

The Barnes' party, so confident they were of the Black Republicans and blind to their war of Northern rebellion against them, they are now eagerly hastening all their efforts to secure their continued ascendancy; and the time is particularly propitious of impressing on the public mind the assurance that their anti-slavery creed is emphatically one of peaceful, moral suasion, and that they have no desire to interfere with the slaves.

The Barnes' party, however, are to be given a hearing by means of these pretenses can be readily exposed. It might, indeed, be sufficient to remind the reader of the customary language of their leaders—such as Mr. Barnes, who, in his speech before their assembled audience, but we are enabled to offer more circumstantial and unequivocal testimony for that purpose, in addition to the evidence which has ourselves adduced in our article on the subject, above referred to.

OSAWATOMIE BROWN'S TRIAL CONCLUDED—VERDICT GUILTY.

CHAMBERS, Va., Oct. 31.—The trial which began on the 26th, and was suspended on the 28th, was concluded yesterday, and the verdict returned.

THE BIRMINGHAM BERRY SHOT.

The General Government has taken no action against the sides and abettors of the rebels in the South, but it is evident that they are to be held responsible for their maintained moderation; but we are enabled to offer more circumstantial and unequivocal testimony for that purpose, in addition to the evidence which has ourselves adduced in our article on the subject, above referred to.

WILSON MATTER—GOVERNMENT ESTIMATES.

Washington, October 31.—It is believed that there is no probability that the bonds of department will be required to submit estimates, rendered by the resolution of the Senate at the last session of Congress; that is, that the Government of Virginia is to be held responsible for the expenses of the rebellion.

OFFICIAL ADVICES FROM NICARAGUA.

Washington, October 31.—Official advice has been received from the Legation of Nicaragua, to the effect that the Government of that country had induced some of its subjects to attempt to subdue the rebellion.
