Operators Ready to Increase Forces 25 to 100 Per Cent.

MEN HAVE SCATTERED Secured Other Jobs When Mines Were Closed After the War.

By J. C. ROYLE. (Special Cable to The Duluth Herald and Chicago Daily News, Copyright, 1922.) New York, Nov. 17.—Silver, lead, gold and zinc producers of the United States are willing and anxious to increase their working forces from 25 to 100 per cent. They cannot get the men. When the mines were closed down or put on reduced production at the time of the slump in metal prices after the war, trained miners scattered to the four winds and few have returned to underground employment...

MRS. PHILLIPS SAVED LIFE WITH SMILES

Los Angeles, Cal., Nov. 17.—The members of the jury which heard the case of the murder of Mrs. Albert Terminus, a woman of 28, were surprised when she smiled at the defendant's smile, she probably would have been convicted on any other day. The official figures were 837, but those coming under this category in Valparaiso and Chazana were excluded from the report as "unrecoverable." The entire lower section of Chazana was razed; the commercial quarter, railway station, a school and the workshops being among the buildings destroyed. Seventeen are dead and thirty-one injured.

DENFELD HIGH LAD WAS ELECTROCUTED

Marvin Newman Meets Death as He Daringly Climbs Tower.

Death, sudden and painful, came to one of two youths who took a chance today and "played hooky" from school. Choosing to taunt fate by climbing up in a tower amid a maze of high-voltage electric wires, Marvin Newman, 15 years old, who lived at 1425 West Eighth street, was instantly killed when 60,000 volts of electricity passed through his body for five minutes while he dangled on a wire and then fell sixty feet below to the top of a pile of rocks. Carl Anderson, 12 years old, 2421 West Eighth street, his companion, escaped a similar fate because he was afraid to go up in the tower and stood below agape as he saw his pal in the throes of death on the wires.

WIFE SUES HUSBAND WHO LIED TO HER; GIVEN $1,500 BY JURY

No Divorce Asked, Simply Damages for Telling Her He Was a Man of Wealth.

By JAMES R. MCGOUGH. (By Special Leased Wire to The Duluth Herald, Copyright, 1922.) Fort Worth, Tex., Nov. 17.—Her: Lee Gowin of Henrietta, near here, $1,500 to lie to her bride. Instead of asking a divorce, Mrs. Emma L. Gowin, young and comely, sued her erring spouse for damages. The jury awarded her $1,500 and a judgment for divorce on the grounds of fraud. In her suit, however, lawyers believe that she has established a precedent that will prove a forerunner of litigation of an entirely new character. Not a single word was said about divorce. It was a straight out-and-out damage suit. On the witness stand Mrs. Gowin alleged that her husband had promised to marry her but had failed to keep a single one of his promises.

WILLIAM G. SHARP, U. S. DIPLOMAT, DIES AT HIS OHIO HOME

By Special Leased Wire to The Duluth Herald, Copyright, 1922.) Mrs. W. G. Sharp, former U. S. ambassador to France, died at his home here today. Mr. Sharp, who was 63, spent several months in Europe last summer in the interest of his health and according to friends, has not been very well since. All of the five Sharp children were summoned to his bedside last night when his condition became serious. Mr. Sharp was American ambassador to France five years, serving in Paris during the World war. Mr. Sharp's condition became worse this morning when a Cleveland specialist was summoned by attending physicians. Death came an hour later. Mr. Sharp was born at Mount Gleed, Ohio. His parents were George and Mahala Graves Sharp. His childhood was spent in Mount Gleed. When he became of school age, he went to Erie, Pa., with his parents and entered the public schools. After he was graduated from high school, he entered the University of Michigan. In 1881 he was graduated from the law department and was admitted to the Ohio bar.

TRUTH ABOUT THIS MYSTERY MAN HAS BEEN WRITTEN!

The world has many stories about Henry Ford, the billionaire of Detroit, but the first story which has flowed from a pen which is both friendly and just has been written for The Duluth Herald by Dr. S. S. Marquis, Henry Ford's pastor, intimate friend and business associate. When Henry Ford was a struggling mechanic and was Dr. Marquis' parishioner in Detroit, his pastor was studying this remarkable man. When Henry Ford became the multi-millionaire, he chose Dr. Marquis to found and head the Ford welfare department which, during the latter's tenure, became internationally known. There for five years, in closest association with the motor king and his famous corps of executives, Dr. Marquis continued his study of Ford and the Ford business. And now he has written the story of Ford's personality. It is as fascinating as any novel. Not a biography; not bare dates and events. But a colorful, human story of a most remarkable man—the strengths and weaknesses of the most bitterly debated man America. It has never been printed in any form. Read it in daily installments with hitherto unpublished illustrations. This story answers almost any question that you have ever asked about Ford. BEGINS SOON IN THE HERALD

BUYS FARMHOUSE; OPENS A MUSEUM

Chamber of Horrors Established at Scene of Hall-Mills Murders.

By ROBERT TOMPKINS.

Special Local Wire to the Duluth Herald. Copyright, 1922.

New Brunswick, N. J., Nov. 17.—Indignant women of this community will demand that the state authorities interfere to prevent the establishment of a chamber of horrors on the old Phillips farm, scene of the murder of Rev. Dr. Edward Hall and his "wonder mate," Mrs. Eleanor Mills, wife of the sexton of his church.

Aroused over the announcement that the place that was the scene of the Hall-Mills murders is to be converted into a museum, and charge admittance thereto, the women's organization today are discussing the best way to combat what they are unanimous in characterizing as a condition contrary to the morals of adults as well as juveniles.

The contrary is the case. Interest in the tragedy seems on the increase and now comes the announcement that the old Phillips farmhouse is to be opened to all who care to pay the price of admission. It has outraged the senses of the law-abiding element here and the women's organization intend that if possible it will be stopped just how this can be done is the problem.

Mr. Mott today said that he felt confident that he will be able to severely substantiate the entire tale of Mrs. Gibson, the "pig woman" whose story of riding her male to the scene of the tragedy and witnessing the double slaying and who has identified the principals.

Every possible angle will be covered by concrete evidence when we act," said Mr. Mott today.

prohibition will concede that there has been a "shifting of views" but they will argue that it is incidental to the discussion of so widespread reform and that in many places the reaction against prohibition was inevitable because of the miserable attempts at law enforcement made by those not in sympathy with the temperance amendment.

Refering to Movement. Mr. Harding is merely referring in his letters to the movement for modification of the Volstead law, and he predicts it will come up for serious consideration. He doesn't prophesy it will be successful. Nobody can tell what any congress will do after the anti-Saloon league begins its man-to-man canvass and holds senators and representatives to a strict accountability for their acts.

that the Turks contemplate the sudden taking over of the business of the Eastern Telegraph company. Italy must absolutely demand, he said, the clarification of the inter-Allied situation and remain in the Entente, if the Entente still exists, and if not seeking her salvation in other ways. Italy favors complete and equal representation of Russia at Lausanne and hopes the Allies will unite to recognize the concessions already granted by the Entente.

At Brussels Italy will insist that the reparations and the Allied debts shall form one problem. The internal policy will be old-fashioned liberalism and what looks like an economic co-operation.

Italy has found a man. (Great Personal Speech.) (By the Associated Press.) Rome, Nov. 17.—Premier Mussolini's first appearance before the Italian chamber proved a great personal success. He spoke to the deputies as he had addressed the leaders of his Fascist legions, and his orders were received with similar apparent obedience.

He announced his foreign and internal policies and warned his adversaries that the Fascist government had come to stay. He did not ask for a vote of confidence in his government, declaring that if the deputies refused, their mandates would be withdrawn.

His bitterest enemies, who had looked forward to his encounter with the experienced politicians on their own battlefield, were disappointed, and his friends are saying that he is the greatest leader Italy has seen since Cavour, and that the Fascist rule will endure.

Congratulations were showered upon the youthful leader from all sides after he had concluded this exposition of the government's program. All the parliamentary groups joined in the applause with the exception of the extremists, who abstained from displaying any emotion.

CLEMENCEAU HAVING ROUGH TRIP, BUT HOPES TO LAND ON SATURDAY

By FERDINAND PUORI.

Special Wire to the Herald. Copyright by North American Newspaper Alliance and Press Publishing Company. On Board S. S. Paris, Nov. 17.—Former Premier Clemenceau spent the pre-lunch hour yesterday pacing the deck arm in arm with a prominent member of a famous American banking firm, who drew a black picture of the immediate European future.

Headlines were written when he shouted down at Carl. "Oh, for high!" Then his head touched a wire. He dangled on another wire for about five minutes and then fell.

While our authorities are showing all possible consideration everywhere in Anatolia, these organizations have shown a complete lack of loyalty, going so far as to invite the American government to declare war on Turkey. It must be added that all the accusations of these missionaries are without foundation, though the men are in the best position to know the real truth. The action of the re-

PUTS COMPULSORY SAVINGS PLANS FOR WORKERS IN EFFECT

Aulene, Kan., Nov. 17.—Compulsory saving as an industrial experiment among its 1,200 employees has proven more successful than was anticipated by the Associated companies, officials of the company assert.

The plan to have every employee save 10 per cent of his wages was inaugurated July 1, 1922, and on Sept. 1 a survey showed that every individual connected with the Associated companies had succeeded in meeting the requirements of the saving plan, said M. S. Eisenhower of the companies' bureau of public relations.

"The rule was compulsory in that it required that each employee comply or seek affiliation with another concern. The 10 per cent saved, must be invested in some safe and sound interest-bearing security.

"A survey just completed shows that about 600 of the workers are purchasing the preferred stock of the Associated companies, 400 are buying building and loan stock and most of the remaining 200 are placing their savings in banks. The average netting capacity of these savings is 69 per cent.

"While the requirement of the plan is that a minimum of 10 per cent must be put aside each month, many are saving more than the stipulated amount, so that the average for all the employees is between 15 and 19 per cent of their total incomes. The annual payroll of the company is approximately $1,500,000. Concerns all over the country are inquiring as to the success of the plan."

The Associated companies which has its main offices here is composed of electric light and power and telephone companies serving more than 100 cities and towns in Central and Northwestern Kansas.

HAITIAN WOMEN ARE STRONG FOR FLAPPER STYLES

Case-Hitter, Nov. 17.—Haiti often has been referred to as a backward nation, but in dress the Haitian women of the predominating peasant class have anticipated the American flappers in two of her most distinctive traits: Short skirts and the trick of pulling her own hair.

Long before the flapper took them to her heart, short skirts are a necessity to the woman who spends her days toiling in a garden or riding a burro. They wear them short in Haiti when Andrew Jackson was in the White House, and the style has not changed.

It was in 1915 that the peasant woman began to "roll her own" in that year the occupation forces of American marines and shore leave parties of bluejackets brought a golden trail of American coin to the impoverished island. Regiments and ships bought freely in the markets, and the women reaped the benefit. Haiti is a country of caste, and the possession of shoes and stockings marks a decided social advance for the peasant class. They invested their earnings in them, but drew the line at garters, and necessity taught them a substitute.

Down Stockings In Haiti.

It is now a common sight to see the women of Haiti on the roads leading to the city markets, seated side by side on their gray burros, whip out stockings at the city limits, don them while the little burros amble patiently on, and then give them the final twist and roll before lacing their shoes. When the day's work is done, the reverse is accomplished as the city limits drop behind, and stockings are packed away until the next state occasion.

There is one distinctive feature of women's dress in Haitian peasant circles, however, that will hardly find favor in the sophisticated eyes of the American flapper. Frequently one sees among the universal faded blue and white attire, one of red, white and blue, with the three colors arranged in fantastic patterns of stripes and squares, usually topped by a bright red bandanna turban. A peasant woman thus attired, accustomed to carry burdens on her head from infancy, strides along in this gay costume with the carriage of a Greek goddess. She is a "gentle" who has broken one of the laws of the peasant code of conduct, and her self-elected costume openly proclaims to her sisters that she has backslidden from their curious code and is wiping it out by public penance.

AUSTRIANS PROTEST SWARM OF OFFICIALS

Vienna, Nov. 17.—When the new boundary line was drawn between Austria and Hungary last summer the little Burgenland watering place at Sauerbrunn, not far from Vienna, felt to Austria. Now its inhabitants have petitioned the Austrian government for relief from the burden of officials thrown upon them.

They state that under Hungarian rule one official administered the commune, while now they have 500 Austrian officials and their families as rulers. They declare that these officials have requisitioned the hotels and many villas and while formerly the resort averaged 3,000 visitors every season, this summer it had only a few hundred.

BOY SCOUTS MAKE EXPANSION PLANS

Four National Centers Are Proposed to Train Executives.

New York, Nov. 17.—The National Council of the Boy Scouts of America, carrying out its program of expansion, has announced its purpose of opening four big national centers for the expert training of scout executives.

Immediate plans are on foot to establish the first of these centers near New York, and the council is already seeking ground for that purpose. It is hoped to establish other centers, probably one in the Middle West, one in the Far West and one in the South. This "headquarters in the field" will furnish an opportunity to concentrate experimental work as well as furnish an excellent training center, especially for courses in "How to Train Scoutmasters." It is not practicable to bring the executives to the centers for training, since these are in different parts of the country, and it is not possible to move the scoutmaster in the volunteer center who takes charge of a unit into a big city or community to make scouting his business, and direct the volunteer leadership movement. For many years there have been available in different parts of the country various training courses for scoutmasters, but the scoutmaster is the volunteer leader who takes charge of a unit and is not a salaried official.

The scout executive is the salaried official in a big city or community who makes scouting his business, and directs the volunteer leadership movement. For many years there have been available in different parts of the country various training courses for scoutmasters, but the scoutmaster is the volunteer leader who takes charge of a unit and is not a salaried official.

Since the beginning of scouting in its country over twelve years ago, local and 177 eagle holders, the highest rank in scouting, have been made of this number, 1,477 have been alloted since the first of the present year.

It is considered remarkable that with a mere proportion of these ranks of distinction should have been given out in the past ten months. In order to obtain these much coveted eagle badges, the scout begins in a tenderfoot and climbs up the ladder one rung at a time until he becomes a second class, and then a first class scout. It is at this point of the ladder that he has real training, which helps for training him in general lines. After he is a first class scout, he may become a life scout, and then a star scout, and then receive the highest rank, that is Eagle. Elevation of the merit badge the scout must obtain to become an Eagle are specifically in the fields of first aid, life-saving, personal health, public health, cooking, camping, civics, bird study, pathfinding, pioneering and athletics or physical development.

From now until next February the scout organization will conduct a campaign for more members. It is hoped to increase the enrollment by 100,000 scouts, or 32 per cent of the present membership.

Instant Quaker Oats

Cooks to perfection in 3 to 5 minutes

Now there are two great reasons for getting Quaker Oats. One is exquisite flavor. This brand is flaked from queen grains only—just the rich, plump, flavorful oats.

Now there's another style. It is Instant Quaker Oats—the quickest-cooking oats in the world. It cooks in 3 to 5 minutes, so it means an oat dish almost ready.

Same quality, same flavor. But in Instant Quaker the oats are cut before flaking. They are rolled very thin and partly cooked. So the flakes are smaller and thinner—that is all. And those small thin flakes cook quickly.

Your grocer has both styles. If you want Instant look for "Instant" on the label. Then you can have delicious oats ready in 5 minutes.

EXTERMINATOR IS OUT TO EQUAL RECORD OF GREAT MAN O' WAR

Man o' War is still the greatest money winning race horse ever produced in America. Twice within the last fortnight, Exterminator, W. S. Kilmer's fine old gelding, has had a chance to pass the record of $242,465 set by the son of Puritan and each time the old fellow has failed. But Mr. Kilmer, and thousands of other followers of Exterminator have not lost faith in him. Last Saturday when he lost the Pimlico cup for the first time since it was put up in 1919, Exterminator was unquestionably at a distinct disadvantage.

To begin with, after six years of racing "Old Slim" as he is affectionately called, is just winding up one of the toughest seasons of his entire hard-working career. Moreover, he could not have been in the best of condition on Saturday, for he was just recovering from a lameness, which for a time threatened to keep him out for the remainder of the season. On top of these handicaps he got a poor ride from Jockey Martin. In the worst ride, according to his owner, he has ever been given in his lifetime. Small wonder then that he ran third to Captain Alcock and Paul Jones. This is not intended as an alibi. No excuses need be made either for Exterminator or his trainer.

Even although he failed to run his customary race on Saturday, he finished in the money, as he has in 73 of his 90 starts. He thus added another $1,000 to Mr. Kilmer's coffers and now won the impressive sum of $244,465, or just $2,000 less than Man o' War piled up. What his chances are to make up this discrepancy before the end of the present season will not be known until his owner and trainer decide definitely upon their future plans. It is wholly possible that in the face of his showing on Saturday they will decide to call it a season and give Exterminator a much-needed rest.

In the other hand, it is a well known fact that Mr. Kilmer is ambitious to see his horse not only the greatest money winner on this side of the water, but also at the top of the list for all the world. To bring his show "Old Slim" must pass, he

QUEBEC BOYS AND GIRLS HOG OWNERS
 Montreal, P. Q., Nov. 17.—Fifteen hundred boys and girls in Quebec are the proud possessors of hogs. Boys and girls' clubs all over the province are organizing to put the hog raising industry on a basis of greater prosperity than it has known before. The Quebec government, in cooperation with the Dominion government, is assisting in the organization work and applications have been received from several hundred youngsters for admittance into the clubs. A government official is constantly traveling between the various clubs, inspecting and giving advice on the breeding and raising of the animals. Already this year seven carloads of hogs have been received by Montreal packing companies from swine clubs located in six different counties in the province.

Tokio, Nov. 17.—Dr. Charles A. Beard of New York, here to advise the Tokio municipality in the task of converting the capital city into a

A start has been made in some parts of the city but only in piecemeal fashion and it will be for another generation to see Tokio with a regular system of sewerage and the abolition of the night soil carts.

INDIAN COLLECTION REVEALS HISTORY

Displayed in Museum at New York Devoted to Aborigines.

New York, Nov. 17.—Every state in the Union and all the Americas were represented in the official opening of the Museum of the American Indian, today, dedicated to the interpretation of the life of the aborigines of the Western world.

Within the walls of this great institution, the collection of which already comprises nearly 500,000 specimens, it was announced, the mystery of the origin of the red men may be revealed through intensive research. Such is the hope of George G. Hayes, founder and director of the museum, and of the trustees.

Members of the cabinet, Federal officials interested in Indian affairs, governors of the different communities, the distinguished company of citizens and historians who have gathered to the museum, viewed the collections now installed in the spacious building at Broadway and One Hundred and Fifty-fifth street. The structure is one of a group which also includes the Museum of the Hispanic Society, the American Numismatic society and the American Geographical society.

Dr. Arthur M. Hooten, who has done so much to develop this center of study of the past, was the donor of the site of the Museum of the American Indian and he and other men of wealth contributed to its building fund. Nearly every state in the Union has at least one case in the museum devoted to relics of the Indians who once dwelt within its borders.

The Indians who once inhabited Manhattan Island were especially at home in the upper part of what is now the lower section of New York city. A carefully prepared model represents the life which they led in the rock shelters, which remain to this day. Illustrative figures, like marionettes, were placed before a representation of the ancient residence to demonstrate the early history and traditions of the Manhattan island.

Sacred Bundles Shown. By far the largest collection of sacred bundles in the country is housed in this museum. Among the bundles, when a boy found himself surrounded by a crowd, he would take a bundle and hold it in his hand. The bundles were made of animal skins, which would make him fierce in attack in a primitive war, or to enable him to dodge. All these objects, which were supposed to give attributes to the person wearing, were gathered in bundles and carried with him when he went into battle.

One of the richest portions of the collection, representing life in the South-

SERB RULERS' MINUS ROYAL POMP, ARE JUST LIKE ORDINARY MORTALS AFTER ALL

King Alexander of Jugo-Slavia and Queen Marie. King Alexander of Jugo-Slavia and his wife, Queen Marie, when out for a stroll minus all their royal trappings, might be mistaken for a couple of their subjects. west, where Coronado sought the fabled seven cities of Cibola, which were said to be overflowing with gold and treasure. The dream of the conqueror was not realized, but there are in the museum many remarkable carvings and ceramics from the ancient settlements he visited.

The visitors saw many rare ornaments in gold from various regions of the country, illustrative of aboriginal art. For purposes of study they would have done as well had they been wrought in copper, but since they are worth about $20,000, they are always in charge of special guards and are heavily insured.

Human Food Dishes. The collections from British Columbia include food dishes as big as modern habitable, a remarkable whale's head made from the trunk of a whale's head, and many other objects which show the resourcefulness and skill which was attained by the Indians of the Far Northwest. Alaska and the land of the Eskimos are represented by many fur garments of great value and beauty. In fact, the whole range of the Western world, from the tropics to the poles, may be seen in relation to the manners and the customs of its aborigines.

One of the most ancient of the civilizations was visualized by the fine examples of the art of the Mayas, a race which disappeared before the Aztecs. In this division was shown the most pieces of painted pottery of played in the worship of the planet Venus, and carries a picture of prehistoric rites executed in thousands of small bits of the stone varying in shade from light green to a deep blue green, all arranged so as to give an exquisite blending of colors.

Ecuador is revealed by a remarkable collection of stone ceremonial seats, not unlike the classic chairs with scroll arms which were fashioned by the Greeks and Romans.

Another unusual feature of the collection is an array of objects from Venezuela, typical of the aboriginal days. A comparatively new field in archaeology is represented by the collection from Brazil, which is the most recent acquisition of the institution.

The imagination of the visitors was kindled at the sight of a wooden canoe paddle, precisely of the type described in the voyages of Columbus, and judged by experts to belong to that period. This rare object was found in a cave in Cuba which had been sealed for centuries by the action of the sea.

The space for exhibition permits the showing of only a small part of the collections at one time. For the benefit of scholars, artists, designers, manufacturers, and for the general public, there are glass covered drawers under the cases, which can be pulled out by those who desire to pursue their inspection.

The Sieur de Brez of Paris is said to have invented candle molds.

REBECCA OF PRUDENCE ISLAND IS ENGINEER

Prudence Island, R. I., Nov. 17.—This island today boasts the only young woman licensed ferry engineer in New England, and possibly in the country. She is Miss Rebecca Chase, of 27 summers, and she rises early every morning to take her place at the throttle of the ferryboat Harvest, connecting the island with Bristol.

That she is at home on the sea is demonstrated by her license, which grants her the right to navigate a power boat. Frequently she directs the Harvest with the skill of the ablest skipper.

Shortly after America entered the World war her grandfather, owner of the ferry, unable to obtain an engine, called upon Miss Chase, who was an experienced automobile driver. She succeeded in passing the necessary examinations.

Miss Chase keeps her domain below decks spick and span. She believes in being a good housekeeper on shipboard as well as at home.

Each human being takes about eighteen breathes a minute, or nearly 26,000 a day.

EQUAL RIGHTS LAW BACKED BY WOMEN

Focus Efforts on Bills in Michigan and in Ohio.

Chicago, Nov. 17.—The National Woman's party is focusing particular attention on Michigan and Ohio, and agitation is under way in both states for the passage of an equal rights law. This far the only state to pass the equal rights law passed by the woman's party in Wisconsin. The proposed law provides that women shall enjoy all rights, privileges and immunities possessed by men.

Mrs. Nelson Whittemore of Detroit, Mich., quotes Senator Townsend of Michigan as saying to her the day the woman's party formally introduced its equal rights program in Michigan, "I stand for equality of men and women." The senator promised his support to the women, according to Mrs. Whittemore. On the other hand, leaders of the party in Ohio say they are encouraged by the fact that Ohio was the third state to pass the equal rights amendment.

The report of the party on the two states declared that "in Ohio men in parliament and there are few states where women occupy a more degraded place in respect to rights under the law." It also asserted, "Even today it is true in Michigan that married women in this state have no general capacity to make contracts."

The report, which was prepared by women lawyers, said that in Ohio, "The husband as head of the household owns the services of his wife and earnings of his children. The husband is entitled to damages when the wife is injured through the negligence of a third person, just as he is entitled to damages for injury to his own property. A court decision said if the wife for any reason was unable to perform her services, the loss was the husband's, not her's. On the other hand, the Ohio supreme court has ruled that a wife has no property interest in her husband's services. Ohio is one of the seven states which still consider the father the natural guardian of the children and entitled to their custody and control, to their services and earnings."

Inconsistency Charged.

"One of the strange inconsistencies of the Michigan law," said the investigators, "with regard to a contract is shown in the fact that a married woman is held responsible by the courts if she goes to the store and buys supplies for her family and charges them in her name. She and not her husband may be required to pay for them. The theory that a wife is not allowed to contract for her own protection thus falls down completely, when she may contract and be bound by it if she is buying necessities for her family in her own name."

"The theory that a wife who aids her husband in committing a crime is presumed to be acting under his coercion and is therefore not guilty is, with certain restrictions, still in force in Michigan. In two cases in 1921, where wives had operated stills in their homes, the husbands, not the wives, were convicted of violating the law."

"In Michigan a boy is not capable of marrying until he is 18, but in the case of a girl, the legal age is 15. Since minority is meant as a protection to young people, the law should extend this protection to girls at least as long as to boys."

U. S. FILM RENTALS TOO HIGH FOR LONDON.

London, Nov. 17.—American motion picture producers will have to come down in their rental charges in London, or face the possibility of losing the monopoly they now enjoy. This is the ultimatum of the London cinema owners.

The present high theater taxes, which the government has refused to lower, leave very little margin for the picture rentals, and at present rates French and Italian films, and those produced in England both by

English and American companies, are being booked because of their low rentals, and this in spite of the fact that American pictures are more popular with the public.

Managers have recently refused to book Charlie Chaplin's picture, "Pay Day," and no advance bookings are being made for new or expected releases. Two theaters have canceled all their bookings, and are showing pictures released several years ago.

BETTER BUSINESS WITH MEXICO IS MOVEMENT'S AIM

Chicago, Nov. 17.—Development of business contact between the United States and Mexico will be the purpose for which several hundred representative commercial and financial leaders of the country will leave this city for Mexico following adjournment of the annual convention of the Southern Commercial congress.

Dr. Clarence J. Owens, president of the congress which is directing the expedition, said the trip would consists about two weeks and would include several points of Mexico as well as the United States.

The trip from Chicago to Laredo, Tex., where the expedition will enter Mexico, is being arranged with the help of G. G. Truesdale, assistant general passenger agent of the Illinois Central railroad, and J. J. McQueen, general passenger agent of the Missouri Pacific road.

During the trip from Laredo to Mexico City, members of the expedition will be guests of the Mexican government and will be entertained during their stay in the Mexican capital. The return trip will be by way of New Orleans.

Special trains will carry the delegation from Chicago through St. Louis and San Antonio to Laredo. From Nuevo Laredo the Mexican National railway will carry the group to Mexico City where they will remain five days.

Officials of the Illinois Manufacturers' association have notified officials of the congress that it will be officially represented on the trip and will cooperate in obtaining adequate representation from Illinois and the Middle West.

Know Tootsie's Love-Tutor?

BET a hat you'll guess it before we say, "Al Jolson!" Who else could it be; who else could take Tootsie a'tooting up and down Lovelane like Al, old boy? All the girls know Al!

A la Jolson, you call "Toot, Toot, Tootsie," for it's a peach from the garden of love! Al makes it quite sad for every one when he bids Tootsie a fond farewell—yes, to be exact, seven continuous and consecutive farewells. Then, with a breezy "Toot, Toot, Tootsie, Goo' Bye!" he hops a choo-choo and hies himself hence.

On the other side of this record, there's old friend Frank Crumit awaiting a turn with "True Blue Sam"—the tale of the traveling man! Here's a scream, all right, for it tells how Sam blew into Honolulu. There he saw a South Sea Sadie shaking her shredded wheat. That settled it! What happened next—well, you want to hear it! What's the use of taking the kick out of the situation! Both songs on 10-inch Record A-3705, for 75c.

But these are just samples picked from the new Columbia program that's out to-day. They're all equally good. And they're all made by the new three-ply, laminated process—an exclusive Columbia feature which gives Columbia Records a playing surface of velvet-smoothness that does away with disconcerting surface sounds.

Darling Will Have on Display Soon Suns That Dwarf Old Sol

Duluth Astronomer Opens Observatory Last Week of Month for Showing of Celestial Giants.

By J. H. DARLING.

Visitors will be welcomed at the observatory, 910 West Third street, on Nov. 22, 23, 24, 25 and 26, weather permitting. Reservations should be secured in advance by phoning me at 4412 or 412. The moon and various stars will be shown through the six-inch telescope.

The Winter Constellations—The so-called winter constellations, famed for their beauty, are now coming into view and can be well seen in the latter part of the evening and still better about midnight, or soon after that hour. They come to the meridian half an hour earlier every week and will admit of being seen during the coming winter months. Every year they return to greet us, like old acquaintances, and their coming is always most welcome to star gazers. Here are some of them: Orion, pictured by the imaginatively ancient as a mighty hunter equipped with club and sword and a lion's skin for battling the great bull inaurus which is headed for him, a spectacle which should interest the Mexicans and Spaniards; Taurus, with the first-magnitude star, Aldebaran, marking the eye of the bull and including the Hyades and Pleiades clusters within its boundary; Perseus, with the "Demos Head" Algor, which has a large part of its light at regular intervals; Andromeda, with a large nebula; Cassiopeia, with the "great square" 16 degrees (nearly) on each side and each corner marked by a bright star; Canis Major, with Sirius, the brightest of all fixed stars; Canis Minor, Gemma, Cassiopeia, Ursa Major (Big Dipper), these groups are familiar to many of your readers.

Curved Line of Stars.

Note a row of bright stars forming a long and regular curve, commencing with the bright Sirius, the curve passes to the left and upward through Procyon, Canis Minor, Betelgeuse and Casar of Gemini, Alpha of Auriga and terminates in the first-magnitude star Rigel, which is a "star" of the "great square" of Orion. This curved line always strikes me as very graceful and beautiful.

The Orion constellation has an "asterism" or a number of special features. It includes two first-magnitude stars—Rigel and Betelgeuse, the latter being the "great square" of Orion. It has been written within the last two years its angular diameter was successfully measured at the Mount Wilson observatory Dec. 15, 1920, with a twenty-foot reflecting telescope, the first use of the light star's messenger. The measurement, taken with the distance of 192 light-years gives for the star the prodigious diameter of 21,000,000 miles, subject to considerable error, however, as the distance is not precisely known.

Taurus also has a giant star, Aldebaran, which is being measured, and a preliminary measurement indicates a diameter of 25,000,000 miles. The distance is fifty light-years. A giant star, it will be recalled, is one in an early stage of its development by comparison from an original nebulous mass. Its color is red and its radiation of light and heat of low intensity. Although of immense size, there are reasons for believing that its density is very small and that it radiates an extremely rare stream of "ionized" matter.

Swirling Group of Stars.

It has been stated that the stars are all in motion, with various velocities and generally speaking in various directions as if at random. Taurus, however, contains a group of six bright stars comprising part of the Hyades cluster and some others, which have been found to be traveling in the same direction and with the same velocities. The direction is a few degrees east of the direction of Betelgeuse. This group forms an exclusive set in starland. They prob-

Who Will Be Presidential Candidates?

The result of the recent elections has given rise to speculation as to what effect it will have on the selection of presidential candidates in 1924. If Harding decides not to seek another term, who will be the Republican nominee—Hiram Johnson, the Independent, Job La Follette, the radical; Harry Davis, defeated in Ohio, or Gifford Pinchot, independent Republican governor-elect of Pennsylvania? On the Democratic side, will the nominee be James M. Cox, William Gibbs McAdoo or Governor-elect Al Smith of New York?

As dense as our atmosphere at sea level the mass of the nebula would be so great as to conceal by its gravitation all the stars in that region to travel towards it. But no such mass has been observed. How a nebula so extremely rare can radiate light as that does is incomprehensible as yet. I wonder if the record of the spectroscopy is correctly interpreted in this case? Here is one of the enigmas that confront the astronomer.

Election Appeal Denied.

Austin, Minn., Nov. 17.—Judge J. P. D. McElghon issued an order dismissing the petition of William T. Ketch of Breton, defeated candidate for judge in the Tenth district, to have the election of Ralph J. Parker declared illegal. Ketch alleged votes cast for Parker should not be counted because, as a member of the legislature, he had voted for a certain measure allowing district judges certain expenses. It is thought Ketch will take an appeal to the state supreme court.

CUBAN GIRL VICTIM OF "WITCH DOCTORS"

Santa Cruz, Del Sur, Camagueyes Province, Cuba, Nov. 17.—Discovery of the mutilated body of Celia Gonzalez Lisea, 5-year-old white child who disappeared a week ago, disclosed that the little girl was the victim of witch doctors.

The authorities express the belief that the child was kidnapped and her heart torn out to be used in voodoo practices. They assert they have evidence that the crime was the result of a negro sorcerer's attempt to cure the wife of one of the employees of the Sugar Central Camagueyes, near here, of tuberculosis. One of the half dozen suspects being held in Camagueyes, a Haitian, is added, is suspected of being the leader in the voodoo outrage.

Market Gagged by Fire.

McIntosh, Minn., Nov. 17.—The meat market of Opepeard & Jensen has been closed since Wednesday after the fire early that morning. Mr. Lude, night man at the Great Northern station, discovered the blaze when he brought the mail from the early morning's train to the postoffice. The alarm was immediately given and the fire quelled before it had time to spread. Damage was done to the floor and some of the fixtures. The shop will be closed for several days in order to make necessary repairs.

WINTER BUILDING PROGRAM IS HEAVY

Residential Work Figures Extensively in Planning.

Chicago, Nov. 17.—More than the usual amount of winter activity in building, with residential work taking a prominent part, is indicated in a survey of activities made by The American Contractor, in twenty-seven states forming the main north-western part of the United States.

Valuation of the 2,111 contracts awarded for the week ending Oct. 23, reached a total of $4,184,000 and was but slightly lower than the weekly average for the first nine months of this record-breaking year, says the publication.

The volume of contracts awarded during the last two weeks of October, which are normally dull, shows that there is expectation of less lettings than usual during the winter period, the paper states. "There are innumerable firms which show these building activities to be in no danger of a slump for months to come."

Contemplated work reported for the week ending Oct. 23 totaled $10,942,500. For the corresponding week of 1921, this total was only $8,222,000 and the execution of contracts awarded was only $6,118,000. For the fall of 1922 was considered a good omen for the spring season of 1923.

Other Work in Prospect.

"Of the contemplated work for the week, $46,491,200 is for residential building as against $12,231,100 for business, building and $17,225,100 for industrial building. While the demand for residence building has not diminished and will not diminish for some time, there is little business and industrial building going on and a period of ornamental building in abeyance. Business expansion will add "these which must be done soon."

In addition, "Skilled labor will be scarce next year as it is now. Indications are that no reduction will be made in wages of common labor which is all absorbed. Material men are producing at increased costs. The demand for labor and materials in the spring will equal the supply. From such facts, a definite logical conclusion regarding future building costs can be drawn by anyone."

STUDY FARMING FINANCE TO WORK OUT CREDIT PLAN

(By the Associated Press.)

Chicago, Nov. 17.—Study of agricultural finance, with the view of recommending amendments to existing laws to include a system of short-time credits for the American farmer, will be taken up at the annual convention of the Southern commercial congress, to convene here Nov. 20.

Financing of the exportation of the surplus farm crops of America, as well as discussions of the extension of credits, will be brought before the meetings, according to Dr. Clarence J. Owens, president of the congress. This will be in furtherance of the work of the congress in pushing the enactment of the Federal farm loan system, which Dr. Owens characterizes as the greatest achievement of the congress since its organization in 1887.

By a resolution passed at the convention at Nashville in 1912, the congress assembled a commission directed to investigate agricultural organization and co-operation in eighteen countries of Europe. Various state laws resulted, including the marketing law of California, and the short-time credit law of New York, and the Federal farm loan act, under which there were established twelve great banks, and more than 4,000 farm loan associations, with loans to date aggregating more than $80,000,000.

"It was this law, without any further Federal legislation, that carried America through the World war, furnished the margin of finance for American agriculture whereby we produced the food for our army and navy for our country, and, to a large extent, for our allies," said Dr. Owens. "The benefits that have accrued to America are being carried to other these nations."

countries of the Western hemisphere, and the movement now is actively on that will, in a large measure, regenerate the agricultural life of the Americans and will react in value to the industrial and commercial life of

VIENNA ASKS RETURN OF NAPOLEONIC RELICS

Vienna, Nov. 17.—In 1914 the municipality of Vienna sent to the Lyons fair a priceless exhibit of relics of the Franco-Austrian period of Napoleon's time. They included many mementoes of the French emperor and of Mary Louise, and other articles of great historic interest. The war came and the collection is still in France. This week the mayor of Vienna petitioned the French minister to restore it to the city. It is understood these articles are now in the hands of the French liquidator of alien enemy properties.

Another Great Sale of New Fur Trimmed Coats

Thank the weather man—his mild weather in October made these bargains possible.

High grade coats at a bargain

A few days of warm weather frightened some of the manufacturers — our New York buyer quickly took advantage of their panic and made a remarkable purchase. We pass the saving along to you. The values are wonderful.

The very last word in styles

is a feature that makes this the foremost coat event of the season. Such late and accepted style ideas as side ties and buckles, long Balkan blouses, and corded effects are here in profusion. The materials are those soft napped, luxurious, silky looking fabrics, which one finds only in quality coats.

Every woman should see these beautiful coats at

DULUTH TAX RATE MAY BE REDUCED

School Board Only Place Where Increase Shows; Others Decline.

Duluth's tax rate in 1923 will likely be pared 97 mill, according to the tentative levies compiled by Walter H. Borger, county auditor.

The county valuation has not yet been set by the Minnesota tax commission although the valuation is not expected to materially change that at present in effect, and Duluth's rate will hardly be increased.

The figures compiled by Mr. Borger are as follows:

1922	1923
State	4.18
School	22.90
City	21.05
County (estimated)	9.67
Total	57.80

Only One Increase.

When the budgets were first presented and tentative levies made by the city, school and county it was estimated that Duluth would pay 6.3 mills more than the 67.9 mills assessed this year. However, the wholesale slumping by the officials brought the levy down so that only the school shows an increase.

The division of funds made by the board of education is as follows: Local mill tax and special tax, 1.8 mills; general funds, 16.31; building, 2.15; striking, 2.87; teachers' retirement fund, 1 mill.

The city levy of 21.98 mills is divided: General, 2.71; interest, 1.81; sinking, 2.82; safety, 7.77; public works, 3.5; welfare, 1.17; library, 0.73; judgment, 0.37; police pension, 0.3; firemen's relief, 0.1.

THANKSGIVING AT ENDION M. E. CHURCH

An outstanding event of the winter season in the Endion Methodist church is to be a "Thanksgiving Musical." A cantata, carrying the spirit of the gratitude which pervades the season, is to be rendered by the Endion church choir under the direction of Prof. Carl Horzwardt. The composition to be used is by H. N. Buckeley. This antiphonal musical service will take place on the Sunday evening preceding Thanksgiving day, and will be open to the general public.

The soloists will be Miss Edie Sodahl, soprano; Miss Olive Arthur, alto; Ed Scriven, tenor; and A. B. Swanson, bass. The personnel of the chorus will be:

Soprano, Miss Edie Sodahl, Mrs. Clarence Nixon, Mrs. A. J. Wood, Miss Ivelle Smith, Miss Helen Smith, Miss Frances McLeod, Miss Marian Wood, Miss Doreen Mountford, Miss Elsie Lang, Miss Frances Thompson, and Miss Marion Thompson.

The alto, Miss Olive Arthur, Mrs. A. B. Swanson, Mrs. Edward H. Hatch, Miss Elizabeth Willcutt, and Miss Ivelle Thompson. Tenor, Ed Scriven, Levoy Smith, Willie Veer, and J. Wood. Basses, A. B. Swanson, John Schlemmer, Wesley Spink, H. T. Hare and H. T. Vogensen.

"GOSPEL IN NATURE" SERIES EACH SUNDAY

Next Sunday is the third in the series of "Gospel in Nature" and "Gospel in Art" sermons which are given by Dr. Farnell at the First Methodist church. The evening message next Sunday will be "The Trees of the Hill" and the evening theme is a gospel message based on Holman Hunt's picture, "The Light of the World." A lively gospel song service precedes the evening service and a flute and a soprano solo, also an anthem by the large chorus make a musical program of great interest. Next Sunday's sermons are the last of the present series.

HIT EXTRAVAGANCE OF COLLEGE STUDENTS

London, Nov. 17.—Much criticism has been directed against the faculties of Cambridge and Oxford, as being responsible for the extravagant life led by many of the undergraduates of the universities. The subject gained wide publicity recently when a student committed suicide because of financial difficulties.

Dr. Farnell, vice-chancellor of Oxford university, in his address at the opening of the fall semester, said he had to admit that complaints, occasionally lodged against undergraduates of extravagant living, were not altogether without foundation. He blamed the local shopkeepers for giving students credit, and urged that students be limited in the amount of money allowed them.

Dr. Farnell pointed out that the days of "pendennis" when undergraduates were allowed to have parties in their rooms and to be without restriction out of school hours, had gradually come to an end, and he said that nowadays cases of drinking among students were almost unknown.

SWISS ROADS TRY TO REVIVE TRAFFIC

Geneva, Nov. 17.—The tourist trade in Switzerland has fallen to such a low ebb that Swiss railroads are considering ways and means to revive it.

To this end they have offered reductions in railroad fares amounting to 30 per cent to parties of English tourists, effective January 1. A similar reduction probably will be offered later to Americans.

Now Is The Time To Buy Cranberries For Preserving

Then you can enjoy the delicious tart flavor of this health-giving fruit every day in the year.

Cranberries are reasonable in price. They are easily and quickly prepared—no peeling—no cores—no waste. Economical!

You can make 10 tumblers of jelly with 2½ pounds of sugar and 8 pounds of cranberries! Try this recipe:

Cranberry Jelly

Cook until soft the desired quantity of cranberries with 1½ pints of water for each two quarts of berries. Strain the juice through a jelly bag.

Measure the juice and heat it to the boiling point. Add one cup of sugar for every two cups of juice; stir until the sugar is dissolved; boil briskly for five minutes; skim, and pour into glass tumblers, porcelain or crockery molds.

Always cook cranberries in porcelain-lined, enameled, or aluminum vessels.

To be sure of a selection of the choicest varieties—ask for Eatmor Cranberries.

Army Flying Ace Dies in Flames As Plane Hits Tree and Crashes

Placing wreckage in which Lieut. John Blaney lost his life.

Plane crashed out of the life of Lieut. John Blaney, army flyer, at the Hartford, Conn., aviation meet. Just after it had received the honors of military honors after a contest with fifteen flies. Shortly after winning this prize his plane crashed after striking a tree and fell in flames. Blaney died in the wreckage. He was recognized as one of the most daring flyers in service.

GREATER USE OF MOTOR TRUCK IN MARKETING STOCK

Stock City, Iowa, Nov. 17.—Marketing of livestock by motor truck is the latest development in the livestock business. It is the result of the introduction of the motor truck into the livestock business. The motor truck has been used for the marketing of livestock for some time, but it is now being used in a much more extensive way. The motor truck is being used to transport livestock from the farm to the market, and it is being used to transport livestock from the market to the slaughterhouse. This is a great improvement over the old method of transporting livestock by rail or by wagon. The motor truck is faster, more reliable, and it causes less stress on the animals. It is also more economical, as it can carry a larger load than a wagon or a rail car. The use of the motor truck in the livestock business is a sign of the progress of the industry.

LIVESTOCK SHOW'S ENTRIES ARE MANY

Chicago, Nov. 17.—Entries for the International Livestock exhibition, to be held here Dec. 2 to 9, have exceeded all previous records in the history of the show. Secretary-Manager H. H. Fields has announced. "Not only will the classes of cattle, horses and sheep be larger than ever," said Mr. Fields, "but the quality of the stock will surpass any exhibition previously staged on the American continent."

MINE OUTLOOK IN KOREA DEPRESSING

Seoul, Korea, Nov. 17.—It is feared the outlook for mining in Korea is not very promising, at least in the immediate future. There was a great boom in this country during the war as the strong demand and high prices prevailed made it possible to mine on many promising prospects with a small outlay of capital from the surplus workings, of which the natives were able to reap a rich profit for themselves and the buyers who handled and exported the product. With the decline of prices and increased difficulty of working, with added costs, the industry completely stopped, until today there is not a single active working mine-producing minerals in Korea as the result of a combination of foreign energy and capital. The foreign energy in the country that has been introduced in quantity is Kaobum, bituminous coal in Korea, so far as developed, is mediocre at best, less in origin, and in many cases running into lignite. There is a good anthracite horizon, but the most accessible was at once taken over by the Japs.

TOO MUCH MEAT - HURTS KIDNEYS

Take a Glass of Salts to Flush Kidneys If Bladder Bothers You.

Eating too much meat may produce kidney trouble in some form or other, says a well-known authority, because the uric acid excreted by the kidneys, they become overworked, get sluggish, clog up and cause all sorts of distress, particularly backache and misery in the kidney region; rheumatism, sciatica, severe headaches, acid stomach, constipation, torpid liver, sleeplessness, bladder and urinary irritation. The moment your back hurts or "litters" aches, or your right or left bladder bothers you, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys may then get free. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity; also to neutralize the acids in the urine so that it no longer irritates, thus often ending bladder disorders. Jad Salts cannot injure anyone; makes a delightful after-dinner beverage; cures indigestion; cures the summer months; and women take now and then to help keep the kidneys and urinary organs clean, thus often avoiding serious kidney disorders.

TOKIO NOW WORLD'S THIRD BIGGEST CITY

Tokyo, Nov. 17.—Tokyo has become the third largest city in the world, according to a report issued by the Japanese government. The city's population is now estimated to be 10,000,000. This is a significant increase from its previous population of 7,000,000. The growth of Tokyo is due to a combination of factors, including industrialization, urbanization, and immigration from rural areas. The city is now a major center of commerce and industry in Japan, and it is expected to continue to grow in the future.

AUSTRIAN RAILROAD FARES ARE AISED

Vienna, Nov. 17.—Railroad fares in Austria were raised by 200 per cent early this month, making them now 100 per cent higher than they were in August, 1922. Even with this heavy increase, it is estimated that the deficit still will be about 1,000,000,000 crowns a day. The passenger deficit is said to be largely the result of the enormous amount of free transportation, or so-called "post gratis," enjoyed by government servants during the summer months. It was estimated that at least half the travel was of this class. So far the government has taken no steps toward abolishing the evil.

Quality Clothes for the men of Duluth

Columbia Clothes seek no competition in cheapness and fear none in quality. The finest in everything, including the best hand-tailoring, is in them and you will get the longest wear out of them per dollar and per day.

The hidden hand-tailoring in our best suits and overcoats keeps in forever those life-like lines that the skilled designer puts in for style. If quality is reduced by the makers to meet a price, then art and taste and pride go out of clothes, and all that is left is 3/4 yards of cloth put together by machine and held together by hope. The finest merchant tailor's clothes might come up to our Steep-Bled Suits and Coats. The mediocre tailor comes nowhere near them, and they stand a notch higher than all other well advertised ready-to-wear brands in America, though they cost no more.

It's Glove time, It's Overwear time, It's Overcoat time, And this is the place. How about adding a Derby Hat to your wardrobe? You will need it one of these days.

Come in tomorrow and pick your new suit and coat. We want you to take your time and you can't take too much of ours, for serving goes before selling at this shop.

VOCATIONAL SCHOOL IN OLD BOX CAR

Lakeland, Florida, Nov. 17.—A vocational school conducted in an old box car at the station at the Atlantic coast. The school is being conducted by the Federal and State governments and is a part of the vocational education program. The school is housed in a box car that has been converted into a classroom. The school is open to students from the surrounding area and is providing vocational training in various fields. The school is a success story and is a model for other vocational schools.

HIGH RATES EMPTY HOTELS OF VIENNA

Vienna, Nov. 17.—The cost of living in Austria, particularly Vienna, is now higher than in any country of Europe except Czechoslovakia. Prices generally have risen with incredible rapidity, until now hotel rates are equal to Paris, while restaurant prices are above those of any city on the continent.

Why They Parted

"I was down with pain in my right side which at times almost crazed me. Most of all the doctors said operation. But what I want to tell you is the pain disappeared with the first dose of your medicine and I never see any since. Myr's Wonderful Remedy has the right name—gas, sour stomach and dyspepsia have left, too." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. For sale at all druggists.

BRIMSON FARMER FIRED ON; HORSE IS KILLED; HUNTERS?

Alfred Johnson, farmer of Brimson, forty miles north of Duluth, narrowly escaped with his life last night when two unknown men fired at him from the woods while he was driving along the road with his team of horses.

One of the horses was badly injured by the shot and was killed this morning. Authorities believe that the men were hunters and seeing the farmer's eyes in the darkness and glow cast by their machine's headlights fired, thinking they might kill a deer. Johnson claims that he has no enemies that he knows of who might seek his life.

DON'T DECEIVE YOUR WIFE; SHE'LL FIND OUT ANYHOW, SAYS COURT

The not try to deceive your wife, because she will find out sometime and then it will be worse. If you are guilty, lay your cards on the table, tell your wife everything and then take your medicine like a man.

That was the advice when Judge Francis gave a 22-year-old man this morning who was married a week ago and arrested last night on a warrant charging him with being the father of an illegitimate child who is two weeks old. The names of the husband and wife, and the other girl, are being withheld at the request of police.

The young man waived examination when arraigned today and was bound over to district court.

He was boasting with himself whether he should tell his wife or a

COMMITTEES OF CHAMBER ARE BUSY GETTING ORGANIZED

Organization of the standing committees of the Chamber of Commerce is the main order of business these days.

Recently appointed by James H. Harper, president, the committee chairman are subdividing their organization meetings almost daily from now on.

This noon the public health committee held its first meeting, with Dr. A. L. McDonald, chairman, in charge. Plans were outlined for the coming winter.

The agricultural committee, headed by M. J. Thompson, chairman, will formally organize for the year at its first meeting tomorrow noon.

The newly appointed publicity committee, of which Ray D. Handy is chairman, and the trade extension committee, headed by Fred Hoyer, will hold their organization meetings Monday noon.

DULUTH SCHOOL TEACHERS TO JOIN ROLL CALL IN BODY

Duluth's big army of school teachers, 682 strong, will join the sixth annual Red Cross roll call in a body.

This announcement was made today by George H. Crosby, chairman of the Duluth chapter, following a conference with officers of the Duluth Teachers' association, who promised to enroll every teacher in their organization.

The cooperation of the teachers also was promised in securing the enrollment of Duluth's schools in the

POLISH PRESIDENT'S RE-ELECTION IN DOUBT

Warsaw, Nov. 17.—Re-election of Marshal Pilsudski as chief of state appears in view of the latest returns from the senatorial elections to hang upon a possible agreement between the Nationalists and Former Premier Witos' peasant wing of Radical groups, so as to create a working majority in the diet and senate.

Unless there is some such working agreement, the present returns indicate the non-Polish group will hold the balance of power, as the Nationalists and Radicals appear to have each won roughly two-fifths of the diet and senate seats.

Marshal Pilsudski, whose backing is found principally in the Radical party, is considered certain to be elected by the diet with the aid of non-Polish votes if the Nationalists do not, through some alliance, get into control.

Both houses of the national assembly meet Nov. 23, and the presidential election is expected to occur the middle of December.

HICKS WINS BET ON DRINK RESISTANCE, BUT WON'T COLLECT

Frank Hicks, probation officer, won a bet of 5 cents this morning, but refused to collect it, because Mike Riley lost enough anyhow. Mike has lost ### his liberty for sixty days because he was arrested twice in the same week for being drunk.

Mike was in Wednesday for being drunk and was doing his bit towards cleaning the city jail. He is 72 years old and claims to be a cripple, but that part of his story is punctuated with a question mark.

"It's a shame you get drunk, Mike," Mr. Hicks said. "You'll pay your fine and I'll bet you 5 cents you'll be back again in a few days."

"Sure and it's a bet," Mike replied, ### and although no coin of the realm was flashed, nevertheless it stood.

Mike paid his fine with the understanding that he would leave the city. He said he was going to Virginia.

This morning he came up again. "You lost your bet, but never mind paying me the nickel. Let's call it square," Mr. Hicks said.

And Mike went on his way, banished from the streets for sixty days.

FEDERAL OFFICERS RAID MERCER HOMES

Ashland, Wis., Nov. 17.—(Special to The Herald.)—The village of Mercer was cleaned up last night by eleven

Federal officers. Ten gallons of moonshine were found in one place and lesser amounts in others.

Frank Brutta, Edward Harper, Emil Kempler and G. Arwater were arrested and locked up at Ashland. Allen Hodgson, whose place was raided, but who was not at home, is on his way to Ashland to give himself up. They will be arraigned this afternoon.

Thousands of pairs—all going on sale tomorrow morning at

Enormous Reductions!

A chance for you to buy Two Pairs for practically the cost of One!

We are going to discontinue selling NEWARK Shoes for women. The tremendous growth of our business in NEWARK Shoes for men has finally forced us to give over our entire floor space to it. We cannot even wait until the end of the season to sell out our women's stock, but must start this sale at once. Thousands of our women customers will regret that we have had to make this decision, because we have always sold high grade shoes for women at much lower prices than any other stores. But while this sale lasts, you can at least make the most of this last opportunity of buying them and get the benefit of the sensational reductions we have made.

This isn't like an ordinary reduction sale where only certain styles are reduced in price, but one that TAKES IN EVERY PAIR OF WOMEN'S SHOES IN STOCK. And no matter what you want in footwear, you will find it here at a price so ridiculously low, that it will pay you to buy at least several pairs. Don't miss this big event. It starts tomorrow morning at 8 A. M.

Tidal Wave Follows Earthquake, Spreading Destruction in Chile

Valparaiso harbor, where earthquake and tidal wave exacted heavy toll of lives and property damage.

A great tidal wave, following on the heels of a violent earthquake along the Chilean coast, left death and destruction in its wake. The dead are estimated at 1,000. The property loss is set at hundreds of thousands. Shipping was blown ashore, buildings wrecked and hundreds were drowned or buried alive.

NO OLD WOMEN NOWADAYS

Modern dress, hair dressers, facial experts and cosmetics all combine to keep women of all ages young and attractive in appearance. Not until the telltale wrinkles become so deep, the figure stoops, or some ailment or weakness develops to drag a woman down does she really look her age.

HANDS ARE BETTER PAID THAN BRAINS

German Salaries Pitiful When Measured in Dollar Terms.

Berlin, Nov. 17.—Manual labor is valued above the products of the brain in the industrial top-heaviness of Germany today. If prevailing wage standards can be taken as a criterion...

Ordinary laborers receive an average of about 100 marks an hour. The standard rate of exchange gives 17 marks for one American cent. Wages for an eight-hour day range from 800 to 3,120 marks. An agreement has been effected whereby shoemakers and cabinet makers receive from 87.15 to 118.55 marks an hour. The truck makers have been striking for a hourly wage of 100 marks.

In November the salaries of German newspaper editors were fixed by agreement to range from 15,000 marks to 25,000 marks. Circulated into American money, 15,000 marks amounts to $883. A scale was adopted providing that newspaper men receive 15,000 marks a month if they are in their first year at the business, 16,500 in the second year and so on up to 25,000 for a man of 20 years' experience. "Getting news" is the specialty in the nature of newspaper work for small newspapers, 132 for reports of meetings, and 128 for investigations. Articles by editors are paid for at the rate of 270 marks each. A man who works on Sunday gets 500 marks for the day.

Even such wages are acceptable among the journalists of the capital, for high costs are rapidly thinning the ranks of newspaper men and many employees are being thrown out of work. The situation has reached such a pass that a movement is under way among conservative publishers to establish a fund to aid unemployed newspaper men, the fund being managed by political as well as business motives since they fear masses great talent among the writers will drift to the radical camp.

The managers of three large theaters in Berlin have announced that because they have no prospect of the wage standard of the stage being restored, they will have to dismiss their actors and actresses until recently received a 20 per cent increase of 2,000 marks. Theaters have been closed in 2,000 marks, the stagehands are receiving a minimum wage of 1,100 marks monthly.

Doctors feel bleak. The distress in the medical profession has been somewhat emphasized, and some doctors throughout Germany have organized a fund to help their patients for medical cases. Some have reported in Berlin in which physicians "stand" the income from their positions so low that they have taken to evening work as a means of getting practice. Teachers' candidates for college teachers' positions recently were called to assemblies in Lieberfeld & Berlin, where the members presented that the earnings amounted to 200 marks a month. They asked for 500 marks a month but continue to receive only 3.50.

Even this is more than three times the 120 marks an hour which a student-teacher draws in Berlin today. Regular teachers are said to receive a much higher salary, the public schools providing perhaps the outstanding instance of salaries for intellectual workers which compare favorably with those of manual laborers. An unmarried teacher's yearly wages, with expense allowances, amount to 21,600 marks, while one who is married gets additionally 2,500 marks for his wife and 2,210 for each child. A case recently was reported of a professor drawing approximately 12,000 marks a month. An American pays 2,000 marks more than this every day for a hotel room, with bath, facing on Unter den Linden. Four moderate diners eat, spend this on drinks and food at one sitting in a first-class Berlin cafe.

VIKING BOAT 2,200 YEARS OLD FOUND
Copenhagen, Nov. 17.—A viking of the Vikings, dating back to about 200 B. C., will soon be on view here at the National Museum. It was found in the bog of Hjortspring, in Slesvig, Shetland, spears and swords found with the vessel also will be on view.

The ship is built of elm, is 42½ feet long, 6½ feet wide and was propelled by ten oars. On arrival it will be assembled and exhibited in the state in which it sailed the seas.

HEAVY IMPORTS OF RICE INTO CHINA

Shanghai, Nov. 17.—More than 3,500,000 bags of rice, valued at $13,000,000 in American money, have been imported into China from Bangkok during the current year, according to statistics recently compiled here. This is the largest quantity of foreign rice ever imported by China. Seventy per cent of this total was unloaded at Hongkong and Amoy, whence it was transported into the interior. The remainder came to Shanghai for distribution into North China. Chinese merchants have ordered several additional lots of rice from Burma and India, which will be sent as soon as arrangements for its transportation have been completed. Rice prices have been rising in Shanghai, but have been stabilized by the importation of large quantities from Burma, India and Saigon. From Bangkok 300,000 bags have been imported. As there has been a great deal of hoarding of the cereal in the larger cities, Chinese authorities have issued orders threatening punishment to any rice dealers who hoard their supply, hoping to sell at a high price, or who are caught profiteering at the expense of the poor.

State Supreme Court Decisions

St. Paul, Minn., Nov. 17.—(Special to The Herald)—The state supreme court this morning handed down the following decisions:
NORMAN COUNTY.
State of Minnesota, respondent, vs. Thomas Arnegon, appellant.
In a prosecution for rape, the evidence is held insufficient to sustain the charge.
Under reversed. BROWN, C. J.

WRIGHT COUNTY.
Justice L. Gray, respondent, vs. Hoover Grain company, a corporation, appellant.
As against a general demurrer a pleading will be liberally construed and every reasonable intendment imputed to it to support the complaint in this action is considered in that light and held to state a cause of action in consequence of the evidentiary facts pleaded not being in conflict with the specific facts charged.
Under affirmed. HOWEN, C. J.

HENNEPIN COUNTY.
Northwest National Motor Car & Vehicle company, appellant, vs. Deek Mayhew, respondent.
A partnership was transformed into a corporation which took over the same good will, business and assets of the partnership. As a result of the transaction defendant, one of the partners, subscribed for 175 shares of the stock of the corporation which were issued for his interest in the partnership. In this action to recover upon the subscription contract it is held that there being no rights or creditors involved, and no suggestion of fraud in the arrangement whereby the partnership property was issued in payment for the stock issued, no recovery can be had.
A contract for the payment of money may be shown to have been performed or satisfied by the acceptance of property in lieu of money. Such proof does not tend to vary the terms of the contract.
The minutes of a private corporation are not conclusive that no other business than that therein recorded was transacted.
Under affirmed. HOLT, J.

HENNEPIN COUNTY.
Abe Cohen, respondent, vs. J. Silverman and George A. Heck, defendants, appellants.
There is evidence that defendant Silverman was negligent at a street intersection, in not seeing the truck which approached from his right and had the right-of-way. There is evidence also that Silverman's negligence was a proximate cause of a collision of his car with the truck.
There is evidence that the collision occurred after 5:20 p. m. on Nov. 26. The court will take judicial notice that the sun set at 4:25 p. m. on that day. The truck carried no light. There was evidence of negligence on the part of the truck driver. It was error to direct a verdict for the defendant Heck at the close of plaintiff's case.
Defendant Silverman cannot complain of the error. Generally one joint tortfeasor cannot complain of the erroneous dismissal of the action as to another. There are no circumstances in this case to warrant a relaxation of the rule. The court made it clear to the jury that on the evidence as it was submitted to them, they might find that the truck driver was negligent and that Silverman was not.
Plaintiff asked leave to reopen the case as to defendant Heck. Defendant Silverman objected. He cannot now complain that Heck is not in the case.
Under affirmed. HALLAM, J.

BEDFORD COUNTY.
Henry John and Emma John, respondents, vs. Gottlieb Timm and William A. Timm, appellants.
Where a land contract upon which a mortgage tax must be paid is pleaded in the complaint and admitted in the answer, the existence and validity are established. It is not necessary to allege in the complaint that the tax has been paid.
The rule that an action commenced before the cause of action is completed must be dismissed is not an unvarying one. An action on such a contract commenced before payment of the tax is held not subject to dismissal on account of nonpayment of the tax in a case where the question is not raised until after the tax has been paid.
Where a contract may be ordered specifically performed. Under the contract involved in this case, forfeiture of earnest money paid is not the exclusive remedy of the vendor for default of the vendee.
Where a land contract requires the vendor to furnish an abstract of title and allows the purchaser a stipulated time for examination and gives the seller a stipulated time to make good any defects, and an abstract is so delivered, and examined, and defects are reported to the seller and are corrected, other objections to the title, not so raised, are waived.
Under affirmed. HALLAM, J.

HENNEPIN COUNTY.
Hjalmar Day, appellant, vs. Anna Frederickson et al., respondents.
In a barter and exchange of real estate lots in a city, the parties thereto are under no legal obligation to disclose the plan or manner in which the plumbing in connection with the dwelling is installed, in the absence of a request so to do, and

LONG DRESSES FLAPPERS' DOOM? "NOT BY A PARASANG," SAYS CHIEF

The grand, high and exalted flipping flapper of all the little flappers, Patsy Ruth Miller of Los Angeles, declares that the long-draped skirts, termed by her "funny new styles," mean nothing in the flappers' young lives. Miss Miller says that, like Tsung-shan's brook, the flappers will go on forever.

PATSY RUTH MILLER.

be legally recorded or enforced by any affirmative proceeding; and the amount of such tax is determined by the amount of the principal debt secured by the deed and not by the consideration named in it.
A deed given as security is not a nullity, although the mortgage registration tax is unpaid; and the rights of a subsequent judgment creditor of the grantor are subordinate to the rights of the grantee in the deed, unless such creditor proves that he had no notice of the deed at the time of the docketing of his judgment.
Under affirmed. TAYLOR, C.

HENNEPIN COUNTY.
State bank of Duluth, respondent, vs. First State bank of Duluth, respondent.
The evidence sustains the finding that the deed in controversy, although made to give defendant bank a preference over other creditors, was not fraudulent as to such other creditors.
Where there is a collision between motor vehicles at a street intersection and defendant's negligence and plaintiff's contributory negligence are put in issue, the determination of both questions is peculiarly within the province of the jury and their verdict should not be disturbed unless the proof is such that upon no rational basis could reasonable minds draw different conclusions concerning the presence or absence of due care.
The evidence did not conclusively establish contributory negligence on the part of the driver of plaintiff's truck and the damages awarded by the jury were not excessive.
Under affirmed. LEES, C.

HENNEPIN COUNTY.
John H. Ball, respondent, vs. Excelsior Heater & Supply Company, a corporation, appellant.
The evidence sustains the finding of the jury that the truck driver of the defendant was negligent.
The evidence is not such as to require a finding that the driver of the motorcycle in the side-car of which the plaintiff was riding was negligent.
The damages are not excessive.
Under affirmed. DIBELL, J.

HENNEPIN COUNTY.
John H. Ball, respondent, vs. Excelsior Heater & Supply Company, a corporation, appellant.
The evidence sustains the finding of the jury that the truck driver of the defendant was negligent.
The evidence is not such as to require a finding that the driver of the motorcycle in the side-car of which the plaintiff was riding was negligent.
The damages are not excessive.

agreed upon the time of the deferred payments.
The written contract between the plaintiff and the defendant provided that the compensation should be completed by the execution and delivery of a deed or contract of sale; and that if the plaintiff procured a purchaser the defendant would execute all necessary papers, and upon failure to do so should be liable for the agreed compensation. Under this contract the defendant was liable to the plaintiff for the agreed compensation when he procured a purchaser ready, able and willing to perform, who agreed with the defendant upon the time and the deferred payments, although the defendant refused to execute the necessary papers and complete the sale.
Order affirmed. DIBELL, J.

LAND-GRANT COLLEGE CONVENTION CALLED

Washington, Nov. 17.—The association of Land-Grant Colleges will hold its thirty-sixth annual convention here during the week of Nov. 29. The convention will be attended by representatives of the teaching, research and extension organizations of the land-grant institutions, with which the United States department of agriculture has close co-operative association. Representatives of the department will participate in the program.
The session will give attention to many problems of interest relating to organization and administration of research and extension work in agriculture, home economics and rural engineering. Sectional meetings will discuss agricultural problems generally resident teaching experimental station work, extension work and engineering and home economics.
The association had its inception in a convention of agricultural colleges and experimental station representatives in this city in 1885. Officials say it has been a powerful influence in promoting and unifying agricultural education and research in the United States and in securing more effective co-operation of the agencies engaged in such work.
Officers of the association are: President, F. D. Boyd, president Louisiana State university; vice president, A. A. Potter, dean, schools of engineering, Purdue university; secretary-treasurer, J. L. Hill, dean, college of agriculture, University of Vermont.

Prince Henry, and a party of friends. Also since the return of the prince from Scotland he has been seen at several of these dances, and so have his two brothers.
The royal visitors applaud heartily the entertainment and music, but only occasionally take part in the dancing. The more fact that they are present, however, is enough for the West ender, and the places are crowded nightly in the hopes that some member of the royal family will be present.

work of destruction, if unchecked, would prove an irreparable loss.
NOSE CLOGGED FROM A COLD OR CATARRH
Apply Cream in Nostrils To Open Up Air Passages.
Ah! What relief! Your clogged nostrils open right up, the air passages of your head are clear and you can breathe freely. No more yawning, snuffling, mucous discharge, headache, dizziness—no struggling for breath at night, your cold or catarrh is gone.
Don't stay stuffed up! Get a small bottle of Ely's Cream Balm from your druggist now. Apply a little of this fragrant, antiseptic cream in your nostrils, let it penetrate through every air passage of the head; soothe and heal the swollen, inflamed mucous membrane, giving you instant relief. Ely's Cream Balm is just what every cold and catarrh sufferer has been seeking. It's just splendid!

LATE DANCES MADE POPULAR BY PRINCE
London, Nov. 17.—The popularity of the cabaret and the evening dances in London's fashionable West end restaurants is returning and the reason therefore seems to be in no small measure due to the prince of Wales and his brothers.
Immediately after his return from the Far East the prince appeared at several well known restaurants for the late supper and dance, accompanied generally by the duke of York or

Prosecution Is Business, But Helping Hand Is Mason Forbes' Real Sideline

Gets Family Deserter Paroled, Finds Him Job, All Because Baby Must Not Have Convict Father.

The mistletoe and chuckle of a 2-week-old baby as she lies on her tiny back, kicks her dimpled little feet in the air and gapes at nothingness can do more to reach the heart of a justice county attorney than all the numbers and gestures that the best lawyer can put into his final plea.

And a woman, enjoying that thrill which comes with the first blush of motherhood, is happy today because on her baby will not rest a stain for the rest of her life—that her father is a convict.

Spectators and prisoners at the bar who hear Mason M. Forbes, first assistant county attorney, literally rip a prisoner's defense to pieces and witness the hardest way which he goes about bringing accused persons to the bar of justice and into the bars of county and state prisons, easily get the impression that the attorney is a hard-hearted man.

But the story of how this so-called hard-boiled lawyer helped a man to get back on his feet and kept the brand of a convict father from a 2-week-old baby girl was first discovered today.

Wife Abandonment Charge. On Nov. 2 Louis Nellett was arraigned before Judge Cant in district court on a charge of wife abandonment, an indictment returned by the September grand jury. He pleaded guilty to the charge, but sentence was deferred until the attorney's office could make further investigation of the case.

The day after Nellett was arraigned in court he became the father of a baby daughter, and the news of the baby reached the ears of Mr. Forbes. The father was not much of a citizen, even he admitted that when arraigned in court. He stated the reason he had gone off into Michigan and started to work on a farm was because the possibility of fatherhood was haunting him, and once secure in the little town of care he entirely "forgot" his wife's address.

Still here was a baby daughter, brought into the world without considering her wishes, and the thought that she must go through life with a stigma on her name, brought about by the fact that her father spent five years in the state penitentiary for deserting his wife in time of need, was appalling—to appalling for the hard-boiled lawyer who generally smiles as he reviews the crimes of sunny criminals when prosecuting them in district court.

Prosecutor Turns Friend. Mr. Forbes set to work; he interviewed his friends and acquaintances in the county—and a man who has been assistant county attorney for ten years and is elected county attorney without opposition the first time he runs for office must have many friends—and was able to secure a job for the father in a lumber camp outside of the city.

Arrangements were made so that Nellett could begin work at once and would send money every month to his wife and baby daughter in care of Geo. F. E. Resche, county probation officer, for, while Mr. Forbes is filled with the milk of human kindness, he has no such implicit faith in human nature.

Wednesday, Louis Nellett was paroled by Judge Cant, his sentence being deferred until March 1, 1923, on the recommendation of the first assistant county attorney, and he left soon after for the lumber camp in the North woods.

This morning the little mother, with the surging baby daughter, came to the office of Mr. Forbes and thanked him from the depths of her mother-heart for his kindness and consideration.

CANADA WHEAT CROP OF BUMPER RANK
Ottawa, Ont., Nov. 17.—If Canada's wheat crop of 88,773,000 bushels were ground into flour and made into bread there would be enough to supply every man, woman and child in the United States with a loaf weighing twenty-four ounces a day for four months, or a similar ration to the entire population of England for a whole year, according to a computation based upon figures given out by the Canadian department of agriculture.

It would take 257,250 grain cars with a capacity of forty tons each to move the crop, and placed end to end these cars would make a train of wheat 1,946 miles long, or one extending from Montreal to a point twenty-six miles west of Swift Current, Sask., or from New York to Denver.

The value of Canada's field crops for 1922 is estimated at $1,119,273,887. Or this total, the wheat crop accounts for $369,324,350. The oat crop this year is valued at $294,510,350; an increase of nearly $100,000,000 over the value of the 1921 crop.

To Buy Villa Beit. San Francisco, Cal., Nov. 17.—Sport enthusiasts of Manila have started a fund to buy a diamond belt for Pancho Villa, the Filipino lad who took the five-night title from Johnny Buff at Brooklyn, according to mail advices received from the Philippine capital. The fund in its first day reached a total of 480 pesos.

Want Women Barred. Tokyo, Nov. 17.—Declaring that the Japanese law does not permit a woman to join a political organization, the director of the police bureau opposed the admittance of Miss Komoto Tameko to the Kokushin club. Miss Komoto, 24, holds the posts of secretary of the New True Women's association and clerk at the social section of the Tokio city office. The last session of the diet removed the embargo on women attending political meetings.

FAVORS STREET CARS.

To the Editor of the Herald: Since there is a tendency among some people to favor bus transportation, the writer feels that the thought conveyed to him by a friend who is a traveling salesman might be of some benefit to the traveling public.

The following article appeared in the Augustan, a "chronicle" of the city regarding jitney competition with street car lines. "Augusta knows now without street cars, Augusta is a town, not a city."

"The one eye was put the cork back," the "chronicle" continued. Whether persons owned the traction company or whether they decided the company, the final demand was for cars in operation.

In Toledo, Ohio, and other cities, which have lost their car service, business men in Augusta were first to feel the blow that followed exclusive bus and jitney service. Street cars simply "did not come into the central part of the city," the "chronicle" declared.

The Training of Grandfathers. It was a long, hard battle. At the beginning the doughty patient would grow pensive whenever the vexed subject was introduced. The acme of indignity, he called it. At one time he lost patience altogether and refused to see the doctor for several days but a shrewd turn of events one night placed him once more at the doctor's mercy and the campaign went on again.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS. Her Powder and Sore Eyes. You mentioned in one article that the use of rice powder for the face causes cronic sore eyes. Does that mean there is no cure? I find that any kind of face powder affects my nose and eyes.—(Mrs. E. J. V.)

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS. Milk for Father. Is it harmful for a man, aged 65, to drink milk freely—the usual kind of milk sold in the city, sterilized, I think it is called. My daughter questions whether it is good for me, though I like to drink a quart or sometimes three pints daily.—(D. S.)

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS. Rabbit Hunter Killed. Miller, S. D., Nov. 17.—Jurin Gortmacker, aged 23, was killed almost instantly near here yesterday when a shotgun which he was using to hunt rabbits was accidentally discharged. The full charge entered Gortmacker's body.

SOCIETY

ALL PARIS is a-flutter with ribbons. From the scarlet to oach from extremely bias Pom pattering down the Champs Elysee to the delicate frocks that dip and swirl in the gayest of restaurants—all—all is ribbon!

One frock which caused particular comment, even in the sophisticated Parisian circles in which it danced, was made entirely of ribbon, yards and yards of it—forty yards in all, it was whispered. Another lovely creation, the foremost model of a certain famous house, had a frothy skirt completely hidden by a fringe of long ribbon hanging from the waist and ribbons floating from the shoulders—ribbons that curled and swirled and tossed themselves madly as the chic mademoiselle pinyotted.

Street and afternoon frocks, too, make liberal use of ribbon. To make a useful mode to trim a dark frock by hanging a panel of bright ribbon from the girdle at the front or back or at the sides. And there are as many girls as there are frocks!

Ribbon corsages, too, are seen everywhere. Exotic ribbon flowers—beautiful heavy blossoms or mere sprays of leaf and bud, in an array with cockades or a bouquet of loops upon loops of ribbon.

To speak of hats is to speak of ribbons. All the smart hats that go mourning to the Beauville or Biarritz are of ribbon—soft, delightful hats that are easily worn and easily packed—and extremely chic.

From hats to bandeaux—just a mere tuffing and patting of the hair. One sees these bandeaux everywhere. In the bou-doir—a Russian fillet—straps of baby ribbon which dangle in coquettish loops over the ears.

A very successful interior decorator owes many charming effects to the striking beauty of the ribbons. In a boudoir, for instance, a decorator may use for draperies a crotone with a rose and orchid nosegay. He will bind a curtain with rose ribbon and use as a valance a very broad band of the same hue stretched smoothly across the draperies.

For cushions he will select Dresden ribbon, pale pink and a blue brocade. A lamp will glow through a shade that is fashioned of ruffled row of ribbon.

Irresistible little things are made of ribbon this season. Handbags! Shoe cockades! Handkerchiefs! Linen napkins! Sachets! The little shops are tacked full of them. The Parisiennes adore them. For they are made of ribbons and ribbon—'tis a mode!

Mrs. W. C. Wilson has issued invitations for two dinners which she will give at her home next week. She will entertain at one on Tuesday and one on Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. W. C. Wilson will entertain at a bridge luncheon at the Northland Country club next Tuesday in company with Mrs. Roy D. Guild of New York, who is visiting her sister, Mrs. W. C. Henshaw, and Mrs. Marie Flete of Evanston, Ill., who is Mrs. Wilson's house guest.

An informal dance will be given at the home of Mrs. W. C. Wilson on Saturday evening.

Mrs. and Mrs. Sparrow find a hot-house, which they call "a slice of summer." They have made their home there during the winter instead of flying South.

The English Sparrows fled after them, but they couldn't fly so swiftly as the Song Sparrows. Soon they were left alone in the hot-house. The Song Sparrows then crept back to the hot-house.

"Did you see us foot those pesky English Sparrows? They boasted to Jack and Janet and Daddy Dog, and to show their joy at outwitting the English Sparrows they sang a loud song.

CHAPTER V. Too Much Boasting. Mr. and Mrs. Song Sparrow were very happy when Daddy Dog brought them the bag of grain he had earned by killing rats in Farmer Gray's granary.

"Whit! Whit! Whit!" they sang sweetly. "We have a fine home in the slice of summer where we will keep snug and cozy while winter blizzards rage. And we will feast for weeks on the bag of grain Daddy Dog has brought us."

Jack and Janet thought Mr. and Mrs. Sparrow were very lucky birds. They would be warm in the pleasant hot-house and they had food in plenty. Mr. and Mrs. Song Sparrow felt so good they sang loudly. Indeed, they sang so loudly that the English Sparrows came from far and near to learn the secret of their joy.

"Whit! Whit! Whit!" they sang sweetly. "We have a fine home in the slice of summer where we will keep snug and cozy while winter blizzards rage. And we will feast for weeks on the bag of grain Daddy Dog has brought us."

"Whit! Whit! Whit!" they sang sweetly. "We have a fine home in the slice of summer where we will keep snug and cozy while winter blizzards rage. And we will feast for weeks on the bag of grain Daddy Dog has brought us."

The greedy English Sparrow swooped down. The English Sparrows fled after them, but they couldn't fly so swiftly as the Song Sparrows. Soon they were left alone in the hot-house. The Song Sparrows then crept back to the hot-house.

BUILDERS' SHOW PLANNED IN APRIL

Duluth Will Vie With Other Cities in Such Exposition.

Duluth will stage its first annual builders' show at the Army company store next spring.

Official announcement of the show, similar to those held in Minneapolis and other large cities, was made at the Chamber of Commerce meeting of the Duluth Builders' exchange at the Chamber of Commerce.

M. A. Dunning was named chairman of the show committee, the other members being: Mayor Arthur King, Roger Weaver and Lloyd Williams. No definite date has been named for the show, which will probably be staged some time in April.

Exhibits from Wide Territory.

The first builders' show will promote building and will include exhibits from manufacturers from all over the country. One of the features of the show will be a complete house, electrically equipped and ready to be moved from the apparatus while the other is in use. This procedure has been demonstrated by Mr. Hoxie repeatedly in his laboratory demonstrations of the pallophotophone.

The installation of the Minnesota Building Employers' association is to be a conference of builders from the states of Minnesota, North and South Dakota, Wisconsin, Iowa, Nebraska and Michigan, at St. Paul next Thursday and Friday was read at the meeting and it was decided to form an extremely sensitive electrical apparatus. This apparatus consists of an ingenious arrangement of vacuum tubes.

It is particularly notable characteristic is that it responds to variations in the light falling upon it with such instantaneous speed that it can only be compared to the speed of light itself, or to the speed with which wireless waves travel through space.

GRAND JURY OUTCOME CAUSES DESPONDENCY, FARMER SUICIDES

Phazee, Minn., Nov. 17.—(Special to The Herald.)—Frustrated services were held here yesterday afternoon for Carl Bus, aged 48, prominent farmer residing near here, who committed suicide by cutting his throat with a butcher knife. The deed was committed Tuesday.

Bus had served on the October grand jury following which he became despondent, because of the outcome of several cases and these proved unfavorable to the farmer. In a hospital here for treatment. Last week he was allowed to return to his home and the family believed that he was all right because he appeared to have improved mentally. His illness today is the result of the verdict of the grand jury.

Atkins Pioneer Dead.

Atkins, Minn., Nov. 17.—(Special to The Herald.)—Robert Atkins, a pioneer settler here, died Nov. 16 at the home of his sister, Mrs. Andrew Erickson, secretary of the church, who was present at his funeral. He was 82 years of age.

DIVORCE "V" FROM CONTROL OF CHURCH

Atkins, Minn., Nov. 17.—The International convention of the Young Men's Christian Association of North America, held at Duluth, Minn., has adopted a resolution regarding the control of churches, which is a departure from the usual practice of the church.

INCREASE SHOWN IN BUILDING OPERATIONS

New York, Nov. 17.—Building operations show an increase in building operations in October, 1922, as compared with the corresponding month of last year. All groups, however, show an increase in October this year over building expenditures in October, 1921.

ILLINOIS HERO WINS CONGRESSIONAL MEDAL

Monmouth, Ill., Nov. 17.—Another individual hero of the World War came to light here when advice received from the war department by Maj. James B. Berch announced that Berch, a member of the 10th Company, Twenty-seventh Infantry, First division, had been awarded the Congressional Medal of Honor.

a clear background. These markings represent the oscillations of the reed in the beam of light. The dancing beam is what gives the apparatus its name, for "palo photo" are Greek words that mean literally "shaking light."

The record secured on the film is a marvellously faithful record of the sound because of the extremely small size of the little mirror and diaphragm, and their low inertia. These characteristics enable the dancing beam, or "shaking light" to produce a record on the strip of film that catches all the fine overtones, the delicate shadings of speech, the silbent sounds, every trait that makes one voice different from another. Therein lies its salient triumph. For the sound record is more nearly exact than any record so far obtained in devices of this nature.

This recording device operates by mechanical principles, as distinguished from electrical. There is no essential electrical process involved at this stage of the process.

When the time comes to reproduce the record, which has been obtained in the manner just described, an entirely different apparatus is used. This reproducing device, comes into play when the record is to be reproduced. These two devices are so independent of one another that each can be removed from the apparatus while the other is in use. This procedure has been demonstrated by Mr. Hoxie repeatedly in his laboratory demonstrations of the pallophotophone.

Electrically Operated.

The reproducing device is electrical in mode of operation and distinguished from the mechanical principle employed in the recording device. The photographic film, on which the record of the sound has been made, is wound on a reel so that it passes in front of an extremely sensitive electrical apparatus. This apparatus consists of an ingenious arrangement of vacuum tubes.

It is particularly notable characteristic is that it responds to variations in the light falling upon it with such instantaneous speed that it can only be compared to the speed of light itself, or to the speed with which wireless waves travel through space.

WARNS AGAINST QUACKS WHO SAY THEY CAN CURE CANCER

Duluthians are warned against quack doctors who guarantee cures for cancer.

In an address on cancer before the members of the Rotary club at the Spaulding hotel yesterday afternoon, Dr. Robert Graham cautioned Duluth men and women against the "so-called cures." This is Cancer week and local physicians were invited to address the civic clubs at their weekly meetings.

"These men are quacks and are simply after the money," said Dr. Graham. "Cancer is something about which the medical profession has been in the dark, but there is no such thing as a guaranteed cure."

SALVATION ARMY CAME AND STAYED

Duluth and Elsewhere Find Need Filled by Peaceful Warriors.

BY GEORGE G. GLICK

Early in January, on one of the coldest mornings of the year, a destructive blaze broke out in Worcester, causing an ultimate damage of nearly two million dollars. The mercury stood below zero mark; the water from the firemen's hoses was swept back over them by the biting wind, freezing to their garments and rendering their every movement difficult and dangerous. It was evident almost at once that the local department would prove inadequate and emergency calls were sent in for other companies and apparatus from as far away as Boston. A motor engine from that city made a record run over the frozen roads; the twelve brave men who manned it suffered intensely and arrived in a half-exhausted condition; BUT THEY ARRIVED IN TIME.

All through the day the three blue-uniformed forces fought the disaster side by side—the firemen, the policemen, and the Salvation Army.

"The Salvation Army was on the job early and late during the Worcester fire," says the Boston Post. "Immediately after it was seen that the fire was to be of many hours' duration 'Sallies' both men and women, appeared with hot coffee, sandwiches, and the world-famous doughnuts. Until the last stream was turned off the smoldering ruins, firemen, policemen and even newspaper men were cheered and warmed by the 'Sallies' offering."

Where S. A. Folks Come In.

The fire was in the business section; it destroyed stores and offices rather than homes. Yet some homes were licked up by the flames, and after the firemen had gone for their well-earned rest, the "Sallies" went back to the ruins with food and clothes and the service of sympathy and hope.

The news story of the Pueblo flood is too fresh in our memories to need extensive repetition here. Let us merely recall the outstanding facts.

On the evening of June 3rd there was a heavy rainfall along the eastern slope of the Rocky mountains, accompanied by cloudbursts at several points and the bursting of several dams. Miles of rail and wagon roads were destroyed, scores of bridges were swept away, and crops and cattle in the stricken territory completely wiped out. Many towns shared the disaster, contributing their bitter quota in lives and property, but the heaviest blow fell upon Pueblo.

The water rose so rapidly that there was no escape for those who dwelt along the river banks; it raced through some streets at a depth of eighteen feet. The gas and electric plants were put out of commission, adding the terrors of darkness to the other horrors; supplies of foodstuffs were carried away, and the railroads were so completely demoralized that for two days Pueblo was entirely cut off—a ruined city, threatened with starvation and haunted by its unburied dead.

It Was There Though

Where was the Salvation Army in the crisis? Two of its posts had been destroyed—its posts are ever among the poor, and it was the poor along the river bottom that suffered most bitterly. Several of its soldiers were carried away in the flood, its communications were cut and its supply stations menaced. Yet the resident officers marshaled the organization for relief with as much precision and as high a morale as though it had been drilled for precisely such an emergency. Immediately messages went to the governor of the state, putting the entire resources of the army at his command and to Col. Davis, commander of the Salvation Army in Denver, calling for all possible forces and supplies. Twenty officers were dispatched from Denver immediately with a carload of food and clothes; every divisional commander in the territory sent soldiers and money and supplies from his city; a substantial contribution came from Commander Booth in New York.

The flood had broken on the evening of June 3. On June 5 Lieutenant-Commissioner Adam Gifford, the commander of Western territory, was able to wire to Commander Miss Booth: "Los Angeles and Southern California have been quick to respond to our appeal for financial aid in meeting the immediate relief work that is occasioned by this catastrophe. Shortly after my arrival here (Los Angeles) a meeting of our officers was called and we raised $2,000 from the poor people in our own ranks."

On June 10 we wired again: "Our forces are doing splendidly in this awful catastrophe. We have already shipped fifty tons of provisions to Pueblo. We also have charge of the relief camp, caring for 1,000. Our entire force of officers and soldiers are working night and day, and our efforts are greatly appreciated by Governor Shoup, mayor and the military authorities. The water has subsided, but the situation, sickness, suffering and sorrow will linger a long time; we must stick right to it. May God help us."

Not Linelight Seekers

The disaster was off the front pages of the newspapers for a time; it had ceased to be big news; public interest was ready to turn away to the new assortment of news, divorces, failures and rumors. But the Salvation Army remained after the limelight had departed. "We must stick right to it," Lieutenant-Commissioner Gifford said and they stuck.

In its proportions and the immense total loss in property lives the Pueblo flood overshadowed all similar disasters. A majority of Eastern newspaper readers probably never knew or had entirely forgotten that there was also a flood in Mexico which wiped out an entire town. But the Salvation Army was there. Without any comment of mine let me quote the telegraphic record of Adjt. Carl, the local officer charged with the relief work.

"Hatch, N. M., washed out houses but three destroyed. Salvation Army called to its aid Wednesday, Aug. 17. Staff Capt. Brad Welington, commander, accompanied by Adjt. Carl, A. I. Brook and Corps Cadet Brar rushed to the scene of the disaster on El Paso.

"At midnight the party was one mile from the place on account of the high waters. Early in morning Capt. Welington, staff sergeant and I secured a railroad car, on which were hastily loaded provisions for the starving people who had been without food nearly two days.

Army and Food Reach Refuge

"Later the army's party, by aid of two Ford machines, were successful, after a perilous ride over irrigation ditches, some of which tended as high as fifteen feet, reaching the majority of the inhabitants who had sought refuge in the hills. The army, being the first to reach them, received a wonderful ovation, especially from the suffering mothers and children.

"Further details later.

"ADJT. CARL

Writing a few days later from Paso, Mr. Frank Wittram of the Paso Herald said: "Noticed in War Cry a brief sketch regarding the divisional commander, accompanied by Adjt. Carl, A. I. Brook and Corps Cadet Brar rushed to the scene of the disaster on El Paso.

"I was sent there at once for El Paso Herald and in my capacity as a correspondent I was in close touch with the people whose homes were ruined, and not a word came. Almost without exception they were hungry and cold. I was ordered to go to the rescue. I was accompanied by Staff Capt. Welington and brave squad for their self-sacrifice work. The captain himself, using only a small amount of fuel, was riding over flooded tracks, was a first relief worker to enter the town.

"When I saw him, tired and mud-caked, I was struck by the fact that four hours without rest, he spoke not of himself, but of what still remained to be done. The result was that, thanks to his presence, the flood victims were fed a house before they themselves expected it."

The results had a saying to effect. "A great deal of good can be done in the world if one is not careful who gets the credit." Unconsciously I think the Salvation Army has adopted this motto. Criticism of its modesty in the Hat disaster which Mr. Wittram makes could be made in many another instance. Its officers have little to dwell upon which they have done always, as Mr. Wittram remarks their thought is of the work that remains to do.

One day last summer a little year-old child walked out onto a bridge at Chester, Pa., lost his balance and fell into the water. A crowd gathered and thickened. Unmindful of their own possible danger men and women crowded to the edge and watched with fascinated horror the futile efforts to rescue the child. Suddenly the bridge creaked and cracked. It broke in the middle and amid awful cries, the mass of spectators slid helplessly into the water—twenty-four of them to die.

Giving the Human Touch

I wish there were space to quote in detail the simple touching letters of Ensign Wood, who, with his wife went from home to home, visiting the families where disaster had come. In one home a little child; in another a mother; another the father of the family. "Sometimes the pastor or a priest had reached the home first sometimes Ensign and Mrs. Wood were the only carriers of comfort and help. Families were gathered to church where they attend, but the parish of the Salvation Army is the wide field of sorrow and human want."

"Ensign and Mrs. Wood of the local Salvation Army corps have been kept busy since the disaster Saturday evening. In western territory four lives were lost by the collapse of the Third street bridge," the local newspaper reported. "They have granted aid to the homes of the victims rendering aid and comfort and offering prayer. They have also been in constant communication with the deputy coroner and the attaches of the hospitals, all operating in every manner."

A single little newspaper paragraph, in small type, at the bottom of the column, could fill the book many times over with such quotations. But the story in each case is the same. The disaster came; the policemen and firemen and ambulances came. The Salvation Army came and stayed.

WOULD TAKE OVER HIBBING PLANT

Duluth Man Seeks to Lease Heat and Light System.

Hibbing, Minn., Nov. 17.—(Special to The Herald.)—J. Dwyer, Jr., of Duluth, a well-known engineer, will appear before the village council at its next meeting and before the board of directors of the municipal heating and light plant system in the village for a period of twenty years.

According to Mr. Dwyer, who is also taking over the Duluth power plant next spring, he will be in a position to offer to pay the village an annual rental amounting to 3 per cent of the appraised value of the heating, lighting, gas and water system of Hibbing without increasing the present rates, with the exception of heat, which will be raised to 35 cents.

With the value of coal as the basis and standard of computation, the rates will decrease or increase with the price paid for the fuel used by the heating plant.

It is said that 1 per cent of the appraised value of the system, which Mr. Dwyer agrees to pay the village, will amount to about $24,000 a year. Last year, it is said, the municipal system cost the village $235,000, which was a severe drain on the village treasury.

Mayor John Gannon, when interviewed concerning Mr. Dwyer's proposition, declined to comment on the matter, stating he would have to have more time for its consideration.

The mayor said, however, that the proposition demonstrates that the village can operate its own heat, light, gas and water systems at a profit or at least, that there is no profit on the village raising such a drain on the village treasury every winter.

Mr. Dwyer's proposal may show where the leakage is, why it is existing in the village such an enormous sum to operate the plant during the winter few years. Mayor Gannon declined to comment on the matter.

TWO HARBORS MAN GETS LARGEST COUNTY VOTE

James A. Walstrom.

Two Harbors, Minn., Nov. 17.—(Special to The Herald.)—The greatest majority ever given a candidate for a Lake county office was given to James A. Walstrom at the recent election, when he defeated J. Gilbert Jelle by a vote of 472 to 327 for the office of county attorney.

Mr. Walstrom made his race on an independent ticket with no pledges to any political organization or labor union.

Mr. Walstrom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Walstrom of this city and is strictly a Two Harbors boy, having been born and raised here. He graduated from the Minnesota university last year and decided that the greatest opportunity for his success in his chosen profession waited for him at home.

He is said to have attended law school where he carried off the highest honors that could be conferred upon a student. Not only was he president of his class but also was president of the law school council and representative for the law school to the all-village council of the annual banquet held here.

Mr. Walstrom has been practicing law in Two Harbors since he graduated from law school, where he carried off the highest honors that could be conferred upon a student.

EVELETH, C. HAS HEATED SESSION

Moving of Market Site Bone of Contention in Lively Meeting.

Eveleth, Minn., Nov. 17.—(Special to The Herald.)—The commercial club meeting last night took the form of a real open forum, when Sam Ellis brought up the matter of whether the city council should be allowed to move the farmers' market from its present site at the south end of Grand avenue to Douglas avenue recommended by Councilman William Murray.

In whose favor the matter was placed by the council.

Mr. Ellis said that a majority of the farmers desired to have the market stay where it now is. His remarks were concurred in by Gus Hendrickson, who also opposed the moving as a needless expense and that the proposed site is hard to reach as the farmers would have to go up and down the hill to reach it.

Mayor Essling pointed out that the present property was held under a lease which provided for removal on sixty days' notice. He stated that such a lease was not the kind under which the council would feel at liberty to go ahead and make the improvements it has in mind for the benefit of the farmers.

Concerning the proposed site, the mayor argued that it was centrally located, that it would bring the farmers closer into town, and that it would provide for a room for the market. The city would be the owner of the property, and the council could go ahead and improve the market place without fear of being forced to vacate on sixty days' notice.

He said that the moving company had offered to use commercial premises on terms identical with those of previous years, that it was the liability on the part of the moving company was omitted, but the other matters affecting it were more weighty.

Charles Grabowsky, general superintendent of the city, stated that the council had already agreed to the moving of the market, and that the council should have taken up the matter with them, rather than going ahead without making any attempt to have the matter straightened out.

MAJORITY IN COMMONS REPRESENTS ONLY A MINORITY OF VOTES

London, Nov. 17.—Although the Bonar Law government has a good working majority in the house of commons, it represents only a minority of the voters.

Following the final decision in the general election much criticism is leveled at Great Britain's system of representation which allows a situation in which three people voted against the government for every two in favor of it. The number of votes recorded was 12,915,665 of which 6,351,413 were cast for the Conservative government, while 6,564,252 voted against it. This is considered ample proof of the necessity of a reform in the electoral laws, but there is little likelihood of a change soon.

CANCER IS SUBJECT AT ROTARY MEETING

Eveleth, Minn., Nov. 17.—(Special to The Herald.)—Dr. J. C. Moore spoke before the Rotary meeting yesterday on the subject of "Cancer," which is the most common and most dreaded disease in this country. He stated that cancer is not incurable nor hereditary, and not contagious, but an outgrowth, which, if caught in its early stages, can be removed. "There should be no thought of disgrace about cancer," said Dr. Moore. "It is no different from appendicitis or any ailment that can be cured if attended to early." Dr. Moore stated that cancer was being recognized more than before and that only he the reason that it seems to be growing. The symptoms of cancer are not always easy to recognize as there is ordinarily no pain connected with it in its early stages. "Any sore that does not heal, particularly about the mouth, lips or tongue, is a danger signal," said Dr. Moore. "Irritating sores are dangerous. Persistent indigestion in middle life with pain or vomiting is sufficient cause to seek medical advice as to the possibility of internal cancer."

SCHOOL OFFICIALS MEET AT AURORA

Virginia, Minn., Nov. 17.—(Special to The Herald.)—County Superintendent C. H. Burns has called a meeting of the school board officers and superintendents of the independent districts of the county to be held at Aurora today. Two meetings of the school boards and superintendents are held each year. One to be held during the month of December will be attended by the school board officers and superintendents of the independent districts. The meeting will be held at Aurora today. Various subjects of general interest to the schools will be discussed.

THREE SUITS PENDING AGAINST GILBERT FOR BUILDING COLLAPSE

Gilbert, Minn., Nov. 17.—(Special to The Herald.)—Action was taken this week by the village council on the three suits pending against the village of Gilbert by Mrs. William Hogan, William Hogan and Joseph Demas, property owners, whose buildings were wrecked as a result of the collapse of the Nansamoon building last May. They allege that the village was responsible for the collapse of the building. The village was awarded a judgment of $1,000 last month by district court. Mrs. Hogan sues for $50,000 for damages to the building; Mr. Hogan sues for $1000 for business losses; Joseph Demas sues for $500 for his building.

DAVID AHO, MATRICIDE, HELD TO GRAND JURY

Virginia, Minn., Nov. 17.—(Special to The Herald.)—David Aho, charged with the murder of his mother and stepfather, arraigned today, waived examination and was bound over to district court. Luke E. Burn, his attorney, says he sticks to the story that his mother shot Wirtanen and he ran in and was shot in the leg.

SEND DESTITUTE EX-SOLDIERS HOME

Coblenz, Nov. 17.—Twenty-one destitute former soldiers of the American army, several of whom were accompanied by German wives and their children, left Coblenz last night for Paris on the way to Cherbourg, whence they will sail for the United States with the continent of other stranded Americans who are being repatriated by the American relief association in Paris. Eleven children in the party, born in the Rhine area, are being sent to the United States by the American relief association.

SEE WHAT THEIR CHILDREN READ

Parents and Teachers Show Interest in "Children's Book Week."

Many parents in the West end are taking advantage of "Children's Book Week," being observed all over the country this week, to visit the Lincoln branch library at Treat and Third avenue west and Second street, where a special room in the library has been turned over to the book display and art exhibits. The display is under the supervision of Miss Maud Grosjan, librarian.

The object of the "Children's Book Week" is to interest parents in the books available for their children to read and to encourage the buying of good books for the home library. Those in charge of the display throughout the country are endeavoring to reach the parents of all school children so that they may know what kind of reading their children are doing and that they may realize the value of good books, which are both instructive and entertaining.

Teachers interested. Teachers from the West end schools are taking a prominent part in the week's work by interesting the children to visit the library, where they can read or take home books and are also in attendance after school hours. A number of prominent West end women are also interested in the work and have been in daily attendance to aid children in selecting the right kind of books.

Among the prominent West end women engaged in the work are: Mrs. A. H. Moe, Mrs. J. Q. Adams, Mrs. Charles Alimora, Mrs. A. F. Swanson, Jr., Mrs. George Peterson, Mrs. John Ekblad, Mrs. Walter Peterson and Mrs. Ruth Larson. The women are divided into groups, each group working at the library during the day and evening until 9 o'clock.

A room on the main floor of the Lincoln branch library is being used for the display. A number of popular children's books that are being read are borrowed from the Glass Block store, duplicating ones at the library which are at present in circulation and not available for display. Art displays that decorate the walls tastefully were donated by the Decker art store for the week. Parents are requested to register their names on entering the room in order to determine the number of people who visit the display during the entire week.

In separate sections. The displays are divided into various classes, each in a separate section. They include books of fiction, nature studies, children's poetry, history, geography and United States. Both in story book form and straight historical form, music and art.

Teachers who are aiding in the work are from the schools in the vicinity, which include the Monroe, Young, Brown and Lincoln grade and Lincoln junior schools. The "Children's Book Week" will end tomorrow evening at 9 o'clock.

ARREST HALTS HER SEARCH FOR SON. St. Paul, Minn., Nov. 17.—Margaret Erickson, 72, of Sioux Falls, S. D., who has been conducting a search for her missing son, today was in jail here on a charge of insanity. Mrs. Erickson was arrested late yesterday as she was preparing to leave for Alexandria, S. D., where it was said the son, who is a former service man in working social workers, whose attorney was attracted by the case, believed it best that Mrs. Erickson should be kept from making the journey to her son, and the arrest followed at their best. They said they believed that unless search for her son had affected her mind.

No word has been received from her son, whose name is Joe Anderson.

REJECTS NEW YORK CALL; WILL REMAIN HERE

Rev. J. ALFRED ERICKSON, pastor of the First Swedish Baptist church, has received the call from New York city, it was announced last night, after several conferences with representatives of the local congregation. He received the call from New York several months ago while attending the Baptist convention in Chicago.

S. A. to Clonnet. Capt. Higgins of the West End corps, No. 2, will be the principal speaker at the meeting that will be held Sunday evening at Sarrate hall, Carlton avenue, Clonnet, Minn. The meeting will begin at 8 o'clock and is open to the public. Clonnet, The Salvation Army string band will render musical selections. Capt. Carlson and the members of the West Duluth Salvation Army corps will be in charge of the gathering.

JAP CENSORSHIP TO MAKE IT DIFFICULT FOR AMERICAN FILM

Osaka, Japan, Nov. 17.—The imperial bay of 150,000 feet imposed an imported film having failed to check the importations from America, which, on the contrary, continue to increase, some of the restrictions, including those, have decided to impose a stricter censorship, which it is hoped, will assist Japanese films, which, until a year ago, had the field to themselves.

NIGHTINGALES TRAIN CANARIES IN SINGING

Bremen, Nov. 17.—After ten years of experiment, a Bremen bird fancier has succeeded in producing canaries with a nightingale warble. The cross-breed was attained by using nightingales as "singing masters" for young canaries and raising the latter entirely removed from the influence of other bird notes except the warbling of their "instructors."

FOREST FIRES HELD DESTROYERS OF FISH

RECIPES FOR TURKEY-TIME

Turkey Salad—Searge cooked white and dark meat alike from frame of turkey and cut into cubes. Add an equal amount of sliced celery and capers to taste. Chill for several hours, add slices or freshly boiled eggs and mix thoroughly with mayonnaise. Serve in lettuce leaves.

Turkey Dressing—Remove meat from turkey and chop fine. For every two cups of meat add one well beaten egg, one generous pinch of salt, one of pepper, a quarter teaspoonful of dry mustard, one-half cup of bread crumbs and one-half cup of gravy. Cook thoroughly, shape into croquettes, roll in cracked crumbs and fry in cooking fat in deep fat.

Mixed Turkey With Tartar Sauce—Chop fine white and dark meat scraped from frame of turkey, add an equal quantity of minced potatoes or bread crumbs and one-half cup of gravy may be used to moisten. Season well, mold and fry slowly in butter as in the case of corned beef hash, until one side is well browned. Turn into warm platter. Serve with tartar sauce made with dry mustard.

Sauce Tartar—Beat egg whites a piece of butter the size of an egg and season with a pinch each of salt and cayenne pepper. Beat a teaspoonful of dry mustard and a teaspoonful of sugar. Add to this the beaten yolk of an egg and cook the mixture in a double boiler until smooth. A little lemon juice will cut the thickness. When cold, add a teaspoonful mixed capers and cucumber pickles chopped fine.

Brewed Turkey Legs—Cut cold, roasted, broiled or fried turkey legs in several places with sharp knife. Season each leg thoroughly with dry mustard in keeping teaspoonful of oil and one-half teaspoonful of cold water. Place in frying pan, do not grease, and after frying over high fire until they are brown, add a small quantity of water. The mixture makes the very tender. Chicken or duck legs may be used in the same way. Chicken or turkey wings develop a coating to this recipe are delicious and tender.

INDEPENDENCE FOR EGYPT IS SOUGHT

Lausanne, Nov. 17.—Real independence for Egypt and the Sudan, with the evacuation of the British troops and no special privileges there for Great Britain, is the demand of the Egyptian people which will be placed before the League of Nations conference. Haggis Pasha, head of the unofficial Egyptian delegation, told the Associated Press. His statement revealed the fact that Egypt, if the Egyptians have their way, will form one of the deplorable problems of the conference.

Haggis, who was former minister of public works, said his great aim was to develop direct economic relations with the United States at this conference, which is so portentous for the future of Europe. He added that he hoped America would stand by Egypt in her just demands for freedom.

Most of it is being shipped from the mines in the Crystal Falls and Iron River districts. The Penn and Munro mines are the only ones in this county that are shipping now. It is estimated the shipments from the Menominee range this season will reach more than 3,000,000 tons. Supt. G. A. Richards of this city says the Morgan mine at Wakefield has 20,000 tons of ore in stock, which will be shipped to the Thomas Furnace company at Milwaukee. The mines' daily product will also be shipped there.

NOTED ORGANIST NOT TO BECOME A MONK

New York, Nov. 17.—Joseph Bonnet, organist of the Church of St. Barts, Paris, France, has sent word to Dr. William C. Carl of New York that the report that he is about to take orders and become a Benedictine monk is a priest in without foundation. "There is no truth whatsoever in the statements which are being made in this city," he says. "I am still in the city, and I return to America for his tour in this country the first of January."

NEW HELPS AND NEW INTEREST

Every mother knows the magic of a new toy—knows how the toy that possesses new and unusual possibilities keeps the playtime passing without complaint. Doesn't the same thing hold true with other folk?

Isn't it often true that a new device for doing housework as it comes to the point where she is going to announce to her family that they will have to dig up a boarding place or get a housekeeper at such times there is nothing that does so much to clear the atmosphere as a new toy.

Take the fireless cooker, for instance. True, it is an expensive toy, but it has been known to do more than save fuel and provide a good way of cooking inexpensive meats and tough vegetables. Before now housewives have started in with a new enthusiasm for cooking. They had got weary of the rut of the old-time cooking. But with the fireless

Easy Home Accounting

Third Article in a Series on "You and Your Pocketbook"

By Mrs. Christine Frederick

Copyright, 1922.

Buy a large blank book about ten inches square. Use two pages for each month. Haul both pages into columns three-quarter inch wide, having twenty or more columns in all. At the top, across the pages, write neatly the items of each group of the budget, keeping those in the same group together. For example, write FOOD over meat, groceries, fruits, milk, ice, and outside meals; and OPERATING over light, gas, laundry, service, coal and whatever other items you wish to include.

Leave the first column for the date of the month, 1, 2, 3, so that you can write the expenses of any day on the line of its proper date. Leave at least ten spaces at the foot of the pages or the total monthly expense.

Now, let's begin to use it! Suppose you go marketing and purchase several items, cauliflower, 20c, potatoes, 5c, grapes, 40c. You may scribble the total on a post in your shopping bag while the dealer is wrapping them, or give the small sales checks which are given with most food and dry goods purchases. When you return home enter in your account book the total, "25" under "fruits," under the still larger heading "foods."

If you buy several items at the dry goods store—milk, 40c, cheese, 60c, 10c, boys' wrist watch, 10c, in your book merely write the total of $2.09 under the right column under "clothing," (isn't this simple?) Of course, gradually you will have many columns of figures across both pages, and at the end of the month you can add them up, or let Johnny do it for you as a "practice sum" in his arithmetic.

You will find that you have spent no more for each of the five main divisions of the budget, "shelter," "food," "clothing," "operating," "amusement," and still have to consider what you will enter under "savings." If you're paying for a home, these payments will properly go under "savings"; you may put $1, $10 or five times that sum in a savings bank account. Remember, you always want to save that precious one-tenth of your income!

Now, you see, this simple book will, at the end of every month, tell you where the money has gone. But at once compare what you have spent with what you intended to spend—that is, with your "ideal" budget! Look here this month you spent $10 for food and nearly $125 for clothes—gratious! But you recall that you entertained several times this month, and that the $125 for clothing meant a new coat for Susie, new underwear for the whole family and an entire new school outfit for Bob in high school.

In short, divide the total for clothing into twelves, and you will get a fair proportion for each month of the year. Just so with coal—several tons of coal bought in November might have brought the November operating up to as high as $100. But divided over the whole year, the item might not have been too high.

The totals of each month in the past will help you the better and more justly to gauge what you spend in the future.

Identify Train Victim.

New Prague, Minn., Nov. 17.—The man whose body was found alongside the Minneapolis & St. Louis railway track here Tuesday, is believed to have been Frank Miller, recently of Carson, N. D., and Minneapolis, Minn. A letter was found in one of his pockets from Carson, addressed to him at Minneapolis, care of General Delivery. It was signed "Lloyd Bower." Miss Bower has been listed at the Colonial hospital at Rochester and stated that the man was known as Frank Miller, Herman Miller and sometimes as Smith. He was 25 to 30 years of age and was born in Germany, according to the wife, who asked that Joseph Wagner of Los Angeles, Cal., could furnish further information regarding the man.

The Great Butter Substitution

In buying butter, there are just two things that have weight with the consumer—Price and Quality. Poor butter is expensive at any price. Good butter at present is light and scarce. For a good article everybody is willing to pay a fair price. This article of MARIGOLD is not simply reasonable, it is extremely low. Its quality is not merely fair, it is absolutely the best.

MANCHESTER PURE PORK BREAKFAST SAUSAGE

They are made from the best cuts of young pork, prepared with carefully selected seasoning. It costs us more to place this superior sausage on your breakfast table than you pay for the ordinary product, but YOU wouldn't know this by the price you pay for Manchester.

FRUITS IN PLENTY ON DULUTH MARKET

Wide Range in Apples at Low Prices; Prices Slightly Up.

Ample supplies of fruits and vegetables are being offered on the produce market and prices are claimed to average up the lowest in several years.

Dealers have arranged for heavy shipments of California vegetables for the Thanksgiving trade, the range including beets, carrots, cauliflower, cucumbers, lettuce, celery, spinach, tomatoes and radishes.

SUGGESTIONS FOR HOUSEWIVES

Avoid touching the metal parts of electric light sockets and fixtures while standing on bathroom floors that may be damp.

Let go of the vacuum cleaner before you answer the telephone. The switch on the cleaner may be defective.

Put a grate at the head of stairs where the baby plays.

Do not lift the lid of the teakettle while the kettle is held by the handle, as the sudden heat of the steam involved may burn the hand or cause the kettle to be dropped.

When there are children in the house always keep medicine cupboard locked and the key on a nail out of reach of the children.

The water in which two or three onions have been boiled is excellent for cleaning white paint. You do not require any soap.

A banana mashed and spread on bread instead of butter makes a good sandwich.

Where shelves must be placed above a stove or heater, protect the underside from heat and do not cover shelf with paper.

Leave plenty of ventilating space between lamp shades made of parchment or cloth and light bulb.

Turn off the current before leaving electric iron or other heating apparatus.

The arm of a chair or a rocking chair, fragile crates or boxes are serious hazards upon which to stand. Use the stepladder.

Permit only experienced persons to install or repair electric fixtures and appliances.

Matches, medicine and insect powder are poor food for children. Keep them out of reach.

Open the cover and light your match before turning on the gas pilot.

It is dangerous to carry a child and a kettle of boiling hot water at the same time, as tripping may bring the two in contact.

NEWS OF THE NORTHWEST

SUES VALE FOR RAID INJURIES

Winona Woman Demands $20,000 From Dry Law Chief.

Winona, Minn., Nov. 17.—What attorneys say is the first case of its kind in the country is scheduled for trial at the term of United States court which opens in this city Nov. 21, when Mrs. Elizabeth Malewicki will seek to obtain damages of $20,000 from St. Paul, Minn., Federal prohibition director in Minnesota for injuries alleged to have been sustained by her when the Malewicki place was raided by Federal agents the night of May 10, last.

RAV LINED OIL CATTLE MEDICINE

St. Paul, Minn., Nov. 17.—Live linseed oil is the most satisfactory treatment for cattle infected with parasites, Dr. W. A. Hilkey, chief of the Division of Zoology of the University of Minnesota, declares in answer to numerous inquiries from farmers throughout the state, received at the University farm here.

SOLDIERS' VOCATIONAL TRAINING IS SUCCESS

Minneapolis, Minn., Nov. 17.—Proof of the rehabilitation success of former soldiers receiving special training under the directions of the United States Veterans' bureau is shown in reports just made public by C. H. Hibbard, manager of District No. 16, which includes the states of Minnesota, North and South Dakota, and Montana.

BETTER THAN WHISKEY FOR BAD COLDS

New Elixir, Called Aspironal, Medicated With Latest Scientific Remedies, Used and Indorsed by European and American Army Surgeons to Cut Short a Cold or Cough Due to Cold and Prevent Complications.

AGED ST. HILAIRE MAN CHOKES TO DEATH

St. Hilaire, Minn., Nov. 17.—Edward Plamme, an old resident of this village, died at his home supposedly from strangulation caused by a piece of potato becoming lodged in his throat. When first noticed, he was gasping for breath, and died within a couple of minutes.

Oppose More Branch Banks

Milwaukee, Wis., Nov. 17.—Associated banks of Milwaukee have sent a letter to all Wisconsin banks asking them to co-operate against the establishment of branch banks in Wisconsin or any of the other states and said that a call will soon be issued for a general meeting of representative opponents of branch-banking from all the states.

Michigan

Iron River—Scratches to his face and a badly bruised body were sustained by L. A. Le May of Green Bay, representing the Northern Corrugating company, when his Ford coupe was ditched and totally wrecked two miles east of Iron River on the Crystal Falls road where the coupe was constructing a culvert across the highway. Mr. Le May was returning from Crystal Falls and was unfamiliar with the county road.

Wisconsin

Grantburg—Mrs. Emil Peterson suffered painful cuts about her face and head when a horse jumped upon the radiator of the auto in which she was riding with her husband, as a result of which she was injured. The horse was owned by the late Mrs. Peterson and was driven by her son, Alfred Peterson, aged 18, a car repairer for the Northern Pacific, who was awarded $20,000 in court here for the loss of his wife. Peterson was caught in transfer cables at the railway shops.

Minnesota

St. Cloud—Harry Jenkin of Buffalo, Minn., was arrested here, charged with passing worthless checks. Three local merchants are alleged to have informed the police that Jenkin passed bogus checks on them for $20, $75.70 and $55, respectively. The checks were said to be drawn on the First National bank of Buffalo.

STOP RHEUMATISM WITH RED PEPPER

When you are suffering with rheumatism so you can hardly get around just try Red Pepper Rub and you will have the quickest relief known. Nothing has such concentrated, penetrating heat as red peppers. Instant relief. Just as soon as you apply Red Pepper Rub you feel the thrilling heat. In three minutes it warms the sore spot through and through. Frees the blood circulation, breaks up the congestion—and the old rheumatism torture is gone.

End the pain of CORNS quickly, safely!

This may rid you of misery from corns. In one minute Dr. Scholl's Zino-pads will do it—safely! They remove the cause—corn-kernel—secure. You risk no infection from cutting, no danger from corrosive acids. Zino-pads protect while they heal. They are antiseptic, waterproof, and for corns, callouses, bunions, get a box today at your druggist's or shoe dealer's.

Will the Radicals Control the New Congress?

A Republican Congressional majority, so large as to be unwieldy, has been cut to a margin so small that in both Houses Republican legislation will be at the mercy of a handful of insurgents of doubtful party regularity.

Want Mail Service Restored

Wakenell, Mich., Nov. 17.—(Special to The Herald)—Petitions are being circulated here to be sent to the Northwestern railway officials with the request that two mail trains taken off the run during the fuel shortage be returned. The city is without mail service except early in the afternoon.

Dakota

Levas Lake, N. D.—The body of Charles Perkin, 55, was found in a ravine on his farm twenty miles from here, death being pronounced due to taking formaldehyde. His widow and twelve children survive.

St. Cloud—Harry Jenkin of Buffalo, Minn., was arrested here, charged with passing worthless checks. Three local merchants are alleged to have informed the police that Jenkin passed bogus checks on them for $20, $75.70 and $55, respectively. The checks were said to be drawn on the First National bank of Buffalo.

STOP RHEUMATISM WITH RED PEPPER

When you are suffering with rheumatism so you can hardly get around just try Red Pepper Rub and you will have the quickest relief known.
