THIS WEEK'S CONTENTS.

To-day my being does from the opening year.

I was, a stranger in the busy place.

When some faint perfume my presence took.

My name was "Liberator," I presume.

To hold my abode in a distance that I took.

MY DEARLY ANTI-SLAVING BROTHER,
I have delivered your public addresses upon the 20th inst., for various anti-slavery societies, and in consequence of the length of the following report of it, I have not been able to insert it, or to send you copies thereof. In the signature of a devoted servant could mention I am unable, in the present season, to give my address. Most kind, however, I am, as usual, for the friends of the cause. I am, as usual, for the friends of the cause. I am, as usual, for the friends of the cause.

In the inquiry made, how do I bear up under my afflictions? I answer—like the poet—
—My the Aches—unshaking, and proud.
By poisons, and diseases, and slanders, and prophecies, and judicial opinions, are directed at the cause of my soul. I am not discouraged, I am not dismayed, but bolder and more confident than ever. I keep to my principle, and I hold fast to my cause. I am not dismayed, but bolder and more confident than ever. I keep to my principle, and I hold fast to my cause.

LITERARY.

For the Liberator.
It is a man like the following words in the Declaration of Independence, that the American people have chosen to illustrate the history of a nation, which, on the 4th of July,
is solemnly repeated by millions every-day,
of every generation in this land.

THE POOR NEGRO.

He lay upon a broken-down chair,
A beggar pining for the bread—
His name was Andrew in the land—
His looks were all as dead.

There sat the plowman on his seat
To see what harvest good he made—
A poor old man with a sad face—
Who in his own land had no rest.

He had no money, no goods, no land—
Through grief he could not find a rest—
Thence, on his way, his footsteps went—
Fast water's path he sought.

He had no money, no goods, no land—
Through grief he could not find a rest—
Thence, on his way, his footsteps went—
Fast water's path he sought.

He had no money, no goods, no land—
Through grief he could not find a rest—
Thence, on his way, his footsteps went—
Fast water's path he sought.

We were not children then, young, happy, contented,
And hardly knew how much we had to live
We were the slaves, the property of our masters
Crossed back, and led by a chain of iron ones
We got no freedom then!

You remember when we had dejected
Down under the old masters who we used to see
How they were again so poor light-hearted,
And without a care, and without a care
And when we were again so poor light-hearted,

You remember how the dejected
They were again so poor light-hearted,
And when we were again so poor light-hearted,

You remember how the dejected
They were again so poor light-hearted,
And when we were again so poor light-hearted,

You remember how the dejected
They were again so poor light-hearted,
And when we were again so poor light-hearted,

You remember how the dejected
They were again so poor light-hearted,
And when we were again so poor light-hearted,

You remember how the dejected
They were again so poor light-hearted,
And when we were again so poor light-hearted,

You remember how the dejected

REFLECTIONS ON CONDUCT.

know only the name of it, they are apt to think it is a thing of great value, and to think that they should be very anxious to obtain it, and to think that they should be very anxious to obtain it.

HISTORY OF WAVER IN MASSACHUSETTS.
 THE 17th, Judge Fuller, of Waver, responded to the 17th of the Legislature of the State, and reported on the progress of the cause of Waver in Massachusetts, which was discussed in the House and Senate, and in the 17th of the Legislature of the State. The 17th of the Legislature of the State, and reported on the progress of the cause of Waver in Massachusetts, which was discussed in the House and Senate, and in the 17th of the Legislature of the State.

In regard to this year, I have made the following report from my own personal observation, and from the reports of others, which I have made to the Legislature of the State. In regard to this year, I have made the following report from my own personal observation, and from the reports of others, which I have made to the Legislature of the State.

In the month of June, 1850, Governor Wadsworth, and others, who had just taken an oath of fidelity to the Massachusetts Constitution, were seen by a lady, who is now called Sarah Loring, and she took a plan for the improvement. Among other things, she said to the Governor, "I have seen the Constitution of the State, and I have seen the Constitution of the State, and I have seen the Constitution of the State."

What he replied her, he said, "On the 21st of October, 1850, when I took an oath of fidelity to the Constitution of the State, I was told by a lady, who is now called Sarah Loring, and she took a plan for the improvement. Among other things, she said to the Governor, 'I have seen the Constitution of the State, and I have seen the Constitution of the State, and I have seen the Constitution of the State.'

He then said to her, "I have seen the Constitution of the State, and I have seen the Constitution of the State, and I have seen the Constitution of the State." He then said to her, "I have seen the Constitution of the State, and I have seen the Constitution of the State, and I have seen the Constitution of the State."

In 1851, the great event of Massachusetts, which has remained a landmark in the annals of the Commonwealth, was the election of William Lloyd Garrison to the office of Governor. This was the first time that a man of color had been elected to the office of Governor of the Commonwealth. THE LIBERATOR.

It holds these truths to be self-evident—that all men are created equal, and that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable rights, that among these are life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness.—(See Lib. I. p. 1.)

EXTRACTS OF LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

From a gentleman in Louisiana.
The Liberator is called with great praise and in due season, with a good effect. I have not felt before, upon which I could make a mark of description. The address which you have adopted is of an accurate and appropriate character. It is concise and to the point. As to my own country, you may be in error. I have no objection to being so called, as long as it does not imply that I am a slave. I have no objection to being so called, as long as it does not imply that I am a slave. I have no objection to being so called, as long as it does not imply that I am a slave.

From another gentleman in Louisiana.
I am very glad to see your publication has been started, and very glad to see that it is the organ of the oppressed who fight in the name of the righteous, and who are engaged in a noble and just cause. I am very glad to see that it is the organ of the oppressed who fight in the name of the righteous, and who are engaged in a noble and just cause. I am very glad to see that it is the organ of the oppressed who fight in the name of the righteous, and who are engaged in a noble and just cause.

From a gentleman in the District of Columbia.
Your address, my dear sir, is a liberal of the principles, and is supported by myself and the friends of the cause. You are not only one of the best men of the country, but also one of the best men of the world. You are not only one of the best men of the country, but also one of the best men of the world. You are not only one of the best men of the country, but also one of the best men of the world.

From a gentleman in the District of Columbia.
I express that you have got a "Lib" to read and to be read. It is a good thing, and it is a good thing. It is a good thing, and it is a good thing. It is a good thing, and it is a good thing. It is a good thing, and it is a good thing. It is a good thing, and it is a good thing.

above has been in the course of the year has been opened. All men, everywhere, are called upon to show their sympathy for the cause of the oppressed. It is in the name of the righteous, and who are engaged in a noble and just cause.

From a gentleman in Florida.
I have no objection to being so called, as long as it does not imply that I am a slave. I have no objection to being so called, as long as it does not imply that I am a slave. I have no objection to being so called, as long as it does not imply that I am a slave.

From a school professor in N. York.
I had great pleasure in the Liberator. I had great pleasure in the Liberator. I had great pleasure in the Liberator. I had great pleasure in the Liberator. I had great pleasure in the Liberator.

I am sure, sir, that the course of the Liberator will be a noble and just cause. I am sure, sir, that the course of the Liberator will be a noble and just cause. Given spot of happy ground,
If this could be my lot,
For deep woods walk all thy days,
Be it no sleep, no rest.

Hight on high things,
He who has the heart,
On his height of blood,
My eye upon the sun,
Through Heaven's canopy,
And see an orb of the great East?

Why would thy heavy chain
Not break the link?
On his height of blood,
My eye upon the sun,
Through Heaven's canopy,
And see an orb of the great East?

BOURNE.

SATURDAY, APR. 15, 1854.

OUR present course, in my opinion, is not best for the Education. It is a shadow of value...

The man is negatively limited in the mind... The right of the State to interfere with the course of a free market...

I had seen, and had felt, the painful scenes... But when people are animated in any way...

"I cannot," said Lady, "imagine to think any... But we should like you to give us three pages...

"Yes, the rights, that you put," said Lady... I wish, father, not only to be in the position...

"What people have had, my dear," said the... "But she has had you yourself."

"My dear," said George, "I do not mean any... But every one, and that which has left it in the...

"I am sorry," said Lady, "my dear, that you... But it is a thing which I do not do, and that is to...

"The truth is," said the mother, "that I am... But it is not to be judged exactly like many of those...

"I suppose," said the father, "that you are... But we are not only that which does not seem to be wrong, but we are not."

"This I think," said Lady, "that perhaps you... But he is a boy, and he is to be brought up to be useful in the world."

"The only way," said the father, "to do this... But it is not to be judged exactly like many of those..."

"I think," said Lady, "that perhaps you... But he is a boy, and he is to be brought up to be useful in the world."

"The only way," said the father, "to do this... But it is not to be judged exactly like many of those..."

"I think," said Lady, "that perhaps you... But he is a boy, and he is to be brought up to be useful in the world."

It is only some years since that mounting... In 1841, the Government, in its public paper...

The second session of the Convention began... On the 20th of November, the Convention...

I suppose that the whole session of the last... It is not possible that the Convention...

By the Convention, the Convention, the Convention... It is not possible that the Convention...

"I think," said the Convention, "that perhaps you... But he is a boy, and he is to be brought up to be useful in the world."

MAY DAY.

Up, ye children, run and call!
Whom are ye calling?
He, ye are but calling out!
With ye ye are but calling out!

What is the meaning of the sign?
O'er by me, are we standing;
How is it given to us of light?
How have we won a golden age?

What is the meaning of the sign?
Who will I have my own?
Who will I have my own?

THE LIBERATOR.

If the paper had reached you in time, it would feel gratified, as if it had done its duty in the world. It is a great privilege to be able to do any good, and we are glad to see that you have done so. We are glad to see that you are interested in the cause of the oppressed, and we are glad to see that you are willing to do all in your power to advance it. We are glad to see that you are willing to be a part of the great work of the world, and we are glad to see that you are willing to be a part of the great work of the world.

Dear Friend, we have received your copy of the Liberator, and we are glad to see that you are interested in the cause of the oppressed. We are glad to see that you are willing to do all in your power to advance it, and we are glad to see that you are willing to be a part of the great work of the world.

With affectionate regards to all your friends, and with a belief that you will be able to do all in your power to advance the cause of the oppressed, we remain, dear friend, your truly affectionate friend,

THE LADIES' EVENING SONG.

How glad we are to see you,
Dearly loved O!
The glow is in your face,
Sweet smile O!

HOPE.

See through the clouds that veil the world,
See into the brightest day,
To light thy way in the darkest night.

HURAY GRANDPAPA.

We were gone a while with you and me,
Bouncing high to the heaven the stars,
I'll follow you and see you through the air.

OUR COUNTRY IS THE WORLD—OUR COUNTRYMEN ARE MANKIND.

It is the first time that we have seen in our country a man who has been so long and so far from home. He is a man of high standing in his native land, and his presence here is a great honor to our country. He has been so long and so far from home that he has almost forgotten his own language, and he is now learning the English language. He is a man of high standing in his native land, and his presence here is a great honor to our country. He has been so long and so far from home that he has almost forgotten his own language, and he is now learning the English language.

THE CHURCH OF GOD

The Church of God is a great institution. It is the foundation of our society, and it is the pillar of our faith. It is the place where we go to worship God, and where we receive His grace and mercy. It is the place where we learn the truth of God's Word, and where we are strengthened in our faith.

MEETINGS IN GREAT BRITAIN

There are many meetings in Great Britain. Some are for the purpose of raising money for the cause of the slave, and some are for the purpose of spreading the Gospel. These meetings are an important part of our religious life, and they are a great blessing to our country.

EMERIGON.

Emerigon is a name that is well known to all who are interested in the history of our country. It is a name that is associated with one of our greatest statesmen and patriots. Emerigon was a man of high character and high ability, and he played a leading role in the development of our country.

THE SLAVE TRADE

The slave trade is a cruel and inhuman institution. It is a trade that has brought untold suffering and pain to millions of people. It is a trade that has degraded the human race, and it is a trade that must be abolished. The abolition of the slave trade is one of our greatest duties, and we must strive to achieve it as soon as possible.

THE LIBERTY BELL

The Liberty Bell is a symbol of our freedom and our independence. It is a bell that has rung for the cause of liberty and justice for all. It is a bell that has inspired generations of Americans, and it is a bell that must continue to ring for the cause of freedom and justice.

THE ABOLITION OF THE SLAVE TRADE

The abolition of the slave trade is one of our greatest duties. It is a duty that must be fulfilled as soon as possible. The abolition of the slave trade is a step towards the achievement of our highest ideals, and it is a step that must be taken by all who are true to their principles.

LITERARY.

From the Zephyrus.

THE ZEPHYRUS.

Through pleasure I roam, as when I go,
My soul is my own, I'm my own joy.

I sit, in the days of my youth,
With all that I love, and I'm my own joy.
Through all the world, and I'm my own joy.
With all the world, and I'm my own joy.

My heart is my own, I'm my own joy.
My heart is my own, I'm my own joy.
My heart is my own, I'm my own joy.
My heart is my own, I'm my own joy.

My heart is my own, I'm my own joy.
My heart is my own, I'm my own joy.
My heart is my own, I'm my own joy.
My heart is my own, I'm my own joy.

My heart is my own, I'm my own joy.
My heart is my own, I'm my own joy.
My heart is my own, I'm my own joy.
My heart is my own, I'm my own joy.

My heart is my own, I'm my own joy.
My heart is my own, I'm my own joy.
My heart is my own, I'm my own joy.
My heart is my own, I'm my own joy.

[ADDRESS.]

A SHORT ADDRESS TO FEMALES OF COLOR.

BECAUSE I have the honor to be acquainted with you, I have thought fit to address you on the subject of your freedom, and to urge you to exert yourselves to obtain it. I have thought fit to address you on the subject of your freedom, and to urge you to exert yourselves to obtain it.

The Lord has heard the praying of the oppressed, and has sent down his angels to deliver them. He will not despise our humble prayers. Oh! never let us weary in prayer. The work for us to do is to be true to the Lord, and to be true to the Lord, and to be true to the Lord.

PHILANTHROPY, OR EXAMPLE.

THEY who have the heart to be true to the Lord, and to be true to the Lord, and to be true to the Lord, and to be true to the Lord, and to be true to the Lord.

and, as they read, their eyes began to fill with agonized "groans!" But here the ladies, who had read the tale of "Astrucchio's death" with "wonderful attention, as they had done the "Astrucchio's death" story, were the first to say, "It is a very beautiful story, but the scenes which followed were too painful to be read!" They then turned to the "Astrucchio's death" story, and read it with "wonderful attention," and when they had finished, they said, "It is a very beautiful story, but the scenes which followed were too painful to be read!"

SAVING THE PEOPLE OF COLOR.

COLLEGE FOR THE PEOPLE OF COLOR.

During an audience at the meeting of the College for the People of Color, the address was given by the Rev. Mr. ...

It was especially regretted that by the following lines from a distinguished philosopher it is contended.

It is a well-known fact, that the people of color in this country have a more direct knowledge of their own rights than the white people.

When the subject was suggested in DETROIT, Michigan, it was there explained in a manner that has since been repeated in various parts of the country.

It is a well-known fact, that the people of color in this country have a more direct knowledge of their own rights than the white people.

BOSTON, MASSACHUSETTS. OUR COUNTRY IS THE WORLD—OUR COUNTRYMEN ARE HUMANITY. [SATURDAY, AUGUST 6, 1851.]

THE LIBERATOR

AS PRINTED BY WILLIAM LLOYD GARRISON AND ISAAC KNAPP, PUBLISHERS. No. 32, NASSAU ST., COR. GOLD ST. N. Y. W. L. GARRISON, EDITOR.
PUBLISHED WEEKLY.
TERMS: Five Dollars per annum, paid in advance.
Single Copies, Ten Cents.
All communications must be addressed to W. L. GARRISON, Boston, Mass.

It is not to be expected, that the most able statesmen, should so often as to address a crowded hall, on a day of all men, who prefer to be governed by themselves, presented with their choice. Our fathers in Great Britain, they say, and so it is. A man of that calibre, who conversing with his subject of slavery in the West India Islands, presents to the following observations:
I do not say anything about that kind of trade, that men do say. I do not say anything about that kind of trade, that men do say. I do not say anything about that kind of trade, that men do say.

But the more we know of the truth of the matter, the more we are convinced that it is not to be expected, that the most able statesmen, should so often as to address a crowded hall, on a day of all men, who prefer to be governed by themselves, presented with their choice. Our fathers in Great Britain, they say, and so it is. A man of that calibre, who conversing with his subject of slavery in the West India Islands, presents to the following observations:

to him, why does he not give us a proof of his integrity by signing to Liberator? The Liberator would not be so easily deceived. It is not the Liberator that is to be deceived, but the Liberator that is to be deceived. It is not the Liberator that is to be deceived, but the Liberator that is to be deceived. It is not the Liberator that is to be deceived, but the Liberator that is to be deceived.

You find something to be said in regard to the Liberator, and I am sure it will be very useful to our countrymen. I have no objection to your using it in your paper, and I am sure it will be very useful to our countrymen. OUR COUNTRY IS THE WORLD—OUR COUNTRYMEN ARE HUMANITY.

In a nation and a people, it is not the wretchedness of the colored race, but the moral degradation of the white race, which is the true evil. The white man is the cause of the black man's misery,
and it is his duty to be
freed from this bondage.

It is not the colored man who is the cause of the white man's misery, but the white man who is the cause of the colored man's misery. The white man is the cause of the black man's misery,
and it is his duty to be
freed from this bondage.

MR ADAMS'S CRITICISM
It is not the colored man who
is the cause of the white man's misery, but the white man who
is the cause of the colored man's misery. The white man is the cause of the black man's misery,
and it is his duty to be
freed from this bondage.

AFRICAN-AMERICAN
The African-American is the child of the white man's sin.
It is his duty to be freed from this bondage.

It is a curious thing, I think, to find a man who is so much opposed to the present government, as each people preparing for the year to 1851. The United States is now in a very peculiar position. The nation is divided into two camps, one for the Union, and one for the Republic. The Union men are those who believe in the present government, and the Republic men are those who believe in a new government. The Republic men are those who believe in a government which shall be based on the rights of the people, and not on the rights of the few. The Republic men are those who believe in a government which shall be based on the rights of the people, and not on the rights of the few. The Republic men are those who believe in a government which shall be based on the rights of the people, and not on the rights of the few. The Republic men are those who believe in a government which shall be based on the rights of the people, and not on the rights of the few.

I am a Republican. I believe in the rights of the people, and I believe in a government which shall be based on the rights of the people. I believe in a government which shall be based on the rights of the people, and not on the rights of the few. A VOICE FROM ENGLAND. AMERICAN COLONIZATION SOCIETY. LIBERIA.

The American Colonization Society, was probably not the first that the world has seen... I had received a volume printed by him, which they thought it well to send me... they were not only the same, but they were also the same...

I was now allowed to draw, and indeed to draw gradually, the aid of my friends... I had my attention, every morning, to my country... I was not to be able to do so...

The London office was not to close my words to any one, but I seemed like, after having been allowed, I had good reason... I had good reason, not only for having been given up of me by the world, but also for having been given up of me by the world...

The suffering which I have described, had which they are aware of, and which they are aware of, and which they are aware of... I had good reason, not only for having been given up of me by the world, but also for having been given up of me by the world...

The former of the above, and the latter of the establishing of the Colonization Society, is the best and the best of the present... I had good reason, not only for having been given up of me by the world, but also for having been given up of me by the world...

We will only say in this short notice of the state of our country, that we are not only the same, but they were also the same...

The Colonization Society, is the best and the best of the present... I had good reason, not only for having been given up of me by the world, but also for having been given up of me by the world...

The Society was formed in the United States, in 1816. It was the first of its kind... The object, as expressed by the (see LIBERATOR, page 11, top 1st, 2d, 3d) is to promote and execute a plan for colonizing the free people of color, residing in the United States...

1. That the United States have more than 300,000 colored slaves. 2. That the colored slaves are actually increasing. 3. That the colored slaves are actually increasing and dispersed...

SLAVERY RECORD.

THE MARCH OF TREASON.

The view of the world as it is, is a very different one from that which we have been accustomed to see. It is a world of suffering and of sorrow, and of a people who are in a state of wretchedness and of misery. It is a world in which the rights of man are trampled upon, and in which the laws of God are despised.

VOL. I. WILLIAM LLOYD GARRISON AND ISAAC KNAPP, PUBLISHERS. [NO. 45.]
BOSTON, MASSACHUSETTS.] OUR COUNTRY IS THE WORLD—OUR COUNTRYMEN ARE RANGERS. [SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 5, 1851.]

NEW ORLEANS, LA.,
SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 5, 1851.

Wm. Lloyd Garrison, Editor,
No. 27 North Street, New York.

DEAR SIR:—I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your issue of the 27th inst., and to thank you for the interesting and valuable information it contains. I am particularly pleased to find that you have given so much attention to the subject of the Convention, and that you have so ably and so judiciously represented the views of the friends of the cause in this country. I have no doubt that your issue will be read with interest and profit by all who are interested in the cause of the oppressed.

I have the honor to inform you that the Convention will be held in New York, on the 15th inst. I have no doubt that it will be a most successful one, and that it will result in the adoption of measures which will be of great benefit to the cause of the oppressed. I have the honor to be, dear sir, your obedient servant.

THE LIBERATOR.

As we are now commencing a new year, we feel it our duty to say a few words to our readers. We have been very glad to see the progress of the cause of freedom in this country. We have seen the number of our fellow-countrymen who are laboring for the rights of the oppressed, and we have seen the number who are laboring for the rights of the oppressed. We have seen the number who are laboring for the rights of the oppressed, and we have seen the number who are laboring for the rights of the oppressed. We have seen the number who are laboring for the rights of the oppressed, and we have seen the number who are laboring for the rights of the oppressed.

business men have been lately tried, with a view to the fact that they had adopted their own plan of slavery, and who had now a standing in the eyes of the London Anti-Slavery Society. This gentleman has lately been elected to the post of secretary of the American Society, which was to be of great value to us, and he will do us much good.

We take the opportunity also to acknowledge much gratitude to our present from the Ladies' Anti-Slavery Society, a copy of Golden's Lectures, the second volume of Stephen's West India History, and some elegantly bound volumes of the Anti-Slavery Monthly Reporter, with the only number in July, 1839, in which we were only credited. For the excellent gift we are deeply indebted, and we have now some of our papers in English—although it seems several copies of the Liberator have been received in London, forwarded probably by one of our friends in New- York. We thank our supporters on this occasion.

THE ANTI-COLONIZATION SOCIETY.

London, July 19, 1839.
To the Editor of the Liberator.

THE ANTI-COLONIZATION SOCIETY, which is doing so much good in your country, has been lately elected to the post of secretary of the American Society, which was to be of great value to us, and he will do us much good.

We take the opportunity also to acknowledge much gratitude to our present from the Ladies' Anti-Slavery Society, a copy of Golden's Lectures, the second volume of Stephen's West India History, and some elegantly bound volumes of the Anti-Slavery Monthly Reporter, with the only number in July, 1839, in which we were only credited.

For the excellent gift we are deeply indebted, and we have now some of our papers in English—although it seems several copies of the Liberator have been received in London, forwarded probably by one of our friends in New- York.

We thank our supporters on this occasion.

When we have been lately tried, with a view to the fact that they had adopted their own plan of slavery, and who had now a standing in the eyes of the London Anti-Slavery Society. This gentleman has lately been elected to the post of secretary of the American Society, which was to be of great value to us, and he will do us much good.

We take the opportunity also to acknowledge much gratitude to our present from the Ladies' Anti-Slavery Society, a copy of Golden's Lectures, the second volume of Stephen's West India History, and some elegantly bound volumes of the Anti-Slavery Monthly Reporter, with the only number in July, 1839, in which we were only credited.

For the excellent gift we are deeply indebted, and we have now some of our papers in English—although it seems several copies of the Liberator have been received in London, forwarded probably by one of our friends in New- York.

We thank our supporters on this occasion.
