

BLUE BOOK
BROOKLINE
1897

The title label is an ornate, gold-tooled design. It features a central rectangular box with a decorative border containing the word "BROOKLINE" in blue, serif, all-caps font. Above the box, the words "BLUE BOOK" are written in a similar blue, serif, all-caps font, with a decorative flourish above the "O" in "BOOK". Below the box, the year "1897" is written in a blue, serif font, surrounded by a laurel wreath. The entire label is set against a dark blue, textured background with faint, repeating decorative patterns.

PREFACE.

In issuing Volume Twelve of the Brookline Blue Book, we wish to express our gratitude for the kind reception accorded it, as well as the increased patronage bestowed upon it both by subscribers and advertisers,

Notwithstanding the fact that there have been two Directories published in this town for two years, the Brookline Blue Book has held its own, and shows increased amount of business for 1897.

We publish the Chestnut Hill Residents in a separate list both those residing in Brookline and Newton.

We return thanks to all who have kindly aided us in compiling and collecting the information contained herein.

We have published a double list of Allston residents this year and also print those societies, the lists of whose officers we were able to get.

Hoping to keep pace with the march of improvements and growing population in this beautiful residential suburb by adding to and improving our Book each year, we remain,

Respectfully,

EDWARD A. JONES.

Night bell and two night clerks always in attendance. Character of drugs purchased are of the best, and a supply of new remedies as soon as introduced in the market. Prompt delivery service, two trips daily. Chemical examination of wall paper, fabrics, etc. Our own chemists engaged in the examination of our chemicals and preparations are also available for above purposes.
