[30th March 1874.]

WHEREAS the exigencies of the public service in India require that the Secretary of State in Council of India should be enabled to raise money in the United Kingdom on the credit of the revenues of India :

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

1. It shall be lawful for the Secretary of State in Council of India, at any time or times before the thirtieth day of April one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine, or, if Parliament be then sitting, before the end of the then session of Parliament, to raise in the United Kingdom, for the service of the Government of India, any sum or sums of money not exceeding in the whole ten millions of pounds sterling, and such sum or sums may be raised by the creation and issue of bonds or debentures, or capital stock bearing [interest, or annuities, or partly by one of such modes and partly by another or others.

Power to the Secretary of State in Council of India to raise any sum not exceeding 10,000,000*l*.

2. All bonds issued under the authority of this Act may be issued under the hands of two members of the Council of India, and countersigned by the Secretary of State for India, or one of his under secretaries, or his assistant under secretary, and shall be for such respective amounts, payable after such notice, and at such rate or rates of interest as the said Secretary of State in Council may think fit.

Bonds may be issued under the hands of two members of the Council, and countersigned by Secretary of State.

3. All debentures issued under the authority of this Act may be issued under the hands of two members of the Council, and countersigned as aforesaid, for such respective amounts, and at such rate or rates of interest, as the Secretary of State in Council may think fit, and shall be issued at or for such prices and on such terms as may be determined by the Secretary of State in Council.

As to payment of principal and interest on debentures.

4. All debentures issued under the authority of this Act shall be paid off at par at a time or times to be mentioned in such debentures respectively; and the interest on all such debentures shall be paid half-yearly on such days as shall be mentioned therein; and the principal moneys and interest secured by such debentures shall be payable either at the treasury of the Secretary of State in Council in London or at the Bank of England.

Debentures transferable by delivery.

5. All or any number of the debentures issued under the authority of this Act, and all right to and in respect of the principal and interest moneys secured thereby, shall be transferable by the delivery of such debentures; and the coupons for interest annexed to any debenture issued under the authority of this Act shall also pass by delivery.

Coupons by delivery.

Capital stock and annuities may be created and issued.

6. Any capital stock created under the authority of this Act shall bear such a rate of interest, and any annuities to be created under the authority of this Act shall be at such rate per centum per annum, as the Secretary of State in Council may think fit; and such capital stock and such annuities may be issued on such terms as may be determined by the Secretary of State in Council; and any such capital stock may bear interest during such period, and be paid off at par at such time, as the Secretary of State in Council may prescribe previously to the issue of such capital stock; and such annuities may be terminable at such period as the Secretary of State in Council may prescribe previously to the issue of such annuities.

Transfer books of such capital stock and annuities to be kept.

7. In case of the creation and issue of any such capital stock or of any such annuities, there shall be kept, either at the office of the Secretary of State in Council in London or at the Bank of England, books wherein entries shall be made of the said capital stock and annuities respectively, and wherein all assignments or transfers of the same respectively, or any part thereof respectively, shall be entered and registered, and shall be signed by the parties making such assignments or transfers, or, if such parties be absent, by his, her, or their attorney or attornies thereunto lawfully authorised by writing under his, her, or their hands and seals, to be attested by two or more credible witnesses; and the person or persons to whom such transfer or transfers shall be made may respectively underwrite his, her, or their acceptance thereof; and no other mode of assigning or transferring the said capital stock or the said annuities, or any part thereof respectively, or any interest therein respectively, shall be good and available in law, and no stamp duties whatsoever shall be charged on the said transfers or any of them.

8. All annuities created and issued under the authority of this Act shall be deemed and taken to be personal and not real estate, and shall go to the executors or administrators of the person or persons dying possessed thereof, interested therein, or entitled thereto, and not to the heir-at-law, nor be liable to any foreign attachment by the custom of London, or otherwise.

Annuities deemed personal estate.

9. The whole amount of the principal moneys to be charged on the revenues of India under this Act shall not exceed ten millions; and no money shall be raised or secured under the authority of this Act after the said thirtieth day of April one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine, or, if Parliament be then sitting, after the end of the then session of Parliament, save for or upon the repayment of principal moneys previously secured under this Act as herein-after provided.

The whole amount charged on revenues of India not to exceed 10,000,000*l.*

10. Upon or for the repayment of any principal money secured under the authority of this Act, the Secretary of State in Council may at any time borrow or raise, by all or any of the modes aforesaid, all or any part of the amount of principal money repaid or to be repaid, and so from time to time as all or any part of any principal money under this Act may require to be repaid, but the amount to be charged upon the revenues of India shall not in any case exceed the principal money required to be repaid.

Power to raise money for payment of principal money.

11. All bonds and debentures to be issued under this Act, and the principal moneys and interest thereby secured, and all capital stock to be issued under this Act, and the interest thereon, and all annuities to be issued under this Act, shall be charged on and payable out of the revenues of India, in like manner as other liabilities incurred on account of the government of the said territories.

Securities, &c. to be charged on revenues of India.

12. The provisions contained in section four of the Act of the session holden in the fifth and sixth years of King William the Fourth, chapter sixty-four, with respect to the composition and agreement for the payment by the East India Company of an annual sum in lieu of stamp duties on their bonds, and the exemption of their bonds from stamp duties, shall be applicable with respect to the bonds and debentures to be issued under the authority of this Act, as if such provisions were here repeated and re-enacted with reference thereto.

Provisions as to composition for stamp duties on India bonds extended to bonds and debentures under this Act.

13. All provisions now in force in anywise relating to the offence of forging or altering, or offering, uttering, disposing of, or putting off, knowing the same to be forged or altered, any East India bond, with intent to defraud, shall extend and be applicable to and in respect of any debenture issued under the authority of this Act, as well as to and in respect of any bond issued under the same authority.

Forgery of debentures to be punishable as forgery of East India bonds.

Returns to be prepared half-yearly of moneys raised on loan, and presented to Parliament.

14. Provided always, that, at the end of each of the half-years ending on the thirty-first day of March and the thirtieth day of September in every year, the Secretary of State in Council shall prepare or cause to be prepared a return of all loans raised in England under the provisions of this Act or of any other Acts, chargeable on the revenues of India, outstanding at the commencement of each half-year, with the rates of interest payable thereon, and the date of the termination of each loan, the debt incurred during the half-year, the moneys raised thereby during the half-year, the loans paid off or discharged during the half-year, and the loans outstanding at the close of the half-year, stating, so far as the public convenience will allow, the purpose or service for which moneys have been raised during the half-year; and that a similar return shall also be prepared of all loans raised in India; that such returns shall be presented to both Houses of Parliament within fifteen days after the expiration of the said half-yearly periods as regards the loans raised in England, and within three months as regards the loans raised in India, if Parliament be then sitting, or if not sitting, then within one week after Parliament shall be next assembled.

Accounts of all loans and liabilities to be included in account annually laid before Parliament.

15. The Secretary of State in Council shall include in the account to be laid before both Houses of Parliament, pursuant to the fifty-third section of the Act of the twenty-first and twenty-second Victoria, chapter one hundred and six, within the first fourteen days during which Parliament may be sitting next after the first day of May in every year, accounts of all stocks, loans, debts, and liabilities chargeable on the revenues of India, at home and abroad, at the commencement and close of the year to which such account shall relate, the loans, debts, and liabilities raised or incurred within that year and the amounts paid off or discharged during that year; and the provisions of the Acts of the twenty-first Victoria, chapter three, twenty-second Victoria, chapter eleven, twenty-second and twenty-third Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, twenty-third and twenty-fourth Victoria, chapter one hundred and thirty, twenty-fourth and twenty-fifth Victoria, chapters twenty-five and one hundred and eighteen, thirty-second and thirty-third Victoria, chapter one hundred and six, and thirty-sixth Victoria, chapter thirty-two, so far as regards the preparation and presentation to Parliament annually of a return of all moneys raised on loan under the provisions of those Acts, and a return of all stocks, loans, debts, and liabilities chargeable on the revenues of India, at home and abroad, are hereby repealed.

Saving powers of the Secretary of State in Council.

16. This Act shall not prejudice or affect any power of raising or borrowing money vested in the said Secretary of State in Council at the time of passing thereof.

17. Any capital stock created under this Act shall be deemed to be East India stock, within the Act twenty-second and twenty-third Victoria, chapter thirty-five, section thirty-two, unless and until Parliament shall otherwise provide; and any capital stock created under this Act shall be deemed to be and shall mean India stock within the Act of the twenty-sixth and twenty-seventh Victoria, chapter seventy-three, anything in the said last-mentioned Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

Stock created hereunder to be deemed East India stock.

18. The provisions contained in the third section of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth Victoria, chapter ninety-three, and all other enactments in the said Act relating to or affecting such provisions, shall be extended and be applicable to any capital stock created under this Act, or any previous Acts, and chargeable upon the revenues of India.

Sect. 3, &c. of 33 & 34 Vict. c. 93. extended to capital stock created under this Act.

CHAPTER 4.

An Act for punishing Mutiny and Desertion, and for the better payment of the Army and their Quarters.
[24th April 1874.]

WHEREAS the raising or keeping a standing army within the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland in time of peace, unless it be with the consent of Parliament, is against law: And whereas it is adjudged necessary by Her Majesty and this present Parliament that a body of forces should be continued for the safety of the United Kingdom, and the defence of the possessions of Her Majesty's Crown, and that the whole number of such forces should consist of one hundred and twenty-eight thousand nine hundred and ninety-four men, including those to be employed at the depôts in the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland for the training of recruits for service at home and abroad, but exclusive of the numbers actually serving within Her Majesty's Indian possessions: And whereas no man can be forejudged of life or limb, or subjected in time of peace to any kind of punishment within this realm by martial law, or in any other manner than by judgment of his peers, and according to the known and established laws of this realm; yet nevertheless it being requisite, for the retaining all the before-mentioned forces in their duty, that an exact discipline be observed, and that soldiers who shall mutiny or stir up sedition, or shall desert Her Majesty's service, or be guilty of crimes and offences to the prejudice of good order and military discipline, be brought to a more exemplary and speedy punishment than the usual forms of the law will allow:

Number of men to consist of 128,994, including those employed at depôts in United Kingdom, but exclusive of those actually serving in India.

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords

Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

Articles of War made by Her Majesty to be judicially taken notice of, and copies printed by the Queen's printer to be transmitted to judges, &c.

1. It shall be lawful for Her Majesty to make Articles of War for the better government of Her Majesty's army, which articles shall be judicially taken notice of by all judges and in all courts whatsoever; and copies of the same, printed by the Queen's printer, shall, as soon as may be after the same shall have been made and established by Her Majesty, be transmitted by Her Majesty's Secretary of State for the War Department to the judges of Her Majesty's superior courts at Westminster, Dublin, and Edinburgh respectively, and also to the governors of Her Majesty's dominions abroad: Provided that no person within the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or within the British Isles, shall by such Articles of War be subject to suffer any punishment extending to life or limb, or to be kept in penal servitude, except for crimes which are by this Act expressly made liable to such punishments as aforesaid, or shall be subject, with reference to any crimes made punishable by this Act, to be punished in any manner which shall not accord with the provisions of this Act: Provided also, that nothing in this Act contained shall in any manner prejudice or affect any Articles of War or other matters made, enacted, or in force, or which may hereafter be made, enacted, or in force, under the authority of the Government of India, respecting officers or soldiers or followers in Her Majesty's Indian army, being natives of India; and on the trial of all offences committed by any such native officer or soldier or follower, reference shall be had to the Articles of War framed by the Government of India for such native officers, soldiers, or followers, and to the established usages of the service.

Persons subject to this Act.

2. All the provisions of this Act shall apply to all persons who are or shall be commissioned or in pay as an officer, or who are or shall be listed or in pay as a non-commissioned officer or soldier, and to all warrant officers, and to all persons employed on the recruiting service receiving pay, and all pensioners receiving allowances in respect of such service, and to persons who are or shall be hired to be employed in the royal artillery, royal engineers, and to master gunners, and to conductors of stores, and to the corps of royal military surveyors and draftsmen, and to all officers and persons who are or shall be serving in the Control Department, and to officers and soldiers serving in the army hospital corps, or the army service corps, and to persons in the War Department, who are or shall be serving with any part of Her Majesty's army at home or abroad, under the command of any commissioned officer, and (subject to and in accordance with the provisions of an Act passed in the thirtieth and thirty-first years of the reign of Her present Majesty, chapter one hundred and ten) to any out-pensioners of the Royal Hospital, Chelsea, who may be called out on duty in aid of the civil power, or for muster or inspection, or who having volunteered their services for that purpose shall be kept on duty in any fort, town, or garrison, and to all civil officers who are or shall be employed by or act under the Secretary of State for War at any of Her Majesty's establishments in the islands of Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney, Sark, and Man, and the islands thereto belonging, or at foreign stations; and all the provisions of this Act shall apply to all persons belonging to Her Majesty's Indian forces who are or shall be commissioned or in pay as officers, or who shall be listed or in pay as non-commissioned officers or soldiers, or who are or shall be serving or hired to be employed in the artillery or any of the trains of artillery, or as master gunners or gunners, or as conductors of stores, or who are or shall be serving in the department of engineers, or in the corps of sappers and miners, or pioneers, or as military surveyors or draftsmen, or in the ordnance or public works or commissariat departments, and to all storekeepers and other civil officers employed under the ordnance, and to all veterinary surgeons, medical storekeepers, apothecaries, hospital stewards, and others serving in the medical department of the said forces, and to all licensed sutlers, and all followers in or of any of the said forces; provided that nothing in this Act contained shall extend to affect any security which has been or shall be given by any officers, or their sureties, for the due performance of their respective offices, but that all such securities shall be and remain in full force and effect:

And this Act shall apply to all persons receiving pay as members of the permanent staff of any militia regiment, and to all persons being enrolled in the militia who are attached for purposes of instruction, or otherwise, to a regiment or body of troops of the regular forces, and to all militia recruits during the period of their recruit training, when the militia battalions to which they belong are not for the time being out for training and exercise, and to all men enrolled in the reserve force when called out for training or exercise, or when kept on duty having volunteered their services, or when called out in aid of the civil power, or when called out on permanent service under Her Majesty's Proclamation: And all such persons shall, during such periods, and in respect of offences committed during such periods, be deemed to be part of the regular forces for the purposes of this Act in respect of billeting, discipline, trial, and punishment.

3. This Act shall extend to the islands of Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney, Sark, and Man, and the islands thereto belonging, as to the provisions herein contained for enlisting of recruits, whether minors or of full age, and swearing and attesting such recruits, and for mustering and paying, and as to the

this Act to extend to Jersey, Guernsey,

provisions for the trial and punishment of officers and soldiers who shall be charged with mutiny and desertion, or any other of the offences which are by this Act declared to be punishable by the sentence of a court-martial, and also as to the provisions which relate to the punishment of persons who shall conceal deserters, or shall knowingly buy, exchange, or otherwise receive any arms, medals for good conduct or for distinguished or other service, clothes, military furniture, or regimental necessaries from any soldier or deserter, or who shall cause the colour of any such clothes to be changed, or who shall aid in the escape of a prisoner from a military prison, or who shall introduce forbidden articles into such prison, or shall carry out any such articles, or who shall assault any officer of such prison, and also as to the provisions for exempting soldiers from being taken out of Her Majesty's service for not supporting or for leaving chargeable to any parish any wife or child or children, or on account of any breach of contract to serve or work for any employer, or on account of any debts under thirty pounds in the said islands.

Colonial and foreign troops in Her Majesty's pay to be subject to provisions of this Act.

4. All officers and soldiers of any troops mustered and in pay which shall be raised and serving in any of Her Majesty's dominions abroad, or in places in possession of or occupied by Her Majesty's subjects under the command of any officer having any commission immediately from Her Majesty, shall be subject to the provisions of this Act and of Her Majesty's Articles of War in like manner as Her Majesty's other forces are; and if such officers and soldiers, having been made prisoners, be sent into Great Britain or Ireland, although not allowed to serve therein, all the provisions of this Act in regard to billeting soldiers shall apply to such officers and soldiers.

Provision as to the militia or yeomanry or volunteer corps or reserve forces.

5. Nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to extend to any militia forces or yeomanry or volunteer corps in Great Britain or Ireland, or to the reserve force provided for by "The Reserve Force Act, 1867," or to the reserve force provided for by "The Militia Reserve Act, 1867," excepting as stated in the second section of this Act, and as herein-after enacted, or where by any Act for regulating any of the said forces or corps the provisions contained in any Act for punishing mutiny and desertion are or shall be specifically made applicable to such forces or corps.

Power to constitute courts-martial.

6. For the purpose of bringing offenders against this Act and against the Articles of War to justice, Her Majesty may from time to time, in like manner as has been heretofore used, grant commissions under the Royal Sign Manual for the holding of courts-martial within the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and may grant commissions or warrants under the said Royal Sign Manual to the chief governor or governors of Ireland, the commander of the forces, or the person or persons commanding in chief, or commanding for the time being, any body of troops belonging to Her Majesty's army, as well within the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland and the British Isles as in any of Her Majesty's garrisons and dominions or elsewhere beyond seas, for convening courts-martial, and for authorising any officer under their respective commands to convene courts-martial, as occasion may require, for the trial of offences committed by any of the forces under the command of any such last-mentioned officer, whether the same shall have been committed before or after such officer shall have taken upon him such command: Provided that the officer so authorised be not below the degree of a field officer, except in detached situations beyond seas where a field officer is not in command, in which case a captain may be authorised to convene district or garrison courts-martial: Every officer so authorised to convene courts-martial may confirm the sentence of any court-martial convened by him according to the terms of his warrant.

7. Any person subject to this Act who shall, in any part of Her Majesty's dominions or elsewhere, commit any of the offences for which he may be liable to be tried by court-martial by virtue of this Act or of the Articles of War, may be tried and punished for the same in any part of Her Majesty's dominions or in any other place whereto he may have come or where he may be after the commission of the offence, as if the offence had been committed where such trial shall take place.

Place where offenders may be tried.

8. Every general court-martial convened within the United Kingdom or the British Isles shall consist of not less than nine commissioned officers, each of whom shall have held a commission for three years before the date of the assembly of the court. Every general court-martial shall have power to sentence any officer or soldier to suffer death, penal servitude, imprisonment, forfeiture of pay or pension, or any other punishment which shall accord with the usage of the service: No sentence of death by a court-martial shall pass unless two thirds at least of the officers present shall concur therein; no sentence of penal servitude shall be for a period of less than five years; and no sentence of imprisonment shall be for a period longer than two years.

Powers of general courts-martial.

9. Every district or garrison court-martial convened within the United Kingdom or the British Isles shall consist of not less than seven commissioned officers, and shall have the same power as a general court-martial to sentence any soldier to such punishments as shall accord with the provisions of this Act: Provided always, that no such district or garrison court-martial shall have power to try a commissioned officer, or to pass any sentence of death or penal servitude.

Powers of district or garrison courts-martial.

Powers of regimental or detachment
courts-martial.

10. A regimental or detachment court-martial shall consist of not less than five commissioned officers, unless it is found to be impracticable to assemble that number, in which case three shall be sufficient, and shall have power to sentence any soldier to corporal punishment, or to imprisonment, and to forfeiture of pay, in such manner as shall accord with the provisions of this Act.

Courts-martial on line of march or in troop ships, &c.

11. In cases of mutiny, and insubordination accompanied with personal violence, or other offences committed on the line of march, or on board any transport ship, convict ship, merchant vessel, or troop ship, not in commission, the offender may be tried by a regimental or detachment court-martial, and the sentence may be confirmed and carried into execution on the spot by the officer in the immediate command of the troops, provided that the sentence shall not exceed that which a regimental court-martial is competent to award.

Powers of detachment general courts-martial.

12. It shall be lawful for any officer commanding any detachment or portion of troops serving in any place beyond seas where it may be found impracticable to assemble a general court-martial, upon complaint made to him of any offence committed against the property or person of any inhabitant of or resident in any country in which such troops are so serving by any person serving with or belonging to Her Majesty's armies, being under the immediate command of any such officer, to convene a detachment general court-martial, which shall consist of not less than three commissioned officers, for the purpose of trying any such person; and every such court-martial shall have the same powers in regard to sentence upon offenders as are granted by this Act to general courts-martial: Provided always, that no sentence of any such court-martial shall be executed until the general commanding the army of which such detachment or portion forms part shall have approved and confirmed the same.

As to swearing
of witnesses.

13. All general and other courts-martial shall administer an oath to every witness or other person who shall be examined before such court in any matter relating to any proceeding before the same; and every person, as well civil as military, who may be required to give or produce evidence before a court-martial, shall, in the case of general courts-martial, be summoned by the judge advocate general, or his deputy, or the person officiating as judge advocate, and in the case of all other courts-martial by the president of the court; and all persons so summoned and attending as witnesses before any court-martial shall, during their necessary attendance in or on such courts, and in going to and returning from the same, be privileged from arrest, and shall, if unduly arrested, be discharged by the court out of which the writ or process issued by which such witness was arrested, or if such court be not sitting, then by any judge of the superior courts of Westminster or Dublin, or of the Court of Session in Scotland, or of the courts of law in the East or West Indies, or elsewhere, according as the case shall require, upon its being made to appear to such court or judge, by any affidavit in a summary way, that such witness was arrested in going to or attending upon or returning from such court-martial; and all witnesses so duly summoned as aforesaid who shall not attend on such courts, or attending shall refuse to be sworn, or being sworn shall refuse to give evidence, or not produce the documents under their power or control required to be produced by them, or to answer all such questions as the court may legally demand of them, shall be liable to be attached in the Court of Queen's Bench in London or Dublin, or in the Court of Session or sheriff or stewart courts in Scotland, or in courts of law in the East or West Indies, or in any of Her Majesty's colonies, garrisons, or dominions in Europe or elsewhere respectively, upon complaint made, in like manner as if such witness, after having been duly summoned or subpoenaed, had neglected to attend upon a trial in any proceeding in the court in which such complaint shall be made: It shall be lawful for the president of any court-martial to administer an oath to a shorthand writer to take down, according to the best of his power, the evidence to be given before the court.

Oath to be administered to shorthand writer.

14. No officer or soldier who shall be acquitted or convicted of any offence shall be liable to be tried a second time by the same or any other court-martial for the same offence; and no finding, opinion, or sentence given by any court-martial, and signed by the president thereof, shall be revised more than once, nor shall any additional evidence in respect of any charge on which the prisoner then stands arraigned be received by the court on any revision.

No second trial for the same offence, but revision may be allowed.

15. If any person subject to this Act shall at any time during the continuance of this Act begin, excite, cause, or join in any mutiny or sedition in any forces belonging to Her Majesty's army, or Her Majesty's royal marines, or shall not use his utmost endeavours to suppress the same, or shall conspire with any other person to cause a mutiny, or coming to the knowledge of any mutiny or intended mutiny shall not, without delay, give information thereof to his commanding officer; or shall hold correspondence with or give advice or intelligence to any rebel or enemy of Her Majesty, either by letters, messages, signs, or tokens, in any manner or way whatsoever; or shall treat or enter into any terms with such rebel or enemy without Her Majesty's license, or license of the general or chief commander; or shall misbehave himself before the enemy; or shall shamefully abandon or deliver up any garrison, fortress, post, or guard committed to his charge, or which he shall have been commanded to defend; or shall compel the governor or commanding officer of any garrison, fortress, or post to deliver up to the enemy or to abandon the same; or shall speak words or use any other means to induce such governor or commanding officer, or others, to misbehave before the enemy, or shamefully to abandon or deliver up any garrison, fortress, post, or guard committed to their respective charge, or which he or they shall be commanded to defend; or shall desert Her Majesty's service; or shall leave his post before being regularly relieved; or shall sleep on his post; or shall strike or shall use or offer any violence against his superior officer, being in the execution of his office, or shall disobey any lawful command of his superior officer; or who being confined in a military prison shall offer any violence against a visitor or other his superior military officer, being in the execution of his office; all and every person and persons so offending in any of the matters before mentioned, whether such offence be committed within this realm or in any other of Her Majesty's dominions, or in foreign parts, upon land or upon the sea, shall suffer death, or penal servitude, or such other punishment as by a court-martial shall be awarded: Provided always, that any non-commissioned officer or soldier attested for or in pay in any regiment or corps who shall, without having first obtained a regular discharge therefrom, enlist himself in Her Majesty's army, may be deemed to have deserted Her Majesty's service, and shall be liable to be punished accordingly.

Judgment of death may be commuted for penal servitude or other punishments.

16. In all cases where the punishment of death shall have been awarded by a general court-martial or detachment general court-martial it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, or, if in any place out of the United Kingdom or British Isles, for the commanding officer having authority to confirm the sentence, instead of causing such sentence to be carried into execution, to order the offender to be kept in penal servitude for any term not less than five years, or to suffer such term of imprisonment, with or without hard labour, and with or without solitary confinement, as shall seem meet to Her Majesty, or to the officer commanding as aforesaid.

Embezzlement, &c. of stores punishable by penal servitude, or by fine, imprisonment, &c.

17. Any officer or soldier of Her Majesty's army, or any person employed in the War Department, or in any way concerned in the care or distribution of any money, provisions, forage, arms, clothing, ammunition, or other stores belonging to Her Majesty's army or for Her Majesty's use, who shall embezzle, fraudulently misapply, wilfully damage, steal, or receive the same, knowing them to have been stolen, or shall be concerned therein or connive thereat, may be tried for the same by a general court-martial, and sentenced to be kept in penal servitude for any term not less than five years, or to suffer such punishment of fine, imprisonment with or without hard labour, dismissal from Her Majesty's service, reduction to the ranks if a warrant or non-commissioned officer, as such court shall think fit, according to the nature and degree of the offence; and every such offender shall, in addition to any other punishment, make good at his own expense the loss and damage sustained, and in every such case the court is required to ascertain by evidence the amount of such loss or damage, and to declare by their sentence that such amount shall be made good by such offender; and the loss and damage so ascertained as aforesaid shall be a debt to Her Majesty, and may be recovered in any of Her Majesty's courts at Westminster or in Dublin, or the Court of Exchequer in Scotland, or in any court in Her Majesty's colonies, or in India, where the person sentenced by such court-martial shall be resident, after the said judgment shall be confirmed and made known, or the offender, if he shall remain in the service, may be put under stoppages not exceeding one half of his pay and allowances until the amount so ascertained shall be recovered.

18. Whenever Her Majesty shall intend that any sentence of penal servitude heretofore or hereafter passed upon any offender by any court-martial shall be carried into execution for the term specified in such sentence or for any shorter term, or shall be graciously pleased to commute as aforesaid to penal servitude any sentence of death passed by any such court, the sentence, together with Her Majesty's pleasure thereupon, shall be notified in writing by the officer commanding in chief Her Majesty's army in Great Britain and Ireland, or by the adjutant general, or by the Secretary of State for the War Department, to any judge of the Queen's Bench, Common Pleas, or Exchequer in England or Ireland, and thereupon such judge shall make an order for the penal servitude of such offender in conformity with such notification, and shall do all such other acts consequent upon such notification as such judge is authorised to do by any Act in force touching the penal servitude of other offenders; and it shall be lawful for any judge of the Queen's Bench, Common Pleas, or Exchequer in Ireland to make an order that any such offender convicted in Ireland shall be kept in penal servitude in England; and such order shall be in all respects as effectual in England as though such offender had been convicted in England and the order had been made by any judge of the Queen's Bench, Common Pleas, or Exchequer in England; and the person in whose custody such offender shall at that time be, and all other persons whatsoever whom the said order may concern, shall be bound to obey and shall be assistant in the execution thereof, and shall be liable to the same punishment for disobedience to or for interrupting the execution of such order as if the order had been made under the authority of any such Act as aforesaid; and every person so ordered to be kept in penal servitude shall be subject to every provision made by law and in force concerning persons under sentence of penal servitude; and from the time when such order of penal servitude shall be made every Act in force touching the escape of felons, or their afterwards returning or being at large without leave, shall apply to such offender, and to all persons aiding and abetting, contriving or assisting in any escape or intended escape or returning without leave of any such offender; and the judge who shall make any order of penal servitude as aforesaid shall direct the notification of Her Majesty's pleasure, and his own order made thereupon, to be filed and kept of record in the office of the Clerk of the Crown of the Court of Queen's Bench; and the said clerk shall have a fee of two shillings and sixpence only for filing the same, and shall, on application, deliver a certificate in writing (not taking more than two shillings and sixpence for the same) to such offender or to any person applying in his or Her Majesty's behalf, showing the Christian and surname of such offender, his offence, the place where the court was held before which he was convicted, and the conditions on which the order of penal servitude was made; which certificate shall be sufficient proof of the conviction and sentence of such offender, and also of the terms on which such order for his penal servitude was made, in any court and in any proceeding wherein it may be necessary to inquire into the same.

As to execution of sentences of penal servitude in the colonies, India, or elsewhere out of Her Majesty's dominions.

19. Whenever any sentence of penal servitude heretofore or hereafter passed upon any offender by any court-martial holden in any part of Her Majesty's foreign dominions, or elsewhere beyond the seas, is to be carried into execution for the term specified in such sentence or for any shorter term, or when sentence of death passed by any such court-martial has been or shall as aforesaid be commuted to penal servitude, the same shall be notified by the officer commanding Her Majesty's forces at the presidency or station where the offender may come or be, or in his absence by the adjutant general for the time being, if in India to the chief judge or any judge of the chief civil court of the presidency or province where the offender may come or be, and if in any other part of Her Majesty's dominions to the chief justice or some other judge therein, and such judge shall make order for the intermediate custody and penal servitude of such offender; and the offender shall, until handed over in pursuance of any such order to the civil authorities, be detained in military custody, and may be moved in such custody from place to place as circumstances may require; and upon any such order being made it shall be duly notified to the governor of the presidency if in India, or to the governor of the colony if in any of Her Majesty's colonies, or to the person who shall for the time being be exercising the office of governor of such presidency or colony, who, on receipt of such notification, shall cause such offender to be removed or sent to some other colony or place, or to undergo his sentence within the presidency or colony where the offender was so sentenced, or where he may come or be as aforesaid, in obedience to the directions for the removal and treatment of convicts which shall from time to time be transmitted from Her Majesty through one of her Principal Secretaries of State to such presidency or colony ; and such offender shall according to such directions undergo the sentence of penal servitude which shall have been passed upon him either in the presidency or colony in which he has been so sentenced, or in the colony or place to which he has been so removed or sent, and whilst such sentence shall remain in force shall be liable to be imprisoned, and kept to hard labour, and otherwise dealt with under such sentence, in the same manner as if he had been sentenced to be imprisoned with hard labour during the term of his penal servitude by the judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction in such presidency or colony, or in the colony or place to which he has been so removed or sent respectively ; and elsewhere out of Her Majesty's dominions the officer commanding shall have power to make an order in writing for the penal servitude or intermediate custody of such offender ; and such offender shall be liable by virtue of such order to be imprisoned, and kept to hard labour, and otherwise dealt with under the sentence of the court, in the same manner as if he had been sentenced to be imprisoned with hard labour during the term of his penal servitude by the judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction in the place where he may be ordered to be kept in such intermediate custody, or in the place to which he may be removed for the purpose of undergoing his sentence of penal servitude. If any prisoner shall be brought to any place in the United Kingdom there to undergo any sentence of penal servitude which has been passed upon him by a court-martial held elsewhere, and the judge's or officer's order herein-before prescribed for his penal servitude and intermediate custody shall not be forthcoming, and the judge advocate general, upon application for that purpose, shall certify that it appears from the original proceedings of the court-martial whereby the prisoner was tried that he has been duly sentenced to penal servitude, and that for anything that appears to the contrary thereon such sentence is still in force against the said prisoner for the period to be stated in such certificate, then it shall be lawful for one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, upon consideration of such certificate, to direct, in writing under his hand, that the said prisoner shall be at once removed to a convict prison, and be imprisoned and kept to hard labour according to the sentence stated in such certificate, and thereupon the prisoner shall be removed to such convict prison, and shall be liable to be imprisoned and kept to hard labour, and be otherwise dealt with during the term of his sentence, as if he had been sentenced to a like term of penal servitude by a competent court in the United Kingdom.

A sentence of penal servitude may be commuted for imprisonment, &c.

20. In any case where a sentence of penal servitude shall have been awarded by a general or detachment general court-martial it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, or, if in any place out of the United Kingdom or British Isles, for the officer commanding in chief Her Majesty's forces there serving, instead of causing such sentence to be carried into execution, to order that the offender be imprisoned, with or without hard labour, and with or without solitary confinement, for such term not exceeding two years as shall seem meet to Her Majesty, or to the officers commanding as aforesaid.

Of forfeitures, when combined with penal servitude.

21. Where an award of any forfeiture, or of deprivation of pay or of stoppages of pay, shall have been added to any sentence of penal servitude, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, or, if in any place out of the United Kingdom or British Isles, for the officer commanding in chief Her Majesty's forces there serving, in the event of the sentence being commuted for imprisonment, to order such award of forfeiture, deprivation of pay, or stoppages of pay to be enforced, mitigated, or remitted, as may be deemed expedient.

Courts-martial may not sentence to corporal punishment in time of peace.

22. No court-martial shall, for any offence whatever committed under this Act during the time of peace within the Queen's dominions, have power to sentence any soldier to corporal punishment; provided that any court-martial may sentence any soldier to corporal punishment while on active service in the field, or on board any ship not in commission, for mutiny, insubordination, desertion, drunkenness on duty or on the line of march, disgraceful conduct, or any breach of the Articles of War; and no sentence of corporal punishment shall exceed fifty lashes.

Power to inflict corporal punishment and imprisonment.

23. It shall be lawful for any general, district, or garrison court-martial, in addition to any sentence of corporal punishment, to award imprisonment, with or without hard labour, and with or without solitary confinement, such confinement not exceeding the periods prescribed by the Articles of War.

Power to commute corporal punishment for imprisonment, &c.

24. In all cases in which corporal punishment shall form the whole or part of the sentence awarded by any court-martial it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, or for the general or other officer authorised to confirm the sentences of courts-martial, to commute such corporal punishment to imprisonment for any period not exceeding forty-two days, with or without hard labour, and with or without solitary confinement, or to mitigate such sentence, or instead of such sentence to award imprisonment for any period not exceeding twenty days, with or without hard labour, and with or without solitary confinement and corporal punishment, to be inflicted in the prison, not exceeding twenty-five lashes, and the solitary confinement herein-before mentioned shall in no case exceed seven days at a time, with intervals of not less than seven days between each period of such confinement.

25. It shall be lawful for Her Majesty in all cases whatsoever, instead of causing a sentence of cashiering to be put in execution, to order the offender to be reprimanded, or, in addition thereto, to suffer such loss of army or regimental rank, or both, as may be deemed expedient.

Power to commute a sentence of cashiering.

26. A general, garrison, or district court-martial may sentence any soldier to imprisonment, with or without hard labour, and with or without solitary confinement, but such solitary confinement shall not exceed the periods prescribed by the Articles of War.

Power of imprisonment by general, garrison, or district courts-martial.

27. Any regimental or detachment court-martial may sentence any soldier to imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for any period not exceeding forty-two days, and with or without solitary confinement not exceeding the periods prescribed by the Articles of War.

Power of imprisonment by regimental or detachment courts-martial.

28. Whenever sentence shall be passed by a court-martial on an offender already under sentence either of imprisonment or of penal servitude, the court may award a sentence of imprisonment or penal servitude for the offence for which he is under trial, to commence at the expiration of the imprisonment or penal servitude to which he shall have been so previously sentenced, although the aggregate of the terms of imprisonment or penal servitude respectively may exceed the term for which any of those punishments could be otherwise awarded. Whenever Her Majesty, or any general or other officer authorised to confirm the sentences of courts-martial, shall commute a sentence of penal servitude or corporal punishment to imprisonment, and the offender whose sentence shall be so commuted shall, at the time of such commutation, be under sentence of imprisonment or penal servitude, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, or the general or other officer who shall so commute such sentence, to direct that such commuted sentence of imprisonment shall commence at the expiration of the imprisonment or penal servitude to which such prisoner shall have been so previously sentenced, although the aggregate of the term of imprisonment or penal servitude respectively may exceed the term for which any of those punishments could be otherwise awarded.

As to imprisonment of offenders already under sentence.

29. It shall be lawful for the Secretary of State for the War Department, and in India for the Governor General in Council, to set apart any buildings now erected or which may hereafter be erected, or any part or parts thereof, as military prisons, and to declare that any building or any two or more buildings shall be, and thenceforth such building or buildings shall be deemed and taken to be, a military prison ; and every military prison which, under the provisions of any former Act of Parliament, has been or which shall be so as aforesaid set apart and declared, shall be deemed to be a public prison within the meaning of this Act ; and all and every the powers and authorities with respect to county gaols or houses of correction which now are or which may hereafter be vested in any of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State shall, with respect to all such military prisons, belong to and may be exercised by the Secretary of State for the War Department, and in India by the Governor General in Council ; and it shall be lawful for the said Secretary of State, and in India for the Governor General in Council, from time to time to make, alter, and repeal rules and regulations for the government and superintendence of any such military prison, and of the governor, provost marshal, officers, and servants thereof, and of the offenders confined therein, which said rules and regulations so made as aforesaid shall remain and continue to be in force until the same are altered or repealed by Her Majesty's said Secretary of State for War, or in India by the Governor General in Council ; and it shall be lawful for the said Secretary of State, and in India for the Governor General in Council, from time to time to appoint an inspector general and inspectors of military prisons, and a governor, or provost marshal, and all other necessary officers and servants for any such military prison, and, as occasion may arise, to remove the governor or provost marshal, officer or servant of any such military prison ; and the general or other officer commanding any district or station within which may be any such military prison, or such general or other officer, and such other person or persons as the said Secretary of State, and in India the Governor General in Council, may from time to time appoint, shall be a visitor or visitors of such prison ; and the said Secretary of State, and in India the Governor General in Council, may authorise any general officer commanding to appoint periodically visitors to any military prison within his command ; and the said Secretary of State, and in India the Governor General in Council or the general officer so appointing, shall transmit to the visitor or visitors of every military prison established by his authority a copy of the rules and regulations which are to be observed and enforced, and the same shall accordingly be observed and enforced, within such prison ; and every inspector, visitor, and governor of any such military prison shall, subject to such rules and regulations as may from time to time be made by the said Secretary of State, or in India by the Governor General in Council, have and exercise in respect of such prison, and of the governor, officers, and servants thereof, and of the prisoners confined therein, all the powers and authorities, as well in respect of administering oaths as otherwise, which any inspector, visiting justice, or governor of a county gaol or house of correction may respectively exercise as such : Provided that every inspector of such military prisons, who is also a director of convict prisons, shall have the same power in such military prisons as he has in convict prisons.

30. Every governor, provost marshal, gaoler, or keeper of any public prison or of any gaol or house of correction in any part of Her Majesty's dominions shall receive into his custody any military offender under sentence of imprisonment by a court-martial, upon delivery to him of an order in writing in that behalf from the general commanding in chief, or the adjutant general, or the officer who confirmed the proceedings of the court, or the officer commanding the regiment or corps to which the offender belongs or is attached, which order shall specify the offence of which he shall have been convicted, and the sentence of the court, and the period of imprisonment which he is to undergo, and the day and hour of the day on which he is to be released ; and such governor, provost marshal, gaoler, or keeper shall keep such offender in a proper place of confinement, with or without hard labour, and with or without solitary confinement, according to the sentence of the court and during the time specified in the said order, or until he be discharged or delivered over to other custody before the expiration of that time under an order duly made for that purpose ; and whenever troops are called out in aid of the civil power, or are stationed in billets, or are on the line of march, every governor, provost marshal, gaoler, or keeper of any public prison, gaol, house of correction, lock-up house, or other place of confinement, shall receive into his custody any soldier for a period not exceeding seven days, upon delivery to him of an order in writing on that behalf from the officer commanding such troops.

As to the custody of military offenders under sentence of court-martial and in other cases.

31. In the case of a prisoner undergoing imprisonment under the sentence of a court-martial in any public prison other than the military prisons set apart by the authority of this Act, or in any gaol or house of correction in any part of the United Kingdom, it shall be lawful for the general commanding in chief, or the adjutant general, or the officer who confirmed the proceedings of the court, or the officer commanding the district or garrison in which such prisoner may be, to give, as often as occasion may arise, an order in writing directing that the prisoner be discharged, or be delivered over to military custody, whether for the purpose of being removed to some other prison or place in the United Kingdom, there to undergo the remainder or any part of his sentence, or for the purpose of being brought before a court-martial either as a witness or for trial ; and in the case of a prisoner undergoing imprisonment or penal servitude under the sentence of a court-martial in any public prison other than such military prison as aforesaid, or in any gaol or house of correction in any part of Her Majesty's dominions other than the United Kingdom, it shall be lawful for the general commanding in chief or the adjutant general of Her Majesty's forces in the case of any such prisoner, and for the Commander-in-Chief in India in the case of any prisoner so confined in any part of Her Majesty's Indian dominions, and for the general commanding in chief in any presidency in India in the case of a prisoner so therein confined, and for the officer commanding in chief or the officer who confirmed the proceedings of the court at any foreign station in the case of a prisoner so there confined, to give, as often as occasion may arise, an order in writing directing that the prisoner be discharged or be delivered over to military custody, whether for the purpose of being removed to some other prison or place in any part of Her Majesty's dominions, there to undergo the remainder or any part of his sentence, or for the purpose of being brought before a court-martial either as a witness or for trial; and in the case of any prisoner who shall be removed by any such order from any such prison, gaol, or house of correction either within the United Kingdom or elsewhere to some other prison or place either in the United Kingdom or elsewhere, the officer who gave such order shall also give an order in writing directing the governor, provost marshal, gaoler, or keeper of such other prison or place to receive such prisoner into his custody, and specifying the offence of which such prisoner shall have been convicted, and the sentence of the court, and the period of imprisonment which he is to undergo, and the day and the hour on which he is to be released; and such governor, provost marshal, gaoler, or keeper shall keep such offender in a proper place of confinement, with or without hard labour, and with or without solitary confinement, according to the sentence of the court, and during the time specified in the said order, or until he be duly discharged or delivered over to other custody before the expiration of that time under an order duly made for that purpose; and in the case of a prisoner undergoing imprisonment or penal servitude under the sentence of a court-martial in any military prison in any part of Her Majesty's dominions, the Secretary of State for the War Department, or the general officer commanding the district or station in which the prison may be situated, shall have the like powers in regard to the discharge and delivery over of such prisoners to military custody as may be lawfully exercised by any of the military authorities above mentioned in respect of any prisoners undergoing confinement as aforesaid in any public prison other than a military prison, or in any gaol or house of correction in any part of Her Majesty's dominions; and such prisoner in any of the cases herein-before mentioned shall accordingly, on the production of any such order as is herein-before mentioned, be discharged or delivered over, as the case may be: Provided always, that the time during which any prisoner under sentence of imprisonment by a court-martial shall be detained in such military custody under such order as aforesaid shall be reckoned as imprisonment under the sentence, for whatever purpose such detention shall take place; and such prisoner may during such time, either when on board ship or otherwise, be subjected to such restraint as is necessary for his detention and removal.

32. The gaoler or keeper of any public prison, gaol, house of correction, lock-up house, or other place of confinement in any part of Her Majesty's dominions shall diet and supply every soldier imprisoned therein under the sentence of a court-martial or as a deserter with fuel and other necessaries according to the regulations of such place of confinement, and shall receive on account of every soldier, out of the subsistence of such soldier during the period of his imprisonment, in Great Britain and Ireland, one shilling per diem, and in other parts of Her Majesty's dominions sixpence per diem: In all cases where such soldier is sentenced to be discharged from the army on the completion of his term of imprisonment, the Secretary of State for the War Department may cause to be issued out of army votes, upon application in writing, signed by any justice within whose jurisdiction such place of confinement shall be locally situated, together with a copy of the order of commitment, a further sum not exceeding sixpence per diem, and which said sum of one shilling or of sixpence, and the further sum, if any, as the case may be, shall be carried to the credit of the fund from which the expense of such place of confinement is defrayed. A sentence of imprisonment or of penal servitude passed either by a court-martial or by any court of criminal jurisdiction upon any person subject to this Act, shall be in no respect affected by such person ceasing to be subject to this Act by discharge or otherwise at any time: Provided, that for each person so ceasing to be subject to this Act, the Secretary of State for the War Department may cause to be issued out of army votes, upon application in writing, signed by any justice as aforesaid, together with a copy of the order of commitment, a sum not exceeding one shilling and sixpence per diem, which said sum shall be carried to the credit of the fund from which the expense of such place of confinement is defrayed.

In India the expenses incurred under the provisions of this section shall be paid in the same manner as the other expenses of such prison, or as may be provided by the laws or regulations to be made in that behalf.

33. Every gaoler or keeper of any public prison, gaol, house of correction, or other place of confinement, to whom any notice shall have been given, or who shall have reason to know or believe, that any person in his custody for any offence, civil or military, is a soldier liable to serve Her Majesty on the expiration of his imprisonment, shall forthwith, or as soon as may be, give, if in Great Britain, to the Secretary of State for the War Department, and if in Ireland to the general commanding Her Majesty's forces in Ireland, or if in India to the adjutant general of the army, or to the nearest military authority with whom it may be convenient to communicate, notice of the day and hour on which the imprisonment of such person will expire; and every such gaoler or keeper is hereby required to use his best endeavours to ascertain and report in all cases where practicable the particular regiment or corps, battalion of a regiment or battery of artillery, to which such soldier belongs, and also whether he belongs to the depôt or the head quarters of his regiment; and in the event of his being a recruit who has not joined, that it may be so stated in his report, together with the name of the place where the man enlisted. In all cases where the soldier in custody is under sentence to be discharged from the service on the completion of his term of imprisonment, and the discharge document is in the hands of the gaoler, such gaoler shall not be required to make any report thereof to the Secretary of State for War, or to the military authorities herein-before referred to.

Apprehension of deserters in the United Kingdom.

34. Upon reasonable suspicion that a person is a deserter it shall be lawful for any constable, or if no constable can be immediately met with, then for any officer or soldier in Her Majesty's service, or other person, to apprehend or cause to be apprehended such suspected person, and forthwith to bring him or cause him to be brought before any justice living in or near the place where he was so apprehended and acting for the county, city, district, place, or borough wherein such place is situate, or for the county adjoining such first-mentioned county or such borough; and such justice is hereby authorised and required to inquire whether such suspected person is a deserter, and from time to time to defer the said inquiry and to remand the said suspected person in the manner prescribed by an Act passed in the eleventh and twelfth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, chapter forty-two, section twenty-one, and subject to every provision therein contained; and if it shall appear to the satisfaction of such justice by the testimony of one or more witnesses taken upon oath, or by the confession of such suspected person, confirmed by some corroborative evidence upon oath or by the knowledge of such justice, that such suspected person is a deserter, such justice shall forthwith cause him to be conveyed in civil custody to the head quarters of the regiment or depôt to which he belongs, or to the nearest military station, or to the nearest or most convenient prison, police station, or other place legally provided, for the temporary confinement of persons in custody, or delivered to a party of soldiers in charge of a non-commissioned officer as to him may seem most expedient, having regard to the safe custody of such deserter; and such justice shall transmit an account of the proceedings to the Secretary of State for the War Department, specifying the manner in which he has so disposed of such deserter, to the end that the person so committed may be proceeded against according to law; and such justice shall also send to the said Secretary of State a report stating the names of the persons by whom or by or through whose means the deserter was apprehended and secured; and the said Secretary of State shall transmit to such justice an order for the payment to such persons of such sum not exceeding forty shillings as the said Secretary of State shall be satisfied they are entitled to according to the true intent and meaning of this Act; and for such information, commitment, and report as aforesaid the clerk of the said justice shall be entitled to a fee of two shillings and no more; and every gaoler and other person into whose custody any person charged with desertion is committed shall immediately upon the receipt of the person so charged into his custody pay such fee of two shillings, and shall notify the fact to the Secretary of State for the War Department, and transmit also to the said Secretary of State a copy of the commitment, to the end that such Secretary of State may order repayment of such fees; and when any such person shall be apprehended and committed as a deserter in any part of Her Majesty's foreign dominions the justice shall forthwith cause him to be conveyed to some public prison, if the regiment or corps to which he is suspected to belong shall not be in such part, or, if the regiment or corps be in such part, the justice may deliver him into custody at the nearest military post if within reasonable distance, although the regiment to which such person is suspected to belong may not be stationed at such military post; and such justice shall in every case transmit to the general or other officer commanding a descriptive return in the form prescribed in the schedule to this Act annexed, to the end that such person may be removed by order of such officer, and proceeded against according to law; and such descriptive return purporting to be duly made and subscribed in accordance with the Act shall, in the absence of proof to the contrary, be deemed sufficient evidence of the facts and matters therein stated: Provided always, that any such person so committed as a deserter in any part of Her Majesty's dominions shall, subject to the provisions herein-after contained, be liable to be transferred by order of the general or other officer commanding to serve in any regiment or corps or dépôt nearest to the place where he shall have been apprehended, or to any other regiment or corps to which it may be desirable that he should be transferred, and shall also be liable after such transfer of service to be tried and punished as a deserter.

As to the temporary custody of deserters in gaols.

35. Every gaoler or keeper of any public prison, gaol, house of correction, lock-up house, or other place of confinement in any part of Her Majesty's dominions is hereby required to receive and confine therein every deserter who shall be delivered into his custody by any soldier or other person conveying such deserter under lawful authority, on production of the warrant of the justice of the peace on which such deserter shall have been taken, or some order from the office of the Secretary of State for the War Department, which order shall continue in force until the deserter shall have arrived at his destination; and such gaoler or keeper shall be entitled to one shilling for the safe custody of the said deserter while halted on the march, and to such subsistence for his maintenance as shall be directed by Her Majesty's regulations.

Desertion of recruits prior to joining their regiments or corps.

36. Any recruit for Her Majesty's army who, having been attested or received pay other than enlisting money, shall desert before joining the regiment or corps for which he has enlisted, shall, on being apprehended, and committed for such desertion by any justice of the peace upon the testimony of one or more witnesses upon oath, or upon his own confession, forfeit his personal bounty, and be liable to be transferred to any regiment or corps or depôt nearest to the place where he shall have been apprehended, or to any other regiment or corps to which Her Majesty may deem it more desirable that he should be transferred: Provided always, that such deserters thus transferred shall not be liable to other punishment for the offence, or to any other penalty except the forfeiture of their personal bounty.

37. Any person who shall confess himself to be a deserter from Her Majesty's forces, or from the embodied militia, shall be liable to be taken before any two justices of the peace acting for the county, district, city, burgh, or place where any such person shall at any time happen to be when he shall be brought before them, and on proof that any such confession as aforesaid was false shall by the said justices be adjudged to be punished, if in England, as a rogue and vagabond, and if elsewhere by commitment to some prison or house of correction, there to be kept to hard labour for any time not exceeding three calendar months; and if, when such person shall be brought before the said justices, it shall be proved to their satisfaction that such confession has been made, but evidence of the truth or falsehood of such confession shall not at that time be forthcoming, such justices within the United Kingdom are hereby required to remand such person in the manner herein-before mentioned, and to transmit a statement of the case and descriptive return to the Secretary of State for the War Department, with a request to be informed whether such person appears to belong or to have belonged to the regiment or corps from which he shall have so confessed himself to have deserted; and a letter from the War Office in reply thereto, referring to such statement, and purporting to be signed by or on behalf of the Secretary of State for the War Department, shall be admissible in evidence against such person, and shall be deemed to be legal evidence of the facts stated therein, and on the receipt thereof the said justices shall forthwith proceed to adjudicate upon the case. In India the authority herein given to two justices may be exercised by one European justice or magistrate.

38. When there shall not be any military officer of rank not inferior to captain, or any adjutant of regular militia, within convenient distance of the place where any non-commissioned officer or soldier on furlough shall be detained by sickness or other casualty rendering necessary any extension of such furlough, it shall be lawful for any justice who shall be satisfied of such necessity to grant an extension of furlough for a period not exceeding one month; and the said justice shall by letter immediately certify such extension and the cause thereof to the commanding officer of the corps or detachment to which such non-commissioned officer or soldier belongs, if known, and if not then to the agent of the regiment or corps, in order that the proper sum may be remitted to such non-commissioned officer or soldier, who shall not during the period of such extension of furlough be liable to be treated as a deserter: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to exempt any soldier from trial and punishment, according to the provisions of this Act, for any false representation made by him in that behalf to the said justice, or for any breach of discipline committed by him in applying for and obtaining the said extension of furlough.

39. No person subject to this Act, having been acquitted or convicted of any crime or offence by the civil magistrate, or by the verdict of a jury, shall be liable to be again convicted for the same crime or offence by a court-martial, or to be punished for the same otherwise than by cashiering in the case of a commissioned officer, or in the case of a warrant officer by reduction to an inferior class or to the rank of a private soldier by order of the Commander-in-Chief, or in the case of an army schoolmaster to discharge from the service, or loss of the whole or any period of his previous service reckoning towards pension on discharge by order of the Commander-in-Chief, or in the case of a non-commissioned officer by reduction to the ranks by order of the Commander-in-Chief or of the colonel, or in the militia by order of the appointed commandant of the regiment or corps; and whenever any officer or soldier shall have been tried by any court of ordinary criminal jurisdiction, the clerk of such court or other officer having the custody of the records of such court, or the deputy of such clerk, shall, if required by the officer commanding the regiment or corps to which such officer or soldier shall belong, transmit to him a certificate setting forth the offence of which the prisoner was convicted, together with the judgment of the court thereon if such officer or soldier shall have been convicted, or of the acquittal of such officer or soldier, and shall be allowed for such certificate a fee of three shillings.

Soldiers liable to be taken out of Her Majesty's service only for felony, misdemeanor, or for debts amounting to 30*l.* and upwards.

40. Any person attested for Her Majesty's army, or serving on the permanent staff of the disembodied militia or volunteers other than as a commissioned officer, shall be liable to be taken out of Her Majesty's service only by process or execution on account of any charge of felony or of misdemeanor, or of any crime or offence other than the misdemeanor of absenting himself from his service, or neglecting to fulfil his contract, or otherwise misconducting himself respecting the same, or the misdemeanor of refusing to comply with an order of justices for the payment of money, or on account of an original debt proved by affidavit of the plaintiff or of some one on his behalf to amount to the value of thirty pounds at the least, over and above all costs of suit, such affidavit to be sworn, without payment of any fee, before some judge of the court out of which process or execution shall issue, or before some person authorised to take affidavits in such court, of which affidavit, when duly filed in such court, a memorandum shall, without fee, be endorsed upon the back of such process, stating the facts sworn to, and the day of filing such affidavit; but no soldier or other person as aforesaid shall be liable by any process whatever to appear before any justice of the peace or other authority whatever, or to be taken out of Her Majesty's service by any writ, summons, warrant, order, judgment, execution, or any process whatsoever issued by or by the authority of any court of law, or any magistrate, justice or justices of the peace, or any other authority whatsoever, for any original debt not amounting to thirty pounds, or for the breach of any contract, covenant, agreement, or other engagement whatever by parol or in writing, or for having left or deserted his employer or master, or his contract, work, or labour, or misconducting himself respecting the same, except in the case of an apprentice, or of an indentured labourer, as herein-after described; and all summonses, warrants, commitments, indictments, convictions, judgments, and sentences on account of any of the matters for which it is herein declared that a soldier or other person as aforesaid is not liable to be taken out of Her Majesty's service shall be utterly illegal, and null and void, to all intents and purposes; and any judge of any such court may examine into any complaint made by a soldier or by his superior officer, and by warrant under his hand discharge such soldier, without fee, he being shown to have been arrested contrary to the intent of this Act, and shall award reasonable costs to such complainant, who shall have for the recovery thereof the like remedy as would have been applicable to the recovery of any costs which might have been awarded against the complainant in any judgment or execution as aforesaid, or a writ of Habeas corpus ad subjiendum shall be awarded or issued, and the discharge of any such soldier out of custody shall be ordered thereupon; provided that any plaintiff, upon notice of the cause of action first given in writing to any soldier, or left at his last quarters, may proceed in any action or suit to judgment, and have execution other than against the body or military necessities or equipments of such soldier; provided also, that nothing herein contained relating to the leaving or deserting a master or employer, or to the breach of any contract, agreement, or engagement, shall apply to persons who shall be really and bonâ fide apprentices, duly bound, under the age of twenty-one years, or to indentured labourers, as herein-after prescribed.

41. No person who shall be commissioned and in full pay as an officer shall be capable of being nominated or elected to be sheriff of any county, borough, or other place, or to be mayor, portreeve, alderman, or to hold any office in any municipal corporation in any city, borough, or place in Great Britain or Ireland: Provided that the competence or liability of any officer to be nominated to or to hold any of the aforesaid offices shall not be deemed to be affected by reason of the corps to which he belongs being assembled for annual training at the time of his nomination to, or during the period of his tenure of, such office.

Officers not to be sheriffs or mayors, &c.

42. Every person authorised to enlist recruits or to enrol men under any Reserve Force Acts, or to enlist men under any Militia Reserve Acts, shall first ask the person about to be so enlisted or enrolled whether he belongs to any and what force in Her Majesty's service, and also such other questions as the proper authorities may direct to be put to such persons, and in case of a recruit shall immediately after giving him enlisting money serve him with a notice in the form ordered by the Secretary of State for the War Department to be used.

Questions to be put to recruits on enlisting.

43. Every person who shall receive enlisting money in manner aforesaid, knowing it to be such, shall, subject to the provisions herein-after contained, upon such receipt be deemed to be enlisted as a soldier in Her Majesty's service, and while he shall remain with the recruiting party shall be entitled to be billeted.

Recruits, when deemed to be enlisted.

When recruits to be taken before a justice.

44. Every person so enlisted as aforesaid shall, within ninety-six hours (any intervening Sunday, Christmas Day, or Good Friday not included) but not sooner than twenty-four hours after such enlistment, appear, together with some person employed in the recruiting service, before a justice of the peace, not being an officer of the army, for the purpose of being attested as a soldier, or of objecting to his enlistment.

Dissent and relief from enlistment.

45. When a recruit upon appearing before a justice for the purposes aforesaid shall dissent from or object to his enlistment, and shall satisfy the justice that the same was effected in any respect irregularly, he shall forthwith discharge the recruit absolutely, and shall report such discharge to the inspecting field officer of the district, or in the case of a recruit enlisted at the head quarters or depôt of a regiment to the officer commanding the same; but if the recruit so dissenting shall not allege or shall not satisfy the justice that the enlistment was effected irregularly, nevertheless, upon repayment of the enlisting money, and of any sum received by him in respect of pay or allowances, and of a further sum of twenty shillings as smart money, he will be entitled to be discharged, and the sum paid by such recruit upon his discharge shall be kept by the justice, and after deducting therefrom one shilling as the fee for reporting the payment to the Secretary of State for the War Department and to the inspecting field officer of the district, shall be paid over to any person belonging to the recruiting party who may demand the same; and the justice who shall discharge any recruit shall in every case give a certificate thereof, signed with his hand, to the recruit, specifying the cause thereof.

recruits.

46. If the recruit on appearing before a justice shall not dissent from his enlistment, or dissenting shall within twenty-four hours return and state that he is unable to pay the sums mentioned in the last section, he shall be attested as follows: the justice, or some person deputed by him, shall read to the recruit the questions set forth in the form of attestation ordered by the Secretary of State for the War Department to be used, cautioning him that if he fraudulently make any false answer thereto he shall be liable to be punished as a rogue and a vagabond; and the answers of the recruits shall be recorded opposite to the said questions, and the justice shall require the recruit to make and sign the declaration in the said form, and shall then administer to him the oath of allegiance in the said form; and when the recruit shall have signed the said declaration, and taken the said oath, the justice shall attest the same by his signature, and shall deliver to the recruiting officer the declaration so signed and attested; and the fee for such attestation, including the declaration and oath, shall be one shilling and no more; and any recruit shall, if he so wish, be furnished with a certified copy of the above-mentioned declaration by the officer who finally approved of him for the service.

47. No recruit, unless he shall have been attested or shall have received pay other than enlisting money, shall be liable to be tried by court-martial; but if any person previously to his being attested or enrolled shall by means of any false answer obtain enlistment or other money, or shall make any false statement in his declaration, or shall refuse to answer any question duly authorised to be put to him for the purpose of filling up such declaration, or shall refuse or neglect to go before a justice for the purposes aforesaid, or having in the case of a recruit dissented from his enlistment shall wilfully omit to return and pay such money as aforesaid, in any of such cases it shall be lawful for any two justices within the United Kingdom, or for any one justice out of the United Kingdom, acting for the county, district, city, burgh, or place where any such person shall at any time happen to be, to adjudge such person, when he shall be brought before them or him, if in England, to be a rogue and vagabond, and to sentence him to be punished accordingly, and if in Scotland or Ireland, or elsewhere in Her Majesty's dominions, to be imprisoned with hard labour in any prison or house of correction for any period not exceeding three calendar months.

48. Any person who shall have been attested or enrolled in the regular army or reserves, and who shall afterwards be discovered to have given any wilfully false answer to any question directed to be put by the proper authorities, or shall have made any wilfully false statement in the declaration herein-before mentioned, shall be liable, at the discretion of the proper military authorities, to be proceeded against before two justices in the manner herein-before mentioned, and by them sentenced accordingly, or to be tried by a district or garrison court-martial for the same, and punished in such manner as such court shall direct; and the declaration made by such person on his attestation or enrolment purporting to be made in accordance with the regulations of the Secretary of State shall, in the absence of proof to the contrary, be deemed sufficient evidence, whether before such justice or justices or before any court-martial, of such person having represented the several particulars as stated in such declaration.

Attested recruits triable in some cases either before two justices or before a court-martial.

49. If any recruit shall abscond, so that it is not possible immediately to apprehend and bring him before a justice for attestation, the recruiting party shall produce to the justice before whom the recruit ought to have been brought for that purpose a certificate of the name and place of residence and description of such recruit, and of his having absconded, and shall declare the same to be true; and the justice to whom such certificate shall be produced shall transmit a duplicate thereof to the Secretary of State for the War Department, in order that the same may appear in the "Police Gazette." For the purposes of this section and all purposes of attestation and enlistment, a justice of any county or borough shall be deemed to be a justice of any other county or borough.

As to militia-men enlisting into regular forces.

50. If any man while belonging to a militia regiment shall enlist in and be attested for Her Majesty's army, he shall be liable to be tried before a court-martial on a charge for desertion; but it shall be lawful for the Secretary of State for the War Department to give such general directions as may from time to time appear to him necessary for placing any man who confesses himself to be a militiaman under stoppage of one penny a day of his pay for eighteen calendar months, in lieu of his being tried by court-martial, and in case such militiaman shall have belonged to the Militia Reserve at the time of his attestation for placing him under a further stoppage of one penny a day for two hundred and forty days, and further to give general directions as to the manner in which such stoppages shall be applied, and whether, on making good the same, the man shall be returned to his militia regiment or be deemed to be a soldier in the same manner as if he had not been a militiaman at the time of his attestation: Provided, that every soldier who while belonging to a militia regiment enlisted in Her Majesty's army, whether such enlistment took place before or after the passing of the Mutiny Act, 1860, shall reckon service towards the performance of his limited engagement from the date of his attestation: Provided also, that any such soldier shall not reckon service for pension until the day on which his engagement for the militia would have expired; but if any such soldier shall subsequently to his enlistment have rendered long, faithful, or gallant service, the Secretary of State for War may, upon the special recommendation of the Commander-in-Chief, order that he may reckon service for pension from the date of his attestation. If any non-commissioned officer of the volunteer permanent staff enlists in Her Majesty's army he may be tried and punished as a deserter, but if he confesses his desertion the Secretary of State for the War Department, instead of causing him to be tried and punished as a deserter, may cause him to be returned to his service on the volunteer permanent staff, to be there put under stoppages from his pay until he has repaid the amount of any bounty received by him and the expenses attending his enlistment, and also the value of any arms, &c. issued to him while on the volunteer permanent staff, and not duly delivered up by him; or may cause him to be held to his service in Her Majesty's army, with a direction, if it seems fit, that his time of service therein shall not be reckoned for pension until the time when his engagement on the volunteer permanent staff would have expired; and may further cause him to be put under stoppages of one penny a day of his pay until he has repaid the expense attending his engagement or attestation on the volunteer permanent staff, and also the value of any arms, clothing, or appointments issued to him while on the volunteer permanent staff, and not duly delivered up by him.

51. Every person subject to this Act who shall wilfully act contrary to any of its provisions in any matter relating to the enlisting or attesting of recruits for Her Majesty's army shall be liable to be tried for such offence before a general, district, or garrison court-martial, and to be sentenced to such punishments other than death or penal servitude as such courts may award.

Punishment of persons offending against laws relating to enlistment.

52. It shall be lawful for any justice of the peace or person exercising the office of a magistrate within any of Her Majesty's dominions abroad, and in any colony for any other person duly authorised in that behalf by the governor or officer administering the government of such colony, and beyond the limits of Her Majesty's dominions for any British consul or person duly exercising the authority of a British consul, and in Her Majesty's dominions in India for any person duly authorised in that behalf by the Governor General or lieutenant governor or other officer administering the government of any presidency, division, or province, and within the territories of any foreign state in India for the person performing the duties of the office of British resident therein, and for any other person duly authorised in that behalf by the Governor General, to enlist and attest or to re-engage within the local limits of their several authorities any soldiers or persons desirous of enlisting or re-engaging in Her Majesty's army; and it shall be lawful, notwithstanding anything contained in the statute twenty-third and twenty-fourth Victoria, chapter one hundred, for any person so authorised in Her Majesty's dominions in India, or within the territories of any foreign state in India, to enlist and attest within the local limits of his authority any persons desirous of enlisting in Her Majesty's Indian forces. Any such magistrate or person as aforesaid shall have the same powers in that behalf as are by this or any other Act of Parliament given to justices in the United Kingdom for all such purposes of enlistment and attestation; but no such magistrate or other person authorised to enlist and attest as above mentioned shall be a general officer or hold any regimental commission; and all such appointments, past and future, and everything done or to be done under them, shall be valid and of full effect, notwithstanding the expiration of this Act or of any other Act of Parliament; and any person so attested shall be deemed to be an attested soldier.

Enlistment and re-enlistment, and transfer to another corps abroad.

Soldiers willing may be transferred to succeeding corps.

53. When any corps shall be relieved or disbanded at any station beyond the seas it shall be lawful for any officers thereunto authorised by the officer commanding in chief at such station to receive as transfers as many of the soldiers belonging to the corps leaving the station as shall be willing and fit for service for any corps appointed to remain; and every soldier so transferred is hereby deemed to be discharged from his former corps, and an attested certificate of transfer shall be delivered to the soldier.

Soldiers may be transferred
vice to another.

54. It shall be lawful for the Commander-in-Chief, and on any foreign station for the general or other officer commanding at such station, to direct that any soldier attested for any one branch of the service shall on the application of his commanding officer, and with his own consent, be transferred to some other branch of the service or to some other regiment or corps in the same branch of the service, either within the United Kingdom or elsewhere; and every soldier so transferred shall be deemed to be discharged from his former corps, and shall have a certificate of transfer delivered to him: Provided always, that any soldier who may have volunteered for the corps of armourer sergeants, or for the army hospital corps, or the army service corps, shall be liable, by order of the military authorities above mentioned, to be re-transferred to his former corps, or to any other corps on the station on which he is serving at the time, for misconduct, unfitness, or any other reasonable cause: Provided also, that any staff clerk or other non-commissioned officer or soldier on the staff of the army may be transferred to any corps serving at the station at the time of his removal from staff employ: Provided also, that upon the conviction by court-martial of any soldier of the crime of desertion, the officer commanding in chief Her Majesty's forces may, and if the court-martial has been held at a foreign station the officer commanding in chief Her Majesty's forces at such foreign station may, order such soldier to serve in any regiment or corps.

of soldiers for a further term.

55. Any soldier who being in army service has commenced the last year of his first term of enlistment, or who being within three years of the expiration of his first term of enlistment, has been ordered, but has not yet proceeded on foreign service, may, with the approval of his commanding officer, or other competent military authority, and subject to such regulations as may from time to time be made by the Secretary of State, be re-engaged for such a period as shall complete a total period of twenty-one years in Her Majesty's service, reckoning from the time of his first enlistment; and any soldier who has completed a total period of twenty-one years service may, with the approval of the competent military authorities, continue to serve beyond such total period, under the provisions of the tenth section, Army Enlistment Act, 1870; and any person who has been a soldier, and who has received his discharge, may also be so re-engaged upon making a declaration in the form ordered by the Secretary of State for the War Department to be used, before any one of Her Majesty's justices of the peace in Great Britain or Ireland, or if not in Great Britain or Ireland before any person duly appointed to enlist and attest out of Great Britain and Ireland any soldiers or persons desirous of enlisting or re-engaging in Her Majesty's service : Provided always, that in reckoning service under the original enlistment or re-engagement of a soldier the boon service granted by the general order of the Governor General of India, dated twelfth of October one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, shall be reckoned as actual service, and allowed towards pension and discharge: Provided also, that every soldier now serving who belonged to the garrison which defended Lucknow, or to the garrison which defended the Alumbagh, before the advance of any portion of the forces under the late Lord Clyde in one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, shall be allowed to reckon one year's service towards the performance of his limited engagement, and also towards pension on discharge: Provided also, that every soldier who volunteered into Her Majesty's army from any embodied regiment of militia between the thirty-first of December one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five and the twenty-first of March one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one inclusive, or from the disembodied militia during the last week of the training of his regiment in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, and who had rendered previous to volunteering six months embodied or disembodied militia service, shall be allowed to reckon towards good-conduct pay and pension, and towards the completion of his limited engagement of service in Her Majesty's army, half the embodied service which he had rendered in the militia after attaining the age of eighteen.

Boon service to be reckoned.

56. All negroes or persons of colour who, although not born in any of Her Majesty's colonies, territories, or possessions, shall have voluntarily enlisted into Her Majesty's service, shall, while serving, be deemed to be soldiers legally enlisted into Her Majesty's service, and be entitled to all the privileges of natural-born subjects ; and all negroes who have been seized and condemned as prize under the Slave Trade Acts, and appointed to serve in Her Majesty's army, shall be deemed to be and shall be entitled to all the advantages of negroes or persons of colour voluntarily enlisted to serve as soldiers in any of Her Majesty's colonial forces.

Enlistment of negroes.

57. Any person duly bound as an apprentice in Great Britain or Ireland, or as an indentured labourer in any of Her Majesty's colonies or possessions abroad, who shall enlist as a soldier in Her Majesty's army, and shall falsely state to the magistrate before whom he shall be carried and attested that he is not an apprentice or indentured labourer as aforesaid, shall be deemed guilty of obtaining money under false pretences, if in England or in Ireland, or in the colonies or possessions aforesaid, and of falsehood, fraud, and wilful imposition, if in Scotland, and shall after the expiration of his apprenticeship, or of his indenture as a labourer, whether he shall have been so convicted and punished or not, be liable to serve as a soldier in Her Majesty's army according to the terms of the enlistment, and if on the expiration of his apprenticeship, or of his indenture as a labourer, he shall not deliver himself up to some officer authorised to receive recruits such person may be taken as a deserter from Her Majesty's army; and no master shall be entitled to claim an apprentice or an indentured labourer as aforesaid who shall enlist as a soldier in Her Majesty's army, or shall be serving in the embodied militia, unless he shall, within one calendar month after such apprentice or indentured labourer shall have left his service, go before some justice, and take the oath mentioned in the schedule to this Act annexed, and shall produce the certificate of such justice of his having taken such oath, which certificate such justice is required to give in the form in the schedule to this Act annexed, and unless such apprentice shall have been bound, if in England, for the full term of five years, not having been above the age of fourteen when so bound, and, if in Ireland or in the British Isles, for the full term of five years at the least, not having been above the age of sixteen when so bound, and, if in Scotland, for the full term at least of four years, by a regular contract or indenture of apprenticeship, duly extended, signed, and tested, and binding on both parties by the law of Scotland, prior to the period of enlistment, and unless such contract or indenture in Scotland shall, within three months after the commencement of the apprenticeship, and before the period of enlistment, have been produced to a justice of the peace of the county in Scotland wherein the parties reside, and there shall have been indorsed thereon by such justice a certificate or declaration signed by him specifying the date when and the person by whom such contract or indenture was so produced, which certificate or declaration such justice of the peace is hereby required to indorse and sign, and unless such apprentice shall, when claimed by such master, be under twenty-one years of age: Provided always, that any master of an apprentice indentured for the sea service, or of any indentured labourer in Her Majesty's colonies or possessions abroad, shall be entitled to claim and recover him in the form and manner above directed, notwithstanding such apprentice or indentured labourer may have been bound for a less term than five or four years as aforesaid: Provided also, that any master who shall give up the indentures of his apprentice or of his labourer as aforesaid within one month after the enlisting of such apprentice or indentured labourer shall be entitled to receive to his own use so much of the bounty payable to such recruit as shall not have been paid to such recruit before notice given of his being an apprentice or an indentured labourer.

58. No apprentice or indentured labourer claimed by his master as aforesaid shall be taken from any corps or recruiting party, except under a warrant of a justice residing near, and within whose jurisdiction such apprentice or indentured labourer shall then happen to be, before whom he shall be carried; and such justice shall inquire into the matter upon oath, which oath he is hereby empowered to administer, and shall require the production and proof of the indenture, and that notice of the said warrant has been given to the commanding officer, and a copy thereof left with some officer or non-commissioned officer of the party, and that such person so enlisted declared that he was no apprentice or indentured labourer; and such justice, if required by such officer or non-commissioned officer, shall commit the offender to the common gaol of the county, division, or place for which such justice is acting, and shall keep the indenture to be produced when required, and shall bind over such person as he may think proper to give evidence against the offender, who shall be tried at the next or at the sessions immediately succeeding the next general or quarter sessions of such county, division, or place, unless the court shall for just cause put off the trial; and the production of the indenture, with the certificate of the justice that the same was proved, shall be sufficient evidence of the said indenture; and every such offender in Scotland may be tried by the judge ordinary in the county or stewartry in such and the like manner as any person may be tried in Scotland for any offence not inferring a capital punishment: Provided always, that any justice not required as aforesaid to commit such apprentice or indentured labourer may deliver him to his master.

Punishment of apprentices enlisting.

59. No person who shall, for six months either before or after the passing of this Act, have received pay and been borne on the strength and pay list of any regiment or corps, or depôt or battalion of a regiment or corps (of which the last quarterly pay list, if produced, shall be evidence), shall be entitled to claim his discharge on the ground of error or illegality in his enlistment or attestation or re-engagement, or on any other ground whatsoever, but, on the contrary, every such person shall be deemed to have been duly enlisted, attested, or re-engaged, as the case may be; and no person shall be exempted from the provisions of this Act or of the Articles of War for the time being by reason only that the number of the forces for the time being in the service of Her Majesty is either greater or less than the number herein-before mentioned.

Removal of doubts as to attestation of soldiers.

Authorised deductions only to be made from the pay of the army.

60. No Secretary of State for the War Department, paymaster general of the army, paymaster, or any other officer whatsoever, or any of their under officers, shall receive any fees or make any deductions whatsoever out of the pay of any officer or soldier in Her Majesty's army or from their agents, which shall grow due from and after the twenty-fifth day of April one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, other than the usual deductions, or such other necessary deductions as shall from time to time be authorised or required by Her Majesty's regulations or Articles of War, or by statute twenty-six and twenty-seven Victoria, chapter sixty-five, section eight (Volunteer Act), or by Her Majesty's order signified by the Secretary of State for the War Department; and every paymaster or other officer who having received any officer's or soldier's pay shall unlawfully detain the same for the space of one month, or refuse to pay the same when it shall become due, according to the several rates and agreeably to the several regulations established by Her Majesty's orders, shall, upon proof thereof before a court-martial, be discharged from his employment, and shall forfeit one hundred pounds, and the informer, if a soldier, shall, if he demand it, be discharged from any further service.

61. And whereas by petition of right in the third year of King Charles the First it is enacted and declared, that the people of the land are not by the laws to be burdened with the sojourning of soldiers against their wills; and by a clause in an Act of the Parliament of England, made in the thirty-first year of the reign of King Charles the Second, for granting a supply to His Majesty of two hundred and six thousand four hundred and sixty-two pounds seventeen shillings and three-pence, for paying and disbanding the forces, it is declared and enacted that no officer, civil or military, nor other person whosoever, should thenceforth presume to place, quarter, or billet any soldier upon any subject or inhabitant of this realm, of any degree, quality, or profession whatsoever, without his consent, and that it shall be lawful for any subject or inhabitant to refuse to quarter any soldier, notwithstanding any warrant or billeting whatsoever: And whereas by an Act passed in the Parliament of Ireland in the sixth year of the reign of Queen Anne, chapter fourteen, section eight, intituled "An Act to prevent the disorders that may happen by the marching of soldiers, and providing carriages for the baggage of soldiers on their march," it was enacted, that no officer, soldier, or trooper in the army, nor the servant of any officer, nor any attendant on the train of artillery, nor any yeoman of the guard or battle-axes, nor any officer commanding the said yeomen, nor any servant of any such officer, should at any time thereafter have, receive, or be allowed any quarters in any part of Ireland, save only during such time or times as

he or they should be on their march as in the same Act is before mentioned, or during such time as he or they should be and remain in some seaport town or other place in the neighbourhood of a seaport town in order to be transported, or during such time as there should be any commotion in any part of Ireland, by reason of which emergency the army, or any considerable part thereof, should be commanded to march from one part of Ireland to another: But forasmuch as there is and may be occasion for the marching and quartering of regiments, corps, troops, and companies in several parts of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, the said several provisions of the said recited Acts shall be suspended and cease to be of any force or effect during the continuance of this Act.

62. And whereas by the eleventh section of the said Act of the sixth year of the reign of Queen Anne, chapter fourteen, it is provided and enacted, that no civil magistrate or constable should be obliged to find quarters for or give billets to more or other soldiers than those only whose true Christian and surnames should be delivered to him in writing under the hand of the officer desiring quarters or billets for such soldiers at the time such quarters or billets should be desired, and that all such names should be written together and delivered in one piece of paper, signed as aforesaid, and that the Christian and surnames of every soldier to be quartered or billeted, together with the name of the person on whom he or they should be billeted or quartered, should be given in writing by the constable or civil officer billeting or quartering such soldier, and be contained in the billet given by such civil officer: And whereas it has been found inconvenient and difficult to comply with all the requirements of the said enactment: It shall not be necessary, so long as this Act shall continue in force, for any officer, upon the occasion of his requiring quarters or billets for any soldiers in Ireland, to deliver to the constable or other person whose duty it shall be to find or give the same any list of the names of the soldiers to be so quartered or billeted; and it shall not be necessary for the constable or other such person as aforesaid to set forth in any billet the name of any soldier to be billeted or quartered, but only the number of the soldiers, or the number of the soldiers and horses respectively, as the case may require, to be billeted or quartered on the person named in the billet, and to whom the same shall be addressed.

Certain requirements of 6 Anne, c. 14. (I.), as to billeting in Ireland, no longer necessary.

63. It shall be lawful for all constables of parishes and places, and other persons specified in this Act, in Great Britain and Ireland, and they are hereby required, to billet the officers and soldiers in Her Majesty's service, and out-pensioners when assembled as a local force by competent authority, and persons receiving pay in Her Majesty's army, and the horses belonging to Her Majesty's cavalry, and also all staff and field officers horses, and all bāt and baggage horses belonging to any of Her Majesty's other forces, when on actual service, not exceeding for each officer the number for which forage is or shall be allowed by Her Majesty's regulations, in victualling houses and other houses specified in this Act (taking care in Ireland not to billet less than two men in one house, except only in case of billeting cavalry as specially provided); and they shall be received by the occupiers of the houses in which they are so billeted, and be furnished by such victuallers with proper accommodation in such houses, or if any victualler shall not have sufficient accommodation in the house upon which a soldier is billeted, then in some good and sufficient quarters to be provided by such victualler in the immediate neighbourhood, and in Great Britain shall also be furnished with diet and small beer, and in Great Britain and Ireland with stables, oats, hay, and straw for such horses as aforesaid, paying and allowing for the same the several rates herein-after provided; and at no time when troops are on a march shall any of them, whether infantry or cavalry, be billeted above one mile from the place mentioned in the route, care being always taken that billets be made out for the less distant houses, in which suitable accommodation can be found, before making out billets for the more distant; and in all places where cavalry shall be billeted in pursuance of this Act, each man and his horse shall be billeted in one and the same house, except in case of necessity; and, except in case of necessity, one man at least shall be billeted where there shall be one or two horses, and two men at least where there shall be four horses, and so in proportion for a greater number; and in no case shall a man and his horse be billeted at a greater distance from each other than one hundred yards; and the constables are hereby required to billet all soldiers and their horses on their march, in the manner required by this Act, upon the occupiers of all houses within one mile of the place mentioned in the route, and whether they be in the same or in a different county, in like manner in every respect as if such houses were all locally situate within such place; provided that nothing herein contained shall be construed to extend to authorise any constable to billet soldiers out of the county to which such constable belongs when the constable of the adjoining county shall be present and shall undertake to billet the due proportion of men in such adjoining county; and no more billets shall at any time be ordered than there are effective soldiers and horses present to be billeted; all which billets, when made out by such constables, shall be delivered into the hands of the commanding officer present; and if any person shall find himself aggrieved by having an undue proportion of soldiers billeted in his house, and shall prefer his complaint, if against a constable or other person not being a justice, to one or more justices, and if against a justice then to two or more justices within whose jurisdiction such soldiers are billeted, such justices respectively shall have power to order such of the soldiers to be removed, and to be billeted upon other persons, as they shall see cause; and when any of Her Majesty's cavalry or any horses as aforesaid shall be billeted upon the occupiers of houses in which officers or soldiers may be quartered by virtue of this Act who shall have no stables, then and in such case, upon the written requisition of the commanding officer of the regiment, corps, troop, or detachment, the constable is hereby required to billet the men and their horses, or horses only, upon some other person or persons who have stables, and who are by this Act liable to have officers and soldiers billeted upon them; and upon complaint being made by the person or persons to whose house or stables the said men or horses shall have been so removed to two or more justices within whose jurisdiction such men or horses shall be so billeted, it shall be lawful for such justices to order a proper allowance to be paid by the person relieved to the persons receiving such men and horses, or to be applied in furnishing the requisite accommodation; and commanding officers may exchange any man or horse billeted in any place with another man or horse billeted in the same place for the benefit of the service, provided the number of men and horses do not exceed the number at that time billeted on such houses respectively; and the constables are hereby required to billet such men and horses so exchanged accordingly; and it shall be lawful for any justice, at the request of any officer or non-commissioned officer commanding any soldiers requiring billets, to extend any routes or to enlarge the districts within which billets shall be required, in such manner as shall appear to be most convenient to the troops; provided that to prevent or punish all abuses in billeting soldiers, it shall be lawful for any justice within his jurisdiction, by warrant or order under his hand, to require any constable to give him an account in writing of the number of officers and soldiers who shall be quartered by such constables, together with the names of the persons upon whom such officers and soldiers are billeted, stating the street or place where such persons dwell, and the sign, if any, belonging to the houses: Provided always, that no officer shall be compelled or compellable to pay anything for his lodging where he shall be duly billeted.

64. The officers and soldiers of Her Majesty's Foot Guards shall be billeted within the city and liberties of Westminster and places adjacent, lying in the county of Middlesex (except the city of London) and in the county of Surrey, and in the borough of Southwark, in the same manner and under the same regulations as in other parts of England, in all cases for which particular provision is not made by this Act; and the high constables shall, on receipt of the order for billeting soldiers, deliver precepts to the several constables within their respective divisions, in pursuance of which the said constables shall billet such officers and soldiers equally and proportionably on the houses subjected thereto by this Act; and the said constables shall, at every general sessions of the peace to be holden for the said city and liberties, counties and borough respectively, make and deliver to the justices then in open session assembled, upon oath, which oath the said justices are hereby required to administer, lists, signed by them respectively, of the houses subject by this Act to receive officers and soldiers, together with the names and rank of all officers and soldiers billeted on each respectively, which lists shall remain with the respective clerks of the peace for the inspection of all persons without fee or reward; and such clerk shall forthwith from time to time deliver to any persons who shall require the same true copies of any such lists upon being paid twopence per sheet for the same, each sheet to contain at the least one hundred and fifty words.

Military officers not to act as justices in billeting.

65. No justice having or executing any military office or commission in any part of the United Kingdom shall, directly or indirectly, be concerned in the billeting or appointing quarters for any soldier in the regiment, corps, troop, or company under the immediate command of such justice, and all warrants, acts, and things made, done, and appointed by such justice for or concerning the same shall be void.

Allowance to innkeepers.

66. The innholder or other person on whom any soldier is billeted in Great Britain shall, if required by such soldier, furnish him for every day of the march, and for a period not exceeding two days when halted at the intermediate place upon the march, and for the day of the arrival at the place of final destination, with one hot meal in each day, the meal to consist of such quantities of diet and small beer as may be fixed by Her Majesty's regulations, not exceeding one pound and a quarter of meat previous to being dressed, one pound of bread, one pound of potatoes or other vegetables, and two pints of small beer; and vinegar, salt, and pepper, and for such meal the innholder or other person furnishing the same shall be paid the sum of tenpence, and twopence halfpenny for a bed; and all innholders and other persons on whom soldiers may be billeted in Great Britain or Ireland, except when on the march in Great Britain and entitled to be furnished with the hot meal as aforesaid, shall furnish such soldiers with a bed and with candles, vinegar, and salt, and shall allow them the use of fire, and the necessary utensils for dressing and eating their meat, and shall be paid in consideration thereof the sum of fourpence per diem for each soldier ; and the sum to be paid to the innholder or other person on whom any of the horses belonging to Her Majesty's forces shall be billeted in Great Britain or Ireland for ten pounds of oats, twelve pounds of hay, and eight pounds of straw, shall be one shilling and ninepence per diem for each horse ; and every officer or non-commissioned officer commanding a regiment, detachment, or party shall, every four days, or before they shall quit their quarters if they shall not remain so long as four days, settle and discharge the just demands of all victuallers or other persons upon whom such officers, soldiers, or horses are billeted, out of the pay and subsistence of such officers and soldiers, before any part of the said pay or subsistence be distributed to them respectively ; and if any such officer or non-commissioned officer shall not pay the same as aforesaid, then, upon complaint, and oath made thereof by any two witnesses before two justices of the peace for the county, riding, division, liberty, city, borough, or place where such quarters were situated, sitting in quarter or petty sessions, the Secretary of State for the War Department is hereby required (upon certificate of the justices before whom such oath was made of the sum due upon such accounts, and the persons to whom the same is owing,) to give orders to the agent of the regiment or corps to pay the sums due to such victuallers or other persons as aforesaid, and to charge the same against such officers ; and in case any soldier be suddenly ordered to march, and the respective commanding officers or non-commissioned officers are not enabled to make payment of the sums due for the lodging or victualling of the men and stabling or forage for the horses, every such officer or non-commissioned officer shall, before his departure, make up the account with every person upon whom such soldier may have been billeted, and sign a certificate thereof ; which account and certificate shall be transmitted by such officer or non-commissioned officer to the agent of the regiment or corps, who is hereby required to make immediate payment thereof, and to charge the same to the account of such officer or non-commissioned officer.

67. All powers and provisions relating to soldiers shall be construed to extend to non-commissioned officers, unless when otherwise provided ; and all powers and provisions relating to justices shall be construed to extend to all magistrates authorised to act as such in their respective jurisdictions and to chief magistrates of exclusive local jurisdictions ; and all the powers given to and regulations made for the conduct of constables in relation to the billeting of officers and soldiers, and all penalties and forfeitures for any neglect thereof, shall extend to all tithingmen, headboroughs, and such-like officers, and to all inspectors or other officers of police, and to high constables and other chief officers and magistrates of cities,

towns, villages, hamlets, parishes, and places in England and Ireland, and to all justices of the peace, magistrates of burghs, commissioners of police, and other chief officers and magistrates of cities, towns, villages, parishes, and places in Scotland, who shall act in the execution of this Act in relation to billeting; and all powers and provisions for billeting officers and soldiers in victualling houses shall extend and apply to all inns, hotels, livery stables, alehouses, and to the houses of sellers of wine by retail, whether British or foreign, to be drunk in their own houses, or places thereunto belonging, and to all houses of persons selling brandy, spirits, strong waters, cider, or metheglin, by retail, in Great Britain and Ireland; and in Ireland, when there shall not be found sufficient room in such houses, then to billeting soldiers in such manner as has been heretofore customary: Provided that no officer or soldier shall be billeted in Great Britain in any private houses, or in any canteen held or occupied under the authority of the War Department, or upon persons who keep taverns only, being vintners of the City of London admitted to their freedom of the said company in right of patrimony or apprenticeship, notwithstanding such persons who keep such taverns only have taken out victualling licenses, nor in the house of any distiller kept for distilling brandy and strong waters, nor in the house of any shopkeeper whose principal dealing shall be more in other goods and merchandise than in brandy and strong waters, so as such distillers and shopkeepers do not permit tipping in such houses, nor in the house of residence in any part of the United Kingdom of any foreign consul duly accredited as such.

carriages.

68. For the regular provision of carriages for Her Majesty's forces, and their baggage, in their marches in Great Britain and Ireland, all justices of the peace within their several jurisdictions, being duly required thereunto by an order from Her Majesty, or the general of her forces, or other person duly authorised in that behalf, shall, on production to them of such order, or a copy thereof, certified by the commanding officer, by some officer or non-commissioned officer of the regiment or corps so ordered to march, issue a warrant to any constable having authority to act in any place from, through, near, or to which the troop shall be ordered to march, (for each of which warrants the fee of one shilling only shall be paid,) requiring him to provide the carriages, horses, and oxen, and drivers therein mentioned, and allowing sufficient time to do the same, specifying the places from and to which the said carriages shall travel, and the distance between the places, for which distance only so specified payment shall be demanded, and which distance shall not, except in cases of pressing emergency, exceed a day's march prescribed in the order of route, and shall in no cases exceed twenty-five miles; and the constables receiving such warrants shall order such persons as they shall think proper, having carriages, to furnish the requisite supply, who are hereby required to furnish the same accordingly; and when sufficient carriages cannot be procured within the proper jurisdiction, any justice of the next adjoining jurisdiction shall, by a like course of proceeding, supply the deficiency; and in order that the burden of providing carriages may fall equally, and to prevent inconvenience arising from there being no justice near the place where troops may be quartered on the march, any justice residing nearest to such place may cause a list to be made out once in every year of all persons liable to furnish such carriages, and of the number and description of their said carriages, (which list shall at all seasonable hours be open to the inspection of the said persons,) and may by warrant under his hand authorise the constable within his jurisdiction to give orders to provide carriages, without any special warrant for that purpose, which orders shall be valid in all respects; and all orders for such carriages shall be made from such lists in regular rotation, as far as the same can be done.

69. In every case in which the whole distance for which any carriage shall be impressed shall be under one mile the rate of a full mile shall be paid; and the rates to be paid for carriages impressed shall be, in Great Britain, for every mile which a waggon with four or more horses, or a wain with six oxen or four oxen and two horses, shall travel, one shilling; and for every mile any waggon with narrow wheels, or any cart with four horses, carrying not less than fifteen hundredweight, shall travel, ninepence; and for every mile any other cart or carriage with less than four horses, and not carrying fifteen hundredweight, shall travel, sixpence; and in Ireland, for every hundredweight loaded on any wheel carriage, one halfpenny per mile; and in Great Britain such further rates may be added, not exceeding a total addition per mile of fourpence, threepence, or twopence, to the respective rates of one shilling, ninepence, or sixpence, as may seem reasonable to the justices assembled at general sessions for their respective districts, or to the recorder at the sessions of the peace of any municipal city, borough, or town; and the order of such justices or recorder shall specify the average price of hay and oats at the nearest market town at the time of fixing such additional rates, the period for which the order shall be enforced not exceeding ten days beyond the next general sessions; and no such order shall be valid unless a copy thereof, signed by the presiding magistrate and one other justice, or by the recorder, shall be transmitted to the Secretary of State for the War Department within three days after the making thereof; and also in Great Britain when the day's march shall exceed fifteen miles the justice granting his warrant may fix a further reasonable compensation, not exceeding the usual rate of hire fixed by this Act; and when any additional rates or compensation shall be granted, the justice shall insert in his own hand in the warrant the amount thereof, and the date of the order of sessions, if fixed by sessions, and the warrant shall be given to the officer commanding as his voucher; and the officer or non-commissioned officer demanding carriages by virtue of the warrant of a justice shall, in Great Britain, pay the proper sums into the hands of the constables providing carriages, who shall give receipts for the same on unstamped paper; and in Ireland the officers or non-commissioned officers as aforesaid shall pay the proper sums to the owners or drivers of the carriages, and one third part of such payment shall be made before the carriage be loaded, and all the said payments in Ireland shall be made, if required, in the presence of a justice or constable; and no carriage shall be liable to carry more than thirty hundredweight in Great Britain, and in Ireland no car shall be liable to carry more than six hundredweight, and no dray more than twelve hundredweight; but the owner of such carriages in Ireland consenting to carry a greater weight shall be paid at the same rate for every hundredweight of the said excess; and the owners of such carriages in Ireland shall not be compelled to proceed, though with any less weight, under the sum of threepence a mile for each car and sixpence a mile for each dray; and the loading of such carriages in Ireland shall be first weighed, if required, at the expense of the owner of the carriage, if the same can be done in a reasonable time, without hindrance to Her Majesty's service; provided that a cart with one or more horses for which the furnisher shall receive ninepence a mile shall be required to carry fifteen hundredweight at the least; and no penalties or forfeitures in any Act relating to highways or turnpike roads in the United Kingdom shall apply to the number of horses and oxen, or weight of loading of the aforesaid carriages, which shall not on that account be stopped or detained; and whenever it shall be necessary to impress carriages for the march of soldiers from Dublin, at least twenty-four hours notice of such march, and in case of emergency as long notice as the case will admit, shall be given to the Lord Mayor of Dublin, who shall summon a proportional number of cars and drays, at his discretion, out of the licensed cars and drays and other cars and drays within the county of the said city, and they shall by turns be employed on this duty at the prices and under the regulations herein-before mentioned; and no country cars, drays, or other carriages coming to markets in Ireland shall be detained or employed against the will of the owners in carrying the baggage of the army on any pretence whatsoever.

70. It shall be lawful for Her Majesty, or for the Lord Lieutenant or Chief Governor of Ireland, by her or their order, distinctly stating that a case of emergency doth exist, signified by the Secretary of State for the War Department, or, if in Ireland, by the Chief Secretary or Under Secretary, or the first clerk in the Military Department, to authorise any general or field officer commanding Her Majesty's forces in any district or place, or the chief acting agent for the supply of stores and provisions, by writing under his hand reciting such order of Her Majesty or Lord Lieutenant or Chief Governor aforesaid, to require all justices within their several jurisdictions in Great Britain and Ireland to issue their warrants for the provision, not only of waggons, wains, carts, and cars kept by or belonging to any person and for any use whatsoever, but also of saddle horses, coaches, postchaises, chaises, and other four-wheeled carriages kept for hire, and of all horses kept to draw carriages licensed to carry passengers, and also of boats, barges, and other vessels used for the transport of any commodities whatsoever upon any canal or navigable river, as shall be mentioned in the said warrants, therein specifying the place and distance to which such carriages or vessels shall go; and on the production of such requisition, or a copy thereof certified by the commanding officer, to such justice, by any officer of the corps ordered to be conveyed, or by any officer of the War Department, such justice shall take all the same proceedings in regard to such additional supply so required on such emergency as he is by this Act required to take for the ordinary provision of carriages; and all provisions whatsoever of this Act as regards the procuring of the ordinary supply of carriages, and the duties of officers and non-commissioned officers, justices, constables, and owners of carriages in that behalf, shall be to all intents and purposes applicable for the providing and payment, according to the rates of posting or of hire usually paid for such other description of carriages or vessels so required on emergency, according to the length of the journey or voyage in each case, but making no allowance for post horse duty, or turnpike, canal, river, or lock tolls, which duty or tolls are hereby declared not to be demandable for such carriages and vessels while employed in such service or returning therefrom; and it shall be lawful to convey thereon, not only the baggage, provisions, and military stores of such regiment, corps, or detachment, but also the officers, soldiers, servants, women, children, and other persons of and belonging to the same.

As to supply of carriages in cases of emergency, &c.

71. It shall be lawful for the justices of the peace assembled at their quarter sessions to direct the treasurer to pay, without fee, out of the public stock of the county or riding, or if such public stock be insufficient then out of moneys which the said justices shall have power to raise for that purpose, in like manner as for county gaols and bridges, such reasonable sums as shall have been expended by the constables within their respective jurisdictions for carriages and vessels, over and above what was or ought to have been paid by the officer requiring the same, regard being had to the season of the year and the condition of the ways by which such carriages and vessels are to pass; and in Scotland such justices shall direct such payments to be made out of the rogue money and assessments directed and authorised to be assessed and levied by an Act of the twentieth and twenty-first years of the reign of Her present Majesty, chapter seventy-two.

Justices empowered to reimburse constables for sums expended by them.

Routes in Ireland.

72. It shall be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant or other chief governor for the time being of Ireland to depute, by warrant under his hand and seal, some proper person to sign routes in cases of emergency, for the marching of any of Her Majesty's forces in Ireland, in the name of such Lord Lieutenant or Chief Governor.

Tolls.

73. All Her Majesty's officers and soldiers, on duty or on their march, and their horses and baggage, and all recruits marching by route, and all prisoners under military escort, and all enrolled pensioners in uniform when called out for training or in aid of the civil power, and all carriages and horses belonging to Her Majesty or employed in her service under the provisions of this Act, or in any of Her Majesty's colonies, when conveying any such persons as aforesaid, or their baggage, or stores, or returning from conveying the same, shall be exempted from payment of any duties and tolls on embarking or disembarking from or upon any pier, wharf, quay, or landing place, or in passing along or over any turnpike or other roads or bridges, otherwise demandable by virtue of any Act already passed or hereafter to be passed, or by virtue of any Act or ordinance, order or direction of any colonial legislature or other authority in any of Her Majesty's colonies; provided that nothing herein contained shall exempt any boats, barges, or other vessels employed in conveying the said persons, horses, baggage, or stores along any canal from payment of tolls in like manner as other boats, barges, and vessels are liable thereto, except when employed in cases of emergency as herein-before enacted.

Ferries.

74. When any soldiers on service have occasion in their march by route to pass regular ferries in Scotland, the officer commanding may at his option pass over with his soldiers as passengers, and shall pay for himself and each soldier one half only of the ordinary rate payable by single persons, or may hire the ferry boat for himself and his party, debarring others for that time, and shall in all such cases pay only half the ordinary rate for such boat.

75. Every soldier enlisted in Great Britain or Ireland shall, when entitled to his discharge, if then serving abroad, be sent home, if he shall so require, free of expense, and shall be entitled to receive marching money from the place of his being landed (or, if discharged at home, shall receive marching money from the place of his discharge,) to the parish or place in which he shall have been originally enlisted, or at which he shall at the time of his discharge decide to take up his residence (if the cost of conveyance to such place shall not exceed the cost of conveyance to the place of his original enlistment): Provided that nothing in this section shall apply to soldiers appointed sergeant instructors, or attached for completion of service, to the reserve forces.

Marching money on discharge.

76. Nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to extend to exempt any officer or soldier from being proceeded against by the ordinary course of law, when accused of felony, or of misdemeanor, or of any crime or offence other than the misdemeanors and offences herein-before mentioned; and if any commanding officer shall neglect or refuse, on application being made to him for that purpose, to deliver over to the civil magistrate any officer or soldier under his command, or shall wilfully obstruct, neglect, or refuse to assist the officers of justice in apprehending any officer or soldier under his command, so accused as aforesaid, such commanding officer shall upon conviction thereof in any of Her Majesty's superior courts at Westminster, Dublin, or Edinburgh, or in any court of record in India, be deemed to be thereupon cashiered, and shall be thenceforth utterly disabled to have or hold any civil or military office or employment in the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland or in Her Majesty's service; and a certificate of such conviction, containing the substance and effect of the indictment only, omitting the formal part, with the copy of the entry of the judgment of the court thereon, shall be transmitted to the judge advocate general in London.

Ordinary course of criminal justice not to be interfered with.
Punishment of officers obstructing civil justice.

77. For enforcing a prompt observance of the rules and orders for the due appropriation of the public funds applicable to army services, and in order that a true and regular account may be kept and rendered by the agents for the several corps, the said agents are hereby required to observe such orders as shall from time to time be given by Her Majesty under Her Sign Manual, or by the Secretary of State for the War Department, or by Her Majesty's Lord Lieutenant or Chief Governor of Ireland, or by the Lord Treasurer or the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury; and if any person, being or having been an agent, shall refuse or neglect to comply with such orders in relation to his duty as agent, or shall unlawfully withhold or detain the pay of any officer or soldier for a longer period than the space of one month after the receipt thereof, he shall for the first offence forfeit the sum of one hundred pounds, and, if still an agent, for the second offence be discharged from his employment as an army agent, and be utterly disabled to have or hold such employment thereafter, or, if he have ceased to be an army agent, shall for the second and every succeeding offence forfeit the sum of two hundred pounds.

Penalty on trafficking in commissions.

78. Any person (except the Army Purchase Commissioners and persons acting under their authority by virtue of the provisions of the Regulation of the Forces Act, 1871,) who shall negotiate, act as agent for, or otherwise aid or connive at the sale or purchase of any commission in Her Majesty's army shall forfeit for every such offence the sum of one hundred pounds; and any person who shall negotiate, act as agent for, or otherwise aid or connive at any exchange in respect of which any sum of money or other consideration exceeding the sum or consideration sanctioned by the military authorities shall be given or received shall forfeit for every such offence the sum of one hundred pounds.

Penalty for procuring false musters.

79. Every person, not having any military commission, who shall give or procure to be given any untrue certificate, whereby to excuse any soldier for his absence from any muster or any other service which he ought to attend or perform, or who shall directly or indirectly cause to be taken any money or gratuity for mustering any soldiers, or for signing any muster rolls or duplicates thereof, shall forfeit for every such offence the sum of fifty pounds; and any person who shall falsely be mustered, or offer himself to be mustered, or lend or furnish any horse to be falsely mustered, shall, upon conviction before some justice of the peace residing near the place where such muster shall be made, forfeit for every such offence the sum of twenty pounds; and the informer, if he belongs to Her Majesty's service, shall, if he demand it, be forthwith discharged.

Penalty on unlawful recruiting.

80. Every person (except such person or persons as shall be authorised by beating order under the hand of the Secretary of State for the War Department) who shall cause to be advertised, posted, or dispersed bills for the purpose of procuring recruits or substitutes for the line, embodied militia, or Her Majesty's Indian forces, or shall open or keep any house, place of rendezvous, or office, or receive any person therein under such bill or advertisement, as connected with the recruiting service, or shall directly or indirectly interfere therewith, without permission in writing from the adjutant general, or from the Secretary of State in Council of India, (as the case may be,) shall forfeit for every such offence a sum not exceeding twenty pounds.

Penalty for inducing soldiers to desert.

81. Any person who shall in any part of Her Majesty's dominions, or by any means whatsoever, directly or indirectly, procure any soldier to desert, or attempt to procure or persuade any soldier to desert, and any person who, knowing that any soldier is about to desert, shall aid or assist him in deserting, or, knowing any soldier to be a deserter, shall conceal such deserter, or aid or assist such deserter in concealing himself, or aid or assist in his rescue, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall, on conviction thereof before any two justices acting for the county, district, city, burgh, or place where any such offender shall at any time happen to be, be liable to be committed to the common gaol or house of correction, there to be imprisoned, with or without hard labour, for such term not exceeding six calendar months as the convicting justices shall think fit.

82. Any officer or soldier who shall, in pursuit of any deserter, forcibly enter into or break open any dwelling-house or outhouse, or shall give any order under which any dwelling-house or outhouse shall be forcibly entered into or broken open, without a warrant from one or more justices of the peace, shall, on conviction thereof before two justices of the peace, forfeit a sum not exceeding twenty pounds.

Penalty for forcible entry in pursuit of deserters without warrant.

83. If any person shall convey or cause to be conveyed into any military prison appointed to be a public prison under this Act any arms, tools, or instruments, or any mask or other disguise, in order to facilitate the escape of any prisoner, or shall by any means whatever aid and assist any prisoner to escape or in attempting to escape from such prison, whether an escape be actually made or not, such person shall be deemed guilty of felony, and upon being convicted thereof shall be kept to penal servitude for any term not less than five years and not exceeding seven years, or be imprisoned, with or without hard labour, for any term not exceeding two years; and if any person shall bring or attempt to bring into such prison, in contravention of the existing rules thereof, any spirituous or fermented liquor, he shall for every such offence be liable to a penalty not exceeding twenty pounds and not less than ten pounds, or to be imprisoned, with or without hard labour, for any time not exceeding three calendar months; and if any person shall bring into such prison, to or for any prisoner, without the knowledge of the governor, any money, clothing, provisions, tobacco, letters, papers, or any other articles not allowed by the rules of the prison to be in the possession of a prisoner, or shall throw into the said prison any such articles, or shall by desire of any prisoner, without the sanction of the governor, carry out of the prison any of the articles aforesaid, he shall for every such offence be liable to a penalty not exceeding five pounds, or to be imprisoned, either with or without hard labour, for any time not exceeding one calendar month; and if any person shall assault or violently resist any officer of such prison in the execution of his duty, or shall aid or excite any person so to assault or resist any such officer, he shall for every such offence be liable to a penalty not exceeding five pounds, or to be imprisoned, with or without hard labour, for any time not exceeding one calendar month, or if the offender be a soldier already under sentence of imprisonment, he shall be liable for every such offence, upon conviction thereof by a board of not less than three of the visitors of the prison, to be imprisoned, either with or without hard labour, for any time not exceeding six calendar months, in addition to his original sentence, or to be subjected to corporal punishment not exceeding fifty lashes, or upon conviction thereof by a single visitor to be imprisoned, with or without hard labour, for any time not exceeding seventy-two hours, in addition to his original sentence, or to be subjected to corporal punishment not exceeding twenty-five lashes; or if such soldier shall, within forty-eight hours of the expiration of his original or of any additional sentence, be guilty of any offence against the rules of the prison, he may for every such offence, on conviction thereof by a board or by a single visitor, be ordered to be kept in prison for a period not exceeding seventy-two hours either in a dark cell or in a light cell, and with or without hard labour, on a bread and water diet, or otherwise; and all the provisions of any Act or Acts of Parliament for the regulation or better ordering of gaols, houses of correction, or prisons in Great Britain shall be deemed to apply to all military prisons so far as any such provision relates to such offences; and it shall be lawful for the governor, provost marshal, officer, or servant of any military prison to use and exercise all the powers and authorities given by any such Act to the gaoler, keeper, or turnkey of any prison, or to his or their assistants, to apprehend or to cause offenders to be apprehended, in order to their being taken before a justice or justices of the peace; and all the powers and authorities given by any such Act to any justice or justices of the peace to convict offenders in any of the above cases, together with the forms of convictions contained in any such Act, shall be applicable to the like offences when committed in respect of military prisons; and all the provisions contained in any such Act relating to suits and actions prosecuted against any person for anything done in pursuance of such Act shall be deemed to apply to all suits and actions prosecuted against any person acting in pursuance of such Act in respect of military prisons.

Certain provisions of Acts for regulating gaols to apply to military prisons.

Penalty on keepers of prisons for refusing to confine, &c. military offenders.

84. Any governor, provost marshal, gaoler, or keeper of any public prison, gaol, house of correction, lock-up house, or other place of confinement, who shall refuse to receive and to confine, or to discharge or deliver over, any military offender in the manner herein-before prescribed, shall forfeit for every such offence the sum of one hundred pounds.

85. Any person who shall knowingly detain, buy, exchange, or receive from any soldier or deserter or any other person acting for or on his behalf, on any pretence whatsoever, or who shall solicit or entice any soldier, or shall be employed by any soldier, knowing him to be such, to sell any arms, ammunition, medals for good conduct or for distinguishment or other service, clothes, or military furniture, or any provisions, or any sheets or other articles used in barracks provided under barrack regulations, or regimental necessaries, or any article of forage provided for any horses belonging to Her Majesty's service, or who shall have in his or her possession or keeping any such arms, ammunition, medals, clothes, furniture, provisions, spirits, articles, necessaries, or forage, and shall not give a satisfactory account how he or she came by the same, or shall change the colour of any clothes as aforesaid, shall forfeit for every such offence any sum not exceeding twenty pounds, together with treble the value of all or any of the several articles of which such offender shall so become or be possessed; and if any person having been so convicted shall afterwards be guilty of any such offence, he shall for every such offence forfeit any sum not exceeding twenty pounds, but not less than five pounds, and the treble value of all or any of the several articles of which such offender shall have so become possessed, and shall in addition to such forfeiture be committed to the common gaol or house of correction, there to be imprisoned, with or without hard labour, for such term, not exceeding six calendar months, as the convicting justice or justices shall think fit; and upon any information against any person for a second or any subsequent offence, a copy of the former conviction, certified by the proper officer having the care or custody of such conviction, or any copy of the same proved to be a true copy, shall be sufficient evidence to prove such former conviction; and if any credible person shall prove on oath before a justice of the peace, or person exercising like authority according to the laws of the part of Her Majesty's dominions in which the offence shall be committed, a reasonable cause to suspect that any person has in his or her possession, or on his or her premises, any property of the description herein-before described, on or with respect to which any such offence shall have been committed, such justice may grant a warrant to search for such property as in the case of stolen goods; and if upon such search any such property shall be found, the same shall and may be seized by the officer charged with the execution of such warrant, who shall bring the offender in whose possession the same shall be found before the same or any other justice of the peace, to be dealt with according to law: Provided always, that it shall be lawful for the legislature of any of Her Majesty's foreign dominions, on the recommendation of the officer or officers for the time being administering the government thereof, but not otherwise, to make provision by law for reducing such pecuniary penalty, if not exceeding twenty pounds, to such amount as may to such legislature appear to be better adapted to the ability and pecuniary means of Her Majesty's subjects and others inhabiting the same, which reduced penalty shall be sued for and recovered in such and the same manner as the full penalty hereby imposed: Provided also, that it shall be competent to Her Majesty, or to the person or persons administering the government of any such foreign dominions as aforesaid, to exercise, in respect of the laws so to be passed as aforesaid, all such powers and authorities as are by law vested in Her Majesty, or in any such officer or officers as aforesaid in respect of any other law made or enacted by any such legislature.

Penalties on civil subjects offending against the laws relating to billets.

86. If any constable or other person who by virtue of this Act shall be employed in billeting any officers or soldiers in any part of the United Kingdom shall presume to billet any such officer or soldier in any house not within the meaning of this Act, without the consent of the owner or occupier thereof; or shall neglect or refuse to billet any officer or soldier on duty, when thereunto required, in such manner as is by this Act directed, provided sufficient notice be given before the arrival of such troops; or shall receive, demand, or agree for any money or reward whatsoever, in order to excuse any person from receiving such officer or soldier; or shall quarter any of the wives, children, men or maid servants of any officers or soldiers, in any such houses, against the consent of the occupiers; or shall neglect or refuse to execute such warrants of the justices as shall be directed to him for providing carriages, horses, or vessels, or shall demand more than the legal rates for the same; or if any person ordered by any constable in manner herein-before directed to provide carriages, horses, or vessels shall refuse or neglect to provide the same according to the orders of such constable, or shall do any act or thing by which the execution of any warrants for providing carriages, horses, or vessels shall be hindered; or if any constable shall neglect to deliver in to the justices at quarter sessions lists of officers and soldiers of the foot guards quartered according to the provisions of this Act, or shall wilfully cause to be delivered defective lists of the same; or if any person liable by this Act to have any officer or soldier quartered upon him shall refuse to receive and to afford proper accommodation or diet in the house in which such officer or soldier is quartered, and to furnish the several things directed to be furnished to officers and soldiers, or shall neglect or refuse to furnish good and sufficient stables, together with good and sufficient oats, hay, and straw, in Great Britain and Ireland for each horse, in such quantities and at such rates as herein-before provided; or if any innkeeper or victualler not having good and sufficient stables shall refuse to pay over to the person or persons who may provide stabling such allowance by way of compensation as shall be directed by any justice of the peace, or shall pay any sum or sums of money to any soldier on the march in lieu of furnishing in kind the diet and small beer to which such soldier is entitled; or if any toll collector shall demand and receive toll from any of Her Majesty's officers or soldiers, on duty or on their march, for themselves or for their horses, or from any recruits marching by route, or from any prisoners under military escort, or from any enrolled pensioners in uniform when called out for training or in aid of the civil power, or for any carriages or horses belonging to Her Majesty, or employed in her service under the provisions of this Act, or in any of Her Majesty's colonies, when conveying persons, or baggage, or stores, or returning therefrom, every such constable, victualler, toll-keeper, or other person respectively shall forfeit for every such offence, neglect, or refusal any sum not exceeding five pounds nor less than forty shillings; and if any person shall personate or represent himself to be a soldier or a recruit, with the view of fraudulently obtaining a billet, or money in lieu thereof, he shall for every such offence forfeit any sum not exceeding five pounds nor less than twenty shillings.

On toll collectors demanding toll from officers, soldiers, or for carriages; and on persons personating soldiers, &c.

87. If any military officer shall take upon himself to quarter soldiers otherwise than is limited and allowed by this Act, or shall use or offer any menace or compulsion to or upon any mayor, constable, or other civil officer, tending to deter and discourage any of them from performing any part of their duty under this Act, or tending to induce any of them to do anything contrary to their said duty, such officer shall for every such offence (being thereof convicted before any two or more justices of the county by the oath of two credible witnesses) be deemed and taken to be thereupon cashiered, and shall be utterly disabled to hold any military employment in Her Majesty's service; provided that a certificate of such conviction shall be transmitted by one of the said justices to the Judge Advocate in London, who is hereby required to certify the same to the Commander-in-Chief and Secretary of State for the War Department, and that the said conviction be affirmed at some quarter sessions of the peace of the said county held next after the expiration of three months after such certificate of the justice shall have been transmitted as aforesaid; and if any military officer shall take, or knowingly suffer to be taken, from any person, any money or reward for excusing the quartering of officers or soldiers, or shall billet any of the wives, children, men or maid servants of any officer or soldier, in any house, against the consent of the occupier, he shall, upon being convicted thereof before a general court-martial, be cashiered; and if any officer shall constrain any carriage to travel beyond the distance specified in the justice's warrant, or shall not discharge the same in due time for their return home on the same day, if it be practicable, except in the case of emergency for which the justice shall have given license, or shall compel the driver of any carriage to take up any soldier or servant (except such as are sick) or any woman to ride therein, except in the cases of emergency as aforesaid, or shall force any constable, by threatening words, to provide saddle horses for himself or servants, or shall force horses from their owners, or in Ireland shall force the owner to take any loading until the same shall be first duly weighed, if the same can be done within reasonable time, or shall, contrary to the will of the owner or his servant, permit any person whatsoever to put any greater load upon any carriage than is directed by this Act, such officer shall forfeit for every offence any sum not exceeding five pounds nor less than forty shillings.

without leave.

88. For the better preservation of game and fish in or near places where any officers shall at any time be quartered, be it enacted, that every officer who shall, without leave in writing from the person or persons entitled to grant such leave, take, kill, or destroy any game or fish in the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, shall for every such offence forfeit the sum of five pounds.

Form of actions at law.

89. Any action which shall be brought against any person for anything to be done in pursuance of this Act shall be brought within six calendar months after the doing thereof, and it shall be lawful for every such person to plead thereunto the general issue Not Guilty, and to give all special matter in evidence to the jury; and if the verdict shall be for the defendant in any such action, or the plaintiff therein become nonsuited, or suffer any discontinuance thereof, or if in Scotland such court shall see fit to assoilzie the defendant or dismiss the complaint, the court in which the said matter shall be tried shall allow unto the defendant treble costs, for which the said defendant shall have the like remedy as in other cases where costs are by law given to defendants; and every action against any person for anything done in pursuance of this Act, or against any member or minister of a court-martial in respect of any sentence of such court, or of anything done by virtue or in pursuance of such sentence, shall be brought in some one of the courts of record at Westminster, or in Dublin, or in India, or in the Court of Session in Scotland, and in no other court whatsoever.

penalties.

90. All offences for which any penalties and forfeitures are by this Act imposed not exceeding twenty pounds, over and above any forfeiture of value or treble value, shall and may be determined, and such penalties and forfeitures and forfeiture of value or treble value recovered, in every part of the United Kingdom, by and before one or more justice or justices of the peace, under the provisions of an Act passed in the eleventh and twelfth years of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act to facilitate the performance of the duties 11 & 12 Vict. c. 43.

 " of Justices of the Peace out of Sessions, within England and " Wales, with respect to summary convictions and orders." Provided always, that in all cases in which there shall not be sufficient goods whereon any penalty or forfeiture can be levied, the offender may be committed and imprisoned for any time not exceeding six calendar months; which said recited Act shall be used and applied, in Scotland and in Ireland, for the recovery of all such penalties and forfeitures, as fully to all intents as if the said recited Act had extended to Scotland and Ireland, anything in the said recited Act, or in an Act passed in the fourteenth and fifteenth years of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act to consolidate 14 & 15 Vict. c. 93.
 " and amend the Acts regulating the proceedings at Petty " Sessions, and the duties of Justices of the Peace out of " Quarter Sessions, in Ireland," to the contrary notwithstanding; and all such offences committed in the British Isles or in any of Her Majesty's dominions beyond the seas may be determined, and the penalties and forfeitures and forfeiture of value or treble value recovered, before any justices of the peace or persons exercising like authority according to the laws of the part of Her Majesty's dominions in which the offence shall be committed; and all penalties and forfeitures by this Act imposed exceeding twenty pounds shall be recovered by action in some of the courts of record at Westminster, or in Dublin, or in India, or in the Court of Session in Scotland, and in no other court in the United Kingdom, and may be recovered in the British Isles, or in any other parts of Her Majesty's dominions, in any of the royal or superior courts of such isles or other parts of Her Majesty's dominions. In any proceeding under this Act whereby any person incurs a penalty or forfeiture, such person may also be adjudged to pay the costs of such proceeding by the justice or justices, or the court imposing such penalty or forfeiture.

91. One moiety of every penalty, not including any treble value of any articles, adjudged or recovered under the provisions of this Act, shall go to the person who shall inform or sue for the same, and the remainder of the penalty, together with the treble value of any articles, or, where the offence shall be proved by the person who shall inform, the whole of the penalty, shall be paid, in the United Kingdom, to the paymaster of the London recruiting district, St. George's Barracks, London, and in India to the military secretary of the government of the presidency to which the court by whom the penalty shall be adjudicated shall be subject, and elsewhere in Her Majesty's dominions to the local military accountant, Appropriation of penalties.

5 & 6 W. 4.
c. 76.

to be at the disposal of the Secretary of State for the War Department, (unless where the penalty is adjudged in India, when it shall be at the disposal of the Government of India,) anything in an Act passed in the fifth and sixth years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act to provide for the regulation of Municipal Corporations in England and Wales," or in any other Act or Acts, to the contrary notwithstanding. Every justice or court adjudging any penalty under this Act shall report the same immediately, if in the United Kingdom, to the said Secretary of State, if in India to the said military secretary, and if elsewhere in Her Majesty's dominions to the general or other officer commanding at the station.

Mode of recording a soldier's settlement.

92. The Secretary of State for the War Department may, if he think proper, cause any soldier on his discharge, and his wife or child, if occasion require, either with or without him, to be sent to the parish in which on his attestation as a recruit he stated himself to have been born, and if delivered at the workhouse of that parish, or of the union comprising such parish, he shall then be received therein by the master or other proper officer thereof; but any justice in the United Kingdom within whose jurisdiction any soldier in Her Majesty's army, or on the permanent staff of the militia, having a wife or child, shall be billeted, may summon such soldier before him in the place where he is billeted, (which summons he is hereby directed to obey,) and take his examination in writing, upon oath, touching the place of his last legal settlement, and such justice shall give an attested copy of such examination to the person examined, to be by him delivered to his commanding officer, to be produced when required; which said examination and such attested copy thereof shall be at any time admitted as good and legal evidence of such last legal settlement before any justices or at any general or quarter sessions, although such soldier be dead or absent from the kingdom; provided that in case any soldier shall be again summoned to make oath as aforesaid, then, on such examination or such attested copy thereof being produced by him or by any other person on his behalf, such soldier shall not be obliged to take any other oath with regard to his legal settlement, but shall leave a copy of such examination, or a copy of such attested copy of examination, if required.

Licenses of canteens.

93. When any person shall hold any canteen under proper authority of the War Department, it shall be lawful for any two justices within their respective jurisdictions to grant or transfer any beer, wine, or spirit license to such persons, without regard to time of year or to the notices or certificates required by any Act in respect of such licenses; and the Commissioners of Excise, or their proper officers within their respective districts, shall also grant such licenses as aforesaid; and such persons so holding canteens, and having such licenses, may sell therein victuals and exciseable liquors, as empowered by such excise license, without being subject to any penalty or forfeiture.

94. All muster rolls and accounts and pay and pension lists which are required to be verified by declaration shall be so verified and attested free of stamp duty, and without fee or reward paid for such declaration or attestation.

Attestation of accounts.

95. All commissaries, regimental paymasters, and all other accountants for military services, upon making up their accounts, and all commissaries upon returning from any foreign service, shall severally make the respective declarations described in the schedule to this Act annexed ; which declarations, if made in any part of the United Kingdom, shall be made before some justice, or other person authorised to administer oaths and declarations, and if made on foreign service shall be made before the officer commanding in chief, or the second in command, or the quartermaster or deputy quartermaster general or any assistant quartermaster general of the army, who shall respectively have power to administer and receive the same.

Commissaries,
their accounts.

96. All oaths and declarations which are authorised and required by this Act may be administered (unless where otherwise provided) by any justice of the peace, or other person having authority to administer oaths and declarations ; and any person taking a false oath or declaration where an oath or declaration is authorised or required by this Act shall be deemed guilty of wilful and corrupt perjury, or of wilfully making a false declaration, and being thereof duly convicted shall be liable to such pains and penalties as by law any person convicted of wilful and corrupt perjury is subject and liable to ; and every commissioned officer convicted before a general court-martial of perjury, or of wilfully making a false declaration, shall be cashiered, and every soldier or other person amenable to the provisions of this Act found guilty thereof by a general, district, or garrison court-martial shall be punished at the discretion of such court. In India, in all cases where any oath is hereby required to be taken, or any person is hereby required to be sworn, a solemn declaration or affirmation may be substituted, if by the laws for the time being in force in India such declaration or affirmation would be allowed to be substituted in the place of an oath, in case the party were about to depose as a witness in a civil action in any of the supreme courts at the presidencies ; and any person wilfully and knowingly giving false testimony on oath or solemn declaration or affirmation in any case wherein such oath or solemn declaration or affirmation shall have been made for the purpose of this Act, or any proceedings under this Act, shall be deemed guilty of wilful and corrupt perjury, and, of oaths.

being duly convicted thereof before a court-martial or otherwise, shall be liable to such pains and penalties as by any law in force in England, or by any law in force in India, any persons convicted of wilful and corrupt perjury are subject and liable to.

Provided always, that nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to render an oath necessary in any case where by law a solemn affirmation may be made instead thereof.

Offences against former Mutiny Acts and Articles of War.

97. All crimes and offences which have been committed against any former Act for punishing mutiny and desertion, and for the better payment of the army and their quarters, or against any Act for punishing mutiny and desertion of officers and soldiers in the service of the East India Company, or against any of the Articles of War made and established by virtue of either of the same, may, during the continuance of this Act, be tried and punished in like manner as if they had been committed against this Act; and every warrant for holding any court-martial under any such former Act shall remain in full force, and all proceedings of courts-martial convened and held under any such warrant shall be continued, notwithstanding the expiration of such Act: Provided always, that no person shall be liable to be tried or punished for any offence against any of the said Acts or Articles of War which shall appear to have been committed more than three years before the date of the warrant for such trial, unless the person accused, by reason of his having absented himself, or of some other manifest impediment, shall not have been amenable to justice within that period, in which case such person shall be liable to be tried at any time not exceeding two years after the impediment shall have ceased.

Officers and soldiers to conform to 26 & 27 Vict.
c. 57., &c.

98. It shall be the duty of all officers and soldiers to observe and conform to the provisions contained in "The Regimental Debts Act, 1863," and in the regulations for the better execution of the purposes of the said Act prescribed from time to time by warrant under the Royal Sign Manual.

Where troops are serving beyond the jurisdiction of the courts of requests, &c., actions of debt not exceeding 400 rupees to be cognizable by a military court.

99. In all places in India where any body of Her Majesty's forces may be serving situate beyond the jurisdiction of any court of small causes established by or under the authority of the Governor General of India in Council, actions of debt and all personal actions against officers or against persons licensed to act as sutlers, or other persons amenable to the provisions of this Act not being soldiers, shall be cognizable before a court of requests composed of military officers, and not elsewhere, provided the value in question shall not exceed four hundred rupees, and that the defendant was a person of the above description when the cause of action arose, which court the commanding officer of any camp, garrison, cantonment, or military post is hereby authorised and empowered to convene.

Whenever owing to paucity of officers, or to any other cause, a court of requests cannot conveniently be held at the station where the defendant or defendants may be, it shall be lawful for the officer commanding the division or district to authorise the assembly of a court by the officer commanding at the nearest place where such court can be formed. Courts of requests shall in all practicable cases consist of five commissioned officers, and in no instance of less than three, and the president thereof shall in all practicable cases be a field officer, and in no case be under the rank of a captain, and every member shall have served five years as a commissioned officer; and the president and members assisting at any such court, before any proceedings be had before it, shall take the following oath, which oath shall be administered by the president of the court to the other members thereof, and to the president by any member having first taken the oath; (that is to say,)

‘ I swear, that I will duly administer justice according to the evidence in the matters that shall be brought before me. So help me GOD.’

And all witnesses before any such court shall be examined in the same manner as in the case of a trial by courts-martial. All actions of debt and personal actions against persons, not being soldiers, amenable to this Act within the jurisdiction of any court of small causes shall be cognizable by such court to the extent of its powers; and all such actions where the amount sued for exceeds four hundred rupees shall be cognizable by a civil court or court of small causes only; and it shall be competent for any civil court or court of small causes, or for any military court of requests held in lieu thereof under the authority of this section, upon finding or awarding any debt or damage, either to award execution thereof generally, or to direct specially that the whole or any part thereof shall be stopped and paid over to the plaintiff out of any part not exceeding one half of any pay or allowance, or out of any other public money which may respectively be coming to the defendant in the current or any future month or months, or to direct the same to be so paid by instalments. In regard to awards of execution general civil courts and courts of small causes shall proceed in accordance with the rules of procedure for such courts in India; and in all cases where execution shall be awarded generally by a military court of requests, the debt, if not paid forthwith, shall be levied by seizure and public sale of such of the defendant's goods and property as may be found within the camp, garrison, cantonment, or military post, under a written order of the commanding officer, grounded on the judgment of the court, and all orders of such commanding officer as to the manner of such sale, or the person by whom the same shall be made, or otherwise respecting the same, shall be valid and binding; and any goods and property of the defendant found within the limits of the camp, garrison, cantonment, or military post to which the defendant shall belong at any subsequent time shall be liable to be seized and sold in like manner in satisfaction of any remainder of such debt or damages; and if any question shall arise whether any such effects or property are liable to be taken in execution as aforesaid, the decision and order of the said commanding officer shall be final and conclusive with respect to the same, and if sufficient goods shall not be found within the limits of the camp, garrison, cantonment, or military post, then any public money or any part not exceeding one half of the pay or allowances accruing to the defendant shall be stopped in liquidation of such debt or damages; and if such defendant shall not receive pay as an officer or from any public department, but be a sutler, servant, or follower, he may be arrested by like order of the commanding officer, and imprisoned in some convenient place within the military boundaries for any period not exceeding two months, unless the debt be sooner paid; and the said commanding officer shall not, nor shall any person acting on his orders in respect of the matters aforesaid, incur any liability to any person or persons whomsoever for any act done by him in pursuance of the provisions aforesaid; and in cases where the said court shall direct specially that the whole or any part of the debt or damages shall be stopped and paid out of part of any pay and allowances, or out of any public money, the same shall be stopped and paid accordingly in conformity with direction: Provided always, that nothing herein-before contained shall enable any such action as aforesaid to be brought in a military court of requests by any officer or soldier against any officer: Provided also, that the articles of military equipment of any defendant shall not be deemed "goods and "property" under this section.

Provisions relating to courts-martial on officers and soldiers of Her Majesty's Indian forces.

100. The government of any of the presidencies in India may suspend the proceedings of any court-martial held in India on any officer or soldier belonging to Her Majesty's Indian forces within such presidencies respectively; and if any officer belonging to Her Majesty's Indian forces shall think himself wronged by the officer commanding the regiment, and shall upon due application made to him not receive the redress to which he may consider himself entitled, he may complain to his commander-in-chief in order to obtain justice, who is hereby required to examine into such complaint, and thereupon, either by himself or by his adjutant general, to make his report to the government of the presidency to which such officer belongs, in order to receive the further directions of such government.

As to trial of officers and soldiers serving in India.

101. Any officer or soldier, or other person subject to this Act, who shall be serving in the territories of any foreign state in India or in any country in India under the protection of Her Majesty, or at any place in Her Majesty's dominions in India (other than Prince of Wales Island, Singapore, or Malacca), at a distance of upwards of one hundred and twenty miles from the presidencies of Fort William, Fort Saint George, and Bombay respectively, and who shall be accused of having committed any offence which, if committed in England, would be punishable by the criminal law there, may, if the same be also punishable under the Indian penal code for the time being, be tried by a general court-martial to be appointed by the general or other officer commanding in chief in such place for the time being, and, if found guilty, shall be liable to be sentenced by such court-martial to suffer such punishment as may legally be awarded by any of Her Majesty's courts of criminal jurisdiction within Her Majesty's dominions of India in respect of a like offence committed within the jurisdiction of such last-mentioned court; but no sentence of a general court-martial for any such offence shall be carried into execution until the same shall have been duly confirmed; and it shall be lawful for such general or other officer commanding in chief as aforesaid to confirm the sentence of any such general court-martial; and such general or other officer as aforesaid may, if he shall think fit, suspend, mitigate, or remit the sentence; or, in the case of a sentence of penal servitude, may commute the same to imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for such period as to him shall seem fit: Provided always, that in all cases wherein a sentence of death or penal servitude shall have been awarded by any such general court-martial held for the trial of a commissioned officer, or where a sentence of death shall have been awarded by any such general court-martial held for the trial of any person subject to this Act other than a commissioned officer, such sentence shall not be carried into execution until it shall have been duly approved by the Governor General in Council, or Governor in Council of the presidency in the territories subordinate to which the offender shall have been tried: Provided also, that any person who may have been so tried as aforesaid shall not be tried for the same offence by any other court whatsoever.

No court-martial shall, in respect of the conduct of its proceedings, or the reception or rejection of evidence, be subject to the provisions of the "Indian Evidence Act, 1872," or any Act of any legislature, other than the parliament of the United Kingdom.

102. This Act shall be and continue in force within Great Britain from the twenty-fifth day of April one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four inclusive until the twenty-fifth day of April one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five; and shall be and continue in force within Ireland, and in Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney, Sark, and Isle of Man, and the islands thereto belonging, from the first day of May one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four inclusive until the first day of May one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five; and shall be and continue in force within the garrison of Gibraltar, the Mediterranean, and in Spain and Portugal, from the first day of August one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four inclusive until the first day of August one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five; and shall be and continue in force in all other parts of Europe where Her Majesty's forces may be serving, and in the West Indies and America, from the first day of September one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four inclusive until the first day of September one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five; and shall be and continue in force in India, and within the Cape of Good Hope, the Isle of France or Mauritius and its dependencies, Saint Helena, and the settlements on the western coast of Africa, from the first day of January one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five inclusive until the first day of January one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six; and shall be and continue in force within British Columbia and Vancouver's Island from the date of the promulgation thereof in general orders there inclusive until the first day of January one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six; and shall be and continue in force in all other places from the first day of February one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six inclusive until the first day of February one thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven: Provided always, that this Act shall, from and after the receipt and promulgation thereof in general orders in any part of Her Majesty's dominions or elsewhere beyond the seas, become and be in full force, anything herein stated to the contrary notwithstanding.

Interpretation. 103. The words Commander-in-Chief in this Act shall be held to include the field-marshal or other officer commanding in chief Her Majesty's forces for the time being.

The Secretary of State may, from time to time, by any general or special regulation, permit recruits to be enlisted for particular regiments or corps, and in such case they shall be attached to such regiment or corps; and the word corps shall in this Act, and in the Army Enlistment Act, 1870, as to future enlistments, include a brigade constituted of two or more regiments associated by general order or royal warrant for the purposes of enlistment or service.

Militia may be attached to regular forces. 105. Her Majesty may, by order of one of her Principal Secretaries of State, and subject to such conditions as may be determined by him, attach to any corps of the army in the United Kingdom any regiment or regiments of militia, and the officers, non-commissioned officers, and men (including the permanent staff) of any such regiment or regiments so attached shall be deemed for all purposes to form part of the corps to which they are attached: Provided that no person belonging to the militia shall be required to serve for a longer period, or in any other country, than that during and in which he might have been required to serve, or shall be liable to any greater punishment than that to which he might have been subjected, if this Act had not passed.

106. Her Majesty may, by order of one of her Principal Secretaries of State, and subject to such conditions as may be determined by him, attach to any corps of the army in the United Kingdom any corps of yeomanry or volunteers, and the officers, non-commissioned officers, and men (including the permanent staff) of any corps so attached shall be deemed for all purposes to form part of the corps of the army to which they are attached: Provided that no person belonging to the yeomanry or volunteers shall be required to serve in any other manner than that in which he might have been required to serve, or shall be liable to any greater punishment than that to which he might have been subjected, if this Act had not passed.

Yeomanry or volunteers may be attached to regular forces.

107. Notwithstanding anything in this Act contained, a soldier shall be liable to contribute to the maintenance of his wife and of his children, and also to the maintenance of any bastard child of which he may be proved to be the father, to the same extent as if he were not a soldier, but execution shall not issue against his military necessaries or equipments, nor shall he be liable to be imprisoned or taken out of Her Majesty's service in consequence of such liability or any order made for enforcing the same; nor shall he be liable to be punished as an idle or disorderly person, or as a rogue and vagabond, or as an incorrigible rogue, under the Act passed in the fifth year of the reign of King George the Fourth, chapter eighty-three, intituled "An Act for the punishment of idle and disorderly persons and rogues and vagabonds in that part of Great Britain called England," or under any other Act of Parliament, for the offence of neglecting to maintain his family or any member thereof, or of leaving his family or any member thereof chargeable to any parish, township, or place, or combination of parishes, or to the common fund of any union, nor shall he in Ireland be liable to be convicted under the Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the tenth and eleventh years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to make provision for the punishment of vagrants and persons offending against the laws in force for the relief of the destitute poor in Ireland," for the offence of deserting or wilfully neglecting to maintain his wife or any child whom he may be liable to maintain, so that such wife or child shall become destitute and be relieved in or out of the workhouse of any union in Ireland.

Liability of soldier to maintain wife and children.

When any order is made under the Acts relating to the relief of the poor, or under the Bastardy Acts, on a soldier, or, in Scotland, decree is pronounced by a court of law, having jurisdiction, in an action of aliment or filiation and aliment against a soldier, for the maintenance of his wife or children, or for the maintenance of any such bastard child as aforesaid, or any of such persons, or where, in Ireland, any civil bill decree has been made for the cost of the maintenance of any illegitimate child against any soldier being the putative father of such child, under the provisions of the Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the twenty-sixth and twenty-seventh years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to amend the law enabling Boards of Guardians to recover costs of maintenance of illegitimate children in certain cases in Ireland," or when any order or decree has been made on or against any soldier for the recovery of the cost of any relief given to the wife or child of such soldier under the Acts relating to the relief of the poor in Ireland by way of loan, a copy of such order or decree shall be left at the office of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and the said Secretary of State may withhold a portion not exceeding sixpence of the daily pay of a non-commissioned officer who is not below the rank of sergeant, and not exceeding threepence of the daily pay of any other soldier, and allot the sum so withheld in liquidation of the sum adjudged to be paid by such order or decree.

Where a summons is issued against a soldier under the said Acts or any of them, or an action is raised against him at common law or under any Act of Parliament, for the purpose of enforcing against him any such liability as aforesaid, and such soldier is quartered out of the petty sessional division in which the summons is issued, or out of the jurisdiction of the court in which the action is raised, the summons shall be served on his commanding officer, and such service shall not be valid unless there be left therewith, or along with the service copy thereof, in the hands of the commanding officer, a sum of money to be adjudged as costs incurred in obtaining the order or decree (should an order be obtained or decree pronounced against the soldier) sufficient to enable him to attend the hearing of the case and return to his quarters; and no summons whatever under the said Acts or any of them, or at common law, shall be valid against a soldier if served after the time at which an order has been given for the embarkation for service out of the United Kingdom of the body of troops to which the soldier belongs.

An Act for the Regulation of Her Majesty's Royal Marine Forces while on shore. [24th April 1874.]

WHEREAS it is judged necessary for the safety of the United Kingdom, and the defence of the possessions of this realm, that a body of Royal Marine forces should be employed in Her Majesty's fleet and naval service, under the direction of the Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom, or the Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral aforesaid: And whereas the said forces may frequently be quartered or be on shore, or sent to do duty or be on board transport ships or merchant ships or vessels, or ships or vessels of Her Majesty, or other ships or vessels, or they may be under other circumstances in which they will not be subject to the laws relating to the government of Her Majesty's forces by sea: And whereas no man can be forejudged of life or limb, or subjected in time of peace to any kind of punishment within this realm, by martial law, or in any other manner than by the judgment of his peers, and according to the known and established laws of this realm; yet nevertheless it being requisite for the retaining of such forces in their duty that an exact discipline be observed, and that marines who shall mutiny or stir up sedition, or shall desert Her Majesty's service, or be guilty of any other crime or offence in breach of or to the prejudice of good order and discipline, be brought to a more exemplary and speedy punishment than the usual forms of the law will allow:

1. It shall be lawful for the said Lord High Admiral, or the Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral aforesaid, from time to time to make, ordain, alter, and establish rules and Articles of War, under the hand of the said Lord High Admiral, or under the hands of any two or more of the said Commissioners, for the better government of Her Majesty's Royal Marine forces, and for the punishment of mutiny, desertion, immorality, breach of discipline, misbehaviour, neglect of duty, and any other offence or misconduct of which they shall be guilty, in any place on shore or afloat in or out of Her Majesty's dominions, or at any time when or under any circumstances in which they shall not be amenable to the laws for the government of Her Majesty's ships, vessels, and forces by sea, and for regulating the proceedings of courts-martial, which rules and articles shall be judicially taken notice of by all judges and in all courts whatsoever ; and copies of the same shall, as soon as conveniently may be after the same shall have been made, be transmitted by the Secretary of the Admiralty for the time being (certified under his hand) to the judges of Her Majesty's superior courts at Westminster, Dublin, and Edinburgh respectively, and also to the governors of Her Majesty's dominions abroad ; provided that no person within the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland or within the British Isles shall by such Articles of War be subject to suffer any punishment extending to life or limb, or to be kept in penal servitude, except for crimes which are by this Act expressly made liable to such punishment as aforesaid, or shall be subject, with reference to any crimes made punishable by this Act, to be punished in any manner which may be inconsistent with the provisions of this Act.

As to offences against former Mutiny Acts and Articles of War.

2. All crimes and offences committed against any former Act made for the regulation of the Royal Marine forces while on shore, or against any of the rules, regulations, or Articles of War made and established by virtue of the same, may, during the continuance of this Act, be tried, inquired of, and punished in like manner as if they had been committed against this Act ; and every warrant for holding any court-martial under any former Act shall remain in full force notwithstanding the expiration of such Act ; and all proceedings of any court-martial upon any trial begun under the authority of such former Act shall not be discontinued by the expiration of the same : Provided always, that no person shall be liable to be tried and punished for any offence against any of the said Acts or Articles of War which shall appear to have been committed more than three years before the date of the commission or warrant for such trial, unless the person accused, by reason of his having absented himself, or of some other manifest impediment, shall not have been amenable to justice within that period, in which case such person shall be liable to be tried at any time not exceeding two years after the impediment shall have ceased ; and provided also, that if any officer or marine in any place beyond the seas shall commit any of the offences punishable by court-martial under this Act, and shall escape and come or be brought into this realm before he be tried for the same, he shall, when apprehended, be tried for the same as if such offence had been committed within this realm.

Limitation as to time.

Provisions of this Act to extend to Jersey, &c.

3. This Act shall extend to the islands of Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney, Sark, and Man, and the islands thereto belonging, as to the provisions herein contained for enlisting of recruits, whether minors or of full age, and swearing and attesting such recruits, and for mustering and paying, and to the provisions for trial and punishment of officers and marines who shall be charged with mutiny and desertion or any other of the offences which are by this Act declared to be punishable by the sentence of a court-martial, and also to the provisions which relate to the punishment of persons who shall conceal deserters, or shall knowingly buy, exchange, or otherwise receive any arms, medals for good conduct or for distinguished or other service, clothes, military furniture, or regimental necessaries from any marine or deserter, or who shall cause the colour of any such clothes to be changed; and also to the provisions for exempting marines from being taken out of Her Majesty's service for not supporting or for leaving chargeable to any parish any wife or child or children, or on account of any breach of contract to serve or work for any employer, or on account of any debts under thirty pounds in the said islands.

4. Nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to extend to exempt any officer or marine from being proceeded against by the ordinary course of law when accused of felony or misdemeanor, or of any misdemeanor other than the misdemeanor of refusing to comply with an order of justices for the payment of money; and any commanding officer who shall neglect or refuse, when due application shall be made to him for that purpose, to deliver over to the civil magistrate any officer or marine, or who shall wilfully obstruct, neglect, or refuse to assist any peace officer in apprehending any such offender, shall, upon conviction thereof in any of Her Majesty's courts at Westminster, Dublin, or Edinburgh, be deemed to be thereupon cashiered, and shall be utterly disabled to hold any civil or military office or employment in Her Majesty's service; and a certificate of such conviction shall be transmitted to the Secretary of the Admiralty.

The ordinary course of law not to be interfered with.

5. No person subject to this Act having been acquitted or convicted of any crime or offence by the civil magistrate or by the verdict of a jury shall be liable to be again tried for the same crime or offence by a court-martial, or to be punished for the same otherwise than by cashiering in the case of a commissioned officer, or in the case of a warrant officer by reduction to an inferior class, or to the rank of a private marine, by order of the Lord High Admiral, or the Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral, or in the case of a non-commissioned officer, by reduction to the ranks, by order of the commandant of the division to which such non-commissioned officer may belong; and whenever any officer or marine shall have been tried before a court of ordinary criminal jurisdiction, the clerk of the court or other officer having the custody of the records of such court, or the deputy of such clerk, shall, if required by the officer commanding the division to which such officer or marine belongs, transmit to him a certificate containing the substance and effect only, omitting the formal part, of the indictment, conviction, and entry of judgment thereon or acquittal of such officer or marine, and shall be allowed for such certificate a fee of three shillings.

No person tried by civil power to be punished by court-martial for same offence except by cashiering, &c.

Marines to be subject to the discipline of the navy while on board ship.

6. All of Her Majesty's Royal Marine forces shall, during the time they shall be respectively borne on the books of or be on board any of Her Majesty's ships or vessels in commission, either as part of the complement or as supernumeraries, or otherwise, be subject and liable in every respect to the laws for the government of Her Majesty's forces by sea, and to the rules and discipline of the Royal Navy for the time being, and shall and may be proceeded against and punished for offences committed by them whilst so borne or on board, in the same manner as the officers and seamen employed in the Royal Navy may be tried or punished; except when and so long as any marine officers or marines shall be landed from any of Her Majesty's ships, and be employed in military operations on shore, and when on such occasions the senior naval officer present shall deem it expedient to issue an order declaring that such marine officers and marines shall during such employment on shore be subject to the regulations of this Act, in which cases, and while such order shall remain in force, they shall be subject to such regulations, and be tried and punished under this Act accordingly for any offences to be committed by them while so on shore; and, with or without any commission or warrant from the said Lord High Admiral or the said Commissioners for that purpose, the officer commanding in chief or commanding for the time being any such marine officers or marines shall have power and authority to convene, and to authorise any officer to convene, courts-martial under this Act, as occasion may require, for the trial of offences committed by any of the Royal Marine forces, whether the same shall have been committed before or after such officer shall have taken upon himself such command: Provided always, that if any marine officer or marine so borne on the books of any of Her Majesty's ships or otherwise shall commit any offence for which he shall not be amenable to a naval court-martial, he may be tried and punished for the same in the same manner as other officers or marines may be tried and punished for the like offences under the authority of this Act; or if the Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral aforesaid so direct, he may be so tried and punished for any offence committed by him on shore, whether he be or be not amenable to a naval court-martial for the same.

Power to Lord High Admiral, &c. to grant commissions for holding general courts-martial, &c.

7. It shall be lawful for the said Lord High Admiral, or the Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral aforesaid, from time to time to grant commissions or warrants under the hand of the said Lord High Admiral, or under the hands of any two or more of the said Commissioners, for the holding of general and other courts-martial within the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and elsewhere out of the same, in like manner as has been heretofore used, and for bringing offenders against this Act and the Articles of War to justice, and to erect and constitute courts-martial, as well within the said United Kingdom and the British Isles as in any of Her Majesty's garrisons or dominions or elsewhere beyond the seas, and to grant commissions or warrants to the officer or officers commanding in chief or commanding for the time being any of Her Majesty's Royal Marine forces, as well within the said United Kingdom as Her Majesty's other dominions, and in any foreign parts out of the same dominions, for convening, as well as for authorising any officer to convene, courts-martial, as occasion may require, for the trial of offences committed by any of the Royal Marine forces, whether the same shall have been committed before or after such officer shall have taken upon himself such command, or before or after any such commission or warrant shall be granted, provided that the officer so authorised be not below the degree of a field officer, except in detached situations beyond seas, where a captain may be authorised to convene district or garrison courts-martial; and any person subject to this Act who shall, in any of Her Majesty's dominions or elsewhere, commit any of the offences for which he may be liable to be tried by court-martial by virtue of this Act or of the Articles of War, may be tried and punished for the same in any part of Her Majesty's dominions, or other place where he may have come or be after the commission of the offence, as if the offence had been committed where such trial shall take place.

Place where offenders may be tried.

8. Every general court-martial convened within the United Kingdom or the British Isles shall consist of not less than nine commissioned officers, each of whom shall have held a commission for three years before the date of the assembly of the court. Every general court-martial shall have power to sentence any officer of marines or marine to suffer death, penal servitude, imprisonment, forfeiture of pay or pension, or any other punishment which shall accord with the usage of the service; but no sentence of death by a court-martial shall pass unless two thirds at least of the officers present shall concur therein. No sentence of penal servitude shall be for a period of less than five years, and no sentence of imprisonment shall be for a period longer than two years.

Power of general courts-martial.

9. Every district or garrison court-martial convened within the United Kingdom or the British Isles shall consist of not less than seven commissioned officers, and shall have the same power as a general court-martial to sentence any marine to such punishments as shall accord with the provisions of this Act; provided that the sentence of a district or garrison court-martial shall be confirmed by the general officer, governor, or senior officer in command of the district, garrison, island, or colony, and that no such district or garrison court-martial shall have power to try a commissioned officer, or to pass any sentence of death or penal servitude.

Powers of divisional and detachment courts-martial.

10. A divisional or detachment court-martial shall consist of not less than five commissioned officers, unless it be found impracticable to assemble that number, in which case three shall be sufficient, and shall have power to sentence any marine to corporal punishment or to imprisonment, and forfeiture of pay, in such manner as shall accord with the provisions of this Act.

Courts-martial on line of march or in transport ships, &c.

11. In cases of mutiny and insubordination accompanied with personal violence or of other offences committed on the line of march, or on board any transport ship, convict ship, or merchant vessel, the offender may be tried by a divisional or detachment court-martial, and the sentence may be confirmed and carried into execution on the spot by the officer in immediate command, provided that the sentence shall not exceed that which a divisional court-martial is competent to award.

Powers of detachment general courts-martial.

12. It shall be lawful for any officer commanding any detachment or portion of Her Majesty's Royal Marine forces, upon complaint made to him of any offence committed against the property or person of any inhabitant of or resident in any country in which Her Majesty's Royal Marine forces are so serving by any person under the immediate command of any such officer, to summon and cause to be assembled a detachment general court-martial, which shall consist of not less than three commissioned officers, for the trial of any such person, notwithstanding such officer shall not have received any warrant empowering him to assemble courts-martial; and every such court-martial shall have the same powers in regard to summoning and examining witnesses, trial of and sentence upon offenders, as are granted by this Act to general courts-martial: Provided always, that no sentence of any such detachment court-martial shall be executed until the officer commanding the army to which the division, brigade, detachment, or party to which any person so tried shall belong shall have approved and confirmed the same.

Officers of the marine and land forces may sit in conjunction on courts-martial.

13. When it is necessary or expedient, a court-martial composed exclusively of officers of the Royal Marines, or a court-martial composed of officers of Her Majesty's Army, or of Her Majesty's Indian Army, or of both or of either, together with officers of the Royal Marines, whether the commanding officer by whose order such court-martial is assembled belongs to the land or to the marine forces, may try a person belonging to any one of the said three services; provided that when the person to be tried shall belong to Her Majesty's Royal Marine forces, then the provisions of this Act, or of such Act as shall be then and there in force for the regulation of Her Majesty's Royal Marine forces while on shore, and the oaths therein respectively prescribed, and the Rules and Articles of War relating to the Royal Marines then and there in force, shall be applicable to such court, and the proceedings thereof and relating thereto; but where the person to be tried shall belong to Her Majesty's Army, or shall belong to Her Majesty's Indian Army, and be within the United Kingdom, then the proceedings of such court shall be regulated as if the court were composed of officers of Her Majesty's Army only, and the provisions of the Act then and there in force for the punishment of mutiny and desertion, and for the better payment of the army and their quarters, and the oaths therein prescribed, and the Rules and Articles of War relating to Her Majesty's Army then and there in force, shall be applicable to such court, and the proceedings thereof and relating thereto; and where the person to be tried shall belong to Her Majesty's Indian Army, and be out of the United Kingdom, the provisions of such Act or Acts as shall be then and there in force for punishing mutiny and desertion of officers and soldiers in Her Majesty's Indian Army, and the Rules and Articles of War, if any, relating to such officers and soldiers then and there in force, shall be applicable to such court, and the proceedings thereof and relating thereto.

14. Provided there be no superior officer of Her Majesty's land forces present in command of a district, garrison, station, or place where marines may be serving, it shall be lawful for any officer of the Royal Marine corps of the degree of a field officer, and holding a commission from the Lord High Admiral, or the Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral, for that purpose, but not otherwise, to convene or assemble a district or garrison court-martial, to be composed as before stated, and for such court to proceed to try any marine or marines below the rank of commissioned officer for any of the offences cognizable by a district or garrison court-martial; but the sentence so awarded by any such court shall not be carried into effect until the senior officer of the Royal Marines in the district, garrison, station, or place, not being a member of the court, shall have confirmed the same: Provided always, that if there be any such superior officer of Her Majesty's land forces present in command of the district, garrison, station, or place where marines may be, in such case it shall be lawful for him to convene or assemble such district or garrison court-martial for the trial of any marine or marines below the rank of a commissioned officer, and for such court-martial to try any such marine or marines in conformity with the provisions of this Act and the Articles of War to be made in pursuance thereof; but the sentence which may be awarded by any such court which may be convened or assembled by any such superior officer shall not be carried into effect until such superior officer shall have confirmed the same.

President of courts-martial.

15. The president of every court-martial shall be appointed by or under the authority of the officer convening such courts, and shall in no case be the confirming officer, or the officer whose duty it has been to investigate the charges on which the prisoner is to be arraigned, nor, in the case of a general court-martial, under the degree of a field officer, unless where a field officer cannot be had, nor in any case whatsoever under the degree of a captain, save in the case of a detachment general court-martial holden out of Her Majesty's dominions, or of a divisional or detachment court-martial holden on the line of march, or on board a transport ship, convict ship, merchant vessel, or troop ship not in commission, or on any foreign station where a captain cannot be had: Provided always, that in the case of a detachment general court-martial holden out of Her Majesty's dominions the officer convening such court may be the president thereof.

trial.

16. In all trials by court-martial, as soon as the president and other officers appointed to serve thereon shall be assembled, their names shall be read over in the hearing of the prisoner, who shall thereupon be asked if he objects to being tried by the president or by any of such officers, and if the prisoner shall then object to the president, such objection, unless disallowed by two thirds at least of the other officers appointed to form the court, shall be referred to the decision of the authority by whom such president shall have been appointed; but if he object to any officer other than the president, such objection shall be decided by the president and the other officers so aforesaid appointed to form the court; and when the place of the president or other officer in respect of whom any challenge shall have been made and allowed shall be supplied by some officer in respect of whom no challenge shall be made or allowed, or if no challenge whatever shall have been made, or, if made, not allowed, the president and the other officers composing a general court-martial shall take the oaths in the schedule to this Act annexed before the judge advocate or his deputy or person officiating as judge advocate, and on trials by other courts-martial before the president of such court, who are hereby respectively authorised to administer the same, and any sworn member may administer the oath to the president; and as soon as the said oaths shall have been administered to the respective members, the president of the court is hereby authorised and required to administer to the judge advocate, or the person officiating as such, the oath in the schedule to this Act annexed; and no proceeding or trial shall be had upon any offence but between the hours of eight of the clock in the morning and four in the afternoon, except in cases which require an immediate example, and except in the East Indies, where such proceedings or trial may be had between the hours of six in the morning and four in the afternoon.

17. All general and other courts-martial shall have power and authority and are hereby required to administer an oath to every witness or other person who shall be examined before such court in any matter relating to any proceeding before the same; and every person, as well civil as military, who may be required to give or produce evidence before a court-martial, shall, in the case of general courts-martial, be summoned by the judge advocate, or the person officiating as such, and in the case of all other courts-martial by the president of the court; and all persons so summoned and attending as witnesses before any court-martial shall, during their necessary attendance in or on such courts, and in going to and returning from the same, be privileged from arrest, and shall, if unduly arrested, be discharged by the court out of which the writ or process issued by which such witness was arrested; or if such court be not sitting, then by any judge of the superior courts of Westminster or Dublin, or of the Court of Session in Scotland, or of the courts of law in the East or West Indies, or elsewhere, according as the case shall require, upon its being made to appear to such court or judge by any affidavit in a summary way that such witness was arrested in going to, attending upon, or returning from or attending upon such court-martial; and all witnesses so duly summoned as aforesaid who shall not attend on such courts, or attending shall refuse to be sworn, or not produce the documents being under their power or control required to be produced by them, or, being sworn, shall refuse to give evidence or to answer all such questions as the court may legally demand of them, shall be liable to be attached in the Court of Queen's Bench in London or Dublin, or in the Court of Session, sheriff or steward courts in Scotland, or in the courts of law in the East or West Indies, or in any of Her Majesty's colonies, garrisons, or dominions in Europe or elsewhere, respectively, upon complaint made, in like manner as if such witness had, after being duly summoned or subpoenaed, neglected to attend on a trial in any proceeding in the court in which such complaint shall be made.

summoning
witnesses.

18. No officer or marine who shall be acquitted or convicted of any offence shall be liable to be tried a second time by the same or any other court-martial for the same offence; and no finding, opinion, or sentence given by any court-martial, and signed by the president thereof, shall be revised more than once, nor shall any additional evidence in respect of any charge on which the prisoner then stands arraigned be received by the court on any revision.

No second trial, but revision allowed.

Crimes punishable with death.

19. If any person who is or shall be commissioned or in pay as an officer of Royal Marines, or who is or shall be listed or in pay as a non-commissioned officer, drummer, or private man in Her Majesty's Royal Marine forces, shall at any time during the continuance of this Act, while on shore in any place within the said kingdom, or in any other of Her Majesty's dominions, or in any foreign parts out of such dominions, or on board any transport ship, or merchant ship or vessel, or any ship or vessel of Her Majesty, or on board any convict hulk or ship, or any other ship or vessel, or in any place whatever, where or while being in any circumstances in which he shall not be subjected to, or not be liable to or punishable by, the laws relating to the government of Her Majesty's forces by sea, begin, excite, cause, or join in any mutiny or sedition in Her Majesty's marine or other forces, or shall not use his utmost endeavours to suppress any such mutiny or sedition, or shall conspire with any other person to cause a mutiny, or coming to the knowledge of any mutiny or intended mutiny shall not without delay give information thereof to his commanding officer; or shall misbehave himself before the enemy; or shall shamefully abandon or deliver up any garrison, fortress, post, or guard committed to his charge, or which he shall have been commanded to defend; or shall compel the governor or commanding officer of any garrison, fortress, or post to deliver up to the enemy or to abandon the same; or shall speak words or use any other means to induce such governor or commanding officer or any other to misbehave before the enemy, or shamefully to abandon or deliver up any garrison, fortress, post, or guard committed to their respective charge, or which he or they shall be commanded to defend; or shall leave his post before being regularly relieved, or shall sleep on his post; or shall hold correspondence with or give advice or intelligence to any rebel, pirate, or enemy of Her Majesty, either by letters, messages, signs, tokens, or any other ways or means whatever; or shall treat or enter into any terms with any such rebel, pirate, or enemy, without the license of the Lord High Admiral of the said United Kingdom, or the Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral aforesaid, for the time being; or shall strike or use or offer any violence against his superior officer being in the execution of his office, or shall disobey any lawful command of his superior officer; or who being confined in a military prison shall offer any violence against a visitor or other officer being in the execution of his office, or shall violate any law or regulation of or relating to any military prison; or shall desert from Her Majesty's Royal Marine forces; every person so offending in any of the matters before mentioned, whether such offence be committed within this realm, or in any other of Her Majesty's dominions, or in foreign parts upon land or upon the sea, shall suffer death or penal servitude or such other punishment as by a court-martial shall be awarded: Provided always, that any non-commissioned officer or marine in pay in any division or company who shall, without having first obtained a regular discharge therefrom, enlist himself in any other division or company, or in any other branch of Her Majesty's service, may be deemed to have deserted Her Majesty's service, and shall be liable to be punished accordingly.

20. In all cases where the punishment of death shall have been awarded by a general court-martial or by a detachment general court-martial it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, or, if in any place out of the United Kingdom or British Isles, for the commanding officer having authority to confirm the sentence, instead of causing such sentence to be carried into execution, to order the offender to be kept to penal servitude for any term not less than five years, or to suffer such term of imprisonment, with or without hard labour, and with or without solitary confinement, as shall seem meet to Her Majesty or to the officer commanding as aforesaid.

Commutation of death for penal servitude or imprisonment, &c.

21. Any officer or marine, or any person employed or in any way concerned in the care or distribution of any money, provisions, forage, arms, clothing, ammunition, or other stores belonging to any of Her Majesty's forces or for Her Majesty's use, who shall embezzle, fraudulently misapply, wilfully damage, steal, or receive the same knowing them to have been stolen, or shall be concerned therein or connive thereat, may be tried for the same by a general court-martial, and sentenced to be kept in penal servitude for any term not less than five years, or to suffer such punishment of fine, imprisonment with or without hard labour, dismissal from Her Majesty's service, reduction to the ranks, if a warrant or non-commissioned officer, as such court shall think fit, according to the nature and degree of the offence; and every such offender shall, in addition to any other punishment, make good at his own expense the loss and damage sustained; and in every such case the court is required to ascertain by evidence the amount of such loss or damage, and to declare by their sentence that such amount shall be made good by such offender; and the loss and damage so ascertained as aforesaid shall be a debt to Her Majesty, and may be recovered in any of Her Majesty's courts at Westminster or in Dublin, or the Court of Exchequer in Scotland, or in any court in Her Majesty's colonies where the person sentenced by such court-martial shall be resident after the said judgment shall be confirmed and made known, or the offender, if he shall remain in the service, may be put under stoppages not exceeding one half of his pay and allowances until the amount so ascertained shall be recovered.

Embezzlement punishable by penal servitude, imprisonment, &c.

22. Whenever Her Majesty shall intend that any sentence of penal servitude heretofore or hereafter to be passed upon

As to execution of sentences of penal servitude

in the United Kingdom.

any offender by any court-martial shall be carried into execution for the term specified in such sentence, or for any shorter term, or shall be graciously pleased to commute as aforesaid to penal servitude any sentence of death which shall have been passed by any such court, such sentence, together with Her Majesty's pleasure upon the same, shall be notified in writing by the Lord High Admiral, or by the Secretary to the Admiralty for the time being, to any justice of the Queen's Bench, Common Pleas, or baron of the Exchequer, and thereupon such justice or baron shall make an order for the penal servitude of such offender upon the terms and for the time which shall be specified in such notification, and shall do all such other acts consequent upon such notification as any such justice or baron is authorised to make or do by any statute or statutes in force at the time of making any such orders in relation to penal servitude of offenders; and such order, and other acts to be so made and done as aforesaid, shall be obeyed and executed by such person in whose custody such offender shall at that time be, and by all other persons whom it may concern, and shall be as effectual, and have all the same consequences, as any order made under the authority of any statute with respect to any offender in such statute mentioned; and every sheriff, gaoler, keeper, governor, or superintendent whom it may concern, and all constables and other persons, shall be bound to obey the aforesaid order and orders, be assistant in the execution thereof, and be liable to the same punishment for disobedience to or for interrupting the execution of such order, as they would be if the same had been made under the authority of any such Act of Parliament; and every person so ordered to be kept in penal servitude shall be subject respectively to all and every the penalties and provisions made by law and in force concerning persons under sentence of penal servitude, or receiving Her Majesty's pardon on condition of penal servitude; and from the time when such order of penal servitude shall be made every law and statute in force touching the escape of felons, or their afterwards returning or being at large without leave, shall apply to such offender, and to all persons aiding, abetting, contriving, or assisting in any escape or intended escape or the returning without leave of any such offender; and the judge who shall make any order of penal servitude as aforesaid shall direct the notification of Her Majesty's pleasure, and his own order made thereupon, to be filed and kept of record in the office of the Clerk of the Crown of the Court of Queen's Bench; and the said clerk shall have a fee of two shillings and sixpence only for filing the same, and shall, on application, deliver a certificate in writing (not taking more than two shillings and sixpence for the same) to such offender, or to any person applying in his or Her Majesty's behalf, showing the Christian and surname of such offender, his offence, the place where the court was held before which he was convicted, the sentence, and the conditions on which the order of penal servitude was made; which certificate shall be sufficient proof of the conviction and of the sentence of such offender, and also of the terms in which such order for his penal servitude was made, in any court and in any proceeding wherein it may be necessary to inquire into the same; and it shall be lawful for any judge of the Queen's Bench, Common Pleas, or Exchequer in Ireland to make an order that any such offender convicted in Ireland shall be kept in penal servitude in England, and such order shall be in all respects as effectual in England as though such offender had been convicted in England and the order had been made by any judge of the Queen's Bench, Common Pleas, or Exchequer in England.

23. Whenever any sentence of penal servitude heretofore or hereafter passed upon any offender by any court-martial holden in any part of Her Majesty's foreign dominions, or elsewhere beyond the seas, is to be carried into execution for the term specified in such sentence, or for any shorter term, or when sentence of death passed by any such court-martial has been or shall as aforesaid be commuted to penal servitude, the same shall be notified by the officer commanding Her Majesty's forces at the presidency or station where the offender may come or be, if in India to the chief judge or any judge of the chief civil court of the presidency or province in which the court-martial has been held; and if in any other part of Her Majesty's foreign dominions, to the chief justice or some other judge therein, who shall make order for the penal servitude or intermediate custody of such offender; and upon any such order being made it shall be duly notified to the governor of the presidency if in the East Indies, or to the governor of the colony if in any of Her Majesty's colonies, or to the person who shall for the time being be exercising the office of governor of such presidency or colony, who on receipt of such notification shall cause such offender to be removed or sent to some other colony or place, or to undergo his sentence within the presidency or colony where the offender was so sentenced or where he may come or be as aforesaid in obedience to the directions for the removal and treatment of convicts which shall from time to time be transmitted from Her Majesty through one of her Principal Secretaries of State to such presidency or colony; and such offender shall, according to such directions, undergo the sentence of penal servitude which shall have been passed upon him either in the presidency or colony in which he has been so sentenced or in the colony or place to which he has been so removed or sent, and whilst such sentence shall remain in force shall be liable to be imprisoned and kept to hard labour, and otherwise dealt with under such sentence, in the same manner as if he had been sentenced to be imprisoned with hard labour during the term of his penal servitude by the judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction in such presidency or colony or in the colony or place to which he has been so removed or sent respectively.

Sentence of penal servitude may be commuted for imprisonment.

24. In any case where a sentence of penal servitude shall have been awarded by a general or detachment general court-martial, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, or, if in any place out of the United Kingdom or British Isles, for the officer commanding in chief Her Majesty's forces there serving, instead of causing such sentence to be carried into execution, to order that the offender be imprisoned, with or without hard labour, and with or without solitary confinement, for such term not exceeding two years as shall seem meet to Her Majesty or to the officer commanding as aforesaid.

Of forfeitures, when combined with penal servitude.

25. Where an award of any forfeiture, or of deprivation of pay, or of stoppages of pay shall have been added to any sentence of penal servitude, it shall be lawful for the said Lord High Admiral or the said Commissioners, or, if in any place out of the United Kingdom or British Isles, for the officer commanding in chief Her Majesty's forces there serving, in the event of the sentence being commuted for imprisonment, to order such award of forfeiture, deprivation of pay, or stoppages of pay to be enforced, mitigated, or remitted as may be deemed expedient.

Disposal of convict after sentence of penal servitude.

26. When any sentence of death shall be commuted for penal servitude, or when any marine shall by court-martial be adjudged to penal servitude as authorised by this Act, it shall be lawful for the commanding officer of the division to which such marine shall have belonged or may belong to cause him to be detained and conveyed to any gaol or prison, there to remain in safe custody until he shall be removed therefrom by due authority under an order for his penal servitude to be made by some justice of the Queen's Bench or Common Pleas or baron of the Exchequer as aforesaid; and a certificate of his sentence, after the same shall have been approved by the Lord High Admiral, or the Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral, (such certificate to be signed by the commanding officer of the division from which he shall be sent,) shall be a sufficient order, requisition, and authority to the governor, keeper, or superintendent of the gaol or prison to receive and detain him: Provided always, that in case of any such offender being so conveyed to gaol or prison the usual allowance of sixpence per diem, or such other sum as the said Lord High Admiral or the said Commissioners may at any time or times direct, shall be made to the keeper of the gaol or prison for the subsistence of such offender during his detention therein, which allowance shall be paid by the paymaster of the division, upon production to him, by the said governor, keeper, or superintendent, of a declaration, to be made by him before one of Her Majesty's justices of the peace of such county, of the number of days during which the offender shall have been so detained and subsisted in such gaol or prison.

27. No court-martial shall, for any offence whatever committed in time of peace within the Queen's dominions, have power to sentence any marine to corporal punishment: Provided that any court-martial may sentence any marine to corporal punishment while on active service in the field, or on board any ship not in commission, for mutiny, insubordination, desertion, drunkenness on duty or on the line of march; and no sentence of corporal punishment shall exceed fifty lashes.

Power to inflict corporal punishment in certain cases.

28. It shall be lawful for any general, district, or garrison court-martial to award imprisonment, with or without hard labour, and with or without solitary confinement, such confinement not exceeding the periods prescribed herein-after or by the Articles of War, and in case of a marine in addition to corporal punishment.

Power to inflict corporal punishment and imprisonment.

29. In all cases in which corporal punishment shall form the whole or part of the sentence awarded by any court-martial, it shall be lawful for the Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or the Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or for the officer authorised to confirm the sentences of courts-martial, to commute such corporal punishment to imprisonment for any period not exceeding forty-two days, with or without hard labour, and with or without solitary confinement, or to mitigate such sentence, or instead of such sentence to award imprisonment for any period not exceeding twenty days, with or without hard labour, and with or without solitary confinement, and corporal punishment, to be inflicted in the prison, not exceeding twenty-five lashes, and the solitary confinement herein-before mentioned shall in no case exceed seven days at a time, with intervals of not less than seven days between each period of such confinement.

Power to commute corporal punishment.

30. It shall be lawful for Her Majesty, in all cases whatsoever, instead of causing a sentence of cashiering to be put in execution, to order the offender to be reprimanded, or, in addition thereto, to suffer such loss of army or regimental rank, or both, as may be deemed expedient.

Power to commute a sentence of cashiering.

31. Any general court-martial may, in addition to any other punishment which such court may award, sentence any offender to forfeiture of all advantage as to additional pay, good conduct pay, and to pension on discharge, which might have otherwise accrued from the length of his former service, or to forfeiture of such advantage absolutely, whether it might have accrued from past service, or might accrue from future service, or to forfeiture of any annuity and medal which may have been granted for former meritorious service, or of the gratuity and medal awarded for former good conduct, and of all medals and decorations, according to the nature of the case; and any district or garrison court-martial may also, in addition to any punishment which such court may award, sentence any offender to such forfeiture for desertion, or for disgraceful conduct,

In wilfully maiming or injuring himself or any other marine, whether at the instance of such other marine or not, or of causing himself to be maimed or injured by any other person, with intent thereby to render himself or such other marine unfit for service :

In wilfully doing any act, or wilfully disobeying any orders, whether in hospital or otherwise, thereby producing or aggravating disease or infirmity, or delaying his cure :

In malingering or feigning disease :

In tampering with his eyes, with intent thereby to render himself unfit for service :

In stealing or embezzling Government property or stores, or in receiving the same knowing the same to have been stolen :

In stealing any money or goods the property of a comrade, of a marine officer, or of any marine mess or band, or in receiving any such money or goods knowing the same to have been stolen :

In making any false or fraudulent accounts, returns, matters, or entries, or assisting or conniving at the same being made, or producing the same as true, knowing the same to be false or fraudulent :

In stealing or embezzling or fraudulently misapplying public money intrusted to him :

Or in committing any other offence of a felonious or fraudulent nature, to the injury of, or with intent to injure, any person, civil, marine, or military :

Or for any other disgraceful conduct, being of a cruel, indecent, or unnatural kind.

Forfeiture of pay on conviction of desertion or felony.

32. Every marine who shall be found guilty by a court-martial of desertion, of wilfully maiming or injuring himself or any other marine, whether at the instance of such other marine or not, or of causing himself to be maimed or injured by any other person, with intent thereby to render himself or such other marine unfit for service, of tampering with his eyes with intent thereby to render himself unfit for service, such finding having been confirmed, or found guilty by a jury of felony in any court of ordinary criminal jurisdiction in England or Ireland, or of any crime or offence in any court of criminal judicature in any part of the United Kingdom, or in any dominion, territory, colony, settlement, or island belonging to or occupied by Her Majesty out of the United Kingdom, which would, if committed in England, amount to felony, shall thereupon forfeit all advantage as to additional pay, good-conduct pay, and to pension on discharge which might have otherwise accrued from the length of his former service, in addition to any punishment which such court may award; and every marine who may be so convicted, or who may be sentenced to penal servitude, or discharged with ignominy, shall thereupon likewise forfeit all medals which he may be in possession of, whether for sea or field service or for good conduct, together with any annuity or pension or gratuity, if any, thereto appertaining; and any sergeant reduced to the ranks by sentence of court-martial may, by the order of the same court, be made to forfeit any annuity or pension and medal for meritorious service, or any or either of them, which may have been conferred upon him.

33. If any non-commissioned officer or marine, by reason of his imprisonment, whether under sentence of a court-martial or of any other court duly authorised to pass such sentence, or by reason of his confinement for debt, or by reason of his desertion, or, being an apprentice, by reason of his being allowed to serve out his time with his master, shall have been absent from his duty during any portion of the time limited by his enlistment or re-engagement or prolongation of service, as herein-after provided, such portion of his time shall not be reckoned as a part of the limited service for which such non-commissioned officer or marine was enlisted or re-engaged, or for which his time of service may have been prolonged; and no marine shall be entitled to pay, or to reckon service towards pay or pension, when in confinement under a sentence of any court, or during any absence from duty by commitment or confinement as a deserter by confession or under any charge of which he shall be afterwards convicted, either by court-martial or by any court of ordinary criminal jurisdiction, or whilst in confinement for debt; and when any marine shall be absent as a prisoner of war he shall not be entitled to pay, or to reckon service towards pay or pension, for the period of such absence, but upon rejoining Her Majesty's service due inquiry shall be made by a court-martial, and unless it shall be proved to the satisfaction of such court that the said marine was taken prisoner through wilful neglect of duty on his part, or that he had served with or under, or in some manner aided, the enemy, or that he had not returned as soon as possible to Her Majesty's service, he may thereupon be recommended by such court to receive either the whole of or during absence on commitment under a charge, or in arrest for debt;

or when prisoner of war;

or when convicted of desertion or absence without leave;

or when absent without leave.

such arrears of pay, or a proportion thereof, and to reckon service during his absence; and any marine who shall be convicted of desertion, or of absence without leave, shall, in addition to any punishment awarded by the court, forfeit his pay for the day or days during which he was in a state of desertion, or during his absence without leave; and if any marine shall absent himself without leave for any period, and shall not account for the same to the satisfaction of the commanding officer, or if any marine shall be guilty of any other offence which the commanding officer may not think necessary to bring before a court-martial, the commanding officer may, in addition to any minor punishment he is authorised to award, order that such marine shall be imprisoned for such period not exceeding one hundred and sixty-eight hours, with or without hard labour, and with or without solitary confinement, as the said commanding officer may think fit, and such marine shall forfeit his pay for any day or days on which he may be so imprisoned; and the said commanding officer may moreover order that, in addition to or instead of such imprisonment and forfeiture, or any other punishment which he has authority to inflict, any marine who shall have so absented himself as aforesaid shall forfeit his pay for the day or days during which he shall have so absented himself; and, in pursuance of any such order as aforesaid, the pay of the marine shall be accordingly forfeited: Provided always, that such marine shall not be liable to be afterwards tried by a court-martial for any offence for which he shall have been so punished, ordered to suffer imprisonment, punishment, or forfeiture as last aforesaid: Provided also, that any marine who shall be so ordered to suffer imprisonment or forfeiture of pay shall, if he so request, have a right to be tried by a court-martial for his offence instead of submitting to such imprisonment or forfeiture: Provided also, that it shall be lawful for the said Lord High Admiral or the said Commissioners to order or withhold the payment of the whole or any part of the pay of any officer or marine during the period of absence by any of the causes aforesaid.

Stoppages.

34. In addition to any other punishment which the court may award a court-martial may further direct that any offender may be put under stoppages until he shall have made good—

Any bounty fraudulently obtained by him by desertion from his corps and enlisting in some other corps or in the militia:

Any loss, disposal of, or damage occasioned by him in any of the instances of disgraceful conduct herein specified:

Any loss, disposal of, or destruction of, or damage or injury to any property whatsoever occasioned by his wilful or negligent misconduct:

Any loss, disposal of, or destruction of, or damage or injury to his arms, clothing, instruments, equipments, accoutrements, or necessaries, or any extra article of clothing or equipment that he may have been put in possession of and ordered to wear on the recommendation of the surgeon for the benefit of his health, or making away with or pawning any medal or decoration for service or for general good conduct which may have been granted to him by order of Her Majesty or by order of the East India Company, or any medal or decoration which may have been granted to him by any foreign power, or any loss, disposal of, or destruction of, or damage or injury to the arms, clothing, instruments, equipments, accoutrements, or necessaries of any officer or marine, occasioned by his wilful or negligent misconduct :

Provided always, that, except in the case of the loss, disposal of, or destruction of, or damage or injury to arms, clothing, instruments, equipments, accoutrements, or necessaries, in which case the court may by its sentence direct that the said 'stoppages shall continue till the cost of replacing or repairing the same be made good, the amount of any loss, disposal, destruction, damage or injury, or expense, shall be ascertained by evidence; and the offender shall be placed under stoppages for such an amount only as shall be proved to the satisfaction of the court : Provided also, that when an offender is put under stoppages for making away with or pawning any medal or decoration, the amount shall be credited to the public, but the medal or decoration in question shall not be replaced except under special circumstances, to be determined by the Lord High Admiral or the Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral aforesaid : Provided also, that so much only of the pay of the marine may be stopped and applied as shall, after satisfying the charges for messing and washing, leave him a residue at the least of one penny a day.

35. Whenever any marine shall have been convicted of desertion or of any such disgraceful conduct as is herein-before described, and the court in respect of such disgraceful conduct shall have made the forfeiture of all claim to pension on discharge a part of the sentence passed on such marine, such court may further sentence him to be discharged with ignominy from Her Majesty's service : Provided always, where an award of any of the forfeitures herein-before mentioned, or of deprivation of pay, or of stoppages of pay, shall have been added to a sentence of transportation or penal servitude, it shall be lawful for the Lord High Admiral or the Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral, or, if in the East Indies, for the officer commanding in chief Her Majesty's land forces in India, in the event of the sentence of transportation or penal servitude being commuted to imprisonment, to order such award of forfeiture, deprivation of pay, or stoppages of pay to be enforced, mitigated, or remitted as may be deemed expedient.

Power of imprisonment by general, district, or garrison courts-martial.

36. A general or district or garrison court-martial may sentence any marine to imprisonment, with or without hard labour, and may also direct that such offender shall be kept in solitary confinement for any portion or portions of such imprisonment, in no case exceeding fourteen days at a time, nor eighty-four days in any one year, with intervals between the periods of solitary confinement of not less duration than such periods; and when the imprisonment awarded shall exceed three months, the court-martial shall imperatively order that the solitary confinement shall not exceed seven days in any one month of the whole imprisonment awarded, with intervals between the periods of solitary confinement of not less duration than such periods.

Power of imprisonment by divisional or detachment courts-martial.

37. Any divisional or detachment court-martial may sentence any marine to imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for any period not exceeding forty-two days, and may also direct that such marine be kept in solitary confinement for any portion or portions of such imprisonment, not exceeding fourteen days at a time, with intervals between them of not less duration than such periods of solitary confinement: Provided always, that when any court-martial, whether general, garrison, or district, or divisional or detachment, shall direct that the imprisonment shall be solitary confinement only, or when any sentence of corporal punishment shall have been commuted to imprisonment only, the period of such solitary confinement shall in no case exceed fourteen days.

Imprisonment of offender already under sentence.

38. Whenever sentence shall be passed by a court-martial on an offender already under sentence, either of imprisonment or of penal servitude, the court may award sentence of imprisonment or penal servitude for the offence for which he is under trial to commence at the expiration of the imprisonment or penal servitude to which he shall have been so previously sentenced, although the aggregate of the terms of imprisonment or penal servitude respectively may exceed the term for which either of those punishments could be otherwise awarded.

Whenever Her Majesty, the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, or any general or other officer authorised to confirm the sentences of courts-martial shall commute a sentence of penal servitude or corporal punishment to imprisonment, and the offender whose sentence shall be so commuted shall at the time of such commutation be under sentence of imprisonment or penal servitude, it shall be lawful to direct that such com-mutated sentence of imprisonment shall commence at the expiration of the imprisonment or penal servitude to which such prisoner shall have been so previously sentenced, although the aggregate of the term of imprisonment or penal servitude respectively may exceed the term for which either of those punishments could be otherwise awarded.

39. Save as herein specially provided, every term of penal servitude or imprisonment under the sentence of a court-martial, whether original or revised, shall be reckoned as commencing on the day on which the original sentence and proceedings shall be signed by the president; and the place of imprisonment under the sentences of courts-martial shall be appointed by the court or the Lord High Admiral, or the Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral, or the commanding officer of the division to which the offender belongs or is attached, or the officer commanding the district, garrison, island, or colony.

Term and place of imprisonment.

40. In the case of a prisoner undergoing imprisonment under sentence of a court-martial, or as part of commuted punishment, in any public prison other than a military prison, or in any gaol or house of correction or elsewhere, in any part of the United Kingdom, it shall be lawful for the said Lord High Admiral, or the Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral, for the time being, in all cases, or for the officer who confirmed the proceedings of the court, or the officer commanding the division or the district or garrison in which such prisoner may be, to give, as often as occasion may arise, an order in writing directing that the prisoner be discharged, or be delivered over to military custody, whether for the purpose of being removed to some other prison or place in the United Kingdom, there to undergo the remainder or any part of his sentence, or for the purpose of being brought before a court-martial either as a witness or for trial; and in the case of a prisoner undergoing imprisonment under the sentence of a court-martial in any public prison other than a military prison, or in any gaol or house of correction, in any part of Her Majesty's dominions other than the United Kingdom, it shall be lawful for the said Lord High Admiral or the said Commissioners, or for the officer commanding the Royal Marines there serving, in the case of any such prisoner, to give as often as occasion may arise an order in writing directing that the prisoner be discharged, or be delivered over to military or other custody, whether for the purpose of being removed to some other prison or place in any part of Her Majesty's dominions there to undergo the remainder or any part of his sentence, or for the purpose of being brought before a court-martial either as a witness or for trial; and in the case of any prisoner who shall be removed by any such order from any such prison, gaol, or house of correction, either within the United Kingdom or elsewhere, to some other prison or place, either in the United Kingdom or elsewhere, the officer or authorities who gave such order shall also give an order in writing directing the governor, provost marshal, gaoler, or keeper of such other prison or place to receive such prisoner into his custody, and specifying the offence of which such prisoner shall have been convicted, and the sentence of the court, and the period of imprisonment which he is to undergo, and the day and the hour on which he is to be released; and such governor, provost marshal, gaoler, or keeper shall keep such offender in a proper place of confinement, with or without hard labour, and with or without solitary confinement, according to the sentence of the court, and during the time specified in the said order, or until he be duly discharged or delivered over to other custody before the expiration of that time under an order duly made for that purpose; and in the case of a prisoner undergoing imprisonment under the sentence of a court-martial in any military prison in any part of Her Majesty's dominions, the Secretary of State for War, or the general officer commanding the district or station in which the prison may be situated, shall have the like powers in regard to the discharge and delivery over of such prisoners to military or other custody as may be lawfully exercised by any of the authorities above mentioned in respect of any prisoners undergoing confinement as aforesaid in any public prison other than a military prison, or in any gaol or house of correction in any part of Her Majesty's dominions; and such prisoner in any of the cases herein-before mentioned shall accordingly, on the production of any such order as is herein-before mentioned, be discharged or delivered over, as the case may be: Provided always, that the time during which any prisoner under sentence of imprisonment by a court-martial shall be detained in such military or other custody under such order as aforesaid shall be reckoned as imprisonment under the sentence, for whatever purpose such detention shall take place, and such prisoner may during such time, either when on board ship or otherwise, be subjected to such restraint as is necessary for his detention and removal.

Custody of prisoners under military sentence in common gaols.

41. Every governor, provost marshal, gaoler, or keeper of any public prison, or of any gaol or house of correction, in any part of Her Majesty's dominions, shall receive into his custody any military offender under sentence of imprisonment by a general or other court-martial, upon delivery to him of an order in writing in that behalf from the Lord High Admiral, or the Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral, or from the officer commanding the division or detachment to which the offender belongs or did last belong or is attached, which order shall specify the period of imprisonment or remainder of imprisonment which the offender is to undergo, and the day and hour of the day on which he is to be released or be otherwise disposed of; and such governor, provost marshal, gaoler, or keeper shall keep such offender in a proper place of confinement, with or without hard labour, and with or without solitary confinement, according to the sentence of the court, and during the time specified in the said order, or until he be discharged or delivered over to other custody before the expiration of that time, under an order duly made for that purpose; and whenever marines are called out in aid of the civil power, or are stationed in billets, or are on the line of march, every governor, provost marshal, gaoler, or keeper of any public prison, gaol, house of correction, lock-up house, or other place of confinement shall receive into his custody any marine for a period not exceeding seven days, upon delivery to him of an order in writing in that behalf from the officer commanding such marine; and any governor, provost marshal, gaoler, or keeper of any public prison, gaol, house of correction, lock-up house, or other place of confinement who shall refuse to receive and to confine, or to discharge or deliver over, any marine offender in the manner herein prescribed, shall forfeit for every such offence the sum of one hundred pounds.

42. The gaoler or keeper of any public prison, gaol, house of correction, lock-up house, or other place of confinement in any part of Her Majesty's dominions shall diet and supply every marine imprisoned therein under the sentence of a court-martial or as a deserter with fuel and other necessities according to the regulations of such place of confinement, and shall receive on account of every marine during the period of his imprisonment one shilling per diem, or such other sum as the said Lord High Admiral or the said Commissioners may at any time or times direct, which the Secretary of the Admiralty shall cause to be issued out of the subsistence of such marine, upon application in writing signed by any justice within whose jurisdiction such place of confinement shall be locally situated together with a copy of the order of commitment, and which sum of one shilling per diem, or such other sum as aforesaid, shall be carried to the credit of the fund from which the expense of such place of confinement is defrayed. A sentence of imprisonment or of penal servitude passed either by a court-martial or by any court of criminal jurisdiction upon any person subject to this Act shall be in no respect affected by such person ceasing to be subject to this Act by discharge or otherwise at any time after the passing of such sentence; but the discharge of such person shall not be deemed in any manner to affect the provisions for the cost of his maintenance while undergoing a sentence of imprisonment or penal servitude, as otherwise enacted.

Subsistence of prisoners in common gaols.

43. Every gaoler or keeper of any public prison, gaol, house of correction, or other place of confinement, to whom any prisonment in

notice shall have been given, or who shall have reason to know or believe, that any person in his custody for any debt or contempt, or upon any charge or for any offence, civil, criminal, or military, is a marine, shall on receiving him into custody give notice thereof to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and also, previous to the expiration of the period of the confinement or imprisonment of such marine, give to the Secretary of the Admiralty one month's notice of the period of such expiration of confinement or imprisonment, or if there shall not be sufficient time for a month's notice, then the longest practicable notice thereof, specifying the day and hour of the day on and at which he is to be released; and for every default of giving either or any of such notices such gaoler or person shall forfeit the sum of twenty pounds; and moreover every gaoler or other person having such immediate inspection as aforesaid shall, as soon as any such marine shall be entitled to be discharged out of custody, with all convenient speed, safely and securely conduct and convey and safely and securely deliver every such marine either unto the officer commanding at the nearest head quarters of the Royal Marines or to the officer commanding Her Majesty's ship to which any such marine may happen to belong, unless the said Commissioners shall, by writing under the hand of the Secretary of the Admiralty, or the officer commanding at the nearest head quarters of the Royal Marines, or the officer commanding Her Majesty's ship to which any such marine may belong, shall, by writing under his hand, direct that such marine be delivered to some other officer or person, in which case he shall be delivered to such other officer or person accordingly, and the officer or person to whom such marine shall be so delivered in accordance with this Act shall thereupon give to such gaoler or person delivering up such marine a certificate, directed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, specifying the receipt of such marine, and, if such gaoler or other person as aforesaid has conducted or conveyed any such marine, specifying the place from and to which he shall have been conducted and conveyed as aforesaid; and such gaoler or person who shall have so conducted, conveyed, and delivered any such marine shall, upon the production of such certificate, be entitled to receive of and from the Accountant General of Her Majesty's Navy the sum of one shilling per mile, and no more, for conducting, conveying, and delivering any such marine as aforesaid; and every such gaoler or other person having such immediate inspection as aforesaid who shall not safely and securely conduct, convey, or deliver any such marine as aforesaid shall for every such misconduct or offence forfeit and pay the sum of one hundred pounds. In all cases where the marine in custody is under sentence to be discharged from the service on the completion of his term of imprisonment, and the discharge document is in the hands of the gaoler, such gaoler shall not be required to make any report thereof to the Secretary of the Admiralty or to the Deputy Adjutant General of Marines.

44. Every military prison which shall be established under or by virtue of any Act for punishing mutiny and desertion, and for the better payment of the army and their quarters, shall be deemed to be public prisons within the meaning of any Act now in force or hereafter to be in force for the regulation of Her Majesty's Royal Marine forces; and any officer or marine convicted by a court-martial may be sent, by order of the Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral, to any such military prison, there to undergo such punishment as may be awarded by the sentence passed upon him, or until he be discharged or delivered up by an order, as in the case of a discharge or removal from any other prison under this Act.

Military prisons established under any Act for punishing mutiny and desertion in the army to be deemed public prisons.

45. Musters, as have been customary, shall be taken of every division or company of Royal Marines once in every calendar month, as shall be appointed; and no officer or marine shall be absent from any such muster, unless duly certified to be employed on some other duty of the corps, or sick, or in prison, or on furlough; and every person belonging to Her Majesty's service who shall give or procure to be given any untrue certificate thereby to excuse any person from any muster or other service which he ought to attend or perform, or shall make any false or untrue muster of man or horse, or who shall willingly allow or sign any false muster or duplicate thereof, or shall directly or indirectly take or receive any money or gratuity for mustering any person, or for signing any muster roll or duplicate, or shall knowingly muster any person by a wrong name, shall, upon proof by two witnesses before a general court-martial, for any such offence be sentenced to be cashiered: Provided that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, in all cases whatsoever, instead of causing a sentence of cashiering to be put in execution, to order the offender to be reprimanded, or, in addition thereto, to suffer such loss of rank as may be deemed expedient; and any person who shall fraudulently offer or procure himself to be falsely mustered, or lend or furnish any horse to be falsely mustered, shall, upon proof thereof by the oaths of two witnesses before some justice of the peace residing near to the place where such muster shall be made, forfeit the sum of twenty pounds, and the informer, if he belongs to Her Majesty's service, shall, if he demand it, be forthwith discharged; and if any person not belonging to Her Majesty's service shall give or sign any untrue certificate of illness or otherwise in order to excuse any officer or marine from appearance at any muster, or whereby Her Majesty's service may be defrauded, every person so offending shall for every such offence forfeit the sum of fifty pounds.

Verifying of muster rolls.

46. All muster rolls and pay lists of Royal Marines required to be verified upon oath shall be sworn before and attested by any justice of the peace, without fee or reward to himself or his clerk.

Trials for desertion after subsequent re-enlistment.

47. Every marine shall be liable to be tried and punished for desertion from any corps into which he may have unlawfully enlisted, although he may of right belong to another corps, and be a deserter therefrom; and whether such marine shall be tried for deserting from the corps to which he may of right belong, or from the corps into which he may have unlawfully enlisted, or for any other desertion, every desertion previous or subsequent to that for which he may at the time be taking his trial may, if duly stated in the charges, be given in evidence against him on such trial.

of deserters.

48. Upon reasonable suspicion that a person is a deserter it shall be lawful for any constable, or if no constable can be immediately met with, then for any officer or marine or soldier in Her Majesty's service, or other person, to apprehend or cause to be apprehended such suspected person, and forthwith to bring him or cause him to be brought before any justice living in or near the place where he was so apprehended, and acting for the county, city, district, place, or borough wherein such place is situate, or for the county adjoining such first-mentioned county or such borough; and such justice is hereby authorised and required to inquire whether such suspected person is a deserter, and from time to time to defer the said inquiry, and to remand the said suspected person, in the manner prescribed by an Act passed in the eleventh and twelfth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, chapter forty-two, section twenty-one, and subject to every provision therein contained; and if it shall appear to the satisfaction of such justice, by the testimony of one or more witnesses taken upon oath, or by the confession of such suspected person, confirmed by some corroborative evidence upon oath, or by the knowledge of such justice, that such suspected person is a deserter, such justice shall forthwith cause him to be conveyed in civil custody to the head quarters of the division or dépôt to which he belongs, or to the nearest military station, or to the nearest or most convenient prison, police station, or other place legally provided for the temporary confinement of persons in custody, or delivered to a party of marines in charge of a non-commissioned officer as to him may seem most expedient having regard to the safe custody of such deserter; and such justice shall transmit an account of the proceedings to the Secretary of the Admiralty, specifying the manner in which he has so disposed of such deserter, to the end that the person so committed may be proceeded against according to law ; and such justice shall also send to the Secretary of the Admiralty a report stating the names of the persons by whom or by or through whose means the deserter was apprehended and secured, and the Secretary of the Admiralty shall transmit to such justice an order upon the proper department for the payment of the sum of twenty shillings as a reward to the person so certified to be entitled thereto ; and for such information, commitment, and report as aforesaid the clerk of the said justice shall be entitled to a fee of two shillings and no more ; and every gaoler and other person into whose custody any person charged with desertion is committed shall, immediately upon the receipt of the person so charged into his custody, pay such fee of two shillings, and shall notify the fact to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and transmit also to the Secretary of the Admiralty a copy of the commitment, to the end that the Secretary of the Admiralty may order repayment of such fees ; and that when any such person shall be apprehended and committed as a deserter in any part of Her Majesty's foreign dominions, the justice shall forthwith cause him to be conveyed to some public prison, if the detachment to which he is suspected to belong shall not be in such part, or if the detachment be in such part, the justice may deliver him into custody at the nearest military post, although the detachment to which such person is suspected to belong may not be stationed at such military post, if within reasonable distance ; and such justice shall in every case transmit to the officer commanding a description return in the form prescribed in the schedule to this Act annexed, to the end that such person may be removed by the order of such officer, and proceeded against according to law ; and such description return, purporting to be duly made and subscribed in accordance with the Act, shall, in the absence of proof to the contrary, be deemed sufficient evidence of the facts and matters therein stated : Provided always, that any such person so committed as a deserter in any part of Her Majesty's dominions shall, subject to the provisions herein-after contained, be liable to be transferred, by order of the colonel commandant or other officer commanding, to serve in any division, corps, detachment, or party nearest to the place where he shall have been apprehended, or to any other division, corps, detachment, or party to which the Lord High Admiral or the Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral may deem it desirable that he should be transferred, and shall also be liable after such transfer of service to be tried and punished as a deserter.

deserters.

40. For and in respect of any marine attempting to desert from any head quarters, the party or parties by whom he shall be apprehended shall be entitled to a reward of ten shillings, to be paid upon the delivering up of such marine, which sum of ten shillings shall be charged against and stopped and retained out of the pay and subsistence of every such marine.

Temporary custody of deserters in gaols.

50. Every gaoler or keeper of any public prison, gaol, house of correction, lock-up house, or other place of confinement in any part of Her Majesty's dominions is hereby required to receive and confine therein every deserter who shall be delivered into his custody by any marine or other person conveying such deserter under lawful authority, on production of the warrant of the justice of the peace on which such deserter shall have been taken, or some order from the Admiralty, which order shall continue in force until the deserter shall have arrived at his destination; and such gaoler or keeper shall be entitled to one shilling for the safe custody of the said deserter while halted on the march, and to such subsistence for his maintenance as shall be directed by the said Lord High Admiral or the said Commissioners.

51. Any person who, while serving in Her Majesty's Navy or in any of Her Majesty's forces, or the embodied militia, shall to any officer, or subordinate, warrant, petty, or non-commissioned officer, fraudulently confess himself to be a deserter from Her Majesty's Royal Marine forces, shall be liable to be tried by any court-martial under this Act, and punished according to the sentence thereof; and any person who shall voluntarily deliver himself up as and confess himself to be a deserter from Her Majesty's Royal Marine forces, or who, upon being apprehended for any offence, shall in the presence of the justice confess himself to be a deserter as aforesaid, shall be deemed to have been duly enlisted and to be a marine, and shall be liable to serve in Her Majesty's Royal Marine forces, whether such person shall have been ever actually enlisted as a marine or not; or in case such person shall not be a deserter from the Royal Marine forces, or shall have been discharged therefrom or from any other corps for any cause whatever, or shall be incapable of service, he shall, on conviction thereof before two justices of the peace at or near the place where he shall deliver himself up or confess, or where he may at any time happen to be, be adjudged to be punished, if in England, as a rogue and vagabond, and if elsewhere by commitment to some prison or house of correction, there to be kept to hard labour for any time not exceeding three months, or shall be deemed guilty of obtaining money under false pretences within the true intent and meaning, if in England or Ireland, of an Act passed in the session holden in the twenty-fourth and twenty-fifth years of Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act to consolidate and amend the Statute Law of England and Ireland relating to Larceny and other similar offences," or, if in Scotland, shall be deemed guilty of falsehood, fraud, and wilful imposition; and every person so deemed to be guilty of obtaining money under false pretences, or of falsehood, fraud, and wilful imposition, (as the case may be,) shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly; and the confession and receiving subsistence as a marine by such person shall be evidence of the false pretence, or of the falsehood, fraud, and imposition, (as the case may be,) and of the obtaining money to the amount of the value of such subsistence, and the value of such subsistence so obtained may be charged in the indictment as so much money received by such person; and in case such person shall have been previously convicted of the like offence, or shall have been summarily convicted and punished in England as a rogue and vagabond, or in Scotland or Ireland by commitment, for making a fraudulent confession of desertion, such former conviction may be alleged in the indictment, and may be proved upon the trial of such person; and in such indictment for a second offence it shall be sufficient to state that the offender was at a certain time and place convicted of obtaining money under false pretences as a deserter, for making a fraudulent confession of desertion, without otherwise describing the said offence; and a certificate containing the substance and effect only (omitting the formal part) of the indictment and conviction of the former offence, purporting to be signed by the clerk of the court or other officer having the custody of the record of the court where the offender was first convicted, or by the deputy of such clerk, or by the clerk of the convicting magistrates, shall, upon proof of the identity of the person of the offender, be sufficient evidence of the first conviction, without proof of the signature or official character of the person appearing to have signed such certificate; and if the person so confessing himself to be a deserter shall be serving at the time in Her Majesty's Royal Marine forces he shall be deemed to be and shall be dealt with by all justices and gaolers as a deserter.

52. Any person who shall, in any part of Her Majesty's dominions, by any means whatsoever, directly or indirectly procure any marine to desert or absent himself from his duty without leave from his commanding officer, or attempt to procure or persuade any marine to desert or absent himself from his duty, and any person who, knowing that any marine is absent from his duty without leave from his commanding officer, shall harbour or conceal such marine, or aid or assist such marine in concealing himself, or aid and assist in his rescue, or aid or assist him to desert, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall, on conviction thereof before any two justices acting for the county, district, city, burgh, or place where any such offender shall at any time happen to be, be liable to be committed to the common gaol or house of correction, there to be imprisoned, with or without hard labour, for such term not exceeding six calendar months as the convicting justices shall think fit.

Extension of furlough in case of sickness.

53. When there shall not be any officer of Her Majesty's land or marine forces of the rank of captain or of a superior rank, or any adjutant of militia, within convenient distance of the place where any non-commissioned officer or marine, not borne on the books of any of Her Majesty's ships or vessels in commission as aforesaid, and who shall be on furlough, shall be detained by sickness or other casualty rendering necessary an extension of such furlough, it shall be lawful for any justice who shall be satisfied of such necessity to grant an extension of furlough for a period not exceeding one month; and the said justice shall immediately certify such extension, and the cause thereof, to the commanding officer of the division or detachment to which the man belongs, if known, and if not, then to the Secretary of the Admiralty, in order that the necessary allowance of pay and subsistence may be remitted to the marine, who shall not during the period of such extension of furlough be liable to be treated as a deserter: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to exempt any marine from trial and punishment according to the provisions of this Act for any false representation made by him in that behalf to the said officer or justice so extending the furlough, or for any breach of discipline committed by him in applying for and obtaining the said extension of furlough.

Marines liable to be taken out of Her Majesty's service only for felony and certain misdemeanors, or for debts amounting to 30*l.* and upwards;

54. Any person enlisted into Her Majesty's Royal Marine forces as a marine, or who has received marine enlistment money, shall be liable to be taken out of Her Majesty's service only by process or execution on account of any charge of felony, or on account of misdemeanor, or of any crime or offence other than the misdemeanor of refusing to comply with an order of justices for the payment of money, or on account of an original debt proved by affidavit of the plaintiff or of some one on his behalf to amount to the value of thirty pounds at the least over and above all costs of suit, such affidavit to be sworn, without payment of any fee, before some judge of the court out of which process or execution shall issue, or before some person authorised to take affidavits in such court, of which affidavit, when duly filed in such court, a memorandum shall, without fee, be endorsed upon the back of such process, stating the fact sworn to, and the day of filing such affidavit; but no marine or other person as aforesaid shall be liable by any process whatever to appear before any justice of the peace or other authority whatsoever, or to be taken out of Her Majesty's service by any writ, summons, order, warrant, judgment, execution, or any process whatever issued by or by the authority of any court of law, or any magistrate, justice or justices of the peace, or any other authority whatsoever, for any original debt not amounting to thirty pounds, or for the breach of any contract, covenant, agreement, or other engagement whatever, by parol or in writing, or for having left or deserted his employer or master, or his contract, work, or labour; and all summonses, warrants, commitments, indictments, convictions, judgments, and sentences, on account of any of the matters for which it is herein declared that a marine is not liable to be taken out of Her Majesty's service, shall be utterly illegal, and null and void to all intents and purposes; and any judge of any such court may examine into any complaint made by a marine or by his superior officer, and by warrant under his hand discharge such marine, without fee, he being shown to have been arrested contrary to the intent of this Act, and shall award reasonable costs to such complainant, who shall have for the recovery thereof the like remedy as would have been applicable to the recovery of any costs which might have been awarded against the complainant in any judgment or execution as aforesaid, or a writ of Habeas corpus ad subjiciendum shall be awarded or issued, and the discharge of any such marine out of custody shall be ordered thereupon; provided that any plaintiff, upon notice of the cause of action first given in writing to any marine or left at his last quarters, may proceed in any action or suit to judgment, and have execution other than against the body or marine necessaries or equipments of such marine: Provided also, that nothing herein contained relating to the leaving or deserting a master or employer, or to the breach of any contract, agreement, or engagement, shall apply to persons who shall be really and bonâ fide apprentices duly bound under the age of twenty-one years as herein prescribed.

55. No person who shall be commissioned and in full pay as an officer in the Royal Marine forces, or who shall be employed in enlisting for such forces, shall be capable of being nominated or elected to be sheriff, and no such officer and no non-commissioned officer of such forces shall be capable of being nominated or elected to be a constable, or overseer, guardian of any union, or any officer of a like description, of any county, hundred, riding, city, borough, town, division, parish, or other place, or to be mayor, portreeve, alderman, or to hold any office in any municipal corporation in any city, borough, or place in Great Britain or Ireland, or be summoned or shall serve as a grand or petit or other juror or upon any inquest, and any summons for him to attend to serve as a grand or petit or other juror or upon an inquest shall be null and void; and every such person is hereby exempted from attendance and service in accordance with any such summons and from all fines, pains, and penalties for or in consequence of not attending or serving as aforesaid.

Questions to be put to recruits on enlisting.

56. Every person authorised to enlist recruits for the Royal Marines shall first ask the person offering to enlist whether he belongs to any and what force in Her Majesty's service, and also such other questions as the said Lord High Admiral or the said Commissioners may direct to be put to such persons, and in case of a recruit shall, immediately after giving him enlisting money, serve him with a notice in the form set forth in the schedule to this Act annexed.

Recruits when deemed to be enlisted.

57. Every person who shall receive enlisting money in manner aforesaid shall upon such receipt be deemed to be enlisted as a marine in Her Majesty's service, and while he shall remain with the recruiting party shall be entitled to be billeted.

When recruits to be taken before a justice.

58. Every person so enlisted as aforesaid shall, within ninety-six hours (any intervening Sunday, Christmas Day, or Good Friday not included), but not sooner than twenty-four hours after such enlistment, appear, together with some person employed in the recruiting service, before a justice of the peace, not being an officer of the marines, for the purpose of being attested as a marine, or of objecting to his enlistment.

Dissent and relief from enlistment.

59. When a recruit, upon appearing before a justice for the purposes aforesaid, shall dissent from or object to his enlistment, and shall satisfy the justice that the same was effected in any respect irregularly, he shall forthwith discharge the recruit absolutely, and shall report such discharge to the commandant of the division for which the marine shall have enlisted; but if the recruit so dissenting shall not allege or shall not satisfy the justice that the enlistment was effected irregularly, nevertheless upon repayment of the enlisting money and of any sum received by him in respect of pay or allowances, and of a further sum of twenty shillings as smart money, he shall be entitled to be discharged; and the sum paid by such recruit upon his discharge shall be kept by the justice, and, after deducting therefrom one shilling as the fee for reporting the payment to the Secretary of the Admiralty and to the said commandant, shall be paid over to any person belonging to the recruiting party who may demand the same; and the justice who shall discharge any recruit shall in every case give a certificate thereof, signed with his hand, to the recruit, specifying the cause thereof.

60. If the recruit on appearing before a justice shall not dissent from his enlistment, or dissenting shall within twenty-four hours return and state that he is unable to pay the sums mentioned in the last section, he shall be attested as follows: the justice, or some person deputed by him, shall read to the recruit the questions set forth in the form contained in the schedule to this Act annexed, cautioning him that if he fraudulently make any false answer thereto he shall be liable to be punished as a rogue and vagabond, and the answers of the recruit shall be recorded opposite to the said questions, and the justice shall require the recruit to make and sign the declaration in the said form, and shall then administer to him the oath of allegiance in the said form; and when the recruit shall have signed the said declaration and taken the oath, the justice shall attest the same by his signature, and shall deliver to the recruiting officer the declaration so signed and attested, and the fee for such attestation, including the declaration and oath, shall be one shilling and no more; and any recruit shall, if he so wish, be furnished with a certified copy of the above-mentioned declaration by the officer who finally approved of him for the service.

61. No recruit, unless he shall have been attested or shall have received pay other than enlisting money, shall be liable to be tried by court-martial; but if any person, previously to his being attested or enrolled, shall by means of any false answer obtain enlistment or other money, or shall make any false statement in his declaration, or shall refuse to answer any question duly authorised to be put to him for the purpose of filling up such declaration, or shall refuse or neglect to go before a justice for the purposes aforesaid, or having in the case of a recruit dissented from his enlistment shall wilfully omit to return and pay such money as aforesaid, in any of such cases it shall be lawful for any two justices within the United Kingdom, or for any one justice out of the United Kingdom, acting for the county, district, city, burgh, or place where any such person shall at any time happen to be, when he shall be brought before them or him, if in England, to adjudge him to be a rogue and vagabond, and to sentence him to be punished accordingly, and if in Scotland or Ireland, or elsewhere in Her Majesty's dominions, to be imprisoned with hard labour in any prison or house of correction for any period not exceeding three calendar months. And any marine who shall have given any false answer at the time of or relative to his becoming a marine shall forfeit all pay, wages, and other moneys, be the same naval, marine, or otherwise, which he might otherwise have been entitled to for any period of service in the Royal Marines.

62. Any person who shall have been attested or enrolled, and who shall afterwards be discovered to have given any wilfully false answer to any question directed to be put by the proper authorities, or shall have made any wilfully false statement in the declaration herein-before mentioned, shall be liable, at the discretion of the said Lord High Admiral or the said Commissioners, to be proceeded against before two justices in the manner herein-before mentioned, and by them sentenced accordingly, or to be tried by a district or garrison court-martial for the same, and punished in such manner as such court shall direct, and the declaration made by such person on his attestation or enrolment, purporting to be made in accordance with the schedule to this Act annexed, or with the regulations of the said Lord High Admiral or the said Commissioners, shall, in the absence of proof to the contrary, be deemed sufficient evidence, whether before such justice or justices, or before any court-martial, of such person having represented the several particulars as stated in such declaration.

Recruits
absconding.

63. If any recruit shall abscond so that it is not possible immediately to apprehend and bring him before a justice for attestation, the recruiting party shall produce to the justice before whom the recruit ought regularly to have been brought for that purpose a certificate of the name and place of residence and description of such recruit and of his having absconded, and shall declare the same to be true, and the justice to whom such certificate shall be produced shall transmit a duplicate thereof to the Secretary of the Admiralty in order that the same may appear in the "Police Gazette." For the purposes of this section and all purposes of attestation and enlistment a justice of any county or borough shall be deemed to be a justice of any other county or borough.

64. If any man while belonging to a militia regiment shall enlist in and be attested for Her Majesty's Royal Marines, he shall be liable to be tried before a court-martial on a charge for desertion; but it shall be lawful for the Secretary of State for War, on the confession thereof by such militiaman, or on other proof thereof, to order that in lieu of his being so tried he shall be subjected to a stoppage of one penny a day of his pay for eighteen calendar months, and in case such militiaman shall have belonged to the militia reserve at the time of his attestation he shall be subjected to a further stoppage of one penny a day for two hundred and forty days, to be applied as the Secretary of State for War shall direct, and further to determine whether such man shall be returned to his militia regiment after such sum shall have been made good, or shall be deemed to be a marine in the same manner as he would have been if he had not been a militiaman at the time of his attestation: Provided also, that every soldier who, while belonging to a militia regiment, enlisted in Her Majesty's Royal Marines, whether such enlistment took place before or after the passing of the Mutiny Act, 1860, shall reckon service towards the performance of his limited engagement from the date of his attestation: Provided also, that any such soldier shall not reckon service for pension until the day on which his engagement for the militia would have expired; but if any such soldier shall, subsequently to his enlistment, have rendered long, faithful, or gallant service, the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty may, upon the special recommendation of the Deputy Adjutant General, Royal Marines, order that he may reckon service for pension from the date of his attestation.

65. If any non-commissioned officer of the volunteer permanent staff shall enlist into the Royal Marines, he may be tried and punished as a deserter, but if he confesses his desertion the Secretary of State for War, instead of causing him to be tried and punished as a deserter, may cause him to be returned to his service on the volunteer permanent staff, to be there put under stoppages from his pay until he has repaid the amount of any bounty received by him, and the expenses attending his enlistment, and also the value of any arms, &c. issued to him while on the volunteer permanent staff, and not duly delivered up by him, or may cause him to be held to his service in the Royal Marines with a direction, if it seems fit, that his term of service therein shall not be reckoned for pension until the time when his engagement on the volunteer permanent staff would have expired, and may further cause him to be put under stoppages of one penny a day of his pay until he has repaid the expense attending his engagement or attestation on the volunteer permanent staff, and also the value of any arms, clothing, or appointments issued to him while on the volunteer permanent staff, and not duly delivered up by him.

Volunteer permanent staff officers enlisting into regular forces.

66. Every person subject to this Act who shall wilfully act contrary to any of its provisions in any matter relating to the enlisting or attesting of recruits for Her Majesty's service shall be liable to be tried for such offence by a general or other court-martial, and to be sentenced to such punishment, other than death or penal servitude, as such court may award.

Penalty on persons offending as to enlistment.

67. It shall be lawful for any justice of the peace or person exercising the office of a magistrate within any of Her Majesty's dominions abroad, or for the officer commanding any ship or vessel of Her Majesty on the books of which any marine may be borne, or on board of which any such marine may be, or, notwithstanding anything in this Act contained, for the commanding officer of any battalion or detachment of Royal Marines, whether borne on the books of any one of Her Majesty's ships or otherwise, to re-engage or enlist and attest out of Great Britain or Ireland any marine desirous of re-enlisting or re-engaging into Her Majesty's Royal Marine forces, if such marine be considered by such commanding officer, justice, or magistrate a fit person to continue in Her Majesty's service; and every such commanding officer, justice, or magistrate shall have the same powers in that behalf as are by this or any other Act of Parliament given to justices of the peace in the United Kingdom for all such purposes of enlistment and attestation, and any marine so re-enlisted or re-engaged shall be deemed to be an attested marine.

Apprentices enlisting to be liable to serve after the expiration of their apprenticeship.

68. Any person duly bound as an apprentice who shall enlist into Her Majesty's Royal Marine forces, and shall falsely state to the magistrate before whom he shall be carried and attested that he is not an apprentice, shall be deemed guilty of obtaining money by false pretences, if in England or in Ireland, and of falsehood, fraud, and wilful imposition, if in Scotland, and shall after the expiration of his apprenticeship, whether he shall have been so convicted and punished or not, be liable to serve as a marine according to the terms of the enlistment, and if on the expiration of his apprenticeship he shall not deliver himself up to some officer authorised to receive recruits, such person may be taken as a deserter from Her Majesty's Royal Marine forces.

69. No master shall be entitled to claim an apprentice who shall enlist as a marine in Her Majesty's service unless such master shall, within one calendar month next after such apprentice shall have left his service, go before some justice, and take the oath mentioned in the schedule to this Act annexed, and at the time of making his claim produce to the officer under whose command the recruit shall be the certificate of such justice of his having taken such oath, which certificate such justice is required to give in the form in the schedule to this Act annexed; nor unless such apprentice shall have been bound, if in England, for the full term of five years, (not having been above the age of fourteen years when so bound,) and, if in Ireland or in the British Isles, for the full term of five years at the least, (not having been above the age of sixteen when so bound,) and, if in Scotland, for the full term at least of four years, by a regular contract or indenture of apprenticeship, duly extended, signed, and tested, and binding on both parties by the law of Scotland prior to the period of enlistment, and unless such contract or indenture in Scotland shall, within three months after the commencement of the apprenticeship and before the period of enlistment, have been produced to a justice of the peace of the county in Scotland wherein the parties reside, and there shall have been endorsed thereon by such justice a certificate or declaration signed by him specifying the date when and the person by whom such contract or indenture shall have been so produced, which certificate or declaration such justice of the peace is hereby required to endorse and sign; nor unless any such apprentice shall, when claimed by such master, be under twenty-one years of age: Provided always, that any master of an apprentice indentured for the sea service shall be entitled to claim and recover him in the form and manner above directed, notwithstanding such apprentice may have been bound for a less term than five or four years as aforesaid: Provided also, that any such master who shall give up the indentures of apprenticeship within one month after the enlisting of such apprentice shall be entitled to receive, to his own use, so much of the bounty payable to such recruit as shall not have been paid to such recruit before notice given of his being an apprentice.

70. No apprentice claimed by his master shall be taken from any division, detachment, recruiting party, or ship of Her Majesty, except under a warrant of a justice residing near and within whose jurisdiction such apprentice shall then happen to be, and before whom he shall be carried; and such justice shall inquire into the matter upon oath (which oath he is hereby empowered to administer), and shall require the production and proof of the indenture, and that notice of the said warrant has been given to the commanding officer, and a copy thereof left with some officer or non-commissioned officer of the party, and that such person so enlisted declared that he was no apprentice; and such justice, if required by such officer or non-commissioned officer, shall commit the offender to the common gaol of the county, division, or place for which such justice is acting, and shall keep the indenture to be produced when required, and shall bind over such person as he may think proper to give evidence against the offender, who shall be tried at the next or at the sessions immediately succeeding the next general or quarter sessions of such county, division, or place, unless the court shall for just cause put off the trial; and the production of the indenture, with the certificate of the justice that the same was proved, shall be sufficient evidence of the said indenture; and every such offender in Scotland may be tried by the judge ordinary in the county or stewardry in such and the like manner as any person may be tried in Scotland for any offence not inferring a capital punishment: Provided always, that any justice not required as aforesaid to commit such apprentice may deliver him to his master.

No apprentice claimed by the master shall be taken away without a warrant.

Punishment of apprentices enlisting.

71. No person who shall for six months, and either before or after the passing of this Act, have received pay and be borne on the strength and pay list of any division of Her Majesty's Royal Marine forces, of which the last quarterly pay list (if produced) shall be evidence, or been borne as a marine on the books of any of Her Majesty's ships in commission, shall be entitled to claim his discharge on the ground of error or illegality in his enlistment or attestation or re-engagement, or on any other ground whatsoever, but, on the contrary, every such person shall be deemed to have been duly enlisted, attested, or re-engaged, as the case may be.

Removal of doubts as to attestation of marines.

72. It shall also be lawful for the Lord High Admiral, and also for the said Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral, to give orders for withholding the pay of any officer or marine for any period during which such officer or marine shall be absent without leave, or improperly absent from his duty, or in case of any doubt as to the proper issue of pay to withhold it from the parties aforesaid until the said Lord High Admiral or the said Commissioners shall come to a determination upon the case.

Power to Admiralty to order pay to be withheld.

Billeting of marines.

73. And whereas there is and may be occasion for the marching and also for the quartering of the Royal Marine forces when on shore: Be it enacted, that during the continuance of this Act, upon the order or orders in writing in that behalf under the hand of the Lord High Admiral, or the hands of two or more of the Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral for the time being, or upon the order or orders in writing in that behalf under the hand of any colonel commandant or commanding officer of any division of Royal Marines, it shall be lawful for all constables and other persons specified in this Act in Great Britain and Ireland, and they are hereby required, to billet the officers and marines, whether marching or otherwise, and all staff and field officers horses, and all båt and baggage horses belonging to the Royal Marine forces, when on actual service, not exceeding for each officer the number for which forage is or shall be allowed by Her Majesty's regulations, in victualling houses and other houses specified in this Act, taking care in Ireland not to billet less than two men in any one house; and they shall be received by the occupiers of the houses in which they are so billeted, and be furnished by such victualler with proper accommodation in such houses, and with a separate bed for each marine, or if any victualler shall not have sufficient accommodation in the house upon which a marine is billeted, then in some good and sufficient quarters to be provided by such victualler in the immediate neighbourhood, and in Great Britain with diet and small beer, and in Great Britain and Ireland with stables, oats, hay, and straw for such horses as aforesaid, paying and allowing for the same the several rates herein-after provided; and at no time when marines are on their march shall any of them be billeted above one mile from the place mentioned in the route, care being always taken that the billets be made out for the less distant houses in which suitable accommodation can be found before making out billets for the more distant; and in all places where marines shall be billeted in pursuance of this Act, the officers and their horses shall be billeted in one and the same house, except in case of necessity; and the constables are hereby required to billet all marines on their march in the manner required by this Act upon the occupiers of all houses within one mile of the place mentioned in the route, and whether they be in the same or a different county in like manner in every respect as if such houses were all locally situated within such place: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to extend to authorise any constable to billet marines out of the county to which such constable belongs when the constable of the adjoining county shall be present and shall undertake to billet the due proportion of men in such adjoining county; and no more billets shall at any time be ordered than there are effective marines and horses present to be billeted; all which billets, when made out by such constables, shall be delivered into the hands of the commanding officer present, or to the non-commissioned officer on the spot; and if any person shall find himself aggrieved by having an undue proportion of marines billeted in his house, and shall prefer his complaint, if against a constable or other person not being a justice, to one or more justices, and if against a justice, then to two or more justices, within whose jurisdiction such marines are billeted, such justices respectively shall have power to order such of the marines to be removed and to be billeted upon other persons as they shall see cause; and when any horses belonging to the officers of Her Majesty's Royal Marine forces shall be billeted upon the occupiers of houses who shall have no stables, then, upon a written requisition of the officer commanding such marines, the constable is hereby required to billet the horses upon some other person or persons having stables, and who are by this Act liable to have officers and marines billeted upon them, and any two or more justices of the peace may order a proper allowance to be paid by the persons relieved to the persons receiving such horses, or to be applied in the furnishing the requisite accommodation; and the commanding officer may exchange any man or horse billeted in any place with another man or horse billeted in the same place, for the convenience or benefit of the service, provided the number of men and horses do not exceed the number at that time billeted on such houses respectively, and the constables are hereby required to billet such men and horses so exchanged accordingly; and it shall be lawful for any justice, at the request of any officer or non-commissioned officer commanding any marines requiring billets, to extend any route, or to enlarge the district within which billets shall be required, in such manner as shall appear to be most convenient to Her Majesty's service: Provided also, that to prevent or punish all abuses in billeting marines, it shall be lawful for any justice, within his jurisdiction, by warrant or order under his hand, to require any constable to give him an account in writing of the number of officers and marines who shall be quartered by such constables, together with the names of the persons upon whom such officers and marines are billeted, stating the street or place where such persons dwell, and the signs, if any, belonging to the houses: Provided always, that no officer shall be compelled or compellable to pay anything for his lodging where he shall be duly billeted: Provided also, that no justice being an officer of Royal Marines shall directly or indirectly be concerned in billeting or appointing quarters under this Act.

Allowance to innkeepers.

74. The innholder or other person on whom any marine is billeted in Great Britain shall, if required by such marine, furnish him for every day on the march, and for a period not exceeding two days, when halted at any intermediate place upon the march, and for the day of the arrival at the place of final destination, with one hot meal in each day, the meal to consist of such quantities of diet and small beer as may be fixed by Her Majesty's regulations, not exceeding one pound and a quarter of meat previously to being dressed, one pound of bread, one pound of potatoes or other vegetables, and two pints of small beer, and vinegar, salt, and pepper, and for such meal the innholder or other person furnishing the same shall be paid the sum of tenpence, and twopence halfpenny for a bed; and all innholders and other persons on whom marines may be billeted in Great Britain or Ireland, except when on the march in Great Britain, and entitled to be furnished with the hot meal as aforesaid, shall furnish such marines with a bed and with candles, vinegar, and salt, and shall allow them the use of fire, and the necessary utensils for dressing and eating their meat, and shall be paid in consideration thereof the sum of fourpence per diem for each marine; and the sum to be paid to the innholder or other person on whom any of the horses belonging to Her Majesty's Royal Marine forces shall be billeted, in Great Britain or Ireland, for ten pounds of oats, twelve pounds of hay, and eight pounds of straw, shall be one shilling and ninepence per diem for each horse; and every officer or non-commissioned officer commanding a division, detachment, or party shall every four days, or before they shall quit their quarters if they shall not remain so long as four days, settle and discharge the just demands of all victuallers or other persons upon whom such officers, marines, or horses are billeted, out of the pay and subsistence of such officers and marines, before any part of the said pay or subsistence be paid or distributed to them respectively; and if any such officer or non-commissioned officer shall not pay the same as aforesaid, then upon complaint and oath made thereof by any two witnesses before two justices of the peace for the county, riding, division, liberty, city, borough, or place where such quarters were situate, sitting in quarter or petty sessions, the Secretary of the Admiralty is hereby required, upon certificate of the justices before whom such oath shall be made of the sum due to complainant, to order payment of the amount which shall be charged against such officer; and in case of any marines being suddenly ordered to march, and of the commanding officer or non-commissioned officer not being enabled to make payment of the sums due on account of billets, every such officer or non-commissioned officer shall before his departure make up the account with every person upon whom any such marines may have been billeted, and sign a certificate thereof; which account and certificate, on being transmitted to the Secretary of the Admiralty, shall be immediately paid, and charged to the account of such officer or non-commissioned officer.

75. For the regular provision of carriages for the Royal Marine forces and their baggage on their marches in Great Britain and Ireland, all justices of the peace within their several jurisdictions, being duly required thereunto by order of the said Lord High Admiral, or two or more of the Commissioners for executing the said office of Lord High Admiral for the time being, or any colonel commandant or commanding officer of a division of Royal Marines, shall, on the production of such order, or a copy thereof certified by the commanding officer, to them or any one or more of them, by the officer or non-commissioned officer of the party of marines so ordered to march, issue a warrant to any constable having authority to act in any place from, through, near, or to which such marines shall be ordered to march, (for each of which warrants a fee of one shilling only shall be paid,) requiring him to provide the carriages, horses, oxen, and drivers therein mentioned, (allowing sufficient time to do the same,) specifying the places from and to which the said carriages shall travel, and the distance between the places, for which distance only so specified payment shall be demanded, and which distance shall not, except in cases of pressing emergency, exceed the day's march prescribed in the order of route, and shall in no case exceed twenty-five miles; and the constables receiving such warrant shall order such persons as they shall think proper, having carriages, to furnish the requisite supply, who are hereby required to furnish the same accordingly; and in case sufficient carriages cannot be procured within the proper jurisdiction, any justice of the next adjoining jurisdiction shall, by a like course of proceeding, supply the deficiency; and in order that the burden of providing carriages may fall equally, and to prevent inconvenience arising from there being no justice residing near the place where marines may be quartered on the march, the justice or justices residing nearest to such place shall cause a list to be made out, at least once in every year, of all persons liable to furnish such carriages, and of the number and description of their said carriages, which list shall at all reasonable hours be open to the inspection of the said persons, and shall by warrant under his hand authorise the constables within his jurisdiction to give orders to provide carriages without any special warrant from him for that purpose, which orders shall be valid in all respects; and all orders for such carriages shall be made from such lists in regular rotation, so far as the same can be done.

carriages.

76. In every case in which the whole distance for which any carriage shall be impressed shall be under one mile the rate of a full mile shall be paid ; and the rates to be paid for carriages impressed shall be, in Great Britain, for every mile which a waggon with four or more horses, or a wain with six oxen or four oxen and two horses, shall travel, one shilling ; and for every mile any waggon with narrow wheels, or any cart with four horses, carrying not less than fifteen hundredweight, shall travel, ninepence ; and for every mile every other cart or carriage with less than four horses, and not carrying fifteen hundredweight, shall travel, sixpence ; and in Ireland for every hundredweight loaded on any wheel carriage one halfpenny per mile ; and in Great Britain such further rates may be added, not exceeding a total additional sum per mile of fourpence, threepence, or twopence to the respective rates of one shilling, ninepence, and sixpence, as may seem reasonable to the justices assembled at general sessions for their respective districts, or to the recorder at the sessions of the peace of any municipal city, borough, or town ; and the order of such justices or recorder shall specify the average price of hay and oats at the nearest market town at the time of fixing such additional rates, and the period for which the order shall be enforced, not exceeding ten days, beyond the next general sessions ; and no such order shall be valid unless a copy thereof, signed by the presiding magistrate and one other justice, or by the recorder, shall be transmitted to the Secretary of the Admiralty within three days after the making thereof ; and also in Great Britain when the day's march shall exceed fifteen miles, the justice granting his warrant may fix a further reasonable compensation not exceeding the usual rate of hire fixed by this Act ; and when additional rates or compensation shall be granted, the justice shall insert in his own hand in the warrant the amount thereof, and the date of the order of sessions, if fixed by sessions, and the warrant shall be given to the officer commanding as his voucher ; and the officer or non-commissioned officer demanding carriages by virtue of the warrant of a justice shall, in Great Britain, pay down the proper sums into the hands of the constable providing carriages, who shall give receipts for the same on unstamped paper ; and, in Ireland, the officers or non-commissioned officers as aforesaid shall pay the proper sums to the owners or drivers of the carriages, and one third part of such payment shall be made before the carriage be loaded, and all the said payments in Ireland shall be made, if required, in presence of a justice or constable ; and no carriage shall be liable to carry more than thirty hundredweight in Great Britain, and in Ireland no car shall be liable to carry more than six hundredweight, and no dray more than twelve hundredweight ; but the owner of such carriages in Ireland consenting to carry a greater weight shall be paid at the same rate for every hundredweight of the said excess; and the owners of such carriages in Ireland shall not be compelled to proceed, though with any less weight, under the sum of threepence a mile for each car and sixpence a mile for each dray; and the loading of such carriages in Ireland shall be first weighed, if required, at the expense of the owner of the carriage, if the same can be done in a reasonable time without hindrance of Her Majesty's service: Provided also, that a cart with one or more horses, for which the furnisher shall receive ninepence a mile, shall be required to carry fifteen hundredweight at the least; and that no penalties or forfeitures in any Act relating to highways or turnpike roads in the United Kingdom shall apply to the number of horses or oxen or weight of loading of the aforesaid carriages, nor shall any such carriages on that account be stopped or detained; and whenever it shall be necessary to impress carriages for the march of marines from Dublin at least twenty-four hours notice of such march, and in case of emergency as long notice as the case will admit, shall be given to the Lord Mayor of Dublin, who shall summon a proportional number of cars and drays at his discretion out of the licensed cars and drays and other cars and drays within the county of the said city, and they shall by turns be employed on this duty at the prices and under the regulations herein-before mentioned; and no country cars, drays, or other carriages coming to markets in Ireland shall be detained or employed against the will of the owners in carrying the baggage of marines on any pretence whatever.

77. It shall be lawful for the Lord High Admiral, or the Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral, or the Lord Lieutenant or Chief Governors of Ireland, by their or his orders distinctly stating that a case of emergency doth exist, signified by the Secretary of the Admiralty, or, if in Ireland, by the chief secretary or under secretary, or the first clerk in the military department, to authorise any commanding officer of Her Majesty's Royal Marine forces in any district or place, or to the chief acting agents for the supply of stores and provisions, by writing under his hand, reciting such order of the Lord High Admiral, or the said Commissioners, or Lord Lieutenant or Chief Governors aforesaid, to require all justices within their several jurisdictions in Great Britain and Ireland to issue their warrants for the provision, not only of waggons, wains, carts, and cars kept by or belonging to any person and for any use whatsoever, but also of saddle horses, coaches, postchaises, chaises, and other four-wheeled carriages kept for hire, and of all horses kept to draw carriages licensed to carry passengers, and also of boats, barges, and other vessels used for the transport of any commodities whatsoever upon any canal or navigable river as shall be mentioned in the said warrants, therein specifying the place and distance to which such carriages or vessels shall go; and on the production of such requisition, or a copy thereof certified by the commanding officer, to such justice, by any officer of the corps ordered to be conveyed, such justice shall take all the same proceedings in regard to such additional supply so required on such emergency as he is by this Act required to take for the ordinary provision of carriages; and all provisions whatsoever of this Act as regards the procuring of the ordinary supply of carriages, and the duties of officers and non-commissioned officers, justices, constables, and owners of carriages in that behalf, shall be to all intents and purposes applicable for the providing and payment according to the rates of posting or of hire usually paid for such other description of carriages or vessels so required on emergency, according to the length of the journey or voyage in each case, but making no allowance for post horse duty, or turnpike, canal, river, or lock tolls, which duty or tolls are hereby declared not to be demandable for such carriages and vessels while employed in such service or returning therefrom; and it shall be lawful to convey thereon not only the baggage, provisions, and military stores of such detachment, but also the officers, marines, servants, women, children, and other persons of and belonging to the same.

As to supply of carriages, &c. in cases of emergency.

Justices of peace to direct payment of sums expended for carriages, &c.

78. It shall be lawful for the justices of the peace assembled at their quarter sessions to direct the treasurer to pay, without fee, out of the public stock of the county or riding, or if such public stock be insufficient then out of moneys which the said justices shall have power to raise for that purpose, in like manner as for county gaols and bridges, such reasonable sums as shall have been expended by the constables within their respective jurisdictions for carriages and vessels, over and above what was or ought to have been paid by the officer requiring the same, regard being had to the season of the year and the condition of the ways by which such carriages and vessels are to pass; and in Scotland such justices shall direct such payments to be made out of the rogues money and assessments directed and authorised to be assessed and levied by an Act passed during the session holden during the twentieth and twenty-first years of the reign of Her present Majesty, chapter seventy-two.

Lord Lieutenant of Ireland may depute persons to sign routes.

79. It shall be lawful for the said Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor for the time being of Ireland to depute, by warrant under his hand and seal, some proper person to sign routes in cases of emergency for the marching of any of Her Majesty's Royal Marine forces in Ireland in the name of such Lord Lieutenant or Chief Governor.

Exemption from tolls.

80. All officers and marines on duty or on their march, being in proper uniform, dress or undress, and their horses and baggage, and all recruits marching by route, and all prisoners under military escort, and all carriages and horses belonging to Her Majesty or employed in her service under the provisions of this Act, or in any of Her Majesty's colonies, when employed in conveying any such persons as aforesaid or their baggage or stores, or returning from conveying the same, shall be exempted from the payment of any duties and tolls on embarking or disembarking from or upon any pier, wharf, quay, or landing place, or in passing along or over any turn-pike or other roads or bridges, otherwise demandable by virtue of any Act already passed or hereafter to be passed, or by virtue of any prescription, grant, or custom, or by virtue of any Act or ordinance, order or direction, of any colonial legislature or other authority in any of Her Majesty's colonies; and if any toll collector shall demand or receive toll from any marine officer or marine on duty or on their march who shall be in proper uniform, dress or undress, or for their horses, and who by this Act is exempted from payment thereof, or from any recruits marching by route, or from any prisoners under military escort, or for any carriages or horses belonging to Her Majesty or employed in her service under the provisions of this Act, when conveying persons or baggage or stores, or returning therefrom, every such collector shall for every such offence be liable to a penalty not exceeding five pounds; provided that nothing herein contained shall exempt any boats, barges, or other vessels employed in conveying the said persons, horses, baggage, or stores along any canal from payment of tolls in like manner as other boats, barges, and vessels are liable thereto, except when employed in cases of emergency as herein mentioned; and that when any officers or marines on service shall have occasion in the march by route to pass regular ferries in Scotland, the officer commanding shall be at liberty to pass over with his marines as passengers, paying for himself and each marine one half only of the ordinary rate payable by passengers, or he shall be at liberty to hire the ferry boat for himself and his party, debarring all others for that time, and shall in such case pay only half the ordinary rate for such boat.

81. Every marine upon being discharged from the service shall be entitled to an allowance (not exceeding in any case the amount of twenty-one days marching money) to enable him to reach his home, or the place at which he shall at the time of his discharge decide to take up his residence, if the cost of conveyance to such a place shall not exceed the cost of conveyance to the place of his original enlistment, which allowance shall be calculated according to the distance he has to travel: Provided always, that no person who shall purchase his own discharge, or be discharged on account of misbehaviour, or at his own desire, before the expiration of his period of service, shall be entitled to any such allowance.

Marching money on discharge.

Penalties upon civil subjects offending against the laws relating to billets and carriages.

82. If any constable or other person who by virtue of this Act shall be employed in billeting any officers or marines in any part of the United Kingdom shall presume to billet any such officer or marine in any house not within the meaning of this Act without the consent of the owner or occupier thereof; or shall neglect or refuse to billet any officer or marine on duty when thereunto required in such manner as is by this Act directed, provided sufficient notice be given before the arrival of such marines; or shall receive, demand, or agree for any money or reward whatsoever in order to excuse any person from receiving any such officer or marine; or shall quarter any of the wives, children, men or maid servants of any officer or marine in any such houses against the consent of the occupiers; or shall neglect or refuse to execute such warrants of the justices as shall be directed to him for providing carriages, horses, or vessels, or shall demand more than the legal rates for the same; or if any person ordered by any constable in manner herein-before directed to provide carriages, horses, or vessels shall refuse or neglect to provide the same according to the orders of such constable, or shall demand more than the legal rates for the same, or shall do any act or thing by which the execution of any warrants for providing carriages, horses, or vessels shall be hindered; or if any person liable by this Act to have any officer or marine quartered on him shall refuse to receive any such officer or marine, or to afford him proper accommodation or diet in the house of such person in which he is quartered, or to furnish the several things directed to be furnished to officers and marines, or shall neglect or refuse to furnish good and sufficient stables, together with good and sufficient oats, hay, and straw in Great Britain and Ireland, for each horse, in such quantities and at such rates as herein-before provided, or if any innkeeper or victualler not having good and sufficient stables shall refuse to pay over to the person or persons who may provide stabling such allowance by way of compensation as shall be directed by any justice of the peace, or shall pay any sum of money to any marine on the march in lieu of furnishing in kind the diet and small beer to which such marine is entitled; such constable, victualler, and other person respectively shall forfeit for every offence, neglect, or refusal any sum not exceeding five pounds nor less than forty shillings; and if any person shall personate or represent himself to be a marine or marine recruit with the view of fraudulently obtaining a billet or money in lieu thereof, he shall for every such offence forfeit any sum not exceeding five pounds nor less than twenty shillings.

Penalty upon officers of marines so offending

83. If any officer of Royal Marines shall take upon him to quarter men otherwise than is allowed by this Act, or shall use or offer any menace or compulsion to or upon any justice, constable, or other civil officer tending to deter and discourage any of them from performing any part of their duty under this Act, or to do anything contrary thereto, such officer shall for every such offence, being thereof convicted before any two or more justices of the county by the oath of two credible witnesses, be deemed and taken to be ipso facto cashiered, and shall be utterly disabled to hold any military employment in Her Majesty's service; provided a certificate of such conviction be forthwith transmitted by the said justices to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and that the conviction be affirmed at some quarter sessions of the peace for the said county to be held next after the expiration of three months after such certificate shall have been transmitted as aforesaid; and if any marine officer shall take or knowingly suffer to be taken from any person any money or reward for excusing the quartering of officers or marines, or shall billet any of the wives, children, men or maid servants of any officer or marine in any house against the consent of the occupier, he shall for any of the said offences, upon being convicted thereof before a general court-martial, be cashiered; and if any officer shall constrain any carriage to travel beyond the distance specified in the justice's warrant, or shall not discharge the same in due time for their return home on the same day if it be practicable, except in the case of emergency for which the justice shall have given license, or shall compel the driver of any carriage to take up any marine or servant (except such as are sick) or any woman to ride therein, except in cases of emergency as aforesaid, or shall force any constable, by threatening words, to provide saddle horses for himself or servants, or shall force horses from their owners, or in Ireland shall force the owner to take any loading until the same shall be first duly weighed, if the same shall be required, and can be done within a reasonable time, or shall, contrary to the will of the owner or his servant, permit any person whatsoever to put any greater load upon any carriage than is directed by this Act, he shall forfeit for every offence any sum not exceeding five pounds nor less than forty shillings.

84. Every marine officer or marine who shall, without warrant from one or more of Her Majesty's justices, forcibly enter into or break open the dwelling-house or outhouse of any person whomsoever in pursuit of any deserters, shall, upon due proof thereof, forfeit the sum of twenty pounds.

Penalty for forcible entry in pursuit of deserters without warrant.

85. Any person who shall knowingly detain, buy, or exchange, or otherwise receive from any marine or marine deserter, or any other person acting for or on his behalf, upon any account or pretence whatsoever, or who shall solicit or entice any marine or marine deserter, or shall be employed by any marine or marine deserter, knowing him to be such, to sell any arms, ammunition, medals for good conduct or distinction, or other service, marine clothes, or military furniture, or any other articles which, according to the custom of the marine corps, are generally deemed regimental or divisional necessaries, or any provisions, sheets, or other articles used in barracks or provided under barrack regulations, whether on shore or afloat, and whether the marine or marine deserter or other person be or be not borne on the books of any one of Her Majesty's ships, or be or be not embarked, or who shall have in his or her possession or keeping any arms, ammunition, medals, marine clothes, or military furniture, or any other articles which, according to the custom of the marine corps, are generally deemed regimental or divisional necessaries, or any provisions, spirits, sheets, or other articles used in barracks or provided under barrack regulations, and shall not give a satisfactory account how he or she came by the same, or shall change or cause the colour or mark of any such clothes, appointments, necessaries, sheets, or other articles to be changed or defaced, or who shall pawn, sell, or deposit in any place or with any person such articles of regimental necessaries, with or without the consent of such marine, shall forfeit for every such offence any sum not exceeding twenty pounds, together with treble the value of all or any of the several articles; and if any person having been at any time previously convicted of either of the above offences under this or any previous Act for the regulation of Her Majesty's Royal Marine forces while on shore shall afterwards be guilty of any such offence, he or she shall for every such offence forfeit any sum not exceeding twenty pounds but not less than five pounds, and the treble value of all or any of the several articles, and shall, in addition to such forfeiture, be committed to the common gaol or house of correction, there to be imprisoned only, or to be imprisoned with or without hard labour, for such term not exceeding six calendar months as the convicting justice or justices shall think fit; and upon any information against any person for a second or any subsequent offence a copy of the former conviction, certified by the proper officer having the care or custody of such conviction, or any copy of the same proved to be a true copy, shall be sufficient evidence to prove such former conviction; and if any credible person shall prove, on oath before a justice of the peace or person exercising like authority according to the laws of that part of Her Majesty's dominions in which the offence shall be committed, a reasonable cause to suspect that any person has in his or her possession or on his or her premises any property of the description herein-before described, on or with respect to which any such offence shall have been committed, such justice may and he is hereby required to grant a warrant to search for such property as in the case of stolen goods; and if upon such search any such property shall be found, the same shall and may be seized by the officer charged with the execution of such warrant, who shall bring the offender in whose possession the same shall be found before the same or any other justice of the peace, to be dealt with according to law.

86. Every person (except such recruiting parties as may be stationed under military command) who shall cause to be advertised, posted, or dispersed bills for the purpose of procuring recruits or substitutes for the Royal Marines, or shall open or keep any house or place of rendezvous or office, or receive any person therein under such bill or advertisement as connected with the marine recruiting service, or shall directly or indirectly interfere therewith, without permission in writing from the Lord High Admiral or the said Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral, shall forfeit for every such offence a sum not exceeding twenty pounds.

Penalty on unlawful recruiting.

87. For the better preservation of the game and fish in or near places where any officer shall at any time be quartered, every officer who shall, without leave in writing from the person or persons entitled to grant such leave, take, kill, or destroy any game or fish within the United Kingdom, shall for every such offence forfeit the sum of five pounds.

Penalty on killing game without leave.

88. If any action shall be brought against any member or members of a court-martial to be assembled under the authority of this Act, or of any Act heretofore passed for the regulation of Her Majesty's Royal Marine forces while on shore, in respect of the proceedings or the sentence thereof, or against any other person, for anything done in pursuance or under the authority of this Act, or of any Act heretofore passed for the regulation of Her Majesty's Royal Marine forces while on shore, the same shall be brought in some one of the Courts of Record at Westminster or Dublin, or in the Court of Session in Scotland, and shall be commenced within six months next after the cause of action shall arise, and it shall be lawful for the defendant or defendants therein, or in any such action now pending, to plead thereto the general issue, and to give all special matter in evidence on the trial; and if the verdict shall be for the defendant in any such action, or if the plaintiff shall become nonsuit or suffer any discontinuance thereof, or if, in Scotland, the court shall see fit to assoilzie the defendant or dismiss the complaint, the court in which the matter shall be tried shall allow the defendant treble costs, for the recovery of which he shall have the like remedy as in other cases where costs by the laws of this realm are given to defendants.

Limitations of actions.

89. All offences for which any pecuniary penalty or forfeiture not exceeding twenty pounds, over and above any forfeiture of value or treble value, is by this Act imposed, shall and may be heard and determined by any justice of the peace in or near to the place where the offence shall be committed, or where the offender may at any time happen to be; and all such penalties and forfeitures, and forfeiture of value and treble value, and also the reasonable costs attending the prosecution, to be duly ascertained and awarded by such justice, shall and may be enforced and recovered in the same manner as any pecuniary penalties may be recovered under the provisions of an Act passed in the twelfth year of the reign of Her Majesty, intituled "An Act to facilitate the performance of the duties of justices of the peace out of sessions within England and Wales with respect to summary convictions and orders:" Provided always, that in all cases in which there shall not be sufficient goods whereon any penalty or forfeiture or treble value can be levied, the offender may be committed and imprisoned, with or without hard labour, for any time not exceeding six calendar months; which said recited Act shall be used and applied in Scotland and in Ireland for the recovery of all such penalties and forfeitures or treble value as fully to all intents as if the said recited Act had extended to Scotland and Ireland, anything in the said recited Act, or in an Act passed in the fourteenth and fifteenth years of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act to consolidate and amend the Acts regulating the proceedings at petty sessions, and the duties of justices of the peace out of quarter sessions in Ireland," to the contrary notwithstanding; and all such offences committed in the British Isles, or in any of Her Majesty's dominions other than the United Kingdom, may be determined, and the penalties and forfeitures of value or treble value recovered, before any justices of the peace or persons exercising like authority, according to the laws of Her Majesty's dominions in which the offence shall be committed or the offender may at any time happen to be, and for default of payment the offender shall be punished as if the offence had been committed in the United Kingdom; and all penalties and forfeitures by this Act imposed exceeding twenty pounds shall be recovered by action in some of the Courts of Record at Westminster or in Dublin, or in the Court of Session in Scotland, and in no other court in the United Kingdom, and may be recovered in the British Isles or in any other part of Her Majesty's dominions, in any of the royal or superior courts of such isles or other parts of Her Majesty's dominions. In any proceeding under this Act whereby any person incurs a penalty or forfeiture, such person may also be adjudged to pay the costs of such proceedings by the justice or justices or the court imposing such penalty or forfeiture.

of penalties.

90. One moiety of every such penalty or forfeiture, not including any treble value of any articles, shall go to the person who shall inform or sue for the same, and the other moiety, together with the treble value of such articles, or, where the offence shall be proved by the person who shall inform, then the whole of the penalty and such treble value, shall be paid over and applied in such manner as the Lord High Admiral or the Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral shall direct, anything in an Act passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act to provide for the regulation of municipal corporations in England and Wales," or in any other Act or Acts of Parliament, to the contrary notwithstanding; and every justice who shall adjudge any penalty under this Act shall within four days thereafter at the furthest report the same, and his adjudication thereof, to the Secretary of the Admiralty.

91. It shall be lawful for any two justices of the peace, within their respective jurisdictions, to grant or transfer any license for selling by retail any spirit, beer, wine, cider, or perry to any person or persons applying for the same who shall hold any canteen under any lease thereof, or by agreement with any department or other authority under the said Lord High Admiral, or the Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral for the time being, without regard to the time of year, or any notices or certificates required by any Act in respect of such licenses; and the Commissioners of Excise or their proper officers within their respective districts shall also grant or transfer any such license as aforesaid; and such persons holding such canteens, and having such licenses as aforesaid, may sell therein victuals, and all such exciseable liquors as they shall be licensed and empowered to sell, without being subject for so doing to any penalty or forfeiture whatever.

92. The statement made by a recruit on his attestation of his place of birth shall (until legally disproved) be taken to be the place of his settlement, to which upon his discharge he may be sent by the Lord High Admiral or the Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral for the time being, but any justice in the United Kingdom, within whose jurisdiction any marine shall be quartered on shore, may summon such marine before him, which summons such marine is hereby required to obey, and take his examination in writing upon oath touching the place of his last legal settlement; and such justice shall give an attested copy of such examination to the person so examined, to be by him delivered to his commanding officer to be produced when required; which said examination and such attested copy thereof shall be at any time admitted as good and legal evidence as to such legal settlement before any justice or at any general or quarter sessions of the peace, although such marine be dead or absent from the kingdom: Provided always, that in case any marine shall be again summoned to make oath as aforesaid, then, on such examination or such attested copy being produced, such marine shall not be obliged to make any other or further oath with regard to his legal settlement, but shall leave with such justice a copy of such examination or a copy of such attested copy of examination, if required.

Liability of marine to maintain wife and children.

93. Notwithstanding anything in this Act contained, a marine shall be liable to contribute to the maintenance of his wife and of his children, and also to the maintenance of any bastard child of which he may be proved to be the father, to the same extent as if he were not a marine; but execution shall not issue against his military necessaries or equipments, nor shall he be liable to be imprisoned or taken out of Her Majesty's service in consequence of such liability, or any order made for enforcing the same; nor shall he be liable to be punished as an idle or disorderly person, or as a rogue and vagabond, or as an incorrigible rogue, under the Act passed in the fifth year of the reign of King George the Fourth, chapter eighty-three, intituled "An Act for the punishment of idle and disorderly persons, and rogues and vagabonds, in that part of Great Britain called England," or under any other Act of Parliament, for the offence of neglecting to maintain his family or any member thereof, or of leaving his family or any member thereof chargeable to any parish, township, or place, or combination of parishes, or to the common fund of any union; nor shall he, in Ireland, be liable to be convicted under the Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the tenth and eleventh years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to make provision for the punishment of vagrants and persons offending against the laws in force for the relief of the destitute poor in Ireland," for the offence of deserting or wilfully neglecting to maintain his wife or any child whom he may be liable to maintain, so that such wife or child shall become destitute and be relieved in or out of the workhouse of any union in Ireland.

When any order is made under the Acts relating to the relief of the poor, or under the Bastardy Acts, on a marine, or, in Scotland, decree is pronounced by a court of law having jurisdiction in an action of aliment or filiation and aliment against a marine for the maintenance of his wife or children, or for the maintenance of any such bastard child as aforesaid, or any of such persons, or where, in Ireland, any civil bill decree has been made for the cost of the maintenance of any illegitimate child against any marine being the putative father of such child, under the provisions of the Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the twenty-sixth and twenty-seventh years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to amend the law enabling boards of guardians to recover costs of maintenance of illegitimate children in certain cases in Ireland," or when any order or decree has been made on or against any marine for the recovery of the cost of any relief given to the wife or child of such marine under the Acts relating to the relief of the poor in Ireland by way of loan, a copy of such order or decree shall be left at the office of the said Lord High Admiral or the said Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral, and the said Lord High Admiral or the said Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral may withhold a portion not exceeding sixpence of the daily pay of a non-commissioned officer who is not below the rank of sergeant, and not exceeding threepence of the daily pay of any other marine, and allot the sum so withheld in liquidation of the sum adjudged to be paid by such order or decree.

Where a summons is issued against a marine under the said Acts, or any of them, or an action is raised against him at common law or under any Act of Parliament, for the purpose of enforcing against him any such liability as aforesaid, and such marine is quartered out of the petty sessional division in which the summons is issued, or out of the jurisdiction of the court in which the action is raised, the summons shall be served on his commanding officer, and such service shall not be valid unless there be left therewith, or along with the service copy thereof, in the hands of the commanding officer, a sum of money to be adjudged as costs incurred in obtaining the order or decree (should an order be obtained or decree pronounced against the marine) sufficient to enable him to attend the hearing of the case, and return to his quarters; and no summons whatever under the said Acts or any of them, or at common law, shall be valid against a marine if served after the time at which an order has been given for his embarkation for service out of the United Kingdom.

94. All oaths and declarations which are authorised or required by this Act may be administered (unless where otherwise provided) by any justice of the peace or other person having authority to administer oaths and declarations; and any person giving false evidence, or taking a false oath or declaration where an oath or declaration is authorised or required to be taken by this Act, and being thereof duly convicted, shall be deemed guilty of wilful and corrupt perjury, and shall be liable to such pains and penalties as persons convicted of wilful and corrupt perjury are or may be subject and liable to; and every commissioned officer convicted before a general court-martial of perjury shall be cashiered, and every marine or other person amenable to the provisions of this Act found guilty thereof by a general or other court-martial shall be punished at the discretion of such court: Provided always, that nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to render an oath necessary in any case where by law a solemn affirmation may be made instead thereof.

and to the town of Berwick-upon-Tweed; and the provisions of this Act shall apply to all persons who are or shall be commissioned or in pay as an officer of Royal Marines, or who are or shall be listed or in pay as a non-commissioned officer or marine; and all clauses and provisions relating to marines shall be construed to include non-commissioned officers and drummers, unless when otherwise provided; and all clauses and provisions relating to justices shall be construed to extend to all magistrates authorised to act as such in their respective jurisdictions; and all the powers given to and regulations made for the conduct of constables, and all penalties and forfeitures for any neglect thereof, shall extend to all tithingmen, headboroughs, and such-like officers, and to all inspectors or other officers of police, and to high constables and other chief officers and magistrates of cities, towns, villages, and places in England and Ireland, and to all justices of the peace, magistrates of burghs, commissioners of police, and other chief officers and magistrates of cities, towns, villages, parishes, and places in Scotland, who shall act in the execution of this Act; and all powers and provisions for billeting marines in victualling houses shall extend and apply to all inns, hotels, livery stables, alehouses, and to the houses of sellers of wine by retail, whether British or foreign, to be drunk in their own houses or places thereunto belonging, to all houses of persons licensed to sell beer, ale, porter, cider, or perry by retail, to be consumed or drunk in their dwelling-houses or premises, and to all houses of persons selling brandy, spirits, strong waters, cider, or metheglin by retail in Great Britain and Ireland; and in Ireland, when there shall not be found sufficient room in such houses, then marines may be billeted in such manner as has been heretofore customary: Provided always, that no officer or marine shall be billeted in Great Britain in any private houses, or in any canteen held or occupied under the authority of the Admiralty, War, or Marine Department, or upon persons who keep taverns only, being vintners of the city of London admitted to their freedom of that company in right of patrimony or apprenticeship, notwithstanding such persons who keep such taverns only have taken out victualling licenses; nor in the house of any distiller kept for distilling brandy and strong waters; nor in the house of any shopkeeper whose principal dealings shall be more in other goods and merchandise than in brandy and strong waters, so as such distillers and shopkeepers do not permit tipping in such houses; nor in the house or residence in any part of the United Kingdom of any foreign consul duly accredited as such.

Marines not to be billeted in private houses, &c.

Duration of Act.

96. This Act shall be in force within Great Britain from the twenty-fifth day of April one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four until the twenty-fifth day of April one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five inclusive; and within Ireland, and in Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney, Sark, and the Isle of Man, and the islands thereto belonging, from the first day of May one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four until the first day of May one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five inclusive; and within the garrison of Gibraltar, and within the Mediterranean, and in Spain and Portugal, from the first day of August one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four until the first day of August one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five inclusive; and in all other parts of Europe where Royal Marine forces may be serving, and the West Indies and North America, and Cape of Good Hope, from the first day of September one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four until the first day of September one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five inclusive; and in all other places from the first day of February one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five until the first day of February one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six inclusive: Provided always, that this Act shall, from and after the receipt and promulgation thereof in general orders in any part of Her Majesty's dominions or elsewhere beyond the seas, become and be in full force, anything herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

SCHEDULE referred to by this Act.

FORM of OATHS to be taken by MEMBERS of COURTS-MARTIAL.

YOU shall well and truly try and determine according to the evidence in the matter now before you. So help you GOD.

YOU shall duly administer justice, according to the rules and articles for the better government of Her Majesty's Royal Marine forces, and according to an Act now in force for the regulation of the said forces while on shore, without partiality, favour, or affection, and if any doubt shall arise which is not explained by the said articles or Act, according to your conscience, the best of your understanding, and the custom of war in the like cases: And you shall not divulge the sentence of the court until it shall be duly approved; neither shall you, upon any account, at any time whatsoever, disclose or discover the vote or opinion of any particular member of the court-martial, unless required to give evidence thereof as a witness by a court of justice or a court-martial in a due course of law. So help you GOD.

FORM of OATH of JUDGE ADVOCATE.

I do swear, that I will not, upon any account whatsoever, disclose or discover the vote or opinion of any particular member of the court-martial, unless required to give evidence thereof as a witness by a court of justice or a court-martial in a due course of law; and that I will not, unless it be necessary for the due discharge of my official duties, disclose the sentence of the court until it shall be duly approved. So help me GOD.

CHAPTER 6.An Act to amend the Acts relating to Cattle Disease in Ireland. [21st May 1874.]

29 & 30 Vict.
c. 4.

WHEREAS by "The Cattle Disease Act (Ireland), 1866," power was given to the Lord Lieutenant or other chief governor or governors in Ireland, in the manner in the said Act mentioned, to make such orders and regulations as to him or them might seem necessary for the more effectually preventing the spreading of contagious or infectious disease amongst cattle, and for the other purposes in the said Act mentioned; and by the said Act provision was made for defraying the expenses necessary for the purpose of carrying the said Act into execution, and for other purposes in the said Act mentioned, by means of a rate to be assessed, subject to the limitations and in the manner prescribed by the said Act, upon the several Poor Law unions in Ireland in proportion to the net annual value of the rateable property therein, according to the valuation in force for the time being:

And whereas by the said Act provision was made in case the amount so assessed should be insufficient that such further sums as should be required should be raised by means of further rates to be assessed subject to the limitations and in the manner prescribed by the said Act; and in case occasion should not arise for the application to the purposes aforesaid of the whole or any part of any moneys so raised, then that all such moneys, or the remaining balance of the same, should be paid over to the treasurers of the said Poor Law unions, and be applied in manner provided by the said Act:

c. 36.

And whereas the purposes to which such moneys might be applied under the authority of the said Act were extended, and the said Act was amended by "The Cattle Disease (Ireland) Amendment Act, 1870:"

And whereas under the authority and for the purposes of the first-recited Act a certain sum of money was raised, but inasmuch as there was only occasion to expend for the said purposes a part of such sum, the balance was paid over to the treasurers of the said unions respectively, as provided by the said Act:

And whereas a further sum being now required to be raised for the purposes of the said Act, doubts have arisen whether the powers in that behalf conferred by the recited Acts apply to and include cases where a portion of the previous levy has been paid over to the treasurers of unions, and it is expedient such doubts should be removed:

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1. This Act may be cited for all purposes as "The Cattle Disease (Ireland) Acts Amendment Act, 1874," and the recited Acts and this Act may be cited for all purposes as "The Cattle Disease (Ireland) Acts, 1866-1874."

2. It is hereby declared that the provisions of section thirteen of "The Cattle Disease Act (Ireland), 1866," extend and apply to each and every case in which, for the purposes of carrying into execution The Cattle Disease (Ireland) Acts, 1866-1874, and for the purposes therein mentioned, any sum of money shall be required, whether such case shall arise after the disbursement of any sum or sums raised under the provisions of the said Acts, or any of them, or after the repayment of any such sum or sums, or any part thereof, to the treasurers of Poor Law unions under the said provisions.

section 13 of 29 & 30 Vict.
c. 4.

Provided always, that no certificate or order under the authority of the said section thirteen of "The Cattle Disease Act (Ireland), 1866," shall authorise the assessment at any one time of more than one halfpenny in the pound on the net annual value of the rateable property in any Poor Law union, according to the valuation in force for the time being.

CHAPTER 7.

An Act to amend the Law respecting the payment of the Assistant Judge of the Court of the Sessions of the Peace for the county of Middlesex, and his deputy, and the Chairman of the Second Court at such Sessions. [21st May 1874.]

WHEREAS under the enactments specified in the third column of the first schedule to this Act power is given to Her Majesty to appoint an Assistant Judge of the court of the sessions of the peace for the county of Middlesex, but the provision made by the said enactments for the payment of such judge has determined by reason of the resignation of the person who recently held the office of such Assistant Judge :

And whereas under the said enactments the Assistant Judge is required, whenever the court of the sessions of the peace for the county of Middlesex divide the court, to appoint a person to preside as chairman with the justices appointed to sit apart in the second court, but no provision is thereby made for the payment of such chairman :

And whereas it is expedient to make provision, in manner herein appearing, for the payment of the said Assistant Judge and chairman, and for the appointment and payment of the deputy of such Assistant Judge :

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords

Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

Construction
of Act.
Short titles.

1. This Act shall be construed as one with the enactments specified in the first schedule to this Act, and, together with those enactments, may be cited as "The Middlesex Sessions Acts, 1844 to 1874," and this Act may be cited separately as "The Middlesex Sessions Act, 1874," and each of the Acts mentioned in the first schedule to this Act may be cited separately by the short title set opposite to such Act in that schedule.

Salary of Assistant Judge.

2. There shall be paid to the Assistant Judge for the time being appointed in pursuance of the Middlesex Sessions Act, 1844, the annual salary of one thousand five hundred pounds, which salary shall begin from the date of his appointment as such Assistant Judge, and shall accrue due from day to day during the time of his continuance in office, and shall be payable at such intervals, not exceeding three months, as may be from time to time determined by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury.

One moiety of such salary shall be charged on and paid out of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom, and the other moiety of such salary shall be charged on and paid out of the county rate of the county of Middlesex.

The Assistant Judge shall continue not to be entitled to receive any pension or superannuation allowance out of the Consolidated Fund or moneys provided by Parliament.

The Assistant Judge, during his continuance in office, shall not practise as a serjeant-at-law or barrister.

Deputy of Assistant Judge.

3. The Assistant Judge may, in such cases of sickness, unavoidable absence, or other occasions as may be allowed by one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, appoint a person being a serjeant or barrister-at-law of not less than ten years standing to be his deputy, and such deputy shall have power to act as if he were Assistant Judge during such time as may in each case be allowed by the said Secretary of State, not being in any case later than the end of the business at the second sessions of the peace held next after the date of such allowance by the Secretary of State.

There shall be paid to a deputy appointed in pursuance of this section, out of moneys provided by Parliament, a sum after the rate of five guineas for every day on which he sits and acts in the court of the sessions of the peace for the county of Middlesex as Assistant Judge.

Payment of chairman of second court.

4. Where the court of the sessions of the peace for the county of Middlesex divide such court, and the Assistant Judge in pursuance of section fifteen of the Criminal Justice Administration Act, 1851, appoints a person to preside as chairman with the justices appointed to sit apart in a second court, there shall be paid to the person so appointed, out of moneys provided by Parliament, a sum after the rate of five guineas for every day on which he sits and acts as such chairman.

5. The Acts specified in the second schedule to this Act are hereby repealed to the extent mentioned in the third column of that schedule. Acts specified in second schedule repealed.

An Act to make provision for the taking of Harbour
Dues in the Isle of Man. [21st May 1874.]

WHEREAS considerable improvements have been and are being effected in the several harbours of the Isle of Man, the expense of which improvements has been provided out of the revenue of customs of the said isle, and by means of loans made on the security of such revenue, and it may be expedient to levy dues on vessels using such harbours :

And whereas the said harbours are under the management of the Isle of Man Harbour Commissioners, incorporated by "The Isle of Man Harbours Act, 1872 :"

35 & 36 Vict.
c. 23.

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

Construction of Act and short titles.

1. This Act shall be construed as one with "The Isle of Man Harbours Act, 1872," (in this Act referred to as the principal Act,) and the principal Act and this Act may be cited together as The Isle of Man Harbours Acts, 1872 and 1874, and this Act may be cited as The Isle of Man Harbours Act, 1874.

Definitions.

2. In this Act—

The term "vessel" means any vessel used in navigation which is not propelled solely by oars, and which is of a burden of not less than five tons :

The term "harbours to which this Act applies" means such of the harbours of the Isle of Man other than Port Erin as may for the time being have their limits defined in pursuance of section fourteen of the principal Act.

Power to appoint dues to be taken in harbours.

3. The Court of Tynwald from time to time, when required by the Governor, may, with the approval of the Board of Trade, by resolution appoint that dues shall be payable by vessels entering the harbours to which this Act applies, or any of them, of such amount and subject to such regulations as may be specified in such resolution and approved by the Board of Trade : Provided that—

(1.) The dues shall not exceed the dues specified in the schedule to this Act, and the regulations shall be in accordance with the regulations in the schedule to this Act :

(2.) All dues shall be at all times charged equally to all persons in respect of the same description of vessel :

(3.) Dues shall not be payable at any harbour at which there have been no improvements made for which it appears to the Board of Trade reasonable to charge dues.

The Court of Tynwald, when required by the Governor, may, with the approval of the Board of Trade, from time to time, subject to the above provisoes, revoke, alter, or add to any resolution under this section.

4. A resolution of the Court of Tynwald under this Act, when approved by the Board of Trade, shall be published in the London Gazette, and otherwise as the Board of Trade may direct, and shall come into force at such time, not earlier than one month after such publication in the London Gazette, as may be fixed by the resolution. Publication, evidence, &c. of resolution.

The approval of the Board of Trade may be signified under the hand of a secretary or assistant secretary of the Board, and any document purporting to be printed by authority in the Isle of Man or by the printers to Her Majesty or to the Government of the Isle of Man, and to contain a resolution of the Court of Tynwald under this Act, approved by the Board of Trade, shall be evidence that the dues mentioned in such resolution are payable.

5. The Commissioners may, subject to the regulations affecting the same, take the dues which by a resolution made and approved in pursuance of this Act and for the time being in force, are appointed to be payable at any of the harbours to which this Act applies, and for the purpose of collecting those dues the term "rates" in the Harbours, Docks, and Piers Clauses Act, 1847, (incorporated with the principal Act,) shall mean those dues, but nothing in that Act shall give power to alter the dues otherwise than as provided by this Act. Collection of dues.

The Commissioners may either arrange with the Commissioners of Customs for the collection of the dues, or may appoint such officers to collect the same upon such terms as to security and otherwise as the Governor may direct.

All dues received by the Commissioners shall be paid by them without any deduction to the Commissioners of Customs, and accounted for in like manner as if they were part of the revenue of customs of the Isle of Man, but shall be kept as a distinct account from such revenue.

6. All dues received under this Act, after payment of the expenses of collection, shall be applied exclusively for defraying the principal and interest due in respect of money borrowed either before or after the passing of this Act for the improvement, maintenance, or repair of the harbours to which this Act applies, or any of them. Application of dues.

If at any time the Board of Trade direct that the dues payable in pursuance of this Act be revised, so that the produce thereof may, so far as is practicable, be sufficient and not more than sufficient for the payments before in this section directed, the Court of Tynwald shall revise the same, by a resolution under the foregoing provisions of this Act, and if the Court of Tynwald fail to revise the same, the Board of Trade may withdraw their approval to the resolution appointing such dues, and thereupon such resolution shall cease to be a resolution approved by the Board of Trade.

Extension of sect. 20 of
35 & 36 Vict.
c. 23. as to
dues under Act.

7. Section twenty of the principal Act (which authorises the Commissioners, with the approval of the Treasury and the Court of Tynwald, to borrow money on the security of the sums therein mentioned applicable for harbour purposes) shall extend to authorise the Commissioners, with the like approval, to borrow money on the security of the dues payable in pursuance of this Act, and the said section shall be construed as if such dues were the sums mentioned in the said section; and any mortgage of or charge on such sums, or any part of them, given or created before the passing of this Act, shall be construed accordingly to include such dues.

Composition for dues at Port Erin.
26 & 27 Vict.
c. 86.

8. The owner of any vessel exclusively or chiefly engaged in the conveyance of passengers or in the carriage of fish, and being of the burden of fifty tons or upwards, may compound for the dues payable under The Isle of Man Harbours Act, 1863, during any year commencing on the first day of April, for such sum as may be appointed by a resolution of the Court of Tynwald approved by the Board of Trade.

The owner of any vessel exclusively or chiefly engaged in sea fishing or the carriage of fish who compounds under The Isle of Man Harbours Act, 1863, or under this section, for the dues payable at Port Erin, shall not, during the time for which such composition has been paid, be liable to the payment of any dues appointed in pursuance of this Act to be payable at any harbour to which this Act applies.

SCHEDULE.

MAXIMUM DUES.	£	s.	d.
For every fishing vessel, for each year commencing on the 1st day of April - - - -	2	0	0
For each other vessel entering a harbour to which this Act applies, per ton - - - -	0	0	6
In addition to the entrance dues, for every vessel other than a fishing vessel, laid up or lying in a harbour to which this Act applies longer than six months, for every additional six months, per ton - - - -	0	0	6

REGULATIONS.

1. A fishing vessel means a vessel exclusively or chiefly engaged in sea fishing.

2. In the case of fishing vessels the dues payable shall be considered as payable for all the harbours to which this Act applies, and not for each harbour.

3. The entrance dues payable for other vessels shall be paid for every vessel for each time of entering the limits of a harbour as defined for the time being in pursuance of section fourteen of the principal Act.

4. The owner of any vessel exclusively or chiefly engaged in the conveyance of passengers or in the carriage of fish, and the owner of any yacht belonging to a member of any yacht club in the United Kingdom or Isle of Man which is let out for hire, may compound for the dues for any year commencing on the first day of April, for such amount as may be fixed by a resolution of the Court of Tynwald approved by the Board of Trade.

5. For every vessel wind-bound and not discharging cargo in a harbour, a part only, not more than one half, of the dues for the time being in force shall be payable.

6. Any packet boat or post office packet, being a packet boat or post office packet as defined under the provisions of any Act relating to the Post Office, shall not be entitled to the exemption contained in section twenty-eight of the Harbours, Docks, and Piers Clauses Act, 1847, in respect of dues payable under this Act, but shall be entitled to such exemption, either total or partial, from, or to pay such special composition for, those dues as may be from time to time agreed on between the Governor and Her Majesty's Postmaster General, with the consent of the Treasury, or, in case of difference, as may be determined by the Treasury, and in the absence of any such agreement or determination shall not be entitled to exemption from such dues.

7. In addition to the exemptions specified in the Harbours, Docks, and Piers Clauses Act, 1847, there shall be exempt from dues under this Act any vessel in the service of the Board of Trade, and any yacht belonging to a member of any yacht club in the United Kingdom or Isle of Man which is not let out for hire.

8. Fishing vessels belonging to countries with which for the time being treaties exist exempting from duties and port charges such vessels when forced by stress of weather to seek shelter in the ports or on the coasts of the United Kingdom, shall, when forced by stress of weather to make use of any of the harbours to which this Act applies, and not breaking bulk while making use thereof, be exempt from all dues payable in pursuance of this Act.

CHAPTER 9.

An Act to authorise an Advance out of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom to the Public Works Loan Commissioners, for enabling them to make Loans to School Boards in pursuance of the Elementary Education Act, 1873. [21st May 1874.]

WHEREAS by section ten of the Elementary Education Act, 1873, it is provided that where a school board have incurred or require to incur any expense in providing or enlarging a school house, or otherwise as therein mentioned, they may, with the consent of the Education Department,

c. 86. s. 10.

spread the payment over such number of years, not exceeding fifty, as may be sanctioned by the Education Department, and may for that purpose borrow money on the security of the school fund and local rate, and may charge that fund and the local rate with the payment of the principal and interest due in respect of the loan :

And it is by the same section further provided that the Public Works Loan Commissioners may, on the recommendation of the Education Department, lend any money required under the said section ten on the security of the school fund and local rate without requiring any further or other security, such loan to be repaid within such number of years, not exceeding fifty, as may be recommended by the Education Department, and to bear interest at the rate of three and a half per cent. per annum :

And whereas it is expedient to authorise such advances as herein-after mentioned for the purposes of such loans to school boards (in this Act referred to as school loans) :

Short title.

1. This Act may be cited for all purposes as the "Public Works Loan (School Loans), Act, 1874."

Power to issue 1,500,000*l.* out of the Consolidated Fund for school loans.

2. The Treasury may from time to time cause to be charged upon and issued out of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom, or of the growing produce thereof, any sums of money not exceeding in the whole one million five hundred thousand pounds sterling for the purpose of school loans :

Provided that no sum shall be charged or issued in pursuance of this Act after the thirty-first day of March one thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven, notwithstanding anything in section three of the Act of the session of the thirtieth and thirty-first years of the reign of Her present Majesty, chapter thirty-two, intituled "An Act to authorise further advances of money out of the Consolidated Fund for carrying on Public Works and Fisheries, and for the Employment of the Poor ; for the purposes of the Public Works (Manufacturing Districts) Acts, 1863, 1864 ; and to amend the Acts authorising Advances for Public Works."

Moneys so issued to be applied exclusively to school loans.

3. All moneys issued out of the Consolidated Fund in pursuance of this Act shall be placed to the account at the Bank of England of the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, and shall be at the disposal of the Public Works Loan Commissioners, to be applied by them exclusively to the purposes of school loans ; and all enactments for the time being in force for the regulation of the Public Works Loan Commissioners, and the moneys at their disposal, and the accounts thereof, and their securities, and the proceedings thereon, shall, so far as such enactments are consistent with this Act, apply in the case of the moneys issued out of the Consolidated Fund in pursuance of this Act.

4. For the purpose of raising money to meet any sum to be issued out of the Consolidated Fund in pursuance of this Act, or to replace any sum which has been so issued, or any portion thereof, the Treasury may from time to time, as they think fit, raise any sum or sums, not exceeding in the whole one million five hundred thousand pounds, by the issue of Exchequer bonds or Exchequer bills, or by otherwise borrowing the same on the credit of the charge created by this Act on the Consolidated Fund, or by all of such means, and the sums so raised shall be placed to the credit of the account of Her Majesty's Exchequer, and form part of the Consolidated Fund: Provided that the amount raised in pursuance of this section in any one financial year shall not exceed the total amount of the sums issued out of the Consolidated Fund in pursuance of this Act during that year.

Power to raise money for issues or to replace issues out of the Consolidated Fund.

The principal moneys borrowed in pursuance of this section (otherwise than by the issue of Exchequer bonds), and all interest from time to time due thereon, or on Exchequer bonds issued under this section (not exceeding the rate of four per cent. per annum) shall be charged upon and be payable out of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom or out of the growing produce thereof.

The principal moneys of any Exchequer bonds issued under this section shall be paid out of such moneys as may be provided by Parliament for that purpose.

5. The Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt may from time to time invest any moneys in their hands available for investment in Government securities in any of the securities created under the authority of this Act.

Investment by National Debt Commissioners in securities under Act.

6. In this Act,—

The term the "Treasury" means the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury:

The term "financial year" means the year ending the thirty-first day of March.

Interpretation of terms.

CHAPTER 10.

An Act to apply the sum of thirteen million pounds out of the Consolidated Fund to the service of the year ending the thirty-first day of March one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five.

[21st May 1874.]

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Commons of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in Parliament assembled, towards making good the supply which we have cheerfully granted to Your Majesty in this session of Parliament, have resolved to grant unto Your Majesty the sum herein-after mentioned; and do therefore most humbly beseech Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

out of the Consolidated Fund for the service of the year ending 31st
March 1875.

1. The Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury for the time being may issue out of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and apply towards making good the supply granted to Her Majesty for the service of the year ending on the thirty-first day of March one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five, the sum of thirteen million pounds.

Power to Treasury to borrow from time to time.

2. The Commissioners of the Treasury may borrow from time to time on the credit of the said sum, any sum or sums not exceeding in the whole the sum of thirteen million pounds, and shall repay the moneys so borrowed, with interest not exceeding five pounds per centum per annum, out of the growing produce of the Consolidated Fund at any period not later than the next succeeding quarter to that in which the said sums were borrowed.

Any sums so borrowed shall be placed to the credit of the account of Her Majesty's Exchequer, and shall form part of the said Consolidated Fund, and be available in any manner in which such fund is available.

CHAPTER 11.

An Act for altering the shooting season for Grouse and certain other Game Birds in Ireland.

[21st May 1874.]

WHEREAS under an Act of the Parliament of Ireland, of the thirty-seventh year of the reign of King George the Third, (chapter twenty-one,) intituled "An Act to amend the Game Laws," the shooting season in Ireland for moor game and grouse begins on the twentieth day of August, and it is expedient that the law in Ireland be in that respect altered: 37 G. 3. c. 21. (1.)

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1. The said Act of the Parliament of Ireland shall be read and have effect as if with respect to moor game and grouse the twelfth day of August had been mentioned throughout that Act instead of the twentieth day of August. Grouse season to begin on 12th Aug. in Ireland.

2. This Act may be cited as The Game Birds (Ireland) Act, 1874. Short title.

CHAPTER 12.

An Act to make provision for the transfer of the assets and liabilities of the Bengal and Madras Civil Service Annuity Funds, and the Annuity Branch of the Bombay Civil Fund, to the Secretary of State for India in Council.

[8th June 1874.]

WHEREAS an institution, known as the Bengal Civil Service Annuity Fund, was established in India, under the authority given by the Court of Directors of the East India Company in a public despatch to the Governor General in Council at Fort William in Bengal, dated the eighth of December one thousand eight hundred and twenty-four, for the grant of annuities to the civil servants of the said Company, on their retiring from the service, who should become subscribers to the said institution; and whereas another institution, known as the Madras Civil Service Annuity Fund, founded on certain annuity funds of earlier dates, was established in Madras, under the authority given by the said Court of Directors in a public despatch to the Governor in Council at Fort St. George, dated the thirty-first of December one thousand eight hundred and twenty-four, for the grant of similar annuities; and whereas another institution, known as the Annuity Branch of the Bombay Civil Fund, founded on an annuity fund of earlier date, was established in Bombay, under the authority given by the said Court of Directors in a public despatch to the Governor in Council at Bombay, dated the thirty-first of December one thousand eight hundred and twenty-four, the said Annuity Branch having a separate capital for the grant of annuities like the Bengal and Madras Annuity Funds; and the said Civil Annuity Funds were supported by the subscriptions of the civil servants of the said Company and by certain contributions from the said Company:

And whereas, in a financial despatch to the Government of India, dated the tenth of February one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one, certain changes respecting the grant of annuities were authorised by the Secretary of State for India in Council, which, taken in connexion with other changes which had been previously made also under the authority of the said Secretary of State for India in Council, rendered the continuance of the machinery of the Bengal, Madras, and Bombay Civil Annuity Funds unnecessary:

And whereas, in accordance with the instructions contained in the aforesaid despatch the Government of India caused the inquiry to be made whether, upon the terms respecting the grant of annuities offered by the Secretary of State in the said despatch, the subscribers to the said Civil Annuity Funds were willing to surrender the accumulated annuity capital of the said Funds to the Secretary of State for India in Council; and the proposition so to make over the accumulated annuity capital on the terms offered by the Secretary of State was carried in the affirmative by the subscribers to the Bengal, Madras, and Bombay Civil Annuity Funds by a large majority of votes:

And whereas, in order to avoid any doubt that may arise in regard to the legality of such transfer, it is necessary to make provision by law for enabling the trustees of the said Civil Annuity Funds to transfer the assets and liabilities thereof, including the assets and liabilities herein-after referred to, to the Secretary of State for India in Council, and for enabling the Secretary of State for India in Council to accept the same:

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

Assets and liabilities of Bengal, Madras, and Bombay Civil Funds to be transferred to Secretary of State.

1. It shall be lawful for the trustees of the Bengal Civil Service Annuity Fund, and of the Madras Civil Service Annuity Fund, and of the Annuity Branch of the Bombay Civil Fund to transfer to the Secretary of State for India in Council the assets and liabilities of the Bengal, Madras, and Bombay Civil Annuity Funds, including any assets and liabilities to which the trustees of the Madras and Bombay Civil Annuity Funds may have succeeded as representing the trustees of the earlier funds at Madras and Bombay, and for the Secretary of State for India in Council to accept the same.

2. As soon as the assets and liabilities of the said Civil Annuity Funds, including as aforesaid, shall be transferred to the Secretary of State for India in Council, and the acceptance thereof by the Secretary of State for India in Council notified by the Government of India, all existing liabilities of the said Funds shall be deemed to be liabilities of the revenues of India, and all such liabilities may be enforced against the Secretary of State for India in Council in like manner as they might have been enforced against the trustees of the said Funds if this Act had not been passed; and every civil servant who shall at the date of such notification be an incumbent of an annuity from any of the said Civil Annuity Funds, or from any earlier fund the assets and liabilities of which shall have been transferred as aforesaid, shall be entitled to receive from time to time the amount of such annuity from the revenues of India; and every covenanted civil servant who shall be a subscriber to any of the said Civil Annuity Funds at or after the date of such notification shall be entitled on retirement to the benefits granted by the despatch of the Secretary of State in Council to the Government of India, dated the tenth of February one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one; namely,

Annuities charged on said funds to be payable from revenues of India.

If he shall have completed twenty-five years service and twenty-one years residence in India a full annuity of one thousand pounds payable in England, or Company's rupees ten thousand six hundred and sixty-six ten annas and eight pies payable in Bengal, or Company's rupees ten thousand six hundred and fifty payable in Madras or Bombay :

And if he shall be compelled to resign the service on account of ill health, clearly proved by medical certificate,

If under five years service, a grant of five hundred pounds ;

If of five years service and under six, an invalid annuity of one hundred and fifty pounds ;

If of six years service and under seven, an invalid annuity of one hundred and seventy pounds ; and so on, an increase of twenty pounds being made to the annuity for each year's service, the highest invalid annuity being four hundred and fifty pounds for a service of twenty years.

3. Provided, that nothing in this Act contained shall prejudice any claim which may be made by any subscriber to the said Civil Service Annuity Funds, or by the representatives of any such subscriber, upon the funds so transferred; and in case any question shall arise between any such subscriber or the representatives of any deceased subscriber on the one hand, and the Secretary of State for India, in Council on the other, as to any liability or alleged liability of the said funds, such question shall be determined by the Court of Appeal appointed by the Judicature Act, 1873, in such manner as may be provided by any general orders, or as the said court may, on special application, think fit to prescribe, anything in the Statute of Limitations to the contrary notwithstanding.

CHAPTER 13.

An Act to extend to the present Bishop of Calcutta the Regulations made by Her Majesty as to the leave of absence of Indian Bishops.

[8th June 1874.]

c. 62.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of the reign of Her Majesty, chapter sixty-two, it was provided that it should be lawful for Her Majesty to make such rules as to the leave of absence of Indian bishops on furlough or medical certificate as might seem to Her expedient: And whereas it was further provided that the provisions of existing Acts of Parliament should not be interfered with by such rules so far as regarded the present Bishop of Calcutta: And whereas the present Bishop of Calcutta has intimated his desire to be brought under such rules:

Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1. The rules made by Her Majesty as to the leave of absence of Indian bishops on furlough or medical certificate under the power given to Her by section one of the said Act shall apply to the present Bishop of Calcutta.

Rules as to leave of absence applied to present Bishop of Calcutta.

CHAPTER 14.

An Act to render valid Marriages heretofore solemnized in the Chapel of Ease called "Saint Paul's Church at Pooley Bridge," in the parish of Barton in the county of Westmorland. [8th June 1874.]

WHEREAS the church or chapel known as Saint Paul's Church at Pooley Bridge, in the parish of Barton in the county of Westmorland and diocese of Carlisle, was, on the twenty-ninth day of July one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight, duly consecrated for the performance of divine service, but no authority has ever been given by the bishop of the said diocese, or otherwise, for the publication of banns and solemnization of marriages therein :

And whereas divers marriages have nevertheless been solemnized in the said church or chapel under an erroneous impression on the part of the minister thereof that by virtue of the consecration of the said church or chapel, or otherwise, marriages might be lawfully solemnized therein, and entries of the said marriages so solemnized have from time to time been made in the register books kept either at the said church or chapel, or at the parish church of Barton aforesaid :

And whereas it is expedient, under the circumstances aforesaid, to remove all doubts touching the validity of the marriages so solemnized in the said church or chapel :

Be it therefore enacted, by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

1. All banns of matrimony and marriages published or solemnized before the passing of this Act in the church or chapel known as Saint Paul's Church at Pooley Bridge, in the parish of Barton aforesaid, shall be as valid as if the same had been published or solemnized in a church duly consecrated and licensed for marriages.

Marriages heretofore solemnized in Chapel of St. Paul at Pooley Bridge to be valid.

2. No minister who has solemnized any of the said marriages shall be liable to any ecclesiastical censure, or to any other proceedings or penalties whatsoever, by reason of his having so solemnized the same respectively.

Minister officiating not liable to censure.

3. The registers of the marriages so solemnized, or copies of such registers, shall be received in all courts of law and equity as evidence of such marriages respectively, in the same manner as registers of marriages in parish churches, or copies thereof, are by law receivable in evidence.

Registers of such marriages to be evidence.

CHAPTER 15.

An Act to amend the Act of sixteenth and seventeenth Victoria, chapter one hundred and nineteen, intituled "An Act for the Suppression of Betting Houses."

[8th June 1874.]

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the Act of the session of the sixteenth and seventeenth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, chapter one hundred and nineteen, intituled "An Act for the suppression of Betting Houses," and to extend the provisions of such Act to Scotland :

Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and

[No. 13. Price 2d.] N

Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

Act to be construed with 16 & 17 Vict. c. 119.

Short title.

Commencement of Act.

Penalty on persons advertising as to betting.

Extension to Scotland.

1. This Act shall be construed as one with the Act of the session of the sixteenth and seventeenth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, chapter one hundred and nineteen, intitled "An Act for the suppression of Betting Houses" (in this Act referred to as the principal Act), and the principal Act and this Act may be cited together as the Betting Acts, 1853 and 1874, and each of them may be cited separately as the Betting Act of the year in which it was passed.

2. This Act shall not come into operation until the thirty-first day of July one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four.

3. Where any letter, circular, telegram, placard, handbill, card, or advertisement is sent, exhibited, or published,—

- (1.) Whereby it is made to appear that any person, either in the United Kingdom or elsewhere, will on application give information or advice for the purpose of or with respect to any such bet or wager, or any such event or contingency as is mentioned in the principal Act, or will make on behalf of any other person any such bet or wager as is mentioned in the principal Act ; or,
 - (2.) With intent to induce any person to apply to any house, office, room, or place, or to any person, with the view of obtaining information or advice for the purpose of any such bet or wager or with respect to any such event or contingency as is mentioned in the principal Act ; or,
 - (3.) Inviting any person to make or take any share in or in connection with any such bet or wager ;
- every person sending, exhibiting, or publishing, or causing the same to be sent, exhibited, or published, shall be subject to the penalties provided in the seventh section of the principal Act with respect to offences under that section.

4. The twentieth section of the principal Act is hereby repealed, and the principal Act, as amended by this Act, shall extend to Scotland, with the following modifications and provisions :

- (1.) The term "distress" shall mean pinding and sale:
The term "misdemeanour" shall mean a crime and offence :
- (2.) All offences or penalties under this Act and the principal Act shall be prosecuted and recovered before the sheriff of the county or his substitute in the sheriff court, at the instance of the Procurator Fiscal, or of any private person, under the provisions of the Summary Procedure Act, 1864, and all the jurisdictions, powers, and authorities necessary for the purposes of this section are hereby conferred on the sheriffs and their substitutes :

- (3.) Every pecuniary penalty which is adjudged to be paid under this or the principal Act, shall be paid to the clerk of the court, and shall be by him accounted for and paid to the Queen's and Lord Treasurer's Remembrancer on behalf of Her Majesty :
- (4.) The thirteenth and fourteenth sections of the principal Act shall not apply to Scotland, but it shall be competent to any person who is convicted under this Act or the principal Act to appeal against such conviction to the High Court of Justiciary, in the manner prescribed by such of the provisions of the Act of the twentieth year of the reign of King George the Second, chapter forty-three, and any Acts amending the same as relate to appeals in matters criminal, and by and under the rules, limitations, convictions, and restrictions contained in the said provisions.

CHAPTER 16.

An Act to grant certain Duties of Customs and Inland Revenue, to repeal and alter other Duties, and to amend the Laws relating to Customs and Inland Revenue.
[8th June 1874.]

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Commons of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in Parliament assembled, towards raising the necessary supplies to defray Your Majesty's public expenses, and making an addition to the public revenue, have freely and voluntarily resolved to give and grant unto Your Majesty the several duties herein-after mentioned, and do therefore most humbly beseech Your Majesty that it may be enacted ; and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

1. This Act may be cited as "The Customs and Inland Revenue Act, 1874." Short title.

PART I.

CUSTOMS.

2. On and after the first day of May one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four the duties of customs on the following articles, namely, sugar not equal to refined, including cane Repeal of customs duties on sugar, &c.

juice, molasses almond paste, dried cherries, dry comfits, confectionery, not otherwise enumerated, preserved ginger, marmalade, succades, and all fruits and vegetables preserved in sugar, not otherwise enumerated, shall cease and determine.

On and after the twenty-first day of May one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four the duties of customs on the following kinds of sugar, namely, brown or white candy, refined sugar, or sugar rendered by any process equal in quality thereto, and manufactures of refined sugar, shall cease and determine.

On and after the first day of May one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four the drawbacks on sugar refined in Great Britain or Ireland which were allowed by the Act of the thirty-sixth and thirty-seventh years of Her Majesty's reign, chapter eighteen, shall cease and determine.

Grant of customs duties on tea.

3. The duties of customs now charged on tea shall continue to be levied and charged on and after the first day of August one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four until the first day of August one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five on importation into Great Britain or Ireland (that is to say),

Tea, the lb. - - - - 6d.

PART II.

INCOME TAX.

Grant of duties of income tax.

4. There shall be charged, collected, and paid for the year commencing on the sixth day of April one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, in respect of all property, profits, and gains mentioned or described as chargeable in the Act of the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, chapter thirty-four, the following duties of income tax; (that is to say,)

For every twenty shillings of the annual value or amount of property, profits, and gains chargeable under Schedules (A.), (C.), (D.), or (E.) of the said Act, the duty of two-pence;

And for every twenty shillings of the annual value of the occupation of lands, tenements, hereditaments, and heritages chargeable under Schedule (B.) of the said Act—

In England, the duty of one penny;

In Scotland and Ireland respectively, the duty of three farthings.

Provisions of Income Tax Acts to apply to duties hereby granted.

5. All such provisions contained in any Act relating to income tax as were in force on the fifth day of April one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four shall have full force and effect, with respect to the duties of income tax granted by this Act, so far as the same shall be consistent with the provisions of this Act; and for the purposes of this Act the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, mentioned in the forty-third section of the Act of the twenty-fifth and twenty-sixth years of Her Majesty's reign, chapter twenty-two, shall be read as and deemed to mean the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four.

6. In order to insure the collection in due time of any duties of income tax which may be granted for the year commencing on the sixth day of April one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five, all such provisions contained in any Act relating to the duties of income tax as are in force on the fifth day of April one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five shall have full force and effect, with respect to the duties of income tax which may be so granted, in the same manner as if the said duties had been actually granted and the said provisions had been applied thereto by an Act of Parliament passed on that day: Provided that nothing in this section shall be deemed to render necessary or authorise the appointment of assessors for such of the said duties as may be payable under Schedules (A.) and (B.) of the said Act of the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, chapter thirty-four, or to continue the rates of income tax granted by this Act.

Provisions of Income Tax Acts to apply to duties to be granted for succeeding year.

Assessment of Income Tax and Inhabited House Duties for year 1874-75.

7. With respect to the assessment of the duties of income tax hereby granted under Schedules (A.) and (B.), in respect of property elsewhere than in the metropolis, as defined by "The Valuation (Metropolis) Act, 1869," and of the duties on inhabited houses elsewhere than in the said metropolis, for the year commencing on the sixth day of April one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, the following provisions shall have effect:

Provisions as to assessment of income tax under Schedules (A.) and (B.), and of inhabited house duties, for the year 1874-75.

- (1.) The inspectors or surveyors of taxes shall be the assessors for the said duties, and in lieu of the poundage by law granted to be divided between the assessors and collectors in regard to such duties there shall be paid a poundage of three halfpence to the collectors thereof.
- (2.) The sum charged as the annual value of any property in the assessment of income tax thereon for the year which commenced on the sixth day of April one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three, and the sum charged as the annual value of every inhabited house in the assessment made thereon for the same year, shall be taken as the annual value of such property or of such inhabited house for the assessment and charge thereon of the duties of income tax hereby granted, or of inhabited house duty, to all intents and purposes as if such sum had been - estimated to be the annual value in conformity with the provisions in that behalf contained in the Acts relating to income tax and the duties on inhabited houses respectively.

- (3.) The commissioners executing the said Acts shall for each place within their district cause duplicates of the assessments to be made out and delivered to the collectors, together with the warrants for collecting the same.
- (4.) The commissioners executing the said Acts in England shall for each place within their district appoint such persons, being inhabitants of the place, as they shall think fit, to be collectors of the duties in like manner as if such persons had been presented to them by assessors in conformity with the said Acts.

PART III.

INCOME TAX AND INHABITED HOUSE DUTIES.

Case for Opinion of Court.

Application of part and interpretation of term.

8. This part of this Act applies to Great Britain only; and in the construction thereof the term "the court" means, as to England, the Court of Exchequer at Westminster, until the Supreme Court of Judicature Act comes into operation, and thereafter the Exchequer Division of the High Court of Justice, and, as to Scotland, the Court of Exchequer in Scotland.

Commissioners for income tax and inhabited house duties may be required to state a case for the opinion of court.

9. Immediately upon the determination of any appeal under the Acts relating to income tax by the commissioners for the general purposes, or by the commissioners for the special purposes, of such Acts, or any appeal under the Acts relating to the inhabited house duties by the commissioners for executing such last-mentioned Acts, the appellant or the inspector or surveyor may, if dissatisfied with the determination as being erroneous in point of law, declare his dissatisfaction to the commissioners who heard the appeal (hereinafter called the commissioners), and having so done may, within twenty-one days after the determination, require the commissioners, by notice in writing addressed to their clerk, to state and sign a case for the opinion of the court thereon. The case shall set forth the facts and the determination, and the party requiring the same shall transmit the case, when so stated and signed, to the court within seven days after receiving the same, and shall previously to or at the same time give notice in writing of the fact of the case having been stated on his application, together with a copy of the case to the other party, being the inspector or surveyor, or the appellant, as the case may be.

10. In relation to cases to be so stated, and the hearing thereof, the following provisions shall have effect: Provisions in relation to cases.

- (1.) The party requiring the case shall, before he shall be entitled to have the case stated, pay to the clerk to the commissioners a fee of twenty shillings for and in respect of the case.
- (2.) The court shall hear and determine the question or questions of law arising on a case transmitted under this Act, and shall thereupon reverse, affirm, or amend the determination in respect of which the case has been stated, or remit the matter to the commissioners with the opinion of the court thereon, or may make such other order in relation to the matter, and may make such order as to costs as to the court may seem fit, and all such orders shall be final and conclusive on all parties.
- (3.) The court shall have power, if they think fit, to cause the case to be sent back for amendment, and thereupon the same shall be amended accordingly, and judgment shall be delivered after it shall have been amended.
- (4.) The authority and jurisdiction hereby vested in the court shall and may (subject to any rules and orders of the court in relation thereto) be exercised by a judge of the court sitting in chambers, and as well in vacation as in term time.
- (5.) The court may from time to time, and as often as they shall see occasion, make and alter rules and orders to regulate the practice and proceedings in reference to cases stated under this Act.

PART IV.

EXCISE.

Repeal of Duties.

11. On the first day of July one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four the following duties of excise shall cease to be payable; that is to say, Repeal of duties in respect of horses and horse-dealers.

Duties on race horses;

Duties on licenses to keep horses or mules;

Duties on licenses for exercising or carrying on the trade of horse dealers;

but the enactments relating to the said duties respectively shall remain in full force and effect as to any duties which shall be owing or in arrear on the said day, and as to any offences which shall have been committed against any of the said enactments' previous thereto.

12. On the first day of May one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four the duties of excise payable upon sugar made Repeal of excise duties on sugar and sugar used in brewing. in the United Kingdom; and upon sugar used in brewing, shall cease to be payable; but the enactments relating to the said duties respectively shall remain in full force and effect as to any duties which shall be owing or in arrear on the said day, and as to any offences which shall have been committed against any of the said enactments previous thereto.

Grant of Duties.

Grant of excise duties on sugar used in brewing.

13. On and after the first day of May one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four there shall be charged, collected, and paid, for the use of Her Majesty, her heirs and successors, upon every hundredweight, and in proportion for any fractional part of a hundredweight, of all sugar which shall be used by any brewer of beer for sale in the brewing or making of beer, or in the preparation therefrom of any liquor or substance to be used as colouring in the brewing or making of beer, the excise duty of eleven shillings and sixpence.

The said duty shall be under the management of the Commissioners of Inland Revenue, and all the provisions contained in any Act relating to excise duties and in force after the passing of this Act shall, so far as the same are applicable, have full force and effect with respect to such duty.

As to Brewers and Distillers using Sugar.

Interpretation of term "sugar."

14. For the purpose of the duty hereby granted on sugar used in or in connexion with brewing, and in the construction of any Act of Parliament, so far as such Act relates to sugar so used, and of this Act, the term "sugar" means any description of sugar, and includes any saccharine substance or syrup manufactured from any material from which sugar is or can be manufactured.

Brewers may use sugar.

15. Notwithstanding anything in any Act of Parliament to the contrary, it shall be lawful for any brewer of beer for sale to make use of sugar in the brewing or making of beer, and also to prepare and make from sugar for his own use in brewing a liquor or substance for colouring beer, and to use such liquor or substance in the course of brewing or making of beer.

An entry paper to be delivered to brewers, and provisions to be observed in relation thereto.

16. A paper shall be delivered by the officer of excise to every brewer of beer for sale for the purpose of his making therein the entries mentioned in this section, and the following provisions shall have effect in relation to such paper and the entries to be made therein:

1. The brewer shall keep the paper at all times in some public and open part of his entered premises ready for the inspection of the officers of excise, and he shall permit any officer of excise at any time to inspect the paper.
2. The brewer shall enter in the said paper the quantity in bushels of malt, and in pounds weight, and in avoirdupois of sugar, which he intends to use in his next brewing, and the quantity in pounds weight avoirdupois of sugar which he intends to convert into a liquor or substance to be used by him as colouring in the course of brewing, and also the day and hour when such next brewing or process of conversion, as the case may be, is intended to take place.

3. The brewer shall make such entry, so far as respects the day and hour of brewing or conversion, twenty-four hours at the least before he shall begin to mash any malt or dissolve or convert any sugar, and, so far as respects the quantity of malt or sugar, two hours at the least before the hour entered as the hour of brewing or conversion.
4. The brewer shall at the time of making any such entry write on the paper the date when the entry is made.
5. The brewer shall not cancel, obliterate, or alter any entry in the paper or make therein any entry which is untrue in any particular.

For any offence against this section the brewer shall forfeit the penalty of twenty pounds.

17. Section eight of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, chapter thirty-two, shall be read as if the provision numbered eight therein contained were as follows :

Amendment of section 8 of 33 & 34 Vict. c. 32., and application of the provisions of that section.

The brewer shall not remove any sugar from his brewery, or dispose thereof in any manner other than by dissolving the same in the mash tun or other vessel duly entered for that purpose, or by converting the same into a liquor or substance for his own use in colouring beer in the course of his brewing.

And the several provisions contained in the said section as so amended, and the penalty thereby imposed, shall have effect and apply in relation to sugar to be used by any brewer of beer for sale in the making of any colouring liquor or substance to be used by him in the brewing or making of beer, as well as in relation to sugar to be used by such brewer in the brewing or making of beer.

18. Sections two and three of the Act of the first and second years of the reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, chapter twenty-two, shall be read as if the sum therein respectively mentioned as the amount of penalty was twenty pounds in lieu of two hundred pounds.

Reduction of penalties imposed by sects. 2 and 3 of 1 & 2 Geo. 4. c. 22.

19. A distiller using sugar in the distillation of spirits shall not remove any sugar from his entered storehouse or room without the sanction of the Commissioners of Inland Revenue, save for the purpose of being conveyed immediately to the mash tun or other vessel duly entered, to be there immediately dissolved and used in the manufacture of spirits; and he shall, before removing any sugar from the storehouse or room for the purpose of being conveyed immediately as aforesaid, give four hours previous notice in writing to the proper officer of the time when he intends to remove the same, and shall specify the quantity thereof; and he shall, at the time mentioned in such notice, convey the specified sugar immediately from the storehouse or room to the mash tun or other vessel duly entered, to be there dissolved and used in the manufacture of spirits, and shall forthwith deposit again all sugar so removed and not dissolved and used in the said storehouse or room to be again removed therefrom only upon like notice; and for any offence against this section the distiller shall forfeit the penalty of fifty pounds.

Provision as to distiller using sugar.

20. Section sixty-five of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, chapter one hundred and fourteen, shall be read as if the time therein specified as the time to expire after the termination of the brewing period before distilling was two hours in lieu of four hours; and section seventy-six of the same Act shall be read as if the period of two hours were inserted in lieu of the period of four hours wherever such period is mentioned.

Repeal of enactments as in schedule.

21. The several Acts and parts of Acts specified in the schedule to this Act are hereby repealed, save as to arrears of duties and previous offences as herein-before mentioned.

CHAPTER 17.

An Act to render valid Marriages heretofore solemnized in the Chapel of Ease called Saint John the Evangelist, at Bentley, in the parish of Shustock in the county of Warwick. [8th June 1874.]

WHEREAS the church or chapel known as Saint John the Evangelist, at Bentley, in the parish of Shustock in the county of Warwick and diocese of Worcester, was on the twenty-second day of August one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven duly consecrated for the performance of divine service, but no authority has ever been given by the bishop of the said diocese, or otherwise, for the publication of banns and solemnization of marriages therein :

And whereas divers marriages have nevertheless been solemnized in the said church or chapel under an erroneous impression on the part of the ministers thereof, that by virtue of the consecration of the said church or chapel, or otherwise, marriages might be lawfully solemnized therein ; and entries of the said marriages so solemnized have from time to time been made in the register books kept either at the said church or chapel, or at the parish church of Shustock aforesaid :

And whereas it is expedient under the circumstances aforesaid to remove all doubts touching the validity of the marriages so solemnized in the said church or chapel :

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

Marriages heretofore solemnized in Chapel of Saint John the Evangelist to be valid.

1. All banns of matrimony and marriages published or solemnized before the passing of this Act in the church or chapel known as Saint John the Evangelist, at Bentley, in the parish of Shustock aforesaid, shall be as valid as if the same had been published or solemnized in a church duly consecrated and licensed for marriages.

Minister officiating not liable to censure.

2. No minister who has solemnized any of the said marriages shall be liable to any ecclesiastical censure, or to any other proceedings or penalties whatsoever, by reason of his having so solemnized the same respectively.

Registers of such marriages to be evidence.

3. The registers of the marriages so solemnized, or copies of such registers, shall be received in all courts of law and equity as evidence of such marriages respectively, in the same manner as registers of marriages in parish churches, or copies thereof, are by law receivable in evidence.

CHAPTER 18.

An Act to appoint additional Commissioners for executing the Acts for granting a Land Tax and other rates and taxes.
[30th June 1874.]

WHEREAS an Act was passed in the seventh and eighth years of the reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to appoint Commissioners for carrying into execution several Acts granting an aid to His Majesty by a land tax to be raised in Great Britain, and continuing to his Majesty certain duties on personal estates, offices, and pensions in England:"

And whereas several Acts have since been passed appointing additional Commissioners for carrying those Acts into execution:

7 & 8 G. 4. c. 75.
9 G. 4. c. 38.
2 & 3 W. 4. c. 127.
3 & 4 W. 4. c. 95.
6 & 7 W. 4. c. 80.
1 & 2 Vict. c. 57.
7 & 8 Vict. c. 79.
11 & 12 Vict. c. 62.
16 & 17 Vict.
c. 111.
20 & 21 Vict. c. 46.
26 & 27 Vict.
c. 101.
29 & 30 Vict. c. 59.
30 & 31 Vict. c. 51.
32 & 33 Vict. c. 64.

And whereas it is expedient to appoint additional persons to put into execution the several Acts for granting an aid to Her Majesty by a land tax in Great Britain, and several other Acts for continuing or granting to Her Majesty rates and taxes:

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1. The several and respective persons named in a schedule signed by and deposited with the Clerk of the House of Commons shall and may and are hereby empowered and authorised (being duly qualified) to put in execution the said Acts, and all the clauses, powers, matters, and things whatsoever therein contained, as Commissioners in and for the several and respective counties, shires, and places in England and Wales in the said schedule severally and respectively mentioned and expressed, as fully and effectually as if they had been named with the other Commissioners in the said recited Act passed in the seventh and eighth years of the reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth; and on the passing of this Act the said schedule shall be printed in the London Gazette, which shall be sufficient evidence of such schedule for all purposes whatsoever.

Persons named in a schedule signed by the Clerk of the House of Commons to be additional Commissioners.

CHAPTER 19.

An Act to amend "The Stamp Act, 1870," in regard to the Stamp Duty payable by Advocates in Scotland on admission as Barristers in England or Ireland, and by Barristers in England or Ireland on admission as Advocates in Scotland.

[30th June 1874.]

c. 97.

WHEREAS by "The Stamp Act, 1870," it was enacted that the stamp duty payable on admission as an advocate in Scotland shall be fifty pounds, and that the stamp duty payable on admission in England or Ireland of any person to the degree of barrister-at-law if he has been previously duly admitted to the said degree in Ireland or in England, as the case may be, shall be ten pounds, and in any other case fifty pounds; and it is provided by section thirty-one of the said Act that ten pounds of the duty of fifty pounds payable on admission to the degree of a barrister-at-law in Ireland of a person not previously admitted to that degree in England, and also ten pounds payable for duty on the like admission of a person who has been previously admitted to the said degree in England, shall be paid by the Receiver General of Inland Revenue to the Treasurer of the Society of King's Inn, Dublin, to be applied by him according to the directions of the said society, so that no more than fifty pounds is in any case paid to Exchequer by a person on admission to the said degree in England and afterwards in Ireland, or in Ireland and afterwards in England; and it is just that no more should be paid to Exchequer on admission as an advocate in Scotland, and afterwards to the degree aforesaid in England or Ireland, or on admission to the degree aforesaid in England or Ireland, and afterwards as an advocate in Scotland:

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

Stamp duties to be paid on admission of an advocate to be a barrister, and vice versa.

1. No stamp duty shall be payable on admission in England to the degree of barrister-at-law of a person previously duly admitted as an advocate in Scotland, or on admission as an advocate in Scotland of a person previously duly admitted to the degree of barrister-at-law in England, and the stamp duty payable on admission as an advocate in Scotland of a person previously duly admitted to the degree of barrister-at-law in Ireland shall be ten pounds, and the stamp duty payable on admission in Ireland to the degree of barrister-at-law of a person previously duly admitted as an advocate in Scotland shall be ten pounds.

2. A distinct account shall be kept of the moneys payable for duty on the admission to the degree of barrister-at-law in Ireland of persons previously duly admitted as advocates in Scotland, and such moneys shall be paid over by the Receiver General of Inland Revenue to the Treasurer of the Society of King's Inns, in Dublin, to be applied by him according to the directions of the said society.

Distinct accounts to be kept of moneys payable to King's Inns, Dublin. 33 & 34 Vict. c. 97, s. 31.

CHAPTER 20.

An Act to provide for the Exemption of Churches and Chapels in Scotland from Local Rates and Assessment. [30th June 1874.]

WHEREAS by the Act of the twenty-eighth and twenty-ninth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, chapter sixty-two, it is provided that no person shall be rated or be liable to be rated for or to pay any poor rates for or in respect of any church, chapel, meeting-house, or premises in Scotland exclusively appropriated to public religious worship; and that no person shall be liable to any such rates because such church, chapel, meeting-house, or other premises, or any room belonging thereto, or any part thereof, may be used for Sunday or infant schools, or for the charitable education of the poor:

L. No assessment or rate under any general or local Act of Parliament for any county, burgh, parochial or other local purpose whatsoever, shall be assessed or levied upon or in respect of any church, chapel, meeting-house, or premises in Scotland exclusively appropriated to public religious worship, or upon or in respect of any ground exclusively appropriated as burial ground: Provided also, that such exemption shall continue although such church, chapel, meeting-house, or other premises, or any room belonging thereto, or any part thereof, may be used for Sunday or infant schools, or for the charitable education of the poor.

Churches, chapels, &c. not liable to local rates and assessments.

CHAPTER 21.

An Act for the discontinuance of the Four Courts Marshalsea (Dublin), and the removal of Prisoners therefrom. [30th June 1874.]

WHEREAS the amendment of the law relating to imprisonment for debt, by the Debtors Act (Ireland), 1872, has reduced and will still further reduce the number of prisoners in the Four Courts Marshalsea, Dublin, and it is therefore expedient to discontinue the said prison, and to make such provisions as are in this Act contained :

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

- Short title. 1. This Act may be cited for all purposes as the Four Courts Marshalsea Discontinuance Act, 1874.
- Interpretation of terms. 2. In this Act the term "Lord Lieutenant" shall mean the Lord Lieutenant or other chief governor or governors of Ireland for the time being.
- Power to Lord Lieutenant to appoint prisons in lieu of Marshalsea. 3. At any time after the passing of this Act it shall be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant from time to time, by order to be published in the Dublin Gazette, to order and appoint that any county, borough, or city prison or prisons specified in such order, and which shall have been certified by the Inspectors General of Prisons, or one of them, as fit for such purpose, shall be a prison or prisons to which all persons who, before the passing of this Act, might lawfully have been committed to the custody of the Marshal of the Four Courts Marshalsea, may be committed, and to which all persons who, at the time of the passing of this Act are in the custody of the said Marshal, may, unless lawfully discharged in the meantime, be removed.
- Every such prison is in this Act referred to as a "certified prison."
- Orders made to be taken as valid. 4. Every order purporting to be made under the authority of this Act by the Lord Lieutenant, shall be conclusive evidence of every fact and circumstance necessary to authorise the making thereof, and shall be deemed and taken to all intents and purposes whatsoever to have been made in pursuance of and in conformity with the provisions of this Act, and the production of a printed copy of the Dublin Gazette purporting to be printed and published by the Queen's authority, and to contain the publication of any such order, shall for all purposes be conclusive evidence of such order.

5. When and so soon as any order appointing a certified prison has been made and published in manner by this Act directed, no person shall be committed to the custody of the Marshal of the Four Courts Marshalsea, Dublin, and all persons who before the passing of this Act might lawfully have been committed to the custody of the said Marshal may be committed to any certified prison and there detained in like manner as but for the passing of this Act they might have been detained in the said Four Courts Marshalsea: Provided that all persons who at the time of the making and publishing of such order shall be imprisoned in the said Four Courts Marshalsea, may, until their removal therefrom in manner by this Act prescribed, be detained in the same manner as if this Act had not been passed.

Prohibition of committal to Four Courts Marshalsea.

6. At such time after the passing of this Act as may be determined by the Lord Lieutenant, the Marshal of the Four Courts Marshalsea shall certify under his hand to the Lord Lieutenant a true list of the names of the prisoners then in his custody, with the several causes and times of their commitments; and as soon thereafter as conveniently may be it shall be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant from time to time to issue his warrant under his hand directed to the Marshal of the Four Courts Marshalsea, requiring him to deliver into the custody of the governor of the certified prison named in such warrant the prisoner or prisoners named in such warrant, and upon the receipt of any such warrant the said Marshal shall deliver such prisoner or prisoners into the custody of such governor, with the processes under which he or they was or were respectively committed, and the said Marshal shall remove such prisoner or prisoners to the certified prison named in such warrant.

Prisoners may be removed by warrant of Lord Lieutenant.

If any person named in any warrant of the Lord Lieutenant has been lawfully discharged out of the custody of the said Marshal before the execution of the warrant, the said Marshal shall certify such discharge under his hand to the Lord Lieutenant.

The removal of any prisoner in obedience to the warrant of the Lord Lieutenant shall not be considered to be an escape.

7. All persons removed or committed to any certified prison in pursuance of this Act shall be in the custody of the governor of that prison, and shall continue in such custody, subject to the laws for the time being in force in relation to the imprisonment of debtors, and to the rules for the time being in force for the regulation of debtors in such prison, or to such other special rules as may from time to time be approved by the Lord Lieutenant.

Custody of prisoners committed in pursuance of Act.

8. The Commissioners of the Treasury and the board of superintendence of a certified prison may enter into such agreements as they think fit with respect to the contribution to be paid to the said board of superintendence on account of the expenses to be incurred by them in the safe-keeping, lodging, maintenance, and care of the prisoners removed or committed to such certified prison in pursuance of any warrant under the authority of this Act, and the amount of contribution so agreed to be paid, and the expense of providing such prisoners with furniture, fuel, and light, and of the removal of such prisoners to such certified prison, and from such prison to and from any court of competent jurisdiction, shall be defrayed out of moneys to be provided by Parliament.

Maintenance of prisoners in certified prison.

And in the meantime, and until such agreement shall be made, or failing such agreement, the Commissioners of the Treasury shall pay to the said board of superintendence for the safe-keeping, lodging, maintenance, care, and other expenses of prisoners committed to such certified prison under the authority of this Act, for the net cost (after deducting all payments made by or on account of such prisoners) of the safe-keeping, lodging, maintenance, care, and other expenses of the prisoners removed and committed to such certified prison under the authority of this Act, such sums as the inspectors-general of prisons or one of them shall certify and the Lord Lieutenant shall approve, and such sums shall from time to time be paid out of moneys to be provided by Parliament.

Removal of records.

9. As soon as all the prisoners confined in the Four Courts Marshalsea have been discharged or been removed under this Act, all records, books, and papers in the custody of the Marshal or any other officer of the Four Courts Marshalsea relating to the business of the said prison shall be delivered to such person as the Lord Lieutenant may direct, and the office of Marshal of the Four Courts Marshalsea and all other offices in the said prison, shall be abolished.

Compensation to officers.

10. It shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury to grant to every person whose office shall be abolished under the provisions of this Act, and who shall not be transferred to any office of equal or greater value, such special annual allowance or gratuity by way of compensation as on a full consideration of the circumstances of each case may seem to the said Commissioners to be a reasonable and just compensation for the loss of his office, and such annuity or gratuity shall be paid out of moneys to be provided by Parliament.

Discontinued prison vested in the Crown.

11. Upon the abolition of the office of the Marshal of the Four Courts Marshalsea, that prison, with all the lands and tenements, furniture and fixtures thereunto belonging, shall vest absolutely in the Commissioners of Public Works in Ireland upon trust, to be sold, conveyed, disposed of, or applied in such manner as the Commissioners of the Treasury shall direct.

CHAPTER 22.

An Act to relieve Revenue Officers from remaining Electoral Disabilities. [30th June 1874.]

WHEREAS an Act was passed in the session of Parliament holden in the thirty-first and thirty-second years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to relieve certain officers employed in the collection and management of Her Majesty's revenues from any legal disability to vote at the election of members to serve in Parliament:"

And whereas notwithstanding the passing of the said Act certain servants of the Crown in the Revenue departments are still subject, at the suit of informers and others, to certain very severe penalties in relation to elections for members of Parliament, to which penalties other civil servants of the Crown are not subject:

And whereas it is desirable to abolish such penalties:

Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same:

1. The enactments contained in the schedule to this Act, and any enactments reviving or continuing the same or any of the enactments contained in the schedule to the Act of the thirty-second year of Her Majesty, chapter seventy-three, are hereby repealed. Enactments in schedule repealed.

CHAPTER 23.

An Act to amend the Acts regulating the Salaries of Resident Magistrates in Ireland and the Salaries of the Chief Commissioner and Assistant Commissioner of Police of the Police District of Dublin Metropolis. [30th June 1874.]

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of the reign of King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act to consolidate 6 & 7 W. 4. c. 13.

“ the Laws relating to the Constabulary Force in Ireland,” (in this Act referred to as “ the Act of 1836,”) it was (amongst other things) enacted, that every magistrate appointed under the authority thereof should have and receive such salary by the year, not exceeding four hundred pounds, as the Lord Lieutenant or other chief governor or governors of Ireland should think fit :

16 & 17 Vict.
c. 60.

And whereas by an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled “ An Act to amend the Acts “ regulating the salaries of resident Magistrates in Ireland,” (in this Act referred to as “ the Act of 1853,”) the Act of 1836 was amended, and the Lord Lieutenant or other chief governor or governors of Ireland was and were empowered in the manner thereby prescribed to vary and classify the salaries of the magistrates appointed or to be appointed under the Act of 1836 ; and for such purpose he or they was and were authorised to fix the salaries of not more than twenty of such magistrates at sums not exceeding five hundred pounds by the year :

And whereas the salaries of the magistrates appointed and acting under the authority of the Act of 1836 have, in pursuance of the provisions of the Act of 1853, been raised, and the said magistrates have with reference to salary been classified in three divisions (in this Act referred to as “ Class I.,” “ Class II.,” and “ Class III.,” respectively), and to every member of each such class there is now payable the sums by way of salary specified in relation to such class in the second column of the Schedule A. to this Act annexed :

And whereas it is expedient to increase the salaries of magistrates heretofore appointed under the authority of the Act of 1836, and also to make provision with respect to the salaries of magistrates hereafter to be appointed under the authority of the said Act, and for such purpose to amend the said Acts and to make such provisions as are in this Act contained :

And whereas by section three of the Dublin Police Act, 1859, the salaries of the chief commissioner and assistant commissioner of police of the police district of Dublin metropolis are limited to the sums therein respectively mentioned, and it is expedient that such limitations should cease to apply thereto, and that the said section should be repealed and other and better provisions should be made instead thereof :

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

Repeal of
6 & 7 Will. 4.

1. From and after the first day of April one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four the parts of Acts specified in the Schedule B. to this Act annexed shall be and the same are hereby repealed; provided always, that such repeal shall not alter, vary, or affect any act, matter, or thing duly done, or any liability incurred, before the said first day of April one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, or any right to or the payment of any salary under the authority of such parts of Acts.

c. 13. s. 34. and
c. 60. s. 1.

2. From and after the first day of April one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, there shall be paid by way of salary to every magistrate in Class I., Class II., and Class III. respectively, the sum specified in relation to such class in the third column of the Schedule A. to this Act annexed, in lieu of the salary payable to such magistrate, and also in lieu of the allowances for clerk and orderly, under the recited Acts or otherwise howsoever.

Increase of salary to present magistrates.

3. Every magistrate hereafter appointed under the authority of the Act of 1836 shall be entitled to receive by way of salary the sum specified in relation to magistrates belonging to Class III. in the third column of the Schedule A. to this Act annexed, unless and until the Lord Lieutenant or other chief governor or governors of Ireland shall under the authority of this Act otherwise direct.

Salary of future magistrates.

4. It shall be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant or other chief governor or governors of Ireland from time to time, by order, to direct that any magistrate heretofore or hereafter appointed under the authority of the Act of 1836 may be paid such salary not exceeding the amount specified in relation to magistrates belonging to Class I. or Class II. respectively, in the third column of the Schedule A. to this Act annexed, as he or they shall think fit: Provided always, that not more than twenty of such magistrates shall at any one time be entitled to receive the sums by way of salary specified in relation to magistrates belonging to Class I. in the third column of the said schedule, and that not more than thirty-two of such magistrates shall at any one time be entitled to receive the sums by way of salary specified in relation to magistrates belonging to Class II. in the third column of the said Schedule A.

Power to Lord
Lieutenant, &c. to vary salaries of magistrates.

Provided also, that nothing in this section contained shall authorise the Lord Lieutenant or other chief governor or governors of Ireland to diminish the salary to which, under the preceding provisions of this Act, any magistrate heretofore appointed is entitled as and from the first day of April one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four.

5. In addition to the salary by this Act provided, there shall be paid to every magistrate heretofore or hereafter appointed under the authority of the Act of 1836, by way of allowance for travelling within his district, the sum of one hundred pounds per annum, and such sum of one hundred pounds shall be in lieu of any allowance for forage or for the keep of any horse or horses heretofore granted to such magistrates.

In addition to the aforesaid allowance there shall also be paid to any magistrate to whom the Lord Lieutenant or other chief governor or governors of Ireland has or have, with the approval of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, awarded, or shall hereafter from time to time with the like approval award, any further allowance for travelling and remaining from home on duty, and for stationery, and for any expenses incurred in change of station, all and every the sums of money so awarded for the said purposes.

Superannuation.

6. The superannuation allowances payable to magistrates appointed under the Act of 1836 shall be computed exclusive of the allowances by this Act authorised.

In the case of any magistrate to whom under any Act now in force a superannuation allowance might be granted within three years after the first day of April one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, calculated upon the average amount of salary received by such magistrate for three years next preceding the commencement of such allowance, such superannuation allowance shall be calculated upon the average amount of salary which such magistrate would have received for the period of three years next preceding the commencement of such allowance, if during such period this Act had been in force.

Repeal of section 3 of 22 & 23 Vict. c. 52. Salaries of chief commissioner and assistant commissioner of Dublin police to be fixed by Lord Lieutenant, &c., with approval of Treasury.

7. Section three of the Dublin Police Act, 1859, shall be and the same is hereby repealed, and instead thereof be it enacted, that from and after the passing of this Act it shall be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant or other chief governor or governors of Ireland from time to time, by order, to appoint such sums by way of salaries to the chief commissioner and assistant commissioner of police of the police district of Dublin metropolis respectively as he or they shall think fit and the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury shall approve: Provided always, that nothing in this section contained shall authorise the Lord Lieutenant or other chief governor or governors of Ireland to diminish the salaries at the time of the passing of this Act respectively payable to the persons holding at such time the offices of chief commissioner and assistant commissioner.

Salaries, &c. to be paid out of moneys voted by Parliament.

8. All salaries and allowances under this Act shall be paid out of moneys from time to time to be provided by Parliament for such purpose.

CHAPTER 24.

An Act to empower the Public Works Loan Commissioners to advance a sum of money, by way of loan, for the improvement of the Harbour of Colombo in the colony of Ceylon. [30th June 1874.]

WHEREAS by the Harbour of Galle Loan Act, 1869, ^{32 & 33 Vict. c. 105.} the Public Works Loan Commissioners were empowered to advance to the Government of the colony of Ceylon a sum not exceeding two hundred and fifty thousand pounds for the improvement of the harbour of Galle in that colony:

And whereas no sum has ever been advanced in pursuance of the said Act, and the improvement for which the said loan was authorised has been abandoned:

And whereas the Government of the colony of Ceylon propose to effect improvements in the harbour of Colombo in that colony at the cost of upwards of six hundred thousand pounds, and to raise money for that purpose at the cost of the colony:

And whereas it is expedient to empower the Public Works Loan Commissioners to advance to the Government of Ceylon, for the improvement of the said harbour of Colombo, a sum not exceeding two hundred and fifty thousand pounds in substitution for the advance authorised by the Harbour of Galle Act, 1869:

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1. This Act may be cited as "The Harbour of Colombo Short title. Loan Act, 1874."

2. Subject as herein-after mentioned, the Public Works Power to com- Loan Commissioners, as specified in the Public Works Loan missioners to advance money for improving harbour. Act, 1853, and the Acts amending the same, are hereby empowered, out of any moneys for the time being at their disposal for the purpose of loans for harbours, to advance from time to time to the Government of the colony of Ceylon, on the security of the general revenue of that colony, without any further security, a sum or sums not exceeding in the whole two hundred and fifty thousand pounds, to be applied by the said Government in improving the said harbour of Colombo.

Interest on advance, and time of repayment. 3. Any advance from time to time made in pursuance of this Act shall bear interest at the rate of three and a half per cent. per annum, and all the principal so advanced, together with the interest thereon, shall be repaid within thirty-five years from the date of the first advance.

Conditions of advance. 4. No advance shall be made in pursuance of this Act until the Governor and Legislative Council of the colony of Ceylon have made an ordinance providing to the satisfaction of the Treasury,—

- (1.) For charging the principal and interest of the advances made in pursuance of this Act on the general revenue of that colony; and
- (2.) For raising, either by taxation or by loan, on the credit of the revenue of the said colony such further sums as may be required for completing the improvements of the said harbour of Colombo; and
- (3.) For enabling the Governor of the said colony, with the advice of the Executive Council thereof, to raise by taxation in the colony such additional sums (if any) as may be required to repay the principal and interest of the said advances; and
- (4.) For appropriating the said advances for the purpose of improving the said harbour of Colombo, and for no other purpose; and
- (5.) For receiving and giving acknowledgments for the said advances and remitting all sums payable in respect of the principal and interest of the said advances.

Alteration of ordinance relating to advances.

5. Every ordinance passed by the Governor and Legislative Council of the colony of Ceylon which in any way impairs the validity or priority of the charge upon the general revenue of that colony created by the said Governor and Legislative Council of the principal or interest of any advances made in pursuance of this Act, shall, so far only as it impairs such validity or priority, be void, unless it contains a suspending clause providing that such Act shall not come into operation until Her Majesty's pleasure thereon has been publicly signified in the colony of Ceylon.

Repeal of 32 & 33 Vict. c. 105.

6. The Harbour of Galle Loan Act, 1869, is hereby repealed.

CHAPTER 25.

An Act to remove the Restrictions contained in the British White Herring Fishery Acts in regard to the use of Fir Wood for Herring Barrels.

[30th June 1874.]

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the Acts relating to the British White Herring Fishery :

Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

1. So much of the Act of the fifty-fifth year of the reign of His Majesty George the Third, chapter ninety-four, as prohibits white herrings from being cured, packed, or put up in Great Britain, or on board any vessel or boat employed in the British Herring Fishery, in any barrel or half-barrel made in whole or in part of fir, is hereby repealed ; and from and after the passing of this Act white herrings may be cured, packed, or put up in Great Britain, or on board any vessel or boat employed in the British Herring Fishery, in barrels or half-barrels made in whole or in part of fir ; provided always, that all barrels or half-barrels made in whole or in part of fir, and the herrings contained therein, shall be subject to the provisions, regulations, penalties, and forfeitures to which barrels or half-barrels made of wood other than fir are or may be subject by the said recited Act or any other Act relating to the British White Herring Fishery, or by any regulations made by the Commissioners of the British White Herring Fishery under authority of the said recited Act, or of any other Act relating to the said fishery ; and no one shall be entitled to demand that barrels or half-barrels made in whole or in part of fir shall be branded by the officers of the said Commissioners without the consent of the said Commissioners, and compliance with any regulations to be made by them under this Act ; and the said Commissioners are hereby authorised and empowered to make regulations accordingly for the branding of barrels or half-barrels made in whole or in part of fir, and containing herrings, and are further authorised and empowered to revoke and annul or alter or vary any regulation or regulations made by them under this Act for that purpose, and in lieu thereof to make another or other regulations for the same purpose, which shall be of full force ; provided always, that before any regulation or regulations made or varied from time to time under the authority of this Act come into operation, the said Commissioners shall cause notice to be given, by publication of the same once in the Edinburgh Gazette, and also by affixing printed copies thereof

So much of 55 Geo. 3. c. 94. as prohibits white herrings from being cured, &c. in any barrels made of fir, repealed ;

but Crown brand cannot be demanded except under regulations to be made by the Commissioners.

on some conspicuous place or places at the various herring fishery stations in Scotland, and a printed copy of any regulation, signed by the Secretary of the Commissioners for the time being, shall be evidence of the terms of such regulations, and that the same has been published, reserving to any person having interest the right to prove that the same was not so published.

Jurisdiction
and penalties.

2. All the powers, jurisdictions, and authorities given, created, or conferred by the Acts of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, chapter ninety-two, and the twenty-fourth and twenty-fifth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, chapter seventy-two, or either of them, for carrying into effect the purposes of those Acts respectively, shall, in so far as consistent with the provisions hereof, be held to extend to and be incorporated with this Act; and all forfeitures and penalties imposed by or incurred under the provisions of this Act may be prosecuted, declared, and enforced after the forms and according to the rules and procedure prescribed by the said recited Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, chapter ninety-two.

CHAPTER 26.

An Act to make provision respecting the Stamp Duty on Transfers of Stock of the Government of Canada.

[30th June 1874.]

WHEREAS certain stock of the Government of Canada, known by the name of Canadian consolidated five per cent. stock, and herein-after referred to as existing Canadian stock, is inscribed in books kept in the United Kingdom, and it is expedient to reduce the stamp duty payable on the transfer of such stock and of other stock of the same Government which may hereafter be so inscribed, and to enable the Government of Canada to compound for the stamp duty on such transfers:

Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

Short title.

1. This Act may be cited as "The Canadian Stock Stamp Act, 1874."

Stamp duty on Canadian inscribed stock.

2. In lieu of the stamp duty payable on the transfer of stock of the Government of Canada inscribed in books kept in the United Kingdom, there shall be charged on every transfer of such stock, whether on sale or otherwise, a stamp duty of two shillings and sixpence for every full sum of one hundred pounds, and also for any fractional part of one hundred pounds, of the nominal amount of stock transferred.

3. By way of composition for stamp duty chargeable on transfers of existing Canadian stock, the Government of Canada may pay to the Commissioners of Inland Revenue the sum of three thousand six hundred and ninety-one pounds two shillings and sixpence, and from and after such payment transfers of such stock shall be exempted from stamp duty.

Composition for stamp on transfers of existing stock.

4. By way of composition for stamp duty chargeable on transfers of any stock of the Government of Canada which may be hereafter inscribed in books kept in the United Kingdom, the Government of Canada may pay to the Commissioners of Inland Revenue a sum calculated at the rate of seven shillings and sixpence for every full sum of one hundred pounds, and also for every fractional part of one hundred pounds of stock inscribed in the name of each holder, and from and after such payment transfers of such stock shall be exempted from stamp duty.

CHAPTER 27.

An Act to regulate the Sentences imposed by Colonial Courts where jurisdiction to try is conferred by Imperial Acts. [30th June 1874.]

WHEREAS by certain Acts of Parliament jurisdiction is conferred on courts in Her Majesty's colonies to try persons charged with certain crimes or offences, and doubts have arisen as to the proper sentences to be imposed upon conviction of such persons; and it is expedient to remove such doubts:

Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1. This Act may be cited for all purposes as The Courts Short title. (Colonial) Jurisdiction Act, 1874.

2. For the purposes of this Act,—

The term "colony" shall not include any places within the United Kingdom, the Isle of Man, or the Channel Islands, but shall include such territories as may for the time being be vested in Her Majesty by virtue of an Act of Parliament for the Government of India, and any plantation, territory, or settlement situate elsewhere within Her Majesty's dominions, and subject to the same local term "colony."

government; and for the purposes of this Act, all plantations, territories, and settlements under a central legislature shall be deemed to be one colony under the same local government.

At trials in any colonial courts by virtue of Imperial Acts, courts empowered to pass sentences as if crimes had been committed in the colony.

3. When, by virtue of any Act of Parliament now or hereafter to be passed, a person is tried in a court of any colony for any crime or offence committed upon the high seas or elsewhere out of the territorial limits of such colony and of the local jurisdiction of such court, or if committed within such local jurisdiction made punishable by that Act, such person shall, upon conviction, be liable to such punishment as might have been inflicted upon him if the crime or offence had been committed within the limits of such colony and of the local jurisdiction of the court, and to no other, anything in any Act to the contrary notwithstanding: Provided always, that if the crime or offence is a crime or offence not punishable by the law of the colony in which the trial takes place, the person shall, on conviction, be liable to such punishment (other than capital punishment) as shall seem to the court most nearly to correspond to the punishment to which such person would have been liable in case such crime or offence had been tried in England.

CHAPTER 28.

An Act to further amend the Law relating to Juries in Ireland. [30th June 1874.]

WHEREAS the law relating to juries in Ireland was amended by "The Juries (Ireland) Act, 1873," but the time during which the provisions of the said Act should be in force and operation was by the said Act limited to the eleventh day of January one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five:

And whereas it is expedient that certain of the said provisions should continue in force and operation for a further limited time:

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

Short title.

1. This Act may be cited for all purposes as "The Juries (Ireland) Act, 1874;" and the Juries (Ireland) Acts, 1871 to 1873, and this Act shall be construed together as one Act, and the same may be cited for all purposes as "The Juries (Ireland) Acts, 1871 to 1874."

2. The provisions of "The Juries (Ireland) Act, 1873," with the exception of sections three and eight, shall continue in force and operation until the eleventh day of January one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six; and the said provisions of the said Act hereby continued shall be read and construed as if the words "one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six" were therein inserted instead of the words "one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five," and as if the words "in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four" were inserted in section five instead of the words "in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three."

CHAPTER 29.

An Act to amend the Law relating to the Militia.

[30th June 1874.]

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the law relating to the Militia:

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1. This Act may be cited for all purposes as "The Militia Law Amendment Act, 1874."

2. Subject to any Act of Parliament for the time being in force, Her Majesty may, by royal warrants, orders, and regulations, give directions as to the pay, promotion, clothing, and government of the Militia, and as to other matters and things relating to the Militia, in the same manner and to the same extent in and to which Her Majesty may, by royal warrants, orders, and regulations, give directions as to the pay, promotion, and government of Her Majesty's regular forces, and other matters and things relating to Her Majesty's regular forces.

Power to Her Majesty to regulate the Militia by warrants and regulations, &c.

3. From and after the passing of this Act, the Militia Pay Acts shall cease to be of any force as Acts of Parliament, but shall have the same effect as if Her Majesty had, immediately after the passing of this Act, embodied the provisions thereof in a royal warrant.

Existing Militia Pay Acts to have same force as royal warrants.

4. "The Militia Pay Acts" shall mean the Militia Pay Acts, 1868 and 1869, as continued by Expiring Laws Continuance Act, 1873.

Definition of "Militia Pay Acts."

CHAPTER 30.

An Act to transfer parts of the Holyhead Old Harbour Road from the Board of Trade to the Local Board of Health of the town of Holyhead; and for other purposes.
[30th June 1874.]

4 G. 4. c. 74.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the fourth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for vesting in Commissioners the bridges now building over the Menai Straits and the river Conway, and the harbours of Howth and Holyhead, and the road from Dublin to Howth, and for the further improvement of the road from London to Holyhead," Commissioners were appointed to act in the execution of the said Act, and by the twenty-seventh section of the said Act it was enacted that a certain road leading round the harbour of Holyhead, from the drawbridge to the graving dock, and in the said section described, should from and after the first day of September then next ensuing be and become vested in the said Commissioners by that Act appointed, and should be thereafter maintained and repaired and supported by them in the manner in the said section prescribed:

25 & 26 Vict.
c. ccviii.

And whereas under the provisions of the London and North-western Railway (Additional Powers) Act, 1862, a portion of the said road was taken by and became vested in the London and North-western Railway Company for the purposes of their railway undertaking:

25 & 26 Vict.
c. 69. (Public.)

And whereas under the provisions of "The Harbours Transfer Act, 1862," the remaining parts of the said road described in the Schedule A. to this Act annexed are now vested in the Board of Trade, and the same are now maintained by the said Board:

And whereas the said parts of the said road so maintained by the Board of Trade under the provisions aforesaid are wholly situate within the district of the Local Board of Health of the town of Holyhead, and are at all times open to the general public, and it is expedient that the same should be transferred to and vested in the said local board, and should be maintained, repaired, and supported by the said local board as other highways within the district of the said local board; and that for such purpose the said enactments, so far as they relate to the said parts of the said road, should be repealed, and that such provisions as are in this Act contained should be made:

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords

Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

1. This Act may be cited for all purposes as "The Holyhead Short title.
" Old Harbour Road Act, 1874."

2. The enactments set forth in the first column of the Repeal of Schedule B. to this Act annexed shall, to the extent specified enactments in in the second column of the said schedule, be Schedule B. and the same are hereby repealed.

3. From and after the passing of this Act, the parts of the Road in Sched-Holyhead Old Harbour Road described in the Schedule A. to ule A. to be this Act annexed shall be transferred to and shall be transferred to and become vested in the Local Board of Health for the town of and vested in Holyhead, and shall be thereafter maintained, repaired, and and maintained supported by the said local board by the same means, and by local board.
under the same powers, regulations, and authorities as other highways situate within the district of the said local board.

4. From and after the passing of this Act, the Board of Board of Trade Trade shall be and are hereby released from all liabilities freed from all whatsoever under the enactments by this Act repealed, or liability in re-otherwise howsoever, in relation to the maintenance, repair, spect of road.
and support of the parts of the Holyhead Old Harbour Road described in the Schedule A. to this Act annexed.

SCHEDULE A.

The road, one part of which commences at the drawbridge over the water connecting the old harbour at Holyhead with the new harbour of refuge at Holyhead, and passing along the town of Holyhead by the Royal Hotel (formerly called the Eagle and Child Inn) terminates at a point twenty-four yards or thereabouts from the northern end of the station premises of the London and North-western Railway Company, and another part of which road again commences at the eastern end of the footbridge which crosses the railway on the south side of the station, and terminates at the gate leading to the premises in which the graving dock of the said harbour of Holyhead is situate, forming what is called and known as the Turkey Shore Road, all of which road is in the parish of Holyhead and county of Anglesea.

SCHEDULE B.

Date and Title of Act.	Extent of Repeal.
4 Geo. 4. c. 74.—“ An Act for vesting in Commissioners the bridges now building over the Menai Straits and the River Conway, and the Harbours of Howth and Holyhead, and the Road from Dublin to Howth, and for the further improvement of the Road from London to Holyhead.”	Section 27.
25 & 26 Vict. c. 69.—“ An Act for transferring from the Admiralty to the Board of Trade certain powers and duties relative to Harbours and Navigation under Local and other Acts; and for other purposes.”	So much of section 17 and of the schedule as relates to the road described in Schedule A. to this Act annexed.

An Act to amend the Conjugal Rights (Scotland) Amendment Act, 1861. [16th July 1874.]

24 & 25 Vict.
c. 86.

WHEREAS an Act was passed in the twenty-fourth and twenty-fifth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled “An Act to amend the Law regarding “Conjugal Rights in Scotland:”

And whereas the expense of procedure under that Act prevents many persons from availing themselves of its benefits, and it is desirable to amend the same:

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same,

Sheriffs jurisdiction extended to applications for orders to protect property of deserted wives and for the recall of such orders.

1. The word “sheriff” shall include sheriff substitute.

2. The sheriffs of counties in Scotland shall have all jurisdictions, powers, and authorities necessary for hearing, trying, and determining applications by wives deserted by their husbands for orders to protect property that they have acquired or may acquire by their own industry after such desertion, and property which they have succeeded to or may succeed to or acquire right to after such desertion, against their husbands or creditors of their husbands, or any persons claiming in or through the rights of their husbands, and applications by the husbands of such wives, their creditors, or others claiming in or through the rights of such husbands for the recall of such orders: Provided as follows:

1. All such applications in the sheriff court shall be made by petition in common form, and, subject to any orders and regulations which the Court of Session are hereby authorised to make from time to time as to procedure in such applications, the procedure in every such petition, including the procedure in appeals taken therein within the sheriff court or to the Court of Session, shall, as nearly as may be, be the same as in an ordinary action in the sheriff court:
2. The conditions on which orders to protect property as aforesaid may be granted or recalled in the sheriff court shall be the same as those on which such orders may be granted or recalled in the Court of Session. The provisions of the recited Act relating to the intimation of interlocutors granting or recalling such orders in the Court of Session shall apply to the intimation of such interlocutors when pronounced in the sheriff court; and the effects of the grant or recall of any such order duly intimated shall be the same when made in the sheriff court as when made in the Court of Session:
3. An application for the recall of any such order to protect property granted in a sheriff court shall be competent only when made in the sheriff court to whose jurisdiction the deserted wife is for the time amenable, or in the Court of Session.

It shall be the duty of the clerk of the court in which any such order was granted, to transmit the process in which it was granted to any other court on receiving written notice from a clerk thereof of the dependence therein of an application for the recall of such order:

4. It shall not be necessary to print the petition, answer, or evidence in order to the disposal by the Court of Session of any appeal taken thereto from a sheriff court in any application by this Act made competent in the sheriff court:
5. Any warrant of citation granted by a sheriff in any such application may, when necessary, be executed edictally (without the concurrence or authority of the Court of Session) by delivery of a copy thereof at the office of the keeper of edictal citations according to the mode established by the Act passed in the sixth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, chapter one hundred and twenty, in regard to the execution edictally of citations on warrants of the Court of Session, and by an act of sederunt of the Court of Session, dated the twenty-fourth day of December one thousand eight hundred and thirty-eight, and by sending a copy thereof by post to the last known address of the person to be cited.

The keeper of edictal citations or his clerk shall register an abstract of every such copy so delivered, in the record for edictal citations by virtue of letters of supplement to persons furth of Scotland to appear before any of the inferior courts of Scotland; and such abstract shall exhibit such particulars as are required to be exhibited in an abstract of any copy citation by law appointed to be made or registered by the said keeper or his clerk.

Short title.

3. This Act may be cited as the Conjugal Rights (Scotland) Amendment Act, 1874.

CHAPTER 32.

An Act to amend "The Drainage and Improvement of Lands Act (Ireland), 1863." [16th July 1874.]

26 & 27 Vict.
c. 88.

WHEREAS by "The Drainage and Improvement of Lands Act (Ireland), 1863," the Commissioners of Public Works in Ireland were authorised to advance money in the manner and subject to the conditions in the said Act mentioned, for the purpose of aiding in the completion of works for the drainage and improvement of lands in any district, and the repayment of any money so advanced was to be secured by means of an annual rentcharge to be payable for the term of twenty-two years at the rate of six pounds ten shillings for every one hundred pounds charged upon such lands in the manner by the said Act provided:

27 & 28 Vict.
c. 72.

And whereas a further Act was passed in the session of Parliament held in the twenty-seventh and twenty-eighth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy-two, explaining certain provisions contained in the said Act:

28 & 29 Vict.
c. 52.
32 & 33 Vict.
c. 72.

And whereas the said Acts were amended by "The Drainage and Improvement of Lands Amendment Act (Ireland), 1865," and by "The Drainage and Improvement of Lands Amendment Act (Ireland), 1869," and it is expedient further to amend the said Acts:

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

Short title.

1. This Act may be cited for all purposes as "The Drainage and Improvement of Lands Amendment Act (Ireland), 1874."

2. It shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Public Works, upon application of any drainage board, out of any moneys in their hands available for loans, by and with the sanction of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, and subject to such rules, regulations, and conditions as the said Commissioners of the Treasury may think proper from time to time to make, to make loans or advances for the purposes of the said recited Acts, and to secure the repayment of the same, if they think it expedient so to do, by means of rentcharges at five per cent. per annum, payable for terms of thirty-five years, instead of by rentcharges at six pounds ten shillings per cent. per annum payable for terms of twenty-two years as by the said Acts provided; and in case any loan shall be so made to the drainage board of any district, each of the several parcels or portions of land specified in the award of the Commissioners, apportioning the consolidated sum of principal and interest amongst the respective proprietors of the said parcels or portions of land in such district and on their lands respectively (as by the said Acts provided) shall, from the date of such award, become charged with the payment to Her Majesty of an annual rentcharge of five pounds for every one hundred pounds charged on such parcels or portions of land respectively, and so in proportion for any lesser amount, to be payable for the term of thirty-five years, to be computed from the fifth day of April or tenth day of October which shall next happen after the making of such award, such rentcharge to be paid by equal half-yearly payments on the fifth day of April and tenth day of October in every year, the first of such payments to be made on the second of such days which shall happen after the date of such award.

Loans may be made repayable by rentcharges at five per cent. for 35 years.

3. All the provisions in the recited Acts contained or referred to with respect to the rentcharges therein mentioned shall be applicable to rentcharges under this Act in like manner in all respects as if rentcharges under this Act were rentcharges under the recited Acts.

Provisions as to rentcharges in recited Acts to apply to rentcharges under this Act.

4. In all cases in which copies of the report of any inspector appointed by the Commissioners of Public Works for the purpose of making inquiries as to the propriety of constituting any proposed district, and as to the assent of the proprietors thereto, are required to be lodged with the clerk or clerks of the unions respectively, as directed by section six, number five, of the said first-recited Act, the petitioners shall in addition to the notice which they are required to publish in some newspaper, as directed by the said section, cause notices stating that such report has been so lodged to be served on each of the reputed proprietors of land in such district by delivery of the same personally, or, if any such proprietor is absent from Ireland, to his agent, or by leaving the same at the usual or last known place of abode of such proprietor as aforesaid, or by forwarding the same by post, in a prepaid letter, addressed to the usual or last known place of abode of such proprietor.

Notice of inspectors reports having been lodged with clerks of unions to be sent to proprietors.

This Act and the recited Acts to be construed as one Act.

5. The Acts herein-before recited or referred to as amended by this Act and this Act shall be read together as one Act.

CHAPTER 33.

An Act to extend the Powers of the Leases and Sales of Settled Estates Act. [16th July 1874.]

19 & 20 Vict.
c. 120.

WHEREAS it is expedient to extend the operation of the Act, chapter one hundred and twenty of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, to facilitate leases and sales of settled estates, herein-after called the principal Act :

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows, that

Short title.

1. This Act may be cited as the Leases and Sales of Settled Estates Amendment Act, 1874.

Notice to be given to persons who do not consent to or concur in application.

2. Where under the principal Act the concurrence or consent of any person in or to any application hereafter to be made under that Act is required, and such concurrence or consent shall not have been obtained, notice shall be given to such person, in such manner as the court to which such application shall be made shall direct, requiring him to notify, within a time to be specified in such notice, whether he assents to or dissents from such application or submits his rights or interests, so far as they may be affected by such application, to be dealt with by the court; and every such notice shall specify to whom and in what manner such notification is to be delivered or left. In case no notification shall be delivered or left in accordance with the notice and within the time thereby limited, the person to or for whom such notice shall have been given or left shall be deemed to have submitted his rights and interests to be dealt with by the court.

Court may dispense with consent, having regard to the number and the interests of parties.

3. An order under the principal Act may be made upon any such application notwithstanding that the concurrence or consent of any such person as aforesaid shall not have been obtained, or shall have been refused, but the court in considering the application shall have regard to the number of persons who concur in or consent to the application, and who dissent therefrom, or who submit or are to be deemed to submit their rights or interests to be dealt with by the court, and to the estates or interests which such persons respectively have or claim to have in the estate as to which such application is made, and every order of the court made upon such application shall have the same effect as if all such persons had been consenting parties thereto.

4. All such applications shall be otherwise dealt with in such manner as are prescribed by the principal Act, or any orders made in pursuance thereof, with regard to the exercise of the powers conferred by that Act.

Applications to be dealt with otherwise as prescribed by principal Act.

CHAPTER 34.

An Act to amend the Act of the fifty-fifth year of King George the Third, chapter one hundred and ninety-four, intituled "An Act for better regulating the Practice of Apothecaries in England and Wales." [16th July 1874.]

WHEREAS by the nineteenth section of "The Medical Act, 1858," it is enacted that any two or more of the colleges and bodies in the United Kingdom mentioned in Schedule A. to the said Act may, with the sanction and under the directions of the General Council of Medical Education and Registration of the United Kingdom, constituted in pursuance of the provisions of the said Act, unite or co-operate in conducting the examinations required for qualifications to be registered under the said Act:

21 & 22 Vict. c. 90. s. 19.

And whereas by reason of certain provisions of the Act passed in the session of Parliament holden in the fifty-fifth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for better regulating the practice of Apothecaries in England and Wales" (herein-after referred to as the Apothecaries Act), difficulty has been found to exist in the exercise by the Society of Apothecaries of London of the powers conferred on the said society by the said nineteenth section and other sections of the Medical Act, 1858:

55 Geo. 3. c. 194.

And whereas it is expedient that all such difficulties should be removed, and that certain portions of the Apothecaries Act should be repealed, and that the said Society of Apothecaries should have full power to unite and co-operate with all or any of the said other colleges and bodies mentioned in the said Schedule A. in conducting the said examinations:

And whereas it is desirable that the Society of Apothecaries should possess the power of striking off from the list of their licentiates any person who shall be convicted in England or Ireland of any felony or misdemeanor, or in Scotland of any crime or offence, or shall after due inquiry be judged by the

General Council to have been guilty of infamous conduct in any professional respect :

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

Short title.

1. This Act may be cited as "The Apothecaries Act Amendment Act, 1874."

Repeal of parts of sects. 4, 9, and 15 of Apothecaries Act.

2. The following provisions of the Apothecaries Act shall be and they are hereby repealed ; that is to say,

(1.) So much of the fourth section of the said Act as provides that no person to be by the master, wardens, and assistants for the time being chosen and appointed a member of the court of examiners shall be deemed to be properly qualified unless he shall be a member of the Society of Apothecaries aforesaid of not less than ten years standing ; and so much of the same section as provides that no person shall be deemed to be properly qualified to be appointed one of the five apothecaries in the Act after mentioned for the purpose of examining assistants to apothecaries except he shall have been an apothecary in actual practice for not less than ten years at least previously to his being so appointed ; and so much of the ninth section of the said Act as requires or provides that the twelve persons to be chosen and appointed as directed by the same section are to be properly qualified as in the said fourth section is mentioned.

(2.) So much of the fifteenth section of the said Act as provides that no person shall be admitted to any examination for a certificate to practise as an apothecary unless he shall have served an apprenticeship of not less than five years to an apothecary.

Removing restrictions as to number of examiners and examination fee.

3. Subject to the approval of the Privy Council, to be signified in manner provided by twenty-fourth section of "The Medical Act, 1858," and which may at any time be withdrawn by the said Privy Council, the said Society of Apothecaries may, with the sanction and under the directions of the said General Medical Council, unite and co-operate with any one or more of the colleges and bodies mentioned in Schedule A. of "The Medical Act, 1858," in appointing examiners and conducting the examinations required for qualifications to be registered under the said last-mentioned Act, notwithstanding that the examiners appointed for such purpose may be more or less than twelve in number, and notwithstanding that the fees to be payable by candidates and for certificates or licenses to practise, or any of such fees, be greater or less than the fees authorised or required to be taken or paid by the Apothecaries Act, and notwithstanding any other provisions in the Apothecaries Act which, but for this present section declaring that they shall not have any such effect, might prevent or hinder the said Society of Apothecaries from availing themselves of the right to unite and co-operate in manner and for the purposes aforesaid, or from exercising any of the powers intended to be conferred on the said Society of Apothecaries by "The Medical Act, 1858."

4. It shall be lawful for the master, wardens, and assistants for the time being of the said Society of Apothecaries to strike off from the list of licentiates of the said society the name of any person who shall be convicted in England or Ireland of any felony or misdemeanor, or in Scotland of any crime or offence, or who shall after due inquiry be judged by the General Council to have been guilty of infamous conduct in any professional respect, and the said society shall forthwith signify to the General Council the name of the licentiate so struck off.

Licentiate may in certain cases be removed.

5. Nothing in this Act contained shall deprive the said Society of Apothecaries of such right as they now have, or relieve them from any existing obligation, to admit women to the examinations required for certificates to practise as apothecaries, or to enter on the list of licentiates of the said society any women who shall have satisfactorily passed such examinations and fulfilled the other general conditions imposed upon persons seeking to obtain from the said society a qualification to be registered under the Medical Act, 1858.

Saving rights of the society to admit women to certain examinations.

CHAPTER 35.

An Act for further promoting the Revision of the Statute Law by repealing certain Enactments which have ceased to be in force or have become unnecessary. [16th July 1874.]

WHEREAS, with a view to the revision of the Statute Law, and particularly to the preparation of the Revised Edition of the Statutes now in progress, it is expedient that certain enactments (mentioned in the schedule to this Act) which may be regarded as spent, or have ceased to be in force otherwise than by express and specific repeal by Parliament, or have, by lapse of time and change of circumstances, become unnecessary, should be expressly and specifically repealed:

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

Enactments in schedule repealed.

Saving.

1. The enactments described in the schedule to this Act are hereby repealed, subject to the exceptions and qualifications in the schedule mentioned :

Provided, that where any enactment not comprised in the schedule has been repealed, confirmed, revived, or perpetuated by any enactment hereby repealed, such repeal, confirmation, revivor, or perpetuation shall not be affected by the repeal effected by this Act :

and the repeal by this Act of any enactment shall not affect any Act in which such enactment has been applied, incorporated, or referred to ;

nor shall such repeal of any enactment affect any right to any hereditary revenues of the Crown, or affect any charges thereupon, or prevent any such enactment from being put in force for the collection of any such revenues, or otherwise in relation thereto ;

and this Act shall not affect the validity, invalidity, effect, or consequences of anything already done or suffered,—or any existing status or capacity,—or any right or title already acquired or accrued, or any remedy or proceeding in respect thereof,—or any release or discharge of or from any debt, penalty, claim, or demand,—or any indemnity,—or the proof of any past act or thing ;

nor shall this Act affect any principle or rule of law or equity, or established jurisdiction, form or course of pleading, practice, or procedure, or existing usage, franchise, liberty, custom, privilege, restriction, exemption, office, appointment, payment, allowance, or emolument, notwithstanding that the same respectively may have been in any manner affirmed, recognised, or derived by, in, or from any enactment hereby repealed ;

nor shall this Act revive or restore any jurisdiction, office, duty, drawback, fee, payment, franchise, liberty, custom, right, title, privilege, restriction, exemption, usage, practice, procedure, or other matter or thing not now existing or in force ;

and this Act shall not extend to repeal any enactment so far as the same may be in force in any part of Her Majesty's Dominions out of the United Kingdom, except where otherwise expressed in the said schedule.

55 Geo. 3. c. 91.
(repealed by Statute Law
Revision Act, 1873) revived
as to Dublin.

2. An Act passed in the fifty-fifth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled " An Act for the Payment of Costs and Charges to Prosecutors and Witnesses " in Cases of Felony in Ireland," which Act was repealed by the Statute Law Revision Act, 1873, is hereby revived, so far as relates to the county of the city of Dublin.

Short title.

3. This Act may be cited as The Statute Law Revision Act, 1874.

CHAPTER 36.

An Act to render Personation, with intent to deprive any Person of Real Estate or other property, Felony. [30th July 1874.]

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the law relating to personation:

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1. If any person shall falsely and deceitfully personate any person, or the heir, executor, or administrator, wife, widow,

Personation in order to obtain pro-

next of kin, or relation of any person, with intent fraudulently to obtain any land, estate, chattel, money, valuable security, or property, he shall be guilty of felony, and upon conviction shall be liable, at the discretion of the court by which he is convicted, to be kept in penal servitude for life, or any period not less than five years, or to be imprisoned for any term not exceeding two years, with or without hard labour, and with or without solitary confinement.

perty to be felony.

2. Nothing in this Act shall prevent any person from being proceeded against and punished under any other Act, or at common law, in respect of an offence (if any) punishable as well under this Act as under any other Act, or at common law.

Saving.

3. No offence against this Act shall be prosecuted or tried at any court of general or quarter sessions of the peace.

Offences against this Act not to be tried at general or quarter sessions.

4. This Act may be cited for all purposes as the False Personation Act, 1874.

Short title.

CHAPTER 37.

An Act to alter and amend the Law as to Appointments under powers not exclusive.

[30th July 1874.]

WHEREAS by deeds, wills, and other instruments, powers are frequently given to appoint real and personal property amongst several objects in such manner that no one of the objects of the power can be excluded, or some one or more of the objects of the power cannot be excluded by the donee of the power from a share of such property, but without requiring a substantial share of such property to be given to each object of the power, or to each object of the power who cannot be excluded:

And whereas instruments intended to operate as executions of such powers are frequently invalid in consequence of the donee of the power appointing in favour of some one or more of the objects of the power to the exclusion of the other or others, or some other or others of such objects, and it is expedient to amend the law so as to prevent such intended appointments failing:

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1. That no appointment, which from and after the passing of this Act shall be made in exercise of any power to appoint

Appointments to be valid notwithstanding standing one or more objects

excluded.

any property real or personal amongst several objects, shall be invalid at law or in equity on the ground that any object of such power has been altogether excluded, but every such appointment shall be valid and effectual notwithstanding that any one or more of the objects shall not thereby or in default of appointment take a share or shares of the property subject to such power.

Proviso.

2. Provided always, and be it enacted, that nothing in this Act contained shall prejudice or affect any provision in any deed, will, or other instrument creating any power, which shall declare the amount or the share or shares from which no object of the power shall be excluded, or some one or more object or objects of the power shall not be excluded.

CHAPTER 38.

An Act to extend the Jurisdiction of Courts of the Colony of the Straits Settlements to certain Crimes and Offences committed out of the Colony.

[30th July 1874.]

WHEREAS crimes and offences have been and are committed against the persons and property of the inhabitants and others in territories in the neighbourhood of the colony of the Straits Settlements by subjects of Her Majesty, and by others resident in the said colony at the time or within a short time before the commission of such crimes and offences, and it is expedient to provide for the trial and punishment of such persons, when found in the said colony, for such crimes and offences :

Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

Jurisdiction of criminal courts of Straits Settlements extended to
committed out of the colony.

1. Crimes and offences committed out of the said colony of the Straits Settlements at any place in the Malayan Peninsula extending southward from the ninth degree of north latitude, or in any island lying within twenty miles from the coast thereof, by any of Her Majesty's subjects, or by any person being a subject of any of the native states in the said peninsula south of the said ninth degree of north latitude, but who is at the time of his committing such crime or offence resident in the said colony, or who has been so resident within six months before the commission of such crime or offence, shall be cognizable in the courts of the said colony exercising criminal jurisdiction, and shall be inquired of, tried, prosecuted, and, upon conviction, punished in such and the same manner as if the crime or offence had been committed within the said colony.

2. Any person known or suspected to have committed a crime or offence within the first section of this Act may be apprehended in the said colony, and kept in custody therein in like manner as if the said crime or offence had been committed within the colony.

Apprehension of persons within the colony.

CHAPTER 39.

An Act to provide for the exception of the Borough of Wenlock from the category of boroughs under the "Elementary Education Act, 1870."

[30th July 1874.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

1. That for the purposes of the "Elementary Education Act, 1870," the municipal borough of Wenlock shall not be deemed to be a borough, and the elections for school boards within the said borough shall take place and be conducted in the manner and under the regulations in such Act provided for a parish.

Wenlock not to be deemed a borough, &c.

CHAPTER 40.

An Act to amend the powers of the Board of Trade with respect to inquiries, arbitrations, appointments, and other matters under special Acts, and to amend the Regulation of Railways Act, 1873, so far as regards the reference of differences to the Railway Commissioners in lieu of Arbitrators.

[30th July 1874.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

Preliminary.

1. This Act may be cited as the Board of Trade Arbitra- Short title.
tions, &c. Act, 1874.

PART I.

Board of Trade Inquiries, &c.

Power of Board of Trade as to inquiry.

2. Where, under the provisions of any special Act, passed either before or after the passing of this Act, the Board of Trade are required or authorised to sanction, approve, confirm, or determine any appointment, matter, or thing, or to make any order or to do any other act or thing for the purposes of such special Act, the Board of Trade may make such inquiry as they may think necessary for the purpose of enabling them to comply with such requisition or exercise such authority.

Where an inquiry is held by the Board of Trade for the purposes of this section, or in pursuance of any general or special Act passed either before or after the passing of this Act, directing or authorising them to hold any inquiry, the Board of Trade may hold such inquiry by any person or persons duly authorised in that behalf by an order of the Board of Trade, and such inquiry if so held shall be deemed to be duly held.

Expenses
connected with arbitration, sanction, &c.

3. Where application is made in pursuance of any special Act passed either before or after the passing of this Act, to the Board of Trade to be arbitrators, or to appoint any arbitrator, referee, engineer, or other person, or to hold any inquiry, or to sanction, approve, confirm, or determine, any appointment, matter, or thing, or to make any order, or to do any other act or thing for the purposes of such special Act, all expenses incurred by the Board of Trade in relation to such application and the proceedings consequent thereon, shall, to such amount as the Board of Trade may certify by their order to be due, be defrayed by the parties to such application, and (subject to any provision contained in the said special Act) shall be defrayed by such of the parties as the Board of Trade may by order direct, or if so directed by an order of the Board of Trade shall be paid as costs of the arbitration or reference.

The Board of Trade may, if they think fit, on or at any time after the making of the application, by order require the parties to the application, or any of them, to pay to the Board of Trade such sum as the Board of Trade think requisite for or on account of those expenses, or to give security to the satisfaction of the Board of Trade for the payment of those expenses on demand, and if such payment or security is not made or given may refuse to act in pursuance of the application.

All expenses directed by an order of the Board of Trade or an award in pursuance of this section to be paid may be recovered in any court of competent jurisdiction as a debt, and if payable to the Board of Trade, as a debt to the Crown, and an order of the Board of Trade shall be conclusive evidence of the amount of such expenses.

4. In this part of this Act the term "special Act" means a local or local and personal Act, or an Act of a local and personal nature, and includes a provisional order of the Board of Trade confirmed by Act of Parliament and a certificate granted by the Board of Trade under the Railways Construction Facilities Act, 1864.

Meaning of "special Act."

An order of the Board of Trade for the purposes of this part of this Act, or of any such special Act as is referred to in this part of this Act, may be made by writing under the hand of the President, or of one of the secretaries of the Board.

Order of Board of Trade may be in writing.

5. The Act of the session of the thirty-fifth and thirty-sixth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, chapter eighteen, intituled "An Act for regulating Inquiries by the Board of Trade," is hereby repealed, without prejudice to anything done or suffered under that Act.

Repeal of 35 & 36 Vict. c. 18.

PART II.

Reference to Railway Commissioners.

6. Where any difference to which a railway company or canal company is a party is required or authorised under the provisions of any general or special Act passed either before or after the passing of this Act, to be referred to the arbitration of or to be determined or settled by the Board of Trade, or some person or persons appointed by the Board of Trade, the Board of Trade may, if they think fit, by order in writing under the hand of the President or one of the secretaries of the Board, refer the matter for the decision of the Railway Commissioners, and appoint them arbitrators or umpire, as the case may be, and thereupon the Commissioners for the time being shall have the same powers as if the matter had been referred to their decision in pursuance of the Regulation of Railways Act, 1873, and also any further powers which the Board of Trade, or an arbitrator or arbitrators, or umpire, appointed by the Board of Trade, would have had for the purpose of the arbitration, if the difference had not been referred to the Commissioners: Provided always, that this section shall not apply to any case in which application is made to the Board of Trade for the appointment of an umpire under the twenty-eighth section of "The Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845."

Power of Board of Trade to appoint Railway Commissioners to be arbitrators or umpire.

7. Where any difference is referred for the decision of the Commissioners in pursuance of the Regulation of Railways Act, 1873, as amended by this part of this Act, the Commissioners shall have the same power by their decision of rescinding, varying, or adding to any award or other decision Declaration as to powers of Commissioners in arbitrations.

previously made by any arbitrator or arbitrators (including therein the Board of Trade) with reference to the same subject matter as any arbitrator or arbitrators would have had if the difference had been referred to him or them.

Duration, &c.
Act, and construction with 36 & 37
Vict. c. 48.

8. This part of this Act shall be construed as one with the Regulation of Railways Act, 1873, and shall continue in force for the same time as that Act and no longer, but the expiration of this part of this Act shall not affect the validity of anything done before such expiration.

The Regulation of Railways Act, 1873, together with this part of this Act, may be cited as the Regulation of Railways Acts, 1873 and 1874.

CHAPTER 41.

An Act to amend "The Colonial Attornies Relief Act."
[30th July 1874.]

20 & 21 Vict.
c. 39.

WHEREAS by the Colonial Attornies Relief Act certain provisions are made for regulating the admission of attornies and solicitors of Colonial Courts in Her Majesty's Superior Courts of Law and Equity in England in certain cases, and it is considered just and equitable to amend the said Act :

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

Examination and ceasing to practise dispensed with where colonial attorney and solicitor has actually practised for seven years, and passed examination previous to admission.

1. So much of the Colonial Attornies Relief Act as enacts that no person shall be deemed qualified to be admitted as attorney or solicitor under the provisions of the said Act unless he shall pass an examination to test his fitness and capacity, and shall further make affidavit that he has ceased for the space of twelve calendar months at the least to practise as attorney or solicitor in any colonial court of law, and also so much of the said Act and of any orders and regulations made thereunder as relate to such examination, shall not apply to nor shall compliance therewith respectively be required of any person seeking to be admitted as attorney or solicitor under the provisions of the said Act who shall have been in actual practice for the period of seven years at the least as attorney and solicitor in any colony or dependency as to which an order in council has been or may be made as mentioned in the said Act, and who shall have served under articles and passed an examination previously to his admission as attorney and solicitor in any such colony or dependency.

Short title.

2. The expression "The Colonial Attornies Relief Act" shall henceforth be deemed to include this Act.

CHAPTER 42.*An Act to consolidate and amend the Laws relating to Building Societies. [30th July 1874.]

WHEREAS it is expedient to consolidate and amend the law relating to building societies:

Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

1. This Act may be cited as The Building Societies Act, Short title, 1874.

2. This Act shall commence and take effect on the second day of November one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four. Commencement of Act.

3. The registrar in this Act means (except where otherwise expressed) the registrar for the time being of friendly societies in England, Scotland, or Ireland, as the case may be, who shall, for the purposes of this Act, be the registrar of building societies. Definition of registrar.

4. The court in this Act means,—

In England, the county court of the district in which the chief office or place of meeting for the business of the society is situate ;

In Scotland, the sheriff's court of the county in which such office or place of meeting is situate ; and

In Ireland, the civil bill court within the jurisdiction of which such office or place of meeting is situate.

Definition of court.

5. A terminating society in this Act means a society which by its rules is to terminate at a fixed date, or when a result specified in its rules is attained ; a permanent society means a society which has not by its rules any such fixed date or specified result at which it shall terminate. Definition of terminating and permanent societies.

6. In the application of this Act to Scotland the following words and expressions shall have the meanings hereby assigned to them ; viz., " freehold estate " shall mean " heritable estate ; " " mortgage " shall mean " conveyance or bond and disposition in security ; " " letters of administration " shall mean " confirmation. " Application to Scotland.

7. The Act of the sixth and seventh years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, chapter thirty-two, intituled " An Act for the Regulation of Benefit Building Societies, " is hereby repealed, but this repeal shall not affect any subsisting society certified under the said Act, until such society shall have obtained a certificate of incorporation under this Act ; Repeal of 6 & 7 W.4. c. 32.

and this repeal shall not affect the past operation of the said Act, or the force or operation, validity or invalidity, of anything done or suffered, or any bond or security given, or any right, title, obligation, or liability accrued, or any proceedings taken thereunder, or under the rules of any society which has been certified thereunder: Provided that with regard to such subsisting societies as may not obtain certificates of incorporation under this Act, all things required to be done by or sent to the barrister or advocate and the clerk of the peace under the provisions of the said repealed Act shall be done by or sent to the registrar.

Societies under former Act to continue.

8. Every society the rules of which have been certified under the said repealed Act shall be deemed to be a society under this Act, and may obtain a certificate of incorporation under this Act, and thereupon its rules shall, so far as the same are not contrary to any express provisions of this Act, continue in force until altered or rescinded as herein-after mentioned.

Incorporation of societies.

9. Every society now subsisting or hereafter established shall, upon receiving a certificate of incorporation under this Act, become a body corporate by its registered name, having perpetual succession, until terminated or dissolved in manner herein provided, and a common seal.

Enrolments to be sent to registrar.

10. On the commencement of this Act all transcripts of the rules of societies certified and enrolled under the said repealed Act which are now filed with the rolls of the sessions of the peace of any county, riding or division, city or borough, liberty or place, shall, on a proper application made for that purpose, be taken off the file and transmitted by the clerk of the peace to the registrar, to be by him kept and registered; and upon such registration every such subsisting society shall be entitled to a certificate of incorporation on application to the registrar.

Where enrolled transcript of rules not transmitted.

11. Any society now subsisting, the transcript of the rules of which is not transmitted to the registrar by the clerk of the peace, shall, upon furnishing the registrar with a copy of its rules, purporting to be certified or to be a true copy of rules certified by the barrister under the said repealed Act, authenticated by statutory declaration of the secretary or other officer of the society, as the registrar may require, be entitled to a certificate of incorporation, and such copy of rules shall be by him kept and registered.

Certificate of incorporation how to be granted.

12. A certificate of incorporation under this Act shall not be granted to an existing society except upon application to the registrar made by authority of a general meeting of the society specially called for the purpose; and the registrar may require of the person making the application a statutory declaration that such authority was duly given.

13. Any number of persons may establish a society under this Act, either terminating or permanent, for the purpose of raising by the subscriptions of the members a stock or fund for making advances to members out of the funds of the society upon security of freehold, copyhold, or leasehold estate, by way of mortgage; and any society under this Act shall, so far as is necessary for the said purpose, have power to hold land with the right of foreclosure, and may from time to time raise funds by the issue of shares of one or more denominations, either paid up in full or to be paid by periodical or other subscriptions, and with or without accumulating interest, and may repay such funds when no longer required for the purposes of the society. Provided always, that any land to which any such society may become absolutely entitled by foreclosure, or by surrender, or other extinguishment of the right of redemption, shall as soon afterwards as may be conveniently practicable be sold or converted into money.

Purpose for which societies may be established.

14. The liability of any member of any society under this Act in respect of any share upon which no advance has been made shall be limited to the amount actually paid or in arrear on such share, and in respect of any share upon which an advance has been made shall be limited to the amount payable thereon under any mortgage or other security or under the rules of the society.

Limitation of liability of members.

15. With respect to the borrowing of money by societies under this Act, the following provisions shall have effect:

Power to borrow money.

- (1.) Any society under this Act may receive deposits or loans, at interest, within the limits in this section provided, from the members or other persons, or from corporate bodies, joint stock companies, or from any terminating building society, to be applied to the purposes of the society:
- (2.) In a permanent society the total amount so received on deposit or loan and not repaid by the society shall not at any time exceed two thirds of the amount for the time being secured to the society by mortgages from its members:
- (3.) In a terminating society the total amount so received and not repaid may either be a sum not exceeding such two thirds as aforesaid, or a sum not exceeding twelve months subscriptions on the shares for the time being in force:
- (4.) Any deposits with or loans to a society under this Act, made before the commencement of this Act in accordance with its certified rules, are hereby declared to be valid and binding on the society, but no further deposits or loans shall be received by such society, except within the limits provided by this section:

- (5.) Every deposit book or acknowledgment or security of any kind given for a deposit or loan by a society shall have printed or written therein, or thereon the whole of the fourteenth and fifteenth sections of the present Act.

Matters to be set forth in the rules.

16. The rules of every society hereafter established under this Act shall set forth,—

1. The name of the society, and chief office or place of meeting for the business of the society :
2. The manner in which the stock or funds of the society are to be raised, the terms upon which paid-up shares (if any) are to be issued and repaid, and whether preferential shares are to be issued, and, if so, within what limits, if any ; and whether the society intends to avail itself of the borrowing powers contained in this Act, and, if so, within what limits, not exceeding the limits prescribed by this Act :
3. The purposes to which the funds of the society are to be applied, and the manner in which they are to be invested :
4. The terms upon which shares may be withdrawn, and upon which mortgages may be redeemed :
5. The manner of altering and rescinding the rules of the society, and of making additional rules :
6. The manner of appointing, remunerating, and removing the board of directors or committee of management, auditors, and other officers :
7. The manner of calling general and special meetings of the members :
8. Provision for an annual or more frequent audit of the accounts, and inspection by the auditors of the mortgages and other securities belonging to the society :
9. Whether disputes between the society and any of its members, or any person claiming by or through any member, or under the rules, shall be settled by reference to the court, or to the registrar, or to arbitration :
10. Provision for the device, custody, and use of the seal of the society, which shall in all cases bear the registered name thereof :
11. Provision for the custody of the mortgage deeds and other securities belonging to the society :
12. The powers and duties of the board of directors or committee of management and other officers :
13. The fines and forfeitures to be imposed on members of the society :
14. The manner in which the society, whether terminating or permanent, shall be terminated or dissolved.

Rules to be made.

17. The persons intending to establish a society under this Act shall transmit to the registrar two copies of the rules agreed upon by them for the government of the society, signed by three of such persons and by the intended secretary or other officer; and the registrar, if he find that the rules contain all the provisions set forth in section sixteen of this Act, and that they are in conformity with this Act, shall return one copy of the rules to the secretary or other officer of the society, with a certificate of incorporation, and shall retain and register the other copy; provided that no society shall be registered under this Act in a name identical with that in which a subsisting society is already registered, or so nearly resembling the same as to be calculated to deceive, unless such subsisting society is in course of being terminated or dissolved, and consents to such registration. The society shall supply to any person requiring the same a complete printed copy of the rules, with a copy of the certificate of incorporation appended thereto, and shall be entitled to charge for every such printed copy of rules a sum not exceeding one shilling.

Registration of rules.

18. Any society under this Act, certified previously to the passing of this Act, may alter or rescind any rule or make any additional rule by the vote of three fourths of the members present at a special meeting called for the purpose, of which meeting notice, specifying the proposed alteration, rescission, or addition shall be given to the members in the manner provided by the rules of the society, or in the absence of such rules, by letters sent through the post seven days previous to such meeting; and any society hereafter established may alter or rescind any rule, or make an additional rule, in the manner its rules direct; and every society under this Act altering or rescinding any rule, or making an additional rule, shall forward two copies of every resolution for rescission of a rule, and of every alteration of or addition to its rules, signed by three members and the secretary, and a statutory declaration of an officer of the society that the provisions of this section have been complied with, to the registrar, who, if he find that such alteration, addition, or rescission is in conformity with this Act, shall return one of the copies to the secretary or other officer of the society with a certificate of registration, and retain and register the other copy.

Alteration of rules.

19. Any society under this Act, in a schedule to its rules, may describe the forms of conveyance, mortgage, transfer, agreement, bond, security for deposit or loan, or other instrument necessary for carrying its purposes into execution.

Rules may be made to provide forms of conveyance, &c.

20. Any certificate of incorporation or of registration, or other document relating to a society under this Act, purporting to be signed by the registrar, shall, in the absence of any evidence to the contrary, be received by the court, and by all courts of law and equity and elsewhere, without proof of the signature; and a printed copy of the rules of a society, certified by the secretary or other officer of the society to be a true copy of its registered rules, shall, in the absence of any evidence to the contrary, be received as evidence of the rules.

Evidence of registration.

Rules to be binding on members and others.

21. The rules of a society under this Act shall be binding on the several members and officers of the society, and on all persons claiming on account of a member, or under the rules, all of whom shall be deemed and taken to have full notice thereof.

Change of name.

22. A society under this Act may change its name by resolution of three fourths of the members present at a meeting called for the purpose, provided that the new name is not identical with that of any society previously registered and still subsisting, or so nearly resembling the same as to be calculated to deceive, unless such subsisting society is in course of being terminated or dissolved, and consents to such registration. Notice of the change of name shall be sent to the registrar and registered by him, and he shall give a certificate of registration. Such change of name shall not affect any right or obligation of the society, or of any member thereof, or other person concerned.

Officers to give security.

23. Every officer of a society under this Act having the receipt or charge of any money belonging to the society shall, before taking upon himself the execution of his office, become bound with one sufficient surety at the least, in a bond according to the form set forth in the schedule to this Act, or give the security of a guarantee society, or such other security as the society direct, in such sum as the society require, conditioned for rendering a just and true account of all moneys received and paid by him on account of the society, and for payment of all sums of money due from him to the society, at such times as its rules appoint, or as the society require him to do so.

Officers to account.

24. Every such officer, his executors or administrators, shall, upon demand made, or notice in writing given or left at his last or usual place of residence, give in his account as may be required by the board of directors or committee of management of the society, to be examined and allowed or disallowed by them, and shall, on the like demand or notice, pay over all the moneys remaining in his hands, and deliver all securities and effects, books, papers, and property of the society in his hands or custody, to such person as the society appoint; and in case of any neglect or refusal to deliver such account, or to pay over such moneys, or to deliver such securities and effects, books, papers, and property, in manner aforesaid, the society may sue upon the bond, or may apply to the court, who may proceed thereupon in a summary way, and make such order thereon as to the court in its discretion shall seem just, which order shall be final and conclusive.

25. Any society under this Act may from time to time, as the rules permit, invest any portion of the funds of the society not immediately required for its purposes, upon real or leasehold securities, or in the public funds, or in or upon any parliamentary stock or securities, or in or upon any stock or securities payment of the interest on which is guaranteed by authority of Parliament, or in the case of terminating societies, with other societies under this Act; and for the purpose of investments in the public funds or upon security of copyhold or customary estate, the society, or the board of directors or committee of management thereof, may from time to time appoint and remove trustees.

Investment of surplus funds.

26. When any person in whose name any stock transferable at the Bank of England or Bank of Ireland is standing, either jointly with another or others, or solely, as a trustee for any society under this Act, is absent from England or Ireland respectively, or becomes bankrupt, or files any petition or executes any deed for liquidation of his affairs by assignment or arrangement, or for composition with his creditors, or becomes a lunatic, or is dead, or if it be unknown whether such person is living or dead, the registrar, on application in writing from the secretary or other officer of the society and three members of the board of directors or committee of management thereof, and on proof satisfactory to him, may direct the transfer of the stock into the name of any other person or persons as trustee or trustees for the society; and such transfer shall be made by the surviving or continuing trustee or trustees, and if there be no such trustee, or if such trustee or trustees shall refuse or be unable to make such transfer, and the registrar shall so direct, then by the Accountant General or Deputy or Assistant Accountant General of the Bank of England or Bank of Ireland, as the case may be; and the Governors and Companies of the Bank of England and Bank of Ireland respectively are hereby indemnified for anything done by them or any of their officers in pursuance of this section against any claim or demand of any person injuriously affected thereby.

When trustee are absent, &c., registrars may order stock to be transferred.

27. All rights of action and other rights, and all estates and interests in real and personal estate whatsoever, now belonging to or held in trust for any society certified under the said repealed Act, shall, on the incorporation of the society under this Act, vest in the society without any conveyance or assignment whatsoever, save and except in the case of stocks and securities in the public funds of Great Britain and Ireland, and estates in copyhold or customary hereditaments, the title to which cannot be transferred without admittance.

Property of the society vested without conveyance.

28. Where any society under this Act is entitled in equity to any hereditaments of copyhold or customary tenure by way

As to copy-holds.

of mortgage, the lord of the manor of which the same are held shall from time to time, if required by the society, admit such persons, not more than three, as the society appoints, to be trustees on its behalf as tenants in respect of such hereditaments, on payment of the usual fines, fees, and other dues payable on the admission of a single tenant, or may admit the society as tenant in respect of the same, on payment of such special fine, or compensation in lieu of fine, and fees as may be agreed upon.

Payment of sums not exceeding 50*l.* when members or depositors die intestate.

29. If any member of or depositor with a society under this Act having in the funds thereof a sum of money not exceeding fifty pounds shall die intestate, then the amount due may be paid to the person who shall appear to the directors or committee of management of the society to be entitled under the statute of distributions to receive the same, without taking out letters of administration, upon the society receiving satisfactory evidence of death and a statutory declaration that the member or depositor died intestate, and that the person so claiming is entitled as aforesaid: Provided that whenever the society after the decease of any member or depositor has paid any such sum of money to the person who at the time appeared to be entitled to the effects of the deceased under the belief that he had died intestate the payment shall be valid and effectual with respect to any demand from any other person as next of kin, or as the lawful representative of such deceased member or depositor against the funds of the society, but nevertheless such next of kin or representative shall have his lawful remedy for the amount of such payment as aforesaid against the person who has received the same.

Payment to persons appearing to be next of kin declared valid.

Provision for the case of a member dying intestate leaving an infant heir.

30. Whenever a member of a society under this Act, having executed a mortgage to the society, shall die intestate, leaving an infant heir or infant coheir, it shall be lawful for the said society, after selling the premises so mortgaged to them, to pay to the administrator or administratrix of the deceased member any money, to the amount of one hundred and fifty pounds, which shall remain in the hands of the said society after paying the amount due to the society and the costs and expenses of the sale, without being required to pay the same into the Post Office Savings Bank, as provided by the Trustees Relief Act, and the Acts amending or extending the same. The said sum of one hundred and fifty pounds to be considered as personal estate, and liable to duty accordingly.

Punishment of fraud in withholding money, &c.

31. If any person whosoever, by false representation or imposition, obtains possession of any moneys, securities, books, papers, or other effects of a society under this Act, or, having the same in his possession, withholds or misapplies the same, or wilfully applies any part thereof to purposes other than those expressed or directed in the rules of the society and authorised by this Act, he shall be liable on summary conviction to a penalty not exceeding twenty pounds, with costs not exceeding twenty shillings, and to be ordered to deliver up to the society all such moneys, securities, books, papers, or other effects to the society, and to repay the amount of money applied improperly, and in default of such delivery of effects, or repayment of such amount of money, or payment of such penalty and costs aforesaid, to be imprisoned, with or without hard labour, for any time not exceeding three months; but nothing herein contained shall prevent any such person from being proceeded against by way of indictment if a conviction has not been previously obtained against him for the same offence under the provisions of this Act.

32. A society under this Act may terminate or be dissolved—

Proceedings necessary for the termination or dissolution of a society.

1. Upon the happening of any event declared by its rules to be the termination of the society.
2. By dissolution in manner prescribed by its rules.
3. By dissolution with the consent of three fourths of the members, holding not less than two thirds of the number of shares in the society, testified by their signatures to the instrument of dissolution. The instrument of dissolution shall set forth—
  - (a.) the liabilities and assets of the society in detail;
  - (b.) the number of members, and the amount standing to their credit in the books of the society;
  - (c.) the claims of depositors and other creditors, and the provision to be made for their payment;
  - (d.) the intended appropriation or division of the funds and property of the society;
  - (e.) the names of one or more persons to be appointed trustees for the special purpose, and their remuneration.

Alterations in the instrument of dissolution may be made with the like consent, testified in the same manner. The instrument of dissolution and all alterations therein shall be registered in the manner provided for the registration of rules, and shall be binding upon all the members of the society.

4. By winding-up, either voluntarily under the supervision of the court or by the court, if the court shall so order, on the petition of any member authorised by three fourths of the members present at a general meeting of the society specially called for the purpose to present the same on behalf of the society, or on the petition of any judgment creditor for not less than fifty pounds, but not otherwise. General orders for regulating the proceedings of the court under this section may be from time to time made by the authority for the time being empowered to make general orders for the court.

Notice of the commencement and termination of every dissolution or winding-up shall be sent to the registrar, and registered by him.

Societies may unite with others, or one society may transfer its engagements to another.

33. Two or more societies under this Act may unite and become one society, with or without any dissolution or division of the funds of such societies or either of them, or a society under this Act may transfer its engagements to any other such society, upon such terms as shall be agreed upon by three fourths of the members (holding not less than two thirds of the whole number of shares) of each of such societies present at general meetings respectively convened for the purpose; but no such transfer shall prejudice any right of any creditor of either society. Notice of every such union or transfer shall be sent to the registrar, and registered by him.

Determination of disputes by arbitration.

34. Where the rules of a society under this Act direct disputes to be referred to arbitration, arbitrators shall be named and elected in the manner such rules provide, or, if there be no such provision, at the first general meeting of the society, none of the said arbitrators being beneficially interested, directly or indirectly, in its funds; of whom a certain number, not less than three, shall be chosen by ballot in each such case of dispute, the number of the said arbitrators and mode of ballot being determined by the rules of the society; the names of such arbitrators shall be duly entered in the minute book of the society, and, in case of the death or refusal or neglect of any of the said arbitrators to act, the society, at a general meeting, shall name and elect an arbitrator to act in the place of the arbitrator dying, or refusing or neglecting to act; and whatever award shall be made by the arbitrators or the major part of them, according to the true purport and meaning of the rules of the society, shall determine the dispute; and should either of the parties to the dispute refuse or neglect to comply with or conform to such award within a time to be limited therein, the court, upon good and sufficient proof being adduced of such award having been made, and of the refusal of the party to comply therewith, shall enforce compliance with the same upon the petition of any person concerned. Where the parties to any dispute arising in a society under this Act agree to refer the dispute to the registrar, or where the rules of the society direct disputes to be referred to the registrar, the award of the registrar shall have the same effect as that of arbitrators.

Court may order compliance with the decision of arbitrators.

Determination of disputes by registrar.

Determination of disputes by court.

35. The court may hear and determine a dispute in the following cases:

1. If it shall appear to the court, upon the petition of any person concerned, that application has been made by either party to the dispute to the other party, for the purpose of having the dispute settled by arbitration under the rules of the society, and that such application has not within forty days been complied with, or that the arbitrators have refused or for a period of twenty-one days have neglected to make any award.

2. Where the rules of the society direct disputes to be referred to the court or to justices.

36. Every determination by arbitrators or by the court or by the registrar under this Act of a dispute shall be binding and conclusive on all parties, and shall be final to all intents and purposes, and shall not be subject to appeal, and shall not be removed or removable into any court of law, or restrained or restrainable by the injunction of any court of equity; provided always, that the arbitrators, or the registrar, or the court, as the case may be, may, at the request of either party, state a case for the opinion of the Supreme Court of Judicature on any question of law, and shall have power to grant to either party to the dispute such discovery as, to documents and otherwise, as might now be granted by any court of law or equity, such discovery to be made on behalf of the society by such officer of the society as the arbitrators, registrar, or court may determine.

Determination to be final.

37. A society under this Act may purchase, build, hire, or take upon lease any building for conducting its business, and may adapt and furnish the same, and may purchase or hold upon lease any land for the purpose only of erecting thereon a building for conducting the business of the society, and may sell, exchange, or let such building, or any part thereof.

Buildings for the purpose may be purchased or leased.

38. Any person under the age of twenty-one years may be admitted as a member of any society under this Act, the rules of which do not prohibit such admission, and may give all necessary acquittances; but during his nonage he shall not be competent to vote or hold any office in the society.

Minors may be elected members.

39. Two or more persons may jointly hold a share or shares in any society under this Act; and all shares held jointly by any two or more persons in any society subsisting at the time appointed for the commencement of this Act the rules whereof shall not prohibit such joint holding, shall be deemed to be lawfully so held.

Shares may be held by two or more persons.

40. The secretary or other officer of every society under this Act shall, once in every year at least, prepare an account of all the receipts and expenditure of the society since the preceding statement, and a general statement of its funds and effects, liabilities and assets, showing the amounts due to the holders of the various classes of shares respectively, to depositors and creditors for loans, and also the balance due or outstanding on their mortgage securities (not including prospective interest), and the amount invested in the funds or other securities; and every such account and statement shall be attested by the auditors, to whom the mortgage deeds and other securities belonging to the society shall be produced, and such account and statement shall be countersigned by the secretary or other officer; and every member, depositor, and creditor for loans shall be entitled to receive from the society a copy of such account and statement, and a copy thereof shall be sent to the registrar within fourteen days after the annual or other general meeting at which it is presented, and another copy thereof shall be suspended in a conspicuous place in every office of the society under this Act.

Exemption
duties.

41. No rules of any society under this Act, nor any copy thereof, nor any power, warrant, or letter of attorney granted or to be granted by any person as trustee for the society for the transfer of any share in the public funds standing in his name, nor any receipts given for any dividend in any public stock or fund, or interest of exchequer bills, nor any receipt, nor any entry in any book of receipt, for money deposited in the funds of the society, nor for any money received by any member, his executors or administrators, assigns, or attorneys, from the funds of the society, nor any transfer of any share, nor any bond or other security to be given to or on account of the society, or by any officer thereof, nor any order on any officer for payment of money to any member, nor any appointment of any agent, nor any certificate or other instrument for the revocation of any such appointment, nor any other instrument or document whatever required or authorised to be given, issued, signed, made, or produced in pursuance of this Act, or of the rules of the society, shall be subject or liable to or charged with any stamp duty or duties whatsoever, provided that the exemption shall not extend to any mortgage.

Receipt endorsed on mortgage to be sufficient discharge without re-
conveyance.

42. When all moneys intended to be secured by any mortgage or further charge given to a society under this Act in England or Ireland have been fully paid or discharged, the society may endorse upon or annex to such mortgage or further charge a reconveyance of the mortgaged property to the then owner of the equity of redemption, or to such persons and to such uses as he may direct, or a receipt under the seal of the society, countersigned by the secretary or manager, in the form specified in the schedule to this Act, and such receipt shall vacate the mortgage or further charge or debt, and vest the estate of and in the property therein comprised in the person for the time being entitled to the equity of redemption, without any re-conveyance or re-surrender whatever; and if the said mortgage or further charge has been registered under any Act for the registration or record of deeds or titles, the registrar under such Act, or his deputy or assistant registrar, or the recording officer, as the case may be, or in the case of copyholds or lands of customary tenure, if the mortgage or further charge has been entered on any court rolls, the steward of the manor or his deputy respectively shall, on production of such receipt, verified by oath of any person, make an entry opposite the entry of the charge or mortgage, to the effect that such charge or mortgage is satisfied, and shall grant a certificate, either on the said mortgage or charge or separately, to the like effect, which certificate shall be received in evidence in all courts and proceedings without any further proof; and which entry shall have the effect of clearing the register or record of such mortgage; and the registrar or recording officer shall be entitled to a fee of two shillings and sixpence for making the said entry and granting the said certificate, and such fee shall in Ireland be paid by stamps, and applied as the other fees of the Registry of Deeds Office and Record of Title Office are now by law directed to be paid and applied.

43. If any society hereafter formed under this Act, or any persons representing themselves to be a society under this Act, commence business without first obtaining a certificate of incorporation under this Act, or if any society under this Act makes default in forwarding to the registrar any returns or information by this Act required, or in inserting in any deposit book or acknowledgment or security for loan the matters required by section fifteen of this Act to be inserted therein, or makes a return wilfully false in any respect, the person or persons by whom business shall have been so commenced, or by whom such default shall have been made, or who shall have made such wilfully false return, shall be liable for every day business is so carried on, or for every such default or false return, upon summary conviction before justices at the complaint of the registrar, to a penalty not exceeding five pounds. If any society under this Act receives loans or deposits in excess of the limits prescribed by this Act, the directors or committee of management of such society receiving such loans or deposits on its behalf shall be personally liable for the amount so received in excess. Penalties.

44. One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State may from time to time make regulations respecting the fees, if any, to be paid for the transmission, registration, and inspection of documents under this Act, and generally for carrying this Act into effect. The registrar shall give his certificates in the forms contained in the schedule to this Act respectively. Regulations.

CHAPTER 43.

An Act to amend the Alkali Act, 1863.

[30th July 1874.]

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the Alkali Act, 1863, 26 & 27 Vict. c. 124. in this Act referred to as "the principal Act," as made 31 & 32 Vict. c. 36. permanent by the Act of the session of the thirty-first and 35 & 36 Vict. c. 79.
thirty-second years of the reign of Her present Majesty, chapter thirty-six, and amended by the Public Health Act, 1872:

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

1. This Act, so far as is consistent with the tenor thereof, shall be construed as one with the principal Act, and this Act and the principal Act may be cited together as "The Alkali Acts, 1863, 1874," and this Act may be cited separately as The Alkali Act, 1874. Construction of Act with 26 & 27 Vict. c. 124., and short title.

2. This Act shall not come into operation until the first day of March one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five. Commencement of Act.

3. Whereas by section three of the principal Act, the term "alkali work" is defined to mean "every work for the manu- Amendment of definition of "alkali work."

“ manufacture of alkali, sulphate of soda, or sulphate of potash in “ which muriatic acid gas is evolved,” and doubts have arisen whether the formation of sulphate of soda in the treatment of copper ores by common salt is or is not a manufacture of sulphate of soda within the meaning of the said section ; and it is expedient to remove such doubts: Be it therefore enacted that,

The formation of any sulphate in the treatment of copper ores by common salt or other chlorides shall be deemed to be a manufacture of sulphate of soda within the meaning of the said section.

Amendment of 26 & 27 Vict. c. 124. s. 4. as to the condensation of muriatic acid gas evolved.

4. Whereas it is provided by section four of the principal Act, that every alkali work shall be carried on in such manner as to secure the condensation of such per-centage of muriatic acid gas as therein mentioned, and it is expedient to make further provision in relation thereto: Be it therefore enacted that,

In addition to the condensation of such per-centage of muriatic acid gas as aforesaid, every alkali work shall be carried on in such manner as to secure the condensation to the satisfaction of the inspector, derived from his own examination or from that of a sub-inspector, of the muriatic acid gas evolved in such work to such an extent that in each cubic foot of air, smoke, or chimney gases escaping from the works into the atmosphere there is not contained more than one-fifth part of a grain of muriatic acid.

If any alkali work is carried on in contravention of this section the owner of that work shall be deemed to be guilty of an offence against the principal Act, and be subject to the penalties in that Act mentioned; and the provisions of the principal Act shall apply to the carrying on of an alkali work in contravention of this section in the same manner as if, wherever reference is made in the said Act to the condensation of muriatic acid gas to the extent in that Act mentioned, there were added a reference, with the necessary alterations, to the provisions of this Act relating to the condensation of muriatic acid gas.

Best practicable means to be used for the condensation of noxious gases other than muriatic acid.

5. In addition to the condensation of muriatic acid gas as aforesaid, the owner of every alkali work shall use the best practicable means of preventing the discharge into the atmosphere of all other noxious gases arising from such work, or of rendering such gases harmless when discharged. If he fail to use such means in the opinion of the court having jurisdiction in respect of the penalties imposed by this section, he shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding in the case of the first offence twenty pounds, and in the case of a second offence fifty pounds, with a further sum of two pounds for every day during which such offence has continued, and in the case of a third or any subsequent offence twenty pounds for every day during which such offence has continued.

Penalties under this section shall be recovered at the suit of the inspector in the manner in which penalties for offences other than offences against a special rule are recoverable in pursuance of the principal Act: Provided always, that no such owner shall be convicted of more than one such offence in respect of any one day: Provided also, that no such suit shall be instituted and no such penalties shall be inflicted unless the inspector shall, ten days previously, deliver to such owner a statement in writing specifying in what respect such owner has failed to comply with the requirements of this section, and also specifying means which in his opinion would suffice to comply therewith, and a copy of such statement shall on the institution of any proceedings under this section be laid by the inspector before the Court having cognizance of the matter.

6. Every inspector and sub-inspector of alkali works shall have the same power of inspection, examination, or testing, for the purpose of ascertaining whether the provisions of this Act with respect to noxious gases other than muriatic acid are complied with, as he has for the purpose of ascertaining whether the provisions of the principal Act, as amended by this Act, in relation to the condensation of muriatic acid are complied with, and all the provisions of the principal Act relating to the inspection, examination, and testing, and to penalties for obstructing any inspector or sub-inspector in the execution of the principal Act, or neglecting to afford to the inspector or sub-inspector the necessary facilities in relation to inspection, examination, or testing, under the principal Act, shall apply accordingly.

Power of entry for inspector.

7. In addition to the disqualifications contained in section eight of the principal Act, no person either directly or indirectly engaged or interested in any alkali works, or in any patent for any process or apparatus carried on or used in any alkali works, shall act as an inspector or sub-inspector under the Alkali Acts, 1863 and 1874.

Persons engaged in alkali works not to be inspectors.

8. Special rules made by the owner for the guidance of his workmen in pursuance of the principal Act may extend to any matter or thing required to be observed by them in relation to the prevention of the discharge of the noxious gases mentioned in this Act.

Special rules may be made with respect to noxious gases.

9. "Noxious gas" shall, for the purposes of this Act, mean any of the gases following; that is to say,

Definition of noxious gases.

Sulphuric acid;

Sulphurous acid, except that arising from the combustion of coals;

Nitric acid, or other noxious oxides of nitrogen;

Sulphuretted hydrogen; and Chlorine.

Saving as to general law.

10. Nothing herein contained shall legalise any act or default that would, but for this Act, be deemed to be a nuisance, or otherwise be contrary to law, or deprive any person of any remedy by action, suit, indictment, or otherwise to which he would have been entitled if this Act had not passed.

CHAPTER 44.

An Act to make better provision for improving the health of women, young persons, and children employed in manufactures, and the education of such children, and otherwise to amend the Factory Acts.
[30th July 1874.]

WHEREAS it is expedient to make better provision for improving the health of women, young persons, and children employed in manufactures, and the education of such children, and otherwise to amend the Factory Acts:

Preliminary.

Short title.

1. This Act may be cited as the Factory Act, 1874, and together with the Factory Acts, 1833 to 1871, may be cited as the Factory Acts, 1833 to 1874.

Commencement of Act.

2. This Act shall come into operation on the first day of January one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five, which day is in this Act referred to as the commencement of this Act.

Hours of Employment and Refreshment.

Period for employment of children, young persons, and women.

3. The period during which a child, young person, or woman may be employed in a factory to which this Act applies, shall be either the period between the hours of six in the morning and six in the afternoon, or the period between the hours of seven in the morning and seven in the afternoon.

Hours of employment of children, young persons, and women in factory where period from 6 a.m. to 6 p.m.

4. In every factory to which this Act applies, and in which the period of employment is between the hours of six in the morning and six in the afternoon, the following regulations shall be observed:

- (1.) A child, young person, or woman shall not be employed except between those hours; and
- (2.) A child, young person, or woman shall not be employed continuously for more than four hours and a half without an interval of at least half an hour for a meal; and

- (3.) There shall be allowed between the hours of six in the morning and six in the afternoon on every day except Saturday two hours for meals, and of such time one hour at the least shall be before three o'clock in the afternoon; and
- (4.) A child, young person, or woman shall not on Saturday,
- (a.) If not less than one hour is allowed for meals on that day, be employed in any manufacturing process after one o'clock in the afternoon, or for any purpose whatever after half-past one o'clock in the afternoon; and
- (b.) If less than one hour is allowed for meals on that day, be employed in any manufacturing process after half an hour after noon, or for any purpose whatever after one o'clock in the afternoon.

5. In every factory to which this Act applies, and in which the period of employment is between the hours of seven in the morning and seven in the afternoon, the following regulations shall be observed:

Hours of employment of children, young persons, and women in factory where period from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m.

- (1.) A child, young person, or woman shall not be employed except between those hours; and
- (2.) A child, young person, or woman shall not be employed continuously for more than four hours and a half without an interval of at least half an hour for a meal; and
- (3.) There shall be allowed between the hours of seven in the morning and seven in the afternoon on every day except Saturday two hours for meals, and of such time one hour at the least shall be before three o'clock in the afternoon; and
- (4.) A child, young person, or woman shall not be employed on Saturday in any manufacturing process after half-past one o'clock in the afternoon, or for any purpose whatever after two o'clock in the afternoon.

6. In a factory to which this Act applies, the children may be employed either in morning and afternoon sets, or for the whole day on alternate days, and the following regulations shall be observed:

Employment of children in morning and afternoon sets, or on alternate days.

(1.) Where the children are employed in morning and afternoon sets:

- (a.) A child who on any day except Saturday is employed before noon, shall not on the same day be employed after one o'clock in the afternoon, or if the hour of dinner be before one o'clock, after such hour of dinner; and

(b.) A child shall not be employed on Saturday in two successive weeks, nor on Saturday in any week if on any other day in the same week he has been employed for more than five hours ; and

(c.) A child employed in the factory shall attend school in manner directed by section thirty-eight of the Factory Act, 1844 ; and the provisions of that Act with respect to such attendance and certificates thereof shall apply accordingly ; and

7 & 8 Vict.
c. 15. s. 38.

(2.) Where the children are employed on alternate days :

(a.) A child may be employed during the same hours, and with the same hours for meals, as young persons and women in a factory ; and

(b.) A child shall not be employed in any manner on two successive days ; and

(c.) A child employed in the factory shall attend school in manner directed by section thirty-one of the Factory Act, 1844 ; and the provisions of that Act with respect to such attendance and certificates thereof shall apply accordingly.

7 & 8 Vict.
c. 15. s. 31.

Hours of meals to be simultaneous.

7. In a factory to which this Act applies, all children, young persons, and women in the factory shall have the time allowed them for meals at the same time of the day, unless some alteration for special cause be allowed in writing by an inspector.

Employment during meal times forbidden.

8. In a factory to which this Act applies, a child, young person, or woman shall not during any part of the time allowed for any meal be employed in the factory, or allowed to remain in any room in which any manufacturing process is being carried on, and any child, young person, or woman so employed or allowed so to remain shall be deemed to be employed in contravention of the provisions of this Act.

Notices of hours of employment and mode of employment of children.

9. The notice of the times of the day for meals required by section twenty-eight of the Factory Act, 1844, to be hung up in the factory shall, in every factory to which this Act applies, specify the hours between which the period of employment in such factory is fixed, and whether children in such factory are to be employed in morning and afternoon sets, or on alternate days.

The period of employment in the factory shall be deemed to be between the hours specified in such notice, and all the children in the factory shall be employed either in sets or on alternate days as may be specified in such notice.

A change in such hours, or in the mode of employment of the children, shall not be made until after the occupier of the factory has sent written notice of his intention to make such change to the inspector or sub-inspector of the district in which the factory is situate, and shall not be made oftener than once a quarter, unless for special cause, allowed in writing by an inspector.

10. Until the first day of January one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six children, young persons, and women may be employed in a factory to which this Act applies in the recovery of lost time in pursuance of the Factory Acts, 1833 to 1856, but after the said first day of January one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six, in a factory to which this Act applies, a child, young person, or woman shall not be employed in the recovery of lost time in pursuance of the Factory Acts, 1833 to 1856, or any of them, during any hours during which they cannot be employed in pursuance of the other provisions of this Act.

Abolition of recovery of lost time under 7 & 8 Vict. c. 15. ss. 33 and 34.

11. Nothing in this Act shall prevent the employment of youths in lace factories, in manner provided by section two of the Lace Factories Act, 1861 :

Saving as to youths in lace factories. 24 & 25 Vict. c. 117. s. 2.

Provided that where the period of employment in the factory is between the hours of seven in the morning and seven in the afternoon, those hours shall be substituted in that section for the hours of six in the morning and six in the afternoon respectively.

Age of Children.

12. After the first day of January one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six, for the purpose of this Act and of the Factory Acts, 1833 to 1856, in the case of a factory to which this Act applies, a person of the age of thirteen years and under the age of fourteen years shall be deemed to be a child, and not a young person, unless he has obtained from a person authorised by the authority herein-after mentioned a certificate of having attained such standard of proficiency in reading, writing, and arithmetic as may be from time to time prescribed for the purposes of this Act by that authority : Provided that any such person who previously to the first day of January one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six is lawfully employed in any such factory as a young person, may continue to be so employed in like manner as if this section had not been enacted.

Extension of age of child to 14, unless educational certificate obtained.

The authority for the purposes of this section shall be—

- (a.) In England the Lords of the Committee of the Privy Council on Education ;
- (b.) In Scotland the Lords of any Committee of the Privy Council appointed by Her Majesty on education in Scotland ; and
- (c.) In Ireland, the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, with the advice of his Privy Council.

The standard of proficiency so prescribed shall be published in the London, Edinburgh, or Dublin Gazette, according as it is prescribed by the authority in England, Scotland, or Ireland, and shall not have effect until the expiration of at least six months after such publication.

Employment of children under nine or ten in factories.

13. In a factory to which this Act applies a child shall not be employed—

- (a.) During the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five if he is under the age of nine years ; or,
- (b.) After the expiration of that year if he is under the age of ten years.

Provided that any child who previously to the commencement of the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five is lawfully employed in any such factory as a child under the age of nine years, and any child who previously to the commencement of the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six is lawfully employed in any factory as a child under the age of ten years may continue to be employed in any factory in like manner as if this section had not been enacted.

Employment of children in silk works.
13 & 14 Vict.
c. 54. s. 7.

14. The enactments of the Factory Act, 1850, or any previous Act, which authorise the employment of any child in the silk manufacture during longer hours than those authorised in the case of a child in any other factory to which this Act applies, shall be repealed as from the commencement of this Act.

Provided that—

- (1.) A child of the age of eleven and under the age of twelve years may be employed in the winding and throwing of raw silk during one year after the commencement of this Act in like manner as if such child were a young person ; and
- (2.) A child of the age of twelve and under the age of thirteen years may be employed in the winding and throwing of raw silk during two years after the commencement of this Act in like manner as if such child were a young person ; and
- (3.) Any child who immediately preceding the expiration of two years after the commencement of this Act is lawfully employed in the winding and throwing of raw silk as if he were a young person, may continue to be so employed in like manner as if this section had not been enacted.

Supplemental.

Education of children to be in efficient school.

15. After the first day of January one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six attendance at a school in England which is not for the time being recognised by the Education Department as giving efficient elementary education shall not in the case of a child employed in a factory to which this Act applies be deemed to be attendance at a school within the meaning of this Act or the Factory Act, 1844: Provided that,

- (1.) This section shall not apply to a school in any school district within the meaning of the Elementary Education Act, 1870, which has not been declared by the Education Department to be sufficiently provided with public school accommodation within the meaning of that Act:
- (2.) This section shall not apply where there is not a school so recognised within the distance of two miles from the factory in which the child is employed.

The Education Department shall make such declaration as above mentioned with respect to every school district which they are satisfied is supplied with sufficient public school accommodation, and shall from time to time publish, in such manner as they think sufficient to give information to all persons interested, lists of the schools for the time being recognised by them as giving efficient elementary education.

This section shall apply to Scotland in like manner as if it were enacted with the substitution of "Scotch Education Department" for "Education Department," of "parish or burgh" for "school district," and of "such school accommodation as is mentioned in sections twenty-seven and twenty-eight of the Education (Scotland) Act, 1872," for public "school accommodation."

16. Any child, young person, or woman who is employed in contravention of the provisions of this Act shall be deemed to be employed in manner contrary to the provisions of the Factory Act, 1833, as amended by the Factory Act, 1844, and any contravention of or failure to comply with the provisions of this Act shall be deemed to be an offence against the Factory Act, 1833, as amended by the Factory Act, 1844, and all the provisions of the Factory Act, 1844, relating to offences, and penalties for offences, shall, as amended by the Factory and Workshop Act, 1871, apply accordingly.

Penalty for wrongful employment and breach of Act.

17. Section nine of the Factory and Workshop Act, 1871 (which section applies to the recovery of penalties in Scotland only), shall, for the purposes as well of the Acts in this section mentioned as of this Act, be construed as if it contained the following additional provisions; that is to say, Amendment of 34 & 35 Vict. c. 104, s. 9, as to recovery of penalties in Scotland.

- (1.) It shall be no objection to the competency of any inspector or sub-inspector to give evidence as a witness in any prosecution for offences under the Factory Acts, 1833 to 1871, or the Workshop Acts, 1867 to 1871, or any of them, that such prosecution is brought at the instance of such inspector or sub-inspector:

- (2.) Every person convicted of an offence under the Factory Acts, 1833 to 1871, or the Workshop Acts, 1867 to 1871, or any of them, shall be liable in the reasonable costs and charges of such conviction.

Alteration of forms.

18. One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State may direct the forms contained in the schedules to the Factory Act, 1844, and the Lace Factories Act, 1861, and the abstract mentioned in section twenty-eight of the former Act, to be modified in such manner as appears to him necessary for bringing the same into conformity with this Act, and the forms and abstract as so modified shall be sufficient in law.

Definitions:
"Factory Acts, 1833-1856."

19. In this Act—

The expression "the Factory Acts, 1833 to 1856," means such provisions as are not repealed by this or any other Act of the Acts following; namely,

3 & 4 W. 4.
c. 103.

The Factory Act, 1833;

7 & 8 Vict.
c. 15.

The Factory Act, 1844, as amended by the Ropeworks Act, 1846; and 19 & 20 Vict.

c. 38.

The Factory Act, 1856.

"Woman."

The expression "woman" means a woman of the age of eighteen years and upwards.

Other expressions in this Act shall, so far as is consistent with the tenor of this Act, have the same meanings as they have in the Factory Act, 1844.

"Ropeworks Act."

The Act of the session of the ninth and tenth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, chapter forty, intituled "An Act to declare certain ropeworks not within the operation of the Factory Acts," is in this Act referred to and may henceforth be cited as the Ropeworks Act, 1846.

"Laceworks Act."

The Act of the session of the twenty-fourth and twenty-fifth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, chapter one hundred and seventeen, intituled "An Act to place the employment of women, young persons, youths, and children in lace factories under the regulations of the Factories Acts," is in this Act referred to and may henceforth be cited as the Lace Factory Act, 1861.

Factory to which the Act applies defined.

20. This Act shall apply to the following factories; namely,

A factory as defined by the Factory Acts, 1833 to 1856;

A lace factory as defined by the Lace Factory Act, 1861.

And the expression "factory to which this Act applies" shall in this Act mean only the factories above in this section mentioned.

Repeal of Acts
in schedule.

21. The Acts specified in the schedule to this Act are hereby repealed, from and after the commencement of this Act, to the extent specified in the third column of that schedule.

Provided that this repeal shall not affect—

- (a.) Anything duly done or suffered under any enactment hereby repealed ; or
- (b.) Any right, privilege, obligation, or liability acquired, accrued, or incurred under any enactment hereby repealed ; or
- (c.) Any penalty, forfeiture, or punishment incurred in respect of any offence committed against any enactment hereby repealed ; or
- (d.) Any investigation, legal proceeding, or remedy in respect of any such right, privilege, obligation, liability, penalty, forfeiture, or punishment as aforesaid ; and any such investigation, legal proceeding, and remedy may be carried on as if this Act had not passed.

SCHEDULE.

A description or citation of a portion of an Act is inclusive of the words, section, or other part first or last mentioned, or otherwise referred to as forming the beginning or as forming the end of the portion comprised in the description or citation.

Portions of Acts which have already been specifically repealed are in some instances included in the repeal in this schedule, in order to preclude henceforth the necessity of looking back to previous Acts.

CHAPTER 45.

An Act for altering the Boundaries between the Liberty of St. Alban and the rest of the County of Hertford; and for making better provision for the Transaction of County Business, and the Administration of Justice at Quarter Sessions in that County.
[30th July 1874.]

WHEREAS the antient Liberty of Saint Alban in the county of Hertford has a separate commission of the peace and other privileges, franchises, and jurisdictions; but it is now expedient that there be one commission of the peace for the whole county of Hertford, the county being nevertheless formed into two divisions, with a view to the better transaction of public business and the administration of justice at quarter sessions, and that the privileges, franchises, and jurisdictions of the said liberty, as far as the same are inconsistent with the arrangements aforesaid, do cease :

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

1. This Act may be cited as The County of Hertford and Liberty of St. Alban Act, 1874. Short title.

2. This Act shall commence and have effect on and from the first day of January one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five. Commencement of Act.

3. In this Act—

The term "the county" means the county of Hertford :

The term "the liberty" means the antient Liberty of St. Alban as constituted before the commencement of this Act.

Interpretation
of terms.

4. The county shall for the purposes of this Act consist of two divisions, as follows : County to consist of two divisions.

1. An eastern division, comprising all such parts as lie east of the western boundaries of the parishes of Kimpton, Ayott St. Lawrence, Ayott St. Peter, Hatfield, and North Mimms, to be called the Hertford division of the county of Hertford (in this Act referred to as the Hertford division) :

2. A western division, comprising the residue of the county, to be called the liberty of St. Alban division of the county of Hertford (in this Act referred to as the liberty of St. Alban division).

5. The lord lieutenant and custos rotulorum for the time being of the county, as constituted before the commencement of this Act, shall be the lord lieutenant and custos rotulorum of the whole county ; but, subject to the effect of this section, nothing in this Act shall affect the rights, powers, privileges, or duties attaching to the office of lord lieutenant, or the office of custos rotulorum, of the county. Lord Lieutenant and custos rotulorum.

6. The justices of the peace in the commissions of the peace in force at the commencement of this Act for the county, as constituted before the commencement of this Act, and for the liberty, shall by virtue of this Act, as long as those respective commissions remain in force, be justices of the peace for the whole county ; and after the commencement of this Act a separate commission of the peace shall not issue for the liberty, but one commission of the peace only shall issue for the whole county. One commission of peace.

Divisions to constitute one county.

7. The Hertford division and the liberty of St. Alban division shall be deemed to constitute together to all intents one county.

The Hertford division and the liberty of St. Alban division, or either of them, shall not be deemed to be divisions or a division of a county within any enactment in force at the commencement of this Act relating to divisions or a division of a county as distinguished from a county comprising the same.

The Hertford division and the liberty of St. Alban division, or either of them, shall not be deemed to be divisions or a division within any enactment taking effect after the commencement of this Act relating to divisions or a division of a county as distinguished from a county comprising the same, unless a contrary intention appears in any such enactment.

Liberty division not to be liberty within Acts, &c.

8. The liberty of St. Alban division shall not be deemed to be a liberty within any enactment taking effect before or after the commencement of this Act relating to liberties as distinguished from the county comprising the same.

Any enactment in force at the commencement of this Act relating to the liberty of St. Alban by name shall not be deemed to apply to the liberty of St. Alban division.

Courts of quarter sessions.

9. The justices of the peace for the county shall from time to time hold courts of general or quarter sessions of the peace as follows :

An original court to be holden within the Hertford division (in this Act referred to as the Hertford division quarter sessions) :

A court to be holden by adjournment within the liberty of St. Alban division (in this Act referred to as the liberty of St. Alban division quarter sessions).

Two county prisons.

10. The prison at Hertford belonging to the county as constituted before the commencement of this Act and the prison at St. Albans belonging to the liberty shall be prisons for the whole county.

The governors and other officers of those prisons in office at the commencement of this Act shall hold their offices by the like tenure and with the like rights, privileges, and emoluments as if this Act had not been passed, but subject in all respects to the authority of the justices in quarter sessions within the respective division assembled, as if they had been originally appointed by those justices.

Committal to respective county prisons.

11. Every justice of the peace for the county shall have power to commit persons charged with offences to either of the county prisons; but, unless in any case there appears to a justice in his discretion reason to the contrary, every justice shall commit to the county prison at Hertford persons charged with offences committed in the Hertford division, and to the county prison at St. Albans persons charged with offences committed in the liberty of St. Alban division.

No objection, on the ground of irregularity or otherwise, shall lie in respect of the exercise by a justice of his discretion under this section, or in respect of anything incident thereto or consequent thereon in connexion with a committal.

12. Every person committed after the commencement of this Act to the county prison at Hertford, whether held to bail or not, charged with an offence cognisable at quarter sessions, shall, if tried at quarter sessions, be (subject to the provisions of this Act) tried at the Hertford division quarter sessions. Trial of prisoners from respective prisons.

Every person committed after the commencement of this Act to the county prison at St. Albans, whether held to bail or not, charged with an offence cognisable at quarter sessions, shall, if tried at quarter sessions, be (subject to the provisions of this Act) tried at the liberty of St. Alban division quarter sessions.

13. The justices in the Hertford division quarter sessions assembled shall hear, determine, dispose of, and transact all appeals, traverses, and other business of a judicial nature originating in or relating to the Hertford division. Jurisdiction and authority of respective courts of quarter sessions.

The justices in the liberty of St. Alban division quarter sessions assembled shall hear, determine, dispose of, and transact all appeals, traverses, and other business of a judicial nature originating in or relating to the liberty of St. Alban division.

14. The justices in the Hertford division quarter sessions, or at any adjourned sessions holden within that division, assembled shall from time to time choose and appoint— Committees and officers of Hertford division.

- (1.) A chairman and deputy chairman of the court, who may be justices resident in either division :
- (2.) Committees for the superintendence, management, and control (subject to the authority of the court) of the county prison at Hertford, and of other county establishments and institutions within the Hertford division :
- (3.) Such other committees as the court from time to time think it expedient to appoint for the transaction of county business originating in or relating to the Hertford division :
- (4.) A governor of the county prison at Hertford, and other officers for the division.

Each committee shall consist of justices resident in the Hertford division, save that the chairman and deputy chairman of the court, or either of them, may be appointed on any committee, whether so resident or not.

15. The justices in the liberty of St. Alban division quarter sessions, or at any adjourned sessions holden within that Committees and officers of St. Alban division.

division, assembled shall from time to time choose and appoint—

- (1.) A chairman and deputy chairman of the court, who may be justices resident in either division :
- (2.) Committees for the superintendence, management, and control (subject to the authority of the court) of the county prison at St. Albans and of other county establishments and institutions within the liberty of St. Alban division :
- (3.) Such other committees as the court from time to time think it expedient to appoint for the transaction of county business originating in or relating to the liberty of St. Alban division :
- (4.) A governor of the county prison at St. Albans, and other officers for the division.

Each committee shall consist of justices resident in the liberty of St. Alban division, save that the chairman and deputy chairman of the court, or either of them, may be appointed on any committee, whether so resident or not.

Application of general jury
laws.

16. Subject to the provisions of this Act, the County Juries Act, 1825, and The Juries Act, 1870, and all other Acts and laws relating to juries, shall have full effect throughout each of the two divisions, and jurors shall be summoned in accordance with those Acts and laws; and all privileges, exemptions, and special qualifications belonging to, claimed by, or attaching to the inhabitants, or any class of the inhabitants, of any part of or place in the county or liberty, being inconsistent with those Acts and laws, shall cease to exist or to operate.

Separate jurors books, &c.

17. For the purposes of this Act a separate jurors book shall be made for each of the two divisions of the county as if it was a county of itself.

The jurors whose names appear in the jurors book for the Hertford division shall be summoned to attend at the Hertford division quarter sessions.

The jurors whose names appear in the jurors book for the liberty of St. Alban division shall be summoned to attend at the liberty of St. Alban division quarter sessions.

Nothing in this Act shall affect the return or summoning of jurors to serve at assizes or elsewhere than at general or quarter sessions of the peace.

Courts of adjourned quarter sessions.

18. The justices of the peace for the county shall in every year, after holding the Hertford division quarter sessions and the liberty of St. Alban division quarter sessions, hold by adjournment courts of quarter sessions for the whole county (in this Act referred to as the courts of adjourned quarter sessions for the whole county) within the two divisions alternately, as follows :

An Epiphany adjourned session, within the Hertford division :

An Easter adjourned session, within the liberty of St. Alban division :

A Midsummer adjourned session, within the Hertford division :

A Michaelmas adjourned session, within the liberty of St. Alban division :

The first of those courts holden after the commencement of this Act shall be holden on the Tuesday in the week next after the holding of the first quarter sessions under this Act.

The chairman and deputy chairman for the time being of the Hertford division quarter sessions shall be chairman and deputy chairman of the courts of adjourned quarter sessions for the whole county holden within the Hertford division.

The chairman and deputy chairman for the time being of the liberty of St. Alban division quarter sessions shall be chairman and deputy chairman of the courts of adjourned quarter sessions for the county holden within the liberty of St. Alban division.

19. Subject to the provisions of this Act, the courts of adjourned quarter sessions for the whole county shall take cognizance of, dispose of, and transact all financial and other public business relating to the whole county or to either of the two divisions. Powers of courts of adjourned quarter sessions.

Nothing in this Act shall prevent a court of adjourned quarter sessions for the whole county from trying any person charged with an offence, or from hearing, determining, disposing of, and transacting any appeal, traverse, or other business of a judicial nature originating in or relating to either of the two divisions.

20. The court of adjourned quarter sessions for the whole county may from time to time make such standing orders, and lay down such rules for regulation of the practice and procedure of any original or adjourned court of quarter sessions, as they think fit; and the same shall be binding and be observed, subject to any general Act or law relating to the same matter. Standing orders for quarter sessions, &c.

21. There shall be a finance committee for the whole county (in this Act called the county finance committee), appointed and regulated as follows: Appointment of county finance committee.

- (1.) The Court of Midsummer adjourned quarter sessions for the whole county holden within the Hertford division in one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five, and in every alternate subsequent year, and the Court of Michaelmas adjourned quarter sessions for the whole county holden within the liberty of St.

Alban division in one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six, and in every alternate subsequent year, shall appoint the committee :

- (2.) The committee shall consist of not more than eighteen members :
- (3.) The members of the committee shall be selected in equal numbers from the justices resident in each of the two divisions :
- (4.) The appointment of the committee shall take effect as on and from the first day of November next after the date of appointment :
- (5.) The committee shall continue in office until another appointment of a committee takes effect :
- (6.) If a vacancy on the committee occurs by death, resignation, or otherwise, any court of adjourned quarter sessions for the whole county may, if it thinks fit, fill the vacancy by the selection and appointment of a justice of the peace resident in the division in which the vacating justice was resident.

Until a county finance committee is appointed under this section the justices who at the commencement of this Act constitute the respective finance committees for the county and for the liberty shall constitute and be the county finance committee for the purposes of this Act.

Duty of county finance committee.

22. It shall be the duty of the county finance committee to manage and control, subject to the authority and under the direction of the courts of adjourned quarter sessions for the whole county, the financial and other public business of the county.

Divisional finance committees.

23. The members of the county finance committee resident in each of the two divisions shall constitute a divisional finance committee for that division, whose duty it shall be to manage and administer the details of expenditure in that division, subject to the authority and under the direction of the county finance committee ; but the court of adjourned quarter sessions for the whole county may, if they think fit, appoint the chairman and deputy chairman of the Hertford division quarter sessions and of the liberty of St. Alban division quarter sessions, or any of them, to be members of each divisional finance committee, whether they are resident in the division for which the committee is appointed or not.

Quorum, &c.
of committees.

24. The court of adjourned quarter sessions for the whole county may from time to time prescribe the quorum of the county finance committee, and of each divisional committee, and lay down rules for their guidance, and for regulation of their meetings and proceedings.

Reports, estimates, and county rate.

25. The divisional finance committees, and the several other committees of justices appointed for any county purpose involving expenditure of money, shall from time to time report to the county finance committee, and that committee shall consider the reports and prepare estimates and report the same, with their opinion and recommendations thereon, to the court of adjourned quarter sessions for the whole county, and that court shall thereupon, if and as far as it approves of the estimates and reports, make, assess, and levy a general and uniform county rate on the whole county accordingly.

26. The sums levied by means of the county rate shall be paid to the treasurer for the Hertford division as long as there is such an officer, and afterwards to the treasurer for the whole county, and shall be divided and applied under the direction of the county finance committee as follows:

Application of county rate.

(a.) So much thereof as is levied to meet the requirements of the whole county and of the Hertford division exclusively shall be applied accordingly under the direction, as regards the county, of the county finance committee, and, as regards the Hertford division, of the divisional finance committee for that division, being retained for that purpose by the treasurer for that division, as long as there is such an officer:

(b.) So much thereof as is levied to meet the requirements of the liberty of St. Alban division exclusively shall be applied accordingly under the direction of the divisional finance committee for that division, being paid over to the treasurer for that division, as long as there is such an officer.

27. All committees of justices existing at the commencement of this Act, for the county, as constituted before the commencement of this Act, or for the liberty, shall, notwithstanding anything in this Act, continue, and shall act for the Hertford division and for the liberty of St. Alban division respectively, until other committees are appointed in their stead or other order is made concerning them under this Act.

Continuance of committees.

28. All debts and liabilities at the commencement of this Act due by or attaching to the county as constituted before the commencement of this Act, or by or to the liberty, shall, on the commencement of this Act, be transferred to and become and be debts and liabilities of the county as a whole, and shall with all interest, if any, be paid out of the county rate.

Transfer of debts, property,
&c. to county.

All property, money, and assets which at the commencement of this Act belong to the county as constituted before the commencement of this Act, or to the liberty, shall, on the commencement of this Act, be transferred to and become the property of the whole county.

29. Every mortgage or charge granted or made before and subsisting at the commencement of this Act of or on rates of

Transfer to county of liability under mortgages for liberty gaol.

or leviabie within the liberty, known as liberty rates in the nature of county rates, for securing the payment, with interest, of money lent towards defraying the expenses of building a new gaol and house of correction at St. Albans in and for the liberty, shall, from and after the commencement of this Act, by virtue of this Act be transferred to and become and shall thenceforth be a mortgage and charge of and on the county rates leviabie under this Act; and every deed of mortgage or charge for securing the payment of money so lent and interest shall be read and have effect as if it were a mortgage and charge of and on the county rates leviabie under this Act, and as if the treasurer for the Hertford division, as long as there is such an officer, and afterwards as if the treasurer for the whole county, had been thereby ordered by the justices of the peace for the whole county in quarter sessions assembled to pay the money thereby secured, and the interest thereof, as and when the same should become due under the declarations therein contained; and all persons entitled to the benefit of any deed of mortgage or charge as aforesaid shall have all the like rights and remedies thereunder as they would have had if this Act had not been passed, with the substitution only of the county rates leviabie under this Act for the liberty rates, and of the justices of the peace for the county for the justices of the peace acting in and for the liberty, and of the clerk of the peace for the county for the clerk of the peace for the liberty.

Fines, forfeitures, recognisances, &c.

30. Nothing in this Act shall affect any fine, penalty, forfeiture, or recognisance set, imposed, forfeited, or estreated before the commencement of this Act; but the same shall be levied, recovered, estreated, and otherwise proceeded on in like manner as nearly as may be in all respects as if this Act had not been passed; and the proceeds thereof, as far as the same would have belonged to the county or to the liberty if this Act had not been passed, shall, when received, be paid to the treasurer for the Hertford division, as long as there is such an officer, and afterwards to the treasurer for the whole county, and be applied under the direction of the county finance committee, as the same would be applicable if the same were money levied by means of a county rate under this Act.

Recovery of outstanding rates.

31. Any sum payable but not paid before the commencement of this Act by any person in respect of any rate theretofore made may be collected and levied in like manner in all respects as if this Act had not been passed; and the same when levied shall be paid to the treasurer for the Hertford division, as long as there is such an officer, and afterwards to the treasurer for the whole county, and be applied under the direction of the county finance committee, as it would be applicable if it were money levied by means of a county rate under this Act.

32. Every person who at the commencement of this Act stands committed to the county prison at Hertford, whether held to bail or not, being charged with an offence cognisable at quarter sessions, shall, if tried at quarter sessions, be tried at the Hertford division quarter sessions. Trial of prisoners under committal at commencement of Act.

Every person who at the commencement of this Act stands committed to the prison at St. Albans, whether held to bail or not, being charged with an offence cognisable at quarter sessions, shall, if tried at quarter sessions, be tried at the liberty of St. Alban division quarter sessions.

33. Nothing in this Act shall affect any sentence of imprisonment or other sentence in course of execution at the commencement of this Act; and every such sentence may be continued to be executed in like manner in all respects as nearly as may be as if this Act had not been passed. Execution of sentences.

34. Nothing in this Act shall prejudicially affect any committal, trial, appeal, traverse, or other magisterial or judicial proceeding, or other business or proceeding, pending at the commencement of this Act; and every such committal, trial, appeal, traverse, proceeding, and business as aforesaid shall be acted on, prosecuted, transacted, and proceeded with in like manner as nearly as may be in all respects as if the same had been done or had originated after the commencement of this Act. Saving for pending proceedings, &c.

35. Subject to the express provisions of this Act, nothing in this Act shall affect any right, title, obligation, or liability accrued, or any rate, made, or mortgage or charge granted, or the validity or invalidity of anything done or suffered, before the commencement of this Act, in relation to the county or to the liberty. Saving for past acts.

36. Subject to the express provisions of this Act, nothing in this Act shall take away, abridge, or prejudicially affect any of the powers of the justices of the peace for the county in general or quarter sessions assembled to appoint officers or otherwise to proceed according to law in relation to the transaction of the public business of the county. Saving for powers of quarter sessions.

37. Subject to the express provisions of this Act, nothing in this Act shall take away, abridge, or prejudicially affect the power of the justices in any court of general or quarter sessions assembled to adjourn the same from time to time. Saving for power to adjourn.

38. Nothing in this Act shall take away, abridge, or prejudicially affect any right or privilege of the hundredor or hereditary sheriff of the hundred of Cashio, except as far as the same are necessarily affected by the express provisions of this Act. Saving for hundredor of Cashio.

39. Nothing in this Act shall take away, abridge, or prejudicially affect any right or privilege of the mayor, aldermen, Saving for corporations of and burgesses of the borough of Hertford, or of the mayor, aldermen, and burgesses of the borough of St. Alban.

Office of clerk of the peace.

40. Nothing in this Act shall take away, abridge, or prejudicially affect any right or privilege of the person holding at the commencement of this Act the offices of clerk of the peace for the county, as constituted before the commencement of this Act, and for the liberty, but at the commencement of this Act he shall become and be clerk of the peace for the whole county, and shall hold office by the like tenure and subject to the like authority as if he had been originally appointed clerk of the peace for the whole county, and he shall continue entitled to all such fees, charges, and emoluments as he is at the commencement of this Act by law or custom entitled to demand and receive, in like manner and to the like extent in all respects as if two separate commissions of the peace continued to issue, one for the county and one for the liberty.

Treasurer and other county officers.

41. Subject to the provisions of this Act, and to the authority of the justices in quarter sessions within the Hertford division assembled, the person who is at the commencement of this Act treasurer for the county, as constituted before the commencement of this Act, shall be treasurer for the Hertford division, as if he had been originally appointed by the justices in quarter sessions within that division assembled.

Subject to the provisions of this Act, and to the authority of the justices in quarter sessions within the liberty of St. Alban division assembled, the person who is at the commencement of this Act treasurer for the liberty shall be treasurer for the liberty of St. Alban division, as if he had been originally appointed by the justices in quarter sessions within that division assembled.

On the first vacancy in the office of treasurer for the liberty of St. Alban division the court of adjourned quarter sessions for the whole county shall appoint one treasurer for the whole county, and thenceforth there shall be a treasurer for the whole county and no treasurer for either of the two divisions separately.

Subject to the provisions of this Act, every person who at the commencement of this Act holds an office in the county to which he was appointed by justices in quarter sessions assembled, whether at Hertford or at St. Albans, shall for the purposes of his office be deemed to be an officer for the division within which he happens to act; and no proceeding shall be questioned or be voidable on the ground that an officer acting in either of the two divisions was not appointed by the justices to be an officer for the division within which he acts.

Power to

42. If at any time it is resolved by the justices for the county in adjourned quarter sessions for the whole county assembled (notice of motion in that behalf having been given at the last preceding adjourned quarter sessions for the whole county), that better provision is requisite for the carrying into effect of any provision of this Act, the justices may, if they think fit, submit the matter by memorial for consideration of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and thereupon it shall be lawful for Her Majesty the Queen in Council, on the representation of the Secretary of State, to make order accordingly.

plement Act by Order in Council.

The provisions of any Order in Council under this section shall have the like effect as if they were enacted by Parliament.

43. All costs, charges, and expenses preliminary to and incidental to the preparing of and applying for and the obtaining and passing of this Act shall be paid out of county rates levied under this Act, as an expense incurred by the whole county.

Goods duty paid in Great Britain or Ireland not chargeable in the Isle of Man unless Her Majesty shall by Order in Council direct payment.

3. On the removal of any ale or beer to the Isle of Man, the proper officer of inland revenue shall on application to him for that purpose grant a certificate setting forth therein the degree of specific gravity of any ale or beer intended to be removed to the said Isle according to the foregoing table, and the duty shall be charged in the said Isle according to the scale in the said table, in respect of the degree of specific gravity so certified; such certificate to be transmitted by the said officer of inland revenue to the collector of customs at the port of destination in the said Isle, and if any ale or beer shall be brought into the said Isle without such certificate having been granted as aforesaid, the same shall be charged with the duty of eleven shillings per barrel of thirty-six gallons.

Computation of duty on ale or beer removed into the Isle of Man.

4. On the removal to Great Britain or Ireland of ale or beer manufactured in the said Isle, the degree of specific gravity thereof shall be ascertained by the proper officer of inland revenue at the port of arrival, according to the said table, and a certificate thereof shall be by him transmitted to the collector of customs at the port of removal in the said Isle, and thereupon a drawback shall be allowed, equal in amount to the duty which shall have been paid thereon under the authority of any Act passed or to be passed by the Legislative Authority of the said Isle.

Drawback on ale or beer removed to Great Britain or Ireland.

5. On the exportation from the Isle of Man to foreign parts of ale or beer brewed in the said Isle, the same rate of drawback shall be allowed thereon as is allowed on the removal of ale or beer from the said Isle to Great Britain or Ireland, and shall be ascertained in such manner and according to such regulations as the Commissioners of Customs may from time to time direct or approve, and shall be paid accordingly.

Drawback on exportation of ale or beer to foreign parts.

6. The Acts and parts of Acts set forth in Schedule A. annexed to this Act are hereby repealed to the extent to which such Acts or parts of Acts, are by such schedule expressed to be repealed, except as to any orders, matters, or things, made or done before the commencement of this Act in pursuance of any of the said Acts or parts of Acts.

Enactments in Schedule repealed.

CHAPTER 47.

An Act to extend the Powers of Prison Authorities in relation to Industrial and Reformatory Schools, and for other purposes relating thereto.

[30th July 1874.]

WHEREAS by the Prisons Act, 1865, prison authorities are empowered to borrow money for the purposes of altering, enlarging, new building, or building prisons :

And whereas prison authorities have power by the Industrial Schools Acts, 1866 and 1872, to contribute towards or themselves to undertake the alteration, enlargement, rebuilding, establishment, building, or purchase of the site for any industrial school, and by the Reformatory Schools Acts, 1866 and 1872, to contribute towards or themselves to undertake the alteration, enlargement, rebuilding, establishment, building, or purchase of the site for any reformatory school, but no power is given prison authorities under the said Acts relating to industrial and reformatory schools to borrow money for the purposes of such schools :

Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

1. This Act may be cited for all purposes as "The Prisons Authorities Act, 1874," and shall be construed, as far as is consistent with the tenor thereof, as follows; that is to say, so far as it relates to industrial schools with the Industrial Schools Acts, 1866 and 1872, and so far as it relates to reformatory schools with the Reformatory Schools Acts, 1866 and 1872.

Short title.
Construction
of Act.

2. Subject to the provisions of "The Elementary Education Act, 1870," any prison authority may, with the approval of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, borrow money for the purpose of defraying or contributing towards the expense of altering, enlarging, rebuilding, establishing, building, or purchasing the site of any industrial or reformatory school under the said Industrial and Reformatory Schools Acts, or any of them.

Power to borrow money for purposes of industrial and reformatory schools.

3. Any moneys borrowed by a prison authority under this Act may be charged by that authority on any county rate, or rate in the nature of a county rate, borough rate, or other rate applicable to the maintenance of a prison and leviable by that authority, or on any other property belonging to that authority and applicable to the same purpose as the said rates, and shall be repaid, together with the interest due thereon, out of such rates or other property.

Charge of
moneys.

4. The clauses of "The Commissioners Clauses Act, 1847," with the exception of the eighty-fourth clause with respect to mortgages to be created by the Commissioners, shall form part of and be incorporated with this Act, and any mortgagee or assignee may enforce payment of his principal and interest by appointment of a receiver.

Certain clauses of 10 & 11 Vict.
c. 16. as to borrowing money incorporated.

In the construction of the said clauses "the Commissioners" shall mean "the prison authority."

Where a prison authority borrows any money under this Act they shall charge the rates or property out of which the moneys borrowed are payable, not only with the interest of the moneys so borrowed, but also with the payment of such further sum as will ensure the repayment of the whole sum borrowed within thirty years.

5. For the purposes of the said Industrial and Reformatory Schools Acts and this Act the justices of the county of Worcester in quarter sessions assembled shall be deemed to be the prison authority for the county of Worcester at large, and the council of the city of Worcester shall be deemed to be the prison authority for the city of Worcester and county of the same city, anything in the Worcester Prison Act, 1867, or any other Act, notwithstanding.

Special provision as to the county and city of Worcester.

CHAPTER 48.*An Act to provide for the payment of Wages without Stoppages in the Hosiery Manufacture.

[30th July, 1874.]

WHEREAS a custom has prevailed among the employers of artificers in the hosiery manufacture of letting out frames and machinery to the artificers employed by them, and it is desirable to prohibit such letting of frames and machinery, and the stoppage of wages for frame rents and charges in the hosiery manufacture :

Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

Wages to be paid without any stoppages whatever.

1. In all contracts for wages the full and entire amount of all wages the earnings of labour in the hosiery manufacture shall be actually and positively made payable in net, in the current coin of the realm, and not otherwise, without any deduction or stoppage of any description whatever, save and except for bad and disputed workmanship.

Contracts to stop wages and for frame rents illegal.

2. All contracts to stop wages, and all contracts for frame rents and charges, between employer and artificers, shall be and are hereby declared to be illegal, null, and void.

Penalty for bargaining to deduct and for deducting from wages.

3. If any employer shall bargain to deduct, or shall deduct, directly or indirectly, from the wages of any artificer in his employ any part of such wages for frame rent and standing or other charges, or shall refuse or neglect to pay the same or any part thereof in the current coin of the realm, he shall forfeit a sum of five pounds for every offence, to be recovered by the said artificer or any other person suing for the same in the county court in the district where the offence is committed, with full costs of suit.

Penalty for using frame otherwise than for the purpose for which same lent.

4. If any frame or machine which shall have been entrusted to any artificer or other person by his employer for the purpose of being used in the hosiery manufacture for such employer, or in any process incident to such manufacture, shall, whilst the same shall be so entrusted, be worked, used, or employed without the consent in writing of such employer or other person so entrusting such frame or machine, in the manufacture of any goods or articles whatever for any other person than the person by whom such frame or machine shall have been so entrusted, then and in every such case the artificer or other person to whom the same shall have been so entrusted shall forfeit and pay the sum of ten shillings for every day on any part of which any such frame or machine shall have been so worked, used, or employed, to be recoverable by and for the benefit of the person who shall have so entrusted the same, in the county court for the district where the offence shall have been committed, with full costs of suit.

5. No action, suit, or set off between employer and artificer shall be allowed for any deduction or stoppage of wages, nor for any contract hereby declared illegal.

No action to be allowed in respect of any such bargaining.

6. Nothing in this Act contained shall extend to prevent the recovery in the ordinary course of law, by suit brought or commenced for the purpose, of any debt due from the artificer to the employer.

Employer may recover debt due to him from artificer.

7. Within the meaning and for the purposes of this Act, all workmen, labourers, and other persons in any manner engaged in the performance of any employment or operation, of what nature soever, in or about the hosiery manufacture, shall be and be deemed "artificers;" and, within the meaning and for the purposes aforesaid, all masters, foremen, managers, clerks, contractors, sub-contractors, middlemen, and other persons engaged in the hiring, employment, or superintendence of the labour of any such artificers shall be and be deemed to be "employers;" and, within the meaning and for the purposes of this Act, any money or other thing had or contracted to be paid, delivered, or given as a recompense, reward, or remuneration for any labour done or to be done, whether within a certain time or to a certain amount, or for a time or for an amount uncertain, shall be deemed and taken to be the wages of such labour; and, within the meaning and for the purposes aforesaid, any agreement, understanding, device, contrivance, collusion, or arrangement whatsoever on the subject of wages, whether written or oral, whether direct or indirect, to which the employer and artificers are parties or are assenting, or by which they are mutually bound to each other, or whereby either of them shall have endeavoured to impose an obligation on the other of them, shall be and be deemed a "contract."

Definition of terms.

8. This Act shall not commence or take effect till the expiration of three calendar months next after the day of passing the same.

Commencement of Act.

9. This Act may be cited for all purposes as the Hosiery Manufacture (Wages) Act, 1874.

Short title.

CHAPTER 49.

An Act to amend the Laws relating to the sale and consumption of Intoxicating Liquors.

[30th July 1874.]

35 & 36 Vict.
c. 94.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the Licensing Act, 1872, in this Act referred to as the principal Act:

Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

Preliminary.

Construction and short title
of Act.
35 & 36 Vict.
c. 94.

1. This Act and the principal Act shall, so far as is consistent with the respective tenors of such Acts, be construed as one Act, and may be cited together as "The Licensing Acts, 1872-1874;" but this Act may, if necessary, be cited separately as "The Licensing Act, 1874."

Commencement of Act.

2. This Act shall come into operation as to the provisions relating to hours of closing (not being provisions relating to the grant of early-closing licenses), and as to the provision repealing section twenty-four of the principal Act, on the tenth of October one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, and not before, and as to the remainder, immediately on the passing of this Act.

Hours of Closing.

Hours of closing premises licensed for sale of intoxicating liquors.

3. All premises in which intoxicating liquors are sold by retail shall be closed as follows; (that is to say,)

(1.) If situate within the metropolitan district,—

(a) On Saturday night from midnight until one o'clock in the afternoon on the following Sunday; and

(b) On Sunday night from eleven o'clock until five o'clock on the following morning; and

(c) On all other days from half an hour after midnight until five o'clock on the same morning; and

(2.) If situate beyond the metropolitan district and in the metropolitan police district or in a town or in a populous place as defined by this Act,—

(a) On Saturday night from eleven o'clock until half an hour after noon on the following Sunday; and

(b) On Sunday night from ten o'clock until six o'clock on the following morning; and

(c) On the nights of all other days from eleven o'clock until six o'clock on the following morning; and

(3.) If situate elsewhere than in the metropolitan district or the metropolitan police district or such town or populous place as aforesaid,—

(a) On Saturday night from ten o'clock until half an hour after noon on the following Sunday; and

(b) On Sunday night from ten o'clock until six o'clock on the following morning; and

(c) On the nights of all other days from ten o'clock until six o'clock on the following morning.

Such premises wherever situate shall, save as herein-after mentioned, be closed on Sunday afternoon from three or half-past two according as the hour of opening shall be one o'clock in the afternoon or half an hour after noon until six o'clock.

Such premises wherever situate shall be closed on Christmas Day and Good Friday and on the days preceding Christmas Day and Good Friday respectively, as if Christmas Day and Good Friday were respectively Sunday, and the preceding days were respectively Saturday, but this provision shall not alter the hours during which such premises shall be closed on Sunday when Christmas Day immediately precedes or succeeds Sunday.

4. An exemption from the above-mentioned hours of closing shall not be granted in respect of premises in the neighbourhood of a theatre, for the accommodation of persons attending the same, and so much of the twenty-sixth section of the principal Act as provides for the granting of an order making such exemption shall be repealed. Exemptions as to theatres repealed.

5. The grant of an order of exemption under the said twenty-sixth section amended as aforesaid may be made to any person licensed to sell beer or cyder by retail, to be consumed upon the premises, as well as to any licensed victualler or licensed keeper of a refreshment house. Exemptions as to beer-houses.

The grant of a license under the twenty-ninth section of the principal Act may be made to any person licensed to sell beer or cyder by retail, to be consumed upon the premises, as well as to any licensed victualler or keeper of a refreshment house in which intoxicating liquors are sold. Further exemptions as to beer-houses.

6. Notwithstanding anything in this or in any Local Act contained, the licensing justices may, if they think fit, as respects premises in which intoxicating liquors are sold, when situate in any place beyond the metropolitan district, for the purpose of accommodating the hours of closing on Sunday, Good Friday, and Christmas Day to the hours of public worship in such place, by order direct that such premises shall remain closed until one o'clock in the afternoon instead of half an hour after noon, and in that case such premises shall be closed in the afternoon from three until six o'clock, instead of from half-past two until six o'clock. Power to vary on Sunday afternoon hours of closing premises for sale of intoxicating liquors.

Any order made by the licensing justices under this section shall not come into operation until the expiration of one month after the date thereof, and shall be advertised in such manner as the licensing justices direct, and shall be in force until the same is revoked; the expense of any such advertisement may be defrayed in like manner as the expenses of advertising the sittings of such justices are defrayed.

Early closing licenses.

7. Where, on the occasion of any application for a new license, or the removal or renewal of a license which authorises the sale of any intoxicating liquor for consumption on the premises, the applicant applies to the licensing justices to insert in his license a condition that he shall close the premises in respect of which such license is or is to be granted one hour earlier at night than that at which such premises would otherwise have to be closed, the justices shall insert the said condition in such license.

The holder of a license in which such condition is inserted (in this Act referred to as an early-closing license) shall close his premises at night one hour earlier than the ordinary hour at which such premises would be closed under the provisions of this Act, and the provisions of this Act and the principal Act shall apply to the premises as if such earlier hour were the hour at which the premises are required to be closed.

The holder of an early-closing license may obtain from the Commissioners of Inland Revenue any license granted by such Commissioners which he is entitled to obtain in pursuance of such early-closing license, upon payment of a sum representing six sevenths of the duty which would otherwise be payable by him for a similar license not limited to such early closing as aforesaid. In calculating the six sevenths fractions of a penny shall be disregarded.

The notice which a licensed person is required by section eleven of the principal Act to keep painted or fixed on his premises shall, in the case of an early-closing license, contain such words as the licensing justices may order for giving notice to the public that an early-closing license has been granted in respect of such premises.

Remission of duty in case of six-day and early-closing license.

8. A person who takes out a license containing conditions rendering such license a six-day license, as well as an early-closing license, shall be entitled to a remission of two sevenths of the duty.

Penalty for infringing Act as to hours of closing.

9. Any person who—
During the time at which premises for the sale of intoxicating liquors are directed to be closed by or in pursuance of this Act, sells or exposes for sale in such premises any intoxicating liquor, or opens or keeps open such premises for the sale of intoxicating liquors, or allows any intoxicating liquors although purchased before the hours of closing to be consumed in such premises,— shall for the first offence be liable to a penalty not exceeding ten pounds, and for any subsequent offence to a penalty not exceeding twenty pounds.

10. Nothing in this Act or in the principal Act contained shall preclude a person licensed to sell any intoxicating liquor to be consumed on the premises from selling such liquor at any time to bonâ fide travellers or to persons lodging in his house: Provided, that no person holding a six-day license shall sell any intoxicating liquor on Sunday to any person whatever not lodging in his house.

Saving as to bonâ fide travellers and lodgers.

Nothing in this Act contained as to hours of closing shall preclude the sale at any time, at a railway station, of intoxicating liquors to persons arriving at or departing from such station by railroad.

If in the course of any proceedings which may be taken against any licensed person for infringing the provisions of this Act or the principal Act, relating to closing, such person (in this section referred to as the defendant) fails to prove that the person to whom the intoxicating liquor was sold (in this section referred to as the purchaser) is a bonâ fide traveller, but the justices are satisfied that the defendant truly believed that the purchaser was a bonâ fide traveller, and further that the defendant took all reasonable precautions to ascertain whether or not the purchaser was such a traveller, the justices shall dismiss the case as against the defendant, and if they think that the purchaser falsely represented himself to be a bonâ fide traveller, it shall be lawful for the justices to direct proceedings to be instituted against such purchaser under the twenty-fifth section of the principal Act.

A person for the purposes of this Act and the principal Act shall not be deemed to be a bonâ fide traveller unless the place where he lodged during the preceding night is at least three miles distant from the place where he demands to be supplied with liquor, such distance to be calculated by the nearest public thoroughfare.

11. Whereas by the Act of the session of the twenty-seventh and twenty-eighth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, chapter sixty-four, it is provided that no persons within the limits of that Act shall open or keep open any refreshment house, to which that Act so far as it is unrepealed applies, or sell or expose for sale or consumption in any such refreshment house any refreshments or any article whatsoever between the hours of one and four o'clock in the morning: And whereas it is expedient to amend the provisions of the said Act: Be it therefore enacted, that the said Act, so far as it is unrepealed, shall be construed as if there were substituted therein for the hour of one o'clock in the morning the hour of the night or morning at which premises licensed for the sale of intoxicating liquors by retail situate in the same place as such refreshment house are required to be closed, and as if the whole of England were within the limits of the Act, and as if the expression "district" in the Act included any place in which such refreshment house is situate.

Hours of closing night houses.

Mitigation of penalties.

Record of convictions on licenses.

13. Where any licensed person is convicted of any offence against the principal Act which by such Act was to have been or might have been endorsed upon the license, or of any offence against this Act, the court before whom the offender is brought shall cause the register of licenses in which the license of the offender is entered, or a copy of the entries therein relating to the license of the offender, certified in manner prescribed by section fifty-eight of the principal Act, to be produced to the court before passing sentence, and after inspecting the entries therein in relation to the license of the offender, or such copy thereof as aforesaid, the court shall declare, as part of its sentence, whether it will or will not cause the conviction for such offence to be recorded on the license of the offender, and if it decide that such record is to be made, the same shall be made accordingly.

A declaration by the court that a record of an offence is to be made on a license shall be deemed to be part of the conviction or order of the court in reference to such offence, and shall be subject accordingly to the jurisdiction of the court of appeal.

A direction by the court that a conviction for an offence is to be recorded on the license of the offender shall, for the purposes of the principal Act, be deemed equivalent to a direction or requirement by the Act that such conviction is to be recorded; and all the provisions of the principal Act importing that convictions are required or directed by the Act to be recorded on the license of an offender shall be construed accordingly.

Record of conviction for adulteration.

14. Where a licensed person is convicted of any offence against the provisions of any Act for the time being in force relating to the adulteration of drink, such conviction shall be entered in the proper register of licenses, and may be directed to be recorded on the license of the offender in the same manner as if the conviction were for an offence against this Act, and when so recorded shall have effect as if it had been a conviction for an offence against this Act.

Temporary continuance of licenses forfeited for single offences.

15. Where any licensed person is convicted for the first time of any one of the following offences,—

1. Making an internal communication between his licensed premises and any unlicensed premises;

2. Forging a certificate under the Wine and Beerhouse Acts, 1869 and 1870 ;
3. Selling spirits without a spirit license ;
4. Any felony ;

and in consequence either becomes personally disqualified or has his license forfeited, there may be made by or on behalf of the owner of the premises an application to a court of summary jurisdiction for authority to carry on the same business on the same premises until the next special sessions for licensing purposes, and a further application to such next special sessions for the grant of a license in respect of such premises, and for this purpose the provisions contained in the Intoxicating Liquor Licensing Act, 1828, with respect to the grant of a temporary authority and to the grant of licenses at special sessions shall apply as if the person convicted had been rendered incapable of keeping an inn, and the person applying for such grant was his assignee.

Regulations as to entry on Premises.

16. Any constable may, for the purpose of preventing or detecting the violation of any of the provisions of the principal Act or this Act which it is his duty to enforce, at all times enter on any licensed premises, or any premises in respect of which an occasional license is in force.

Constable to enter on premises for enforcement of Act.

Every person who, by himself, or by any person in his employ or acting by his direction or with his consent, refuses or fails to admit any constable in the execution of his duty demanding to enter in pursuance of this section, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding for the first offence five pounds, and not exceeding for the second and every subsequent offence ten pounds.

17. Any justice of the peace, if satisfied by information on oath that there is reasonable ground to believe that any intoxicating liquor is sold by retail or exposed or kept for sale by retail at any place within his jurisdiction, whether a building or not, in which such liquor is not authorised to be sold by retail, may in his discretion grant a warrant under his hand, by virtue whereof it shall be lawful for any constable named in such warrant, at any time or times within one month from the date thereof, to enter, and, if need be by force, the place named in the warrant, and every part thereof, and examine the same and search for intoxicating liquor therein, and seize and remove any intoxicating liquor found therein which there is reasonable ground to suppose is in such place for the purpose of unlawful sale at that or any other place, and the vessels containing such liquor ; and in the event of the owner or occupier of such premises being convicted of selling by retail or exposing or keeping for sale by retail any liquor which he is not authorised to sell by retail, the intoxi-

When a constable has entered any premises in pursuance of any such warrant as is mentioned in this section, and has seized and removed such liquor as aforesaid, any person found at the time on the premises shall, until the contrary is proved, be deemed to have been on such premises for the purpose of illegally dealing in intoxicating liquor, and be liable to a penalty not exceeding forty shillings.

Any constable may demand the name and address of any person found on any premises on which he seizes or from which he removes any such liquor as aforesaid, and if he has reasonable ground to suppose that the name or address given is false may examine such person further as to the correctness of such name and address, and may, if such person fail upon such demand to give his name or address, or to answer satisfactorily the questions put to him by the constable, apprehend him without warrant and carry him as soon as practicable before a justice of the peace.

Any person required by a constable under this section to give his name and address who fails to give the same, or gives a false name or address, or gives false information with respect to such name and address, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding five pounds.

Occasional Licenses.

Occasional license required at fairs and races.

18. Any person selling or exposing for sale any intoxicating liquor in any booth, tent, or place within the limits of holding any lawful and accustomed fair or any races without an occasional license authorising such sale shall, notwithstanding anything contained in any Act of Parliament to the contrary, be deemed to be a person selling or exposing for sale by retail intoxicating liquor at a place where he is not authorised by his license to sell the same, and be punishable accordingly.

Provided that this section shall not apply to any person selling or exposing for sale intoxicating liquors in premises in which he is duly authorised to sell the same throughout the year, although such premises are situate within the limits aforesaid.

Occasional licenses,—extension of time for closing.

19. Whereas by the twentieth section of the Act of the session of the twenty-sixth and twenty-seventh years of the reign of Her present Majesty, chapter thirty-three, it is provided that the hours during which an occasional license shall authorise the sale of any beer, spirits, or wine shall extend from sunrise until one hour after sunset: Be it enacted, that the said section shall be construed as if in place of the words " sunrise until one hour after sunset " there were inserted the words " such hour not earlier than sunrise until such hour " not later than ten o'clock at night as may be specified in

“ of such occasional license.”

20. For the purpose of so much of the principal Act as relates to offences against public order, that is to say, sections twelve to eighteen, both inclusive, and the sections for giving effect to the same, a person taking out an occasional license shall be deemed to be a licensed person within the meaning of the said sections, and the place in which any intoxicating liquors are sold in pursuance of the occasional license shall be deemed to be licensed premises, and to be the premises of the person taking out such license.

Offences on premises with occasional license.

Miscellaneous.

21. Where from any reason there are not for the time being three qualified borough justices to form the quota of a joint committee for such borough, in pursuance of section thirty-eight of the principal Act, the deficiency in number of such borough justices shall be supplied by qualified county justices to be appointed by the county licensing committee.

Supply of deficiency in quota of borough justices on joint committee.

22. Any person interested in any premises about to be constructed or in course of construction for the purpose of being used as a house for the sale of intoxicating liquors to be consumed on the premises may apply to the licensing justices and to the confirming authority for the provisional grant and confirmation of a license in respect of such premises; and the justices and confirming authority, if satisfied with the plans submitted to them of such house, and that if such premises had been actually constructed in accordance with such plans they would, on application, have granted and confirmed such a license in respect thereof, may make such provisional grant and order of confirmation accordingly.

Provisional grant and confirmation of licenses to new premises.

A provisional grant and order of confirmation shall not be of any validity until it has been declared to be final by an order of the licensing justices made after such notice has been given as may be required by the justices at a general annual licensing meeting or a special sessions held for licensing purposes. Such declaration shall be made if the justices are satisfied that the house has been completed in accordance with such plans as aforesaid, and are also satisfied that no objection can be made to the character of the holder of such provisional license.

A provisional grant and confirmation of a license shall be subject to the same conditions as to the giving of notices and generally as to procedure to which such grant and confirmation would be subject if they respectively were not provisional, with this exception, that where a notice is required to be put up on a door of a house such notice may be put up in a conspicuous position on any part of the premises.

This section shall, with the necessary variations, extend to the provisional removal to any premises of an existing license under section fifty of the principal Act.

One license of justices may extend to several excise licenses.

23. Separate licenses of justices shall not be required in the case of separate excise licenses, and a license of justices shall comprehend a permission to the licensee to take out as many excise licenses as may be specified in such license of the justices.

License to sell liquor not to be consumed on the premises.

24. A license to sell any intoxicating liquor for consumption only off the premises shall not require confirmation by any authority.

Joint committee to make rules under s. 43 of principal Act.

25. Where the confirming authority is a joint committee, that committee shall make rules in pursuance of section forty-three of the principal Act as to the proceedings to be adopted for the confirmation of new licenses, and as to the costs of such proceedings, and the persons by whom such costs are to be paid.

Notices of adjourned brewster sessions and of intention to oppose.

26. Whereas by section forty-two of the principal Act it is enacted that a licensed person applying for the renewal of his license need not attend in person at the general annual licensing meeting unless he is required by the licensing justices so to attend: Be it enacted, that such requisition shall not be made, save for some special cause personal to the licensed person to whom such requisition is sent.

It shall not be necessary to serve copies of notices of any adjournment of a general annual licensing meeting on holders of licenses or applicants for licenses who are not required to attend at such adjourned annual general licensing meeting.

A notice of an intention to oppose the renewal of a license served under section forty-two of the principal Act shall not be valid unless it states in general terms the grounds on which the renewal of such license is to be opposed.

No appeal to quarter sessions in certain cases.

27. There shall be repealed so much of section eight of the Wine and Beerhouse Act, 1869, as incorporates or applies any repealed enactment, and no appeal shall be had to quarter sessions from any act of any justice with respect to the grant of new certificates under the Wine and Beerhouse Acts, 1869 and 1870.

Substitution of licensing justices for Commissioners of Inland Revenue as respects certain notices.

28. Whereas by section eleven of the principal Act it is provided that every licensed person shall cause to be painted or fixed, and shall keep painted or fixed, on the premises in respect of which his license is granted, in a conspicuous place and in such form and manner as the Commissioners of Inland Revenue may from time to time direct, his name, with such additions as in the said Act mentioned: And whereas it is expedient to substitute in the said section the licensing justices for the Commissioners of Inland Revenue: Be it therefore enacted—

That in the said eleventh section the expression "licensing justices" shall be deemed to be substituted for the expression "Commissioners of Inland Revenue," and the word "justices" for the word "Commissioners."

29. Any person possessing an estate or interest in premises licensed for the sale of intoxicating liquors, whether as owner, lessee, or mortgagee, prior or paramount to that of the immediate occupier, shall, on payment of a fee of one shilling to the clerk of the licensing justices, be entitled to be registered as owner or one of the owners of such premises: Provided, that when such estate or interest is vested in two or more persons jointly, one only of such persons shall be registered as representing such estate or interest.

Definition of term "owner."

30. No person keeping a house licensed under this or the principal Act shall be liable to any penalty for supplying intoxicating liquors, after the hours of closing, to private friends bonâ fide entertained by him at his own expense.

Person not to be liable for supplying liquor to private friends without charge.

31. An additional retail license to sell beer for consumption off the premises may be granted at any special sessions for licensing purposes to the holder of a strong beer dealer's wholesale excise license, in the same manner and subject to the same conditions in and subject to which it might be granted at any general annual licensing meeting.

Additional retail license may be granted at special sessions for licensing.

Definitions and Repeal.

32. In this Act, if not inconsistent with the context, the following expressions have the meanings herein-after respectively assigned to them; that is to say,

Definitions.

"The metropolitan district" means the area in that behalf mentioned in the schedule hereto.

"The metropolitan district."

"Town" means an urban sanitary district as described for the purposes of the Public Health Act, 1872; and any collection of houses adjacent to a town as so defined shall, for the purpose of the provisions of this Act with respect to the closing of premises, be deemed to be part of such town after it has been declared so to be by an order of the county licensing committee having jurisdiction in the place where such houses are situated: Provided that no urban sanitary district, whether including such adjacent houses or not, shall be deemed a town, unless it contains one thousand inhabitants.

"Town."

"Populous place" means any area with a population of not less than one thousand, which by reason of the density of such population the county licensing committee may by order determine to be a populous place.

"Populous place."

At a meeting especially convened for that purpose in manner provided by any regulations in that behalf, or in default of such regulations by the clerk of the peace, as soon as may be after the passing of this Act, and not later than the first day of September one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, the county licensing committee shall consider all the cases within their jurisdiction with respect to which it is incumbent upon them to make orders in pursuance of this section, and they shall make orders accordingly, and shall specify therein the boundaries of such towns or populous places.

The county licensing committee may adjourn any meeting held in pursuance of this section, and may also at any subsequent meeting especially convened for that purpose make with respect to any town or populous place within their jurisdiction any like order not restrictive of any order previously made.

Provided that as soon as may be after the publication of each census the county licensing committee shall, at a meeting to be specially convened for the purpose, revise the orders then in force within their jurisdiction, constituting areas either parts of towns or populous places, and may alter or cancel any of the said orders or may make such further orders, if any, as they shall deem necessary to give effect to the provisions of this Act.

“Occasional license” means a license to sell beer, spirits, or wine granted in pursuance of the thirteenth section of the Act passed in the twenty-fifth and twenty-sixth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, chapter twenty-two, and section five of the Act of the twenty-seventh year of the reign of Her present Majesty, chapter eighteen, and the Acts amending the same in relation to the licenses therein mentioned, or of any of such Acts.

“A new license.”

“A new license” means a license for the sale of any intoxicating liquor granted at a general annual licensing meeting in respect of premises in respect of which a similar license has not theretofore been granted.

Repeal.

33. There are hereby repealed the sections of the principal Act relating to the following matters; that is to say,

- (1.) Sections nineteen to twenty-two, both inclusive, relating to adulteration, and the first schedule to the principal Act;
- (2.) Section twenty-four, relating to hours of closing; and
- (3.) Section thirty-five, relating to entry on premises by constables; and
- (4.) So much of sections five, six, thirteen, fourteen, sixteen, seventeen, and twenty-eight as relates to the records of convictions on licenses, and of section seventy-four as contains the definition of a town for the purposes of the provisions with respect to closing and of a new license.

- (5.) The last paragraph of section fifty-six, beginning with the words "In a county the justices" to the end of the section.

Provided that the repeal enacted in this Act shall not affect—

- (1.) Anything duly done or suffered under any enactment hereby repealed :
- (2.) Any right or privilege acquired or any liability incurred under any enactment hereby repealed :
- (3.) Any penalty, forfeiture, or other punishment incurred or to be incurred in respect of any offence against any enactment hereby repealed.

CHAPTER 50.

An Act to amend the Married Women's Property Act (1870). [30th July 1874.]

WHEREAS it is not just that the property which a woman has at the time of her marriage should pass to her husband, and that he should not be liable for her debts contracted before marriage, and the law as to the recovery of such debts requires amendment :

Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

1. So much of the Married Women's Property Act, 1870, as enacts that a husband shall not be liable for the debts of his wife contracted before marriage is repealed so far as respects marriages which shall take place after the passing of this Act, and a husband and wife married after the passing of this Act may be jointly sued for any such debt.

Husband and wife may be jointly sued for her debts before marriage.

2. The husband shall, in such action and in any action brought for damages sustained by reason of any tort committed by the wife before marriage or by reason of the breach of any contract made by the wife before marriage, be liable for the debt or damages respectively to the extent only of the assets herein-after specified; and in addition to any other plea or pleas may plead that he is not liable to pay the debt or damages in respect of any such assets as herein-after specified; or, confessing his liability to some amount, that he is not liable beyond what he so confesses; and if no such plea is pleaded the husband shall be deemed to have confessed his liability so far as assets are concerned.

Extent to which husband liable.

If husband without assets he shall have judgment for costs.

3. If it is not found in such action that the husband is liable in respect of any such assets, he shall have judgment for his costs of defence, whatever the result of the action may be against the wife.

Joint and separate judgment against husband and wife for debt.

4. When a husband and wife are sued jointly, if by confession or otherwise it appears that the husband is liable for the debt or damages recovered, or any part thereof, the judgment to the extent of the amount for which the husband is liable shall be a joint judgment against the husband and wife, and as to the residue, if any, of such debt or damages, the judgment shall be a separate judgment against the wife.

Assets for which husband liable.

5. The assets in respect of and to the extent of which the husband shall in any such action be liable are as follows:

- (1.) The value of the personal estate in possession of the wife, which shall have vested in the husband:
- (2.) The value of the choses in action of the wife which the husband shall have reduced into possession, or which with reasonable diligence he might have reduced into possession:
- (3.) The value of the chattels real of the wife which shall have vested in the husband and wife:
- (4.) The value of the rents and profits of the real estate of the wife which the husband shall have received, or with reasonable diligence might have received:
- (5.) The value of the husband's estate or interest in any property, real or personal, which the wife in contemplation of her marriage with him shall have transferred to him or to any other person:
- (6.) The value of any property, real or personal, which the wife in contemplation of her marriage with the husband shall with his consent have transferred to any person with the view of defeating or delaying her existing creditors:

Provided that when the husband after marriage pays any debt of his wife, or has a judgment bonâ fide recovered against him in any such action as is in this Act mentioned, then to the extent of such payment or judgment the husband shall not in any subsequent action be liable.

Extent of Act.
Short title.

6. This Act shall not extend to Scotland.

7. This Act may be cited as the "Married Women's Property Act (1870) Amendment Act, 1874."

CHAPTER 51.

An Act to amend the Law respecting the Proving and Sale of Chain Cables and Anchors.

[30th July 1874.]

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and one, intituled "An Act to amend the law respecting the proving and sale of Chain Cables and Anchors:"

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1. This Act shall be construed as one with the Chain Cables and Anchors Acts, 1864 and 1871, and together with those Acts may be cited as the Chain Cables and Anchors Acts, 1864 to 1874, and may be cited separately as the Chain Cables and Anchors Act, 1874, and shall take effect from the first day of September one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four.

Construction and commencement of Act.

2. All fees paid to the Board of Trade, and all fees and other sums received by the Trinity House as their licensee in pursuance of the Chain Cables and Anchors Acts, 1864 to 1874, shall be carried to the Mercantile Marine Fund; and all expenses of the Board of Trade and Trinity House incurred under the Chain Cables and Anchors Acts, 1864 to 1874, and the salary and allowances payable to an inspector, shall be paid out of the Mercantile Marine Fund.

Fees to be paid into and expenses out of Mercantile Marine Fund.

3. After the commencement of this Act a maker or dealer in anchors and chain cables shall not sell or contract to sell, nor shall any person purchase or contract to purchase, for the use of any British ship, any chain cable or any anchor exceeding in weight one hundred and sixty-eight pounds which has not been previously tested and stamped in accordance with the Chain Cables and Anchors Acts, 1864 to 1874. Any person who acts in contravention of this section shall be deemed to be guilty of a misdemeanor.

No chain cable or anchor exceeding 168 lbs. weight to be sold without being tested.

4. Every contract for the sale of a chain cable shall, in the absence of an express stipulation to the contrary (proof whereof shall lie on the seller), be deemed to imply a warranty that the cable has been before delivery tested and stamped in accordance with the Chain Cables and Anchors Acts, 1864 to 1874. In case of dispute the proof of such testing and stamping shall be on the seller.

Contract for sale to imply a warranty.

5. Whenever any ship is surveyed or detained by the Board of Trade under the Merchant Shipping Act, 1873, on the Cables and anchors of alleged un-seaworthy ships to be tested.

ground of alleged unseaworthiness, the Board may direct an inquiry into the condition of the cables and anchors, and if they have not been tested according to the Chain Cables and Anchors Acts, 1864 to 1874, may make such further order as they think requisite previous to her release.

34 & 35 Vict.
c. 101. s. 6.
repealed.
Test approved by Board of Trade to be substituted.

6. Section six of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, chapter one hundred and one, shall be repealed, and in lieu thereof any test approved of by the Board of Trade as a test equal or superior to the tests required by the said Act may be substituted for such tests; provided that every chain is tested to a tensile and breaking strain not less than that known as the Admiralty test.

Superior tests may be substituted in certain cases.

7. Any test approval by the Board of Trade as a test superior to the tensile and breaking test required by the said Act may, in any particular case or class of cases, be substituted for such test; and in such case or class of cases chains and anchors tested according to the test so approved shall be deemed to be tested according to the Chain Cables and Anchors Acts, 1864 to 1874, and the said test shall be noted on a certificate.

Acts specified in Schedule repealed in part.

8. The Acts specified in the Schedule to this Act are hereby repealed from the commencement of this Act to the extent in the third column of that Schedule mentioned, without prejudice to anything done or suffered or any right acquired before the said day under the enactments hereby repealed.

CHAPTER 52.

An Act to make regulations for preventing Collisions in the Sea Channels leading to the River Mersey.

[30th July 1874.]

WHEREAS it is expedient to make special regulations for preventing collisions between vessels in the sea channels leading to the River Mersey:

Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1. Any general regulations for preventing collisions at sea for the time being in force under the provisions of the Merchant Shipping Acts shall be construed as if the following regulations were added thereto; that is to say, Special regulations for preventing collisions in the approaches to the River Mersey.

- (1.) Every steam-ship, and every vessel in tow of any steam-ship, when navigating in the sea channels or approaches to the River Mersey, between the Rock Lighthouse and the furthest point seawards to which such sea channels or approaches respectively are for the time being buoyed on both sides, shall, whenever it is safe and practicable, keep to that side of the fairway or mid-channel which lies on the star-board side of such steam-ship or vessel in tow.
- (2.) Every ship at anchor in the said sea channels or approaches, within the limits aforesaid, shall carry the single white light prescribed by Article 7 of the General Regulations for preventing Collisions at Sea, made under the authority of the "Merchant Shipping Acts Amendment Act, 1862," at a height not exceeding twenty feet above the hull, suspended from the forestay, or otherwise near the bow of the ship where it can be best seen; and, in addition to the said light, all ships having two or more masts shall exhibit another similar white light, at double the height of the bow light, at the main or mizzen-peak, or the boom topping lift, or other position near the stern where it can be best seen.

2. This Act shall not come into operation until the first day of November one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four.

Commencement of Act.

CHAPTER 53.

An Act to amend the Law relating to the payment of Revising Barristers. [30th July 1874.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

Amendment of section 59 of 6 & 7 Vict. c. 18. as to payment of substitutes for revising barristers.

1. Whereas doubts have arisen as to whether the provisions of the fifty-ninth section of the Parliamentary Electors Registration Act, 1843, with respect to the payment of barristers appointed to revise any list of voters in addition to the revising barristers originally appointed, apply to the payment of substitutes appointed in case of the death, illness, or absence of any revising barrister, or from any other cause, and it is expedient to remove such doubts, and to provide for the payment of such substitutes :

Be it therefore enacted that—

Where by reason of the death, illness, or absence of any barrister appointed to revise the lists of voters for any county, city, or borough, or from any other cause, a barrister is after the passing of this Act appointed to act in the place of the barrister so originally appointed, there shall be paid to him out of the sum which under section fifty-nine of the Parliamentary Electors Registration Act, 1843, would otherwise be payable to the barrister originally appointed, such sum for his remuneration and travelling expenses as to the Lord Chief Justice or judge who appointed him may seem reasonable.

Every barrister so originally appointed, in forwarding to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury his appointment, and the statement of having completed his sittings, shall state whether any barrister has or has not been appointed as above mentioned to act in his place.

Same meanings as in 36 & 37 Vict. c. 70.

Extent of Act.

Short titles of Acts.

2. Terms in this Act have the same meaning as in the Revising Barristers Act, 1873.

3. This Act shall not extend to Scotland or Ireland.

4. This Act may be cited as the Revising Barristers Act, 1874. The Act of the session of the thirty-fifth and thirty-sixth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, chapter eighty-four, intituled "An Act to amend the law relating to the appointment of revising barristers," may be cited as the Revising Barristers Act, 1872.

This Act and the Revising Barristers Act, 1872, and the Revising Barristers Act, 1873, may be cited together as the Revising Barristers Acts, 1872 to 1874.

Provisions of Acts in

5. The Acts specified in the schedule to this Act are hereby repealed from and after the passing of this Act to the extent specified in the third column of that schedule, without <sup>schedule</sup> prejudice to anything done or suffered before the passing of <sup>repealed.</sup> this Act under the enactments hereby repealed.

6. No barrister shall be appointed after the passing of this Act to revise any list of voters for any county, city, or borough in England who is of less than seven years standing, unless he has been appointed in any year previous to the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three to be such revising barrister. Qualification of revising barrister.

CHAPTER 54.

An Act to amend the Law respecting the Liability and Valuation of certain Property for the purpose of Rates. [7th August 1874.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

1. This Act may be cited as "The Rating Act, 1874."
2. This Act shall not apply to Scotland or Ireland.

Short title.

Extent of Act.

Abolition of certain exemptions from rating.

3. Whereas by the Act of the forty-third year of the reign of Queen Elizabeth, chapter two, intituled "An Act for the relief of the poor," it is provided that a poor rate shall be raised in every parish by taxation of, amongst other persons, every occupier of certain hereditaments in such parish; and it is expedient to extend the said Act, and the Acts amending the same (which Act and Acts are in this Act referred to as the Poor Rate Acts), to hereditaments other than those mentioned in the said Act: Be it therefore enacted that,—

From and after the commencement of this Act the Poor Rate Acts shall extend to the following hereditaments in like manner as if they were mentioned in the recited Act of the forty-third year of the reign of Queen Elizabeth; that is to say,

- (1.) To land used for a plantation or a wood or for the growth of saleable underwood, and not subject to any right of common;
- (2.) To rights of fowling, of shooting, of taking or killing game or rabbits, and of fishing, when severed from the occupation of the land; and
- (3.) To mines of every kind not mentioned in the recited Act.

Valuation of land used as plantation, &c.

4. The gross and rateable value of any land used for a plantation or a wood, or for the growth of saleable underwood, shall be estimated as follows:—

- (a.) If the land is used only for a plantation or a wood, the value shall be estimated as if the land instead of being a plantation or a wood were let and occupied in its natural and unimproved state:
- (b.) If the land is used for the growth of saleable underwood, the value shall be estimated as if the land were let for that purpose:
- (c.) If the land is used both for a plantation or a wood and for the growth of saleable underwood, the value shall be estimated either as if the land were used only for a plantation or a wood, or as if the land were used only for the growth of the saleable underwood growing thereon, as the assessment committee may determine.

Deduction of rate by tenant of plantation, &c.

5. Where the rateable value of any land used for a plantation or a wood, or both for a plantation or wood and for the growth of saleable underwood, is increased by reason of the same being estimated in accordance with this Act, the occupier of that land under any lease or agreement made before the commencement of this Act, may, during the continuance of the lease or agreement, deduct from his rent any poor or other local rate, or any portion thereof, which is paid by him in respect of such increase of rateable value, and every assessment committee, on the application of such occupier, shall certify in the valuation list or otherwise the fact and amount of such increase.

6. (1.) Where any right of fowling or of shooting or of taking or killing game or rabbits, or of fishing (herein-after referred to as a right of sporting) is severed from the occupation of the land and is not let, and the owner of such right receives rent for the land, the said right shall not be separately valued or rated, but the gross and rateable value of the land shall be estimated as if the said right were not severed; and in such case if the rateable value is increased by reason of its being so estimated, but not otherwise, the occupier of the land may (unless he has specifically contracted to pay such rate in the event of an increase) deduct from his rent such portion of any poor or other local rate, as is paid by him in respect of such increase; and every assessment committee, on the application of the occupier, shall certify in the valuation list or otherwise the fact and amount of such increase.
- (2.) Where any right of sporting, when severed from the occupation of the land, is let, either the owner or the lessee thereof, according as the persons making the rate determine, may be rated as the occupier thereof.
- (3.) Subject to the foregoing provisions of this section the owner of any right of sporting, when severed from the occupation of the land, may be rated as the occupier thereof.
- (4.) For the purposes of this section, the person who, if the right of sporting is not let, is entitled to exercise the right, or who, if the right is let, is entitled to receive the rent for the same, shall be deemed to be the owner of the right.

Valuation and rating of rights of shooting, &c.

7. Where a tin, lead, or copper mine is occupied under a lease or leases granted without fine on a reservation wholly or partly of dues or rent, the gross value of the mine shall be taken to be the annual amount of the whole of the dues payable in respect thereof during the year ending on the thirty-first day of December preceding the date at which the valuation list is made, in addition to the annual amount of any fixed rent reserved for the same which may not be paid or satisfied by such dues.

Gross and rateable value of tin, lead, and copper mines.

The rateable annual value of such mine shall be the same as the gross value thereof, except that where the person receiving the dues or rent is liable for repairs, insurance, or other expenses necessary to maintain the mine in a state to command the annual amount of dues or rent, the average annual cost of the repairs, insurance, and other expenses for which he is so liable shall be deducted from the gross value for the purpose of calculating the rateable value.

In the following cases, namely,—

1. Where any such mine is occupied under a lease granted wholly or partly on a fine; and
2. Where any such mine is occupied and worked by the owner; and
3. In the case of any other such mine which is not excepted from the provisions of this Act and to which the foregoing provisions of this section do not apply; the gross and rateable annual value of the mine shall be taken to be the annual amount of the dues or dues and rent at which the mine might be reasonably expected to let without fine on a lease of the ordinary duration, according to the usage of the country, if the tenant undertook to pay all tenants rates and taxes and tithe rentcharge, and also the repairs, insurance, and other expenses necessary to maintain the mine in a state to command such annual amount of dues or dues and rent.

The purser, secretary, and chief managing agent for the time being of any tin, lead, or copper mine, or any of them, may, if the overseers or other rating authority think fit, be rated as the occupier thereof.

In this section—

The term “mine,” when a mine is occupied under a lease, includes the underground workings, and the engines, machinery, workshops, tramways, and other plant, buildings (not being dwelling-houses), and works and surface of land occupied in connexion with and for the purposes of the mine, and situate within the boundaries of the land comprised in the lease or leases under which the dues or dues and rent are payable or reserved:

The term “dues” means dues, royalty, or toll, either in money or partly in money and partly in kind; and the amount of dues which are reserved in kind means the value of such dues:

The term “lease” means lease or sett, or license to work, or agreement for a lease or sett, or license to work:

The term “fine” means fine, premium, or foregift, or other payment or consideration in the nature thereof.

Deduction of rate by tenant of mine.

8. Where any poor or other local rate which at the commencement of this Act any lessee, licensee, or grantee of a mine is exempt from being rated to in respect of such mine, becomes payable by him in respect of such mine during the continuance of his lease, grant, or license, or before the arrival of the period at which the amount of the rent, royalty, or dues is liable to revision or re-adjustment, he may (unless he has specifically contracted to pay such rate in the event of the abolition of the said exemption) deduct from any rent, royalty, or dues payable by him one half of any such rate paid by him :

Provided that he shall not deduct any sum exceeding what one half of the rate in the pound of such poor or other local rate would amount to if calculated upon the rent, royalty, or dues so payable by him.

9. Where any occupier, lessee, licensee, grantee, or other person is authorised by this Act to deduct any rate or sum in respect of a rate from any rent, royalty, or dues payable by him, then—

General provision as to deduction of rates.

- (1.) Any payment so authorised to be deducted shall be a good discharge for such amount of rent, royalty, or dues as is equal to the amount of such payment, and shall be allowed accordingly.
- (2.) Any payment so authorised to be deducted may be recovered as an ordinary debt from the person to whom the rent, royalty, or dues may be payable.
- (3.) The person receiving the rent, royalty, or dues shall have the same right of appeal and objection with reference to the rate and to the valuation of the hereditament in respect of which the rate is payable as he would have if he were the occupier of such hereditament.

10. After the commencement of this Act, the hereditaments to which the Poor Rate Acts are extended by this Act, and which are thus made rateable to the relief of the poor, shall be rateable to all local rates in like manner as if the Poor Rate Acts had always extended to such hereditaments.

Liability of property to local rates as well as poor rates.

11. This Act, for the purpose of enabling any hereditament to be included in or omitted from or valued for the purposes of a valuation list or a supplemental or provisional valuation list which will come into force after the sixth day of April one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five, shall come into operation on the passing thereof; but save as aforesaid, or as is otherwise expressly provided by this Act, shall come into operation on the sixth day of April one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five; and the expression "commencement of this Act" shall in this Act be construed accordingly.

Commencement of Act.

12. The provisions of the Sanitary Acts, as defined by the Public Health Act, 1872, with respect to any special assessment of wood lands for the purpose of any rate under those Acts shall be deemed to extend to and include land used for a plantation or a wood, or for the growth of saleable underwood, or for both such purposes, and made rateable by this Act to the poor rate.

As to provisions of Sanitary Acts as defined by 35 & 36 Vict. c. 79.

13. Nothing in this Act shall apply to a mine of which the royalty or dues are for the time being wholly reserved in kind, or to the owner or occupier thereof.

Saving as to mine where dues payable in kind.

Repeal of 43 Eliz. c. 2.
as to saleable
underwood.

14. So much of the Act of the forty-third year of the reign of Queen Elizabeth, chapter two, intituled "An Act for the relief of the poor," as relates to the taxation of an occupier of saleable underwoods is hereby repealed as from the date at which the provisions of this Act with respect to the taxation of occupiers of land used for the growth of saleable underwood come into operation.

Provided that this repeal shall not affect anything duly done or suffered before the said date, or any right acquired or liability accrued before the said date, or any legal proceeding or remedy in respect of any such right or liability, and every such legal proceeding or remedy may be carried on and enforced in like manner as if this repeal had not been enacted.

Definitions of terms (see sect. 15 of 25 & 26 Vict.
c. 103.).

15. In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires,—

The term "gross value" has the same meaning as gross estimated rental in the Union Assessment Committee Act, 1862:

The term "local rate" means any county rate, borough rate, highway rate, and other local rate leviable upon property rateable to the relief of the poor:

The term "valuation list" means, as regards any parish or place for which there is no valuation list, the poor rate:

The term "assessment committee" means, in relation to any parish or place where there is no assessment committee, the persons having power to make and assess the poor rate in such parish or place.

CHAPTER 55.

An Act for dissolving Magdalen Hall, in the University of Oxford, and for incorporating the Principal, Fellows, and Scholars of Hertford College; and for vesting in such College the lands and other property now held in trust for the benefit of Magdalen Hall. [7th August 1874.]

WHEREAS Hertford College in the University of Oxford was dissolved on the twenty-eighth day of June one thousand eight hundred and five:

And whereas, in accordance with the provisions of an Act passed in the fifty-sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to authorise such person as His Majesty shall appoint to transfer a certain sum in Three Pounds per Cent. Reduced Annuities, now standing in the name of the dissolved College of Hertford, in the University of Oxford, and also to receive dividends “ due upon such annuities,” and of another Act passed in the same year, intituled “ An Act to enable His Majesty to grant 56 G. 3. c. 136.

 “ certain lands, tenements, and hereditaments escheated and “ devolved to His Majesty by the dissolution of Hertford “ College, in the University of Oxford, and the site of the “ said College and buildings thereon, to the Chancellor, “ Masters, and Scholars of the said University, in trust for “ the Principal and other members of Magdalen Hall for the “ purpose of their removing to such site, and to enable the “ said Chancellor, Masters, and Scholars of the said University, “ and the President and Scholars of Saint Mary Magdalen “ College to do all necessary acts for such removal,” the land constituting the site of the said Hertford College, together with all other the real and personal property of which the said Hertford College was seised and possessed at the time of its dissolution, was granted, conveyed, and transferred to the Chancellor, Masters, and Scholars of the University of Oxford, in trust for the Principal and other members of Magdalen Hall in the same University, their successors and assigns, for ever :

And whereas Magdalen Hall now consists of a Principal, (namely, the Reverend Richard Michell, Doctor in Divinity,) ten Scholars, and certain Graduate and eighty-five Undergraduate Members, and is or claims to be equitably entitled (besides the land and property aforesaid) to other real and personal property of considerable value, now vested in trustees upon various trusts for the benefit of the said Principal and Scholars :

And whereas the Reverend Robert Gandell, M.A., of Magdalen Hall, Laudian Professor of Arabic in the University of Oxford, and the Reverend George Sturton Ward, M.A., of Magdalen Hall, have been appointed to, and have agreed to accept unendowed fellowships in the said College :

And whereas a sum of thirty thousand pounds has been transferred into and is now standing in the name of the present Chancellor of the University of Oxford, upon trust immediately after the passing of this Act to transfer the same into the name of the collegiate body to be hereby incorporated, for the endowment of Fellowships in the said body, and Francis Henry Jeune and Montague Johnstone Muir Mackenzie have been appointed the first holders of two of such Fellowships :

And whereas it will conduce to the advancement of public learning and the welfare of the members of Magdalen Hall that a collegiate body, to be known by the name of Hertford College, should be created and incorporated as a College of the University of Oxford, and that the property of Magdalen Hall should be transferred to and vested in such College, and that the provisions herein-after contained should be made for that purpose :

And whereas the Chancellor, Masters, and Scholars of the University of Oxford, in convocation assembled, at a convocation holden on the second day of June one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, have given their assent to the dissolution of Magdalen Hall, and to the incorporation of Hertford College, and to the transferring and vesting in such College the lands and property now held in trust for Magdalen Hall:

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

Short title.

1. This Act may be cited for all purposes as The Hertford College Act, 1874.

Dissolution of Magdalen Hall and creation of Hertford College.

2. Magdalen Hall is hereby dissolved, and the said Reverend Richard Michell, D.D., the Reverend Robert Gandell, the Reverend George Sturton Ward, Francis Henry Jeune, and Montague Johnstone Muir Mackenzie, and the several persons who immediately before the passing of this Act were Scholars in Magdalen Hall (and all persons who shall hereafter be duly appointed to be Fellows and Scholars respectively of, or in the College hereby created, and their respective successors as Principal, Fellows, and Scholars respectively of or in the said College) are and shall be incorporated into one body corporate, collegiate, and politic, under the name of "The Principal, Fellows, and Scholars of Hertford College, in the University of Oxford," and as such shall have perpetual succession and a common seal, and by that name may sue and be sued, and may purchase, take, hold, and dispose of lands and other property, either absolutely or subject to any trusts, and shall for all purposes be a College of the University of Oxford, and shall possess, exercise, and enjoy all such rights and privileges as are possessed or enjoyed, or can be exercised by other Colleges in the University of Oxford: Provided nevertheless, that up to and until the year 1889 at any election of Proctors by the Halls in the said University, the members of Hertford College shall be entitled to vote as if they were members of a Hall in the said University.

Transfer of property from trustees to Hertford College.

3. All lands, messuages, tenements, and hereditaments, and all rentcharges, sums of money, stocks, funds, and other securities, together with all dividends due or accruing thereon, and all other property whatsoever, of or to which any person or persons or any corporation or corporations, whether sole or aggregate, was or were immediately before the passing of this Act seised or possessed, or otherwise entitled upon any trust for Magdalen Hall aforesaid, or for the Principal or any of the Scholars thereof as such, shall immediately upon the passing of this Act vest absolutely in the Principal, Fellows, and Scholars of Hertford College, in the University of Oxford, and shall thenceforth be held, possessed, and enjoyed by them, their successors and assigns, for the same estates and under the same titles for and under which the same are now held, and upon the same trusts and for the same intents and purposes, and subject to the same rents, conditions, encumbrances (if any), powers, and provisoes upon, for, and subject to which the same would now be held if in the several instruments by virtue of which the same are now held respectively, the name of Hertford College had been inserted instead of that of Magdalen Hall, or the Principal, Fellows, and Scholars thereof, as the case may be, had been named instead of Magdalen Hall, or the Principal and Scholars thereof; and the Principal, Fellows, and Scholars of Hertford College shall be and are hereby authorised to give full and sufficient receipts for all moneys paid to them in respect of the future rents and profits of the said lands and every part thereof, and in respect of the said rentcharges and the dividends or annual proceeds of the said stocks, funds, and other securities; and such receipts shall be in all respects effectual and binding.

4. All persons who immediately before the passing of this Act were members of Magdalen Hall, or held any office of honour or emolument therein, shall, immediately on the passing of this Act, become and be members of, or, as the case may require, holders of the like offices in Hertford College, and shall (subject to any alterations which may hereafter be made by or according to the provisions of the statutes for the time being of the said College) be entitled to and have the like rights, privileges, honours, and emoluments respectively, and shall be subject to the like rules and regulations, and shall hold their respective offices in the said College upon the like terms as they would respectively have been subject to and would have held office in the said Hall if the same continued to exist unaffected by this Act.

Members of Magdalen Hall to become members of Hertford College.

5. Subject to any Act for the time being in force for the government of the said University or of the Colleges therein, the Principal and Fellows for the time being of the said College may from time to time make, rescind, and vary such regulations, ordinances, and statutes for the government of the said College and the good discipline thereof, and the election of the Fellows and Scholars thereof as to them shall seem meet: Provided that no such regulations, ordinances, or statutes shall alter the trusts, intents, purposes, conditions, powers, or provisions mentioned in the third section of this Act, or shall have any effect until the same have been confirmed by the Chancellor of the said University as visitor of the College, and shall also have received the approbation of Her Majesty, to be signified by an Order in Council, and forthwith published in the London Gazette, and shall have been laid before Parliament.

Power to make statutes.

Preparation of statutes.

6. Statutes for the purposes above mentioned made by the Principal and Fellows of the said College, shall, after they shall have been confirmed by the Chancellor as aforesaid, be submitted for the approval of Her Majesty in Council, and it shall be lawful for Her Majesty in Council to alter and amend the same; and in case statutes are not so made and submitted on or before the first day of March one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty in Council to cause statutes to be prepared for the said purposes, and any such last-mentioned statutes shall be forthwith published in the London Gazette, (and at the same time laid before both Houses of Parliament if Parliament be then sitting; or if not, then within three weeks after the commencement of the next ensuing session of Parliament; and unless an address is within forty days presented by one or other of the said Houses, praying Her Majesty to withhold Her consent from such statutes, or any part thereof, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty by Order in Council to declare Her approbation of the same, and such statutes shall thereupon have effect as if they had been statutes made by the said Principal and Fellows, and confirmed by the said Chancellor, and approved by Her Majesty in Council.

Power to accept endowments.

7. The said Principal, Fellows, and Scholars may from time to time accept, hold, and enjoy such gifts and endowments as may be made to them for the endowment, improvement, establishment, or maintenance of the Principalship, Fellowships, Professorships, Tutorships, Lectureships, or Scholarships within the said College, or for any other lawful purpose, upon such terms and conditions as may, with the sanction of the Chancellor of the said University, be agreed on between them and the respective donors.

Saving rights of Chancellor of the University.

8. The Principal of Hertford College shall, when and as often as a vacancy shall occur, be appointed by the Chancellor for the time being of the University of Oxford, and the Chancellor for the time being of the said University shall continue to have and exercise with respect to Hertford College all such rights and privileges, both as visitor and otherwise, as he has hitherto had and exercised with respect to Magdalen Hall aforesaid.

Saving rights of the University.

9. Except as by this Act expressly provided, nothing in this Act contained shall take away, diminish, or impede the exercise of any privilege or right whatever of the said University, or of any of the magistrates, officers, ministers, or servants thereunto belonging and now existing, and the said University, their magistrates, officers, members, or servants, shall have and exercise all such and the same privileges and rights in and over the said Hertford College as they are entitled to exercise in or over other Colleges of the said University.

10. No action, suit, or other proceeding, whether at law or in equity, commenced before the passing of this Act and then pending by or against the Principal, Scholars, or other members of the said Hall, or any of them, shall abate, determine, or be otherwise impeached or affected by the passing of this Act, but every such action, suit, or other proceeding may be continued by or against the said Principal, Fellows, and Scholars of Hertford College as though they had been originally named therein; and any notice, fine, requisition, warrant, summons, pleading, writ, or other process, record, deed, contract, agreement, writing, or instrument made, issued, written, or commenced at the time of the passing of this Act shall be as valid and effectual for, against, and with relation to the said Principal, Fellows, and Scholars of Hertford College as though the same Principal, Fellows, and Scholars had been named therein instead of the Principal, Scholars, or other members of Magdalen Hall.

Actions and other proceedings not to abate.

11. Notwithstanding the provisions of this Act everything before the passing thereof done, suffered, or confirmed by or on behalf of the Principal and other members of the said Hall, or any of them, shall be as valid as if this Act were not passed, and the passing of this Act shall not prejudice anything so done, suffered, or confirmed before the passing thereof, or any rights, liabilities, claims, or demands, present or future, which if this Act had not been passed would be incident to or consequent on anything so done, suffered, or confirmed.

General saving of rights.

12. All deeds, wills, instruments, purchases, sales, and contracts made before the passing of this Act in which the Principal and members of Magdalen Hall aforesaid, or any of them, are named shall be as effectual to all intents and purposes in favour of or against and with respect to the Principal, Fellows, and Scholars of Hertford College as if they respectively had been named therein instead of the Principal and Scholars or other members, as the case may be, of Magdalen Hall, and as if the words Hertford College had been inserted therein instead of Magdalen Hall.

Validity of deeds and instruments preserved.

13. Nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to repeal any of the provisions of the "University Tests Act, 1871."

Not to repeal provisions of 34 & 35 Vict. c. 26.

CHAPTER 56.

An Act to apply a sum out of the Consolidated Fund to the service of the year ending the thirty-first day of March one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five, and to appropriate the Supplies granted in this Session of Parliament. [7th August 1874.]

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Commons of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland in Parliament assembled, towards making good the supply which we have cheerfully granted to Your Majesty in this session of Parliament, have resolved to grant unto Your Majesty the sum herein-after mentioned; and do therefore most humbly beseech Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

Grant out of Consolidated Fund.

25,497,568*l.*
out of the Consolidated Fund.

1. The Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury for the time being may issue out of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and apply towards making good the supply granted to Her Majesty for the service of the year ending on the thirty-first day of March one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five, the sum of twenty-five million four hundred and ninety-seven thousand five hundred and sixty-eight pounds.

Power for the Treasury to borrow.

2. The Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury may borrow from time to time on the credit of the said sum of twenty-five million four hundred and ninety-seven thousand five hundred and sixty-eight pounds, any sum or sums of equal or less amount in the whole, and shall repay the moneys so borrowed, with interest not exceeding five pounds per centum per annum, out of the growing produce of the Consolidated Fund at any period not later than the next succeeding quarter to that in which the said sums were borrowed.

Any sums so borrowed shall be placed to the credit of the account of Her Majesty's Exchequer, and shall form part of the said Consolidated Fund, and be available in any manner in which such fund is available.

Appropriation of Grants.

Appropriation of sums voted for supply services.

3. All sums granted by this Act and the other Acts mentioned in Schedule (A.) annexed to this Act out of the said Consolidated Fund towards making good the supply granted to Her Majesty, amounting, as appears by the said Schedule, in the aggregate to the sum of forty-six million nine hundred and twenty thousand three hundred and sixty-five pounds fourteen shillings and sixpence, are appropriated and shall be deemed to have been appropriated as from the date of the passing of the first of the Acts mentioned in the said Schedule (A.) for the purposes and services expressed in Schedule (B.) annexed hereto.

The abstract of schedules and schedules annexed hereto, with the notes (if any) to such schedules, shall be deemed to be part of this Act in the same manner as if they had been contained in the body thereof.

4. If a necessity arise for incurring expenditure not provided for in the sums appropriated to naval and military services by this Act, and which it may be detrimental to the public service to postpone until provision can be made for it by Parliament in the usual course, each of the departments entrusted with the control over the said services shall forthwith make application in writing to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury for their authority to defray temporarily such expenditure out of any surpluses which may have been or which may be effected by the saving of expenditure upon votes within the same department, and in such application the department shall represent to the Commissioners of the Treasury the circumstances which may render such additional expenditure necessary, and thereupon the said Commissioners may authorise the expenditure unprovided for as aforesaid to be temporarily defrayed out of any surpluses which may have been or which may be effected as aforesaid upon votes within the same department; and a statement showing all cases in which the naval and military departments have obtained the sanction of the said Commissioners to any expenditure not provided for in the respective votes aforesaid, accompanied by copies of the representations made to them by the said departments, shall be laid before the House of Commons with the appropriation accounts of navy and army services for the year, in order that such proceedings may be submitted for the sanction of Parliament, and that provision may be made for the deficiencies upon the several votes for the said services in such manner as Parliament may determine.

The Commissioners of the Treasury shall not authorise any expenditure which may cause an excess upon the aggregate sums appropriated by this Act for naval services and for army services respectively.

5. Whereas the Commissioners of the Treasury, under the powers vested in them by the Act of the session held in the thirty-fifth and thirty-sixth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, chapter eighty-seven, have authorised expenditure not provided for in the sums appropriated by the said Act to certain votes for naval and military services for the year ended on the thirty-first day of March one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three, to be in part temporarily defrayed

Treasury may, in certain cases of exigency, authorise expenditure unprovided for; provided that the aggregate grants for the navy services and for the army services respectively be not exceeded.

Sanction for navy and army expenditure for 1872-73 unprovided for.

out of the balances unexpended in respect of the sums appropriated to certain other votes for naval and military services for the said year ; viz.,

- 1st. Expenditure for certain navy services unprovided for, temporarily defrayed to the extent of one hundred and ninety-three thousand eight hundred and forty-six pounds two shillings and fivepence out of the unexpended balances of certain other votes for navy services:
- 2d. Expenditure for certain army services unprovided for, temporarily defrayed to the extent of one hundred and seventy-five thousand three hundred and five pounds and elevenpence, out of the unexpended balances of certain other votes for army services :

It is enacted, that the application of the said sums is hereby sanctioned.

Short title of Act.

6. This Act may be cited for all purposes as "The Appropriation Act, 1874."

CHAPTER 57.

An Act for the further Limitation of Actions and Suits relating to Real Property.

[7th August 1874.]

WHEREAS it is expedient further to limit the times within which actions or suits may be brought for the recovery of land or rent, and of charges thereon :

Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

No land or rent to be recovered but within 12 years after the right of action accrued.

1. After the commencement of this Act no person shall make an entry or distress, or bring an action or suit, to recover any land or rent, but within twelve years next after the time at which the right to make such entry or distress, or to bring such action or suit, shall have first accrued to some person through whom he claims ; or if such right shall not have accrued to any person through whom he claims, then within twelve years next after the time at which the right to make such entry or distress, or to bring such action or suit, shall have first accrued to the person making or bringing the same.

Provision for case of future estates.

2. A right to make an entry or distress, or to bring an action or suit, to recover any land or rent, shall be deemed to have first accrued, in respect of an estate or interest in reversion or remainder, or other future estate or interest, at the time at which the same shall have become an estate or interest in possession, by the determination of any estate or estates in respect of which such land shall have been held, or the profits thereof or such rent shall have been received, notwithstanding the person claiming such land or rent, or some person through whom he claims, shall at any time previously to the creation of the estate or estates which shall have determined, have been in the possession or receipt of the profits of such land, or in receipt of such rent : But if the person last entitled to any particular estate on which any future estate or interest was expectant shall not have been in the possession or receipt of the profits of such land, or in receipt of such rent, at the time when his interest determined,

Time limited to six years when person entitled to the particular estate out of possession, &c.

no such entry or distress shall be made, and no such action or suit shall be brought, by any person becoming entitled in possession to a future estate or interest, but within twelve years next after the time when the right to make an entry or distress, or to bring an action or suit, for the recovery of such land or rent, shall have first accrued to the person whose interest shall have so determined, or within six years next after the time when the estate of the person becoming entitled in possession shall have become vested in possession, whichever of those two periods shall be the longer; and if the right of any such person to make such entry or distress, or to bring any such action or suit, shall have been barred under this Act, no person afterwards claiming to be entitled to the same land or rent in respect of any subsequent estate or interest under any deed, will, or settlement, executed or taking effect after the time when a right to make an entry or distress, or to bring an action or suit, for the recovery of such land or rent, shall have first accrued to the owner of the particular estate whose interest shall have so determined as aforesaid, shall make any such entry or distress, or bring any such action or suit, to recover such land or rent.

3. If at the time at which the right of any person to make an entry or distress, or to bring an action or suit, to recover any land or rent, shall have first accrued as aforesaid, such person shall have been under any of the disabilities herein-after mentioned, (that is to say,) infancy, coverture, idiocy, lunacy, or unsoundness of mind, then such person, or the person claiming through him, may, notwithstanding the period of twelve years, or six years, (as the case may be,) herein-before limited shall have expired, make an entry or distress, or bring an action or suit, to recover such land or rent, at any time within six years next after the time at which the person to whom such right shall first have accrued shall have ceased to be under any such disability, or shall have died (whichever of those two events shall have first happened).

In cases of infancy, coverture, or lunacy at the time when the right of action accrues, then six years to be allowed from the termination of the disability or previous death.

4. The time within which any such entry may be made, or any such action or suit may be brought as aforesaid, shall not in any case after the commencement of this Act be extended or enlarged by reason of the absence beyond seas during all or any part of that time of the person having the right to make such entry, or to bring such action or suit, or of any person through whom he claims.

No time to be allowed for absence beyond seas.

5. No entry, distress, action, or suit shall be made or brought by any person who at the time at which his right to make any entry or distress, or to bring an action or suit to recover any land or rent, shall have first accrued, shall be under any of the disabilities herein-before mentioned, or by any person claiming through him, but within thirty years next after the time at which such right shall have first accrued, although the person under disability at such time may have remained under one or more of such disabilities during the whole of such thirty years, or although the term of six years from the time at which he shall have ceased to be under any such disability, or have died, shall not have expired.

Thirty years utmost allowance for disabilities.

In case of possession under an assurance by a tenant in tail, which shall not bar the remainders, they shall be barred at the end of 12 years after that period, at which the assurance, if then executed, would have barred them.

6. When a tenant in tail of any land or rent shall have made an assurance thereof which shall not operate to bar the estate or estates to take effect after or in defeasance of his estate tail, and any person shall by virtue of such assurance at the time of the execution thereof, or at any time afterwards, be in possession or receipt of the profits of such land, or in the receipt of such rent, and the same person or any other person whosoever (other than some person entitled to such possession or receipt in respect of an estate which shall have taken effect after or in defeasance of the estate tail) shall continue or be in such possession or receipt for the period of twelve years next after the commencement of the time at which such assurance, if it had then been executed by such tenant in tail, or the person who would have been entitled to his estate tail if such assurance had not been executed, would, without the consent of any other person, have operated to bar such estate or estates as aforesaid, then, at the expiration of such period of twelve years, such assurance shall be and be deemed to have been effectual as against any person claiming any estate, interest, or right to take effect after or in defeasance of such estate tail.

Mortgagor to be barred at end of 12 years from the time when the mortgagee took possession or from the last written acknowledgment.

7. When a mortgagee shall have obtained the possession or receipt of the profits of any land or the receipt of any rent comprised in his mortgage, the mortgagor, or any person claiming through him, shall not bring any action or suit to redeem the mortgage but within twelve years next after the time at which the mortgagee obtained such possession or receipt, unless in the meantime an acknowledgment in writing of the title of the mortgagor, or of his right to redemption, shall have been given to the mortgagor or some person claiming his estate, or to the agent of such mortgagor or person, signed by the mortgagee or the person claiming through him; and in such case no such action or suit shall be brought but within twelve years next after the time at which such acknowledgment, or the last of such acknowledgments, if more than one, was given; and when there shall be more than one mortgagor, or more than one person claiming through the mortgagor or mortgagors, such acknowledgment, if given to any of such mortgagors or persons, or his or their agent, shall be as effectual as if the same had been given to all such mortgagors or persons; but where there shall be more than one mortgagee, or more than one person claiming the estate or interest of the mortgagee or mortgagees, such acknowledgment, signed by one or more of such mortgagees or persons, shall be effectual only as against the party or parties signing as aforesaid, and the person or persons claiming any part of the mortgage money or land or rent by, from, or under him or them, and any person or persons entitled to any estate or estates, interest or interests, to take effect after or in defeasance of his or their estate or estates, interest or interests, and shall not operate to give to the mortgagor or mortgagors a right to redeem the mortgage as against the person or persons entitled to any other undivided or divided part of the money or land or rent; and where such of the mortgagees or persons aforesaid as shall have given such acknowledgment shall be entitled to a divided part of the land or rent comprised in the mortgage, or some estate or interest therein, and not to any ascertained part of the mortgage money, the mortgagor or mortgagors shall be entitled to redeem the same divided part of the land or rent on payment, with interest, of the part of the mortgage money which shall bear the same proportion to the whole of the mortgage money as the value of such divided part of the land or rent shall bear to the value of the whole of the land or rent comprised in the mortgage.

8. No action or suit or other proceeding shall be brought to recover any sum of money secured by any mortgage, judgment, or lien, or otherwise charged upon or payable out of any land or rent, at law or in equity, or any legacy, but within twelve years next after a present right to receive the same shall have accrued to some person capable of giving a discharge for or release of the same, unless in the meantime some part of the principal money, or some interest thereon, shall have been paid, or some acknowledgment of the right thereto shall have been given in writing signed by the person by whom the same shall be payable, or his agent, to the person entitled thereto, or his agent; and in such case no such action or suit or proceeding shall be brought but within twelve years after such payment or acknowledgment, or the last of such payments or acknowledgments, if more than one, was given.

Money charged upon land and legacies to be deemed satisfied at the end of 12 years if no interest paid nor acknowledgment given in writing in the meantime.

9. From and after the commencement of this Act all the provisions of the Act passed in the session of the third and fourth years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, chapter twenty-seven, except those contained in the several sections thereof next herein-after mentioned, shall remain in full force, and shall be construed together with this Act, and shall take effect as if the provisions herein-before contained were substituted in such Act for the provisions contained in the sections thereof numbered two, five, sixteen, seventeen, twenty-three, twenty-eight, and forty respectively (which several sections, from and after the commencement of this Act, shall be repealed), and as if the term of six years had been mentioned, instead of the term of ten years, in the section of the said Act numbered eighteen, and the period of twelve years had been mentioned in the said section eighteen instead of the period of twenty years; and the provisions of the Act passed in the session of the seventh year of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, and the first year of the reign of Her present Majesty, chapter twenty-eight, shall remain in full force, and be construed together with this Act, as if the period of twelve years had been therein mentioned instead of the period of twenty years.

Time for recovering charges and arrears of interest not to be enlarged by express trusts for raising same.

10. After the commencement of this Act no action, suit, or other proceeding shall be brought to recover any sum of money or legacy charged upon or payable out of any land or rent, at law or in equity, and secured by an express trust, or to recover any arrears of rent or of interest in respect of any sum of money or legacy so charged or payable and so secured, or any damages in respect of such arrears, except within the time within which the same would be recoverable if there were not any such trust.

Short title.

11. This Act may be cited as the "Real Property Limitation Act, 1874."

Commencement of Act.

12. This Act shall commence and come into operation on the first day of January one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine.

CHAPTER 58.

An Act to make further provision respecting the contribution out of moneys provided by Parliament towards the expenses of the Police Force in the Metropolitan Police District, and elsewhere in Great Britain. [7th August 1874.]

19 & 20 Vict.
c. 69.
20 & 21 Vict.
c. 72.
31 & 32 Vict.
c. 67.

WHEREAS in pursuance of certain Acts annual sums, not exceeding the amount mentioned in those Acts, are contributed by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury out of moneys provided by Parliament towards the expenses of the police force in the metropolitan police district, and elsewhere in Great Britain, and it is expedient to make further provision respecting such contributions:

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows; (that is to say,)

Short title.

1. This Act may be cited as the Police (Expenses) Act, 1874.

2. So much of any Act as limits the amount authorised to be contributed by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury out of moneys provided by Parliament towards the expenses of any police force in Great Britain to a particular amount, or a particular proportion of any annual sum or charge specified in such Act, shall, during the continuance of this Act, be repealed.

Repeal of limit on amount of contribution by Treasury to police force.

3. This Act shall continue in force until the first day of September one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five.

Duration of Act.

CHAPTER 59.

An Act to facilitate the erection of Dwellings for Working Men on land belonging to Municipal Corporations. [7th August 1874.]

WHEREAS it is expedient to encourage the erection of dwelling-houses suitable for persons employed in manual labour, and to afford increased facilities for the acquisition of sites for such dwelling-houses :

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

1. This Act may be cited as The Working Men's Dwellings Act, 1874.

Short title.

2. This Act shall not extend to Scotland or Ireland.

Extent of Act.

3. In this Act—

“Corporation” means a municipal corporation for the time being subject to the Act of the session of the fifth and sixth years of the reign of King William the Fourth (chapter seventy-six) “to provide for the regulation of Municipal Corporations in England and Wales” (in this Act called the Municipal Corporations Act) acting by the council of the borough :

Interpretation of terms.

“Working-men's dwellings” means buildings suitable for the habitation of persons employed in manual labour and their families, but so that the use of part of a building for purposes of retail trade or other purposes, approved by a corporation, shall not prevent the building from being deemed a dwelling :

“The Treasury” means the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, or two of them.

4. Where a corporation determine that any land belonging to them shall be converted into sites for working men's tions as to building, &c.

dwellings, and on a representation to the Treasury of the circumstances of the case, under section ninety-four of the Municipal Corporations Act, obtain the approval of the Treasury to the corporation making for that purpose grants or leases for terms of nine hundred and ninety-nine years, or any shorter term, of parts of that land, then the following provisions shall have effect and apply :

(1.) The corporation may make on the land any roads, drains, walls, fences, or other works requisite for converting the same into building land, at an expense not exceeding such sum as the Treasury approve :

(2.) The corporation may insert in any grant or lease of any part of the land (in this Act referred to as the site) provisions binding the grantee or lessee to build thereon as in the grant or lease prescribed, and to maintain and repair the building, and prohibiting the division of the site or building, and any addition to or alteration of the character of the building, without the consent of the corporation, and for the re-vesting of the site in the corporation, or their re-entry thereon, on breach of any provision in the grant or lease :

(3.) Every provision as aforesaid shall be valid in law to all intents, and binding on the parties :

(4.) A grant or lease by the corporation of the site, and any subsequent conveyance or assignment thereof, in the respective form set forth in the schedule to this Act, or to the like effect, with such variations and additions as circumstances require, shall be good and effectual in law to all intents ; and terms used in those forms shall have the same meaning as in this Act.

As to costs.

5. All costs and expenses incurred or authorised by a corporation in carrying into execution or otherwise in pursuance of this Act, shall be paid out of the borough fund and borough rate, or by money borrowed by the corporation under the Municipal Corporation Mortgages, &c. Act, 1860.

CHAPTER 60.

An Act to amend and enlarge the powers of the Acts relating to the Navigation of the River Shannon ; and for other purposes relating thereto.

[7th August 1874.]

WHEREAS an Act was passed in the session of Parliament held in the fifth and sixth years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, chapter sixty-seven, intituled "An Act for the improvement of the navigation of the River Shannon," (in this Act called the Act of 1835,) and by that Act Commissioners were appointed to carry the same into effect: <sup>5 & 6 W. 4. c. 67.</sup>

And whereas a further Act was passed in the session of Parliament held in the second and third years of the reign of Her present Majesty, chapter sixty-one, intituled "An Act for the improvement of the navigation of the River Shannon," (in this Act called the Act of 1839,) whereby certain works were authorised to be constructed, subject to such alterations, additions, or reductions as might from time to time be found necessary: <sup>2 & 3 Vict. c. 61.</sup>

And whereas by an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the ninth and tenth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, chapter 86, intituled "An Act to extend and consolidate the powers hitherto exercised by the Commissioners of Public Works in Ireland, and to appoint additional commissioners," (in this Act called the Act of 1846,) it is amongst other things enacted, that from and after the thirtieth September one thousand eight hundred and forty-six, the Commissioners of Public Works in Ireland for the <sup>9 & 10 Vict. c. 86.</sup> time being should be the commissioners for the execution of the Acts of 1835 and 1839; and all the powers, authorities, and privileges, rights, titles, and interests, then or theretofore vested in the commissioners for the execution of the Acts of 1835 and 1839 should vest in and devolve upon, and should be respectively used, exercised, and enjoyed by the Commissioners of Public Works in Ireland for the time being, who should, for the purposes of the said Acts, be and be deemed to be in the place and stead of the persons theretofore being commissioners for the execution of the said Acts:

And whereas the works by the aforesaid Acts authorised have been generally carried into effect, but large tracts of land bordering on the said river still remain subject to injurious flooding, and it would be of great public and local advantage if further works were executed by which the said lands would be relieved, facilities afforded for the relief of other lands now subject to be injuriously flooded on tributaries of the said river, and the navigation at the same time improved:

Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same:

Short title.

1. This Act may for all purposes be cited as "The Shannon Act, 1874," and the Shannon Acts of 1835, 1839, and 1846 may respectively be cited separately as the Shannon Act of 1835, 1839, and 1846, and all the Acts mentioned in this section may be cited under the short title of the Shannon Acts, 1835 to 1874.

Definition of terms.

2. The words "the Treasury" when used in this Act shall mean the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, or any two or more of them.

The words "the Commissioners" shall mean the Commissioners of Public Works in Ireland for the time being.

The word "lands" shall have the meaning assigned to that word in section one hundred and fifty-nine of the five and six Victoria, chapter eighty-nine.

The word "person" in this Act shall comprehend all corporations sole or aggregate, or any number of persons united in partnership.

Commissioners of Public Works to be Commissioners for this Act.

3. The Commissioners shall carry into effect the objects and powers of this Act, having due regard in the execution of the works by this Act authorised to the prevention of injury to the lands situate on or near the Shannon below Worlds End.

Limits of works.

4. The works to be executed under the provisions of this Act shall be confined to the lower division of the said river Shannon between Athlone and Worlds End, and also in connexion therewith works at Athlone for the regulation of the water of Lough Ree.

5. For the purposes of the works by this Act authorised the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury may from time to time direct to be issued, on the certificate of the Commissioners, out of the funds accruing under the provisions of the Acts twenty-four and twenty-five Victoria, chapter eighty-five, and twenty-nine and thirty Victoria, chapter seventy-three, and placed to the credit of the Commissioners from time to time with the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, the sum of one hundred and fifty thousand pounds, such sum to be a charge on the lands to be relieved from inundation or otherwise improved, to be secured and made repayable as herein-after provided, and the remainder of the cost of the said works shall be defrayed by moneys to be provided from time to time by Parliament; provided always, that the entire cost of the said authorised works shall not exceed the sum of three hundred thousand pounds; and provided also, that half the amount of the moneys from time to time advanced in manner aforesaid shall be a charge on the said lands so to be improved as aforesaid.

Funds provided.

6. Previously to undertaking any works under this Act the Commissioners shall from time to time submit for approval of the Treasury plans, specifications, and estimates of the works proposed to be executed under this Act; and so soon as conveniently may be after such plans, specifications, and estimates have been so approved, the Commissioners shall cause to be deposited at the Shannon Navigation Office, Athlone, or elsewhere, as they may consider convenient, a survey and valuation of the lands contemplated to be relieved from inundation and improved under this Act, describing in general terms and by reference to maps or schedules, or otherwise as the Commissioners may think fit and proper, the lands contemplated to be relieved from inundation and improved under this Act, and specifying the proprietors of such lands respectively, and the respective amounts to be charged on the lands respectively of each proprietor under this Act.

Plans of proposed works to be submitted to Treasury, and valuation to be made of lands to be charged.

The plans and specifications required by this section are herein-after included under the term "plans," and the survey and valuation, including the specification of the amounts to be charged upon the lands, are herein-after included in the term "valuation."

7. The Commissioners shall, as soon as may be after the passing of this Act, cause the valuation to be printed, and a copy to be deposited in their office, and another copy thereof to be deposited with the clerk of every union wherein the lands to be charged, or any part thereof, are situate, and such clerk of the union is hereby authorised and required to receive the same, and all persons shall have liberty to inspect the same on payment of sixpence; and when such copy has been so deposited the Commissioners shall cause notice thereof to be inserted in some one or more newspapers circulating in the district in the vicinity whereof the lands are situate; and the Commissioners shall by the same or a separate notice require all persons who may desire to object to the said valuation in respect of the description of the lands charged or of the sums charged thereon to lodge such objections at such place and before such time as is specified in such notice; and the Commissioners shall also in the said notice state that they will proceed to hear any such objection which may be made, and finally settle the valuation at such time and place as may be specified in such notice.

Commissioners to attend and hear objections.

8. The Commissioners, or one of them, shall attend at the appointed time and place, and examine into the matter of any such objection, and hear all such proper evidence as may be offered to them or him in respect thereof, and make such alterations (if any) in such valuation as they or he think fit, and may adjourn such attendance from time to time and to such place as they shall think fit, and shall settle and sign such valuation.

Commissioners to give notice.

9. The Commissioners, when they have settled such valuation, shall cause notice of such settlement to be given in the "Dublin Gazette," and in some one or more newspapers circulating in the counties of Westmeath, Roscommon, King's County, County Tipperary, Galway, Clare, Limerick, and Longford, and by such notice the proprietors of the lands contemplated to be relieved from inundation and improved under this Act shall be called upon to transmit to the Commissioners in Dublin, in such form and subject to such regulations as the Commissioners may direct, their assent or dissent to the execution of the works under this Act.

Works not to be commenced until assent of proprietors had.

10. No works shall be commenced under this Act unless the reputed proprietors of two thirds or more in value of the land proposed to be improved assent to the execution of the works by this Act authorised, and signify such assent in writing under their hands respectively to the Commissioners within six months from the date of the publication of such notice as aforesaid by the Commissioners in the "Dublin Gazette;" and the Commissioners shall, immediately upon the passing of this Act, take such steps as may seem to them desirable for obtaining such assent.

Incorporation of certain sections of 5 & 6 Vict. c. 89. (Irish Drainage Act), as to proprietors.

11. The twenty-third, twenty-fifth, twenty-sixth, and twenty-eighth sections of the Act fifth and sixth Victoria, chapter eighty-nine, are incorporated in this Act, and the definition of proprietor contained in section one hundred and fifty-nine of that Act shall apply to this Act.

Power to proceed with the works.

12. On receiving such assents as herein-before mentioned, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners to proceed with the works so approved by the Treasury, subject to such alterations or reduction therein as may from time to time be made therein, pursuant to the provisions in this Act contained.

13. It shall be lawful for the Commissioners from time to time to make such alterations, additions, or reductions in or to the works sanctioned under this Act as may from time to time be approved by the Treasury.

To provide for alterations.

14. Subject to the provisions of this Act, sections from eighteen to thirty-one, both inclusive, of the Act of the twenty-sixth and twenty-seventh Victoria, chapter eighty-eight, under the head "General Powers of Drainage Boards," shall be incorporated with this Act, and all such powers shall and may be exercised by the Commissioners in carrying out the provisions of this Act; and such last-mentioned sections shall be read as if the word "Commissioners" had been inserted throughout such sections instead of the words "Drainage Board": Provided nevertheless, that the arbitrator to be appointed under the said Act shall be appointed by the Treasury.

Incorporation of Irish Drainage Act, 26 & 27 Vict. c. 88.

15. As soon as conveniently may be after the works by this Act authorised have been completed, the Commissioners shall prepare a draft award, in which they shall set forth the several parcels or portions of land drained and improved, as referred to and specified in the survey and valuation herein-before mentioned, the respective areas of each of the said parcels, and the original and increased values thereof; and such award shall also specify the due proportion half-yearly chargeable in respect of each such parcel of land, of the amount by this Act directed to be charged upon the lands for the drainage and improvement thereof by the works by this Act authorised and provided, and shall also specify the lands of the same denomination, and belonging to same proprietors, or settled to like uses, to be also held chargeable with the amount in each case repayable as herein-after provided, and shall also set forth such other matters and things as to the Commissioners shall seem fit and proper.

On completion of works Commissioners to prepare draft award.

16. When such draft award as aforesaid shall have been prepared, the Commissioners shall cause a copy thereof to be deposited with the clerk of each of the several unions wherein the lands drained and improved, or any part thereof, may be situated; and such clerks of unions are hereby authorised and required to receive the same; and the Commissioners shall cause notice of such lodgment to be inserted in one or more of the newspapers usually circulated in the counties or districts in which such several unions are situated once in each week for three successive weeks; and the Commissioners shall also in such notice require all persons being proprietors of

A draft of the award to be printed and published, and a copy deposited with the clerk of the union.

Notice thereof to be posted at the usual places and inserted in newspapers, requiring persons objecting thereto to send in their objections.

lands charged as being improved who may desire to object to such award to lodge their objections at such time and place as shall be therein specified, and they shall also in the said notice state that they will proceed to hear and inquire into any objections which may be lodged at such time and place, or times and places, as shall in such notice be named.

Commissioners or one of them to examine into objections.

17. The Commissioners, or one of them, shall attend at such time and place, or times and places, so appointed, and shall examine into the matter of any objections to the award which shall have been lodged, and shall hear all proper evidence relative thereto, and may adjourn such attendance from time to time, and shall make such alteration as may to them seem proper, and finally settle said award: Provided always, that the whole amount by this Act directed to be charged on the lands which the works authorised are designed to relieve from injurious inundations shall, notwithstanding any alteration which on the hearing of any such objections it may be deemed proper to make, be so charged.

Award to be enrolled.

18. Such award when finally settled by the Commissioners, with proper schedules, map, or plan describing the lands therein to which such award shall relate, shall be enrolled in the Rolls Office of Her Majesty's High Court of Chancery in Ireland; and such award, when so finally settled and enrolled, shall be binding and conclusive on all parties; and a copy thereof, certified by the proper officer of Her Majesty's Rolls Office, shall be conclusive evidence that all the requisitions of this Act in relation thereto were complied with.

Lands to become chargeable with rentcharge.

19. The several lands mentioned in the said award shall from the date thereof become charged with the payment to Her Majesty of an annual rentcharge of five pounds for every one hundred pounds charged on the said lands respectively, and so in proportion for every lesser amount, to be payable for the term of thirty-five years; such rentcharge to be paid by equal half-yearly payments on the fifth day of April and tenth day of October in every year, the first of such payments to be made on the first of such days which shall happen after the date of said award: Provided always, that where the gross sum chargeable by the said award upon any particular parcel or denomination of land shall not exceed the sum of one hundred pounds, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners by the said award to fix and determine the instalments by which such sum, together with interest at the rate of four pounds per cent. per annum from the date of said award, shall be repaid; and such instalments shall be chargeable and recoverable in like manner as the rentcharge aforesaid.

Priority of rentcharge.

20. Every such rentcharge or instalment shall take priority of all charges and incumbrances whatsoever and whensoever made, and of all rent payable out of the said lands, save and except quitrents and rentcharges in lieu of tithes, and also save all charges prior in date (if any) created under the authority or provisions of any Act of Parliament heretofore passed; and section one of an Act passed in the twenty-ninth Victoria, chapter twenty-six, intituled "An Act to secure the repayment of public moneys advanced for the drainage and improvement of lands and other like objects in Ireland," shall extend to and include charges created under the provisions of this Act.

21. The rentcharge aforesaid, charged by virtue of this Act upon any lands improved under this Act, shall be held to be chargeable upon such other lands being part of the same denomination or townland, and belonging to the same proprietor, or settled to the like uses as may, by the award of the Commissioners, be made chargeable therewith, subject as to such last-mentioned lands to the full amount of all incumbrances affecting the same at the date of such award.

Rentcharge upon other lands of the same proprietors.

22. Any rentcharge payable under this Act shall be paid to the Commissioners, or to such persons and in such manner as the Treasury may from time to time appoint, and the receipt of the Commissioners or their accountant, or any other persons to whom any rentcharge directed to be paid, shall be a sufficient discharge for the same.

Rentcharge to be paid to the Commissioners.

23. The thirty-ninth, fortieth, forty-second, forty-third, forty-fifth, forty-sixth, forty-ninth, fiftieth, fifty-first, fifty-second, fifty-third, fifty-sixth, and fifty-seventh sections of the Act tenth Victoria, chapter thirty-two, being an Act to facilitate the improvement of landed property in Ireland, and section one of the Act twelve and thirteen Victoria, chapter fifty-nine, and the second section of the Act thirty-five and thirty-six Victoria, chapter thirty-one, shall be deemed to be incorporated in this Act, save that every act in any of said sections directed to be done by or to the Paymaster of Civil Service shall be done by or to the Commissioners, and shall be as effectual to all intents and purposes as any such act would have been if done by or to the Paymaster under the provisions of the said last-mentioned Act.

Incorporation of certain sections of 10 Vict. c. 32.

For recovery of rentcharge. And as to tenants paying for landlords.

Proprietors charging increased rent.

24. The Act of 1839 shall, except where its provisions are inconsistent with or repugnant to the provisions of this Act, be incorporated therewith as one Act, and all the powers, authorities, and privileges of the Commissioners mentioned in that Act as to the execution of works, the care, conservancy, and maintenance of the River Shannon, and of the works connected therewith, imposing, demanding, receiving, and enforcing payment of tolls, making byelaws, or otherwise howsoever, shall vest in the Commissioners for the purposes of this Act.

Incorporation of certain provisions of 2 & 3 Vict. c. 61.

CHAPTER 61.

An Act for granting Compensation to Officers of the Royal (late Indian) Ordnance Corps.

[7th August 1874.]

WHEREAS it is expedient to grant compensation, in manner herein-after mentioned, to officers of the Royal (late Indian) Ordnance Corps :

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

Short title.

1. This Act may be cited for all purposes as "The Royal (late Indian) Ordnance Corps Act, 1874."

Compensation to officers of the Royal (late Indian) Ordnance Corps.

2. Subject as herein-after mentioned, the Army Purchase Commissioners acting under the Regulation of the Forces Act, 1871, in this Act referred to as the Commissioners, shall have power to consider the claims on retirement of any officers, who on the first day of November one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one, were serving in any one of the corps following ; that is to say,

The Royal (late Bengal) Artillery,
The Royal (late Bengal) Engineers,
The Royal (late Madras) Artillery,
The Royal (late Madras) Engineers,
The Royal (late Bombay) Artillery, or
The Royal (late Bombay) Engineers ; and to grant to any of the said officers who have retired since the said first day of November, or who may hereafter be permitted to retire, a compensation equal to the sums they would have received according to the custom, if any, of their corps, as or in the nature of a bonus for such retirement had they retired from their regiment on the said day, after deducting such sums (if any) as they may have received from the Indian revenues in respect or on account of such bonus.

Condition precedent to payment of compensation.

3. Compensation shall not be granted in pursuance of this Act to any officer of any of the said corps until arrangements have been made to the satisfaction of the Commissioners, and in such manner as they may direct, for payment or securing payment into the receipt of the Exchequer, for the use of the public, by or on account of the corps to which such officer belongs, of any available sums, securities, or obligations constituting or standing to the account of any sinking fund or other fund, by whatever name known, formed after the amalgamation of the Indian with the British army, for the purpose of securing to every existing officer of such corps a bonus on retirement.

Any trustees or other persons having in their possession or under their control any such sinking or other fund as is in this section mentioned, or any sums, securities, or obligations constituting the same, are hereby empowered (but are not required unless they think it expedient so to do) to pay the same into the Exchequer for the use of the public; and they shall not be restrained from so doing by any court of law or equity whatsoever.

4. Any such trustees or other persons as aforesaid, before paying into the Exchequer such fund as aforesaid belonging to any corps, may, with the assent of the Commissioners, repay to officers in such corps any sums paid by them to retiring officers for the purpose of making good to such last-mentioned officers any deficiencies in the customary amounts receivable by them in respect of bonus on retirement; and the Commissioners, in estimating the amount of compensation payable to any officer of any corps under this Act may take into account, as against such officer, the amount of any bonus which such officer may have failed to pay to any retiring officer of his corps in respect of the customary amount receivable by such last-mentioned officer in respect of bonus on retirement.

Adjustment of accounts.

5. The Commissioners shall grant a certificate to any trustees or other persons dealing in manner authorised by this Act with any fund belonging to any of the said corps, and such certificate shall indemnify any person dealing with such fund against all actions and legal proceedings whatsoever which might have been brought against him in respect of such dealings and against all claims whatsoever of persons interested in the fund so dealt with; and such fund shall be discharged from all claims of the persons so interested therein.

Certificate of Commissioners to be indemnity to trustees and others.

6. All powers vested in the Commissioners by the said Regulation of the Forces Act, 1871, for or in relation to their proceedings under that Act, shall apply to their proceedings under this Act, and may be exercised by them for ascertaining any matter or fact, or doing any Act required to be ascertained or done by them for the purposes of this Act, in the same manner in all respects as if their proceedings under this Act were proceedings under the said Regulation of the Forces Act, 1871.

Powers of Commissioners applicable for purposes of this Act.

7. All expenses incurred by the Commissioners in carrying into effect this Act shall be defrayed out of moneys provided by Parliament.

Provision for expenses of compensating officers.

CHAPTER 62.*An Act to amend the Law as to the Contracts of Infants.
[7th August 1874.]

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the law as to the contracts of infants, and as to the ratification made by persons of full age of contracts made by them during infancy, and as to necessities:

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

Contracts by infants, except for necessities, to be void.

1. All contracts, whether by specialty or by simple contract, henceforth entered into by infants for the repayment of money lent or to be lent, or for goods supplied or to be supplied (other than contracts for necessities), and all accounts stated with infants, shall be absolutely void: Provided always, that this enactment shall not invalidate any contract into which an infant may, by any existing or future statute, or by the rules of common law or equity, enter, except such as now by law are voidable.

No action to be brought on ratification of infant's contract.

2. No action shall be brought whereby to charge any person upon any promise made after full age to pay any debt contracted during infancy, or upon any ratification made after full age of any promise or contract made during infancy, whether there shall or shall not be any new consideration for such promise or ratification after full age.

Short title.

3. This Act may be cited as The Infants Relief Act, 1874.

CHAPTER 63.*An Act to facilitate the re-arrangement of the Boundaries of Archdeaconries and Rural Deaneries.

[7th August 1874.]

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the session of Parliament holden in the sixth and seventh years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, chapter seventy-seven, it was enacted that the limits of archdeaconries and rural deaneries might, by the authority thereby provided, be newly arranged, so that every parish and extra-parochial place be within a rural deanery, and every deanery within an archdeaconry, and that no archdeaconry extend beyond the limits of one diocese:

And whereas by an Act passed in the session of Parliament holden in the third and fourth years of Her present Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, section thirty-two, it was enacted that any archdeaconry or rural deanery might, by the authority thereby provided, be divided into two or more portions, and each of such portions might be constituted a separate archdeaconry or rural deanery, as the case might be :

And whereas it is expedient to explain the said power of newly arranging the limits of archdeaconries and rural deaneries :

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

1. The provisions contained in the first section of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, chapter seventy-seven, and in the thirty-second section of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her present Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, shall be construed and extended so as to authorise and always to have authorised the Ecclesiastical Commissioners by any scheme or schemes made and approved in manner provided by any Act for the time being in force relating to such schemes, to do, from time to time and as often as may be deemed expedient, all or any of the following things in any diocese ; that is to say,

Extension of powers of re-arranging arch-deaconries, &c. under 6 & 7 Will. 4. c. 77. and 3 & 4 Vict. c. 113.

- (1.) To alter the area or areas of any archdeaconry or archdeaconries for the time being, or of any rural deanery or rural deaneries for the time being ; and
- (2.) To diminish the number of archdeaconries and of rural deaneries for the time being ; and
- (3.) To constitute any new area or new areas a rural deanery or rural deaneries ; and
- (4.) To alter the name or names of any archdeaconry or archdeaconries, or of any rural deanery or rural deaneries, for the time being ; and to give a name or names to any newly constituted archdeaconry or archdeaconries, or any newly constituted rural deanery or rural deaneries.

Provided,

- (a.) That in the case of any such scheme as aforesaid made since the date of the passing of the last-mentioned Act, the consent of the bishop of the diocese affected by such scheme must have been given under his hand and seal ; and
- (b.) That in the case of any such scheme, every parish must in its entirety be within a rural deanery, and every rural deanery must in its entirety be within an archdeaconry, and an archdeaconry must not extend beyond the limits of one diocese.

2. As soon as may be after the passing of this Act, a schedule under the hand and seal of the bishop shall be deposited

Schedule of rural deaneries

[No. 29. Price 2d.] F f

to be deposited in the registry of each diocese, setting forth the portions or divisions of the diocese which at the time of the passing of the Act were accounted and held to be rural deaneries; and such portions or divisions of the diocese shall be regarded and held to be rural deaneries as if they had been constituted such under the provisions of this Act.

CHAPTER 64.

An Act to further alter and amend the Law of Evidence in Scotland, and to provide for the recording, by means of Short-hand Writing, of Evidence in Civil Causes in Sheriff Courts in Scotland.

[7th August 1874.]

Sect. 4. of
16 & 17 Vict.
c. 20. repealed.

1. The fourth section of the Act of the sixteenth and seventeenth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, chapter twenty, intituled "An Act to alter and amend an Act of the fifteenth year of Her present Majesty for amending the law of evidence in Scotland," is hereby repealed.

Parties and their husbands and wives to be witnesses in proceedings on account of adultery.

2. The parties to any proceeding instituted in consequence of adultery, and the husbands and wives of such parties, shall be competent to give evidence in such proceeding; provided that no witness in any proceeding, whether a party to the suit or not, shall be liable to be asked or bound to answer any question tending to show that he or she has been guilty of adultery, unless such witness shall have already given evidence in the same proceeding in disproof of his or her alleged adultery.

Law as to proof of promise of marriage in declarator of marriage founded thereon, cum copula subsequ-ente, not to be altered.

3. Nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to alter or affect the law of Scotland in force at and prior to the passing of this Act relating to the proof of a promise of marriage in any action of declarator of marriage founded upon promise of marriage, cum copula subsequente.

Short-hand writers may be employed to record evidence in sheriff courts.

4. In every case of a proof in a civil cause or proceeding in a sheriff court in Scotland, and in every case of evidence being taken in any such cause or proceeding to lie in retentis, the following provisions shall have effect:

(1.) It shall be competent to the sheriff, on the motion of any party to the cause or proceeding and if he sees fit, to cause the evidence to be taken down and recorded in short-hand by a writer skilled in short-hand writing, to whom the oath de fideli administratione shall be administered, provided that the sheriff shall himself dictate to the short-hand writer the evidence which he is to record, and a note of the documents adduced and any admissions made by the parties :

- (2.) When a short-hand writer is so employed he shall be appointed by the sheriff and paid by the parties in the first instance equally, and the extended notes of such short-hand writer, certified by him as correct, shall be the record of the oral evidence in the case ; provided that, should the correctness of the said record of evidence be questioned, it shall be competent to the sheriff to satisfy himself in regard thereto, by the examination of witnesses or otherwise, and, if necessary, to amend the said record.

5. In this Act the term "sheriff" includes sheriff substitute, and any person appointed by a sheriff to take evidence on commission according to the present law and practice. Interpretation of terms.

6. This Act may be cited for all purposes as "The Evidence Further Amendment (Scotland) Act, 1874." Short title.

CHAPTER 65.

An Act to enable Her Majesty to provide for the Support and Maintenance of His Royal Highness Prince Leopold George Duncan Albert on his coming of age. [7th August 1874.]

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Commons of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in Parliament assembled, having taken into consideration Your Majesty's most gracious message, that Your Majesty is desirous of making competent provision for the honourable support and maintenance of Your Majesty's fourth son, His Royal Highness Prince Leopold George Duncan Albert, on his coming of age, do most humbly beseech Your Majesty that it may be enacted ; and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

1. It shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by letters patent under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, to grant unto His said Royal Highness, or to such persons as Her Majesty may think fit to name in the said Power to Her Majesty to grant an annuity of 15,000l. to

Prince Leopold
George Duncan
Albert for life.

letters patent, on trust for His said Royal Highness, and subject to such conditions as Her Majesty may direct, an annuity of fifteen thousand pounds for his life, such annuity to commence from the seventh day of April one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, the day on which His said Royal Highness came of age, to be free from all taxes, assessments, and charges, and to be paid quarterly on the fifth day of January, the fifth day of April, the fifth day of July, and the tenth day of October.

Payment of proportionate part of annuity.

2. The first payment of the said annuity shall include such portion thereof as may have accrued between the said date of His said Royal Highness coming of age and the first of the said quarterly days which happens after the passing of this Act, and shall be made on such last-mentioned day, and a proportionate part shall be payable between the last quarterly day of payment and the day of the determination thereof: Provided that in the event of His said Royal Highness succeeding to any sovereignty or principality abroad it shall be lawful for Her Majesty or her successors, with the consent of Parliament, to revoke or reduce the said annuity by warrant under the Sign Manual.

Annuity;
granted by this Act to be charged on the Consolidated Fund.

3. The annuity granted in pursuance of this Act shall, if Her Majesty think fit so to direct, be a personal and inalienable provision, and the same shall be charged on and payable out of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or the growing produce thereof, after paying or reserving sufficient to pay such sums as may have been directed to be paid out of the said fund by former Acts of Parliament, but with preference to all other payments which may hereafter be charged on the said fund.

CHAPTER 66.

An Act to enlarge the Jurisdiction of the Civil Bill Courts in Ireland in respect to the recovery of Balances due on partnership Accounts, and in respect of Actions involving Questions of Title to corporeal and incorporeal Hereditaments.

[7th August 1874.]

WHEREAS it is expedient to enlarge the jurisdiction of the Civil Bill Courts in Ireland in respect to the recovery of balances due on partnership accounts, and in respect of actions involving questions of title to corporeal or incorporeal hereditaments:

Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and

Temporal, and Commons, in the present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

1. The chairmen of every county in Ireland shall have jurisdiction to try by civil bill actions for the recovery of any debt or demand not exceeding forty pounds alleged to be due as the balance of a partnership account, whether the balance shall have been ascertained or not previous to the issuing of the civil bill ; and such chairmen shall, in addition to any jurisdiction in respect of lands and hereditaments which they already possess, also have jurisdiction to try by civil bill actions in which the title to any corporeal or incorporeal hereditament shall come in question, when the value of the land in dispute, or in respect of which an easement or license is claimed, or on, through, over, or under which such easement or license is claimed, shall not exceed twenty pounds by the year as valued under the Acts relating to the valuation of rateable property in Ireland ; but the decision of the chairmen in any action in which the title to any corporeal or incorporeal hereditament shall be in question shall not be evidence of title between the parties or their privies in any other action relating to any other corporeal or incorporeal hereditament, although the same may depend in the whole or in part on the same title : Provided however, that this section shall not extend to any action in which title to any fishery or right of fishing shall come in question.

Balances of partnership accounts, whether ascertained or not at the time of the issuing process, not exceeding 40*l.*, and actions involving title to corporeal or incorporeal hereditaments, may be brought in the civil bill court, but decrees in the latter cases shall not be evidence of title in other actions.

2. The defendant in any civil bill in which the title to a corporeal or incorporeal hereditament shall be in question may, at any time after the service of the civil bill on him, apply to a judge of one of Her Majesty's Superior Courts of Common Law in Ireland for a summons to the plaintiff to show cause why such action shall not be tried in one of the Superior Courts of Common Law in Ireland on the ground that the title to lands or hereditaments of greater annual value than twenty pounds as before defined would be affected by the decision in such action, or on any other ground which may make it more proper to have the case tried in any of such Courts ; and on the hearing of such summons the judge may, if he think expedient, order, on such terms as he may think proper to impose, that the proceedings in the civil bill court shall be discontinued, and that such action shall be tried in one of the Superior Courts of Common Law in Ireland.

Proceedings in cases involving title to corporeal or incorporeal hereditaments may be stayed in the civil bill court and ordered to be heard in the superior courts by order of the judge.

3. This Act shall come into force on the first day of December one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, and shall be construed as one Act with the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth year of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-seven, and the several Acts amending or altering the same.

When the Act shall come into force, and how it is to be construed.

CHAPTER 67.

An Act to regulate and otherwise deal with Slaughter-houses and certain other Businesses in the Metropolis.
[7th August 1874.]

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the law in the Metropolis relating to slaughter-houses and certain other businesses herein-after specified :

Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

Preliminary.

Short title of Act.

1. This Act may be cited for all purposes as the Slaughter-houses, &c. (Metropolis) Act, 1874.

Regulations as to Businesses.

Absolute prohibition against establishing anew certain businesses.

2. If any person establishes anew within the limits of this Act the following businesses or any of them ; that is to say, the business of—

Blood boiler, or Bone boiler, or Manure manufacturer, or Soap boiler, or Tallow melter, or Knacker,

he shall incur a penalty not exceeding fifty pounds in respect of the establishment thereof, and any person carrying on the same when established shall incur a penalty not exceeding fifty pounds for every day during which he so carries on the same.

Certain businesses may be established anew with sanction of local authority.

3. If any person establishes anew within the limits of this Act, without the sanction of the local authority, the following businesses or any of them ; that is to say, the business of—

Fellmonger, or Tripe boiler, or Slaughterer of cattle, or Any other business which the local authority may declare by order confirmed by the Local Government Board and published in the London Gazette to be an offensive business, he shall incur a penalty not exceeding fifty pounds in respect of the establishment thereof, and any person carrying on the same when established shall incur a penalty not exceeding fifty pounds for every day during which he so carries on the same.

The sanction of the local authority shall be given by order certified under their seal, or under the hand of their clerk, but previously to making any such order, the local authority shall give notice thereof to the vestry of the parish within which the premises are situate at least fourteen days before such application is considered, and also give notice by advertisement of the time and place at which they will be willing to hear all persons objecting to such order, and shall take into their consideration any objections made at such time and place, and shall grant or withhold such sanction as they may think expedient.

4. The local authority may from time to time make, alter, and repeal byelaws for regulating the conduct of any businesses specified in this Act, which are for the time being lawfully carried on within their jurisdiction, and the structure of the premises on which such business is being carried on, and the mode in which application is to be made to the local authority for their sanction to establish anew any business under this Act:

Power of local authority to make byelaws.

Pecuniary penalties (to be recovered before a court of summary jurisdiction) may be imposed by any such byelaws on persons breaking any byelaw regulating the conduct of any of the said businesses, provided that no penalty exceeds for any one offence the sum of five pounds, or in the case of a continuing offence, the sum of one pound for every day during which such offence is continued after conviction for the first offence.

Also power may be given by any such byelaw as last aforesaid to a court of summary jurisdiction by summary order to suspend or deprive any person altogether of the right of carrying on any business to which such byelaw relates as a penalty for breaking the same.

Any byelaw made in pursuance of this section, and any alteration made therein, and any repeal of a byelaw, shall not be of any validity until it has been confirmed by the Local Government Board.

A byelaw made under this Act shall not nor shall any alteration therein or repeal thereof be confirmed by the Local Government Board until the expiration of one month after notice of the intention to apply for confirmation of the same has been given by the local authority in one or more newspapers circulating in the Metropolis; and any vestry or district board or person aggrieved by any such proposed byelaw or alteration in or repeal of a byelaw may forward notice of his objection to the Local Government Board, who shall take the same into consideration.

If for a period of four months after the passing of this Act the local authority fail in exercising the powers of making byelaws given by this Act, the Local Government Board may, by order to be published in such manner as that Board may direct, make such byelaws of their own motion, and may by a like order alter and repeal such byelaws and make other byelaws in lieu thereof; and all byelaws so made shall have the same effect and may be enforced in like manner as byelaws made by the local authority and duly confirmed by the Local Government Board.

Legal Proceedings and Miscellaneous.

Legal proceedings.

5. All offences and penalties under this Act, or any byelaw made in pursuance of this Act, may be prosecuted and recovered before a court of summary jurisdiction in manner provided by the Summary Jurisdiction Act.

The term "The Summary Jurisdiction Act," means the Act of the session of the eleventh and twelfth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, chapter forty-three, intitled "An Act to facilitate the performance of the duties of Justices of the Peace out of sessions within England and Wales with respect to summary convictions and orders," inclusive of any Acts amending the same:

The term "Court of Summary Jurisdiction" means and includes any justice or justices of the peace, lord mayor or alderman of the city of London, or metropolitan police magistrate.

The Court of Summary Jurisdiction, when hearing and determining an information or complaint under this Act, shall be constituted in some one of the following manners; that is to say, either of two or more justices of the peace in petty sessions sitting at a place appointed for holding petty sessions, or of one of the magistrates herein-after mentioned sitting alone or with others at some court or other place appointed for the administration of justice, that is to say, the Lord Mayor, or any alderman of the city of London, or a metropolitan police magistrate.

Any person disobeying any summary order of a court of summary jurisdiction made in pursuance of this Act shall incur a penalty not exceeding fifty pounds for every day during which disobedience continues.

Appeal to quarter sessions.

6. If any party feels aggrieved by any order or conviction made by a court of summary jurisdiction under or in pursuance of this Act, the party so aggrieved may appeal therefrom, subject to the conditions and regulations following:

- (1.) The appeal shall be made to some court of general or quarter sessions for the county or place in which the cause of appeal has arisen, holden not less than fifteen days and not more than four months after the decision of the court from which the appeal is made:
- (2.) The appellant shall, within seven days after the cause of appeal has arisen, give notice to the other party and to the court of summary jurisdiction of his intention to appeal, and of the ground thereof:

- (3.) The appellant shall, immediately after such notice, enter into a recognizance before a justice of the peace, with two sufficient sureties, conditioned personally to try such appeal, and to abide the judgment of the court thereon, and to pay such costs as may be awarded by the court, or give such other security by deposit of money or otherwise as the justice may allow:
- (4.) The court of appeal may adjourn the appeal, and upon the hearing thereof they may confirm, reverse, or modify the decision of the court of summary jurisdiction, or remit the matter to the court of summary jurisdiction with the opinion of the court of appeal thereon, or make such other order in the matter as the court thinks just. The court of appeal may also make such order as to costs to be paid by either party as the court thinks just.

7. All byelaws made by the local authority under this Act shall be printed, and a copy thereof shall be delivered to any person carrying on any of the businesses specified in this Act within the limits of this Act, upon his application for the same, without payment of any fee, and to any other person, on payment of such sum, not exceeding one shilling, as the local authority may from time to time prescribe. Byelaws to be printed.

8. Any byelaw or order made by the local authority in pursuance of this Act may be proved by the production of a printed copy of such byelaw or order purporting to be certified by the clerk of the local authority to be a true copy, or purporting to be sealed by the seal of the local authority; and any such byelaw or order shall, until the contrary is proved, be deemed to have been duly made and confirmed in pursuance of this Act. Evidence of byelaws.

9. There shall be charged for an order sanctioning the establishment anew of any one of the said businesses, permitted to be established anew, such fee not exceeding ten shillings as the local authority may prescribe. Fees for sanction of local authority.

Any such fees shall be carried to such account for the benefit of the local authority as that authority may prescribe, and shall be applicable to the purposes for which the local rate is applicable.

10. Where the sanction of the local authority has been given under this Act to a slaughterer of cattle to establish his business anew on any premises within the limits of this Act, a license to use such premises as a slaughter-house shall be granted as a matter of course by the justices assembled at the first special sessions for licensing slaughter-houses held after the grant of such sanction, in pursuance of section ninety- Amendment of law as to renewal of licenses for slaughter-houses in special session under "Metropolis Management Amendment Act, 1862."

three of "The Metropolis Management Amendment Act, 1862."

Before any license by the justices assembled at special sessions for the use of any premises as a slaughter-house is renewed under the last-mentioned section, fourteen days previous notice of the intention to apply for such license to be renewed shall be served on the Metropolitan Board of Works as well as on the other parties in the said section in that behalf mentioned, to the intent that such Board may, if they think fit, show cause against such license being renewed, in like manner as such other parties are empowered by that section to show cause.

An objection shall not be entertained to a license under the said section for the use of any premises as a slaughter-house being renewed unless seven days previous notice has been served on the applicant of the intention of the objector to bring forward such objection, with this exception, that notwithstanding notice has not been given, the justices may, if they think it just so to do, on an objection being made, and notice of such objection being served on the applicant, adjourn the question as to renewing any license to a future day, and require the attendance of the holder of the license on such day, when the case shall be heard and the objection considered as if the notice herein-before directed had been given.

A license under the said section ninety-three for the use of premises as a slaughter-house shall, for the purposes of this Act, be deemed to be renewed in all cases where a further license is granted under the said section in immediate succession to a prior license being granted for the use of the same premises as a slaughter-house.

Power of inspectors of Privy Council to enter slaughter-houses and knackers yards for detection of disease.

11. Any person for the time being appointed by the Privy Council an inspector for the purposes of the Contagious Diseases (Animals) Act, 1869, may enter on the premises occupied by any slaughterer of cattle or knacker, within the limits of this Act, and inspect any live or dead animals therein for the purpose of detecting the presence of any contagious or infectious disease, and any person obstructing any such inspector in entering such premises or placing any obstacle in the way of his making such inspection as aforesaid, shall incur a penalty not exceeding twenty pounds.

Definitions.

Definitions.

12. In this Act, if not inconsistent with the context, the following expressions shall have the meanings herein-after respectively assigned to them; that is to say,

"The Metropolis" means the parishes and places mentioned in the Schedules A, B, and C, annexed to the Metropolis Management Act, 1855, and any parish to which such Act may be extended by Order in Council in manner in the said Act provided ; also the city of London and the liberties of the said city :

“The local authority” means, as respects the parishes and places mentioned in the Schedules A, B, and C, annexed to the Metropolis Management Act, 1855, and any parish to which such Act may be extended by Order in Council in manner in the said Act provided, the Metropolitan Board of Works, and as respects the city of London and the liberties thereof, the Commissioners of Sewers :

“The clerk of the local authority” means as respects the Metropolis, “the clerk of the Metropolitan Board of Works,” and as respects the city of London, “the chief clerk of the Commissioners of Sewers :”

“The limits of this Act” means the area of the Metropolis as herein-before defined :

“The local rate” means, as respects the Metropolis, “the rate or fund applicable to the payment of the general expenses of the Metropolitan Board of Works ;” as respects the city of London, the “consolidated sewer rate :”

“Slaughterer of cattle” means a person whose business it is to kill any description of cattle, including sheep, goats, or swine, which is killed for the purpose of its flesh being used as butchers meat :

“Knacker” means a person whose business it is to slaughter any horse, ass, or mule, or any cattle, sheep, goat, or swine which is not killed for the purpose of its flesh being used as butchers meat.

13. A business shall be deemed to be established anew if it is removed from any one set of premises to any other premises, or if it is renewed on the same set of premises after having been discontinued for a period of nine months or upwards, or if any premises on which it is for the time being carried on are enlarged without the sanction of the local authority ; but a business shall not be deemed to be established anew by reason only that the ownership of such premises is wholly or partially changed, or by reason only that the building on which it is established having been wholly or partially pulled down or burnt down has been reconstructed without any extension of its area.

When a business to be deemed established anew.

Repeal and Saving Clauses.

14. There shall be repealed the following enactments ; that is to say, Repeal of Acts.

- (1.) Sections 55 and 56 of the Act of the session of the seventh and eighth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, chapter eighty-four, and intituled “An Act for regulating the construction and use of buildings

“ in the Metropolis and its neighbourhood,” so far as relates to the several businesses of a soap boiler, tallow melter, knacker, fellmonger, tripe boiler, or slaughterer of cattle.

Provided that the repeal enacted in this Act shall not affect —

- (1.) Anything duly done or suffered under any enactment hereby repealed; or
- (2.) Any penalty, forfeiture, or other punishment incurred or to be incurred in respect of any offence against any enactment hereby repealed; or
- (3.) The institution of any investigation or legal proceeding or any other remedy for ascertaining, enforcing, or recovering any such liability, penalty, forfeiture, or punishment as aforesaid.

Continuance of byelaws.

15. All byelaws and regulations in force at the time of the passing of this Act, in relation to any of the businesses, for the regulation of which a power of making byelaws is given by this Act, shall continue in force until repealed by byelaws made in pursuance of this Act, power being given to repeal, in relation to any such last-mentioned business, by byelaw made in pursuance of this Act, any byelaw or regulation in force in relation to such business at the time of the passing of this Act. But from and after the passing of this Act the local authority shall not have power to make any byelaws or regulations in respect of any business which they are empowered to regulate by byelaw under this Act, except by byelaw made in pursuance of this Act.

Exemption
regarding the Metropolitan Cattle Market,
&c.

16. Nothing in this Act shall render it necessary for the mayor, aldermen, and commons of the city of London, or their tenants, to make application to the local authority for an order to enable them to slaughter cattle at the Metropolitan Cattle Market, or at the cattle market at Deptford, or enable the local authority to make byelaws affecting those markets or the slaughter-houses now erected or that may be erected at either of these markets.

Saving.

17. Nothing in this Act contained shall affect the general law of nuisance, or make legal any act or default which would have been illegal if this Act had not passed, or, save as in this Act expressly provided, affect any Act of Parliament relating to any business specified in this Act.

CHAPTER 68.*An Act to amend the Law relating to Attorneys and Solicitors.
[7th August 1874.]

WHEREAS by the Act twenty-three and twenty-four 23 & 24 Vict. c. 127. s. 10. Victoria, chapter one hundred and twenty-seven, intituled "An Act to amend the laws relating to attorneys, solicitors, proctors, and certificated conveyancers" (in this Act referred to as the Act of 1860), it is (section ten) enacted that no person thereafter bound by articles of clerkship to any attorney or solicitor shall, during the term of service mentioned in such articles, hold any office or engage in any employment whatsoever other than the employment of clerk to such attorney or solicitor and his partner or partners (if any) in the business, practice, or employment of an attorney or solicitor, save as by the Act six and seven Victoria, chapter seventy-three (in this Act referred to as the Act of 1843), or by the Act of 1860, otherwise provided; and that every person bound as aforesaid shall, before being admitted an attorney or solicitor, prove by the affidavit required under the fourteenth section of the Act of 1843 that he has not held any office or engaged in any employment contrary to the enactment now in recital, and that the form of such affidavit as aforesaid shall be varied by such addition thereto as may be necessary for that purpose:

And whereas it is expedient that the restriction contained in the recited enactment should not be enforced in cases in which such consent and sanction as by this Act provided are obtained:

And whereas by the Act of 1860 (section twenty-four) it 23 & 24 Vict. c. 127. s. 24. is further enacted that where the name of any attorney or solicitor is ordered to be struck off the roll of attorneys or solicitors of any court, on his own application or on the application of any other person, the rule or order for that purpose shall forthwith and before the same is acted upon be produced to the registrar of attorneys and solicitors (in this Act referred to as the registrar), and that the registrar shall enter a note or minute of the rule or order in connexion with the name of such attorney or solicitor on the roll of attorneys and solicitors kept by the registrar, and shall strike the name off the roll, and shall mark the rule or order as having been entered:

And whereas it is expedient that where application is intended to be made by any third person to strike the name of any attorney or solicitor off the roll of attorneys or solicitors of any court notice of the intended application be given to the registrar, and that such power as is in this Act in that behalf contained be conferred upon the registrar in respect thereof:

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords

Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

Short title.      1. This Act may be cited as "The Attorneys and Solicitors Act, 1874."

Extent of Act.    2. This Act shall extend only to England and Wales.

Interpretation.   3. All words and expressions to which, by the Act of 1860, meanings are assigned shall have in this Act the same respective meanings.

Exceptions from recited enactment.      4. The recited enactment (section ten) of the Act of 1860 shall not henceforth apply to cases in which any person bound by articles as therein mentioned shall before or after he enters upon the office, or engages in the employment, have applied for and obtained—

(a.) The consent thereto in writing of the attorney or solicitor to whom he is bound ; and

(b.) The sanction thereto of one of the judges of one of the superior courts of law at Westminster, or the Master of the Rolls, or one of the judges of the High Court of Justice, to be evidenced by an order of such judge :

Provided that this section shall apply to the case of any person bound by articles expiring after or not more than two years before the passing of this Act who shall have held any office or been engaged in any employment during the service under such articles before or after the passing of this Act, and who within one year after the passing of this Act, or within one year after the expiration of his articles, shall prove, by an affidavit from the attorney or solicitor to whom he is bound, or by such other evidence as shall be satisfactory to such judge, that the holding of such office, or being engaged in such employment, was with the consent of the attorney or solicitor to whom he was or is bound, and has not interfered with due service under such articles, and the judge hearing such application shall have power to make any order which he shall think fit as to the service by the person so bound as aforesaid for the remainder of the term of service of his articles, or any part thereof, after the acceptance of such office, or as to the passing of any examination.

Provided that not less than fourteen days before any such application to a judge is made notice in writing of the application shall be given to the registrar, which notice shall state the names and residences of the applicant, and of the attorney or solicitor to whom he is bound, and the nature of the office or employment, and the time it is expected to occupy.

Judge may attach conditions to order.

5. Any such judge making any such order may in and by the order impose on the applicant such terms and conditions touching the office or engagement and his employment therein as such judge thinks fit.

6. Where any terms or conditions shall be so imposed, and the person authorised by the order shall accept the office, or engage in the employment, he shall, before being admitted an attorney or solicitor, prove to the satisfaction of a judge of one of the superior courts of law at Westminster, or the Master of the Rolls, or one of the judges of the High Court of Justice, and of the examiners for the time being appointed under the provisions of the Act of 1860, or of any Act amending the same, to examine persons applying to be admitted as attorneys and solicitors, that he has duly observed and fulfilled those terms and conditions.

Proof of compliance with conditions.

7. Where application is intended to be made to any court for an order or rule to strike the name of any attorney or solicitor (not being an attorney or solicitor making the application) off the roll of attorneys or solicitors of such court, or for an order or rule to compel him to answer the matters of an affidavit, notice in writing shall be given to the registrar of such intended application fourteen clear days at the least before such application shall be made.

Notice to be given to registrar of applications to strike names of attorneys or solicitors off the roll.

8. Copies of all affidavits intended to be used in support of such application shall be delivered to the registrar with the notice.

Copies of affidavits to accompany notice.

9. The court shall not entertain any such application, except upon production of an affidavit proving that the notice required by this Act has been duly given, and that copies of all such affidavits have been duly delivered to the registrar.

Court not to entertain application except on proof of notice, &c.

10. The registrar may appear by counsel upon the hearing of any such application, and upon any other proceedings arising out of or in reference to the application, and may apply to the court to make absolute any rule nisi which may have been granted by the court in the matter of such application, or to make an order that the name of the attorney or solicitor be struck off the roll of attorneys or solicitors of the said court, or, as the case may be, to order the attorney or solicitor to answer the matters of the affidavit, or such other order as to the court may seem fit; and it shall be lawful for the court to order the costs, charges, and expenses of the registrar of or relating to any of the matters aforesaid, to be paid by the attorney or solicitor against whom any such application is made or was intended to be made, or by the person by or on whose behalf the application is made or was intended to be made, or partly by the one and partly by the other of them.

Registrar may appear on application, &c.

11. Where any court or any judge of any court shall, upon motion, have ordered or directed a rule (whether nisi or absolute) or order to be drawn up for striking the name of any attorney or solicitor off the roll of attorneys or solicitors of such court, or for compelling an attorney or solicitor to answer the matters of an affidavit, and such rule shall not have been drawn up by or on behalf of the person applying for the same within one week after the order or direction for drawing up the same shall have been made or given, it shall be lawful for the registrar to cause the rule or order to be drawn up, and all future proceedings thereupon shall be had and taken as if the application for the rule or order had in the first instance been made to the court by the registrar.

Registrar may draw up rules and orders not drawn up by applicants.

Penalty for wrongfully acting as attorney or solicitor.

12. Any person who wilfully and falsely pretends to be or takes or uses any name, title, addition, or description implying that he is duly qualified to act as an attorney or solicitor, or that he is recognised by law as so qualified, shall be guilty of an offence under this Act, and be liable to a penalty not exceeding the sum of ten pounds for each such offence.

No costs recoverable by disqualified attorney or solicitor.

No costs, fee, reward, or disbursement on account of or in relation to any act or proceeding done or taken by any person who acts as an attorney or solicitor, without being duly qualified so to act, shall be recoverable in any action, suit, or matter by any person or persons whomsoever.

Who to be deemed qualified.

For the purposes of this section, a person shall be deemed to be duly qualified to act as an attorney or solicitor if he shall have in force at the time at which he acts as an attorney or solicitor a duly stamped certificate authorising him so to do, pursuant to the provisions of the Stamp Laws and the laws for the time being relating to attorneys and solicitors, or shall have been appointed to be Solicitor of the Treasury, Customs, Inland Revenue, Post Office, or any other branch of Her Majesty's Revenues, or of any public department, including the department of the Ecclesiastical Commissioners, and of the Governors of Queen Anne's Bounty, or if he be a clerk or officer appointed to act for the solicitor for any public department as herein-before described.

Offences may be prosecuted before a court of summary jurisdiction.

Any offence under this Act may be prosecuted before a court of summary jurisdiction, in manner provided by the Summary Jurisdiction Acts: Provided always, that the court of summary jurisdiction, when hearing, trying, determining, and adjudging an information or complaint in respect of an offence under this Act, shall be constituted either of two or more justices of the peace in petty sessions, or of some magistrate or officer sitting alone or with others at some court or other place appointed for the administration of justice, and for the time being empowered by law to do alone any act authorised to be done by more than one justice of the peace.

CHAPTER 69.

An Act to amend the Laws relating to the sale and consumption of Intoxicating Liquors in Ireland.

[7th August 1874.]

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the provisions of the <sup>35 & 36 Vict.</sup> Licensing Act, 1872, which extend to Ireland; which <sup>c. 94.</sup> provisions are in this Act referred to as the principal Act:

Preliminary.

1. This Act and the principal Act shall, so far as is consistent with the respective tenors of such Acts, be construed as one Act, and may be cited together as "The Licensing Acts (Ireland), 1872-1874;" but this Act may, if necessary, be cited separately as "The Licensing Act (Ireland), 1874." Construction and short title of Act. 35 & 36 Vict. c. 94.

Early-closing Licenses, Licenses, and Excise Licenses.

2. Where, on the occasion of any application for a certificate for a new license, or the transfer or renewal of a license which authorises the sale of any intoxicating liquor for consumption on the premises, the applicant applies to the licensing justices to cause to be inserted in his license a condition that he shall close the premises in respect of which such license is or is to be granted one hour earlier at night than that at which such premises would otherwise have to be closed, the justices shall cause the said condition to be inserted in such certificate, and the same shall be inserted in any license granted in pursuance thereof. Early-closing licenses.

The holder of a license in which such condition is inserted (in this Act referred to as an early-closing license) shall close his premises at night one hour earlier than the ordinary hour at which such premises would be closed under the provisions of the principal Act, and the provisions of this Act and the principal Act shall apply to the premises as if such earlier hour were the hour at which the premises are required to be closed.

The applicant for an early-closing license may obtain from the Commissioners of Inland Revenue any license granted by such Commissioners which he is entitled to obtain in pursuance of any such certificate as aforesaid, upon payment of a sum representing six sevenths of the duty which would otherwise be payable by him for a similar license not limited to such early closing as aforesaid. In calculating the six sevenths fractions of a penny shall be disregarded.

The notice which a licensed person is required by section eleven of the principal Act to keep painted or fixed on his premises shall, in the case of an early-closing license, contain such words as the licensing justices may order for giving notice to the public that an early-closing license has been granted in respect of such premises.

Remission of duty in case of six-day and early-closing license.

3. A person who takes out a license containing conditions rendering such license a six-day license as well as an early-closing license shall be entitled to a remission of two sevenths of the duty.

Occasional license required at fairs and races.

4. Any person selling or exposing for sale any intoxicating liquor in any booth, tent, or place within the limits of holding any lawful and accustomed fair or any races, without an occasional license authorising such sale, shall, notwithstanding anything contained in any Act of Parliament to the contrary, be deemed to be a person selling or exposing for sale by retail intoxicating liquor at a place where he is not authorised by his license to sell the same, and be punishable accordingly.

Provided that this section shall not apply to any person selling or exposing for sale intoxicating liquors in premises in which he is duly authorised to sell the same throughout the year, although such premises are situate within the limits aforesaid.

Occasional licenses,—extension of time for closing.

5. Whereas by the twentieth section of the Act of the session of the twenty-sixth and twenty-seventh years of the reign of Her present Majesty, chapter thirty-three, it is provided that the hours during which an occasional license shall authorise the sale of any beer, spirits, or wine shall extend from sunrise until one hour after sunset: Be it enacted, that the said section shall be construed as if in place of the words " sunrise until one hour after sunset " there were inserted the words " such hour, not earlier than sunrise, until such hour, " not later than ten o'clock at night, as may be specified in " that behalf in the consent given by the justice for the " granting of such occasional license."

Offences on premises with occasional license.

6. For the purpose of so much of the principal Act as relates to offences against public order, that is to say, sections twelve to eighteen, both inclusive, and the sections for giving effect to the same, a person taking out an occasional license shall be deemed to be a licensed person within the meaning of the said sections, and the place in which any intoxicating liquors are sold in pursuance of the occasional license shall be deemed to be licensed premises, and to be the premises of the person taking out such license.

Restrictions as to licenses under

7. From and after the passing of this Act it shall not be lawful for any person under the authority of any license granted under the authority of section seven of the Act of the session of the fifth and sixth years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act to exempt certain retailers of spirits to a small amount from the additional duties on licenses, and to discontinue the excise and survey on wine, and the use of permits for the removal thereof," to sell or expose for sale by retail any intoxicating liquors elsewhere than within the part or parts of the theatre or other place of public entertainment which shall be specified in such license, or to sell intoxicating liquors to persons other than those employed in or bonâ fide attending the performances in such theatre or other place of public entertainment, or to sell or expose intoxicating liquors at any time other than the time of such performances, or during thirty minutes immediately preceding the commencement or immediately succeeding the termination of such performances; and any sale or exposure for sale in contravention of any of the provisions of this enactment shall be deemed to be a sale or exposing for sale by retail of intoxicating liquor by a person not duly licensed to sell the same within the meaning of the principal Act, and shall subject the person making the same to the penalties and forfeitures of that Act.

5 & 6 W. 4.
c. 39. s. 7.

Provided always, that no part of such theatre or other place of public entertainment which shall, during the performances in the same, be accessible to persons other than those employed or attending performances therein, shall be included in any such license.

8. It shall not be lawful for any officer of excise in Ireland to grant a wholesale beer dealer's license, or to grant a renewal or transfer of any such license to any person unless such person shall produce a certificate to the effect and as required by section three of "The Beerhouses (Ireland) Act, 1864," with respect to the grant, renewal, or transfer of the license to sell beer by retail therein mentioned.

Certificates required previously to grant of wholesale beer dealer's license.

All applications for such certificates shall be made in the manner and subject to the like conditions as to appeals against the same and otherwise (so far as the same are applicable) as are prescribed by "The Beerhouses (Ireland) Act, 1864," in relation to applications for certificates under the said Act, as the same are amended by this Act.

9. The provisions of section eighty-two of the principal Act, relating to the grant of new excise licenses and of renewals of excise licenses to certain persons therein described, shall extend to the transfer of excise licenses, and the said provisions so extended shall not be limited to the case of such persons, but shall extend and apply to all such transfers and grants when made to any other persons: Provided always, that in the case of a new excise license or transfer of an excise license under this section the certificate shall be to the good character of the person applying for the same and to the suitability of the premises.

Notice of intended application for license.

10. Every person intending to apply for a new license or for the transfer of a license, instead of serving notice, as hitherto required by the Act of the session of the third and fourth years of the reign of King William the Fourth, chapter sixty-eight, section two, upon the churchwardens of the parish or union wherein the premises sought to be licensed are situate, shall, on some day not more than four and not less than two weeks before the intended application is to be heard, cause to be inserted or advertised in some paper circulating in the place in which such premises are situate a notice conformable to the requirements of the said section two.

Exemption from closing in respect of markets, fairs, and certain trades.

11. In the police district of Dublin metropolis, the chief commissioner or the assistant commissioner of police, and in any petty sessions district two or more justices of the peace in petty sessions, upon its being proved to his or their satisfaction that it is necessary or desirable so to do for the accommodation of any considerable number of persons attending any public market or fair, or following any lawful trade or calling, may, on payment of a fee of two shillings and sixpence, grant (if he or they so think fit) to any licensed person, in respect of premises in the vicinity of such market or fair, or of the place where the persons follow such lawful trade or calling, an order, in this Act termed an "exemption order," exempting such person from the provisions of this Act with respect to the closing of his said premises on such days, and during such time (except between the hours of one and two of the clock in the morning), and upon such terms as may be specified in such order.

In the police district of Dublin metropolis, such chief or assistant commissioner granting an exemption order shall forthwith send the particulars of such order to the divisional justices; and such commissioner shall cause an entry of the particulars of such exemption order to be made in the register of licenses; and elsewhere than in the police district of Dublin metropolis, the justices granting an exemption order shall cause the particulars thereof to be forthwith entered by the clerk of petty sessions in the register of licenses.

The holder of an exemption order shall not be liable to any penalty for not closing his premises on such days and during such times as may be specified in such order; but he shall not be exempt from any other penalty under the principal Act, or this or any other Act, or otherwise.

A notice, in such form as may be prescribed by such commissioner or justices respectively, stating the days and hours during which the premises are permitted to be open under such exemption order, shall be and be kept affixed in a conspicuous position outside the premises; and if the holder of the exemption order makes default in affixing or keeping affixed such notice in manner aforesaid during the time or any part of the time for which his exemption is granted, he shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding five pounds.

Every person who affixes or keeps affixed to his premises any such notice when he does not hold an exemption order under this section shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding ten pounds.

Any such commissioner or justices aforesaid may at any time (if it seem fit to him or them) withdraw an exemption order under this section, or alter the same by way of extension or restriction, as he or they may deem fit, but not so as to render any person liable to any penalty for anything done under such order before the holder was informed of such withdrawal or alteration.

Times for Grant of Certificates.

12. It shall be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant or other chief governor or governors of Ireland at any time within six months after the passing of this Act, by and with the advice and consent of the Privy Council, by order to be published in the Dublin Gazette, to constitute one of the general or quarter sessions of the peace now usually holden in and for the several divisions of counties or ridings, counties of cities, and counties of towns, cities, towns, and boroughs to be the annual licensing quarter sessions for such divisions of counties and ridings, and for such counties of cities, counties of towns, cities, towns, and boroughs respectively, and with the like advice and consent, by order to be published in the Dublin Gazette, to appoint for each petty sessions district and for the police district of Dublin metropolis a time for holding annual licensing petty sessions for each such district.

Power to Lord Lieutenant and Privy Council to fix times for grant of certificates.

From and after the publication in the Dublin Gazette of such orders respectively, and the constitution and appointment thereby of annual licensing quarter sessions and of annual licensing petty sessions, the provisions following shall apply :

1. Where under the provisions of any Act now in force or hereafter to be passed, the production of a certificate of justices in quarter sessions assembled, or of a recorder of any city, town, or borough, is required previous to the grant of any license by an officer of excise, such certificate shall (save as herein-after provided) not be granted except at an annual licensing quarter sessions : Provided always, that in case any license shall, under the authority of the Act of the session of the eighteenth and nineteenth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, be transferred to any person, and in such other cases as may seem fit to such justices or recorder, a certificate may, notwithstanding the preceding provisions, be granted at any general or quarter sessions (other than the annual licensing quarter sessions), and in like manner as heretofore; but any license granted in pursuance of any such last-mentioned certificate shall only continue in force until the annual licensing quarter sessions held next after the grant of such certificate, unless at such annual licensing quarter sessions such certificate shall be confirmed, and in case such certificate shall not be then confirmed the license granted in pursuance thereof shall not be renewed.

As to petty sessions certificate.

2. Where under the provisions of this Act, or any Act now in force or hereafter to be passed, the production of a certificate by justices presiding at petty sessions, or of a divisional justice in the police district of Dublin, is required previous to the grant or transfer of any license or of an excise license or of a wholesale beer dealer's license by an officer of excise, such certificate shall not (save as herein-after provided) be granted except at an annual licensing petty sessions: Provided always, that in such cases as may seem fit to such justices sitting in petty sessions, or to such divisional justice, and in all cases in which a certificate is required from such justice or justices for the transfer of a license or of an excise license or of a wholesale beer dealer's license, a certificate may, notwithstanding the preceding provisions, be granted at any time other than that fixed for annual licensing petty sessions, and in like manner as heretofore; but any license granted in pursuance of any such certificate shall only continue in force until the annual licensing petty sessions held next after the grant of such certificate, unless at such annual licensing petty sessions such certificate shall be confirmed, and in case such certificate shall not be then confirmed, the license or excise license or wholesale beer dealer's license granted in pursuance thereof shall not be renewed.

Temporary continuance of licenses or excise licenses forfeited without disqualification of premises.

13. Where any licensed person or spirit grocer is convicted for the first time of any one of the following offences:

1. Making an internal communication between the premises of such licensed person or spirit grocer and any unlicensed premises;
2. Selling spirits without a spirit license;
3. Any felony;

and in consequence either becomes personally disqualified or has his license forfeited, there may be made by or on behalf of the owner of the premises an application to a court of summary jurisdiction for authority to carry on the same business on the same premises until the quarter sessions or petty sessions (in which last term is included, with respect to the police district of Dublin metropolis, the court of a police magistrate) for the division, place, or district in which such premises are situate holden next after the expiration of one calendar month after such endorsement, according as the certificate, upon production of which such license or excise license was obtained, was granted at quarter sessions or petty sessions.

Where such quarter sessions or petty sessions shall be the annual licensing quarter sessions or the annual licensing petty sessions, application may be made for a renewal of such license to some person other than the person convicted, and such renewal may be granted or refused in pursuance of the enactments relating thereto: Provided, that where such quarter sessions or petty sessions shall not be the annual licensing quarter sessions or the annual licensing petty sessions, application for a transfer of such license to some person other than the person convicted may be made and granted or refused in like manner and on the same conditions, and for the same time, as if the person convicted had removed from such premises, and the person applying for such grant was his assignee.

14. Where a person licensed to sell intoxicating liquors to be consumed on the premises applies for a certificate for the renewal of his license, the following provisions shall have effect:

Provisions on annual renewal of certificate.

He need not attend in person at the court unless he is required by the justices or police authority so to attend, for some special cause personal to himself.

The justices shall not entertain any objection to the signing of such certificate, or receive any evidence with respect to same, unless a written notice of intention to oppose be served on the applicant not later than seven days before the holding of such session, stating in general terms the grounds on which the renewal of such license is to be opposed.

The justices may, notwithstanding that no notice of objection has been served, if objection is made in court, adjourn the signing of the certificate to a future day, and require the attendance of the applicant.

The justices shall not receive any evidence with respect to the signing of such certificate which is not given on oath in open court.

Register of Licenses.

15. Whereas by section ten of the Act of the session of the third and fourth years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, chapter sixty-eight, provision is made that every person who shall obtain a license shall within six days next after he shall have obtained such license deliver or cause to be delivered to the clerk of the peace of the county, city, or town in which the house mentioned in such license is situate a note in writing, signed by him or on his behalf, in which shall be specified the Christian and surname and place of abode of such person, and other the particulars in said section mentioned; and by section eleven of the said Act provision is made for the entry by such clerk of the peace in a list or register to be kept by him of the particulars specified in every such note, and it is expedient to amend the said sections: Be it therefore enacted, that, in addition to the particulars required by said section ten of the said Act, every such note shall contain the name and address of the owner of the house in which intoxicating liquors are licensed to be sold by the person by or on whose behalf such note shall be signed, and the same shall be in the form in the Schedule (A.) to this Act annexed, and the clerk of the peace to whom such note shall be delivered, in the said list or register to be kept by him as aforesaid shall enter the name and address of every such owner in addition to the particulars prescribed by said section eleven.

Amendment of sects. 10 and 11 of 3 & 4 Will. 4. c. 68.

The clerk of the peace of every county, city, and town shall from time to time transmit to the clerk of petty sessions of each petty sessions district within such county, city, or town, and in Dublin to the chief clerk of the Metropolitan Police Court, a copy of every entry made by him in pursuance of the said Act and this Act relating to any house or place in such district.

Register of licenses to be kept.

16. There shall be kept in every petty sessions district by the clerk of petty sessions of such district a register, to be called the "Register of Licenses," in such form as may be prescribed by the Chief Secretary to the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, containing the particulars from time to time transmitted to such clerk of petty sessions by the clerk of the peace in manner aforesaid, and also the particulars of all certificates given in such district by the justices under the provisions of any Act now in force or hereafter to be passed, or of this Act, and requiring the production of any certificate previous to the grant, transfer, or renewal of a license or excise license, or wholesale beer dealer's license, the premises in respect of which they were granted, the names and address of the owners of such premises, and the names of the holders for the time being of such certificates. There shall also be entered on the register all forfeitures of licenses or of excise licenses, all exemption orders, all disqualifications of premises, records of convictions, and other matters relating to the licenses and excise licenses in force in such district.

Every person applying for any such certificate as aforesaid shall state the name and address of the owner of the premises in respect of which such certificate is granted, and such name shall be endorsed on the certificate, and the person whose name is so stated shall, subject as herein-after mentioned, be deemed, for the purposes of the principal Act and this Act, the owner of the premises.

A court of summary jurisdiction in any petty sessions district may, on the application of any person who proves to the court that he is entitled to be entered as owner of any premises in such district in place of the person appearing on the register to be the owner, make an order substituting the name of the applicant, and such order shall be obeyed by the clerk of petty sessions of such district, and a corresponding correction may be directed to be made on the certificate and license or excise license granted in respect of the premises of which such applicant claims to be the owner.

Any ratepayer, any owner of premises to which a license or excise license or wholesale beer dealer's license is attached, and any holder of a license or excise license within any petty sessions district, shall, upon payment of a fee of one shilling, and any officer of police and any officer of excise in such district, without payment, shall be entitled at any reasonable time to inspect and take copies of or extracts from any register kept in pursuance of this section; and the clerk of petty sessions and every other person who prevents the inspection or taking copies of or extracts from the same, or demands any unauthorised fee therefor, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding five pounds for each offence.

The preceding provisions of this section shall apply to the police district of Dublin metropolis: Provided always, that the register in such district shall be kept by the Chief Clerk of the Dublin Metropolitan Police Court, and that the terms "petty sessions district," and "district," and "clerk of petty sessions," shall be construed to mean respectively the police district of Dublin metropolis, and the Chief Clerk of the Dublin Metropolitan Police Court.

17. From and after the first day of September one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four there shall be paid a fee of five shillings upon every certificate given for the grant of a new license, new excise license, or new wholesale beer dealer's license, or for the transfer of any license, excise license, or wholesale beer dealer's license, by a divisional justice of the police district of Dublin metropolis, or by justices in petty sessions, and no other fee or stamp duty shall be payable in respect of any such certificate or the entry thereof.

Fee upon certificate in certain cases.

Payment, &c. of Fees.

18. All fees under this Act payable in Dublin shall be paid to the chief clerk of the metropolitan police court, and shall be paid and accounted for, and payment of the same may be enforced in like manner, subject to the same conditions, and by the like means in every respect as fines payable under the Acts regulating the powers and duties of justices of the peace for such district, and the same shall be applied towards defraying the expense of the police establishment of the said district.

Payment of fees in petty sessions district.

19. All fees under this Act payable in any petty sessions district shall not be received in money, but by stamps denoting the amount of the fees payable.

Every exemption order under this Act and every certificate given in any petty sessions district upon which a fee is by this Act made payable shall be printed or written, or partly printed and partly written, upon paper bearing a stamp denoting the amount of such fee.

All the provisions of "The Petty Sessions Clerk (Ireland) Act, 1858," with respect to the documents enumerated in the Schedule C. to the said Act annexed, and to the payment of the fees in respect thereof, and to the stamps denoting the amount of such fees, and to the payment of fees, and to stamps, and the providing of and supply of the same, and the payment and accounting for the same, and enforcing the payment thereof, and generally with respect to all matters relating thereto, shall extend and be applicable with respect to all exemption orders under this Act and certificates given in petty sessions district upon which fees are by this Act made payable, and to all fees and stamps under this Act, in like manner in every respect as if such exemption orders, certificates, fees, and stamps were included amongst the documents, fees, and stamps mentioned in the said Petty Sessions Clerk (Ireland) Act, 1858.

Record of Convictions and Penalties.

Mitigation of penalties.

Record of convictions on licenses.

21. Where any licensed person or spirit grocer is convicted of any offence against the principal Act which by such Act was to have been or might have been endorsed upon the license or excise license, or of any offence against this Act, the court before whom the offender is brought shall cause the register of licenses in which the license or excise license of the offender is entered, or a copy of the entries therein relating to the license or excise license of the offender, certified in manner prescribed by this Act, to be produced to the court before passing sentence; and after inspecting the entries therein in relation to the license or excise license of the offender, or such copy thereof as aforesaid, the court shall declare, as part of its sentence, whether it will or will not cause the conviction for such offence to be recorded on the license or excise license of the offender, and if it decide that such record is to be made, the same shall be made accordingly.

A declaration by the court that a record of an offence is to be made on a license or excise license shall be deemed to be part of the conviction or order of the court in reference to such offence, and shall be subject accordingly to the jurisdiction of the court of appeal.

A direction by the court that a conviction for an offence is to be recorded on the license or excise license of the offender shall, for the purposes of the principal Act, be deemed equivalent to a direction or requirement by the Act that such conviction is to be recorded ; and all the provisions of the principal Act importing that convictions are required or directed by the Act to be recorded on the license or excise license of an offender shall be construed accordingly.

22. Where a licensed person or a spirit grocer is convicted of any offence against the provisions of any Act for the time being in force relating to the adulteration of drink, such conviction shall be entered in the proper register of licenses, and may be directed to be recorded on the license or excise license of the offender in the same manner as if the conviction were for an offence against the principal Act, and when so recorded shall have effect as if it had been a conviction for an offence against the principal Act.

Record of conviction for adulteration.

Regulations as to entry on Premises.

23. Any constable may, for the purpose of preventing or detecting the violation of any of the provisions of the principal Act or this Act which it is his duty to enforce, at all times enter on any licensed premises and on any premises kept by a spirit grocer, and on any premises in respect of which an occasional license is in force.

Constable to enter on premises for enforcement of Act.

Every person who, by himself, or by any person in his employ or acting by his direction or with his consent, refuses or fails to admit any constable in the execution of his duty demanding to enter in pursuance of this section, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding for the first offence five pounds, and not exceeding for the second and every subsequent offence ten pounds.

24. Any justice of the peace, if satisfied by information on oath that there is reasonable ground to believe that any intoxicating liquor is sold by retail or exposed or kept for sale by retail at any place within his jurisdiction, whether a building or not, in which such liquor is not authorised to be sold by retail, may in his discretion grant a warrant under his hand, by virtue whereof it shall be lawful for any constable named in such warrant, at any time or times within one month from the date thereof, to enter, and, if need be by force, the place named in the warrant, and every part thereof, and examine the same and search for intoxicating liquor therein, and seize and remove any intoxicating liquor found therein which there is reasonable ground to suppose is in such place for the purpose of unlawful sale at that or any other place, and the vessels containing such liquor; and in the event of the owner or occupier of such premises being convicted of selling by retail or exposing or keeping for sale by retail any liquor which he is not authorised to sell by retail, the intoxicating liquor so seized and the vessels containing such liquor shall be forfeited.

When a constable has entered any premises in pursuance of any such warrant as is mentioned in this section, and has seized and removed such liquor as aforesaid, any person found at the time on the premises shall, until the contrary is proved, be deemed to have been on such premises for the purpose of illegally dealing in intoxicating liquor, and be liable to a penalty not exceeding forty shillings.

Any constable may demand the name and address of any person found on any premises on which he seizes or from which he removes any such liquor as aforesaid, and if he has reasonable ground to suppose that the name or address given is false may examine such person further as to the correctness of such name and address, and may, if such person fail upon such demand to give his name or address, or to answer satisfactorily the questions put to him by the constable, apprehend him without warrant, and carry him as soon as practicable before a justice of the peace.

Any person required by a constable under this section to give his name and address who fails to give the same, or gives a false name or address, or gives false information with respect to such name and address, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding five pounds.

Miscellaneous.

Drunken person may be detained if incapable of taking care of himself.

25. Every person who, in any highway or other public place, whether a building or not, is so drunk as to be incapable of taking care of himself, may be detained by any constable until he can, with safety to himself, be discharged, but if so detained he shall be summoned in due course to answer for such offence, and he shall not by such discharge be relieved from the liability to any penalty to which he is subject.

Substitution of licensing justices for Commissioners of Inland Re-

26. Whereas by section eleven of the principal Act it is provided that every licensed person shall cause to be painted or fixed, and shall keep painted or fixed, on the premises in respect of which his license is granted, in a conspicuous place and in such form and manner as the Commissioners of Inland Revenue may from time to time direct, his name, with such additions as in the said Act mentioned: And whereas it is expedient to substitute in the said section the licensing justices for the Commissioners of Inland Revenue: Be it therefore enacted, venue as respects certain notices.

That in the said eleventh section the expression "licensing justices" shall be deemed to be substituted for the expression "Commissioners of Inland Revenue," and the word "justices" for the word "Commissioners."

27. If during any period during which any premises are required under the provisions of the principal Act to be closed any person is found on such premises, he shall, unless he satisfies the court that he was an inmate, servant, or a lodger on such premises, or a bonâ fide traveller, or that otherwise his presence on such premises was not in contravention of the provisions of the principal Act with respect to the closing of licensed premises and premises kept by a spirit grocer, be liable to a penalty not exceeding forty shillings.

Penalty on person found on premises during closing hours.

Any constable may demand the name and address of any person found on any premises during the period during which they are required by the provisions of the principal Act to be closed, and if he has reasonable ground to suppose that the name or address given is false may require evidence of the correctness of such name and address, and may, if such person fail upon such demand to give his name or address, or such evidence, apprehend him without warrant, and carry him as soon as practicable before a justice of the peace.

Any person required by a constable under this section to give his name and address who fails to give the same, or gives a false name or address, or gives false evidence with respect to such name and address, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding five pounds.

Every person who by falsely representing himself to be a traveller or a lodger buys or obtains or attempts to buy or obtain at any premises any intoxicating liquor during the period during which such premises are closed in pursuance of the principal Act shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding five pounds.

28. If in the course of any proceedings which may be taken against any person licensed to sell any intoxicating liquor to be consumed on the premises for infringing the provisions of the principal Act relating to the closing of premises, such person (in this section referred to as the defendant) fails to prove that the person to whom the intoxicating liquor was sold (in this section referred to as the purchaser) is a bonâ fide traveller, but the justices are satisfied that the defendant truly believed that the purchaser was a bonâ fide traveller, and further that the defendant took all reasonable precautions to ascertain whether or not the purchaser was such a traveller, the justices shall dismiss the case as against the defendant, and if they think that the purchaser falsely represented himself to be a bonâ fide traveller, it shall be lawful for the justices to direct proceedings to be instituted against such purchaser under the next preceding section of this Act.

A person for the purposes of this Act and the principal Act shall not be deemed to be a bonâ fide traveller unless the place where he lodged during the preceding night is at least three miles distant from the place where he demands to be supplied with liquor, such distance to be calculated by the nearest public thoroughfare.

Supply of intoxicating liquors after hours to private friends.

29. No person keeping a house licensed for the sale of any intoxicated liquor to be consumed on the premises shall be liable to any penalty for supplying intoxicating liquors after the hours of closing to private friends bonâ fide entertained by him at his own expense.

As to jurisdiction of justices under 17 & 18 Vict. c. 103.

30. Wherever "The Towns Improvement (Ireland) Act, 1854," or any Local Act incorporating the said Act in whole or in part, is in force in any town or place, any person empowered for the purposes of the said Act or of such Local Act to act as a justice of the peace within the boundaries of such town or place shall, notwithstanding anything in the principal Act to the contrary, have all and the same jurisdiction, power, and authority to hear and determine charges for offences committed within the boundaries of such town or place against section twelve of the principal Act as any justice of the peace having jurisdiction in that behalf, and may for such purpose sit alone or, in his own court, together with any justice or justices of the peace, according as the offence against the said section may be tried by one or by two or more justices, or any justice or justices in petty sessions of the peace.

The penalty imposed by such justice or justices, or by the justices in petty sessions in every such town or place as aforesaid, and in every town in which the Act of the session of the ninth year of the reign of King George the Fourth, chapter eighty-two, is in force for any such offence committed within the boundaries of such town or place, shall be enforced as penalties are by the Towns Improvement (Ireland) Act, 1854, or such Local Act, or such Act of the ninth year of King George the Fourth, chapter eighty-two, respectively directed to be enforced, and shall be applied in manner prescribed by the Towns Improvement (Ireland) Act, 1854, for the purposes of such of the said Acts as is in force within such town or place.

Nothing in this section shall apply to the police district of Dublin metropolis.

Amendment of s. 52 of principal Act as to

31. Sub-section four of section fifty-two of the principal Act is hereby repealed, and in lieu thereof the following provision shall be substituted; viz.,

When the appellant is in custody, and shall enter into such recognizances with sureties approved by the justice in manner by said Act provided, or shall give such other security as by said Act provided, the justice shall release him from custody. release from custody in case of appeal.

32. In the police district of Dublin metropolis a divisional justice may issue a summons for any offence under the principal Act or this Act, or any Act relating to the sale of any intoxicating liquor, upon any information or complaint, either on oath or not, or in writing or not, as such justice shall see fit. Summons in police district of Dublin metropolis.

33. Every holder of a license, excise license, wholesale beer dealer's license, or order of exemption made under this Act, who on being required by any recorder or court of quarter sessions on the hearing of any appeal, or by a divisional justice or justice of the peace on the hearing of any summons or complaint, shall not produce and deliver such license, excise license, wholesale beer dealer's license, or order to be read and examined by such recorder, court, or justice respectively, shall be subject to a penalty not exceeding ten pounds, whether it shall or shall not be stated in any summons that such production will be required. License to be produced in court.

34. Every holder of any excise license along with any other license or licenses, and every holder of several licenses, shall be subject to the provisions of the principal Act and this Act in respect of each such license. Liability in respect of distinct licenses.

35. Every entry in any register of licenses of any license, excise license, wholesale beer dealer's license, certificate, or exemption order, and, of any conviction ordered to be recorded on a license or on an excise license, shall for every purpose be evidence of such license, excise license, wholesale beer dealer's license, certificate, exemption order, and conviction respectively, and every entry in any book kept in a police court or in any petty sessions order book of any conviction or order under the principal Act or this Act, or either of them, and any copy of such entry purporting in every such case (except that of a petty sessions order book) to be signed and certified as a true copy by the person to whose custody such register or book is intrusted, and in the case of a petty sessions order book purporting to be certified by a justice of the peace, pursuant to "The Petty Sessions (Ireland) Act, 1851," section twenty-one, and form (I a) in the schedule thereto, shall for every purpose be evidence of such conviction and order respectively; and any such entry or any such copy of such entry of a conviction ordered to be recorded on a license or excise license, which license or excise license shall not be produced when required by any recorder, court of quarter sessions, divisional justice, or justice of the peace, shall be conclusive evidence that such conviction was duly recorded on such license or excise license. Evidence of licenses, orders, and convictions.

license.

36. Any copy or certificate of any license, or of any excise license, or of any wholesale beer dealer's license, purporting to be signed and certified as a true copy or certificate by any officer in that behalf appointed by the Commissioners of Inland Revenue, shall for every purpose be conclusive evidence of such license or excise license.

Definitions.

37. In the principal Act and in this Act the following terms have the meanings hereby assigned to them respectively, unless there be something in the subject or context repugnant thereto; namely,

"Town."

"Town" shall mean and include—

Any parliamentary or municipal borough;

Any town having commissioners under an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the ninth year of the reign of King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to make provision for the lighting, cleansing, and watching of cities and towns corporate, and market towns, in Ireland, in certain cases;"

Any town having municipal commissioners under an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of the reign of Her present Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act for the regulation of municipal corporations in Ireland;"

Any town having town commissioners or commissioners under the Towns Improvement Act, 1854, or under any Local and Personal Act:

"License."

"License" shall mean any license for sale of any intoxicating liquor granted by an officer of excise in Ireland upon production, in the police district of Dublin metropolis, of a certificate of the recorder of the city of Dublin, or of a divisional justice, and elsewhere of a certificate of any recorder of a city or borough, or of justices, under the provisions of any Act now or hereafter requiring such certificate, but shall not include an excise license as defined by section eighty-one of the principal Act, or a wholesale beer dealer's license, as herein-after defined:

"Wholesale beer dealer's license."

"Wholesale beer dealer's license" shall mean a license to any person not being a brewer of beer, authorising the sale of strong beer only in casks containing not less than four and a half gallons imperial measure, or in not less than two dozen reputed quart bottles at one time, to be drunk or consumed elsewhere than on the premises of such person:

"Occasional license."

"Occasional license" shall mean a license to sell beer, spirits, or wine granted in pursuance of the thirteenth section of the Act of the twenty-fifth and twenty-sixth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, chapter twenty-two, and section five of the Act of the session of the twenty-seventh year of the reign of Her present

Majesty, chapter eighteen, and the Acts amending the same in relation to the licenses therein mentioned, or of any of such Acts:

“New license,” “new excise license,” and “new wholesale beer dealer’s license,” shall mean respectively a license, excise license, and wholesale beer dealer’s license granted in respect of premises in respect of which a similar license has not theretofore been granted, or, if granted, has been annulled or has not been in force during the preceding six months: “New license,” &c.

The term “licensing justices” shall mean as to licenses granted in pursuance of certificates granted at quarter sessions, and as to renewals or transfers of such licenses, the justices or authority empowered to grant such certificates at quarter sessions, and as to other licenses, excise licenses, and wholesale beer dealers licenses the justices or justice empowered to grant certificates for the same respectively: “Licensing justices.”

“Register of licenses” shall mean the list or register directed to be kept by this Act: “Register of licenses.”

The term “clerk to the licensing justices” shall mean the person who keeps the register of licenses: “Clerk to the licensing justices.”

And the principal Act shall be construed as if the meanings by this Act assigned to the terms “license,” “licensing justices,” “register of licenses,” and “clerk to the licensing justices,” were respectively substituted in the seventy-seventh section of the Licensing Act, 1872, for the respective meanings thereby assigned to the same terms.

38. From and after the commencement of this Act there shall be repealed the sections of the principal Act relating to the following matters; that is to say, Repeal.

- (1.) Sections nineteen to twenty-two, both inclusive, relating to adulteration, and the first schedule to the principal Act;
- (2.) Section thirty-five, relating to entry on premises by constables; and
- (3.) So much of sections five, six, thirteen, fourteen, sixteen, seventeen, seventy-eight, eighty-three, and eighty-four as relates to the records of convictions on licenses;
- (4.) The last paragraph of section fifty-six, beginning with the words “In a county the justices,” to the end of the section; and also section fifteen of the Act of the session of the fifty-fifth year of the reign of King George the Third, chapter one hundred and four, except so far as the same applies to spirituous liquors which shall be used and consumed in the house, shop, or premises in which the same are sold.

Provided that the repeal enacted in this Act shall not affect—

- (1.) Anything duly done or suffered under any enactment hereby repealed:

- (2.) Any right or privilege acquired or any liability incurred under any enactment hereby repealed :
- (3.) Any penalty, forfeiture, or other punishment incurred or to be incurred in respect of any offence against any enactment hereby repealed.

CHAPTER 70.

An Act to amend the Law relating to the Valuation of Rateable Property in Ireland.

[7th August 1874.]

15 & 16 Vict.
c. 63.
17 Vict. c. 8.
23 Vict. c. 4.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in a session of Parliament held in the fifteenth and sixteenth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, chapter sixty-three, and one other Act passed in the seventeenth year of the reign of Her said Majesty, chapter eight, and one other Act passed in the twenty-third year of the reign of Her said Majesty, chapter four, various provisions were made for the annual revision of the valuation of rateable property in Ireland, and for payment of the expenses thereof, and it is expedient to amend said Acts as herein-after mentioned :

Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

The Lords
Commissioners

1. The Commissioner of Valuation, and all other persons acting in the execution of the said Acts, shall, anything in the said Acts, or any of them, to the contrary notwithstanding, be paid out of moneys to be voted by Parliament such salary and allowances for travelling and other expenses as the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury shall think fair and reasonable and from time to time direct, and shall be entitled to such superannuation or other allowance, and upon such conditions as are provided by the "Superannuation Act, 1859," for persons who shall have served in an established capacity in the permanent Civil Service of the State.

of Treasury to fix salaries and allowances.

2. Each county shall repay to the said Commissioners, in respect of the expense of such annual revision incurred from and after the first day of July one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, the annual sum stated in relation to such county in the schedule to this Act annexed; said sum to be presented and levied by the respective grand juries for each county, in equal moieties, at the spring and summer assizes in each year, save in the county of Dublin, in which county the annual amount to be repaid shall be presented by the finance committee in one sum at the usual time for making presentments for said county, and shall be levied by equal moieties in each year.

Counties to repay the portions of expense of annual revision mentioned in schedule.

3. The grand juries of the respective counties in Ireland, and the finance committee for the county of Dublin, shall and they are hereby required (without application to presentment sessions) to present, levy, and raise in manner aforesaid the respective sums stated in the schedule to this Act annexed as payable by each county; and in case the grand jury of any county, or the finance committee of the county of Dublin, shall refuse or neglect to make any such presentment, the judge or judges presiding at the assizes or presenting term at which such grand jury or finance committee shall have so refused or neglected, or at any subsequent assize or presenting term, shall order the amount to be placed on the levy, and raised as if the same had been duly presented; and when and so soon as any sum so presented or ordered as aforesaid shall be levied and raised, the same shall be paid over by the treasurer of each county to the supply account of Her Majesty's Paymaster General at the Bank of Ireland, or shall be brought to the public account in such other manner as the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury may from time to time direct.

Grand juries to present.

4. From and after the passing of this Act the following portions of the said recited Acts shall be and the same are hereby repealed, save as to any act heretofore done thereunder, and save as to the presenting, levying, and repayment by the respective counties and cities of one moiety of all sums expended previous to the first day of July next in carrying the provisions of the said Acts, or any of them, into execution; that is to say, fifteen and sixteen Victoria, chapter sixty-three, sections thirty-six, thirty-seven, thirty-eight, thirty-nine, and forty; twenty-three Victoria, chapter four, sections five and eight.

Repeal of portions of existing Acts.

Commencement and short title of Act.

5. This Act shall take effect from the first day of July one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, and may be cited for all purposes as the "Valuation (Ireland) Amendment Act, 1874;" and the unrepealed portions of the said recited Acts, and this Act, shall be construed and be deemed and taken as one Act.

CHAPTER 71.

An Act to authorise "The Lough Corrib Navigation Trustees" to dispose of part of the Navigation in the district of Loughs Corrib, Mask, and Curra.

[7th August 1874.]

WHEREAS an Act was passed in the session of Parliament holden in the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter sixty-two, intituled "An Act to provide for the maintenance of navigations made in connexion with drainage, and to make further provision in relation to works of drainage in Ireland:"

And whereas under and by virtue of the provisions of the said Act the trustees of any navigation therein mentioned are empowered to dispose of such navigation in manner therein provided:

And whereas it is expedient to enlarge the powers of disposal thereby given, so far as the same affect the Lough Corrib Navigation Trustees, as herein-after provided:

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1. It shall be lawful for the Lough Corrib Navigation Trustees, by and with the consent of the grand juries of the counties of Galway and Mayo, and of the county of the town of Galway, signified by resolutions of such grand juries at any assizes, to let or lease, sell, convey, transfer, and assign to any person or persons willing to become tenant of, or to purchase the same, subject to such terms and conditions as the Lord Lieutenant in Council may from time to time direct, all that part of the said navigation consisting of the channel or canal, with the locks, weirs, materials, and other works, with all rights and appurtenances thereunto belonging, situate between Lough Mask and Lough Corrib, or any portion or portions thereof.

Power to Navigation Trustees to dispose of navigation.

2. The receipts of the said trustees under their seal and the hands of any three or more of them for any purchase moneys thereof shall be sufficient discharges for the same, and such moneys shall be paid to the treasurers of the respective counties which or any baronies or townlands in which contributed to the expense of the construction of such navigation, in the proportions in which such counties, baronies, and townlands contributed thereto, to be placed by such treasurers respectively to the credit of their respective counties or such baronies or townlands therein as aforesaid.

Receipts of three or more trustees to be sufficient discharges.

Conditions of lease or sale.

3. Save as in and by any such lease or conveyance may be provided, the person or persons so leasing or purchasing any portion of said navigation shall not be liable or subject to any of the control, restrictions, or conditions in said recited Act mentioned.

CHAPTER 72.

An Act to explain and amend the Fines Act (Ireland), 1851, and for other purposes relating thereto.
[7th August 1874.]

WHEREAS by section ten of the Fines Act (Ireland), 1851, provisions were made for the estreat of recognizances, and doubts have arisen as to whether the said provisions extend to sureties as well as to principal parties, and it is expedient to remove the said doubts:

And whereas quarterly and monthly returns of proceedings in petty sessions, and of the appropriation of fees, fines, and penalties, are now by law required to be made by clerks of petty sessions in Ireland, and by reason of such monthly returns such quarterly returns are unnecessary, and it is expedient that the same should cease to be made:

And whereas it is expedient to make provision for the recovery of penalties and with respect to offences in certain cases:

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

Short title.

1. This Act may be cited for all purposes as the Fines Act (Ireland), 1851, Amendment Act, 1874, and the said Act and this Act may be cited together for all purposes as "The Fines Acts (Ireland), 1851-1874."

Meaning of section 10 of Fines Act (Ireland), 1851, explained.

2. It is hereby declared that the provisions of section ten of the Fines Act (Ireland), 1851, extend and authorise the assistant barrister, recorder, or chairman therein mentioned, whenever he orders that any recognizance which shall have been entered into by any person or persons as surety or sureties for any principal party shall be forfeited, in such order to state with respect not only to such principal party but also to such surety or sureties the amounts of such forfeiture, and to direct a warrant or warrants to issue to levy such amounts respectively from such surety or sureties in like manner as other penal sums are directed to be levied by the said Act.

3. From and after the passing of this Act section four of the Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of the reign of His late Majesty William the Fourth, chapter thirty-four, relating to quarterly returns by clerks of petty sessions, shall be and the same is hereby repealed.

Repeal of
c. 34. s. 4.

4. Every penalty recovered in respect of offences committed within the limits of the Galway Town Improvement Act, 1853, against section twelve of the Licensing Act, 1872, as applied to Ireland, shall be applied as follows:—One half of such penalty shall go to the informer, and the remainder to the town commissioners, and if the town commissioners be the informers, they shall be entitled to the whole of said penalty.

Application of penalties to town of Galway.

5. Where by any Act now in force or hereafter to be passed it is enacted that penalties, offences, or proceedings thereunder may be recovered, prosecuted, or taken in a summary manner, and no further provision with respect thereto is contained in such Act, then such penalties, offences, and proceedings shall be recoverable, may be prosecuted, or taken with respect to the police district of Dublin metropolis, subject and according to the provisions of any Act regulating the powers and duties of justices of the peace for such district, or of the police of such district; and with respect to other parts of Ireland, before a justice or justices of the peace sitting in petty sessions, subject and according to the provisions of "The Petty Sessions (Ireland) Act, 1851," and any Act amending the same.

Mode of recovering penalties, &c. in certain cases.!

CHAPTER 73.

An Act to amend the Law relating to the Payment to and Repayment by the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt of Moneys received in and to the accounts relating to the Post Office Savings Bank. [7th August 1874.]

WHEREAS by the Post Office Savings Banks Act, 1861, it is enacted that all moneys deposited with the Postmaster General in pursuance of that Act "shall forthwith be paid over to the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, and all sums withdrawn by depositors, or by parties legally authorised to claim on account of depositors, shall be repaid to them out of the said moneys, through the office of Her Majesty's Postmaster General," and by the said Act the moneys remitted to the said Commissioners are required to be invested in manner in the said Act mentioned:

24 & 25 Vict.
c. 14. s. 5.

And whereas the practice has been to pay out of the moneys deposited with the Postmaster General the sums withdrawn by depositors, and to pay over the balance to the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt for investment by them :

And whereas doubts have arisen whether the said practice is authorised by the said Act, and it is expedient to remove such doubts :

And whereas it is expedient to extend the time for laying before Parliament the accounts under the said Act :

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

Construction and short title of Act.

1. This Act shall be construed as one with the Act of the session of the twenty-fourth and twenty-fifth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, chapter fourteen, intituled " An Act to grant additional facilities for depositing small savings at interest, with the security of the Government for due repayment thereof " (in this Act referred to as the principal Act), and together with that Act may be cited as the Post Office Savings Banks Acts, 1861 and 1874, and each Act may be cited as the Post Office Savings Banks Act of the year in which it was passed.

Explanation of s. 5. of 24 & 25 Vict. c. 14. as to payment of money to the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt.

2. Section five of the principal Act shall be deemed to authorise and always to have authorised the payment out of moneys deposited with the Postmaster General in pursuance of the principal Act, of the sums withdrawn by depositors under that Act, and the payment over of the balance only to the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt; and the said Commissioners may keep uninvested such portion of the said balance as is required to repay to the Postmaster General the expenses mentioned in section fifteen of the principal Act.

The regulations made in pursuance of the principal Act by the Postmaster General with the consent of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury may provide for the time and mode at and in which such balance is to be ascertained, and such expenses are to be paid or repaid.

Accounts to be laid before Parliament.

3. An annual account of all deposits received and paid under the authority of the principal Act, and of the expenses incurred during each year ended the thirty-first of December, together with a statement of the total amount due at the close of the year to all depositors, shall be laid by the Postmaster General before both Houses of Parliament not later than the last day of April in every year, and the balance sheet mentioned in section nine of the principal Act shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament at the same time. Section twelve of the principal Act is hereby repealed.

Repeal of 24 & 25 Vict. c. 14. s. 12.

CHAPTER 74.

An Act to amend the Law respecting certain Receipts and Expenses connected with Private Lunatic Asylums in Ireland. [7th August 1874.]

WHEREAS under the Private Lunatic Asylums (Ireland) Act, 1842, and the Act amending the same, the moneys received for licenses to keep a private lunatic asylum in Ireland are required to be paid by the clerks of the peace to the inspectors of lunatics, and to be accounted for by such inspectors, and certain expenses are directed to be paid out of such moneys, and in case of a deficiency out of the Consolidated Fund, and it is expedient to make other provision with respect to the said moneys and expenses :

5 & 6 Vict.
c. 123.
8 & 9 Vict.
c. 107. s. 23.

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

1. This Act shall be construed as one with the Act of the session of the fifth and sixth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-three, (which Act may be cited as the Private Lunatic Asylums (Ireland) Act, 1842,) and this Act together with that Act may be cited as "The Private Lunatic Asylums (Ireland) Acts, 1842 and 1874 ;" and this Act may be cited separately as the Private Lunatic Asylums (Ireland) Act, 1874.

Construction and short title of Act.

2. All moneys paid for a license to keep a house for the reception of lunatics granted in pursuance of the Private Lunatic Asylums (Ireland) Act, 1842, shall be accounted for and paid into the receipt of the Exchequer, and carried to the Consolidated Fund by such persons and in such manner as the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury may from time to time direct.

Accounting for money for licenses and payment of expenses charged thereon.

All fees, travelling expenses, and allowances directed by the Private Lunatic Asylums (Ireland) Act, 1842, to be paid by the inspectors, and all travelling and other expenses incurred by the inspectors in the execution of that Act, shall, where the amount or scale thereof has been sanctioned by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, be paid out of moneys provided by Parliament.

3. The Act mentioned in the schedule to this Act is hereby repealed to the extent in the third column of that schedule mentioned : Provided that this repeal shall not affect anything done or suffered before the passing of this Act under the enactments hereby repealed ; and that anything done before the passing of this Act with the sanction of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, or of Her Majesty's Paymaster-

Repeal

General, which would have been lawful if this Act had then passed, shall be deemed to have been lawful and duly done.

CHAPTER 75.

An Act to explain the Vaccination Act, 1871.

[7th August 1874.]

c. 98. s. 5.

WHEREAS by section five of the Vaccination Act, 1871, it is enacted, amongst other things, that, subject to the provisions of that Act, the Local Government Board shall have the same powers with respect to guardians and vaccination officers in matters relating to vaccination as they have with respect to guardians and officers of guardians in matters relating to the relief of the poor, and may make rules, orders, and regulations accordingly:

And whereas doubts are entertained whether the Local Government Board are empowered under the said Act to make rules, orders, and regulations with respect to the proceedings to be taken by the guardians or their officers for the enforcement of the provisions of the Vaccination Acts, 1867 and 1871:

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1. The powers conferred by the said recited section shall be deemed to extend to and include the making of rules, orders, and regulations prescribing the duties of guardians and their officers in relation to the institution and conduct of the proceedings to be taken for enforcing the provisions of the said Acts, and the payment of the costs and expenses relating thereto, and rules, orders, and regulations under this Act shall be deemed to be made, under the said section.

2. This Act may be cited as The Vaccination Act, 1874.

Rules under
34 & 35 Vict.
c. 98. to extend to proceedings and expenses.

Short title.

CHAPTER 76.*An Act to continue various expiring Laws.

[7th August 1874.]

WHEREAS the several Acts mentioned in column one of the schedule to this Act are, to the extent specified in column two of that schedule, limited to expire at the times specified in respect thereof in column four of the said schedule :

And whereas it is expedient to provide for the continuance in this Act mentioned of such Acts, and of the enactments amending the same :

Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

1. This Act may be cited as the Expiring Laws Continuance Act, 1874. Short title.

2. The Acts mentioned in column one of the schedule to this Act, in so far as they are temporary in their duration, shall, to the extent in column two of the said schedule mentioned, be continued until the thirty-first day of December one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five, and any enactments in column three of the said schedule mentioned amending or affecting the enactments continued by this Act shall, in so far as they are temporary in their duration, be continued in like manner. Continuance of Acts in schedule.

CHAPTER 77.

An Act respecting Colonial and certain other Clergy.
[7th August 1874.]

WHEREAS by divers Acts of Parliament certain disabilities are imposed on persons ordained by bishops not being bishops of the United Church of England and Ireland :

And whereas by an Act passed in the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Her present Majesty, chapter forty-two, it is enacted that the union created by Act of Parliament between the churches of England and Ireland shall be dissolved, and that enactments relating to the said United Church shall be read distributively in respect of the Church of England and the Church of Ireland :

And whereas it is desirable to amend the law respecting persons having been ordained by bishops, not being bishops of either of the said separate churches or of the said United Church, herein-after collectively called "the churches aforesaid:"

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

1. This Act may be cited as The Colonial Clergy Act, 1874. Short title.
2. The enactments enumerated in Schedule A. annexed to this Act are repealed, but not so as to render invalid anything lawfully done in conformity with any of them. Repeal of enactments in Schedule A.
3. Except as herein-after mentioned, no person who has been or shall be ordained priest or deacon, as the case may be, by any bishop other than a bishop of a diocese in one of the churches aforesaid shall, unless he shall hold or have previously held preferment or a curacy in England, officiate as such priest or deacon in any church or chapel in England, without written permission from the archbishop of the province in which he proposes to officiate, and without also making and subscribing so much of the declaration contained in "The Clerical Subscription Act, 1865," as follows ; (that is to say,)

"I assent to the Thirty-nine Articles of Religion, and to the Book of Common Prayer, and of the ordering of bishops, priests, and deacons. I believe the doctrine of the Church of England as therein set forth to be agreeable to the Word of God ; and in public prayer and administration of the sacraments, I, whilst ministering in England, will use the form in the said Book prescribed and none other, except so far as shall be ordered by lawful authority."

Colonial and certain other clergy not to officiate without permission from the archbishop ;
4. Except as herein-after mentioned, no person who has been or shall be ordained priest or deacon, as the case may be, by any bishop other than a bishop of a diocese in one of the churches aforesaid, shall be entitled as such priest or deacon to be admitted or instituted to any benefice or other ecclesiastical preferment in England, or to act as curate therein, without the previous consent in writing of the bishop of the diocese in which such preferment or curacy may be situate. nor to hold preferment nor act as curates without consent of bishop.
5. Any person holding ecclesiastical preferment, or acting as curate in any diocese in England under the provisions of this Act, may, with the written consent of the bishop of such As to license.

diocese, request the archbishop of the province to give him a license in writing under his hand and seal in the following form; that is to say,

“To the Rev. A.B.,

“We, C., by Divine Providence archbishop of D., do hereby give you the said A.B. authority to exercise your office of priest (or deacon) according to the provisions of an Act of the thirty-seventh and thirty-eighth years of Her present Majesty, intituled ‘An Act respecting Colonial and certain other Clergy.’

“Given under our hand and seal on the _____ day of _____
“C. (L. S.) D.”

And if the archbishop shall think fit to issue such license, the same shall be registered in the registry of the province, and the person receiving the license shall thenceforth possess all such rights and advantages, and be subject to all such duties and liabilities as he would have possessed and been subject to if he had been ordained by the bishop of a diocese in England: Provided that no such license shall be issued to any person who has not held ecclesiastical preferment or acted as curate for a period or periods exceeding in the aggregate two years.

Appointments,
&c. contrary to Act void.

6. All appointments, admissions, institutions, or inductions to ecclesiastical preferment in England, and all appointments to act as curate therein, which shall hereafter be made contrary to the provisions of this Act, shall be null and void.

Penalty for officiating contrary to Act.

7. If any person shall officiate as priest or deacon in any church or chapel in England contrary to the provisions of this Act, or if any bishop not being bishop of a diocese in England shall perform episcopal functions in any such church or chapel without the consent in writing of the bishop of the diocese in which such church or chapel is situate, he shall for every such offence forfeit and pay the sum of ten pounds to the Governors of Queen Anne’s Bounty, to be recovered by action brought within six months after the commission of such offence by the treasurer of the said Bounty in one of Her Majesty’s Superior Courts of Common Law; and the incumbent or curate of any church or chapel who shall knowingly allow such offence to be committed therein shall be subject to a like penalty, to be recovered in the same manner.

Persons ordained under 15 & 16 Vict.
c. 52. exempt.

8. Any person ordained a priest or deacon in pursuance of such request and commission as are mentioned in an Act of the fifteenth and sixteenth years of Her present Majesty, chapter fifty-two, shall, for the purposes of this Act, be deemed to have been so ordained by the bishop of a diocese in England, and it shall not be necessary that the bishop to whom such commission shall have been given should have exercised his office within Her Majesty’s dominions, or by virtue of Her Majesty’s Royal Letters Patent, provided that such bishop be a bishop in communion with the Church of England ; and such commission shall not become void by the death of the grantor until after seven days : Provided always, that any such act of ordination by any such bishop as aforesaid shall be subject to the same laws and provisions as to the titles and as to the oaths and subscriptions of the persons to be ordained, and as to the registration of such act, as if it had been performed by the bishop of the diocese ; and that the letters of orders of any persons so ordained by any such bishop shall be issued in the name of, and be subscribed with the signature of such bishop as commissary of the bishop of the diocese, and shall be sealed with the seal of the bishop of such diocese.

9. Any person ordained a deacon or priest under the provisions of an Act of the second session of the twenty-fourth year of King George the Third, chapter thirty-five, or under the first section of an Act of the fifty-ninth year of King George the Third, chapter sixty, shall be subject to the provisions contained in this Act.

Persons ordained under 24 Geo. 3. sess. 2. c. 35. or 59 Geo. 3. c. 60. s. 1. subject to Act.

10. No admission, institution, induction, or appointment to any benefice or other ecclesiastical preferment within Her Majesty's dominions, nor any appointment to act as curate therein, nor any ministerial act performed by any person as priest or deacon of any of the churches aforesaid, shall be or be deemed to have been invalid at law by reason of its contrariety to any of the enactments set forth in Schedule B. to this Act annexed, unless its validity shall be inconsistent with the validity of some act, matter, or thing lawfully done before the passing of this Act.

Contrariety to certain enactments not to invalidate admissions to ecclesiastical preferments, &c.

11. Nothing in this Act contained shall alter or affect any of the provisions of an Act of the twenty-seventh and twenty-eighth years of Her present Majesty, chapter ninety-four, intituled "An Act to remove disabilities affecting the bishops and clergy of the Protestant Episcopal Church in Scotland."

Saving of 27 & 28 Vict. c. 94.

12. It shall be lawful for the archbishop of Canterbury or the archbishop of York for the time being, in consecrating any person to the office of bishop for the purpose of exercising episcopal functions elsewhere than in England, to dispense, if he think fit, with the oath of due obedience to the archbishop.

Archbishops may dispense with oath of due obedience.

13. Nothing contained in an Act of the fifty-third year of King George the Third, chapter one hundred and fifty-five, or in an Act of the third and fourth years of King William the Fourth, chapter eighty-five, or in any letters patent issued as mentioned in the said Acts, or either of them, shall prevent any person who shall be or shall have been bishop of any diocese in India from performing episcopal functions, not extending to the exercise of jurisdiction, in any diocese or reputed diocese at the request of the bishop thereof.

Indian bishops.

Interpretation
of terms.

14. In this Act the word "bishop" shall, when not inconsistent with the context, include archbishop; the words "bishop" and "archbishop," in the matters of "permission" and "consent," and of "consent and license," shall include the lawful commissary of a bishop or an archbishop; the word "England" shall include the Isle of Man and the Channel Islands; and the term "church or chapel" shall mean church or chapel subject to the ecclesiastical law of the Church of England.

CHAPTER 78.

An Act to amend the Law of Vendor and Purchaser, and further to simplify Title to Land.

[7th August 1874.]

WHEREAS it is expedient to facilitate the transfer of land by means of certain amendments in the law of vendor and purchaser :

Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

Forty years substituted for sixty years as the root of title.

1. In the completion of any contract of sale of land made after the thirty-first day of December one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, and subject to any stipulation to the contrary in the contract, forty years shall be substituted as the period of commencement of title which a purchaser may require in place of sixty years, the present period of such commencement ; nevertheless earlier title than forty years may be required in cases similar to those in which earlier title than sixty years may now be required.

Rules for regulating obligations and rights of vendor and purchaser.

2. In the completion of any such contract as aforesaid, and subject to any stipulation to the contrary in the contract, the obligations and rights of vendor and purchaser shall be regulated by the following rules ; that is to say,

First. Under a contract to grant or assign a term of years, whether derived or to be derived out of a freehold or leasehold estate, the intended lessee or assign shall not be entitled to call for the title to the freehold.

Second. Recitals, statements, and descriptions of facts, matters, and parties contained in deeds, instruments, Acts of Parliament, or statutory declarations, twenty years old at the date of the contract, shall, unless and except so far as they shall be proved to be inaccurate, be taken to be sufficient evidence of the truth of such facts, matters, and descriptions.

Third. The inability of the vendor to furnish the purchaser with a legal covenant to produce and furnish copies of documents of title shall not be an objection to title in case the purchaser will, on the completion of the contract, have an equitable right to the production of such documents.

Fourth. Such covenants for production as the purchaser can and shall require shall be furnished at his expense, and the vendor shall bear the expense of perusal and execution on behalf of and by himself, and on behalf of and by necessary parties other than the purchaser.

Fifth. Where the vendor retains any part of an estate to which any documents of title relate he shall be entitled to retain such documents.

3. Trustees who are either vendors or purchasers may sell or buy without excluding the application of the second section of this Act.

Trustees may sell, &c., notwithstanding rules.

4. The legal personal representative of a mortgagee of a freehold estate, or of a copyhold estate to which the mortgagee shall have been admitted, may, on payment of all sums secured by the mortgage, convey or surrender the mortgaged estate, whether the mortgage be in form an assurance subject to redemption, or an assurance upon trust.

Legal personal representative may convey legal estate of mortgaged property.

5. Upon the death of a bare trustee of any corporeal or incorporeal hereditament of which such trustee was seised in fee simple, such hereditament shall vest like a chattel real in the legal personal representative from time to time of such trustee.

Bare legal estate in fee simple to vest in executor or administrator.

6. When any freehold or copyhold hereditament shall be vested in a married woman as a bare trustee, she may convey or surrender the same as if she were a feme sole.

Married woman who is a bare trustee may convey, &c.

7. After the commencement of this Act, no priority or protection shall be given or allowed to any estate, right, or interest in land by reason of such estate, right, or interest being protected by or tacked to any legal or other estate or interest in such land; and full effect shall be given in every court to this provision, although the person claiming such priority or protection as aforesaid shall claim as a purchaser for valuable consideration and without notice: Provided always, that this section shall not take away from any estate, right, title, or interest any priority or protection which but for this section would have been given or allowed thereto as against any estate or interest existing before the commencement of this Act.

Protection and priority by legal estates and tacking not to be allowed.

8. Where the will of a testator devising land in Middlesex or Yorkshire has not been registered within the period allowed by law in that behalf, an assurance of such land to a purchaser or mortgagee by the devisee or by some one deriving title under him shall, if registered before, take precedence of and prevail over any assurance from the testator's heir-at-law.

Non-registration of will in Middlesex, &c. cured in certain cases.

9. A vendor or purchaser of real or leasehold estate in England, or their representatives respectively, may at any time or times and from time to time apply in a summary way to a judge of the Court of Chancery in England in chambers, in respect of any requisitions or objections, or any claim for compensation, or any other question arising out of or connected with the contract, (not being a question affecting the existence or validity of the contract,) and the judge shall make such order upon the application as to him shall appear just, and shall order how and by whom all or any of the costs of and incident to the application shall be borne and paid.

Vendor or purchaser may obtain decision of judge in chambers as to requisitions or objections, or compensation, &c.

A vendor or purchaser of real or leasehold estate in Ireland, or their representatives respectively, may in like manner and for the same purpose apply to a judge of the Court of Chancery in Ireland, and the judge shall make such order upon the application as to him shall appear just, and shall order how and by whom all or any of the costs of and incident to the application shall be borne and paid.

Extent of Act. 10. This Act shall not apply to Scotland, and may be cited as the Vendor and Purchaser Act, 1874.

CHAPTER 79.

An Act for the better management and regulation of Foyle College in the city of Londonderry, and for vesting in the governing body of such College the present schoolhouse and premises belonging to such College, and for vesting the right of appointment of head-master of such College in the Bishop of Derry and Raphoe and the Governor of the Honourable the Irish Society.

[7th August 1874.]

WHEREAS prior to the year one thousand eight hundred and nine there was and had been for a series of years a school called a free school in the city and county of Londonderry, erected upon a piece of ground within the said city:

And whereas by an Act passed in the forty-ninth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for vesting a workhouse and premises situate in the city of Londonderry in trustees to be sold, and for applying the purchase money in building another schoolhouse, and for better regulating the same," the messuage or tenement, schoolhouse and premises, with the appurtenances wherein the said school was then carried on, was vested in the Lord Bishop of Derry and the Dean and Chapter of Derry for the time being and their respective successors, upon trust to sell the same in manner in the said Act mentioned; and in the same Act provision was made for the expenditure of the money to arise from such sale in or towards the purchase or erection of a capital messuage or schoolhouse, and in or towards the purchase of sufficient land and ground suitable thereto, to be situate within the city and liberties of Londonderry, and for or towards the purchase, building, erecting,

c. 59.

and making of all offices, outhouses, and buildings, fixtures, and furniture connected therewith, and it was thereby enacted that all and singular the said capital messuage or schoolhouse, offices and buildings, lands, and other hereditaments, fixtures and furniture, which should be so purchased as aforesaid, should thereupon be immediately settled, conveyed, and assured unto and to the use of the said Lord Bishop of Derry and the Dean and Chapter of Derry for the time being and their respective successors for ever, to, for, and upon such uses, trusts, intents, and purposes as should be from time to time expressed and declared and contained of and concerning the same in and by the orders, rules, and byelaws then intended to be made for the management and regulation of the said school; and it was by the said Act further enacted, that the Lord Primate of Ireland should be visitor of the said school, and the Lord Bishop of Derry and the Dean and Chapter of Derry for the time being, and their respective successors, should for ever thereafter be the trustees of the said school and its estate and effects; and it was thereby further enacted, that for the purpose of erecting a messuage or schoolhouse with suitable offices and conveniences thereto, and of providing a piece of ground to be held and enjoyed with the same, it might be lawful to and for the Lord Bishop of Derry for the time being and his successors to grant and convey the inheritance in fee farm of all or any part of the piece of ground more particularly mentioned in the second schedule to that Act annexed, being the Schedule B. thereto annexed (being part of the lands belonging to the see of Derry), and described in the first schedule annexed to this present Act, unto any person or persons whomsoever; and it was by the said Act further enacted, that it should and might be lawful for the Lord Bishop of Derry and the Dean and Chapter of Derry for the time being, and their respective successors, from time to time, subject to the approval of the Lord Lieutenant or Governor and Governors and Privy Council of Ireland for the time being, to make, ordain, and establish, and to amend, alter, or repeal such rules, orders, regulations, and byelaws for the regulating, governing, and managing the said school, and all erections, buildings, works, matters, and things thereunto belonging, and also for the regulating of the masters, assistants, and teachers, and all other persons to be employed or in anywise concerned in such school, and for the granting of and regulating salaries and other allowances, as to them should seem just and reasonable:

And whereas after the passing of the said Act a schoolhouse and buildings were erected upon the piece of land belonging to the see of Derry, and mentioned in Schedule B. annexed to the said Act, but no lease of such land was granted by the Lord Bishop of Derry to any persons prior to the lease herein-after mentioned:

5 & 6 Vict.
c. 34. (Pr.)

And whereas by an Act passed in the sixth year of the reign of Her Majesty, intituled "An Act for confirming certain conveyances in perpetuity made by the Ecclesiastical Commissioner for Ireland and the present Bishop of Derry and Raphoe of parts of the mensal lands of the see of Derry, and for confirming certain leases made by the same bishop and his immediate predecessor in the see of Derry of other parts of the mensal lands of the same see; also for enabling the Bishop of Derry and Raphoe for the time being to grant leases of the parts last mentioned, and certain other parts of the mensal lands of the see of Derry; and for other purposes," it was enacted that it should be lawful for Richard then Lord Bishop of Derry and Raphoe, and his successors, to make demises or leases of the messuages, land, and hereditaments particularly described in the fourth schedule to that Act annexed, with the appurtenances thereto:

And whereas by an indenture dated the first day of June one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine, and made between the Right Reverend William Lord Bishop of Derry and Raphoe of the one part, and the Very Reverend the Dean and Chapter of Derry of the other part, the said Bishop of Derry and Raphoe, under the powers of the said first-mentioned Act, granted the messuage and premises described in the first schedule annexed to this Act, being the then site of the said school, and being also the piece of land described in the Schedule B. to the said first-mentioned Act, upon trust for the use of the said school now known as and therein called and in this Act hereafter called Foyle College, at the yearly rent of sixteen pounds eight shillings and fourpence, and one shilling in the pound receiver's fees:

And whereas by an indenture bearing date the tenth day of June one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine, and made or expressed to be made between the said Lord Bishop of Derry and Raphoe of the one part, and the Reverend William Percy Robinson, clerk, the then head-master of Foyle College, of the other part, the said Bishop of Derry and Raphoe, under the provisions of the Act secondly herein-before mentioned, demised to the said William Percy Robinson, his executors, administrators, and assigns, the piece of land and premises described in the second schedule to this Act annexed, being part of the land described in the fourth schedule to such secondly herein-before mentioned Act, for the term of forty years from the first day of May one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine, at the yearly rent of thirteen pounds sixteen shillings and sixpence, with one shilling in the pound receiver's fees:

And whereas by an indenture bearing date the fourteenth day of May one thousand eight hundred and seventy, and made between the said William Lord Bishop of Derry and Raphoe of the first part, the Commissioners of Church Tem-poralities in Ireland of the second part, and the said William Percy Robinson of the third part, the said piece of land described in the second schedule annexed to this Act and the appurtenances were conveyed unto and to the use of the said William Percy Robinson, his heirs and assigns, for ever, subject to the yearly rent of fourteen pounds thirteen shillings and sevenpence :

And whereas by an indenture bearing date the fourth day of November one thousand eight hundred and seventy, and made between the said William Percy Robinson of the one part, and the Society of the Governor and Assistants, London, of the New Plantation in Ulster within the realm of Ireland, commonly and in this Act hereafter called the Honourable the Irish Society, of the other part, the said William Percy Robinson did covenant and declare with and to the Honourable the Irish Society, that he, his heirs and assigns, would stand possessed of the said piece of land described in the second schedule annexed to this Act, subject to the said rent of fourteen pounds thirteen shillings and sevenpence, upon trust for the school called Foyle College, and to the intent that the same might be for ever thereafter held, used, occupied, and enjoyed with and as part of and for the purposes of the same school or college :

And whereas no orders, rules, or byelaws have ever been made for the regulation of the said school or college in pursuance of the said firstly herein-before recited Act of Parliament, nor have any trusts been ever declared thereof for any public, charitable, or other purpose, and the said school or college has been continuously carried on upon the pieces of land herein-before referred to and under the provisions of the same Act, but such school or college has not since that time been and is not of the nature of a free school or charity school, nor has any free education been given therein except by favour of the managers thereof for the time being, and not as of right :

And whereas by the Irish Church Act, 1869, every ecclesiastical corporation in Ireland, whether sole or aggregate, and every cathedral corporation in Ireland, were dissolved on the first day of January one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one, and doubts are entertained whether or not the persons who now hold offices similar to those held before the passing of the said Act by the Bishop of Derry and the Dean and Chapter of Derry have any power or authority in the management of Foyle College, or who has such power and authority :

32 & 33 Vict.
c. 42.

And whereas in order to the good management of the said college it is expedient that a new body should be formed to undertake the management and control thereof, and it is expedient to vest all the property and effects of the said college in such new body :

And whereas prior to the year one thousand eight hundred and eight the right of nominating and appointing a master to the said free school had been exercised by His then Majesty and his predecessors :

48 Geo. 3.
c. 77.

And whereas under or by virtue of an Act passed in the forty-eighth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to vest the right of appointment of master of the free school of Londonderry, in the city and county of Londonderry, in the Bishop of Derry for the time being," the Lord Bishop of Derry for the time being and his successors became entitled to the said right of nominating and appointing a master of the said school freed and discharged from all claim, right, and title of His Majesty, his heirs and successors, and the same right has since from time to time been exercised by such bishop for the time being :

32 & 33 Vict.
c. 42.

And whereas doubts are entertained in whom the right so granted to the Bishop of Derry for the time being has become vested in consequence of the provisions of the said Irish Church Act, 1869, and it is expedient that such right shall be absolutely vested in the persons herein-after mentioned in that behalf :

And whereas the several purposes aforesaid cannot be effected without the authority of Parliament :

Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

Short title.

1. This Act may be cited for all purposes as "The Foyle College Act, 1874."

New governing body to have sole management.

2. From and after the passing of this Act all the powers of management of Foyle College (if any) vested in any person or persons under or by virtue of the first-mentioned Act, or otherwise howsoever, shall cease and determine, and the sole management and control of the said college shall be vested in and exercised by the governing body herein-after described alone.

Constitution of governing body.

3. The governing body in whom the sole management and control of Foyle College shall be so vested as aforesaid (in this Act called the governing body) shall consist of the following persons ; namely, the Bishop of Derry and Raphoe for the time being, or the person who shall for the time being discharge duties similar or analogous to those now discharged by the said bishop, herein-after designated the said bishop ; the Governor of the Honourable the Irish Society for the time being, herein-after designated the said governor ; the Deputy Governor of the Honourable the Irish Society for the time being; the Moderator of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Ireland for the time being; and the Worshipful the Mayor of the said city of Londonderry for the time being; such governing body shall be a body corporate with the title of the governing body of Foyle College, and with a perpetual succession and a common seal (with power to hold lands for the purposes of the school without license of mortmain).

4. The messuage or schoolhouse and premises described in the first schedule annexed to this Act, and the piece or parcel of land described in the second schedule annexed to this Act, and all other land (if any) now belonging to the said college, shall, from and immediately after the passing of this Act, vest in the governing body in trust and for the benefit of Foyle College, subject, nevertheless, to the rents herein-before mentioned to be payable in respect thereof respectively.

Lands in schedules vested in governing body.

5. The governing body shall for ever hereafter be the trustees of Foyle College and of its estate and effects, and all lands, tenements, hereditaments, sum or sums of money, and other effects that shall come to the hands of the said trustees or any of them to be applied in any manner for the use of the said college, and which they or any of them may lawfully take by any means whatever, shall be by them applied and disposed of in the manner and for the uses and purposes appointed and directed for the application thereof, be the same by deed, will, donation, gift, agreement, or otherwise, and to no other use and purpose whatsoever.

Governing body to be trustees of Foyle College.

6. All lands, tenements, hereditaments, sum and sums of money, and other effects that shall come to the hands of any person or persons in trust for Foyle College, to be applied in any manner for the use thereof, and which he, she, or they may lawfully take by any means whatsoever, shall be by him, her, or them conveyed, assigned, and paid to the governing body, and shall be by them applied and disposed of in the manner and for the uses appointed and directed for the application thereof, be the same by deed, will, donation, gift, agreement, or otherwise, and to no other use and purpose whatsoever.

Lands, &c. to be conveyed to the governing body.

7. The general agent in Ireland for the time being of the Honourable the Irish Society shall be the treasurer of Foyle College.

Appointment of treasurer.

8. The governing body may from time to time make, ordain, and establish such rules, orders, regulations, and byelaws, and from time to time amend, alter, or repeal the same or any of them, for the regulating, governing, and managing of Foyle College, and all erections, buildings, works, matters, and things thereunto belonging, and also for the regulating of the headmaster and other masters, assistants, and teachers, and all persons to be employed or in anywise concerned in such college, and for the granting of and regulating all salaries and other allowances, as to the governing body shall seem just and reasonable: Provided always, that no such order, rule, regulation, or byelaw be repugnant to or inconsistent with the laws of that part of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland called Ireland, or contrary to the directions and provisions in this Act contained.

Governing body may make byelaws.

Byelaws to be approved by the Lord Lieutenant.

9. No such order, rule, regulation, or byelaw shall be good, valid, or effectual, nor shall any such order, rule, regulation, or byelaw be amended, altered, or repealed, unless and until such order, rule, regulation, or byelaw, or any amendment, alteration, or repeal of any such order, rule, regulation, or byelaw, shall have been submitted to and allowed and approved of by the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland for the time being, who is hereby empowered and required, on request from time to time made by or on behalf of the governing body, to peruse and examine such orders, rules, regulations, and byelaws as shall from time to time be made, altered, amended, or repealed by the governing body in pursuance of this Act, and laid before him the said Lord Lieutenant of Ireland for the time being, and to allow and approve of or to disallow and disapprove of the same or any part thereof, or to allow and approve of or to disallow and disapprove of the repeal of the whole or any part thereof, as to him shall from time to time seem proper and expedient, and for doing thereof no fee or reward shall be paid or taken.

Appointment of head-master.

10. On and from the passing of this Act the right of nominating and appointing the head-master of Foyle College at all times hereafter shall vest absolutely in the said bishop and the said governor.

Dismissal of head-master.

11. The said bishop and the said governor shall have power from time to time at their discretion, and if in their opinion it shall be right, expedient, or necessary, to dismiss the head-master of Foyle College for the time being, such dismissal to be testified by a writing under their hands.

Subject to approval of Lord Lieutenant.

12. Provided always, that every appointment or dismissal of a head-master of the said college by the said bishop and governor shall be subject to the approbation of the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland for the time being testified by writing under his hand, and all such appointments or dismissals as shall not receive such approbation as aforesaid shall be null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever, and in such and the like manner in all respects as if the same had not been made, anything herein contained to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

13. From and after the passing of this Act the Acts contained in the third schedule to this Act annexed are repealed: Repeal of Acts in schedule. Provided that such repeal shall not affect the validity or invalidity of any appointment already made, or any instrument or thing already executed, made, done, or suffered, or any right or title already acquired or accrued, or any remedy in respect thereof, or any release or discharge of any debt, claim, or demand, or the proof of any past act or thing.

CHAPTER 80.

An Act to amend the Laws relating to the Royal Irish Constabulary. [7th August 1874.]

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend the laws relating to the Royal Irish Constabulary :

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

Preliminary.

Interpretation
of terms.

1. The following terms in this Act have the meanings herein-after assigned to them ; (that is to say,)

“ Lord Lieutenant ” means the Lord Lieutenant or other chief governor or governors of Ireland :

“ Constabulary force ” means the Royal Irish Constabulary :

“ Members of the constabulary force ” means inspector general, deputy inspector general, assistant inspector general, commandant of the depôt, surgeon, veterinary surgeon, and every county inspector, sub-inspector, barrack master of the depôt, head constable, constable, acting constable, and sub-constable of the constabulary force :

“ Head and other constables ” means every head constable, constable, acting constable, and sub-constable of the constabulary force :

The term “ county ” shall extend to and include county of a city, county of a town, county of a town and city, city and county and borough, in which there is a grand jury or town council exercising the powers of a grand jury as to presentments :

Power to Lord
Lieutenant to fix revised salaries for constabulary
force.

2. It shall be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant, notwithstanding the limitations in any Act contained, to fix and appoint such revised annual salaries as to him may from time to time seem proper, subject to the conditions herein-after specified, to be paid in such manner and subject to such regulations and provisions as he may direct, to the several persons herein-after mentioned ; (that is to say,)

1. To the inspector general, to the deputy inspector general, to the three assistant inspectors general, one being styled commandant of the depôt, and to the barrack master, such annual salaries respectively as the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury may approve :

2. To the surgeon of the force, an annual salary not exceeding four hundred pounds :

3. To the inspector of constabulary for the town of Belfast, an annual salary not exceeding six hundred pounds :

4. To each county inspector of the first class, an annual salary not exceeding three hundred and fifty pounds :
5. To each county inspector of the second class, an annual salary not exceeding three hundred pounds :
6. To each sub-inspector of the first class, an annual salary not exceeding two hundred and twenty-five pounds :
7. To each sub-inspector of the second class, an annual salary not exceeding one hundred and sixty-five pounds :
8. To the head constable major, an annual salary not exceeding one hundred and four pounds :
9. To each head constable of the first class, an annual salary not exceeding ninety-one pounds :
10. To twelve head constables of the first class, of long service or superior merit, but ineligible for further promotion, an addition to their respective salaries under this Act of ten pounds per annum each :
11. To each head constable of the second class, an annual salary not exceeding eighty-three pounds four shillings :
12. To twelve head constables of the second class, of long service or superior merit, but ineligible for further promotion, an addition to their respective salaries under this Act of ten pounds per annum :
13. To each constable, an annual salary not exceeding seventy-two pounds sixteen shillings :
14. To sixty constables, of long service or superior merit, but ineligible for promotion, an addition to their respective salaries under this Act of four pounds per annum each :
15. To each acting constable, an annual salary not exceeding sixty-seven pounds twelve shillings :
16. To each sub-constable of twenty years service and upwards, an annual salary of sixty-two pounds eight shillings :
17. To each sub-constable of fourteen years and under twenty years service, an annual salary of fifty-nine pounds sixteen shillings :
18. To each sub-constable of eight years and under fourteen years service, an annual salary of fifty-seven pounds four shillings :
19. To each sub-constable of four years and under eight years service, an annual salary not exceeding fifty-four pounds twelve shillings :
20. To each sub-constable of six months and under four years service, an annual salary not exceeding fifty-two pounds :
21. To each sub-constable of less than six months service, a salary at a rate not exceeding thirty-nine pounds per annum :

Such salaries to take effect from and after the first day of July one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, and to continue to be paid until the first day of July one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five, and to be in addition to the good service pay at present authorised, viz., to five county inspectors, fifty pounds per annum each; to six sub-inspectors of the first class, thirty pounds per annum each; and to twenty-three sub-inspectors, whether of the second or third class, twelve pounds per annum each.

Superannuation.

3. It shall be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant, under the conditions herein-after mentioned, to direct that any head or other constable appointed after the tenth day of August one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six may be superannuated, and receive a gratuity or yearly pension not exceeding the proportion of his salary stated in the scale herein-after mentioned; and it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, or any two or more of them, upon the recommendation of the Lord Lieutenant, to direct that any officer of the constabulary force, that is to say, any inspector general, deputy inspector general, assistant inspector general, commandant of the depôt, surgeon, veterinary surgeon, county inspector, barrack master of the depôt, or sub-inspector appointed after the tenth day of August one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, may be superannuated, and may receive a gratuity or yearly pension not exceeding the proportion of his salary stated in the scale herein-after mentioned; that is to say,

1. A gratuity of one month's salary for each year's service when such service has exceeded five years and been less than fifteen years:
2. On completion of fifteen years service, an annual pension of fifteen fiftieths of the salary may be granted, and an increase of one fiftieth for each successive year up to thirty years service completed:
3. After thirty years service, or after the person to be superannuated has attained the age of sixty years, the pension to be equal to thirty fiftieths of the salary, or to a larger proportion in cases of extraordinary merit or good conduct; provided that the particulars constituting such merit or conduct shall be set forth in the authority granting the pension, and that if the pension exceeds the amount which might have been granted for length of service only, it shall not be granted without the consent in writing of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury:
4. For injuries received at any time in the actual performance of duty, a pension may be granted of an amount in proportion to the injury received, not exceeding the full salary; provided that the grounds of disability shall be fully set forth in the authority granting the pension, and that if the pension exceeds the amount which might have been granted for length of service only, it shall not be granted without the consent in writing of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury.

Nothing herein contained shall entitle any member of the constabulary force absolutely to any superannuation allowance nor prevent him from being dismissed or discharged for misconduct or other sufficient cause without superannuation allowance; and no surgeon hereafter appointed, and no veterinary surgeon who is not required by the terms of his appointment to give up private practice, shall be entitled to any pension or retiring gratuity under this Act.

No such pension or gratuity shall be granted in any case except on the certificate of the surgeon of the force, or such other competent medical officer or officers as the Lord Lieutenant shall name for the purpose, that the person is incapable from infirmity of mind or body to discharge the duties of his situation and that such infirmity is likely to be permanent, and the certificate of the inspector general (or in the case of the inspector general's superannuation, then on the certificate of the chief secretary to the Lord Lieutenant), that he has served with diligence and fidelity: Provided that any member of the force who shall have served thirty years, or who has attained the age of sixty years or upwards, may upon his petition, be superannuated without such medical certificate.

Save as by this Act expressly provided, the provisions of an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the tenth and eleventh years of Her present Majesty, chapter one hundred, intituled "An Act to regulate the superannuation allowances of the Constabulary Force in Ireland, and the Dublin Metropolitan Police," shall apply to the members of the constabulary force in Ireland appointed before the tenth day of August one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, as fully and effectually as if this Act had not passed: Provided always, that any member of the constabulary force appointed as last aforesaid may be superannuated, if he so elect, according to the scale and on the conditions prescribed by this Act. Saving rights.

All pensions and gratuities granted to members of the constabulary force after the passing of this Act shall be computed according to the manner prescribed for the computation of superannuation allowances by section twelve of the Act of the session of the fourth and fifth years of the reign of His late Majesty William the Fourth, chapter twenty-four.

In calculating any superannuation which shall be granted according to the scale and on the conditions prescribed by this Act to members of the constabulary force, whether appointed before or after the tenth day of August one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, the term salary shall include all allowances for lodging, house rent, and servant: Provided always, that the allowance in respect of lodging or house rent shall not exceed one sixth of the actual salary and other emoluments.

Forfeiture of pension for misconduct.

4. Such pension shall be granted only upon the condition that it becomes forfeited, and may be withdrawn by the Lord Lieutenant, in any of the following cases :

1. On conviction of the grantee for any indictable offence :
2. On his knowingly associating with suspected persons, thieves, or other offenders :
3. On his refusing to give information and assistance to the police whenever in his power for the detection and apprehension of criminals, and for the suppression of any disturbance of the public peace :
4. If it shall be discovered that the pension or retiring allowance of such person was granted upon statements or pretences which were to his knowledge false, or if he enter into or continue to carry on any business, occupation, or employment which shall be in the opinion of the Lord Lieutenant disgraceful or injurious to the public, or in which he shall make use of the fact of his former employment in the constabulary force in a manner which the Lord Lieutenant considers to be discreditable and improper.

Rate of charge upon counties for extra constabulary.

5. Section 12 of an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to amend an Act to consolidate the laws relating to the Constabulary Force in Ireland," shall be and the same is hereby repealed ; and in lieu thereof be it enacted, that where one moiety of the costs and expenses of any constabulary force is chargeable to any county or any part or district of a county, or any county of a city or county of a town, or borough or town in Ireland, there shall be charged to each such county, or part or district thereof, or county of a city or county of a town, or any such borough or town, such sum or sums as may be due at the rates per annum following :

For each sub-inspector, one moiety of the sum of one hundred and eighty-four pounds and seven shillings ;

For each head-constable, one moiety of the sum of eighty-six pounds and twelve shillings.

Provided always, that it shall be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant, with the approval of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, from time to time to fix and determine the further rates of charge to be paid by every such county, or part or district thereof, or county of a city or county of a town, or borough or town, on an average of the entire force of constables, acting constables, and sub-constables in Ireland, regard being had to the rate of pay sanctioned by this Act, and to the cost of clothing, medical attendance, barrack accommodation, fuel, local travelling expenses, and extra pay of such constables and other constables when absent from quarters.

And in all cases where, under the laws now in force, the whole of the costs and expenses of any constabulary force is chargeable to any county, or any part or district of a county, or any county of a city or county of a town, or any borough or town, in Ireland, there shall be charged to each such county, or part or district of such county, or county of a city, county of a town, borough, or town, per annum, the full cost of such constabulary force calculated in the manner last mentioned.

6. From and after the passing of this Act, in all cases where members of the constabulary force shall be required to keep the peace in the neighbourhood of railway works or other public works in Ireland, the costs and expenses of such members, calculated according to the rates in the preceding section mentioned, shall be charged upon the company or other parties carrying on such railway or other public works; and all sums so charged shall be payable to the inspector general, who shall pay over the same to Her Majesty's Exchequer in like manner as any other money payable thereto.

Rate of charge upon public companies for constabulary protection.

7. When any head or other constable shall hold any canteen under proper authority of the inspector general, it shall be lawful for any two justices within their respective jurisdictions to grant a certificate authorising the grant or transfer of any beer, wine, or spirit license to such persons without regard to time of year or to the notices required by any Act in respect of such licenses, and the Commissioners of Inland Revenue, or their proper officers within their respective districts, shall, upon production of such certificates, grant licenses as aforesaid; and any such constable so holding a canteen and having such license may sell therein victuals and intoxicating liquors as empowered by such license, without being subject to any penalty or forfeiture; and so much of any Act as provides that any head or other constable who shall sell any beer, wine, or spirituous liquors shall be subject to any disqualification, loss of salary, or any other penalty, shall not apply to any such constable as aforesaid.

Canteen.

8. It shall be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant (if he shall so think fit) to order and direct that two shillings per week shall be paid by way of special allowance to head and other constables whilst serving in the town of Belfast and in the borough of Londonderry, with a view to meet the extra expense to which the men serving therein respectively are subject as compared with the remainder of the constabulary force; and the said additional sums shall be paid in like manner and out of the like funds as the pay of such head and other constables.

Two shillings per week to men in Belfast and Londonderry.

9. When any money or goods shall be found and shall be delivered over to any constable, or when any goods or money

As to unclaimed money and goods

found or stolen.

charged to be stolen or unlawfully obtained, and of which the owner shall be unknown, shall be in the hands of any constable, it shall be lawful for the inspector general, after the expiration of twelve calendar months during which no owner shall have appeared to claim the same, to sell or dispose of such goods or money, and pay over such money or proceeds to Her Majesty's Exchequer in like manner as any other money payable thereto.

Amendment of 6 & 7 W. 4.
c. 13. s. 18. as to disabilities of members of constabulary
force.

10. The disabilities imposed by the eighteenth section of the Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of the reign of His late Majesty William the Fourth, chapter thirteen, shall not (except as to being elected or sitting as a member of the House of Commons) be taken or held to be applicable to any clerk in the office of the inspector general.

Estimate of charge to be presented to Parliament.

11. The Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury shall cause to be submitted to Parliament annually an estimate of the sum which will from time to time be required to defray the expenditure which under this Act will be chargeable on moneys to be provided by Parliament.

Constabulary force fund.

12. From and after the passing of this Act the fund called the "Reward Fund," established under an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of the reign of His late Majesty William the Fourth, intituled "An Act to consolidate the laws relating to the Constabulary Force in Ireland," shall be called by the new name of the "Constabulary Force Fund," and all enactments relating to the said reward fund shall be read and interpreted as if throughout the said enactments, wherever the police reward fund is mentioned or any reference to the same occurs, the said new name were substituted; and the said enactments shall be construed with the modification following; (that is to say,)

A deduction shall be made of such amount per cent. on the salary of each member of the constabulary force, not exceeding one and a half per cent. on the said salary, as the inspector general may with the approval of the Lord Lieutenant from time to time order and direct.

Repeal of enactments.

13. From and after the passing of this Act the enactments specified in the first column of the schedule to this Act annexed shall, to the extent specified in the second column of the said schedule, be and the same are hereby repealed.

Provided that such repeal shall not affect—

- (1.) Anything duly done or suffered under any enactment hereby repealed; or,
- (2.) Any right or privilege acquired or any liability incurred under any enactment hereby repealed.

14. This Act may be cited for all purposes as “The Constabulary (Ireland) Act, 1874.” Short title.

CHAPTER 81.

An Act to provide for the abolition of certain offices connected with the Great Seal, and to make better provision respecting the office of the Clerk of the Crown in Chancery. [7th August 1874.]

BE it enacted by the Queen’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows; that is to say,

1. This Act may be cited as the Great Seal (Offices) Act, Short title.
1874.

2. This Act shall come into operation on the first day of September one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, Commencement of Act. which day is in this Act referred to as the commencement of this Act.

3. In this Act—

The expression “the Lord Chancellor” means the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, or the Commissioners for executing the office of such Lord High Chancellor.

Definition of terms.

The expression “the Treasury” means the Commissioners of Her Majesty’s Treasury.

4. After the commencement of this Act the office of messenger or pursuivant of the Great Seal shall as a separate office be abolished. Abolition of office of messenger of Great Seal and transfer of duties.

The powers and duties of the messenger or pursuivant of the Great Seal in relation to writs for the election of members to serve in Parliament shall on the commencement of this Act be transferred to and vested in such officer as the Lord Chancellor may from time to time, with the approval of Her Majesty, appoint, and such officer may, if the Lord Chancellor so direct, be styled messenger of the Great Seal in lieu of or in addition to any other style denoting his office, and the Act of the session of the fifty-third year of the reign of King George the Third, chapter eighty-nine, intituled "An Act for the more regular conveyance of writs for the election of members to serve in Parliament," so far as it is unrepealed, shall be construed as if the officer so appointed were therein substituted for the messenger or pursuivant of the Great Seal, with this qualification, that the deputy in that Act mentioned shall be appointed by the Lord Chancellor in writing.

All other duties and powers required to be performed by or vested in the messenger or pursuivant of the Great Seal shall be performed by and vested in such officer as the Lord Chancellor may from time to time direct.

There shall be paid, out of moneys provided by Parliament, to any officer to whom any duties and powers are transferred under this section, such additional salary or remuneration (if any) as the Treasury, upon the recommendation of the Lord Chancellor, may from time to time assign to him.

Power to abolish office of clerk of the petty bag and transfer of duties.

5. At any time after the commencement of this Act the Treasury may, with the concurrence of the Lord Chancellor and of the Master of the Rolls, abolish the office of clerk of the petty bag notwithstanding that there is no vacancy in the office.

Upon the abolition of the office of clerk of the petty bag, all the duties and powers of the cursitors of the Court of Chancery, and all the duties and powers of the clerk of the petty bag with respect to solicitors, the administering of oaths, the attending with records, the enrolment of documents, the sealing and issuing of documents or writs with or under the Chancery common law seal, and other matters relating to the administration of justice (but excluding any writs or letters patent passed under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom), shall be performed by or vested in such officer of the Court of Chancery as the Lord Chancellor may from time to time direct, or after the commencement of the Supreme Court of Judicature Act, 1873, in such officer of the Supreme Court of Judicature in England as may from time to time be directed by rules of court under the Supreme Court of Judicature Act, 1873, and any Act amending the same.

After the commencement of this Act all the duties and powers other than those above mentioned in this section of the clerk of the petty bag, including all duties and powers relating to any writs or letters patent passed under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom, shall be performed by and vested in the clerk of the Crown in Chancery or his officers in such manner as the Lord Chancellor may from time to time direct.

If any doubt arise as to whether any duty or power of the clerk of the petty bag is or is not transferred to the clerk of the Crown in Chancery, such doubt shall be determined by the Lord Chancellor, whose decision shall be final.

The clerk of the petty bag shall, except so far as regards the duties and powers transferred by this Act to the clerk of the Crown in Chancery, be deemed to be an officer attached to the Court of Chancery, within the meaning of section seventy-seven of the Supreme Court of Judicature Act, 1873, and the powers and provisions contained in this Act shall be deemed to be in addition to and not in derogation of the powers and provisions contained in that section.

6. At any time after the commencement of this Act the Treasury may, with the concurrence of the Lord Chancellor, abolish the office of clerk of the patents.

Power to abolish office of clerk of the patents, and transfer the duties.

Upon the abolition of the office of clerk of the patents, all the duties and powers of the clerk of the patents shall be performed by and vested in the clerk of the Crown in Chancery or his officers in such manner as the Lord Chancellor may from time to time direct.

Nothing in this section shall apply to the clerk of the Commissioners of Patents, so far as relates to letters patent under the Patent Law Amendment Act, 1852, and the Acts amending the same.

7. Upon the death or resignation of the person who at the passing of this Act holds the office of purse-bearer to the Lord Chancellor the office shall be abolished, and upon such abolition all duties and powers required to be performed by or vested in the said purse-bearer (including the duties of chaff wax sealer and deputy sealer now required to be performed by him) shall be performed by and vested in the gentleman of the chamber attending the Great Seal.

Union of offices of gentleman of the chamber to the Great Seal and purse-bearer to the Lord Chancellor.

There shall be paid, out of moneys provided by Parliament, to the gentleman of the chamber attending the Great Seal, such salary or remuneration, and upon the transfer to him of the duties and powers of purse-bearer to the Lord Chancellor, such additional salary or remuneration for those duties, as the Treasury may from time to time, upon the recommendation of the Lord Chancellor, assign to him.

8. It shall continue to be lawful for Her Majesty from time to time under Her Royal Sign Manual to appoint a fit person to fill the office of clerk of the Crown in Chancery.

Duties and salary of clerk of the Crown.

The clerk of the Crown in Chancery shall continue to perform the duties of the office of keeper or clerk of the hanaper, and shall continue to hold his office notwithstanding the demise of Her Majesty, her heirs or successors.

There shall be paid to any person appointed after the commencement of this Act to be clerk of the Crown in Chancery such salary as the Treasury may assign to him.

The salaries of the clerk of the Crown in Chancery, and of his officers, and the expenses of his office, shall be paid out of moneys provided by Parliament.

Fees in office of clerk of the Crown, &c.

9. The Lord Chancellor, with the concurrence of the Treasury, may from time to time by order appoint the fees to be taken in the office of or by the clerk of the Crown in Chancery, or by any of his officers, or by any person performing the duties of messenger or pursuivant of the Great Seal, or gentleman of the chamber attending the Great Seal, or purse-bearer to the Lord Chancellor, or chaff wax sealer or deputy sealer, and may from time to time by order increase, reduce, add to, or abolish the fees for the time being taken in such office or by such officer; and the Public Offices Fees Act, 1866, shall apply to all such fees.

No fees other than those so appointed shall be taken in the said office or by any of the above-mentioned officers or persons.

Provided that until any such order is made, the fees existing at the commencement of this Act, including the fees payable in the office of the clerk of the petty bag and of the clerk of the patents in respect of matters the transaction of which is transferred by this Act to the clerk of the Crown in Chancery, shall continue to be taken in like manner as if this section had not passed.

Temporary Provisions.

Transfer of records.

10. All records, documents, and papers belonging to any of the offices affected by this Act shall, upon the transfer of the duties to which such records, documents, and papers relate, be transferred to the officers who will perform those duties in such manner as the Lord Chancellor may from time to time direct.

Provision as to existing officers in abolished
offices.

11. The persons who upon the abolition of the office of clerk of the petty bag, or the office of clerk of the patents, hold the office so abolished, or any office in connexion with the office so abolished, or receive any salary or remuneration for duties connected therewith, shall upon such abolition be transferred to the Court of Chancery, or if the abolition is after the commencement of the Supreme Court of Judicature Act, 1873, to the Supreme Court of Judicature in England, and shall have the same rank and hold their offices by the same tenure and upon the same terms and conditions, and receive the same salaries or remuneration as theretofore; and the Lord Chancellor may from time to time assign to the officers transferred by this section such duties in relation to the business to be performed in any office connected with the Court of Chancery or Supreme Court of Judicature in England as he may think just, and the said officers shall perform those duties: Provided that the duties required to be performed by them under this section shall be the same as or analogous to those which they have heretofore performed.

The Lord Chancellor may at any time, by order, release from the performance of any duties any officer transferred by this section, whose services he may deem unnecessary, and such person shall thereupon cease to hold office, and shall be entitled to compensation in manner provided by this Act.

The Treasury may, on the petition of any officer so released, inquire whether any, and, if any, what compensation ought to be made to the petitioner, regard being had to the conditions on which he was appointed to his office, the nature of his office or employment, and the duration of his service, and if they think that his claim to compensation is established, may award to him, out of moneys to be provided by Parliament, such compensation by way of annuity or otherwise as under the circumstances of the case they think just and reasonable: Provided that any compensation so granted shall be subject to the provisions of the twentieth section of the Act four and five William IV., chapter twenty-four, and of the eleventh section of the Act twenty-two Victoria, chapter twenty-six.

Repeal of Acts and parts of Acts in schedule.

Provided that—

- (1.) This repeal shall not diminish or affect the right of any person who, at the time of the commencement of this Act, holds any of the offices mentioned in, or receives any compensation, salary, remuneration, or allowance under any enactment hereby repealed, and such enactment shall, subject to the express provisions of this Act, continue to apply to such person so long as he holds such office, or is entitled to receive such compensation, salary, remuneration, or allowance:
- (2.) This repeal shall not affect,—
  - (a.) Anything duly done or suffered under any enactment hereby repealed; or
  - (b.) Any right, privilege, obligation, or liability acquired, accrued, or incurred under any enactment hereby repealed; or
  - (c.) Any investigation, legal proceeding, or remedy in respect of any such right, privilege, obligation, or liability as aforesaid; and any such investigation, legal proceeding, and remedy may be carried on as if this Act had not passed:
- (3.) This repeal shall not revive any enactment, right, office, privilege, matter, or thing not in force or existing at the commencement of this Act.

CHAPTER 82.

An Act to alter and amend the laws relating to the Appointment of Ministers to Parishes in Scotland.

[7th August 1874.]

WHEREAS an Act was passed in the tenth year of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Anne, chapter twelve, intituled "An Act to restore the Patrons to their Ancient Rights of presenting Ministers to the Churches vacant in that part of Great Britain called Scotland," and another Act was passed in the sixth and seventh years of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter sixty-one, intituled "An Act to remove Doubts respecting the Admission of Ministers to Benefices in that part of the United Kingdom called Scotland," and it is expedient to repeal the same, and to provide otherwise for the appointment of ministers of the Church of Scotland as by law established:

M m 2

And whereas Her Majesty has been graciously pleased to signify that she has placed at the disposal of Parliament her interest in the several rights of advocacy, donation, and patronage of churches and parishes in Scotland belonging to her :

Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

Extent of Act.

1. This Act shall apply to Scotland only.

Commencement of Act.

2. Except in so far as otherwise expressly provided, this Act shall come into operation on the first day of January one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five, which date is hereinafter referred to as the commencement of this Act.

Repeal of Acts 10 Anne, c. 12., and 6 & 7 Vict. c. 61.
Appointment of ministers in future.

3. From and after the commencement of this Act, the said Acts of the tenth year of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Anne, chapter twelve, and the sixth and seventh years of the reign of Her present Majesty, chapter sixty-one, shall be repealed, and the right of electing and appointing ministers to vacant churches and parishes in Scotland is hereby declared to be vested in the congregations of such vacant churches and parishes respectively, subject to such regulations in regard to the mode of naming and proposing such ministers by means of a committee chosen by the congregation, and of conducting the election and of making the appointment by the congregation as may from time to time be framed by the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland, or which after the passing of this Act, but before the next meeting of the said General Assembly, may be framed by the commission of the last General Assembly duly convened for the purpose of making interim regulations thereanent: Provided always, that, with respect to the admission and settlement of ministers appointed in terms of this Act, nothing herein contained shall affect or prejudice the right of the said Church, in the exercise of its undoubted powers to try the qualifications of persons appointed to vacant parishes; and the courts of the said Church are hereby declared to have the right to decide finally and conclusively upon the appointment, admission, and settlement in any church and parish of any person as minister thereof. The ministers appointed, admitted, and settled in terms of this Act are hereby declared to have in all respects the same rights, privileges, and duties which now belong to or are incumbent on the ministers of the said Church.

Compensation to private patrons.

4. In all cases in which the patronage of a parish is held either solely or jointly by a private patron, or any guardian or trustee on his behalf, it shall be lawful for him, or for such guardian or trustee, at any time within six months after the passing of this Act, to present a petition to the sheriff of the county (and when the parish is partly in two or more counties, the petition may be presented to the sheriff of any one of such counties), praying him to determine the compensation to be paid to such patron in respect of the operation of this Act; but it shall not be incumbent on any such patron, or upon any guardian or trustee for such patron, whether the patronage is held upon a fee simple title or under a deed of entail or other limited title, to present such petition; and if no such petition shall be presented within the said period, it shall be held and taken that the claim for such compensation has been renounced, and no claim therefor shall afterwards be competent in any manner of way. No compensation in respect of the operation of this Act shall be paid to Her Majesty, or to any patron other than a private patron.

5. Upon any petition for the determination of the compensation payable under this Act being presented, the sheriff shall order it to be intimated to the minister of the parish to which the petition relates, and to the clerk of the presbytery of the bounds, and, after the expiry of the induciæ of twenty-one days, whether with or without answers, shall first inquire as to the title of the petitioner, and, if he shall be satisfied thereof, he shall proceed to determine the amount of such compensation, which shall be equal to one year's stipend of the parish to which the petition relates when the petitioner is sole patron, and such proportion thereof as to the sheriff shall seem just when the petitioner is a joint patron; and the sheriff shall pronounce an interlocutor finding and declaring that, on the occurrence of a vacancy in the parish, the petitioner, or those in his right, shall be entitled, unless the sum shall be otherwise provided, to receive from the heritors payment of the amount of compensation found due, by four equal yearly instalments out of the first four years stipend, which, but for the passing of this Act, would have been wholly payable by them to the minister to be appointed on the occurrence of said vacancy, or his successor in such parish, or in the case of the appointment of an assistant and successor out of the first four years stipend, which, but for the passing of this Act, would have been wholly payable after the date of such appointment to the minister of such parish; and the petitioner, or those in his right, shall have the same or the like remedies for recovery of said compensation which a minister has for the recovery of his stipend: Provided that where the patron is himself an heritor of the parish he shall be entitled to retain and appropriate the sum or sums of stipend which, had he not been himself the patron, would under the operation of this Act have been payable by him to the patron of the parish.

Procedure
before sheriff.

6. The interlocutors or judgments of the sheriff pronounced under this Act shall not be subject to review by any superior Sheriff's judgments final.

court, but where they have been pronounced by the sheriff substitute or steward substitute, they shall be subject to review by the sheriff or steward : Provided always, that it shall be competent for the Court of Session by act of sederunt to regulate the proceedings before the sheriff under this Act.

Appointment by presbytery tanquam jure devoluto.

7. (1.) If on occasion of a vacancy in any parish no appointment of a minister shall be made by the congregation within the space of six months after the vacancy has occurred, the right of appointment shall accrue and belong for that time to the presbytery of the bounds where such parish is, who may proceed to appoint a minister to the said parish tanquam jure devoluto :

Provision for case of small congregations.

(2.) If at any time after the passing of this Act, and prior to the first day of July one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five, it shall appear to the presbytery of the bounds that the number of the communicants of any vacant church and parish to which no presentation had been issued before the passing hereof is less than twenty-five, it shall not be lawful to take any proceedings for the appointment, admission, and settlement of a minister until after the said first day of July one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five ; the jus devolutum in the case of any such vacancy shall not come into operation until after the first day of September one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five, although more than six months may have elapsed from the occurrence of such vacancy.

Repeal of inconsistent statutes.

8. All laws, statutes, and usages inconsistent with this Act are hereby repealed ; but nothing in this Act contained shall affect or interfere with the appointment of the minister first appointed as the minister of any new parish quoad sacra, or the right to teind now possessed by or competent to any patron or titular, or the right of ann, or the laws now in force in regard to the disposal of vacant stipends ; nor shall anything contained in this Act, except the provisions of the second sub-section of section seven, affect or interfere with any proceedings following upon or arising out of a presentation issued before the commencement of this Act.

Interpretation clause.

9. The word "minister" shall include assistant and successor ; the word "guardian" shall include tutors and curators of pupils or minors or of persons labouring under incapacity or disability, and factors loco tutoris and factors loco absentis ; the word "sheriff" shall include steward, sheriff substitute, and steward substitute ; the words "one year's stipend" shall be construed to mean the sum which, on an average of the three preceding years, the minister has received in name of stipend out of the teinds of the parish ; the words "private patron" shall mean and include all patrons of churches and parishes, whether single or joint, other than Her Majesty and her royal successors, and burgh corporations, universities, or trustees constituted commissioners, officers, or persons acting in a public capacity; the word "parish" shall include united parishes, and also parishes quoad sacra as well as parishes quoad omnia, and where in any church and parish there is more than one benefice, each benefice shall be dealt with and regarded as if it were a separate parish; the words "vacancy" and "vacant" shall include and refer to the occasion of the appointment of an assistant and successor, as well as the occasion of an ordinary vacancy; the word "congregation" shall mean and include communicants and such other adherents of the church as the kirk session under regulations to be framed by the General Assembly or commission thereof, as provided in the third section hereof, may determine to be members of the congregation for the purposes of this Act; "heritors" shall mean heritors liable in payment of stipend.

CHAPTER 83.

An Act for delaying the coming into operation of the Supreme Court of Judicature Act, 1873.

[7th August 1874.]

WHEREAS it is expedient to extend the time appointed for the commencement of the Supreme Court of Judicature Act, 1873:

Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1. The second section of the Supreme Court of Judicature Act, 1873, is hereby repealed. Repeal of 36 & 37 Vict.
c. 66. s. 2.
2. The Supreme Court of Judicature Act, 1873, except any provisions thereof directed to take effect on the passing of the said Act, shall commence and come into operation on the first day of November one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five, and the said first day of November one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five shall be taken to be the time appointed for the commencement of the said Act. Commencement of Supreme Court of Judicature
Act, 1873.
3. This Act may be cited for all purposes as the Supreme Court of Judicature (Commencement) Act, 1874. Short title of Act.

CHAPTER 84.

An Act to regulate the Incorporation of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings, and for other purposes relating thereto.

[7th August 1874.]

WHEREAS there are divers Corporations created by the various Acts of Parliament mentioned in the first schedule to this Act, and now subsisting under the same name of "The Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings," and the Commissioners for the time being of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings are also incorporated under the name of the Battersea Park Commissioners, by the Act mentioned in the second schedule to this Act, and it is expedient that all such Corporations should be amalgamated :

And whereas it is also expedient that certain royal properties now under the management of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues should be placed under the management of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings :

Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

Short title.

1. This Act may be cited for all purposes as "The Works and Public Buildings Act, 1874."

Commissioners incorporated by 14 & 15 Vict. c. 42. to have the powers conferred on subsequent Commissioners.

2. The Commissioners for the time being of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings as incorporated by and for the purposes of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-two, are hereby declared to be, and shall be a Corporation to all intents and purposes, and as such shall have and hold, and may exercise not only all the estates, property, interests, privileges, and powers now vested in or enjoyed by them under that Act, but also all estates, property, interests, privileges, and powers now vested in or held or enjoyed by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings as a Corporation under the Act of the fifteenth and sixteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter twenty-eight, or any subsequent Act, and in or by the Battersea Park Commissioners.

Dissolution of Corporation, created subsequent to 14 & 15 Vict.

3. The Corporation of the Battersea Park Commissioners, and all Corporations existing under the name of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings, except the Corporation hereby confirmed, are hereby dissolved, but not so as to affect prejudicially any existing rights or pending proceedings; and the continuing Corporation shall perform all the duties, and be subject to and bear and discharge all the existing liabilities of all the dissolved Corporations out of the funds applicable to the same respectively, and shall have the benefit of all covenants and agreements entered into with any of the dissolved Corporations.

4. The first Commissioner and the other Commissioners for the time being of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings, and all officers of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings, shall retain and have for the purposes of this Act in relation to the Corporation hereby confirmed all the powers and authorities given to or enjoyed by them in relation to any of the Corporations hereby dissolved, and also all the powers and authority given to or enjoyed by them by or under the said Acts of the fourteenth and fifteenth years and the fifteenth and sixteenth years of Her Majesty.

Powers of Commissioners.

5. From and after the passing of this Act the Royal Palace of Dunfermline or ruins thereof, and so much of the land adjacent thereto as is now vested in or belongs to Her Majesty in right of Her Crown, and also the Royal Palace of Linlithgow or ruins thereof, and the peel or park surrounding the same, with the adjacent loch, also the King's Garden and Knott, being part of the Crown estate, Stirling, shall be and the same are hereby transferred from the management of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues to the management of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings, as if the said palaces and lands had been included in the twenty-second section of the said Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-two.

Transfer of Dunfermline Palace, &c. from Commissioners of Woods to Commissioners of Works.

FIRST SCHEDULE.

Session and Chapter.	Title of Act.
14 & 15 Vict. c. 42.	An Act to make better provision for the management of the woods, forests, and land revenues of the Crown, and for the direction of public works and buildings.

CHAPTER 85.

An Act for the better administration of the Laws respecting the regulation of Public Worship.

[7th August 1874.]

WHEREAS it is expedient that in certain cases further regulations should be made for the administration of the laws relating to the performance of divine service according to the use of the Church of England :

Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

1. This Act may be cited as The Public Worship Regulation Act, 1874. Short title.
2. This Act shall come into operation on the first day of July one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five, except where expressly herein-after provided. Commencement of Act.
3. This Act shall extend to that part of the United Kingdom called England, to the Channel Islands, and the Isle of Man. Extent of Act.
4. Proceedings taken under this Act shall not be deemed to be such proceedings as are mentioned in the Act of the third and fourth year of the reign of Her Majesty, chapter eighty-six, section twenty-three. Proceedings under this Act not to be deemed proceedings under 3 & 4 Vict. c. 86. s. 23.
5. Nothing in this Act contained, save as herein expressly provided, shall be construed to affect or repeal any jurisdiction which may now be in force for the due administration of ecclesiastical law. Saving of jurisdiction.
6. In this Act the following terms shall, if not inconsistent with the context, be thus interpreted—
 The term "bishop" means the archbishop or bishop of the diocese in which the church or burial ground is situate to which a representation relates : Interpretation of terms.
 The term "Book of Common Prayer" means the book annexed to the Act of the fourteenth year of the reign of King Charles the Second, chapter four, intituled "The Book of Common Prayer, and Administration of the Sacraments, and other Rites and Ceremonies of the Church, according to the use of the Church of England ; together with the Psalter or Psalms of David, pointed as they are to be sung or said in churches; and the form or manner of making, ordaining, and consecrating of Bishops, Priests, and Deacons ;" together with such alterations as have from time to time been or may hereafter be made in the said book by lawful authority : "Bishop."
"Book of Common Prayer."

- “Burial ground.” The term “burial ground” means any churchyard, cemetery, or burial ground, or the part of any cemetery or burial ground, in which, at the burial of any corpse therein, the order for the burial of the dead contained in the Book of Common Prayer is directed by law to be used :
- “Church.” The term “church” means any church, chapel, or place of public worship in which the incumbent is by law or by the terms of license from the bishop required to conduct divine service according to the Book of Common Prayer :
- “Diocese.” The term “diocese” means the diocese in which the church or burial ground is situate to which a representation relates, and comprehends all places which are situate within the limits of such diocese :
- “Incumbent.” The term “incumbent” means the person or persons in holy orders legally responsible for the due performance of divine service in any church, or of the order for the burial of the dead in any burial ground :
- “Parish.” The term “parish” means any parish, ecclesiastical district, chapelry, or place, over which any incumbent has the exclusive cure of souls :
- “Parishioner.” The term “parishioner” means a male person of full age who, before making any representation under this Act has transmitted to the bishop under his hand the declaration contained in Schedule (A.) to this Act, and who has, and for one year next before taking any proceeding under this Act has had, his usual place of abode in the parish within which the church or burial ground is situate, or for the use of which the burial ground is legally provided to which the representation relates :
- “Barrister-at-law.” The term “barrister-at-law” shall in the Isle of Man include advocate :
- “Rules and orders.” The term “rules and orders” means the rules and orders framed under the provisions of this Act.

Appointment and duties of judge.

7. The Archbishop of Canterbury and the Archbishop of York may, but subject to the approval of Her Majesty to be signified under Her Sign Manual, appoint from time to time a barrister-at-law who has been in actual practice for ten years, or a person who has been a judge of one of the Superior Courts of Law or Equity, or of any court to which the jurisdiction of any such court has been or may hereafter be transferred by authority of Parliament, to be, during good behaviour, a judge of the Provincial Courts of Canterbury and York, herein-after called the judge.

If the said archbishops shall not, within six months after the passing of this Act, or within six months after the occurrence of any vacancy in the office, appoint the said judge, Her Majesty may by Letters Patent appoint some person, qualified as aforesaid, to be such judge.

Whensoever a vacancy shall occur in the office of official principal of the Arches Court of Canterbury, the judge shall become ex officio such official principal, and all proceedings thereafter taken before the judge in relation to matters arising within the province of Canterbury shall be deemed to be taken in the Arches Court of Canterbury; and whensoever a vacancy shall occur in the office of official principal or auditor of the Chancery Court of York, the judge shall become ex officio such official principal or auditor, and all proceedings thereafter taken before the judge in relation to matters arising within the province of York shall be deemed to be taken in the Chancery Court of York; and whensoever a vacancy shall occur in the office of Master of the Faculties to the Archbishop of Canterbury, such judge shall become ex officio such Master of the Faculties.

Every person appointed to be a judge under this Act shall be a member of the Church of England, and shall, before entering on his office, sign the declaration in Schedule (A.) to this Act; and if at any time any such judge shall cease to be a member of the Church, his office shall thereupon be vacant.

This section shall come into operation immediately after the passing of this Act.

8. If the archdeacon of the archdeaconry, or a churchwarden of the parish, or any three parishioners of the parish, within which archdeaconry or parish any church or burial ground is situate, or for the use of any part of which any burial ground is legally provided, or in case of cathedral or collegiate churches, any three inhabitants of the diocese, being male persons of full age, who have signed and transmitted to the bishop under their hands the declaration contained in Schedule (A.) under this Act, and who have, and for one year next before taking any proceeding under this Act have had, their usual place of abode in the diocese within which the cathedral or collegiate church is situated, shall be of opinion,—

- (1.) That in such church any alteration in or addition to the fabric, ornaments, or furniture thereof has been made without lawful authority, or that any decoration forbidden by law has been introduced into such church; or,
- (2.) That the incumbent has within the preceding twelve months used or permitted to be used in such church or burial ground any unlawful ornament of the minister of the church, or neglected to use any prescribed ornament or vesture; or,
- (3.) That the incumbent has within the preceding twelve months failed to observe, or to cause to be observed, the directions contained in the Book of Common Prayer relating to the performance, in such church or burial ground, of the services, rites, and ceremonies ordered by the said book, or has made or permitted to be made any unlawful addition to, alteration of, or omission from such services, rites, and ceremonies,— such archdeacon, churchwarden, parishioners, or such inhabitants of the diocese, may, if he or they think fit, represent the same to the bishop, by sending to the bishop a form, as contained in Schedule (B.) to this Act, duly filled up and signed, and accompanied by a declaration made by him or them under the Act of the fifth and sixth year of the reign of King William the Fourth, chapter sixty-two, affirming the truth of the statements contained in the representation: Provided, that no proceedings shall be taken under this Act as regards any alteration in or addition to the fabric of a church if such alteration or addition has been completed five years before the commencement of such proceedings.

Representation by archdeacon, churchwarden, parishioners, or inhabitants of diocese.

Proceedings on representation.

9. Unless the bishop shall be of opinion, after considering the whole circumstances of the case, that proceedings should not be taken on the representation, (in which case he shall state in writing the reason for his opinion, and such statement shall be deposited in the registry of the diocese, and a copy thereof shall forthwith be transmitted to the person or some one of the persons who shall have made the representation, and to the person complained of,) he shall within twenty-one days after receiving the representation transmit a copy thereof to the person complained of, and shall require such person, and also the person making the representation, to state in writing within twenty-one days whether they are willing to submit to the directions of the bishop touching the matter of the said representation, without appeal; and, if they shall state their willingness to submit to the directions of the bishop without appeal, the bishop shall forthwith proceed to hear the matter of the representation in such manner as he shall think fit, and shall pronounce such judgment and issue such monition (if any) as he may think proper, and no appeal shall lie from such judgment or monition.

Provided, that no judgment so pronounced by the bishop shall be considered as finally deciding any question of law so that it may not be again raised by other parties.

The parties may, at any time after the making of a representation to the bishop, join in stating any questions arising in such proceedings in a special case signed by a barrister-at-law for the opinion of the judge, and the parties after signing and transmitting the same to the bishop may require it to be transmitted to the judge for hearing, and the judge shall hear and determine the question or questions arising thereon, and any judgment pronounced by the bishop shall be in conformity with such determination.

If the person making the representation and the person complained of shall not, within the time aforesaid, state their willingness to submit to the directions of the bishop, the bishop shall forthwith transmit the representation in the mode prescribed by the rules and orders to the archbishop of the province, and the archbishop shall forthwith require the judge to hear the matter of the representation at any place within the diocese or province, or in London or Westminster.

The judge shall give not less than twenty-eight days notice to the parties of the time and place at which he will proceed to hear the matter of the said representation. The judge before proceeding to give such notice shall require from the person making the representation such security for costs as the judge may think proper, such security to be given in the manner prescribed by the rules and orders.

The person complained of shall within twenty-one days after such notice transmit to the judge, and to the person making the representation, a succinct answer to the representation, and in default of such answer he shall be deemed to have denied the truth or relevancy of the representation.

In all proceedings before the judge under this Act the evidence shall be given vivâ voce, in open court, and upon oath; and the judge shall have the powers of a court of record, and may require and enforce the attendance of witnesses, and the production of evidences, books, or writings, in the like manner as a judge of one of the superior courts of law or equity, or of any court to which the jurisdiction of any such court has been or may hereafter be transferred by authority of Parliament.

Unless the parties shall both agree that the evidence shall be taken down by a shorthand writer, and that a special case shall not be stated, the judge shall state the facts proved before him in the form of a special case, similar to a special case stated under the Common Law Procedure Acts, 1852-1854.

The judge shall pronounce judgment on the matter of the representation, and shall deliver to the parties, on application, and to the bishop, a copy of the special case, if any, and judgment.

The judge shall issue such monition (if any) and make such order as to costs as the judgment shall require.

Upon every judgment of the judge, or monition issued in accordance therewith, an appeal shall lie, in the form prescribed by rules and orders, to Her Majesty in Council.

The judge may, on application in any case, suspend the execution of such monition pending an appeal, if he shall think fit.

10. The registrar of the diocese, or his deputy duly appointed, shall perform such duties in relation to this Act and

Registrar of the diocese to perform duties under the Act.

shall receive such fees as may be prescribed by the rules and orders.

Parties may appear in person or by counsel, &c.

11. In any proceedings under this Act either party may appear either by himself in person or by counsel, or by any proctor or any attorney or solicitor.

No fresh evidence to be admitted on appeal.

12. For the purpose of an appeal to Her Majesty in Council under this Act, the special case settled by the judge, or a copy of the shorthand writer's notes, as the case may be, shall be transmitted in the manner prescribed by rules and orders, and no fresh evidence shall be admitted upon appeal except by the permission of the tribunal hearing the appeal.

Inhibition of incumbent.

13. Obedience by an incumbent to a monition or order of the bishop or judge, as the case may be, shall be enforced, if necessary, in the manner prescribed by rules and orders, by an order inhibiting the incumbent from performing any service of the church, or otherwise exercising the cure of souls within the diocese for a term not exceeding three months; provided that at the expiration of such term the inhibition shall not be relaxed until the incumbent shall, by writing under his hand, in the form prescribed by the rules and orders, undertake to pay due obedience to such monition or order, or to the part thereof which shall not have been annulled; provided that if such inhibition shall remain in force for more than three years from the date of the issuing of the monition, or from the final determination of an appeal therefrom, whichever shall last happen, or if a second inhibition in regard to the same monition shall be issued within three years from the relaxation of an inhibition, any benefice or other ecclesiastical preferment held by the incumbent in the parish in which the church or burial ground is situate, or for the use of which the burial ground is legally provided, in relation to which church or burial ground such monition has been issued as aforesaid, shall thereupon become void, unless the bishop shall, for some special reason stated by him in writing, postpone for a period not exceeding three months the date at which, unless such inhibition be relaxed, such benefice or other ecclesiastical preferment shall become void as aforesaid; and upon any such avoidance it shall be lawful for the patron of such benefice or other ecclesiastical preferment to appoint, present, collate, or nominate to the same as if such incumbent were dead; and the provisions contained in the Act of the first and second year of the reign of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and six, section fifty-eight, in reference to notice to the patron and as to lapse, shall be applicable to any benefice or other ecclesiastical preferment avoided under this Act; and it shall not be lawful for the patron at any time to appoint, present, collate, or nominate to such benefice or such other ecclesiastical preferment the incumbent by whom the same was avoided under this Act.

The bishop may, during such inhibition, unless he is satisfied that due provision is otherwise made for the spiritual charge of the parish, make due provision for the service of the church and the cure of souls, and it shall be lawful for the bishop to raise the sum required from time to time for such provision by sequestration of the profits of such benefice or other ecclesiastical preferment.

Any question as to whether a monition or order given or issued after proceedings before the bishop or judge, as the case may be, has or has not been obeyed shall be determined by the bishop or the judge, and any proceedings to enforce obedience to such monition or order shall be taken by direction of the judge.

14. It shall not be necessary to obtain a faculty from the ordinary in order lawfully to obey any monition issued under this Act, and if the judge shall direct in any monition that a faculty shall be applied for, such fees only shall be paid for such faculty as may be directed by the rules and orders; provided that nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to limit or control the discretion vested by law in the ordinary as to the grant or refusal of a faculty: Provided also, that a faculty shall, on application, be granted, if unopposed, on payment of such a fee (not exceeding two guineas) as shall be prescribed by the rules and orders, in respect of any alteration in or addition to the fabric of any church, or in respect of any ornaments or furniture, not being contrary to law, made or existing in any church at the time of the passing of this Act.

Faculty not necessary in certain cases.

15. All notices and other documents directed to be given to any person under this Act shall be given in the manner prescribed by rules and orders.

Service of notices.

16. If any bishop shall be patron of the benefice or of any ecclesiastical preferment held by the incumbent respecting whom a representation shall have been made, or shall be unable from illness to discharge any of the duties imposed upon him by this Act in regard to any representation, the archbishop of the province shall act in the place of such bishop in all matters thereafter arising in relation to such representation; and if any archbishop shall be patron of the benefice or of any ecclesiastical preferment held by the incumbent respecting whom a representation shall have been made, or shall be unable from illness to discharge any of the duties imposed upon him by this Act in regard to any representation, Her Majesty may, by Her Sign Manual, appoint an archbishop or bishop to act in the place of such archbishop in all matters thereafter arising in relation to such representation.

Substitute for bishop when patron, or in case of illness.

17. The duties appointed under this Act to be performed by the bishop of the diocese shall in the case of a cathedral or collegiate church be performed by the visitor thereof.

Provisions relating to cathedral or collegiate church.

If any complaint shall be made concerning the fabric, ornaments, furniture, or decorations of a cathedral or collegiate church, the person complained of shall be the dean and chapter of such cathedral or collegiate church, and in the event of obedience not being rendered to a monition relating to the fabric, ornaments, furniture, or decorations of such cathedral or collegiate church, the visitor, or the judge, as the case may be, shall have power to carry into effect the directions contained in such monition, and, if necessary, to raise the sum required to defray the cost thereof by sequestration of the profits of the preferments held in such cathedral or collegiate church by the dean and chapter thereof.

If any complaint shall be made concerning the ornaments of the minister in a cathedral or collegiate church, or as to the observance therein of the directions contained in the Book of Common Prayer, relating to the performance of the services, rites, and ceremonies ordered by the said book, or as to any alleged addition to, alteration of, or omission from such services, rites, and ceremonies in such cathedral or collegiate church, the person complained of shall be the clerk in holy orders alleged to have offended in the matter complained of; and the visitor or the judge, as the case may be, in the event of obedience not being rendered to a monition, shall have the same power as to inhibition, and the preferment held in such cathedral or collegiate church by the person complained of shall be subject to the same conditions as to avoidance, notice, and lapse, and as to any subsequent appointment, presentation, collation, or nomination thereto, and as to due provision being made for the performance of the duties of such person, as are contained in this Act concerning an incumbent to whom a monition has been issued, and concerning any benefice or other ecclesiastical preferment held by such incumbent.

Limitation of proceedings against incumbent.

18. When a sentence has been pronounced by consent, or any suit or proceeding has been commenced against any incumbent under the Act of the third and fourth year of the reign of Her Majesty, chapter eighty-six, he shall not be liable to proceedings under this Act in respect of the same matter; and no incumbent proceeded against under this Act shall be liable to proceedings under the said Act of the third and fourth year of the reign of Her Majesty, in respect of any matter upon which judgment has been pronounced under this Act.

Rules for settling procedure and fees under this Act.

19. Her Majesty may by Order in Council, at any time either before or after the commencement of this Act, by and with the advice of the Lord High Chancellor, the Lord Chief Justice of England, the judge to be appointed under this Act, and the archbishops and bishops who are members of Her Majesty's Privy Council, or any two of the said persons, one of them being the Lord High Chancellor or the Lord Chief Justice of England, cause rules and orders to be made for regulating the procedure and settling the fees to be taken in proceedings under this Act, so far as the same may not be expressly regulated by this Act, and from time to time alter or amend such rules and orders. All rules and orders made in pursuance of this section shall be laid before each House of Parliament within forty days after the same are made, if Parliament is then sitting, or if not, within forty days after the then next meeting of Parliament; and if an address is presented to Her Majesty by either of the said Houses within the next subsequent forty days on which the House shall have sat praying that any such rules may be annulled, Her Majesty may thereupon by Order in Council annul the same, and the rules and orders so annulled shall thenceforth become void, without prejudice to the validity of any proceedings already taken under the same.

CHAPTER 86.

An Act to amend the Law relating to the Irish Reproductive Loan Fund. [7th August 1874.]

WHEREAS in the year one thousand eight hundred and twenty-two a large sum of money was subscribed in England for the purpose of relieving the distress arising from scarcity of food in Ireland, and the residue of such sum after affording relief in such distress, under the name of the "Irish Reproductive Loan Fund," was vested in a charitable association called the "Irish Reproductive Loan Fund Institution," to be held by them on trust to lend the same at interest to the industrious poor in the ten counties of Clare, Cork, Galway, Kerry, Leitrim, Limerick, Mayo, Roscommon, Sligo, and Tipperary, in Ireland, certain proportions of the said fund being appropriated to each of the said counties :

11 & 12 Vict.
c. 115.

And whereas in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-eight, by an Act of the session of the eleventh and twelfth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, chapter one hundred and fifteen, intituled "An Act to vest in Her Majesty the property of the Irish Reproductive Loan Fund Institution, and to dissolve the said Institution," the said institution was dissolved, and the said Irish Reproductive Loan Fund was transferred to and vested in Her Majesty upon trust, to be applied and disposed of for such charitable purposes and objects of public utility not otherwise provided for in whole or in part by local rate or assessment (including the instruction in and the promotion of agricultural science) in the ten several counties aforesaid, as the Lord Lieutenant or other chief governor or governors of Ireland, with the assent of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, or any three or more of them, should from time to time direct and appoint, certain proportions being appropriated to each county as in the said Act mentioned :

And whereas it is expedient that the said Irish Reproductive Loan Fund should be transferred to the care of a public body in Ireland, and should be disposed of by way of loan instead of by way of absolute grant :

And whereas certain of the said counties, that is to say, the counties of Clare, Cork, Galway, Kerry, Leitrim, Limerick, Mayo, and Sligo, in this Act referred to as "maritime counties," abut upon the sea, and it is expedient that such portion of the said fund as is appropriated to the said maritime counties should be capable of being advanced by way of loan for the purpose of aiding the fisheries on the said coast :

And whereas the said Irish Reproductive Loan Fund, with the exception of certain outstanding debts which are not therein specified, consists at the date of the passing of this Act of the particulars specified in the first part of the schedule hereto, distributed under the three heads of—

- (1.) The county trust and agricultural school fund ;
- (2.) The fishery fund ; and
- (3.) The London fund for management :

And whereas the several funds aforesaid are in this Act included under the title of the Irish Reproductive Loan Fund, and it is intended that such funds should form one fund only under such title as aforesaid, and that such one fund should be appropriated to the ten counties herein-before mentioned in the proportions specified in the second part of the said schedule :

Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

1. This Act may be cited for all purposes as "The Irish Reproductive Loan Fund Act, 1874." Short title of Act.

2. All such property, real and personal, including all interests and rights in, to, and out of property, real and personal, and including obligations and things in action, as may form part of the said Irish Reproductive Loan Fund, or may be vested in Her Majesty or any other person whatsoever, as part or on account of the said fund, shall from and after the passing of this Act pass to and vest in the Commissioners of Public Works in Ireland, subject to all debts and liabilities affecting the same. Transfer of property to the Commissioners of Public Works in Ireland.

3. The Commissioners for Public Works in Ireland, in this Act referred to as the Commissioners, may enforce any remedies for the recovery of any portion of the said Irish Reproductive Loan Fund which Her Majesty, her heirs and successors, might have enforced if this Act had not passed, and notwithstanding the passing of this Act it shall be lawful for Her Majesty to use, on behalf of the said Commissioners, any remedies for the recovery of the said fund or any part thereof which it would have been lawful for Her Majesty to have used if this Act had not passed. Power to recover property.

4. The Commissioners shall hold the said Irish Reproductive Loan Fund on trust to dispose of the same by way of loan with a view to carry into effect the purposes of this Act. Application of fund by Commissioners.

The purposes of this Act shall be deemed to be such purposes or objects of public utility not otherwise provided for in whole or in part by local rate or assessment, including the instruction in and the promotion of agricultural science in the ten counties aforesaid, as the said Commissioners may think fit, with this addition, that in the case of the said maritime counties the purposes of this Act shall be deemed to include all or any of the following things, in this Act referred to as fishery purposes ; that is to say,

- (1.) The building, purchase, or repairs of vessels, boats, and gear for fishery purposes ; and
- (2.) The purchase, erection, or repairs of houses and sheds for the curing of fish ; and
- (3.) The purchase of materials to be used for the purposes of oyster cultivation.

Regulations as to loans by Commissioners.

5. The following restrictions shall be imposed on the Commissioners making loans under this Act :

- (1.) As between the ten counties aforesaid, the fund in the hands of the Commissioners under this Act shall be deemed to be appropriated in the proportions specified in the second part of the schedule hereto ; and
- (2.) In making loans for fishery purposes the maximum amount lent in any one year in any one county shall not exceed one quarter of the sum standing at the end of the previous year to the credit of that county ; and
- (3.) The aggregate amount of loans for the time being advanced in any county for fishery purposes, and outstanding at any one time under this Act, shall not exceed one half of the sum standing to the credit of the county in the second part of the schedule to this Act ; and
- (4.) There shall be charged by way of interest, in respect of loans, such interest (if any) not exceeding three pounds ten shillings per cent., as the Commissioners may from time to time, with the approval of the Lord Lieutenant in council, determine.

Subject as aforesaid, and to such rules as are herein-after mentioned, the Commissioners shall make loans for fishery purposes to such persons and upon such security as the inspectors of Irish fisheries may from time to time recommend.

The recommendation of the said inspectors shall be testified by writing under their hands signed by all the said inspectors, specifying such particulars in respect of the loan, and especially the persons to whom and the security (personal or otherwise) on which the loan is to be made, as the Commissioners may require.

In the case of all loans other than loans for fishery purposes, the Commissioners shall take such security, personal or otherwise, as they may from time to time think sufficient.

Recovery of loans by Commissioners.

6. All moneys due to the Commissioners on account of loans made by them under this Act, including any costs and charges incurred in respect of such loans, may be recovered summarily in manner provided by the Summary Jurisdiction Acts.

“The Summary Jurisdiction Acts” mean within the police district of Dublin metropolis the Acts regulating the powers and duties of justices of the peace for such district, or of the police of such district, and elsewhere in Ireland "The Petty Sessions (Ireland) Act, 1851," and any Act amending the same.

The power given by this section shall be deemed to be in addition to and not in derogation of any other powers to which the Commissioners may be entitled at common law or in equity of recovering any moneys due to them; and the Commissioners may use any such powers accordingly.

7. All moneys for the time being in the hands of the Commissioners under this Act, and not employed by them in loans, may be invested by them in such Government or real securities as they may from time to time think expedient.

Investment of moneys by Commissioners.

8. A certificate, purporting to be under the seal of the Commissioners, and to be signed by one of them, stating the amount due to the Commissioners from any person in respect of any loan made to him under this Act, together with interest thereon, shall, until the contrary is proved, be evidence of the amount due and of the liability of the party therein named to pay the same.

Certificate of amount due.

9. If during any time while any part of a loan under this Act remains unpaid the Commissioners are satisfied that the borrower is not carrying into effect the undertaking for which the loan was made, they may recover forthwith the loan and all moneys due to them in respect thereof.

Recovery of unexpended balance where undertakings not completed.

10. The Lord Lieutenant in council may from time to time make, and when made may rescind, annul, or add to, rules with respect to the following matters:

Power of Lord Lieutenant in council to make regulations.

- (1.) The mode in which loans are to be made under this Act, the amount of such loans, the securities to be given therefor, and the conditions on which such loans will be made; and
- (2.) The circulation of information as to the mode in which loans are to be applied for and made in pursuance of this Act; and
- (3.) As to any other matter or thing, whether similar or not to those above mentioned, in respect of which it may be expedient to make rules with a view to more completely carry into effect the purposes of this Act.

Any rules made in pursuance of this section shall, in so far as they are not inconsistent with this Act, be deemed to be within the powers conferred by this Act, and shall be of the same force as if enacted therein, and shall be judicially noticed; and it shall be the duty of the Commissioners and of the inspectors of fisheries to conform to any rules so made.

Power of Commissioners to receive gifts for fishery purposes.

11. The Commissioners may receive any gifts made to them by deed, will, or otherwise of property, whether real or personal, to be applied for fishery purposes as defined by this Act, and may apply the same accordingly for the benefit of any maritime county or counties specified by the giver, or if no particular county or counties are specified, for the benefit of all the said maritime counties in the proportions mentioned in the second part of the schedule hereto.

Accounts to be rendered by Commissioners.

12. The Commissioners shall, once at the least in every year, render to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, at such time and in such manner as they may direct, an account of their receipts and expenditure during the preceding year, made up to the thirty-first day of December, and of the mode in which such receipts have been derived and expenditure incurred, together with a statement of the amount (if any) remaining in their hands at the date of such account; also of the amount of loans outstanding, and of the amount (if any) of principal and interest in arrear in respect of any loans; and the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury shall submit to Parliament such account or a summary thereof, in such form as they think expedient.

Definition of "Lord Lieutenant."

13. The expression "Lord Lieutenant" in this Act includes the lords justices or other chief governors or governor of Ireland for the time being.

CHAPTER 87.

An Act to amend the Endowed Schools Acts.

[7th August 1874.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

Transfer of Powers.

Transfer of powers of Endowed Schools Commissioners to Charity Commissioners.

1. On and after the thirty-first day of December one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four all powers and duties by the Endowed Schools Acts vested in or imposed on the Endowed Schools Commissioners shall be transferred to and imposed on the Charity Commissioners, and, except as otherwise provided by this Act, shall be exercised and performed by the Charity Commissioners in like manner and form and subject to the same conditions, liabilities, and incidents respectively as such powers and duties have been exercised and performed by the Endowed Schools Commissioners, or as near thereto as circumstances permit.

On and after the thirty-first day of December one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four the commissioners, secretary, assistant commissioners, and other persons appointed and employed in pursuance of the Endowed Schools Acts shall cease to hold office.

Power to add to Charity Commissioners.

2. Her Majesty and her successors may at any time after the passing of this Act, by warrant under her sign manual, from time to time appoint any number of persons not exceeding two to be paid Charity Commissioners for England and Wales and a person to be secretary in addition to the three paid Charity Commissioners and secretary capable of being appointed under the Charitable Trusts Acts, 1853 to 1869. The two additional Commissioners and additional secretary appointed in pursuance of this Act shall hold office during Her Majesty's pleasure, and their salaries shall, unless otherwise directed by Parliament, cease to be paid after the expiration of five years from the said thirty-first day of December one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four.

Save as in this section mentioned, the additional Commissioners shall have the same powers, perform the same duties, and stand in all respects in the same position as the other paid Charity Commissioners with the exception of the Chief Commissioner.

The Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury may allow the Charity Commissioners to employ such number of assistant commissioners, officers, and clerks as the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury may think necessary for the purpose of enabling the said Charity Commissioners to perform the additional duties imposed upon them by this Act.

3. There shall be repealed so much of the Charitable Trusts Acts, 1853 to 1869, as regulates the amounts of the salaries of the Commissioners, their secretary and inspectors; and there shall be paid to the Commissioners, their secretary or secretaries, assistant commissioners, inspectors, officers, and clerks, whether appointed under this Act or under the said Charitable Trusts Acts, out of moneys provided by Parliament, such salaries as the Treasury may from time to time determine: Provided that no decrease shall be made in pursuance of this section in the salary of any Charity Commissioner, secretary, inspector, officer, or clerk appointed before the passing of this Act under the said Charitable Trusts Acts, or any of them.

Salaries of Charity Commissioners and their officers.

Amendment of Law.

4. Any power by the Endowed Schools Act, 1869, vested in the Charity Commissioners, upon application made to them by the Commissioners under the said Act, may after the said thirty-first day of December one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four be exercised by the Charity Commissioners of their own motion.

Exercise of certain powers
by Charity Commissioners.

5. A scheme of the Charity Commissioners made in pursuance of the powers of this Act and the Endowed Schools Acts, or any of them, shall not be submitted to the Committee of Council on Education unless it has been approved at a meeting of the Board at which there are present not less than three Commissioners (of whom one shall be the Chief Commissioner, or, in his absence from illness or unavoidable cause, such other Charity Commissioner as may for the time being be named by the Committee of Council on Education); in all other respects one Charity Commissioner may act under the Endowed Schools Acts as amended by this Act.

Quorum of Commissioners.

Miscellaneous and Repeal.

6. The powers of making schemes under the Endowed Schools Acts as amended by this Act shall continue in force for a period of five years from the said thirty-first day of December one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four; and during the continuance of such powers any court or judge shall not, with respect to any endowed school or educational endowment which can be dealt with by a scheme under this Act and the Endowed Schools Acts, or any of such Acts, make any scheme or appoint any new trustees without the consent of the Committee of Council on Education.

Continuance of powers transferred to Charity Commissioners.

7. On and after the said thirty-first day of December one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four the enactments set forth in the schedule annexed hereto shall be repealed to the extent to which such enactments are therein expressed to be repealed.

Repeal of Acts.

Provided that the repeal enacted in this Act shall not affect—

- (1.) Anything duly done under any enactment hereby repealed:
- (2.) Any right or privilege acquired or any liability incurred under any enactment hereby repealed.

Saving clause as to certain schemes.

8. Notwithstanding the seventeenth section of the Endowed Schools Act, 1873, any scheme which has before the passing of this Act been submitted by the Endowed Schools Commissioners to the Committee of Council on Education for approval may be proceeded with.

Provided, that with respect to every such scheme which has not been approved by the Committee of Council on Education before the passing of this Act, such Committee shall before approving the same cause such scheme, after the passing of this Act, and that notwithstanding any prior publication and notice, to be published and circulated in such manner as they think sufficient for giving information to all persons interested, together with a notice stating that during one month after the publication of such notice the Committee of Council on Education will receive any objections or suggestions made to them in writing respecting such scheme.

Definitions.

9. In this Act, so far as is consistent with the context, the expressions following have the meanings hereafter assigned to them; that is to say,

The expression "The Endowed Schools Acts" means the Endowed Schools Acts, 1869 and 1873:

The expression "The Endowed Schools Commissioners" means the Commissioners appointed in pursuance of the Endowed Schools Act, 1869:

The expression "The Charity Commissioners" means the Charity Commissioners for England and Wales.

Construction and short title.

10. This Act, so far as consistent with the tenor thereof, shall be construed as one with the Endowed Schools Acts, as amended by this Act; and in the construction of the Endowed Schools Acts the expression "the Commissioners" shall, unless there is something in the context inconsistent therewith, on and after the said thirty-first day of December one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, mean the Charity Commissioners; and this Act and the other Acts mentioned in this section may be cited together as the Endowed Schools Acts, 1869, 1873, and 1874, and this Act may be cited separately as "The Endowed Schools Act, 1874."

CHAPTER 88.

An Act to amend the Law relating to the Registration of Births and Deaths in England, and to consolidate the Law respecting the Registration of Births and Deaths at Sea. [7th August 1874.]

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the Acts relating to the registration of births and deaths in England, and to consolidate the law respecting the registration of births and deaths at sea :

Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

Registration of Births.

1. In the case of every child born alive after the commencement of this Act, it shall be the duty of the father and mother of the child, and in default of the father and mother, of the occupier of the house in which to his knowledge the child is born, and of each person present at the birth, and of the person having charge of the child, to give to the registrar, within forty-two days next after such birth, information of the particulars required to be registered concerning such birth, and in the presence of the registrar to sign the register.

Information concerning birth to be given to registrar within forty-two days.

2. Where a birth has, from the default of the parents or other persons required to give information concerning it, not been duly registered, the registrar may, at any time after the end of forty-two days from such birth, by notice in writing, require any of the persons required by this Act to give in-mation concerning such birth to attend personally at the registrar's office, or at any other place appointed by the registrar within his sub-district, within such time (not less than seven days after the receipt of such notice, and not more than three months from the date of the birth) as may be specified in such notice, and to give information, to the best of such person's knowledge and belief, of the particulars required to be registered concerning such birth, and to sign the register in the presence of the registrar; and it shall be the duty of such person, unless the birth is registered before the expiration of the time specified in such requisition, to comply with such requisition.

Information respecting finding newborn child to be given to registrar.

3. In case any living new-born child is found exposed, it shall be the duty of any person finding such child, and of any person in whose charge such child may be placed, to give, to the best of his knowledge and belief, to the registrar, within seven days after the finding of such child, such information of the particulars required to be registered concerning the birth of such child as the informant possesses, and in the presence of the registrar to sign the register.

Duty of registrar to ascertain and register birth gratis.

4. It shall be the duty of the registrar to inform himself carefully of every birth which happens within his sub-district, and upon receiving personally from the informant at any time within three months from the date of the birth of any child or the finding of any living new-born child information of the particulars required to be registered concerning the birth of such child, forthwith in the prescribed form and manner to register the birth and the said particulars (if not previously registered), without fee or reward from the informant, except that if, in pursuance of a written requisition, he registers the same at the residence of the person making such requisition or at the house in which the birth took place, he shall, unless the birth took place in a public institution, be entitled to the appointed fee.

Registry after expiration of three months from birth.

5. After the expiration of three months next after the birth of any child, a registrar shall not register such birth, except as in this section provided; that is to say, in case the birth of any child has not been registered in accordance with the Births and Deaths Registration Acts, 1836 to 1874, the registrar may, after three and not later than twelve months next after the birth, by notice in writing, require any of the persons required by this Act to give information concerning the birth to attend personally at the district register office, within such time (not less than seven days after the receipt of the notice, and not more than twelve months after the date of the birth) as may be specified in the notice, and make before the superintendent registrar a solemn declaration, according to the best of the declarant's knowledge and belief, of the particulars required to be registered concerning the birth, and sign the register in the presence of the registrar and superintendent registrar; and upon any of the said persons attending before a registrar and superintendent registrar, whether in pursuance of a requisition or not, and making such a declaration as aforesaid, and giving information concerning the birth, the registrar shall then and there, in the presence of such superintendent registrar, register the birth according to the information of the declarant, and the superintendent registrar before whom the declaration is made shall, as well as the registrar and declarant, sign the entry of the birth.

After the expiration of twelve months next after the birth of any child, that birth shall not be registered except with the written authority of the Registrar General for registering the same, and except in accordance with the prescribed rules, and the fact of such authority having been given shall be entered in the register.

Every person who registers or causes to be registered the birth of any child in contravention of this section shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding ten pounds.

6. Any person required by this Act to give information concerning a birth, who removes before such birth is registered out of the sub-district in which such birth has taken place, may, within three months after such birth, give the information by making and signing in the presence of the registrar of the sub-district in which he resides a declaration in writing of the particulars required to be registered concerning such birth; and such registrar on payment of the appointed fee shall receive and attest the declaration and send the same to the registrar of the sub-district in which the birth took place; and the last-mentioned registrar shall, in the prescribed manner, enter the birth in the register; and the entry so made shall be deemed, for the purposes of the Births and Deaths Registration Acts, 1836 to 1874, to have been signed by the person who signed the declaration.

Registry of birth out of the sub-district in case of removal.

A person making a declaration in pursuance of this section in the case of any birth shall be deemed to have complied with the provisions of this Act as to giving information concerning that birth, and with any requisition of the registrar made under this Act within the said three months to attend and give information concerning that birth.

7. In the case of an illegitimate child no person shall, as father of such child, be required to give information under this Act concerning the birth of such child, and the registrar shall not enter in the register the name of any person as father of such child, unless at the joint request of the mother and of the person acknowledging himself to be the father of such child, and such person shall in such case sign the register, together with the mother.

Saving for father of illegitimate child.

Registration of name of child or of alteration of name.

8. When the birth of any child has been registered and the name, if any, by which it was registered is altered, or if it was registered without a name, when a name is given to it, the parent or guardian of such child, or other person procuring such name to be altered or given, may, within twelve months next after the registration of the birth, deliver to the registrar or superintendent registrar such certificate as herein-after mentioned, and the registrar or superintendent registrar, upon the receipt of that certificate, and on payment of the appointed fee, shall, without any erasure of the original entry, forthwith enter in the register book the name mentioned in the certificate as having been given to the child, and having stated upon the certificate the fact of such entry having been made, shall forthwith send the certificate to the Registrar General, together with a certified copy of the entry of the birth with the name so added.

The certificate shall be in the form given in the first schedule to this Act, or as near thereto as circumstances admit, and shall be signed by the minister or person who performed the rite of baptism upon which the name was given or altered, or, if the child is not baptized, shall be signed by the father, mother, or guardian of the child, or other person procuring the name of the child to be given or altered.

Every minister or person who performs the rite of baptism shall deliver the certificate required by this section on demand, on payment of a fee not exceeding one shilling.

The provisions of this section shall apply with the prescribed modifications in the case of births at sea, of which a return is sent to the Registrar General of Births and Deaths in England.

Registration of Deaths.

Registry of death and cause of death.

9. The death of every person dying in England after the commencement of this Act, and the cause of such death, shall be registered by the registrar in the manner directed by the Births and Deaths Registration Acts, 1836 to 1874.

Information concerning death where deceased dies in a house.

10. When a person dies in a house after the commencement of this Act, it shall be the duty of the nearest relatives of the deceased present at the death, or in attendance during the last illness of the deceased, and in default of such relatives, of every other relative of the deceased dwelling or being in the same sub-district as the deceased, and in default of such relatives, of each person present at the death, and of the occupier of the house in which, to his knowledge, the death took place, and in default of the persons herein-before in this section mentioned, of each inmate of such house, and of the person causing the body of the deceased person to be buried, to give, to the best of his knowledge and belief, to the registrar, within the five days next following the day of such death, information of the particulars required to be registered concerning such death, and in the presence of the registrar to sign the register.

11. Where a person dies in a place which is not a house, or a dead body is found elsewhere than in a house, it shall be the duty of every relative of such deceased person having knowledge of any of the particulars required to be registered concerning the death, and in default of such relative, of every person present at the death, and of any person finding, and of any person taking charge of the body, and of the person causing the body to be buried, to give to the registrar, within the five days next after the death or the finding, such information of the particulars required to be registered concerning the death as the informant possesses, and in the presence of the registrar to sign the register.

Information concerning death where deceased dies not in a house.

12. If a person required to give information concerning any death sends to the registrar a written notice of the occurrence of the death, accompanied by such medical certificate of the cause of the death as is required by this Act to be delivered to a registrar, the information of the particulars required by the Births and Deaths Registration Acts, 1836 to 1874, to be registered concerning the death need not be given within the said five days, but shall, notwithstanding such notice, be given within fourteen days next after the day of the death by the person giving such notice, or some other person required by this Act to give the information.

Notice preliminary to information.

13. Where any death has from the default of the persons required to give information concerning it not been registered, the registrar may, at any time after the expiration of fourteen days and within twelve months from the day of such death or from the finding of the dead body elsewhere than in a house, by notice in writing, require any person required by this Act to give information concerning such death to attend personally at the registrar's office, or at any other place appointed by the registrar within his sub-district, within such time (not less than seven days after the receipt of the notice, nor more than twelve months after the death or finding of the dead body) as may be specified in the notice, and to give the said information to the best of the informant's knowledge and belief, and to sign the register in the presence of the registrar; and it shall be the duty of such person, unless the death is registered before the expiration of the time specified in the requisition, to comply with the requisition.

Requisition by registrar of information concerning death from qualified informant.

14. It shall be the duty of the registrar to inform himself carefully of every death which happens within his sub-district, and upon receiving personally from the informant at any time within twelve months after the date of any death, or of the finding of any dead body, information of the particulars required to be registered concerning the death from any person required by this Act to give the same, forthwith in the prescribed form and manner to register the death and the said particulars, (if not previously registered,) without fee or reward from the informant, except that if, in pursuance of a written requisition, he registers the same at the residence of the person making such requisition, or at the house where the deceased died, he shall, unless the death took place in a public institution, be entitled to the appointed fee.

Death not to be registered after twelve months.

15. After the expiration of twelve months next after any death, or after the finding of any dead body elsewhere than in a house, that death shall not be registered, except with the written authority of the Registrar General for registering the same, and except in accordance with the prescribed rules, and the fact of such authority having been given shall be entered in the register.

Every person who registers or causes to be registered any death in contravention of this section shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding ten pounds.

Furnishing of information by coroner.

16. Where an inquest is held on any dead body the jury shall inquire of the particulars required to be registered concerning the death, and the coroner shall send to the registrar, within five days after the finding of the jury is given, a certificate under his hand, giving information concerning the death and specifying the finding of the jury with respect to the said particulars, and to the cause of death, and specifying the time and place at which the inquest was held, and the registrar shall in the prescribed form and manner enter the death and particulars. If the death has been previously registered the said particulars shall be 'entered' in the prescribed manner without any alteration of the original entry.

Where an inquest is held on any dead body no person shall, with respect to such dead body or death, be liable to attend upon a requisition of a registrar, or be subject to any penalty for failing to give information in pursuance of any other provision of this Act.

Burials.

Coroner's order and registrar's certificate for burial.

17. A coroner, upon holding an inquest upon any body, may, if he thinks fit, by order under his hand authorise the body to be buried before registry of the death, and shall give such order to the relative of the deceased or other person who causes the body to be buried, or to the undertaker or other person having charge of the funeral; and, except upon holding an inquest, no order, warrant, or other document for the burial of any body shall be given by the coroner.

The registrar, upon registering any death or upon receiving a written requisition to attend at a house to register a death, or upon receiving such written notice of the occurrence of a death, accompanied by a medical certificate as is before provided by this Act, shall forthwith, or as soon after as he is required, give, without fee or reward, either to the person giving information concerning the death or sending the requisition or notice, or to the undertaker or other person having charge of the funeral of the deceased, a certificate under his hand that he has registered or received notice of the death, as the case may be.

Every such order of the coroner and certificate of the registrar shall be delivered to the person who buries or performs any funeral or religious service for the burial of the body of the deceased; and any person to whom such order or certificate was given by the coroner or registrar who fails so to deliver or cause to be delivered the same shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding forty shillings.

The person who buries or performs any funeral or religious service for the burial of any dead body, as to which no order or certificate under this section is delivered to him, shall, within seven days after the burial, give notice thereof in writing to the registrar, and if he fail so to do shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding ten pounds.

18. A person shall not wilfully bury or procure to be buried the body of any deceased child as if it were still-born.

Burial of deceased children as still-born.

A person who has control over or ordinarily buries bodies in any burial ground shall not permit to be buried in such burial ground the body of any deceased child as if it were still-born, and shall not permit to be buried or bury in such burial ground any still-born child before there is delivered to him either,—

(a.) A written certificate that such child was not born alive, signed by a registered medical practitioner who was in attendance at the birth or has examined the body of such child; or

(b.) A declaration signed by some person who would, if the child had been born alive, have been required by this Act to give information concerning the birth, to the effect that no registered medical practitioner was present at the birth, or that his certificate cannot be obtained, and that the child was not born alive; or (c.) If there has been an inquest, an order of the coroner.

Any person who acts in contravention of this section shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding ten pounds.

19. Where there is in the coffin in which any deceased person is brought for burial the body of any other deceased person, or the body of any still-born child, the undertaker or other person who has charge of the funeral shall deliver to the person who buries or performs any funeral or religious service for the burial of such body or bodies notice in writing signed by such undertaker or other person, and stating to the best of his knowledge and belief with respect to each such body the following particulars:

Notice where coffin contains more than one body.

- (a.) If the body is the body of a deceased person, the name, sex, and place of abode of the said deceased person;
- (b.) If the body has been found exposed, and the name and place of abode are unknown, the fact of the body having been so found and of the said particulars being unknown; and
- (c.) If the body is that of a deceased child without a name, or a still-born child, the name and place of abode of the father, or, if it is illegitimate, of the mother of such child.

Every person who fails to comply with this section shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding ten pounds.

Certificates of Cause of Death.

Regulations as to certificates of cause of death.

20. With respect to certificates of the cause of death, the following provisions shall have effect:

- (1.) The Registrar General shall from time to time furnish to every registrar printed forms of certificates of cause of death by registered medical practitioners, and every registrar shall furnish such forms gratis to any registered medical practitioner residing or practising in such registrar's sub-district:
- (2.) In case of the death of any person who has been attended during his last illness by a registered medical practitioner, that practitioner shall sign and give to some person required by this Act to give information concerning the death a certificate stating to the best of his knowledge and belief the cause of death, and such person shall, upon giving information concerning the death, or giving notice of the death, deliver that certificate to the registrar, and the cause of death as stated in that certificate shall be entered in the register, together with the name of the certifying medical practitioner:
- (3.) Where an inquest is held on the body of any deceased person a medical certificate of the cause of death need not be given to the registrar, but the certificate of the finding of the jury furnished by the coroner shall be sufficient.

If any person to whom a medical certificate is given by a registered medical practitioner in pursuance of this section fails to deliver that certificate to the registrar, he shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding forty shillings.

Superintendent Registrars and Registrars.

Alteration of registrars districts.

21. The Registrar General, with the sanction of the Local Government Board, may from time to time, if it seem to them fit, alter the districts of registrars by the alteration of the boundaries of districts, by the formation of new districts, or by the union of districts, and may take or cause to be taken all measures which seem to them to be necessary for carrying such alteration into effect, and such alteration shall be made and measures taken accordingly.

Where any superintendent registrar or registrar is deprived of his office or part of his emolument by such alteration, formation, or union, or by the operation of any Act now in force, compensation may be awarded to him by the like authorities and in the like manner as compensation may be awarded under the Acts relating to the relief of the poor to any officer of a union who is deprived of his office by reason of a union being dissolved or altered, and the persons by whom and funds from which such compensation is to be paid shall be determined in like manner.

Every change in the district of a registrar shall be published by advertisement or otherwise as the Local Government Board direct as being in their opinion best calculated for giving information to all persons in the district.

Every district of a registrar, whether formed before or after the commencement of this Act, shall be termed a sub-district.

22. Sections ten and eleven of "The Births and Deaths Registration Act, 1837," which relate to uniting any two or more unions, parishes, or places, or any two or more superintendent registrars districts into one superintendent registrar's district, and to dividing a union, parish, or place, or a superintendent registrar's district into two or more superintendent registrars districts, shall apply to a union with guardians acting under a Local Act, and to a temporary superintendent registrar's district in like manner as it applies to a union with guardians acting under "The Poor Law Amendment Act, 1834," and to a superintendent registrar's district which is not temporary.

1 Vict. c. 22.
ss. 10 and 11,
to all unions.

23. It shall be lawful for any superintendent registrar, subject to the prescribed rules, to prosecute any person guilty of any offence under the Births and Deaths Registration Acts, 1836 to 1874, committed within the district of such superintendent registrar; and the costs incurred by the superintendent registrar in such prosecution, which are not otherwise by law provided for, shall be defrayed out of moneys to be provided by Parliament.

Prosecution by superintendent
registrar.

24. Every superintendent registrar shall from time to time, by writing under his hand, appoint, with the approval of the Registrar General, a fit person to act as his deputy in case of his illness or unavoidable absence, or in any prescribed case; and every such deputy while so acting shall have all the powers and fulfil all the duties and be subject to all the obligations by the Births and Deaths Registration Acts, 1836 to 1874, or any of them, given to or imposed on the superintendent registrar whose deputy he is.

Such deputy shall hold his office during the pleasure of the superintendent registrar by whom he is appointed, but shall be removable from his office by the Registrar General.

Every superintendent registrar shall be civilly responsible for the acts or omissions of his deputy.

The provisions of this section shall apply to registrars in like manner as if it were enacted with the word registrar substituted for superintendent registrar.

Interim registrars.

25. If any superintendent registrar dies, resigns, or otherwise ceases to hold his office, his deputy shall be interim superintendent registrar.

Every interim superintendent registrar shall act as superintendent registrar and have all the powers and perform all the duties and be subject to all the obligations of a superintendent registrar until another is duly appointed.

The provisions of this section shall apply to a registrar in like manner as if it were enacted with the substitution of the word registrar for superintendent registrar.

If a registrar for any sub-district dies, resigns, or otherwise ceases to hold his office, and there is no interim registrar, then the superintendent registrar shall, when so required by the Registrar General, appoint an interim registrar for such sub-district.

Residence, office, and station of registrar and deputy registrar in sub-district.

26. Every registrar and deputy registrar shall either dwell in or have a known office within the sub-district of which he is registrar or deputy registrar.

Every registrar shall, if so directed by the Registrar General, appoint within or contiguous to his sub-district a station or stations as may be directed by the Registrar General. Every such station shall, for the purposes of the provisions of this Act with respect to the attendance of persons and registration of births and deaths at the office of the registrar, be deemed to be his office.

Every registrar and deputy registrar shall attend at his dwelling-house or office and at each such station, on the days and at the hours approved by the Registrar General, for the purpose of registering births and deaths.

Every registrar shall cause to be placed in some conspicuous place on or near the outer door of the dwelling-house or office which he has within his sub-district his name, with the addition of registrar for the sub-district for which he is registrar, and the hours of his attendance as approved by the Registrar General; and a list of such registrars in any union, with their residences, shall be kept at the workhouse of such union, and at each police station within such union.

27. Every superintendent registrar and registrar respectively shall be entitled to the fees specified in the second schedule to this Act, and every such fee shall be paid to him by the persons and on the occasions pointed out in such schedule, and may be recovered as a debt due to him, and subject to the prescribed rules he may refuse to comply with any application voluntarily made to him until the fee is paid.

Fees of superintendent registrars and registrars.

28. Every registrar, when and as required by a sanitary authority, as defined by the Public Health Act, 1872, shall transmit by post or otherwise a return, certified under the hand of such registrar to be a true return, of such of the particulars registered by him concerning any death as may be specified in the requisition of the sanitary authority.

Returns of registrars to sanitary authorities.

The sanitary authority may supply a form of the prescribed character, for the purpose of the return, and in that case the return shall be made in the form so supplied.

* The registrar making such return shall be entitled to a fee of twopence, and to a further fee of twopence for every death entered in such return, which fee shall be paid by the authority requiring the return.

29. Where the age of any child is required to be ascertained or proved for any purpose connected with the elementary education or employment in labour of such child, any school board or any managers appointed by a school board, or any persons managing a public elementary school, or any of Her Majesty's inspectors of schools, may issue a written requisition in the prescribed form, and stating the prescribed particulars as to the child.

Certificates of birth for purposes of school boards and of public elementary schools.

The person to whom such requisition is given shall, on delivery thereof and payment of a fee of one shilling, be entitled to obtain a certified copy under the hand of the registrar or superintendent registrar of the entry in the register of the birth of the child named in the requisition.

30. A registrar shall, upon demand made at the time of registering any birth by the person giving the information concerning the birth, and upon payment of a fee not exceeding threepence, give to such person a certificate under his hand, in the prescribed form, of having registered that birth.

Certificate of birth having been registered.

31. The payment to the registrar under section twenty-nine of the principal Act of two shillings and sixpence for each of the first twenty entries of births and deaths in every year which he has registered shall be paid to him for each of the first twenty entries of births and deaths in each quarterly account made out and verified in manner directed by that Act.

Remuneration of registrars.

32. The Registrar General shall supply to every superintendent registrar suitable forms wherein to make indexes of the register books in his office, and such superintendent registrar shall cause such indexes to be made and to be kept with the other records of his office.

All such indexes, whether made before or after the commencement of this Act, shall be kept by the superintendent registrar with the records of his office, and shall be delivered with the same to his successor in office, as directed by the principal Act.

Every person shall be entitled at all reasonable hours to search the said indexes, and to have a certified copy of any entry or entries in the said register books under the hand of the superintendent registrar on payment in each case of the appointed fee.

Providing of register offices and fireproof repositories. 4 & 5 W. 4. c. 76.

33. The guardians of any union acting under a Local Act shall be subject to the same obligation of providing and upholding register offices as guardians of a union acting under the Poor Law Amendment Act, 1834, are subject to under section nine of the principal Act.

Every register office of a district formed before or after the commencement of this Act shall be provided by the guardians, at the expense of their common fund, with a suitable fireproof repository or iron boxes for the safe custody of the registers, made according to the plan and placed in the office approved by the Registrar General.

Until a register office, as approved by the Registrar General, is provided by the guardians in any superintendent registrar's district, the superintendent registrar shall appropriate some fit room, to be approved by the Registrar General, as a temporary register office. Such guardians shall pay a reasonable rent for the said room out of their common fund to the superintendent registrar.

Each of united unions to contribute to expense of registration office.

34. Where any union, parish, or place is united to any other union, parish, or place under section ten of the Births and Deaths Registration Act, 1837, as amended by this Act, the guardians acting for each union, parish, or place so united as aforesaid shall contribute to the expense of providing and upholding a register office in proportion to the population of each such union, parish, or place, as ascertained by the last published census for the time being.

Penalty for omission to register or loss of registers.

35. Every registrar who refuses or without reasonable cause omits to register any birth or death or particulars concerning which information has been tendered to him by an informant, and which he ought to register, and every person having the custody of any register book of births and deaths who carelessly loses or injures or allows the injury of the same, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding fifty pounds.

Correction of Errors.

36. With regard to the correction of errors in registers of birth and deaths, it shall be enacted as follows: Correction of errors in registers.

- (1.) No alteration in any such register shall be made except as authorised by this Act :
- (2.) Any clerical error which may from time to time be discovered in any such register may be corrected by any person authorised in that behalf by the Registrar General, subject to the prescribed rules :
- (3.) An error of fact or substance in any such register may be corrected by entry in the margin (without any alteration of the original entry) by the officer having the custody of the register, upon payment of the appointed fee and upon production to him by the person requiring such error to be corrected of a statutory declaration setting forth the nature of the error and the true facts of the case, and made by two persons required by this Act to give information concerning the birth or death with reference to which the error has been made, or in default of such persons then by two credible persons having knowledge of the truth of the case :
- (4.) Where an error of fact or substance (other than an error relating to the cause of death) occurs in the information given by a coroner's certificate concerning a dead body upon which he has held an inquest, the coroner, if satisfied by evidence on oath or statutory declaration that such error exists, may certify under his hand to the officer having the custody of the register in which such information is entered the nature of the error and the true facts of the case as ascertained by him on such evidence, and the error may thereupon be corrected by such officer in the register by entering in the margin (without any alteration of the original entry) the facts as so certified by the coroner.

Registration of Births and Deaths at Sea.

37. The provisions of this Act, save as is herein expressly provided, shall not apply to the registration of births and deaths on board a vessel at sea, with respect to which the following provisions shall have effect: Registration of births and deaths at sea.

- (1.) The captain or master of or other person having the command or charge of a British ship shall, as soon as may be after the occurrence of the birth of a child or the death of a person on board such ship, record in his log book or otherwise the fact of such birth or death, and the particulars required by the fourth schedule to this Act to be registered concerning such birth or death, or such of them as may be known to him, and shall, (unless the ship is one of Her Majesty's ships,) upon the arrival of such ship at any port of the United Kingdom, or at such other time or place as the Board of Trade may from time to time with respect to any ship or class of ships direct, deliver or send, in such form and manner as the Board of Trade may from time to time direct, a return of the facts so recorded to the Registrar General of Shipping and Seamen.

- (2.) Where a ship which is not a British ship carries passengers to or from any port of the United Kingdom as the port of destination or the port of departure of such ship, the provisions of this section shall apply to the captain or master of or other person having the command or charge of such ship, in like manner as if it were a British ship.
- (3.) Where the said return is directed by the Board of Trade (whether the ship is British or foreign) to be delivered upon the arrival of the ship, or the discharge of the crew, or otherwise, at any port or place out of the United Kingdom, the Board of Trade may, if they think fit, direct that the return instead of being delivered to the Registrar General of Shipping and Seamen shall be delivered, and the same shall accordingly be delivered, if such port or place is within Her Majesty's dominions, to the shipping master or collector of customs at such port or place, and if it is a foreign port or place, to the principal British consular officer at the said foreign port or place, and such shipping master, collector, or officer shall send the same, as soon as may be, by post or otherwise, to the Registrar General of Shipping and Seamen.
- (4.) Where it appears from any such return that the father of any child so born, or if the child is a bastard the mother of such child, was a Scotch or Irish subject of Her Majesty, or that any person whose death is mentioned in such return was a Scotch or Irish subject of Her Majesty, the Registrar General of Shipping and Seamen shall from time to time send a certified copy of so much of the return as relates to such birth or death to the Registrar General of Births and Deaths in Scotland or Ireland, as the case may require.
- (5.) The Registrar General of Shipping and Seamen shall from time to time send to the Registrar General of Births and Deaths in England a certified copy of every other such return, or of that part of every

- such return which is not so sent to the Registrar General of Births and Deaths in Scotland or Ireland.
- (6.) A captain of or other person having charge of one of Her Majesty's ships shall, upon the arrival of any such ship in any port of the United Kingdom, or at such other time as the Commissioners of the Admiralty may from time to time direct, deliver or send, in such manner and form as the said Commissioners may from time to time direct, a return of the facts recorded in pursuance of this section to that Registrar General of Births and Deaths to whom a copy of such return would, if the ship were a merchant ship, be sent under the provisions of this section by the Registrar General of Shipping and Seamen.
- (7.) Every Registrar General of Births and Deaths to whom a copy of any return or a return is sent in pursuance of this section shall cause the same to be filed and preserved in or copied in a book to be kept by him for the purpose, and to be called a marine register book, and such book shall be deemed to be a certified copy of a register book within the meaning of the Acts relating to the registration of births and deaths in England, Scotland, and Ireland respectively.
- (8.) Every captain or master of or other person having charge of a ship who fails to comply with this section shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding five pounds for each offence; and such penalty may be recovered in the same courts and places and in the like manner, and when recovered shall be applied in like manner, as a penalty under the Merchant Shipping Act, 1854.
- (9.) This section shall extend to all places and persons within British jurisdiction.
- (10.) Terms in this section shall have the same meaning as in the Merchant Shipping Act, 1854.

Miscellaneous.

38. An entry or certified copy of an entry of a birth or death in a register under the Births and Deaths Registration Acts, 1836 to 1874, or in a certified copy of such a register, shall not be evidence of such birth or death, unless such entry either purports to be signed by some person professing to be the informant and to be such a person as is required by law at the date of such entry to give to the registrar information concerning such birth or death, or purports to be made upon a certificate from a coroner, or in pursuance of the provisions of this Act with respect to the registration of births and deaths at sea.

Register when not evidence.

When more than three months have intervened between the day of the birth and the day of the registration of the birth of any child, the entry or certified copy of the entry made after the commencement of this Act of the birth of such child in a register under the Births and Deaths Registration Acts, 1836 to 1874, or in a certified copy of such a register, shall not be evidence of such birth unless such entry purports,

- (a.) if it appear that not more than twelve months have so intervened, to be signed by the superintendent registrar as well as by the registrar ; or,
- (b.) if more than twelve months have so intervened, to have been made with the authority of the Registrar General, and in accordance with the prescribed rules.

Where more than twelve months have intervened between the day of a death or the finding of a dead body and the day of the registration of the death or the finding of such body, the entry or certified copy of the entry made after the commencement of this Act of the death in a register under the Births and Deaths Registration Acts, 1836 to 1874, or in a certified copy of such register, shall not be evidence of such death, unless such entry purports to have been made with the authority of the Registrar General, and in accordance with the prescribed rules.

Penalty for not giving information, complying with requisition, &c.

39. Every person required by the Births and Deaths Registration Acts, 1836 to 1874, to give information concerning any birth or death, or any living new-born child, or any dead body, who wilfully refuses to answer any question put to him by the registrar relating to the particulars required to be registered concerning such birth or death, or fails to comply with any requisition of the registrar made in pursuance of those Acts, and every person who refuses or fails without reasonable excuse to give or send any certificate in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding forty shillings for each offence ; and the parent of any child who fails to give information concerning the birth of such child, as required by the said Acts, shall be liable to a like penalty ; and a person required by the said Acts to give information concerning a death in the first instance, and not merely in default of some other person, shall, if such information as is required by the said Acts is not duly given, be liable to the same penalty.

Penalty for false statements, &c.

40. Any person who commits any of the following offences ; that is to say,

- (1.) Wilfully makes any false answer to any question put to him by a registrar relating to the particulars required to be registered concerning any birth or death, or wilfully gives to a registrar any false information concerning any birth or death, or the cause of any death ; or,

(2.) Wilfully makes any false certificate or declaration under or for the purposes of this Act, or forges or falsifies any such certificate or declaration, or any order under this Act, or, knowing any such certificate, declaration, or order to be false or forged, uses the same as true, or gives or sends the same as true to any person ; or,

(3.) Wilfully makes, gives, or uses any false statement or representation as to a child born alive having been still-born, or as to the body of a deceased person or a still-born child in any coffin, or falsely pretends that any child born alive was still-born ; or shall for each offence be liable on summary conviction to a penalty not exceeding ten pounds, and on conviction on indictment to fine or to imprisonment with or without hard labour for a term not exceeding two years, or to penal servitude for a term not exceeding seven years.

(4.) Makes any false statement with intent to have the same entered in any register of births or deaths ;

41. All notices, informations, declarations, certificates, requisitions, returns, and other documents required or authorised by this Act to be delivered, sent, or given to the Registrar General, a superintendent registrar, or a registrar, or by a registrar to a person who is required to give information concerning any birth or death, or who gives notice of any death, may be sent by post in a prepaid letter, and the date at which they would be delivered to the person to whom they are sent in the ordinary course of post shall be deemed to be the date at which they are received ; and in proving such sending, it shall be sufficient to prove that the letter was prepaid, properly addressed, and put into the post.

Sending certificates, &c. by post.

42. In the principal Act and this Act,—

The term “general search” shall mean a search during any number of successive hours not exceeding six, without stating the object of the search ; and

The term “particular search” shall mean a search over any period not exceeding five years for any given entry.

Explanation of 6 & 7 W. 4. c. 86. ss. 36, 37.

43. The forms in the first schedule to this Act, or forms as nearly resembling the same as circumstances admit, shall be used in all cases in which they are applicable, and when so used shall be valid in law.

Use of forms.

44. It shall be lawful for the Local Government Board or the Registrar General, with the consent of the Local Government Board, by order to alter from time to time all or any of the forms contained in the schedules to the principal Act and this Act, or in any order under this section, in such manner as may appear to them best for carrying into effect the Births and Deaths Registration Acts, 1836 to 1874, or to prescribe new forms for that purpose, and from time to time to make regulations for prescribing any matters authorised by this Act to be prescribed, and to revoke and alter such regulations.

Power of Local Government Board and Registrar General to alter forms in schedules under 6 & 7 W. 4. c. 86., and make regulations.

Any order made in pursuance of this section shall be published in the London Gazette, and shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament, if Parliament is sitting, within fourteen days after the issue of the same, or if Parliament is not then sitting, within fourteen days after the commencement of the then next session.

Every form when altered in pursuance of this section shall have the same effect as if it had been contained in a schedule to the principal Act or this Act, as the case may be, and every regulation made in pursuance of this section shall, while in force, have the same effect as if it were enacted in this Act.

Recovery of penalties.

45. All fines and forfeitures imposed by the principal Act and all penalties imposed by this Act may, unless otherwise directed, be recovered on summary conviction before two justices in manner directed by the Summary Jurisdiction Acts, and when so recovered shall be paid into the receipt of Her Majesty's Exchequer in such manner as the Treasury may from time to time direct, and be carried to the Consolidated Fund.

Where the court of summary jurisdiction before whom a person is charged summarily with an offence under this Act, which is also punishable on indictment, think that proceedings ought to be taken against such person by indictment, they may adjourn the case to enable such proceedings to be taken.

Time for prosecution of offence.

46. A prosecution on indictment for an offence under this Act shall be commenced within three years after the commission of such offence.

Particulars required to be registered concerning birth or death.

47. The particulars required to be registered concerning a birth or death shall be the particulars specified in the forms in Schedules A. and B. respectively to the principal Act, as amended by the Births and Deaths Registration Act, 1837, and by this Act, or as altered in pursuance of this Act.

Interpretation.

48. In this Act, if not inconsistent with the context,—
The term "public institution" means a prison, lock-up, workhouse, lunatic asylum, hospital, and any prescribed public or charitable institution :

The term "house" includes a public institution as above defined :

The term "occupier" includes the governor, keeper, master, matron, superintendent, or other chief resident officer of every public institution, and where a house is let in separate apartments or lodgings includes any person residing in such house who is the person under whom such lodgings or separate apartments are immediately held, or his agent :

The term "relative" includes a relative by marriage :

The term "prescribed" means prescribed by regulations made from time to time in pursuance of section five of the principal Act or of this Act :

The term "appointed fee" means the fee specified in the second schedule to this Act :

The term "guardians" includes any body of persons performing the functions of guardians within the meaning of the Acts relating to the relief of the poor :

The term "union" means any union or incorporation of parishes under any general or local Act, and includes any single parish having guardians under any such Act :

The term "common fund" means, in the case of a single parish, the fund out of which the expenses of the guardians of such parish are paid :

The term "Summary Jurisdiction Acts" means the Act of the session of the eleventh and twelfth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, chapter forty-three, intituled "An Act to facilitate the performance of the duties of justices of the peace out of sessions within England and Wales with respect to summary convictions and orders," and any Acts amending the same :

The term "court of summary jurisdiction" means any justice or justices of the peace, metropolitan police magistrate, stipendiary or other magistrate, or officer, by whatever name called, to whom jurisdiction is given by the Summary Jurisdiction Acts, or any Acts therein referred to.

49. Where reference is made in this Act to a registrar or superintendent registrar in connexion with any birth or death or other event, or any register, such reference shall (unless the contrary be expressed) be deemed to be made to the registrar who is the registrar for the sub-district in which such birth or death or other event took place, or who keeps the register in which the birth or death or other event is or is required to be registered, or who keeps the register referred to, and to the superintendent registrar who superintends such registrar as aforesaid.

Definition of registrar and superintendent registrar.

50. This Act shall not come into operation until the first day of January one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five, which day is referred to in this Act as the commencement of this Act.

Commencement.

51. This Act, save as is herein otherwise expressly provided, shall extend only to England and Wales.

Extent of Act.

52. This Act shall, so far as is consistent with the tenor thereof, be construed as one with so much as is unrepealed of the Acts mentioned in the third schedule to this Act, and the first of those Acts is in this Act referred to as the principal Act, and each of those Acts may be cited as the Births and Deaths Registration Act of the year in which it was passed, and those Acts, together with this Act, may be cited as the Births and Deaths Registration Acts, 1836 to 1874.

Short title.

53. This Act may be cited as the "Births and Deaths Registration Act, 1874."

Repeal.

Repeal of Acts
in schedule.

54. The Acts specified in the fifth schedule to this Act are hereby repealed, from and after the commencement of this Act, to the extent specified in the third column of that schedule.

Provided that this repeal shall not affect—

- (a.) Anything duly done or suffered under any enactment hereby repealed, or the proof of any past act or thing;
- (b.) Any right, privilege, obligation, or liability acquired, accrued, or incurred under any enactment hereby repealed; or,
- (c.) Any penalty, forfeiture, or punishment incurred in respect of any offence committed against any enactment hereby repealed; or,
- (d.) Any investigation, legal proceeding, or remedy in respect of any such right, privilege, obligation, liability, penalty, forfeiture, or punishment as aforesaid; and any such investigation, legal proceeding, and remedy may be carried on as if this Act had not passed.

CHAPTER 89.

An Act to amend and extend the Sanitary Laws.
[7th August 1874.]

WHEREAS it is expedient that the Sanitary Acts should be explained and amended, and that sundry other provisions should be made to extend the same :

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

Explanation and Amendment of Public Health Act, 1872.

Rural sanitary authority and board of guardians declared to be the same authority.

1. It is hereby declared that the rural sanitary authority is the same body as the board of guardians of the union or parish for or within which such authority acts, and that all statutes, orders, and legal provisions applicable to a board of guardians apply to them when acting as such rural sanitary authority, except so far as any provision of the Public Health Act, 1872 (herein termed the principal Act), relating to the acting or voting of a guardian or otherwise, may be to the contrary.

Where first meeting not held in accordance with 35 & 36 Vict. c. 79. s. 6.

2. Where any sanitary authority shall be acting in the execution of the said Act, their proceedings, from the time when they have so acted or shall hereafter so act, shall be deemed, if otherwise not invalid, to be legal, notwithstanding that a first meeting was not held by them in accordance with section six of the said Act; and their first meeting after the passing of the said Act shall be deemed their first meeting within the meaning of the seventh, eighth, and ninth sections of that Act.

3. Whereas doubts have arisen as to the extent and meaning of the seventh section of the principal Act: Be it therefore declared and enacted, that the provisions of the said section shall be deemed to have applied to every authority acting at the time of the passing of the principal Act under the powers conferred upon them by a Local Act with respect to any sanitary purposes, and that all the powers, rights, duties, capacities, liabilities, and obligations of any authority having jurisdiction under a Local Act in the district of an urban sanitary authority at the time of the passing of the principal Act, so far as they or any of them related to such purposes, were transferred to and became attached to the urban sanitary authority therein referred to.

The transfer of powers of sanitary authorities applies to authorities under local Acts.

Provided that where any body of turnpike trustees have powers for any such sanitary purposes as aforesaid under a Local Act, such trustees shall not be deemed to be an urban sanitary authority, but all their powers and obligations under such Acts for such purposes shall be transferred to the sanitary authority within whose district the area to which the Local Act applies shall be locally contained.

Proviso as to certain turnpike trustees.

Provided that all acts, matters, rates, orders, or other things heretofore done, performed, assessed, or made by any authority under any Local Act in this section referred to, or commenced and not completed at the time when this Act shall come into operation, shall be legal, notwithstanding the said enactment, if not otherwise invalid.

4. It is also further declared and enacted, that the transfer of property provided for in section nine of the principal Act applies to the property of the authority acting under the powers conferred upon them by a Local Act for sanitary purposes, so far as such property is held for such purposes.

Transfer of property in such cases.

Provided that the dealing of any such authority with property previously vested in them before the passing of this Act, and not already brought into question in any court of law, shall be valid, notwithstanding the principal Act or this section.

5. Whereas provision is made in the tenth section of the principal Act for the joint appointment of certain officers for two or more sanitary districts, but the mode of making such joint appointment is not prescribed: When, therefore, two or more sanitary authorities agree to join in the appointment of a medical officer of health or inspector of nuisances, the Local Government Board, if they approve of the agreement, shall, by order, prescribe the manner in which such officer shall be elected by the authorities so joining in the appointment, and determine the proportions in which the reasonable expenses of and incident to such election shall be borne by such authorities respectively.

Provision for the joint appointment of officers.

Assistant clerk may be appointed instead of clerk.

6. If the clerk to the board of guardians of any union or parish be unwilling or incompetent to act for them in discharge of their duties as rural sanitary authority, they may appoint their assistant clerk to act for them as their clerk in such matters, with remuneration as in the principal Act is provided.

Parochial com-mitteeman's qualification.

7. The qualification, so far as regards rating, of a member of the parochial committee authorised to be appointed by the rural sanitary authority in any parish or contributory place where no separate rate is in force for sanitary purposes shall be that he shall contribute or be liable to contribute to the poor rate in such parish or contributory place.

Provision as to their expenses.

A parochial committee may be empowered by the rural sanitary authority to incur expenses to such amount as shall be prescribed by such authority, but must not exceed such amount.

Of parochial expenses.

It shall report the expenditure so incurred from time to time to the authority, according to the directions of such authority; and the amount so reported, if otherwise legally incurred, shall be discharged by the authority as other demands upon it are discharged.

Expenses in urban sanitary authority.

8. Whereas doubts have arisen as to the meaning of the proviso to the sixteenth section of the principal Act, with reference to the rate therein mentioned as a rate levied within the district: Be it therefore declared, that such rate shall signify one which is levied throughout the whole of the district.

Provided that where any charges to which that section refers have been defrayed out of any rate before the passing of this Act, the same, if not heretofore questioned in any court of law, shall be deemed to have been legally defrayed, so far as any objection could arise out of the proviso in this section referred to.

Provided further, that when any charges directed by the said sixteenth section of the principal Act to be paid in the case of a council of a borough out of the borough fund or borough rate have been hitherto divided between the landlord and tenant in moieties or otherwise, under the provisions of any Local Act in that behalf, the Local Government Board may, upon application, by their order, make provision for the continuance of such division of the charges between parties during the continuance of any contract existing at the passing of the Act.

Provisional order may change incidence of charge.

9. If application be made to the Local Government Board, whereby it shall be alleged that it would be inequitable or inconvenient in the district of any urban sanitary authority that the expenses referred to in the said sixteenth section of the principal Act should be borne as therein provided, the said Board may, after inquiry by a provisional order, alter the incidence of such charge in respect of the whole or some of the expenditure referred to, as to them shall appear to be fair and equitable.

10. Special expenses, as defined by section seventeen of the principal Act, shall include the expenses of the maintenance and cleansing of sewers and streets, of providing, repairing, and cleansing public wells, tanks, cisterns, and pumps, of lighting, where duly authorised, in any contributory place, and the charges or expenses arising out of or incidental to the possession of property transferred to the rural sanitary authority in trust for any parish, district, or contributory place.

Special expenses.

11. Whereas the amount of charges for special expenses is sometimes so small in contributory places that no special rate could be conveniently assessed for the same: Where, therefore, the amount required in respect of special expenses in any one year is less than ten pounds, or is so small that a rate less than one penny in the pound would be required to raise the same, the overseers shall not assess and levy any special rate for the same, but shall pay the same out of the poor rate.

Provision for special expenses of small amounts.

12. Where a sanitary authority is constituted a port sanitary authority for any port which contains more than one riparian authority, every riparian authority, other than the port authority itself, shall, if authorised by the order of the Local Government Board to do so, send to the meetings of the port sanitary authority, as representative or representatives of such riparian authority, some member or members of their own board, and such representative members shall be empowered to act as part of the board of the port sanitary authority in respect of all matters entrusted to such authority.

Riparian authorities to have representatives on port sanitary board.

The number of members to be assigned to each riparian authority shall be determined by the Local Government Board; and such Board may, by order, unite two or more riparian authorities for the election of one representative, and determine the mode of such election.

13. Where several riparian authorities are combined in the district of one port authority the Local Government Board may declare that some one or more of such authorities shall be exempt from contributing to the expenses incurred by such authorities.

Riparian authority may be exempted from contribution.

14. The Local Government Board may combine the sanitary authorities of several ports into one body to form a port sanitary authority for a district, and assign to such authority a title, and otherwise proceed as in the case of a port sanitary authority provided for by the twentieth section of the principal Act.

The sanitary authorities of several ports may be combined.

And such combination shall be a united district, to which all the provisions of the said Act which relate to such a district shall apply, except the necessity for the previous application to the Local Government Board and the previous inquiry.

Provisional orders for dissolution of districts.

15. When the Local Government Board propose by an order to dissolve a district, to detach part of an existing district, and to form another district out of the dissolved district and such other part, they may do so by one provisional order.

And when they form an urban sanitary district under section twenty-four of the principal Act, they may, by the order constituting the district, if they see fit, divide the district into wards for the election of members.

Provisional orders under sect. 33. of 35 & 36 Vict. c. 79.

16. The Local Government Board may, when applied to by the sanitary authority for the alteration or amendment of any Local Act under section thirty-three of the principal Act, extend the provisions of any Local Act therein referred to beyond the boundaries of the district comprised therein, or diminish the area to which such Local Act shall apply, by provisional order.

Extension of 35 & 36 Vict. c. 79. s. 39. as to adjustment of accounts.

17. The thirty-ninth section of the principal Act, which provides for the adjustment of accounts, shall apply to cases of transfer or alleged transfer subsequent to the passing of the said Act, made by the operation of that Act, or under any provisional order of the Local Government Board, and such Board may include any settlement or adjustment made in accordance with such section in any provisional order which may give rise to the same.

Compensation to officers deprived by any provisional order.

18. The power of awarding compensation to officers conferred by the thirty-third section of the principal Act shall be extended to officers who may be deprived of their office by reason of that Act or of any provisional order made under the authority thereof.

Amendments of other Sanitary Acts. Powers and Duties of Sanitary Authorities.

Expenses of police officer acting under 29 & 30 Vict. c. 90, s. 16. provided for.

19. Where, under the directions of the Local Government Board, the chief officer of police in any place institutes proceedings under the sixteenth section of the Sanitary Act, 1866, he shall be entitled to recover from the authority in default all such expenses in and about such proceedings as he may incur, and as shall not be paid by the party proceeded against.

Order against a defaulting sanitary authority may be enforced by mandamus.

20. When the Local Government Board shall have at any time made any order under the forty-ninth section of the Sanitary Act, 1866, limiting the time for the performance by any authority of its duty, such order may be enforced by writ of mandamus, notwithstanding the provision in the said section contained for the performance of the duty in the event of the continued default of the sanitary authority.

21. Every urban sanitary authority, and every rural sanitary authority who shall have been invested with the requisite powers, shall, when the Local Government Board by order so direct, make due provision for the proper cleansing of streets, the removal of house refuse from premises, and the cleansing of earth closets, privies, ashpits, and cesspools within its district.

Duty of urban authority to cleanse streets, privies, and ashpits.

If any sanitary authority having made such provision fail, without reasonable excuse, after notice in writing from the occupier of any house situated in such district requiring such authority to remove any house refuse, or to cleanse any earth closet, privy, cesspool, or ashpit belonging to such house, or used by the inmates or occupiers thereof, to cause the same to be removed or cleansed, as the case may be, within seven days, the sanitary authority shall on summary conviction be liable to pay to the occupier of such house a penalty not exceeding five shillings for every day during which such default continues after the expiration of the said period.

Penalty on neglect of sanitary authority to cleanse privies or ashpits.

Constitution and Election of Local Boards.

22. When an owner shall have made or shall hereafter make a claim to vote in any matter to which the Sanitary Acts apply, and shall have sent in his claim according to the provisions applicable thereto, such claim, if legally valid otherwise, shall remain in force for all occasions, so long as the owner shall continue to be qualified to vote as owner, unless he shall withdraw the same.

Statements of owners to remain available for all subsequent proceedings.

And the appointment of a proxy authorised to be given by any of the said Acts shall continue in force for all occasions, until revoked, or the proxy resign, or the qualification of the corporation, company, or body making the appointment shall cease.

Appointments of proxies.

23. The local board shall cause a register to be made and kept, and from time to time revised, in which shall be entered the names, addresses, and qualifications of the owners making claims, and the names or descriptions, addresses, and qualifications of the bodies appointing the proxies, and the names and addresses of such proxies; and such register shall be open to the inspection of candidates and other persons interested at any election, or in any question at which any such owner or proxy claims to vote, subject to such rules as the returning officer or chairman may prescribe for the prevention of loss, injury, or disorder.

Register of owners to be kept.

24. The fourteenth section of the "Local Government Act, 1858," is hereby repealed.

Repeal of 21 & 22 Vict. c. 98. s. 14.

Power to divide districts into wards at any time, and to settle disputes as to boundaries.

25. The Local Government Board may at any time divide a district into wards according to the provisions contained in the twenty-fourth section of the said last-mentioned Act, and may from time to time, after local inquiry, alter and re-adjust the areas, boundaries, or numbers of the representatives of the several wards in any district as they shall deem expedient: Provided, that where the district and wards shall have been formed by provisional order, such alteration or re-adjustment shall be made by provisional order only.

And where any dispute shall exist as to the boundaries of adjoining districts, the said board may, upon the application of the boards interested therein, after local inquiry, make an order to settle the same, and shall publish such order when made in one or more newspapers circulating in the respective districts.

Such order, from a date to be appointed therein, shall be conclusive upon the question to which it relates.

Provision for uniform election of boards in March.

26. Whereas it is advisable that there should be uniformity in the time at which all local boards formed under any of the Sanitary Acts shall annually commence their term of office:

Now therefore, henceforth the last day for receiving nominations for every local board heretofore or hereafter constituted under any provision of the Sanitary Acts or any Act embodying the provisions thereof, except in the district of Oxford, shall be the twenty-sixth day of March in every year; but if the twenty-sixth day of March be Sunday, Good Friday, or Easter Monday, the last day for receiving such nominations shall be the twenty-seventh day of March, or if it be Easter Sunday, such last day shall be the twenty-eighth day of March, and in any of these events the days for all the subsequent proceedings of the election shall be settled accordingly, in conformity with the intervals provided by the above-mentioned Acts, and the day of election shall in all cases be the day appointed in the notice for the collection of the voting papers.

Provided that all elections which but for this Act would have commenced before the twenty-sixth-day of March next shall be postponed until such day, and the members in office, where no election shall be pending at the passing of this Act, who would be required to go out of office sooner shall be entitled to continue in office until such day, and the members who would have continued to hold office after the said twenty-sixth day of March shall be entitled to hold their office as if they had been nominated on the twenty-sixth day of March next after the day on which the election took place; or, in the case of a member elected to fill a casual vacancy, on the twenty-sixth day of March next after the day of the election of the member whose place he filled, regard being had to the successive periods of retirement provided for in the Sanitary Acts with respect to members of local boards.

27. The annual meeting of every local board shall be held as soon as convenient after the completion of the annual election. Day of the annual meeting.

28. The Local Government Board may, after local inquiry, increase or diminish, by order, the number of members of a local board. Local Government Board may increase or diminish number of members.

29. When for the purpose of passing a resolution in the manner prescribed for the adoption of the Local Government Act, 1858, it is necessary that a meeting of owners of property and ratepayers in any urban sanitary district should be summoned, the mayor of the borough, or the chairman or acting chairman of the sanitary authority of the district, as the case may be, shall be the summoning officer of such meeting of owners and ratepayers, and shall be the chairman of the meeting, and shall conduct the same to its conclusion. How meetings of owners and ratepayers to be summoned in districts.

All expenses lawfully incurred by him in and about such meeting shall be paid out of the funds of the authority applicable to their general expenses.

If the mayor or chairman, as the case may be, shall be unable or unwilling to preside at the meeting or at the poll in the said Act provided, the town council or the sanitary authority respectively shall appoint some other person to preside.

30. The limit of the amount of any contract of a local board which is required by the eighty-fifth section of the "Public Health Act, 1848," to be executed under seal, shall be enlarged to fifty pounds. Provision as to the contracts of local boards.

Provisions as to the Acquisition of Property.

31. The Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, may, when put in force under any provision of the Sanitary Acts, be applied to all land, easements, and rights in, over, or upon land, whether situated within or without the district of the sanitary authority. Extension of Lands Clauses Consolidation Act to easements and rights.

32. The Chancellor and Council of the Duchy of Lancaster for the time being may, if they shall think fit, (but subject and without prejudice to the rights of any lessee, tenant, or occupier,) from time to time contract and agree with any sanitary authority for the sale of, and may (subject as aforesaid) absolutely make sale and dispose of, for such sum or sums of money as to the said Chancellor and Council shall appear sufficient consideration for the same, the whole or any part of any messuage, building, land, or hereditaments belonging to Her Majesty, her heirs or successors, in right of the said duchy, or any right, interest, or easement in, through, Provision for lands belonging to the Duchy of Lancaster.

over, or upon any such message, building, land, or hereditaments which, for the purposes of any of the Sanitary Acts, such sanitary authority from time to time deem it expedient to purchase; and upon payment of the purchase money as provided by the Duchy of Lancaster Lands Act, 1855, the said Chancellor and Council may grant and assure to the said authority, under the seal of the said duchy, in the name of Her Majesty, her heirs or successors, the subject of such contract and agreement or sale, and such money shall be dealt with as if such subject had been sold under the authority of "The Duchy of Lancaster Lands Act, 1855."

Power to purchase water mills, dams, and weirs.

33. Any sanitary authority may, subject to the provisions of this Act and of the Sanitary Acts, buy up any water mill, dam, or weir which interferes with the proper drainage of or the supply of water to its district, and may, for the purpose of supplying its district with water for drinking and domestic purposes, purchase, either within or without its district, any land covered with water, or any water or right to take or convey water; and for the purpose of buying up any of the properties aforesaid, the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, and any Act amending the same, shall be incorporated with this section, but the compulsory powers of purchase contained in the said Lands Clauses Act shall not be exercised except in pursuance of a provisional order of the Local Government Board.

Urban sanitary authority may let land or premises.

34. Any urban sanitary authority not heretofore empowered to do so may let temporarily, or for a term of years, with the consent of the Local Government Board, any land or premises which they may possess, as and when they can conveniently spare the same.

Notices to owners and occupiers may be given in other months than November and December.

35. The notices which, by the seventy-fifth section of the Local Government Act, 1858, are required to be given in the months of November and December, may be given in the months of September and October, or of October and November, but no inquiry preliminary to the provisional order to which such notices refer shall be held in either of such two last-mentioned cases until the expiration of one month from the end of the second of the two months in which the notices are given.

Borrowing Powers.

Amendment of 21 & 22 Vict. c. 98. s. 57. regarding loans to sanitary authorities.

36. The fifty-seventh section of the Local Government Act, 1858, shall extend to reborrowing for the purpose of discharging previous loans, as well as to original loans, and be amended so that the following provision shall be substituted for that contained in the paragraph No. 2.; namely,

The money so borrowed shall not at any time exceed, with the balances of all the outstanding loans of the sanitary authority under the Sanitary Acts, in the whole, the assessable value for two years of the premises assessable within the district in respect of which such money may be borrowed, and the time for which the money may be borrowed shall not exceed sixty years, instead of thirty years as in the said section is declared :

Provided that where the proposed loan with such balances would exceed one year's assessable value, the Local Government Board shall not give their sanction to the loan until a local inquiry shall have been held by one of their inspectors, and his report of the result of such inquiry shall have been received by them :

Provided also, that where a loan is effected to pay off a previous loan, the time for repayment shall not extend beyond the unexpired term of the period for which the original loan was contracted, unless with the sanction of the Local Government Board, and shall in no case be extended beyond the period of sixty years from the date of the original borrowing :

Provided further, that nothing herein contained shall enable the Public Works Loan Commissioners to advance money under any provision of the Sanitary Acts for a longer period than fifty years.

37. The seventy-eighth section of the said last-mentioned Act and the nineteenth section of the Local Government Act Amendment Act, 1861, are hereby repealed, except so far as either of them may apply to any proceedings commenced but not completed at the passing of this Act.

The 21 & 22
Vict. c. 98. s. 78.
and 24 & 25
Vict. c. 61. s. 19.
repealed.

Audit of Accounts.

38. The power of the auditor to audit the accounts of sanitary authorities under the several Acts applicable thereto shall extend to the accounts of the officers, assistants, or servants of the said authorities who are required to receive moneys or goods on behalf of such authorities, with the same consequences and subject to the same powers as in the case of the members of the boards of such authorities.

Auditor to audit accounts of officers.

It shall be sufficient if the Local Board give fourteen days notice of the audit, instead of twenty days notice as required by the sixtieth section of the Local Government Act, 1858.

39. The taxation of bills referred to in section fifty of the principal Act may be made by the clerk of the peace as well as by his deputy.

Amendment of 35 & 36 Vict.
c. 79. as to taxation of bills.

40. Every notice required to be given on behalf of a sanitary authority shall be deemed to be sufficient on their behalf, if it be written or printed, or partly written and partly printed, and purports to be signed by the clerk or acting clerk, surveyor, or inspector of nuisances, of such authority.

Notices how to be signed.

Byelaws.

Prohibition of works before approval.

41. No work for which a notice, plan, or description is required by any byelaw legally made and confirmed under any statute in that behalf to be laid before a sanitary authority shall be commenced before the expiration of one month from the day on which the said notice, plan, or description shall have been delivered to such authority at their office, or at the office of their surveyor, nor at all if the said authority give notice of disapproval within one month from the day of such delivery, unless the person proposing to execute the work can show that the same is in every respect conformable to every such byelaw as well as to the general law applicable to it.

Costs of sanitary authority in removing works to be recovered by summary proceeding.

42. Where any sanitary authority incurs expenses in or about the removal of any works executed contrary to any byelaw, such authority may recover, by proceedings before justices in a summary manner, subject to the same consequences and incidents as in other cases under the Sanitary Acts, the amount of such expenses from the person executing the works removed, or from the person causing the said works to be executed, at the discretion of such authority.

Provision for continuing breaches of byelaws.

43. Where a sanitary authority may lawfully remove, alter, or pull down any work begun or done in contravention of any byelaw, or where the beginning or the doing of the work is an offence in respect whereof the offender is liable under such byelaw to a penalty, the continued existence of the work in such a form and state as to be in contravention of the byelaw shall be deemed to be a continuing offence, within the provision of the Sanitary Acts applicable to byelaws, during a period of one year from the day when the offence was committed, or the byelaw was broken.

Byelaws as to roofs, foundations, and spouts of houses.

44. The power of making byelaws in regard to the walls of buildings shall be extended to the roofs, foundations, and spouts on the outside thereof, and for purposes of health as well as for the purposes of stability and protection against fire.

Byelaws as to hop-pickers.

45. Every sanitary authority may make byelaws, to be confirmed by the Local Government Board, for regulating the lodging and other treatment of persons engaged in hop-picking in the district of such authority.

Byelaws made for prevention, &c. of nuisances to be submitted to Local Government Board.

46. The byelaws made by the council of any municipal corporation under the provisions of the ninetieth section of the Act of the fifth and sixth years of King William the Fourth, chapter seventy-six, for the prevention and suppression of such nuisances as are the subjects of byelaws to be made under section thirty-two of the Local Government Act, 1858, shall be submitted to the said Local Government Board, who shall confirm or disallow the same as to them shall seem right, and when any such byelaw shall have been so confirmed it shall be published and enforced as other byelaws made under the Sanitary Acts; and the regulations to be made by the local authority under the ninth section of the Common Lodging Houses Act, 1851, shall be confirmed by the Local Government Board instead of by one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

Confirmation of regulations under Common Lodging Houses Act.

And where any byelaw is required to be confirmed by the Local Government Board, no confirmation by any other authority shall be required.

Confirmation of byelaws.

47. The Local Government Board may, at its discretion, by notice to be published in the London Gazette, declare the enactment contained in section thirty-five of the Sanitary Act, 1866, to be in force in any part of the metropolis and in the district of any sanitary authority, notwithstanding the restrictions in the said section contained; and from and after the publication of such notice the authority named therein shall be empowered to make regulations in respect of the matters in that section mentioned, but such regulations shall not be of any validity unless and until they are confirmed by the Local Government Board.

Regulations as to lodgings in every sanitary district.

Regulations made under the said section may extend to ventilation of rooms, paving and drainage of premises, the separation of the sexes, and to notices to be given and precautions to be taken in case of any dangerously infectious or contagious disease, under the powers of this Act, or of the principal Act, or of the Acts therein mentioned.

48. Any rural sanitary authority who shall propose to make any byelaw under the Sanitary Acts shall cause a copy of the proposed byelaw to be deposited in their board room for the space of one month before applying to the Local Government Board for confirmation, and the same shall be open to inspection, and copies shall be furnished upon the same terms, and there shall be the same notice of application for confirmation as in the case of the byelaws of an urban sanitary authority.

Notice, inspection, and publication of byelaws of rural sanitary authorities.

All byelaws made by a rural sanitary authority, when confirmed, shall be printed, and a copy thereof shall be hung up in their board room, and a copy shall be transmitted to the overseers of every parish to which the same shall apply, to be deposited with the public documents of the parish, and to be open to the inspection of any ratepayer in the parish at all reasonable hours.

And the clerk of the rural sanitary authority shall deliver a copy of the byelaw, when so confirmed, to any ratepayer of the district upon his application for the same.

49. The keeper of every common lodging house which is registered under the Common Lodging Houses Acts, and the Notices of common lodging houses and slaughter-houses to be affixed on premises.

owner or occupier of every slaughter-house causing the same to be licensed or registered, as the case may be, under the Sanitary Acts, shall, when required to do so by the authority registering or licensing the same, cause a notice with the words "Registered Lodging House," or "Licensed or Registered Slaughter House," as the case may be, to be affixed on some conspicuous place on the outside of the premises where the same can be seen by any inspector or officer of the sanitary authority.

Such notice shall be affixed within one month after the registration or license, as the case may be, and shall be continued undefaced and legible so long as the premises are used for the purpose.

Every person who shall make default in this respect, or shall neglect or refuse to affix or renew such notice after requisition in writing from the sanitary authority, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding five pounds for every offence, and of ten shillings for every day that the neglect shall continue after conviction.

Miscellaneous Sanitary Provisions.

Provision for polluted water in wells and pumps.

50. If it shall be represented to any nuisance authority in the metropolis or to any sanitary authority that within their district the water in any well, tank, or cistern, public or private, or supplied from any public pump, and used or likely to be used for domestic purposes, is so polluted as to be injurious to health, such authority may apply to any justices having jurisdiction within their district, in petty sessions assembled, for an order to remedy the same, and thereupon such justices shall summon the person occupying the premises to which the well, tank, or cistern belongs, if it be private, and, as regards any public well, tank, or cistern, or pump, such other person as shall be alleged in the application to be interested in the same, and shall either dismiss the application or make such an order in the case, by directing the well, tank, or cistern, or pump to be permanently or temporarily closed, or the water to be used for certain purposes only, or providing otherwise, as shall appear to them to be requisite to prevent injury to the health of persons drinking the water.

For the purposes of such inquiry, the said justices may cause the water to be analysed at the cost of the sanitary authority applying.

And all the expenses incurred by such authority in and about the procuring of this order, and in carrying it into execution, shall be charged upon the funds applicable to their general expenditure, but, in the case of a rural sanitary authority, shall be deemed to be special expenses within the meaning of the Sanitary Acts.

Provided that where the order is made in respect of any private well, tank, or cistern, any person aggrieved thereby may appeal against the same in the manner provided by the one hundred and thirty-fifth section of the Public Health Act, 1848, and with the same incidents and consequences.

Where the justices dismiss the application, they may, if they think fit, award such costs to the person summoned as to them shall appear to be reasonable.

51. For the purposes of the twenty-sixth section of the Sanitary Act, 1866, every hospital or place for the reception of the sick which shall be declared by an order of the Local Government Board to be situated within a convenient distance of the district of any authority, for the purposes of that section shall be deemed to be within the district of such authority.

Hospital when to be deemed within district.

Where a justice shall make an order under that section for the removal of a sick person to a hospital or other place, he shall address it to such police or other officer as he shall consider expedient; and every person wilfully disobeying the order, or obstructing the execution of the same, shall be guilty of an offence punishable on summary conviction before two justices, and be liable to a penalty not exceeding ten pounds.

Provision for the execution of order of a justice removing sick person to a hospital.

52. The fifty-first and fifty-second sections of the principal Act shall apply to the metropolis, and the local authorities empowered to execute the Nuisance Removal Acts in the metropolis and in the city of London respectively shall be deemed to be sanitary authorities within the operation of the said fifty-first section, and shall be empowered to pay the expenses to be incurred by them under those sections out of their general rate.

Extension of 35 & 36 Vict. c. 79, ss. 51, 52, to the metropolis.

53. The right of complaint given by the thirteenth section of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of the reign of Her Majesty, chapter seventy-seven, shall extend to nuisances in any parish or place, whether on private or public premises, and may be exercised by any inhabitant in such parish or place, or by any owner of premises situated therein, or by any other person aggrieved or injuriously affected thereby.

Extension of right of complaint under Nuisances Removal Acts.

54. The second section of the Nuisances Removal Act for England (Amendment) Act, 1863, shall extend to milk in the same manner as if that word had been introduced after the word "flour" wherever the word "flour" occurs in the said section; and the justice who under the said section is empowered to convict the offender therein described, may be other than the justice who may have ordered the article to be disposed of or destroyed.

The provisions of the Nuisances Removal Act for England (Amendment) Act, 1863, extended.

55. On complaint made by a medical officer of health or by any inspector or other officer of a nuisance authority in the metropolis, or of any sanitary authority upon oath, any justice may grant a warrant to any such officer to enter any building or part of a building or other place in which the complainant has reasonable ground for believing that any animal, carcase, meat, poultry, game, fish, fruit, vegetables, corn, bread, flour, milk, intended for sale for the food of man, which is so diseased, unsound, or unwholesome, as to be unfit for the food of man, is kept or concealed, and to search for, seize, and carry away any such animal, carcase, meat, poultry, game, fish, fruit, vegetables, corn, bread, flour, or milk, in order to have the same dealt with in manner provided by law; and any person obstructing any such officer in performance of any duty under this section shall, in addition to any other punishment to which he may be subject, be liable to a penalty not exceeding twenty pounds.

Penalty on false representations with respect to infectious disease.

56. If any owner or occupier or person employed to let for hire, or to show for the purposes of letting for hire, any house or part of a house, when questioned by any person negotiating for the hire of such house or part of a house as to the fact of there being in such house, or having within six weeks previously been therein, any person suffering from an infectious, contagious, or epidemic disease, knowingly makes a false answer to such question, the person so answering falsely shall be guilty of an offence punishable on summary conviction, and, at the discretion of the justices having cognizance of the case, be liable to be imprisoned, with or without hard labour, for a period not exceeding one month, or to pay a penalty not exceeding twenty pounds.

Interpretation of Words.

Interpretation of words.

57. All the words used in this Act shall have the same meaning as assigned to them in the Sanitary Acts as defined by the principal Act; and all the provisions of the Sanitary Acts shall apply to this Act, except so far as they shall be repealed hereby, or shall be inconsistent with anything herein contained.

Provided that all rights, powers, and authorities saved by any of the said Acts, and not transferred or expressly repealed by this Act, and all enactments incidental to such rights, powers, and authorities, shall be and remain in full force and validity.

The term "sanitary authority" used in the forty-first and forty-second sections of the Public Health Act, 1872, shall be held to include a local board of health constituted for the purposes of main sewerage only; and the term "consent" used in the twenty-fifth section of the said Act shall be deemed to apply and to have applied to a consent given either before or after the passing of the resolution for the adoption of the Acts or for the constitution of the district therein referred to.

58. This Act shall not apply to Scotland or Ireland.

CHAPTER 90.

An Act to declare the Validity of Orders of the Education Department, with respect to United School Districts, and to make better Provision with respect to such Orders. [7th August 1874.]

WHEREAS the Education Department, in pursuance of the Elementary Education Acts, 1870 and 1873, have made the orders mentioned in the schedule to this Act with respect to the united school districts mentioned in those orders :

33 & 34 Vict.
c. 75. s. 47.
36 & 37 Vict.
c. 86.

And whereas upon the application of a school board of one of the said united districts for a loan from the Public Works Loan Commissioners, doubts have been raised as to the validity of the said orders, or some of them, and the right of persons acting as members of a school board to act as such :

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

1. This Act may be cited as the Elementary Education (Orders) Act, 1874. Short title.

2. This Act shall be construed as one with the Elementary Education Acts, 1870 and 1873, which are in this Act referred to as the principal Acts. Construction of Act.

3. The orders made in pursuance of the principal Acts by the Education Department, which are mentioned in the schedule to this Act, shall be deemed to have been authorised by those Acts, and to have been duly made, and shall have full effect accordingly ; and as respects each of the said orders the school district formed thereby shall be deemed to have been and to be legally formed ; and any school board which has been or is acting as such in any such district shall be deemed to have been and to be a legally constituted school board ; and any persons who have been or are acting as members of a school board in any such district shall be deemed to have been legally chosen, and to have formed and to form a legal school board ; and on the retirement of all or

CHAPTER 91.

An Act to amend the Law relating to the Council of the Governor-General of India.

[7th August 1874.]

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the law relating to the Council of the Governor-General of India:

Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

Number of ordinary Members of Governor-General's Council may be increased.

1. It shall be lawful for Her Majesty, if she shall see fit, to increase the number of the ordinary Members of the Council of the Governor-General of India to Six, by appointing any person, from time to time, by warrant under Her Royal Sign Manual, to be an ordinary Member of the said Council in addition to the ordinary Members thereof appointed under section three of the "Indian Councils Act, 1861," and under section eight of the Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Her present Majesty, chapter ninety-seven. The law for the time being in force with reference to ordinary Members of the Council of the Governor-General of India shall apply to the person so appointed by Her Majesty under this Act, who shall be called the Member of Council for Public Works purposes.

24 & 25 Vict.
c. 67.
32 & 33 Vict.
c. 97.

2. Whenever a Member of Council for Public Works purposes shall have been appointed under the first section of this Act, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, if she shall see fit, to diminish, from time to time, the number of the ordinary Members of the Council of the Governor-General of India to Five, by abstaining so long as she shall deem proper from filling up any vacancy or vacancies occurring in the offices of the ordinary Members of the said Council appointed under section three of "The Indian Councils Act, 1861," and under section eight of the Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Her present Majesty, chapter ninety-seven, not being a vacancy in the office of the ordinary Member of Council required by law to be a barrister or a member of the Faculty of Advocates in Scotland; and whenever the Secretary of State for India shall have informed the Governor-General of India that it is not the intention of Her Majesty to fill up any vacancy, no temporary appointment shall be made to such vacancy under section twenty-seven of "The Indian Councils Act, 1861," and if any such temporary appointment shall have been made previously to the receipt of such information, the tenure of office of the person temporarily appointed shall cease and determine from the time of the receipt of such information by the Governor-General.

Members of Council may be subsequently diminished.

3. Nothing in this Act contained shall affect the provisions of section eight of "The Indian Councils Act, 1861," or the provisions of section five of the Act of the thirty-third year of Her Majesty, chapter three, or any power or authority vested by law in the Governor-General of India in respect of his Council or of the members thereof.

Not to affect power of Gevernor-General in respect of his Council.

CHAPTER 92.

An Act to provide for the Transfer to the Admiralty and the Secretary of State for the War Department of Alderney Harbour and certain Lands near it.

[7th August 1874.]

28 & 29 Vict.
c. 100.

WHEREAS by an Order in Council of the sixteenth day of February one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, made in pursuance of the Harbours Transfer Act, 1865, Alderney Harbour was (among other harbours) transferred from the Admiralty to the Board of Trade, together with the breakwaters, piers, jetties, quays, wharves, lighthouses, roads, approaches, works, buildings, and things belonging thereto, and the ground and soil thereof, and the lands and hereditaments acquired for the purposes thereof, and all powers and duties in relation thereto, so far as, at the time of such transfer, the harbour, property, powers, and duties aforesaid were vested in, or imposed on the Admiralty, but subject to the conditions and restrictions mentioned in the order:

And whereas certain lands and hereditaments have been from time to time acquired at the public expense for the purposes of Alderney Harbour or otherwise in the neighbourhood of that harbour, and are now vested in Her Majesty, the Board of Trade, the Admiralty, or the Treasury, but are not under the management of the Commissioners of Woods:

And whereas it is expedient to authorise Her Majesty to transfer, in manner in this Act mentioned, Alderney Harbour with certain of the said appurtenances and premises, and the said lands and hereditaments, to the Admiralty, and the residue of the said appurtenances, premises, lands, and hereditaments to the Secretary of State for the War Department:

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

Power to Her Majesty by Order in Council to transfer works and lands at Alderney to the Admiralty, or to Secretary of State for the War Department.

1. It shall be lawful for Her Majesty from time to time by Order in Council to transfer, as from the time fixed by the order, to the Admiralty, or to the Secretary of State for the War Department, or partly to the Admiralty and partly to the Secretary of State for the War Department, according as Her Majesty may deem expedient, Alderney Harbour, and the breakwaters, piers, jetties, quays, wharves, lighthouses, roads, approaches, works, buildings, and things belonging thereto, and the ground and soil thereof, and the lands and hereditaments which have been acquired for the purposes thereof, or are otherwise situate in the neighbourhood of the said harbour, and all powers and duties in relation thereto, so far as, at the time of the transfer taking effect, the harbour, pro-

erty, powers, and duties aforesaid are vested in or imposed on the Board of Trade, or the Admiralty, or the Treasury, or are vested in Her Majesty, and are not under the management of the Commissioners of Woods, but subject to the rights and liabilities affecting the same, and subject to such exceptions, conditions, and restrictions (if any) as to Her Majesty in Council may seem fit.

2. The harbour and property transferred under this Act to the Admiralty or the Secretary of State for the War Department shall be vested in them respectively for all the estate and interest which at the passing of this Act is vested in Her Majesty, or in the Board of Trade, or the Admiralty, or the Treasury, and shall (subject to the provisions of the order transferring the same) so vest and be held and used, Tenure by Admiralty and Secretary of State of property transferred.

- (1.) If transferred to the Admiralty upon the trusts mentioned in and subject and according to the provisions of the Admiralty Lands and Works Act, 1864, and the enactments amending that Act, as if the same had been purchased under that Act ; and
- (2.) If transferred to the Secretary of State for the War Department upon the trusts mentioned in and subject and according to the provisions of the Defence Act, 1842, and the enactments amending that Act, as if the same had been vested in him under and by virtue of that Act.

27 & 28 Vict. c. 57.

5 & 6 Vict. c. 94.

3. Every Order in Council under this Act shall be published in the London Gazette, and shall be judicially noticed without being specially pleaded.

Publication, &c. of Orders in Council.

Every Order in Council under this Act shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament within thirty days after the making thereof if Parliament is then sitting, and if not, then within thirty days after the then next meeting of Parliament.

4. All such sales, leases, and other dispositions by the Board of Trade, the Admiralty, and the Treasury respectively of lands vested in them or either of them at Alderney, and all such conveyances and assurances of the same, and all such matters and things done by them or either of them in relation to Alderney Harbour, or any works connected therewith, or the said appurtenances, premises, lands, and hereditaments, as have been made or done before the making of any Order in Council under this Act, shall be and the same are hereby declared to be valid and effectual and binding upon all parties.

Confirmation of Acts of Board of Trade, Admiralty, and Treasury previous to Order.

5. In this Act,—

The term “the Secretary of State for the War Department” has the same meaning as in the Defence Act, 1842, and the Acts amending the same.

Definitions. 5 & 6 Vict. c. 94.

The term "the Admiralty" means the Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom, or the Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom.

The term "the Treasury" means the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury.

The term "the Commissioners of Woods" means the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, or either of them.

Short title.

6. This Act may be cited as "The Alderney Harbour (Transfer) Act, 1874."

CHAPTER 93.

An Act to amend the Law relating to Public Health in Ireland. [7th August 1874.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

Preliminary.

Short title.

1. This Act may be cited for all purposes as the Public Health (Ireland) Act, 1874.

Sanitary Authorities.

Urban and rural sanitary districts.

2. From and after the passing of this Act Ireland shall be divided into sanitary districts to be called respectively—

- (1.) Urban sanitary districts; and
- (2.) Rural sanitary districts; and such urban and rural sanitary districts shall respectively be subject to the jurisdiction of local authorities, in this Act called urban sanitary authorities and rural sanitary authorities, invested with the powers in this Act mentioned.

Description of urban sanitary districts and urban sanitary authorities.

3. Urban sanitary districts shall consist of the places in that behalf mentioned in the first column of the table in this section contained, and urban sanitary authorities shall be the several bodies of persons specified in the second column of the said table in relation to the said places respectively.

Urban Sanitary District.	Urban Sanitary Authority.
The City of Dublin - - -	The Right Honourable the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses acting by the Town Council.

Urban Sanitary District.	Urban Sanitary Authority.
Towns corporate, with exception of Dublin	The Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses acting by the Town Council. The Commissioners.
Towns, the population of which according to the last Parliamentary census exceeds six thousand, having Commissioners appointed by virtue of an Act made in the ninth year of the reign of George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to make provision for the lighting, cleansing, and watching of cities and towns corporate and market towns in Ireland in certain cases."
Towns, the population of which according to the last Parliamentary census exceeds six thousand, having Municipal Commissioners under 3 & 4 Vict. c. 108.	The Municipal Commissioners.
Towns, the population of which according to the last Parliamentary census exceeds six thousand, having Town Commissioners under the Towns Improvement (Ireland) Act, 1854 (17 & 18 Vict. c. 103).	The Town Commissioners.
Towns or townships having Commissioners under Local Acts.	The Town or Township Commissioners.

4. The area of every poor law union, with the exception of those portions (if any) of the area which are included in urban sanitary districts, shall form a rural sanitary district, and the guardians of the union shall, as such, be the rural sanitary authority of such district, subject to the following conditions; that is to say,

Description of rural sanitary districts and rural sanitary authorities.

- (1.) No elective guardian of any electoral division belonging to such union and forming or being wholly included within an urban sanitary district shall act or vote in any case in which guardians of such union act or vote in their capacity of members of the rural sanitary authority :
- (2.) Where part of an electoral division belonging to a union forms or is situated in an urban sanitary district, the Local Government Board may, by order, divide such electoral division into separate wards and determine the number of guardians to be elected by such wards respectively, in such manner as to provide for the due representation of the part of the electoral division lying within the rural sanitary district; but until such order has been made the guardian or guardians of such electoral division may act and vote as members of the rural sanitary authority in the same manner as if no part of such electoral division formed part of or was situated in an urban sanitary district :

- (3.) An ex-officio guardian resident in any electoral division, or part thereof, belonging to such union which forms or is situated in an urban sanitary district, shall not act or vote in any case in which guardians of such union act or vote in their capacity of members of the rural sanitary authority unless he is the owner or occupier of property situated in the rural sanitary district of a value sufficient to qualify him as an elective guardian for the union.

Power to alter sanitary districts.

5. The Local Government Board shall have power, by provisional order, to separate from a rural sanitary district any town or district wholly situate therein, the population of which according to the then last Parliamentary census exceeds six thousand, and to constitute it an urban sanitary district, or to include it in any adjoining urban sanitary district, subject as such to all the provisions of this Act affecting urban sanitary districts; and the said Board shall likewise have power, by provisional order, to add any town or township hereby constituted an urban sanitary authority to the rural sanitary district in which it is situate, to be subject thereafter to all provisions of this Act affecting rural sanitary districts. No such provisional order shall be made except upon petition from such town, township, or district, in accordance with the provisions of "The Local Government (Ireland) Act, 1871," as amended by "The Local Government Board (Ireland) Act, 1872," with respect to the incorporation with or separation from any town of any district: Provided always, that the said provisions shall for such purposes be read as if the expression "sanitary authority" were therein substituted for the expression "governing body;" nor shall any such provisional order take effect until confirmed by Parliament in manner prescribed by the said provisions.

First meeting of sanitary authority.

6. The first meeting of a sanitary authority under this Act shall be held within sixty days after the passing of this Act, on such day as may be directed by order of the Local Government Board in each case.

Powers and duties of sanitary authority.

7. Subject to the provisions of this Act, except as herein-after is excepted, and from and after the day appointed for the first meeting of a sanitary authority in pursuance of this Act, there shall be transferred and attach to such sanitary authority, to the exclusion of any other authority which may have previously exercised or been subject to the same, all powers, right, duties, capacities, liabilities, and obligations within such district exerciseable or attaching by and to the sewer authority under the Sewage Utilization Acts, and by and to the nuisance authority under the Nuisances Removal Acts, and by and to the local authority under the Common Lodging Houses Acts, the Artisans and Labourers Dwellings Act, and the Bakehouse Regulation Act, as the said Acts are respectively varied or amended by any Act or any local Act or any provisional order in force within such district, or by and to any of the said authorities under any of such Acts as aforesaid: Provided always, that in any urban sanitary district the urban sanitary authority shall, subject to the provisions of this Act, continue to act in execution of any Act or local Act or provisional order in force within such district immediately before the passing of this Act, and in the execution of which at such time the body by this Act constituted such urban authority was acting; and provided further, that in any rural sanitary district there shall be transferred and attach to the rural sanitary authority, to the exclusion of any other authority which may have previously exercised or been subject to the same, all powers, rights, duties, capacities, liabilities, and obligations with respect to sanitary matters under any Act, local Act, or provisional order in force within such district, or any part of the same, immediately before the passing of this Act; but, save as aforesaid, such Act, local Act, or provisional order shall continue in full force and effect, and shall be carried into execution by the same authority and in the same manner in every respect as if this Act had not been passed. If any question arises as to what are sanitary matters within the meaning of this section, or as to any matter or thing affected by this section, the determination of the Local Government Board on any such question shall be conclusive.

Where the Baths and Washhouses Acts and the Labouring Classes Lodging Houses Acts, or any of them, are in force within the district of any sanitary authority, such authority shall have all powers, rights, duties, capacities, liabilities, and obligations in relation to such Acts exercisable by or attached to the council, town commissioners, or other commissioners or persons acting in the execution of the said Acts, or any of them.

Where the Baths and Washhouses Acts are not in force within the district of any sanitary authority, such sanitary authority may adopt such Acts, and where the Labouring Classes Lodging Houses Acts are not in force within the district of any sanitary authority, such sanitary authority may adopt such Acts.

8. Under the provisions of the Diseases Prevention Act the execution of all powers relating to the treatment of disease, and the establishment and maintenance of hospitals, the conveyance of the sick, the disinfection of clothes or dwellings, and the interment of the dead, created by the said Act or any other Act, or arising out of any order of the Local Government Board, shall vest exclusively in the board of guardians of the union in which the district of the sanitary authority is situate.

tary authority is situate, and the expenses so incurred shall be charged on the poor rates as expenses arising under the Poor Law Acts or the Medical Charities Act, as the case may be.

Transfer of property to sanitary authority, and effect of transfer of property and powers.

9. From and after the day appointed for the first meeting of the sanitary authority of a sanitary district, in pursuance of this Act, all such property, real and personal, including all interest, easements, and rights in, to, and out of property, real and personal (including things in action), as belongs to or is vested in, or would but for this Act have belonged to or been vested in, any authority whose powers, rights, duties, capacities, liabilities, and obligations are transferred to the sanitary authority shall, so far as such property is applicable to and for the purposes of any such powers, rights, duties, liabilities, capacities, or obligations, pass to and vest in the sanitary authority, subject to all debts, liabilities, and obligations exclusively affecting the property so transferred; and where any debts, liabilities, or obligations affect such property together with other property, then subject only to such part of such debts, liabilities, and obligations as shall bear to the whole amount of such debts, liabilities, and obligations the proportion which the property so transferred bears to the whole property affected by such debts, liabilities, and obligations.

All debts, liabilities, and obligations subject to which any such property has been transferred, or which previously to such transfer were incurred by the authority whose powers, rights, duties, liabilities, capacities, and obligations are so transferred in the exercise of such powers and rights, or in the discharge of such duties, or by reason of such liabilities and obligations, may be enforced against the sanitary authority to the same extent and in the same manner as they might have been enforced against the authority from which such transfer has taken place; and such last-mentioned authority shall be deemed to be discharged from such debts, liabilities, and obligations.

All property by this section transferred to a sanitary authority shall be held by it upon trust for the district or several places respectively within its jurisdiction to which such property belonged, or for the benefit of which such property was held previously to its transfer.

Sanitary officers and superintendent officers of health.

10. Every medical officer of a dispensary district shall be a sanitary officer for such district, or for such part thereof as he shall personally be in charge of, with such additional salary as the sanitary authority thereof may determine, with the approval of the Local Government Board; and every sanitary authority, whether urban or rural, shall appoint such other sanitary officers, including a medical superintendent officer of health when deemed necessary, as the Local Government Board shall in each case direct, with such salaries or additional salaries as the said sanitary authority shall determine, with the approval of the Local Government Board; and the said Board shall assign to the dispensary medical officers, and to the other sanitary officers, if any, and to the medical superintendent officer of health, if such an officer be appointed for the sanitary district, their respective duties and functions in the discovery or inspection or removal of nuisances, in the supply of pure water, in the making or repairing of sewers and drains, or in generally superintending the execution of the sanitary laws within the district.

Every such salary or additional salary so determined or approved shall be payable from such local fund as the Local Government Board shall indicate as properly chargeable therewith, and such part thereof as Parliament shall from time to time determine shall be recouped to such local fund out of moneys to be voted by Parliament; and the Local Government Board shall have the same powers with regard to the qualification, appointment, duties, regulation of salary, and tenure of office of every sanitary officer as they have in the case of the medical officer of a dispensary district: Provided, with regard to salaries or additional salaries, whereof any portion is to be recouped to any local fund from moneys voted by Parliament, the amount of any new salary, and the proportion between any existing salary and the addition thereto, shall be regulated according to a scale to be approved by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury.

11. Inspectors of the Local Government Board may attend any meetings of sanitary authorities, or of committees of sanitary authorities, during the transaction of business arising under any of the provisions of the Sanitary Acts; and such inspectors shall, for the purposes of any inquiry directed by the said Local Government Board, in relation to witnesses and their examination, the production of papers and accounts, the inspection of places and matters required to be inspected, have for the purposes of the Sanitary Acts or Burial Grounds Acts or any of the said Acts similar powers to those which inspectors have under the Poor Law Acts and under the Medical Charities Act for the purposes of those Acts.

Powers of inspectors of Local Government Board.

12. All expenses incurred or payable by an urban sanitary authority under the Sanitary Acts shall, notwithstanding anything in the said Acts or any of them to the contrary, be defrayed as follows; that is to say,

Expenses of urban sanitary authority.

- (1.) In the case of the council of a borough, out of the borough fund or borough rate:
- (2.) In the case of an urban sanitary authority being commissioners under any of the Acts specified in the first column of the table contained in section three or of any Local Act, out of any rate leviable by them as such commissioners throughout the whole of their district:

Provided that where an urban sanitary authority had before the passing of this Act power to levy throughout the whole of its district a rate or rates for paving, sewerage, or other sanitary purposes, all expenses incurred by such authority in the performance of its duties under the Sanitary Acts shall be defrayed out of such rate or rates, except where at the time of the passing of this Act any such expenses were chargeable upon the borough fund or borough rate, in which case such expenses shall continue so chargeable: Provided also, that if application be made to the Local Government Board whereby it shall be alleged that it would be inequitable or inconvenient in the district of any urban sanitary authority that the said expenses should be borne as last aforesaid, the said Board may, after inquiry, by a provisional order, alter the incidence of such charge in respect of the whole or some of the expenditure referred to, as to them shall appear to be fair and equitable.

Expenses of rural sanitary authority.

13. The expenses incurred by a rural sanitary authority under the Sanitary Acts shall be divided into general expenses and special expenses.

General expenses, other than those chargeable upon owners and occupiers under the Sanitary Acts, shall be the expenses of the establishment and officers of the sanitary authority, and all other expenses not determined by this Act or the order of the Local Government Board to be special expenses.

Special expenses shall be the expenses of the construction, maintenance, and cleansing of sewers in any contributory place within the district, the providing a supply of water to any such place, the providing, repairing, and cleansing public wells, the lighting where duly authorised, the charges or expenses arising out of or incidental to the possession of property transferred to the rural sanitary authority in trust for any district or contributory place, and all other expenses incurred or payable by the sanitary authority in or in respect of any contributory place within the district, and determined by the order of the Local Government Board to be special expenses.

When the rural sanitary authority makes any sewers or provides any water supply or executes any other work under the Sanitary Acts for the common benefit of any two or more contributory places within its district, it may apportion the expense of constructing any such work and of maintaining the same, in such proportions as it thinks just, between such contributory places; and any expense so apportioned to any such contributory place shall be deemed to be special expenses legally incurred in respect of such contributory place.

Ten or more ratepayers, or any number of persons liable to be rated to one fifth part of the whole rate, of any contributory place, if aggrieved by any such apportionment, may send or deliver a memorial to the Local Government Board stating their grounds of complaint, and the said Board may, after due inquiry, make such order in the matter as to it may seem equitable, and the order so made shall be binding and conclusive upon all parties concerned.

General expenses shall be payable out of a common fund to be raised out of the poor rate of the electoral divisions or parts thereof in the district according to the rateable value of each electoral division or part thereof in manner hereinafter mentioned.

Special expenses shall be a separate charge on some contributory place or places.

The following areas situated in a rural sanitary district shall be contributory places for the purposes of this Act; that is to say,

- (1.) The dispensary district :
- (2.) The electoral division :
- (3.) The townland :

Provided that the Local Government Board shall have power to determine on what area of charge being a contributory place, or consisting of contributory places, any special expenses shall be chargeable, whether incurred after the passing of this Act or still due in respect of works executed before the passing of this Act.

14. For the purpose of obtaining payment for special expenses from the several contributory places within its district the board of guardians, being the rural sanitary authority, shall levy the same by a special poundage rate, to be added to the poor rate on such contributory places, and to be collected therewith by the collectors of the poor rate, and lodged to the credit of the guardians with the treasurer of the union; and the expenditure thereof shall be brought to account in such form and manner as the Local Government Board shall from time to time by any general order direct; and if not otherwise directed by such general order, the sums levied by such special poundage and placed to the credit of the board of guardians shall be applied by them in discharge of the special expenses incurred as aforesaid on account of such contributory places respectively.

Mode of raising contributions in rural sanitary district.

15. Every sanitary authority being a port nuisance authority under the provisions of an Act passed in the thirty-seventh year of Her Majesty, entitled "An Act to amend the Sanitary Act, 1866, so far as the same relates to the nuisance authorities of ports in Ireland," shall, with the consent in writing of the Local Government Board, be empowered to purchase, hire, or erect any building either within or without the district of such sanitary authority for the purpose of an hospital for the reception and treatment of persons affected by dangerous contagious disease, or to purchase land either within or without such district for the purpose of erecting the same, and for these purposes the Lands Clauses Acts are incorporated herewith: Provided always, that for the purposes of such incorporation the terms "special Act" and "promoters of the undertaking" in the Lands Clauses Acts shall be construed to mean respectively the consent in writing of the Local Government Board, and any sanitary authority being such a port nuisance authority as aforesaid.

Compulsory powers to purchase land for hospitals.

Incorporation of certain provisions of Lands Clauses Consolidation Act with Burial Grounds Act.

16. Whereas by the Burial Grounds (Ireland) Act, 1856, section eighteen, it is provided that the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, excepting, among other provisions, the provisions of that Act "with respect to the purchase and "taking of lands otherwise than by agreement," shall be incorporated with the said Act, and it is expedient that those provisions of the Lands Clauses Acts should be incorporated with the said Burial Grounds Act: Be it enacted, that from and after the passing of this Act the provisions of the Lands Clauses Acts "with respect to the purchase "and taking of lands otherwise than by agreement" shall be incorporated with the said Acts, and they are hereby incorporated therewith.

Provided always, that before putting in force any of the powers of the Lands Clauses Acts with respect to the purchase of lands otherwise than by agreement, any burial board shall do all acts, matters, and things, and proceed in manner prescribed by section four of the Local Government (Ireland) Act, 1871, in like manner in every respect as if such burial board were a governing body desiring to put the said provisions of the Lands Clauses Acts in force; and for such purposes the said section four is incorporated herewith, and for the purposes of such incorporation the terms "governing body" and "chief secretary" in the said section shall be construed to mean respectively "burial board" and "Local Government Board."

Justice not incapable to act in cases under Burial Grounds Acts by being member of burial board or liable to rate.

17. No justice of the peace shall be deemed incapable of acting as such in cases under the Burial Grounds Acts, by reason of his being a member of any body thereby declared to be the burial board to execute the said Acts, or by reason of his being a contributor or liable to contribute to any rate or fund out of which it is by the said Acts provided that all charges and expenses incurred in the execution of the said Acts, and not recovered as thereby provided, shall be defrayed.

Inquiries by board under 19 & 20 Vict. c. 98.

18. When and so often as representation with reference to a burial ground or burials shall have been made to the Local Government Board under the fifth section of the Burial Grounds (Ireland) Act, 1856, and the Local Government Board (Ireland) Act, 1872, inquiry may be directed by the Local Government Board in the place or district referred to therein, or otherwise, as may be thought fit, as to the genuineness of such representation, and in respect of the several matters relating thereto, after notice shall have been given as provided by said Act, and of the time, place, and subject of the inquiry; and it shall be lawful for one of the inspectors of the said Board, or other person appointed in that behalf by the Board to hold such inquiry; and for the purposes of such and all other inquiries which the said Board shall see fit to direct, the several inspectors, or other persons appointed by the Board, shall have all and every the powers and authorities vested in or conferred on poor law inspectors by the nineteenth section of the Act of the tenth and eleventh years of the reign of Her present Majesty, chapter ninety; and upon receipt of the report of such inspector or other person as to the result of such inquiry, and of the evidence taken thereon, it shall be lawful for the said Board to take the same and the matter of such representation into consideration, and to make such order in relation thereto as to them may seem meet.

The twentieth section of the Act of the tenth and eleventh years of the reign of Her present Majesty, chapter ninety, is hereby incorporated with this section.

Union of Districts.

19. Where it appears to the Local Government Board, on the application of the sanitary authorities of any sanitary districts, or of any of such authorities, and after due inquiry, that it would be for the advantage of such sanitary districts, or any of them, or any parts thereof, or of any contributory places in any rural sanitary district or districts, to be formed into a united district for all or any of the purposes following; that is to say,

- (1.) The procuring a common supply of water; or
 - (2.) The making a main sewer or carrying into effect a system of sewerage for the use of all such districts or contributory places; or
 - (3.) For any other purposes of the Sanitary Acts or Burial Grounds Acts, or of any of the said Acts,
- the said Local Government Board may, by provisional order, form such districts or contributory places into a united district.

20. The following enactments shall take effect in relation to making a provisional order forming a united district; that is to say,

- (1.) Notice of the provisional order shall be published in some newspaper circulating in the district to which it relates, and in such other manner as the Local Government Board may direct:
- (2.) All costs, charges, and expenses of and incidental to the formation of a united district shall, in the event of the united district being formed, be a first charge on the rates leviable in the united district in pursuance of this Act :

Formation of united district.

Mode of forming united district.

- (3.) The making of a provisional order shall be primâ facie evidence that all the requirements of this Act in respect of proceedings required to be taken previously to the making of such provisional order have been complied with.

Governing body of united district.

21. The governing body of a united district shall be a joint board consisting of such ex-officio members and of such number of elective members as the Local Government Board may, by the provisional order forming the district, determine.

A joint board shall be a body corporate by such name as may be determined by the provisional order, having a perpetual succession and a common seal, with power to acquire and hold lands for the purposes of its constitution without any license in mortmain.

No act or proceeding of a joint board shall be questioned on account of any vacancy or vacancies therein.

No defect in the qualification or election of any person or persons acting as a member or members of a joint board shall be deemed to vitiate any proceedings of such board in which he or they has or have taken part.

Any minute made of proceedings at a meeting of a joint board, if signed either at the meeting at which such proceedings took place or at the next ensuing meeting by any person purporting for the time being to be the chairman of the board, shall be receivable in evidence of such proceedings in all legal proceedings without further proof, and until the contrary is proved every meeting of a joint board where minutes have been so made of the proceedings shall be deemed to have been duly convened and held and all the members thereof to have been duly qualified.

No member of a joint board by being party to or executing in his capacity of member any contract or other instrument on behalf of the board, or otherwise exercising any of the powers given to the board, shall be subject individually to any action, suit, trial, prosecution, or other legal proceeding ; and a joint board may apply any moneys from time to time coming into its hands for the purpose of paying any costs of legal proceedings or damages it may incur in the exercise of the powers granted to it : Provided that nothing in this section shall exempt any member of a joint board from liability to be surcharged with the amount of any payment which may be disallowed by the auditor in the accounts of such joint board, and which such member authorised or joined in authorising.

Regulation as to constitution of joint board.

22. The provisional order forming a united district under the Act shall define the purposes for which such united dis-strict is formed, and the powers, rights, duties, capacities liabilities, and obligations under the Sanitary Acts which the joint board is authorised to exercise or perform or is made subject to, and shall contain regulations as to the qualification and mode of election of elective members of the joint board, as to their continuance in office, as to casual vacancies in the joint board, as to its meetings and officers, and any other matter or thing, including the adjustment of present and future liabilities and property, with respect to which the Local Government Board may think fit to make any regulations for the better carrying into effect the provisions of this Act with respect to united districts.

Upon the constitution of a joint board the sanitary authorities having jurisdiction in the component districts or contributory places shall cease to exercise therein any powers, or to perform any duties, or to be subject to any liabilities or obligations which the joint board is authorised to exercise or perform or is made subject to; nevertheless the said joint board may delegate to the sanitary authority of any component district the exercise of any of its powers for the performance of any of its duties, with the approval of the Local Government Board.

23. Any expenses incurred by a joint board in pursuance of this Act, unless otherwise determined by the provisional order, shall be defrayed out of a common fund to be contributed by the component districts or contributory places in proportion to the rateable value of the property in each district or contributory place, such value to be ascertained according to the valuation list in force for the time being.

Expenses incurred by joint board, how to be defrayed.

A joint board may borrow and take up at interest on the credit of such common fund any sums of money necessary for defraying any such expenses, subject to the regulations of the Local Government (Ireland) Act, 1871, with respect to borrowing under that Act, as the same are amended by this Act.

24. For the purpose of obtaining payment from component districts of the sums to be contributed by them the joint board shall issue its precept to the sanitary authority of each component district stating the sum to be contributed by it and requiring such authority, within a time limited by the precept, to pay the sums therein mentioned to the joint board or to such person as the joint board may direct.

Payment of contributions to joint board.

Any sum mentioned in a precept addressed by a joint board to a sanitary authority as aforesaid shall be a debt due from it, and may be recovered accordingly; such contribution, in the case of a rural sanitary authority, being deemed to be general expenses.

For the purpose of obtaining payment from contributory places of the sums to be contributed by them, the joint board shall have the same powers of issuing precepts and of recovering the amounts named therein as if such contributory places formed a rural sanitary district and the joint board were the sanitary authority thereof.

Use of sewer of subjacent district for outfall of district above it.

25. A sanitary authority unto whose district the district of another sanitary authority is subjacent may, by agreement with the last-mentioned authority and with the sanction of the Local Government Board given on the application of the first-named authority, after public inquiry, if the said Local Government Board think such inquiry necessary, cause the sewers of its district to communicate for the purpose of outfall with the sewers of the subjacent district, and for the purpose of reception, disinfection, distribution, and disposal of the sewage of such first-named authority by the authority of the subjacent district, or for all, any, or either of those purposes, upon such terms as to payment or otherwise, in such manner as to making and maintaining the outfall, and with and subject to such conditions, precautions, and restrictions as shall be agreed upon between the sanitary authorities, or in case of dispute shall be settled by the Local Government Board: Provided that so far as practicable storm waters shall be prevented from flowing from the sewers of the higher into the sewers of the subjacent district, and that the sewage of other districts or places shall not be permitted by the sanitary authority of the higher district to pass into their sewers so as to be discharged through such outfall into the sewers of the subjacent district without the consent of such last-mentioned district; and all expenses incurred in pursuance of this section by the said sanitary authorities, or either of them, shall be deemed to be expenses incurred by them respectively in performance of their duties under the Sanitary Acts, and be respectively payable accordingly out of the rates out of which such expenses are by this Act made payable, or out of moneys duly borrowed on the credit of such rates.

Repeal of Acts.

Repeal of Local Acts.

26. The Local Government Board may, on the application of the sanitary authority of any district, by provisional order wholly or partially repeal, alter, or amend any Local Acts, other than Acts for the conservancy of rivers, in force in such district, and not conferring powers or privileges upon corporations, companies, undertakers, or individuals for their own pecuniary benefit, which relate to the same subject matters as the Sanitary Acts, and may in like manner extend the provisions of any such Local Act beyond the boundaries of the district comprised therein, or diminish the area to which any such Local Act shall apply.

Provisions as to the Acquisition of Property, &c.

27. Subject to the provisions of this Act, the powers of the Lands Clauses Acts may, where the same may be put in force with respect to the taking of land under the Sanitary Acts, be applied to all easements and rights in, over, under, or upon land, whether situated within or without the district of the sanitary authority.

Extension of Lands Clauses Acts to easements and rights.

28. Subject to the provisions of this Act and of the Sanitary Acts, any sanitary authority may buy up any water mill, dam, or weir which interferes with the proper drainage of or the supply of water to its district, and may, for the purpose of supplying its district with water for drinking and domestic purposes, purchase either within or without its district any land covered with water, or any water or right to take or convey water; and for the purpose of buying up any of the properties aforesaid, the Lands Clauses Acts shall be incorporated with this section: Provided always, that before putting in force any of the powers of the Lands Clauses Acts with respect to the purchase of lands otherwise than by agreement for the purposes aforesaid, a sanitary authority shall do all acts, matters, and things, and proceed in manner prescribed by section four of the Local Government (Ireland) Act, 1871, in like manner in every respect as would be necessary in the case of a governing body desiring to put the said provisions of the Lands Clauses Acts in force; and for such purposes the said section four is incorporated herewith, and for the purposes of such incorporation the terms "governing body" and "chief secretary" in the said section shall be construed to mean respectively "sanitary authority" and "Local Government Board."

Power to purchase water mills, dams, and weirs.

29. Nothing in this Act contained shall enable any sanitary authority to injuriously affect the navigation of any river or canal, or to divert or diminish any supply of water of right belonging to any such river or canal, or to injuriously affect the supply, quality, or fall of water contained in any reservoir or stream, or any feeders of such reservoir or stream, belonging to or supplying any waterwork established by Act of Parliament, or in cases where any company or individual are entitled for their own benefit to the use of such reservoir or stream, or to the supply of water contained in such feeders, without the consent in writing of the company or corporation in whom such waterworks may be vested, or of the parties so entitled to the use of such reservoirs, streams, and feeders, and also of the owners thereof in cases where the owners and parties so entitled are not the same person.

Act not to affect navigation of rivers or canals. Saving as to rights.

30. The notices which, by the fourth section of the Local Government (Ireland) Act, 1871, are required to be given in [No. 42. Price 2d.] T t

Notices to owners and occupiers may be given in other months than November and December.

the months of November and December, may be given in the months of September and October, or of October and November, but no inquiry preliminary to the provisional order to which such notices refer shall be held in either of such two last-mentioned cases until the expiration of one month from the end of the second of the two months in which the notices are given.

Urban sanitary authority may let land or premises.

31. Any urban sanitary authority not heretofore empowered to do so, may let temporarily or for a term of years, with the consent of the Local Government Board, any land or premises which they may possess, as and when they can conveniently spare the same.

Miscellaneous.

Compensation to officers in certain cases.

32. If any officer of any body by this Act constituted the sanitary authority of any district is, by or in pursuance of this Act or of any provisional order made under the authority of this Act, removed from his office or deprived of the whole or part of the emoluments of his office, and is not employed in an office of equal value, and with equal privileges, by such sanitary authority, the Local Government Board may by order award to such officer such compensation as the said Board may think just; and such compensation may be by way of annuity or otherwise, and shall be paid by the authority of the sanitary district in which such officer held his office out of the rates applicable to sanitary purposes within that district.

As to consent of Local Government Board required in certain cases.

33. Where in any Local Acts the consent, sanction, or confirmation of the Lord Lieutenant, the chief secretary of the Lord Lieutenant, or the Privy Council is required with respect to the borrowing of any money, to the giving effect to any byelaws, or to the appointment of any officer for sanitary purposes, the consent, sanction, or confirmation of the Local Government Board shall, after the passing of this Act, be required instead of that of the authorities above named.

The consent of the Local Government Board, and not that of the Treasury, shall be required to the borrowing of money for the purposes of the Baths and Washhouses Acts.

The powers vested in or exercisable by one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State under the Markets and Fairs Clauses Act, 1847, so far as the same relate to Ireland, are hereby transferred to the Local Government Board, and may in Ireland be exercised by the Local Government Board.

The approval of the Local Government Board, and not that of the Lord Lieutenant, shall be required for the appointment and removal of analysts under the Act of the session of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of the reign of Her Majesty, chapter eighty-four, as amended by the Act of the session of the thirty-fifth and thirty-sixth years of the reign of Her Majesty, chapter seventy-four.

If any question arises as to what are sanitary purposes within the meaning of this section, the determination of the Local Government Board on such question shall be conclusive.

34. It shall be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant, by Order in Council, at any time before the first day of January one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five, to direct that the powers and duties of the Board of Trade under the "Alkali Act, 1863," and any Act amending the same, shall be transferred to the Local Government Board; and from and after the date of such order, or if no such order shall be made then from and after the said first day of January one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five, the powers and duties of the Board of Trade under the said Acts shall be transferred to and be exercisable and performed in Ireland by the Local Government Board; and "the Local Government Board for Ireland" shall be deemed to be substituted for "the Board of Trade" wherever the latter expression occurs in the said Acts.

Transfer of powers and duties of Board of Trade under Alkali Act, 1863, to Local Government Board.

35. Upon the application of any authority from whom or to whom any powers, rights, duties, capacities, liabilities, obligations, and property, or any of them, are transferred or alleged or claimed to be transferred in pursuance of this Act, upon the passing of this Act, or at any time thereafter by the operation of this Act, or of any provisional order made under the authority of this Act, or of any person affected by such transfer, the Local Government Board may by order settle any doubt or difference and adjust any accounts arising out of or incidental to such powers, rights, duties, capacities, liabilities, obligations, or property, or to the transfer thereof, and direct the parties by whom and to whom any moneys found to be due are to be paid, and the mode of raising such moneys; and any provisions contained in any order so made shall be deemed to have been made in pursuance of and to be within the powers conferred by this section, subject to this proviso, that where any such order directs any rate to be made or other act or thing to be done which the party required to make or do would not, apart from the provisions of this Act, have been enabled to make or do by law, such order shall be provisional only until it has been confirmed by Parliament.

Settlement of differences arising out of transfer of powers or property to sanitary authority.

36. Where, under the directions of the Local Government Board, the chief officer of police in any place institutes proceedings under the sixteenth section of the Sanitary Act, 1866, he shall be entitled to recover from the sanitary authority in default all such expenses in and about such proceedings as he may incur, and as shall not be paid by the party proceeded against: Provided always, that in the construction of the said Act as amended hereby, the term chief officer of police shall mean in any place within the police district of Dublin Metropolis, either of the commissioners of police for the said district, and in any place elsewhere the sub-inspector of the Royal Irish Constabulary in whose district such place is situate.

Expenses of police officer acting under 29 & 30 Vict. c. 90. s. 16. provided for.

Order against a defaulting sanitary authority may be enforced by mandamus.

37. When the Local Government Board shall have at any time made any order under the forty-ninth section of the Sanitary Act, 1866, limiting the time for the performance by any sanitary authority of its duty, such order may be enforced by writ of mandamus, notwithstanding the provision in the said section contained for the performance of the duty in the event of the continued default of the sanitary authority.

Payments to members of sanitary authority as counsel illegal.

38. Any payment to any member of a sanitary authority or burial board for acting as council, solicitor, attorney, or agent for such authority or board shall be illegal; and if any member of any such authority or board shall so act, or shall accept or hold any office or place of profit under such authority or board of which he is a member or shall in any manner directly or indirectly be concerned in any bargain or contract entered into by or on behalf of such authority or board, or participate in the profits thereof, then and in every such case such person shall cease to be a member of such authority or board, and his office as such shall thereupon become vacant.

Duty of urban authority to cleanse streets, privies, and ashpits.

39. Every urban sanitary authority shall, when the Local Government Board by order so direct, make due provision for the proper cleansing of streets which such authority is obliged to maintain and repair, the removal of house refuse from premises, and the cleansing of earth closets, privies, ashpits, and cesspools within its district.

Penalty on neglect of sanitary authority to cleanse privies or ashpits.

If any sanitary authority having made such provision fail, without reasonable excuse, after notice in writing from the occupier of any house situated in such district requiring such authority to remove any house refuse, or to cleanse any earth closet, privy, cesspool, or ashpit belonging to such house, or used by the inmates or occupiers thereof, to cause the same to be removed or cleansed, as the case may be, within seven days, the sanitary authority shall on summary conviction be liable to pay to the occupier of such house a penalty not exceeding five shillings for every day during which such default continues after the expiration of the said period of seven days.

Power of raising money on credit of rates.

40. Any sanitary authority may, for the purpose of defraying any costs, charges, and expenses incurred or to be incurred by it in the performance of its duties under the Sanitary Acts, borrow and take up at interest any sums of money necessary for defraying any such costs, charges, and expenses, subject to the regulations in the Sanitary Acts.

An urban sanitary authority may borrow and take up at interest such money on the credit of all or any rates or rate out of which it is authorised by the Sanitary Acts to pay any expenses incurred by it for sanitary purposes, and may mortgage any such rate or rates to the persons by or on behalf of whom such money is advanced for securing the repayment to them of the sums borrowed, with interest thereon.

A rural sanitary authority may borrow and take up at interest such money, if intended to be applied to purposes constituting the general expenses of such authority, on the credit of the common fund out of which such expenses are payable, and if intended to be applied to purposes constituting the special expenses of such authority, on the credit of any rate or rates out of which such expenses are payable, and may mortgage any such rate or rates to the persons by or on behalf of whom such money is advanced for securing the repayment to them of the sums borrowed, with interest thereon.

The clauses of the Commissioners Clauses Act, 1847, with respect to the mortgages to be executed by the commissioners shall, so far as the same are not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, be incorporated with this Act; and in the construction of that Act "the special Act" shall mean this Act; "the commissioners" shall mean any authority authorised to borrow by this Act; "the clerk of the commissioners" shall include any officer appointed for the purpose by any such authority.

The mortgagees or assignees of any mortgage made in pursuance of this Act may enforce payment of the arrears of principal and interest due to them by the appointment of a receiver.

41. Where any sanitary authority or joint board is possessed of any land, works, or other property in pursuance and for the purposes of the Sewage Utilization Act, 1867, such authority or joint board may borrow any moneys on the credit of such lands, works, or other property, and may mortgage such lands, works, or other property to any person advancing such moneys, in the same manner in all respects as if such sanitary authority or joint board were the absolute owner, both at law and in equity, of the lands, works, or other property so mortgaged. The moneys so borrowed shall be applied for purposes for which moneys may be borrowed under the Sanitary Acts; but it shall not be in any way incumbent on the mortgagees to see to the application of such moneys, nor shall they be responsible for any misapplication thereof.

Power of raising money on credit of sewage land and plant.

The powers of borrowing conferred by this section shall, where the sums borrowed do not exceed three fourths of the purchase money of such lands (but not otherwise), be deemed to be distinct from and in addition to the general borrowing powers conferred on a sanitary authority or joint board by the Sanitary Acts. The sanitary authority or joint board may pay out of any rates leviable by it for sanitary purposes the interest on any moneys borrowed by such authority or joint board in pursuance of this section.

Limit of rating under Local Acts not to apply to expenses for sanitary purposes.

42. Any limit imposed on or in respect of any rate by any Local Act of Parliament shall not apply to any rate required to be levied for the purpose of defraying any expenses incurred by a sanitary authority for sanitary purposes.

Commissioners of Public Works in Ireland may lend to sanitary authority on security of rates.

43. The Commissioners of Public Works in Ireland may, with the consent of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, on the recommendation of the Local Government Board, make any loan to any sanitary authority, for such objects as the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury may deem to be sanitary improvements, in pursuance of any powers of borrowing conferred by the Sanitary Acts, whether for works already executed or yet to be executed; such loan to be repaid within a period not exceeding thirty or fifty years as provided by those Acts, and to bear interest at the rate of three and a half per centum per annum or such other rates as may, in the judgment of the said Commissioners, be necessary in order to enable the loan to be made without loss to the Exchequer, on the security of any fund or rate applicable to sanitary purposes, and without requiring any further or other security.

Provided as follows:

- (1.) That in determining the time when a loan under this section shall be repayable the Commissioners of Public Works in Ireland shall have regard to the probable duration and continuing utility of the works in respect of which the same is required:
- (2.) That in the case of any loan already made to any sanitary authority in pursuance of any powers conferred by the Sanitary Acts the Commissioners of Public Works in Ireland may reduce the interest payable thereon to the rate of not less than three and a half per centum per annum:
- (3.) That this section shall not extend to any loan under "The Sanitary Loans Act, 1869," required for the purpose of defraying the expenses incurred or to be incurred by the Local Government Board in the performance of the duty of a defaulting local authority after the passing of this Act.

Amendment of s. 60 of 17 & 18 Vict. c. 103.

44. Where in any town in which the Towns Improvement (Ireland) Act, 1854, is in force the provisions of that Act with respect to water have been adopted, the amount of any assessment under section sixty of the said Act may, notwithstanding the limitations in the said section contained, amount to but shall not exceed the rate of two shillings in the pound.

Amendment of 84 & 85 Vict. c. 109, regarding loans.

45. The twenty-eighth section of the Local Government (Ireland) Act, 1871, shall extend to re-borrowing for the purpose of discharging previous loans, as well as to original loans, and be amended so that the following provision shall be substituted for that contained in the paragraph No. 3; namely,

The money so borrowed shall not at any time exceed, with the balances of all the outstanding loans of the sanitary authority under the Sanitary Acts, in the whole, twice the net annual value of the premises assessable within the district in respect of which such money may be borrowed, and the time for which the money may be borrowed shall not exceed sixty years, instead of thirty years as in the said section is declared:

Provided that where the proposed loan with such balances would exceed the net annual value of such premises the Local Government Board shall not give their sanction to the loan until a local inquiry shall have been held by one of their inspectors, and his report of the result of such inquiry shall have been received by them :

Provided also, that where a loan is effected to pay off an existing loan, the time for repayment shall not extend beyond the unexpired term of the period for which the original loan was contracted, unless with the sanction of the Local Government Board, and shall in no case be extended beyond the period of sixty years from the date of the original borrowing.

The sixth section of the Local Government (Ireland) Act, 1871, and the eighth section of the Local Government Board (Ireland) Act, 1872, are hereby repealed, except so far as the same may apply to any proceedings commenced, but not completed at the passing of this Act.

46. The Local Government Board shall not make any provisional order under this Act unless public notice shall have been previously given by advertisement in two successive weeks in some newspaper published or circulating in the district to which such provisional order relates, and after hearing any objections which may be made thereto by any persons affected thereby, and in cases where the subject matter is one to which a local inquiry is applicable, until it has made, by one of its inspectors, a local inquiry of which public notice has been given and at which all persons interested have been permitted to attend and make objections.

Confirmation of provisional orders by Parliament.

The Local Government Board may submit to Parliament for confirmation any provisional order made by it in pursuance of this Act, but any such provisional order shall be of no force whatever unless and until it is confirmed by Parliament. If while the Bill confirming such order is pending in either House of Parliament a petition is presented against any provisional order comprised therein, the Bill, so far as it relates to such order, may be referred to a select committee, and the petitioners shall be allowed to appear and oppose as in the case of a Bill for a special Act.

Any Act confirming any provisional order issued in pursuance of the Sanitary Acts, or any of them, may be repealed, altered, or amended by any provisional order made by the Local Government Board and duly confirmed by Parliament. The Local Government Board may revoke, either wholly or partially, any provisional order made by them before the same is confirmed by Parliament; but such revocation shall not be made whilst the Bill confirming the order is pending in either House of Parliament.

Costs of provisional orders.

47. The reasonable costs of any sanitary authority in respect of provisional orders made in pursuance of the Sanitary Acts, or any of such Acts, and of the inquiry preliminary thereto, as sanctioned by the Local Government Board, whether in promoting or opposing the same, shall be deemed to be expenses properly incurred for sanitary purposes by the sanitary authority interested in or affected by such provisional orders, and such costs shall be paid accordingly; and if thought expedient by the Local Government Board the sanitary authority may contract a loan for the purpose of defraying such costs.

Orders of the Local Government Board, how to be published.

48. Every order of the Local Government Board under the Sanitary Acts (unless otherwise prescribed by the said Acts) shall be published in such manner as that Board may direct; and every general order of the Local Government Board made in pursuance of the Poor Law Acts shall be published in the Dublin Gazette, and when so published shall take effect in like manner and shall be of as much force and validity as any general order made and sent in the manner prescribed by the last-mentioned Acts, and no further proceeding shall be necessary in such behalf; and as regards any single order of the said Board made in pursuance of the said last-mentioned Acts it shall not be necessary henceforth to send a copy thereof to the clerk to the justices of the petty sessions.

Audit of accounts.

49. The accounts of every sanitary authority shall be made up in such form and to such day or days in every year as may be appointed by the Local Government Board in each case. The accounts of a sanitary authority shall be audited by such auditor of the accounts relating to the relief of the poor as the Local Government Board shall appoint for the purpose. An auditor shall, with respect to the accounts of sanitary authorities under this section, have the like powers, and be subject to the like obligations in every respect, as in case of the audit under the Local Government (Ireland) Act, 1871, as amended by the Local Government Board (Ireland) Act, 1872, and any person aggrieved by the decision of the auditor shall have the like rights and remedies as in the case of such last-mentioned audit.

Fourteen days notice of any audit under the said Acts or this Act shall be sufficient, anything in any Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

50. Every sanitary authority shall have power to direct the destruction of any bedding, clothing, or other articles which have been exposed to infection from any dangerous infectious disorder, and to give compensation for the same.

Sanitary authority may order destruction of infectious bedding, &c.

51. The Local Government Board may, at its discretion, by notice to be published in the Dublin Gazette, declare the enactment contained in section thirty-five of the Sanitary Act, 1866, to be in force in the district of any sanitary authority, notwithstanding the restrictions in the said section contained; and from and after the publication of such notice the sanitary authority named therein shall be empowered to make regulations in respect of the matters in that section mentioned, but such regulations shall not be of any validity unless and until they are confirmed by the Local Government Board.

Regulations as to lodgings in every sanitary district.

Regulations made under the said section may extend to ventilation of rooms, paving and drainage of premises, and to notices to be given and precautions to be taken in case of any infectious or contagious disease.

52. The keeper of every common lodging house which is registered under the Common Lodging Houses Acts, and the owner or occupier of every slaughter-house causing the same to be licensed or registered, as the case may be, under the Sanitary Acts, shall, when required to do so by the sanitary authority registering or licensing the same, cause a notice with the words "Registered Lodging House," or "Licensed or Registered Slaughter-house," as the case may be, to be affixed on some conspicuous place on the outside of the premises where the same can be seen by any inspector or officer of the sanitary authority, Notices of common lodging houses and slaughter-house to be affixed on premises.

Such notice shall be affixed within one month after the registration or license, as the case may be, and shall be continued undefaced and legible so long as the premises are used for the purpose.

Every person who shall make default in this respect, or shall neglect or refuse to affix or renew such notice after requisition in writing from the sanitary authority, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding five pounds for every offence and of ten shillings for every day that the neglect shall continue after conviction.

53. If it shall be represented to any sanitary authority that within their district the water in any well, public or private, or supplied from any public pump, is so polluted as to be injurious to health, such authority may apply to any justices having jurisdiction within their district, in petty sessions assembled, for an order to remedy the same, and thereupon such justices shall summon the person occupying the premises to which the well belongs, if it be private, and, as regards any public well or pump, such person (if any) as shall be alleged in the application to be interested in the same, and shall either dismiss the application or make such an order in the case, by directing the well or pump to be permanently or temporarily closed, or the water to be used for certain purposes only, or providing otherwise, as shall appear to them to be requisite to prevent injury to the health of persons drinking the water.

For the purposes of such inquiry, the said justices may cause the water to be analysed at the cost of the sanitary authority applying.

And all the expenses incurred by such authority in and about the procuring of this order, and in carrying it into execution, shall be charged upon the funds applicable to their general expenditure, but, in the case of a rural sanitary authority, shall be deemed to be special expenses within the meaning of the Sanitary Acts.

Provided that where the order is made in respect of any private well, any person aggrieved thereby may appeal against the same in the manner provided by the ninety-third section of the Towns Improvement (Ireland) Act, 1854, and with the same incidents and consequences.

Where the justices dismiss the application, they may, if they think fit, award such costs to the person summoned as to them shall appear to be reasonable.

Hospital when to be deemed within district.

54. For the purposes of the twenty-sixth section of the Sanitary Act, 1866, every hospital or place for the reception of the sick which shall be declared by an order of the Local Government Board to be situated within a convenient distance of the district of any sanitary authority for the purposes of that section shall be deemed to be within the district of such sanitary authority.

Where a justice shall make an order under that section for the removal of a sick person to a hospital or other place, he shall address it to such police or other officer as he shall consider expedient; and every person wilfully disobeying the order, or obstructing the execution of the same, shall be guilty of an offence punishable on summary conviction before two justices, and be liable to a penalty not exceeding ten pounds.

Extension of right of complaint under Nuisances Removal Acts
(1873).

55. The right of complaint given by the thirteenth section of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of the reign of Her Majesty, chapter seventy-seven, shall extend to nuisances in any place, whether on private or public premises, and may be exercised by any inhabitant in such place, or any owner of premises situated therein, or any other person aggrieved or injuriously affected thereby.

The provisions of the Nuisances Removal

56. The second section of the Nuisances Removal Act for England (Amendment) Act, 1863, shall extend to milk in the same manner as if the word "milk" had been introduced after the word "flour" wherever the word "flour" occurs in the said section; and the justice who, under the said section, is empowered to convict the offender therein described may be other than the justice who may have ordered the article to be disposed of or destroyed.

Act for England (Amendment) Act, 1863, to extend to milk.

57. On complaint made by a medical officer of health or by any inspector or other officer of a sanitary authority upon oath, any justice may grant a warrant to any such officer to enter any building or part of a building or other place in which the complainant has reasonable ground for believing that any animal, carcase, meat, poultry, game, fish, fruit, vegetables, corn, bread, flour, or milk, intended for sale for the food of man, which is so diseased, unsound, or unwholesome as to be unfit for the food of man, is kept or concealed, and to search for, seize, and carry away any such animal, carcase, meat, poultry, game, fish, fruit, vegetables, corn, bread, flour, or milk, in order to have the same dealt with in manner provided by law; and any person obstructing any such officer in performance of any duty under this section shall, in addition to any other punishment to which he may be subject, be liable to a penalty not exceeding twenty pounds.

Warrant may be granted by a justice to search for unsound food.

58. If any registrar, or any officer appointed by the guardians to enforce the provisions of the Acts relating to vaccination in Ireland, shall give information in writing to a justice of the peace that he has reason to believe that any child under the age of fourteen years, being within the union or district for which the informant acts, has not been successfully vaccinated, and that he has given notice to the father or mother of the said child, or to the person having the care, nurture, or custody of such child, to procure its being vaccinated, and that this notice has been disregarded, the justice may summon such father or mother or person to appear with the child before him at a certain time and place, and upon the appearance, if the justice shall find, after such examination as he shall deem necessary, that the child has not been vaccinated, nor has already had the smallpox, he may, if he see fit, make an order under his hand and seal directing such child to be vaccinated within a certain time; and if at the expiration of such time the child shall not have been so vaccinated, or shall not be shown to be then unfit to be vaccinated, or to be insusceptible of vaccination, the person upon whom such order shall have been made shall be proceeded against summarily, and, unless he can show some reasonable ground for his omission to carry the order into effect, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding twenty shillings.

Justices may make an order for the vaccination of any child under 14 years.

Provided that if the justice shall be of opinion that the person is improperly brought before him, and shall refuse to make any order for the vaccination of the child, he may order the informant to pay to such person such sum of money as he shall consider to be a fair compensation for his expenses and loss of time in attending before the justice.

Penalty on false representations with respect to infectious disease.

59. If any owner or occupier or person employed to let for hire, or to show for the purposes of letting for hire, any house or part of a house, when questioned by any person negotiating for the hire of such house or part of a house as to the fact of there being in such house, or having within three months previously been therein, any person suffering from an infectious, contagious, or epidemic disease, knowingly makes a false answer to such question, the person so answering falsely shall be guilty of an offence punishable on summary conviction, and, at the discretion of the justices having cognizance of the case, be liable to be imprisoned, with or without hard labour, for a period not exceeding one month, or to pay a penalty not exceeding twenty pounds.

Penalty on breach of rules made under sect. 52 of 29 & 30 Vict. c. 90.

60. Any person wilfully neglecting or refusing to obey or carry out or obstructing the execution of any rule, order, or regulation made by the Local Government Board under section fifty-two of the Sanitary Act, 1866, shall be guilty of an offence punishable on summary conviction, and be liable to a penalty not exceeding fifty pounds.

Legal Proceedings.

Legal position of sanitary authority.

61. Subject to the provisions of this Act, every sanitary authority shall, as respects the service of notices in pursuance of the Sanitary Acts by or on behalf of or on such authority, and as respects all legal proceedings, matters, and things to be taken or done in pursuance of the Sanitary Acts by or on behalf of or to such authority, stand in the same position in all respects in which previously to the passing of this Act, any authority stood whose powers, rights, duties, capacities, liabilities, and obligations are transferred to such authority; and for the purposes of this section a joint board shall be deemed to be a sanitary authority.

Notices how to be signed.

62. Every notice required to be given on behalf of a sanitary authority shall be deemed to be sufficient on their behalf, if it be written or printed, and purports to be signed by the clerk or acting clerk of such authority.

Powers given by this Act to be cumulative.

63. All powers given by this Act shall be deemed to be in addition to and not in derogation of any other powers conferred by Act, local Act, provisional order, law, or custom, and such other powers may be exercised in the same manner as if this Act had not passed.

Recovery of penalties.

64. Any penalty recoverable under the provisions of this Act shall be recoverable in a summary way, with respect to the police district of Dublin Metropolis, subject and according to the provisions of any Act regulating the powers and duties of justices of the peace for such district, or of the police of such district, and with respect to other parts of Ireland before a justice or justices of the peace sitting in petty sessions, subject and according to the provisions of "The Petty Sessions (Ireland) Act, 1851," and any Act amending the same; and all such penalties, when recovered by or on behalf or at the instance of any sanitary authority, or any officer of such authority, shall be paid to such sanitary authority, and by the same applied in aid of their expenses under the Sanitary Acts; and save as aforesaid, all such penalties shall be applied in manner directed by "The Fines Act (Ireland), 1851," and any Act amending the same.

65. Whereas by an Act passed in the second year of Her Majesty, entitled "An Act for the more effectual relief of the " destitute poor in Ireland," it was enacted that no instrument made in pursuance of that Act nor the appointment of any paid officer engaged in the administration of the laws for the relief of the poor or in the management or collection of the poor rate shall be charged or chargeable with any stamp duty whatever, and it is expedient to extend such exemptions from stamp duty to instruments and to appointments made in pursuance of the provisions of the Local Government Board (Ireland) Act, 1872: Be it enacted, that no instrument made in pursuance of the provisions of the said last-mentioned Act, and no appointment which has been or shall hereafter be made of any paid officer engaged in the administration of the provisions thereof, shall be charged or chargeable with any stamp duty whatever.

Appointments
under 35 & 36
Vict. c. 69.
exempt from stamp duty.

CHAPTER 94.

An Act to amend the Law relating to Land Rights and Conveyancing, and to facilitate the Transfer of Land, in Scotland. [7th August 1874.]

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the law relating to land rights and conveyancing, and to facilitate the transfer of land, in Scotland :

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

1. This Act may be cited for all purposes as “The Con- Short title.
veyancing (Scotland) Act, 1874.”

2. This Act shall, except where otherwise provided, come Commencement of Act.
into operation on the first day of October one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, which date is herein-after referred to as the commencement of this Act.

3. The following words and expressions in this Act shall Interpretation.
have the several meanings hereby assigned to them ; that is to say,

“Land” or “lands” shall include all subjects of heritable property which are or may be held of a superior according to feudal tenure, or which prior to the commencement of this Act have been or might have been held by burgage tenure, or by tenure of booking :

“Estate in land” shall mean any interest in land, whether in fee, liferent, or security, and whether beneficial or in trust, or any real burden on land, and shall include an estate of superiority :

“Superior” shall include the Crown, the Prince and Steward of Scotland, and all subject superiors, and shall also include mid-superiors ; “superiority” shall include mid-superiority :

“Conveyance” and “deed” and “instrument” shall each have the meaning attached thereto by “The Titles to Land Consolidation (Scotland) Act, 1868,” and “The Titles to Land Consolidation (Scotland) Amendment Act, 1869,” and shall also, when used in this Act, include all the deeds, instruments, decrees, petitions, and writings specified in this Act; and the words “heritable securities” and “securities” shall have the meaning attached thereto by the said recited Acts, and shall also, when used in this Act, include real burdens and securities by way of ground annual:

“Infeftment” shall include every title to an estate in land requiring and admitting of infeftment which is duly recorded in the appropriate register of sasines:

“Feu” shall include “blench,” and “feu-duty” shall include “blench-duty:”

“Casualties” shall include the relief duty payable on the entry or succession of an heir, the composition or other duty payable on the entry of a singular successor, whether by law or under the conditions of the feu, and all payments exigible in lieu of such duties and compositions, and all periodical fixed sums or quantities which may be stipulated for under this Act:

“Sheriff” shall include steward, sheriff substitute, and steward substitute.

Renewal of investiture abolished.

4. When lands have been feued, whether before or after the commencement of this Act,—

(1.) It shall not, notwithstanding any provision, declaration, or condition to the contrary in any statute in force at the passing of this Act, or in any deed, instrument, or writing, whether dated before or after the passing of this Act, be necessary, in order to the completion of the title of any person having a right to the lands in whole or in part, whether such right shall have been acquired by succession, bequest, gift, or conveyance, that he shall obtain from the superior any charter, precept, or other writ by progress; and it shall not be competent for the superior, in any case to grant any such charter, precept, or other writ by progress: Provided always, that nothing in this Act contained shall prevent the granting of charters of novodamus or precepts or writs from Chancery or of clare constat, or writs of acknowledgment:

Infeftment to imply entry with superior.

(2.) Every proprietor who is at the commencement of this Act or thereafter shall be duly infeft in the lands shall be deemed and held to be, as at the date of the registration of such infeftment in the appropriate register of sasines, duly entered with the nearest superior whose estate of superiority in such lands would according to the law existing prior to the commencement of this Act have been not defeasible at the will of the proprietor so infeft, to the same effect as if such superior had granted a writ of confirmation according to the existing law and practice, and that whether the superior's own title or that of any over superior has been completed or not, but such implied entry shall not be held to confer or confirm any rights more extensive than those contained in the original charter or feu right of the lands or in the last charter or other writ by which the vassal was entered therein: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be held to validate any subfeu in cases where subinfeudation has been effectually prohibited; and provided further, that notwithstanding such implied entry, the proprietor last entered in the lands, and his heirs and representatives, shall continue personally liable to the superior for payment of the whole feu-duties affecting the said lands, and for performance of the whole obligations of the feu, until notice of the change of ownership of the feu shall have been given to the superior; but without prejudice to the superior having all his remedies against the entered proprietor under the entry implied by this Act, and without prejudice also to the right of the proprietor last entered in the lands and his foresaids to recover from the entered proprietor of the lands all feu-duties which such proprietor last entered in the lands or his foresaids may have had to pay in consequence of any failure or omission to give such notice; and for this purpose all the remedies competent to the superior for recovery of feu-duties shall by virtue of this Act be held to be assigned to the proprietor last entered in the lands and his foresaids to the effect of enabling them to recover payment of any sums so paid by them as aforesaid, but that always under reservation of, and without prejudice to the superior's rights, remedies, and securities for making effectual and recovering all other feu-duties due and to become due to him; and such notice may be in the form of Schedule A. hereto annexed, or as nearly in that form as the circumstances in each particular case will permit. In the event of the proprietor last entered in the lands or his foresaids desiring to preserve evidence of his or their having sent such notice, it shall be sufficient if a copy of such notice, certified by the sender thereof as having been delivered or put into the post office by him in presence of two witnesses, who shall also subscribe the certificate, is preserved, or that the notice is acknowledged by the superior or his agent to have been received, either on a duplicate thereof or by a separate acknowledgment, and the superior or his agent on receiving such intimation in duplicate, with a fee of five shillings, shall, if required, be bound to return one of the copies with an acknowledgment of intimation thereon subscribed by him :

Implied entry not to affect rights of superiors to feu-duties, &c.

- (3.) Such implied entry shall not prejudice or affect the right or title of any superior to any casualties, feu-duties, or arrears of feu-duties which may be due or exigible in respect of the lands, at or prior to the date of such entry ; and all rights and remedies competent to a superior under the existing law and practice or under the conditions of any feu right, for recovering, securing, and making effectual such casualties, feu-duties, and arrears, or for irritating the feu ob non solutum canonem, and all the obligations and conditions in the feu rights prestatable to or exigible by the superior, in so far as the same may not have ceased to be operative in consequence of the provisions of this Act or otherwise, shall continue to be available to such superior in time coming ; but provided always, that such implied entry shall not entitle any superior to demand any casualty sooner than he could, by the law prior to this Act or by the conditions of the feu right, have required the vassal to enter or to pay such casualty irrespective of his entering :

Action in lieu of a declarator of non-entry.

- (4.) No lands shall, after the commencement of this Act, be deemed to be in non-entry, but a superior who would but for this Act be entitled to sue an action of declarator of non-entry against the successor of the vassal in the lands, whether by succession, bequest, gift, or conveyance, may raise in the Court of Session against such successor, whether he shall be infeft or not, an action of declarator and for payment of any casualty exigible at the date of such action, and no implied entry shall be pleadable in defence against such action ; and any decree for payment in such action shall have the effect of and operate as a decree of declarator of non-entry, according to the now existing law, but shall cease to have such effect upon the payment of such casualty, and of the expenses (if any) contained in said decree ; but such payment shall not prejudice the right or title of the superior to the rents due for the period while he is in possession of the lands under such decree nor to any feu-duties or arrears thereof which may be due or exigible at or prior to the date of such payment, or the rights and remedies competent to him under the existing law and practice for recovering and securing the same; and the summons in such action may be in or as nearly as may be in the form of Schedule B. hereto annexed.

5. Unless where it has been or shall be otherwise stipulated, corporations shall pay at the date at which the first composition would have been payable if this Act had not been passed, and every twenty-fifth year thereafter, a sum equal to what, but for the passing of this Act, would have been payable on entry by a singular successor; and where a composition payable on the death of the vassal shall become exigible from any trustee or body of trustees, another composition shall be payable at the end of every twenty-five years, so long as the lands shall be vested in such trustee or trustees; and where, by the terms of the feu rights of the lands a taxed composition is payable on the occasion of each sale or transfer of the property, as well as on the occasion of the death of each vassal, and a composition shall in consequence of the acquisition of the property become exigible from any corporation or from any trustee or body of trustees, another composition, unless where it has been or shall be otherwise stipulated, shall be payable at the end of every fifteen years from the date of such acquisition by such corporation or trustee or trustees, so long as the lands shall be vested in such corporation or trustee or trustees, with such interest, if any, as may be stipulated for in the feu rights during the not payment of casualties; provided always, that in the event of such corporation or of such trustee or trustees ceasing to be proprietors of the lands after having paid a composition or compositions in terms of this section the successor of such corporation or of such trustee or trustees who shall be duly infeft in the lands at the expiration of twenty-five years where a composition is payable on the death of the vassal, or at the expiration of fifteen years where a composition is payable on the occasion of each sale or transfer as well as on the occasion of each death, from the date of the last payment of composition as aforesaid, shall then pay a composition, and the casualties for and in respect of such lands shall thereafter become due and payable at the same time and in the same manner as if such lands had never been vested in such corporation or in such trustee or trustees; and where, by the terms of the feu rights of the lands a taxed composition is payable on the occasion of each sale or transfer of the property as well as on the occasion of the death of each vassal, and where an entry is implied in terms of this Act in favour of two or more parties having separate interests as life-renter and fiar respectively or as successive life-renters, a composition, or in the case of parties interested pro indiviso a rateable share of a composition, shall be due by and exigible from each of the parties who shall take or derive benefit under the implied entry in the order in which they shall severally take or derive benefit under such implied entry, with such interest, if any, as may be stipulated for in the feu right during the not payment of casualties.

Consolidation of superiority with property.

6. When a superior has acquired and completed or shall acquire and complete a title by infeftment to the property or mid-superiority of lands, or where the proprietor of the property or of the mid-superiority has acquired and completed or shall acquire and complete a title by infeftment to the superiority, a minute in the form, or as nearly as may be in the form of Schedule C. hereto annexed, shall, when recorded in the appropriate register of sasines, be held to consolidate the property or the mid-superiority, as the case may be, with the superiority, all to the same effect as consolidation effected by resignation ad perpetuam remanentiam duly completed according to the present law and practice.

Consolidation not to affect or extend superior's right.

7. No consolidation that may be effected under this Act or otherwise shall in any way affect or extend the rights or interests of any over superior, or entitle him to any more than the duties or casualties to which he would have been entitled had there been no consolidation.

Memorandum of allocation of feu-duty.

8. Where a proprietor desires to obtain the benefit of any provision as to allocation of feu-duty, or where the superior agrees to an allocation of the feu-duty contained in the original grant with or without augmentation, such proprietor may, either before or after the deed in his favour is recorded in the appropriate register of sasines, obtain a memorandum indorsed thereon in or as nearly as may be in the form of Schedule D. hereto annexed, and the allocation contained in such memorandum shall be binding on all having interest: Provided always, that such allocation shall not prejudice or affect the rights of heritable creditors who are not parties thereto.

Estates to vest in heirs without service.

9. A personal right to every estate in land descendible to heirs shall, without service or other procedure, vest or be held to have vested in the heir entitled to succeed thereto, by his survivance of the person to whom he is entitled to succeed, whether such person shall have died before or after the commencement of this Act, provided the heir shall be alive at the date of the commencement of this Act, if such person shall have died before that date, and such personal right shall, subject to the provisions of this Act, be of the like nature and be attended with the like consequences, and be transmissible in the same manner as a personal right to land under an unfeudalized conveyance, according to the existing law and practice.

10. A title of an heir to, or disponee of, a proprietor of any lands who was neither infeft nor served, but vested only with a personal right to such lands, by virtue of this Act, or of any person acquiring right from such heir or disponee, may be made up in like manner as if the person making up a title had held a disposition from the proprietor last infeft in the lands in favour of his immediate successor therein, and a disposition and assignation from each heir or disponee, if any, intervening between such immediate successor and the person so making up a title in favour of his immediate successor therein; and such title may be made up in manner following, viz.:

Completion of title when deceased heir not served.

The heir or disponee or other successor making up such title shall present to the sheriff of Chancery, or to the sheriff of the county where the lands are situated, a petition which may embrace several separate lands or estates, and may be in the form of Schedule E. hereto annexed, or as nearly in that form as the circumstances in each particular case will permit, setting forth the name of the proprietor last infeft, a description of the lands, or a valid reference thereto, and the names and, so far as known, the designations of every proprietor having only a personal right therein, whether by succession, bequest, gift, or conveyance, who has intervened between the proprietor last infeft and the petitioner, and also setting forth the petitioner's own right to the said lands; and on the decree pronounced on said petition finding the facts therein set forth proved, and that the petitioner is entitled to be infeft in the said lands, being extracted in one or several extracts, and on such extract decree or decrees, as the case may be, being recorded in the appropriate register of sasines, the petitioner shall be held to be duly infeft in the said lands contained in the extract or extracts so recorded.

Such petition shall be presented, published, and carried through in all respects as if the same were a petition for special service under the now existing law; and the extract decree or decrees on such petition, as the case may be, shall be equivalent to a decree of special service, and when duly recorded as aforesaid in the appropriate register of sasines, shall have the same effect as regards the lands therein contained as an extract decree of special service duly recorded under the now existing law.

Petition to be proceeded with as if it were a petition for special service.

11. Notwithstanding any existing law or practice it shall be no objection to any receipt or writ from Chancery or of clare constat, or to any decree of service whether general or special, or to any writ of acknowledgment, whether obtained before or after the commencement of this Act, or to any other decree, or to any petition, that the character in which an heir is or may have been entitled to succeed is erroneously stated therein; provided such heir was in truth entitled to succeed as Error in character in which heir entered not to affect entry.

heir to the lands specified in the precept, writ, decree, or petition.

Heir not liable beyond value of estate.
May renounce.

12. An heir shall not be liable for the debts of his ancestor beyond the value of the estate of such ancestor to which he succeeds, and if an heir shall renounce the succession, the creditors of the ancestor shall have the same rights against the estate as upon a renunciation according to the law before the commencement of this Act.

When an heir has, before renunciation, intromitted with the ancestor's estate, he shall be liable for the ancestor's debts to the extent of such intromission, but no further.

Right of any person to succession as heir may be challenged within 20 years.

13. The right of any person to an estate in land by succession as heir acquired after the commencement of this Act may, at any time within twenty years of his infestment as heir and his entering into possession of such estate, but not thereafter, be challenged by any one who would have been entitled to challenge the decree of service of such person had he expedite a service according to the practice existing prior to this Act; and, in the absence of evidence to the contrary, the date of his infestment shall, for the purpose of this limitation, be assumed to be the date of entering into possession; and such challenge may be made by an action to negative or set aside the alleged right of succession, or to reduce any title expedite in virtue of such alleged right.

Legal remedies to prevent entry preserved.

14. Nothing herein contained shall prejudice or affect the legal remedies of any person having lawful title and interest to prevent any other person from entering into possession of an estate in land as heir, or to remove him from possession, or to obtain sequestration of such estate, or the appointment of a judicial factor pending the trial of any question regarding the right of succession; and it shall be lawful for a court of competent jurisdiction to regulate possession pending such trial, as the Court shall see just, notwithstanding the completion, under this Act, of the title of any person as heir.

Redemption of casualties.

15. The casualties incident to any feu created prior to the commencement of this Act shall be redeemable on such terms as may be agreed on between the superior and the proprietor of the feu in respect of which they are payable: And, failing agreement, all such casualties, except those which consist of a fixed amount stipulated and agreed to be paid in money or in fungibles at fixed periods or intervals, may be redeemed by the proprietor of the feu in respect of which the same are payable, on the following terms, viz., in cases where casualties are exigible only on the death of the vassal such casualties may be redeemed on payment to the superior of the amount of the highest casualty, estimated as at the date of redemption, with an addition of fifty per cent.; and in cases where casualties are exigible on occasion of each sale or transfer of the property, as well as on the death of the vassal, such casualties may be redeemed on payment of two and a half times the amount of the casualty estimated as aforesaid payable on such occasions: Provided always, that where the casualty consists of a sum calculated on the footing of an annual sum being paid for each year from the date of the last entry, such casualty may be redeemed upon payment of eighteen times the amount of such annual sum: And provided always, that before any such redemption, otherwise than by agreement, shall be allowed, any casualty which has become due shall be paid, and in the case of such annual sums the amount of such sums since the last payment thereof, and that the redemption shall apply only to future and prospective casualties.

16. The superior, unless he shall elect to have the redemption money converted into an annual sum as herein-after provided, shall, on payment or tender of such redemption money, be bound, at the expense of the party redeeming, to discharge all right to the casualties so redeemed, and such discharge, which may be in the form set forth in Schedule F. hereto annexed, or in a similar form, being recorded in the appropriate register of sasines at the expense of the party redeeming, shall operate as a valid and effectual discharge of such casualties: Provided always, that when the superior shall have granted an heritable security affecting the superiority, no discharge to be granted to the vassal so redeeming shall be effectual without the consent of the creditor in such heritable security.

Casualties redeemed to be discharged.

17. It shall be lawful for the superior to elect that the redemption money above provided shall be converted into an annual sum, equal to four per cent. upon the capital; and in that case, a memorandum, in the form set forth in Schedule G. hereto annexed, or in a similar form, of the amount of such annual sum, shall be signed by the parties or their respective agents and recorded in the appropriate register of sasines, at the expense of the party redeeming, whereupon such annual sum shall be deemed to be feu-duty with all the legal qualities thereof, and shall form an addition to any existing feu-duty, and the superior's right to all casualties shall be held to be discharged.

Option to superior of payment of an annual sum.

18. Casualties subject to the fetters of an entail may be redeemed as aforesaid notwithstanding such entail, the redemption money being consigned in one of the banks in Scotland incorporated by Royal Charter or Act of Parliament in name of the accountant of the Court of Session, who shall be allowed a reasonable fee for his trouble out of such money, and being applied by the heir of entail in possession under the orders of the said court for the benefit of the entailed estate, Entails not to bar redemption.

the accruing interest being payable to the heir of entail in possession during the time the same shall arise; provided always, that when the redemption money so consigned during any period of three years shall not exceed in whole the sum of one hundred pounds, the same may at the end of that period be paid over by the accountant for the time, without orders or authority from the court, to the person or persons or the representatives of the person or persons in possession of the entailed estate at the time or times when the consignment or consignments was or were respectively made. Or the heir of entail in possession of an entailed estate at the time, when any casualty shall be redeemed may, in his option, elect in lieu of such consignment in bank, that the redemption money shall be converted into an annual sum equal to four per centum upon the capital, in which case a memorandum as before provided shall be signed and recorded, whereupon such annual sum shall be deemed to be feu-duty, with the qualities and in manner and to the effect before provided.

Redemption of casualties by a mid-superior.

19. The person in right of any estate of superiority created prior to the commencement of this Act shall be entitled to redeem the casualties, legal or conventional, which may be payable to an over superior, in the same manner and on the same terms and conditions as are herein-before enacted with respect to the redemption of casualties by a person in right of an estate of property.

Commutation of carriages and services by agreement;

20. Where carriages and services, or any of them, exigible by the superior, shall, for any period of five years, have been commuted to an annual money payment by agreement between the parties, whether reduced to writing or not, and whether express or implied from the conduct or actings of parties, and have not thereafter been exacted and performed, the said annual payment shall thereafter be deemed to be the value in all time coming of such carriages and services respectively, and the superior shall be bound to accept the same in lieu of such carriages and services respectively:

or by sheriff.

With respect to carriages and services which have not been so commuted, it shall be competent to either party to apply to the sheriff within whose jurisdiction the lands lie to determine summarily the annual value thereof, and the determination of the sheriff shall be final and not subject to review, and the superior shall be bound thereafter to accept of the annual sum so determined in lieu of such carriages and services.

Commuted value to be feu-duty.

21. The annual money value, where ascertained as aforesaid by agreement, may be stated in a memorandum in the form set forth in the said Schedule G. hereto annexed, or in a similar form, signed by the parties or their respective agents, and on such memorandum, or the extract decree pronounced by the sheriff, as the case may be, being recorded in the appropriate register of sasines, such annual money value shall be deemed to be feu-duty with all the legal qualities thereof, and shall form an addition to any existing feu-duty, and the superior's right to the carriages and services shall be held to be discharged. Such discharge, redemption, and commutation may be validly effected, notwithstanding the fetters of any entail.

Not barred by entails.

22. All conditions, whether made before or after the commencement of this Act, to the effect that the superior shall be entitled to select or appoint an agent to prepare or record sasines or warrants of registration, or conveyances or other deeds having reference to any estate in land, or restraining or restricting the proprietor of any estate in land in the selection of an agent to prepare or record such sasines, warrants, conveyances, or other deeds, or securing any privilege or monopoly to the superior's agent, or to any agent or agents selected or appointed by him, or to the effect that any proprietor of lands shall be bound to intimate to the superior of such lands any change of ownership, whether by succession or singular title, except as herein-before provided, or to pay any fees or expenses in connexion with such change of ownership, and further all conditions made after the commencement of this Act, to the effect that it shall not be lawful to the proprietor of lands to subfeu the same to be holden of himself as immediate lawful superior thereof, or to grant conveyances thereof to be holden a me vel de me or with an alternative manner of holding, shall, with all irritant clauses applicable thereto, be null and void, and not capable of being enforced, and all enactments to the contrary of, or at variance with, this enactment in any Act of Parliament shall be and the same are hereby repealed.

Monopolies of superior's agents annulled.

23. In feus granted after the commencement of this Act, the annual feu-duty shall be of fixed amount or quantity, and no casualties or duties shall by law, irrespective of express condition or covenant, be payable to the grantor of the feu, or his successors in the superiority, and it shall not be lawful to condition or stipulate for any casualty to be paid on the succession of an heir or the acquisition of a singular successor, or in any way except at fixed intervals; but it shall be lawful to condition or stipulate for a permanent increase or reduction of the feu-duty, or for payment of a casualty in the form of a periodical fixed sum or quantity, provided that the amount of such increase or reduction, or of such periodical additional sum or quantity, shall be certain, and that the time or times at which such additional sum or quantity shall be exigible, or from and after which such increase or reduction is to have effect, shall also be certain and not dependent upon any event or occurrence except the occurrence or recurrence of the time or times at which under the terms of such condition or stipulation the periodical additional sum or quantity is made exigible, or the increase or reduction of feu-duty is to have effect.

Where feu rights stipulating or inferring casualties are contracted to be granted.

24. In all cases where superiors have agreed or contracted prior to the passing of this Act to feu land, but have not granted the feu rights thereto prior to the commencement of this Act, and but for the provisions of this Act would have been entitled in the feu rights to stipulate for the payment of casualties as well as of feu-duties, nothing in this Act contained shall be construed or held as depriving such superiors of their right to such casualties, but such casualties may, if desired by such superiors or their vassals in such feus, be converted into annual sums equal to four per cent. on the amount of the price of the redemption of such casualties ascertained as provided in section fifteen hereof, and such annual sums shall be deemed to be feu-duties, with all the legal qualities thereof, and shall form additions to the feu-duties which may have been contracted for, and in the feu rights to be granted of such feus superiors shall be entitled, in the event of the casualties being converted as aforesaid, to state as one feu-duty the feu-duty which has been contracted for or agreed upon, and that formed by the converted casualty, and shall have all competent remedies for recovery thereof. But in the event of neither the superiors nor the vassals in such feus desiring to convert casualties agreed or contracted for before the passing of this Act as aforesaid, it shall be competent in such feu rights to stipulate for payment of the casualties which the vassals may expressly or by force of law have agreed or contracted to pay, in the same manner as might have been done prior to the commencement of this Act; and it shall also be competent in such feu rights to stipulate that the same shall be recorded by the agent of the superior at the expense of the vassal if such or a similar stipulation shall have been made and agreed prior to the passing of this Act in the agreement or contract for feuing such land.

Distinction between burgage and feu abolished.

25. The proprietors of and all others having any estate in land held burgage shall have the same right and interest in such estate as would have belonged to them under this Act or otherwise had the tenure been feu instead of burgage, and there shall not after the commencement of this Act be any distinction between estates in land held burgage and estates in land held feu, in so far as regards the conveyances relating thereto, or the completion of titles, or any of the matters or things to which the provisions of this Act relate; and the proprietors of estates in land which were held burgage shall be entitled to grant feus of the same in the same manner and to the like effect as if such estates in land had been held by feudal tenure; and the titles of all such feus granted before the commencement of this Act shall be unchallengeable on the grounds that such feus are of land held by burgage tenure, or that such titles have been recorded in the burgh register of sasines.

Writs affecting land which immediately prior to the commencement of this Act was held burgage shall be recorded in the burgh register of sasines. Registration of writs in burgh register.

The provisions of this section in regard to land held by ordinary burgage tenure shall be applicable also to lands in the burgh of Paisley held by the peculiar tenure of booking, except that writs affecting land in said burgh held by the tenure of booking shall be recorded in the register of booking therein. Provisions for lands in Paisley held by booking tenure.

26. Conveyances of land hitherto held burgage or by the tenure of booking may be in the forms allowed by "The Titles to Land Consolidation (Scotland) Act, 1868," in regard thereto; provided always, that it shall not be necessary to insert in any such conveyances a procuratory or clause of resignation, and that such procuratory or clause if inserted shall be held pro non scripto, and that the forms applicable to lands held feu shall be applicable likewise, and shall have the same or a similar effect with reference to lands which were held burgage or by the tenure of booking prior to the commencement of this Act. Form of conveyances.

27. It shall not be competent to object to the validity of any deed or writing as a conveyance of heritage coming into operation after the passing of this Act, on the ground that it does not contain the word "dispone," provided it contains any other word or words importing conveyance or transference, or present intention to convey or transfer. The word "dispone" unnecessary.

28. Where no term of entry is stated in a conveyance of lands, the entry shall be at the first term of Whitsunday or Martinmas after the date or last date of the conveyance, unless it shall appear from the terms of the conveyance that another term of entry was intended. Date of entry.

29. No decree, instrument, or conveyance under this Act, and no other decree, instrument, or conveyance, whether dated before or after the commencement of this Act, shall be deemed to be invalid because the series of titles connecting the person obtaining such decree, or expeding such instrument, or holding such conveyance, with the person last infeft, shall contain as links of the series two or more general dispositions, or because any general disposition forming a part of the series does not contain a clause of assignation of writs. General dispositions forming links of series of titles not objectionable on certain grounds.

30. It shall be lawful to record in the appropriate register of sasines any deed, instrument, or writing whereby any real burden upon land is assigned, conveyed, or transferred, or is extinguished or restricted. Conveyances and discharges of real burdens.

Real burdens mode of completing title to real burdens.

No deed, instrument, or writing, executed or dated after the commencement of this Act, whereby any real burden upon land shall be hereafter assigned, conveyed, or transferred, shall be effectual in competition with third parties, unless the same is recorded in the appropriate register of sasines; and such deed, instrument, or writing shall take effect in competition with third parties only from the date of such registration, and intimation according to the existing law and practice shall be unnecessary when such deed, instrument, or writing is recorded; and real burdens upon land may be assigned, conveyed, or transferred, and extinguished or restricted, and titles thereto may be completed as nearly as may be in the same manner as in the case of heritable securities constituted or requiring to be constituted by infestment in favour of the creditor as defined by "The Titles to Land Consolidation (Scotland) Act, 1868," and the whole provisions, enactments, and forms of that Act and of this Act relative to the assignation, conveyance, or transference and extinction or restriction of bonds and dispositions in security, and other heritable securities constituted or requiring to be constituted by infestment as aforesaid, and to the completing of titles thereto, and also the forms referred to, as well as the provisions and enactments contained in section one hundred and seventeen of the said Act shall be taken to apply and shall apply as nearly as may be to real burdens upon land; provided always, that securities by way of ground annual, whether redeemable or irredeemable, shall continue to be heritable as regards the succession of the persons in right thereof; and provided also, that where a real burden upon land shall have been assigned, conveyed, or transferred by any deed, instrument, or writing which has entered the appropriate register of sasines, it shall not be necessary to produce to the notary public expeding any notarial instrument applicable to such real burden, or to set forth in such notarial instrument, as a warrant thereof, the deed, instrument, or writing constituting the said real burden; but it shall be sufficient to produce to him, and to specify shortly in such notarial instrument, the deed, instrument, or writing, or the deeds, instruments, or writings whereby the said real burden shall have been assigned, conveyed, or transferred, and which, or one or more of which, if there are more than one, shall have entered the appropriate register of sasines.

A general service to be equivalent to a general disposition.

31. When a proprietor has died or shall have died infest in lands, and the heir of the investiture has expedie or shall have expedie a general service as heir of such proprietor, the decree of general service in favour of such heir shall be equivalent to a mortis causa general disposition of the lands by such proprietor in favour of such heir, to the effect of enabling such heir, or those deriving right from or by succession to him, to expede and record in the appropriate register of sasines all notarial instruments applicable to such lands which a general disponee or those deriving right from him may expedite and record under or in terms of "The Titles to Land Consolidation (Scotland) Act, 1868," or of this Act, and that notwithstanding that such proprietor may have died in nonage or been of insane mind, or laboured under any other disability whatever; provided always, that no general service shall have such effect in any case where the heir so served shall have died before the commencement of this Act; and a general service expedite by the heir of any person so served and dying after the commencement of this Act, or by any of the successive heirs of the investiture, or by the heir of any general disponee, shall have the like effect as a transmission of the right to the lands; and any such services shall be sufficient links in the series of titles for the connection of the person expediting such instrument with the person last infet, in the same manner as is herein-before provided with reference to two or more general dispositions forming links in such series.

32. Reservations, real burdens, conditions, provisions, limitations, obligations, and stipulations affecting land may be validly and effectually imported into any deed, instrument, or writing relating to such lands by reference to a deed, instrument, or writing applicable to such lands, or to the estate of which such lands form a part, recorded in the appropriate register of sasines, and in which such reservations, real burdens, conditions, provisions, limitations, obligations, and stipulations are set forth at full length, and a reference in the form set forth in Schedule H. hereto annexed, or in a similar form, shall be sufficient. And it shall be lawful for any proprietor of lands to execute a deed, instrument, or writing, setting forth the reservations, real burdens, conditions, provisions, limitations, obligations, and stipulations under which he is to feu or otherwise deal with or affect his lands, or any part thereof, and to record the same in the appropriate register of sasines; and the same being so recorded, such reservations, real burdens, conditions, provisions, limitations, obligations, and stipulations may be effectually imported in whole or in part by reference into any deed or conveyance relating to such lands subsequently granted by such proprietor, or by his heir or successor, or by any person whatsoever, provided it is expressly stated in such deed or conveyance that it is granted under the reservations, real burdens, conditions, provisions, limitations, obligations, and stipulations set forth in such deed, instrument, or writing.

Reservations, conditions, and covenants affecting lands may be imported by reference.

33. The following proviso contained in section one hundred and forty-one of "The Titles to Land Consolidation (Scotland) Act, 1868," viz., "Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall render it necessary to have a warrant of regis-

Title and period of prescription.

34. Any ex facie valid irredeemable title to an estate in land recorded in the appropriate register of sasines shall be sufficient foundation for prescription, and possession following on such recorded title for the space of twenty years continually and together, and that peaceably, without any lawful interruption made during the said space of twenty years, shall, for all the purposes of the Act of the Parliament of Scotland, 1617, c. 12, “Anent prescription of heritable rights,” be equivalent to possession for forty years by virtue of heritable infeftments for which charters and instruments of sasine or other sufficient titles are shown and produced, according to the provisions of the said Act; and if such possession as aforesaid following on an ex facie valid irredeemable title recorded as aforesaid shall have continued for the space of thirty years no deduction or allowance shall be made on account of the years of minority or less age of those against whom the prescription is used and objected, or of any period during which any person against whom prescription is used or objected was under legal disability. This enactment shall have no application to, and shall not be construed so as to alter or affect, the existing law relating to the character or period of the possession, use, or enjoyment necessary to constitute or prove the existence of any servitude or of any public right of way or other public right, and shall not be pleadable to any effect in any action in dependence at the commencement of this Act, or which shall be commenced prior to the first day of January one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine: Provided always, that the possession for any space of time prior to the first day of January one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine shall not have effect for the purposes of this section unless such space of time immediately preceded and was continuous up to the said first day of January.

Registration of a decree of division.

35. A decree of division of commonty or of common property or runrig lands, whether pronounced by a court of law, or by arbiters or by an oversman, shall have the effect of a conveyance containing assignations of writs by all the joint proprietors in favour of the several parties participating in the division of the shares severally allotted to them, and the extract decree pronounced by the court, or the decree pronounced by the arbiters or oversman, or an extract thereof from any competent court books, may be recorded in the appropriate register of sasines in ordinary form on behalf of all or any of the parties, or may be used by all or any of the parties for the purpose of infeftment in, or of acquiring a personal right to the shares severally allotted to them, or to any portion thereof, as an assignation, or one of a series of assignations, of an unrecorded conveyance or of a personal right under this Act.

36. A decree of sale obtained in terms of section seventeen of "The Glebe Lands (Scotland) Act, 1866," shall have the effect of a conveyance by the minister of the parish at the sight of the heritors of the parish and of the presbytery of the bounds, to the heritor in whose favour it is pronounced, and his heirs and assignees whomsoever, of the glebe or portion of glebe therein contained; and, on an extract of such decree being recorded in the appropriate register of sasines, shall vest in such heritor the glebe or portion of the glebe described therein, with a holding of the Crown for payment of a penny Scots yearly, if asked only, as fully and completely as if he had obtained a charter from the Crown by virtue of such decree, and been infeft thereon in common form.

Effect of decree of sale of glebe.

37. The distinction between fees of heritage and fees of conquest is hereby abolished with respect to all successions opening after the commencement of this Act, and fees of conquest shall descend to the same persons, in the same manner, and subject to the same rules as fees of heritage.

Distinction between heritage and conquest abolished.

38. It shall be no objection to the probative character of a deed, instrument, or writing, whether relating to land or not, that the writer or printer is not named or designed, or that the number of pages is not specified, or that the witnesses are not named or designed in the body of such deed, instrument, or writing, or in the testing clause thereof, provided that where the witnesses are not so named and designed their designations shall be appended to or follow their subscriptions; and such designations may be so appended or added at any time before the deed, instrument, or writing shall have been recorded in any register for preservation, or shall have been founded on in any court, and need not be written by the witnesses themselves.

Certain rules as to probative deeds altered.

39. No deed, instrument, or writing subscribed by the granter or maker thereof, and bearing to be attested by two witnesses subscribing, and whether relating to land or not, shall be deemed invalid or denied effect according to its legal import because of any informality of execution, but the burden of proving that such deed, instrument, or writing so attested was subscribed by the granter or maker thereof, and by the witnesses by whom such deed, instrument, or writing bears to be attested, shall lie upon the party using or upholding the same, and such proof may be led in any action or proceeding in which such deed, instrument, or writing is founded on or objected to, or in a special application to the Court of Session, or to the sheriff within whose jurisdiction the defender in any such application resides, to have it declared that such deed, instrument, or writing was subscribed by such granter or maker and witnesses.

Holograph testamentary writings.

40. Every holograph writing of a testamentary character shall, in the absence of evidence to the contrary, be deemed to have been executed or made of the date it bears.

One notary or justice of the peace and two witnesses to be sufficient where party cannot write.

41. Without prejudice to the present law and practice, any deed, instrument, or writing, whether relating to land or not, may, after having been read over to the granter, be validly executed on behalf of such granter, who, from any cause, whether permanent or temporary, is unable to write, by one notary public or justice of the peace subscribing the same for him in his presence and by his authority, without the ceremony of touching the pen, all before two witnesses, and the docquet thereto shall set forth that the granter of the deed authorised the execution thereof, and that the same had been read over to him in presence of the witnesses. Such docquet may be in the form set forth in Schedule I. hereto annexed, or in any words to the like effect.

Inhibitions to prescribe in five years.

42. All inhibitions subsisting at the commencement of this Act shall prescribe not later than on the lapse of five years after the said date, and all inhibitions which shall be recorded after the commencement of this Act shall prescribe on the lapse of five years from the date on which such inhibitions shall respectively take effect: Provided always, that the raisers of any such inhibitions, or their heirs or assignees, may again record the same, or a memorandum signed by them or their agents in terms of Schedule J. hereto annexed, or in a similar form, in the register of inhibitions before the expiration of the said respective periods of five years, and on such inhibitions or such memorandum being so recorded, such inhibitions shall continue in force for an additional period of five years from the date of such subsequent recording, and such inhibitions or memorandum may be again recorded, or a new memorandum in the terms foresaid may be recorded with the like effect, before the expiration of every subsequent period of five years; provided nevertheless, that in the case of inhibitions subsisting at the commencement of this Act, no such inhibitions shall in any case be effectual for a longer period than they would have remained in force if this Act had not been passed.

But may be registered anew.

Completion of title of heir of last trustee.

43. When a sole or last surviving trustee has died or shall have died possessed of an estate in land held in trust, and there shall be no contrary provision in the deed of trust, and no contrary order shall be made by the Court of Session, the heir-at-law of such trustee, being of full age and not subject to any legal incapacity, may complete a title thereto as trustee in his room in the manner provided by "The Titles to Land Consolidation (Scotland) Act, 1868," with respect to the title of any other heir, but such heir-at-law shall not, unless under the orders of the court or with the consent and approval of all the beneficiaries (being all above age and not subject to any legal incapacity), administer the trust, but, in the absence of such order or such consent and approval, shall be bound forthwith to make over the lands to any trustee or judicial factor appointed by the court for administering the purposes of the trust, or to any trustee or trustees appointed by any person who has power under the trust deed to make such appointment, or to any person or persons whom the beneficiaries, as aforesaid, may have concurred in appointing to execute the remaining purposes of the trust, or to the beneficiaries themselves if the whole trust purposes except the conveyance of the lands in terms of the trust have been or shall have been executed; and such heir-at-law shall, unless he acts as a trustee under such orders or with such consent and approval, be in no way responsible as trustee in regard to the administration of the trust, or of the lands to which he may have made up title as aforesaid.

44. When a trust title has been duly completed and recorded, and any person is subsequently appointed by the court to administer the trust in whole or in part as a trustee or judicial factor, the interlocutor whereby the appointment is made shall specify the trust deed, and the other title or titles (if any) by which the trust title had been completed as aforesaid, in such manner as to identify the same, and shall refer to the register or registers of sasines where such deed or title or titles is or are recorded, and also set forth the lands by description or reference; and an extract of such interlocutor, being recorded in the appropriate register of sasines, shall operate a title by infestment in the estate in favour of the trustee or judicial factor thereby appointed, in the same manner as if he had been a trustee named in the completed and recorded title in conformity always with the nature and terms of the appointment, and to the effect of enabling him to perform the duties of the office to which he is appointed.

Provisions for the case of a person appointed by the court to administer a trust.

45. When by the tenor of the title to any estate in land held in trust duly completed in favour of the trustee or trustees therein named, or any of them, and recorded in the appropriate register of sasines, the office of a trustee has been or shall be conferred upon the holder of any place or office, or proprietor of any estate, and his successors therein, any person subsequently becoming a trustee by appointment or succession to the place or office or estate to which the office of trustee has thus been or shall be annexed shall be deemed and taken to have a valid and complete title by infestment in the estate,

How title shall be completed when the holder of an office or proprietor is ex officio a trustee and his successor in office takes the trust.

in the same manner and to the same effect as if he had been named in the completed and recorded title, without the necessity of any deed of conveyance or other procedure.

Trustees or executors may complete title where no direct conveyance of lands to them.

46. Where in any mortis causa conveyance, grant, or testamentary deed or writing purporting to convey or bequeath lands within the sense and meaning of the twentieth section of "The Titles to Land Consolidation (Scotland) Act, 1868," and appointing trustees or executors, the words of conveyance, grant, or bequest are not expressed to be in favour of such trustees or executors, it shall nevertheless be lawful for such trustees or executors to complete a title to such lands in their own persons to the same effect and in the same manner as if the conveyance, grant, or bequest had been expressed to be in favour of them as such trustees or executors, and that by notarial instrument or in any other manner competent to a general disponee; and to hold, administer, and dispose of such lands for the purposes of such mortis causa conveyance, grant, or testamentary deed or writing: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall prevent any disponee, grantee, or legatee to whom such lands may be expressly conveyed, granted, or bequeathed by such mortis causa conveyance, grant, or testamentary deed or writing, from completing a title thereto in his own person in terms of said recited Act where the completion of such title shall not be at variance with the purposes or directions of such mortis causa conveyance, grant, or testamentary deed or writing.

Securities upon land, and relative personal obligations, shall transmit against heirs and disponees.

47. Subject to the limitation herein-before provided as to the liability of an heir for the debts of his ancestor, an heritable security for money, duly constituted upon an estate in land shall, together with any personal obligation to pay principal, interest, and penalty contained in the deed or instrument whereby the security is constituted, transmit against any person taking such estate by succession, gift, or bequest, or by conveyance, when an agreement to that effect appears in gremio of the conveyance, and shall be a burden upon his title in the same manner as it was upon that of his ancestor or author, without the necessity of a bond of corroboration or other deed or procedure; and the personal obligation may be enforced against such person by summary diligence or otherwise, in the same manner as against the original debtor. A warrant to charge may be applied for and validly granted in the Bill Chamber or in a Sheriff Court, in the form set forth in Schedule K. hereto annexed, or in a similar form, and all diligence may thereafter proceed against the party in common form. A discharge of the personal obligation of the original or any subsequent debtor, whether granted before or after the commencement of this Act, shall not where the debt still exists prejudice the security on the estate or the obligation as hereby made transmissible against the existing proprietor.

48. Where lands are sold by an heritable creditor under the powers competent to creditors in heritable securities, and it shall occur that no surplus remains after deducting the debt secured, with the interest due thereon, and penalties incurred, and expenses in reference to the possession of the estate, (if the creditor had been in possession,) including expense of insurance, repairs and management, and whole expense attending such sale, and after paying all previous incumbrances, and the expense of discharging the same, it shall be competent to any notary public to execute a certificate to that effect, in, or as nearly as may be in, the terms of Schedule L., No. 1, hereto annexed, and the disposition by the creditor to the purchaser shall, along with such certificate, when recorded in the appropriate register of sasines, have the effect of completely disencumbering the lands and others sold of all securities and diligences prior and posterior to the security of such creditor, as well as of the security and diligence of such creditor himself, save and except when the security and diligence of such creditor shall be assigned by way of further or collateral security to the purchaser.

Provisions for disencumbering lands sold under heritable securities when no surplus emerges.

49. Where the debtor in any heritable security, whether granted before or after the commencement of this Act, shall have exercised the power or right of redemption contained therein, but where from the death or absence of the creditor, or any other cause, the debtor cannot obtain a discharge of the incumbrance created by the security, it shall be competent to him to consign the amount, principal and interest, due, and thereupon it shall be competent to any notary public to expedite a certificate in, or as nearly as may be in, the terms of Schedule L., No. 2, hereto annexed, and the recording of the said certificate in the appropriate register of sasines shall, provided the principal debt and all interest due thereon in terms of the security shall have been so consigned, have the effect of completely disencumbering the lands contained in such heritable security of the debt and of all interest and penalties corresponding thereto.

Provision for disencumbering lands of heritable security.

50. An assignation or conveyance of any obligation or right of relief or other right connected with lands, but the title to which does not, according to the present law, pass under the general assignation of writs in the disposition of the lands, may be granted in, or as nearly as may be in, the form of Schedule M. hereto annexed, and may either be a separate deed or part of another deed, and shall have the effect of vesting in the person or persons in whose favour it is granted, and his or their successors, a valid and complete right and title to the obligation or right thereby assigned or conveyed, with all the intermediate transmissions thereof, to the same effect in all respects as if an assignation or conveyance in the form at present in use had been granted in his or their favour.

Form and effect of assigning right of relief or other right affecting land.

Probate equivalent to will or extract for completing title.

51. The production to any notary public of the probate of the will or other testamentary settlement of a person deceased, issued by any Court of Probate in England or in Ireland, or in any British colony or dependency, or of an exemplification of such probate, shall for the purpose of expediting a notarial instrument, or otherwise completing a title to any estate in land or to any heritable security, be held to be equivalent to and as effectual as the production to such notary of the will or settlement itself, or of an extract thereof from the books of council and session, and it shall not be competent to institute any challenge of any notarial instrument in respect of the probate or exemplification having been used as the warrant for expediting the same prior to the commencement of this Act.

Decrees of service unchallengeable on certain grounds.

52. It shall not be competent to challenge any judgment or decree of service pronounced in terms of the Act tenth and eleventh Victoria, chapter forty-seven, intituled "An Act to amend the law and practice in Scotland as to the service of heirs," or of "The Titles to Land Consolidation (Scotland) Act, 1868," and dated before the commencement of this Act, or any extract of any such judgment or decree, or any titles following upon such judgment, decree, or extract, on account of any objection to the manner or form in which such judgment or decree was recorded or extracted by the director of Chancery or his depute, or on the ground that the manner and form of recording or extracting such judgments or decrees in use by the director of Chancery or his depute for the time had not been directed or approved of by the lord clerk register in terms of the said Acts, or on the ground that evidence was led in the petition on which such decree followed, and that the decree itself was pronounced before the expiry of the inducia, or days of publication prescribed under the tenth section of the former Act, or under the thirty-third section of the latter Act.

Form of completing title to heritable securities under a general disposition.

53. It shall be competent to the grantee under a general disposition within the sense and meaning of the nineteenth section of "The Titles to Land Consolidation (Scotland) Act, 1868," or to a person acquiring or deriving right from such grantee, to complete a title to an heritable security belonging to the granter of such general disposition, and in which such granter was infest, by expediting and recording in the appropriate register of sasines a notarial instrument in, or as nearly as may be in, the form of Schedule N. hereto annexed, and on such notarial instrument being so expedited and recorded the grantee or the person acquiring or deriving right from such grantee, as the case may be, in whose favour such instrument has been expedited shall be vested with the full right of the creditor in such security, and shall be held to be entered with the superior in like manner and to the same effect as the original creditor himself. And it shall not be competent to challenge the validity of any notarial instrument expedite and recorded before or after the commencement of this Act with reference to any heritable security in terms of the said nineteenth section of the said Act upon the ground that such notarial instrument is not in the form of Schedule (L.) annexed to the said Act, or that the said form is not adapted to heritable securities.

54. No challenge of any deed, instrument, or writing recorded in any register of sasines shall receive effect on the ground that any part of the record of such deed, instrument, or writing is written on erasure, unless such erasure be proved to have been made for the purpose of fraud, or the record is not conformable to the deed, instrument, or writing as presented for registration.

Recorded deed or instrument unchallengeable on certain grounds.

55. Section one hundred and eighteen of "The Bankruptcy (Scotland) Act, 1856," is hereby repealed; and it is provided that all heritable creditors who have been in possession under their securities, and whose right to the rents collected by them has not been challenged by action previous to the commencement of this Act, shall be entitled to retain and apply all rents collected by them in the same manner as they might have done if the provisions of the section hereby repealed had not been enacted.

Section 118 of the Bankruptcy Act of 1856 repealed.

56. Any deed executed after the commencement of this Act to which any company registered under "The Companies Acts, 1862 and 1867," is a party, shall be held to be validly executed in Scotland on behalf of such company if the same is either executed in terms of the provisions of these Acts or is sealed with the common seal of the company, and subscribed on behalf of the company by two of the ordinary directors and the secretary of the company, and such subscription on behalf of the company shall be equally binding and effectual, whether attested by witnesses or not.

Form of executing deeds by companies under the Acts of 1862 and 1867.

57. The offices of presenter of signatures and of clerk to the presenter of signatures are hereby abolished, and it shall be competent for the present holders of these offices, and also for the deputy keeper of the Great Seal, to apply to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, who are hereby empowered to award to each of such officers such compensation as the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury may deem just and reasonable, having regard to the terms by which such officers respectively hold their appointments, and to the net average amount of the emoluments received by them, and in the case of the deputy keeper of the Great Seal to the net average amount of emoluments received by him in respect of charters passing that seal, and now abolished under the provisions of this Act, and such compensation as may be awarded shall be subject to the provisions of the twentieth section of the Act of Certain offices abolished, and the duties of the sheriff of Chancery, &c. enlarged.

the fourth and fifth years of the reign of His Majesty King William the Fourth, chapter twenty-four, intituled "An Act to alter, amend, and consolidate the laws for regulating the pensions, compensations, and allowances to be made to persons in respect of their having held civil offices in His Majesty's service;" and from and after the commencement of this Act the duties of the office of presenter of signatures, so far as the same continue to be necessary, shall be discharged by the sheriff of Chancery, and the duties of the office of clerk to the presenter of signatures shall be performed by the sheriff clerk of Chancery; after the commencement of this Act it shall not be necessary either for the sheriff of Chancery or for the sheriff of any county to hold a court for the consideration or disposal of any unopposed petition for service.

Provisions as to Chancery office.

58. The office, duties, and emoluments of the director of Chancery, and of the deputy directors and clerks of Chancery, or any of them, may be regulated at any time by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, and it shall be the duty of the director of Chancery, in addition to the duties at present discharged by him, from and after the commencement of this Act to send to every sheriff clerk in Scotland a copy of the printed index or abridgment of the record of services provided to be kept by him by the thirty-eighth section of "The Titles to Land Consolidation (Scotland) Act, 1868," and it shall be the duty of every sheriff clerk to keep the same in his office open for the inspection of the public.

Act shall apply to lands held of the Crown and Prince.

59. The provisions of this Act shall apply to lands held of the Crown and of the Prince, in the same way as to lands held of a subject superior, but shall not prejudice or affect the jus coronæ as a title to lands or heritages.

Title to private estates of Her Majesty in Scotland.

60. Notwithstanding the provisions of this Act, private estates in land of Her Majesty, her heirs or successors, as defined in "The Crown Private Estates Act, 1862," and situate or arising in Scotland, which are or shall be held feudally directly under the Crown as superior, may lawfully be held by Her Majesty, or her heirs or successors, of and under herself or themselves as sovereign or sovereigns of this realm and feudal superiors, and the dominium utile thereof shall not be held to merge in the dominium directum or superiority, or to be consolidated therewith; and such private estates shall not thereby fall or revert to the Crown jure coronæ, but shall remain beneficially separate private estates of Her Majesty, her heirs and successors.

Section 11 of Titles to Land Consolidation Act repealed.

61. Section eleven of "The Titles to Land Consolidation (Scotland) Act, 1868," is hereby repealed; and it is provided that in all cases where any lands have been particularly described in any conveyance, deed, or instrument of or relating thereto, recorded in the appropriate register of sasines, it shall not be necessary in any subsequent conveyance, deed, or instrument, conveying or referring to the whole or any part of such lands, to repeat the particular description of the lands at length; but it shall be sufficient to specify the name of the county, and where the lands were held by burgage or by any similar tenure prior to the commencement of this Act, the name of the burgh and county in which the lands are situated, and to refer to the particular description of such lands as contained in such prior conveyance, deed, or instrument so recorded in or as nearly as may be in the form set forth in Schedule O. hereto annexed; and the specification and reference so made in any such subsequent conveyance, deed, or instrument, whether dated prior or subsequent to the commencement of this Act, shall be held to be equivalent to the full insertion of the particular description contained in such prior conveyance, deed, or instrument, and shall have the same effect as if the particular description had been inserted in such subsequent conveyance, deed, or instrument exactly as it is contained in such prior conveyance, deed, or instrument; and it is further provided, that it shall not be competent, notwithstanding the terms of the section hereby repealed, or the form of the schedule therein referred to, to object to any specification and reference to any particular description of lands contained in any conveyance, deed, or instrument recorded prior to the commencement of this Act, provided such specification and reference states correctly the name of the county, and where the lands were held by burgage or by any similar tenure prior to the commencement of this Act, the name of the burgh and county in which the lands are situated, and refers correctly to the prior recorded conveyance, deed, or instrument containing the particular description of such lands; and where any conveyance, deed, or instrument recorded prior to the commencement of this Act contains a specification and reference stating these particulars correctly, the specification and reference so made shall be held to have been equivalent to the full insertion of the particular description contained in the prior conveyance, deed, or instrument referred to, as if the particular description had been inserted in such recorded conveyance, deed, or instrument exactly as it is contained in the prior conveyance, deed, or instrument referred to.

Description of lands contained in recorded deeds may be inserted in subsequent writs by reference merely.

Reference already made in recorded deed not challengeable if certain particulars correctly given.

62. Section sixty-two of "The Titles to Land Consolidation (Scotland) Act, 1868," and section four of "The Titles to Land Consolidation (Scotland) Amendment Act, 1869," are hereby repealed, and in place thereof the following words shall be deemed and taken to be the sixty-second section of the said Act of 1868, and the said Act of 1868 shall be read and construed as if the sixty-second section thereof had been originally expressed in the following words, viz :

Y y 2

Section 62 of the Titles, to Land Consolidation Act, 1868, and section 4 of the Titles to Land Consolidation Amendment Act, 1869, repealed.

Effect of a decree of adjudication or sale.

In all cases a decree of adjudication, whether for debt or in implement, or a decree of constitution and adjudication, whether for debt or in implement, if duly obtained in the form prescribed by this Act, or obtained, if prior to the commencement of this Act, in the form then in use, or a decree of declarator and adjudication, or a decree of sale, shall, except in the case where the subjects contained in the decree of adjudication, or of constitution and adjudication, or of declarator and adjudication, are heritable securities, be held equivalent to and shall have the legal operation and effect of a conveyance in ordinary form of the lands therein contained granted in favour of the adjudger or purchaser by the ancestor of such apparent heir, or by the owner or proprietor in trust or otherwise, and whether in life or deceased, of the lands adjudged, or by the seller of the lands sold, although in nonage or of insane mind, to be holden in the case of lands not held by burgage tenure in the manner and to the effect and subject to the provisions enacted and provided by the sixth section of this Act in the case of conveyances in which no manner of holding is expressed, and to be holden of Her Majesty in free burgage in the case of lands held by burgage tenure; and it shall be lawful and competent to such adjudger or purchaser to complete feudal titles to said lands, not only by infestment on such decree as a conveyance or by using it, for the purpose of infestment, as an assignation or as one of a series of assignations of an unrecorded conveyance, as the case may be, in the manner provided by this Act, but also when the lands are not held by burgage tenure, by obtaining from the superior charter of adjudication or of sale of said lands and expeding infestment on such charter in common form, or where the ancestor of such apparent heir, or the owner or proprietor in trust or otherwise, or seller of the lands adjudged or sold, shall have been or shall be entered with his superior, or in a situation to charge such superior, under the powers in this Act contained, to grant entry by confirmation, by taking infestment on such decree as a conveyance, in the manner provided by this Act, and thereafter obtaining from the superior of the lands a charter or writ of confirmation of such decree and infestment proceeding on the same, which infestment shall, with such decree, be an effectual feudal investiture in the said lands in terms of such decree, holding base of the owner or proprietor in trust or otherwise, or seller of the lands adjudged or sold, and his heirs, until confirmation thereof shall be granted by the superior of the lands, in the same manner and to the same effect as if such owner or proprietor or seller had granted a disposition of the lands to the adjudger or purchaser in the terms of the said decree, with an obligation to infest a me vel de me to be completed by confirmation, and a precept of sasine, and the adjudger or purchaser had been infest on such precept, and the effect of the charter or writ of confirmation of such decree or of the infeftment thus proceeding upon the same shall be to make the lands hold immediately of and under such superior; but the right of the superior to the composition payable by the adjudger or purchaser as due under the existing law is hereby reserved entire, and the adjudger or purchaser, by taking infeftment on any such decree in any of the modes above mentioned, shall become indebted in such composition to the superior, and shall be bound to pay the same on the superior tendering a charter or writ of confirmation, whether such charter or writ shall be accepted or not, and the superior shall be entitled to recover such composition as accords of law; and it is hereby provided, that such infeftment on any such decree shall, without prejudice to any other diligence or procedure, be of itself sufficient to make the adjudication effectual in all questions of bankruptcy or diligence: Provided always, that where the investiture of any lands has imposed or shall impose a prohibition against subinfeudation or alternative holding, such adjudger or purchaser shall, in respect of such recorded decree or of any notarial instrument following on such decree, and notwithstanding any such prohibition, be deemed and taken to be duly infeft in the lands adjudged or sold as from the date of recording such decree or instrument, but without prejudice to the right of the superior to require such adjudger or purchaser to enter forthwith as accords of law, and to deal with such adjudger or purchaser, as with a vassal unentered.

63. Section one hundred and twenty-five of "The Titles to Land Consolidation (Scotland) Act, 1868," is hereby repealed, and in place thereof the following words shall be deemed and be taken to be the one hundred and twenty-fifth section of the last-recited Act, and the last-recited Act shall be read and construed as if the one hundred and twenty-fifth section thereof had been originally expressed in the following words, viz.:

Section 125 of Titles to Land Consolidation
Act, 1868,
repealed.

Upon the death of any creditor in right of an heritable security constituted by infeftment as aforesaid from which executors shall not have been excluded, who shall die leaving a testamentary or mortis causa deed or writing naming executors, or disposing or bequeathing his moveable estate or disposing or bequeathing the security, it shall be competent for the executors duly confirmed, or for the disponees, or for the legatees, as the case may be, to complete a title thereto by a writ of acknowledgment to be granted in their favour by the debtor in the said security infeft in the lands comprehended therein, in or as nearly as may be in the form set forth in Schedule (II.) hereto annexed; and when the executors or disponees (being more than one) shall be appointed under such deed or writing for holding the moveable estate of the deceased in trust for the purposes of the deed or writing, tors excluded.

and not wholly for their own beneficial interest, it shall be competent (when not expressly precluded by the terms of the deed or writing) to take the said writ in favour of the said executors or disponees, and the survivors or survivor of them ; and where any creditor has died or shall die before the commencement of this Act in right of such an heritable security, or where any creditor shall die thereafter in right of such an heritable security, from which executors shall have been excluded, it shall be competent for the heir of such creditor to complete a title to the security by a writ of acknowledgment as aforesaid ; and on such writ being recorded in the appropriate register of sasines, the executors, disponees, or legatees, or heirs, as the case may be, in whose favour such writ has been granted, shall be vested with the full right of the creditor in such security, and shall be held to be entered with the superior in like manner and to the same effect as the original creditor himself.

Section 127 of last-recited Act repealed.

64. Section one hundred and twenty-seven of the last-recited Act is hereby repealed, and in place thereof the following words shall be deemed and be taken to be the one hundred and twenty-seventh section of the last-recited Act, and the last-recited Act shall be read and construed as if the one hundred and twenty-seventh section thereof had been originally expressed in the following words, viz. :

Executor nominate or dispo-nee mortis causa may complete title by notarial instrument.

Upon the death of any creditor in right of an heritable security constituted by infertment as aforesaid from which executors shall not have been excluded, and who shall die leaving a testamentary or mortis causa deed or writing naming executors, or disposing or bequeathing his moveable estate, or disposing or bequeathing the security, it shall be competent for the executors, duly confirmed, or for the disponees, or for the legatees, as the case may be, to complete a title thereto by expeding and recording in the appropriate register of sasines an instrument under the hand of a notary public in the form or as nearly as may be in the form of Schedule (K.K.) hereto annexed ; and when such executors or disponees, or legatees, being more than one, shall not be entitled to such security wholly for their own beneficial interest, it shall be competent to take such notarial instrument in favour of such executors or disponees or legatees, and the survivors and survivor of them, unless such a destination be expressly excluded by the terms of the deed or writing ; and where any creditor has died or shall die before the commencement of this Act, in right of such an heritable security, and leaving a mortis causa conveyance thereof, or of his heritable estate generally, or where any creditor shall die thereafter in right of such an heritable security from which executors shall have been excluded and leaving such a mortis causa conveyance, or a testamentary deed or writing within the meaning of the twentieth section of this Act, it shall be competent to the grantee or legatee under such mortis causa conveyance or testamentary deed or writing to complete a title to the security by notarial instrument as aforesaid; and on such instrument being so recorded the executors, disponees, legatees, or grantees, as the case may be, in whose favour such instrument has been expedite, shall be vested with the full right of the creditor in such security, and shall be held to be entered with the superior in like manner and to the same effect as the original creditor himself.

65. Section one hundred and twenty-nine of the last-recited Act is hereby repealed, and in place thereof the following words shall be deemed and be taken to be the one hundred and twenty-ninth section of the last-recited Act, and the last-recited Act shall be read and construed as if the one hundred and twenty-ninth section thereof had been originally expressed in the following words, viz.:

Section 129 of last-recited Act repealed.

In all cases of adjudication, whether for debt or in implement, or of constitution and adjudication whether for debt or in implement, in which the adjudger has obtained a decree of adjudication or of constitution and adjudication in the manner and to the effect provided by this Act, or in cases of declarator and adjudication, where the subjects contained in any such decree are heritable securities, it shall be competent for the adjudger to complete his title to such securities by recording either the abbreviate of adjudication or an extract of such decree in the appropriate register of sasines, in either of which cases he shall be in the same position as if an assignation of such heritable securities had been granted in his favour by the ancestor or person or creditor in trust or otherwise, and whether in life or deceased, whose estate is adjudged, and as if such assignation had been duly recorded in the appropriate register of sasines at the date of so recording such abbreviate or such extract decree.

Adjudgers may complete their title by recording abbreviate or extract decree of adjudication.

66. The schedules annexed to this Act, and the directions therein contained, and notes thereto appended, shall have the same effect as if they were contained in the body of this Act.

Schedules to be part of Act.

67. All statutes, laws, and usages at variance with any of the provisions of this Act are hereby repealed.

Repeal of Acts, &c.

68. Nothing herein contained shall affect any action now in dependence, or that shall be instituted before the commencement of this Act.

Saving clause.

SCHEDULES.

SCHEDULE A.

FORM OF NOTICE TO BE GIVEN TO A SUPERIOR OF CHANGE OF OWNERSHIP.

(Place and date.)

Sir,

I hereby intimate to you that ⁽¹⁾ has [or have] now right to ⁽²⁾ which lands [or subjects] formerly belonged to ⁽³⁾.

I am, Sir,

Your most obedient servant, ⁽⁴⁾.

⁽¹⁾ Here state name, designation, and address of the new proprietor or proprietors of the feu.

⁽²⁾ Here mention the names by which the lands or subjects are generally known, so as to distinguish them to the superior, but without giving any detailed description of the lands or subjects, and if in a town or village mention the number of the street or otherwise distinguish the feu, and if a reference to the feu right will more easily and clearly distinguish the lands or subjects a reference to the feu right can be given, but the superior shall not be entitled to object either that the name or designation or address of the new proprietor or proprietors of the feu is erroneous, or that the form in which the lands or subjects are referred to is insufficient or erroneous, unless it can be shown that the notice given as to these particulars or any of them was intended to mislead the superior as to the identity of the new proprietor or proprietors of the feu or as to the particular lands or subjects to which the notice should have referred.

⁽³⁾ Insert the name of the last entered vassal, whether by actual entry previous to the commencement of this Act or by implied entry under it.

⁽⁴⁾ To be signed (but not attested) by the seller of the feu, or by heir or the trustees or executors of a deceased proprietor, or by any one of the trustees or executors for himself and his co-trustees or co-executors, or by an agent of any of these parties.

To be addressed and posted or delivered to the superior or to his known agent, or to the person to whom the feu-duties of the feu have been paid, and in the event of the superior being unknown or doubtful, the notice to be addressed "to the superior" of the lands mentioned in the notice without name (in the event of the proprietor being unable to ascertain name of the superior), and to be posted or sent to the keeper of the Office of Edictal Citations in Edinburgh, and published in the register of these citations, and also (where there is doubt as to the superior) to the person or to the agent of the person as to whom such doubt exists.

SCHEDULE B.

FORM OF SUMMONS OF DECLARATOR AND FOR PAYMENT OF A CASUALTY.

VICTORIA, &c. Whereas it is humbly meant and shown to us by our lovite A. CHAPTER 95.

An Act to continue certain Turnpike Acts in Great Britain, and to repeal certain other Turnpike Acts; and for other purposes connected therewith.

[7th August 1874.]

WHEREAS it is expedient to continue for limited times some of the Acts herein-after specified, and to repeal others, and to make further provisions concerning turnpike roads :

Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

1. The Acts specified in the first schedule annexed hereto shall be repealed on and after the first day of November one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four. Schedule 1.

2. The Acts specified in the second schedule annexed hereto shall be repealed on and after the thirty-first day of December one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four. Schedule 2.

3. The Acts specified in the third schedule annexed hereto shall expire at the times in that behalf mentioned in "The Annual Turnpike Acts Continuance Act, 1873." Schedule 3.

4. The Acts specified in the fourth schedule annexed hereto shall continue in force until the dates specified in each instance, and no longer. Schedule 4.

5. The Acts specified in the first and second columns of the fifth schedule annexed hereto shall, to the extent specified in the third column thereof, as from the dates specified in the fourth column thereof, be subject to the modifications specified in the fifth column thereof, and shall, to the same extent, as so modified, continue in force until the dates specified in the sixth column thereof, and no longer. Schedule 5.

Where specified in the seventh column thereof the arrears of interest due on the thirty-first day of December one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three, and remaining unpaid at the time of the passing of this Act, in respect of the roads subject to the trusts comprised in so much of the Acts as is specified in the third column thereof, are hereby extinguished.

6. The Acts specified in the first and second columns of the sixth schedule annexed hereto shall, to the extent specified in the third column thereof, as from the dates specified in the fourth column thereof, be subject to the modifications specified in the fifth column thereof, and shall, to the same extent, as so modified, continue in force until the dates specified in the sixth column thereof, unless Parliament in the meantime otherwise provides. Schedule 6.

Schedule 7. 7. The Acts specified in the seventh schedule annexed hereto shall continue in force until the first day of November one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five, and no longer, unless Parliament in the meantime otherwise provides.

Schedule 8. 8. The Acts relating to turnpike trusts in Scotland, specified in the eighth schedule annexed hereto, shall, unless Parliament in the meantime otherwise provides, continue in force until the first day of November one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five, and to the end of the then next session of Parliament.

Continuance of all other Turnpike Acts. 9. Such provisions, if any, of the said Acts mentioned in the said schedules as are not affected by the preceding sections, and all other Acts now in force for regulating, making, amending, or repairing any turnpike road in Great Britain which will expire at or before the end of the next session of Parliament, shall continue in force until the first day of November one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five, and to the end of the then next session of Parliament, unless Parliament in the meantime otherwise provides; but this section shall not affect any Act continued to a specified date and no longer.

Repair of roads by highway authorities in certain cases. 10. Where by any Annual Turnpike Acts Continuance Act it is or shall be provided that no money shall be expended in the repair of any turnpike road, such turnpike road shall be deemed to be a highway, and shall be repairable as such; provided that where such highway, or any portion thereof, shall pass through any highway district constituted under the Highway Acts, 1862 and 1864, the cost of maintaining such highway, or any such portion thereof, shall be deemed to be expenses incurred for the common use or benefit of the several parishes within such district, and shall be charged accordingly on the district fund.

Apportionment of bonded debt under 36 & 37 Vict. c. 90. s. 15. 11. Where the Local Government Board in exercise of the discretionary power conferred upon them by section fifteen of "The Annual Turnpike Acts Continuance Act, 1873," make an order determining the value of the existing debt and liabilities of a turnpike trust, the Board may by the same order declare to whom and in respect of what claim or claims the whole or any part of the value of such debt and liabilities is to be paid.

The term "existing debt and other liabilities" used in the said fifteenth section of "The Annual Turnpike Acts Continuance Act, 1873," means the bonded or mortgage debt of a turnpike trust, and any unpaid interest due thereon.

Short title. 12. This Act may be cited for all purposes as "The Annual Turnpike Acts Continuance Act, 1874."

CHAPTER 96.

An Act for further promoting the Revision of the Statute Law by repealing certain Enactments which have ceased to be in force or have become unnecessary. [7th August 1874.]

WHEREAS, with a view to the revision of the Statute Law, and particularly to the preparation of the Revised Edition of the Statutes now in progress, it is expedient that certain enactments (mentioned in the schedule to this Act) which may be regarded as spent, or have ceased to be in force otherwise than by express and specific repeal by Parliament, or have, by lapse of time and change of circumstances, become unnecessary, should be expressly and specifically repealed:

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

Enactments in schedule
repealed.

Saving.

1. The enactments described in the schedule to this Act are hereby repealed, subject to the exceptions and qualifications in the schedule mentioned:

Provided, that where any enactment not comprised in the schedule has been repealed, confirmed, revived, or perpetuated by any enactment hereby repealed, such repeal, confirmation, revivor, or perpetuation shall not be affected by the repeal effected by this Act:

and the repeal by this Act of any enactment shall not affect any enactment in which such enactment has been applied, incorporated, or referred to;

nor shall such repeal of any enactment affect any right to any hereditary revenues of the Crown, or affect any charges thereupon, or prevent any such enactment from being put in force for the collection of any such revenues, or otherwise in relation thereto ;

and this Act shall not affect the validity, invalidity, effect, or consequences of anything already done or suffered,—or any existing status or capacity,—or any right or title already acquired or accrued, or any remedy or proceeding in respect thereof,—or any release or discharge of or from any debt, penalty, claim, or demand,—or any indemnity,—or the proof of any past act or thing ;

nor shall this Act affect any principle or rule of law or equity, or established jurisdiction, form or course of pleading, practice or procedure, or existing usage, franchise, liberty, custom, privilege, restriction, exemption, office, appointment, payment, allowance, or emolument, notwithstanding that the same respectively may have been in any manner affirmed, recognised, or derived by, in, or from any enactment hereby repealed ;

nor shall this Act revive or restore any jurisdiction, office, duty, drawback, fee, payment, franchise, liberty, custom, right, title, privilege, restriction, exemption, usage, practice, procedure, or other matter or thing not now existing or in force ;

and this Act shall not extend to repeal any enactment so far as the same may be in force in any part of Her Majesty's Dominions out of the United Kingdom, except where otherwise expressed in the said schedule.

2. The Statute Law Revision Act, 1874, shall be read and construed as if in the entry in the schedule to that Act relating to the Act passed in the first year of Her Majesty's reign, chapter eighty-eight, intituled "An Act to amend certain Acts relating to the crime of Piracy," the words "Section Six" and "Section Seven" had been substituted for the words "Section Four" and "Section Five" respectively.

Amendment of 37 & 38 Vict. c. 35. as to partial repeal of 7 Will. 4. & 1 Vict. c. 88.

3. This Act may be cited as The Statute Law Revision Act, 1874 (No. 2).

Short title.
