DOINGS OF THE DEMOCRACY.

Genl. Jackson declared any man who voted against the treaty of 1823 "traitor to the best interests of his country."—"We are told," said the New-York Tribune, "that the Baltimore Convention, meeting at the hotel of Mr. Wm. W. Miller, passed an extraordinary resolution, to the effect that the South should not be compelled to accept the new Constitution, if it were submitted to them by the North."—John R. Shaw, Esq., of the Democrat, is the author of the article.
