1. Contract and the 1st one month

a. An oral contract was made between Mrs. Moss and I on January 18th, 1950, having Mrs. Fuji's witness as guarantor, in whose house Mr. Moss & his family used to live.

Lease: Until Mr. Moss gets a U.S. house - less than one year

Rent: 12,000 yen a month - No. Kenrikin

Family: Mr. & Mrs. Moss and their son and daughter, and 2 maids.

Rooms: Downstairs - 3 rooms except the part of dining room to be used as a pathway from hall to bathroom

Upstairs - 2 rooms

Area in common: No priority. Equal chance to use - bath, kitchen, etc.

Miscellaneous charge: Mr. Moss would pay the swollen parts of charges other than I used to pay - Gas, electricity, water, etc.

Mrs. Moss asked my agreement afterwards on fixing the house for their own convenience. Work was done as follows:

Convert one of the two Japanese style toilet into Western one - Originally flush toilet

Repaint the wall in 3 rooms and kitchen

Extend the gas pipe and make 2 more new gas faucet.

Strengthen the electricity wire to have it load more electricity.

c. The reasons why I gave up to make definitely written contract were

Mr. Moss was not interested in making it and I trusted him.

The lease was on short time basis.

Mrs. Fuji proved confidentially that they are well educated people and

Mrs. Moss is fine Nisei lady and interested in the way of Japanese living.

The reason why did not make it sure that the expenditure on fixing house would not cause any burden on me afterwards were

Mr. Moss wanted to do it just for his own preference and convenience.

Mrs. Moss used to say, "I'm sorry to make your house strangely rebuilt..."

It has been a customary way for tenant to pay the expenditure for fixing the house when an American moves into a Japanese house.

d. On February 11th, Mr. Moss & his family moved in.

Kiku, the elder sister of Mrs. Moss moved in with them, too, as a housekeeper, though I had not heard anything about her.

Janet Imbush, the younger sister of Mrs. Moss, Mrs. Jeanne Rindsay, Mr. Moss's old friend and the assistant manager of the Sufunotomo Billet, 26-6726, and Mr. Woodford, the intimate friend of Mrs. Rindsay and an engineer of R&U, GHQ, came to visits quite often and stayed with them almost all of the weekend.

Also, Mrs. Endo, the eldest sister of Mrs. Moss and her husband and their family used to come.

A home warming party was given by Mr. Moss on February 25th. I & my wife were invited. I gave every help to them I could do in any way. Mr. Moss called me several times to drink together. Mrs. Moss presented me a decoration cake for my birthday. It had been the best time for the first month after they moved in. I did not realize that a series of potential moments had already existed to lead us to the situation we have at present.

e. Mrs. Janet Imbush, the younger sister of Mrs. Moss, proposed some talk with me on March 4th and asked me to have her use one of the two rooms I was using for my own. She offered a money to buy a bed, because I needed it if I sleep in the other room. I agreed because we were in the best relation at these days and I hoped to do my best to have this condition last as long as possible. Oral contract was made on March 8th as follows:

Lease: Until she buys a house - she showed a letter from the States and it said she was going to get $8,000 very soon - less than one year.
 Rent: No rent. She buys a bed for me as gift.
 Others: Do the same with Mr. Moss and his family. Also she asked me to agree to repaint the wall and extend the gas pipe.

She moved in on March 17th.

2. Potential moments to lead us to the trouble

a. In a word, trouble came from the area in common.

Mrs. Fuji stressed that there had not been any turn in taking the bath when they were in her house and Mrs. Moss and I talked about the bath afterwards and promised each other that I would buy a bale of coal a month for them and no turn in taking it. But actually the housekeeper, Kiku had never had us take it before 10:30. Sometimes, maids took it ahead even. Mrs. Moss suggested me once to fix the bath by myself and I did not do that because Moss people would feel inconvenient and I would be satisfied if they follow the promise and I expected their right conduct. As result, we had been obliged to sit up until late every night and I felt very tired when I was working in the office.

They used to have a lot of guests almost every day.

This result in my wife used to be pushed off in using the kitchen when she wanted.

Noise of playing piano, drinking and dancing disturbed me in studying and sleeping.

I had never imagined that Mr. Moss would have such many guests every night.

Furthermore, the piano was located just to the opposite side of the door of my room which had not been in use. Sometimes they played piano and danced Jazz until 2.00 o'clock in the morning.

My wife used to be obliged to cook after they had finished, about 8.30 or 9.00 and wash plates about at 11.00 or 11.30.

b. Jeanne Rindsay and Janet Imbush have a sort of intense character. They were apt to take part in Mrs. Moss's business. Mrs. Moss is a lady who has weakness in her character and is apt to avoid to do the matter which she doesn't like it. I was not be able to have chance to talk with her when I noticed that the situation must be mended. Nothing was able for me than to depend upon the conscience and culture of their

I used to think they are all Americans. But it was disclosed that Mrs. Moss and Mrs. Imbush and Kiku are Japanese, by being excited to much when a Japanese Policeman came to visit to ask question about security. Mrs. Moss had Jeanne answered to the policeman and she said "Moss people have nothing to do with the Japanese police." He came to take care of them. I felt that they have some secret in the past.

I summarize that Mr. Moss & his family and his friend became to push me out of the right use of the area in common and the noisiness disturbed me badly, too.

Mrs. Moss had Jeanne answered to the policeman and she said "Moss people have nothing to do with the Japanese police." He came to take care of them. I felt that they have some secret in the past.

I summarize that Mr. Moss & his family and his friend became to push me out of the right use of the area in common and the noisiness disturbed me badly, too.

c. Mr. Moss had a intimate friend in Shanghai, named Mr. Ura. Mr. Ura was also the relative of Mrs. Jeanne Rindsay. Mr. Ura evacuated from China in May. Mr. Moss had Mr. Ura and his family stay in my house without getting any agreement of mine. I was introduced to Mrs Ura by Mrs. Moss two days after they moved in when I went to the bathroom. All I could say was "Hallo, how do you do." It was too late to complain it.

They said they were going to leave for Sweden in 15 days. But Mr. Ura got job in the Capital Insurance Co and still in my house and is going to work from my house.

They have 3 children. Children used to run all over my house or pick up flowers or came in my room when we were eating. The noisiness of children and the crowiness in kitchen and bath disturbed us badly.

d. Mr. Moss drank heavily and drove against some high ranking officer, car numbered 1-2, on way home from Yokohama on May 18th. He was fired by the Coca Cola Co. Later, the company reemployed him under the condition that he would be transferred to Okinawa after the military court sentences him. He was sentenced to $150 of fine. All these days, he stayed at home and drank ,played piano until late.

I and my wife became unendurable with the situation around my house.

3. The 1st negotiation

a. On May 31st, Mr. & Mrs. Moss and I.

I asked, " If possible please take your family to Okinawa with you because I need more rent - this was my biggest fault. but the pressure made me forget that they spent money on house- and I am sorry to have you pay more rent."

Mr. Moss answered, "We spent much money on house and I'm coming back in 6 months. My family won't move out. But let us try to find reasonable rent for this house through an expert on house and do solution which suits for both sides."

4. The 2nd negotiation

a. On June 3rd, Mr Endo, the brother in law of Mrs. Moss, and I.

Mr. Endo came to see me as the representative of Mr. Moss. He said, " You are Japanese. Mr. Moss is American. You better withdraw all your proposal otherwise he will call M.P. to push you down. I am here for take care of you. You should be thankful to me."

I answered, " I will withdraw the proposal about the rent. But, I must talk to Mrs. Moss and have the situation mended and get the definitely written contract because we are very unhappy to live on the present situation."

b. At this time, another trouble happened.

Mrs. Moss had Jeanne try to push down with Mr. Endo and Jeanne came into my room without getting any permission and jumped on my wife, saying " Your wife is wicked woman. She is speaking ill of all Mr. Moss family. She speaks around that Mr. Moss was fired by the company and is going to be expelled to Okinawa and that Mr. Ura is a half indian race and so on.." and " if you don't withdraw your proposal, I will ask lawyers. I am working for the SCAP , so on."

I asked my wife if she said such and she confirmed that she hadn't done. Her innocence can be proved objectively because I asked Mrs Hirokawa from whom they get the rumour to be witness and it was disclosed that Mrs. Hirokawa had not met my wife since before the Ura people move in. This seemed a sort of plot made by the maid of Mrs. Fuji.

I like to stress there would not be any trouble if they had been more conscientious in the common area and if they had not Mr. Ura stay in and If Mrs Moss was not fired by the accident. None of the cause was on the side of mine.

5.Until to this time negotiation.

- a.My wife kept crying all over night while Moss people were drinking, dancing and playing piano for Mr. Moss's birthday and farewell party - I presented a gift for his birthday before I talk with Mr. Endo - She was frantic.
- b.My wife could not stay in my home any longer. So exited. We went to fathers' in law and stayed there for a week.
- c.We came home after a week. Since that time, unhappiest days begun to us. Their silent torture on my wife was just terrible. She became ill because of the nervous prostration. All Moss ladies looked her with cross eyes and whispers when my wife went into the kitchen. Or shut the door suddenly. They did not answer the telephone call for me. When I got home, I could not go to the bathroom to wash my hand even, because they are occupied the dining room fully.

Inorder to have my wife relaxed, I had been obliged to stay out with her in my relatives almost every other day.

Such situation have lasted from June to September.

6.Proposal through Mr. Endo.

Mrs. Janet Imbush got money and bought a house. All Moss family is going to move out by the end of September.

So, Mr. Endo stressed, I have to compensate the expenditure for fixing the house. the amount is 100,000yen.

If I can't pay, they will bring some acquaintance and take the money from them.

I have to answer in a week, by 18th of September, what I'm going to do.

From: Kichiei Tateizumi, c/o Naruse, 1909, Ikebukuro,
Toshima-ku, Tokyo

6-chome,

Of 68,000 yen of the total expenditure for construction of a house, I paid in advance 35,000 yen to a constructor at Meguro in the end of 1949. But just after I paid the money, I found it impossible to afford the rest.

Despite my earnest request, he did not return the money I had paid, so that I appealed to the police. The police advised him to accept my request, on which he said he would return the money by installements starting May. Judging from his arrogant attitude, I can not believe his words.

I had such an experience before, too.

Please do something for me. If you do not mind, I shall be willing to see you.

T/N. To my best knowledge and belief, essential points of this lengthy, diffuse petition are being included in above four paragraphs of translation.

SUBJECT: Petition

1. Your letter of 30 September regarding your dispute with your landowner, was received.

2. If you have rebuilt your house and are paying the agreed rental on the land, the demands of the landlord should be ignored. If he wants to get you off the land let him file a court action to that end, then he will have to convince the court he has reason to have you removed from the land. This procedure will take a long time.

I would like to settle the problem of lease which has been my annoyance. I would like you to let me know what to do with the following matter.

Tokyo #218

I leased a land from W. Nakamura and had a house built there in October 1932. The house was destroyed by an air-raid in May 1945. Despite his consent to my request for construction of a house on the land in May 1950, the land owner now demands me to buy the land. But not having money enough to buy the land I am at a loss what to do.

The Daiichi Mutual Insurance Company is well-known as having a lot of insurees all over the country. In September 1948 Hiroyuki Hayakawa, an insuree died but the company has not paid the insurance money amounting to ¥500,000 for unfair reasons in violation of the Japanese law. They seem to be closely connected with corrupt officials of Finance Ministry.

Please take some action on this matter for the sound development of insurance companies in Japan.

We were forced to join a Red Cross Service Group recently formed whose chief is a "boss" in our section. He says it is a directive of the KaCAR. We are required to pay 150 yen a month membership-fee.

If that is the order by Kanto CAR, why can't we elect the chairman in a democratic way?

SUBJECT: An interim report

TO : Dr. J. G. FeatherstoneFROM : Chonei MATSUSHITA
#5, 1-chome, Yuraku-cho, Chiyoda-ku, Tokyo-to.

I forwarded my petition, dated 23 May 1950, to the authorities of Kanto Civil Affairs Region concerning a land-lease dispute caused by the existence of the law to the following effect:

"A person whose house was burned in the war fire can build his house on the same site, even in case the land owner refuses to lease the site, however, a person whose house was torn down under the order of government during the war is not allowed to rebuild a house on the former site."

As I carried on a book-store in #2, 1-chome, Yuraku-cho, Chiyoda-ku, Tokyo, for more than 30 years, I wanted very badly to restore my right over said site, resulting in forwarding aforementioned petition to you.

In compliance with your advice, I went up to see Judge INOMATA, of the Tokyo Higher Court, to ask for his assistance, however, to my disappointment, I was told by the judge that under the present law, a compulsory evacuee from his house during the war was not able to restore the right of lease in case the owner of the land intended to use the land for his own use.

None the less, I am very grateful for your kind advice given to me.

昭和二十五年七月三日御部 蔵表とて東京の新聞に関東地方の住民にて悩みの問題ある者は陳情せよと掲載されて居りました。実は私も遺憾に思ふものが有り且又肯定の出来ぬ問題がありますので不取敢陳情を致しました。

其要旨は太平洋戦争で火災に遭つた借地人は旧の場所へ、たとえ地主が不承知でも家を建てられるが、強制疎開の命令で日本政府の手で家を破壊された者は旧の場所へ借地が出来ぬと云ふ強硬迷惑な法律が戦後新らたに作り出し私は誠に困つて居ります。私は千代田区有楽町一丁目三に三十年間住み居り然るに戦争で盛んに致し居りました。忘れも致しません昭和三十年四月三日(神武天皇祭の日)に日本軍隊と警察隊の兵による夜襲三日間に亘つて破壊されました。當時軍隊が手を附ければ一切荷物を持出す事が許されないので、ここで失つた私の大切な品物も大分にあります。免に角戦軍は終り、私は旧の場所へ旧の如く営業がしたいのです。が旧元還えれぬと云ふのが残念なで堪りません。私は今は唯々戦前前如くに旧の場所へ営業をしたい一心です。故に陳情を致したるであります。然るに申課では日本官不裁判所の猶股判育に詳細陳情するようにと指示によりて同判育に面会陳情致しましたが、判事は自分は弁護士でないから相談には意じ兼ねるが戦後出来た法律では地主が其土地を借用すると云ふ場合には強制疎開借地人は致し方がない事にあつと言はれました。日本では昔、封建制度時代に泣く見と地主には勝てぬと言ふ諺がありましたが、今日でも猶又戦々其は泣かされたり此はならぬのでしよう。唯この上は神が私共の立場を諒解し終々に味方する政府の出現させるのを待つようと思ひます。先づ其後の模様を申し上げ御挨拶と致します。

御好意を感謝す。

23 May 1950

Subject: A petition on the restoration of land lease.

To: Mr. W. H. Giltner, Kanto Civil Affairs Region.

From: Chohei MATSUSHITA, #9, 1-chome, Kobiki-cho, Chuo-ku, Tokyo.

松下長平 (土地問題)

I rent a house and established a publishing business in Hibiya (the locality is shown in Chart I attached herewith). Soon after that the owner of the house sold it to another person, therefore, I had to purchase the house from the latter person. The house was reduced to ashes in the ~~XXXX~~ fire which broke out immediately after the "Great earthquake in Kanto area" (1923), however, I built a new house on the same site.

In 1925 the adjustment of town-lots was carried out in the neighborhood of Hibiya according to the city planning. The frontage of the site of my house was shortened, however, <sup>each of</sup> my three neighbor's frontage was widened.

On account of various inconveniences caused by the narrow frontage

I closed the book publishing business, and the house was remodelled into a garage and it was rent for rental. Shortly after that an ordinance was enforced by the Metropolitan Police Board to the effect that any garage for rental which stood facing to a road of 60 ft. or more width was not allowed to carry on its business. Again, I had to close the garage renting business. However, at that time it became possible in the neighborhood of Hibiya to construct flushing water closet as the result of improved sewer system, therefore, the main cause which had compelled me to close the initial publishing business was dissolved. After remodelling the house the second time, I reopened the publishing business and book store as well (Hibiya Book Store). As Hibiya was, and still is, one of the principal streets in Tokyo my business highly flourished having 16 employees.

In March 1945 I was ordered, with 5 days advance notice, by the government to evict from the house; the house was torn down by the troops and policemen. The house located in Sumiyoshi-cho Nakano-ku where I had evacuated to was burned down in the air-raid on 25 May 1945.

There are many laws enforced after the war was ended; there is a law to the effect that a person whose house was burned in the war fire can build his house on the same site, even in case the land owner refuses to lease the site, however, a person whose house was torn down by order of the government during the war is not allowed to build a house on the former site. Taking advantage of this law the owner of said site does not lease the land to me, insisting that I am a person who was evicted from my house during the war, ignoring the fact that I lived there for more than 30 years.

At this time I am going to explain about the reason why I was not able to obtain the monetary compensation for the loss of house and business caused by the compulsory eviction: I had four houses and two store houses built on the site of my own which were located in Hitotsugi-cho, Akasaka, Minato-ku; moreover, I had another house in Sumiyoshi-cho, Nakano-ku where I had evacuated to; however, all these houses were burned down by the war fire; the insurance money for aforementioned burned houses was summed up together with the compensation money for the loss of evicted house and business as well, and I could receive only ¥50,000 out of the total; the balance was collected by the government as the War-time Compensation Special Tax.

As stated above, the payment of monetary compensation for the loss of compulsorily evicted house and business was handled together with the payment of insurance money for houses burned by the war-fire; on the other hand a person whose house was burned by the war fire is allowed to build a new house on the former site, however, another person whose house was torn down by the government is not allowed to build a house on the former site; I am not able to understand about these facts. In consideration of the fact of losing his house during the war, I think, there is no difference between a person who lost his house in the war fire and another who lost his house as the victim of government's fire-break creating plan.

I ~~have~~ asked very earnestly the owner of the site, <sup>to lease the land</sup> however, he declined my appeal stating that he was intending to use the land himself.

As I have stated previously I lived in that place for thirty years carrying on a profitable business, I cannot give up my hope of restoring my right over the said land.

The land owner is the Hibiya Real Estate Co. Ltd.

which is under the control of Toho Co. Ltd. (6)

<sup>earnestly,</sup>
I petition you from the bottom of my heart that you would kindly take measures in solving this problem in my behalf.

Subject: Asking for assistance in starting bedding sales business

I intend to start a bedding business on the basis of mutual-aid financial system. However, I found it very difficult to establish the business owing to the most complicated procedures to go through. To supply beddings to the people on monthly instalment basis, I believe, is the most suitable work under the present situation, for most people are now unable to buy them owing to the tight money situation. Such being the case, I ask you to help me in starting the said business.

Petition

To : The Supreme Commander for the Allied Powers.

His Excellency,

Having had no house to live in due to the present Korean disturbance and having had nobody to be dependent upon, and at her wits' end, and again hearing that her husband Jo Ki Shu, whose whereabouts has become unknown since 1948, is staying somewhere in Japan, my Sister-in-Law Li Mei Jun (24) and her Eldest Son (one year old) attempted to stow away to reach me in Japan without any due consideration on her part and was arrested; in August 1950 the court gave her the verdict of probation and they are being detained at the Maizuru Police Station at present.

Johyo #205

As set forth above, she has none to depend on in Korea today and either sent back to Korea or allowed to stay in Japan, she being a poor young girl with an infant, has no means of living, and there is no other way left for them but to get starved.

Fortunately, I, her Elder Brother-in-Law, have lived in Japan for 30 odd years and am operating a business as given in the attached certificate of business at the present address, and am fully capable economically of supporting the wife of my own Younger Brother and the niece with whom I am related by blood.

Ever merciful and magnanimous Supreme Commander, may I beseech you most humbly that Your gracious and merciful hand be extended to this poor young woman and her baby and save them?

With my sincerest prayer and entreaty, I am,
Your Excellency,

Your Most Humble Servant,

After finishing the Tosai Higher Elementary School in Pusan in Apr. 1915, he came to Japan, landing at Shimonoseki, ( ) in Sept. 1919. In Nov. the same year, he was employed at the Road Sect. In 1927, he retired from the said Sect. and in April, the same year, he opened an iron-works (Chief products: Nails), taking up his abode at Edagawa-cho, Fukagawa, Koto-ku.

While engaging in his job mentioned above, he was elected a member of the Judicial Protection Committee in Fukagawa-ku in May 1935, and later on, in Feb. 1941, was elected chairman of Edagawa-cho Assembly, and concurrently a member of the Welfare Committee in Fukagawa. He was in the said post up to 1946, enjoying a popularity, but in Apr. 1946, he retired from the above, and came to live established the HONDA Plant at Nakahara, Tobata City, Fukuoka Pref. Later, he became a clerk of "Kyowa-kai", and after the end of war, he acted as a helper of his elder brother at the plant in Tobata, mentioned above, but has been missing since July last year.

RI MEI JUN, who had been staying at the home of her elder sister, JO JI TO, 58, together with her baby (1 year old, male), throughout her husband's absence, attempted smuggling in order to ascertain the whereabouts of her husband JO KI SHU, feeling uneasy owing to the Korean Disturbance. A provisional contract was made between Mr. Magojiro SATO, the custodian for the owner of the house, and Mr. F. Auckenthaler that a two-storied wooden building, located in Aza-marukoshita, Karuizawa, Nagano Prefecture, which was owned by Mr. Kohei WATANABE the depositor, was to be let for the rental of ¥85,000 for the period from 1 July 1950 up to 30 December 1950. At that time the owner of said building received the sum of ¥5,000 as the earnest-money. Later, Mr. WATANABE was requested by Mr. Auckenthaler to return the full amount of said earnest-money. On receiving the request Mr. WATANABE considered that the provisional contract had been cancelled, and returned the sum to Mr. Auckenthaler. After once receiving the returned money, Mr. Auckenthaler sent back the sum to Mr. WATANABE. As Mr. WATANABE had no obligation to keep the sum after the provisional contract had been cancelled, he deposited the sum in the depositary to be paid to Mr. Auckenthaler.

PETITION FOR RELEASE

Sir:

Please be kind enough to allow me to present a petition as regards release of

Ko-Kei-Shun (34 of age)

Tokyo #302

The person above is my elder sister and has been a resident at No. 3, Igaino-higashi 5-chome, Ikuno-ku, Osaka. She married Kin-Shaku-Hitsu who was then a dealer in medical instruments at No. 9, Kudan 3-chome, Kojimachi-ku Tokyo. She was delivered of a boy baby, and their happy family life followed some years. But bad fortune fell on her when the house was destroyed by bombing on March 10, 1945, and she survived the beloved husband and son. Then she was thinking of a way to feed herself by her relatives for the time being. Having seen no dependable kindreds, she soon had to continue homeless, until she came down to my home. Those days we were looking for her, so, at sight of her, we felt much easier and rather glad to take good care of my sister whom I greatly trusted on. Presently she began to seek for her own job that might enable her to support herself, however, she was unable to obtain any suitable work. When she made up, it appeared to us, her mind to resume her one-time occupation, she made it a rule to speak of her desire to visit on Tsushima Island and become women-diver there; she also reminded me of her friend by name of Tanaka who was a woman-diver by trade in Tsushima district. I was reluctant to her plan simply because I liked her stay longer with us, and I cared for her who had been in difficulty. Yet she insisted in realizing the idea. It was on June 28, 1950 when she left by a train saying she would go to Tsushima, despite my anxiety about the result to come.

While I was engaged in search of her destination, which I had not heard ever since, through a friend of mine, a news came to me reporting that she was taken up by authorities of the Izuhara Court on the charge of stowing-away, and now detained in the Haenzaki Detention Camp. The news was the very first to me since I sent her off, and brought about much excitement to members of my family.

It can be said with the lease fault that even if she crossed to her native country, she would not have met reliable kindreds nor acquaintances there; she had nobody but me, as her young sister, who could truly understand and warmly receive her.

If she would have violated the law, it must have been due to her inability to find work. Taking these conditions into account I could not imagine that she attempted stow-away.

As her sister, however, I am very sorry that this should have happened, although I am thankful for the custody of her. Now I should like to beg your merciful treatment as to the interned in consideration of the above-mentioned circumstances. As I will guarantee the authorities concerned against any possible matters or change of situation arising from the person's actions for the present and future, I entreat you, sir, to set her free at your earliest convenient time.

Thank you indeed.

Faithfully yours,

PETITION FOR RELEASE

Sir:

I should be very grateful if you would permit me, with your bountiful consideration, to make a petition for release of who is now interned in the Haenosaki Detention Camp. She is my wife's elder sister, and soon after her immigration into Japan proper at the age of 19, she married Ito, Yoshio, alias Kin-Shaku-Hitsu at No. 9, Kudan 3-chome, Kojimachi-ku Tokyo Metropolis and lived very happily. On March 10, 1945, the couple suffered the air-raid at the abovementioned place, thereby the husband had to lie sick and resulted in his death, all remedies being in vain. She, now widowed, was still encouraged to bring up her sole child.

But before long, the worst came upon her when the beloved child also died of acute pneumonia. Her despair and sorrow at that time were all beyond description. Then she, being bereaved of the family, left for Tokyo for Osaka, where she found her living in my home. As I managed an iron-work, I let her engaged herself in the work. By doing so she began to feel joy, and recovered her good humour.

Around the beginning of 1950, she came to talk over personal situation which concerned her so deeply that she could no longer stay at my home. In consequence of her repeated request, it was found useless to try to make her remain with us, though we all of my family assured her of our readiness for supporting her throughout.

We could not help letting her take her own way because she had, it seemed, a mind to go to Tsushima Island to work as a woman-diver since she had some experience of that trade. Before she left for Tushima by the Train bound for Hakata on June 28, 1950, I had chances to call her attention that if it is imposible for her to get any job on reaching there, she should come back to Osaka without delay, on which she agreed too. Since her departure I had not heard from her for sometime. So I and my wife were exceedingly worrying about her whereabouts. All of sudden I was informed that she was arrested by authorities of the Izuhara Court on the charge of stowing away. The news caused our awful surprise.

Now my pleading is:

1) that her Coupons for rationed articles and Residence Register are placed at my location.

2) that she has no relative in Korea upon whom she may rely.

Therefore I am confident that under the circumstances there has been, no believable reason nor motive to commit stow-away for her.

As for my wife, who is pregnant and going to have a baby, wants her badly, wishing her earliest return clear from any suspicion.

Above is the very actual account we are having about Ko-Kei-Shun.

Would you please oblige us by authorizing her liberty provided humane and careful investigations by your command prove her to be innocent?

Thank you very much in anticipation.

Yours faithfully,

一九五〇年六月二十八日（博多行）の列車に乗つて對馬島へ出發致し

ました。出発に先立つて向う先着いて適當な仕事かなかつたらすぐ歸阪するよう懇々といいきかせ彼女も又承知しておりました。

それから大分日數も立ちますのに何の便りもなくどうしたのかと妻と共に非常に心配しておりました。

突然嚴原裁判所から密航の疑いにて被束されたとの通知がありましたので私も妻もびつくりしてしまいました。彼女の配給實績も登録書も全部私の住所にありますし、朝鮮の故郷にも頼る親類とてなし密航をはかるような動機はどう私が考えても思ひつかないような状態であります。

私の妻も只今妊娠中にて間もなく分娩するような身であります、早くはつきりして歸つてくれば助かりますのと妻は毎日のように申しております。

右記の様な實情であります。故に御調査の上何卒御釋放下さいませ。うお願い致します。
