MEMORANDUM TO: All Civilian Employees 24 October 1950

SUBJECT: Time Reports

Time reports for civilian employees will be submitted on standard time report for civilian employees (sample attached). To expedite the payroll, time reports will be completed, signed, and turned in to the Civilian Personnel Division, this section, between 0800 and 0900 hours of the last day of the pay period (Saturday). Division chiefs will sign time reports for employees in his division. If the division chief is a civilian, his time report will be signed by his immediate superior. No one will sign his own time report.

1. Leave.

a. Standard Form No. 71, Application for Leave, will be submitted with the time sheet to cover all leaves taken during the pay period. For annual leave which extends into two or more pay periods, a separate application should be submitted for the time covering each period. Application for sick leave in excess of 24 consecutive hours must be supported by a certification of a physician or the GHQ visiting nurse--such certification to be executed on the reverse side of Standard Form No. 71.

b. All employees are also reminded that when they are on sick leave they must report such absences before 0900 hours of the day they are absent and every day that they are absent unless hospitalized. Absences not reported and not on record in the Civilian Personnel Division, this section, will be charged to annual leave or to leave without pay. The Civilian Personnel Division will be responsible for notifying the employee's superior.

2. Overtime.

Normal work week for civilian employees is 40 hours. No time in excess of the 40 hours per week will be scheduled without the prior approval of the Chief, Civilian Personnel Division, this section.
