RESTRICTIONS ON THE PARK LOTS ADOPTED

Discuss Minimum Cost

At the annual meeting of the Civic Association held last Friday evening, the subscribers to park lots engaged in a general discussion of the restrictions adopted and submitted by the Park Development Committee, the principal bone of contention having been the question of the minimum cost of buildings. This cost the committee had fixed at $4500. After considerable discussion, a motion was made that the minimum be increased to $5500. This motion was put to a vote of the subscribers and was decided in the negative. Dr. P. J. Snyder then moved that the minimum be fixed at $5000, and this motion was carried. A clause requiring lots to be kept in good condition was also incorporated in the restrictions, and with these changes the restrictions were approved. They are as follows:

To have and to hold the said lot or piece of ground above described, the hereditaments and premises hereby granted, or mentioned and intended so to be, with the appurtenances, unto the said grantee, his heirs and assigns, to and for the only proper use and behoof of the said grantee, his heirs and assigns forever. Provided, however, and in order that the entire development, of which the premises hereby conveyed is a part, may be preserved as a desirable place of residence and improved in such manner as to promote the mutual interests of all property owners therein, it is expressly covenanted and agreed that this grant is subject to the following conditions and restrictions, which will also be inserted by the grantors herein named in all other conveyances made by them of properties included in said tract:

First, that said premises shall be used only for the purpose of the erection and maintenance of a private dwelling house, to cost not less than $5000. Or if built in connection with another house on an adjoining lot, the cost of the combined houses shall be not less than $9000. Provided that not more than one dwelling shall be erected on a single lot.

Second, that no business trade, or employment of any kind whatsoever which may be or become annoying, or offensive or objectionable to residents in said tract shall be maintained, carried on or conducted on said premises. Nor shall the grantee keep or maintain thereon any stable, pig pen, chicken coop or other building for the keeping of animals or fowls, nor keep on said premises any live stock, poultry, or fowls of any kind whatsoever.

Third, that the premises hereby conveyed, whether occupied by a building or not, shall at all time be kept in good condition, free from weeds and properly seeded and mown.

Fourth, plans and specifications for the erection or alteration of buildings, including garages or other structures, showing the nature, arrangement, shape, height, material, color scheme and location of the structure and the grading plan of the lot, must be submitted to the general architect and landscape engineer of the association for their approval, before work is begun, in order that the general type, style, elevation and location of buildings on individual plots, and their relation to each other, shall conform to a general plan or scheme selected and prepared by said architect and landscape engineer acting on behalf of the association.

Fifth, the following restrictions shall remain in force until January 1, 1950.

SOLOISTS FOR COMING MUSICALS

A delightful program is being prepared for the musical to be given in Elm Hall on the evening of April 13. The soloists are Miss Gertrude E. Wright, soprano; Piotr Wiza, baritone; Charles A. Paige, violinist; Mrs. B. Franklin Armiger, reader; Henry Lukens, accompanist.

After the recital, formal dancing may be enjoyed. Fowler Crossley will be at the piano to supply the dance music.

MAKING READY FOR THE FLOWER SHOW

Suggested List of Classes Gives Every Grower a Chance.

Spring is in the air! The robin red-breast in the trees and the dainty crocus showing its bloom in the grass offer convincing proof that icy blasts from the north are giving way to gentle airs from the South. April, the daffodil month, is upon us and the bright-hued tulip will soon add its beauty to relieve the dullness of the brown earth. This season of the year is full of activity and hard work for the garden lover. Flower beds that were covered in the fall with manure or leaves should now have the mulch removed so that plants beneath it will not be unduly stimulated and thus fall victim to late spring frosts. A mixture of old manure, bone-meal and wood ashes, if dug into the ground, about the roots of perennials, shrubs, vines and roses, will add much to their growth as well as quantity and quality of bloom.

Ambitious plans for Narberth's first Flower Show are well under way and it is a safe wager that the people of our town will be astonished at the variety and quality of the blooms exhibited. Mr. Stites, who has worked out a tentative list of classes in which competition will be invited, says that the list will be about as follows:

Class 1—Best vase white roses, not over 6 blooms.

Class 2—Best vase pink roses, not over 6 blooms.

Class 3—Best vase red roses, not over 6 blooms.

Class 4—Best vase yellow roses, not over 6 blooms.

Class 5—Best vase climbing roses, one color, any number.

Class 6—Best vase climbing roses, mixed, any number.

Class 7—Best vase peonies, white, 3 blooms.

Class 8—Best vase peonies, pink, 3 blooms.

Class 9—Best vase peonies, scarlet, 3 blooms.

Class 10—Best vase peonies, mixed, any number.

Class 11—Best vase delphinium (larkspur) light blue, 6 stalks.

Class 12—Best vase delphinium (larkspur) dark blue, 6 stalks.

Class 13—Best 6 blooms columbine, single color.

Class 14—Best 6 blooms columbine, mixed colors.

Class 15—Best vase Canterbury Bells.

Class 16—Best vase Sweet William.

Class 17—Best vase Foxglove.

Class 18—Best vase Iris, any color.

Class 19—Best vase poppies, any color.

Class 20—Best vase sweet peas.

Class 21—Best vase conflowers (centaurea).

Class 22—Best vase gladioli, 3 stalks or more.

Class 23—Best vase lilies, not less than three stalks.

Class 24—Best vase dark blue larkspur and coreopsis.

Class 25—Best vase light blue larkspur and madonna lilies.

Class 26—Best vase field-grown daisies.

Class 27—Best vase field-grown buttercups.

Class 28—Best vase field-grown violets.

Class 29—Best 25 blooms of lily-of-the-valley.

Class 30—Best vase roses, mixed.

Class 31—Best arranged basket tea and hybrid roses.

Class 32—Best arranged basket Rambler roses.

Class 33—Best arranged basket violets, daisies and buttercups.

Class 34—Best arranged basket pansies, all colors.

Class 35—Best vase or bowl Hardy Scotch pinks.

Class 36—Best vase Pyrethrum daisies, all colors.

That the above list offers unlimited opportunity to the flower grower, whether on a small or grand scale, goes without saying. Those who are intending to compete with flowers raised from seed, such as sweet peas, cornflowers, or poppies, are urged to arrange for planting without delay. Sweet peas should be planted at once for bloom early in June. Plants of larkspur, Canterbury Bells, foxglove, sweet William, coreopsis and pyrethrum can be secured from reliable dealers and if properly cared for will give a wealth of bloom for the flower show.

THE WORK OF ONE YEAR.

A Short Review of the Activities of the Narberth Civic Association.

After several conferences among a small group of public-minded citizens who felt that Narberth and its immediate neighborhood needed an agency that would actively work for the social and civic upbuilding of our community, Mr. George M. Henry, our Burgess, wrote an open letter to the people of the community which appeared in the "Main Line News" of date March 6, 1914, and which, in closing, made this appeal:

"Why, then, should we not concentrate our efforts and make a determined stand, having in view the single purpose of making Narberth an ideal home town in every respect?"

Immediately after this call, fifteen or twenty persons met in the Y. M. C. A. building to consider how best to organize to fulfill the need that was felt.

They decided that a Civic Association would be the best vehicle, and proceeded to issue an invitation to all residents to join the movement.

As a result, March 10, 1914, there was sent to every house in Narberth a call for every resident to be in attendance at a public meeting to be held in Elm Hall, Saturday, March 14, for the purpose of perfecting the organization of a Civic Association, the object of which should be as follows:

"To improve and beautify the borough and vicinity and assist and cooperate with the authorities in enforcing laws and ordinances relating thereto; to promote any project having for its purpose the betterment of the community as a whole; to provide means of acquiring and disseminating information on any subject of general interest; and to foster and maintain a fraternal spirit among the people of our community."

This first meeting was attended by about one hundred and twenty-five (125) persons and was a live one from start to finish. Mr. George Burdett Ford, of New York City, a lecturer on civics and town planning, was the speaker of the evening, giving those present many helpful suggestions and the encouragement to push forward this new movement for the betterment of Narberth.

Following Mr. Ford's talk, election of officers was held, resulting in the choice of your present servants, and constitution and by-laws were adopted.

April 1, 1914, the first appeal for co-operation and membership was sent out and met with prompt response. Commencing with eleven (11) paid memberships on the evening of organization, we have to-day two hundred and four (204) voting members—that is, those who have paid the membership fee of $1.

Officers elected and membership material with which to work now recruited, the directors and executive committee started to do the things set forth in the object for them to do, as follows:

1. "To improve and beautify the borough," there was inaugurated a clean-up week which won the hearty support of the whole town—residents cleaned their homes and yards, boys and men cleaned vacant lots, the merchants and the borough carted away the rubbish, the disposal committee sorted the forty-two (42) cartloads of material, packed the salvage away in a freight car and turned it into cash to the tune of $38.48.

2. "To assist and co-operate with the authorities in enforcing laws and ordinances relating thereto," there was appointed an efficiency committee to work with a like committee appointed by councils.

3. "To promote any project having for its purpose the betterment of the community as a whole," the Narberth Park Plan was devised, promoted and brought to a successful issue. This scheme—of which you are all familiar and of which we shall hear more later—is bound to prove to be the one project most needed to better Narberth as a whole both from within and from without. This movement was inaugurated April 21, 1914, with nothing more tangible than a big, broad-visioned idea behind it. To-day there is about twelve (12) acres of solid ground under it, worth several thousand dollars an acre and a plan of development of this ground that some persons, in enthusiastic moments, say is worth its weight in gold. Twenty-eight (28) lots are already sold and the ground will be broken shortly to make way for the park improvements. Ultimately, provided your councils do their part, the borough will receive as a present from the Civic Association about six (6) acres of finely developed park space and the taxes on over thirty-five (35) fire properties.

4. "To provide means of acquiring and disseminating information," your executive committee appointed a publicity committee which, by the way, has done more to put Narberth favorably before the general public than any other one thing with which I am personally acquainted. Further, two contests were conducted—an essay contest for children on "What the Narberth Civic Association can do to Improve Conditions in Narberth for the Children," and a slogan contest open to all. The children's essay contest resulted in the receipt of over one hundred (100) essays which showed the children had been thinking constructively of the town in which they lived—of ways to improve it. The slogan contest resulted in the selection of this slogan: "Narberth—The Year-round Home Town."

The attendance at the meeting in Elm Hall, at which the judges announced the results of these two contests—April 21, 1914—rivalled that of the old-fashioned New England town meetings in number and in spirit. Dr. O. J. Snyder gave an informative talk in preparation for clean-up week on "Diseases Due to Uncleanly Conditions; How Communicated and How Prevented," and Sidney W. Waterman, L. L. B., Chief Burgess of Colwyn, Pa., told us of "The Civic Spirit and What it Has Done for a Small Borough."

One big educational feature was contributed by our Music Committee in bringing to town Mr. Henry Such, of London, England, a famous and talented violinist.

Finally, your directors launched a weekly newspaper, "Our Town," to act as a medium for the dissemination of information. This newspaper is conducted entirely by a staff of volunteer workers, and has won unstinted support from local merchants and outside advertisers.

One of the most interesting changes this "dissemination of facts" has brought about is that instead of Narberth being considered a place of ex-

NEW OFFICERS OF CIVIC ASSOCIATION.

Many New Names Appear in List of Workers for Narberth's Year.

Old Organization. At the first annual meeting of the Civic Association last Friday evening in the Y. M. C. A. community room about 65 persons listened to the message of President Henry and to reports of the secretary-treasurer and of various committees, to a talk on "Building Restrictions," by D. Knickerbacker Boyd, the consulting architect for the Park Development house building, and then proceeded to the election of officers.

Detailed reports of the talk and discussion of building restrictions and the full report by the secretary-treasurer are to be found elsewhere in this issue.

The new officers chosen are as follows: President, Geo. M. Henry; vice-presidents, Augustus J. Loos, A. C. Shand and Dr. O. J. Snyder; secretary-treasurer, Samuel T. Atherholt; directors, W. Arthur Cole, Mrs. Norman Jefferies, Fletcher W. Stites, W. D. Smedley, Robert Pattison, Robert H. Durbin, Mrs. George M. Barrie, E. A. Muschamp, John B. Williams, Mrs. C. R. Blackall, E. S. Haws, H. C. Gara, James Artman, E. P. Dold and E. A. Wohlert.

THE 600 BOOKS ARE PLEGGED TO LIBRARY

LIST OF CONTRIBUTORS

The 600 Campaign for the Narberth Free Public Library is finished. Twenty-five townsfolk have agreed to give two books a month for one year. The last of the pledges came in Monday night. The complete list of contributors follows:

Dr. Clarence T. Farles
James Artman
H. A. Jacobs
James F. Donnelly
E. E. Seaver
Joseph F. Laird
E. S. Taylor
Mrs. Alexander Easton
Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Peebles
George C. Hoffman
Norman R. McLure (Phoenixville)
"A Friend of the Library"
George M. Henry
Edward P. Dold
W. Arthur Cole
Mrs. William B. Goodall
H. C. Gara
Merritt Bond
Mrs. Edward Odell
C. R. Blackall
Fletcher W. Stites
Mrs. William P. Chase
Samuel P. Bowman
Mrs. Minna Thomas Antrim
Miss Grace Haight
A. J. Loos.

But, confound it! What do you think? We got twenty-six contributors and we only started out for twenty-five. However, those extra twenty-four books will not be "in the way." Room will be made for them and they will have the same standing as any of the other volumes.

An interesting fact developed in the course of the campaign was the number of people who are interested in the Narberth Library, and the generous contributions made. Mr. Hoffman sent a total of 75 books. Mr. and Mrs. Peebles in addition to joining the "Six Hundreders" gave several bound volumes of the National Geographic Magazine. Mr. Bowman gave a total of 35 books; Mr. Laird sent 30. Through the courtesy of Mr. Taylor, one of the contributors, the library has been placed on the mailing list of the Medical World, a monthly medical journal, and Equity, a quarterly publication dealing with improved methods of government, and will receive a number of books from Mr. Taylor's uncle, Dr. Charles F. Taylor.

Keep the Good Work Up. Now that the 600 Campaign is over let's keep the good work up. Whenever you discover that you have books that you are not going to keep in your personal library, send them to the Free Public Library in the Y. M. C. A. Community Center.

When you see a good book in any of the stores that you think ought to be in our Narberth Library, buy it and send to Mr. Gara, manager in charge of the library, or Secretary Hampton.

HAVE YOU SUBSCRIBED?

H. A. Jacobs, subscription manager for "Our Town," is making an active canvass for subscriptions.

He reports that while many of the residents of Narberth have already subscribed for the paper there are quite a number who have failed to send in their orders up to this time. If you are one of this latter number Mr. Jacobs will be glad to hear from you.

In most cases it has been simply a matter of forgetting to subscribe. People have said: "I've been intending to send in my subscription for 'Our Town,' but forgot all about it." Let these few lines be a reminder. Send in your order to Mr. Jacobs.

MARKSMAN'S BADGES FOUND.

Two National Guard Marksman's badges were found by the ash collector and are in the hands of Street Commissioner McClellan. They will be returned to owner on identification.

EDITORIAL NOTES

THANKS FOR THE BOOKS.

"Our Town" wishes to thank the men and women of Narberth who have so generously contributed to the Six Hundred Campaign. The books that they will give during the next twelve months will make a valuable addition to our already fast growing Free Public Library in the Y. M. C. A. Community Center.

The number of books in the library is well past the 1,000 mark. New contributions are being received every day. We believe additional volumes will continue to come in.

A preliminary catalogue has been made and the books are ready for distribution. In fact the library is already "working."

Books may be had every week day and evening. Every resident of Narberth is entitled to use the library. It is absolutely free.

A second installment of the catalogue appears in this issue of "Our Town." The list will be completed in subsequent issues. There are many fine books on the library shelves now and many more will be added.

FOR NARBERTH'S GOOD NAME.

Our borough officials are doing so many excellent things to make Narberth a good place to live in, we wonder if they cannot be persuaded to improve Wynnewood avenue so that the hundreds of automobilists who pass over it every day will have real occasion to say, "this is the finest stretch of road in this part of the country. Narberth is alive and knows how to do things." Then, too, our own townspeople who live near the thoroughfare will be much happier and more comfortable. It is worth while, "Council!"

BUILD BEAUTIFUL HOUSES.

One has morally no more right to erect an ugly house in a community than to put up an ugly billboard. The beauty of a town is largely dependent upon its houses, yet not one in fifty is beautiful. Each and every offensive house degrades public taste. The reason why such disappointing structures are so commonly built is because people are not educated by their surroundings to know anything better. Here is an open field for the student of home economics to help the world to more healthful and more beautiful dwelling places.

UNCLAIMED LETTERS.

Letters addressed to the following named persons remain unclaimed in the Narberth post office:
Master Wm. Coulter, Mrs. Stella Eckelman, Mrs. Mary R. Babb, Mr. Thomas Denham, Mrs. F. C. Bingham, Edward S. Haws, P. M.

Duty is a power that rises with us in the morning and goes to rest with us at night. It is co-extensive with the action of our intelligence. It is the shadow which cleaves to us, go where we will, and which only leaves us when we leave the light of life.—Gladstone.

THE TWO-MEN BOWLING TOURNAMENT TEAMS.

Robert A. Savill, manager of game room and athletics, announces the following as the drawings for the two-men bowling tournament at the Y. M. C. A. Community Center:
Brooks, J. Scanlin; Walzer, Ward; Compton, Kirk; Gifford, McKell; W. Harris, H. Rose; W. Smedley, Haws; C. Ensinger, Laird; E. Scanlin, Markel; Lacy, L. Davis; Trotter, Smith; Jefferies, Savill; Humphries, Heppler.
Twelve games are to be rolled to qualify for prizes.

THE FIRESIDE

By Lady Narberth

The first annual banquet of the Baptist Church will be held in the Y. M. C. A. Community Room, April 19, at 6.30 P. M., under the auspices of the Ushers' Association.

In addition to the dinner and a musical program, Edw. J. Cattell, statistician of the city of Philadelphia, will speak. Mr. Cattell is without doubt the most prominent and popular after dinner speaker in these parts and is always worth hearing.

The Lower Merion High School Alumni Association will give a play and mixed minstrel in the High School auditorium at Ardmore, Thursday, April 22. Several of Narberth's best amateurs will take part.

Have you started your week-end walks yet? If not, start this week. Narberth and its immediate environs afford great varieties of scenery—and just now, extensive vistas are to be enjoyed. Get out and hike—you'll find great beauty near at hand, if you halt try. When you start, make a tour of Narberth—there are good cement walks all around our town now.

Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Robbins are occupying their new home on Haverford road. They formerly lived at 16 Woodside.

C. Herbster, 310 Essex avenue, returns to Narberth with his family after an absence of four years.

Carroll Downes, Jr., who has been confined to his home with acute bronchitis for the past ten days, is improving.

C. L. Metzgar, Forest avenue, has moved his family to Atlantic City. Mr. Metzgar has been an active worker in the reorganization of the Y. M. C. A. and will be missed.

Ladies, remember that a cordial reception awaits you every Tuesday afternoon at the Y. M. C. A. Community Room where the Woman's Community Club keeps open house from 3 to 5 o'clock.

Dr. C. R. Blackall has moved from Chestnut avenue to 16 Woodside avenue—corner Wynnewood avenue—and is making great improvements to the attractive corner lot.

Mrs. Robert A. Miss Mabel H. and Herbert Seymour have reopened their Woodside avenue home after passing the winter in West Philadelphia.

H. A. Jacobs is certainly to be complimented on the changes he is rapidly making on the "pageant grounds," where he is building his new home. Have you seen the rustic bridge?

Mrs. Paul Loos, of Shirley Road, entertained her Sewing Club on Wednesday afternoon.

Did you hear the strains of real music flowing out from Elm Hall last Friday night? First chords blown by the new Narberth band. If you play any instrument and want first-class instruction, send your name to Earl Brooke or to Augustus J. Loos.

The Men's Club of the Presbyterian Church are planning to have a "farmers' frolic" in the Y. M. C. A. gym. in the near future. They are to be chaperoned by their fellow member, Geo. W. Braden, director of instruction at the Central Y. M. C. A.

What's happened to the new post office movement? Have our trampled citizens already forgotten?

Bump-bump-bump-bump-bump, bump, bump, bump—a long way to say Wynnewood avenue, Narberth. Let's shorten it!

CIRCUS SEASON TO OPEN IN NARBERTH APRIL 23.

Get ready, you grown-ups! Narberth is to have a real circus come to its midst—real wild animals, extraordinary gymnasts, tightrope walkers, aerial workers, unrivalled equestriennes, nimble-footed dancers, and sure-enough side shows with a noisy barker. Oh, yep! and clowns and peanuts and pink lemonade—fact is, all the fixin's am to be wid' it, too!

So watch for the advance agent's press notices next week. It's going to be the biggest thing that's happened in our town for a decade. Save your pennies!

 Merion Meeting House is opened for worship every First-day at 10.30 A. M. Visitors are cordially welcome.

ST. MARGARET'S R. C. CHURCH.

Rev. R. F. Cowley, Rector.
 The early mass on Easter morning will be celebrated at 6.30, which will be the regular hour for this mass until November 1st.
 The music of the High Mass at 9.30 will be Rabach's "Mass of St. La Salle," with Kerner's "Regina Coeli" for the offertory. Webbe's "Vidi Aquam" will precede the mass and Verdusen's "Tantum Ergo" will be sung at Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament.
 The usual Holy Week ceremonies will be carried out in this church on Thursday, Friday and Saturday mornings at 7.30, as well as the customary evening devotions on Wednesday and Friday evenings at 8 o'clock.

Easter Week Social at St. Margaret's.
 Mrs. Charles H. A. Chain, of Windsor and Conway avenues, will give an affair in aid of the debt fund of St. Margaret's Church on Wednesday evening, April 7th.
 The games will consist of euchre and five hundred, and many handsome prizes are to be awarded, including a valuable door prize. Dancing will follow the games.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

Rev. John Van Ness, Minister.
 There will be a special meeting in this church on Good Friday at 8 P. M., to be addressed by the Rev. C. G. Hopper, of West Park Church, Philadelphia.
 Easter Sunday promises to be a notable day. Easter flowers and Easter music and Easter messages will bring to us the story of the resurrection. In the morning the pastor will preach on "The Miracle of the Resurrection." The chorus will render several Easter selections. In the afternoon the session will examine the Communicants' Class for admission to the church. At 7 P. M., Mrs. A. C. Warner will lead the meeting of the Junior Congregation and at 8 P. M. an augmented chorus choir will sing Frederic Field Bullard's Easter cantata entitled "The Resurrection According to John."
 On Wednesday evening, April 7th, Rev. W. B. Anderson, D. D., will preach at the preparatory meeting which precedes the communion service of the following Sunday.

EVANGEL BAPTIST CHURCH.

Emerson L. Swift, Pastor.
 The monthly supper and meeting of the Teachers' Association will be held at the church Friday evening at 6.30.

The Teacher Training Class will be under the direction of Miss Daisy Dean. Her topic will be, "The Problem of Attention."
 The Bible School will hold its session next Sunday at 2.15 for the Easter service. There will be no session at 9.45. Rev. D. G. Stevens will address the school. Worship at 11. The ordinance of the Lord's Supper will be observed. Subject of the sermon, "The Soul's Immortality." Young People's Society at 7, subject, "Conquering Discouragements," Ps. 27. Evening worship at 7.45. The ordinance of baptism will be administered to a number of candidates.
 Mrs. Elizabeth Needham will give the events of Passion Week and the resurrection of our Lord as outlined by chart at the Wednesday evening service. We invite all to hear this very instructive talk.

HARRY MALCOLM CHALFANT.

"LIVINGSTONE—THE PATH-FINDER."

Thrilling Story of Work of Great Explorer-Missionary.
 Under the title of "The Pathfinder," an interesting address on the life of David Livingstone in South Africa, his spirit of Christian enthusiasm that led to the undertaking to which he devoted his life, and the stirring experiences he enjoyed as a missionary in the heart of the dark continent, will be delivered Easter Sunday evening by the Rev. H. M. Chalfant in the Narberth Methodist Episcopal Church.
 The New York "Chautauqua" says, "Mr. Chalfant's lecture on 'The Pathfinder' before the Chautauqua was one of the most interesting of the season. The unassuming, modest, yet forceful manner in which he presented his hero charmed all."
 There will be selections by a chorus choir of twenty-five voices and an organ recital.

SUCCESS.

There may be golden opportunities for success, physical and spiritual advancement all about you, if your eyes are opened to them. We are apt to become so accustomed to one environment that we are indifferent both to its disadvantages as well as to its advantages, while both must be taken into account if success is to be attained.
 A man who has walked one path for years goes over it unconsciously, making the turns and avoiding the ruts without a thought. He also becomes unconscious of its beauty; are you doing that? Have you lived within one little circle, one little town until the great possibilities of your life are passed by with no thought?—Home and School.

MENTION OUR TOWN TO ADVERTISERS

WORK OF ONE YEAR.

 Tremendous low elevation it is now acknowledged higher than any other place between here and Delaware Water Gap. Instead of being dubbed "backward" and spoken of as "showing hardly no improvement," as it was in the "Ledger," March 22, 1914—you now find this same paper almost daily using superlatives about the progressiveness of Narberth—such as "We herewith present first prize for 'pep' to Narberth," "the liveliest town on the Main Line," "the town that starts big things and puts them through," "characteristic of the 'get-together-and-do-something' methods of the people of Narberth," etc.
 5. "To foster and maintain a fraternal spirit among the people of our community," there was enacted in June, 1914, an historical pageant utilizing in all departments of endeavor over three hundred (300) townspeople. This pageant was really promoted with the intention of introducing Narberth to itself. It did more than was intended for it to do, however. It literally introduced Narberth to the world—through the publicity it earned in metropolitan dailies and weeklies of international circulation, like "The Survey." The pageant brought us closer together as a community than any other event ever conducted in our midst, and has been fruitful in quickening a civic consciousness and a unified effort, the resultant good works of which shall keep the name of our borough before all as a worthwhile community—as a suburban town that does big things well. The Narberth pageant is one of the few such events that did not show a deficit. The total profits were $101.24—$25.31 went to each the Fire Company and the Y. M. C. A., and $50.62 was left for the Civic Association. The rainy weather on the last day—which was on Saturday and promised to have been the biggest day—killed the possibilities of still larger profits.
 Recently, the Civic Association has been bending every energy to assist the new management of the Y. M. C. A. to make that building the central power-house of fraternal and community spirit, and here, too, success seems to be assured.

Mrs. Roy Clark has just accepted the chairmanship of a new committee—the Welfare Committee—and will take up as her first work Narberth's part in the coming fete for the benefit of the Bryn Mawr Hospital and will stand ready to do any other social service work that may come before us for action.
 It has taken but little time to read this resume of past events, but let me tell you as one who followed your president in helping to fulfill these several tasks as set forth in the object of this association, that it took much more time—during daylight and darkness—to work out the details that do not show up in this reading. He set a hard pace but one that makes it well worth while to have followed now that we approach the tape on the last lap.

W. Arthur Cole, Secretary.

OUT OF QUARANTINE YET?

Been up Wynnewood avenue lately—since Mr. Artman developed his front grounds and the new retaining walls and cement walks were put in place? Great! Especially Mr. Artman's corner, with its pond, island, bridges, tennis court, etc.

Vegetables to be eaten raw, as lettuce that has grown near the ground, require a most thorough cleansing before being served. It has been shown that such vegetable products may be contaminated with typhoid fever germs by the action of snails which, crawling under the leaves of the lettuce, cabbage, etc., leave the germs behind in their excreta. An excellent plan is to soak the vegetables for five minutes in one per cent. solution of hydrochloric acid, which will destroy any bacteria or parasites which may be present. Afterward rinse in clear water.

NARBERTH WINS FINAL GAME.

The Narberth Y. M. C. A. Basketball team, champions of the Y. M. C. A. League, and Main Line Independent champions, captured their final game of the season last Saturday night by defeating the strong Lansdowne Ex-High School team by the score of 36-26. The first half ended with the score 20-17 in the visitors' favor; the home team being kept in the running through the scoring of Lardie Davis, who made 15 out of 17 points. The other two points being made by Capt. Durbin with a spectacular field goal, one of the few and far between kind. (In swimming called a back forward stroke.)

In the second half Narberth soon evened the score, and with the good guarding of Fleck and Jeffries holding their opponents down to two field goals, the local boys soon assumed a lead which they maintained throughout the rest of the game. For the visitors, Algee, the St. Joseph forward, starred. Line-up:

N. Y. M. C. A. L. Ex-High.
 Capt. Durbin...forward..... Algee
 Humphreys...forward..... Whelan (E. Davis)
 L. Davis.....centre..... Swartz
 Fleck.....guard..... Farren
 Jeffries.....guard..... Ferguson
 Field goals—Durbin, 2; L. Davis, 7; Fleck, 1; Algee, 4; Whelan, 1; Swartz, 3; Farren, 2. Foul goals—L. Davis, 16 out of 24; Swartz, 6 out of 13; Whelan, none out of 1; Algee, none out of 1. Referee—Dr. Hahnemann, Hahnemann. Scorer and Timekeeper—Earl F. Smith. Time of halves—20-15.

Notes.

Eugene Davis showed his return to the game in the second half by brilliant floor work.
 Durbin and L. Jeffries showed some fine dribbling.
 The timekeeper broke his watch last week, so it's a good thing the season is over. He says "wait until next year." (The Phillies slogan) and he will get it fixed.

SUFFRAGE MEETING.

Local Party Taking Active Part in Present Campaign.
 Tuesday evening, April 6, in the Y. M. C. A. Community Room, the local Women's Suffrage Party will hold a rally and educational meeting, with Fletcher W. Sites as presiding officer.
 The speaker will be Mrs. James D. Winsor, while Miss Mary Winsor will answer questions that may be asked from the floor. Mrs. Winsor is chairman of the Lower Merion District Women's Suffrage Party. Both the guests are intimate with the movement here and abroad and are competent to give information on any part of the propaganda.
 Every man and woman interested in fair play should make an effort to be present at this meeting, since the Woman Suffrage Amendment will be voted on at the coming election.

SWAT THE FLY NOW, HEALTH BUREAU SAYS.

Breeding Time Near and Quick Action is Urged by Director Ziegler—Pests Spread Disease—They Multiply Rapidly and Carry Deadly Germs; Timely Advice is Offered.

Swat the fly now. The spring time, the breeding season of the fly, is at hand. This is pointed out in a warning issued by Doctor Ziegler, director of the department of health and charities.

Doctor Ziegler cited as some of the diseases which the fly causes: typhoid fever, tuberculosis of the lungs, conjunctivitis, diarrhea and dysentery. Germs are carried by the flies in their feet, he pointed out, and they take the infectious dirt from the manure pile to the kitchen; from the garbage can to the milk bottle and from street filth to the baby's face.

"Garbage and manure are the chief nests for the development of flies," said Doctor Ziegler. "They reproduce so rapidly that one fly in the spring will become the progenitor of millions of flies during the summer. It is estimated that the average domestic fly can travel from 300 to 2000 yards, and taking into consideration that they may be carried great distances on trains or ships, the spread of disease will be equally extensive."

Here is some advice which Doctor Ziegler gives and, if carried out, will, he thinks, go a long way toward reducing the fly evil:

Screen all doors and windows in the early spring.

Allow no garbage, soiled newspapers, trash or dirt to accumulate in the cellar, yard or back alley.

Keep all drains clean and free from obstruction.

Cover the garbage can tightly. Cleanse it frequently with a solution of washing soda.

Do not allow food of any kind to remain uncovered, particularly milk, puddings and custards. The sugar bowl should also be kept covered. Keep cakes, pastry and all sweets under cover.

The kitchen sink should be free from fruit and vegetable parings or tea leaves.

Remove all food and soiled dishes from the table immediately after meals and wash the dishes promptly.

Keep the icebox clean and free from odors and the door tightly closed.

See that all leaks from toilets and drain pipes are repaired promptly.

Empty all dirty water from basins and slop jars as soon as used.

Do not allow the baby's soiled diapers to lie around the house, but wash them promptly.

Cuspidors should be cleansed daily with a solution of washing soda and then a small portion of borax solution poured in.—North American.

The Church's Easter Message

There is a floral meaning to Easter.

And a musical meaning.

Yet all these are mere echoes and types of the spiritual meaning of the great day which will be kept next Sunday.

Easter is the anniversary of the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead.

Church attendance is greater on Easter than on any other day of the year. Some persons will go to church on that day who have not done so for months.

The music and the flowers are partly responsible for this; yet we are persuaded that the deep spiritual significance for the day is really the underlying reason. A hunger for the Resurrection not in their lives draws men and women within sound of the Easter message.

These weekly display advertisements have been setting forth that which the Church offers to the world. We have been trying to enumerate some of the valid reasons why men and women should attend church.

But Good Friday and Easter—the Cross and the Open Tomb—are the heart of hearts of the Church's plea, and of her very existence. They stand for her message of redemption and life.

I am the Resurrection and the Life: he that believeth in Me, though he were dead, yet shall he live and whosoever liveth and believeth in Me shall never die.—John XI., 25, 26.

By the Cross and the Tomb the Church is differentiated from all other institutions and organizations. They are the symbols of her divine nature and mission.

The Church's Easter message is Life—freer, fairer, fuller Life. She hears the word of her Lord, "I am come that they might have life, and might have it more abundantly."

Many of us are impoverished of life. Our souls are starved. We lack spirit-vitality. Instead of joyous, buoyant, overflowing lives, we are merely dragging out an existence.

To us all, the Church brings at Easter a message of a new life, a risen life, a divine life.

Easter is the day of the eternal hope. It brings to memory our beloved dead, most of all, the Redeemer who broke death's power and assures us of a resurrection.

In every church, on Easter, whatever its name or usage, one may hear, in Scripture, sermon and song, the Message of Life—the risen life that is lived by Christ's power.

To the hearing of this message we summon the reader, promising him a welcome and an uplift.

THE MEANING OF EASTER IS FOUND ONLY IN THE EASTER MESSAGE.

Now is Christ risen from the dead and become the first fruits of them that sleep. For since by man came death, by man came also the resurrection of the dead. For as in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive.—1 Corinthians, XV., 20-22.
