

EXECUTORS—A gentleman of New Orleans, named Elinh Crosswell, lately deceased, by the terms of his will left his estate to his mother, but liberated his slaves, fifty-one in number, enjoining upon his executors, Messrs. John L. B. St. Louis, and John A. O'Connell, to transport said slaves to one of the free States.

The executor has corresponded with the Governor of New York respecting their location, and has received a reply from the State holders that the laws prohibiting emancipation is without foundation. And they would readily multiply if the religion of the country could admit slaveholders to repentance.

Early On loads of passengers left the Atlantic and St. Lawrence rivers. The morning on a pile-nose excursion for the White Mountains. The number of passengers was between seven and eight hundred. They returned the same evening having had a delightful trip.

John Wadsworth was sent by Judge Tibb to the House of Correction last week for Intemperance. This is the second commitment only to the House for the last three months. These practical effects of our beneficent liquor law should be kept before the people.

We give below the sentiments, and letters given and read on the occasion of the late temperance celebration at Deering's Oaks for which we had no room last week. The effect of that demonstration seems to have been to create a new feeling of respectability in this region. Its moral power on the State and the nation cannot be estimated.

A platform was erected for the music and speakers, and seats provided for two thousand ladies. At eleven o'clock the music commenced. The speakers' stand. The meeting was called to order by the President of the day, for toasts by Dr. Moses Dodge, Toast Master. For toasts he read the following. After each regular toast the Rev. Mr. Wadsworth responded.

1. "Our Country"—With all its failings, we love it, and are our eyes grow dim in death, we have no other home but this. We desire of obtaining the services of Dr. Jewett after his present engagements are fulfilled, will please address a line to that effect directed to Dr. G. C. Coffin, Portland.

NEW-YORK ADVERTISER.—This has been enlarged, enlarged, printed on new type, and is an interesting paper. It has the manhood to adopt as its motto: "Independent in everything and neutral in nothing." Published by M. B. Bartlett, who could guess who his much to do with editing.

THE FARMERS' AGE.—This is a new paper coming from Cedar Rapids, Iowa, of good size, well executed. We shall be glad to see how this new section of the West progresses from week to week.

COVENANTS TO PORTLAND.—The Fair by the State and the present case at the meeting of the A. B. C. F. M., with the privilege of returning during the week, provided for the Fair.

ANOTHER CASE!—Here is another illustration of Democratic and Whig principles, which is taken from the N. Y. Post.

THE FUGITIVE SLAVE LAW RIPPING.—About four years ago, a man, somewhat dark, and of a peculiar appearance, came into this city and took up his residence at Poughkeepsie, New York.

THE CUBAN DRAMA. Mystery still rests on the revolutionary affairs of Cuba. It is not yet known who has become of Lopez and his comrades—whether they are all shot, or whether proceeding on their expedition to the West Indies.

NEW-YORK, Aug. 27.—The Newark, N. J. Daily Advertiser, says that the following, which is said to have been received in a private paper from Capt. Lopez, has since landed in Spain, at the same point, Gen. Gonzalez, from Jacksonville, Florida.

THE WASHINGTON CORRESPONDENT OF THE NEW YORK TRIBUNE, writes, however, under date of Aug. 26, says: "I informed you by telegraph, at half-past one, that the new expedition from New Orleans could not be arrested in the Gulf."

THE WIFE OF JACOB DANBLE, of Claremont, N. H., when a little girl—seven or eight years of age—was carried off by a stranger, and was not recovered, and it has remained a mystery to this day.
