NIGHT OF HORROR ENDS WITH MARTIAL LAW IN HAMBURG; RIOTS SPREAD

Separatists Attacked On Streets As Officials Are Slain by Revolutionaries; Death Lists Mount at Industrial Centers

DRESDEN, Oct. 24.—Violent disorders broke out at Chemnitz and Cassel today. There was much firing.
HAMBURG, Oct. 24.—Martial law was proclaimed here today as a result of the communists' attempt to seize the city yesterday.
MUNICHEN, Gladbach, Germany, Oct. 24.—The mayor of Muenchen, Gladbach, a sympathizer of the secessionist movement, was attacked and beaten to death today.
GRIMMA, Saxony, Oct. 24.—Severe firing broke out here today between communists and the armed forces of the Berlin government. Many were wounded.
BRUSSELS, Oct. 24.—The Rheinisch republic flag still flows over the government building at Aachen (Aix-la-Chapelle) despite the news Tuesday that German federal police had ousted the rebels, according to news from that city.
(Brussels has excellent news connections with Aix-la-Chapelle, as it is the headquarters of the Belgian army of occupation in the Rhin.)
There was a slight abatement of violence in Germany today. From twenty to thirty-five persons were killed in disorders. Hundreds were wounded.
The Reds, driven from Hamburg, entrenched themselves in the suburbs. Naval airplanes are protecting the harbor.
Reaction against the secessionist movement has developed in the Rhineland. Ten separatists were beaten to death at Aix-la-Chapelle. The separatist mayor of Muenchen, Galbach, was murdered.
Bavaria appeared to be the only German state not adhering to the Reich.
Hundreds of arrests have been made at Hamburg. Martial law was proclaimed.
Violence broke out at Efert, where a policeman was killed.

By S. D. WEYER For International News Service

BERLIN, Oct. 24.—The Rheinisch patalinate (the district lying between Baden and Rheinisch Prussia) declared in favor of autonomy today. It is understood that the proclamation was not issued until after the separatist leaders conferred with the French military authorities.
The Reichswehr troops were ordered to intervene at Hamburg. Up until today police had been used against the communists in that city. The rioting was in progress at Hamburg this morning. Police were using hand grenades to dislodge the communists from their possessions.
Secessionists have become more active in Pomerania and Mecklenburg.
Fighting at Aachen
Severe fighting was reported from Aachen. Fires were reported from that city threatening many buildings in the commercial district.

DELEGATES REPORT TO EXCHANGE CLUB

D. Ripley Jackson and W. C. Waring Tell Members About Convention

D. Ripley Jackson, president of the Glendale Exchange club, and W. C. Waring, returned delegates to the National Exchange club convention held at Springfield, Mass., September 23 to 26, reported this noon before the local chapter at the weekly luncheon this noon in Jensen's Egyptian Village, 133 North Brand boulevard.
"Every man, woman, child, dog and cat in Springfield knew about Glendale before we left," said Mr. Jackson. "Our conscience was our guide—and we had to work overtime. I never slept while there. I was too busy boosting Glendale.
"Glendale's luncheon table was never empty. I left the convention prouder than ever that I am an Exchangeite and a Glendalian. For sheer inspiration it was the finest thing I have ever attended.
News Proves Big Ad
"The copies of The Glendale Evening News containing pictures of Mr. Waring and myself on the front page arrived at my room in the Kimball hotel just at the psychological moment. I took them down to the lobby, and they created a riot.
"My room, No. 710, seemed to be a general headquarters. In fact, the seventh floor of the Kimball was known as California."
Mr. Jackson had the honor of addressing the convention on "Quality vs. Quantity," telling the hundreds of delegates a few pertinent facts about "the fastest growing city in America." Inasmuch as he followed directly after a speaker from Miami, Fla., which intrinsically Glendale's slogan by calling itself "the fastest growing city in the United States," he took the opportunity to set the convention right in the matter.

TRIO DIES WHEN RAINS HIT EAST

Gale Rages Between Florida and Maine; Steamer Reported Sinking

NEW YORK, Oct. 24.—While three persons are dead and more than a score injured, with great destruction of property, as a result of the gale raging between Maine and Florida, the comforting assurance came today that the drought throughout the Atlantic states is broken.
More than two inches of rain have fallen in the area. The weather bureau expected the rain to continue today.
The gale, the worst of the season, started in the South Atlantic and moved along the coast. The storm center was at Virginia Capes this morning.
The British steamer West Moreland was reported sinking with her crew of eight off the Delaware breakwater.
Another British boat, unidentified, was reported in distress off Fire Island, and the brigantine Maccorati is ashore off Lewes, Delaware.
Other smaller ships suffered, and some may have been lost.
S. O. S. Calls Cease
PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 24.—Radio S. O. S. calls from the British steamer West Moreland have suddenly ceased and the navy yard and other powerful stations here have been unable to re-establish communication with her. The West Moreland gave her position as twelve miles off the Delaware capes early today.

WELSHMEN OF PITTSBURG GREET LLOYD GEORGE

PITTSBURG, Oct. 24.—David Lloyd George, England's war time premier, arrived here this morning with a stage setting which made Pittsburgh comparable with London. A city blanketed with fog, a misty rain and a chilly morning marked his arrival. But all of Pittsburgh's high officialdom and representatives of the 50,000 Welshmen in this city and hereabouts gave Mr. Lloyd George a warm reception which even the cold without could not lessen.
At 6 o'clock tonight a formal dinner will be given at Syria mosque by the American Corded, a Welsh society, and at 8 o'clock Lloyd George will deliver what is scheduled as one of his three most important American addresses. At midnight his train departs for Washington.
CREW RESCUED
NEW YORK, Oct. 24.—The crew of the schooner William McDonald, afire off Sandy Hook, was rescued today by the steamer San Manuel, according to a wireless message received here today.

LATEST NEWS

GERMANS SUBMIT NEW REPARATIONS NOTE

PARIS, Oct. 24.—A German note was handed to the inter-allied reparations commission today formally requesting that body to examine Germany's resources and capacity for indemnity payments. The note stated that Germany is unable to resume reparations payments in kind at this time. The note, in principle, pledges Germany to fulfill her obligations imposed by the treaty of Versailles.

GUNMAN ON TRIAL FOR AUTOMOBILE STEALING

LONG BEACH, Oct. 24.—Convicted on a charge of attempting to kill a policeman, Oscar C. Whitcher, the last of a quintet of bandits to be given swift trials here, today was being tried on the additional charge of stealing an automobile. A verdict was expected late today. Whitcher will be sentenced Friday on the shooting charge.

SANCERI VERDICT IN JOLLEY CASE TODAY

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 24.—A verdict in the case of Frank Sanceri, charged with having attacked Astrea Jolley, 14, was expected to be returned today following Judge Schenck's instructions to the jury. William Joseph, 18, another one of several youths accused of attacking the young girl, was tried on a similar charge, found guilty and sentenced to one year in the county jail.

PAY ROLL ROBBERS SHOOT MESSENGER

NEW YORK, Oct. 24.—After being shot down and seriously wounded by three armed men, William Kelly, 59 years old, messenger for the Columbia Trust company, was robbed of an $18,500 payroll. The robbery occurred in the hallway of the General Cigar company building where Kelly was delivering the money. The bandits escaped.

200 CONSTABULARY REPORTED SLAIN BY MOROS

MANILA, P. I., Oct. 24.—La Defensa, Catholic organ, today printed a story which it said was received from private sources that 200 constabulary men have been killed by the Moros in the disturbance in Mindanao. Constabulary headquarters denies having received such a report. It was officially announced today that operations against the Lanao fanatics would not commence until reinforcements have arrived.

C. OF C. REJECTS EXPOSITION PLAN

Directors Decline to Take Space in Train Exhibit to Eastern Cities

The directors of the Glendale Chamber of Commerce last night, after a lengthy discussion, decided to refrain from participating in the California Traveling exposition which will leave San Francisco on November 10 for a five-weeks' tour of the leading cities in the United States, making the journey in a specially arranged train furnished by the Southern Pacific company.
The idea behind the plan is to bring California and its advantages before the people of other sections of the country by a display of the products of the various sections of the state, backed up by convincing literature from the different cities represented.
W. L. Twining, chairman of the advertising committee, stated that his committee is anxious to increase the size of the advertisements in the Chamber of Commerce is running in a Los Angeles newspaper to a full page size.
Order New Sign
A new sign, measuring 8 by 30 inches, and bearing the name of the Glendale Chamber of Commerce, will be ordered and placed at the entrance to the building at 150 South Brand boulevard, to be illuminated at night to show those who may not know it the location of the offices of the organization.
Two thousand copies of Glendale's recently issued booklet are to be sent to the Union Pacific railway, which has asked for this number to be distributed over its system for the information of its passengers.
"The members of the Chamber of Commerce sewer committee must be prepared to answer every question regarding the sewers that anyone in Glendale may ask them," declared W. E. Hewitt, chairman of the sewer committee. "There are perfectly legitimate questions that the taxpayers of this city are entitled to have the correct answers to, and we must be able to tell them exactly what they want to know."
Assemble Data
The Chamber of Commerce is already assembling data on the cost of the sewers to the city, and this information will be placed before the taxpayers of the city as soon as it has been tabulated, in order that they may be thoroughly posted on every detail in connection with the proposed installation.

THROUGHS CROWD BIG CIRCUS TENT

Music by Scots' Band Adds to Joyous Atmosphere of Entertainment

Close to 1000 Glendalians swarmed last night to the big tent on North Brand boulevard between Milford and Doran streets, for the opening of the Scots' Circus, put on by local Pyramid No. 39, under the personal direction of H. M. Bennett, toparch, with the assistance of his brother officers.
The great throng who attended the opening of this much-anticipated event that will continue throughout the balance of the week were fairly swept off their feet by the flare of music and blaze of merriment that greeted them.
The Scots' band, organized by G. O. Russell and directed by Frank Withersell, furnished the music, fifty-two members strong. The merriment was a melange of a dozen excellent circus acts and a dozen boisterous concessions.
Riot of Colors
Color and picturesqueness were added by the riot of American flags within the tent, the bunches of gaudy-hued balloons, the red and the black tezes of the 300 Scot members who mingled with the crowds of visitors, the four pretty girls of the beauty contest and the pretty girls of the Girls' Friendly society of St. Mark's Episcopal church, in farmerette costumes, and the multitudes of other pretty girls.
The vote in the beauty contest now stands as follows, reports Toparch Bennett:
Miss Margaret Longley.....1622
Miss Olive Middleton..... 926
Miss Gladys Kattlemann..... 346
Miss Corinne Orff..... 277
Full report of last night's opening of the Scots' Circus will be found in the second section of today's Evening News.

NEWS OPENS BIG SALES CAMPAIGN

Subscription Salesmanship Efforts Will Reap Rich Reward

By J. A. MALCOLM Salesmanship Club Manager
Have you salesmanship ability? Perhaps you have and don't know it.
Potentially, we are all star salesmen, lacking only the one big opportunity to turn this natural gift into profit. You may have latent powers within you which, when developed, will lead to heights of achievement and influence.
Without investing one cent—now or later—energetic men, women and young people of Glendale and surrounding territory are today offered the opportunity to test their abilities in salesmanship. Experience is not necessary. All that is required is a little well-directed energy in working for The Glendale Evening News.
$250 Week Possible
One salesman or saleswoman will be paid better than $250 a week for his or her time during the next eight weeks. Others from $15 to $150 per week—all for spare time effort.
The easiest thing to sell in Glendale and surrounding territory today is subscriptions to The Glendale Evening News.
Whatever selling ability you possess can be tested now with absolutely nothing to lose, but tremendous profits to be gained.
In today's edition of The Glendale Evening News is an advertisement announcing the most liberal circulation campaign ever inaugurated in Glendale. This campaign, the plan of which is unique, will be known as the "Salesmanship Club." It will include Glendale and all surrounding territory.
While The Glendale Evening News is already supreme in its field, and enjoys a wide circulation, the scope of its usefulness can be greatly increased by the addition of several thousand subscribers.
To accomplish this end quickly, and at the same time give friends and readers an opportunity to profit in a big way—The Glendale Evening News offers $10,500 in prizes and cash commissions to ambitious, hustling men and women, boys and girls in this territory in exchange for a little well-directed effort during the next eight weeks.
The art of salesmanship is being propounded by all the leading business concerns in the country today. The Glendale Evening News has decided to use this method to increase its list of readers, and the liberal rewards and cash commissions offered are of such volume as to attract the interest of many representative citizens in the territory covered by this great paper.
Simply Salesmanship
This is not a "popularity" or "beauty" contest. It is a test of SALESMANSHIP ability and everyone entering the club—and who remains active for just eight weeks—will be richly paid for every effort put forth. There will be no losers in this campaign. Everyone wins—either a prize or a commission check—the commission being 25 per cent of all moneys collected on new subscriptions and 15 per cent of all moneys collected on old subscriptions.
The campaign will not be a long drawn-out affair, extending over a period of months, but only of eight weeks' duration, opening on Wednesday, October 24, and closing December 20.
Think of being able to secure in eight short weeks prizes that would ordinarily require months, even years, of saving and self-denial to acquire. Yet, that is exactly what The Glendale Evening News is offering you for a few weeks of your time and interest.
The office of the Campaign Manager is located in the business office of The Glendale Evening News, at 139 South Brand boulevard. Write, phone or call the office for particulars. Telephone Glendale 132.

MORE EMPLOYES THAN PATIENTS IN HOSPITAL

SEATTLE, Oct. 24.—L. C. Jessup, chief of the thirteenth district of the United States veterans bureau, admitted today charges made before the United States senate investigating committee yesterday that there are more employees in his district, as in two others, than there are patients.
He explained, however, that he has nothing to do with these hospitals, as they are all administered direct from Washington and not from district headquarters.

COUNCIL PUTS BAN ON TRADE CHECK SLOT MACHINES

Police Chief Fraser today is notifying owners of slot machines throughout the city to discontinue the operation of them.
Mr. Fraser is acting on instructions from the city council, a resolution abolishing the use of these machines having been passed by the city council recently in committee of the whole.
Chief Fraser states that numerous complaints have been received, largely from parents whose children are learning to flirt with the goddess of chance. About fifty gum trade machines are affected by this ruling, it is said.

WALTON IMPEACHED AND TRAPP RESTRAINED FROM SERVING BY COURT

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., Oct. 24.—The first move by Governor J. C. Walton to retain his office from which he was suspended by action of the Oklahoma senate last night was made in District Judge Chambers' court here this afternoon.
An injunction restraining Lieutenant-Governor M. E. Trapp from exercising any of the powers of governor of Oklahoma was granted late in the day.
Surrounded by a corps of legal advisers, Walton was served today with a copy of a resolution adopted yesterday by the Oklahoma senate suspending him as governor of Oklahoma.
Refuses Receipt
Walton would not give a receipt for the copy of the resolution. Among a score of the executive's faithful appointees gathered to witness the occasion were several alleged "gunmen." None were armed.
Lieutenant-Governor Martin Edward Trapp, who has been a figure in Oklahoma politics since 1904, serving three four-year terms as lieutenant-governor prior to the present term, was acting governor today pending the senate trial in which Governor Walton's further political life is at stake.
"I shall observe the law," was the only statement Lieutenant-Governor Trapp would make. However, he said he expected to have a formal statement ready some time today.
Governor Walton had nothing to say. It is understood, however, in defense counsel circles, that a general demurrer to all charges will be made on the ground that the impeachment session is illegal because Governor Walton called the extraordinary session to enact legislation against the Ku Klux Klan.

NEW EASTERN STAR CHAPTER FOR GLENDALE

Upon the receipt of a communication late today from Guy W. Brundage of Auburn, Calif., grand patron of the California Eastern Star lodge, B. F. Bourne announced that he is instructed to begin formalities leading to the organization of a second Eastern Star chapter for Glendale, to be known as Verdugo chapter. He will be assisted by Russell La Fontaine of Los Angeles, associated grand patron.
When the preliminary formalities are completed, Mr. Brundage will come south to institute the new chapter.

MUSIC CLUB ORATORIO WORK GETS STARTED

Additional room will be required to accommodate the enthusiasm, voices and singers of the oratorio section of the Glendale Music club, announces Mrs. Mattison B. Jones, club president.
Serious work was begun by the section last night in the music room at the high school, under the direction of John Smallman, vocalist and director of Los Angeles.

POINT HONDA DISASTER REPORT FILED

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24.—Eleven naval officers will be tried by a general courtmartial as the result of the finding of a naval board inquiry which conducted an investigation of the naval disaster at Point Honda, Calif., on September 8 in which seven destroyers were lost and a number of seamen lost their lives.
Announcement of the finding of the board and the formation of general court was made this afternoon by Secretary of the Navy Denby.
List Of Officers
Those ordered tried were:
Capt. E. H. Watson, commander of the squadron which piled upon the rocks.
Capt. Robert Morris, commander of destroyer division 33 and of the flagship S. P. Lee.
Commander W. T. Nye, commander of destroyer division 31 and of the flagship Farragut.
Commander L. B. Davis of the destroyer Woodbury.
Commander W. H. Toaz of the destroyer S. P. Lee.
Commander W. L. Calhoun of the destroyer Young.
Lieut. Commander W. P. Seed of destroyer Fuller.
Lieut. Commander O. T. Hunter of the destroyer Delphy.
Lieut. Commander R. E. Roesch of the destroyer Nicholas.
Lieut. Commander D. T. Hunter of the destroyer Chaumont.
Lieut. (junior grade) L. F. Blodgett, navigator on the Delphy.

OKLAHOMA'S GOVERNOR IN DOUBT

Walton Impeached and Trapp Restrained From Serving by Court

INSTRUCT CHOBIE TO DESIGN FLOAT

Plans Launched for Glendale to Enter Pasadena's Rose Tournament

Preparation of a float to be entered in the Pasadena Tournament of Roses on January 1, 1924, was authorized last night by the directors of the Glendale Chamber of Commerce, after L. W. Chobie, the designer of the Glendale floats that have been so successful in the past, conferred with the board at the regular weekly meeting of the advertising committee of the Chamber of Commerce which assumed the duty of raising the necessary funds to meet the cost of the float.
The fame that has been brought to Glendale by last year's Peacock float was emphasized by the reading of a statement in one of the which W. B. Kirk letters from Europe, which The Glendale Evening News has been publishing, in which Mr. Kirk stated that fellow travelers whom he encountered abroad knew of Glendale by the pictures of the float that was so widely pictured after the last tournament.
James M. Rhoades was added to the float committee to fill the vacancy left by the death of the late John G. Huntley. The committee now consists of L. W. Chobie, Peter L. Ferry, E. F. Sanders, C. C. Cooper and J. M. Rhoades.

STORM STALLS LEVIATHAN IN MIDDLE OF ATLANTIC

LONDON—Oct. 24.—The Leviathan has broken down in mid-Atlantic, according to wireless messages received here today.
The wireless from the big liner said a terrific gale was raging, and the vessel might not be able to arrive in Southampton in time to sail for New York on Sunday.
A second radiogram from the Leviathan said there was no danger but that the liner would be delayed in reaching port. The vessel gave her location as about 500 miles west of the Scilly islands.

PROBING SCHOOL FOOD FOUNDRIES

Los Angeles County Grand Jury Auditor Gets Data From Superintendent

Information to aid the grand jury in its investigation of school-operated cafeterias was transmitted by letter Tuesday by R. D. White, superintendent of Glendale's grammar schools, to Walter K. Mitchell, special auditor working for the grand jury. The auditor inquired as to who operates the cafeterias; under what law they are operated; if by the board of education; if rental is charged for use of school property; whether school employees devote any time to the work; who pays for wear and tear on equipment; what disposition is made of profits, or who absorbs loss; whether others than students are served; whether school funds are used for expenses, etc.

How It Is Done
 Mr. White responded to the effect that the cafeterias are run by the Parent-Teacher association; that no rental is charged; that no employees are paid by the board of education; that the principal of the school exercises general supervision over the cafeteria; that the P.-T. A. pays for wear and tear on equipment, using profits for this purpose, when profits are made, and absorbing losses where losses occur; that occasionally visitors and teachers purchase their meals at the cafeterias; that in one instance, the Wilson avenue school, the board of education purchased the heavy equipment, including stove, steam table, ice box, etc., but that the P.-T. A. provided all the other equipment.

Consideration is being given at present to a proposal to establish a cafeteria at the Glendale avenue school. Cafeterias are now operated at the Wilson avenue intermediate, Columbus avenue and Pacific avenue schools. At the last legislature an effort was made by Mark Keppel, Los Angeles county superintendent, to have the school food foundries legalized. He then stated they were operated contrary to law, and only because no one said the nay.

Perhaps the grand jury suspects there is a fly in the soup or something, the wise ones remark. The crudest music-box is preferable to the finest chatter-box.

OXY SOPHOMORES SPONSOR STUNTS

College Tradition Followed in Program Planned for October 26

The annual Soph Stunts will be given at Occidental College Friday night, October 26, at 7:45 o'clock in the Tiger chapel under the auspices of the sophomore class of 1926.

This event is one of the old traditions and customs of the institution and is looked forward to with much pleasure. It is to be a night of fun and hilarity. Songs and merry laughter will ring forth to the uttermost pinnacle of College Hill. A one-act skit will be presented by each of the four classes. The main event will be a one-act skit by the faculty, and it is said to be a knockout farce.

Music begins promptly at 7:45 p. m., with popular pieces played by the famous Occidental jazz orchestra. Following the music the class stunts will come. First is the frosh, then junior, and then faculty. An intermission of thirty minutes is planned between the faculty stunts and the soph and senior stunts. During the recess everyone will adjourn to the upper quad, where the carnival is to be held.

Each class has a booth and will offer for sale something different, and appealing to the college appetites.

Keen Competition
 Keen competition is on among the various classes, for the one with the best skit puts its numerals on a large soph stunt banner, given by the present sophomore class. The stunts will be judged on originality, organization, quality, and finish. Each organization is co-operating in making this the best entertainment possible and the general public and those interested in Oxy are cordially invited. A small admission fee will be charged to cover expenses. Miss Jean Davidson, vice-president of the soph class, is chairman of the committee and everything is coming along in excellent shape and the program is guaranteed to be full of laughter for everyone.

Death masks were common early in Europe and existed until the eighteenth century, while funeral masks have been discovered in Siberia, Phoenicia, Nineveh and Peru.

Two Junior Classes at G. U. H. S. Combined

Consolidation of the two junior classes in the Union High school into one body to be known as the "Class of 1925" was effected at a meeting of the combined membership Tuesday afternoon.

The matter has been under discussion for some time and the consummation of the arrangement came when the officers of the two classes expressed willingness to resign.

The consolidated class is headed by Donald McMillan as president, who was president of the June class. Marlon Morrison was elected vice-president. Velma Pierce, treasurer, and Gertrude Gilman, secretary. Under the new arrangement, it is thought the various activities of the student organization can be much better handled than when there was so much division of forces and unharmonious effort.

Bids Are Accepted for School Property

Due to the absence of two members and the desire of another to leave early, the regular semi-monthly meeting of the board of education transacted only routine business Tuesday night, postponing action on all matters of importance, out of respect for the absent members.

Bids on certain property were opened and the successful bidder announced. George Vickery submitted bid, $1135.22, for the house and garage near the Colum-

JUDGE RECOVERS

Following a successful operation for appendicitis Tuesday morning at the Glendale Sanitarium and Hospital, Police Judge F. H. Lowe is reported to be doing nicely today. His attendants announce that he had a good night. Unless unforeseen developments occur it is thought the judge will be about again within two weeks.

Visit Our Special Exhibit of THE NEW NASH CARRIOLE

Graced with a handsome body of all-metal panel construction and housing a wealth of luxurious appointments, this beautiful new Nash Four Carriole vies in appearance with far more costly cars.

As you become more intimately acquainted with the Carriole you will find a series of refinements so extensive in scope and of so costly a nature as to outrank all previous achievements in its field.

More rigid framework; more powerful brakes; more brilliant performance; and more extensive equipment are a few of the advanced features that have carried the car well beyond the established standards of its class.

And particularly will the behavior of the motor command your admiration. It operates with a smoothness and quietness which you would expect only from a car with more than four cylinders.

Right now we are putting on a special Autumn showing of this particular model.

Come in and view it today. You'll find it merits a close inspection and you'll be soundly impressed with its great value.

LA CRESCENTA FIREMEN CALLED TO BRUSH BLAZE

Menace of Neglected Fires to Community Stressed by Department Chief

A brush fire above Michigan avenue called out the fire department last night.

Louis Mesinger had a permit from a forest ranger to burn brush from 8 p. m. to 11 p. m., which is not allowed in this community, as Chief Young states a fire may look dead when one leaves it, but a wind comes along in the middle of the night and results in a fire of no mean size.

The fire squad put out the fire, which was set about 7 p. m., to clear some acreage above Michigan boulevard, warning the owner he can only burn brush from 5 a. m. to 11 a. m.

This caution is also taken, so that when any one sees smoke after these hours they can turn in an alarm, feeling sure it will not be a false one.

Falls from Ladder

The first serious accident to happen on the school grounds occurred yesterday afternoon, when young Robert Stoner essayed to walk up a builders' ladder, placed against the west end of the schoolhouse. Robert ascended all right, but his descent proved his Waterloo. He slipped and came crashing to earth, receiving a cut above his eye and fracturing his wrist.

Mrs. Viola Waddell has disposed of her acreage above Michigan avenue, on Ramsdale, to Dr. McCloud. The new owner will have it ready for the market in a short time, and a new subdivision.

Mrs. Waddell will build a home in Glendale on her Wilson avenue property.

This is a Boy and Girl Scout week in La Crescenta as the boys will entertain their parents at dinner on Friday night, at 6 o'clock, in the auditorium, and Saturday night the girls will give their Halloween masquerade party.

There has evidently been some misunderstanding in regard to the party being for children only—it is for every one—the young and old. The only persons barred will be those who can't drop their years for the evening and be happy kiddies along with the rest of the crowd.

Turkey in the Straw

Games of all sorts will be played—old-fashioned dances indulged in, so if you like a square dance, by heck, salute your partner and step it off, as the Girl Scouts are going to have Daddy Carpenter call the old-time dances to "Turkey in the Straw."

TRAFFIC OFFICER HAS LEG BROKEN

Policeman Ralph Baugh Is Taken to Hospital After Crash With Auto

Motorcycle Officer Ralph Baugh is at the Glendale Sanitarium and Hospital suffering from a fractured leg and severe bruises about the face and body, sustained at dawn this morning when his motorcycle struck the left front wheel of a Chevrolet, driven by S. C. Forney, who had been going north on Brand, when the latter attempted to turn to the left on Maple street.

The motorcycle was only slightly dented, but the wheel of the automobile was completely knocked off. The officer was thrown a considerable distance, clear of both machines. His injuries are said to have resulted from the force of the impact when he struck the pavement.

Left Leg Fractured

Under examination at the hospital, it developed that Baugh could not move his left leg. An X-ray photograph was taken, disclosing a fracture just above the knee. Physicians report that the officer likely will be confined for six weeks or more.

Forney was placed under arrest on a double charge of driving without a license and failing to heed the officer's siren. He declares he heard no siren and that he did not see the policeman until an instant before the crash. He exhibited a driver's license, dated 1917, which Police Chief Fraser stated was out of date.

COMMENT That's All

Informal Entertainment Addressing Our Friends Just a Little Different Glendale's Singing Mayor

By Gil A. Cowan

This is more or less of an informal comment tonight. We are going to just jot down a few notes to several friends of ours for their perusal, as well as your edification. Here goes:

"Cap Jackson—Glad you are home and happy. How on earth did you get official Washington to give Glendale everything you wanted in postal matters? Perfectly immaterial, of course, how you did it, but now that everything is done I want to stamp approval on your efforts." Enough for that. Now another:

"L. W. Chobe—Seeing that you have been commissioned to prepare another prize-winning float for Glendale in the coming Tournament of Roses at Pasadena, may I not be permitted to tell Burbank and Eagle Rock and the rest of these neighbor cities what you are planning? It might give them inspiration. Also, if I can be of assistance, metaphorically speaking, I guess you know where I am at most of the time—which is more than I know myself."

Rather personal, you say, but little love notes have to be that way. This one is addressed to the mayor and City Council, so it shall be the least bit formal:

"Honorable Fathers of Our City (we borrowed that term from George Washington's speech while crossing the Delaware to cut down Barbara Fritchie's cherry tree)—Fully realizing that your minds are beset by the heavy duties imposed upon you by this municipality, let us pledge to you our honest support in getting Glendale to vote the necessary bonds for a sewerage system. It is of vital importance that every thinking person stand ready to put over his issue and guarantee Glendale the future it so richly deserves. Together we stand, as some patriotic brother once remarked, and divided we are all cut up. So let us have sewers."

Mayor Robinson ought to sing a song when he reads that. And here is one note we hate to write, but it must be done. It is for R. D. White, guiding genius of the city schools:

"My Dear Dick—An investigation is being made of the school food foundries by the Los Angeles county grand jury. Is it true or thought? Methinks they know not what the cold slaw consists of on Saturdays and Sundays at the schoolhouse cafeterias. We never could see the reason for serving supper to the kiddies. Let them go home hungry and spill the jam. It should be part of the education to find something to eat without having it stuffed into them by Southern California's greatest institutions—the automat. You may be able to teach them reading, writing and arithmetic, but I'll be hornsoggedled if you can teach 'em how, what and when to eat."

That is as true of the grand jewelry as the little innocents. Hoping to eat with you tomorrow noon, but not at the catch and carry."

If you have read the foregoing, and if you haven't do not, you will wonder why it was written. Well, confession is good for the soul, and somebody once said: "Son, do things a little differently than anyone else."

And this wise one added that Colonel Nelson of the Kansas City Star makes a successful newspaper giving the people of Missouri, Kansas and Oklahoma a newspaper which provided them with a puzzle entitled "Find the news." They knew the news was there, and read the paper three ways from Wichita to find what they wanted.

But the dear old Colonel is dead, long since, it seems. And somebody has to carry on. Of late Ring Lardner and Wallace Irwin and some of the other boys who hash up the morning mush and milk have been carrying on quite hilariously. In fact, the people of the United States seem obsessed with reading something nutty, or jazzy. Which reminds us of a good yarn:

Spencer Robinson, that singing mayor of ours, came uptown last night quite peeved, so to speak. "Drat that jazz music they've been playing on the phonograph," he said. "Drat it. And my folks know I want only good music in my home."

And all the time we knew he was justifying himself for leaving home to see a boxing show. For it is a fact, folks, the honorable mayor of Glendale was a prizefighter before he became a grand opera singer. 'Nuf said.

NOTED SONG LEADER COMES WITH ORPHEUS CLUB IN CONCERT

HUGO KIRCHHOFFER

Hugo Kirchofer, director of the Orpheus club and "Orpheus Four" of Los Angeles, is to appear in concert Thursday night, November 1, at the Tuesday Afternoon clubhouse, under the auspices of the Glendale Commandery No. 53, Knights Templar.

Mr. Kirchofer is a most popular Southern Californian. Although a resident of Hollywood his friends in Glendale are counted by the score and he and his Orpheus singers are always heartily welcomed by local audiences.

Last year Mr. Kirchofer directed the community singing at the Tuesday Afternoon club and he was one of the first musicians to test out the acoustic properties of the wonderful auditorium in the clubhouse. Shortly after that he and the Orpheus club came to Glendale to appear under the auspices of the Kiwanis club, and a fine opportunity was offered them for trying out the club auditorium.

There are sixty singers in the Orpheus club and the talented "Orpheus Four" includes Samuel Glass, tenor; Paul Adams, second tenor; V. A. Campbell, baritone, and H. M. Dudley, bass.

Glendaleans who have greeted these singers before are eagerly anticipating the return engagement, and are urging their friends to secure tickets for the concert.

lation and of the bond issue that is to be voted upon.

A telegram from Senator Samuel Shortridge stated that he would be unable to be here, as requested, to deliver a Navy Day address on October 27, and a committee will be named to wait on him to arrange, if possible, for his appearance here on some other date.

The improvement of the local telegraph service was also discussed at length, and the Chamber of Commerce will assemble additional information that will aid in the study of the problem and that will aid in its solution.

Engine Boosts Glendale

The electric locomotive that has been bought for the Glendale & Montrose railway is now on display at the electrical show at Atlantic City, N. J., where it bears a banner reading "I'm on my way to Glendale, California, the Fastest Growing City in America," and a spotlight is kept playing on the engine and the banner at all times, according to a letter received by Director P. J. Hayselden from Wm. Nagel, Glendale's representative at the exposition.

Beginning November 1, the offices of the Chamber of Commerce will be kept open until 4:30 o'clock on Saturday afternoons.

G. Clay Goodloe, membership secretary, reported on the collections that have been received during the past week. He and Secretary E. F. Sanders will attend the monthly meeting of Southern Commercial Secretaries at Arrowhead Lake on Saturday, October 27.

Oh, Doctor! Too Many Sick at City Hall

Official ranks at the city hall have been thinned materially during the last week by illness and accidents. Those absent and the cause include Police Judge F. H. Lowe, appendicitis; D. R. Armer, motor officer, injured in an accident; Ralph Baugh, motor officer, injured in an accident; Sergeant A. J. Kearns, ill with cold; Mrs. Dan Smith, secretary to Judge Lowe, ill at the Glendale Research hospital.

CHORUS TO WEAR MORE

NEW YORK, Oct. 24.—The 1924 chorus girl will wear more clothes than does the late edition of 1923, Dorothy Bryant, executive president of the Chorus Girls' Equity association, predicted today.

TUJUNGA WIRES WIFE THAT HOME IS BURNED

Tujunga Woman Thinks Message Is, Good Alibi; Shocked at Ruins

A serio-comic conspiracy that turned out to be more serious than comic has just been revealed by Mr. and Mrs. James O'Hare, who lived on North Monte Vista boulevard, Tujunga, at that time. The O'Hares had a little home built there, typical of the other little homes of the community, which is guarded over by the Cross of San Ysidro on Mt. McGroarty. San Ysidro was the patron saint of little homes, and the little home-makers of Tujunga valley erected the cross in his memory, and every Easter go to the hilltop to worship.

Some time in the spring Mrs. O'Hare had a longing to visit relatives and friends in the east, and departed forthwith.

Hard to Break Away

After a time Mr. O'Hare thought it was time for his wife to return, and wrote her to that effect. She seemed inclined to the same belief, but sent word that invitations to remain were so urgent, and hospitality so sincere, that she found it difficult to break away.

Mrs. O'Hare wrote to Mr. O'Hare that it would simplify matters considerably if he would send some urgent reason for her return.

In due time Mrs. O'Hare received the message and showed it to importuning relatives, who reluctantly agreed that the situation was serious, and that it would perhaps be best that she return to her Tujunga home immediately.

All the way on the train Mrs. O'Hare would often think of the cleverness of her husband in thinking of the excuse and enjoying many little chuckles over the ruse that had allowed her to cut short the visit without offending anyone.

After arriving in Los Angeles, Mrs. O'Hare stopped at Glendale en route to Tujunga to see some relatives there for a few minutes and tell them of how Mr. O'Hare had conceived the idea of sending her word that their home had burned down so she could have

DEATHS--FUNERALS

MRS. LOUISE A. MERCE

Mrs. Louise A. Merce died yesterday, Tuesday, October 23, 1923, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Chapman, at 123 West Mayfield street, La. Crescenta. She was 83 years of age.

Funeral services will be held at 2 o'clock Friday afternoon, in the Little Church of the Flowers in Forest Lawn Memorial park, where burial will take place. The L. G. Scovern Undertaking company is in charge.

FRANCIS J. TEMPLEMAN

Funeral services for Francis J. Templeman will be held at 3 o'clock tomorrow, Thursday, afternoon, in the parlors of the L. G. Scovern Undertaking company on South Brand boulevard. Interment will take place in Grand View Memorial park. Members of the J. O. C. class of the First Methodist church are asked to attend the services in a body.

MRS. MARY D. CRANE

Mrs. Mary D. Crane, for seven years a resident of Glendale, died today, Wednesday, October 24, 1923, at her home, 1142 North Campbell street.

She leaves a daughter and son, Mrs. Priscilla C. Wolff and Theodore H. Crane, both of Glendale.

Private funeral services will be held at 3 o'clock tomorrow, Thursday, afternoon in the Little Church of the Flowers in Forest Lawn Memorial park. Rev. Philip K. Kemp, rector of St. Mark's Episcopal church, will officiate.

The Jewel City Undertaking company is in charge of arrangements.

IRISH STRIKE ENDS

DUBLIN, Oct. 24.—The Irish dock strike ended today, the strikers accepting the government's terms.

an excuse to come back immediately.

"Isn't it a great joke," asked Mrs. O'Hare.

Jest Proved Serious

It took a lot of talking on the part of the friends and finally a birdseye view of the ashes to convince Mrs. O'Hare that it was no joke. A fire HAD visited their home, and the message was real and not trumped up.

However, the O'Hares, with true Celtic optimism, immediately made plans to put up another little home, and probably have it built by this time.

They have resolved, also, to not have any more "jokes" of a similar nature.

NASH POWER AND ECONOMY TESTED

5 Days Through Nebraska Mud Proves Stamina of Nicely's Car

The ability of the Nash car to stand up under the most grueling road conditions was given a severe test by Ernest Nicely, who, with his wife and two children, arrived in Glendale recently after a trip of 4845 miles from his former home in Greenfield, Ind., over some of the worst roads and through some of the hardest traffic conditions he ever encountered.

Driving a 1923 Nash Sport touring car, Mr. Nicely and his family, with close to 1000 pounds of baggage and camping equipment, struck west through Iowa and Nebraska, in the latter state encountering muddy roads that forced them to drive in low or intermediate for five days, at a stretch, on one of which they were able to make only 27 miles after a battle with the mud. They were stuck only once in that day's run, but dug themselves out.

Weather Is Mixed
In Wyoming they motored over the Sherman Pass to Laramie, and down into Yellowstone Park where, Mr. Nicely says, they had rain, snow and sunshine every day they spent in the park. Another Wyoming run that tried the car and the nerve of the driver was that through Birdseye Pass, between Shoshone and Thermopolis, a 32-mile run that usually takes six hours of daylight driving. The Nash made it at night without mishap, scraping through the narrow pass with inches only to spare, and hauled another car to the top of the grade.

On a muddy hill in Nebraska, Mr. Nicely passed eight cars stuck in the mud, each from a different state and each one heading for California.

The only trouble that Mr. Nicely had on the entire trip was two punctures, and not a cent was spent on repairs. The engine behaved without a fault from start to finish, and even the heavy going in the middle west failed to break the springs on the Nash.

Mr. Nicely kept close tab on his running expenses. On the 4845 miles he used 282 gallons of gasoline, averaging 17 1/4 miles per gallon for the trip, which he regards as low considering the time he spent bucking the mud in low gear. His expense for oil was $6.10, and outside of draining his crankcase five times, he used only three quarts of oil.

The records made by Nicely are on file in the office of the local agents, the Nash Sales Company, Inc., 112 South Maryland, where Donald C. Barbee, sales manager, claims that they bear out the claims made for the stability and economy of the Nash.

SYNDICATE WILL OPEN NEW TRACT

Glendale Business Men Will Place Oakmont Heights on Realty Market

A large tract of land along North Verdugo road, opposite the Verdugo Woodland district, has been purchased by a local syndicate headed by the T. W. Watson company, 708 East Broadway, and will be developed into a choice residential park under the name Oakmont Heights.

T. W. Watson, who makes this announcement states that the group of men who have staked their money on Glendale are all local people, well known in the business life of the city. The Oakmont syndicate is the name chosen for their organization. The men are: Peter L. Ferry, A. L. Baird, Fred Dixon, T. W. Watson, Leon Sonntag, Harry Bain, R. H. Dosh and A. L. Ferguson.

Oakmont Heights will at once be developed and placed on the market, its hundreds of live oaks and sycamores being utilized to the fullest advantage in laying out the many beautiful scenic drives the will wind through the eighty tract, reports T. W. Watson, who, with A. L. Baird, will be in charge of sales.

Old Spanish Grant
The original owners of Oakmont Heights were the Verdugo family, the tract being a part of the famous Rancho San Rafael grant of King Louis of Spain in the Sixteenth century. Much romance clusters about these beautiful wooded knolls. Could they speak, theirs would be the story of the mining of the old California with the new.

Such are the vistas revealed from Oakmont Heights, that with one sweep of the eyes one may look from the La Crescenta valley off over Verdugo Woodlands to Los Angeles and the long curve of the Pacific.

"Here at Oakmont Heights will be built a residence district of fine homes second to none in southern California," says Mr. Watson. "We have secured an unequalled piece of property, and we mean to develop it to the full extent of its matchless potentialities."

JOINS STAFF OF TWINING & MYERS

Maywood, Ill., Business Woman Associated With Local Realty Firm

As a result of a business acquaintance formed over twenty years ago in Maywood, Ill., when that city was in its formative stage, Mrs. Estelle Ryan Snyder has joined the force of Twining & Myers, realtors, 227 1/2 South Brand boulevard, and, as soon as she can dispose of her extensive holdings in Hollywood, will take up her residence in Glendale permanently.

In the spring of 1900 Mr. Twining, then connected with a real estate firm in Maywood, sold to Mrs. Snyder the residence property that she and her family owned until four years ago, when she came to California on account of her health, which has now been completely restored. Mr. Twining, then operating in Los Angeles, sold Mrs. Snyder her present Hollywood residence, and has now induced Mrs. Snyder to devote her business acumen to the sale of Glendale realty.

Active Club Worker
In her Maywood home Mrs. Snyder was actively engaged in philanthropic, church and club activities, and she has entered into the same lines of work here, organizing the Chicago Women's Club of Southern California. Mrs. Snyder is also a member of the National Editorial association and of the Illinois Women's Press association.

The addition of Mrs. Snyder to the Twining & Myers staff has at once ready brought a large number of inquiries from Maywood, and the advertising that the firm has been running in the Maywood Herald is also producing results in the shape of letters from many people back there who desire to come to Southern California.

International News Service learned from an authoritative source that many officers of the Reichswehr in Bavaria are siding with the Berlin government and need only an order to prove their loyalty to the Reich.

It was reported that ten separatists had been lynched at Aachen, but later advices said they had been beaten to death with rubber hoses and sticks. These casualties were separate from those incurred in actual battle between the rival forces.

The Belgian military authorities declared a state of siege at Aachen, forbidding use of fire arms. Hamburg spent a night of ter-

THE GLENDALE

"The Fog," which shows for the first time today at the Glendale Theatre, is an absorbing and well-acted photoplay, combining adventure, pathos, villainy, heroism, love, infatuation, the whole range of human action. It is the story of how a sensitive boy finally triumphs through love over the tyranny and meanness of his environment, a story packed with thrills and rapid action, its romantic element very unusual.

"The Fog" offers a superb all-star cast, including Louise Dresser of Glendale, Cullen Landis, Louise Fazenda, Mildred Harris, Marjorie Prevost, Ralph Lewis, David Butler, Frank Currier and Ann May.

The photoplay was adapted by H. H. Van Loan and produced for Metro under the personal supervision of Max Graf.

The trip, which was made to combine business and pleasure, took her to San Francisco by boat, thence overland via the Union

THE GATEWAY

"The Eternal Three," a Goldwyn picture directed by the celebrated Marshall Neilan, from his own original story, shows at the Gateway Theatre today only, offering a cast that includes such players as Claire Windsor, Hobart Bosworth, Raymond Griffith, Besie Love, Tom Gallery and William Norris.

The story deals with the ingratitude of humanity, the ungrateful one in this case being the adopted son, who plans to elope with the beautiful young wife of his foster parent, the latter a great surgeon. On the way to elope, the young man meets with an injury that necessitates a serious operation.

Whether to let the knife slip or restore the lover to the surgeon's wife then becomes the problem. Its solution rounds out a photoplay that is engrossing from first to last.

U. S. HOSPITAL IN HILLS NEAR HERE

Site Between San Fernando and Sunland Selected by Officials

By F. A. GRAHAM
 Of The Evening News Staff
 As a result of recommendations made by Congressman Walter F. Lineberger and the senate committee on Veterans' Bureau affairs, which includes Senator Tasker B. Oddie of Nevada, Senator Reed of Pennsylvania and Senator Walsh of Massachusetts, the government will build a tuberculosis hospital for former service men on property already selected between San Fernando and Sunland, according to announcement made in Washington this week.

Recommendations were made by Senator Oddie to Brigadier General Hines, director of the bureau, which recalls that Senator Oddie was recently in Los Angeles obtaining data on the proposed site. Los Angeles officials of the Veterans' Bureau cooperated with him in this.

Favorable to Site
 While here, the senator said, "The San Fernando site has been strongly recommended by the Veterans' Bureau officials, the American Legion, the Rehabilitation Committee of Foreign Wars, three of the leading officials of the National Tuberculosis association committee of Los Angeles, and the county hospitalization committee. In my judgment the site proposed at San Fernando is ideal, and I am going to do everything in my power to see that the hospital is built there."

"My own decision on this point, as well as that of others I have mentioned, is based on the opinions of competent and reliable experts, and is not merely free from any political or commercial influence. We believe the San Fernando vicinity offers more advantages than any other place and we have in mind solely the establishment of an institution that will be the highest type of a tuberculosis hospital anywhere. I am inclined to the belief that it will be the place selected."

Need Is Vital
 "The need of tuberculosis hospitals for former service men is vital, and there has been so much delay in the matter that the situation has become acute. I propose to see that immediate action is taken so long as I am a member of this committee."

A large share of Senator Oddie's time during the summer was devoted to investigating conditions. He studied the hospital conditions in other parts of California and, among other things, recommended the establishment of a tuberculosis hospital at Livermore.

The site selected in the Verdugo hills is described as the old Loop ranch, comprising about 588 acres along the foothills between Pacoima canyon and the Olive View sanitarium, operated by the county of Los Angeles.

This property, belonging to the Ford-Craig Ranch company, and that of the Brown-Hayward interests, were both inspected by the committee. The Loop ranch was recommended as the most desirable location for the purpose.

$100,000 Price Asked
 It has been stated that the Loop ranch was offered to the government for the sum of $100,000, although the committee has made no official announcement regarding this phase of the transaction.

Ground is expected to be broken within thirty days. When completed the new hospital will contain 250 beds, according to available information.

After the hospital-sanitarium has been opened and in running order the hospital at Camp Kearny will be abandoned. Tubercular cases formerly were cared for at Thornycroft sanitarium in Glendale, but later transferred to Kearny and Sawtelle.

Plight of American Indians Told Tuesday Club Members By Attorney Ida M. Adams

By KATHERINE V. SINKS
 Of The Evening News Staff
 "One need not be surprised at anything the city of Glendale does, but I must confess that when I entered the Tuesday Afternoon clubhouse this afternoon I gasped. It is a wonderful building and I assure you we have no clubhouse for women in Los Angeles that can be compared with it." So Miss Ida M. Adams, attorney of Los Angeles and secretary of the California Indian Welfare association, greeted Tuesday Afternoon club members yesterday afternoon, when she appeared before them and eloquently pled the cause of the American Indian.

The California Indian Welfare association is the only organization of the kind to which the United States government has gone for authentic information on the Indians, and Miss Adams is unusually well qualified for representing the association and bringing to California Americans the message of the passing race.

Long to Be Remembered
 Small of stature, but vivacious and possessing a brilliant mind, unlimited knowledge of her subject, and dramatic ability, Miss Adams' eloquent plea for the enfranchisement of the American Indian provided a program that Tuesday Afternoon club women will long remember.

Her talk was filled with interesting statistics, dramatic incidents and personal experiences that brought her message forcefully to her hearers.

Some of the outstanding statements made by her were:
 "Negro slavery never oppressed more than Indian wardship."
 "In 1832, when the United States government established the Indian department as an emergency measure, it required $84,000 for operation. In 1920 the salaries amounted to $4,500,000. Today the appropriation for operation is $35,000,000."

Decimation of Race
 "There are only 336,000 Indians in the United States. In California there were at one time 170,000 Indians. Today there are 15,000."
 "Because we owe the Indian a debt we don't give him the same justice we do to other races."
 "There were 10,000 Indians overseas during the World War, and one-third of these sleep in Flanders fields. Only a few of this 10,000 were eligible for draft; the rest volunteered. The second greatest act of bravery recorded during the war is recorded for Joe Oklahoma, a full-blooded Indian."

In Los Angeles county the only institution open to the Indian is the county jail!
 In a most dramatic way Miss Adams presented these and other facts, and at the close of her talk Mrs. Daniel Campbell, president of the club, thanked her and called to her attention the Indian Welfare committee functioning for the Tuesday Afternoon club under the chairmanship of Mrs. B. O. Holbrook. Mrs. Campbell also mentioned the Los Angeles district and the state chairman of Indian Welfare and of the interest in the National Federation is taking in the great movement.

Mrs. Burdette Absent
 Mrs. Robert J. Burdette, California state director for the General Federation of Women's Clubs, was to have spoken at the club meeting yesterday, but because of the death of her son last week she was forced to cancel her engagement. Action was taken yesterday instructing that a resolution of sympathy be drawn up and sent to Mrs. Burdette.

During the club meeting preceding the program Mrs. Campbell announced the gift of $100 from L. C. Brand, raising the club's contribution to the relief fund to $310.33; the presentation to the club of a beautiful oil painting, "The Wildwood," by Mrs. Elton S. Warner, one of the club members.

Hear Reports
 The club women also listened to interesting reports from Mrs. W. E. Evans, Federation chairman, and Mrs. A. H. Montgomery, chairman of ways and means. Mrs. Evans told of the first council of Federation secretaries in Los Angeles last week with Mrs. J. V. Lorbeer, vice-president of the Federation.

Mrs. A. H. Montgomery reported that to date $200 has been made at the rummage sale at the Robinson warehouse on South Broadway avenue. She also announced that a musical comedy is to be given December 7 and 8 at the clubhouse, with sixty popular Glendale young people in the cast. Proceeds will go to the club treasury.

At present the club members are being urged to make reservations for the big Halloween dinner, dance and card party to be given at the club house next Tuesday night.

Board Holds Meeting
 At the board meeting held at the clubhouse yesterday morning action was taken authorizing the formation of a third arts and crafts section, to be known as Arts and Crafts Section C. The curator and times of meeting are to be arranged later.

In their association with the state Federation the Tuesday Afternoon club pays $350 annual dues.

A large bouquet of fine dahlia blossoms, a gift from Mrs. C. E. Norton, occupied a prominent place in the auditorium yesterday.

Since the next club meeting falls on the fifth Tuesday of the month there will be no club luncheon nor community singing hour. At 2:30 o'clock Dr. Jasper J. Mayer of the University of Psychological Research in Los Angeles will speak.

On November 6 there will be a

Mrs. Walter Babb's Brahma Chickens Win Fair Prizes

The Light Brahma strain of fowls bred by Mrs. Walter A. Babb, 1010 East Acacia street, has once more claimed the attention of the state, winning at the recent Pomona fair four firsts, three seconds, one third, one fourth, two silver cups and a special cash sweepstakes prize.

This augments the total of cups won by Mrs. Babb with this strain to seventeen. She has won five state championships, and last year at Pomona won grand champion hen and champion pen.

In 1918 she won the diploma issued by the American Poultry association for the best bird in the Asiatic class, out of seventy-five entrants. In 1919 she won first and second best bird in the class at Salem, Ore., together with the sweepstakes prize, and has won two clean sweeps at Los Angeles exhibits of the California Poultry association.

Balloons to Feature Athletic Club Dance

Brilliantly colored balloons will be the decorative feature at the big dance to be given Saturday night by the Glendale Athletic club at 109 North Brand boulevard. Special entertainment novelties are being arranged by the committee in charge.

Music will be furnished by the popular "Black and Tan" orchestra from Los Angeles.

Charles Brice, president of the club, states that as has been the custom in the past no tickets will be sold in advance, but an admission will be charged at the door.

Fire 'Smokes Out' Old Copy Of News at Chobe's Home

Trust to a fire to "smoke out" a good story. L. W. Chobe of Sierra avenue fought valiantly to save his home from the brush blaze a week ago last Saturday. On several different occasions his house took fire. And some mighty precious papers almost burned.

Among these singed treasures were copies of The Glendale News, then a weekly, dated March 5, 1910, carrying a front-page announcement of a celebration of a new municipal lighting plant in an advertisement of Mr. Chobe, who was then "the electrician" of Glendale.

Interesting light is shed on conditions of thirteen years ago by the following:
 "The condition of the realty market for the past ten days is very satisfactory from the dealer's point of view. The number of strangers visiting Glendale, Tropic and vicinity, seems to increase daily now that the weather is such as to lure people into the country and the suburban towns."
 "The three new brick blocks in Glendale are progressing rapidly."

FIRE ENGINE IN VERDUGO CANYON

Temporary Station at 1721 Glorietta Avenue for One Man Crew

Fire fighting equipment consisting of one truck, a 500-gallon pump, 50 gallons of chemicals and 1,300 feet of fire hose was transferred by the department Tuesday to Verdugo Woodlands, Chief A. H. Lankford announced.

The branch station is housed in a garage temporarily at 1721 Glorietta avenue, donated by the F. P. Newport company. This is a result of the disastrous fire which started east of Montrose and swept the foothills unabated a week ago last Saturday.

Only one man will be on duty. Ralph Plotkin and Arthur Schuster having been assigned to the new post for a 12-hour shift each. In case of a serious fire, however, the department will be summoned by means of a direct telephone wire connecting the station with the branch.

Weakens Other Station
 While the Glendale force is somewhat weakened by this new arrangement, Chief Lankford points out that the absent truck can be recalled within a few minutes for duty when such action is warranted.

Plans for a permanent fire department in the canyon are going forward rapidly. Tom Philip, a fireman, has drawn plans for a building, from which the city engineer is now making blueprints and specifications. Within the next two days contractors will be asked to submit bids for the construction of the building, which is to be two stories, 20 by 32 feet, of stucco.

As soon as it can possibly be done, Mr. Lankford intends to submit the plans and bids to the city council.

Two Sites Offered
 Two building sites have been offered the city. One near the temporary location by the Newport company and the other in Sparr Heights by the realty firm of Barnum & Walters, the latter being urged as more logical in the course of the city's growth.

It is pointed out that the great increase in population and large amount of frame construction in the Glendale foothills makes additional fire equipment essential.

U. S. S. Idaho's Eleven to Meet Occidental

Coach Pipal's warriors are rapidly getting back into shape after the onslaught of Stanford last Saturday. The Tigers drew a bye this week, and will not play any conference game. Friday afternoon on Paterson gridiron they will meet the fast and heavy U. S. S. Idaho battleship eleven. Ebers, star half, will be back in the league, as will Husky Snoodly, both of whom were out of last week's contest.

The Tigers expect to win by a good margin, but the Idaho boys will give them a run for their money. The following Saturday Oxy moves over to Whittier and battles the Quaker boys with silent signals. Whittier defeated Cal. Tech and are heading for the title. Oxy hopes to drop them a couple of pegs.

Table Shows Ages of Occidental Students

Dean Thomas G. Burt of Occidental college has prepared a very interesting statement on the average age of students according to their classes.

Following is the average age of Oxy students, according to classes:
 Seniors—Men, 21.6 years; women, 21.5 years.
 Juniors—Men, 21.7 years; women, 20.6 years.
 Sophs—Men, 20.5 years; women, 20.3 years.
 Fresh—Men, 19.3 years; women, 18.7 years.
 Graduates—Men, 32.6 years; women, 23.3 years.
 Specials—Men, 22.7 years; women, 22 years.

EGGS—Egg whites are valuable for pure protein, but they don't always agree. One a day is usually enough for the younger children. Egg yolks are especially valuable for iron, phosphorus and growth vitamins, and seldom disagree. The child may have more egg yolks than egg whites.

MEATS—One ounce (the amount of meat on an ordinary lamb chop is about one ounce) up to four years of age. After that not much more than two ounces. Once a day is often enough to give meat, if it is given. Sausages and other greasy meats are best avoided. The glandular organs, sweetbreads, liver, brains are especially good. They may be boiled, baked, stewed or broiled—or pan broiled if very lean so there is not fat enough to cook out and scorch.

Scraped beef: Scrape with a silver spoon with the grain of the meat and make into little loose cakes and broil.

FISH—Fresh fish, the same directions as meat. (As fish is less stimulating, a larger portion can be served.) Be sure to remove the bones for the younger children. Oily, canned fish such as sardines had best be omitted in children's diet. Dried meats and fish if soaked until the excess salt is removed and then cooked until soft are not objectionable for a change.

Any canned meat or fish should be cooked before serving. If wanted cold, cook first, then cool.

NUTS—Nuts are high in fat and protein (except chestnuts, which are mostly carbohydrates). Nuts may take the place of meat quite often. They should be ground fine or given in the form of butter until the children are taught to chew thoroughly.

CHEESE—Any mild cheese may be used, but in small amounts because of its concentration. Cottage cheese is especially valuable

Vegetables
All kinds, if properly prepared—that is, strained before the chewing teeth are in, and grated or chopped fine after they are in and until the child has been taught to chew.

The idea that certain vegetables could not be given until the child was three years old, others at six, and so on, has been disproved. The strong aromatic vegetables, such as onions and cucumbers, may disagree, if given raw. Corn frequently disagrees, probably because it is not properly masticated.

With any new vegetables, or foods of any kind not used before, begin with small amounts and try them out. The green leafy vegetables—spinach, Swiss chard, lettuce, beet tops, water cress, dandelions, etc.—are especially valuable "protective foods."

One-half to one cup of cooked vegetables and one-fourth to one-half cup of raw vegetables should be given daily to every child or adult. The vitamins are best preserved by steaming the vegetables in a tightly covered vessel, in as short a time as possible—not over twenty minutes, usually.

DAILY FASHION HINT

Prepared Especially for The Glendale Evening News

A MORNING FROCK
To Paris also may be left the task of designing a simple morning frock of distinctive charm and general becomingness. This model is suited to development in gingham, ratine, serge, or wool crepe. The gathered skirt is attached to a long-waisted blouse with deep open front. The revers are rounded at the upper edges and stitched over the collar. Fancy stitching trims collars, revers, cuffs, and pockets. Medium size requires 3 1/2 yards 36-inch material. Pictorial Review Dress No. 1810. Sizes, 34 to 48 inches bust. Price, 45 cents.

SLIP-ON APRON DRESS
It is a compliment to the charm of Parisian simplicity, with the hospitality of a "Polly put the kettle on and we'll all have tea" air. It is designed for development in gingham or chambray, the cuffs of the short kimono sleeves and the pouch pockets being embellished with fancy stitching. The sash is of self-material. Medium size requires 3 1/2 yards 36-inch material. Pictorial Review Dress No. 1470. Sizes, 36, 40, 44 and 48 inches bust. Price, 35 cents.

BEAUTY CHATS

WHICH COLD CREAM
In the winter months a woman has the choice of three kinds of cold cream: a very heavy cream for wrinkles and tissue building; a cleansing cream which, however, will not keep the skin from chapping in bad weather; and vanishing cream, which should only be used now and then.

I do not think I have given the formula for the tissue building cream for some time.

Rose water ..... 4 ounces
Almond Oil or Olive Oil ..... 4 ounces
Spermaceti ..... 1 ounce
White Wax ..... 1 ounce
Benzoin ..... 1 drachm

This makes a delicious cream which will not grow hard. However, a more effective cream can be made by substituting one ounce of lanoline for the spermaceti. If you have any tendency to superfluous hair on the face, however, I would not advise you to make this substitution. However, it is much more effective in the treatment of wrinkles.

You probably have the cleansing cream formula. This is made with: White wax one ounce; spermaceti, one ounce; white mineral oil, five ounces; rose water, one and one-half ounces; borax, 30 grains, and 15 drops of oil of bitter almonds to give the whole a delicate flavor. As this is a richer cream it penetrates the skin more easily, therefore is less troublesome as well as less expensive to use as a cleanser.

Vanishing cream is difficult to make. It hardly ever needs be used, but sometimes when the face must be freshened quickly, or when powder doesn't seem to stay on, or when the skin has been chapped and there is no time for a real massage, a little vanishing cream may be used.

Still Hopeful:—Everything that you have done to improve your skin has been correct; but your case takes longer time to bring about the desired results than you anticipated. Your local treatment has been a bit mild for coarse pores. After you have cleansed the skin use an astringent on the part where the pores are large, about five drops of benzoin in a half pint of water; vary this by using undiluted witch hazel at other times. If possible, have some professional treatments occasionally.

Miss M. B. M.:—I do not see why hair should become thin along the line of a part, unless it is coming out for reasons other than that of parting the hair.

Tomorrow—Care of the Feet
All inquiries addressed to Miss Forbes, in care of the "Beauty Chats" department will be answered in these columns in their turn. This requires considerable time, however, owing to the great number received. So, if a personal or quicker reply is desired, a stamped envelope must be enclosed with the question.—The Editor.

Efficient Housekeeping

By Laura A. Kirkman

USING LEFT-OVER EGG WHITES
TOMORROW'S MENU
Breakfast: Bananas, Cereal, Coffee, Scrambled Eggs, Toast.
Luncheon: Vegetable Soup, Wholewheat Bread, Cheese, Apple Sauce.
Dinner: Corned Beef Hash, Baked Sweet Potatoes, Canned Peas, Lettuce, French Dressing, Coffee, Blanc Mange.

Two Reader Friends have written me to ask how they shall use left-over egg-whites. Here is my answer:

Blanc Mange—Put five tablespoons of cornstarch into a bowl; add only just enough cold sweet milk to mix to a paste (about one-half cup). Then add one pint of sweet milk which has been scalded, stir well, and turn the mixture into the top of a double boiler. Let cook over boiling water for ten minutes, then place directly over the fire for a moment or two to let boil up. Add one tablespoon of sugar, the grated rind of one lemon and a pinch of salt. Take pan from range and beat in the stiffly-whipped whites of three eggs. Turn the mixture at once into small moulds (or cups) and allow to cool and harden. Serve with cream and sugar.

White Cake—Cream together one-half cup of butter and one cup of sugar. Sift together two cups of bread flour, a pinch of salt and four teaspoons of baking powder, then add these ingredients to the mixing bowl alternately with one-half cup of sweet milk. Fold in the stiffly-beaten whites of three eggs and flavor with a few drops of almond extract. Turn into a loaf cake pan which you have lined with greased paper, and bake in a moderate oven for forty minutes, increasing the oven-heat toward the last.

Mock Whipped Cream—We can not all afford whipped cream to "top" our puddings and desserts, but a pretty good substitute, as far as appearance goes (and it is appearance of a dish that makes it tempting) is the following: Beat egg-white stiff, beating into them enough powdered sugar to sweeten. Drop this froth by large teaspoonfuls into a pan on the range which contains hot (not boiling) milk. Dip the scalded milk up over the egg dabs, so as to graze the top. When the dab is firm, it is done. Remove it from pan with a skimmer and place it on desserts made of cornstarch, custard, tapioca, or gelatin.

Apple-Ginger Fluff—Enough

"George," said his father, "I am sorry to hear that you were among those present at that disgraceful party at the Drinkwell's last night."

"Father," pleaded the young man with somewhat bleary eyes, "I can assure you that I was only there as an observer."

"Yes," replied his parent, "so I heard, and Tom was the pilot and the table was the aeroplane. No, don't bother driving me down this morning."

Heart and Home Problems

By MRS. ELIZABETH THOMPSON

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am eighteen years old. When I was fifteen I met a boy two years my senior. A short time after our acquaintance I thought he was angry at me and didn't care for my company. One evening I went with his boy friend. I didn't try to spite him by going with his friend and would give anything if I had never met him. After I went with his friend this other boy and I went with each other about eighteen months.

He lives in a different town. Every time I was around him he asked me for a date until lately. He always talks to me but never asks for dates. I had friends tell me he wouldn't go with me any more because I went with his friend and didn't treat him right. Don't you think if this were the reason he would have mentioned it before now? Other girls have said I wasn't fast enough for him. Please tell me how I can regain his old friendship. He means all the world to me. Do not ask me to forget him.

He goes with many other girls. I have many boy friends but do not care to go with them as I love this boy too dearly.

A LOST LOVER.
The things your friends tell you about your friend's indifference do not seem probable. Surely if he had resented your going with his boy friend, he would have shown his resentment sooner and would not have gone with you eighteen months afterwards. It never pays to comfort oneself with the feeling that the boy is too fast. He wasn't too fast until he grew indifferent to you. Doubtless he finds more enjoyment with some other girl now and has grown tired of you.

It is useless for you to go on grieving for the boy and wanting him back. He can not be forced to return to you, and therefore effort on your part to bring him back will avail nothing. Let your pride come to the front, and no longer show how much you care because of his indifference. By all means go with other boys and make every effort to forget some one who no longer cares for you.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a boy twenty-two years old and have been married two years. My first year was very pleasant, but the second has been awful. Every time I go home my wife curses and raises mischief for nothing and tells me that she has other friends and she can get anything she wants. Tell me if you think I should live with her or not.

FRECKLES.
Something ought to be done to make you look a little more homely. Of course if you and your wife cannot get along together, separation seems the only wise course. Have a heart to heart talk with her and offer her her freedom since she is so discontented. Say that you cannot go on living in the inharmonious which now exists and you think both would be happier if she were free to enjoy her other friends. She may realize that after all you mean a great deal to her, and as a result try harder to make you some happy.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a young girl and want you to tell me how I can win the love of a young boy I have just met. He seems to like me very much. Please give me some advice.

BROWN EYES.
Love is a thing which cannot be forced. Since the boys seem to like you, he satisfied in his friendship. He may learn to care a great deal for you and again he may not, but any effort on your part would not help matters.

With the Women of Today

By MRS. LILIAN CAMPBELL

Rhode Island, that smallest of all these United States, but by no means the least important, has the distinction of giving to the country the second woman ever to pass the examination for certified public accountant. She is Miss Adele M. Emin of Providence.

city and Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont, president of the National Woman's party, made brief speeches and there was music and singing.

After the meeting a parade was formed with Mrs. Belmont and the mayor leading, and Miss Alice Paul, vice-president of the party, following. Many of the marchers were delegates from the Seneca Falls conference celebrating the seventy-fifth anniversary of the first suffrage meeting. Representatives from every woman's organization in Rochester followed.

Miss Anthony's oldest living friend, Mrs. Henry Watkeys, 90 years old, and a resident of Rochester, was present and added her tribute of flowers to the memory of her friend.

How a Single Industry Spreads Prosperity

A most significant fact about an industry is the large number of people who benefit from it.

Take the cement industry, as an example:

The mills used 9,000,000 tons of coal last year. This meant 9,000 coal miners steadily employed—their families, numbering not less than 25,000, maintained—and along with them tradesmen and other people enough to supply the needs of a town of over 50,000.

That is, of course, saying nothing of the business created for coal operators and transportation lines.

Sacks are not so large an item in the cement industry as coal, yet 50,000,000 new sacks, representing 50,000 bales of cotton, had to be bought last year for replacements alone. Back of this were cotton planters, plantation workers, mill owners, mill operatives and so on—thousands altogether.

And consider these other requirements of the industry last year:

- 3,700,000 barrels of fuel oil
- 3,400,000,000 cubic feet of gas
- 15,000,000 pounds of explosives
- 32,000,000 pounds of greases and oils
- 1,700,000 linear feet of belting
- 4,500,000 firebrick for relining kilns
- 7,000,000 pounds of paper for bags
- 600,000 tons of gypsum

In addition the industry bought quantities of heavy grinding and burning machinery, locomotives, cars, rails, electrical and other necessary equipment.

In this way a single industry spreads prosperity to many others.

GLENDALE'S GREATEST MERCHANDISING EVENT

Thursday, Friday and Saturday

The Owl Drug Co - Renold

One Cent Sale

This Sale is for Three Days
Thursday, Friday, Saturday

What is a One Cent Sale? It is a sale where you buy an item at the regular price—then another item of the same kind for One Cent. For example,—the standard price Klenzo Dental Cream is 50c, you buy a large tube at this price and by paying one cent more, or 51c, you get two large sized tubes. Every article in this sale is a high class standard piece of merchandise just the same as we sell you every day at regular prices and have sold you for years. This sale was developed by The United Drug Company as an advertising plan; rather than spend large sums of money in other ways to convince you of the merits of these goods, they are spending it on this sale in permitting us to sell you a full sized package of high standard merchandise for one cent. The Owl Drug Co. suggests that you shop early as we cannot guarantee merchandise offered in this sale to last throught the three days.

PROFIT SHARING "S"

OVER $10,500.00 IN PRIZES

Any man or woman; young or old, married or single, in Glendale and adjoining territory, is eligible as a member of the "Salesmanship Club." All you have to do to become a member is to clip the Membership Blank appearing on this page, fill out and either send or bring to the "Salesmanship Club" manager, The Glendale Evening News, Glendale. It costs nothing to enter, and all it takes to win one of the biggest awards is a little well directed energy. This is not a popularity voting contest

HERE'S THE PLAN IN BRIEF

The object of this Salesmanship Club Campaign is two-fold; primarily, to increase the ever-growing circulation of the Glendale Evening News; to collect in advance subscription payments from present or old subscribers and at the same time afford our friends and readers an unparalleled opportunity to profit, and in a big way, through their spare time during the next few weeks. So, it is the plan that works both ways and to the ultimate good of all concerned.

HOW TO ENTER—WHAT TO DO

1.—SEND IN THE MEMBERSHIP BLANK—It counts for 5,000 credits. 2.—CLIP the 10 CREDIT COUPON—Collect all of these you can and get your friends to save them for you. Each coupon counts for 10 credits; 3.—USE THE RECEIPT BOOK—As soon as we receive your entry we will send you a receipt book so that you may take subscriptions. Every paid in advance subscription counts for credits according to the schedule below; 4.—CLIP "FIRST SUBSCRIPTION COUPON"—This coupon accompanied with any subscription payment for three months or more to The Glendale Evening News counts for 10,000 EXTRA credits in addition to the usual number. You do not have to be a subscriber to The News to compete. 5.—SEE YOUR FRIENDS—Get your friends and acquaintances to subscribe. Also organize them so they will assist you to get subscriptions from their friends. 6.—USE THE TELEPHONE—Call up everyone you know. Tell them you are in the campaign and ask for their support. 7.—ONCE IN, STAY IN—Don't get discouraged or let anyone try to discourage you. Someone will win the big cars. Why not you? 8.—GET COMPLETE INFORMATION—Call, write or phone the campaign manager at the News office, Glendale, Calif.

HERE'S HOW TO SUCCEED

It takes credits to win and credits are secured as follows: First, by clipping the coupons appearing in each issue of The News. Begin gathering them now while they are worth 10 credits each. After next week these coupons will be reduced to 5 credits and the following to only 2 credits, and after that they will be discontinued entirely. The only restriction placed upon voting these coupons is that they must be deposited at the Club Headquarters on or before the expiration of the date appearing thereon. Get all you can, and get your friends to save them for you too—they are FREE. Another and faster way to get credits is by securing new and renewal subscriptions to The News. For each subscription turned in a certain number of credits are issued, the number varying according to the amount collected and during which "period" same is received at the club headquarters. So you see the more credits you get the better your chances are to earn the grand capital prize.

RULES and REGULATIONS

1. Any reputable man, woman or child residing in Glendale and adjoining territory is eligible to become a member of the Salesmanship club and earn a prize. The News reserves the right to reject any membership entries.
2. The winners of the prizes will be decided by their credits, said credits being represented by ballots issued for subscriptions and by coupons clipped from The News.
3. Club members are not confined to their own town, community or district to secure credits and subscriptions, but are at liberty to secure orders from any place in the United States.
4. Cash must accompany all orders where credits are desired. There will be no exception to this rule. Club members will be allowed to collect renewal subscriptions as well as new subscriptions, and credits will be given on both.
5. Credits are free and will be given where subscriptions are paid for three months or more in advance. Ask for them when paying your subscription, otherwise you will waive the privilege. Credits will not be issued on receipts covering payments made prior to the beginning of the campaign.
6. Credits cannot be purchased. Every cent accepted thru the campaign department must represent a subscription. No subscriptions will be accepted for less than three months nor for more than five years in advance from any one subscriber.
7. Credits are not transferable. Club members cannot withdraw in favor of another club member. Should a club member withdraw from the race his or her credits will be cancelled. Neither will it be permissible for a club member to give, or transfer, subscriptions to another club member. Credits on such transferred subscriptions will be subject to disqualification at the discretion of the campaign manager.
- 8.—Any collusion on the part of club members to the detriment of other club members or to The News will not be tolerated. Any club member or club members entering into or taking part in such a combination will forfeit all right to a prize or a commission.
9. All credits issued for subscriptions may be held in reserve, or polled at the discretion of the club member or subscriber up to and including the last day of the campaign; except at the discretion of the campaign manager, no club member can poll more than 20,000 credits in any 24 hours above the leader in the last published report.
- 10.—In the event of a tie for any one of these prizes, a prize identical in value will be awarded each tying club member.
11. Every club member in this campaign is an authorized agent of The News and as such may collect advance subscription payments from present subscribers as well as from new subscribers.
12. It is distinctly understood and agreed that club members will be responsible for all money collected, and that they will remit amounts in full each day to the Salesmanship club department of The News.
13. There will be several big prizes awarded besides the cash commission to active non-prize-winners, but it is distinctly understood that in the event any club member becomes inactive, failing to make a cash report of at least two subscriptions each week, he or she will be disqualified and thereby forfeit all rights to a prize or commission.
14. Prizes will be awarded to winning club members in each of the five districts as specifically explained elsewhere in this advertisement.
- 15 The News reserves the right to alter the rules and schedule of this campaign during the competition if necessary, for the protection of the interests of both the club members and this newspaper.
16. In becoming a club member or participating in this campaign, club members agree to abide by all the above conditions.

ADVISORY BOARD

It is the sincere aim of this newspaper to conduct this Salesmanship Club, from start to finish, in a fair, honorable and impartial manner. Every precaution has been taken to safeguard the interests of participants, and absolute honesty in all dealings is guaranteed. However, not all wisdom lies within any one man or institution, and, for that reason, an Advisory Board has been decided upon, whose functions shall be to decide any question of sufficient moment that might happen to arise during the campaign and from which a committee shall be selected to act as judges and count the credits the last night of the club. The personnel of this board is as follows:

- SPENCER ROBINSON, Mayor of the City of Glendale.
- REV. CHARLES M. CALDERWOOD, Pastor of First Congregational Church.
- C. C. COOPER, President Federal and Commercial Bank.
- H. A. HARRISON, Public Accountant.
- C. D. THOM, President Glendale Realty Board.

TODAY—Start Coolidge-Hyde Boom; Sanitarium for Drug Addicts.

By W. F. SULLIVAN
For International News Service

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Oct. 24.—Enthusiastic Republicans, eager to have Missouri play a prominent role in the next presidential campaign, have organized a Coolidge-Hyde movement, which is gaining strength in this state.

Under the leadership of prominent members of the party in Missouri they plan to push Governor Arthur M. Hyde as a running mate to President Coolidge, whom the Missourians would back for president for the next regular term.

"Candidates of Governor Hyde for the vice-presidency would give Missouri Republicans something to rally around," declare local Republicans who are instrumental in organizing the movement.

Missouri is generally regarded as a Democratic state, but, contending backers of the proposed Coolidge-Hyde combine, "every time the voters of this state are properly aroused" it has gone Republican.

R. R. Brewster, Republican nominee for United States senator at the last election and one of the leaders of the party in this state, took an important part in the formation of the combination. In an address before the Twentieth Century Republican club Brewster was frequently interrupted with outbursts of applause whenever he made mention of the two men as the standard bearers of the party at the next election.

Support has been received by women voters in the movement. Mrs. George W. Davis, member of the club and head of the Christian citizenship department of the Women's Christian Temperance Union, urged the women voters to get behind Governor Hyde for the vice-presidency, while Mrs. Sylvester Wells, president of the club, was firm in expressing her belief that Coolidge and the Missouri governor would make a winning pair if nominated.

Establishment of a sanitarium in this city to care for drug addicts is taking on a determined and concrete form.

Charles Tucker, president of the Board of Public Welfare, is taking a leading part in urging that such a hospital for the cure of such unfortunates be built.

Tucker plans a civic movement to obtain funds for the establishment of the sanitarium where drug addicts could go voluntarily to be cured, and a clinic where confirmed users could purchase drugs under the strictest supervision. This would eliminate drug peddlers, leaders of the movement declare.

Gone is the good of happy hobo, and in his place comes the detestable bum according to mission workers here.

The difference, mission workers say, is a very distinct one. The hobo would work occasionally in return for board and lodging, but the bum—never.

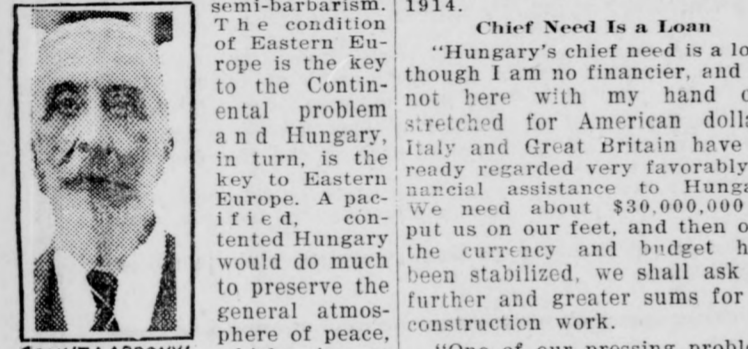

The hobo was the romantic type of traveler—one who perhaps had been educated, who could recite poetry and loved the life of the open. The bum has no outstanding qualities of redemption. He flees from work like one does from a dreaded disease; he will do anything to get out of it.

Mission workers long for the return of the hobo and the extinction of the bum.

Who's Who in the Day's News

"CONTENTED HUNGARY WOULD HELP STABILIZE EUROPE"
APRONY SAYS

"European civilization lies in imminent danger of collapse, even though the Communist peril has been temporarily staved off. Hungary is the farthest outpost of civilization in Europe. At our back door lies semi-barbarism.

Count Apponyi, premier of Hungary, is so sadly lacking in Europe." So declares Count Apponyi, "grand old man of Hungary," now in the U. S. for a lecture tour.

"I cannot say that relations are not strained with our neighbors, Rumania, Czechoslovakia and Jugoslavia, which, of course, compose the Little Entente. It is hardly to be expected that the Magyars are as yet reconciled to the Treaty of Trianon, which took away two-thirds of our territory and handed over 3,000,000 Hungarian citizens to the tender mercies of their former enemies.

Wrongs of Treaty

"The treaty is a direct contradiction of ethnographic and geographical principles. When the allied statesmen, with the aid of the Little Entente sat down at the conference table they sadly lacked psychology. For example, although 98 per cent of our woodlands fell into foreign hands we were ordered to make vast deliveries of timber to Austria.

"But, lest I create a false impression by these remarks, I should like to emphasize that Hungary is well aware of her responsibility in helping to maintain the tranquility of Europe. We do not propose to rebel by armed force against the hard conditions imposed upon us or to antagonize our neighbors by not carrying out in the spirit as well as the letter that treaty signed nearly four years ago with the Allies.

"CAP" STUBBS—Gran'ma Comes to the Rescue

SCIENCE and INVENTION

By Arthur Budd

THE COW AND THE COCONUT

ICE-CREAM cones are a vegetable product. They grow on coconut trees.

At all events, the ice-cream they contain contains no cream. It is made out of skim milk, to which coconut oil is added to take the place of butter fat.

The housewife who buys a can labeled "condensed milk" or "evaporated milk," may be sure that the contents correspond to the description. For three cents, however, she can purchase a brand recommended by the retailer as "just as good," with a trade name, but without the word "milk" on the label. It seems to her entirely satisfactory, being indistinguishable by taste or otherwise from the real stuff.

Skim milk costs the manufacturer 35 cents per 100 pounds; refined coconut oil, 12 cents a pound. He pays a little over 80 cents for enough of these materials to fill forty-eight one-pound cans, or less than 2 cents a can. The retail price is 10 cents a can, or up.

The process of manufacture is very simple. The skim milk is reduced by evaporation to half its bulk, and then from 8 to 8 per cent of coconut oil is added. The result is a remarkably good imitation of evaporated or condensed milk. It has the same consistency, color, and taste. People who buy it have no suspicion of its character, and, being cheaper, it is sold in great quantities to the poor.

How good an imitation it is may be judged from the fact that the government, during the war, bought two carloads of it for our troops, in the belief that it was condensed milk.

In 1920 nearly 8,000,000 pounds of coconut oil was used in this country for making "filled" milk, taking the place of that gently a process has been developed for the manufacture of an artificial cream from the same material.

Those engaged in the business claim that their product is undeniably nutritious and wholesome; also that it makes a market for 200,000,000 pounds of skim milk annually which could otherwise find no sale.

On the other hand, it is argued that the purchasing public is deceived, being led to believe that it is getting something which it does not really get. Also, that babies (often fed on condensed or evaporated milks) are likely to suffer.

Marching with American Legion

Hans Hundorf, of St. Paul, permanently disabled veteran of the world war, is one of the most ardent workers for the American Legion in the country. He recognizes that through the agency of the veterans' organization the former soldier is enabled to obtain more complete justice in the handling of his case, and to this end has endeavored to enlist every eligible comrade in the legion's cause.

Hundorf was gassed in France while serving in an aero squadron, and since discharge has been a patient in many government hospitals, lately was sent to St. Paul. He has been of great assistance to his fellows while there and has aided many of them in preparing their claims on the government.

On the arrival of overseas dead in St. Paul Hundorf was at the station to place an emblematic poppy on the coffin of each hero.

His service to the legion has extended further. A member of St. Paul post No. 8, he has written the applications of nearly 200 ex-soldiers for the legion. On one occasion he was cited for this splendid service by the commander of his post, who told his comrades of the unusual number which had been obtained. "That's nothing," exclaimed Hundorf, "I wrote two fellows up while I was on the car coming to this meeting."

Officials of the American Legion, in recasting chances of the soldiers' compensation act in the next session of congress, have added the name of Magnus Johnson, newly-elected senator from Minnesota, to the list of those favoring it. Johnson is for compensation for soldiers, and while preferring it to come from taxes levied on fortunes growing out of the war, is self-committed for the passage of the law in any form.

The purchase of George Washington's headquarters on the Brandywine battlefield, between Baltimore and Philadelphia, is being considered by a group of American Legion members, headed by Dr. John A. Farrell of West Chester, Pa. The building, which for years housed an historical museum, stands between Brandywine Summit and Chadd's Ford. Thousands of relics of the field were collected by the former owner.

A Safe Investment

You may live in a palace or hovel, In a cave in the woods, or your shoe. It's a mighty good thing, too, By Hecker, To paddle your own canoe.

There's many a man who is honest With a policy, true as blue, But he sure is a poor, turned-down sucker, If he needs a dollar or two.

You may think you have friends by the hundreds Who would trust you in real estate, But just ask him to lend you some lucre, And see how he cautiously squirms.

Your friends are your friends as long as you're rich, Or seemingly, comfortably fixed, Get away from that kind as soon as you can, Ere in finance you're tangled and mixed.

A friend is your friend when you're needy, Who to you with his solace will come, And not look at you, scornfully wondering, Just why you're a vag or a bum.

Now don't misjudge or mistake me And spend all your time with your friend, Because he will only 'Doggone' you, And curse you clear up to the end.

But invest your friendship in dollars, This lesson I want you to learn, For this is the safest investment And will net you the biggest return. E. M. A. Plumber.

Uncle Wiggily Bedtime Stories

By Howard R. Garis

UNCLE WIGGILY AND THE PAPER BOAT

"Well, here I am!" called a voice almost in Uncle Wiggily's ear one morning as he sat reading the Cabbage Leaf Gazette newspaper in his hollow stump bungalow.

"Oh, my goodness! Don't nibble me, please!" begged the bunny.

Then he heard a jolly little laugh and saw Baby Bunty standing near him.

"I'm no the Fuzzy Fox nor yet the Woozie Wolf," said the little rabbit girl. "I just came in quietly to surprise you."

"Well, you surprised me, all right," said the rabbit uncle. "I thought you might be the Bob Cat."

"My tail is short enough!" laughed Bunty, for, like all rabbits, she only had a little stump of a tail, just like the Bob Cat. "But I didn't come to nibble you," she went on. "I came to see if you would play with me, Uncle Wiggily. Will you?"

"Oh, yes, I suppose so," sighed the bunny gentleman, though really he wanted to read the paper. "What shall we play, Bunty?"

"Let's play making things out of paper," said the little girl rabbit. "Make me a fireman's hat and a soldier's hat and then make me a paper boat."

"All right," agreed Uncle Wiggily. So, taking a page of the paper he had read, he folded it and turned it and creased it until he had made a fireman's hat, which wouldn't run down the fireman's neck.

"This is very nice," said Baby Bunty as she put it on. "Thank you, Uncle Wiggily. Now, please make me a soldier's hat."

So the bunny gentleman folded another piece of paper in a different way and soon he had made a peaked hat such as some soldiers wear. Bunty put it on and looked very cute.

"Thank you, Uncle Wiggily," she said. "Now, please, make me a paper boat."

So the rabbit gentleman folded another piece of paper in a different way, pulling it and bending it and creating it, until at last he had made a paper boat, pointed at each end.

"Now I'm going to sail my boat in the bathtub," said Bunty.

"Be careful you don't fall in yourself," warned Uncle Wiggily, and for a little while he watched Bunty sail her boat in the water of the bathtub. The boat, though it was of paper, sailed about for some time without being soaked through.

"If you made my boat of waxed paper the water wouldn't soak through," said Bunty.

"Oh, hop along with you," laughed Uncle Wiggily. "I have no more time to play with you, and he went downstairs. But no sooner had he started to read the paper again than Nurse Jane called.

"Wiggily, my dear, I wish you'd go to the store for me."

"What do you want," asked Uncle Wiggily.

"I want some wax to rub on my flatirons when I press the clothes," answered the muskrat lady, "and I'd like you to bring me a big sheet of brown wrapping paper. I want to do up a bundle of things to send to Mrs. Danford the lady bear. Don't forget now, Wiggily—wax and a big piece of brown paper."

"I'll bring them," said the rabbit gentleman, and, twinkling his pink nose, away he hopped.

It did not take Uncle Wiggily long to buy the two things for Nurse Jane, and then he started to hop back to his hollow stump bungalow.

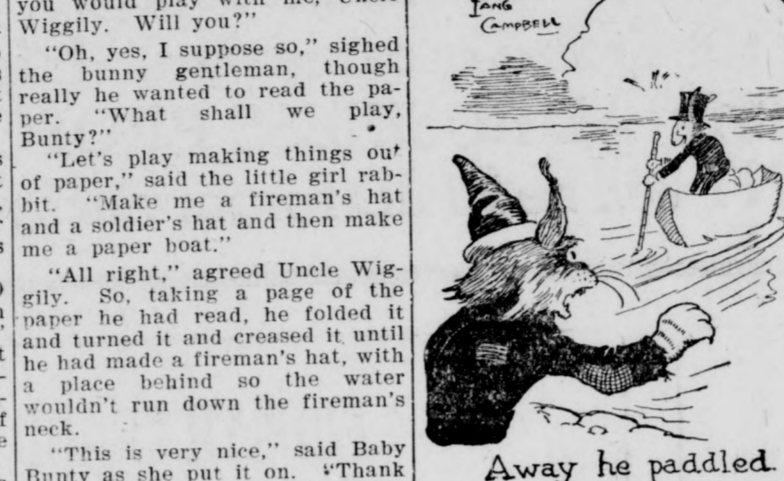

"I'm a little worried about Baby Bunty," said the rabbit gentleman to himself as he hopped quickly along. "She may splash water from the bathtub all over her playing boat. Or she may even fall in. And I'd like to finish reading my paper."

It was rather a warm day for October, and as Uncle Wiggily hopped along he noticed that the wax cake he had bought for Nurse Jane's irons was melting in the sun.

"I must hurry a bit faster," thought the bunny, and he hopped along like never was. But, all of a sudden, out from behind a sassafras bush jumped the Bob Cat.

"I'm going to get your ears!" howled the Bob Cat to Uncle Wiggily.

"No, you aren't—not if I can run faster than you can run!" cried the bunny, and away he leaped, skippity hoppy. But, which kept out the water. Then into the waxed paper boat leaped Uncle Wiggily, and, using his red, white and blue striped rheumatism crutch for a paddle, away he paddled faster and faster over the lake.

The Bob Cat came to the edge of the water, but he couldn't swim and he couldn't jump across it, so he didn't get Uncle Wiggily, and soon the bunny was safely home to Nurse Jane. He got her another sheet of paper and more wax, so all was well.

And if the goldfish doesn't make mud pies on the dustpan when it should be filling the fountain pen, I'll tell you, next about Uncle Wiggily and the wooden doll.

THE FOREST MAID

O fairest of the rural maids! Thy birth within the forest shades, And all the beauty of the place is in thy heart and on thy face.

The twilight of the trees and rocks Is in the light shade of thy locks; Thy step is as the wind that whistles Its playful way among the leaves.

Thine eyes are springs, in whose serene And silent waters heaven is seen; Their lashes are the herbs that look On thy young fingers in the brook.

The forest depths by foot impressed Are not more sinless than thy breast; The holy peace that fills the air Of those calm solitudes is there. —William Cullen Bryant.

Beauty and Beast, Peanuts and Popcorn, Hot Dogs and Cold Lemonade! Sawdust and Music, All th' Thrills, at Sciots' Circus!

By H. THOMPSON RICH
Of The Evening News Staff

They tore up the calendar and threw it away at the Sciots' Circus last night, and for several riotous hours age was forgotten. Big kids, little kids, boy kids, girl kids—all were just kids, kids at the circus. It was like Maude Adams' "Peter Pan" or Ponce de Leon's "Fountain of Youth," under the big tent between Milford and Doran streets, on North Brand boulevard. Hundreds learned the secret and came away agreeing with the slogans they found pasted on their cars, "I'm going every night."

Long before the tent was approached, the harmonious strains of the Sciots' 52-piece band were heard warming the coolish wind. And once inside that haven of lights and crowds and music, there arose and greeted the nostrils that most gracious of circus smells, the aroma of popcorn, while the eyes found it pleasing to survey the chic farmerettes of the Girls' Friendly society of St. Mark's Episcopal church, dispensers thereof.

The sawdust was good to walk upon, recalling fond memories of earlier circuses, while the profusion of American flags draped up the walls to the very dome of the canvas palace added color that was heightened still further by the red and black fezes of the Sciots, dotting the throngs. The last touch of brilliance was a gigantic bunch of multi-hued balloons that melted and grew, replaced from some mysterious source that is the end of the childish rainbow.

Plenty of Action

To the left and right of the entrance, batteries of concessions did a land-office business, with a predominance of spinning wheels. Starting around to the left, one found, first the Gardner touring car that is to be given away Saturday night, then the change and information booth of the Federal Commercial & Savings bank, then Little Dewey, "the smallest horse in the world," followed by the American Legion candy booth, then the Smith-Maxwell electric booth, the Glendale Grotto wheel, a hot dog haven; and, around to the other side, a Smith-Maxwell waffle-iron booth, Christopher's candy wheel, fortune telling wigwags, Premium hums and bacons, Smith-Maxwell wheel, kewpie dolls and a novelty booth; while in the center of the tent, to the front, the Girls' Friendly society popcorn booth, in the middle a lotto concession and to the rear a pink lemonade and ice cream cone station.

Suddenly the Sciots' band begins playing "Three o'Clock in the Morning" and high up in the dome of the tent a pretty girl in spangles glides out on a tight rope, waltzing. There is a gasp from scores of throats, a hiatus in the merriment, as all eyes are focused on this newest thrill.

Beauties and Beasts

Gracefully, fearlessly the circus girl dances, far up in the air, now pausing, now rushing over the rope, balancing, swinging, sometimes seeming almost to lose her balance, always catching herself easily. At last it is over.

Now a trained pony minces out into the ring and a clever dog leaps to his back, rides him on all fours, rides him standing on his hind legs, jumps off, jumps on again from the ground, in one leap, continuing a series of fascinating stunts, as the pony trots round and round the ring, to the crack of the long whip of the trainer.

Then a group of ponies come out, sleek, beautiful, and most beautiful of all the bare-back riding girl in tights and spangles, who gives the growing audience new thrills now in rapid succession.

Then acrobatic acts, juggling, clowns, more animals—twelve big features in all, run off to the excellent music of the Sciots' band. A word of special praise for that band; for its organizer, G. O. Russell, who in less than two months has built it up from nothing to its present state of perfection; for its director, Frank Witherell, who synchronizes its every effort; and for its fifty-two members, all musicians of many years' experience.

Members of Band

Following is the personnel of the Sciots' band:
G. O. Russell, manager.
E. W. Kingsley, assistant manager.
C. T. Palladine, assistant manager.
Frank Witherell, director.
J. J. Burke, assistant director.

Drums—R. W. Biddlecom, J. B. Steniger.

Contest for Queen

A special feature of the Sciots' circus is a battery of four boxes, with slots at the top, standing squarely in the middle of the big tent, between the lotto concession and the pink lemonade booth. Each one of these boxes is labeled, bearing the names of the four pretty Glendale girls nominated by the Sciots' officers to be candidates in the queen beauty contest, with the public as judges. The girls are Misses Margaret Longley, Olive Middleton, Gladys Kattienan and Corinne Orff. They all look like winners! "Here you are, gents! Don't you ever get hungry, boys?" pleads the hot dog barker. "Right this way for a glimpse at Little

Dewey, the smallest horse in the world," from another booth. "Oh, Oh, oh, the wheel's gone wild!" screams the American Legion concessionaire. "Here you are! * * * Oh, oh! * * * Right this way * * * Here * * * oh, * * * this way * * * the sounds mingle and rise and fall like restless tides lapping at the canvas shores of the big island of merriment.

And to whom goes the credit for this mighty tempest of hilarity that threatens to burst the confines of the Big Tent and engulf Glendale completely in gorgeous rollover? Nearly 300 denizens of Pyramid No. 39, Ancient Egyptian Order of Sciots chorus: H. M. Bennett, toparch, and the officers of the local pyramid, as follows:

H. M. Bennett, toparch.
Arthur H. Dibbern, past toparch.
Dr. Warren Z. Newton, Moib.
Frederick A. Collins, Armeses.
F. J. Mathiesen, Pastaphori.
Richard J. Kinley, scribe.
George H. Thomas, chancellor.
Robert A. Sullivan, trustee.
John C. Chase, trustee.
H. B. Thompson, trustee.
G. H. Howard, Klasher.
W. A. McCormick, Neokori.
A. W. Gregg, Chief of the Me.
E. V. Jellison, marshal.
Dr. G. Campbell, Sub Chief of Me.
W. E. Moody, proclomator.
Norman Davidson, orator.
A. E. Sullivan, captain of guard.
Paul E. Maxwell, granary keeper.
Robert E. Johnston, matador.
Sam Warren, auditor.
Gaylord Russell, chief musician.
O. L. Whitaker, standard bearer.
Ira B. Carlock, auditor.
Arthur C. Kase, auditor.
F. A. Turney, trumpeter.
Chief J. D. Fraser, drum major.
Charles Shattuck, Mohar.
R. E. Murdy, Mazah.

Sciots' Creed
Your neighbor's assistance and co-operation in your business affairs; the strong grip of a friend to help you over the rough places in life; a kind word spoken in your behalf or your defense; a watchful care over you in your journey through life, and a full measure of innocent, wholesome amusement, is worth many times more to you while living than the most beautiful requiem, the most eloquent sermon, or the most elaborate pyramid over your remains when you are dead.

This creed briefly explains the objects of the Ancient Egyptian Order of the Sciots. "B. O. A." (most one another) is the slogan of this branch of Masonry. The order is charitable to a considerable extent and attempts to put into practical use the teachings of the Masonic lodge. Employment bureaus and relief committees are maintained. A strict ban is placed upon the introduction into the organization of politics or sectarianism of any nature, the objects being purely in the interest of the individual, and the Mason's duty to the individual as well as to his order as a whole is emphasized. To draw Masons together into a strong bond of friendship, fellowship and co-operation, to abolish social distinction and prestige due to financial standing—these are among the many aims of the Sciots.

Lack of Skilled Help Closes Alabama Mines

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Oct. 24.—The Aldrich (Alabama) bituminous mines of the Montevallo Mining company are to be closed down indefinitely because of inability to secure competent skilled labor. The company went into bankruptcy several months ago and has since operated under a trusteeship, using a large number of convict miners leased from the state. The inferior convict labor was unable to operate the modern machinery used in the mines, according to the trustee.

EAGLE ROCK

TWO STRUCTURES WILL COST $63,390

Stores, Offices, Apartments Included in Buildings Now Under Way

Among the larger construction operations now under way in Eagle Rock, two are outstanding. One is the row of stores and offices soon to rise on Colorado boulevard between Douglas and Ellis avenues. Permit in the sum of $40,000 has been issued to G. Reddell for this work, which, when completed, will add much to the attractiveness of that section of town.

Another sizable operation is under way by Mrs. Jennie C. Brayton on Central avenue, just north of Colorado boulevard, where a permit has been taken out in the sum of $23,390 for the erection of an apartment house of six apartments.

Structures such as these establish the community definitely as enjoying a rapid and wholesome development, in the opinion of realty dealers who have been in close touch with the Eagle Rock building situation. They prophesy more to come, particularly with Los Angeles and Pasadena money beginning to seek investment here.

Local and Personal

The Women's Twentieth Century club dance, at the clubhouse on East Colorado street, Saturday night, October 27, promises to be a brilliant affair.

Ruth Thompson, Eagle Rock pianist and composer, is studying under the famous teacher of music, Dr. Frances A. Mangin, at her Los Angeles studio. Dr. Mangin has been in this part of the country only a month.

Among Eagle Rock women attending the fall Presbyterial of the United Presbyterian Women's society in Los Angeles last week were Mrs. W. J. Kennedy, Mrs. T. B. McNary, Mrs. Alma Miller and Mrs. C. A. Schweissinger. J. W. A. Heitman company, realtors, with offices in Los Angeles and Glendale, have opened a branch in this community, choosing for their representatives here C. B. Benson, assisted by John Dowd.

Root Program Given

The "welcome home" banquet to O. J. Root, popular resident of Eagle Rock and member of the Chamber of Commerce, set for 7 o'clock November 6, at the Women's Twentieth Century club, will have as its toastmaster Dr. Remsen DuBois Bird, president of Occidental college. Dr. Robert, president of the C. of C. of Champagne, Ill., will be the principal speaker, announces Donnell G. Montgomery, secretary of the local chamber.

"As soon as the first frost has broken down your dahlias," says Mrs. C. W. Young, 900 Rock Glen avenue, "dig up the bulbs, and leave them in the ground will make it more difficult later to get them out, when the soil gets hard. To dig them up properly, first cut off the tops and lay the tubers in a position that these cut-off tops will be slanting downward, so as to drain off excess moisture that may have collected in the hollow stalk. When thoroughly drained they may be put in the root cellar for the winter."

Mammoth Dahlia Is Grown by Pearson

James W. Pearson, local realty dealer, is not only one of Glendale's prominent business men but also a specialist in dahlia raising, as was evinced yesterday by the beautiful dahlia he presented to the Glendale Evening News office force. Mr. Pearson states he spends his spare time cultivating these graceful and colorful flowers, taking great pride in them.

The flower presented to The Evening News yesterday is not only rich in coloring but immense in size, measuring twenty inches in circumference. It is a member of the George Walter variety, one of the three varieties grown in the yard of the Pearson home at 700 North Louise street. It is a gorgeous dahlia in the delicate rose and gold shade, with a deep purple center gradually fading to a delicate pink at the outer edge. The tips of the marvelous, lily-like petals are tinted with a slight gold color.

Oregon Trail Blazer At Point of Death

SEATTLE, Oct. 24.—Ezra Meeker, 93-year-old trail blazer and one of the last survivors of the old West, lies at the point of death here at the home of C. L. Templeton, his family physician.

He was stricken ill just as he was about to leave for Puyallup to take part in the production of a motion picture of an episode in the story of the Oregon trail, over which he traveled as a young man.

In recent years Meeker has been active in demanding recognition of the service of the pioneers who came west over the Oregon trail, and has made a number of trips across the continent for the purpose of placing permanent monuments along the trail and endeavoring to interest congress in making appropriations for the permanent improvement of the highway.

Expressing the date of the month by figures in the United States and Canada is different from the rest of the world, we writing October 1 as 10-1, while they put it 1-10.

Hoosier Governor Defiant As Probe On Affairs Begins

GOV. WARREN T. MCCRAY

As a grand jury probe is ordered at Indianapolis regarding Gov. Warren T. McCray's handling of state funds, the Indiana executive takes a defiant attitude. He has stated emphatically he will not resign and will not discuss the situation with the G. O. P. organization. Notes of the governor, held by many banks, figure in the charges. McCray denies any offenses in the handling of the state funds.

VALLEY NEWS

FRUIT MEN WILL HOLD INSTITUTE

Plan to Organize Growers of Deciduous Varieties to Aid Industry

The second annual deciduous fruit growers' institute, that is to be held at the Van Nuys at 10 a. m. November 1, will have before it a program for the closer unification of the industry and of the men engaged in it, with a view to organizing to place the industry on a more stable and profitable basis.

The example set by the walnut and citrus growers of the state is to be held up to the deciduous fruit growers by the representatives of the Deciduous Fruit Growers' Department of the Farm Bureau and of the Agricultural Extension Service, according to V. F. Blanchard, assistant county agent, who is working to secure strong attendance of the men engaged in this branch of agriculture.

"Such an institute as will be held November 1," says Mr. Blanchard, "will be a good start toward getting growers of deciduous fruits to work together, provided the growers avail themselves of this opportunity and attend in large numbers."

The program will cover every angle of the work, and experts will speak on the principal problems attending deciduous fruit culture, with opportunities for those at the institute to ask questions on any point that needs to be cleared up.

A recent check established that Lankershim boulevard is carrying the heaviest commercial traffic of any highway leading into Los Angeles, while Ventura boulevard enjoys the greatest tourist traffic thereinto.

The words "carrying" and "enjoying" express the relative states of mind of the two sections, for while Lankershim boulevard is in the position of a beast of burden to her commerce and gets little more than a broken back (in the nature of crumbling roads) for her pains, Ventura boulevard has reaped a golden harvest from her tourist traffic, making the greatest development record of any county highway adjacent to Los Angeles.

This situation is leading residents of the San Fernando valley to the conclusion that they have only one real highway, namely, Ventura boulevard.

Realizing at last that lack of adequate highways is holding back the valley, a group of representative business men and agriculturalists met at Van Nuys on Tuesday night to start something. What they started is a new highway association, the proposed route being Leesdale-Seventh street, with a new right-of-way through the Burbank city limits.

The association purposes to raise a promotion fund of several thousand dollars, through sale of memberships, collecting the majority of the levy from frontage members along the route of the proposed highway. A large portion of the owners are understood to have signified willingness to bear the levy.

There were present at the meeting representatives from Lankershim, Van Nuys, Burbank, San Fernando and Owensmouth.

Cub Varsity Eleven Will Play Whittier

Saturday afternoon will see the football team of the Southern branch, University of California, tangling with the fast Whittier eleven, in the first conference game of the year. Although Whittier is going into the game a heavy favorite, perhaps the Cub varsity will be able to spill the dope with their introduction to the south of "Smith's wonder system."

Sending of letters thousands of years ago is mentioned in the Book of Esther in the Bible.

BURBANK

HIGHWAY PAVING PLANS LAUNCHED

Trustees Order Improvement Of Streets Following Comprehensive Plan

Resolutions and ordinances calling for improvement of five Burbank highways are among recent constructive efforts being made by the Board of Trustees of this city.

This meets the challenge heard of late in some quarters that Burbank had been compelled to slow down on street work by reason of the slump in revenue from speeders' fines, in the opinion of city officials.

The roads to be improved are: Main street, to be paved with concrete; Central avenue, to be paved with "Warrentite"; Cypress avenue from San Fernando boulevard to Front street; Verdugo avenue from its junction with Olive avenue to the southern city limits, to join with Third street from Lankershim; and a portion of Scott road.

Burbank is doing more street improvement work at the present time than at any other period in its history," declares Mayor J. C. Crawford. "The only thing interfering with the work is inability to get rock and gravel in sufficient quantities to keep up with the demands."

The idea that this city depends for street work upon its revenue from offending autos is ridiculous. We aim in the enforcement of our speed and traffic laws only for the protection of the general public. The revenue from these fines has never been more than a mere incident in our budget.

"And, as a matter of fact, more money is being collected under the new law than under the old, so it is obvious that the criticism directed against us has been half-cocked and misinformed."

Blue Ribbon Winners

As a pleasing aftermath of the Fall Festival recently held in Burbank, comes announcement of blue ribbon winners as follows: Art—Mrs. Streuber first for one picture and first for lot; Mesdames J. A. Johnson, Grace Lovejoy, F. M. Preston, Stella Rummell and the Misses Thelma, Olive and Mary Gibbs. Needlework—Mesdames Davis, Roach, Sarah Johnson and C. H. Wilson. Canned fruit, jelly and jam—Mrs. A. J. Cosgrove and the John Muir school. Fresh fruit—Mesdames Lena Doremus, Sterling Thrasher and Helen Lovejoy and Raleigh Brown. Cooked food—Mrs. Ed Fischer, sunshine cake; Marion Jones, 11 years old, layer cake; Mrs. C. H. Wilson, doughnuts. Flowers—Mrs. A. W. Reese and Mrs. Grant Roach.

Local Notes

Mrs. L. F. Moore of the Moore dairy is winner of first prize for her exhibit of a Holstein heifer, junior yearling, at the Los Angeles fair held recently at Pomona.

The heifer was recently purchased by Mrs. Moore from the Burbank Dairy Cattle Company.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Chapman and daughter Jean arrived in Burbank last week from St. Paul, Minn., having motored by way of Yellowstone park, following the coast route from Portland. The Chappmans are cousins of Mrs. Ruby Berry and may locate in Burbank. They are stopping for the present at a local hotel.

Burbank enjoyed a visit last week from two prominent members of the national P. E. O. organization, Mrs. Alice H. Scott of Wichita, Kan., and Miss Ruth Brockway, Mrs. Scott, supreme treasurer was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Hammer of Orange Grove avenue, and Miss Brockway, past supreme membership secretary, visited in the home of Mrs. H. A. Story of Angeleno avenue. Both had been in attendance at the national P. E. O. convention at Seattle.

Students Will Stage Dance Round Bonfire

The biggest event of the year is set for the Southern branch of the University of California Thursday evening when the whole student body will turn out for the annual Pajamarino. Today all the freshmen are gathering wood so as to make a huge bonfire which will be encircled in serpentine fashion. The freshman class also will be on guard throughout the whole night so that no other school will burn down the timber until the time set.

It will be recalled last year that the police had to be called out on account of the unsuccessful attempt of students from U. S. C. to burn down the large pile of firewood.

The idea of this Pajamarino is a rally preceding the first football game of the year. The wearing apparel required is the most colorful and gaudy pajamas that can be found.

Mrs. Walter A. Babb is state vice-president of the American Light Brahma club, whose national headquarters are at Bound Brook, N. J. For thirty-two years she has made a specialty of breeding this strain and justly claims distinction as the most successful woman breeder of Light Brahmas in America.

Her poultry yards at her 1610 East Acacia street residence, where she has lived for the past four years, are a model of cleanliness and efficiency. She has at the present time in the neighborhood of 130 birds and is always striving to build up the breed to higher perfection.

Beautiful Birds
Some famous cocks to be found in these yards are Prince Senior, winner of four firsts and four specials; General, Jr., especially fine in color points; Beauty Boy, strong in head and leg points; The Judge, sixteen pounds; Jumbo, Jr., winner of three firsts, seventeen pounds; Dandy Boy, Jr., of fine blood lines; and Billie Boy, especially excellent in plumage.

"No breed in the American standard of perfection enjoys better egg and meat qualities, nor is more widely recognized as a fanciers' fowl," states Mrs. Babb, "than the Light Brahma. Its popularity covers a period of over fifty years, during all of which time it has occupied a prominent place on poultry farms of this country and has been an equal favorite in the back lot."

High Egg Record

"My strain has proven its quality in the showroom, hens of mine having records of 200 to 270 eggs; and I have demonstrated the superior carcass of these birds, breeding them to weigh ten pounds at six months, with mature specimens running as high as seventeen pounds."

Dictator Suspends Bavarian Newspapers

MUNICH, Oct. 24.—Herr von Kahr, director-premier of Bavaria, yesterday ordered all newspapers suppressed that published General von Zekt's proclamation warning the Reichswehr in Bavaria to remain loyal to Berlin. This is open military defiance of the Reich.

The frontier of Bavaria and Saxony bristled with Reichswehr, armed to the teeth and ready for battle.

All relations between the Bavarian Reichswehr and the federal troops in other parts of Germany have been temporarily suspended.

THE FALL TOP COAT

at $25.00 to $95.00

The smart coat of many stripes. We are convinced that top coats here in many of the season's newest stripe effects and colors are quite the smartest modes you can find anywhere. Loose modes, also the tube like silhouette with tie at waist. Made of such soft wool materials as polo, etc., with huge fur collar and cuffs or very plain tailored models to one's choice. Indeed the coat for all occasions.
