Wrangle Government Being Discussed by Britain and France

Unofficial Report Says Lloyd George Will Meet Millerand Sunday As Result of Recognition of South Russian Government By the French Government.

London, Aug. 12.—It was unofficially reported to-day that Premier Lloyd George and Earl Curzon, Secretary for Foreign Affairs, plan to meet Premier Millerand at Boulogne Sunday to discuss the situation arising from the recognition of General Wrangel.

London, Aug. 12.—(Associated Press)—Great Britain has been officially notified of the recognition by France of the Government of General Baron Wrangel as the de facto Government of South Russia and the question is being discussed between the two Governments.

Something akin to consternation is evidenced by the evening newspapers here over the French action, which is characterized as contrary to British ideas and a menace to Entente relations.

In the meanwhile, King George, who was to leave for Scotland tomorrow, has postponed his trip, owing to the situation.

In Friendly Spirit. Paris, Aug. 12.—Great Britain has communicated officially with France with regard to the differences between the Governments, it developed from a statement made by the semi-official Havas Agency to-day. It says:

"The British Charge d'Affaires this morning brought to the general secretary of the Ministry of the Government Affairs communication from the British Government. From the conversation engaged in between the Charge and the Ambassador (secretary of the French Foreign Office) it developed that both Governments are examining in the most friendly spirit the divergences in views between them, but which will not prevent them from continuing their friendly collaboration."

Premier Millerand, who arrived at Montdidier for luncheon to-day, was immediately informed of the conversation.

A report of the findings of the doctor will be sent to the Department of Justice at Ottawa, it is stated. It is said that a similar procedure took place previous to the release of John Farnell on August 7. R. B. Russell, it is stated, has asked for a parole.

QUAKE RECORDED

IN MEXICO CITY

Tremors Yesterday Described As Violent; Recorded by Victoria Seismograph

Mexico City, Aug. 11.—Violent earthquake tremors which lasted for thirty-three minutes were detected by the seismograph at the Geological Observatory here to-day. Experts declared the centre of the disturbance was 2,200 miles distant. The vibrations were repeated thirty-five minutes later, presumably circling the globe, according to scientists.

At 12:46 p. m. yesterday the seismograph at the Victoria Meteorological Observatory recorded a disturbance. The variation of the needle was small, and Mr. Denison, Director of the Observatory, expresses the opinion that what was recorded was the maximum wave of the disturbance recorded in Mexico City.

At 11 p. m. the instrument made an even smaller record. It was much too small and indistinct to convey much to the observer. Mr. Denison commented on the absence of news that the seismograph at the Georgetown Observatory, near Washington, D. C., had recorded a pronounced shock. Almost invariably when an earthquake of large proportions occurs the Georgetown instrument gives a fine record of it. In view of this it may be that the use of the descriptive word "violent" in the Mexico City dispatch is an exaggeration.

Anglican Conference Is For Re-Union of Churches

London, Aug. 12.—Re-union of churches is urged in an appeal to "all Christian people," framed by bishops of the Anglican Church who attended the recent conference at Lambeth, which was made public to-day in connection with a statement by the Archbishop of Canterbury.

The appeal is "directed to the Orthodox Churches of the East and to the great Roman Communion of the West, no less than to the Free Churches which have grown to maturity among the Anglo-Saxon races. Its scope is so wide that there can be no doubt that the large number of the bishops who issued it had in mind those of our kith and kin in the great Presbyterian, Methodist, Baptist and Congregationalist communities, with whom, although they are separated from the church, the Anglican Communion has so much in common."

The appeal is "directed to the Orthodox Churches of the East and to the great Roman Communion of the West, no less than to the Free Churches which have grown to maturity among the Anglo-Saxon races. Its scope is so wide that there can be no doubt that the large number of the bishops who issued it had in mind those of our kith and kin in the great Presbyterian, Methodist, Baptist and Congregationalist communities, with whom, although they are separated from the church, the Anglican Communion has so much in common."

Describing the plan of union, the statement says:

"The vision embodied here is new, even revolutionary. The plans of re-union whereby the Anglican Church might hope to absorb other communions were frankly abandoned. What is needed is a new structure, simple enough to begin at once, but large enough to include all."

Real Union. The bishops summoned all the Christians to look, not for an extended Anglican Church, but for a truly Catholic Church of the future, to which every church should bring its own contribution of faith and organs.

No love federation of independent churches is contemplated, but rather a real organic unity based on fundamentals, in which there should be ample room for groups with their own outlook and for methods of action as John Wesley originally contemplated.

Ministry. The appeal points out universal ministry as the chief need, and claims that an episcopate is the one means for providing such a ministry.

Divisions among Christian peoples are deplored in the appeal. They are attributed to self-interest and to the failure of the church to confess frankly "our own share in the guilt."

Bible and Creeds. The bishops voice their belief that visible unity of the church will be found to involve acceptance of the Bible and of the Nicene and Apostles' Creeds, the sacraments of baptism and communion, and "a ministry possessing not only the inward calling of spirit, but also the communion of Christ and the authority of the whole body."

An episcopate, the statement continues, is the best method for maintaining the unity and continuity of the church.

New Endeavor. It concludes: "We do not ask that any one communion give its consent to be absorbed in another, but do ask that there be a new and great endeavor to recover, and to manifest to the world the unity of the body of Christ, for which He prayed."

The Archbishop of Canterbury approved of the message, saying the League of Nations and relations between capital and labor. The results of these discussions will be announced later.

Livestock Men Object To Higher Freight Rates

Ottawa, Aug. 12.—(Canadian Press)—Strong protests against increased freight rates were voiced by representatives of the livestock industry before the Board of Railway Commissioners this morning. G. W. Gurney, of the Eastern Livestock Association, said that livestock prices were controlled by the European market and that if railway rates went up the consumer would have to pay the increase. He dealt with the troubles of the farmers and livestock breeders in obtaining labor, declaring that the railway employee with his eight-hour day was working about half as long as the farmer and his wife.

J. L. Waters, representing the Western Canada Livestock Association, expressed the opinion that this was a bad time for increasing freight rates on food. Prices for food were beginning to go down, but a freight increase would tend to stop this fall.

J. L. Anderson, representing western livestock exchanges, said a freight increase would practically destroy the Winnipeg market and drive the livestock business out of the prairies. Already the industry had suffered heavy loss due to the hard winters and drought.

Representatives of the lumbering and crushed stone industries also appeared before the Board. Frank Hawkins, secretary of the Canadian Lumbermen's Association, advised the Board to exercise great care in granting the increase. The Association, he said, was not opposed to some freight increases at the present time, but urged that only those which were absolutely necessary should be made.

At the opening of the afternoon session the Board adjourned the rates hearing until Wednesday morning next, and took up the hearing of the British Columbia Electric Railway Company's application for approval of an increased tariff of compensation fares between points on the Central Park Line between Vancouver and New Westminster.

PONZI NOW IN HANDS OF POLICE

Boston, Aug. 12.—Charles Ponzi, whose spectacular career as an investment banker was cut short by the state authorities to-day, surrendered to the United States marshal and was placed under arrest. He was charged with having used the mails to defraud.

With state action against him expected, the young Italian financier turned a trick by putting himself in the custody of the Federal authorities at the moment that the state police judge to issue a warrant for his arrest. Ponzi was alive to what was impending and, leaving his Lexington home early to-day, was expected to the office of the marshal and asked to be taken into custody. A warrant immediately was served. His arraignment before Judge Joseph C. Allen, guilty and was held in bail for $25,000 for a hearing August 19. He said he would furnish the surety.

Larceny. The surrender of Ponzi did not deter the state authorities from their purpose to obtain his arrest. It was said that their charge would be larceny.

The ramifications of Ponzi's banking connections shared in the public interest the fate of himself and his company, the Securities Exchange Bank Commission, Joseph C. Allen, who yesterday closed the Hanover Trust Company, alleging illegal operations in connection with Ponzi's affairs, this afternoon issued a statement declaring that the capital of the Trust Company was not only impaired, but in his opinion probably wiped out.

Over $7,000,000. Federal Auditor Edwin L. Pride stated to-day that Ponzi's liabilities were upward of $7,000,000. Ponzi claimed assets of $7,000,000.

An Earlier Dispatch. Boston, Mass., Aug. 12.—Charles Ponzi halted in the midst of his sensational financial career to-day to rest from the nervous strain caused by events of the last few days. The man whose "fifty per cent. in forty-five days" investment proposition has been under investigation and whose principal known depositor, the Hanover Trust Company, was closed yesterday, retired to his home at Lexington and denied himself to callers.

"My nerves can't last forever," Ponzi said. "I've got to rest. I am going to keep away from people."

Guards were posted around Ponzi's home to insure that people kept away.

Ponzi, who yesterday admitted he had served terms of imprisonment in Montreal and Atlanta, continued to assert that he was solvent and that he could pay all notes outstanding against him.

ARELIEFF HELD AND BASSOFF HELD

Lone Sentinel Train Bandit Still at Large May Be Caught

Bassoff Is Behind Bars in Lethbridge Now Following Capture

Lethbridge, Aug. 12.—Bandit Bassoff to-day is behind bars of a cell in the Alberta Provincial Police headquarters in Lethbridge.

Bassoff stated to the police during an examination at the third of the Sentinel train bandits, of whom no trace has been found since a week ago Wednesday night at Frank was in hiding in Coleman, headquarters of the police directing the hunt for him, and there are bright hopes that to-day will close the chase with the capture of the third and last man, closing another page in the history of the most cold-blooded series of crimes ever perpetrated in Southern Alberta.

At Lethbridge. Bassoff was brought here by motor car from Pincher City last night by Inspector Nicholson, of the Alberta force following his dramatic capture at 11 o'clock Wednesday evening by C. P. R. Constables Glover and Townier, assisted by members of the crew of a pusher working out of Burmis on the Crow's Nest subdivision. His preliminary hearing will be held in Lethbridge, according to present intention, and witnesses will be brought from Bellevue for that purpose.

Identified. Constable Frewin, of the Alberta police, who opened the battle with Akroff, the dead bandit, last Saturday afternoon at Bellevue, is now in the city and has identified the bandit brought in during the night as Bassoff, the man who was with Akroff at the time of the gun fight.

Admitted Identity. A Lethbridge Herald reporter succeeded in reaching Pincher City Wednesday night along with P. R. police inspectors from Frank and was present at the preliminary questioning of Bassoff in the station there. Bassoff admitted that he is the man you are after," but would make no further confession. He would not confess that he had visited the Holloway ranch at Frank on Monday morning in search of food. He would tell little of his actual movements except that he had gone down the hill-out-of-Bellevue on Saturday afternoon, over the slide and on to the Old Man River and that he had been traveling ever since. He had taken the back trails until he came near Covey on Wednesday evening—where he had come on to the C. P. R. right way. This proved his undoing.

Two Guns. When arrested Bassoff had his two guns which he used with such deadly effect last Saturday. One was empty. The other contained seven shells in the chambers. He had his passport and exemption papers, both bearing the name of Thomas Bassoff. And he carried in the calf of his right leg the bullet which had crippled him so that a quick getaway was impossible. He had a knife in his hand shape. He declared he had not eaten for four days. He was (Continued on page 4.)

As the fighting front draws nearer Warsaw squads of citizens are drilling in many parts of the city. As the odd looking groups pass through the streets, many boys in knickerbockers, elderly men and well-to-do merchants are to be seen side by side with the more usual type of fighting man.

Newspaper accounts declare that the spirit of the people is to defend Warsaw, repel the invader and not to count the cost in blood. The Government, while it will not concede that a date has been set for evacuation, is gradually moving away the important state documents.

Information to Washington. Washington, Aug. 12.—Polish forces attending Warsaw are outnumbered about two and a half to one. ALLIES AND STATES AND THE BIG WAR

Toronto, Aug. 12.—"We had planned to go through the war without the United States, and could have done it," declared Robert Donald, formerly editor of The London Chronicle, in the course of an address before the members of the Empire Club here yesterday afternoon.

"The United States, at the time of the armistice," said Mr. Donald, "had a rifle strength of 322,000 in France, though 2,000,000 were overseas, most of them brought in British ships. They were not in the fighting force, but in three months they would have been, and it was their presence that was a determining factor in bringing about the armistice."

SOVIET ALLEGATION.

Moscow, Aug. 11.—Vessels bringing Russian prisoners of war from France arrived at Odessa from Constantinople on August 1. It is said that in the cargoes were aeroplanes and munitions, evidently designed for General Wrangel, who is leading an offensive against the Soviet Government in the Crimean region.

URGES REMOVAL OF CATTLE EMBARGO

Ontario Minister of Agriculture Wants Britain to Treat Canada Differently

Geuph, Ont., Aug. 12.—A challenge to the sincerity of the British Government in maintaining the embargo placed many years ago on the importation of Canadian cattle on account of disease was thrown down by Hon. Manning Doherty, Minister of Agriculture of Ontario, last night at the close of lengthy speech-making following a dinner given to the Imperial Press Conference delegates by the Ontario Agricultural College. Mr. Doherty pointed out that the suspicion of pneumonia in Canadian cattle had been long since wiped out and the health of Canadian cattle proved. The British Government had promised that the embargo on its importation into the British Isles would be removed at the end of the war, when space would be available on trans-Atlantic steamships. The fact that the embargo was still maintained suggested a measure of protection for British cattle growers. He asked that the protection be afforded the British cattle dealer in the shape of a tariff and the slur on the quality of Canadian cattle removed. He also asked that British capital be invested in Canadian farm lands. The subsidy of $40,000,000 extended to wheat growing activities in Great Britain would be better occupied in an investment in Canadian lands and developed for the purpose of promoting agriculture here.

FEWER EMPLOYEES OF CITY OF VIENNA

Big Deficit in City Finances; Civic Staffs Must Be Reduced

London, Aug. 12.—A dispatch from Vienna says the deficit of that city is estimated at 1,200,000 crowns this year. All sources of municipal taxation have been tried to the breaking point and now the city government plans to cut down the civil list. Younger employees able to get other work will go first and the pruning will go on through all departments. It has been found that for 190,000 children in the primary grade of the public schools there are 19,000 teachers and many of these must go. In 1913 the Vienna city budget was 27,400,000 crowns. For the current year it is placed at 2,800,000,000 crowns. A loan of $3,000,000 marks by Germany during the war represents part of this. On present crown mark exchange this means a loss of 250,000,000 crowns.

Los Angeles, Aug. 12.—Anne Proter, colored, officially recorded by the census-takers here as 115 years old, has just received a visit from E. M. McCown, of Darlington, S. C., grandson of "Marse George" McCown, whose "mammy" she was in the days of slavery. The woman said "when the stars fell," which was in 1832, "Marse George" told her to remember she was twenty-nine years old. "I count from then," she said. "Marse George promised me my freedom on my next birthday, but he was drowned before it came."

PREMIER MEIGHEN SPEAKS IN ONTARIO

Addresses Gathering at Stirling, West Hastings; Upholds Tariff System

Refers to Present Unsettled Conditions in World; a Large Audience

Stirling, Ont., Aug. 12.—Condemnation of the National Progressive Party and the Liberal Opposition, pronouncement in favor of the continuance in force by Canada of its present fiscal system, and praise for the war and general record of the Union Government, characterized a speech by Hon. Arthur Meighen at Stirling Village, West Hastings, yesterday. It was from first to last a speech militant, the Prime Minister having evidently decided to throw down the gauntlet to all and sundry opponents in his first pronouncement of governmental policy since assuming the mantle of Government leadership. The present administration in this connection he described as "the direct and legitimate successor of the Government that retired with Sir Robert Borden." Out of the union of parties which formed the Union Government, he declared, had grown the new National Liberal-Conservative party.

"No political party in the world was ever better born or better bred. It was born out of the war, and it is national because its care is the nation," he declared. Defending the present fiscal system, the Prime Minister declared it should be continued both for the maintenance of the industrial life of the nation and the provision of necessary revenues. It was only by making more goods that could be sold in the United States that the value of the Canadian dollar could be maintained on the other side of the border. In support of this contention he quoted a member of a Western Liberal Government as saying: "Put the platform of the farmer into effect and you would immediately reduce the value of the Canadian dollar in the United States to fifty cents."

Australia. Mr. Meighen commended the platform on which the Australian Government was elected, and which declares for the "protection of industries born during the war, the encouragement of others that are desirable, and the extension of existing ones. He quoted the platform of the Labor Party of the Commonwealth in its support of adequate protection, and declared that the first principle of the tariff was the adoption of any policy approaching free trade would be the laboring classes. He denied that the tariff had been oppressive to the agricultural interests of Canada. "The tariff never has been oppressive to agriculture under any Government, and it never will be so long as the people who would be determining the tariff policy of Canada," the Prime Minister asserted.

As for the third party in Parliament, no member of that party has ever taken the trouble to move the farmers' platform by way of a resolution. "I have challenged them to do it, but never a man of them got up," he said. His Censure. The Prime Minister was more inclined to censure those who, he said, professed to be in favor of a policy of free trade for party advantage, than the people who really believed a cure for all our ills was to be found in the adoption of that policy. In a reference obviously aimed at the Liberal Opposition in Parliament, he characterized such advocates of free trade as humbugs. The trouble was that in the event of the Government being defeated, these who would go the farthest in advocacy of free trade would be in absolute control of the situation.

Closing his reference to the tariff, the Prime Minister said that the Cabinet Tariff Commission, which would commence its labors in September, would thoroughly inquire into the question to determine what was absolutely necessary to secure the ends aimed at by the Government, and the chief of these were: To get the Government to carry on the work of the Government, and to pay the debts, and to give Canadian industries just enough advantage in the Canadian market as will enable them to expand and to keep Canadian workmen in Canada. Desires Unity. In a peroration, the Prime Minister made a plea for the adoption of sane counsels in the conduct of the affairs of the nation. After painting a dark picture of conditions in many European countries, he said: "I stand for unity in Canada, for solidarity of conditions and freedom of enterprise within our borders. The lesson for Canada and the British Empire is to avoid the pitfalls which have sunk into oblivion other nations and of those that are writing in chaos and anarchy. I will strive with all my power for national unity, embracing all races, all languages and creeds. I will fight with all my energy for national solidarity for moderation of thought and action; for orderly progress; for the maintenance of law and order, and for the policies which have brought us where we stand."

Large Audience. At the gathering, known as Porter's picnic, at which Mr. Meighen outlined the policy of his Government as generally indicated above, several thousand persons, the majority farmers from Hastings and adjoining counties, were in attendance. "I welcome," said the Prime Minister, in opening his address, the opportunity of addressing this great gathering of my fellow citizens. "It would be hard to imagine an audience more representative of Canadian life. Men and women are here in about equal numbers, and now of equal electoral power. Men and women are here in hundreds and thousands from every walk of life. Laborers from our towns and our farms, merchants and salaried men, manufacturers and transport officials and the credit system of the world, are some of them, too. But the largest body are the men and women of the farm. I hope my words, if they have any value, will have equal interest for all. The intention. But if they are specially directed to any, it will be those whose life work is agriculture. They are in the majority in this meeting. They are in the majority in Canada, and I hope will continue to be so.

"Sir Robert Borden, exhausted and broken with twenty-four years of public service, has laid down the mind of every sincere and intelligent Canadian when I say that he gave this Dominion an example of great devotion. I believe I agree with the vast majority, including many who honestly differed from some articles of his policy, when I say that he gave us as well as an example of great capacity. It is one of the penalties of fame that the best words cannot be spoken and the best estimate made while the subject under review still lives, but I am confident history will do early justice to our late Premier and place his name close to the front among the servants of democracy in this tried and beloved generation."

Unsettled Conditions. Stirling, Ont., Aug. 12.—In the course of his speech at a picnic here yesterday, Premier Arthur Meighen referred to the unsettled conditions in the world to-day. "The attitude of the mind is unreasonably critical and censorious," he said. "Nothing that a Government can or will do is satisfactory. The people in the towns grumble at the high prices of farm produce. The farmers grumble at the high prices they have to pay for products of the town. The ordinary business man is complaining of the burden of taxation. Federal, Provincial and Municipal. In the midst of it all the Red-

"Last Fall I had the flu and it left me in a very weak and run down condition with no appetite at all and such a weak stomach that even the smell of cooking made me sick. I was awfully nervous and night after night I couldn't sleep to do any good. I would get up in the mornings tired and worn out and was so short of breath that a half hour's job would tire me as much as a whole day's work used to. In fact I finally had to give up a good job. "When I first started on Tanlac I was working for the Goodyear Rubber Co. in Akron, Ohio. I decided that anything that was being talked about so much was at least worth an honest trial. It worked like a charm in my case. I will strive with all my power for national unity, embracing all races, all languages and creeds. I will fight with all my energy for national solidarity for moderation of thought and action; for orderly progress; for the maintenance of law and order, and for the policies which have brought us where we stand."

The above statement was made by A. O. Hunter, 194 W. 7th St., Cincinnati, Ohio, well-known mechanic now in the employ of the Cincinnati Abattoir Co. Tanlac is sold in Victoria by D. E. Campbell, corner Fort and Douglas, and Lang's Drug Store, Esquimalt Road.

forces of destruction and disruption, the forces that, in this and other lands wish to tear down the structure of responsible government and destroy the fabric of civilization woven through the centuries of toil and care. I want to see Canada a great, a peaceful and a united people.

"The old party alignments are pretty well grown over now. Six turbulent years have done the work. The old battles are more or less destroyed. There are still, I know, voices tuned to the old music, but the great mass of men and women are occupied in musing suspicion and hostility against other classes.

Two Kinds. "Looking over the world to-day, and then fixing eyes on Canada, I see only two divisions of people, only two classes in this country. I see on the one side those who hold steady, who walk firmly in the middle of the road, who learn from experience, who believe in industry and ordered liberty, who still have faith in good old British institutions and British principles that have made us what we are. On the other side I see those who have given way to prejudice, to class consciousness, to a passion for change and excitement, whose minds are occupied in musing suspicion and hostility against other classes.

Against Dissension. "I stand for unity in Canada, for solidarity of conditions and freedom of enterprise within our own borders. The lesson for Canada and the free peoples of the British Empire is to avoid the pitfalls of all the nations which have preceded it and sunk into oblivion and of those who are writing in chaos and anarchy. My aim and object will be to hold the balance fairly and firmly among all classes and to see as far as that is possible, that the maximum of profitable labor may be given to all our people and that they may be encouraged in the idea which I consider the foundation stone of national success—that intelligent effort shall always be suitably rewarded, that the men and women of this country may rise in future and improve their minds, according to the measure of their honest endeavors. These I conceive to be the highest aims of statesmanship.

BUSH FIRES AROUND

COWICHAN BAY

Boathouse Is Destroyed in Mysterious Fire; Boat Floating at Large

Cowichan Bay, Aug. 12.—A boathouse belonging to R. M. Palmer, of Cowichan Bay, was burned to the ground early Saturday morning, and two separate bush fires started at the same time in old logging debris in a gully back of the boathouse on land owned by J. A. Beedham.

The cause of the fires is still a mystery, but it seems almost certain that they were started by someone with a definite purpose, probably by the same person or persons who early the previous Sunday morning, started bush fires near the Government farm formerly owned by J. S. H. Matson, on the Oil Telegraph Road, and others near the old Shearing farm.

The boathouse was old and of no great value, and the boat which had been hauled up and tied to a run-way beside the boathouse on Friday evening, was found by Mr. Palmer at about 3.30 Saturday morning floating near the shore. Two pairs of oars which were always kept in the boathouse were in the boat.

The most likely theory for the untying of the boat and removal of the oars from the boathouse, seems to be that whoever lighted the fires had intended to get away in the boat, but found it too heavy to drag over the sands, as the tide was very low, and so abandoned it about half-way down the beach.

The Duncan fire warden has parties guarding the bush fires, which had gained a good hold before being discovered, and there is very little danger now of any real damage to the buildings or property near the fires, which will probably burn quietly unless there is much wind, until the next heavy rain.

EXPRESS COMPANIES WANT HIGHER RATES

Montreal, Aug. 12.—The first hearing of the express companies in their application for increased rates will be held in Toronto on September 2, and subsequent meetings will be held in various cities throughout Canada.

The increase at present asked for amounts to ten per cent. The railways have amended their application for increased freight rates and have asked for an additional ten per cent. increase, making a total of forty per cent.

"In the event of this being granted," said an official of the Express Traffic Association, "it is possible that the express companies may amend their application, and increase the percentage from forty to fifty per cent."

WANTS UNIVERSAL

FINGER-PRINTING

Commissioner Faurot Favors Taking Records of All at Birth

New York, Aug. 12.—When Joseph A. Faurot, deputy police commissioner, suggested at a recent conference of the health authorities, the public administrator, the chief medical examiner and other city officials that the sanitary code be amended to make it obligatory that finger print records of new-born infants be made, he had in mind the beginning of a broader and more comprehensive plan.

This was the Federal control of finger printing, so that, under a universal plan, there would be no more unknown dead, no unidentified criminals, no identities lost beyond regaining and the opportunity for fraud reduced to a minimum.

The question of finger printing babies was one of the first things raised by Frank J. Monaghan, deputy health commissioner, to Dr. Royal S. Copeland, health commissioner, when the latter returned from Europe. Dr. Copeland thinks well of the plan.

Deputy Commissioner Faurot pointed out that it was not generally known how much need there was for protecting the identity of babies in hospitals where there are many maternity cases. Infants are tagged either by writing a name on a strip of adhesive plaster and pasting it on the child's back or by tying a colored ribbon on it. The system is loose and it is suspected mistakes are sometimes made that are not rectified.

Babies Mixed Up. Two cases came to public attention recently in which mothers got wrong babies. One was an Italian woman who got a wrong baby because the ribbon came off and she did not discover the substitution until after she had left the hospital. The other was a mother who started to bring home a baby and was told by the nurse that the child was not hers.

The fingerprint is the best means of identification there is, said Commissioner Faurot. "If we do not incline favorably toward it because in this country it has been developed through use in identifying criminals. The finger mark is the only thing that the world will take out with us. They do not change. Fingerprinting babies would be difficult, but the results would be satisfactory. The prints are small, but they would be distinct."

Eventually, the commissioner believes, universal fingerprinting will come into vogue and he would like to see New York take the pioneer in the movement. In this complex civilization and with the growth of our business system the practice is coming into use. It is becoming more and more imperative that we have some system of identification.

Eliminate Substitution. In one year 50 persons classed as unidentified dead were identified by fingerprints. PROMISSORY NOTE

4,000 YEARS OLD

Interesting Discovery Made Among Clay Tablets at Pennsylvania University

Philadelphia, Aug. 12.—An unpaid note for four shekels in silver bearing forty per cent. annual interest for nearly 4,000 years recently was found among the clay tablets at the University of Pennsylvania Museum by Dr. Leon Legrain. The note was given by a man named Bur-Mama to a woman in October, 1922, B. C., the year in which King Rim-Sin occupied the town of Dur-Eamir-lila.

There were four witnesses to the note. Instead of signatures the witnesses placed their seals on the document, and were not liable for payment unless it was shown they knew the character of Bur-Mama was bad when they swore it was good.

Although comparisons are difficult, Dr. Legrain said, a shekel of silver at the time the note was made was equal to about $100 at the present time.

Statements Made by Trotzky at Closing of Third Internationale

Moscow, Aug. 8.—Delayed (Associated Press)—The All-Russian Central Executive Committee of the Moscow Soviet and the members of the Council of Trade Unions assembled here yesterday for the valedictory meeting marking the close of the Third Internationale.

Leon Trotzky, the Soviet War Minister, in a review of world conditions, said the great war had made clear the need of a new social status. The people's belief in the moral aims of the fight against the Central Powers, he added, had been shattered by the Versailles peace. President Wilson had come to Europe with his fourteen points as a Messiah, only to discover that the British fleet dominated the world. Poland, continued Trotzky, had become a French dependency and the French policy was to exploit both Russia and Germany.

The net result of the congress has been the organization of a world Communist Party with uniform tactical programme and iron proletarian discipline.

Trotzky's Ideas. Warsaw, Aug. 11.—(Associated Press)—Leon Trotzky, Russian Bolshevik Minister of War, has arrived at Bialystok, just behind the Soviet front, and has set up headquarters there, according to news reaching here. Speaking in Vilna, capital of Lithuania, he said the Communist Party of Russia had been officially recognized by the western powers, and that M. Krassin and M. Kammerneff, heads of the Bolshevik committee mission to Great Britain, had been received in London with the ceremonies usually given foreign Ministers. He said Bolshevism was more powerful than ever, and would soon spread to other countries.

"Without a doubt," he continued, "all Europe will be Bolshevik."

Mr. Hayden of Chemainus has accepted the position of Superintendent of the Cushman Cove Lumber Co., replacing Mr. Gatehouse who has resigned to enter the logging business.

Much agitation prevailed in this region. Army garages in Baghdad were reported burned.

British detachments on the Euphrates were falling back and the garrison at Diwanieh, situated on the right bank of the river about ninety-five miles southeast of Baghdad had been cut off.

NEW WATERPOWER

RULES IN STATES

Resources Opened for Private Development Under Washington Act

Washington, Aug. 12.—Regulations for the administration of the Federal Act opening up the vast waterpower resources of the United States to private development are now being drafted. As soon as they are completed the Waterpower Commission, composed of the Secretaries of War, Interior and Agriculture, will hold hearings on them.

The Commission, of which Secretary Baker has been appointed chairman by President Wilson, shortly will hold its first meeting. The hearings on the regulations will be pushed as speedily as possible so that the waterpower legislation, which has been ten years in the making, can be put into effect without undue delay.

The tentative regulations are being drawn up by a special committee of the War, Interior and Agricultural Departments. It is composed of Major-General Enoch H. Crowder, representing the War Department; O. C. Merrill, waterpower expert in the Forestry Service, who has been designated executive secretary of the Commission, and H. A. Stabler, of the Interior Department.

Members of the committee say the regulations will be extensive and that they probably will be announced in September. The regulations will be made final. Those relating to form and condition of application for survey permits or licenses will be the first announced. The most difficult problem involved in drawing up the regulations, members of the committee say, is that of establishing a uniform system of accounting for licenses as required by the Act.

For Fifty Years. Under the Waterpower Bill the Commission is empowered to issue licenses for a period not exceeding fifty years. The licenses will pay to the Government reasonable annual charges in an amount to be fixed by the Commission. Upon the expiration of any license the Government, if two years' notice in writing has been given by the Commission, will have the right to take over and operate any waterpower development after payment of the net investment of the licensee in the project or projects taken, not to exceed the fair value of the property plus such reasonable damages, if any, to property of the licensee as may be caused by the severance therefrom of property taken.

In cases where such notice has not been given the Government also will have the right to take over upon mutual agreement with the licensee any property developed under the terms of the bill, subject to the payment of the net investment.

Sitting at Ottawa, where almost the only cases considered are difficult and distressful cases that have been passed to headquarters by district superintendents, Major Ashton said the Commissioners were apt to conclude that there was nothing else in the country but trouble and failure. After such a tour as the one he is now in the midst of, however, he said that he felt much more hopeful and optimistic.

"I am convinced that ninety-five per cent. of the real farmers, the men who had experience before and the vast majority of the specially trained men who are real workers and determined to make good, will be absolutely successful," he said. "Many of them will be able to pay off their

SOLDIER SETTLERS

Vancouver, Aug. 12.—After a tour of five provinces, during which he personally visited hundreds of settlers, Major E. J. Ashton, D. S. PREMIER MEIGHEN'S SPEECH

Premier Meighen's speech at Stirling, Ont., yesterday obviously was the opening shot of the Union Government's campaign. It was the first militant note he has sounded since his assumption of the leadership of the administration, his previous utterances being studiously non-partisan and marked by a very noticeable attempt to gain the ear of Quebec—not long ago the target of many a Meighen jibe.

Evidently the discovery of a strong sentiment hostile to the Government throughout the country, and a realization that out of the various parties which will go to the electorate the National Liberal-Conservative Party is likely to be a poor third, have prompted him to put on his fighting clothes and send out a different blast. The campaign he has started will be a long one, for there is not much prospect of an election this fall, unless, of course, Mr. Meighen desires a very short but merry life as Prime Minister.

But whether the campaign be long or short, as political indications now are his speech at Stirling is little better than the trumpet call of a forlorn hope. Mr. Meighen says no political party in the world was ever better born or better bred than the National Liberal-Conservative Party. "It was born out of the war," he observes, "and it is national because its care is the nation."

The Premier is not very happy in this particular eulogy of the political organization under his command, whichever way it is looked at. History shows that as breeding-places of political parties or governments wars are tragic failures. What are known as war governments and war parties in the very nature of things cannot be successful in dealing with the problems and conditions of peace, for the reason that an entirely different mentality is needed for the change.

The record shows that war governments are autocratic, contemptuous of the wishes of the people and if they stick to office long enough they precipitate serious domestic turmoil if not something infinitely worse. What respect, for example, does the Union Government show for the wishes of the electorate when, although it was elected as a "war government," it seeks to perpetuate itself probably for several years by the mere expedient of changing leaders? What sort of political breeding, indeed, does this manoeuvre indicate? And Mr. Meighen tells us that "no political party in the world was ever better born or better bred than the National Liberal-Conservative Party!" In any case we would imagine that so rare a child was entitled to a better name.

The Union Government never can give Canada the kind of administration the Dominion needs, because it is fundamentally a Government of reaction and special privilege. What is the Premier's championship of the country's present fiscal system—also born out of the war, by the way—but a bid for the support of the profiteer and the beneficiaries of a protective tariff which is higher than any other tariff in the world and which penalizes the consumer from the cradle to the grave? It is only through the eyes of the interests that the Government can see the Canadian public; to its mind the country is prosperous as long as an infinitesimally small minority of its population draws down fat dividends. If Mr. Meighen expects the Canadian people to endorse the Union Government on that ground he is expecting a miracle. Indeed, he would be looking for a miracle if he expected such endorsement on any ground.

PRaising LLOYD GEORGE.

When Lord Northcliffe began to tire of Mr. Lloyd George—as the always tires of the idols of what he chooses to regard his own creation—he lost no time in establishing a case upon which the full blast of editorial criticism in his varied collection of British journals could be vented. Special commissioners were sent up and down the country to ferret out all the available ammunition with which to feed the editorial guns, and Government extravagance formed the special target for months on end. But apart from a number of caustic references to the very obvious campaign Mr. Lloyd George has not betrayed the least concern; he has continually applied himself to his gigantic task and accepted enough responsibility to test the capacity of a dozen ordinary men. It is now refreshing, therefore, to find that The London Times regards the Prime Minister's announcement to the House of Commons in connection with the Russo-Polish crisis as "admirable in its reasoning and courage." But this does not mean the end of the vendetta; it means that Printing House Square is following the Northcliffe policy of being on the right side of majority opinion when big things portend.

ANOTHER BLUNDER.

The French Government's recognition of the so-called Government of General Wrangel is quite in line with the positive genius Paris has shown for making a mess of the Russian situation and keeping Europe in a ferment. Wrangel has no real government to recognize. He and his Cossacks have taken forcible control of the Crimea and contiguous territory without regard to whether the inhabitants like it or not. He is no more entitled to set up a Government than the Bolsheviks were when they hacked their way to office three years ago. Just as soon as the Bolsheviks have negotiated peace with Poland they will deal with Wrangel as they dealt with Denikine, Kolchak and Yudenich. How many tragic failures does France need to teach her that the way to strengthen Russian Bolshevism is to continue to do what she has been doing ever since Lenin and Trotsky repudiated Russia's foreign debt? Her latest break does not help Poland, it certainly cannot help the Russian people. It makes matters extremely difficult for Mr. Lloyd George who is at last on the right track in dealing with the Eastern problem in such a way as to open the door to the peace which must be established if the whole of Europe is not to be on fire with revolution.

NOTE AND COMMENT

There is a tentative suggestion that Archbishop Mannix will take opinions as to his chances of winning a lawsuit with the British Government as the sequel to his technical arrest. We should put our money on the Government.

The Russian note conveyed by M. Kameneff to Mr. Lloyd George says that Russia has no intentions incompatible with Poland's liberty, independence and sovereign rights; Russia recognizes them in full. Russia has an excellent opportunity to demonstrate the spirit of this communication. It is what the British Prime Minister demands.

OTHER PAPERS' VIEWS

DOUG. FAIRBANKS OUTBUNKED. (From The Westminster Gazette.) Admiral Halsey gave me the following account of the accident to the royal train near Bridgetown, West Australia: "I was thrown to the floor and fell against the window, which broke, and all the furniture, including a table and heavy chairs, was flung on top of me. The Prince remained self-possessed throughout and collected all the important papers scattered about the car. I cannot understand how it was the Prince and I were not killed." I have also interviewed the passengers who rushed to the Prince's rescue. One said: "We were astonished to find that, instead of signs of distress, there were signs of hilarity in the royal train. The Prince was reclining amid the wreckage in his compartment, and, in response to anxious inquiries, who could not see him, he replied, 'Hurt! Blasted room south!' 'I'm glad the whisky flask is not broken either.' . . . Assured that none was seriously hurt, the Prince said, 'Then I'll collect my gear, which he coolly proceeded to do. He was much concerned about his favorite pipe, but managed to retrieve it after a few minutes' search.'"

BRITISH AND GERMAN POLITICS

From article by Robert Blatchford, reprinted in Western Veteran (Edmonton). British policy has never included any plan for the conquest of Europe or any European nation. The key-note of British policy for centuries has been the defence of India and the maintenance of the balance of power in Europe. The wars with France in the times of Agincourt and Crecy were dynastic squabbles arising out of the claims of our Kings to the lordship of Normandy. We have never been a military nation in the sense in which Germany was a military nation, or France under Napoleon, or Spain under Philip. Germany had no excuse at all for this last war. She had more colonies than she could manage; she had wealth and trade and commerce and a high prestige. She was holding the two provinces she took from France in 1871. We had given her Belgium and she had seized Kiel. She had an immense army and a navy of growing power. She was nowhere menaced by sea or land.

BOLSHEVIK CAVALRY NOW IS REPORTED IN SUBURB OF WARSAW

IMPERIAL TOBACCO COMPANY ADVISES TO SMOKERS ABOUT FOREST FIRES

Imperial Tobacco Company includes Exhortation in Cigarette Packets. As its contribution to the Forest Conservation Movement the Imperial Tobacco Company now includes a small label in every packet of a well-known brand of the company's cigarettes exhorting the cigarette smoker to exercise every possible caution to prevent forest fires. An intimation to this effect was received by the Hon. T. D. Pattullo, Minister of Lands, this morning and the following is the wording used on the label in question: "Please do not throw away a LIGHTED cigarette. 'See that it is DEAD OUT.' Lighted tobacco and matches are especially destructive in the FORESTS. 'Living forests mean liberal employment. Dead forests employ nobody.' 'Do not be responsible for a dead forest.' 'This caution is printed as a contribution to the Forest Conservation Movement.'"

ARELOFF HUNTED AND BASSOFF HELD

(Continued from page 1.) dirty and unkempt, but somehow he had picked up a fur cap and overcoat, whereas he had none when he left the scene of the fight on Saturday. Did Not Draw. Bassoff displayed none of his shooting skill when cornered last night. He refused to raise his hands until he had made no effort to draw his guns. It was a tame capture for a bad man even though it was brought about in a manner quite unexpected as a result of horse-sense displayed by Engineer Harry Sammand, who was in charge of the pusher engine whose headlight first revealed the presence of the bandit more than twenty-five miles from the spot where the manhunt was concentrated. Murder Charge. A charge of murder will be lodged against Bassoff as a result of the finding of the coroner's jury at the inquest into the deaths of Police Officers Usher and Bailey. A big roll of money was taken from Bassoff by the police, although thorough search of his effects has not been made as yet by the police here.

DECLARES OTTAWA CABINET IS FACING HARD STRUGGLE

Vancouver, Aug. 12.—Dealing with Hon. Arthur Meighen's address at Stirling, Ont., yesterday, the Vancouver Province says: "The Meighen Ministry has a hard struggle before it, but the Premier is resolved that it shall not fall for the want of definite and aggressive leadership. Yesterday's address may be regarded as the opening of a campaign which will end with the close of the polls in the next general election. 'There is no suggestion of compromise in the Premier's statement. He does not try to conceal the protectionist features of his tariff programme behind the necessities of revenue, though he declares that the revenue must be sufficient to meet expenditures and reduce the debt. There is a frank announcement that the tariff must be adjusted not only to revenue purposes, but also to provide a margin of economic protection sufficient to secure the industrial position of the country and to provide employment for Canadian workers. This is the essential feature of his address.'"

BOWLERS INVITED TO THE MAINLAND

Vancouver Men Are Anxious For Labor Day Meeting. At the recent bowling championships the Terminal City Club of Vancouver proved to be the best aggregation of bowlers in the Province. This club has sent an invitation to the Victoria Club to try conclusions with them on Labor Day. On their visit to Victoria recently they were defeated, and they are anxious to adjust the score on their "native heath." Though getting late in the season it is hoped a Victoria sixteen will be found willing to make the trip, especially as there is another Labor Day attraction in the shape of the Lower Mainland Tournament between Seatemmen and all-comers, in which the local men may compete. Secretary Dewar is now taking entries for this event. The meaning of "Dr." depends altogether upon whether it is placed before or after a man's name.

AUSTRALIA WATCHES EVENTS IN PACIFIC

London, Aug. 12.—The Daily Telegraph's Sydney correspondent says the Australian Federal Government is considering the advisability of sending a special delegation to the League of Nations conference at Geneva. The position is regarded as important, considering the delay in issuing the mandate for the Pacific territories. It is believed Japan is making serious efforts to secure an amendment to the Versailles conference on the matter. Melbourne advices say a bill is being introduced for compulsory wheat pool, providing for co-operation with other states.

GEORGE VAN HORST ADOPTS ROLE OF COOK IN GALLEY OF TUG

Police Search Woods in Vicinity of Port Moody. Reports that George Van Horst had crossed into Washington appear to be erroneous. The escaped convict has been seen at New Westminster, where he is alleged to have walked calmly into the bar of the Strand Hotel and asked for beer. After this he is stated to have gone to Port Moody, where the hottest scent of the man is being investigated by a swarm of provincial police and Canadian Mounted Police, who are scouring the woods in that vicinity. Seen in New Westminster. In New Westminster Van Horst had with him another man, thought to be the Italian who joined him in the breakaway from the penitentiary. Mrs. Escala, New Westminster, upon whom the criminal delegation called in request of a "hand out," did not know the name or full name of her guests, but has since identified them from photographs. It is stated in The Vancouver Sun: "Ship's Cook on Tug. While the Victoria police were chasing the desperado all over the island, continues the dispatch, Van Horst was peacefully working as cook in the galley of a small tug boat that was plying between Burrard Inlet and Victoria. After working there for some days, his suspicions were aroused, and he quit the job, making his way to New Westminster, and from there to Port Moody. Lunatic Arrested. An arrest made yesterday at Port Moody caused much jubilation until it was found that the person arrested was an inmate from the Asylum for the Insane, at New Westminster, where he escaped by climbing the gutter fence. "25—Dead or Alive." The dispatch concludes with the comment that those who know the criminal, George Van Horst, in a more or less personal way, state that he will be very much offended at the generous reward that has been offered for his recapture, $25 being stated as the sum offered by the Government for the return of the notorious desperado "dead or alive." The same intelligence also states that Van Horst is known to be a head scout, and to carry a gun fully loaded, which he has heretofore shown no hesitation at using, when it serves his convenience.

Solicitors and officials alike "fed" the supply of planks, about fifteen of which either cracked or collapsed under the test, and then the party returned to the more solemn atmosphere of the court. ATTORNEY-GENERAL
OF VICTORIA HERE

Australian Politician Announces Appointment of Railway Head

After choosing a new Chairman for the Railway Commission of his State, and attending to other official business in England, Hon. Arthur Robinson, K. C., of Melbourne, Attorney-General of the State of Victoria, Australia, arrived in Victoria yesterday en route for home. Mr. Robinson announces that H. W. Clapp, a native of the state of Victoria, but for many years a resident of the United States, has been appointed head of the State Railway Commission at a salary of £5,000 a year.

While in the Old Country Mr. Robinson also arranged for the concession of a loan of six millions sterling, which is falling due and also recovered his health, which suffered from an attack of influenza.

Mr. Robinson is very outspoken in his criticism of the world-famous Archbishop Manners. Indeed, the Attorney-General had no hesitation in saying that if Premier Hughes, adopting the course he was reported as favoring, prevented the Archbishop from returning to Australia he would have behind him a very large portion of public opinion.

Mr. Robinson, who is accompanied by his wife and daughter, is registered at the Empress Hotel. He will remain in Victoria until the sailing of the Tahiti, of the Canadian-Australian line.

OLD TIME C.P.R.
OFFICIAL WILL COME TO GORDON HEAD

The last of the old guard of Canadian Pacific Railway executive in British Columbia, W. F. Salsbury, treasurer in Vancouver since 1886, is ready to retire. The only cause that prevents Mr. Salsbury from getting out of harness is the request of the board of directors of the railway that he remain at his post until the end of this year.

Intending to retire July 1, Mr. Salsbury last Spring purchased a beautiful little farm at Gordon Head, and recently disposed of his home on Shaughnessy Heights, Vancouver, to E. A. Morris. Mr. Salsbury is an enthusiastic horticulturist, and makes weekly trips to Gordon Head, to watch the growing of his small fruits.

Arriving in Port Moody in 1886, before there was a Vancouver, Mr. Salsbury has continued ever since as treasurer of the C. P. R. The retirement of H. J. Cambie from the post of consulting engineer some months ago removed from the C. P. R. the first of the three executive assistants who saw the beginning of the railway in this province—Messrs. Cambie, Marpole and Salsbury. The death of Mr. Marpole, general executive assistant, took place recently.

WHY DO PEOPLE TAKE MONKEY GLANDS?

Rejuvenation, both physically and mental, can be acquired, much easier and more pleasantly than by talking or eating the glands from monkeys. The French have invented a Medicine, in tablet form, that does away with all other means of rejuvenation. These Tablets are now universally sold throughout Canada, and are known as VITAL Tablets. They supply the necessary Vigor and Youth. There is no need to import chimpanzees from Africa, to take their glands to inject into people. Why go to all this trouble, and expense, when VITAL Tablets can now be procured right in your own town, from your drug store? VITAL Tablets taken for a short period, disease of every description, old age with all its aches and pains, will be a thing of the past. Young men and women with pale, pale faces, thin, limp, blood, blotches on the skin, run down, worn out, tired people can be placed in a state of good health, with pure blood, strong nerves, a strong stomach, a healthy body, full of youth and vigor. Every Tablet of this new medicine contains the elements to make you feel as nature intended you to feel, no matter what your trouble is, go to your druggist and procure a box of VITAL Tablets. If they do not do you good, go back and get your money. Get on your feet, away with that pale, worn out look on the face. VITAL will bring back the roses of youth. Price fifty cents per box at all drug stores.

Canada

LIKE CANADIAN SEED

Dominion Flax is Greatly in Demand For Seeding in Ireland.

London, Aug. 12.—According to the Canadian Trade Commissioner in Glasgow, J. Vernon McKenzie, Canadian-grown flax seed has proved a great favorite with the farmers of Ireland, where good flax seed is appreciated. Much seed was imported from Canada during the past few seasons which gave universal satisfaction, and there is every indication that exports from Canada this year will be much heavier. It is the general opinion of a large number of those in touch with the flax trade in Ireland that provided Canadian flax yields the same result as last year—it will effectually put Dutch seed out of the market and supersede it on Irish farms. Canadian flax seed has met its stiffest competition in Ireland from Holland and Japan. In fact, during the past season the only other varieties of seed grown in Ireland included some of Russia's 1917 output and Irish seed from County Antrim and County Cork. As regards the value of seeded flax for sowing, Canadian flax seed held a pre-eminent position according to Government figures, which included returns from five principal estates. All supplies in Belfast last year were quickly exhausted, and in the opinions of the leading importers in that city the results obtained in the last two seasons from Canadian seed have been satisfactory and at least equal to those obtained from seed from any other country. They believe that, granted the season in Canada is favorable this year, there will be a great increase in importation, and that Canadian seed by the progress it is making will out Dutch seed from the large market it now holds among the farms of Ulster.

"The laborer is worthy of his higher" would seem to be the union version.

B. C. ELECTRIC

WILL NOT ACCEPT

Street Railway Co., Local Manager States, Will Not Meet City Terms

COUNCIL MAY OPPOSE APPLICATION TO BOARD

The B. C. Electric Railway Company has refused to grant the concessions which the city is demanding in the street car fare negotiations. As a result, the city, it is almost beyond doubt, will oppose the company's application to the Board of Railway Commissioners for a seven-cent fare.

The company's decision on the question was made known at a late hour to-day by A. T. Goward, Local Manager. Mr. Goward has written to Alderman Joseph Patrick, chairman of the Civic Legislative Committee, outlining the company's policy. The company, Mr. Goward states, is prepared to allow a seven and a half cent lighting rate in return for a seven-cent fare and the elimination of jitney competition. The city, of course, had hoped that, if it agreed to a seven-cent fare, the company would allow not only a six-cent light rate but also would agree to build the Pandora Avenue extension and to maintain those portions of the streets lying between the car tracks. In addition, the city has been demanding a per centage of the company's profits. In his letter to Alderman Patrick Mr. Goward agrees only to grant a lighting rate and transfers on city lines. No mention is made of other concessions, as the company is not prepared to grant better terms.

Agreement Problematical. The reply of the company makes it almost certain that no agreement will be reached between the two parties to the dispute before the company's application, but on what grounds it is considered by the Railway Commission. It had been hoped that the city, after reaching an agreement with the company, would be able to put before the Commission without opposition to the seven-cent fare. This, however, the civic authorities feel unable to do, as the Commission would not be able to return for the seven-cent fare and the elimination of jitneys.

What action the city will take in view of the company's refusal to grant concessions has not been considered yet. That it will oppose the company's demands beyond the application to the Board of Railway Commissioners is not yet determined. It is expected, however, that the obligations which will be introduced into the discussion. Some members of the City Council claim that this charter takes precedence over any agreement which the Railway Commission may render.

ROTARIANS INSPECT BRENTWOOD PLANT

Journeying to Brentwood by the interurban line to-day, the Rotary Club members looked over with deep interest the B. C. Electric Railway Company's big auxiliary power plant there. The workings of the plant were thoroughly explained by the officials in charge and for the benefit of the visitors the machinery was put in operation. A. T. Goward, Victoria manager of the Company, was present and showed the Rotarians over the building.

The Rotarians enjoyed en route a delicious box lunch put up by the White Lunch, Ltd. The club received with regret the news that William Aldritt, Physical Director of the Y. M. C. A., was about to leave to pursue his work in Winnipeg.

NICKEL NO GOOD.

A little girl walked into a confectionery store, placed a nickel on the counter and called for an ice cream cone. "Ice cream cones are seven cents, little girl," the clerk answered. "Well, then, gimme a soda pop." "Six cents." "Not any 'oot beer?" "Yep, six cents, too." The little girl sighed disappointedly and started out, leaving her nickel on the counter. "Here, little girl, you're leaving your nickel," the clerk called. "Oh, that's all right," the child shouted back. "It's no good to me—it won't buy anything."—Indianapolis News.

London's Out-of-Date Markets

Catering for Seven Million Appetites.

Seven and a half million people living in Greater London depend upon the daily distribution of food from the markets of the Metropolis. Yet the principal of these markets—Billingsgate, Smithfield, Covent Garden, and Leadenhall—started on the spots they did three centuries ago, when London's population was but 150,000. Furthermore, while the population of London has grown rapidly during the last half-century, the situation of these markets in crowded areas has made it impossible for them to expand sufficiently to meet the food requirements of the world's greatest capital, adequately. Consequently it is proposed to establish new market centres.

Four hundred years ago Covent Garden, originally Covent Garden, was granted to the Earl of Bedford with seven acres of adjacent land, the yearly value of the whole being reckoned at £6 6s. 8d. When Mr. Mallaby Deesley, M. P., bought the Covent Garden estate in 1913 he had to sign a cheque for slightly less than £1,000,000—approximately £155,000 per acre.

Their Romantic Stories.

In its earliest days Covent Garden was the resort of fashionable society, the many coffee-houses within its boundaries being frequented by all the wittiest and gayest men and women in London. At a few stalls and sheds was held a market three times a week for the sale of fruit, herbs and roots. Some idea of the quantity of fruit passing through Covent Garden may be gathered from the fact that 1,500,000 lbs. of strawberries, 1,000,000 lbs. of cherries, and 5,000,000 bananas have been disposed of in one morning, not to mention 150,000 pine-apples, 150,000 lbs. of grapes, and other costly fruits. The congestion at Covent Garden is so great that most of the green and dry fruits—oranges, lemons, nuts, etc.—are bought and sold at a little-known market in Fudding Lane, where the Great Fire of London started two and a half centuries ago. There, in a saleroom which looks like a chapel, foreign fruits are sold as they are brought up the Thames by ship, merchants at Covent Garden having to be content with dealing chiefly with home produce.

Billingsgate, too, has no small difficulty in coping with the fish trade to-day. For over two hundred years it has been an open market. The place where nine hundred tons of fish are sold daily before 9 o'clock in the morning was originally a harbor for small ships and boats. As it grew in importance, stalls for the sale of fish were erected in the neighborhood. Large buildings have taken their place, but years ago the market proved so inadequate that the late Baroness Burdett-Coutts built the Columbia Market at a cost of £200,000 and presented it to the city. It failed to attract salesmen, however, and Billingsgate still has no rival.

Only sixty tons of the fish received daily now come in boats up the Thames. The remainder comes overland by rail and Billingsgate lacks rail connections. Wool and meat used to be sold chiefly at Leadenhall Market. Forty years ago, however, it became the recognized market for poultry. Leadenhall was used as a market before it came into possession of the city five hundred years ago, but Smithfield, the scene in the old days of jousts, tournaments, executions, burnings and revolts, can claim, perhaps, a more romantic history.

Over 300,000 tons of meat are sold at Smithfield in the course of a year. Mark a the Metropolitan Cattle Market millions of live cattle, sheep, and pigs are disposed of during the same period.

Covering thirty acres, the latter market is the largest in the world, and it is no uncommon sight to see 30,000 animals of one kind or another in the pens on a single day. —Tit-Bits.

NEARLY THIRTY THOUSAND MILES ROADS PROJECTED

New Work Aggregates Total of 384,900,000 Dollars.

Washington, Aug. 12.—Road operations under the federal aid road act thus far initiated aggregate in length nine times the distance from New York to San Francisco, according to the summary given by Thomas H. MacDonald, chief of the Bureau of Public Roads, in the Department of Agriculture.

The Federal Government's share in this undertaking is greater than the cost of the Panama Canal, MacDonald said. Federal co-operation with states is carried out on an approximately fifty-fifty basis.

"Second only in importance to the size of the present road building programme is the excellence of the character of the roads being built," it was said. "Sixty per cent of the total allotment of federal funds which has been approved to date will be spent for roads of such durable types as bituminous concrete, Portland cement, concrete and vitrified brick. These roads, when built will increase by 7,600 miles the total of miles of roads of this class which existed in the United States before the federal aid law was passed. But these figures by no means represent the total miles affected.

Thirty Thousand Miles. "Up to June 30, 1920, 2,351 projects involving a total of 23,313 miles of road, had been approved. The preliminary estimates of the cost of these projects is approximately $34,900,000, of which approximately $13,841,000 will be approved as federal aid. On the same date 2,116 projects representing approximately 19,944 miles, had been either completed or were under construction. The estimated total cost of these projects in various stages of construction and completed is $20,000,000.

"The total cost of federal aid work approved by the secretary in the nineteen months subsequent to the signing of the armistice and prior to July 1, 1920, which is approximately $230,000,000, exceeded by $63,000,000 the cost of all road and bridge work done by states and counties in this country in 1915. The value of the work completed during that period amounted to $10,000,000, a rate of construction equalling that of the Panama Canal.

A present serious handicap to road building is found in the car shortage, according to officials. It has been impossible to obtain equipment and supplies for road building in many instances.

One of the far-reaching results directly attributable to the adoption of the federal aid programme has been the creation of adequate state highway departments.

The insistence of the Government upon the construction of federal aid roads under the supervision of engineers of a state department has resulted in placing a much larger proportion of road work under skilled direction. This year state departments will exercise control over fully eighty per cent of the large sums that will be spent for road building.

CHINESE RECOVER

A LOST BANK ROLL

Incident at Peking Is Significant of Government's Condition

Peking, Aug. 12.—Five million dollars mislaid and forgotten several years ago has turned up and been placed in the treasury of the Republic of China at the very time it was experiencing the worst financial pinch of its existence.

The money had been deposited in the Russo-Asiatic Bank here by the Imperial Board of Education, long since out of existence, in the days of the Manchu dynasty. Officials of the republic did not know they had the money at hand until the bank inquired about its disposal.

A Drop in the Bucket. Not that $5,000,000 is a drop in the bucket in China's tottering government. It is a sum that is a mere trifle to a nation that is running behind in its accounts at a rate of $7,000,000 a month. But its discovery gives an indication of the financial methods in vogue in Peking to-day.

The regime of President Hsu and clique known as the Tzu Club, is in serious danger of being overthrown. Unless the Consortium comes to the rescue of the treasury with an enormous loan this seems now to be almost certain to happen. The report of Thomas W. Lamont, who recently concluded a personal investigation of Chinese financial affairs, is awaited anxiously.

Would Eliminate Militarism. What will be the consequences if the militarists are ousted is problematical. Dr. Sun Yat Sen, first President of China and a leader of the antimilitarists, declares the salvation of not only the Far East but other countries as well depends upon the elimination of militarism. In a recent interview he urged "organize China for peace, not war" and pointed out the menace of making a military nation of the people who are greatest sufferers in the world.

Far East Supervision. In the meantime, even if the Consortium loan is granted it may not mean that the downfall of the militarists is not impending. The conditions of such a loan, as outlined by Lamont, include not only nonmilitarism but foreign supervision of the expenditure of the money. This means that the tubans, military governors of the provinces, will be robbed of their power, based on their control of their individual armies which are now being paid from money collected by "squeeze" from the people.

That the financial stringency of the government is intense may be seen from the fact that teachers in government schools went on strike recently because they had not received their pay. In some government departments the undertakes have not been paid for nine months and their last salary was in the form of new government notes which none of the banks or tradesmen would accept.

IRISH UNIONIST PARTY IS DIVIDED

One Wing Reported Prepared For Dominion Home Rule

London, Aug. 12.—A dispatch to The Evening News from Dublin reports a "significant split" in the ranks of the followers of Sir Edward Carson, leader of the Irish Unionist Party.

It states that a strong deputation of Ulstermen has gone to London to see Mr. Lloyd George and inform him that a large proportion of his following is prepared to sink its old prejudices and advocate an immediate offer to Ireland of Dominion home rule.

Subject to Ireland remaining within the Empire, the message adds, these men are willing to pledge themselves and their supporters to work for a United Ireland with one Parliament.

BASSOFF HEARING IN LETHBRIDGE

Lethbridge, Aug. 12.—The preliminary hearing of the bandit Bassoff will take place in Lethbridge either on Saturday or Monday. Witnesses will be called here from Bellevue to avoid the risk of having Bassoff sent among his friends in the Pass for the holding of the preliminary trial.

Conductor Sam Jones, who was in charge of the train held up a week ago last Monday, to-day identified the man held in a cell here as the bandit who handled the guns and who shot at him when he reached for the bell cord to stop the train.

Bassoff is stated to have made a full confession to the police, stating that Aroloff, the third bandit, is now on the British Columbia side of the mountains near Michel or Fernie, and that he has most of the swag from the holdup. The police, however, will not make the confession public until the time of the preliminary hearing.

PORTLAND HOTEL PROPRIETOR JAILED

Portland, Aug. 12.—Nick Raptakis, hotel proprietor here, was sentenced to eighteen days in the county jail to-day because he was found guilty in municipal court of maintaining a fire hazard. Raptakis managed the Glenwood Hotel, in which there was a fire yesterday morning endangering the lives of many guests. Fire fighters found one entrance to the hotel locked. The court said it would make an example of Raptakis in an effort to prevent a repetition of a hotel fire of last week, in which four persons lost their lives.

TO GIVE YOUR CAR A GLITTERING GLOSS

PICTURE your car as you first saw it, with dazzling radiance—that's how it will look when cleaned and polished the O-Cedar way.

First remove mud and grease, by washing with water. Then wet a piece of chamois-cloth—ring out surplus water, pour on as much O-Cedar as the cloth contains water. Thus a soft lather is formed.

Finally, a little rubbing with a dry cloth produces a hard, dry brilliance that will last. What little dust may settle on it, can easily be removed with an O-Cedar Duster.

O-Cedar is the Polish that brightens and preserves floors, woodwork and furniture. It is equally dependable as a Polish that will prolong the life of the varnish on your motor car.

Empress of Canada Finest Floating Palace on Pacific

Launching of 21,000-Ton Leviathan For C. P. O. S. Service Out of This Port Scheduled to Take Place Tuesday at Glasgow; Magnificent Appointments.

Empress of Canada, the 21,000-ton liner which is scheduled to be launched from the Clyde yards of the Fairfield Shipbuilding Company on Tuesday next, apart from being the largest and speediest ship ever built for the Pacific trade, represents the very latest developments in marine construction.

When completed the Empress of Canada will ply between this port and the Orient in conjunction with the five Empress fleet now trailing the checkered houseflag of the Canadian Pacific Ocean Services, Ltd., across the Pacific. The launching of the Empress of Canada is set to take place August 17, Mrs. G. M. Bosworth, wife of the chairman of the C. P. O. S., having been selected to perform the christening ceremony. Following her trials the liner will proceed from Glasgow to Liverpool, from which port she will sail on a world-circling cruise to Victoria and Vancouver, touching at Gibraltar, Port Said, Suez, Colombo, Bombay, Singapore, Hongkong, Manila, Shanghai, Kobe and Yokohama. The voyage from Liverpool will commence March 15, 1921, and the great liner is due to reach Victoria about June 3.

Cruiser Stern.
The Empress of Canada is of the cruiser stern type, fitted with bilge keels which will reduce rolling to a minimum, and she will be equipped with turbine engines capable of developing a speed of 22 knots an hour, using oil fuel. Her dimensions are: Length over all 444 ft., length B. P. 425 ft., breadth 77 ft., depth 53 ft., tonnage 21,000 gross. Her construction will embody all the latest improvements, and special attention is being given to the interior fittings. The first class entrance and stairway amidship will lead with a wide double flight from the entrance on A deck down to the dining room on D deck. The entrance on A deck will be paneled in wide and narrow alternating panels and tinted in light cream.

Georgian Design.
The balustrades to the well and staircase will be of polished Honduras mahogany of Georgian design, and the staircase will lead in a wide sweeping flight to the after end of the dining saloon. The entrance will be linked up to all the principal public rooms on A deck, with a wide and well-lighted gallery. The cabin dining saloon on D deck will be approached by a main stairway of similar character, the aim being to make the room as light as possible and to give it the utmost appearance of height, by means of long

At the forward end of the room the whole of the upper portion of the bulkhead will be covered by a large specially woven piece of modern tapestry. The center raised portion of the room will be decorated to represent the inner courtyard of an old coaching inn of the 16th century, the sides of the well being supported by massive oak posts, and the whole will be lighted by projecting oak oriel windows giving on to passages on each side.

Open Air Illusion.
The open air illusion will be increased by painting the ceiling in a lime tile designed as stone paving. The cabin lounge will be a painted scheme in delicate and varied colors. By discarding the use of metal ceilings, for large teak windows, greater light will be obtained than usual, and the room will be well lighted from the port and starboard sides. RESCUE SHIPS SENT OUT ON FALSE SCENT

Schooner Wm. T. Bowden Found to Be Anchored Outside Cape

Indians sighting the four-masted schooner William T. Bowden anchored off the mouth of the Quillayute River, off the entrance to the Straits, reported the ship stranded yesterday, resulting in the life-saving tug Snohomish and the tug Tyee making a run outside the Cape on a false alarm.

The William T. Bowden, bound for Seattle with copra and Australian hardwood, had been reported becalmed near La Push, south of Cape Flattery, for several days. She anchored close inshore Tuesday night and was so close to the beach Wednesday morning that Indians, evidently without investigating, reported her ashore.

The Snohomish reached the schooner last evening and found that she was anchored in deep water and in no danger.

The William T. Bowden sailed from Leveku, Pili Islands, for Seattle, July 10. She is owned by George E. Billings, of San Francisco.

ROBERT DOLLAR SHIPS TO CARRY MAILS FREE

Vancouver, Aug. 12.—On occasions when a Canadian Robert Dollar steamer is leaving Vancouver at a time which would bring her to the Orient ahead of a Japanese steamer carrying Canadian mail, the company is willing to take all Canadian mail for the Far East free. Such an offer was made to J. O. McLeod, of the railway mail service in Vancouver by the Dollar Company.

The offer of the Canadian Robert Dollar Company was soon accepted and arrangements were completed this morning for the shipping of 150 sacks of Canadian mail on the steamer Melville Dollar to-morrow. This mail is for Chinese ports and Manila.

BRITISH SHIPYARDS ARE HOLDING OWN

United Kingdom Yards Had 3,578,153 Tons Under Construction at End of June

London, Aug. 12.—(Associated Press).—While merchant shipbuilding in the United States has been reduced by one-half since March, 1919, British shipyards are constructing nearly fifteen times as much tonnage to-day as they did a year ago, according to figures just made public by Lloyd's Register.

The figures show that there were 3,578,153 tons of merchant-shipping under construction in the yards of the United Kingdom at the end of June, 1920. The total number of vessels building was 941, and of these 51 are between 12,000 and 20,000 tons, 62 between 8,000 and 12,000 tons, 100 between 6,000 and 8,000 tons, and 25,000 tons.

The total merchant tonnage building abroad is given as 4,142,751 tons on June 30, or 465,000 tons lower than at the end of March, which is accounted for by a decrease in the United States.

Attention is drawn in the returns to "an enormous decrease which has taken place in tonnage under construction in the United States during the last 15 months." At the end of March, 1919, 4,185,523 tons were actually building in that country, which total by the end of June, 1920, has been practically reduced by half, while in the United Kingdom during the same period, the figures have increased from 2,444,445 tons to 3,578,153 tons, a total of 1,133,708 tons.

The world's total is given as 2,192,153 tons, of which 1,573,904 tons, of which America contributes 414 of 1,005,956 tons, United Kingdom 941, of 3,578,153 tons, British dominions 115 of 268,799 tons, France 95 of 265,302 tons, Japan 56 of 264,260, Holland 43 of 298,915 tons, Denmark 42 of 118,439, Italy 166 of 353,914, Norway 64 of 87,579, Spain 33 of 101,432, Sweden 73 of 125,899 tons.

YOUTHS ORGANIZED BRIGADE AT VERNON

Cadets Ball and Cooper, Now at Rockside Camp; Have Unique Distinction

Cadets Ball and Cooper, representing Vernon at the Summer training camp of the Boys' Naval Brigade at the Rockside estate on the George Road, hold the distinction of being the organizers of the Naval Brigade at Vernon, Okanagan. Displaying wonderful organizing ability and without any funds at their disposal, these energetic youths laid the foundation for the establishment of a brigade at Vernon and the Okanagan city now boasts quite a naval organization and cadets to help man Canada's new merchant marine.

The entertainment at the naval camp last evening was largely contributed by Ernest J. Down, who led the boys in a number of rousing choruses. The community sing was varied by musical efforts on the part of a number of the visitors. Albert Rylands delighted the boys with the rendition of a number of character songs, while L. McLeod Gould contributed some Irish comedy to the programme.

Ernest Down spoke of the excellent work of the Boys' Naval Brigade with fitting reference to their vocal accomplishments. Visitors are welcomed nightly at the Rockside camp, where British Columbia's youthful sailors may be seen in action.

A gracious gift, strange as it may seem! Tea, or "Thea," then was scarcely known in Europe. It was costly. Essentially a luxury known but to Kings and Princes. It was the inferior China Tea, not the richer liquored, bright, clear Brown Tea we know today.

Years of painstaking research work has given us the Blue Ribbon Tea gardens. Soil, climate, modern machine and scientific cultivation give Blue Ribbon Tea that palate-pleasing flavor which has won for it the favor of thousands. Do you know its superior goodness?

Morton Twirls Flawless Game Against Raymonds

Victoria Won Out In Interesting Pitchers' Duel Between Caps' Best Right-Hander and Valencia, a Southpaw; Only Run of Game Scored in Sixth by Leardites.

After two slow, slugging matches the Capitals and their fruit-picking visitors settled down and played a brilliant air-tight game yesterday afternoon at the Stadium. Harry Morton locked arms with Valencia in a pretty pitchers' duel...

Valencia was in splendid form, and granted just the same number of hits as Morton, but was not as steady, walking four men and hitting one. He also chucked the ball to the outfield in the sixth, and this made it possible for the Capitals to drive in their only score.

Carman was the only Capital outfielder who put his glove on a ball. He blocked a line drive from Harrigan. The remainder of the work was done by the infield, which snapped up fifteen grounders for out.

Both teams will battle this afternoon at 5:30 o'clock at the Stadium. Cy Young will probably be Leard's selection for the mound.

Yakima was unable to do a thing with Morton from then on, only three men facing him in each of the remaining innings.

SIDNEY WILL PLAY VANCOUVER CHAMPS

Island Lacrosse Team to Perform on Mainland Saturday; Play Return Game

(By Special Correspondent.)

Sidney, Aug. 12.—Arrangements have been made for a game between the Nationals, winners of the Senior City Series of Vancouver, and the Sidney Lacrosse Club, on Saturday, August 14. The Up-Islanders leave on Friday night for the Mainland to play the game. The game is scheduled for 8 o'clock, and this will give the Sidneys a chance to see the big pro. game in the afternoon.

As the Sidney players have now struck their gait, a fast and hot game is looked for. Sidney being anxious to show the Mainlanders that the Island brand of lacrosse compares very favorably with their own.

The game with Victoria, scheduled for Saturday next, has been postponed until a later date, when the regular league fixture will be pulled off. The Nationals will play a return game in Sidney at a date to be selected after Saturday's game.

The Sidney Team. The team to represent Sidney will be selected from the following: Purdy, Simpson, W. Munro, E. Munro, Clegg, Johnson, Potchell, Popham, M. Norton, E. Norton, Lumber, Veitch, M. McClure, Burton, Gehrke, E. McClure and Robertson.

A large crowd of supporters expect to accompany the team, as they are plugging for a win for the locals.

Fans Paying Way. A subscription list to pay the expenses of the team to Vancouver has been started and the citizens are subscribing very generously. Whether Sidney wins or loses it will help advance the town and show the athletic spirit that is prevalent in Sidney. These inter-city games will foster the lacrosse movement, and though expensive, are always good drawing cards.

Soccer Meeting. A meeting of the Sidney Athletic Association was held last evening, when a secretary and vice-captain of the soccer team was elected and arrangements were made for the regular football season which starts next month.

CIVIC PICNIC A GREAT SUCCESS

Six Hundred Employees Enjoy Outing at Patricia Bay

ROYAL VICTORIA

Vincent Coleman, who is seen in the leading juvenile role in "Should a Husband Forgive?" the big William Fox special, which will be shown again to-day at the Royal Victoria Theatre, has come to the screen with a wealth of stage experience, although this is only his second motion picture appearance.

Mr. Coleman's first stage experience was a year's vaudeville tour in his own act. Then he joined the war heroes, called to the rescue, transported the remaining merry makers. All arrived without mishap at Alderman Sangster's ranch which was the ideal spot for an outing, there being plenty of room for sports with the ocean nearby to lure the more daring spirits in for a dip.

The sports programme included every kind of competition imaginable—wheelbarrow races, three-legged races, jumping tug-of-war and various other events. Indeed, the contests proceeded during a large part of the day, the energetic competitors stopping only to partake of the dainties which they had brought with them.

Meanwhile large numbers of spectators gathered to watch the contests. The programme was well received and the participants were congratulated about for hours on end.

The big feature of the day turned out to be the tug-of-war in which teams representing various civic departments of the day, the energetic competitors stopping only to partake of the dainties which they had brought with them.

DANCING AND COMEDY AT VAUDEVILLE SHOW

Pantages This Week Offers Variety of Good Things Headed by Russian Dance.

Maurice Golden and his company of artists appear at the Pantages this week in the spectacular scenic production, "The Kremlin of Moscow."

It is undoubtedly one of the most elaborate dance productions that have ever been staged at the popular vaudeville theatre, depicting as it does the famous dances of old Russia and enhanced by the picturesque national costume of the Slavs.

Maurice Golden excels himself and his associates comprise several novelty artists, introducing solo and ensemble dances.

David Franklin contributes an excellent violin solo. The musical features proved to be the selections by the Russian National Slavayko Orchestra, introducing an instrument peculiar to Russia. The famous edifice in Moscow is faithfully reproduced, and the act is altogether most artistically staged. The remarkable dancing rivets the attention. It is an act that will draw the crowds.

Josephine Davis is a dainty young comedienne who renders several catchy songs to the accompaniment of a violinist and pianist, Billy Rogers and Harry Stone. Miss Davis and her associates are responsible for a pleasing entertainment.

Schep's Comedy Circus is back again and enjoys popular favor, particularly with the kiddies. The dogs and monkeys are cleverly trained and introduce some side-splitting comedy into their work.

Harvey, Henry and Grace, two men and a woman, made a comedy sketch "On the Course." The trio have a good line of patter and their musical efforts on brass instruments help to make the offering a success.

"At the Pay Station" is the vehicle by which Charles Fargo and Dolly Richards amuse everybody. Dolly is a comedienne, and her droll delivery makes the act all the more attractive.

There is a film entitled "The Good Ship Rock'n' Rye," which is a veritable scream.

The Pantages is a good place to go to this week. The bill offers a variety of high class entertainment.

"Fair and Warmer," which first saw the light of day in London, where the comedy farce ran for eighteen months continuously, produced by the Mildred Page Players this week, is proving one of the most attractive offerings that this talented company has set on local boards. The story

The "set" represented a restaurant in Paris. Charlie, as a jonesome doughboy, was attempting to speak to a chic mademoiselle in soldier's French. His words were a queer jumble of French and English that was very amusing to a certain dark-eyed, good looking young woman in the tourist party. When the scene was completed, she was introduced to the star.

"Votr' acceing, Meester Ray, ees tres bien," she said. Then with a bantering smile, "But votr' French-pardonnez moi—it ess, what you call ver' punk."

Four years of French at college, enabled Charlie to surprise his friendly critic.

"My doughboy French is very bad," he smiled, "and your English, pardon me, is not so very good. So let's converse in real French and I'm sure we'll understand each other perfectly."

So they did.

MISS PAIGE IS DINED. W. S. Smith, manager of Vitagraph, entertained at dinner at the Los Angeles Athletic Club one evening last week, in honor of Miss Jean Paige, serial star, who has just completed her production, "Hidden Dangers."

The presence of four generations of William Stephen Smith was an interesting feature, the host having his father, his own son and grandson among the guests.

and price range from $125 per acre. One-quarter cash.

Write, phone or call for plan—do it to-day.

This is not a subdivision in the usual sense of the word. It is a close-in subdivision where value is bound to increase owing to the demand for property in this and other parts of the Saanich district.

With the reasonable price and terms we are asking we expect quick disposition of this land, and the present indications are that it will take but a few weeks to dispose of it.

Don't forget to write, phone or call for plan and any further particulars you may desire.

NOTE—This property commands a beautiful view, overlooking Elk Lake, the Straits and Islands.

ATTAR OF ROSES.

Bulgaria will lose much of its charm if it is true that its inhabitants are abandoning the attar of rose industry in favor of tobacco-growing.

Twenty years ago the traveller from Adrianople to Kezanlik—a distance of about ninety miles—found "roses, roses, all the way." Only two varieties were to be seen—the damask, used in the manufacture of the various rose confections beloved by Orientals, and the musk, proved by experience to be the best for making attar, which a Persian poet declares to be more precious than gold.

Tradition says that the scent originated through a certain Sultana ordering a fountain in her garden to be kept supplied with rose-water. The action of the sun presently concentrated the oily particles which rose to the surface, and the gardener, supposing the water to have become corrupt, skimmed off the floating oil. In this operation some of the globules burst, releasing a delightful fragrance.

The story is a possible one; and, at all events, science has largely followed it in extracting the essential oil of the rose. But the result thus obtained by a casual form of fermentation could only be brought to perfection by the distiller's art.

The amount of concentration required may be gauged from the fact that, though ten pounds of roses will impregnate a gallon of water by distillation, a hundred pounds will produce barely half an ounce of attar.

Although much depends on the season and the odoriferous quality of the flowers, it may be said that roughly only one pound of pure attar is hidden in a ton of rose petals. The fragrant mass goes to the still in about twice its own weight of water, and a powerful perfume results; but from this stage the process nearly follows the course suggested by the story of the Sultana's fountain.

The rose-water is exposed to the cool night air in shallow vessels carefully protected from the dust. Within a few hours an oil film of pure attar rises to the surface, and is dexterously skimmed off with a feather. This operation is repeated until the water has yielded up all its essential treasure.

URGES CO-OPERATION

FOR TOURIST TRAVEL

Prominent California Hotel Man Regrets Sectional Jealousies on Pacific

A plea for reciprocity with the tourist districts of California was voiced to The Times last evening by D. M. Linnard, a leading hotel man of Pasadena. Mr. Linnard is proprietor of the Fairmont, one of the three great hotels of San Francisco, which is managed by his son. However, after formerly controlling ten hotels in the United States, Mr. Linnard has now settled down in retirement at Pasadena. During a tour he reached the city yesterday, and is registered at the Empress Hotel.

Mr. Linnard pointed out that much of the successful publicity which had induced the building up of Southern California might have been applied to the whole Pacific Coast, had the vision of past generations been more wisely directed. "The Pacific Northwest Tourist Association," Mr. Linnard said, "is doing the work in a broad comprehensive character, and that work should be duplicated in California, so that setting aside local sectional jealousies, the whole Pacific coast should benefit by the movement of travel. In the past it has not done so, owing to these sectional rivalries."

"While in years gone by, perhaps a generation ago, everyone looked to San Francisco as the capital of the Pacific Coast, the growth of Los Angeles, Portland, Seattle and Vancouver has resulted in splitting up the interests of the residents of the Pacific Coast, yet there is plenty of business to satisfy everyone with the expansion of the coast," Mr. Linnard stated.

Mr. Linnard has just returned from London and Paris, and says it is a remarkable thing how the resorts of France, Switzerland and Italy are advertised in the two capitals, while very little attention of the agent shows places of the American continent.

While the hotels are full, they are quite unable to handle the crowds from the fact that a number are still in Government hands for offices and new hotel buildings are imperative in many of the European cities.

Mr. Linnard has visited Victoria before, but this is his first stay in the city, and from here he will proceed in a leisurely way to Pasadena.

FEED NERVES

PLENTY OF PHOSPHATE IN SUMMER

Keen Minded Men, Energetic and Successful, Rely on It, Asserts Prominent New York Physician.

Bibro-Phosphate a Godsend.

Men and women, nervous and fretful, easily upset and often fatigued, need plenty of organic phosphate, and the sooner they heed this advice the better their health will be.

In every one of the millions of cells that make up your body, phosphorus is a most important part.

Your nervous system, your brain, your blood and even your bones must have a sufficient supply of phosphorus or weariness, nervousness and a general run-down condition, as well as lack of normal mental power is sure to result.

Big men of affairs—mighty men who control industries because of sheer will power and nervous force, know this, or, if they don't, are clever enough to have a physician who does.

Physicians more and more are realizing that Bibro-Phosphate, as dispensed at drug stores, is a necessity to over forty per cent. of men and women, because present day foods do not contain enough phosphate to give the body an opportunity for the nervous system to supply it needs.

Speaking on this very subject, Dr. Frederick C. Lee, Editor-in-Chief of "Physicians' Who's Who," and a nationally known author of medical text books, in a most emphatic statement said:

"If I had my way Bibro-Phosphate should be prescribed in every hospital."

Dr. Lee said: "When the nerve tissue begins to lose its vitality, women begin to lose their youth and vivaciousness. Not lively, pleasant, uncomplaining, moody and dependent. It would indeed be a pity if more men and women were aware of the efficacy of Bibro-Phosphate."

Hot weather is dreaded by men and women who are weak, thin, nervous, timid and lacking in vigorous development because it saps their vitality most.

To all such people Bibro-Phosphate is recommended because it is the one organic phosphate which, when absorbed by the system, will build up the body for a vigorous, healthy body free from any suggestion of weakness or diseased nerves.

Your druggist has Bibro-Phosphate in the original package with complete instructions for best results.

FIVE BIOGRAPHS AT PUBLIC LIBRARY

Roosevelt and Dilke in Political World; Dr. W. T. Grenfell's Work

By Edna Marwick
Theodore Roosevelt, William Roscoe Thayer, "Life of Rt. Hon. Sir Charles Dilke," Stephen Gwynn and Gertrude Tuckwell, "Samuel Butler: A Memoir," Henry Festing Jones.

"Life and Letters of George Alfred Lefroy," H. H. Montgomery. "A Labrador Doctor," Wilfred Thomason Grenfell.

"A contemporary can never judge as the historian of a hundred years after the facts judge, but the contemporary view has also its place, and it may be very nearer to the living truth than is the conclusion formed when the past is cold and remote and the actions are dead long ago. So a friend's outlined portrait, though obvious and impartial, must be nearer the truth than an enemy's can be, for the enemy is not impartial either."

In this way William Roscoe Thayer, in his biography of Theodore Roosevelt, a book which in reality needs no defence, written as it is by the leading contemporary writer of biography, and the lifelong friend of Roosevelt himself. Men who disliked or distrusted Roosevelt can find little to criticize in Mr. Thayer's treatment of the debatable incidents in his career.

The book is discriminating, well-planned and delightfully written. Although the latter portion has something of the nature of an invective, we must remember that it was written by one who found this high tribute for his friend: "Those of us who knew him, knew him as the most astonishing human expression of the creative spirit we had ever seen."

Sir Charles Dilke
Sir Charles Dilke was an influential politician and for more than forty years an outstanding figure in English public life. His biography, therefore, says one reviewer, "will at once take its place among standard works of reference for much of it records in his own words, the important events in British and European history of the second half of the nineteenth century, in which he took a prominent part." The biography is in two volumes, completed and edited by Gertrude Tuckwell. Several sections are descriptive of Sir Charles' lifelong efforts to improve the conditions of the working classes and his literary interests. Altogether his care for the rights of native races, it presents a notable addition to the political and social history of the end of the nineteenth century.

Henry Festing Jones is almost another Boswell in fidelity in his biography of Samuel Butler. This memoir of the author of "Erewhon" reveals a most interesting life, full of one of the best biographies in the unusual experiences. The book is a language," says The London Times, "a document of human nature, because it shows us a particular man in all his circumstances of time and place, and in his own words, as we read it, we know we are getting the New York Times pays this tribute to the work: "For the leisurely reader, who desires to saturate himself with the life of the later Victorian period, these two volumes are treasures. The index at the end of the second book actually sparkles with points of interest, and it is one of the best indices ever made."

The biography is based upon private letters and papers hitherto unpublished.
