CHAPTER 4.

An Act to provide, during twelve months, for the Discipline and Regulation of the Army.

[29th March 1890.]

WHEREAS the raising or keeping of a standing army within the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland in time of peace, unless it be with the consent of Parliament, is against law :

And whereas it is adjudged necessary by Her Majesty and this present Parliament, that a body of forces should be continued for the safety of the United Kingdom and the defence of the possessions of Her Majesty's Crown, and that the whole number of such forces should consist of one hundred and fifty-three thousand four hundred and eighty-three men, including those to be employed at the depôts in the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland for the training of recruits for service at home and abroad, but exclusive of the numbers actually serving within Her Majesty's Indian possessions :

And whereas it is also judged necessary for the safety of the United Kingdom, and the defence of the possessions of this realm, that a body of Royal Marine forces should be employed in Her Majesty's fleet and naval service, under the direction of the Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom, or the Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral aforesaid :

And whereas the said marine forces may frequently be quartered or be on shore, or sent to do duty or be on board transport ships or vessels, merchant ships or vessels, or other ships or vessels, or they may be under other circumstances in which they will not be subject to the laws relating to the government of Her Majesty's forces by sea :

And whereas no man can be forejudged of life or limb, or subjected in time of peace to any kind of punishment within this realm by martial law, or in any other manner than by the judgment of his peers and according to the known and established laws of this realm ; yet nevertheless it being requisite, for the retaining all the before-mentioned forces, and other persons subject to military law, in their duty, that an exact discipline be observed, and that persons belonging to the said forces who mutiny or stir up sedition, or desert Her Majesty's service, or are guilty of crimes and offences to the prejudice of good order and military discipline, be brought to a more exemplary and speedy punishment than the usual forms of the law will allow :

And whereas the Army Act, 1881, will expire in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety on the following days :

- (a.) In the United Kingdom, the Channel Islands, and the Isle of Man, on the thirtieth day of April ; and
- (b.) Elsewhere in Europe, inclusive of Malta, also in the West Indies and America, on the thirty-first day of July ; and
- (c.) Elsewhere, whether within or without Her Majesty's dominions, on the thirty-first day of December :

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

1. This Act may be cited as the Army (Annual) Act, 1890 ; and the Army Act, 1881, is in this Act referred to as the Army Act. Short title.

2.—(1.) The Army Act shall be and remain in force during the periods herein-after mentioned, and no longer, unless otherwise provided by Parliament ; that is to say, Army Act (44 & 45 Vict. c. 58.) to be in force for specified times.

(a.) Within the United Kingdom, the Channel Islands, and the Isle of Man, from the thirtieth day of April one thousand eight hundred and ninety to the thirtieth day of April one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one, both inclusive ; and

(b.) Elsewhere in Europe, inclusive of Malta, also in the West Indies and America, from the thirty-first day of July one thousand eight hundred and ninety to the thirty-first day of July one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one, both inclusive ; and

(c.) Elsewhere, whether within or without Her Majesty's dominions, from the thirty-first day of December one thousand eight hundred and ninety to the thirty-first day of December one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one, both inclusive ; and the day from which the Army Act is continued in any place by this Act is in relation to that place referred to in this Act as the commencement of this Act.

(2.) The Army Act, while in force, shall apply to persons subject to military law, whether within or without Her Majesty's dominions.

(3.) A person subject to military law shall not be exempted from the provisions of the Army Act by reason only that the number of the forces for the time being in the service of Her Majesty, exclusive of the marine forces, is either greater or less than the number herein-before mentioned. 44 & 45 Vict. c. 58.

3. There shall be paid to the keeper of a victualling house for the accommodation provided by him in pursuance of the Army Act the prices specified in the schedule to this Act. Prices in respect of billeting.

Amendments of Army Act.

4. In section one of the Army Act (enacting a short title of the Act) the figures " 1881 " shall be omitted. Amendments of 44 & 45 Vict. c. 58. s. 1 as to short title.

5. Whereas doubts have been entertained whether the Commander-in-Chief of the forces of a presidency in India can, under section fifty-seven of the Army Act mitigate, remit, or commute the punishment of a person undergoing sentence in a place occupied by troops under the command of that Commander-in-Chief, but not within the presidency of which he is Commander-in-Chief, and it is expedient to remove those doubts ; be it therefore enacted as follows :

In subsection (2) (b) of section fifty-seven of the Army Act, after the word " presidency," shall be added the following words : " or in any place occupied by troops under the “ command of the Commander-in-Chief of the forces of a

of s. 151 as to Amendment of

s. 175 as to persons subject
law as officers.

7. Whereas provision is about to be made for the establishment of an Indian reserve of officers, and it is expedient to provide for the application of military law to the officers of that reserve; be it therefore enacted as follows:—

To section one hundred and seventy-five of the Army Act the following paragraph shall be added.

“(9.) The persons holding commissions as officers in the Indian army reserve when such officers are called out in any military capacity.”

s. 179 as to
royal marines.

8. Whereas it is expedient that the provision as to forfeiture for absence without leave contained in subsection (14) of section one hundred and seventy-nine of the Army Act, should apply only on conviction by court martial; be it therefore enacted that for that subsection the following subsection shall be substituted, namely:—

(14.) A man in the royal marines shall, for absence without leave, on conviction of that offence by court martial, and for fraudulent enlistment, forfeit his service in like manner as he forfeits it for desertion under the Acts relating to the royal marines.

s. 190 as to
“ India ” and “ colony.”

9. Whereas it is expedient to assimilate certain definitions in the Army Act to the corresponding definitions in the Interpretation Act, 1889; be it therefore enacted as follows:—

(1.) For the definition of “ India ” in subsection twenty-one of section one hundred and ninety of the Army Act, the following definition shall be substituted:—

(21.) The expression “ India ” means British India, together with any territories of any native prince or chief under the suzerainty of Her Majesty exercised through the Governor-General of India, or through any governor or other officer subordinate to the Governor-General of India; and the expression “ British India ” means all territories and places within Her Majesty’s dominions which are for the time being governed by Her Majesty through the Governor-General of India, or through any governor or other officer subordinate to the Governor-General of India.

(2.) The guardians of the union to which the workhouse belongs may appeal against an order under this section within one month from the making thereof to a Secretary of State, who shall thereupon employ a Commissioner, not being one of the Commissioners who made the order, or some other person, to make a special visitation of the workhouse and to report to him upon the matter, and the decision of the Secretary of State upon such report shall be conclusive.

A patient shall not be discharged under the provisions of the two preceding sections if the medical officer of the institution, or, in the case of a single patient, his medical attendant, certifies in writing that the patient is dangerous and unfit to be at large, together with the grounds on which the certificate is founded, unless two of the visitors of the asylum, or the Commissioners visiting the hospital or house, or the visitors of the house, or in the case of a single patient, one of the Commissioners, after the certificate has been produced, consent in writing to the patient's discharge.

75. Two of the Commissioners, one of whom shall be a medical and the other a legal Commissioner, may visit a patient detained in any hospital or licensed house, or as a single patient, and may, within seven days after their visit, if the patient appears to them to be detained without sufficient cause, make an order for his discharge.

(5.) The visitors before making an order under this section shall examine the medical officer of the house as to his opinion respecting the fitness of the patient to be discharged, if he tenders himself for examination.

(6.) If after such examination an order for discharge is made, and the medical officer furnishes to the visitors a statement of his reasons against the discharge, they shall forthwith send the statement to the clerk of the visitors.

(7.) This section shall not apply to a lunatic so found by inquisition.

(8.) Every order under this section shall be signed by the visitors by whom it is made.

Visiting committee may send notice of intention to discharge pauper lunatic to relieving officer or clerk of local authority.

80.—(1.) When the visitors of an asylum order a pauper lunatic confined therein to be discharged, except on the application of a relative or friend, they may, when they think fit, send a notice in writing, signed by the clerk of the asylum, by post or otherwise, of their intention to discharge the lunatic to a relieving officer of the union to which the lunatic is chargeable, or to the clerk of the local authority liable for his maintenance.

(2.) Upon receipt of such notice, the relieving officer or clerk shall cause the lunatic upon his discharge to be forthwith removed to the workhouse of the union to which the lunatic is chargeable, or, if the lunatic is chargeable to a county or borough, to the workhouse of the union from which he was sent to the asylum.

85. If any person detained as a lunatic under this Act escapes, he may, without a fresh order and certificate or certificates, be retaken at any time within fourteen days after his escape by the manager of the institution for lunatics or the master of the workhouse in which he was detained, or any officer, or servant thereof respectively, or by the person in whose charge he was as a single patient, or by anyone authorised in writing by such manager, master, or person.

Escape and recapture.

86.—(1.) If any person detained as a lunatic under lawful authority in England escapes into Scotland or Ireland, notice of the escape shall as soon as practicable be given to the Commissioners, who may, by writing under their seal, authorise an application to be made by such person as they think fit to any justice having jurisdiction in the place where the lunatic was so detained for a warrant authorising such person to retake the lunatic and bring him back to such place.

Escape from England into Scotland or Ireland.

(2.) Such warrant, when granted, shall in Scotland or Ireland as well as in England be sufficient primâ facie evidence that the person stated therein to have escaped was so detained as a lunatic under lawful authority as aforesaid, and of the fact of his escape, and shall be sufficient authority for any sheriff in Scotland, or for any justice in Ireland, to countersign the same; and any such warrant so countersigned may be executed in Scotland, or Ireland, as the case may be, by retaking such lunatic and bringing him from thence, to the intent that he may be restored to the custody from which he escaped.

87.—(1.) If any person detained as a lunatic under lawful authority in Scotland escapes into England or Ireland, notice of the escape shall as soon as practicable be given to the General Board of Commissioners in Lunacy for Scotland, who may, by writing under the hand of one of such Commissioners, authorise an application to be made by such person as they think fit to any sheriff having jurisdiction in the place where the lunatic was so detained for a warrant authorising such person to retake the lunatic and bring him back to such place.

(2.) Such warrant, when granted, shall in England and Ireland as well as in Scotland be sufficient primâ facie evidence that the person stated therein to have escaped was so detained as a lunatic under lawful authority as aforesaid, and of the fact of his escape, and shall be sufficient authority for any justice in England or Ireland to countersign the same; and any such warrant so countersigned may be executed in England or Ireland, as the case may be, by retaking such lunatic and bringing him from thence, to the intent that he may be restored to the custody from which he escaped.

(3.) For the purposes of this section a writing purporting to be signed by one of the Commissioners in Lunacy for Scotland shall be deemed to have been signed by him until the contrary is proved.

Escape from Ireland into
Scotland.

88.—(1.) If any person detained as a lunatic under lawful authority in Ireland escapes into England or Scotland, notice of the escape shall as soon as practicable be given, where such person has been so detained by order of the Lord Chancellor for the time being entrusted by the sign manual of Her Majesty with the care and commitment of the custody of the persons and estates of lunatics in Ireland, to the Registrar in Lunacy, and in other cases to the Inspectors of Lunatics in Ireland, who may, by writing under the hand of the said registrar, or one of the said inspectors, as the case may be, authorise an application to be made by such person as they think fit to any justice having jurisdiction in the place where the lunatic was so detained for a warrant authorising such person to retake the lunatic and bring him back to such place.

(2.) Such warrant, when granted, shall in England and Scotland as well as in Ireland be sufficient prima facie evidence that the person stated therein to have escaped was so detained as a lunatic under lawful authority as aforesaid, and of the fact of such escape, and shall be sufficient authority for any justice in England, and for any sheriff in Scotland, to countersign the same; and any such warrant so countersigned may be executed in England or Scotland, as the case may be, by retaking the lunatic and bringing him from thence, to the intent that he may be restored to the custody from which he escaped.

(3.) For the purposes of this section a writing purporting to be signed by the Registrar in Lunacy, or one of the Inspectors of Lunatics in Ireland, as the case may be, shall be deemed to have been signed by him unless the contrary is proved.

Limit of time
lunatic.

89. A warrant, granted under any of the three preceding sections, shall not authorise the retaking of a lunatic after the expiration of the time during which he could have been retaken according to the law in force in the place where he was detained as a lunatic if he had remained there after his escape.

PART III.

JUDICIAL INQUISITION AS TO LUNACY.

The Inquisition.

Order for
to lunacy.

90.—(1.) The Judge in Lunacy may upon application by order direct an inquisition whether a person is of unsound mind and incapable of managing himself and his affairs.

(2.) Where the alleged lunatic is within the jurisdiction, he shall have notice of the application and shall be entitled to demand an inquiry before a jury.

(3.) Upon the hearing of the application, the alleged lunatic may withdraw any demand for a jury made by him.

91. Where the alleged lunatic demands a jury, the Judge in Lunacy shall in his order for inquisition direct the return of a jury, unless he is satisfied, by personal examination of the alleged lunatic, that he is not mentally competent to form and express a wish for an inquisition before a jury; and the Judge may, where he deems it necessary, and for the purpose of personal examination, require the alleged lunatic to attend him at such convenient time and place as he may appoint.

Demand of a jury by alleged lunatic.

92. Where the alleged lunatic does not demand a jury, or the Judge in Lunacy is satisfied by a personal examination that he is not mentally competent to form and express a wish in that behalf, and it appears to the Judge, upon consideration of the evidence, and of the circumstances of the case, to be unnecessary or inexpedient that the inquisition should be before a jury, and he accordingly does not in his order for inquisition direct the return of a jury, then the Masters shall, without a jury, personally examine the alleged lunatic, and take such evidence, upon oath or otherwise, and call for such information as they think fit or the Judge directs, in order to ascertain whether or not the alleged lunatic is of unsound mind, and shall certify their finding thereon.

Cases where a jury may be dispensed with.

93. Where the Judge in Lunacy does not in his order for inquisition direct the return of a jury, but the Masters, upon consideration of the evidence, certify that in their opinion an inquisition before a jury is expedient, they shall, without further order, issue their precept to the sheriff, and shall proceed in like manner in all respects, and their proceedings shall be as valid and effectual as if the Judge had directed the return of a jury in the first instance.

Jury to be had, if masters certify that it is expedient.

94.—(1.) Wherever the Judge in Lunacy orders an inquisition before a jury, he may by his order direct an issue to be tried in the High Court, and the question in such issue shall be, whether the alleged lunatic is of unsound mind and incapable of managing himself or his affairs; and the provisions of this Act with respect to commissions of lunacy, and orders for inquisition to be tried by a jury, and the trial thereof, and the constitution of the jury, shall apply to any issue to be directed as aforesaid, and the trial thereof, and subject thereto and to the provisions of this Act such issue and the trial thereof shall be regulated by the Rules of the Supreme Court for the time being in force relating to the trial of issues of fact by a jury, and the verdict upon any such issue finding the alleged lunatic to be of unsound mind and incapable of managing himself or his affairs shall have the same effect as an inquisition under this Act.

Inquiries before a jury may be made by means of an issue in the High Court.

(2.) On the trial of every such issue the alleged lunatic shall, if he is within the jurisdiction, be examined before the evidence is taken, and at the close of the proceedings, before the jury consult as to their verdict, unless the Judge who tries the issue otherwise directs; and such examinations shall take place either in open court or in private as such Judge directs.

95. Where the Masters certify that the alleged lunatic is of unsound mind, and incapable of managing himself or his affairs,

Certificate of masters without a jury to have the force and effect of an inquisition.

or that he is of sound mind, and capable of managing his affairs, the certificate shall have the same effect as an inquisition taken upon the oath of a jury.

Jury to be had if lunatic out of jurisdiction.

96. Where the alleged lunatic is not within the jurisdiction it shall not be necessary to give him notice of the application for inquisition, and the inquisition shall be before a jury.

Number of jury.

97. The Lord Chancellor may, by order, regulate the number of jurors to be sworn, but so that every inquisition upon the oath of a jury be found by the oaths of twelve men, at least.

Nature and limit of inquisitions.

98.—(1.) The inquisition shall be confined to the question whether or not the alleged lunatic is at the time of the inquisition of unsound mind, and incapable of managing himself or his affairs, and no evidence as to anything done or said by him, or as to his demeanour or state of mind at any time, being more than two years before the time of the inquisition, shall be receivable in proof of insanity, or on the trial of any traverse of an inquisition, unless the person executing the inquisition otherwise directs.

(2.) If upon such inquisition it appears that the alleged lunatic is of unsound mind, so as to be incapable of managing his affairs, but that he is capable of managing himself, and is not dangerous to himself or to others, it may be so specially found and certified.

Power of person executing inquiry.

99. The person executing an inquisition with a jury shall, while so employed, have all the powers, authorities, and discretion of a Judge of the High Court.

Inquisition may be ordered on report of Commissioners.

100. Where the Commissioners report to the Lord Chancellor that they are of opinion that the property of any person detained or taken charge of as a lunatic, but not so found by inquisition, is not duly protected, or that the income thereof is not duly applied for his benefit, or to the same effect, the report shall be filed with the Masters, and shall be deemed to be an application for inquisition supported by evidence, and the alleged lunatic shall have notice of the report from such person as the Judge in Lunacy directs, and the case shall proceed and be conducted as nearly as may be in all respects as is herein-before directed upon an application for inquisition.

Traverse and Supersedeas of an Inquisition.

Applications for traverse to be made within a limited time.

101.—(1.) Any person desiring to traverse an inquisition, not being a verdict upon an issue tried in the High Court, may, within three months next after the day of the return of the inquisition, apply for that purpose to the Judge in Lunacy.

(2.) The Judge shall hear and determine the application, and shall in his order upon it for a traverse limit a time, not exceeding six months from the date of the order, within which the person desiring to traverse and all other proper parties are to proceed to trial of the traverse.

(3.) The Judge may by the same or any other order direct that the person desiring to traverse, not being the person the object of the inquisition, shall within three weeks next after the date of the order, give sufficient security to and to the satisfaction of the Masters for all proper parties proceeding to trial within the time to be limited as aforesaid.

102. Every person who does not within the appointed time apply for a traverse, or who refuses or neglects to give such security as aforesaid, or who does not proceed to trial within the appointed time, shall be absolutely barred of the right of traverse: Provided that the Judge in Lunacy may, under the special circumstances of any particular case, extend the time upon such terms as he thinks just.

Persons not proceeding to trial within limited time barred.

103. If the Judge in Lunacy is dissatisfied with the verdict returned upon a traverse, he may order one or more new trial or trials thereon, as he thinks fit; but no person shall be admitted to traverse oftener than once.

Judge may direct new trials.

104. A traverse of a verdict upon an issue tried in the High Court shall not be allowed, but the Judge in Lunacy may, if he thinks fit, upon application within three months next after the trial of any such issue, order a new trial of the issue, or a new inquisition as to the insanity of the alleged lunatic, subject to such directions and upon such conditions as to the Judge may seem proper.

New trial of an issue.

105. If it appears to the Judge in Lunacy that it is not expedient or for the benefit of the lunatic that the commission should be unconditionally superseded, but that the same should be superseded on terms and conditions, he may, upon the consent of the lunatic and any other persons whose consent he deems necessary, order the commission to be superseded upon such terms and conditions as he thinks proper, and the Judge may make such orders as he thinks fit for giving effect to such terms and conditions.

Commission may be superseded on conditions.

106.—(1.) The Judge in Lunacy, if satisfied by a report of the Commissioners, or of one of the Chancery Visitors, or on any other evidence, that a lunatic so found by inquisition is cured or capable of managing himself, and not dangerous to himself or others, though incapable of managing his affairs, may, if he thinks it desirable that the ordinary proceedings for a supersedeas should not be insisted on, by order supersede the inquisition, so far as the same finds that the lunatic is incapable of managing himself, and rescind or vary any order for the commitment of the person of the lunatic.

Power to supersede inquisition as regards commitment of person.

(2.) An order under this section may be made on such terms and conditions as the Judge thinks fit.

(3.) Notice of an order under this section shall be forthwith given to the committee of the person of the lunatic, and also to the person under whose care the lunatic is.

Transmission of Inquisition and Supersedeas to Ireland and England.

107. Where it is desired that an inquisition taken, or a writ of supersedeas issued in England or Ireland, should be acted upon in Ireland or England, the proper officer may, under order of the

Transmission of inquisition and supersedeas to

England.

Judge in Lunacy in England, or the Lord Chancellor for the time being entrusted by the sign manual of Her Majesty with the care and commitment of the custody of the persons and estates of lunatics in Ireland, as the case may be, transmit a transcript of the record of the inquisition, or of the writ, to the Registrar in Lunacy in Ireland or the High Court in England, as the case may be, which transcript shall thereupon be entered and be of record there respectively, and shall, when so entered of record, and if and so long only as the Lord Chancellor entrusted as aforesaid in Ireland and the Judge in Lunacy in England, as the case may be, thinks fit, be acted upon by them respectively, and be of the same validity and effect, to all intents and purposes, as if the inquisition had been taken or the writ issued in Ireland or England respectively.

PART IV.

JUDICIAL POWERS OVER PERSON AND ESTATE OF LUNATICS.

The Judge in Lunacy.

Jurisdiction of
lunacy.

108.—(1.) The jurisdiction of the Judge in Lunacy under this Act shall be exercised either by the Lord Chancellor for the time being entrusted by the Sign Manual of Her Majesty with the care and commitment of the custody of the persons and estates of lunatics, acting alone or jointly with any one or more of such Judges of the Supreme Court as may for the time being be entrusted as aforesaid, or by any one or more of such Judges as aforesaid.

(2.) The Judge in Lunacy may make orders for the custody of lunatics so found by inquisition and the management of their estates, and every such order shall take effect as to the custody of the person immediately, and as to the custody of the estate upon the Master's certificate of completion of the committee's security.

(3.) Where upon the inquisition it is specially found or certified that the person to whom the inquisition relates is of unsound mind so as to be incapable of managing his affairs, but that he is capable of managing himself, and is not dangerous to himself or to others, the Judge in Lunacy may make such orders as he thinks fit for the commitment of the estate of the lunatic and its management, including all proper provisions for the maintenance of the lunatic, but it shall not be necessary, unless in the discretion of the judge it appears proper to do so, to make any order as to the custody or commitment of the person of the lunatic.

(4.) Any order under this section may be made notwithstanding proceedings are pending for a traverse or new trial, and any person acting upon an order so made shall be indemnified as effectually as if there had been no right of traverse or new trial.

Costs.

109. The costs of all proceedings for the purpose of ascertaining whether a person is lunatic, and of all proceedings in the matter of a lunatic shall be in the discretion of the Judge in Lunacy, who may order all or any of such costs to be paid by the lunatic or alleged lunatic, or to be charged upon and paid out of his estate, or such part thereof as the Judge thinks fit, or by any other party to the proceedings; and in the case of the death of the lunatic or alleged lunatic, an order for payment of costs out of his estate may be made within six years next after the right to recover the costs has accrued, and every such order shall have the effect of an order of the High Court.

110. The powers and authorities given by this Act to the Judge in Lunacy shall extend to property within any British possession. Powers to extend to British possessions.

The Masters.

111.—(1.) There shall continue to be Masters in Lunacy as heretofore, and they shall, subject to the provisions of this Act and the Rules in Lunacy execute and perform the same powers and duties as heretofore, and shall perform such other duties for the benefit of lunatics and their estates as the Lord Chancellor may direct. (2.) The powers and authorities of the Masters shall be joint and several, and they shall execute commissions and conduct inquiries connected with lunatics or their estates, and perform all other duties committed to them, either separately or together, and at such places, within such times, and in such manner as the Rules in Lunacy, and, subject thereto, as the Judge in Lunacy may by any special order direct.

(3.) A Master must be a barrister of not less than ten years standing, and shall be appointed by the Lord Chancellor.

(4.) A Master shall, before being capable of acting, make before the Lord Chancellor, in the manner now used, the declaration to be made by a Master set forth in the First Schedule.

(5.) The Masters shall have such clerks and officers as the Lord Chancellor may, with the concurrence of the Treasury as to number and salaries, determine.

(6.) The salaries of the Masters, their clerks and officers, and their expenses to the amount sanctioned by the Treasury, shall be paid out of moneys provided by Parliament.

112. A general commission of inquiry, with such variations as may be expedient, may from time to time be issued in duplicate under the Great Seal, directed to the Masters by name, jointly and severally, who shall by virtue thereof proceed, in each case of alleged lunacy concerning which the Judge in Lunacy orders them to inquire, in like manner and with all the like powers and authorities (subject to the provisions in this Act contained) as heretofore. Commission of inquiry.

113. The Lord Chancellor may issue a commission specially to any person or persons alone or in addition to the Masters, or one of them, if upon any occasion he thinks it proper to do so; and the provisions of this Act so far as applicable shall extend to every commission so issued specially. Special Commission may issue.

114. The Masters may administer any oath and take any affidavit and may summon any person to give evidence before them, and every person so summoned shall be bound to attend as required by the summons. Power to summon witnesses.

Expiration of Orders for the Commitment of Person.

Order for custody of person of lunatic so found to determine unless continued.

115.—(1.) The medical attendant of every lunatic so found by inquisition shall, before the expiration of one, three, and six years respectively from the commencement of this Act, and before the expiration of every subsequent period of five years after the expiration of six years from the commencement of this Act, send to the Masters a report as to the mental and bodily condition of the patient, with a certificate under his hand certifying, if it is the fact, that the patient is still of unsound mind and a proper person to be detained under care and treatment.

(2.) If, before the expiration of any of the periods herein-before mentioned, such report and certificate are not sent to the Masters, they shall inquire as to the omission, and unless they are satisfied that the lunatic is still of unsound mind, the order for the commitment of the person of the lunatic as to whom such report and certificate are not sent shall determine at the expiration of such period ; but nothing herein contained shall affect the commitment of the estate.

(3.) A Master may, by order under his hand, extend the time within which any report and certificate under this section is to be sent to the Masters, and if the time is so extended, the order for commitment of the person of the lunatic as to whom the time is so extended shall continue in force until the expiration of the extended time, but such extended time shall not exceed six months.

(4.) Where any order for commitment of the person of a lunatic has determined under this section, the Masters shall forthwith give notice of such determination to the committee of the person of the lunatic and to the person under whose care the lunatic is.

Management and Administration.

Extent of the administrative powers of the judge in lunacy.

116.—(1.) The powers and provisions of this Part of this Act relating to management and administration apply :—

- (a.) To lunatics so found by inquisition ;
- (b.) To lunatics not so found by inquisition for the protection or administration of whose property any order has been made before the commencement of this Act ;
- (c.) To every person lawfully detained as a lunatic though not so found by inquisition ;

- (e.) To every person with regard to whom it is proved to the satisfaction of the Judge in Lunacy by the certificate of a Master, or by the report of the Commissioners, or by affidavit or otherwise, that such person is of unsound mind and incapable of managing his affairs, and that his property does not exceed two thousand pounds in value, or that the income thereof does not exceed one hundred pounds per annum ;

(f.) To every person with regard to whom the Judge is satisfied by affidavit or otherwise that such person is or has been a criminal lunatic and continues to be insane and in confinement.

(2.) In the case of any of the above-mentioned persons not being lunatics so found by inquisition, such of the powers of this Act as are made exercisable by the committee of the estate under order of the Judge shall be exercised by such person in such manner and with or without security as the Judge may direct, and any such order may confer upon the person therein named authority to do any specified act, or exercise any specified power, or may confer a general authority to exercise on behalf of the lunatic, until further order, all or any of such powers without further application to the Judge.

(3.) Every person appointed to do any such act or exercise any such power shall be subject to the jurisdiction and authority of the Judge as if such person were the committee of the estate of a lunatic so found by inquisition.

(4.) The powers of this Act relating to management and administration shall be exercisable in the discretion of the Judge for the maintenance or benefit of the lunatic or of him and his family, or where it appears to be expedient in the due course of management of the property of the lunatic.

(5.) Nothing in this Act shall subject a lunatic's property to claims of his creditors further than the same is now subject thereto by due course of law.

117.—(1.) The Judge may order that any property of the lunatic, whether present or future, be sold, charged, mortgaged, dealt with, or disposed of as the Judge thinks most expedient for the purpose of raising or securing, or repaying with or without interest, money which is to be or which has been applied to all or any of the purposes following:—

Power to raise money for certain purposes.

- (a.) Payment of the lunatic's debts or engagements;
- (b.) Discharge of any incumbrance on his property;

- (d.) Payment of or provision for the expenses of his future maintenance.

(2.) In case of a charge or mortgage being made under this Act for the expenses of future maintenance, the Judge may direct the same to be payable, either contingently if the interest charged is a contingent or future one, or upon the happening of the event if the interest is depending on an event which must happen, and either in a gross sum or in annual or other periodical sums, and at such times and in such manner as he thinks expedient.

118.—(1.) The Judge may order that the whole or any part of any moneys expended or to be expended under his order for the permanent improvement, security, or advantage of the property of the lunatic, or of any part thereof, shall, with interest, be a charge upon the improved property or any other property of the lunatic, but so that no right of sale or foreclosure during the lifetime of the lunatic be conferred by the charge.

(2.) The interest shall be kept down during the lunatic's lifetime, out of the income of his general estate, as far as the same is sufficient to bear it.

(3.) The charge may be made either to some person advancing the money, or if the money is paid out of the lunatic's general estate, to some person as a trustee for him, as part of his personal estate.

Power to dissolve partnership.

119. Where a person being a member of a partnership becomes lunatic the Judge may, by order, dissolve the partnership.

Powers exercisable by committee under order of judge.

120. The Judge may, by order, authorise and direct the committee of the estate of a lunatic to do all or any of the following things:—

- (a.) Sell any property belonging to the lunatic;
- (b.) Make exchange or partition of any property belonging to the lunatic or in which he is interested, and give or receive any money for equality of exchange or partition;
- (c.) Carry on any trade or business of the lunatic;
- (d.) Grant leases of any property of the lunatic for building, agricultural, or other purposes;

- (j.) Surrender, assign, or otherwise dispose of with or without consideration any onerous property belonging to the lunatic;
- (k.) Enter into any agreement touching the patronage of augmented cures under the Act one George the First, chapter ten, which the lunatic might have entered into if he had been of sound mind;
- (l.) Exercise any power or give any consent required for the exercise of any power where the power is vested in the lunatic for his own benefit or the power of consent is in the nature of a beneficial interest in the lunatic.

Property exchanged and renewed lease to be to same uses as before.

121. Any property taken in exchange and any renewed lease accepted on behalf of a lunatic under the powers of this Act shall be to the same uses and be subject to the same trusts, charges, incumbrances, dispositions, devises, and conditions as the property given in exchange or the surrendered lease was or would but for the exchange or surrender have been subject to.

Extent of leasing power.

122.—(1.) The power to authorise leases of a lunatic's property under this Act shall extend to property of which the lunatic is tenant in tail, and every lease granted pursuant to any order under this Act shall bind the issue of the lunatic and all persons entitled in remainder and reversion expectant upon the estate tail of the lunatic including the Crown, and every person to whom from time to time the reversion expectant upon the lease belongs upon the death of the lunatic shall have the same rights and remedies against the lessee, his executors, administrators, and assigns, as the lunatic or his committee would have had.

(2.) Leases authorised to be granted and accepted by or on behalf of a lunatic under this Act may be for such number of lives or such term of years, at such rent and royalties, and subject to such reservations, covenants, and conditions as the Judge approves.

(3.) Fines or other payments on the renewal of leases may be paid out of the lunatic's estate, or charged with interest on the leasehold property.

123.—(1.) The lunatic, his heirs, executors, administrators, next of kin, devisees, legatees, and assigns, shall have the same interest in any moneys arising from any sale, mortgage, or other disposition, under the powers of this Act which may not have been applied under such powers, as he or they would have had in the property the subject of the sale, mortgage, or disposition, if no sale, mortgage, or disposition, had been made, and the surplus moneys shall be of the same nature as the property sold, mortgaged, or disposed of.

Lunatic's interest in property not to be altered.

(2.) Monies received for equality of partition and exchange, or under any lease of unopened mines, and all fines, premiums, and sums of money received upon the grant or renewal of a lease, where the property the subject of the partition, exchange, or lease was real estate of the lunatic, shall, subject to the application thereof for any purposes authorised by this Act, as between the representatives of the real and personal estate of the lunatic, be considered as real estate, except in the case of fines, premiums, and sums of money received upon the grant or renewal of leases of property of which the lunatic was tenant for life, in which case the fines, premiums, and sums of money shall be personal estate of the lunatic.

(3.) In order to give effect to this section the Judge may direct any money to be carried to a separate account, and may order such assurances and things to be executed and done as he thinks expedient.

124. The committee of the estate, or such person as the Judge approves, shall in the name and on behalf of the lunatic execute and do all such assurances and things for giving effect to any order under this Act as the Judge directs, and every such assurance and thing shall be valid and effectual, and shall take effect accordingly, subject only to any prior charge to which the property affected thereby at the date of the order is subject.

Power to carry orders into effect.

125. Where a lunatic so found by inquisition is entitled to be admitted tenant of copyhold land, the committee of his estate may appear at one of the three next courts holden for the manor (for the holding whereof the usual notice shall be given), and there offer himself to be admitted tenant in the name and on behalf of the lunatic; and in default of his appearance, or of his acceptance of admittance, the lord or his steward may, after three courts duly holden, and proclamations thereat regularly made, at any subsequent court appoint any fit person to be attorney for the lunatic for that purpose only, and by that attorney admit the lunatic tenant of the land, according to such estate as the lunatic is legally entitled to therein.

Fines upon admittance.

126.—(1.) The lord or his steward may upon the admittance impose such fine as might have been imposed if the lunatic had been of sound mind, which fine may be demanded by the lord's bailiff or agent, by a note in writing signed by the lord or his steward, to be left with the committee of the estate, or with the tenant or occupier of the land.

(2.) If the fine is not paid or tendered to the lord or his steward within three months after demand, then the lord may enter upon and hold the land, and receive the rents and profits thereof, (but without liberty to fell any timber standing thereon,) until he is thereby fully paid the fine, with his reasonable costs and charges of raising the same, and of obtaining the possession of the land, although the lunatic die before the fine and costs and charges have been raised.

(3.) The lord shall yearly, on demand by the person entitled to the surplus rents and profits, after payment of the fine and costs and charges, or by the person then entitled to the land, render an account of the rents and profits received by him or on his behalf, and shall pay the surplus, if any, to the person entitled thereto.

(4.) As soon as the fine and costs and charges have been fully paid, or if after the lord's entry, the fine and costs and charges are lawfully tendered to him, then the lunatic, by the committee of his estate or other the person entitled, may enter upon and hold the land, according to his estate or interest therein; and the lord shall deliver possession thereof accordingly, and if he refuse so to do he shall make satisfaction to the person kept out of possession for all the damages which he thereby sustains, and all his costs and charges of recovering possession.

(5.) If the committee pays the fine and costs and charges, then he, his executors and administrators, may enter upon and hold the land, and receive the rents and profits thereof until payment thereof of the amount disbursed upon that account, although the lunatic die before reimbursement.

(6.) If the fine imposed is not warranted by the custom of the manor, or is unlawful, the lunatic may controvert its legality, as if this Act had not been passed; and no lunatic so found by inquisition shall forfeit any land for his neglect or refusal to appear at any court, or to be admitted thereto, or to pay the fine imposed upon his admittance.

temporary money may be

127.—(1.) Where it appears to the Judge that there is reason to believe that the unsoundness of mind of any lunatic so found by inquisition is in its nature temporary, and will probably be soon removed, and that it is expedient that temporary provision should be made for the maintenance of the lunatic, or of the lunatic and the members of his immediate family who are dependent upon him for maintenance, and that any sum of money arising from or being in the nature of income or of ready money belonging to the lunatic, and standing to his account with a banker or agent, or being in the hands of any person for his use, is readily available and may be safely and properly applied in that behalf, the Judge may allow thereout such amount as he thinks proper for the temporary maintenance of the lunatic, or of the lunatic and the members of his immediate family who are dependent upon him for maintenance, and may, instead of proceeding to order a grant of the custody of the estate, order or give liberty for the payment of any such sum of money as aforesaid, or any part thereof, to such person as, under the circumstances of the case, he thinks proper to intrust with the application thereof, and may direct the same to be paid to such person accordingly, and when received to be applied, and the same shall accordingly be applied, in or towards such temporary maintenance as aforesaid.

(2.) The receipt in writing of the person to whom payment is to be made for any moneys payable to him by virtue of an order under this section shall be a good discharge, and every person is hereby directed to act upon and obey every such order.

(3.) The person receiving any money by virtue of an order under this section shall pass an account thereof before the Masters, when required.

128. Where a power is vested in a lunatic in the character of trustee or guardian, or the consent of a lunatic to the exercise of a power is necessary in the like character, or as a check upon the undue exercise of the power, and it appears to the Judge to be expedient that the power should be exercised or the consent given, the committee of the estate, in the name and on behalf of the lunatic, under an order of the Judge, made upon the application of any person interested, may exercise the power or give the consent in such manner as the order directs.

Committee may exercise power vested in lunatic in character of trustee or guardian.

129. Where under this Act the committee of the estate, under order of the Judge, exercises, in the name and on behalf of the lunatic, a power of appointing new trustees vested in the lunatic, the person or persons who shall, after and in consequence of the exercise of the power, be the trustee or trustees, shall have all the same rights and powers as he or they would have had if the order had been made by the High Court; and the Judge may in any such case, where it seems to him to be for the lunatic's benefit and also expedient, make any order respecting the property subject to the trust which might have been made in the same case under the Trustee Act, 1850, or any Act amending the same, on the appointment thereunder of a new trustee or new trustees.

Appointment of new trustees under power to have effect of appointments by High Court, and like orders may be made as under Trustee Act, 1850.

130. In any case where, pending the appointment of committees, it appears to the Masters desirable that temporary provision should be made for the expenses of the maintenance or other necessary purposes or requirements of the lunatic, or any member of his family, out of any cash or available securities belonging to him in the hands of his bankers, or of any other person, the Masters shall be at liberty by certificate to authorise such banker or other person to pay to the person to be named in such certificate such sum as they certify to be proper; and may by such certificate give any directions as to the proper application thereof for the lunatic's benefit by that person, who shall be accountable for the same as the Masters direct.

Powers as to Property in England, Scotland, and Ireland.

Power to deal with property in England, Scotland, and Ireland.

131.—(1.) The powers of management and administration of the estates of lunatics conferred by this Act shall, without an inquisition or other proceedings in Ireland, extend to the personal property in Ireland of a lunatic so found by inquisition in England where such personal property does not exceed two thousand pounds in value or the income thereof does not exceed one hundred pounds a year; and the like powers conferred by the Lunacy Regulation (Ireland) Act, 1871, shall, without an inquisition or other proceedings in England, extend to the personal property in England of a lunatic so found by inquisition in Ireland where such personal property or the income thereof does not exceed such amount as aforesaid.

(2.) Where a person has been found lunatic by inquisition in England or Ireland, and has personal property in Scotland, the committee of the estate of the lunatic shall, without cognition or other proceedings in Scotland, have all the same powers as to such property, or the income thereof, as might be exercised by a tutor at law after cognition or a duly appointed curator bonis to a person of unsound mind in Scotland.

(3.) Where a tutor at law after cognition or a curator bonis has been appointed to a lunatic in Scotland, who has personal property in England or Ireland, the tutor at law or curator bonis shall, without an inquisition or other proceedings in England or Ireland, have all the same powers as to such property, or the income thereof, as might be exercised by the committee of the estate of a lunatic, so found by inquisition in England or Ireland.

(4.) The powers of management and administration conferred by this Act in cases where the property of a person of unsound mind does not exceed two thousand pounds in value, or the income thereof does not exceed one hundred pounds per annum, and the powers conferred by section sixty-eight of the Lunacy Regulation (Ireland) Act, 1871, shall extend to the property in Ireland or England, as the case may be, of the lunatic where the total value of the property in England and Ireland does not exceed two thousand pounds in value, or the income thereof does not exceed one hundred pounds a year.

c. 22. s. 68.

Power of County Court Judge.

Power to deal with property of small amount.

132.—(1.) Where a reception order is made in the case of a lunatic the value of whose real and personal property is under two hundred pounds, and no relative or friend of the lunatic is willing to undertake the management of such property, any judge of county courts having jurisdiction in the place from which the lunatic is sent, may, upon the application of the clerk of the guardians, or a relieving officer of the union from which the lunatic is sent, authorise the clerk or relieving officer, or such other person as the judge by his order appoints, to take possession of and sell and realise the real and personal property of the lunatic, and to exercise all the powers which could be exercised by the legal personal representative of the lunatic if he were dead; and the receipt of the person so authorised shall be a valid discharge to any person who pays any money or delivers any property of the lunatic to such person.

(2.) The judge, by whom such order is made, may by the same or any subsequent orders give such directions as he thinks fit as to the application of the property of the lunatic for his benefit or in reimbursement of such sums as may have been or may be expended by the guardians of the union for his care or relief, or of the costs or expenses incurred in relation to the lunatic by such guardians, or by the person acting under any such order as aforesaid, or the judge may, if he thinks fit, order that the whole or any part of the proceeds of the lunatic's property be paid into the county court to the credit of an account intituled in the matter of such lunatic, and any sum so paid into court may either be invested in the manner provided by the county court rules in force for the time being, or be paid out of court from time to time to such person as the judge directs, to be held and applied for the benefit of such lunatic, or in or towards such reimbursement as aforesaid, in such manner as the judge directs.

(3.) The person acting under any such order shall render an account of his dealings with the lunatic's property to the judge by whom such order was made in such manner as the judge appoints.

Vesting Orders.

133. Where any stock is standing in the name of or is vested in a lunatic beneficially entitled thereto, or is standing in the name of or vested in a committee of the estate of a lunatic so found by inquisition, in trust for the lunatic, or as part of his property, and the committee dies intestate, or himself becomes lunatic, or is out of the jurisdiction of the High Court, or it is uncertain whether the committee is living or dead, or he neglects or refuses to transfer the stock, and to receive and pay over the dividends thereof as the Judge in Lunacy directs, then the Judge may order some fit person to transfer the stock to or into the name of a new committee or into court or otherwise, and also to receive and pay over the dividends thereof in such manner as the Judge directs.

Power to transfer stock of lunatic.

134. Where any stock is standing in the name of or vested in a person residing out of the jurisdiction of the High Court, the Judge in Lunacy, upon proof to his satisfaction that the person has been declared lunatic, and that his personal estate has been vested in a person appointed for the management thereof, according to the law of the place where he is residing, may order some fit person to make such transfer of the stock or any part thereof to or into the name of the person so appointed or otherwise, and also to receive and pay over the dividends thereof, as the judge thinks fit.

Stock in name of lunatic out of the jurisdiction.

Power to vest lands and release contingent right of lunatic trustee or mortgagee.

135.—(1.) When a lunatic is solely or jointly seised or possessed of any land upon trust or by way of mortgage the Judge in Lunacy may by order vest such land in such person or persons for such estate, and in such manner, as he directs.

(2.) When a lunatic is solely or jointly entitled to a contingent right in any land upon trust or by way of mortgage, the Judge may by order release such hereditaments from the contingent right, and dispose of the same to such person or persons as the Judge directs.

(3.) An order under sub-sections (1.) and (2.) shall have the same effect as if the trustee or mortgagee had been sane, and had executed a deed conveying the lands for the estate named in the order, or releasing or disposing of the contingent right.

(4.) In all cases where an order can be made under this section the Judge may, if it is more convenient, appoint a person to convey the land or release the contingent right, and a conveyance or release by such person in conformity with the order shall have the same effect as an order under sub-sections (1.) and (2.).

(5.) Where an order under this section vesting any copyhold land in any person or persons is made with the consent of the lord or lady of the manor, such land shall vest accordingly without surrender or admittance.

(6.) For the purpose of procuring the approval of a Secretary of State to any agreement, contract, or plan requiring approval under this Act, the agreement, contract, or plan, with an estimate of the probable cost of carrying it into effect, shall be submitted to the Commissioners, and to the Secretary of State, and the Commissioners shall make such inquiries as they think fit, and shall report thereon to the Secretary of State, who may approve the agreement, contract, or plan, with or without modification, or may refuse his approval.

Mode of obtaining approval of Secretary of State.

Copy of depositions to be furnished on application.

(2.) The person applying for a copy of the depositions shall pay for the same at the rate of twopence for every folio of seventy-two words.

(3.) No omission or delay in furnishing a copy of the depositions shall be a ground of appeal against the order.

(4.) On the trial of any appeal no such order shall be quashed or set aside either wholly or in part on the ground that the depositions do not furnish sufficient evidence to support, or that any matter therein contained or omitted raises an objection to the order or grounds on which the same was made.

(5.) If the justices who make any such order have no clerk, they shall send or deliver the depositions to the clerk of the peace of the county or borough to the quarter sessions whereof the appeal lies, and the party obtaining such order shall, in the statement of the grounds of adjudication, state that the justices have no clerk.

305. In every case where notice of appeal against such order is given the appellant shall, with the notice, or fourteen days at least before the first day of the sessions at which the appeal is to be tried, send or deliver by post or otherwise to the respondent a statement in writing under his hand, or where the appellants are the guardians of a union, under the hand of the clerk to the guardians, of the grounds of such appeal; and the appellant shall not, on the hearing of any appeal, give evidence of any other grounds of appeal than those set forth in such statement.

As to the sufficiency of statement of grounds of adjudication or appeal.

307.—(1.) (2.) In all cases where the court is of opinion that any such objection to such statement or to the reception of evidence ought to prevail, the court may, if it thinks fit, cause any such statement to be forthwith amended by some officer of the court, or otherwise, on such terms as to payment of costs to the other party, or postponing the trial to another day in the same sessions, or to the next subsequent sessions, or both payment of costs and postponement, as to the court appears just.

Power for court to amend order on account of omission or mistake.

308.—(1.) If, upon the trial of any appeal against any such order, or upon the return to a writ of certiorari, any objection is made on account of any omission or mistake in drawing up the order, and it is shown to the satisfaction of the court that sufficient grounds were proved before the justices making the order to authorise the drawing up thereof free from the omission or mistake, the court may, upon such terms as to payment of costs as it thinks fit, amend the order and give judgment as if no omission or mistake had existed.

(2.) No objection on account of any omission or mistake in any such order brought up upon a return to a writ of certiorari shall be allowed, unless the omission or mistake has been specified in the rule for issuing such writ of certiorari.

(2.) If either of the parties to the appeal have included in the statement of grounds of adjudication or of appeal sent to the opposite party any grounds in support of the order or of appeal which, in the opinion of the court determining the appeal, are frivolous and vexatious, such party shall be liable, at the discretion of the court, to pay the whole or any part of the costs incurred by the other party in disputing any such grounds.

310. The decision of the court upon the hearing of any appeal against any such order, as well upon the sufficiency and effect of the statement of the grounds in support of the order and appeal, and of the copy or duplicate of the order sent to the appellant, as upon the amending or refusing to amend the order as aforesaid, or the statement of grounds, shall be final, and shall not be liable to be reviewed in any court by means of a writ of certiorari or mandamus or otherwise. Decision upon appeal to be final.

311.—(1.) In any case in which an order has been made as aforesaid, and a copy thereof sent as herein required, the party who has obtained the order, whether any notice of appeal against the order has been given or not, and whether any appeal has been entered or not, may abandon the order, by notice in writing under the hand of such party, or, where the order has been obtained by the guardians of a union, under the hand of the clerk to the guardians, to be sent by post or delivered to the appellant or the party entitled to appeal, and thereupon the order and all proceedings consequent thereon shall be void, and shall not be given in evidence, in case any other order for the same purposes is obtained. Abandonment of orders.

(2.) In all cases of such abandonment the party abandoning shall pay to the appellant or the party entitled to appeal the costs which he has incurred by reason of the order and of all subsequent proceedings thereon.

(3.) The proper officer of the court before whom the appeal (if it had not been abandoned) might have been brought shall, upon application, tax and ascertain the costs, at any time, whether the court is sitting or not, upon production to him of the notice of abandonment, and upon proof to him that such reasonable notice of taxation, together with a copy of the bill of costs, has been given to the guardians, or clerk abandoning the order, as the distance between the parties shall in his judgment require; and thereupon the sum allowed for costs, including the usual costs of taxation, which such officer is hereby empowered to charge and receive, shall be endorsed upon the said notice of abandonment, and the said notice so endorsed shall be filed among the records of the said court.

(2.) If the guardians upon whom any such order is made refuse or neglect for such time as aforesaid to pay the money, the same, together with the expenses of recovering the same, may be recovered by an action at law or by any other proceeding in any such court.

(3.) In case of any such action or proceeding no objection shall be taken to any default or want of form in any order for reception or maintenance, or in any certificate or adjudication under this Act, if such order or adjudication has not been appealed against, or if appealed against has been affirmed.

Traders who have sold plate as duty paid to deduct or repay the allowance.

15. Every person who shall have contracted to sell or deliver any plate as duty paid, but in respect of which duty is not payable or an allowance is claimed by virtue of this Act, shall deduct from the purchase money, or if the purchase money has been paid, shall repay the amount of the duty which would have been payable if this Act had not been passed, or of any allowance granted to him in respect of such plate.

Power to close assay offices.

16. If the Commissioners of Inland Revenue require the production and delivery of plate for examination at any assay office, the office may, notwithstanding any enactment to the contrary, be kept closed so that no plate can be taken in for assay during such time as may be necessary.

Saving clause.

17.—(1.) Notwithstanding the repeal of the duties by this part of this Act the articles of gold or silver which would have been free from liability to assay by reason of exemption from duty if this Act had not been passed shall continue free from that liability.

(2.) No action shall be brought against the Commissioners or any of their officers, or any person acting in their aid or assistance, for any expenses incurred in the production, removal, or detention of plate, or for any loss or damage whatever to any plate produced for examination pursuant to this Act.

BE it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

1. The Merchant Shipping Act, 1876, shall, from and after the expiration of six months after the passing of this Act, be construed as if in the twenty-sixth and twenty-seventh sections thereof the following sub-section were inserted instead of the sub-sections numbered (2) in those sections respectively :

Compulsory marking of load-line.

“(2.) The centre of this disc shall be placed at such level below the deck-line marked under the provisions of this Act as may be approved by the Board of Trade, and shall indicate the maximum load-line in salt water to which it shall be lawful to load the ship.”

Provided that the position of the disc shall be fixed in accordance with the tables framed by the Load Line Committee appointed before the passing of this Act, subject to such allowance as may be made necessary by any difference between the position of the deck-line marked under the provisions of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1876, and the position of the line from which freeboard is measured under the said tables, and subject also to such modifications, if any, of the tables and the application thereof as may from time to time be sanctioned by the Board of Trade.

39 & 40 Vict. c. 80.

In sanctioning any such modifications the Board of Trade shall have regard to any representations which may be made to them by any corporation or association for the survey or registry of shipping for the time appointed or approved by the Board of Trade for the purposes of this Act.

2.—(1.) The Board of Trade shall appoint the Committee of Lloyd's Register of British and Foreign Shipping, or, at the option of the owner of the ship, any other corporation or association for the survey or registry of shipping, approved by the Board of Trade, or any officer of the Board of Trade specially selected by the Board for that purpose, to approve and certify on their behalf from time to time the position of any such disc as aforesaid, and any alteration thereof, and may appoint fees to be taken in respect of any such approval or certificate.

Regulations.

(2.) The Board of Trade may make regulations—

(a) determining the lines or marks to be used in connexion with the disc, in order to indicate the maximum load-line under different circumstances and at different seasons, and declaring that the provisions of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1876, are to have effect as if any such line were drawn through the centre of the disc ;

- (b) as to the mode in which the disc and the lines or marks to be used in connexion therewith are to be marked or affixed on the ship, whether by painting, cutting, or otherwise ;
- (c) as to the mode of application for, and form of certificates under this Act ; and
- (d) requiring the entry of such certificates, and other particulars as to the draught of water and freeboard of the ship, in the official log-book of the ship, or other publication thereof on board the ship, and as to delivering copies of such entries.
- All such regulations shall, while in force, have effect as if enacted by this Act.

Provision as to colonial ships.

3. Where the legislature of any British possession by any enactment provides for the fixing, marking, and certifying of load-lines on ships registered in that possession, and it appears to Her Majesty the Queen that the provisions of that enactment are based on the same principles as the provisions of this Act, and are equally effective for ascertaining and determining the maximum load-lines to which such ships can be safely loaded in salt water, and for giving notice of the load-line to persons interested, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by Order in Council, to declare that any load-line fixed and marked and any certificate given in pursuance of that enactment shall, with respect to ships so registered, have the same effect as if it had been fixed, marked, or given in pursuance of this Act.

Sections one and two of this Act shall not apply in the case of a ship registered in a British possession until the expiration of twelve months after the passing of this Act.

Provision as to foreign ships.

4. Where the Board of Trade certify that the laws and regulations for the time being in force in any foreign state with respect to overloading and improper loading are equally effective with the provisions of the Merchant Shipping Acts with respect thereto, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty by Order in Council to direct that, on proof of a ship of that state having complied with those laws and regulations, she shall not, when in a port of the United Kingdom, be liable to detention for non-compliance with the said provisions of the Merchant Shipping Acts, nor shall there arise any liability to any penalty which would otherwise arise for non-compliance with those provisions.

Provided that this section shall not apply in the case of ships of any foreign country in which it appears to Her Majesty that corresponding provisions are not extended to British ships.

Definition of "amidships."

5. For the purposes of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1876, as amended by this Act, the expression "amidships" shall mean the middle of the length of the load water-line as measured from the fore side of the stem to the aft side of the stern-post.

49 Vict. c. 5.

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

Land and Works.

Power for Secretary of State to carry into effect purposes of Act.

1. The Secretary of State for the War Department (herein-after called the Secretary of State) may forthwith proceed to carry into effect the purposes of this Act, and with a view to carrying the same into effect may acquire such lands and execute such works as he may deem expedient; and all lands acquired for the purposes of this Act shall vest in the Secretary of State on behalf of Her Majesty.

Power of Secretary of State for purchase of land.

2. With a view to the purchase of lands in the United Kingdom for the purposes of this Act, or for the purposes of artillery or rifle ranges, or for the purposes of drill or other military purposes of volunteer corps or of other portions of Her Majesty's military forces, the Lands Clauses Acts shall be incorporated with this Act, with the exceptions and additions and subject to the provisions following; (that is to say.)

8 & 9 Vict.
c. 18.

(1.) There shall not be incorporated with this Act sections sixteen or seventeen of the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, or the provisions of that Act with respect to affording access to the special Act, or sections fifteen or sixteen of the Lands Clauses Consolidation (Scotland) Act, 1845.

8 & 9 Vict.
c. 19.

(3.) The bond required by section eighty-five of the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, and by section eighty-four of the Lands Clauses Consolidation (Scotland) Act, 1845, shall be under the seal of the Secretary of State and shall be sufficient without the addition of the sureties in those sections mentioned.

(4.) The word "lands" shall in this Act and the incorporated Acts include any easement in lands.

(5.) When compensation has been paid to any person in respect of any estate or interest in lands taken under this Act, the lands shall vest in the Secretary of State for all the estate and interest of that person, including any estate or interest therein held in trust by that person or capable of being conveyed by him in pursuance of any power. Nevertheless the Secretary of State may require that person to execute any conveyance which he might have been required to execute if this Act had not passed, and nothing in this section shall in any manner invalidate any such conveyance when executed.

(6.) The Secretary of State shall not put in force the provisions of the incorporated Acts with respect to the purchase of land compulsorily until he has obtained the sanction of Parliament in manner in this Act mentioned.

- (7.) One month at the least before making any application to Parliament for sanction to the compulsory purchase of land under this Act the Secretary of State shall serve, in manner provided by the Lands Clauses Acts, a notice on every owner or reputed owner, lessee or reputed lessee, and occupier of any land intended to be so purchased, describing the land intended to be taken, and in general terms the purposes to which it is to be applied, and stating the intention of the Secretary of State to obtain the sanction of Parliament to the purchase thereof, and inquiring whether the person so served assents or dissents to the taking of his land, and requesting him to forward to the Secretary of State any objections he may have to his land being taken.
- (8.) The Secretary of State shall, at some time after the service of the notice, make a local inquiry by a competent officer into the objections made by any persons whose land is required to be taken, and by other persons, if any, interested in the subject matter of the inquiry.
- (9.) If after the inquiry has been made the Secretary of State is satisfied that the land ought to be taken, he may submit a Bill to Parliament containing provisions authorising him to take the land, and any such Bill shall be deemed to be a public Bill, and, if passed into an Act, to have conveyed to the Secretary of State the sanction of Parliament to purchase the land therein mentioned or referred to.

Provided that if, while the Bill is pending in either House of Parliament, a petition is presented against anything comprised therein, the Bill may be referred to a select committee, and the petitioner shall be allowed to appear and oppose as in the case of private Bills.

3. The persons and bodies of persons mentioned in section two of the Drill Grounds Act, 1886, as being authorised to grant land or a licence to use land for the purposes therein mentioned may, at their option, grant either land or a licence to use land for the purpose of artillery or rifle ranges, or for the purposes of drill or other military purposes of volunteer corps, or of other portions of Her Majesty's military forces, and the provisions of that section shall apply accordingly.

4. Where land is acquired under the Defence Act, 1842, and the Acts amending the same, the compensation to be paid for the land may, if both parties agree, be settled by arbitration instead of by reference to a jury, and thereupon the provisions of the Lands Clauses Acts shall apply as in the case of an arbitration under those Acts.

8. The Secretary of State may, with the concurrence of the Treasury, sell any land in the United Kingdom for the time being vested in him, and occupied for barracks or for purposes connected therewith, and the proceeds of any such sale shall be applied to the purposes of this Act, and the amount authorised to be issued out of the Consolidated Fund under this Act shall be reduced accordingly.

An Act to amend the Law respecting the exercise of Admiralty Jurisdiction in Her Majesty's Dominions and elsewhere out of the United Kingdom.

[25th July 1890.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

Short title.

1. This Act may be cited as the Colonial Courts of Admiralty Act, 1890.

Colonial Courts of Admiralty.

2.—(1.) Every court of law in a British possession, which is for the time being declared in pursuance of this Act to be a court of Admiralty, or which, if no such declaration is in force in the possession, has therein original unlimited civil jurisdiction, shall be a court of Admiralty, with the jurisdiction in this Act mentioned, and may for the purpose of that jurisdiction exercise all the powers which it possesses for the purpose of its other civil jurisdiction, and such court in reference to the jurisdiction conferred by this Act is in this Act referred to as a Colonial Court of Admiralty. Where in a British possession the Governor is the sole judicial authority, the expression "court of law" for the purposes of this section includes such Governor.

(2.) The jurisdiction of a Colonial Court of Admiralty shall, subject to the provisions of this Act, be over the like places, persons, matters, and things, as the Admiralty jurisdiction of the High Court in England, whether existing by virtue of any statute or otherwise, and the Colonial Court of Admiralty may exercise such jurisdiction in like manner and to as full an extent as the High Court in England, and shall have the same regard as that Court to international law and the comity of nations.

(3.) Subject to the provisions of this Act any enactment referring to a Vice-Admiralty Court, which is contained in an Act of the Imperial Parliament or in a Colonial law, shall apply to a Colonial Court of Admiralty, and be read as if the expression "Colonial Court of Admiralty" were therein substituted for "Vice-Admiralty Court" or for other expressions respectively referring to such Vice-Admiralty Courts or the judge thereof, and the Colonial Court of Admiralty shall have jurisdiction accordingly.

Provided as follows :

(a.) Any enactment in an Act of the Imperial Parliament referring to the Admiralty jurisdiction of the High Court in England, when applied to a Colonial Court of Admiralty in a British possession, shall be read as if the name of that possession were therein substituted for England and Wales ; and

(b.) A Colonial Court of Admiralty shall have under the Naval Prize Act, 1864, and under the Slave Trade Act, 1873, and any enactment relating to prize or the slave trade, the jurisdiction thereby conferred on a Vice-Admiralty Court and not the jurisdiction thereby conferred exclusively on the High Court of Admiralty or the High Court of Justice; but, unless for the time being duly authorised, shall not by virtue of this Act exercise any jurisdiction under the Naval Prize Act, 1864, or otherwise in relation to prize; and

(c.) A Colonial Court of Admiralty shall not have jurisdiction under this Act to try or punish a person for an offence which according to the law of England is punishable on indictment; and

(d.) A Colonial Court of Admiralty shall not have any greater jurisdiction in relation to the laws and regulations relating to Her Majesty's Navy at sea, or under any Act providing for the discipline of Her Majesty's Navy, than may be from time to time conferred on such court by Order in Council.

(4.) Where a Court in a British possession exercises in respect of matters arising outside the body of a county or other like part of a British possession any jurisdiction exercisable under this Act, that jurisdiction shall be deemed to be exercised under this Act and not otherwise.

3. The legislature of a British possession may by any Colonial law jurisdiction.

(a.) declare any court of unlimited civil jurisdiction, whether original or appellate, in that possession to be a Colonial Court of Admiralty, and provide for the exercise by such court of its jurisdiction under this Act, and limit territorially, or otherwise, the extent of such jurisdiction; and

(b.) confer upon any inferior or subordinate court in that possession such partial or limited Admiralty jurisdiction under such regulations and with such appeal (if any) as may seem fit:

Provided that any such Colonial law shall not confer any jurisdiction which is not by this Act conferred upon a Colonial Court of Admiralty.

4. Every Colonial law which is made in pursuance of this Act, or affects the jurisdiction of or practice or procedure in any court of such possession in respect of the jurisdiction conferred by this Act, or alters any such Colonial law as above in this section mentioned, which has been previously passed, shall, unless previously approved by Her Majesty through a Secretary of State, either be reserved for the signification of Her Majesty's pleasure thereon, or contain a suspending clause providing that such law shall not come into operation until Her Majesty's pleasure thereon has been publicly signified in the British possession in which it has been passed.

Colonial law for Her
assent.

5. Subject to rules of court under this Act, judgments of a court in a British possession given or made in the exercise of the jurisdiction conferred on it by this Act, shall be subject to the like local appeal, if any, as judgments of the court in the exercise of its ordinary civil jurisdiction, and the court having cognizance of such

appeal shall for the purpose thereof possess all the jurisdiction by this Act conferred upon a Colonial Court of Admiralty.

Admiralty

6.—(1.) The appeal from a judgment of any court in a British possession in the exercise of the jurisdiction conferred by this Act, either where there is as of right no local appeal or after a decision on local appeal, lies to Her Majesty the Queen in Council.

(2.) Save as may be otherwise specially allowed in a particular case by Her Majesty the Queen in Council, an appeal under this section shall not be allowed—

(a) from any judgment not having the effect of a definitive judgment unless the court appealed from has given leave for such appeal, nor

(b) from any judgment unless the petition of appeal has been lodged within the time prescribed by rules, or if no time is prescribed within six months from the date of the judgment appealed against, or if leave to appeal has been given then from the date of such leave.

(3.) For the purpose of appeals under this Act, Her Majesty the Queen in Council and the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council shall, subject to rules under this section, have all such powers for making and enforcing judgments, whether interlocutory or final, for punishing contempts, for requiring the payment of money into court, or for any other purpose, as may be necessary, or as were possessed by the High Court of Delegates before the passing of the Act transferring the powers of such court to Her Majesty in Council, or as are for the time being possessed by the High Court in England or by the court appealed from in relation to the like matters as those forming the subject of appeals under this Act.

(4.) All Orders of the Queen in Council or the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council for the purposes aforesaid or otherwise in relation to appeals under this Act shall have full effect throughout Her Majesty's dominions, and in all places where Her Majesty has jurisdiction.

(5.) This section shall be in addition to and not in derogation of the authority of Her Majesty in Council or the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council arising otherwise than under this Act, and all enactments relating to appeals to Her Majesty in Council or to the powers of Her Majesty in Council or the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council in relation to those appeals, whether for making rules and orders or otherwise, shall extend, save as otherwise directed by Her Majesty in Council, to appeals to Her Majesty in Council under this Act.

court.

7.—(1.) Rules of court for regulating the procedure and practice (including fees and costs) in a court in a British possession in the exercise of the jurisdiction conferred by this Act, whether original or appellate, may be made by the same authority and in the same manner as rules touching the practice, procedure, fees, and costs in the said court in the exercise of its ordinary civil jurisdiction respectively are made:

Provided that the rules under this section shall not, save as provided by this Act, extend to matters relating to the slave trade, and shall not (save as provided by this section) come into operation until they have been approved by Her Majesty in Council, but on coming into operation shall have full effect as if enacted in this Act, and any enactment inconsistent therewith shall, so far as it is so inconsistent, be repealed.

It shall be lawful for Her Majesty in Council, in approving rules made under this section, to declare that the rules so made with respect to any matters which appear to Her Majesty to be matters of detail or of local concern may be revoked, varied, or added to without the approval required by this section.

(3.) 8.—(1.) CHAPTER 34.

An Act to prevent the Spread of Infectious Disease.

[4th August 1890.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

Short title. 1. This Act may be cited as the Infectious Disease (Prevention) Act, 1890.

Definitions. 2. Expressions used in this Act shall, unless the context otherwise requires, have the same meaning as the like expressions used in the Infectious Disease (Notification) Act, 1889 ; and the provisions of this Act shall apply to the infectious diseases specifically mentioned in that Act, and may be applied to any other infectious disease in the same manner as that Act may be applied to such disease.

In this Act—

"Dairy" shall include any farm, farmhouse, cowshed, milk-store, milk-shop, or other place from which milk is supplied, or in which milk is kept for purposes of sale :

"Dairyman" shall include any cowkeeper, purveyor of milk, or occupier of a dairy :

"Medical officer of health" shall include any person duly authorised to act temporarily as medical officer of health :

"Local authority" shall include the Local Board of Woolwich, and the parish of Woolwich shall be deemed to be a London district.

Extent of Act. 3. The provisions of this Act shall extend—(a.) to every London district after the expiration of four months from the passing of this Act ; and (b.) to any urban or rural sanitary district after the adoption thereof ; and the local authority of any urban or rural sanitary district may adopt all or any of the sections of this Act by a resolution passed at a meeting of such authority. Fourteen clear days at least before such meeting special notice of the meeting, and of the intention to propose such resolution, shall be given to every member of the local authority, and the notice shall be deemed to have been duly given to a member if it is either—

- (a.) given in the mode in which notices to attend meetings of the local authority are usually given; or
- (b.) where there is no such mode, then signed by the clerk of the local authority and delivered to the member or left at his usual or last known place of abode in England, or forwarded by post in a prepaid letter addressed to the member at his usual or last known place of abode in England.

Every such resolution shall be published by advertisement in a local newspaper, and by handbills, and otherwise in such manner as the local authority think sufficient for giving notice thereof to all persons interested, and shall come into operation at such time, not less than one month after the first publication of the advertisement of the resolution, as the local authority may fix; and upon its coming into operation such of the sections of this Act as are mentioned in such resolution shall extend to the district.

A copy of the resolution shall be sent to the Local Government Board when it is published.

A copy of the advertisement shall be conclusive evidence of the resolution having been passed, unless the contrary be shown; and no objection to the effect of the resolution, on the ground that notice of the intention to propose the same was not duly given, or on the ground that the resolution was not sufficiently published, shall be made after three months from the date of the first advertisement.

4. In case the medical officer of health is in possession of evidence that any person in the district is suffering from infectious disease attributable to milk supplied within the district from any dairy situate within or without the district, or that the consumption of milk from such dairy is likely to cause infectious disease to any person residing in the district, such medical officer shall, if authorised in that behalf by an order of a justice having jurisdiction in the place where such dairy is situate, have power to inspect such dairy, and if accompanied by a veterinary inspector or some other properly qualified veterinary surgeon to inspect the animals therein, and if on such inspection the medical officer of health shall be of opinion that infectious disease is caused from consumption of the milk supplied therefrom, he shall report thereon to the local authority, and his report shall be accompanied by any report furnished to him by the said veterinary inspector or veterinary surgeon, and the local authority may thereupon give notice to the dairyman to appear before them within such time, not less than twenty-four hours, as may be specified in the notice, to show cause why an order should not be made requiring him not to supply any milk therefrom within the district until such order has been withdrawn by the local authority, and if, in the opinion of the local authority, he fails to show such cause, then the local authority may make such order as aforesaid; and the local authority shall forthwith give notice of the facts to the sanitary authority and county council (if any) of the district or county in which such dairy is situate, and also to the Local Government Board. An order made by a local authority in pursuance of this section shall be forthwith withdrawn on the local authority or the medical officer of health on its behalf being satisfied that the milk supply has been changed, or that the cause of the infection has been removed. Any person refusing to permit the medical officer of health on the production of such order as aforesaid to inspect any dairy, or if so accompanied as aforesaid to inspect the animals kept there, or after any such order not to supply milk as aforesaid has been given, supplying any milk within the district in contravention of such order, or selling it for consumption therein, shall be deemed guilty of an offence against this Act. Provided always, that proceedings in respect of such offence shall be taken before the justices of the peace having jurisdiction in the place where the said dairy is situate. Provided also, that no dairyman shall be liable to an action for breach of contract if the breach be due to an order from the local authority under this Act.

c. 90.
38 & 39 Vict.
c. 55.

5. Section twenty-two of the Sanitary Act, 1866, so far as it relates to any London district, and section one hundred and twenty of the Public Health Act, 1875, so far as it applies to any urban or rural sanitary district in which this section is adopted, shall be repealed, and the following provisions shall be in force instead thereof, viz.:

- (1.) Where the medical officer of health of any local authority, or any other registered medical practitioner, certifies that the cleansing and disinfecting of any house, or part thereof, and of any articles therein likely to retain infection, would tend to prevent or check infectious disease, the clerk to the local authority shall give notice in writing to the owner or occupier of such house or part thereof that the same and any such articles therein will be cleansed and disinfected by the local authority at the cost of such owner or occupier, unless he informs the local authority within twenty-four hours from the receipt of the notice that he will cleanse and disinfect the house or part thereof and any such articles therein to the satisfaction of the medical officer of health, within a time fixed in the notice.
- (2.) If, within twenty-four hours from the receipt of the notice the person to whom the notice is given does not inform the local authority as aforesaid, or if, having so informed the local authority, he fails to have the house or part thereof and any such articles disinfected as aforesaid within the time fixed in the notice, the house or part thereof and articles shall be cleansed and disinfected by the officers of the local authority under the superintendence of the medical officer of health, and the expenses incurred may be recovered from the owner or occupier in a summary manner.
- (3.) Provided that where the owner or occupier of any such house or part thereof is unable in the opinion of the local authority, or of their medical officer of health, effectually to cleanse and disinfect such house or part thereof, and any article therein likely to retain infection, the same may without any such notice being given as aforesaid, but with the consent of such owner or occupier, be cleansed and disinfected by the officers of and at the cost of the local authority.

6. Any local authority, or the medical officer of health of any local authority generally empowered by the authority in that behalf, may by notice in writing require the owner of any bedding, clothing, or other articles which have been exposed to the infection of any infectious disease to cause the same to be delivered over to an officer of the local authority for removal for the purpose of disinfection; and any person who fails to comply with such a requirement shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding ten pounds.

Disinfection of bedding, &c.

The bedding, clothing, and articles shall be disinfected by the authority, and shall be brought back and delivered to the owner free of charge, and if any of them suffer any unnecessary damage the authority shall compensate the owner for the same and the amount of compensation shall be recoverable in, and in case of dispute shall be settled by, a court of summary jurisdiction.

7. Every person who shall cease to occupy any house, room, or part of a house in which any person has within six weeks previously been suffering from any infectious disease without having such house, room, or part of a house, and all articles therein liable to retain infection, disinfected to the satisfaction of a registered medical practitioner, as testified by a certificate signed by him, or without first giving to the owner of such house, room, or part of a house, notice of the previous existence of such disease, and every person ceasing to occupy any house, room, or part of a house, and who on being questioned by the owner thereof, or by any person negotiating for the hire of such house, room, or part of a house as to the fact of there having within six weeks previously been therein any person suffering from any infectious disease knowingly makes a false answer to such question shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding ten pounds.

Penalty on persons ceasing to occupy houses without previous disinfection or giving notice to owner, or persons making false answers.

8. No person without the sanction in writing of the medical officer of health or of a registered medical practitioner, shall retain unburied elsewhere than in a public mortuary or in a room not used at the time as a dwelling-place, sleeping-place, or workroom, for more than forty-eight hours, the body of any person who has died of any infectious disease.

Prohibiting retention of dead bodies in certain cases.

9. If any person shall die from any infectious disease in any hospital or place of temporary accommodation for the sick, and the medical officer of health, or any other registered medical practitioner, certifies that in his opinion it is desirable, in order to prevent the risk of communicating any infectious disease or of spreading infection, that the body shall not be removed from such hospital or place except for the purpose of being forthwith buried, it shall not be lawful for any person or persons to remove such body from such hospital or place except for the last-mentioned purpose; and when the body is taken out of such hospital for that purpose it shall be forthwith carried or taken direct to some cemetery or place of

Nothing in this Act shall prevent the removal of any dead body from any hospital or temporary place of accommodation for the sick to any mortuary, and such mortuary shall, for the purposes of this section, be deemed part of such hospital or place as aforesaid.

Justices may in certain cases order dead bodies to be buried.

10. Where the body of any person who has died from any infectious disease remains unburied elsewhere than in a mortuary or in a room not used at the time as a dwelling-place, sleeping-place, or workroom, for more than forty-eight hours after death without the sanction of the medical officer of health or of a registered medical practitioner, or where the dead body of any person is retained in any house or building so as to endanger the health of the inmates of such house or building, or of any adjoining or neighbouring house or building, any justice may, on the application of the medical officer of health, order the body to be removed at the cost of the local authority to any available mortuary, and direct the same to be buried within a time to be limited in the order; and any justice may, in the case of the body of any person who has died of any infectious disease, or in any case in which he shall consider immediate burial necessary, direct the body to be so buried. Unless the friends or relatives of the deceased undertake to bury and do bury the body within the time limited by such order, it shall be the duty of the relieving officer of the relief district from which the body has been removed to the mortuary, or in which the body shall be, if it has not been so removed, to bury such body, and any expense so incurred may be charged by the relieving officer in his accounts, and may be recovered by the board of guardians in a summary manner from any person legally liable to pay the expenses of such burial.

Disinfection of public conveyances if used for carrying corpses.

11. Any person who hires or uses a public conveyance other than a hearse for the conveyance of the body of a person who has died from any infectious disease, without previously notifying to the owner or driver of such public conveyance that the person whose body is or is intended to be so conveyed has died from infectious disease, and after any such notification as aforesaid, any owner or driver of a public conveyance, other than a hearse, which has been used for conveying the body of a person who has died from infectious disease, who shall not immediately afterwards provide for the disinfection of such conveyance, shall be guilty of an offence under this Act.

Detention of infected person without proper lodging in hospital by order of justice.

12. Any justice of the peace acting in and for the district of the local authority, upon proper cause shown to him, may make an order directing the detention in hospital at the cost of the local authority of any person suffering from any infectious disease, who is then in an hospital for infectious disease and would not on leaving such hospital be provided with lodging or accommodation in which proper precautions could be taken to prevent the spreading of the disorder by such person. Any order so to be made by any such justice may be limited to some specific time, but with full power to any justice to enlarge such time as often as may appear to him to be necessary. It shall be lawful for any officer of the local authority or inspector of police acting in the district, or for any officer of the hospital, on any such order being made to take all necessary measures and do all necessary acts for enforcing the execution thereof.

13. Any person who shall knowingly cast, or cause or permit to be cast, into any ash-pit, ash-tub, or other receptacle for the deposit of refuse matter any infectious rubbish without previous disinfection, shall be guilty of an offence under this Act. Infectious rubbish thrown into ashpits, &c., to be disinfected.

Temporary shelter, &c.

16. Every person who shall wilfully obstruct any duly authorised officer of the local authority in carrying out the provisions of this Act, or who shall obstruct the carrying out of an order made by a justice under this Act, or who shall offend against any enactment of this Act for the time being in force in any district by which no penalty is specifically imposed, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding five pounds, and if the offence is a continuing one, to a daily penalty not exceeding forty shillings a day so long as the offence continues. 18. Every penalty imposed by this Act shall be recoverable in a court of summary jurisdiction on the information or complaint of the local authority, or of their duly authorised officer, but not otherwise, and shall be paid to the local authority. Recovery and application of penalties.

19. Where a provision of this Act is put in force in any district in which there is any similar provision in force contained in any local Act, such last-mentioned provision shall cease to be in operation. Superseding in certain cases of provisions in local Acts.

CHAPTER 37.

An Act to consolidate the Foreign Jurisdiction Acts.

[4th August 1890.]

WHEREAS by treaty, capitulation, grant, usage, sufferance, and other lawful means, Her Majesty the Queen has jurisdiction within divers foreign countries, and it is expedient to consolidate the Acts relating to the exercise of Her Majesty's jurisdiction out of Her dominions:

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

Exercise of jurisdiction in foreign country.

1. It is and shall be lawful for Her Majesty the Queen to hold, exercise, and enjoy any jurisdiction which Her Majesty now has or may at any time hereafter have within a foreign country in the same and as ample a manner as if Her Majesty had acquired that jurisdiction by the cession or conquest of territory.

Exercise of jurisdiction over British subjects in countries without regular governments.

2. Where a foreign country is not subject to any government from whom Her Majesty the Queen might obtain jurisdiction in the manner recited by this Act, Her Majesty shall by virtue of this Act have jurisdiction over Her Majesty's subjects for the time being resident in or resorting to that country, and that jurisdiction shall be jurisdiction of Her Majesty in a foreign country within the meaning of the other provisions of this Act.

Validity of acts done in pursuance of jurisdiction.

3. Every act and thing done in pursuance of any jurisdiction of Her Majesty in a foreign country shall be as valid as if it had been done according to the local law then in force in that country.

Evidence as to existence or extent of jurisdiction in foreign country.

4. If in any proceeding, civil or criminal, in a court in Her Majesty's dominions or held under the authority of Her Majesty any question arises as to the existence or extent of any jurisdiction of Her Majesty in a foreign country, a Secretary of State shall, on the application of the court, send to the court within a reasonable time his decision on the question, and his decision shall for the purposes of the proceeding be final.

(2.) The court shall send to the Secretary of State, in a document under the seal of the court, or signed by a judge of the court, questions framed so as properly to raise the question, and sufficient answers to those questions shall be returned by the Secretary of State to the court, and those answers shall, on production thereof, be conclusive evidence of the matters therein contained.

5.—(1.) It shall be lawful for Her Majesty the Queen in Council, if She thinks fit, by Order to direct that all or any of the enactments described in the First Schedule to this Act, or any enactments for the time being in force amending or substituted for the same, shall extend, with or without any exceptions, adaptations, or modifications in the Order mentioned, to any foreign country in which for the time being Her Majesty has jurisdiction.

Power to extend enactments in First Schedule.

(2.) Thereupon those enactments shall, to the extent of that jurisdiction, operate as if that country were a British possession, and as if Her Majesty in Council were the Legislature of that possession.

6.—(1.) Where a person is charged with an offence cognizable by a British court in a foreign country, any person having authority derived from Her Majesty in that behalf may, by warrant, cause the person so charged to be sent for trial to any British possession for the time being appointed in that behalf by Order in Council, and upon the arrival of the person so charged in that British possession, such criminal court of that possession as is authorised in that behalf by Order in Council, or if no court is so authorised, the supreme criminal court of that possession, may cause him to be kept in safe and proper custody, and so soon as conveniently may be may inquire of, try, and determine the offence, and on conviction punish the offender according to the laws in force in that behalf within that possession in the same manner as if the offence had been committed within the jurisdiction of that criminal court.

Power to send persons charged with offences for trial to a British possession.

Provided that—

- (a.) A person so charged may, before being so sent for trial, tender for examination to a British court in the foreign country where the offence is alleged to have been committed any competent witness whose evidence he deems material for his defence and whom he alleges himself unable to produce at the trial in the British possession :
- (b.) In such case the British court in the foreign country shall proceed in the examination and cross-examination of the witness as though he had been tendered at a trial before that court, and shall cause the evidence so taken to be reduced into writing, and shall transmit to the criminal court of the British possession by which the person charged is to be tried a copy of the evidence, certified as correct under the seal of the court before which the evidence was taken, or the signature of a judge of that court :

(c.) Thereupon the court of the British possession before which the trial takes place shall allow so much of the evidence so taken as would have been admissible according to the law and practice of that court, had the witness been produced and examined at the trial, to be read and received as legal evidence at the trial :

(d.) The court of the British possession shall admit and give effect to the law by which the alleged offender would have been tried by the British court in the foreign country in which his offence is alleged to have been committed, so far as that law relates to the criminality of the act alleged to have been committed, or the nature or degree of the offence, or the punishment thereof, if the law differs in those respects from the law in force in that British possession.

(2.) Every registrar in Scotland shall in the course of the week ending on the Saturday next before the census day leave or cause to be left at every dwelling-house within his district one or more of the said schedules for the occupier or occupiers thereof or of any part thereof, and upon every such schedule shall be plainly expressed that it is to be filled up by the occupier of such dwelling-house (or where such dwelling-house is let in different stories or apartments, and occupied distinctly by different persons or families, by the occupier of each such distinct story or apartment), and that the enumerator will collect all such schedules within his division on the Monday then next following.

CHAPTER 39.

An Act to declare and amend the Law of Partnership.

[14th August 1890.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

Nature of Partnership.

Definition of partnership.

1.—(1.) Partnership is the relation which subsists between persons carrying on a business in common with a view of profit.

(2.) But the relation between members of any company or association which is—

25 & 26 Vict. c. 89.

(a.) Registered as a company under the Companies Act, 1862, or any other Act of Parliament for the time being in force and relating to the registration of joint stock companies ; or

(b.) Formed or incorporated by or in pursuance of any other Act of Parliament or letters patent, or Royal Charter ; or is not a partnership within the meaning of this Act.

(c.) A company engaged in working mines within and subject to the jurisdiction of the Stannaries :

Rules for determining existence of partnership.

2. In determining whether a partnership does or does not exist, regard shall be had to the following rules :

(1.) Joint tenancy, tenancy in common, joint property, common property, or part ownership does not of itself create a partnership as to anything so held or owned, whether the tenants or owners do or do not share any profits made by the use thereof.

(2.) The sharing of gross returns does not of itself create a partnership, whether the persons sharing such returns have or have not a joint or common right or interest in any property from which or from the use of which the returns are derived.

(3.) The receipt by a person of a share of the profits of a business is prima facie evidence that he is a partner in the business, but the receipt of such a share, or of a payment contingent on or varying with the profits of a business, does not of itself make him a partner in the business ; and in particular—

(a.) The receipt by a person of a debt or other liquidated amount by instalments or otherwise out of the accruing profits of a business does not of itself make him a partner in the business or liable as such :

(b.) A contract for the remuneration of a servant or agent of a person engaged in a business by a share of the profits of the business does not of itself make the servant or agent a partner in the business or liable as such :

(c.) A person being the widow or child of a deceased partner, and receiving by way of annuity a portion of the profits made in the business in which the deceased person was a partner, is not by reason only of such receipt a partner in the business or liable as such :

- (d.) The advance of money by way of loan to a person engaged or about to engage in any business on a contract with that person that the lender shall receive a rate of interest varying with the profits, or shall receive a share of the profits arising from carrying on the business, does not of itself make the lender a partner with the person or persons carrying on the business or liable as such. Provided that the contract is in writing, and signed by or on behalf of all the parties thereto :
- (e.) A person receiving by way of annuity or otherwise a portion of the profits of a business in consideration of the sale by him of the goodwill of the business is not by reason only of such receipt a partner in the business or liable as such.

3. In the event of any person to whom money has been advanced by way of loan upon such a contract as is mentioned in the last foregoing section, or of any buyer of a goodwill in consideration of a share of the profits of the business, being adjudged a bankrupt, entering into an arrangement to pay his creditors less than twenty shillings in the pound, or dying in insolvent circumstances, the lender of the loan shall not be entitled to recover anything in respect of his loan, and the seller of the goodwill shall not be entitled to recover anything in respect of the share of profits contracted for, until the claims of the other creditors of the borrower or buyer for valuable consideration in money or money's worth have been satisfied.

Postponement of rights of person lending or selling in consideration of share of profits in case of insolvency.

4.—(1.) Persons who have entered into partnership with one another are for the purposes of this Act called collectively a firm, and the name under which their business is carried on is called the firm-name.

Meaning of firm.

(2.) In Scotland a firm is a legal person distinct from the partners of whom it is composed, but an individual partner may be charged on a decree or diligence directed against the firm, and on payment of the debts is entitled to relief pro rata from the firm and its other members.

Relations of Partners to persons dealing with them.

5. Every partner is an agent of the firm and his other partners for the purpose of the business of the partnership ; and the acts of every partner who does any act for carrying on in the usual way business of the kind carried on by the firm of which he is a member bind the firm and his partners, unless the partner so acting has in fact no authority to act for the firm in the particular matter, and the person with whom he is dealing either knows that he has no authority, or does not know or believe him to be a partner.

Power of partner to bind the firm.

6. An act or instrument relating to the business of the firm and done or executed in the firm-name, or in any other manner showing an intention to bind the firm, by any person thereto authorised, whether a partner or not, is binding on the firm and all the partners.

Partners bound by acts on behalf of firm.

Provided that this section shall not affect any general rule of law relating to the execution of deeds or negotiable instruments.

Partner using credit of firm for private purposes.

7. Where one partner pledges the credit of the firm for a purpose apparently not connected with the firm's ordinary course of business, the firm is not bound, unless he is in fact specially authorised by the other partners; but this section does not affect any personal liability incurred by an individual partner.

Effect of notice that firm will not be bound by acts of partner.

8. If it has been agreed between the partners that any restriction shall be placed on the power of any one or more of them to bind the firm, no act done in contravention of the agreement is binding on the firm with respect to persons having notice of the agreement.

Liability of partners.

9. Every partner in a firm is liable jointly with the other partners, and in Scotland severally also, for all debts and obligations of the firm incurred while he is a partner; and after his death his estate is also severally liable in a due course of administration for such debts and obligations, so far as they remain unsatisfied, but subject in England or Ireland to the prior payment of his separate debts.

Liability of the firm for wrongs.

10. Where, by any wrongful act or omission of any partner acting in the ordinary course of the business of the firm, or with the authority of his co-partners, loss or injury is caused to any person not being a partner in the firm, or any penalty is incurred, the firm is liable therefor to the same extent as the partner so acting or omitting to act.

Misapplication of money or property received for or in custody of the firm.

11. In the following cases; namely—

(a.) Where one partner acting within the scope of his apparent authority receives the money or property of a third person and misapplies it; and

(b.) Where a firm in the course of its business receives money or property of a third person, and the money or property so received is misapplied by one or more of the partners while it is in the custody of the firm;

the firm is liable to make good the loss.

Liability for wrongs joint and several.

12. Every partner is liable jointly with his co-partners and also severally for everything for which the firm while he is a partner therein becomes liable under either of the two last preceding sections.

Improper employment of trust-property for partnership purposes.

13. If a partner, being a trustee, improperly employs trust-property in the business or on the account of the partnership, no other partner is liable for the trust-property to the persons beneficially interested therein:

represented, as a partner in a particular firm, is liable as a partner to any one who has on the faith of any such representation given credit to the firm, whether the representation has or has not been made or communicated to the person so giving credit by or with the knowledge of the apparent partner making the representation or suffering it to be made.

(2.) Provided that where after a partner's death the partnership business is continued in the old firm-name, the continued use of that name or of the deceased partner's name as part thereof shall not of itself make his executors or administrators estate or effects liable for any partnership debts contracted after his death.

15. An admission or representation made by any partner concerning the partnership affairs, and in the ordinary course of its business, is evidence against the firm.

Admissions and representations of partners.

16. Notice to any partner who habitually acts in the partnership business of any matter relating to partnership affairs operates as notice to the firm, except in the case of a fraud on the firm committed by or with the consent of that partner.

(3.) A retiring partner may be discharged from any existing liabilities, by an agreement to that effect between himself and the members of the firm as newly constituted and the creditors, and this agreement may be either express or inferred as a fact from the course of dealing between the creditors and the firm as newly constituted.

18. A continuing guaranty or cautionary obligation given either to a firm or to a third person in respect of the transactions of a firm is, in the absence of agreement to the contrary, revoked as to future transactions by any change in the constitution of the firm to which, or of the firm in respect of the transactions of which, the guaranty or obligation was given.

Revocation of continuing guaranty by change in firm.

20.—(1.) All property and rights and interests in property originally brought into the partnership stock or acquired, whether by purchase or otherwise, on account of the firm, or for the purposes and in the course of the partnership business, are called in this Act partnership property, and must be held and applied by the partners exclusively for the purposes of the partnership and in accordance with the partnership agreement.

Partnership property.

(2.) Provided that the legal estate or interest in any land, or in Scotland the title to and interest in any heritable estate, which belongs to the partnership shall devolve according to the nature and tenure thereof, and the general rules of law thereto applicable, but in trust, so far as necessary, for the persons beneficially interested in the land under this section.

(3.) Where co-owners of an estate or interest in any land, or in Scotland of any heritable estate, not being itself partnership property, are partners as to profits made by the use of that land or estate, and purchase other land or estate out of the profits to be used in like manner, the land or estate so purchased belongs to them, in the absence of an agreement to the contrary, not as partners, but as co-owners for the same respective estates and interests as are held by them in the land or estate first mentioned at the date of the purchase.

Property bought with partnership money.

21. Unless the contrary intention appears, property bought with money belonging to the firm is deemed to have been bought on account of the firm.

Conversion into personal estate of land held as partnership property.

22. Procedure against partnership property for a partner's separate judgment debt.

23.—(1.) After the commencement of this Act a writ of execution shall not issue against any partnership property except on a judgment against the firm.

(2.) Where a partnership entered into for a fixed term is continued after the term has expired, and without any express new agreement, the rights and duties of the partners remain the same as they were at the expiration of the term, so far as is consistent with the incidents of a partnership at will. Where partnership for term is continued over, continuance on old terms presumed.

Rights of assignee of share in partnership.

31.—(1.) An assignment by any partner of his share in the partnership, either absolute or by way of mortgage or redeemable charge, does not, as against the other partners, entitle the assignee, during the continuance of the partnership, to interfere in the management or administration of the partnership business or affairs, or to require any accounts of the partnership transactions, or to inspect the partnership books, but entitles the assignee only to receive the share of profits to which the assigning partner would otherwise be entitled, and the assignee must accept the account of profits agreed to by the partners.

(2.) In case of a dissolution of the partnership, whether as respects all the partners or as respects the assigning partner, the assignee is entitled to receive the share of the partnership assets to which the assigning partner is entitled as between himself and the other partners, and, for the purpose of ascertaining that share, to an account as from the date of the dissolution.

34. A partnership is in every case dissolved by the happening of any event which makes it unlawful for the business of the firm to be carried on or for the members of the firm to carry it on in partnership. Dissolution by illegality of partnership.

35. On application by a partner the Court may decree a dissolution of the partnership in any of the following cases: Dissolution by the Court.

(a.) When a partner is found lunatic by inquisition, or in Scotland by cognition, or is shown to the satisfaction of the Court to be of permanently unsound mind, in either of which cases the application may be made as well on behalf of that partner by his committee or next friend or person having title to intervene as by any other partner:

for partnership debts contracted after the date of the death, bankruptcy, or retirement respectively.

Right of partners to notify dissolution.

37. On the dissolution of a partnership or retirement of a partner any partner may publicly notify the same, and may require the other partner or partners to concur for that purpose in all necessary or proper acts, if any, which cannot be done without his or their concurrence.

Continuing authority of partners for purposes of winding up.

38. After the dissolution of a partnership the authority of each partner to bind the firm, and the other rights and obligations of the partners, continue notwithstanding the dissolution so far as may be necessary to wind up the affairs of the partnership, and to complete transactions begun but unfinished at the time of the dissolution, but not otherwise.

Rights of partners as to application of partnership property.

39. On the dissolution of a partnership every partner is entitled, as against the other partners in the firm, and all persons claiming through them in respect of their interests as partners, to have the property of the partnership applied in payment of the debts and liabilities of the firm, and to have the surplus assets after such payment applied in payment of what may be due to the partners respectively after deducting what may be due from them as partners to the firm; and for that purpose any partner or his representatives may on the termination of the partnership apply to the Court to wind up the business and affairs of the firm.

Apportionment of premium where partnership prematurely dissolved.

40. Where one partner has paid a premium to another on entering into a partnership for a fixed term, and the partnership is dissolved before the expiration of that term otherwise than by the death of a partner, the Court may order the repayment of the premium, or of such part thereof as it thinks just, having regard to the terms of the partnership contract and to the length of time during which the partnership has continued; unless

Where any member of a firm has died or otherwise ceased to be a partner, and the surviving or continuing partners carry on the business of the firm with its capital or assets without any final settlement of accounts as between the firm and the outgoing partner or his estate, then, in the absence of any agreement to the contrary, the outgoing partner or his estate is entitled at the option of himself or his representatives to such share of the profits made since the dissolution as the Court may find to be attributable to the use of his share of the partnership assets, or to interest at the rate of five per cent. per annum on the amount of his share of the partnership assets.

Right of outgoing partner in certain cases to share profits made after dissolution.

(2.) Provided that where by the partnership contract an option is given to surviving or continuing partners to purchase the interest of a deceased or outgoing partner, and that option is duly exercised, the estate of the deceased partner, or the outgoing partner or his estate, as the case may be, is not entitled to any further or other share of profits; but if any partner assuming to act in exercise of the option does not in all material respects comply with the terms thereof, he is liable to account under the foregoing provisions of this section.

43. Subject to any agreement between the partners, the amount due from surviving or continuing partners to an outgoing partner or the representatives of a deceased partner in respect of the outgoing or deceased partner's share is a debt accruing at the date of the dissolution or death.

2. This Act shall extend to Scotland only, and shall come into operation on the first day of January one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one.

Extent and commencement of Act.

3. Procedure for enforcement of duty.

Provided that—

(1.) Where a school board making any payment in pursuance of this section is not the school board of the parish in which the parent of any such child, as aforesaid, has his legal settlement in terms of the Act eighth and ninth Victoria, chapter eighty-three, it shall be entitled to relief in respect of any such payment against the school board of the parish in which such parent has his legal settlement as aforesaid; and Inspection of schools, &c.

8. Every school or institution to which a child is sent in pursuance of this Act shall be at all times open to the inspection of any of Her Majesty's inspectors of schools.

9. An Act to make provision respecting the Pensions, Allowances, and Gratuities of Police Constables in England and Wales, and their Widows and Children, and to make other provisions respecting the Police of England and Wales. [14th August 1890.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

PART I.

Superannuation of Constables.

1. Subject to the provisions of this Act, every constable in a police force—

- (a.) if he has completed not less than twenty-five years approved service, and, where a limit of age is prescribed by the pension scale in force under this Act, is of an age not less than the age so prescribed, shall, on the expiration of such time not exceeding four months after he has given written notice to the police authority of his desire to retire as the police authority may fix, be entitled without a medical certificate to retire and receive a pension for life ; and,
- (b.) if after he has completed fifteen years approved service he is incapacitated for the performance of his duty by infirmity of mind or body, shall be entitled on a medical certificate to retire and receive a pension for life ; and,
- (c.) if before he has completed fifteen years approved service he is incapacitated for the performance of his duty by infirmity of mind or body, shall be entitled on a medical certificate to retire, and thereupon the police authority may, if they think fit, grant him a gratuity ; and,
- (d.) if at any time he is incapacitated for the performance of his duty by infirmity of mind or body occasioned by an injury received in the execution of his duty without his own default, shall be entitled on a medical certificate to retire and receive a pension for life.

2.—(1.) If a constable dies whilst in a police force from the effect of an injury received in the execution of his duty without his own default, the police authority shall grant a pension to his widow, and allowances to his children. Pension allowances and gratuities to widow and children.

(2.) If a constable dies whilst in a police force from any other cause, the police authority may, if they think fit, grant gratuities to his widow and children or any of them.

(3.) If a constable, to whom a pension has been granted because he was incapacitated for the performance of his duty by an injury received in the execution of his duty without his own default, dies from the effects of the injury within twelve months after the grant of the pension, the police authority may, if they think fit, grant a pension to his widow, either for a term of years or otherwise.

(4.) If a constable to whom a pension has been granted dies within twelve months after the grant of the pension, the police authority may, if they think fit, grant gratuities to his widow and children or any of them.

3.—(1.) The pensions, allowances, and gratuities granted to constables of a police force and to their widows and children shall be in accordance with the pension scale for the force. Pension scale.

(2.) The pension scale for a police force shall be—

(a.) as regards ordinary pensions, a fixed scale adopted by the police authority within the maximum and minimum limits set forth in Part I. of the First Schedule to this Act; and

(b.) as regards special pensions and allowances and gratuities, the scale set forth in Part II. of that Schedule.

(3.) The police authority shall before the first day of January one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one send to the Secretary of State a copy of the scale adopted by them for ordinary pensions.

(4.) If any police authority do not before the said date adopt a fixed scale for ordinary pensions and send a copy thereof to the Secretary of State, the Secretary of State may frame for that authority a fixed scale for ordinary pensions within the maximum and minimum limits set forth in Part I. of the First Schedule to this Act, and that scale shall have the same effect as if it were a scale adopted by the police authority under this section.

(5.) The pension scale for each force shall come into operation on the commencement of this Act.

(6.) A police authority may from time to time adopt and send to the Secretary of State a new scale for ordinary pensions in lieu of the scale for the time being in force, but any such new scale shall not, without the consent of the constable, apply to any constable appointed before the day of its coming into operation.

(7.) The rules contained in Part III. of the First Schedule to this Act shall apply to all pensions, allowances, and gratuities granted under this Act.

4.—(1.) The service of a constable for the purposes of this Act shall be subject to such deductions in respect of sickness, misconduct, or neglect of duty as may be made therefrom in pursuance of the regulations of the force to which the constable belongs; and the expression "approved service" shall for the purposes of this Reckoning of service for pension.

Act mean such service as may after such deductions as aforesaid (if any) be certified under the order of the police authority to have been diligent and faithful service, but shall not, unless the regulations of the police force otherwise prescribe, include service before twenty-one years of age.

(2.) A certificate signed by the chief officer of a police force as to the period of a constable's approved service in that force shall be sufficient evidence thereof.

(3.) Where a deduction is made from a constable's service in respect of sickness, misconduct, or neglect of duty, notice of the deduction shall as soon as may be after the occurrence of the cause for which the deduction is made be given to the constable; and the constable may appeal to the chief officer of his police force against any act of an officer of police superior to the constable which prevents him from reckoning any period of actual service as approved service, and any period of actual service allowed by the chief officer on such appeal shall be deemed to be approved service: Provided that, in the case of a borough having a separate police force, the decision of the chief officer shall be subject to the approval of the watch committee.

(4.) Where a constable has served in more than one police force in any part of the United Kingdom, approved service in any such police force in which he has completed not less than three years approved service, and from which he has with the written sanction of the chief officer of that force removed to another force, shall be reckoned as approved service in the force in which the constable is serving at the time of his retirement.

(5.) Where a constable with the knowledge of the police authority or of the chief officer of his police force belongs to the army reserve, and is called out for training or for permanent service, he shall be entitled, on returning to the police force after the end of such training or service, to reckon any approved service which he was entitled to reckon at the commencement thereof.

Proof of incapacity for duty liability to serve again, and revision of pension.

5.—(1.) Before granting to a constable an ordinary pension on the ground of his being incapacitated by infirmity for the performance of his duty, the police authority shall be satisfied by the evidence of some legally qualified medical practitioner or practitioners, selected by the police authority, that the constable is so incapacitated, and that the incapacity is likely to be permanent.

(2.) Where the application is for a special pension, the police authority shall also be satisfied that the injury was received by the constable in the execution of his duty, that it was received without the default of the constable, and that the infirmity is attributable to the injury, and shall also determine whether the injury was accidental or not, and whether the disability of the constable for earning his livelihood is total or partial; and for the purpose of determining any of the said questions which ought to be determined on medical grounds shall take the like evidence as above mentioned.

(3.) Where a pension is granted to a constable on the ground of incapacity for the performance of his duty, the police authority shall, yearly or otherwise, until the power under this Act of requiring the constable to serve again ceases, satisfy themselves that the incapacity continues, and, unless they resolve that such evidence is unnecessary, shall satisfy themselves by the like evidence as above mentioned.

(4.) In the event of the incapacity ceasing before the time at which the constable would, if he had continued to serve, have been entitled without a medical certificate to retire and receive a pension for life, the police authority may cancel his pension and require him to serve again in the police force, in a rank not less than the rank which he held before his retirement, and at a rate of pay not less than the rate which he received before his retirement.

(5.) Where a constable so serves again, the provisions of this Act as to retirement and pensions, allowances, and gratuities shall apply as if he had not previously retired, save that, except in the case of pensions for non-accidental injuries received in the execution of duty, he shall not reckon as approved service the time which elapsed between his former retirement and the commencement of his service again.

(6.) Where a pension is granted to a constable on a scale applicable to total disability for earning a livelihood, it shall be so granted for such period as may be fixed by the police authority, and, if at the expiration of that period the pensioner continues to be totally so disabled, the pension shall, in the discretion of the police authority, either be made permanent or renewed from time to time. If at any time before the pension is made permanent the police authority are satisfied by the evidence of a legally qualified medical practitioner that the pensioner's disability for earning his livelihood has become partial, the pension shall, within the limits allowed by the pension scale, be reduced to the amount allowed by the provisions of the scale applicable to cases of partial disability.

(7.) If a constable fails or refuses, when required by the police authority, to be examined by some legally qualified medical practitioner selected by that authority, the police authority may deal with the constable in all respects as if they were satisfied by the evidence of such a practitioner that the constable is not incapacitated for the performance of his duty or, as the case may be, is only partially disabled.

(8.) The decision of the police authority on the matters above in this section mentioned shall be final, save that in the case of a borough the constable may appeal to the council of the borough, and the decision of the council shall be final.

6. Where a constable retires on account of infirmity of mind or body, and the police authority are satisfied on medical evidence that the constable has brought about or contributed to the infirmity by his own default or his vicious habits, the police authority may, in their discretion, reduce the amount of his pension by an amount not exceeding one half of the pension to which he would be otherwise entitled.

Power to reduce pension where infirmity partially due to misconduct.

7. The following provisions shall have effect with respect to every pension, allowance, and gratuity (in this section referred to

Assignment of pensions and regulations as

as a "grant") payable by the police authority to any person (in this section referred to as the pensioner):—

- (1.) Every assignment of and charge on a grant, and every agreement to assign or charge a grant, shall, except so far as made for the benefit of the family of the pensioner, be void, and on the bankruptcy of the pensioner the grant shall not pass to any trustee or other person acting on behalf of the creditors :
- (2.) Where any parochial relief is given to a pensioner or to anyone whom he is liable to maintain, the police authority may pay the whole or any part of the grant to the guardians or other authority giving the relief, and the same, when so paid, may be applied in repayment of any sums expended in such relief, and, subject thereto, shall be paid or applied by the guardians or other authority to or for the benefit of the pensioner :
- (3.) If the pensioner neglects to maintain any person whom he is liable to maintain, the police authority may in their discretion pay or apply the whole or any part of the grant to or for the benefit of that person :
- (4.) If the pensioner appears to the police authority to be insane or otherwise incapacitated to act, the police authority may pay so much of the grant as the police authority think fit to the institution or person having the care of the pensioner, and may pay the surplus (if any) or such part thereof as the authority think fit for or towards the maintenance and benefit of the wife or relatives of the pensioner :
- (5.) On the death of a pensioner to whom a sum not exceeding one hundred pounds is due on account of a grant, then, if the police authority so direct, probate or other proof of the title of the personal representative of the deceased may be dispensed with, and the sum may be paid or distributed to or among the persons appearing to the police authority to be beneficially entitled to the personal estate of the deceased pensioner, or to or among any one or more of those persons, or in case of the illegitimacy of the deceased pensioner, to or among such persons as the police authority may think fit, and the police authority, and any officer of the police authority making the payment, shall be discharged from all liability in respect of any such payment or distribution :
- (6.) Any sum payable to a minor on account of a grant may be paid either to the minor or to such person and on such conditions for the benefit of the minor as to the police authority seems expedient :
- (7.) Where a payment is made to any person by a police authority in pursuance of this section, the receipt of that person shall be a good discharge to that authority for the sum so paid :
- (8.) A police authority may, with the consent of the Secretary of State, make rules with respect to declarations to be taken for any purpose relating to grants payable by that authority, and while any such rules made by a police authority are in force, a person shall not be entitled to receive any sum in respect of a grant payable by that authority until any declaration required by those rules has been made.

8. A pension or allowance under this Act is granted only upon condition that it becomes forfeited, and may be withdrawn by the police authority, in any of the following cases:— Forfeiture of pension or allowance.

- (a.) if the grantee is convicted of any offence for which he is sentenced to penal servitude or to imprisonment for a term exceeding three months with hard labour, or to imprisonment for a term exceeding twelve months, whether with or without hard labour; or
- (b.) if the grantee knowingly associates with thieves or reputed thieves; or
- (c.) if the grantee refuses to give to the police all information and assistance in his power, for the detection of crime, for the apprehension of criminals, and for the suppression of any disturbance of the public peace; or
- (d.) if the grantee enters into or continues to carry on any business, occupation, or employment which is illegal, or in which he has made use of the fact of his former employment in the police in a manner which the police authority consider to be discreditable and improper.

Such forfeiture and withdrawal may affect the pension wholly or in part, and may be permanent or temporary, as the police authority may determine.

9. If a person obtains or attempts to obtain for himself or for any other person any pension, gratuity, or allowance under this Act, or any payment on account of any such pension, gratuity, or allowance, by means of any false declaration, false certificate, false representation, false evidence, or personation, or by malingering or feigning disease or infirmity, or by maiming or injuring himself, or causing himself to be maimed or injured, or otherwise producing disease or infirmity, or by any other fraudulent conduct, he shall be liable on summary conviction to imprisonment with or without hard labour for a term not exceeding four months or to a fine not exceeding twenty-five pounds, to be paid (notwithstanding anything in any charter or in any other Act whether relating to municipal corporations or otherwise) to the pension fund of the force from which he obtained or attempted to obtain the pension, gratuity, or allowance, and on conviction by a jury to imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for a term not exceeding two years, and also in either case, to forfeit any pension, gratuity, or allowance so obtained. Punishment for obtaining pension, &c. by fraud.

10. Nothing in this Act shall prejudice the existing right of any police authority to dismiss any constable, or to reduce him to any lower rank or lower rate of pay, or shall prevent his claim to pension from being refused on account of misconduct, or of negligence in the discharge of his duties, or on account of any of the grounds on which his pension if granted would be liable to be forfeited and withdrawn. Saving of right of dismissal and reduction in rank.

Appeal in case of forfeiture, or refusal of pension or allowance.

11. In any of the following cases—

- (a.) where a pension after being granted to a constable has subsequently in pursuance of this Act been declared to have been forfeited, and
- (b.) where a constable is dismissed without a pension to which he would be otherwise entitled, and in any other case where a constable, or the widow or child of a constable, claims a pension or allowance under this Act as of right, and the police authority do not admit the claim, the constable, widow, or child may apply to the police authority for a re-consideration of the claim to the pension or allowance, and if aggrieved by the decision upon such re-consideration may apply to the next practicable court of quarter sessions for the county within which the constable last served; or if the constable last served in the police force of a borough having a separate police force and a separate court of quarter sessions, then to the next practicable court of quarter sessions for that borough, and that court, after inquiry into the case, may make such order in the matter as appears to the court just, which order shall be final; but nothing in this section shall confer a right to appeal against the exercise of any discretion, or against any decision which is declared by this Act to be final.

Application of Act to chief officer of police.

12. The provisions of this Act shall apply to a chief officer of police and to the assistant commissioners of the metropolitan police in like manner, so nearly as circumstances admit, as they apply to any other constable, except that, in the case of a chief officer, the certificate of approved service and the sanction to removal from one force to another may be given by a resolution of the police authority, and that nothing in this section shall make any pension which is now payable out of money provided by Parliament payable from any other source.

Suspension of pension in case of appointment to new office.

13.—(1.) Where a constable in receipt of a pension under this Act from a police authority takes service in any police force, his pension may be suspended by that police authority in whole or in part so long as he remains in that service.

(2.) If a constable in receipt of a pension under this Act is appointed to an office remunerated out of money provided by Parliament, or out of a county or borough rate or fund, he shall not, while holding that office, receive more of the pension than together with the remuneration of that office is equal to one and a half times the remuneration of the office in respect of which the pension was awarded.

Provision as to service in more than one capacity.
50 & 51 Vict. c. 67.

14. Where a person has served in two or all of the following capacities—

- (i.) as a civil servant within the meaning of the Superannuation Act, 1887;
- (ii.) in a police force with a salary paid out of the police fund;
- (iii.) in a police force with a salary paid out of money provided by Parliament;

he shall be entitled to reckon his entire period of service in both or all capacities for the purpose of pension, and the pension shall be on the scale and subject to the statutory requirements affecting pensions in the service from which he last retires.

Provided as follows:—

- (1.) For the purposes of the pension three years of police service shall be reckoned as equivalent to four years of service as a civil servant, and conversely; and
- (2.) The pension shall be payable from money provided by Parliament, and from the police pension fund in such proportions as the Treasury may determine, regard being had to the period of service and the salary received in each capacity.

15.—(1.) The police authority of every police force shall deduct from the pay of every constable in the force—

- (a.) sums at a rate not exceeding two and a half per cent. per annum on his pay (in this Act referred to as the rateable deduction); and
- (b.) such stoppages during sickness, and such fines for misconduct, as may be provided by the regulations respecting the force.

Rateable deductions from pay to be carried to pension fund.

(2.) Where a constable has removed to some other force or forces with the written sanction of the chief officer of any force he has removed from, and such constable in due course becomes entitled to and is awarded a pension, the police authority in whose service he then is shall be entitled to call upon the other police authority or authorities with whom he shall have served approved service, and they shall contribute a proportionate part of any pension to such constable reckoned according to the approved service and pay of such constable during his service in such force, and the said proportionate part shall be settled by agreement between the police authorities, or in default of agreement by an arbitrator appointed by the Secretary of State.

16.—(1.) There shall be a pension fund of every police force, and there shall be carried to that fund—

- (a.) the deductions (including stoppages and fines) made in pursuance of this Act from the pay of the constables in the force; and
- (b.) the fines imposed by a court of summary jurisdiction, when imposed on constables in the force, or for assaults on constables in the force, and the fines or portions of fines imposed by a court of summary jurisdiction for other offences, and awarded to informers being constables in the force; and
- (c.) such fines or portions of fines, and such fees payable to or received by constables, as by any Act are directed or authorised to be carried to the superannuation or pension fund of the police force; and
- (d.) the net sums arising from the sale of worn or cast clothing supplied for the use of constables of the force; and
- (e.) such proportion of any sum received on account of constables whose services have been lent in consideration of payment as the police authority may consider to be a fair contribution to the pension fund in respect of those constables; and

Establishment of pension fund, and fines, fees, &c. to be carried to fund.

(f.) any payments or contributions payable under the provisions of any local and personal Act to the pension or superannuation fund of any police force, whether out of any fund, rate, or account under the control of the police authority, or payable by any other authority, board, or persons; and

(g.) all dividends and other annual sums received in respect of the investments of the pension fund.

(2.) Unless the authority having control of the fund to which the sums herein-after mentioned would but for this section be carried otherwise resolve, and except so far as the said sums are subject to the foregoing provisions of this section, there shall also be carried to the pension fund of every police force the following sums, namely:—

(h.) The net sums received in the police area for pedlars and chimney sweepers certificates; and

(i.) All fees payable to or received by any constable of the force in the execution of his duty as such, or in the execution of any other duty which may be required to be performed by any constable of the force; and

(k.) The fines imposed by a court of summary jurisdiction for offences under the Licensing Acts, 1872 and 1874, when committed within the police area, or for any offence under a general or local Act similar to any of the above offences.

(3.) The police authority may also direct any sums under the control of the police authority in that capacity, or under the control of the police force, or of any member thereof in that capacity, to be carried to the pension fund, provided that this direction shall not be given in the case of any fund held on a private trust.

(4.) Any resolution passed for the purposes of this section may be revoked or varied.

(5.) The provisions of this section shall have effect notwithstanding anything in any charter or in any other Act, whether relating to municipal corporations or otherwise.

c. 94.
37 & 38 Vict.
c. 49.

Distribution of
out of Customs and Excise duties for
annuation.

17.—(1.) Any annual sum which under an Act passed in the present session relating to the distribution of certain duties of Customs and Excise is required to be distributed among the police authorities of the police forces in England and Wales, other than the Metropolitan police force (which sum is in this Act referred to as the Exchequer contribution), shall be distributed according to the following basis of distribution, that is to say:—

(a.) There shall be paid in every financial year to the police authority of every such police force a sum equal to the amount of the rateable deductions made during the year ending the twenty-ninth day of September last preceding the end of the financial year from the pay of the constables belonging to that force, and that sum shall be carried to the pension fund.

(b.) The residue shall at the same time be distributed among the police authorities of those forces in proportion to the amounts paid during the year ending the twenty-ninth day of September last preceding the end of the financial year in respect of pensions, allowances, and gratuities out of their pension funds respectively, and the proportion to be paid to each force shall be carried to the pension fund.

(2.) Provided that a police authority shall not in respect of any year receive any payment under this section unless the Secretary of State gives a certificate that the management and efficiency of the police force under that authority and the administration of the pension fund of that force have during that year been satisfactory; and, if the Secretary of State withholds that certificate as regards any police authority, the amount which would otherwise be payable to that authority under this section shall be forfeited to the Crown and paid into the Exchequer.

(3.) Before any such certificate is finally withheld in respect of any police force, the Secretary of State shall communicate with the police authority of the force, and that authority may address any statement on the subject to the Secretary of State; and in every case in which the certificate is withheld a statement of the grounds on which the Secretary of State has withheld his certificate; together with any such statement of the police authority, shall be laid before Parliament.

(4.) The sums to be paid to each police authority under this section shall be certified by the Secretary of State, who may, if he thinks proper, vary his certificate, but unless it is so varied his certificate shall be conclusive.

(5.) Where owing to any special circumstances affecting any particular police force the sum payable to that force under the foregoing provisions of this section would, in the opinion of the Secretary of State, be inequitable as between that force and some other force or forces, the Secretary of State may make such modification in the basis of distribution as appears to him to be necessary to meet the equities of the case.

(6.) The basis of distribution under this section may also be varied in such manner and in accordance with such conditions as may from time to time be set forth in regulations made by the Secretary of State and submitted to Parliament. All such regulations shall be laid on the table of both Houses of Parliament, and shall not come into operation until they have lain on the table of each House for not less than thirty days on which that House has sat.

(7.) This section shall come into operation on the passing of this Act.

18.—(1.) All sums which, in pursuance of this Act, are to be carried to the pension fund of a police force shall be accounted for and paid to the treasurer of that fund in such manner as the police authority may direct, and may be dealt with as annual income of the pension fund.

Accounts and investment of pension fund.

(2.) The pension fund of a police force shall be kept as a separate fund, but the treasurer of the police fund shall be the treasurer of the pension fund, and all enactments and regulations relating to the accounts of the police fund, and to the making up, audit, and publication thereof, and to the power of disallowance and otherwise shall, so nearly as circumstances admit, apply to the pension fund.

(3.) At the end of each financial year the surplus of the annual income of the pension fund above the expenditure thereout shall, as soon as may be, be invested in such name as the police authority direct, and in any manner authorised by law for investments by trustees, and all investments on account of the fund, under this section or otherwise, are in this Act referred to as the capital of the pension fund.

(4.) The capital of the pension fund shall not be applied for paying any sums payable out of that fund.

Guarantee of pension fund by police fund.

19.—(1.) If at any time the annual income of the pension fund is insufficient to pay the expenses of managing the fund, and the pensions, allowances, gratuities, and other sums payable thereout, the deficiency shall be supplied out of the police fund.

3 & 4 Vict. c. 88.
19 & 20 Vict. c. 69.

(2.) In the case of a county divided into districts within the meaning of section twenty-seven of the County Police Act, 1840, as amended by section four of the County and Borough Police Act, 1856, the deficiency shall be supplied by the several districts, as part of the local expenditure thereof, rateably in proportion to the number of constables appointed for each such district.

(3.) Where the police force of a borough has been consolidated with the police force of a county, the deficiency shall be supplied out of the police funds of the county and borough respectively in accordance with an agreement between the police authorities for the county and borough made in the same manner and subject to the same conditions as an agreement to consolidate the police force of a borough with the police force of a county can be made, and in default of any such agreement shall be supplied in such manner as may be determined by an arbitrator appointed by the Secretary of State.

(4.) Where the rate which can be levied for the police fund is limited, an addition to that rate may be levied for the purpose of raising the sum required to supply the deficiency.

Power for police authority to make regulations.

20.—(1.) Every police authority may make regulations consistent with this Act with respect to the deductions from a constable's service for sickness, misconduct, or neglect of duty, and with respect to stoppages of pay during sickness and fines for misconduct, and with respect to the mode in which pensions are to be paid, and otherwise for the purpose of giving effect to the provisions of this Act.

(2.) All regulations for a police force made before the commencement of this Act with respect to any of the above matters shall have effect as if made under the powers given by this section.

Power to return rateable deductions on leaving force.

21. If a constable not having been dismissed leaves a police force without a pension or gratuity, the police authority may, if it seems to them just, pay him the whole or part of the rateable deductions which have been made from his pay; but this section shall not apply in the case of his being removed to another force under such circumstances as will enable him to reckon his approved service in the force from which he removes.

Provisional orders by Secretary of State.

22.—(1.) Where it appears to a police authority that the assets of their pension fund exceed the amount required for meeting the liabilities thereon, and that it is expedient to provide for the application of the excess or any part thereof, the police authority may apply to the Secretary of State, and thereupon the Secretary of State may frame and submit to Parliament for confirmation a provisional order authorising the payment out of the pension fund of such sums, for such purposes, during such period, and subject to such conditions as may seem expedient.

(2.) Where it appears to a police authority that by reason of their pension fund being sufficient to meet the liabilities thereon it is unnecessary to make any further investments on account of the capital thereof, the police authority may apply to the Secretary of State, and thereupon the Secretary of State may frame and submit to Parliament for confirmation a provisional order authorising the discontinuance of those investments.

(3.) Where a local Act provides for the payment to members of a special force in any police area of the same pension, superannuation, or other allowances or gratuities as are by that local Act provided for the police force of the area, the authority controlling the special force may apply to the Secretary of State, and thereupon the Secretary of State may frame and submit to Parliament for confirmation a provisional order providing—

(i.) for the adjustment of any financial relations existing at the commencement of this Act between the police force and the special force as regards the payment of pensions, allowances, and gratuities to members of those forces respectively; and

(ii.) for applying with or without modification all or any of the provisions of this Act to the special force.

(4.) A provisional order under this section shall be of no force unless and until it is confirmed by Act of Parliament, but when so confirmed shall have effect with any modifications made therein by Parliament.

(5.) If, while the Bill confirming any such order is pending in either House of Parliament, a petition is presented against any order comprised therein, the Bill, so far as it relates to that order, may be referred to a Select Committee, and the petitioner shall be allowed to appear and oppose as in the case of private Bills.

(6.) All costs charges and expenses incurred by the Secretary of State in relation to any order under this section shall be defrayed by the authority applying for the order.

(7.) For the purposes of this section the expression "special force" means a fire brigade, fire police, or other like force.

General Amendment of Acts.

23.—(1.) Every police authority may from time to time, and shall at least once in every five years, submit for approval to a Secretary of State a table of fees payable to constables in respect of the service of summonses, the execution of warrants, and the performance of other occasional duties which may be required of the constables under that authority, and in respect of the performance of any other act done by constables in the execution of their duty, and the Secretary of State may approve of the table, with or without modification.

(2.) Every police authority shall also provide for those fees being duly accounted for and being duly paid to the treasurer of that authority, and those fees shall, subject to the provisions of this Act, be applied in manner provided by the enactments relating to the police force of that authority, and so far as those enactments do not extend, then in aid of the police fund of that authority.

(3.) A constable may receive any fee mentioned in a table for the time being approved not more than five years previously by a Secretary of State, but no other fee shall be taken by a constable for any service performed by him.

(4.) Every constable shall duly account in accordance with the provisions made as above mentioned for any fee taken by him.

Amendment of 22 & 23 Vict. c. 32. s. 24 as to amount of gratuity.

24. So much of the County and Borough Police Act, 1859, as limits the amount of the gratuity which may be granted as a reward for a meritorious act done by a constable in the execution of his duty is hereby repealed.

Assistance by one police force to another.

25.—(1.) Where a police authority deem it expedient for any special emergency or under any exceptional circumstances to strengthen their police force (in this section referred to as the aided force) by constables belonging to another police force, such number of constables belonging to the latter force may be added to the aided force, and for such period, as may be agreed on between the police authorities of the forces; and the constables so added, notwithstanding that they have not been sworn in or taken any declaration as constables of the aided force, shall, during that period, be deemed, save as otherwise provided by the agreement, to be for all purposes constables of the aided force, and shall have the like powers, duties, and privileges.

(2.) The agreement may be made for a particular occasion or as a standing agreement, and with reference either to recurring or to unforeseen events, or otherwise, as may be thought expedient.

(3.) Any power conferred on a police authority by this section or by any agreement made thereunder may (subject to anything in the agreement to the contrary) be delegated by that authority to their chief officer of police by any general or special order, and with or without any exceptions, restrictions, or conditions.

(4.) An agreement under this section may contain such terms as to the command of the constables added to the aided force, and as to the expenses (including the pay and allowances of the constables so added and provision for pensions, gratuities, and allowances in the event of those constables being killed or injured) and otherwise, as may seem expedient.

(5.) An agreement may be made by a police authority with more police authorities than one.

Declaration by constables respecting

26. A police authority may require every constable at the time of his appointment to appear before a justice of the peace, and make and sign a declaration as to his previous service in a police force or public employment, in the form contained in the Second Schedule to this Act, or to the like effect; and if any constable knowingly makes a false declaration, he shall be liable, on summary conviction, to be imprisoned, with or without hard labour, for any period not exceeding three months.

27. Whereas the annual value of property on which contributions for the purposes of the metropolitan police force are calculated is required to be computed according to the last valuation for the time being acted upon in assessing the county rate, and in some cases since the passing of the Local Government Act, 1888, there may be no such valuation: Be it therefore enacted that in the case of any area for which there is no such valuation, the valuation for the purpose of the said computation shall be such as is from time to time agreed upon between the receiver for the metropolitan police district and the rating authority, whether overseers or others, of the said area, or in default of agreement, as may be determined by arbitration of the Local Government Board, and the provisions of the Local Government Act, 1888, respecting the determination of differences by arbitration of the Local Government Board shall apply accordingly.

Computation of annual value in certain cases for the purpose of the metropolitan police.

In the case of any contribution made or required before the commencement of this Act, the receiver and rating authority may agree to adjust the amount according to any valuation made in pursuance of this section, or such other valuation as they may agree under all the circumstances to be just.

28.—(1.) Where in pursuance of the Act of the session held in the first and second years of King William the Fourth, chapter forty-one, intituled “An Act for amending the laws relative to the appointment of special constables, and for the better preservation of the peace,” a special constable is appointed by a justice or justices exercising jurisdiction in any part of the metropolitan police district, he shall have all the powers of a constable throughout the whole of the metropolitan police district and the city of London, and the provisions of that Act shall apply to him as if the metropolitan police district were one county; and the allowances and expenses mentioned in section thirteen of that Act may, if the Secretary of State so directs, be paid out of the metropolitan police fund.

Provision as to special constables.

(2.) Where in pursuance of the same Act a special constable is appointed by a justice or justices having jurisdiction in the city of London, he shall have the powers of a constable throughout the whole of the metropolitan police district.

29. It shall not be necessary for the receiver for the time being of the metropolitan police district to give security for the faithful performance of his duty, and any security already given for this purpose shall cease to be in force.

Provision as to receiver of metropolitan police district.

PART III.

Temporary and Supplemental Provisions.

30. For the purpose of adapting the provisions of Part One of this Act to existing pension or superannuation funds and existing Application of Act to existing funds and constables.

constables, (that is to say, to constables appointed to police forces, and to the pension or superannuation funds established for those forces, before the commencement of this Act, whether under any general or local Act, or otherwise) the following provisions shall have effect:

- (1.) As soon as may be after the commencement of this Act, the amount of every existing pension or superannuation fund of a police force shall, where it is not already held by the treasurer of the police fund of that force, be transferred by the persons holding the same to such persons as the police authority may direct, to be held and dealt with as part of the pension fund under this Act, and as part of the capital or income thereof, as the case may require:
- (2.) Where the Exchequer contribution to the police authority of a police force becomes payable before any existing fund of the force which is required to be so transferred is so transferred, or, in the case of a police force not having any such fund, before a pension fund is established for the force in pursuance of this Act, the payment of the contribution shall be deferred until the Secretary of State has certified that the fund is so transferred or established:
- (3.) Where the police force of a borough has been consolidated with the police force of a county, and the existing pension or superannuation fund of the police force of the borough has not been transferred to the county treasurer, that fund shall be transferred in accordance with the foregoing provisions of this section, as soon as may be after the commencement of this Act, by the persons holding the same, and, in the absence of any agreement between the police authorities for the county and borough, the income of that fund shall be applied in paying the superannuation and other allowances charged thereon at the date of the transfer, and, subject thereto, in paying the pensions, allowances, and gratuities to constables employed in the consolidated force, and their widows and children, in such manner as may be determined by an arbitrator appointed by the Secretary of State:
- (4.) In Lincolnshire section twenty-two of the County and Borough Police Act, 1859, and sections six, seven, and eight of the Police Superannuation Act, 1865, as amended by the Lincolnshire Police Superannuation Act, 1888, shall, so far as is consistent with the tenor thereof, apply to the pension fund under this Act in like manner as if it were the superannuation fund in those sections mentioned:
- (5.) Every police authority shall, within fourteen days after a pension scale has been adopted by or framed for the police authority in pursuance of this Act, cause written notice to be given to every constable in the police force under that authority, requiring him to inform that authority in writing before the date of the commencement of this Act, whether he does or does not accept the provisions of this Act in lieu of the existing enactments respecting superannuation:

c. 32.
28 & 29 Vict.
c. 35.
51 Vict. c. ix.

- (6.) This Act shall not apply to any existing constable who, before the date of the commencement of this Act, whether any such notice has or has not been given to him, declines in writing to accept the provisions of this Act; but save as aforesaid this Act shall apply to all existing constables; and those constables shall be deemed to have surrendered in favour of the police authority all right to any provision made before the commencement of this Act, either wholly or partly, by the police authority for the superannuation of such constables, or, in case of their death, for their widows and children or any of them, whether that provision is made by an annual allowance, insurance, or otherwise:
- (7.) If by reason of the police authority not having given such notice as aforesaid an existing constable becomes entitled to a less pension than he would have been entitled to receive if this Act had not passed, he may apply to the police authority, and the police authority may make such order as may seem just for the purpose of preventing the constable from suffering any loss by reason of the notice not having been given:
- (8.) In the case of any existing constable to whom this Act applies, his approved service for any period before the commencement of this Act in the force in which he is serving at the time of his retirement shall be reckoned as approved service; and his service for not less than three years either wholly or partly before the commencement of this Act in any police force in any part of the United Kingdom from which he removed with the sanction of the chief officer or police authority of that force to another force, shall (notwithstanding the sanction was not given in writing) be reckoned as approved service for the said period in the last-mentioned force, unless the police authority who give him the notice respecting the acceptance of this Act, inform him in writing at the time of such notice that they refuse to allow the said service to be reckoned, but their refusal shall not prevent the reckoning of that service under any other provision of this section:
- (9.) Any description of service before the commencement of this Act, either in a police force or otherwise, which any existing constable to whom this Act applies is at the commencement of this Act entitled to reckon as service for any period towards superannuation out of the existing pension or superannuation fund of his police force, and which is not reckoned under any other provision of this Act, shall be reckoned for the same period for the purposes of pension under this Act: In the case of any existing constable to whom this Act applies, who has served not less than ten years before the commencement of this Act in a police force in which the police authority have heretofore, under the provisions of former Acts, granted pensions of higher amount than authorised by the scale adopted by that police authority under the provisions of this Act, and who becomes entitled to a pension under this Act, then, notwithstanding anything in this Act, the pension may, if the police authority think fit, exceed the amount prescribed in the adopted scale so as it does not exceed the amount which might have been granted if this Act had not passed :

- (10.) Provided that if, in the case of any existing constable, rateable deductions or other payments towards superannuation or insurance have not, during the period of the service which he is entitled to reckon for the purpose of calculating his pension under this Act, or for some part of such period not less than ten years, been made, and contributions have not been made from other sources to a superannuation fund in lieu of the rateable deductions not so made, the pension granted under this Act to such constable may, if the police authority think fit, be reduced by an annual amount equal to such deferred annuity as could, according to the tables for the purchase of deferred annuities from the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt through the medium of the Post Office, have been purchased by rateable deductions made at the rate fixed under this Act during the said period of service, or the part thereof during which such deductions or payments were not made.

Act to supersede local Acts.

31. The provisions of this Act shall have effect, notwithstanding anything in any other Act, general or local, to the contrary.

Application of Act to metropolitan police.

32. This Act shall apply to the metropolitan police force, subject as follows :—

- (1.) Anything authorised or required to be done by a resolution or other act of the police authority may be done by any instrument signed by a Secretary of State :
- (2.) Anything authorised or required to be done with the approval of a Secretary of State, or by a Secretary of State on the submission or application of a police authority, may be done by a Secretary of State alone :
- (3.) The court of quarter sessions to which an application is to be made with respect to a decision as to a pension or allowance shall be the court of quarter sessions for the county of London :
- (4.) Nothing in this Act shall apply to any existing constable who acted as one of the police of any of Her Majesty's dockyards, and upon his transfer to the metropolitan police force did not accept the terms of superannuation of members of that force, or agree to allow the deductions to be made from his pay which have been made towards such superannuation from the pay of other members of that force ; and any such constable shall be entitled to superannuation under the Superannuation Act, 1859, notwithstanding that he obtained no certificate from the Civil Service Commissioners :
- (5.) The rate and conditions of pension of the chief commissioner of metropolitan police, and of the assistant commissioners of metropolitan police shall be regulated by the provisions of this Act, and not by the provisions of the Metropolitan Police Staff (Superannuation) Act, 1875, but the said chief commissioner and assistant commissioners shall be entitled to pension under the provisions of this Act in respect of any emoluments

22 Vict. c. 26.

c. 28.

in respect of which they are entitled to a superannuation allowance made under the Metropolitan Police Staff (Superannuation) Act, 1875.

- (6.) The rateable deductions from the salary of the chief commissioner of metropolitan police and from the salaries of such of the assistant commissioners of metropolitan police as receive salaries from money provided by Parliament shall be paid into the Exchequer and not to the pension fund.
- (7.) The existing chief commissioner and assistant commissioners of metropolitan police shall be deemed existing constables within the meaning of this Act.

33. In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires,—

The expression "police area" means one of the areas set forth in the first column of the Third Schedule to this Act; and the expressions "police authority," "chief officer of police," and "police fund," mean, as respects each police area, the authority, officer, and fund respectively mentioned opposite to that area in the second, third, and fourth columns of that schedule; and the expression "police force" means a force maintained by one of the police authorities mentioned in the said schedule:

Police areas and authorities.

Provided as follows:—

- (1.) In the case of a county the powers of the police authority under this Act with respect to the accounting for and payment of sums to be carried to the pension fund or police fund, and with respect to investments, shall be exercised by the county council, and any sum payable under this Act by the police authority shall be payable by the county council on the requisition of the standing joint committee of the quarter sessions and the county council;
- (2.) Any contributions required to meet payments out of the county fund for the purposes of this Act shall be assessed in like manner as contributions to meet the expenses of the police force;

CHAPTER 51.

An Act for further promoting the Revision of the Statute Law by repealing enactments which have ceased to be in force or have become unnecessary.

[18th August 1890.]

WHEREAS it is expedient that certain enactments which may be regarded as spent, or have ceased to be in force otherwise than by express specific repeal by Parliament, or have, by lapse of time or otherwise, become unnecessary, should be expressly and specifically repealed :

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

1. The enactments described in the schedule to this Act are hereby repealed, subject to the provisions of this Act and to the exceptions and qualifications in the schedule mentioned, and every part of a title, preamble, or recital specified after the words "in part, namely," in connexion with an Act mentioned in the said schedule may be omitted from any revised edition of the statutes published by authority after the passing of this Act, and there may be added in the said edition such brief statement of the Acts, officers, persons, and things mentioned in the title, preamble, or recital, as may in consequence of such omission appear necessary.

Enactments
repealed.

Provided that—

The repeal of any words or expressions of enactment described in the schedule shall not affect the binding force, operation, or construction of any statute, or of any part of a statute, whether as respects the past or future ;

and where any enactment not comprised in the schedule has been repealed, confirmed, revived, or perpetuated by any enactment hereby repealed, such repeal, confirmation, revivor, or perpetuation shall not be affected by the repeal effected by this Act ; and the repeal by this Act of any enactment or schedule shall not affect any enactment in which such enactment or schedule has been applied, incorporated, or referred to ;

nor shall such repeal of any enactment affect any right to any hereditary revenues of the Crown, or affect any charges thereupon or prevent any such enactment from being put in force for the collection of any such revenues, or otherwise in relation thereto ;

and this Act shall not affect the validity, invalidity, effect, or consequences of anything already done or suffered,—or any existing status or capacity,—or any right, title, obligation, or liability already acquired, accrued, or incurred, or any remedy or proceeding in respect thereof,—or any release or discharge of or from any debt, penalty, obligation, liability, claim, or demand,—or any indemnity,—or the proof of any past act or thing ;

nor shall this Act affect any principal or rule of law or equity, or established jurisdiction, form or course of pleading, practice, or procedure, or the general or public nature of any statute, or any existing usage, franchise, liberty, custom, privilege, restriction, exemption, office, appointment, payment, allowance, emolument, or benefit, or any prospective right, notwithstanding that the same respectively may have been in any manner affirmed, recognised, or derived by, in, or from any enactment hereby repealed;

nor shall this Act revive or restore any jurisdiction, office, duty, drawback, fee, payment, franchise, liberty, custom, liability, right, title, privilege, restriction, exemption, usage, practice, procedure, form of punishment, or other matter or thing not now existing or in force; and this Act shall not extend to repeal any enactment so far as the same may be in force in any part of Her Majesty's dominions out of the United Kingdom, except where otherwise expressed in the schedule.

Application of repealed enactments in local courts.

2. If and so far as any enactment repealed by this Act applies or may have been by Order in Council applied to the court of the county palatine of Lancaster or to any inferior court of civil jurisdiction, such enactment shall be construed as if it were contained in a local and personal Act specially relating to such court and shall have effect accordingly.

Enactments as to turnpikes to be local and personal.

3. All enactments relating to turnpike trusts or turnpike roads in England and Wales, and not relating to other highways may be omitted from any edition of the statutes published by authority after the passing of this Act as if they were contained in local and personal Acts.

Short title.

4. This Act may be cited as the Statute Law Revision (No. 2) Act, 1890.

SCHEDULE.

This schedule is to be read as referring to the Revised Edition of the Statutes prepared under the direction of the Statute Law Committee in all cases of Statutes included in that edition.

Enactments which have been already repealed are, in a few instances, included in the schedule, in order to avoid the necessity of reference to previous Statutes.

(3.) Nothing in this Act shall prevent a carriage, horse, or other animal being let to or hired, employed, or used by an elector, at his own cost, or by several electors, at their joint cost, for the purpose of conveying him or them to or from the poll.

(4.) No person shall be liable to pay any duty or to take out a licence for any carriage by reason only of such carriage being used without payment or promise of payment for the conveyance of electors to or from the poll at an election.

15. The provisions of this Act prohibiting certain payments and contracts for payments, and the payment of any sum, and the incurring of any expense, in excess of a certain maximum, shall not affect the right of any creditor who, when the contract was made or the expense was incurred, was ignorant of the same being in contravention of this Act.

committee rooms or meetings to be illegal hiring.

20.—(1.) (a.) Any premises, which are licensed for the sale of any intoxicating liquor for consumption on or off the premises or on which refreshment of any kind (whether food or drink) is ordinarily sold for consumption on the premises, or

tices, &c.

22. Where upon the trial of an election petition it is found that illegal practices or offences of illegal payment, employment, or hiring, committed in reference to such election for the purpose of promoting the election of a candidate at that election, have so extensively prevailed that they may be reasonably supposed to have affected the result of that election, the election of such candidate, if he has been elected, shall be void, and he shall not, during the period for which he was elected to serve, or for which, if elected, he might have served, be capable of being elected to or holding any corporate office.

Excuse and Exception for Corrupt or Illegal Practice, or Illegal Payment, Employment, or Hiring.

23. Where, upon the trial of an election petition, the election court finds that a candidate at any election has been guilty by his agents of the offence of treating and undue influence, and illegal practice, or of any of such offences, in reference to such election, and the election court further finds—

Exoneration of candidate in certain cases of corrupt and illegal practice by agents.

- (a.) That no corrupt or illegal practice was committed at such election by the candidate or with his knowledge or consent, and the offences were committed without the sanction or connivance of such candidate; and
- (b.) That all reasonable means for preventing the commission of corrupt and illegal practices at such election were taken by and on behalf of the candidate; and
- (c.) That the offences were of a trivial, unimportant, and limited character; and
- (d.) That in all other respects the election was free from any corrupt or illegal practice on the part of such candidate and of his agents;

then the election of such candidate shall not, by reason of the offences mentioned in such finding, be void, nor shall the candidate be subject to any incapacity under this Act.

24. Where, on application made, it is shown to the election court, by such evidence as seems to the court sufficient—

Power of election court to except innocent act from being illegal practice, &c.

- (a.) That any act or omission of a candidate at an election or of any agent or other person, would, by reason of being in contravention of any of the provisions of this Act, be but for this section an illegal practice, payment, employment, or hiring; and
- (b.) That such act or omission arose from inadvertence or from accidental miscalculation or from some other reasonable cause of a like nature, and in any case did not arise from any want of good faith; and
- (c.) That such notice of the application has been given as to the court seems fit; and under the circumstances it seems to the court to be just that the said candidate, agent, and person, or any of them, should not be subject to any of the consequences under this Act of the said act or omission, the court may make an order allowing such act or omission to be an exception from the provisions of this Act which would otherwise make the same an illegal practice, payment, employment, or hiring, and thereupon such candidate, agent, or person shall not be subject to any of the consequences under this Act of the said act or omission.

Claims and Payments for Election Expenses.

25.—(1.) Every claim against any person in respect of any expenses incurred by or on behalf of a candidate at an election on account of or in respect of the conduct or management of such election shall be sent in within fourteen days after the day of election, and if not so sent in shall be barred and not paid, and all expenses incurred as aforesaid shall be paid within twenty-one days after the day of election, and not otherwise, and any person who makes a payment in contravention of this section, except where such payment is allowed as provided by this section, shall be guilty of an illegal practice, but if such payment was made without the sanction or connivance of the candidate, the election of such candidate shall not be void, nor shall he be subject to any incapacity under this Act by reason only of such payment having been made in contravention of this section.

(2.) Every agent of a candidate shall, within twenty-three days after the day of election, make a return to the candidate in writing of all expenses incurred by such agent on account of or in respect of the conduct or management of such election, and if he fails so to do he shall be liable, on a summary conviction, to a fine not exceeding fifty pounds.

(3.) Within twenty-eight days after the day of an election every candidate at such election shall send to the prescribed officer a return of all expenses incurred by such candidate or his agents on account of or in respect of the conduct or management of such election, vouched (except in the case of sums under twenty shillings) by bills stating the particulars and receipts, and accompanied by a declaration by a candidate made before a justice of the peace in the form set forth in the Second Schedule to this Act, or to the like effect.

(4.) After the expiration of the time for making such return and declaration, the candidate, if elected, shall not, until he has made the return and declaration (in this Act referred to as the return and declaration respecting election expenses), or until the date of the allowance of such authorised excuse, as is mentioned in this Act, sit or vote in respect of any corporate office to which he has been elected as aforesaid, and if he does so, shall forfeit fifty pounds for every day on which he so sits or votes to any person who sues for the same.

(5.) If the candidate, without such authorised excuse as is mentioned in this Act, fails to make the said return and declaration, he shall be guilty of an illegal practice, and if he knowingly makes the said declaration falsely, he shall be guilty of an offence, and on conviction thereof shall be liable to the punishment for wilful and corrupt perjury, and such offence shall also be deemed to be a corrupt practice within the meaning of this Act.

(6.) The election court for the county in which the election was held, may, on application either of the candidate or a creditor, allow any claim to be sent in and any expenses to be paid after the time limited by this section, and a return of any sum so paid shall forthwith after payment be sent to the prescribed officer.

(7.) If the candidate applies to the election court, and shows that the failure to make the said return and declaration, or either of them, or any error or false statement therein, has arisen by reason of his illness or absence, or of the absence, death, illness, or misconduct of any agent, clerk, or officer, or by reason of inadvertence, or of any reasonable cause of a like nature, and not by reason of any want of good faith on the part of the applicant, the court may, after such notice of the application and on production of such evidence of the grounds stated in the application, and of the good faith of the applicant, and otherwise as to the court seems fit, make such order for allowing the authorised excuse for the failure to make such return and declaration, or for an error or false statement in such return or declaration as to the court seems just.

(8.) The order may make the allowance conditional upon compliance with such terms as to the court seem calculated for carrying into effect the objects of this Act, and the order shall relieve the applicant from any liability or consequences under this Act in respect of the matters excused by the order.

(9.) The date of the order, or if the conditions and terms are to be complied with, the date at which the applicant fully complies with them, is referred to in this Act as the date of the allowance of the excuse.

(10.) The return and declaration sent in pursuance of this Act to the prescribed officer shall be kept at his office, and shall at all reasonable times during the twelve months next after they are received by him be open to inspection by any person on payment of the fee of one shilling, and the prescribed officer shall, on demand, furnish copies thereof or of any part thereof at the price of twopence for every seventy-two words.

(11.) After the expiration of the said twelve months the prescribed officer may cause the return and declaration to be destroyed, or if the candidate so require shall return the same to him.

Disqualification of Electors.

26. Every person guilty of a corrupt or illegal practice or of illegal employment, payment, or hiring at an election, is prohibited from voting at such election, and if any such person votes, his vote shall be void, and shall be struck off on a scrutiny. Prohibition of persons guilty of offences from voting.

27. Every person who, in consequence of conviction or of the finding of any election court under this Act or under any other Act for the time being in force relating to corrupt practices at an election for any public office, has become incapable of voting at any election, whether a parliamentary election or an election to any public office, is prohibited from voting at any such election, and his vote shall be void. Prohibition of disqualified persons from voting.

28.—(1.) Before a person, not being a party to an election petition nor a candidate on behalf of whom the seat is claimed by an election petition, is found by an election court to have been guilty at an election of any corrupt or illegal practice, the court shall cause notice to be given to such person, and if he appears in pursuance of the notice, shall give him an opportunity of being heard by himself, and of calling evidence in his defence. Hearing of person before he is found guilty of corrupt or illegal practice, and incapacity of person found guilty.

(2.) Every person who, after the commencement of this Act, is found by an election court to have been guilty of any corrupt or illegal practice at an election, shall, whether he obtained a certificate of indemnity or not, be subject to the same incapacity as he would be subject to if he had at the date of such election been convicted of the offence of which he is found guilty.

(3.) Where a person who is a justice of the peace is found by an election court to have been found guilty of any corrupt practice in reference to an election, whether he has obtained a certificate of indemnity or not, it shall be the duty of Her Majesty's advocate to report the case to the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain with such evidence as may have been given of such corrupt practice, and where any such person acts as a justice of the peace by virtue of his being or having been provost or chief magistrate of a burgh or convener of a county, the Lord High Chancellor shall have the same power to remove such person from being a justice of the peace as if he was named in a commission of the peace.

(4.) Where a person who is an advocate or enrolled law agent or who belongs to any profession the admission to which is regulated by law, is found by an election court to have been guilty of any corrupt practice in reference to an election, whether such person has obtained a certificate of indemnity or not, it shall be the duty of Her Majesty's advocate to bring the matter before the tribunal having power to take cognizance of any misconduct of such person in his profession, and such tribunal may deal with such person in like manner as if such corrupt practice were misconduct by such person in his profession.

(5.) With respect to a person holding a licence or certificate under the Licensing Acts (in this section referred to as a licensed person) the following provisions shall have effect :—

- (a.) If it appears to the election court by which any licensed person is convicted of the offence of bribery or treating that such offence was committed on his licensed premises, the court shall direct such conviction to be entered in the proper register of licences.
- (b.) If it appears to an election court that a licensed person has knowingly suffered any bribery or treating in reference to any election to take place upon his licensed premises, such court (subject to the provisions of this Act as to a person having an opportunity of being heard by himself and producing evidence in his defence) shall find the same ; and, whether such person has obtained a certificate of indemnity or not, it shall be the duty of Her Majesty's advocate to bring such finding before the licensing justices from whom or on whose certificate the licensed person obtained his licence, and such licensing justices shall cause such finding to be entered in the proper register of licences.
- (c.) Where an entry is made in the registry of licences of any such conviction of or finding respecting any licensed person as above in this section mentioned, it shall be taken into consideration by the licensing justices in determining whether they will or will not grant to such person the renewal of his licence or certificate, and may be a ground, if the justices think fit, for refusing such renewal.

29.—(1.) Every assessor or other person charged with the duty of making up the register of voters or list of persons entitled to vote at an election under this Act shall omit therefrom the name of every person who, though otherwise qualified to be placed thereon, has under this Act, or under the Corrupt and Illegal Practices Prevention Act, 1883, or under any other Act for the time being in force relating to a parliamentary election or an election to any corporate office, become after the commencement of this Act, by reason of conviction of a corrupt or illegal practice, or of being found guilty thereof by any election court or election commissioners, for the time being incapable of voting at an election.

Omission from list of voters of persons incapacitated from voting by corrupt or illegal practices.

(2.) For the purpose of making such omissions every such assessor or other person shall procure from the sheriff clerk of the county in which such assessor or other officer acts a list of those persons who have been convicted or found guilty of a corrupt or illegal practice at any election within the jurisdiction of the election court of such county whether a parliamentary election or an election to any corporate office as defined by this Act.

(3.) Any person so omitted from the register may claim to have his name inserted therein, and any person entitled to object to any entry in such register may object to the omission of the name of any person from such register. Such claims and objections shall be sent in within the same time and be dealt with in like manner, and any such objections shall be served on the person referred to therein in like manner, as nearly as circumstances admit, as other claims and objections under the enactments relating to the registration of voters.

(4.) The revising authority shall determine such claims and objections and shall revise such register in like manner, as nearly as circumstances admit, as in the case of other claims and objections.

(5.) Where it appears to the revising authority that a person named in the register has been convicted of a corrupt and illegal practice, or has been found incapable of voting at an election, he shall (whether an objection to the insertion of such name in the list has or has not been made), but after giving such person an opportunity of making a statement to show cause to the contrary, expunge his name from the register.

(6.) A revising authority in acting under this section shall determine only whether a person is incapacitated by conviction or by the finding of any election court, and shall not determine whether a person has or has not been guilty of any corrupt or illegal practice.

(7.) Any assessor or other officer who fails to comply with the provisions of this section shall for every such offence be liable to a fine not exceeding one hundred pounds, recoverable by action.

(8.) An action under this section shall not lie after three months from the date of the offence. A moiety of every fine recovered therein shall, after payment of the expenses of action, be paid to the pursuer.

(b.) If it complains of the election on the ground of an illegal practice, it may be presented at any time before the expiration of fourteen days after the day on which the prescribed officer receives the return and declaration respecting election expenses by the candidate to whose election the petition relates, or where there is an authorised excuse for failing to make the return and declaration, then within the like time after the date of the allowance of the excuse;

(c.) If it complains of the election on the ground of an illegal practice, and specifically alleges a payment of money or other

(3.) The provisions of this section respecting the time for presenting or amending an election petition on the ground of an illegal practice shall apply notwithstanding that the illegal practice is also a corrupt practice.

(2.) The election court shall for the purposes of the trial have the same powers and privileges as a judge on the trial of a parliamentary election petition, except that any fine or order of committal by the court may, on summary application by the person aggrieved, be discharged or varied by either of the divisions of the Court of Session, or in vacation by the Lord Ordinary on the bills, on such terms, if any, as the Court of Session or Lord Ordinary on the bills may think fit.

(3.) Any proceeding incidental to or consequent upon an election or election petition, under sections twenty-five, thirty-two, thirty-three, thirty-nine, and forty of this Act may be heard and disposed of by the sheriff substitute.

Trial of election petition.

36.—(1.) An election petition shall be tried in open court, and notice of the time and place of trial shall be given in the prescribed manner not less than seven days before the day of trial.

(2.) The place of trial shall be within the sheriff court, except that the election court may, on being satisfied that special circumstances exist rendering it desirable that the petition should be tried elsewhere, appoint some other convenient place within the sheriffdom for trial.

(3.) The trial of every election petition shall, so far as is practicable consistently with the interests of justice in respect of such trial, be continued de die in diem on every lawful day until its conclusion.

(4.) Subject as aforesaid, the election court may, in its discretion adjourn the trial from time to time and from any one place to any other place within the sheriffdom.

(5.) At the conclusion of the trial the election court shall determine whether the person whose election is complained of, or any and what other person was duly elected, or whether the election was void; and the determination shall be final to all intents as to the matters at issue on the petition.

(6.) Where a charge is made in a petition of any corrupt or illegal practice having been committed at the election, the court shall determine as follows:

- (a.) Whether any corrupt practice has or has not been proved to have been committed by or with the knowledge and consent of any candidate at the election, and the nature of the corrupt practice;
- (b.) Whether any of the candidates at the election has been guilty by his agents of any corrupt practice in reference to such election;
- (c.) The names of all persons, if any, proved at the trial to have been guilty of any corrupt practice;
- (d.) Whether any corrupt practices have, or whether there is reason to believe that any corrupt practices have, extensively prevailed at the election;

(e.) Whether any of the candidates at the election has been guilty, by himself or his agents, of an illegal practice in reference to such election ;

(f.) Whether illegal practices or the offences of illegal payment, employment, or hiring, committed in reference to the election for the purpose of promoting the election of a candidate at such election, have, or have not, so extensively prevailed that they may be reasonably supposed to have affected the result of such election.

(7.) If, on the application of any party to a petition made in the prescribed manner, it appears to the election court that the case raised by the petition can be conveniently stated as a special case, the said court may direct the same to be stated accordingly, and any such special case shall be heard before the Court of Session, and the decision of the Court of Session shall be final.

(8.) If it appears to the election court on the trial of a petition that any question of law requires consideration by the Court of Session, the election court may reserve any such question, and submit the same to the Court of Session, who may make such order for the discussion of the question as they think expedient and thereafter decide the same.

(9.) On the trial of a petition, unless the election court otherwise directs, any charge of a corrupt practice may be gone into, and evidence in relation thereto received before any proof has been given of agency on behalf of any candidate in respect of the corrupt practice or offence.

(10.) On the trial of a petition complaining of an undue election and claiming the office for some person, the respondent may give evidence to prove that that person was not duly elected, in the same manner as if he had presented a petition against the election of that person.

(11.) The trial of a petition shall be proceeded with notwithstanding that the respondent has ceased to hold the office his election to which is questioned by the petition.

(12.) A shorthand writer shall attend at the trial of an election petition, and shall be sworn by the election court faithfully and truly to take down the evidence given at the trial. He shall take down the evidence at length.

38.—(1.) A petitioner shall not withdraw an election petition without the leave of the election court on special application, made in the prescribed manner, and at a prescribed time and place.

(2.) The application shall not be made until the prescribed notice of the intention to make it has been given.

(3.) On the hearing of the application any person who might have been a petitioner in respect of the election may apply to the court to be substituted as a petitioner, and the court may, if it thinks fit, substitute him accordingly.

(4.) Before leave for the withdrawal of an election petition is granted, there shall be produced affidavits by all the parties to the petition and their agents, but the court may, on cause shown, dispense with the affidavit of any particular person if it seems to the court on special grounds to be just to do so.

(5.) Each affidavit shall state that, to the best of the deponent's knowledge and belief, no agreement or terms of any kind whatsoever has or have been made, and no undertaking has been entered into in relation to the withdrawal of the petition; but if any lawful agreement has been made with respect to the withdrawal of the petition, the affidavit shall set forth that agreement, and shall make the foregoing statement subject to what appears from the affidavit.

(6.) The affidavits of the applicant and his agents shall further state the ground on which the petition is sought to be withdrawn.

(7.) If any person makes any agreement, or terms, or enters into any undertaking in relation to the withdrawal of an election petition, and such agreement, terms, or undertaking is or are for the withdrawal of the election petition in consideration of any payment, or in consideration that the seat shall at any time be vacated, or in consideration of the withdrawal of any other election petition, or is or are (whether lawful or unlawful) not mentioned in the aforesaid affidavits, he shall be guilty of a crime and offence, and shall be liable on conviction on indictment to imprisonment for a term not exceeding twelve months, and to a fine not exceeding two hundred pounds.

(8.) Copies of the said affidavits shall be delivered to Her Majesty's advocate a reasonable time before the application for the withdrawal is heard, and the court may hear Her Majesty's advocate or one of his deutes or the procurator fiscal in opposition to the allowance of the withdrawal of the petition, and shall have power to receive the evidence on oath of any person or persons whose evidence Her Majesty's advocate, or his depute, or the procurator fiscal may consider material.

(9.) If in the opinion of the court the proposed withdrawal is induced by any corrupt bargain or consideration, or is the result of any agreement, terms, or undertaking prohibited by this section, the court may by order direct that the security given on behalf of the original petitioner shall remain as security for any expenses that may be incurred by the substituted petitioner, and that to the extent of the sum named in the security the original petitioner and his sureties shall be liable to pay the expenses of the substituted petitioner.

(10.) If the court does not so direct, then security to the same amount as would be required in the case of a new petition, and subject to the like conditions, shall be given on behalf of the substituted petitioner before he proceeds with his petition and within the prescribed time after the order of substitution.

(11.) Subject as aforesaid, a substituted petitioner shall, as nearly as may be, stand in the same position and be subject to the same liabilities as the original petitioner.

the prescribed notice thereof shall be given, and within the prescribed time after the notice is given, any person who might have been a petitioner in respect of the election may apply to the election court to be admitted as a respondent to oppose the petition, and shall be admitted accordingly, except that the number of persons so admitted shall not exceed three.

(2.) A respondent who has given the prescribed notice that he does not intend to oppose the petition shall not be allowed to appear or act as a party against the petition in any proceedings thereon.

(2.) If a petitioner neglects or refuses for three months after demand to pay to any person summoned as a witness on his behalf, or to the respondent, any sum certified to be due to him for his charges and expenses, and the neglect or refusal is, within one year after the demand, proved to the satisfaction of the election court, the prescribed officer shall thereon certify that the conditions contained in the bond of caution have not been fulfilled, and it shall then be competent for the party or parties interested to register the said bond and do diligence upon it.

(3.) Where, upon the trial of an election petition, it appears to the election court that a corrupt practice has not been proved to have been committed in reference to the election by or with the knowledge and consent of the respondent to the petition, and that such respondent took all reasonable means to prevent corrupt practices being committed on his behalf, the court may make one or more orders with respect to the payment either of the whole or such part of the expenses of the petition as the court may think right, as follows:

An Act to further amend the Customs Consolidation Act, 1876. [18th August 1890.]

WHEREAS it is right and expedient that the law as to the forfeiture of ships or boats for offences against the Customs Acts as provided in section one hundred and seventy-nine of the Customs Consolidation Act, 1876, shall be modified as herein-after provided:

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. No ship or boat shall be liable to forfeiture under the said section for having or having had on board, or in any manner attached thereto, or conveying or having conveyed, any goods as therein specified, or for any unlading, throwing overboard, or destruction of goods, unless such ship or boat shall be under two hundred and fifty tons burden.

2. With regard to any ship or boat of or exceeding two hundred and fifty tons burden which but for this Act would be liable to forfeiture as aforesaid, the following provisions shall apply:—

Provisions as to ship of or exceeding two hundred and fifty tons burden.

(a.) It shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Customs, hereinafter called "the Commissioners," subject to appeal to the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury, to have power to fine any such ship or boat in any sum not exceeding fifty pounds in any case where in their opinion a responsible officer (as herein-after defined) of such ship or boat is implicated either actually or by neglect:

(b.) For the purpose of enforcing such fine the Commissioners shall have power to require the deposit in the hands of the Collector of Customs at the port where such ship or boat shall be of such sum, not exceeding fifty pounds, as they may think right, pending their ultimate decision, and in default of payment of such deposit the Commissioners shall have power to detain the said ship or boat:

(c.) If in any case the Commissioners shall consider that the fine of fifty pounds aforesaid will not be an adequate penalty against any such ship or boat for the offence committed thereon it shall be lawful for them to take proceedings before the justices of the peace for condemnation of the said ship or boat in a sum not exceeding five hundred pounds at the discretion of such justices, or such proceedings may be taken by the Commissioners before the courts and in manner prescribed by the Customs Consolidation Act, 1876, and the Acts amending the same. And for this purpose the Commissioners may as to any ship or boat referred to in this section require the deposit in the hands of the collector as aforesaid of a sum not exceeding five hundred pounds to abide the decision of the court, and in default of payment of such deposit the Commissioners may detain such ship or boat:

(d.) No claim shall be made against the Commissioners for damages in respect of the payment of any deposit or the detention of any ship or boat under this section.

The expression "neglect" in this Act shall include cases where goods unowned by any of the crew are discovered in a place or places in which they could not reasonably have been put if the responsible officer or officers having supervision of such place or places had exercised proper care at the time of the loading of the ship or subsequently; and the expression

(6.) The court may put such questions to the person examined as to the court may seem expedient.

(7.) The person examined shall be examined on oath, and it shall be his duty to answer all such questions as the court may put or allow to be put to him. The person examined shall at his own cost prior to such examination, be furnished with a copy of the official receiver's report, and shall also at his own cost be entitled to employ at such examination a solicitor with or without counsel, who shall be at liberty to put such questions to the person examined as the court may deem just for the purpose of enabling that person to explain or qualify any answers given by him. Provided always, that if such person is, in the opinion of the court, exculpated from any charges made or suggested against him, the court may allow him such costs as the court in its discretion may think fit. Notes of the examination shall be taken down in writing, and shall be read over to or by, and signed by, the person examined, and may thereafter be used in evidence against him. They shall also be open to the inspection of any creditor or contributory of the company at all reasonable times.

(8.) The court may, if it thinks fit, adjourn the examination from time to time.

(9.) A public examination under this section may, if the court so directs, and subject to general rules, be held before any judge of county courts, or before any officer of the Supreme Court, being an official referee, master, registrar in bankruptcy, or chief clerk, or before any district registrar of the High Court named for the purpose by the Lord Chancellor, or in the case of companies being wound up by a Palatine court, before a registrar of that court, and the powers of the court under sub-sections six, seven, and eight of this section may (except as to costs) be exercised by the person before whom the examination is held.

inspection.

9.—(1.) A committee of inspection appointed in pursuance of this Act shall consist of persons being creditors or contributories of the company or persons holding general powers of attorney from such persons in such proportions as may be agreed on by the meetings of creditors and contributories or as, in case of difference, may be determined by the court.

(2.) The committee of inspection shall meet at such times as they from time to time appoint, and, failing such appointment, at least once a month; and the liquidator or any member of the committee may also call a meeting of the committee as and when he thinks necessary.

(3.) The committee may act by a majority of their members present at a meeting, but shall not act unless a majority of the committee are present at the meeting.

(4.) Any member of the committee may resign his office by notice in writing signed by him, and delivered to the liquidator.

(5.) If a member of the committee becomes bankrupt, or compounds or arranges with his creditors, or is absent from five consecutive meetings of the committee without the leave of those members of the committee who together with himself represent the creditors or contributories as the case may be, his office shall thereupon become vacant.

(6.) Any member of the committee representing creditors may be removed by an ordinary resolution at any meeting of creditors of which seven days' notice has been given, stating the object of the meeting. Any member of the committee representing contributories may be removed by an ordinary resolution at any meeting of contributories, of which seven days' notice has been given stating the object of the meeting.

(7.) On a vacancy occurring in the office of a member of the committee, the liquidator shall forthwith summon a meeting of creditors or of contributories, as the case may require, for the purpose of filling the vacancy, and the meeting may, by resolution, re-appoint the same or appoint another creditor or contributory to fill the vacancy.

(8.) The continuing members of the committee, provided there be not less than two such continuing members, may act notwithstanding any vacancy in their body.

(9.) If there be no committee of inspection, any act or thing or any direction or permission by this Act authorised or required to be done or given by the committee may be done or given by the Board of Trade on the application of the liquidator.

10.—(1.) Where in the course of the winding up of a company under the Companies Acts it appears that any person who has taken part in the formation or promotion of the Company, or any past or present director, manager, liquidator, or other officer of the company, has misapplied or retained or become liable or accountable for any moneys or property of the company, or been guilty of any misfeasance or breach of trust in relation to the company, the court may, on the application of the official receiver, or of the liquidator of the company, or of any creditor or contributory of the company, examine into the conduct of such promoter, director, manager, liquidator, or other officer of the company, and compel him to repay any moneys or restore any property so misapplied or retained, or for which he has become liable or accountable, together with interest after such rate as the court thinks just, or to contribute such sums of money to the assets of the company by way of compensation in respect of such misapplication, retainer, misfeasance, or breach of trust as the court thinks just.

Power of court to assess damages against delinquent directors, officers, and promoters.

(2.) The provisions of this section shall apply in the winding up of any company under the Companies Acts whether the same is being wound up by or subject to the supervision of the court or is being wound up voluntarily, and whether the winding up commenced before or after the passing of this Act, and notwithstanding that the offence is one for which the offender may be criminally responsible.

11.—(1.) An account, called the Companies Liquidation Account, shall be kept by the Board of Trade with the Bank of England, and all moneys received by the Board of Trade in respect of proceedings under this Act shall be paid to that account.

Payment of money into Bank of England.

(2.) Every liquidator of a company which is being wound up by order of the court shall, in such manner and at such times as the Board of Trade, with the concurrence of the Treasury, direct, pay the money received by him to the Companies Liquidation Account at the Bank of England, and the Board of Trade shall furnish him with a certificate of receipt of the money so paid.

(3.) Provided that, if the committee of inspection satisfy the Board of Trade that for the purpose of carrying on the business of the company or of obtaining advances, or for any other reason, it is for the advantage of the creditors or contributories that the liquidator should have an account with any other bank, the Board of Trade shall, on the application of the committee of inspection, authorise the liquidator to make his payments into and out of such other bank as the committee may select, and thereupon those payments shall be made in the prescribed manner.

(4.) If any such liquidator at any time retains for more than ten days a sum exceeding fifty pounds, or such other amount as the Board of Trade in any particular case authorise him to retain, then, unless he explains the retention to the satisfaction of the Board of Trade, he shall pay interest on the amount so retained in excess at the rate of twenty pounds per centum per annum, and shall be liable to disallowance of all or such part of his remuneration as to the Board shall seem just, and to be removed from his office by the Board, and shall be liable to pay any expenses occasioned by reason of his default.

(5.) All payments out of money standing to the credit of the Board of Trade in the Companies Liquidation Account shall be made by the Bank of England in the prescribed manner.

(6.) No liquidator of a company which is being wound up by order of the court shall pay any sums received by him as liquidator into his private banking account.

12.—(1.) The liquidator of a company which is being wound up by the court may, with the sanction either of the court or of the committee of inspection, carry on the business of the company, or bring or defend any legal proceeding in the name and on behalf of the company, or exercise any of the powers conferred by section one hundred and fifty-nine or section one hundred and sixty of the Companies Act, 1862.

c. 89.

(2.) The liquidator of any such company may, without the sanction of the court or of the committee of inspection, exercise any of the other powers conferred on the liquidator by section ninety-five of the Companies Act, 1862.

(3.) The exercise by the liquidator of the powers referred to in this section shall be subject to the control of the court, and any creditor or contributory may apply to the court with respect to any exercise or proposed exercise of any of those powers.

(4.) The liquidator of a company which is being wound up by order of the court may, with the sanction either of the court or of the committee of inspection, employ a solicitor or other agent to take any proceedings or do any business which the liquidator is unable to take or do himself. The sanction aforesaid must be a sanction obtained before the employment, except in cases of urgency, and in such cases it must be shown that no undue delay took place in obtaining the sanction.

Delegation to liquidator of certain powers of court.

13. General rules may be made for requiring or enabling all or any of the powers and duties conferred and imposed on the court by sections ninety-one, ninety-eight, ninety-nine, one hundred, one hundred and two, and one hundred and seven of the Companies Act, 1862, to be exercised or performed by the liquidator as an officer of the court, and subject to the control of the court.

Provided that the liquidator shall not, without the special leave of the court, rectify the register of members, and shall not make any call without either the special leave of the court or the sanction of the committee of inspection.

14. Where a company is being wound up voluntarily or subject to the supervision of the court, the official receiver attached to the court having jurisdiction to wind up the company may present a petition that the company be wound up by the court, and thereupon, if the court is satisfied that the voluntary winding up or winding up subject to supervision cannot be continued with due regard to the interests of the creditors or contributories, it may make an order that the company be wound up by the court.

Power for official receiver to apply as to voluntary winding up.

15.—(1.) If the winding up of a company is not concluded within one year after its commencement, the liquidator of the company shall, at such intervals as may be prescribed, until the winding up is concluded, send to the registrar of joint stock companies a statement in the prescribed form and containing the prescribed particulars with respect to the proceedings in and position of the liquidation. Any person stating himself in writing to be a creditor or contributory of the company shall be entitled, by himself or by his agent, at all reasonable times, on payment of the prescribed fee, to inspect the statement submitted in pursuance of this section, and to a copy thereof, or extract therefrom. But any person untruthfully so stating himself to be a creditor or contributory shall be guilty of a contempt of court, and shall be punishable accordingly on the application of the liquidator or of the official receiver.

Information as to pending liquidations.

(2.) If a liquidator makes default in complying with the requirements of this section he shall be liable to a fine not exceeding fifty pounds for each day during which the default continues.

(3.) If it appears from any such statement or otherwise that any liquidator of a company has in his hands or under his control any money representing unclaimed or undistributed assets of the company which have remained unclaimed or undistributed for six months after the date of their receipt, the liquidator shall forthwith pay the same to the Companies Liquidation Account at the Bank of England. Every such liquidator shall be entitled to the prescribed certificate of receipt for the moneys so paid, and that certificate shall be an effectual discharge to him in respect thereof.

(4.) For the purpose of ascertaining and getting in any money payable into the Bank of England in pursuance of this section, the like powers may be exercised and by the like authority as are exercisable under section one hundred and sixty-two of the Bankruptcy Act, 1883, for the purpose of ascertaining and getting in the sums, funds, and dividends referred to in that section.

(5.) Any person claiming to be entitled to any money paid into the Bank of England in pursuance of this section may apply to the Board of Trade for payment of the same, and the Board of Trade may, on a certificate by the liquidator that the person claiming is entitled, make an order for the payment to that person of the sum due. Any person dissatisfied with the decision of the Board of Trade in respect of any claim made in pursuance of this section may appeal to the High Court.

(6.) This section shall apply whether the winding up of the company has commenced before or after the commencement of this Act.

Investment of surplus funds on general account.

16.—(1.) Whenever the cash balance standing to the credit of the Companies Liquidation Account is in excess of the amount which in the opinion of the Board of Trade is required for the time being to answer demands in respect of companies' estates, the Board of Trade shall notify the same to the Treasury, and shall pay over the same or any part thereof, as the Treasury may require, to the Treasury, to such account as the Treasury may direct, and the Treasury may invest the said sums, or any part thereof, in Government securities, to be placed to the credit of the said account.

(2.) Whenever any part of the money so invested is, in the opinion of the Board of Trade, required to answer any demands in respect of companies' estates, the Board of Trade shall notify to the Treasury the amount so required, and the Treasury shall thereupon repay to the Board of Trade such sum as may be required to the credit of the Companies Liquidation Account, and for that purpose may direct the sale of such part of the said securities as may be necessary.

(3.) The dividends on the investments under this section shall be paid to such account as the Treasury may direct, and regard shall be had to the amount thus derived in fixing the fees payable in respect of proceedings in the winding up of companies.

Separate accounts of particular estates.

17.—(1.) An account shall be kept by the Board of Trade of the receipts and payments in the winding up of each company, and when the cash balance standing to the credit of the account of any company is in excess of the amount which, in the opinion of the committee of inspection, is required for the time being to answer demands in respect of that company's estate, the Board of Trade shall, on the request of the committee, invest the amount not so required in Government securities, to be placed to the credit of the said account for the benefit of the said company.

(2.) Whenever any part of the money so invested is, in the opinion of the committee of inspection, required to answer any demands in respect of the estate of the company of the assets of which the money so invested formed part, the Board of Trade shall, on the request of the committee, raise such sum as may be required by the sale of such part of the said securities as may be necessary.

(3.) The dividends on the investments made under this section shall be paid to the credit of the company of the assets of which the money so invested formed part.

Interests on balances above two thousand pounds.

18. When the balance at the credit of any company's account in the hands of the Board of Trade exceeds two thousand pounds, and the liquidator gives notice to the Board of Trade that the excess is not required for the purposes of the liquidation, then such company shall be entitled to interest upon such excess at the rate of two per centum per annum.

(4.) When any such account has been audited, one copy thereof shall be filed and kept by the Board, and the other copy shall be filed with the court, and each copy shall be open to the inspection of any creditor, or of any person interested.

(5.) The Board of Trade shall cause the account or a summary thereof when audited to be printed, and shall send a printed copy thereof by post to every creditor and contributory.

21. Every liquidator of a company which is being wound up by order of the court shall keep, in manner prescribed, proper books in which he shall from time to time cause to be made entries or minutes of proceedings at meetings, and of such other matters as may be prescribed, and any creditor or contributory of the company may, subject to the control of the court, personally or by his agent inspect any such books. Books to be kept by liquidator.

22.—(1.) When the liquidator of a company which is being wound up by order of the court has realised all the property of the company, or so much thereof as can, in his opinion, be realised without needlessly protracting the liquidation, and distributed a final dividend, if any, to the creditors, and adjusted the rights of the contributories between themselves, and made a final return, if any, to the contributories, or has resigned, or has been removed from his office, the Board of Trade shall, on his application, cause a report on his accounts to be prepared, and, on his complying with all the requirements of the Board, shall take into consideration the report, and any objection which may be urged by any creditor, or contributory, or person interested against the release of the liquidator, and shall either grant or withhold the release accordingly, subject nevertheless to an appeal to the High Court. (2.) Where the release of a liquidator is withheld the court may, on the application of any creditor, or contributory, or person interested, make such order as it thinks just, charging the liquidator with the consequences of any act or default he may have done or made contrary to his duty.

(3.) An order of the Board releasing the liquidator shall discharge him from all liability in respect of any act done or default made by him in the administration of the affairs of the company, or otherwise in relation to his conduct as liquidator, but any such order may be revoked on proof that it was obtained by fraud or by suppression or concealment of any material fact.

(4.) Where the liquidator has not previously resigned or been removed, his release shall operate as a removal of him from his office.

Discretionary powers of liquidator and control thereof.

23.—(1.) Subject to the provisions of the Companies Acts, the liquidator of a company which is being wound up by order of the court shall, in the administration of the property of the company and in the distribution thereof amongst its creditors, have regard to any directions that may be given by resolution of the creditors or contributories at any general meeting, or by the committee of inspection, and any directions so given by the creditors or contributories at any general meeting shall in case of conflict be deemed to override any directions given by the committee of inspection.

(2.) The liquidator may from time to time summon general meetings of the creditors or contributories for the purpose of ascertaining their wishes, and it shall be his duty to summon meetings at such times as the creditors or contributories, by resolution, either at the meeting appointing the liquidator or otherwise, may direct, or whenever requested in writing to do so by one-tenth in value of the creditors or contributories as the case may be.

(3.) The liquidator may apply to the court in manner prescribed for directions in relation to any particular matter arising under the winding up.

(4.) Subject to the provisions of the Companies Acts, the liquidator shall use his own discretion in the management of the estate and its distribution among the creditors.

Appeal to court against liquidator.

24. If any person is aggrieved by any act or decision of the liquidator of a company which is being wound up by order of the court, he may apply to the court, and the court may confirm, reverse, or modify the act or decision complained of, and make such order in the premises as it thinks just.

25.—(1.) The Board of Trade shall take cognizance of the conduct of liquidators of companies which are being wound up by order of the court, and in the event of any such liquidator not faithfully performing his duties and duly observing all the requirements imposed on him by statute, rules, or otherwise, with respect to the performance of his duties, or in the event of any complaint being made to the Board by any creditor or contributory in regard thereto, the Board shall inquire into the matter, and take such action thereon as may be deemed expedient.

(2.) The Board may at any time require any liquidator of a company which is being wound up by order of the court to answer any inquiry made by them in relation to any winding up in which the liquidator is engaged, and may, if the Board think fit, apply to the court to examine on oath the liquidator or any other person concerning the winding up.

(3.) The Board may also direct a local investigation to be made of the books and vouchers of the liquidator of any company which is being wound up by order of the court.

26.—(1.) The Lord Chancellor may, with the concurrence of the President of the Board of Trade, make general rules for carrying into effect the objects of this Act. General rules and fees.

(2.) All general rules made under the foregoing provisions of this section shall be laid before Parliament within three weeks after they are made, if Parliament is then sitting, and if Parliament is not sitting, within three weeks after the beginning of the next session of Parliament, and shall be judicially noticed, and shall have effect as if enacted by this Act.

(3.) Any general rule made under this section shall not come into operation until the expiration of one month after the rule has been made and issued.

(4.) There shall be paid in respect of the proceedings under this Act such fees as the Lord Chancellor may, with the sanction of the Treasury, direct, and the Treasury may direct by whom and in what manner the same are to be collected and accounted for, and to what account they are to be paid.

(5.) 27.—(1.) The Board of Trade may, with the approval of the Treasury, appoint such additional officers as may be required by the Board for the execution of this Act, and may dismiss any person so appointed. Officers and remuneration.

(2.) The Board of Trade, with the concurrence of the Treasury, shall direct whether any and what remuneration is to be allowed to any officer of, or person attached to, the Board of Trade, performing any duties under this Act, and may vary, increase, or diminish such remuneration as they may think fit.

(3.) The Lord Chancellor, with the concurrence of the Treasury, shall direct whether any and what remuneration is to be allowed to any person (other than an officer of the Board of Trade) performing any duties under this Act, and may vary, increase, or diminish such remuneration as he may think fit.

Returns by officers.

29.—(1.) The officers of the courts acting in the winding up of companies shall make to the Board of Trade such returns of the business of their respective courts and offices, at such times and in such manner and form as may be prescribed, and from such returns the Board of Trade shall cause books to be prepared which shall, under the regulations of the Board, be open for public information and searches.

(2.) The Board of Trade shall also cause a general annual report of all matters, judicial and financial, within this Act to be prepared and laid before both Houses of Parliament.

SCHEDULES.

FIRST SCHEDULE.

Section 6.

MEETINGS OF CREDITORS AND CONTRIBUTORIES.

(1.) The meetings of creditors and contributories shall be held within twenty-one days after the date of the winding up order, or within such further time as the court may approve, unless a special manager has been appointed, in which case such meetings shall be held within one month from the date of such order, or within such further time as aforesaid.

(2.) The official receiver of the company shall summon the meeting by giving not less than seven days' notice of the time and place thereof in the London Gazette and in a local paper. Notice of such meeting shall also be sent by post to every person appearing by the company's books to be a creditor of the company and to every member of the company.

(3.) The official receiver shall also, as soon as practicable, send to each creditor mentioned in the company's statement of affairs, and to each person appearing from the company's books, or otherwise, to be a contributory of the company, a summary of the company's statement of affairs, including the causes of its failure, and any observations thereon which the official receiver may think fit to make; but the proceedings at any such meeting shall not be invalidated by reason of any summary or notice required by these rules not having been sent or received before the meeting.

(4.) The meeting shall be held at such place as is in the opinion of the official receiver most convenient for the majority of the creditors and contributories.

(5.) The official receiver, or some person nominated by him, shall be the chairman at the meetings.

(6.) A person shall not be entitled to vote as a creditor unless he has duly proved a debt to be due to him from the company, and the proof has been duly lodged before the time appointed for the meeting.

(7.) A creditor shall not vote in respect of any unliquidated or contingent debt, or any debt the value of which is not ascertained.

(8.) For the purpose of voting, a secured creditor shall, unless he surrenders his security, state in his proof the particulars of his security, the date when it was given, and the value at which he assesses it, and shall be entitled to vote only in respect of the balance (if any) due to him, after deducting the value of his security. If he votes in respect of his whole debt he shall be deemed to have surrendered his security, unless the court on application is satisfied that the omission to value the security has arisen from inadvertence.

(9.) A creditor shall not vote in respect of any debt on or secured by a current bill of exchange or promissory note held by him, unless he is willing to treat the liability to him thereon of every person who is liable thereon antecedently to the company, and against whom a receiving order in bankruptcy has not been made, as a security in his hands, and to estimate the value thereof, and for the purposes of voting, but not for the purposes of dividend, to deduct it from his proof.

(10.) It shall be competent to the official receiver, or to the liquidator, within twenty-eight days after a proof estimating the value of a security as aforesaid had been made use of in voting at any meeting, to require the creditor to give up the security for the benefit of the creditors generally on payment of the value so estimated, with an addition thereto of twenty per centum. Provided, that where a creditor has put a value on such security, he may, at any time before he has been required to give up such security as aforesaid, correct such valuation by a new proof, and deduct such new value from his debt, but in that case such addition of twenty per centum shall not be made if the liquidator requires the security to be given up.

(11.) The chairman of the meeting shall have power to admit or reject a proof for the purpose of voting, but his decision shall be subject to appeal to the court. If he is in doubt whether the proof of a creditor should be admitted or rejected he shall mark the proof as objected to, and shall allow the creditor to vote, subject to the vote being declared invalid in the event of the objection being sustained.

(12.) A creditor or a contributory may vote either in person or by proxy.

(13.) Every instrument of proxy shall be in the prescribed form, and shall be issued by an official receiver, or by the liquidator of the company, and every written part thereof shall be in the handwriting of the person giving the proxy, or of any manager or clerk or other person in his regular employment, or of a commissioner to administer oaths in the Supreme Court of Judicature in England.

(14.) General and special forms of proxy shall be sent to the creditors and contributories with the notice summoning the meeting, and neither the name nor description of the official receiver or of any other person shall be printed or inserted in the body of any instrument of proxy before it is so sent.

(15.) A creditor or a contributory may give a general proxy to his manager or clerk, or any other person in his regular employment. In such case the instrument of proxy shall state the relation in which the person to act thereunder stands to the creditor or contributory.

(16.) A creditor or a contributory may give a special proxy to any person to vote at any specified meeting, or adjournment thereof—

(a) for or against the appointment or continuance in office of any specified person as liquidator or member of the committee of inspection, and

(b) on all questions relating to any matter other than those above referred to and arising at any specified meeting or adjournment thereof.

(17.) A proxy shall not be used unless it is deposited with the official receiver before the meeting at which it is to be used.

(18.) Where it appears to the satisfaction of the court that any solicitation has been used by or on behalf of a liquidator in obtaining proxies or in procuring the appointment of liquidator, except by the direction of a meeting of creditors or contributories, the court shall have power, if it think fit, to order that no remuneration shall be allowed to the person by whom or on whose behalf such solicitation may have been exercised, notwithstanding any resolution of the committee of inspection or of the creditors or contributories to the contrary.

(19.) A creditor or a contributory may appoint the official receiver to act in manner prescribed as his general or special proxy.

(20.) The chairman of the meeting may, with the consent of the meeting, adjourn the meeting from time to time and from place to place.

(21.) A meeting shall not be competent to act for any purpose except the election of a chairman, the proving of debts, and the adjournment of the meeting, unless there are present or represented thereat, at least three creditors or contributories, or all the creditors or contributories if their number does not exceed three.

(22.) If within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting a quorum of creditors or contributories is not present or represented, the meeting shall be adjourned to the same day in the following week at the same time and place, or to such other day as the chairman may appoint, not being less than seven or more than twenty-one days.

An Act to provide for an Appeal from a Sanitary Authority failing to carry into effect the Allotments Act, 1887.

[18th August 1890.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

Construction and short title. 50 & 51 Vict. c. 48.

1. This Act shall be construed as one with the Allotments Act, 1887 (in this Act referred to as the principal Act), and the principal Act and this Act may be cited together as the Allotments Acts, 1887 and 1890, and this Act may be cited as the Allotments Act, 1890.

Appeal to county council by persons entitled to make representation to sanitary authority. 45 & 46 Vict. c. 50.

2.—(1.) Where such representation as is authorised by section two of the principal Act has been made to the sanitary authority with respect to any district or parish, not being within the limits of a borough as defined by the Municipal Corporations Act, 1882, and any six persons qualified to make such representation consider that the circumstances of the district or parish are such as to make it the duty of the sanitary authority to take proceedings under that Act therein, and that the sanitary authority have failed to acquire land adequate and suitable in quality and position to provide a sufficient number of allotments, such persons may petition the county council of the county in which such district or parish is situate, stating the facts and requesting the council to put into force the principal Act for the purpose of providing a sufficient number of allotments for the district or parish.

(2.) The council, if satisfied by the inquiry herein-after mentioned that the circumstances are such that land for allotments should be acquired, shall pass a resolution to that effect, and thereupon the powers and duties of the sanitary authority under the principal Act, so far as regards that district or parish, shall be transferred from the sanitary authority to the county council, and the county council, in substitution for the sanitary authority, shall proceed to acquire land in accordance with the principal Act, and otherwise execute that Act in the said district or parish.

Provided that this section shall not affect the property in, or any powers or duties of the sanitary authority in relation to, any land which before the passing of the said resolution was acquired by the sanitary authority under the principal Act.

Standing committee.

3.—(1.) For the purposes of this Act or the principal Act every county council, as soon as is conveniently practicable after the passing of this Act, and annually thereafter at the meeting for the election of chairman, shall appoint under the Local Government Act, 1888, a standing committee not exceeding one fourth of their whole body. 51 & 52 Vict. c. 41.

(2.) For the purpose of any business under this Act relating to any district or parish wholly or partly situate in an electoral division, the county councillor representing that division shall, if not already appointed, be an additional member of the committee.

(3.) Any petition under this Act shall as of course, and without any order of the council, be referred to the standing committee, who, on being satisfied of the bona fides of the application, shall forthwith cause a local inquiry into the circumstances to be made, and shall report the result to the council.

(4.) An inquiry under this Act or the principal Act shall be held by such one or more members of the standing committee, or such officer of the county council or other person as the standing committee may appoint to hold the same.

4. Where the powers of the sanitary authority under the principal Act are, by virtue of this Act, transferred to the county council, the following provisions shall have effect:— Supplemental provisions on council acquiring powers of sanitary authority.

(a.) The principal Act shall apply with the modifications necessary for giving effect to this Act:

(b.) The county council may borrow for the purposes of this Act subject to the conditions, in the manner, and on the security of the rate, subject to, in, and on the security of which the sanitary authority might have borrowed under the principal Act, if this Act had not been passed. The council shall have power to charge the said rate with the repayment of the principal and interest of the loan; and such loan with the interest thereon shall be repaid by the sanitary authority in like manner, and such charge shall have the like effect, as if the loan were lawfully raised and charged on that rate by the sanitary authority:

(c.) The county council shall keep separate accounts of all receipts and expenditure under this Act, and, in the application of sub-section six of section ten of the principal Act, the Local Government Act, 1888, shall be substituted for the Public Health Act, 1875: 51 & 52 Vict. c. 41.
38 & 39 Vict. c. 55.

(d.) The county council may make a provisional order for the purchase of land on the recommendation of the standing committee, without any petition from the sanitary authority, and the council shall be considered as the promoters of the order:

(e.) The county council may delegate to the sanitary authority any powers under section six, section seven, or section eight of the principal Act (which sections relate to the management of the allotments, and the letting and use thereof, and the recovery of the rent and of possession thereof); and, subject to the terms of the delegation, all expenses and receipts arising in the exercise of the powers so delegated shall be paid and dealt with as expenses and receipts of the sanitary authority under the principal Act:

(f.) The county council, on the request of the sanitary authority, may, by order under their seal, transfer to that authority all or any of the powers, duties, property, and liabilities vested in and imposed on the council by virtue of this Act as regards the district of such authority or any part thereof, and the property so transferred shall be deemed to have been acquired by that authority under the principal Act, and that authority shall act accordingly.

Use of school-room free of charge.

5. Any room in a school receiving a grant out of moneys provided by Parliament may, except during ordinary school hours, be used free of charge for the purpose of an inquiry under this Act, or for the purposes of this Act by the county council or any committee appointed under this Act, or, with the consent of any two managers, for the purpose of holding public meetings to discuss any question relating to allotments under this Act or the principal Act, but any damage done to the room and any expense incurred by the person or persons having control over the room on account of its being so used shall be paid by the county council or by the persons calling the meeting.

Nothing in this section shall give any right to hold a public meeting in a schoolroom (a) unless not less than six days before the meeting a notice of the intention to hold the meeting on the day and at the time specified in the notice, signed by the persons calling the meeting, being not less than six in number, and being persons qualified to make a representation to the local authority under the principal Act, has been given, if the school is under a school board, to the clerk of the board, and in any other case to one of the managers of the school; nor (b) if the use of the schoolroom on the said day and at the said time has previously to the receipt of the notice of the meeting been granted for some other purpose; but in that case the clerk or manager, or some one on his behalf, shall forthwith after the receipt of the notice, inform in writing one of the persons signing it that the use of the school has been so granted for some other purpose, and name some other day on which the schoolroom can be used for the meeting.

If the persons calling the meeting fail to obtain the use of a schoolroom under this section, they may appeal to the standing committee under this Act, and the committee shall forthwith decide the appeal and make such order respecting the use of the room as seems just.

Expenses.

6.—(1.) All expenses incurred by the county council in executing the principal Act or this Act in any district or parish on default of a sanitary authority, or incurred by the council in or incidentally to a local inquiry under this Act, shall be paid in the first instance out of the county fund as for general county purposes, and, unless defrayed out of moneys received by the council in respect of any land acquired under this Act otherwise than by sale or exchange, or out of money borrowed as before in this Act mentioned, shall when the powers and duties of the sanitary authority under the principal Act are transferred to the county council in pursuance of this Act, be repaid to the county council as a debt by the sanitary authority.

(2.) All sums payable by a sanitary authority in pursuance of this Act shall be defrayed in like manner as expenses under the principal Act are required to be defrayed, save that in the case of a rural authority they shall, with the exception of the principal and interest of any money borrowed, or the rent of any land hired by the county council be charged as general expenses.

(3.) All sums received by a county council in respect of any land acquired under this Act otherwise than from any sale or exchange, in so far as they are not required for the payment of expenses incurred by them in respect of such land, shall be paid to the sanitary authority, and in the case of a rural sanitary authority shall be credited to the parish on account of which the land was acquired.

- (a) if he has completed not less than twenty-five years approved service, and is not less than fifty-five years, or, if a constable above the rank of sergeant, sixty years of age, shall, on the expiration of such time not exceeding four months after he has given written notice to the police authority of his desire to retire as the police authority may fix, be entitled without a medical certificate to retire and receive a pension for life ; and
 - (b) if after he has completed twenty years approved service he is, in the opinion of the police authority, incapacitated for the performance of his duty by infirmity of mind or body, shall be entitled on a medical certificate to retire and receive a pension for life ; and
 - (c) if before he has completed twenty years approved service he is incapacitated for the performance of his duty by infirmity of mind or body, shall be entitled on a medical certificate to retire, and thereupon the police authority may, if they think fit, grant him a gratuity ; and
 - (d) if at any time he is incapacitated for the performance of his duty by infirmity of mind or body occasioned by an injury received in the execution of his duty without his own default, shall be entitled on a medical certificate to retire and receive a pension for life.

Pension allowances and gratuities to widow and children.

2.—(1.) If a constable dies whilst in a police force from the effect of an injury received in the execution of his duty without his own default, the police authority shall grant a pension to his widow, and allowances to his children.

(3.) If a constable to whom a pension has been granted because he was incapacitated for the performance of his duty by an injury received in the execution of his duty, without his own default, dies from the effects of the injury within twelve months after the grant of the pension, the police authority may, if they think fit, grant a pension to his widow, either for a term of years or otherwise.

(4.) If a constable to whom a pension has been granted dies within twelve months after the grant of the pension, the police authority may, if they think fit, grant gratuities to his widow and children or any of them.

Pension scale.

3.—(1.) The pensions, allowances, and gratuities granted to constables of a police force and to their widows and children shall be in accordance with the pension scale for the force.

(2.) The pension scale for a force shall be—

(a) as regards ordinary pensions, the scale set forth in Part I. of the First Schedule to this Act; and

(b) as regards special pensions and allowances and gratuities, the scale set forth in Part II. of that Schedule.

(2.) The rules contained in Part III. of the First Schedule to this Act shall apply to all pensions, allowances, and gratuities granted under this Act.

Reckoning of service for pension.

4.—(1.) The service of a constable for the purposes of this Act shall be subject to such deductions in respect of sickness, misconduct, or neglect of duty as may be made therefrom in pursuance of the regulations of the force to which the constable belongs; and the expression "approved service" shall for the purposes of this Act mean such service as may after such deductions as aforesaid (if any) be certified under the order of the police authority to have been diligent and faithful service, but shall not, unless the regulations of the police force otherwise prescribe, include service before twenty-one years of age.

(2.) A certificate signed by the chief officer of a police force as to the period of a constable's approved service in that force shall be sufficient evidence thereof.

(3.) Where a deduction is made from a constable's service in respect of sickness, misconduct, or neglect of duty, notice of the deduction shall as soon as may be after the occurrence of the cause for which the deduction is made be given to the constable, and the constable may appeal to the chief officer of his police force against any act of an officer of police superior to the constable which prevents him from reckoning any period of actual service as approved service, and any period of actual service allowed by the chief officer on such appeal shall be deemed to be approved service.

(4.) Where a constable has served in more than one police force in Great Britain approved service in any such police force in which he has completed not less than three years approved service, and from which he has with the written sanction of the chief officer of that force removed to another force, shall be reckoned as approved service in the force in which the constable is serving at the time of his retirement.

(5.) Where a constable with the knowledge of the police authority or of the chief officer of his police force belongs to the army reserve or naval reserve and is called out for training or for permanent service, he shall be entitled, on returning to the police force after the end of such training or service, to reckon any approved service which he was entitled to reckon at the commencement thereof.

5.—(1.) Before granting to a constable an ordinary pension on the ground of his being incapacitated by infirmity for the performance of his duty, the police authority shall be satisfied by the evidence of some legally qualified medical practitioner or practitioners, selected by the police authority, that the constable is so incapacitated, and that the incapacity is likely to be permanent.

Proof of incapacity for duty, liability to serve again, and revision of pension.

(2.) Where the application is for a special pension the police authority shall also be satisfied that the injury was received by the constable in the execution of his duty, that it was received without the default of the constable, and that the infirmity is attributable to the injury, and shall also determine whether the injury was accidental or not, and whether the disability of the constable for earning his livelihood is total or partial, and for the purpose of determining any of the said questions which ought to be determined on medical grounds shall take the like evidence as above mentioned.

(3.) Where a pension is granted to a constable on the ground of incapacity for the performance of his duty, the police authority shall yearly or otherwise, until the power under this Act of requiring the constable to serve again ceases, satisfy themselves that the incapacity continues, and unless they resolve that such evidence is unnecessary, shall satisfy themselves by the like evidence as above mentioned.

(4.) In the event of the incapacity ceasing before the time at which the constable would, if he had continued to serve, have been entitled without a medical certificate to retire and receive a pension for life, the police authority may cancel his pension and require him to serve again in the police force, in a rank not less than the rank which he held before his retirement, at a rate of pay not less than the rate which he received before his retirement.

(5.) Where a constable so serves again, the provisions of this Act as to retirement and pensions, allowances, and gratuities shall apply as if he had not previously retired, save that except in the case of pensions for non-accidental injuries received in the execution of duty he shall not reckon as approved service the time which elapsed between his former retirement and the commencement of his service again.

(6.) Where a pension is granted to a constable on a scale applicable to total disability for earning a livelihood, it shall be so granted for such period as may be fixed by the police authority, and if at the expiration of that period the pensioner continues to be totally so disabled the pension shall, in the discretion of the police authority, either be made permanent or renewed from time to time. If at any time before the pension is made permanent the police authority are satisfied by the evidence of a legally qualified medical practitioner selected by the police authority that the pensioner's disability for earning his livelihood has become partial, the pension shall, within the limits allowed by the pension scale, be reduced to the amount allowed by the provisions of the scale applicable to cases of partial disability.

(6.) If a constable fails or refuses, when required by the police authority, to be examined by some legally qualified medical practitioner selected by that authority, the police authority may deal with the constable in all respects as if they were satisfied by the evidence of such a practitioner that the constable is not incapacitated for the performance of his duty, or, as the case may be, is only partially disabled.

(7.) The decision of the police authority on the matters above in this section mentioned shall be final.

- (1.) Every assignation of and security over a grant, and every agreement to assign or give security over a grant, shall, except so far as made for the benefit of the family of the pensioner, be void, and on the bankruptcy of the pensioner the grant shall not pass to any trustee or other persons acting on behalf of the creditors:
- (2.) Where any parochial relief is given to a pensioner or to anyone whom he is liable to maintain, the police authority may pay the whole or any part of the grant to the parochial board or other authority giving the relief, and the same, when so paid, may be applied in repayment of any sums expended in such relief, and, subject thereto, shall be paid or applied by the parochial board or other authority to or for the benefit of the pensioner:

- (7.) Where a payment is made to any person by a police authority in pursuance of this section, the receipt of that person shall be a good discharge to that authority for the sum so paid :
- (8.) A police authority may, with the consent of the Secretary for Scotland, make rules with respect to declarations to be taken for any purpose relating to grants payable by that authority, and while any such rules made by a police authority are in force, a person shall not be entitled to receive any sum in respect of a grant payable by that authority until any declaration required by those rules has been made :
- (9.) Any person who makes a false declaration for the purpose of the said rules, knowing the same to be untrue in any material particular, shall be liable on conviction to forfeit the grant, and shall also be liable on summary conviction to imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for a term not exceeding sixty days, or to a fine not exceeding twenty-five pounds, to be paid (notwithstanding anything in any other Act, whether relating to municipal corporations or otherwise) to the pension fund of the police authority by whom the rules were made, or on conviction by a jury to imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for a term not exceeding two years.

9. If a person obtains any pension, gratuity, or allowance under this Act, or any payment on account of any such pension, gratuity, or allowance, by false representation, false evidence, or personation, or by malingering or feigning disease or infirmity, or by maiming or injuring himself, or causing himself to be maimed or injured, or otherwise producing disease or infirmity, or by any other fraudulent conduct, he shall be liable on summary conviction to imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for a term not exceeding sixty days, or to a fine not exceeding twenty-five pounds, to be paid (notwithstanding anything in any other Act whether relating to municipal corporations or otherwise) to the pension fund of the force from which he obtained the pension, gratuity, or allowance, and also to forfeit the pension, gratuity, or allowance obtained.

Saving of right of dismissal and reduction in rank.

10. Nothing in this Act shall prejudice the existing right of any police authority to dismiss any constable, or to reduce him to any lower rank or lower rate of pay, or shall prevent his claim to pension from being refused on account of misconduct or of negligence in the discharge of his duties or on account of any of the grounds on which his pension, if granted, would be liable to be forfeited and withdrawn.

Appeal in case of forfeiture or refusal of pension or allowance.

11. In any of the following cases—

- (a) where a pension after being granted to a constable has subsequently in pursuance of this Act been declared to have been forfeited, and
- (b) where a constable is dismissed without a pension to which he would be otherwise entitled, and in any other case where a constable or the widow or child of a constable claims a pension or allowance under this Act as of right, and the police authority do not admit the claim,

such constable, widow, or child may apply to the police authority for a re-consideration of the claim to the pension or allowance, and if aggrieved by the decision upon such re-consideration may apply to the sheriff having jurisdiction in the place where the constable was last serving, and the sheriff, after inquiry into the case, may make such order in the matter as appears to him just, which order shall be final; but nothing in this section shall confer a right to appeal against the exercise of any discretion, or against any decision which is declared by this Act to be final.

12. The provisions of this Act shall apply to a chief officer of police in like manner, so nearly as circumstances admit, as they apply to any other constable, except that, in the case of a chief officer, the certificate of approved service and the sanction to removal from one force to another may be given by a resolution of the police authority.

Application of Act to chief officer of police.

13.—(1.) Where a constable in receipt of a pension under this Act from a police authority takes service in any police force, his pension may be suspended by that police authority in whole or in part so long as he remains in that service.

Suspension of pension in case of appointment to new office.

(2.) If a constable in receipt of a pension under this Act is appointed to an office remunerated out of money provided by Parliament, or out of local rates, he shall not, while holding that office, receive more of the pension than together with the remuneration of that office is equal to one and a half times the remuneration of the office in respect of which the pension was awarded.

14. Where an officer of any police force is appointed to be one of Her Majesty's inspectors of constabulary, the police authority of that force shall pay to the Treasury out of the pension fund the same sum as they would under this Act pay, in the absence of agreement, if the officer had removed with proper sanction to another police force; and the officer on ceasing to be inspector shall be entitled for the purpose of any superannuation or other allowance to reckon as service as one of Her Majesty's inspectors the approved service which he was entitled to reckon in the police force.

Provisions as to certain cases of service in two capacities.

15.—(1.) The police authority of every police force shall deduct from the pay of every constable in the force—

Rateable deductions from pay to be carried to pension fund.

- (a) sums after the rate of two and a half per cent. per annum on his pay (in this Act referred to as the rateable deduction); and
- (b) such stoppages during sickness, and such fines for misconduct, as may be provided by the regulations respecting the force.

(2.) Where a constable in any police force removes with the written sanction of the chief officer of that force to some other police force the police authority of the first-mentioned force shall pay to the police authority of the latter force either a sum equal to the aggregate amount of the rateable deductions made from the pay of the constable during his service in the first-mentioned force, together with the aggregate amount of such proportion of the Exchequer contribution herein-after mentioned as has been paid in respect of those deductions, or such other sum as may be agreed on between the authorities.

16.—(1.) There shall be established under this Act a pension fund of every police force, and there shall be carried to that fund—

Establishment of pension fund, and fines, &c. to be carried to fund.

- (a) the deductions (including stoppages and fines) made in pursuance of this Act from the pay of the constables in the force; and

- (b) the fines imposed by a court of summary jurisdiction, when imposed on constables in the force ; and
- (c) the net sums arising from the sale of worn or cast clothing supplied for the use of constables of the force ; and
- (d) such proportion of any sum received on account of constables whose services have been lent in consideration of payment as the police authority may consider to be a fair contribution to the pension fund in respect of those constables ; and
- (e) the net sums received in the police area for pedlars certificates.

Distribution of sums granted out of Customs and Excise duties for police super-annuation.

17.—(1.) Any annual sum which under an Act passed in the present session relating to the distribution of certain duties of Customs and Excise is required to be distributed among the police authorities of the police forces in Scotland (which sum is in this Act referred to as the Exchequer contribution) shall be distributed according to the following basis of distribution, that is to say :—

- (a.) In respect of the financial year current at the passing of this Act the said sum shall be distributed among the police authorities of every such police force in proportion to the number of efficient men in such force during the year ending the fifteenth day of March last preceding the end of such financial year, as ascertained by the Secretary for Scotland, and the proportion to be paid to each force shall be invested and applied in like manner as the rateable deductions herein-after mentioned.
- (b.) There shall be paid in respect of every subsequent financial year to the police authority of every such police force a sum equal to the amount of the rateable deductions made during the year ending the fifteenth day of March last preceding the end of the financial year, from the pay of the constables belonging to that force, and that sum shall be invested and applied in like manner as those deductions.
- (c.) The residue shall at the same time be distributed among the police authorities of those forces in proportion to the amounts paid during the year ending the fifteenth day of March last preceding the end of the financial year in respect of pensions, allowances, and gratuities out of their pension funds established under this Act respectively, and the proportion to be paid to each force shall be carried to the pension fund and may be dealt with as annual income of that fund.

(2.) Provided that a police authority shall not in respect of any year ending the fifteenth day of March receive any payment under this section unless the Secretary for Scotland gives a certificate that the management and efficiency of the police force under that authority and (after the year ending the fifteenth day of March current at the passing of this Act) the administration of the pension fund of that force have during that year been satisfactory ; and if the Secretary for Scotland withholds that certificate as regards any police authority the amount which would otherwise be payable to that authority under this section shall be forfeited to the Crown and paid into the Exchequer.

(3.) Before any such certificate is finally withheld in respect of any police force, the Secretary for Scotland shall communicate with the police authority of the force, and that authority may address any statement on the subject to the Secretary for Scotland; and in every case in which the certificate is withheld a statement of the grounds on which the Secretary for Scotland has withheld his certificate, together with any such statement of the police authority, shall be laid before Parliament.

(4.) The sums to be paid to each police authority under this section shall be certified by the Secretary for Scotland, who may, if he thinks proper, vary his certificate, but unless it is so varied his certificate shall be conclusive.

(5.) Where owing to any special circumstances affecting any particular police force the sum payable to that force under the foregoing provisions of this section would, in the opinion of the Secretary for Scotland, be inequitable as between that force and some other force or forces, the Secretary for Scotland may make such modification in the basis of distribution as appears to him to be necessary to meet the equities of the case.

(6.) The basis of distribution under this section may also be varied in such manner and in accordance with such conditions as may from time to time be set forth in regulations made by the Secretary for Scotland and submitted to Parliament. All such regulations shall be laid on the table of both Houses of Parliament, and shall not come into operation until they have lain on the table of each House for not less than thirty days on which that House has sat.

18.—(1.) All sums which, in pursuance of this Act, are to be carried to the pension fund of a police force shall be received and accounted for, and paid to the treasurer of that fund, in such manner as the police authority may direct. Accounts and investment of pension fund.

(2.) The pension fund of a police force shall be kept as a separate fund, but the treasurer of the police fund shall be the treasurer of the pension fund, and all enactments and regulations relating to the accounts of the police fund, and to the making up, audit, and publication thereof, and to the power of disallowance (if any) and otherwise shall, so nearly as circumstances admit, apply to the pension fund.

(3.) The surplus of the annual income of the pension fund above the expenditure thereout shall, as soon as may be, be invested in such name as the police authority direct, and in any manner authorised by law for investments by trustees, and all investments on account of the fund, under this section or otherwise, are in this Act referred to as the capital of the pension fund.

(4.) There shall also be invested in accordance with the foregoing provisions as part of the capital of the pension fund and not applied as annual income the following sums, namely:—

(b.) Any sum received by a police authority in respect of the transfer of a constable from one police force to another; and

- (c.) The proportion carried to the pension fund of any sum received on account of constables whose services are lent in consideration of payment ; and
- (d.) That portion of the Exchequer contribution which is in pursuance of this Act to be invested and applied in like manner as the rateable deductions.

But, save as in this Act mentioned, all sums payable to a pension fund in pursuance of this Act, and all dividends and other annual sums received in respect of the investments of the pension fund, may be dealt with as annual income of the fund.

(5.) The sum required for the payment to be made by a police authority in respect of a constable who removes to another police force, or in respect of a constable to whom the whole or any part of the rateable deductions from his pay is paid on his leaving the force need not be paid out of the income of the pension fund, but may, if the police authority paying the same think fit, be paid either out of money in the hands of the treasurer and required by this Act to be invested or out of money raised by the realisation of a sufficient part of the capital of the pension fund.

(6.) Save as is expressly provided by this Act the capital of the pension fund shall not be applied for paying any sums payable out of that fund.

Guarantee of

19.—(1.) If at any time the annual income of the pension fund is insufficient to pay the expenses of managing the fund, and the pensions, allowances, gratuities, and other sums payable thereout, the deficiency shall be paid out of the police fund.

(2.) The police authority may advance out of the police fund or may, without any consent, borrow on the security of that fund any moneys necessary to provide any sums becoming payable out of the pension fund, but such moneys, together with reasonable interest thereon, shall be repaid to the police fund, or be paid off by the police authority out of the first moneys paid to the pension fund as annual income of that fund for the year in respect of which such first-mentioned moneys were so advanced or borrowed.

c. 72.

(3.) In the case of a county divided into districts within the meaning of section fifty-eight of the Police (Scotland) Act, 1857, the deficiency shall be supplied by the several districts, as part of the local expenditure thereof, rateably in proportion to the number of constables appointed for each such district.

(4.) Where the police force of a burgh has been consolidated with the police force of a county, the deficiency shall be supplied out of the police funds of the county and burgh respectively in accordance with an agreement between the police authorities of the county and burgh made as nearly as may be in the same manner and subject to the same conditions as an agreement to consolidate the police force of a burgh with the police force of a county can be made, and in default of any such agreement shall be supplied in such manner as may be determined by a sole arbiter appointed by the Secretary for Scotland.

(5.) Where a burgh or police burgh forms part of a county under the provisions of section thirteen of the Local Government (Scotland)

Act, 1889, any deficiency as aforesaid shall be supplied under the provisions of section sixty of the said Act.

(6.) Where the rate which can be levied for the police fund of a burgh is limited, an addition to that rate may be levied for the purpose of raising the sum required to supply the deficiency.

20. Where, after the commencement of this Act, any two or more police forces are consolidated under the provisions of the Police (Scotland) Act, 1857, the pension funds of such forces may be consolidated in such manner and subject to such conditions, as nearly as may be in accordance with the provisions of this Act, as the Secretary for Scotland may determine upon the joint application of the police authorities of such forces; and the Secretary for Scotland may, on the like application, recall or vary his determination, but unless so recalled or varied, and if so varied, it shall have effect as if it were contained in this Act. Provided that any determination by the Secretary for Scotland under this section shall be laid on the table of both Houses of Parliament, and shall not come into operation until it has lain on the table of each house for not less than thirty days on which that House has sat.

Power to consolidate pension funds in certain cases.

21. Where any deficiency in the annual income of the pension fund of a force shall have been paid out of the police fund, if at any time thereafter the annual income of the pension fund shall prove more than sufficient to pay the expenses of managing the fund, and the pensions, allowances, gratuities, and other sums payable thereout, the deficiency as aforesaid shall be repaid to the police fund out of the annual income.

Repayment to police fund of advances.

22. Every police authority may make regulations with respect to the deductions from a constable's service for sickness, misconduct, or neglect of duty, and with respect to stoppages of pay during sickness and fines for misconduct, and with respect to any other matter for which provision may be made for the purposes of this Act by regulations of a police force.

Power for police authority to make regulations.

All regulations for a police force made before the commencement of this Act with respect to any of the above matters shall have effect as if made under the powers given by this section.

23. If a constable not having been dismissed for fraud or dishonesty leaves a police force without a pension or gratuity, the police authority shall pay him the whole or part of the rateable deductions which have been made from his pay; but this section shall not apply in the case of his being removed to another police force.

Return of rateable deductions on leaving force.

24.—(1.) Where it appears to a police authority that the assets of their pension fund exceed the amount required for meeting the liabilities thereon, and that it is expedient to provide for the application of the excess or any part thereof, the police authority may apply to the Secretary for Scotland, and thereupon the Secretary for Scotland may frame and submit to Parliament for confirmation a provisional order authorising the payment out of the pension fund of such sums, for such purposes, during such period, and subject to such conditions as may seem expedient.

Provisional orders by Secretary of State.

(2.) Where it appears to a police authority that by reason of their pension fund being sufficient to meet the liabilities thereon it is unnecessary to make any further investments on account of the capital thereof, the police authority may apply to the Secretary for Scotland, and thereupon the Secretary of Scotland may frame and submit to Parliament for confirmation a provisional order authorising the discontinuance of those investments.

(3.) A provisional order under this section shall be of no force unless and until it is confirmed by Act of Parliament, but when so confirmed shall have effect with any modifications made therein by Parliament.

(4.) If, while the Bill confirming any such order is pending in either House of Parliament, a petition is presented against any order comprised therein, the Bill, so far as it relates to that order, may be referred to a Select Committee, and the petitioner shall be allowed to appear and oppose as in the case of private Bills.

(5.) All costs, charges, and expenses incurred by the Secretary for Scotland in relation to any order under this section shall be defrayed by the authority applying for the order.

25.—(1.) A person shall not be appointed to any police force unless—

(a) Except as herein-after mentioned, he is under the age of twenty-five years; and

(b) has been certified by a legally qualified medical practitioner, selected by the police authority, to be in good health and of sound constitution, and fitted to perform the duties of his office.

(2.) The limit of age in this section before mentioned shall not apply in the case of a person immediately transferred from another police force, or who has within the immediately preceding three months served in Her Majesty's navy or army; provided that such person, when he is transferred or appointed, shall not be more than thirty years of age.

(3.) The limit of age in the case of a chief officer of police on first appointment shall be forty-five years, or such less number of years as may from time to time be prescribed by the Secretary for Scotland.

Declaration by constables respecting previous service.

26. A police authority may require every constable at the time of his appointment to appear before a justice of the peace, and make and sign a declaration as to his previous service in a police force or public employment, in the form contained in the Second Schedule to this Act, or to the like effect; and if any constable knowingly makes a false declaration, he shall be liable, on summary conviction, to be imprisoned, with or without hard labour, for any period not exceeding sixty days.

PART II.

Temporary and Supplemental Provisions.

Application of Act to existing

27. For the purpose of adapting the provisions of Part I. of this Act to existing constables (that is to say, to constables appointed to police forces before the commencement of this Act), the following provisions shall have effect : fund and constables.

- (1.) Where the Exchequer contribution to the police authority of a police force becomes payable before a pension fund is established for the force in pursuance of this Act, the payment of the contribution shall be deferred until the Secretary for Scotland has certified that the fund is so established :
- (2.) Every police authority shall, before the first day of January one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one, cause written notice to be given to every constable in the police force under that authority, requiring him to inform that authority in writing, before the date of the commencement of this Act, whether he does or does not accept the provisions of this Act in lieu of the existing enactments respecting superannuation and allowances or pensions :
- (3.) This Act shall not apply to any existing constable who, before the date of the commencement of this Act, whether any such notice has or has not been given to him, declines in writing to accept the provisions of this Act ; but save as aforesaid this Act shall apply to all existing constables ; and those constables shall be deemed to have surrendered in favour of the police authority all right to any provision made before the commencement of this Act, either wholly or partly, by the police authority for the superannuation of such constables, or, in case of their death, for their widows and children, or any of them whether that provision is made by an annual allowance, insurance, or otherwise :
- (4.) If by reason of the police authority not having given such notice as aforesaid an existing constable becomes entitled to a less pension than he would have been entitled to receive if this Act had not passed, he may apply to the sheriff, who may make such order as may seem just for the purpose of preventing the constable from suffering any loss by reason of the notice not having been given :
- (5.) In the case of any constable who retires on a pension within seven years after the commencement of this Act without the rateable deductions having been made from his pay during all the years counted to his credit for pension, such pension shall be diminished by the equivalent, so near as may be, of the rateable deductions during every year for which such deductions have not been made. Such equivalent shall be calculated according to tables to be approved and certified by the Secretary for Scotland :
- (6.) In the case of any existing constable to whom this Act applies, his approved service for any period before the commencement of this Act in the force in which he is serving at the time of his retirement shall be reckoned as approved service ; and his service for not less than three years either wholly or partly before the commencement of this Act in any police force in Great Britain from which he removed with the sanction of the chief officer or police authority of that force to another force, shall (notwithstanding the sanction was not given in writing) be reckoned as approved service for the said period in the last-mentioned force unless the police authority who give him the notice respecting the acceptance of this Act, inform him in writing at the time of such notice that they refuse to allow the said service to be reckoned, but their refusal shall not prevent the reckoning of that service under any other provision of this section :

- (8.) Any description of service before the commencement of this Act, either in a police force or otherwise, which any existing constable to whom this Act applies is at the commencement of this Act entitled to reckon as service for any period towards superannuation out of the existing pension or superannuation fund of his police force, and which is not reckoned under any other provision of this Act, shall be reckoned for the same period for the purposes of pension under this Act :
- (9.) The provisions of this Act as to an officer of police who has been appointed one of Her Majesty's inspectors of constabulary, with a salary paid out of money provided by Parliament, shall apply in the case of an officer so appointed before the commencement of this Act, in like manner as if he had been so appointed after the commencement of this Act.

Application of Act to Greenock Police Superannuation Fund.

28. Whereas the provost and magistrates of the burgh of Greenock are the trustees and administrators of a superannuation fund for the benefit of the police force within the said burgh, the following provisions shall, for the purpose of adapting the provisions of Part I. of this Act to the said fund, have effect :

- (1.) The provost and magistrates of the said burgh shall retain the management and control of the said fund for the purpose of paying, and shall pay, any pension or other allowance or gratuity to any constable, or his widow and children to whom such pension or other allowance or gratuity shall have been granted before the commencement of this Act.
- (2.) So soon as may be after the determination of all pensions or other allowances payable as aforesaid, the provost and magistrates of the said burgh shall transfer the said fund to the police authority of the said burgh under this Act as part of the pension fund established under this Act, and as part of the capital thereof : Provided always, that the provost and magistrates of the said burgh may from time to time, after the commencement of this Act, with the approval of the Secretary for Scotland, transfer to the said police authority such portion of the said fund as may be no longer required to meet the claims thereon.
- (3.) All payments or contributions by members of the police force of the said burgh towards the said superannuation fund shall forthwith, after the commencement of this Act, cease and determine.

Requisites of improvement scheme of local authority.

(4.) After receiving the report made upon such inquiry, the confirming authority may make a provisional order declaring the limits of the area comprised in the scheme and authorising such scheme to be carried into execution.

(5.) Such provisional order may be made either absolutely or with such conditions and modifications of the scheme as the confirming authority may think fit, so that no addition be made to the lands proposed in the scheme to be taken compulsorily, and it shall be the duty of the local authority to serve a copy of any provisional order so made in the manner and upon the persons in which and upon whom notices in respect of lands proposed to be taken compulsorily are required by this part of this Act to be served, except tenants for a month or a less period than a month.

(6.) A provisional order made in pursuance of this section shall not be of any validity unless and until it has been confirmed by Act of Parliament; and it shall be lawful for the confirming authority, as soon as conveniently may be, to obtain such confirmation, and any Act confirming any provisional order made in pursuance of this part of this Act, with such modifications as may seem fit to Parliament, shall be a public General Act of Parliament, and is in this part of this Act referred to as the confirming Act.

(7.) The confirming authority may make such order as they think fit in favour of any person whose lands were proposed by the scheme to be taken compulsorily for the allowance of the reasonable costs, charges, and expenses properly incurred by him in opposing such scheme.

(8.) All costs, charges, and expenses incurred by the confirming authority in relation to any provisional order under this part of this Act shall, to such amount as the confirming authority think proper to direct, and all costs, charges, and expenses of any person to such amount as may be allowed to him by the confirming authority in pursuance of the aforesaid power, shall be deemed to be an expense incurred by the local authority under this part of this Act, and shall be paid to the confirming authority and to such person respectively, in such manner and at such times and either in one sum or by instalments as the confirming authority may order, with power for the confirming authority to direct interest to be paid at such rate not exceeding five pounds in the hundred by the year as the confirming authority may determine, upon any sum for the time being due in respect of such costs, charges, and expenses as aforesaid.

9.—(1.) Where any Bill for confirming a provisional order authorising an improvement scheme is referred to a Committee of either House of Parliament upon the petition of any person opposing such Bill, the Committee shall take into consideration the circumstances under which such opposition is made to the Bill, and whether such opposition was or was not justified by such circumstances, and shall award costs accordingly to be paid by the promoters or the opponents of the Bill as the Committee may think just.

Costs to be awarded in certain cases.

(2.) Any costs under this section may be taxed and recovered in the manner in which costs may be taxed and recovered under the Act of the session of the twenty-eighth and twenty-ninth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, chapter twenty-seven.

10. Where an official representation is made to the local authority with a view to their passing a resolution in favour of an improvement scheme, and they fail to pass any resolution in relation to such representation, or pass a resolution to the effect that they will not proceed with such scheme, the local authority shall, as soon as possible, send a copy of the official representation, accompanied by their reasons for not acting upon it, to the confirming authority, and, upon the receipt thereof, the confirming authority may direct a local inquiry to be held, and a report to be made to them with respect to the correctness of the official representation made to the local authority, and any matters connected therewith on which the confirming authority may desire to be informed.

Inquiry on refusal of local authority to make an improvement scheme.

Provision of Dwelling Accommodation for Working Classes displaced by Scheme.

11.—(1.) Subject as herein-after mentioned, every scheme comprising an area in the county or city of London shall provide for the accommodation of at the least as many persons of the working class as may be displaced in the area comprised therein, in suitable dwellings, which, unless there are any special reasons to the contrary, shall be situate within the limits of the same area, or in the vicinity thereof.

Requisites of improvement scheme as to accommodation of working classes.

Provided that—

convenient accommodation can be provided for any persons of the working classes displaced by the scheme at some place other than within the area or the immediate vicinity of the area comprised in the scheme, and that the required accommodation has been or is about to be forthwith provided, either by the local authority or by any other person or body of persons, the confirming authority may authorise such scheme, and the requirements of this section with respect to providing accommodation for persons of the working class shall be deemed to have been complied with to the extent to which accommodation is so provided; and

- (b.) Where the local authority apply for a dispensation under this section, and the officer conducting the local inquiry directed by the confirming authority reports that it is expedient, having regard to the special circumstances of the locality and to the number of artisans and others belonging to the working class dwelling within the area, and being employed within a mile thereof, that a modification should be made, the confirming authority, without prejudice to any other powers conferred on it by this part of this Act, may in the Provisional Order authorising the scheme, dispense altogether with the obligation of the local authority to provide for the accommodation of the persons of the working class who may be displaced by the scheme to such extent as the confirming authority may think expedient, having regard to such special circumstances as aforesaid, but not exceeding one half of the persons so displaced.

(2.) Where a scheme comprises an area situate elsewhere than in the county or city of London, it shall, if the confirming authority so require (but it shall not otherwise be obligatory on the local authority so to frame their scheme), provide for the accommodation of such number of those persons of the working classes displaced in the area with respect to which the scheme is proposed in suitable dwellings to be erected in such place or places either within or without the limits of the same area as the said authority on a report made by the officer conducting the local inquiry may require.

Execution of Scheme by Local Authority.

Duty of local authority to carry scheme when confirmed, into execution.

12.—(1.) When the confirming Act authorising any improvement scheme of a local authority under this part of this Act has been passed by Parliament, it shall be the duty of that authority to take steps for purchasing the lands required for the scheme, and otherwise for carrying the scheme into execution as soon as practicable.

(2.) They may sell or let all or any part of the area comprised in the scheme to any purchasers or lessees for the purpose and under the condition that such purchasers or lessees will, as respects the land so purchased by or leased to them, carry the scheme into execution; and in particular they may insert in any grant or lease of any part of the area provisions binding the grantee or lessee to build thereon as in the grant or lease prescribed, and to maintain and repair the buildings, and prohibiting the division of buildings, and any addition to or alteration of the character of buildings without the consent of the local authority, and for the re-vesting of the land in the local authority, or their re-entry thereon, on breach of any provision in the grant or lease.

(3.) The local authority may also engage with any body of trustees, society, or person, to carry the whole or any part of such scheme into effect upon such terms as the local authority may think expedient, but the local authority shall not themselves, without the express approval of the confirming authority, undertake the rebuilding of the houses or the execution of any part of the scheme, except that they may take down any or all of the buildings upon the area, and clear the whole or any part thereof, and may lay out, form, pave, sewer, and complete all such streets upon the land purchased by them as they may think fit, and all streets so laid out and completed shall thenceforth be public streets, repairable by the same authority as other streets in the district.

(4.) Provided that in any grant or lease of any part of the area which may be appropriated by the scheme for the erection of dwellings for the working classes the local authority shall impose suitable conditions and restrictions as to the elevation, size, and design of the houses, and the extent of the accommodation to be afforded thereby, and shall make due provision for the maintenance of proper sanitary arrangements.

(5.) If the local authority erect any dwellings out of funds to be provided under this part of this Act, they shall, unless the confirming authority otherwise determine, sell and dispose of all such dwellings within ten years from the time of the completion thereof.

(6.) The local authority may, where they think it expedient so to do, without themselves acquiring the land, or after or subject to their acquiring any part thereof, contract with the person entitled to the first estate of freehold in any land comprised in an improvement scheme for the carrying of the scheme into effect by him in respect of such land.

13. If within five years after the removal of any buildings on the land set aside by any scheme authorised by a confirming Act as sites for working men's dwellings, the local authority have failed to sell or let such land for the purposes prescribed by the scheme, or have failed to make arrangements for the erection of the said dwellings, the confirming authority may order the said land to be sold by public auction or public tender, with full power to fix a reserve price, subject to the conditions imposed by the scheme, and to any modifications thereof which may be made in pursuance of this part of this Act, and to a special condition on the part of the purchaser to erect upon the said land dwellings for the working classes, in accordance with plans to be approved by the local authority, and subject to such other reservations and regulations as the confirming authority may deem necessary.

Notice to occupiers by placards.

14. The local authority shall, not less than thirteen weeks before taking any fifteen houses or more, make known their intention to take the same by placards, handbills, or other general notices placed in public view upon or within a reasonable distance of such houses, and the local authority shall not take any such houses until they have obtained a certificate of a justice of the peace that it has been proved to his satisfaction that the local authority have made known, in manner required by this section, their intention to take such houses.

Power of confirming authority to modify authorised scheme.

15.—(1.) The confirming authority, on application from the local authority, and on its being proved to their satisfaction that an improvement can be made in the details of any scheme authorised by a confirming Act, may permit the local authority to modify any part of their improvement scheme which it may appear inexpedient to carry into execution, but any part of the scheme respecting the provision of dwelling accommodation for persons of the working class, when so modified, shall be such as might have been inserted in the original scheme.

(2.) A statement of any modifications permitted to be made in any part of an improvement scheme in pursuance of this section shall be laid by the confirming authority before both Houses of Parliament as soon as practicable after the permission is given, if Parliament be then sitting, and if not, within one month after the next meeting of Parliament.

Provided always, that if such modification requires a larger public expenditure than that sanctioned by the former scheme, or the taking of any property otherwise than by agreement, or affects injuriously other property in a manner different to that proposed in the former scheme without the consent of the owner and occupier of any such property, the modification must be made by a provisional order to be confirmed by Act of Parliament in the manner provided by this part of this Act on the completion of an improvement scheme.

Inquiries with respect to Unhealthy Areas.

Inquiry on default of medical officer in certain cases.

16.—(1.) Where in any district twelve or more ratepayers have complained to a medical officer of health of the unhealthiness of any area within that district, and the medical officer of health has failed to inspect such area, or to make an official representation with respect thereto, or has made an official representation to the effect that in his opinion the area is not an unhealthy area, such ratepayers may appeal to the confirming authority, and upon their giving security to the satisfaction of that authority for costs, the confirming authority shall appoint a legally qualified medical practitioner to inspect such area, and to make representation to the confirming authority, stating the facts of the case, and whether, in his opinion, the area or any part thereof is or is not an unhealthy area. The representation so made shall be transmitted by the confirming authority to the local authority, and if it states that the area is an unhealthy area the local authority shall proceed therein in the same manner as if it were an official representation made to that authority.

(2.) The confirming authority shall make such order as to the costs of the inquiry as they think just, with power to require the whole or any part of such costs to be paid by the appellants where the medical practitioner appointed is of opinion that the area is not an unhealthy area, and to declare the whole or any part of such costs to be payable by the local authority where he is of opinion that the area or any part thereof is an unhealthy area.

(3.) Any order made by the confirming authority in pursuance of this section may be made a rule of a superior court, and be enforced accordingly.

17. Where a local inquiry is directed, an officer shall be sent by the confirming authority to the area to which such inquiry relates for the purpose of making an inquiry into the correctness of the official representation made to the local authority as to such area being an unhealthy area, and into the sufficiency of the scheme provided for its improvement, and into any local objections to be made to such scheme, and to any other matter into which he is directed by this Act or the confirming authority to inquire for the purposes of this Act. Proceedings on local inquiry.

18. Before commencing such inquiry the officer appointed to conduct the same shall make public by advertisement or otherwise in such manner as he thinks best calculated to give information to the persons residing in the area his intention to make such inquiry, and a statement of a time and place at which he will be prepared to hear all persons desirous of being heard before him upon the subject of the inquiry. Notice of inquiry to be publicly given.

19. The officer conducting such inquiry shall have power to administer an oath; he shall report the result of the inquiry to the confirming authority, who shall deal with such report in such manner as they think expedient. Power to administer oath.

(i.) This part of this Act shall authorise the taking by agreement of any lands which the local authority may require for the purpose of carrying into effect the scheme authorised by any confirming Act, but it shall authorise the taking by the exercise of any compulsory powers of such lands only as are proposed by the scheme in the confirming Act to be taken compulsorily :

- (ii.) In the construction of the Lands Clauses Acts, and the provisions in the Second Schedule to this Act, this part of this Act shall be deemed to be the special Act, and the local authority shall be deemed to be the promoters of the undertaking; and the period after which the powers for the compulsory purchase or taking of lands shall not be exercised shall be three years after the passing of the confirming Act.

Special provision as to compensation.

21.—(1.) Whenever the compensation payable in respect of any lands or of any interests in any lands proposed to be taken compulsorily in pursuance of this part of this Act requires to be assessed—

- (a) the estimate of the value of such lands or interests shall be based upon the fair market value, as estimated at the time of the valuation being made of such lands, and of the several interests in such lands, due regard being had to the nature and then condition of the property, and the probable duration of the buildings in their existing state, and to the state of repair thereof, without any additional allowance in respect of the compulsory purchase of an area or of any part of an area in respect of which an official representation has been made, or of any lands included in a scheme which, in the opinion of the arbitrator, have been so included as falling under the description of property which may be constituted an unhealthy area under this part of this Act; and
- (b) in such estimate any addition to or improvement of the property made after the date of the publication in pursuance of this part of this Act of an advertisement stating the fact of the improvement scheme having been made shall not (unless such addition or improvement was necessary for the maintenance of the property in a proper state of repair) be included, nor in the case of any interest acquired after the said date shall any separate estimate of the value thereof be made so as to increase the amount of compensation to be paid for the lands; and

(2.) On the occasion of assessing the compensation payable under any improvement scheme in respect of any house or premises situate within an unhealthy area evidence shall be receivable by the arbitrator to prove—

- (1st) that the rental of the house or premises was enhanced by reason of the same being used for illegal purposes or being so overcrowded as to be dangerous or injurious to the health of the inmates; or
- (2ndly) that the house or premises are in such a condition as to be a nuisance within the meaning of the Acts relating to nuisances, or are in a state of defective sanitation, or are not in reasonably good repair; or

(3rdly) that the house or premises are unfit, and not reasonably capable of being made fit, for human habitation; and, if the arbitrator is satisfied by such evidence, then the compensation—

- (a) shall in the first case so far as it is based on rental be based on the rental which would have been obtainable if the house or premises were occupied for legal purposes and only by the number of persons whom the house or premises were under all the circumstances of the case fitted to accommodate without such overcrowding as is dangerous or injurious to the health of the inmates; and
- (b) shall in the second case be the amount estimated as the value of the house or premises if the nuisance had been abated, or if they had been put into a sanitary condition, or into reasonably good repair, after deducting the estimated expense of abating the nuisance, or putting them into such condition or repair, as the case may be; and
- (c) shall in the third case be the value of the land, and of the materials of the buildings thereon.

22. Upon the purchase by the local authority of any lands required for the purpose of carrying into effect any scheme, all rights of way, rights of laying down or of continuing any pipes, sewers, or drains on, through, or under such lands, or part thereof, and all other rights or easements in or relating to such lands, or any part thereof, shall be extinguished, and all the soil of such ways, and the property in the pipes, sewers, or drains, shall vest in the local authority, subject to this provision, that compensation shall be paid by the local authority to any persons or bodies of persons proved to have sustained loss by this section, and such compensation shall be determined in the manner in which compensation for lands is determinable under this part of this Act, or as near thereto as circumstances admit.

Extinction of rights of way and other easements.

23. A local authority may, for the purpose of providing accommodation for persons of the working classes displaced by any improvement scheme, appropriate any lands for the time being belonging to them which are suitable for the purpose, or may purchase by agreement any such further lands as may be convenient.

Application of lands for accommodation of working classes.

Expenses.

24.—(1.) The receipts of a local authority under this part of this Act shall form a fund (in this Act referred to as “the Dwelling-house Improvement Fund”), and their expenditure shall be defrayed out of such fund.

Formation of improvement fund for purposes of Act.

(2.) The moneys required in the first instance to establish such fund, and any deficiency for the purposes of this part of this Act from time to time appearing in such fund by reason of the excess of expenditure over receipts, shall be supplied out of the local rates or out of moneys borrowed in pursuance of this Act.

(3.) In settling any accounts of the local authority in respect of any transactions under this part of this Act, care shall be taken that as far as may be practicable all expenditure shall ultimately be defrayed out of the property dealt with under this part of this Act; and any balances of profit made by the local authority under this part of this Act shall be applicable to any purposes to which the local rate is for the time being applicable.

(4.) Any limit imposed on or in respect of local rates by any other Act of Parliament shall not apply to any rate required to be levied for the purpose of defraying any expenses under this part of this Act.

(5.) The local authority may carry to the account of the Dwelling-house Improvement Fund any such money or produce of any property, as is legally applicable to purposes similar to the purposes of this part of this Act; and in case of doubt as to whether, in any particular case, the purposes are so similar the confirming authority may decide such doubt, and such decision shall be conclusive.

Power of borrowing money for the purposes of Part I. of Act.

25.—(1.) A local authority may, in manner in this section mentioned, borrow such money as is required for the purposes of this part of this Act on the security of the local rate.

(2.) For the purpose of such borrowing, the London County Council may, with the assent of the Treasury, create consolidated stock under the Metropolitan Board of Works Loans Acts, 1869 to 1871, but all moneys required for the payment of the dividends on and the redemption of the consolidated stock created for the purposes of this part of this Act shall be charged to the special county account to which the expenditure for the purposes of this part of this Act is chargeable.

(3.) For the purpose of such borrowing, the Commissioners of Sewers for the City of London may borrow and take up at interest such money on the credit of the local rates, or any of them, as they may require for the purposes of this part of this Act, and may mortgage any such rate or rates to the persons by or on behalf of whom such money is advanced for securing the repayment to them of the sums borrowed, with interest thereon, and for the purposes of any mortgages so made by the Commissioners of Sewers, the clauses of the Commissioners Clauses Act, 1847, with respect to the mortgages to be executed by the Commissioners shall be incorporated with this part of this Act; and in the construction of that Act "the special Act" shall mean this part of this Act; "the commissioners" shall mean the Commissioners of Sewers; "the clerk of the commissioners" shall include any officer appointed for the purpose by the Commissioners of Sewers for this part of this Act; and the mortgagees or assignees of any mortgage made as last aforesaid may enforce payment of the arrears of principal and interest due to them by the appointment of a receiver.

(4.) For the purpose of such borrowing, the urban sanitary authority shall have the same power of borrowing as they have under the Public Health Acts for the purpose of defraying any expenses incurred by them in the execution of those Acts.

(5.) The Public Works Loan Commissioners, may, on the recommendation of the confirming authority, lend to any local authority any money required by them for purposes of this part of this Act, on the security of the local rate. Provision in case of absence of medical officer of health.

27. Power of confirming authority as to advertisements and notices.

28. The confirming authority may, on the consideration of any petition of a local authority for an order confirming a scheme, dispense with the publication of any advertisement, or the service of any notice, proof of which publication or service is not given to them as required by this part of this Act, where reasonable cause is shown to their satisfaction why such publication or service should be dispensed with, and such dispensation may be made by the confirming authority, either unconditionally or upon such condition as to the publication of other advertisements and the service of other notices or otherwise as the confirming authority may think fit, due care being taken by the confirming authority to prevent the interest of any person being prejudiced by the fact of the publication of any advertisement or the service of any notice being dispensed with in pursuance of this section. The expression “closing order” means an order prohibiting the use of premises for human habitation made under the enactments set out in the Third Schedule in this Act.

Buildings unfit for Human Habitation.

Representation by medical officer of health.

30. It shall be the duty of the medical officer of health of every district to represent to the local authority of that district any dwelling-house which appears to him to be in a state so dangerous or injurious to health as to be unfit for human habitation. §

Representation on householders' complaint.

31.—(1.) If in any district any four or more householders living in or near to any street complain in writing to the medical officer of health of that district that any dwelling-house in or near that street is in a condition so dangerous or injurious to health as to be unfit for human habitation, he shall forthwith inspect the same, and transmit to the local authority the said complaint, together with his opinion thereon, and if he is of opinion that the dwelling-house is in the condition aforesaid, shall represent the same to the local authority, but the absence of any such complaint shall not excuse him from inspecting any dwelling-house and making a representation thereon to the local authority.

(2.) If within three months after receiving the said complaint and opinion or representation of the medical officer, the local authority, not being in the administrative county of London, or not being a rural sanitary authority in any other county, declines or neglects to take any proceedings to put this part of this Act in force, the householders who signed such complaint may petition the Local Government Board for an inquiry, and the said Board after causing an inquiry to be held may order the local authority to proceed under this part of this Act, and such order shall be binding on the local authority.

Closing Order and Demolition.

Duty of local authority as to closing of dwelling-house unfit for human habitation.

32.—(1.) It shall be the duty of every local authority to cause to be made from time to time inspection of their district, with a view to ascertain whether any dwelling-house therein is in a state so dangerous or injurious to health as to be unfit for human habitation, and, if on the representation of the medical officer, or of any officer of such authority, or information given, any dwelling-house appears to them to be in such state, to forthwith take proceedings against the owner or occupier for closing the dwelling-house under the enactments set out in the Third Schedule to this Act.

(2.) Any such proceedings may be taken for the express purpose of causing the dwelling-house to be closed whether the same be occupied or not, and upon such proceedings the court of summary jurisdiction may impose a penalty not exceeding twenty pounds, and make a closing order, and the forms for the purposes of this section may be those in the Fourth Schedule to this Act, or to the like effect, and the enactments respecting an appeal from a closing order shall apply to the imposition of such penalty as well as to a closing order.

(8.) Where a closing order has been made as respects any dwelling-house, the local authority shall serve notice of the order on every occupying tenant of the dwelling-house, and within such period as is specified in the notice, not being less than seven days after the service of the notice, the order shall be obeyed by him, and he and his family shall cease to inhabit the dwelling-house, and in default he shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding twenty shillings a day during his disobedience to the order. Provided that the local authority may make to every such tenant such reasonable allowance on account of his expenses in removing, as may have been authorised by the court making the closing order, which authority the court is hereby authorised to give, and the amount of the said allowance shall be a civil debt due from the owner of the dwelling-house to the local authority, and shall be recoverable summarily.

33.—(1.) Where a closing order has been made in respect of any dwelling-house, and not been determined by a subsequent order, then the local authority, if of opinion that the dwelling-house has not been rendered fit for human habitation, and that the necessary steps are not being taken with all due diligence to render it so fit, and that the continuance of any building being or being part of the dwelling-house is dangerous or injurious to the health of the public or of the inhabitants of the neighbouring dwelling-houses, shall pass a resolution that it is expedient to order the demolition of the building.

demolition house unfit for habitation.

(2.) The local authority shall cause notice of such resolution to be served on the owner of the dwelling-house, and such notice shall specify the time and place appointed by the local authority for the further consideration of the resolution, not being less than one month after the service of the notice, and any owner of the dwelling-house shall be at liberty to attend and state his objections to the demolition.

(3.) If upon the consideration of the resolution and the objections the local authority decide that it is expedient so to do, then, unless an owner undertakes to execute forthwith the works necessary to render the dwelling-house fit for human habitation, the local authority shall order the demolition of the building.

(4.) If an owner undertakes as aforesaid to execute the said works, the local authority may order the execution of the works, within such reasonable time as is specified in the order, and if the works are not completed within that time or any extended time allowed by the local authority or a court of summary jurisdiction, the local authority shall order the demolition of the building.

demolition, and provision as

34.—(1.) Where an order for the demolition of a building has been made, the owner thereof shall within three months after service of the order proceed to take down and remove the building, and if the owner fails therein the local authority shall proceed to take down and remove the building and shall sell the materials, and after deducting the expenses incident to such taking down and removal, pay over the balance of money (if any) to the owner.

(2.) Where a building has been so taken down and removed, no house or other building or erection which will be dangerous or injurious to health shall be erected on all or any part of the site of such building; and if any house, building, or erection is erected contrary to the provisions of this section, the local authority may at any time order the owner thereof to abate the same, and in the event of non-compliance with the order, may at the expense of the owner abate or alter the same.

Appeal against
authority.

35.—(1.) Any person aggrieved by an order of the local authority under this part of this Act, may appeal against the same to a court of quarter sessions, and no work shall be done nor proceedings taken under any order until after the appeal is determined or ceases to be prosecuted; and section thirty-one of the Summary Jurisdiction Act, 1879, respecting appeals from courts of summary jurisdiction to courts of quarter sessions shall apply with the necessary modifications as if the order of the local authority were an order of a court of summary jurisdiction.

42 & 43 Vict.
c. 49.

(2.) Provided that—

(a.) Notice of appeal may be given within one month after notice of the order of the local authority has been served on such person;

(b.) The court shall, at the request of either party, state the facts specially for the determination of a superior court, in which case the proceedings may be removed into that court.

Grant of
of annuity to owner on completion of works.

36.—(1.) Where any owner has completed in respect of any dwelling-house any works required to be executed by an order of a local authority under this part of this Act, he may apply to the local authority for a charging order, and shall produce to the local authority the certificate of their surveyor or engineer that the works have been executed to his satisfaction, and also the accounts of and vouchers for the costs, charges, and expenses of the works, and the local authority, when satisfied that the owner has duly executed such works and of the amount of such costs, charges, and expenses, and of the costs of obtaining the charging order which have been properly incurred, shall make an order accordingly, charging on the dwelling-house an annuity to repay the amount.

(2.) The annuity charged shall be a sum of six pounds for every one hundred pounds of the said amount and so in proportion for any less sum, and shall commence from the date of the order, and be payable for a term of thirty years to the owner named in such order, his executors, administrators, or assigns.

(3.) Every such annuity may be recovered by the person for the time being entitled to it by the same means and in the like manner in all respects as if it were a rentcharge granted by deed out of the dwelling-house by the owner thereof.

(4.) Charging orders made under this section shall be made according to the Form marked A. in the Fifth Schedule to this Act, or as near thereto as the circumstances of the case will admit.

37.—(1.) Every charge created by a charging order under this part of this Act shall be a charge on the dwelling-house specified in the order, having priority over all existing and future estates, interests, and incumbrances, with the exception of quitrents and other charges incident to tenure, tithe commutation rentcharge, and any charge created under any Act authorising advances of public money; and where more charges than one are charged under this part of this Act on any dwelling-house such charges shall, as between themselves, take order according to their respective dates.

Incidence of charge

(2.) A charging order shall be conclusive evidence that all notices, acts, and proceedings by this part of this Act directed with reference to or consequent on the obtaining of such order, or the making of such charge, have been duly served, done, and taken, and that such charge has been duly created, and that it is a valid charge on the dwelling-house declared to be subject thereto.

(3.) Every such charging order, if it relates to a dwelling-house in the area to which the enactments relating to the registration of land in Middlesex apply or to a dwelling-house in Yorkshire, shall be registered in like manner as if the charge were made by deed by the absolute owner of the dwelling-house.

(4.) Copies of the charging order and of the certificate of the surveyor or engineer, and of the accounts as passed by the local authority, certified to be true copies by the clerk of the local authority, shall within six months after the date of the order be deposited with the clerk of the peace of the county in which the dwelling-house is situate, and be by him filed and recorded.

(5.) The benefit of any such charge may be from time to time transferred in like manner as a mortgage or rentcharge may be transferred. Any transfer may be in the Form marked B. in the Fifth Schedule to this Act, or in any other convenient form.

Obstructive Buildings.

38.—(1.) If a medical officer of health finds that any building within his district, although not in itself unfit for human habitation, is so situate that by reason of its proximity to or contact with any other buildings it causes one of the following effects, that is to say,—

Power to local authority to purchase houses for opening alleys, &c.

(a.) It stops ventilation, or otherwise makes or conduces to make such other buildings to be in a condition unfit for human habitation or dangerous or injurious to health; or

(b.) It prevents proper measures from being carried into effect for remedying any nuisance injurious to health or other evils complained of in respect of such other buildings; in any such case, the medical officer of health shall represent to the local authority the particulars relating to such first-mentioned building (in this Act referred to as "an obstructive building") stating that in his opinion it is expedient that the obstructive building should be pulled down.

(2.) Any four or more inhabitant householders of a district may make to the local authority of the district a representation as respects any building to the like effect as that of the medical officer under this section.

(3.) The local authority on receiving any such representation as above in this section mentioned shall cause a report to be made to them respecting the circumstances of the building and the cost of pulling down the building and acquiring the land, and on receiving such report shall take into consideration the representation and report, and if they decide to proceed, shall cause a copy of both the representation and report to be given to the owner of the lands on which the obstructive building stands, with notice of the time and place appointed by the local authority for the consideration thereof; and such owner shall be at liberty to attend and state his objections, and after hearing such objections the local authority shall make an order either allowing the objection or directing that such obstructive building shall be pulled down, and such order shall be subject to appeal in like manner as an order of demolition of the local authority under the foregoing provisions of this part of this Act.

(4.) Where an order of the local authority for pulling down an obstructive building is made under this section and either no appeal is made against the order, or an appeal is made and either fails or is abandoned, the local authority shall be authorised to purchase the lands on which the obstructive building is erected in like manner as if they had been authorised by a special Act to purchase the same; and for the purpose of such purchase the provisions of the Lands Clauses Acts, with respect to the purchase and taking of lands otherwise than by agreement shall be deemed to be incorporated in this part of this Act (subject nevertheless to the provisions of this part of this Act), and for the purpose of the provisions of the Lands Clauses Acts this part of this Act shall be deemed to be the special Act, and the local authority to be the promoters of the undertaking, and such lands may be purchased at any time within one year after the date of the order, or if it was appealed against after the date of the confirmation.

(5.) The owner of the lands may within one month after notice to purchase the same is served upon him declare that he desires to retain the site of the obstructive building and undertake either to pull down or to permit the local authority to pull down the obstructive building, and in such case the owner shall retain the site and shall receive compensation from the local authority for the pulling down of the obstructive building.

(6.) The amount of such compensation, and also the amount of any compensation to be paid on the purchase of any lands under this section, shall in case of difference be settled by arbitration in manner provided in this part of this Act.

(7.) Where the local authority is empowered to purchase land compulsorily, it shall not be competent for the owner of a house or manufactory to insist on his entire holding being taken, where part only is proposed to be taken as obstructive, and where such part proposed to be taken can, in the opinion of the arbitrator to whom the question of disputed compensation is submitted, be severed from the remainder of the house or manufactory without material detriment thereto, provided that compensation may be awarded in respect of the severance of the part so proposed to be taken in addition to the value of that part.

(8.) Where in the opinion of the arbitrator the demolition of an obstructive building adds to the value of such other buildings as are in that behalf mentioned in this section, the arbitrator shall apportion so much of the compensation to be paid for the demolition of the obstructive building as may be equal to the increase in value of the other buildings amongst such other buildings respectively, and the amount apportioned to each such other building in respect of its increase in value by reason of the demolition of such obstructive building shall be deemed to be private improvement expenses incurred by the local authority in respect of such building, and such local authority may, for the purpose of defraying such expenses, make and levy improvement rates on the occupier of such premises accordingly; and the provisions of the Public Health Acts relating to private improvement expenses and to private improvement rates, shall so far as circumstances admit, apply accordingly in the same manner as if such provisions were incorporated in this Act.

(9.) If any dispute arises between the owner or occupier of any building (to which any amount may be apportioned in respect of private improvement expenses) and the arbitrator by whom such apportionment is made, such dispute shall be settled by two justices in manner provided by the Lands Clauses Acts, in cases where the compensation claimed in respect of lands does not exceed fifty pounds.

(10.) Where the owner retains the site or any part thereof, no house or other building or erection which will be dangerous or injurious to health, or which will be an obstructive building within the meaning of this section, shall be erected upon such site or any part thereof; and if any house, building, or erection is erected on the site contrary to the provisions of this section the local authority may at any time order the owner to abate or alter the said house, building, or erection; and in the event of non-compliance with such order may, at the expense of the owner thereof, abate or alter the same.

(11.) Where the lands are purchased by the local authority the local authority shall pull down the obstructive building, or such part thereof as may be obstructive within the meaning of this section, and keep as an open space the whole site, or such part thereof as may be required to be kept open for the purpose of remedying the nuisance or other evils caused by such obstructive building, and may, with the assent of the Local Government Board, and upon such terms as that Board think expedient, sell such portion of the site as is not required for the purpose of carrying this section into effect.

(12.) A local authority may, where they so think fit, dedicate any land acquired by them under the authority of this section as a highway or other public place.

Scheme for Reconstruction.

Scheme for area comprising houses closed by closing order.

39.—(1.) In any of the following cases, that is to say—

(a) where an order for the demolition of a building has been made in pursuance of this part of this Act, and it appears to the local authority that it would be beneficial to the health of the inhabitants of the neighbouring dwelling-houses if the area of the dwelling-house of which such building forms part were used for all or any of the following purposes, that is to say, either—

(i) dedicated as a highway or open space, or

(ii) appropriated, sold, or let for the erection of dwellings for the working classes, or

(iii) exchanged with other neighbouring land which is more suitable for the erection of such dwellings, and on exchange will be appropriated, sold, or let for such erection ;
or

(b) where it appears to the local authority that the closeness, narrowness, and bad arrangement or bad condition of any buildings, or the want of light, air, ventilation, or proper conveniences, or any other sanitary defect in any buildings is dangerous or prejudicial to the health of the inhabitants either of the said buildings or of the neighbouring buildings, and that the demolition or the reconstruction and re-arrangement of the said buildings or of some of them is necessary to remedy the said evils, and that the area comprising these buildings and the yards, outhouses, and appurtenances thereof, and the site thereof, is too small to be dealt with as an unhealthy area under Part I. of this Act, the local authority shall pass a resolution to the above effect and direct a scheme to be prepared for the improvement of the said area.

(2.) Notice of the scheme may at any time after the preparation thereof be served in manner provided in Part I. of this Act with respect to notices of lands proposed to be taken compulsorily under a scheme made in pursuance of that part of this Act, on every owner or reputed owner, lessee or reputed lessee, and occupier of any part of the area comprised in the scheme, so far as those persons can reasonably be ascertained.

(3.) The local authority shall, after service of such notice, petition the Local Government Board for an order sanctioning the scheme, and the Board may cause a local inquiry to be held, and, if satisfied on the report of such local inquiry that the carrying into effect of the scheme either absolutely, or subject to conditions or modifications would be beneficial to the health of the inhabitants of the said buildings or of the neighbouring dwelling-houses, may by order sanction the scheme with or without such conditions or modifications.

(4.) Upon such order being made, the local authority may purchase by agreement the area comprised in the scheme as so sanctioned, and if they agree for the purchase of the whole area, the order, save so far as it provides for the taking of land otherwise than by agreement, shall take effect without confirmation. If they do not so agree, the order shall be published by the local authority by inserting a notice thereof in the London Gazette, and by serving notice thereof on the owners of every part of the area.

(5.) Any owner may, within two months after such publication, petition the Local Government Board against the order, and if such petition is presented and is not withdrawn, the order shall be provisional unless it is confirmed by Act of Parliament.

(6.) If the Local Government Board are satisfied that the order has been duly published, and that two months after such publication have expired, and that either a petition has not been presented, or if presented has been withdrawn, they shall confirm the order, and thereupon such order shall come into operation, and have effect as if it were enacted by this Act.

(7.) The order may incorporate the provisions of the Lands Clauses Acts, and for the purpose of those provisions this Act shall be deemed to be the special Act, and the local authority to be the promoters of the undertaking, and the area shall be acquired within three years after the date of the confirmation of the order: Provided that the amount of compensation shall, in case of difference, be settled by arbitration in manner provided by this part of this Act.

(8.) The provisions of Part I. of this Act relating to costs to be awarded in certain cases by a committee of either House of Parliament, to the duty of a local authority to carry a scheme when confirmed into execution, to the completion of a scheme on failure by a local authority, and to the extinction of rights of way and other easements, shall, with the necessary modifications, apply for the purpose of any scheme under this section in like manner as if it were a scheme under Part I. of this Act.

(9.) The Local Government Board, on being satisfied by the local authority that an improvement can be made in the details of any scheme under this section, may by order permit the local authority to modify any part of the scheme which it may appear inexpedient to carry into execution: Provided that—

(a) if the order sanctioning the scheme was confirmed by Parliament, a statement of such modification shall be laid by the Local Government Board before both Houses of Parliament as soon as practicable; and

(b) in any case, if the modification requires a larger expenditure than that sanctioned by the original scheme, or authorises the taking of any property otherwise than by agreement, or injuriously affects any property in a manner different from that proposed in the original scheme, without the consent of the owner or occupier of such property, notice of the order authorising the modification shall be published, and the order may be petitioned against and shall be subject to confirmation in like manner as if it were an order sanctioning an original scheme under this section.

Provisions for accommodation of persons of the working classes.

40. The Local Government Board shall in any order sanctioning a scheme under this part of this Act require the insertion in the scheme of such provisions (if any) for the dwelling accommodation of persons of the working classes displaced by the scheme as seem to the Board required by the circumstances.

Settlement of Compensation.

Provisions as to arbitration.

41. In all cases in which the amount of any compensation is, in pursuance of this part of this Act, to be settled by arbitration, the following provisions shall have effect; (namely,)

- (1.) The amount of compensation shall be settled by an arbitrator to be appointed and removable by the Local Government Board.
- (2.) In settling the amount of any compensation—
 - (a.) The estimate of the value of the dwelling-house shall be based on the fair market value as estimated at the time of the valuation being made of such dwelling-house, and of the several interests in such dwelling-house, due regard being had to the nature and then condition of the property and the probable duration of the buildings in their existing state, and to the state of repair thereof, and without any additional allowance in respect of compulsory purchase; and
 - (b.) The arbitrator shall have regard to and make an allowance in respect of any increased value which, in his opinion, will be given to other dwelling-houses of the same owner by the alteration or demolition by the local authority of any buildings.
- (3.) Evidence shall be receivable by the arbitrator to prove—
 - (1st) that the rental of the dwelling-house was enhanced by reason of the same being used for illegal purposes or being so overcrowded as to be dangerous or injurious to the health of the inmates; or
 - (2ndly) that the dwelling-house is in a state of defective sanitation, or is not in reasonably good repair; or
 - (3rdly) that the dwelling-house is unfit, and not reasonably capable of being made fit, for human habitation; and, if the arbitrator is satisfied by such evidence, then the compensation—
 - (a) shall in the first case so far as it is based on rental be based on the rental which would have been obtainable if the dwelling-house was occupied for legal purposes and only by the number of persons whom the dwelling-house was under all the circumstances of the case fitted to accommodate without such overcrowding as is dangerous or injurious to the health of the inmates ; and

- (b) shall in the second case be the amount estimated as the value of the dwelling-house if it had been put into a sanitary condition, or into reasonably good repair, after deducting the estimated expense of putting it into such condition or repair ; and
- (c) shall in the third case be the value of the land, and of the materials of the buildings thereon.
- (4.) On payment or tender to the person entitled to receive the same of the amount of compensation agreed or awarded to be paid in respect of the dwelling-house, or on payment thereof in manner prescribed by the Lands Clauses Acts, the owner shall, when required by the local authority, convey his interest in such dwelling-house to them, or as they may direct ; and in default thereof, or if the owner fails to adduce a good title to such dwelling-house to the satisfaction of the local authority, it shall be lawful for the local authority, if they think fit, to execute a deed poll in such manner and with such consequences as are mentioned in the Lands Clauses Acts.
- (5.) Sections thirty-two, thirty-three, thirty-five, thirty-six, and thirty-seven of the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, shall apply, with any necessary modifications, to an arbitration and to an arbitrator appointed under this part of this Act. ^{8 & 9 Vict. c. 18.}
- (6.) The arbitrator may, by one award, settle the amount or amounts of compensation payable in respect of all or any of the dwelling-houses included in one or more order or orders made by the local authority ; but he may, and, if the local authority request him so to do shall, from time to time make an award respecting a portion only of the disputed cases brought before him.
- (7.) In the event of the death, removal, resignation, or incapacity, refusal, or neglect to act of any arbitrator before he shall have made his award, the Local Government Board may appoint another arbitrator, to whom all documents relating to the matter of the arbitration which were in the possession of the former arbitrator shall be delivered.
- (8.) The arbitrator may, where he thinks fit, on the request of any party by whom any claim has been made before him, certify the amount of the costs properly incurred by such party in relation to the arbitration, and the amount of the costs so certified shall be paid by the local authority.
- (9.) The arbitrator shall not give such certificate where the arbitrator has awarded the same or a less sum than has been offered by the local authority in respect of such claim before the appointment of the arbitrator, and need not give such certificate to any party where he considers that such party neglected, after due notice from the local authority, to deliver to that authority a statement in writing within such time, and containing such particulars respecting the compensation claimed, as would have enabled the local authority to make a proper offer of compensation to such party before the appointment of the arbitrator.

- (10.) If within seven days after demand the amount so certified be not paid to the party entitled to receive the same, such amount shall be recoverable as a debt from the local authority with interest at the rate of five per cent. per annum for any time during which the same remains unpaid after such seven days as aforesaid.
- (11.) The award of the arbitrator shall be final and binding on all parties.

Expenses and Borrowing.

Expenses of local authority. 42.—(1.) All expenses incurred by a local authority in the execution of this part of this Act shall be defrayed by them out of the local rate; and that authority, notwithstanding any limit contained in any Act of Parliament respecting a local rate, may levy such local rate, or any increase thereof, for the purposes of this part of this Act.

(2.) Any expenses incurred by a rural sanitary authority under this part of this Act, other than the expenses incurred in and incidental to proceedings for obtaining a closing order, shall be charged as special expenses on the contributory place in respect of which they are incurred.

Provision as to borrowing. 43.—(1.) A local authority may borrow for the purpose of raising sums required for purchase money or compensation payable under this part of this Act in like manner, and subject to the like conditions, as for the purpose of defraying the expenses of the execution by such authority of the Public Health Acts.

(2.) The Public Works Loan Commissioners may, if they think fit, lend to any local authority the sums borrowed in pursuance of this part of this Act.

Annual account to be presented by the local authority. 44. Every local authority shall every year present to the Local Government Board, in such form as they may direct, an account of what has been done, and of all moneys received and paid by them during the previous year, with a view to carrying into effect the purposes of this part of this Act.

Powers of County Councils.

Powers of county councils. 45.—(1.) Where the medical officer of health or any inhabitant householders make a representation or complaint, or give information to any vestry or district board in the administrative county of London or to the local board of Woolwich, or to any rural sanitary authority elsewhere (which vestry, board, or authority is in this Act referred to as the district authority) or to the medical officer of such authority either respecting any dwelling-house being in a state so dangerous or injurious to health as to be unfit for human habitation, or respecting an obstructive building, and also where a closing order has been made as respects any dwelling-house, the district authority shall forthwith forward to the county council of the county in which the dwelling-house or building is situate, a copy of such representation, complaint, information, or closing order, and shall from time to time report to the council such particulars as the council require respecting any proceedings taken by the authority with reference to such representation, complaint, information, or dwelling-house.

(2.) Where the county council—

(a) are of opinion that proceedings for a closing order as respects any dwelling-house ought to be instituted, or that an order ought to be made for the demolition of any buildings forming or forming part of any dwelling-house as to which a closing order has been made, or that an order ought to be made for pulling down an obstructive building specified in any representation under this part of this Act; and

(b) after reasonable notice, not being less than one month, of such opinion has been given in writing to the district authority, consider that such authority have failed to institute or properly prosecute proceedings, or to make the order for demolition, or to take steps for pulling down an obstructive building;

the council may pass a resolution to that effect, and thereupon the powers of the district authority as respects the said dwelling-house and building under this part of this Act (otherwise than in respect of a scheme), shall be vested in the county council, and if a closing order or an order for demolition or for pulling down an obstructive building is made, and not disallowed on appeal, the expenses of the council incurred as respects the said dwelling-house and building, including any compensation paid, shall be a simple contract debt to the council from the district authority.

(3.) Any debt to the council under this section shall be defrayed by the district authority as part of their expenses in the execution of this part of this Act.

(4.) The county council and any of their officers shall, for the purposes of this section, have the same right of admission to any premises as any district authority or their officers have for the purpose of the execution of their duties under the enactments relating to public health, and a justice may make the like order for enforcing such admission.

Special Provisions as to London.

46. This part of this Act shall apply to the administrative county of London with the following modifications:—

Application of part of Act to London.

(1.) The provisions of the Public Health Acts relating to private improvement expenses and to private improvement rates shall, for the purpose of this part of this Act, extend to the county and to the city of London, and in the construction of the said provisions, as respects the county of London, any local autho-riety in that county, and as respects the city of London the Commissioners of Sewers, shall be deemed to be the urban authority.

- (2.) The raising of sums required for purchase money or compensation payable under this part of this Act shall be a purpose for which the London County Council or the Commissioners of Sewers of the city of London, may borrow under Part One of this Act, and a purpose for which a vestry or district board may borrow under the Metropolis Management Act, 1855, and the provisions of Part One of this Act with respect to borrowing, and sections one hundred and eighty-three to one hundred and ninety-one of the Metropolis Management Act, 1855, shall apply and have effect accordingly.
- (3.) The London County Council may, if they think fit, lend to a local authority in the administrative county of London the sums borrowed in pursuance of this part of this Act.
- (4.) - (5.) Where it appears to the county council, whether in the exercise of the powers of a vestry or district board or on the representation of a vestry or district board or otherwise, that a scheme under this part of this Act ought to be made, the council may take proceedings for preparing and obtaining the confirmation of a scheme, and the provisions of this Act respecting the scheme shall apply in like manner as if they were the vestry or district board, and all expenses of and incidental to the scheme and carrying the same into effect shall, save as herein-after mentioned, be borne by the county fund.
- (6.) Where the council consider that such expenses, or a contribution in respect of them, ought to be paid or made by a vestry or district board, they may apply to a Secretary of State, and the Secretary of State, if satisfied that, having regard to the size of the area, to the number, position, structure, sanitary condition, and neighbourhood of the buildings to be dealt with, the vestry or district board ought to pay, or make a contribution in respect of, the said expenses, the Secretary of State may order such payment or contribution to be made, and the amount thereof shall be a simple contract debt from the vestry or district board to the council.
- (7.) The county council may, if they think fit, pay or contribute to the payment of the expenses of carrying into effect a scheme under this part of this Act by a vestry or district board, and if a vestry or district board consider that the expenses of carrying into effect any scheme under this part of this Act, or a contribution in respect of those expenses, ought to be paid or made by the county council, and the county council decline or fail to agree to pay or make the same, the vestry or district (23.) If from any reason whatever the local authority does not deliver the certificate aforesaid to any party claiming to be entitled to any interest in any lands the possession whereof has been taken by the local authority as aforesaid, then the right to have a certificate according to the provisions of this Act may, at the cost and charge of the local authority, be enforced by any party or parties, by application to the High Court, in a summary way by petition, and all other rights and interests of any party or parties arising under the provisions of this Act may be in like manner enforced against the local authority by such application as aforesaid.

(25.) The money so deposited as last aforesaid shall be paid into the Bank of England to such account as may from time to time be directed by any regulation or Act for the time being in force in relation to moneys deposited in the bank in similar cases, or to such account as may be directed by any order of the High Court, and remain in the bank by way of security to the parties interested in the lands which have been so entered upon for the payment of the money to become payable by the local authority in respect thereof under the award of the arbitrator; and the money so deposited may, on the application by petition of the local authority, be ordered to be invested in Bank Annuities or Government securities, and accumulated: and upon such payment as aforesaid by the local authority it shall be lawful for the High Court, upon a like application, to order the money so deposited, or the funds in which the same shall have been invested, together with the accumulation thereof, to be repaid or transferred to the local authority, or, in default of such payment as aforesaid by the local authority, it shall be lawful for the said court to order the same to be applied in such manner as it thinks fit for the benefit of the parties for whose security the same shall so have been deposited.

2.—(1.) The notes taken of a debtor's public examination in pursuance of section seventeen of the principal Act shall be read over either to or by the debtor. Public examination of debtor.

(2.) Where the debtor is a lunatic or suffers from any such mental or physical affliction or disability as in the opinion of the court makes him unfit to attend his public examination, the court may make an order dispensing with such examination, or directing that the debtor be examined on such terms, in such manner, and at such place as to the court seems expedient.

3.—(1.) Where a debtor intends to make a proposal for a composition in satisfaction of his debts, or a proposal for a scheme of arrangement of his affairs, he shall, within four days of submitting his statement of affairs, or within such time thereafter as the official receiver may fix, lodge with the official receiver a proposal in writing, signed by him, embodying the terms of the composition or scheme which he is desirous of submitting for the consideration of his creditors, and setting out particulars of any sureties or securities proposed. Compositions and schemes of arrangement.

(2.) In such case the official receiver shall hold a meeting of creditors, before the public examination of the debtor is concluded, and send to each creditor, before the meeting, a copy of the debtor's proposal with a report thereon; and if at that meeting a majority in number and three fourths in value of all the creditors who have proved resolve to accept the proposal, the same shall be deemed to be duly accepted by the creditors, and when approved by the court shall be binding on all the creditors.

(3.) The debtor may at the meeting amend the terms of his proposal, if the amendment is, in the opinion of the official receiver, calculated to benefit the general body of creditors.

(4.) Any creditor who has proved his debt may assent to or dissent from the proposal by a letter, in the prescribed form, addressed to the official receiver so as to be received by him not later than the day preceding the meeting, and any such assent or dissent shall have effect as if the creditor had been present and had voted at the meeting.

(5.) The debtor or the official receiver may, after the proposal is accepted by the creditors, apply to the court to approve it, and notice of the time appointed for hearing the application shall be given to each creditor who has proved.

(6.) The application shall not be heard until after the conclusion of the public examination of the debtor. Any creditor who has proved may be heard by the court in opposition to the application, notwithstanding that he may at a meeting of creditors have voted for the acceptance of the proposal.

(7.) The court shall, before approving the proposal, hear a report of the official receiver as to the terms thereof, and as to the conduct of the debtor, and any objections which may be made by or on behalf of any creditor.

(8.) If the court is of opinion that the terms of the proposal are not reasonable, or are not calculated to benefit the general body of creditors, or in any case in which the court is required where the debtor is adjudged bankrupt to refuse his discharge, the court shall refuse to approve the proposal.

(9.) If any facts are proved on proof of which the court would be required either to refuse, suspend, or attach conditions to the debtor's discharge were he adjudged bankrupt, the court shall refuse to approve the proposal, unless it provides reasonable security for payment of not less than seven shillings and sixpence in the pound on all the unsecured debts provable against the debtor's estate.

(10.) In any other case the court may either approve or refuse to approve the proposal.

(11.) If the court approves the proposal, the approval may be testified by the seal of the court being attached to the instrument containing the terms of the proposed composition or scheme, or by the terms being embodied in an order of the court.

(12.) A composition or scheme accepted and approved in pursuance of this section shall be binding on all the creditors so far as relates to any debts due to them from the debtor and provable in bankruptcy, but shall not release the debtor from any liability under a judgment against him in an action for seduction, or under an affiliation order, or under a judgment against him as a co-respondent in a matrimonial cause, except to such an extent and under such conditions as the court expressly orders in respect of such liability.

(13.) A certificate of the official receiver that a composition or scheme has been duly accepted and approved shall, in the absence of fraud, be conclusive as to its validity.

(14.) The provisions of a composition or scheme under this section may be enforced by the court on application by any person interested, and any disobedience of an order of the court made on the application shall be deemed a contempt of court.

(15.) If default is made in payment of any instalment due in pursuance of the composition or scheme, or if it appears to the court, on satisfactory evidence, that the composition or scheme cannot, in consequence of legal difficulties, or for any sufficient cause, proceed without injustice or undue delay to the creditors or to the debtor, or that the approval of the court was obtained by fraud, the court may, if it thinks fit, on application by the official receiver or the trustee, or by any creditor, adjudge the debtor bankrupt, and annul the composition or scheme, but without prejudice to the validity of any sale, disposition, or payment duly made, or thing duly done, under or in pursuance of the composition or scheme. Where a debtor is adjudged bankrupt under this sub-section, any debt provable in other respects, which has been contracted before the adjudication, shall be provable in the bankruptcy.

(16.) If under or in pursuance of a composition or scheme a trustee is appointed to administer the debtor's property or manage his business, or to distribute the composition, section twenty-seven and Part V. of the principal Act shall apply as if the trustee were a trustee in a bankruptcy, and as if the terms "bankruptcy," "bankrupt," and "order of adjudication," included respectively a composition or scheme of arrangement, a compounding or arranging debtor, and order approving the composition or scheme.

(17.) Part III. of the principal Act shall, so far as the nature of the case and the terms of the composition or scheme admit, apply thereto, the same interpretation being given to the words "trustee," "bankruptcy," "bankrupt," and "order of adjudication," as in the last preceding sub-section.

(18.) No composition or scheme shall be approved by the court which does not provide for the payment in priority to other debts of all debts directed to be so paid in the distribution of the property of a bankrupt.

(19.) The acceptance by a creditor of a composition or scheme shall not release any person who under the principal Act and this Act would not be released by an order of discharge if the debtor had been adjudged bankrupt.

4. A person shall be deemed not fit to act as trustee of the property of a bankrupt where he has been previously removed from the office of trustee of a bankrupt's property for misconduct or neglect of duty. Appointment of trustee.

5. Sub-section one of section twenty-two of the principal Act (relating to the committee of inspection) shall be read and construed as if the words "from among the creditors" were substituted for the words "from among the creditors qualified to vote." Provided that a creditor who is appointed a member of a committee of inspection shall not be qualified to act until he has proved his debt and the proof has been admitted. Committee of inspection.

6. The resolution required for accepting a proposal for a composition or scheme in pursuance of section twenty-three of the principal Act shall be the like resolution as is required for accepting a like proposal made by a debtor before an adjudication of bankruptcy. Resolution for acceptance of composition or scheme.

7. Section twenty-five of the principal Act (relating to the arrest of a debtor under certain circumstances) shall be read and construed as if the words "believing that he has absconded, or is about to abscond," were substituted for the words "believing that he is about to abscond." Arrest of absconding debtor.

8.—(1.) A bankrupt may, at any time after being adjudged bankrupt, apply to the court for an order of discharge, and the court shall appoint a day for hearing the application, but the application shall not be heard until the public examination of the bankrupt is concluded. The application shall be heard in open court. Discharge of bankrupt.

(2.) On the hearing of the application the court shall take into consideration a report of the official receiver as to the bankrupt's conduct and affairs (including a report as to the bankrupt's conduct during the proceedings under his bankruptcy), and may either grant or refuse an absolute order of discharge, or suspend the operation of the order for a specified time, or grant an order of discharge subject to any conditions with respect to any earnings or income which may afterwards become due to the bankrupt, or with respect to his after-acquired property : Provided that the court shall refuse the discharge in all cases where the bankrupt has committed any misdemeanor under the Debtors Act, 1869, or the principal Act, or any other misdemeanor connected with his bankruptcy, or any felony connected with his bankruptcy, unless for special reasons the court otherwise determines, and shall, on proof of any of the facts herein-after mentioned, either—

Provided, that if at any time after the expiration of two years from the date of any order made under this section the bankrupt shall satisfy the court that there is no reasonable probability of his being in a position to comply with the terms of such order, the court may modify the terms of the order, or of any substituted order, in such manner and upon such conditions as it may think fit.

(3.) The facts herein-before referred to are :—

- (a.) That the bankrupt's assets are not of a value equal to ten shillings in the pound on the amount of his unsecured liabilities, unless he satisfies the court that the fact that the assets are not of a value equal to ten shillings in the pound on the amount of his unsecured liabilities has arisen from circumstances for which he cannot justly be held responsible :
- (b.) That the bankrupt has omitted to keep such books of account as are usual and proper in the business carried on by him and as sufficiently disclose his business transactions and financial position within the three years immediately preceding his bankruptcy :
- (c.) That the bankrupt has continued to trade after knowing himself to be insolvent :

- (d.) That the bankrupt has contracted any debt provable in the bankruptcy without having at the time of contracting it any reasonable or probable ground of expectation (proof whereof shall lie on him) of being able to pay it :

 - (k.) That the bankrupt has on any previous occasion been adjudged bankrupt, or made a composition or arrangement with his creditors :
 - (l.) That the bankrupt has been guilty of any fraud or fraudulent breach of trust.
- (4.) For the purposes of this section a bankrupt's assets shall be deemed of a value equal to ten shillings in the pound on the amount of his unsecured liabilities when the court is satisfied that the property of the bankrupt has realised, or is likely to realise, or with due care in realisation might have realised, an amount equal to ten shillings in the pound on his unsecured liabilities, and a report by the official receiver or the trustee shall be prima facie evidence of the amount of such liabilities.
- (5.) For the purposes of this section the report of the official receiver shall be prima facie evidence of the statements therein contained.
- (6.) Notice of the appointment by the court of the day for hearing the application for discharge shall be published in the prescribed manner, and sent fourteen days at least before the day so appointed to each creditor who has proved, and the court may hear the official receiver and the trustee, and may also hear any creditor. At the hearing the court may put such questions to the debtor and receive such evidence as it may think fit.
- (7.) The powers of suspending and of attaching conditions to a bankrupt's discharge may be exercised concurrently.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Commons of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland in Parliament assembled, towards making good the supply which we have cheerfully granted to Your Majesty in this session of Parliament, have resolved to grant unto Your Majesty the sum herein-after mentioned; and do therefore most humbly beseech Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

Grant out of Consolidated Fund.

1. The Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury for the time being may issue out of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and apply towards making good the supply granted to Her Majesty for the service of the year ending on the thirty-first day of March one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one, the sum of thirty-one million fifty-seven thousand seven hundred and thirty-two pounds.

Issue of
out of the Consolidated Fund.

Power for the Treasury to borrow.

2. The Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury may borrow from time to time, on the credit of the said sum of thirty-one million fifty-seven thousand seven hundred and thirty-two pounds, any sum or sums of equal or less amount in the whole, and shall repay the moneys so borrowed, with interest not exceeding five pounds per centum per annum, out of the growing produce of the Consolidated Fund at any period not later than the next succeeding quarter to that in which the said moneys were borrowed.

Any moneys so borrowed shall be placed to the credit of the account of Her Majesty's Exchequer, and shall form part of the said Consolidated Fund, and be available in any manner in which such fund is available.

Appropriation of Grants.

Appropriation of sums voted for supply services.

3. All sums granted by this Act and the other Acts mentioned in Schedule (A.) annexed to this Act out of the said Consolidated Fund towards making good the supply granted to Her Majesty, amounting, as appears by the said schedule, in the aggregate, to the sum of fifty-nine million eight hundred and fifty-one thousand five hundred and fifty-two pounds six shillings and three pence are appropriated and shall be deemed to have been appropriated as from the date of the passing of the first of the Acts mentioned in the said Schedule (A.) for the purposes and services expressed in Schedule (B.) annexed hereto.

The abstract of schedules and schedules annexed hereto, with the notes (if any) to such schedules, shall be deemed to be part of this Act in the same manner as if they had been contained in the body thereof.

Treasury may, in certain cases of exigency, authorise expenditure unprovided for; provided that the aggregate grants for the navy services and for the army services respectively be not exceeded.

4. If a necessity arise for incurring expenditure not provided for in the sums appropriated to naval and military services by this Act, and which it may be detrimental to the public service to postpone until provision can be made for it by Parliament in the usual course, each of the departments entrusted with the control over the said services shall forthwith make application in writing to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury for their authority to defray temporarily such expenditure out of any surpluses which may have been or which may be effected by the saving of expenditure upon votes within the same department, and in such application the department shall represent to the Commissioners of the Treasury the circumstances which may render such additional expenditure necessary, and thereupon the said Commissioners may authorise the expenditure unprovided for as aforesaid to be temporarily defrayed out of any surpluses which may have been or which may be effected as aforesaid upon votes within the same department; and a statement showing all cases in which the naval and military departments have obtained the sanction of the said Commissioners to any expenditure not provided for in the respective votes aforesaid, accompanied by copies of the representations made to them by the said departments, shall be laid before the House of Commons with the appropriation accounts of navy and army services for the year, in order that such proceedings may be submitted for the sanction of Parliament, and that provision may be made for the deficiencies upon the several votes for the said services in such manner as Parliament may determine.

The Commissioners of the Treasury shall not authorise any expenditure which may cause an excess upon the aggregate sums appropriated by this Act for naval services and for army services respectively.

5. Whereas the Commissioners of the Treasury, under the powers vested in them by the Appropriation Act, 1888, have authorised expenditure not provided for in the sums appropriated by the said Act to certain votes for naval and military services for the year ended on the thirty-first day of March one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine to be temporarily defrayed out of surpluses, effected by the saving of expenditure, on other votes for naval and military services for the said year; viz.,

Sanction for navy and army expenditure for 1888-89 unprovided for.

1st. A sum of one hundred and seventeen thousand seven hundred and thirty-one pounds six shillings and ten pence for navy services out of the unexpended balances of certain votes, aided by sums realised in excess of the estimated appropriations in aid :

2nd. A sum of one hundred and twenty-four thousand seven hundred and seventy pounds seventeen shillings and eleven pence for army services out of the unexpended balances of certain votes, aided by sums realised in excess of the estimated appropriations in aid :

It is enacted that the application of the said sums is hereby sanctioned.
