

BUSY FORTNIGHT

MANY EVENTS STAGED IN HOME OF D. RIPLEY JACKSON IN PAST TWO WEEKS

Quite a series of events has taken place in the family of D. Ripley Jackson within the past fortnight. To begin with D. Ripley went north to Portland to attend the Shriners' Convention where he was a member of the Shriners' Glee Club which entertained the convention and won all sorts of bouquets in the way of compliments. He reports about 75,000 delegates and visitors in attendance from all parts of the United States and says he met a great many old friends and made some new ones.

He returned from the convention in time to celebrate in a modest way on June 28th the twenty-first anniversary of his marriage to Mrs. Jackson. This time they did not have a party, but instead with their son, Kenneth, and Miss Florence Babcock, motored to Los Angeles, where they had dinner at the L. A. Athletic Club and spent the evening at the theatre.

Last Friday little Grace Anna Jackson celebrated her ninth birthday with a small party at which nine of her friends were entertained with an afternoon of games followed by a dinner featured by Fourth of July decorations and a handsome birthday cake.

Wednesday the Jackson family began vacating its home on East Chestnut to take possession of the new one at the corner of Brand boulevard and San Fernando Road which they think they are going to like very much. The Chestnut St. house will be put upon the market this fall.

VISIT OLD FRIENDS

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Holt of Johnstown, Brown County, Nebraska, were guests Sunday and Monday of Chas. Casselman and family, 451 West Elk avenue. Mr. Holt is owner and manager of the Citizens' Bank of Johnstown, also something of a Democratic politician, so he and his wife took in the San Francisco convention. They were on their way home when they stopped to see their old friends and fellow citizens, the Casselmans. They went from here to Long Beach to visit relatives and will then go on home. The Casselmans, who have two married sons living near Johnstown were delighted to receive word of them through their guests and to learn of the happenings of the old town since they left.

W. C. PERRIN PRESIDENT GLENDALE SAVINGS BANK

At the regular monthly meeting of the Board of Directors of the Glendale Savings Bank, held Tuesday evening, the resignation of Ed M. Lee as president was tendered and very reluctantly accepted, and W. S. Perrin was elected as his successor, while Mr. Lee was elected vice-president. The latter has been president of the Savings Bank since its organization and has given to it much of his time and energy. He resigned only because he felt that he must have more freedom and less responsibility for a time until his health is fully restored. Mr. Perrin, the new president of the bank, was one of its organizers and has been on the Board of Directors from the first. He was connected with the parent institution, the First National Bank, from 1913 to 1919.

SEVEN FAMILIES

PARENTS AND CHILDREN MOTOR TO BIG BEAR AND CAMP FOR THE WEEK-END

Seven families from the southern part of Glendale or families who once lived there, motored to Big Bear last Saturday and camped together returning Monday night. The delegation included Mr. and Mrs. Sidney S. Gilhuly and two children, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde L. Thedaker and two children, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Ashton and four children, Mr. and Mrs. Clare T. Van Etten and four children, Mr. and Mrs. George N. Adams, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Dionysius and four children, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Flynn and two sons who formerly lived on El Bonito, but are now residing at Van Nuys. They all report a very delightful time and with eighteen children in the party it must have been a lively time.

WEATHER FORECAST: Fair tonight and Friday. Cloudy Friday morning.

AMERICAN LEGION

SUNDAY, JULY 11TH, SET AS DATE OF ENJOYABLE EVENT

The American Legion basket picnic will be held at La Ramada Lodge, formerly Mountain Club House, up above La Crescenta, on Sunday, July 11th. All ex-service men, their families and friends, and members of Women's Auxiliary and families are invited. This includes all such living in Glendale, Burbank, Eagle Rock, Lankershim, Van Nuys, San Fernando and surrounding territory.

Music, athletic sports and dancing will furnish entertainment and there will be a canteen at which will be sold ice cream, soda pop, candy, sandwiches, melons and smokes.

Those wishing to go early so as to spend the entire day should be at the American Legion hall, 104 North Brand boulevard, at 9 a. m. Transportation to the grounds will be furnished over the Glendale & Montrose car line to the end, in La Crescenta, which is one-half mile from the picnic grounds. Here transportation will be available to the Lodge. Take baseball equipment along if you have any.

Members of Glendale Post No. 127 have been working hard for weeks and have spared no efforts to make this the most enjoyable picnic ever held in the vicinity of Glendale and the members of the Women's Auxiliary have seconded their every move.

MOVED TO GLENDALE

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Bley have sold their home in Burbank and moved to 1201 South Brand boulevard. They are newly married young people and great friends of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Ingraham, who live not far away. Mrs. Bley is the daughter of A. M. Watson, who was connected with the Hall of Records in Los Angeles for many years and who passed away a few months ago. His widow, Mrs. Ella Watson, has just gone to Owensmouth to take charge of the city library there during the month of July.

PICNIC PARTY

A picnic party which included Mr. and Mrs. William Tiffany, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Dutton and family of 129 Los Feliz Road and Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Hammond of Cypress avenue, went to Devil's Canyon at noon last Saturday and remained until Monday night, camping out and having a glorious time. Mrs. Tiffany says it is a most beautiful place for a camp and that there is an abundance of ice-cold water to be had.

AUTO COLLISION

J. C. McLemore of 341 South Marango street, Pasadena, and A. C. Smither, of Los Angeles, for 21 years pastor of First Christian Church there, but now in the real estate business, were driving east and west, respectively, on Colorado, yesterday and met in a head-on collision at the Brand boulevard crossing. Both machines were badly smashed and had to be repaired before they could be used again. Neither driver was hurt, however.

PINE FLATS CAMP

GLORIOUS FOURTH A GREAT OCCASION FOR BOYS OF Y. M. C. A. GROUPS

The following letter to the Evening News by E. E. Williamson, district secretary of Y. M. C. A. work among boys for Glendale and Burbank, gives details of camp life away up among the mountain forests:

"As there are so many Glendale boys up here in camp I feel sure that the Glendale people will be interested in hearing all about what the boys are doing up here in the high mountains. As Sunday was the first full day spent up here on the Flats the boys felt like resting from the long hike of Saturday so the camp library was opened up and the store put out stationery and postage and the bank opened up for deposit only. The Sunday morning service was one of the finest I ever attended for boys. Up among the big pines a hundred yards from camp in a natural amphitheatre the hundred boys and leaders gathered. The singing, led by Mr. Kirk, was an inspiration and Mr. Hayden of the Citrus Union High School gave the address to the boys on 'Playing the Game Square.' The Sunday dinner was a treat to the boys and some were surprised to get lemon pie at camp. The afternoon program in—

ALLIES LOSE PATIENCE

LLOYD GEORGE SAYS NO FURTHER EXTENSIONS OF TIME TO GERMANY WILL BE GRANTED

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

SPA, Belgium, July 8.—German and allied military officials who were to discuss disarmament today, reported to the conference that they had been unable to reach an agreement.

Premier Lloyd George immediately ordered them to resume discussion. Lloyd George declared that the figures presented a serious situation and said it would be impossible for the allies to grant the fifteen months' extension of time for German disarmament which was asked.

Marshal Foch said significantly that if the German delegation was not willing to face the music, the allies had a strong force under arms which would enforce the treaty.

THIRD PARTY CANDIDATE

LEADERS EXPECT NOMINATION TO BE OFFERED LA FOLLETTE; FRANK WALSH ALSO MENTIONED

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

CHICAGO, July 8.—Senator La Follette of Wisconsin will be chosen as the proposed third party nominee according to the prevailing belief today of the delegates here to attend the conventions of the liberal organizations which open Saturday and Sunday.

Inquiry today among leaders of the Labor Party and the Committee of Forty-eight which will start their conventions Sunday and Saturday respectively, showed a practically unanimous opinion that La Follette will be the standard bearer of the new party if he will accept; but La Follette will not be permitted to keep the conventions in suspense. Assurances must be given that he will accept, the leaders said, or some other candidate will be chosen.

Frank Walsh of Kansas City also stood out today as a possible candidate. He is a member of both liberal parties and is especially favored by the labor element.

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

MARION, O., July 8.—In an effort to get the first draft of his acceptance speech well out of the way today, Warren G. Harding virtually shut himself into his office and labored with a pencil and pad of paper over the phrases in which he will define the campaign issues on July 22.

Will Hays, Republican national chairman, and Harry Dougherty, Harding's pre-convention manager, are expected to arrive for a conference with the presidential candidate tomorrow.

SCHOOL A SUCCESS

CENTRAL AVE. PRESBYTERIAN BIBLE COURSE WELL ATTENDED

Rev. O. P. Rider of the Central Avenue Presbyterian Church reports that the Summer Bible School opened in his church Tuesday with much enthusiasm manifested and an attendance of sixty pupils. On account of the interest developed through the holding of a similar school last summer Mr. Rider had expected more children, but their absence is easily understood when the prevalence of measles is remembered and the fact that many parents have taken their children to the seashore or the mountains. Three teachers are conducting the school at present. Miss Canney, the principal, comes from Immanuel Presbyterian Church, Los Angeles. She is being assisted by Miss Reba Richardson, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. L. C. Richardson, of 1856 South Brand boulevard, and by Mrs. Wilcox, of Mira Loma avenue, who has the kindergarten children. Miss Richardson looks after the junior girls and negotiations are being made for a man teacher to take charge of the older boys. The children are instructed in Bible history and geography, they learn new songs and receive religious instruction and then spend the balance of the session on the playground under the supervision of the teachers. The school will continue throughout July and the committee responsible for it includes Edgar H. Fry, R. W. Horning and Mrs. L. C. Richardson.

P. T. A. APPOINTMENTS

Officers of the Pacific Avenue Parent-Teacher Association met at the home of the president, Mrs. P. O. Lucas, Wednesday evening, to consider the appointment of chairmen for the various departments of the organization. After a rather busy evening the ladies had a social half hour during which the hostess served light refreshments. Those present were: Mrs. Lucas, president; Mrs. Halstead, first vice-president; Mrs. William Farlander, third vice-president; Mrs. George Moore, treasurer; Mrs. Mae Rosenberg, secretary; Mrs. Fannie Stone, principal of the school.

MOVE TO NEW HOME

Mr. and Mrs. McKenzie from Toronto, Canada, and their two young lady daughters have just taken possession of the home they purchased at 316 West Lomita from J. W. Imler. They are very much in love with Southern California and have great delight in the scenery and vegetation. The young ladies were war workers in New York and had charge of a hostess house there for the benefit of soldiers and their women relatives and friends.

BENEFIT DANCE

GLENDALE COMMITTEE HAS MORE THAN $50 FOR CHILD WELFARE LEAGUE

Mrs. Frank Salmacia reports that the benefit dance for the Child Welfare League, which was given Wednesday evening in the Knights of Columbus Club Rooms in the Central Building was a great success and more than realized the expectations of the committee, which included Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Salmacia, Miss Susan Wendell, Miss Harriet Bayard, Miss Catherine Farrell, Randolph Doll and Herman Psenner. About one hundred and fifty dancers were present. Music was furnished by the Leo Goode orchestra and about the middle of the evening a young man from Los Angeles, who is a member of the Catholic Bureau, proposed to the young men present that they chip in for the music. A prompt response by tossing coins into the middle of the floor yielded more than enough to pay the orchestra and the committee is sure of $50 to contribute to the fund and it will probably be swelled by late returns.

WEDNESDAY'S ARRESTS

There were 45 arrests yesterday for violations of the traffic ordinance, 26 of them for turning autos around between crossings in the congested sections. Judge Lowe says he is mighty proud of the loyal spirit of co-operation in law observance shown by this last class of offenders. In every case but one since arrests have been made, the parties said the action was just and that they deserved the punishment for their forgetfulness. All declared they would be more careful hereafter.

DAWN OF ETERNITY

EVANGELIST PROUT SAYS DARK NIGHT OF SIN IS ABOUT ENDED

"We are living on the threshold of eternity. The long, dark night of sin is about ended. For evidence of this we must study the text, 'Unto 2300 days (literal years) then shall the sanctuary be cleansed.' Last evening we established the fact that this period closed in 1844, at which time the prophet declared that the sanctuary would be cleansed. According to this prophecy 76 years ago a very important work began. Can we know what is meant by the sanctuary being cleansed?"

With these remarks, Evangelist C. S. Prout opened his stirring address at the Gospel Tent Wednesday evening on "Where Is Jesus Now, and What Is He Doing?"

Mr. Prout proceeded to show that there is a heavenly sanctuary or temple and that this heavenly structure had been seen by several Bible prophets in visions, quoting: "And the temple of God was opened in heaven, and there was seen in His temple the ark of His testament." Rev. 11:19. Paul, in Heb. 8:12, declares: "We have such a high priest who is set on the right hand of the throne of the Majesty in the heavens, a minister of the sanctuary and of the true tabernacle, which the Lord pitched and not man." Moses was instructed to make the tabernacle "according to the pattern" shown to him on Mount Sinai. Heb. 8:5. The true sanctuary is in heaven, the earthly sanctuary was modeled after it. The speaker at this point by using a series of fine stereopticon slides, pictured the tabernacle with its outer court, and also the inside of the structure, describing in detail the services con—

REPUBLICAN'S VIEW OF CONVENTION

Mrs. C. D. Ingraham of 1221 S. Brand has just returned from San Francisco, where she attended the Democratic National Convention as a spectator, for she is of the Republican faith. She is convinced the party has little chance of winning at the polls next fall and that in her opinion was the reason for the lukewarm attitude of McAdoo. Monday Mrs. Ingraham had the pleasure of entertaining Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Bloom of Monrovia, who are looking for a house to rent in this city. They say if they are so fortunate as to get located in Glendale a third time they will stay as they are now satisfied they like it the best of any residence city they have tried. They expect eventually to build here.

HOSPITABLE HURLBERTS

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Hurlbert of 348 West Park avenue had a household of guests to help them celebrate Independence Day, their list of visitors including Mr. Peddicord, secretary of Hotel del Coronado, San Diego, his wife and daughter Jean, the sister of the hostess, Mrs. Bert Henderson and family of Huntington Park, and cousins recently from the east, Mr. and Mrs. Joannes and family of Milwaukee, who have decided to locate here and have purchased a home on West Park avenue. Mr. Joannes has accepted a position with the City National Bank of Los Angeles. Harold Hurlbert, son of the house, with a group of friends from Hollywood motored to Big Bear, where he spent Sunday and Monday.

ROACH PLACE SOLD

L. A. MAN BUYS AND ROACHES PURCHASE HOME ON WEST MILFORD STREET

Mr. and Mrs. George D. Roach have sold their home at 328 West Lomita to Mr. and Mrs. William Smith, of Los Angeles, who are to take possession about the first of August. The Roaches will pack their household goods and store them in the garage at 328 West Lomita and lease a furnished apartment for about six weeks until they can secure possession of a house they have purchased at 459 West Milford St. They have purchased it from Mr. Sargent, but it was formerly owned by Albert D. Pearce. Mr. and Mrs. Roach expect eventually to build and their new home may therefore be on the market again. On the other hand they may like it so well they will abandon their present plan.

nected with it. In order to clearly comprehend the work of our great High Priest, Jesus Christ, in the heavenly sanctuary, we need to understand the work performed by the High Priest in the earthly sanctuary.

There were two apartments in this structure, separated by a curtain of exquisite workmanship. In the first were three articles of furniture, the golden candlestick, the altar of incense and the table of shewbread.
This was called the holy place. In the second, was the ark of the testament, containing the law of God, above it was the mercy-seat, and over it the cherubims, between which was displayed the shekinah or glory of God.

Services were conducted by Aaron the High Priest and his assistants every day during the year in the first apartment or holy place. When an Israelite sinned he was convicted by the Holy Spirit; and in order to have this sin forgiven he was to take an offering, as a lamb or dove, and go to the sanctuary before the High Priest to confess over this victim his transgression. He then killed the victim and a portion of its blood was carried by the priest into the first apartment. Thus the Hebrew was reminded continually that "the wages of sin is death," and that a substitute had been provided, by which he could transfer his sin from himself to the holy place of the sanctuary. This service continued for the entire year until the cleansing day came.

Once a year, the tenth day of the seventh month, the High Priest was directed to enter the most holy place, where the ark stood, bearing the censor. He bore the sins of the congregation in type before God from the holy place to the most holy.
Here an at-one-ment was made, for it was a period of judgment to every man and woman in Israel. It was a most solemn time. Whoever failed to have the atonement made in their behalf was cut off from Israel.

"In type and figure their sins had accumulated in the sanctuary. This yearly service was called the 'cleansing of the sanctuary.' After Aaron had finished this day's work the period of probation for that year had ended for every soul. After this cleansing and reconciliation was made with God, the high priest bore all the sins in figure out of the sanctuary to the court where the scapegoat was. Upon it he placed his hands, confessing over it all the iniquities of the children of Israel, thus transferring them to the goat, which was then led away into the wilderness—representing in type the devil during the millennium.

"All of the earthly sanctuary was a type of the heavenly. When Christ ascended on high He began His work as our High Priest in the holy place, and in 1844, at the termination of the 2300 years, He began the cleansing of the heavenly sanctuary. This important date, which began only 76 years ago, marks the opening of God's final investigation of the life records of all men. This judgment work is now in session."

The evangelist closed by announcing that he would deliver an address Thursday evening on "The Supreme Court Decisions or the Final Judgment in Session." He urged all to be present at 7:45.

cluded a hike up to the big Cienega, where the afternoon was spent in reading stories to the boys and the day, of course, ended with the evening camp fire and the service, then taps.

"Monday, July 5th, was a day long to be remembered by the boys for the great celebration. The lads were awakened in the morning by the morning salute, a terrific explosion of dynamite which shook the earth and ushered in the glorious Fourth. After a breakfast of oatmeal, chocolate and pancakes came morning Bible study and then the morning swim in the lake. The afternoon was devoted to fishing, a big baseball game, the regular swim and then the big Fourth of July dinner at which the cooks had all fixed up a new dish called "Pine Flats Special" and it was some meal, too. The salute to the flag with the booming of the big "guns" was quite inspiring as all the boys were lined up in front of their tents as the colors

MEAN A BETTER CITIZENSHIP

- ¶ You wish you were able to give your family everything that might add to their happiness.
- ¶ There is nothing you could possibly bestow upon them that will give them so much pleasure or add so much to their well-being as a home of their own—a new home.
- ¶ It need not be a large home. A little bungalow that is "all your own" can contain a lot of happiness.
- ¶ Don't say you can't afford it, if you are paying rent. It won't take long to pay for a new home although building prices are high if you turn the monthly rent check in that direction.

were hauled down. After singing of patriotic songs around the camp fire and the roar of dynamite up in the flat, the service was put in charge of Warren Douglass. Mr. Douglass, who has spent a life time of service working with boys and is a wonderful boys' man, made a great address to them on 'Getting the Most Values Out of Life.' There are great things planned for the rest of the stay and I will write to you about the things that happen at camp."

Caruso says he will stay with us if we treat him all right. Frankly, there is no apparent possibility of treating him any other way. All he has to do to replace those gems is to make another phonograph record.

One of these days a new revolution will break out in Mexico, disspating our fears that there is something wrong south of the Rio Grande.
