traveled by night experienced the joys and thrills of seeing the moon drop his fiery head behind the hills and the sun commence his upward climb through the heavens.

Of course, there are many things to tell relative to the trip, etc., but most interesting of all is to know everyone was well and happy, inasmuch as 106 loaves of bread, 25 pounds of butter and six dozen cans of milk were consumed, along with numerous other things, by the Misses Elsie Tyler, Hazel Tyler, Dorothy Stanton, Ruth Sanford, Edna Alley, Mary Hunt, Doris Latta, Levina Banker, Caroline Wattling, Mildred Keough, Ethel Preston, Grace Adams, Carol Willisford, Alice Patterson, Irma Patterson, Clara Jenkins, Augusta Otto, Elizabeth Smith, Vera McPherson, Mattie Freeman, Margaret McPherson, Dorothy McPherson and Mrs. H. McPherson, Mrs. Albert Marple, Mrs. O. W. Tarr, Mrs. Stanton and Mrs. Richard Siple, who acted as chaperones.

During their outing the young ladies received a number of callers from town. The Rev. J. H. Troy was also a guest in camp one day, and Mrs. Harold Latta, Miss Tyler and Miss Edith Alley rode up on the truck that brought the merry campers home from a never-to-be-forgotten summer outing.

INFORMAL EVENING FOR OUT-OF-TOWN GUEST

A delightful informal party was planned Friday evening by Miss Josephine Moore of 1504 West Fifth street, who complimented her house guest, Miss Ruth Spahr of Pasadena, in a most pleasing manner. Games and music were the principal features of the evening and were indulged in and enjoyed until a late hour, when the little hostess brought forth delicious refreshments and bade her guests partake.

Those invited to meet Miss Spahr were Miss Ida Potter, Miss Bessie Vanosold, Miss Ruth Fairchild, Miss Ruth Moore, Miss Veda Patch, Mr. Leo Goode, Mr. Donald Goode, Mr. Bob Ritchie, Mr. Joseph Hartley, Mr. Cleo Hartley, Mr. Jesse Flower and Mr. Hosea Brown.

YELLOW LUNCHEON

Yellow and white was the color scheme in which Mrs. F. W. Pigg carried out the prettily appointed luncheon over which she presided in her home, 912 Randolph street, Friday noon, this motif having been particularly attractive in the use of golden cannas and fern. All the details were completely carried out and the courses, too, furthered the chosen idea.

The afternoon was devoted to pleasure, entertaining features having been the pleasing piano selections given by Miss Elizabeth Jackson, violin solos by Miss Winifred Jones and readings by Miss Bertha Jackson. Others present were Mrs. M. Ewell Smith, Mrs. Lucian Phillips and Miss Anna Ewell Phillips of Los Angeles, Mrs. Mattison B. Jones, Mrs. W. E. Evans, Mrs. R. M. Jackson, Mrs. J. H. Jackson, Mrs. F. W. Pigg, Miss Maybeth Pigg and Masters Dudley and Billy Pigg.

CLEM MOORE TO MAKE A LONG AUTO TRIP

C. L. V. Moore, state agent of the Toledo Gas Furnace Company, accompanied by Mrs. Moore, leaves Glendale Sunday morning for a two weeks' auto trip. Mr. Moore will take a Toledo furnace with him and stop at every city of any size along the route to San Francisco and appoint agents.

Mrs. W. Tuttle and daughter, Miss Evangeline Tuttle, who for several weeks past have been visiting in the home of Mr. Paul V. Tuttle, 1417 West Broadway, left Friday for their home at Pacific Grove. Young Maxwell Tuttle accompanied his grandmother and aunt and will remain with them until the opening of school in the fall.

SERBS RAISE WAR FUNDS

Serbs of San Francisco, Oakland and the other bay cities held many martial meetings when the outbreak of hostilities between Serbia and Austria was announced and elaborate preparations were made to raise funds for the war and to send volunteers across the seas to swell the army of the mother country.

Only a few weeks ago the Servians of the bay counties held a monster celebration of the emancipation of the Servian empire from the Turkish yoke, after centuries of servitude. Hardly had their rejoicings over the successful outcome of the Turko-Servian war of 1912-13 subsided when the news reached them that their national independence was again menaced—this time by Austria.

An admirable spirit of high patriotism has been evidenced in congress by the passage, by unanimous vote, of measures for replenishing this country's money supply. When patriotism calls, partisanship is forgotten in congress, as it is among the masses of the American people.

The United States invites European tourists to come to this country at their convenience, assuring them that no impending war here will mar their pleasure or interfere with their movement about the country at their pleasure.

Let us not gloat over the fact that Europe is at war, while America is at peace—that would be brutal. But let us thank God that we, as a nation and people, are spared the horrors of warfare.

Nature is calling the vacationists to the colors—and they are bright, variegated and beautiful colors that the flower-beds, the green swards and the woods present.

WHY JOHN C. CLINE SHOULD BE SHERIFF

He has lived in Los Angeles 45 years and everybody is familiar with his clean public record.

In 1894 as sheriff he handled the great American Railway Union strike without the aid of the militia, by appointing special deputies from the ranks of labor, to prevent disorder and the destruction of property. Thus in his wisdom demonstrating that men in any walk of life, put upon their honor, will observe their trust.
 Adv. 304-tf

Be assured, Europe will find a way for American foodstuffs to reach the other side of the Atlantic. Europe must depend upon the United States to replenish its bread-basket.

NORTH GLENDALE

Upon request the musical given under the auspices of the Casa Verdugo Methodist church recently will be repeated tonight at the Casa Verdugo schoolhouse, corner Dryden and North Central avenue. The program will be rendered as follows: Vocal solo, Mr. R. D. Jones; piano solo (selected), Miss Dorothy Lee; violin solo, Eva Noble; reading, Mrs. R. D. Jones; vocal duet, Dr. Eckles and Mr. Dourte; vocal solo, Mrs. C. H. Cunningham; piano solo (selected), Miss Dorothy Lee; vocal solo, Mr. C. H. Cunningham; reading, Mrs. R. D. Jones; violin solo, Miss Eva Noble.

Mrs. C. H. Cunningham of Fairview avenue entertained with a beautifully appointed dinner last Friday evening. Covers were laid for six and the guests who enjoyed the gracious hospitality of the charming hostess were Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Pounds and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Pounds of Inglewood, formerly of Portland, Oregon, as were Mr. and Mrs. Cunningham. It is almost needless to state that the occasion was a most delightful one for the old-time friends.

Services at the Casa Verdugo First M. E. church for Sunday, the 9th, will be as usual. Sunday school at 9:45 a. m. Morning service at 11 a. m. Epworth League at 6:30 p. m. Evening service at 7:30 p. m. There will be special music at the morning and evening services and a cordial invitation is extended to all to come and worship with us. Pastor, M. K. Stone.

Charmingly attractive in every detail was the luncheon given by Mrs. S. C. Bierbower of 922 Fairview avenue Friday afternoon at her home. The guests who enjoyed the hospitality of the gracious hostess were Mrs. Jack Wheeler, Mrs. Frances Kelso and Mrs. Lou Borney, all of Los Angeles.

Quite a number of North Glendale people are attending the Iowa picnic today at Bixby park in Long Beach. Several of the business men would have enjoyed the occasion if business had permitted, but business before pleasure, you know.

Mrs. Sidney Dell of North Louise street was among the several Glendaleans who enjoyed the trip to Industrial City last Wednesday. A most interesting day was spent viewing the many new industries lately brought to California.

The many friends of Miss Ethyl Collins of 1016 North Central avenue will be very glad to learn that she has recovered from the attack of measles that has confined her to her home for the past fortnight.

Mr. Charles H. Toll and family of Kenneth road left Friday evening in their large touring car for an extensive trip north, expecting to stop at Lake Tahoe for at least three weeks.

Whooping cough is prevalent in this vicinity of North Louise street and Dryden, several cases having been reported. At last report all the little ones affected were doing well.

Mrs. W. H. Browne of Sixth and Grand View avenue returned home Friday after spending the week as the guest of her son, Mr. H. A. Brown and family in Los Angeles.

Mrs. C. H. Allison of 1029 Fairview avenue, with friends from Los Angeles, were pleasantly entertained at the Burbank Friday afternoon witnessing "Maggie Pepper."

Miss Mary Pierce of Fairview avenue was the guest of her brother, Mr. Ernest Pierce and family of West Thirty-eighth place, Los Angeles, on Friday.

Mr. C. H. Allison of 1029 Fairview avenue returned on Friday evening from a business trip to San Luis Obispo.

Mrs. Frank Alberts of Randolph street was the guest for the day of friends in Los Angeles.

Frank Balthis, Jr., visited his friend, Albert Townsend, at Redondo Beach from Tuesday until Thursday of this week.

A STATUE—ALMOST SACRED

General Miles' published protest against the removal of that magnificent equestrian statue of General Sherman, by the great American artist, Saint-Gaudens, which adorns the entrance to Central park and which is one of the conspicuous works of art of this or any other country, will find a responsive chord in every American who admires the beautiful and who loves the memory of that great soldier. General Miles says of it:

"It was wrought with great care and labor and placed by patriotic friends in the most appropriate place in New York, where strangers from foreign countries can see and admire and where millions of our own people, who appreciate valor and patriotism, can adore and enjoy."

The proposition is to remove this splendid example of a glorious art and in its place erect a little dog kennel entrance to one of New York's underground railroads. It is a proposed desecration that ought to meet with the most drastic opposition. We have too few of these ornamental reminders in this country of our great commanders.

As for the peace dove, it may roost, for the time being, on the South Pole.

WILLIAM H. JOYCE

NON-PARTISAN CANDIDATE FOR SHERIFF ANNOUNCES HIS PLATFORM

At a large and enthusiastic meeting held in Symphony hall, 232 South Hill street, Los Angeles, Monday afternoon, August 3, Mr. Joyce pledged himself to the above platform, if elected.

Mr. Joyce is a native of Texas, 46 years of age, married and has five children.

HIS PLATFORM

To conduct the office of sheriff in a strictly business-like manner.

To surrender to the county treasurer all fees collected by the office and to expect no compensation except the salary provided by law.

To recommend and urge that all prisoners be fed by the county at cost and without extra profit to the sheriff or his office.

To exercise the greatest care in the selection and appointment of deputies, constables and special deputies.

children. He has lived in Los Angeles county twenty years, and through his active interest in various civic and commercial organizations, has done his full share towards the upbuilding of Los Angeles county and Southern California.

For many years he was manager of the Globe Grain & Milling Company and afterwards was vice-president and manager of the All Night & Day Bank, which was subsequently merged with the Hellman Commercial Trust & Savings Bank.

Since that time he has been in the investment business principally, handling his own properties, with offices at 611-612 Security building, which are his present campaign headquarters.

The office of sheriff is strictly non-partisan and regardless of how you are registered, you can vote for Mr. Joyce at the primaries.

WAR WILL CHANGE MAP

A struggle of nations is impending in Europe compared to which the martial conflicts that have taken place since the beginning of history will pale into insignificance. Where in other wars there were thousands of men in the field or even hundreds of thousands, there will be millions in this war. It is a war of nations in which several of the participants are fighting for their very existence. When the war clouds are once more dispersed, the sun will shine on a very much changed map of Europe, and some of the nations which today are among the world powers will very likely have gone down never to rise again to their present might.

FOR THE GENERAL GOOD

There is some hope for the rest of the county in the statement that the consolidation amendment may be refused a place on the ballot because of an error in the wording. One of the Los Angeles papers, which has been a sponsor for the measure from the first, admits the error, but says the state officials have not decided whether it is fatal or not. If this mistake proves to be sufficient to exclude the amendment from a place on the ballot, it will be one instance where a technicality worked for the general good.

For the time being, the foreign commerce of the United States will be hard hit by the European war. But matters will become so adjusted soon, it may be believed, that shipments of foodstuffs and other necessities may be made from this country to the nations at war. "Necessity is the mother of invention" and Europe necessities, in the matter of daily bread, will force her to invent means for admitting the hunger-averting largess from America.

Just as everybody was beginning to take easier breaths, hoping that the worst was over in Mexico, at least for a time, hades breaks loose again, down there. Peace hasn't much show anywhere, any more, except in the United States.

Men are brave and heroic today, as they have been in all ages. Deeds of desperate valor and chivalrous courage will be common in the great struggle now proceeding across the Atlantic.
