Subject: Taketora OGATA

From: Internat'l Pros Sect

To: Col Munson, Asst G-2
Japanese Liaison

Date: 1 Feb 46

1. Taketora OGATA was among the list of Japanese officials who was directed to report to Sugamo Prison by mid-night, 16 December 1946. He evaded incarceration on the plea of personal illness.

2. On 31 December 1945 Major John F. Hömmel of the International Prosecution Section and Major Hopson, Medical Corps, proceeded to the last known address of OGATA, which was listed at 331 3 Chome, Hyakunin-Cho, Yodabashi-Ku, Tokyo, for the purpose of conducting a physical examination of OGATA to determine:

1. If his physical condition would permit his incarceration.
2. If his condition was not such as it would permit his incarceration, was it such that he might travel to this office for the purpose of being interrogated.
3. If neither of the two foregoing applied, would an interrogation at his home be detrimental to his health.

3. Upon arriving at the above listed address, it was ascertained that this was an air-raid shelter, and in the opinion of the medical officer who made the trip, this was a highly inappropriate place for a man to be living who was reputedly suffering from tuberculosis.

4. It is requested that this office be advised the present whereabouts of OGATA in order that the above indicated mission be accomplished.

To: COLONEL MUNSON, G-2

Date: 26 January 1946

On 17 November one Alexander Hughes of Wellington, N. Z., sent a registered card to Mr. Joseph B. Keenan, presently Chief of the International Prosecution Section. The New Zealand Registry was marked "R #131, Wellington Railway C-1", and was addressed to Mr. Keenan at Washington, D. C. It was forwarded to him from that place. The communication read as follows:

"Wellington November 17th. Mr. Joseph B. Keenan, Chief Counsel, Washington. - Dear Sir: Having had charge of a shop in Honolulu in the year 1909 and working under my charge on our naval property was the Chief Japanese Spy.

"I gave my warning to 'Pearl Harbor' one month before the war.

"I wish to offer my services at any time that I may be called upon to identify and give information for same at trial of war criminals.

"I am yours very sincerely,

/s/ Alexander Hughes".

It is suggested that Colonel Munson may desire to have the British or New Zealand Liaison Officer, attached to GHQ, have Mr. Hughes interviewed in Wellington to obtain all detailed information he allegedly has in the above matter. It is requested that the results of this interview be made available to the Investigation Division, IPS, and recommend that an information copy of same be designated for the OCCIO.
