It may perhaps be recollected that, nine years ago, the present writer published a Bibliographical Account of Early English Literature, being the earliest experiment of the kind made on anything approaching to a large and systematic scale. Few persons, and probably no one of practical experience, were surprised to find that this work was both incomplete and inaccurate; and that it was so was due to causes over which the author had only partial control. Where a book to be described was not accessible to him personally, it became necessary to resort to secondary authorities, all more or less treacherous—(1) transcribers, (2) earlier bibliographical publications, (3) catalogues.

Even professional copyists are naturally not infallible, and the mistakes arising from the necessity for employing them were both numerous and grave; but it was not in every case practicable to secure the services of such persons, and the help of amateurs was thankfully accepted.

Of my predecessors in the same field of work it becomes me at the same time to speak both respectfully and indulgently, and I shall confine myself to the general remark that Sir Egerton Brydges, Joseph Haslewood, the editor of the Bibliotheca Anglo-Poetica, and other men of that period, as well as some of their followers, do not seem to have regarded it as urgent or imperative to transfer to their own pages the particulars of the books which they describe with that literal exactitude which belongs to my plan. The consequence is, that where I was led (from no choice of my own) to adopt the titles and collations ready-done (as it seemed) to my hand elsewhere, it has proved no economy of labour in the long run, as the whole ground has had to be traversed again, and the articles to be rewritten with the volumes themselves before me.<sup>1</sup>

Since 1867 no undescribed, or misdescribed, book of my class has come within my reach—I might almost say, has come into the market—without being examined and catalogued, and in this way thousands of books and tracts have passed under my personal scrutiny. In the course of these years much has been added to our knowledge, as well of works, as of editions of works, not previously traced or recognised. My individual researches, which have been almost incessant, have resulted in the verification of many points which were in doubt, and in the discovery of much that was supposed to have perished. Ex pede Herculem—even a damaged leaf will establish the existence at one time of an impression, perhaps a large one, of the entire work.

The present is emphatically an intermediate undertaking. There is no pretence or attempt to furnish, in every case, either the complete works of an author, or all the editions of his works, or every early English volume not included in the Handbook. The following pages represent the result of nine years' laborious and steady gatherings from a variety of quarters, and, as such, are submitted diffidently to the favour and judgment of the public. These Collectanea, which may be considered as having substantially much of the value and interest attached to a descriptive catalogue of a particular library, have a moral of their own, illustrating the extraordinary changes which have occurred in literary tastes and opinions, and showing the prominence which was once given, and the value once attached, to many hundreds of now forgotten and neglected authors or subjects.

<sup>1</sup> Considerable mischief has been done by persons who, under pretence of furnishing exact copies of old titles in reprints of books and tracts, have departed from their originals, not only linearly and literally, but verbally. Such is the case with nine-tenths of the reproductions of the last and present century, and it is well that it should be generally known.

For years to come (if he is spared) the author has no intention of venturing on so gigantic an enterprise as a new edition of the Handbook of Early English Literature, and assuredly now such an attempt would have been altogether premature. It is his wish and design to avail himself of every addition which may be made from time to time to our bibliographical stores, and ultimately to produce an entirely new and remodelled book, which may serve as a companion to an enlarged Biographia Britannica, the latter a scheme which was entertained by the late Sir Frederic Madden.

The volume now offered to the public is composed partly of rewritten matter, but chiefly of new. So far as the rewritten matter is concerned, it cannot be too distinctly stated or understood that, though it may often appear to repeat what has been already given with sufficient copiousness of detail, the information has been drawn from entirely independent sources, or, in other words, from the books described, instead of being taken unavoidably at second-hand. Not a single line of the Handbook has been reprinted totidem verbis, as such a proceeding would have been an unwarranted encroachment on the rights of the proprietor of that work.

It is understood, I presume, that a bibliographer does not treat it as part of his duty to draw the line of distinction too nicely between productions of intrinsic importance and productions whose principal value lies in their curious character and accidental scarcity. But I have occasionally pointed out cases where it seemed that too great a stress was laid on mere rarity as a recommendation, and I think that English collectors have still a good deal to learn in this direction; nor would a Manual, not to be like Dibdin's Library Companion, but to be formed somewhat on the same plan, be ill-timed. A Key to the choice of Early English Literature, which should give sound and independent advice, and assist in dissipating the costly illusion that everything in the similitude of an old book is valuable, might prove indeed what the Library Companion purported to be, "the young man's guide, and the old man's comfort."

My own taste as to the choice of books is widely different from that of the major part of our present race of collectors ; and I like to look forward to the time when buyers or fanciers of such things will cultivate what is old, not because it is old and uncommon, but in spite of its antiquity and uncommonness. The aggregation of miscellaneous assemblages of literary gewgaws or emptinesses by undiscerning persons is surely a very unsatisfactory spectacle. Buy books if you love books ; buy them if you are a student—if you are a reader ; but, in the name of reason, do not buy them simply because your neighbour does. That is one of the least wise forms which flattery can take. The foundation and possession of a good or even a fine library, rank among the most delightful incidents of cultivated life, and even some scholars (take Heinsius, Selden, Burton, formerly, or in our own day, Buckle) have condescended to become book-hunters. But above every one we have to place the all-accomplished Heber, to whose enormous attainments Dibdin has borne some testimony in a well-known passage of the Literary Reminiscences. He was indeed —“velut inter ignes luna minores.”

Perhaps Brunet goes a little too far in underrating the importance of articles, but it is the better and safer extreme ; and it may be taken as a very good basis of operations by intending collectors or budding bibliomaniacs, that the majority of old books, like the majority of old pictures, and (in short) old everything, are comparatively worthless in a pecuniary point of view, while those which maintain their rank in the market have frequently nothing to justify the prices which they realise but the single circumstance that very few persons formerly thought them worthy of preservation. In fact, there are thousands of old English books which bear a disagreeable resemblance, in the writer's estimation, to waste-paper, and among these are the most costly and the most highly-prized treasures of collections in our day.

That there are exceptions, it is true. Some of the works of Spenser, Shakespeare, Daniel, Drayton, Bacon, exist for us in one or two copies, of which the worth is not capable of measurement by any commonplace standard ; but these are pieces of literature, not bric-à-brac, like the effusions of Nicholas Breton and certain other pamphleteers, from whom a few casual allusions, rendered interesting by circumstances or time, are all the purchaser gets in return for what would yield a small annuity. After all said, however, the five or six thousand articles which are comprised within the present volume belong to what was once a current and accepted literature—a literature which fulfilled a certain share in the important duty of instructing our ancestors and amusing them ; and surely a faithful record and full descriptive account of such a body of material cannot be treated as superfluous.

Old English books may be classed under three heads—(1) Direct importance ; (2) indirect or collateral importance ; (3) bibliographical curiosity. Of these it may be said that only the first and second categories repay the attention of literary inquirers ; and even as regards works of which the value consists in some feature not immediately connected with the writer, the interest is often so languid or so fractional, that it is apt to be exhausted in some judicious essay or in a descriptive catalogue. Articles which fall within the third and remaining section—bibliographical curiosities—are to be treated rather as cabinet specimens than as books, and are worth—what they fetch. They are liable to great fluctuations in their marketable worth, for the simple reason that their worth is as uncertain as an unknown quantity in equations.

The counsel which should be tendered to the forthcoming race of bibliophiles by some new Dibdin might with advantage, perhaps, be grounded on the principle of keeping in sight, in the formation of a library, the literary or intrinsic, in preference to the commercial or casual, qualities of the material employed, so to speak, in its construction. Curiosities rise and fall with the caprices of taste and fashion ; but standard books never vary.

An eminent collector, who buys rare and dear books, not because they are rare and dear, but notwithstanding their rarity and dearness, has remarked to the writer that the best books, for the most part, are the commonest, and this observation holds true, saving a few isolated and exceptional cases, of the literature which possesses the highest claim to our attention—the literature which is intrinsically and directly important—important, not from associations which happen to have grown up round it, but in itself and for its own sake.

Bookbinding is indirectly connected with bibliography, in so far as it exerts so vast an influence over the selling value of copies. But it rather belongs to the Fine Arts than to literature proper, and it is a subject which I have rarely approached. Old English books with early decorated bindings of conspicuous beauty are, in point of fact, of such rare occurrence, that a descriptive account of all known examples would fall far short of filling a volume like that of Libri. Perhaps it is virtually nothing to the purpose that biblioegy is treated by severely practical book-fanciers as the mere upholstery of the question.

A folio MS. in the library of Mr Henry Huth includes among its multifarious contents a catalogue of old plays, which becomes of curiosity, as it seems to supply the earliest record of the formation of a dramatic collection in England. It is to be presumed that the owner of it was Henry Oxenden of Barham, and it comprised one hundred and twenty-one separate pieces, bound in six volumes. Among them may be recognised some of the most extraordinary rarities in our language, such as Udall's Ralph Roister Doister, the Hamlet of 1603, The Tide tarrieth no Man, Marlowe's Dido, and others, which are entitled from their scarcity to rank as MSS. The list is printed entire in Mr Huth's forthcoming Catalogue.

In conclusion, I have extreme pleasure in recognising the assistance which has been rendered to me in the course of my nine years' additional labours by several friends, who allowed me to enrich myself at the expense of their information or stores to an extent beyond any claim I had on their kindness. I beg to mention especially my obligations to Mr Henry Huth; Mr Henry Bradshaw, who manifested the warmest interest in my imperfect labours, and opened to me freely the too-little-known stores of the Cambridge University Library; the Rev. H. O. Coxe, Bodley's Librarian; Mr Furnival, who sent me memoranda of everything he considered likely to be serviceable; Mr Henry Pyne, who afforded me constant access to his valuable collections, as well as the benefit of his still more valuable knowledge; Mr George Bullen, who greatly facilitated my supplementary researches at the British Museum; Mr Sketchley, with whose kind co-operation I supplied certain important deficiencies in my original work from the treasures of the Dyce Collection at South Kensington; and the Right Honourable the Earl Spencer (through the good offices of the Hon. and Rev. F. J. Ponsonby, Rector of Brington), by whose liberality I have been again enabled to profit, as was the case in 1867. Dr Ingleby also supplied me with the titles and collations of some curious books in his possession.

Nor must I omit to record my gratitude to those well-known firms of auctioneers, Messrs Sotheby, Wilkinson, & Hodge, and Messrs Puttick & Simpson; and to Mr Pearson, Mr Ellis, Mr Pickering, Mr Quaritch, Messrs Nattali & Bond, and other eminent booksellers, for the facilities which they always afforded to me in the course of my researches.

Printed for Francis Coules, in the Yeare 1641. 4°, 4 leaves. Black letter. With a cut representing the preacher and his strange auditory.

ADAMSON, JOHN.

Ta Tōn Mousōn Eisodia. The Myses Welcome to the High and Mightie Prince Iames by the Grace of God King of Great Britaine France and Ireland, Defender of the Faith, &c. At His M. Happie Returne to His Old and Native Kingdome of Scotland after xiiii. Years absence in A<sup>nno</sup> 1617. Soli sic pervius orbis [and a Greek motto]. Edinbvrgh, Printed by Thomas Finlason, Printer to His most excellent Maiestie. 1618. Folio. Collation: Portrait of James I., printed title as above, Dedication, verses, &c. 5 leaves: A—L, 2 leaves each: Oratio per Joannem Haivum, &c. 4 leaves: M—D d, 2 leaves each: E e—D d, 2 leaves each: E e—D d d in fours: [a new title page,] Planctus & Vota Musaruu in Avgvstissimi Monarchæ Iacobi Magnæ Britannix, &c. Recessu è Scotia in Angliam Augusti 4. Anno 1617. Edinborgi, Excudebat Andreas Hart, Anno 1618. Cum Privilegio, &c. A—C 2 in fours, C 2 blank.

This interesting publication includes pieces by Drummond of Hawthornden (a reprint of his Forth Feasting), Alexander Craig of Rose-craig, Sir William Mure of Rowallan, David Hume, and most of the eminent writers of the day.

There were two issues of this volume in 1618, varying in the preliminaries only, which were set up twice, and are arranged differently. As the device of Andro Hart appears in one of the ornaments in the other, it may be questioned whether the whole volume was not really printed by him, and whether Finlason did more than attach his name to certain copies.

It may be added that the catchword No, at sign. L 2 verso, does not correspond with the first word on any of the subsequent pages, and it appears as if some matter had been suppressed.

ADAMSON, PATRICK.

ALEXANDER AND LODWICK.

Treue-bly-cynde-spel van Alexander . . tAmsterdam: voor Jan Euerterz . . 161 4°, chiefly black letter, A—K in fours, 4 blank.

This is said to be a Dutch adaptation of Martin Slaughter's lost drama of Alexander and Lodowick, and also to be a story, which Shakespeare (or whoever was tl author) to a certain extent founded tl play of Pericles. Unmentioned by Collier, and this Dutch copy seems to have been unknown to Mr Halliwell and Mr Kohn.

This is the same story as Amis and Amboise. The play on this subject by Martin Slaughter was acted in 1598.

ALEXANDER THE GREAT.

Alexander the Great, a romance (1570).

The copy reprinted for the Bannatyne Club wants the titlepage and sign. I. (8 leaves). See Laing's Adversaria, 1867, p. 1. In the British Museum is a printed fragment of 6 leaves, belonging to some English version of Alexander. See Ibid. p. 2.

ALIMONY, LADY.

Lady Alimony; Or, The Alimony Lady. An Excellent Pleasant New Comedy Duly Authorized, daily Acted, and frequently Followed. [Quotat. from Lucretius.] London. Printed for Tho. Vere and William Gilbertson, and are to be sold at the Angel without New-gate, and at the Bible in Gilt-spur-street. 1659. 4<sup>o</sup>, K in fours.

Reprinted in Hazlitt's Dodsley.

ALINTON, ROBERT.

[Libellus Sophistarum.] At the end: Finit Sophistarum libellus ad vsum Oxoniensiu felicitet. With Pynson's cypher and device; No date, 4<sup>o</sup>, black letter, A—M, in sixes, and N, 8 leaves, including printer's mark on reverse of N 8, recto being blank.

The copy before me wants the title. This and the edition of 1530 by W. de Worde appear to be the only impressions for which there is any sufficient evidence. Lowndes quotes without the slightest real authority impressions by W. de Worde in 1512 and 1524, referring to the Bodleian copy of the former, which does not exist, and to Dr Bliss's copy of the latter, which is now before me, with Pynson's device, as already described.

ALLEN, CARDINAL.

The Copie of a Letter written by M. Doctor Allen: concerning the yeelding vp of the Citie of Danentrie, vnto his Catholike Maestie by Sir William Stanley Knight. Wherin is shewed howe lawful, honorable, and necessarie that action was: and also that al others, especiallie those of the English Nation, that detayne anie townes, or other places, in the lowe countries, from the King Catholike, are bound, vpon paine of damnation, to do the like. Before which is also prefixed a gentlemans letter, that gaue occasion of this discourse. [Quot. from Matth. 22.] Imprinted at Antuarpe, by Ioachim Trognæsius. Anno 1587.

8<sup>o</sup>, roman letter, pp. 30, besides title and approbation. Br. Museum (Grenville).

ALLEN, J.

The Younger Brother His Apologie, or A Fathers Free Power disputed for the disposition of his Lands, or other his Fortunes, to his Sonne, Sonnes, or any one of them: as right Reason, the Lawes of God and Nature, the Civill, Canon, and Municipall Lawes of this Kingdome doe command. [Quot. from Prov. 31, 8 & 29, 7.] Oxford, Printed by Iohn Lichfield for Edward Forrest, 1624. 4<sup>o</sup>, A—I 2 in fours.

The date in the colophon is 1634, probably by mistake, as the title would be printed last, according to our modern typographical usage. This is believed to be one of the earliest tracts on the question of primogeniture.

ALLIN, JOHN.

An Exact Relation of the most Execrable Attempts of John Allin, Committed on the Person of His Excellency Francis Lord Willoughby of Parham, Captain General of the Carriby-Islands, and of all the Carriby-Islands, and our Lord Proprietor. In prose. ¶, 4 leaves, ¶ ¶, 2 leaves; A—R 2 in fours. Osterley Park, Britwell, and H. Huth, Esq. (a leaf deficient).

Mr Huth's copy belonged to Mr Inglis. Dedicated by the publisher to Sir Thomas Gresham. There are introductory verses by T. H. (I presume Hacket) and A. R. Unseen by Herbert.

A copy of this volume appears to be at Osterley Park. From the entry of the book at Stationers' Hall (see Herbert's Ames, p. 900) we learn that the translator was Thomas Paynell, a well-known literary man as early as 1533. The book was licensed in 1567.

The Second Booke of Amadis de Gaule. Containing the description, wonders, and conquest of the Ferine-Island. The triumphes and troubles of Amadis. His manifold victories obtained, and sundry seruices done for King Lisuart. The Kinges ingratitude, and first occasion of those broils and mortal wars, that no small time continued between him and Amadis. Englished by L. P. London, Printed for C. Burbie, and are to be sold at his shop at the Royal-Exchange. 1595. 4<sup>o</sup>, A—L I in fours, first leaf blank. Black letter. Br. Museum.

Dedicated to Master Walter Borough. Here Lazarus Pyott [Anthony Munday] calls himself "an unlearned soldier," and acknowledges the obligations he owed to Borough and his father. He also says he had followed his original "rightly, though not rhetorically." In the dedication of the fourth book (in the folio of 1619) to the Earl of Montgomery, Munday promises the fifth and sixth books shortly—an engagement which was not fulfilled. The third and fourth books are dated 1618. See Mr Huth's volume of Prefaces, &c., 1874, p. 289.

The Fifth Book of the Most Pleasant and Delectable History of Amadis de Gaule, containing the first Part of the most Strange, Valiant, and worthy Acts of Esplaudiau Son to Amadis De Gaule: As his strange sayling in the Great Serpent, the Winning of his Sword, the Conquest of the Castle of the Defended Mountain: His Warres with Armalo King of Turkey, &c. London, Printed by T. J. for Andrew Kembe at St Margaret's-Hill in Southwark, and Charls Tyus at the Three Bibles on London-Bridge. 1664. 4<sup>o</sup>, M m 2 in fours. Black letter.

The translator was Francis Kirkman. The only preliminary matter is an Epistle from the printer (Thomas Johnson) to the Reader, in which he speaks of the History of Palladine of England as already published.

The Famous and Renowned History of Amadis de Gaule. Containing the Heroick Deeds of Armes and Strange Adventures, as well of Amadis himself, as of Perion his Son, and Lisvart of Greece, Son to Esplaudian Emperor of Constantinople. Wherein is Shewed the Wars of the Christians against the Turks, &c. Being the Sixt Part never before Published. Translated out of French into English, by Francis Kirkman. London, Printed by Jane Bell, and are to be Sold by most Book-sellers. 1652. 4<sup>o</sup>, H h, in fours, and one leaf of I i.

There are commendatory verses by Thomas Snelling, J. W., Robert Kirkman, the translator's Brother, and Thomas Heath; also, an Epistle to the Reader by Kirkman himself.

Dedicated to Prince Henry. Ayscu, who dates from Cotham in Lincolnshire, 2d March, 1606[-7], seems to say that he had written this book before the Union, and had laid it aside.

AYTON, SIR ROBERT.

Several of Ayton's poems are printed or reprinted in Watson's Collection, 1706-11. In Stanley's Historical Memorials of Westminster Abbey is mentioned a bust of the poet from a portrait by Vandyke. Where is that portrait? There are some lines to Ayton in Dunbar's Epigrams, 1616, p. 73; and he himself has a laudatory poem before Alexander's Monarchic Tragedies, 1604.

BALLAD.

A New Balade or I heard one saye : . . . No place or printer's name [printed abroad, 1574]. A broadside, containing 7 stanzas, with marginal notes. Black letter.

Songe of the Lambes Feast. No place or printer's name [printed abroad, 1574.] A broadside containing 7 stanzas, with marginal notes. Black letter.

Another / out of Goodwill. Begins : The Grace from God the Father hye / Per W. S. Veritatis Amatorem. Anno. 1574. A broadside in black letter, containing 13 stanzas with marginal notes.

Probably all three pieces were by W. S.—initials which, in the former portion of the present work, were inconsiderately given to William Samuel. These three curious productions may have been originally printed on a large broadsheet together.

A New Ballad, containing a communication between the carefull Wife and the comfortable Husband, touching the common Cares and charges of House-hold.

The Housholders New-Yeers Gift, containing a pleasant Dialogue betwixt the Husband and Wife, pleasant to be regarded. To the tune of Where is my true love? London, Printed for F. Coules, dwelling in the Old-Bayly. Roeb. Coll.

Two ballads printed on the same sheet, the first with a cut. The latter may be identical with "The Wyfes newe yeres gyfte to her husband," licensed to Thomas Pavyer, 16 Dec. 1605.

A New Satyricall Ballad of the Licentiousness of the Times. To the Tune of, The Blind Beggard of Bednall-Green. London, Printed in the year, 1679.

A broadside, in two columns.

The same. W. de Worde, 4<sup>o</sup>.

Mr Huth's copy is the only one known, unless there is a second at Ham House. Mr Huth's came from G. Daniel's sale, and previously from Helmingham Hall, Suffolk.

The same. W. Copland for R. Tottell, &c. 4<sup>o</sup>.

Dent, part 2, No. 1076, one of Robert Toye's copies, £10, 10s. See Holinshed's Chron. i, 386.

BARNFIELD, RICHARD.

I am so far ignorant on what ground some of our earlier bibliographers speak of editions of the Affectionate Shepherd in 1595 and (with the Cynthia) in 1596. If such editions ever appeared, the owners of them have so far concealed their resting-place with complete success. I am not aware of any public or private library which possesses the Affectionate Shepherd otherwise than in the 4<sup>o</sup> of 1594, or the Cynthia otherwise than in the separate octavos of 1595 and 1596.

Barnfield's Affectionate Shepherd was dedicated "To the Right Excellent and most beautiful Lady, the Ladie Penelope Ritch," in two 6-line stanzas. The poet subscribes himself: "Your Honours most affectionate and perpetually devoted shepheard, Daphnis." This Lady Rich was the same who had children by the Earl of Devonshire, as mentioned in the cancelled leaf to Milles's Catalogue of Honour, 1610.

A Richard Barnfield occurs in the Churchwarden's Accounts of Minchinhampton, Co. Gloucester, under the year 1577. See Archæol. xxxv. 431.

BARON, ROBERT.

BAS, WILLIAM, the Elder.

Three Pastoral Elegies. . . . 1602

Licensed to John Barnes, May 28, 1602.

BAS, W., the Younger.

Great Brittaines Sunnes-set . . . 1613.

A perfect copy of this tract, consisting of 11 leaves, has been found in the Bodleian; or rather the leaves required to complete a fragment already there have been lately recovered. It has been reprinted in facsimile.

The Pastorals and other workes of William Basse never before imprinted. Dat frondem fronti singula Musa meæ. 1653. Imprinted at Oxford &c And are to be Sold &c. Folio, 76 leaves, including a blank at end, another in the body of the volume.

These are the particulars of an unique poetical MS. prepared for the press, but of which no printed copy is known. The title is elegantly designed, and there is a drawing of Mount Parnassus with figures, &c., which was probably intended to form a frontispiece to the book when issued. Corser, part 2, March, 1869, £29. Printed by Mr Collier, 1869, sm. 4<sup>o</sup>, 50 copies.

BASTARD, THOMAS.

Chrestoleros. . . . 1598.

This little volume is dedicated "To the Right Honourable Sir Charles Blunt Knight, Lord Monntioy, and Knight of the most noble order of the Garter." Bastard subscribes himself: "Your Honours most affectionate seruant." He observes that Epigrams are a scarce kind of writing, and evidently seemed to think that his book would at least have the attraction of novelty. He lived to see the market swarm with such things. From an allusion in Lib. 3, Epigr. 18, it would seem that the book was published at sixpence.

BATCHILER, JOHN.

The Virgins Pattern: In the Exemplary Life and lamented Death of Mrs Susanna Perwich, Daughter of Mr Robert Perwich; who departed this Life, every way a rarely accomplished Virgin, in the flower of her Age, at her Fathers House in Hackney, near London, in the county of Middlesex, July 3, 1661. Published at the earnest request of divers that knew her well, for the use and benefit of others. By John Batchiler, a neer Relation, that occasionally hath had an intimate converse in the Family with her more or less, the greatest part of her Life. London Printed by Simon Dover, and are to be sold at his House, in Martins, near Aldersgate, and at Booksellers Shops. 1661. 8°, P in eights.

This curious and scarce volume contains numerous copies of verses by various writers, acrostics, &c., in celebration of her virtues. I believe that there should be an engraved portrait.

BATE, JOHN.

The Mysteries of Nature and Art. In four severall Parts. . . . By John Bate. The third Edition with many Additions. Printed for Andrew Crooke 1654. 4°, B—H h 2 in fours, and the title-page. The last 3 leaves are occupied by the publisher's advertisements. With a profusion of engravings.

BATEMAN.

Bateman's Tragedy: Or, The Perjurd Bride justly Rewarded. Being the History of the Unfortunate Love of German's Wife and Young Bateman. London: Printed by Tho. Norris, at the Looking-glass on London-bridge. [Circâ 1700.] 4°, 12 leaves. With cuts.

The narrative itself is in prose, and is followed up by a ballad, occupying six pages, and probably a reprint of a broad-sheet.

BATH.

The Wife of Bath, a ballad.

Three stationers were fined, June 25, 1600, for printing and selling a piece so called, described in the register as "disorderly."

BATMAN, STEPHEN.

The traunayed Pylgrime. . . . 1569.

Sothebys, in 1821, £29, 18s. 6d., resold Perry, 1822, £26, 15s. 6d. Heber had an imperfect copy, and there is one, also imperfect (last leaf, C 2—3, M 2—3, wanting) in the British Museum. The volume is in black letter, and the verse is the 14-syllable measure. The title is enclosed in a border similar to that employed by Denham the printer for Nuce's translation of Seneca's Octavia.

BAXTER, REV. NATHANIEL.

Sir Philip Sydneys Ourania, That is, Endimions Song and Tragedie. Written by N. B. Printed in the year, 1653. 4°, N 3 in fours, but A has only the title.

A reissue of the former edition with the title reprinted and the preliminaries cancelled.

Sir Philip Sydneys Ourania, That is, Endimions Song and Tragedie Containing all Philosophie. Written by N. B. London Printed for Jane Bell, at the East end of Christ-Church. 1655. 4°, N in fours.

Here the dedication and dedicatory sonnets are restored. On the last page is a curious list of books sold by Jane Bell.

BAYNES, ROGER.

The Baynes of Aqvisgraue, the 1 Part & 1 Volume, Intitvled Variety. Contayning Three Bookes, in the forme of Dialogues, vnder the titles following, viz. Profit, Pleasvre, Honovr. Furnished with diuers things, no lesse delightfull, then beneficiall to be knowne, and obserued. Penned by Rog. Baynes Gent. a long Exile out of England; not for any temporall respects. Printed at Augusta in Germany. M.DC.XVII. 4°, O in fours, and prefixes, 4 leaves.

On the back of the title is this curious Notice from the Printer to the Reader: "This present volume, and the rest that are to follow, though they haue not come to the Presse till now, yet haue they byn written some yeares ago, in the tyme of the late Queene Elizabeth." No second part, it is believed, ever appeared.

BAYNING, PAUL, Viscount.

BECK, EDMON (or EDMUND).

A brefe confutacion. . . . M.D.L.

Reprinted by Mr Collier. This Becke appears to be the same person who was concerned in the production of the edition of the Bible printed by John Day, 1551, folio.

BECON, THOMAS.

An Inuectiue against whoredom. J. Day, 12°.

Reprinted in the Works. Becon's publications appear to have been extremely popular in their day, and occupy in their collected form three large folio volumes, which are rarely found together, and still more rarely complete. Even Mr Huth's copy is not perfect.

The Displaying of the Popish Masse: wherein thou shalt see, what a wicked Idoll the Masse is, and what great difference there is between the Lords Supper and the Popes Masse. Againe, what Popes brought in every part of the Masse and counted it together in such monstrous sort, as it is now used in the Popes Kingdome. Written by Thomas Becon [in Latin] and published in the dayes of Queene Mary. [Quotations.] London, Printed by A. G. for the Company of Stationers. 1637. Cum privilegio. 12°, G 10 in twelves. With Parkhurst's latin lines before the book, but no other preliminary matter.

A True Relation of what hapned at Bedford, on Munday last, Aug. 19, instant, While Thundering, Lightning, and Tempestuous Winds tore up the Trees by the Roots, the Gates off the Hinges, Breaking them in pieces, Driving down Houses, To the Terror and Amazement of the Inhabitants; as by this Narrative will more at large appear, Attested by several Eyewitnesses. With Allowance. London: Printed for Fra. Smith at the Elephant and Castle without Temple-Bar, and R. Taylor at the Crown in Little Britain. 1672. 4<sup>o</sup>, 4 leaves.

BEDLE, THOMAS,

The Princelie Progresse of the Chvrch Militant marching forth by the steps of the flocke to her triumphant Bridegrome Christ Iesvs. Encountered with an erroneous Army, turned aside from Iesvs to the Iebvisiticcil Faction, to fight with the Lambe, and make warre with the Saints. As it appeareth in the ensuing Oppositions . . . London, Printed by Nicholas Okes dwelling neare Holburne Bridge. 1610. 8<sup>o</sup>, A—L 6 in eights, first leaf blank, and last occupied by printer's device. Dedicated to the King.

Entirely in prose. The Addition has a separate title. The address to the Reader is headed "to the English metamorphosed Romanes."

BEDLOE, CAPTAIN WILLIAM.

The Excommunicated Prince: Or, The False Relique. A Tragedy. As it was Acted by His Holiness's Servants. Being the Popish Plot in a Play. London: Printed for Tho. Parkhurst . . . 1679. Folio. Title and dedication, 3 leaves: Dramatis personæ and prologue, 2 leaves: B—N 12 leaves each.

In Malone's catalogue this performance is ascribed to Thomas Walter of Jesus College.

BEEES.

The Reformed Common-Wealth of Bees. Presented in severall Letters and Observations to Sammuel Hartlib Esq. With the Reformed Virginian Silk-Worm. Containing many Excellent and Choice Secrets, Experiments, &c. London, Printed for Giles Calvert at the Black-Spread-Eagle at the West-end of Pauls, 1655. 4<sup>o</sup>, A, 2 leaves: B—I in fours, no G 4, but an extra leaf at the end unmarked: The Virginian Silkworme, with a new title, A—F 2, in fours, with some verses signed I. F., upon the silk-worm, pp. 6, and extracts from Du Bartas, &c. Br. Museum.

The Spiritual Bee, or a Miscellaney of Scriptural Historical, Natural Observations, and Occasional Occurencyces, applied in Divine Meditations. By an University Pen. [Quot.] Oxford, Printed by A. & L. Lichfield for Edw. & Joh. Forrest. 1662. 12<sup>o</sup>. A, 6 leaves: B—F in twelves: Part 2, A—F in twelves. In prose, except the last 4 leaves, which are occupied by a poem called the Soul's Valde-diction to the World.

The verses at the end were added, it appears, to make up the sheet.

BEHR, HANS.

The Declaration of Commissary Generall Behr, against divers slanders and lies spread abroad against him. [May 1, 1644.] A sheet. B. M.

BEL, ADAM.

Adam Bel, Clym of the Clough, and William of Cloudele. [Col.] Imprynted at London in Fletestrete at the sygne of the Sonne, by me Iohn Byddell. In y<sup>e</sup> yere of our lord god. m.cccccc.xxxvj. The seconde daye of Iune. 4<sup>o</sup>, black letter.

The only trace of this edition is a fragment of two leaves, C 1 and C 4, recovered from the pasteboard or fly-leaves of a book from abroad. The edition in all probability made C in fours or 12 leaves, like that of Copland; in some places it is more correct than his. It may belong to the same impression as Mr Collier's fragment, but I have not been able to compare them. Byddell's impression of this famous old ballad-poem occasionally supplies, so far as the fragment goes, a word dropped in Copland's, but in one place, where the pardoned outlaws, towards the end, in Copland's edition, are made to say, "to some bysshop wyl we wende," the text of 1536 reads, "to Rom. streyght wyl we wende."

The edition of 1632 occurs in T. Allen's Cat. 1795, No. 71.

BELING, RICHARD, of Lincoln's-Inn.

The Eighth Day. The Second Edition. London, Printed by Iohn Redmayne, 1661. 4<sup>o</sup>, K, in fours, and the title. In verse.

The last leaf contains the table of Errata. This is a well-written poem, and no copy was ever seen by Ware. Of the first edition I have not yet met with any trace. (Sidney.)

BELL, or BEALE [Johannes Belus] JOHN.

Gratiarum Actio ob profligatam Hispanorum Classem, quæ Ecclesiæ Dei in vtroque Britannia regno extremam vastitatem minata est. Edinburg, R. Waldegrave. 1590. 16°, 6 leaves.

London, Printed by Thomas Creede. 1598. 4°, black letter, O o in fours, first and last leaves blank.

Dedicated by L. A. to "the right Worshipfull his speciall Patron, Maister John Rotherham Esquire, one of the sixe Clarkes of her Maiesties most Honourable Court of Chauncery."

The Famous and Delectable History of Don Bellianis of Greece, Or, The Honour of Chivalry : Containing His Valiant Exploits Strange and dangerous Adventures, with his admirable love to the Princesses Florisbella, Daughter to the Souldan of Babilond. Now newly written, by Francis Kirkman. London, Printed for Francis Kirkman, and are to be sold by most Book-sellers. 1673. 4°, black letter. In three Parts.

Collation : Part I. dated 1673, A, 2 leaves, B—M 2, in fours : Part II. dated 1671, frontispiece and title, 2 leaves, B—Y 2, in fours : Part III. dated 1672, title-leaf and B—L in fours, L 4 being a blank.

To Part the first is prefixed a very curious address by F. Kirkman, in which he recommends the right books of this sort for reading, and even lays down the order in which they should be taken. A perfect copy should, I apprehend, have a frontispiece to each part.

The Honour of Chivalry, Or The Famous and Delectable History of Don Bellianis of Greece, &c. Translated out of Italian. London, Printed for J. S. and are to be Sold by the Booksellers of London and Westminster. [Circa 1720.] 8°, G in twelves. With a frontispiece and cuts.

Imprinted at London for William Towreolde, by the assent of Richard Watkyns. n. d. 8<sup>o</sup>, F in eights, last leaf a blank. Chiefly in black letter, and interspersed with verses.

Dedicated "To the right worshipfull M. Alexander Nowell, M. Iohn Mallens, M. Iohn Walker, diligent and faythful distributors of Gods heauenly Misteries." Following the address to the Reader is an acrostic of an imperfect description on Alexander Nowell, the ingenuity of the author failing him at the end of the Christian name, and the effort concluding in three 4-line stanzas.

BILLINGSLEY, NICHOLAS.

Thesauro-Phulakion: Or, A Treasury of Divine Raptures. Consisting of viz. 1. The securing of that wilde Countrey to the Crowne of England. 2. The withdrawing of all the charge of the Garrison of men of warre. 3. The rewarding of the olde Servitors to their good content. 4. The meanes how to increase the Revenue to the Crowne with a yearely very great summe. 5. How to establish the Puritie of Religion there. 6. And how the undertakers may with securitie be enriched. Imprinted at London by Ed. Alldie for Iohn Budge, dwelling at the great South doore of S. Paules Church. 1610. 4<sup>o</sup>, 16 leaves.

See Collier's Bibl. Cat. 1865, i. 69. It is not so clear that the author of this tract was not the same person who wrote the Second Part of the Mirror for Magistrates, 1578, &c.

BLOSIUS, LEWIS, Abbot of the Holy Order of St. Benedict.

Seven Exercises or Meditations by which a Man may be, in a Short time, established in the Fear of God, and in a Good and Holy Life. With other Choice Collections out of the same Author. London, Printed for M. Turner, at the Lamb in Holbourn, 1686. 12<sup>o</sup>, F in twelves.

including Imprimatur: B—N in eights the last leaf having the Errata.

The Imprimatur reads as follows: "I well knowing the Learning and Industry of the Author, do allow the Printing of this Book. Fra. North." Enlarged editions by Beckwith, father and son, appeared in 1784, 8°, and 1815, 4°; but the best edition is that of 1874. The copy here used has copious MSS. notes and additions by G. Allan of Darlington.

BLOUNT, SIR THOMAS POPE.

De Re Poetica: Or, Remarks upon Poetry, with Characters and Censures of the Most Considerable Poets, whether Ancient or Modern. Extracted out of the Best and Choicest Criticks. London, Printed for Ric. Everingham . . . MDCXCIV. 4°. A, 4 leaves: a, 2 leaves: B—li in fours.

BOATE, GERARD.

Irelands Naturall History. Being a true and ample Description of its Situation, Greatness, Shape, and Nature; of its Hills, Woods, Heaths, Bogs; of its Fruitfull parts and profitable Grounds, with the severall way of Manuring and improving the same. With its Heads or Promontories; Harbours. . . . And lastly of the Nature and temperature of its Air and Season, and what diseases it is free from, or subject unto. . . . Written by Gerard Boate, late Doctor of Physick to the State in Ireland, and now Published by Samuell Hartlib, Esq; for the Common Good of Ireland. . . . Imprinted at London for John Wright at the Kings Head in the Old Bayley. 1652. 8°, A—N in eights, the last leaf having only the Errata.

Dedicated by Hartlib to the Protector and General Fleetwood, after which is a short address by him to the Reader, introducing a long letter about the book from the author's brother, Arnold Boate, written from Paris.

BOCALINI, TRAJANO.

I Ragguagli di Parnasso: Or Advertisements from Parnassus: In Two Centuries. With the Politick-Touchstone. Written originally in Italian . . . and now put into English by the Right Honorable Henry Earl of Monmouth. London, Printed for Humphrey Moseley, and are to be sold . . . 1657. Folio. A, 2 leaves: (a)—(d), 2 leaves each: B—Nnn 2 in fours. With a portrait of the translator by Faithorne.

Advertisements 97-99 are out of order, and Dd has an extra leaf.

BOCCACCIO, GIOVANNI.

A notable Historie of Nastagio and Traversari. 1569.

See the tale translated also in Turberville's Tragical Tales, 1587, where it is the first in order. Query, for C. T. should we not read G. T.? The two versions should be compared. The story has also been translated by Dryden, and dramatised by Shirley under the title of Honorica and Mammon.

A Pleasant disport. . . . 1567.

The only copy I have ever seen of this impression was that formerly in the Brand and Heher collections. I believe it to be the same as that described by Lowndes as occurring at Dr Farmer's sale in 1798. It wants the conclusion.

The translator is more likely to have been H. Grantham than H. Gifford.

The tragedies, gathered by Jhon Bochas, of all such Princes as fell from their estates through the mutability of Fortune since the creacion of Adam, vntil [t]his time; wherin may be seen what vices bring menne to destruction, wyth notable warninges howe the like may be auoyded. Translated into Englysh by John Lidgate, Monke of Burye. Imprinted at London, by John Wayland, at the signe of the Sunne oueragainst the Conduite in Flete-strete. Cum priuilegio per Septennium. [1554.] Folio, black letter, printed in double columns, with a cut to Book I. and the title in a border (as described by Herbert).

peated), 6 leaves: W, 6 leaves: *, 6 leaves: †, 6 leaves: ♀, 6 leaves: Aa—Gg 4, in sixes, last leaf blank.

On the title-page of the copy here described is: "This booke was bought in the yere of Or Lorde god 1555." Unseen by Herbert, who quotes an entirely different, and probably later, edition by Wayland, although the date 1558 given in the Typographical Antiquities, and copied thence into Lowndes, I believe to be quite supposititious. Wayland, doubtless, issued the book frequently between 1554-60: the present was perhaps the earliest impression.

The Modell of Wit, Mirth, Eloquence, and Conversation Framed in Ten Dayes. . . . The Fourth Edition. London, Printed by E. Cotes in Aldersgate-street. 1657. 12°. A, 6 leaves: B—Nn 6 in twelves. Woodcuts. With a separate title and table to Days vi.—x.

The second portion is dated 1655, and it seems probable, though a comparison would be necessary to establish the point, that this is merely the edition of 1655 with a new title.

BODENAM, JOHN.

A True Relation of a late barbarous Assault committed upon Robert Pye Esq; One of His Majesties Justices of the Peace for the County of Hereford. Who died thereof 30 Jan. 1680. By John Bodnam Esq; A Notorious Papist: whom he went about to apprehend, for refusing to obey the orders of the Quarter-Sessions Whereby he was Summoned to take the Oaths of Allegiance, &c. As it was Certified, &c. London: Printed by Tho. James. 1681. Folio, 2 leaves.

BODENHAM, JOHN.

England's Helicon. . . . 1600.

Query, was the copy sold with Dr Webster's books in 1690 the same as that which appears in the Harleian and Osterley Park catalogues?

BODLEY, SIR T.

Ivsta Fvnebria Ptolemæi Oxoniensis Thomæ Bodlei Eqvitis Avrati Celebrata in Academiâ Oxoniensi Mensis Martij 29. 1613. Oxoniæ, Excudebat Josephus Barnesius. . . . 1613. 4°. Title, &c. including a blank, 3 leaves: A—R in fours, R 4 blank.

BOETHIUS.

Five Bookes of Philosophicall Comfort, full of Christian consolation, written a 1000. yeeres since, By Auitius, Manlius, Torquatus, Seuerinus Boetivs, a Christian Consul of Rome. Newly translated out of Latine, together with Marginall Notes, explaining the obscurest places.

London Printed by Iohn Windet for Mathew Lownes. 1609. 8<sup>o</sup>, A—T in eights, A blank.

Dedicated by the translator, J. T., to the Countess of Dorset.

Summum Bonum, Or an Explication of the Divine Goodness, In the Words of the Most Renowned Boetivs. Translated by a Lover of Truth, and Virtue [P. G.] Oxford. Printed by H. Hall for Ric. Davis. 1674. 8<sup>o</sup>, A, 6 leaves: A (repeated)—N in eights. In prose and verse.

Prefixed is a Dedication and an Address to the Reader, in the latter of which occurs a letter from Henry Hallywell to the translator respecting the author.

A Voice from the Dead: Or the Speech of an Old Noble Peer: Being the Excellent Oration of the Learned and Famous Boetius to the Emperour Theodoricus. London Printed, and Sold by Richard Janeway, 1681. 4<sup>o</sup>, 4 leaves.

BOLD, HENRY.

Wit a Sporting. . . . 1657.

For an account of the print attached to this book see Corser's Collectanea, part 3, art. Bold. Bold's Latine Songs should have 96, not 94, leaves; the first and second are blank, however.

BOLTON, EDMUND.

Hypercritica: Or A Rule of Judgment for writing or reading our History's: Deliver'd in four Supercensorian Addresses by occasion of a Censorian Epistle, prefix'd by Sir Henry Savile, Knight, to his Edition of some of our oldest Historians in Latin. . . . By Edmvd Bolton, Author of Nero Cæsar. Now first publish'd by Anth. Hall. Oxford, M.DCC.XXII. 8<sup>o</sup>.

Printed for the first time at the end of Hall's edition of Trivetius; again in Ancient Critical Essays, 1811-15. It is alluded to by Bolton in the Preface to his Florus.

BOLTON-LE-MOORS.

A True Relation of the Strange Apparitions seen in the Air, on Monday 25 February, in and about the Town of Bolton in the Mores, in the County of Lancaster at mid-day, to the amazement of the Beholders. Being a Letter sent from Ellis Bradshaw of the same Town, to a Friend in London, &c. London, Printed for Tho. Brewster and Gregory Moule, and are to be sold at the three Bibles in the Poultry, under Mildreds Church, 1650. 4<sup>o</sup>, 4 leaves.

BONA, JOHN, Cistercian Abbot.

Manuductio ad Coelvm. A Poem, in two Parts. I. Of Joy and Sadness, &c. II. Of Patience. Extracted out of the writings of the Holy Fathers and Ancient Philosophers, by John Bona &c. And turned into Verse by James Chamberlayne. London, Printed for R. Bentley and M. Magues, &c. 1681. 4<sup>o</sup>, 12 leaves.

On the title of the copy here used occurs "C. W. ex dono Authoris," and the same hand perhaps has altered the writer's name to Sir James Chamberlayne Baronet.

BOOK.

The boke of wysdome, folowyng the auctoryties of auneynt Phylosophers / dyuydyng and spekyng of vyces and vertues / wherby a man may be prayed / or dysprayed / with the maner to speke alwayes well and wysely to all folkes / of what estate so euer they be. [Col.] Here endeth the boke of wysdom after the sayenges of auneynt Phylosophers / & other noble wyse men / lately translated out of Frenche into Englysshe. Imprinted by me Robert Wyer . . . in saynt Martyns parryshe besyde Charynge crosse. The yere of our Lorde god M.CCCCC. and xxxii. the. xx. day of Januarii. Cum priuilegio Regali pro spatio septem annorum. 8<sup>o</sup>, black letter, with a curious cut on the title. 18 leaves, besides the title.

This is one of the very few books printed by Wyer with a date. A copy was in the possession of Herbert; see his edition of Ames, p. 369; and from his account, compared with the original title-page among Bagford's papers, the above description has been derived. The prologue on the back of the title is in verse.

The Book of Beards.

Not now known; but that such a treatise existed seems to be tolerably evident from the Answer to it, which is extant, and has been reprinted by Mr Furnivall.

A Profitable Booke, declaring diuers approoued Remedies to take out spots and stains in Silkes. . . . Taken out of Dutch, and Englished by L. M. Imprinted at London by Thomas Purfoot, dwelling within the new Rents, in S. Nicholas Shambles. 1605. 4<sup>o</sup>, black letter, A—L in fours, last leaf blank.

Six Spiritvall Bookes. Fvll of Merveilous Pietie and Devotion. And First, Certaine Devovt and Godlie Petitions, commonlie called, The Iesvs Psalter. At Doway, By Iohn Heigham. Anno 1618. 12<sup>o</sup>.

The Psalter of Jesus has an engraved title and copper plates, and ends on E 2. It is dedicated by Heigham the stationer to the Society of Jesus. The copy before me has only the Psalter.

BOOKER, JOHN.

BOOTH, SIR GEORGE.

A Letter from S<sup>r</sup> George Booth to a Friend of his, shewing the Reasons of his present Engagement in Defence of his Countries Liberties, &c. A folio broadside, dated Chester, Aug. 2, 1659.

BOOTHBY, FRANCES.

Marcellia : or the Treacherous Friend. A Tragicomedy, As it is Acted at the Theatre-Royal by His Majesties Servants. Written by Mrs. F. Boothby. London, Printed for Will. Cademan. . . . and Giles Widdowes. . . . 1670. 4<sup>o</sup>, A—M in fours.

Dedicated to Lady Yate, of Harvington, Worcestershire.

BOOTHHOUSE, SAMUEL.

A Brief Remonstrance of Several National Injuries and Indignities perpetrated on the Persons and Estates of publick Ministers and Subjects of this Common-Wealth, by the Dey of Tunis in Barbary: By reason of the Captivity of an English Ship by the Friars Hospitalers, commonly called Cavaliers of Malta. Together with an Account of certain Negotiations and Transactions in the name of this Republick at the Court of Savoy. By Samuel Boothhouse, late Consul for this Nation in the City and Kingdom of Tunis. London, Printed by William Bentley, 1653. 4<sup>o</sup>, A—D in fours, and A—D 3 in fours.

BORDE, ANDREW, M.D.

A Pronostycacyon or an Almanacke for the yere of our Lorde M.CCCC.XLV. made by Andrewe Boorde of physycke doctour, an Englisheman of the Universitie of Oxforde. [This title is over a cut.] No place or printer's name. [1544.] A broadside. Br. Museum (Bagford).

Harl. MS. 6937. In the British Museum, as Mr Furnivall informs me by letter, is a copy of Moulton's Glasse of Helthe with the title to a copy of Borde's Dietary of Helthe improperly prefixed to it instead of its own, which is deficient. See an elaborate bibliography of the Dietary by Mr Furnivall in his reprint, 1870. Mr Furnivall thinks that the edition of the Dietary printed by Powell [Hazlitt, v. Borde, No. 5 (d)] should be dated 1547 instead of 1567. Thomas Colwell's edition of 1562 appears to have been printed without licence, as he was fined on this account in 1561.

A mery Iest of the myher of Abyngton. W. de Worde, 4<sup>o</sup>.

The only copy known, and that imperfect, was bound up with the romance of Ipomydon in a volume procured by Dibdin from Lincoln, and sold to Heber. It was in the same types as Ipomydon, which was undoubtedly printed by De Worde.

The fyrst boke of the introduction of knowledge. W. Copland, 4<sup>o</sup>.

The edition of this remarkable work, printed by W. Copland at the Rose Garland, is supposed to have appeared about 1548—at all events, before 1550, as it mentions Boulogne as still in English possession. The edition printed by Copland after his removal to Lothbury may be assigned to 1562-63. Of the edition, if there was one, by Robert Copland, we have no trace. The Lothbury edition omits the passage about Boulogne; the orthography varies, and the cuts are different.

Borde, in his Pryncyples of Astronomie, refers to his Book of Knowledge as then at Press. The work was licensed to W. Copland in 1562-63; but whether this entry refers to the first impression is a little uncertain.

Merie Tales of the Mad Men of Gotam. T. Colwell. 8<sup>o</sup>.

I only know this from Halliwell's Popular English Histories, p. 71.

Mr Furnivall does not trace Borde's hand in the Gothamite Tales, ascribed to him. He thinks that they were written by some imitator of Borde's manner, who took advantage of the popularity which Borde had acquired. The printed editions evidently do not contain all the stories of this kind once extant, as some, not there, are preserved or referred to in other writers. See Wybarne's New Age of Old Names, 1609, p. 224.

The Breniary of Healthe, for all maner of sickenesses and diseases the which may be in man or woman, doth follow. expressing the obscure termes of Greeke, Araby, Latyn, and Barbary, in Englysh concerning Phisicke and Chierurgerie, compiled by Andrewe Boorde, of Phisicke Doc-tour, an Englishe man. Anno. M.D.LII. [Col.] Imprynted at London in Flete-strete at the sygne of the George next to saynt Dunstones Church by Wylliam Powell. Cvm Privilegio ad imprimendum solum. 4<sup>o</sup>, black letter, A—Q in eights: the second book with separate title and signatures, A—D 4 in eights, but A in sixes.

The first book has a separate colophon dated 1552, and at the end of it, before the table, is the announcement that the book was examined in Oxford in June 1546.

BORDELOIS, S.

The Second Part of Gerileon of England. . . . 1592.

The epistle before this Part, signed T. N., intended for the initials of Nash, was written by Henry Chettle, as Chettle confesses in the Notice prefixed to his Kind Harts Dreame. "That I confesse to be mine," he says, "and repent it not."

Barnabees Journal, Under the names of Mirtilus & Faustulus Shadowed: for the Travellers Solace lately published, to most apt numbers reduced, and to the old Tune of Barnabe commonly chanted. By Corymbæus.

The cyle of Malt and juyce of spritely nectar Have made my Muse more valiant than Hector.

[London, John Haviland, 1638.] 8°, Ee in eights, except C, which has only 6 leaves; besides the frontispiece engraved by W. Marshall.

"Barnaby's Hymn" is referred to in "The Suckling Faction," 1641 (See Hazlitt's edit. of Suckling, Appendix).

Mr Huth's copy of the first edition has many uncut leaves; it is by far the finest known.

John Haviland entered this work at Stationers' Hall, June 7, 1638.

Drunken Barnaby's Four Journeys to the North of England. In Latin and English verse. Wittily and Merrily (tho' near One Hundred Years ago) compos'd; found among some old musty Books, that had a long time lain by in a Corner; and now at last made publick. Attributed to Brathwaite.

Mercurius Britannicus, Or The English Intelligencer. A Tragic-Comedy, at Paris. Acted with great Applause. Printed in the yeare, 1641. 4°, A—C in fours, and D, 2 leaves, the second marked D 3, apparently by mistake, as the sense and text are consecutive.

Tragi-Comœdia, cui in titulum inscribitur Regicidium, perspicacissimis Judiciis acuratus perspecta, pensata, comprobata; Authore Ric: Brathwait, Armigero, utriusque academïæ Alumno. Londini, Typis J. G. . . . 1665. 8°, N in eights.

Dedicated to William, Earl of Stafford, to whose family the author pronounces himself aditissimus. Two title-pages, varying literally, but both dated 1665, were printed to the volume.

The Captive-Captain: Or, the Restrain'd Cavalier; Drawn to his full Bodie in these Characters; I. Of a Prison. II. The Anatomy of a Jayler. III. A Jaylers Wife. IV. The Porter. V. The Century. VI. The Fat Prisoner. VII. The Lean Prisoner. VIII. The restrain'd Cavalier, with his Melancholy fancy. Presented, and Acted to Life in a Suit of Durance; an Habit suiting best with the Place of his Residence. Nullus extra te carcer. London Printed by J. Grismond. 1665. 8°, N in eights. In prose and verse. Br. Museum.

There are two dedications to this singular work: one to Sir Thomas Preston, Baronet, and a second, introducing two short prose essays, entitled respectively The Interest of Westmerland and The Interest of Comberland, to Sir Philip Musgrave, Governor of Carlisle.

Some rules and orders for the government of the house of an Earle set downe by R. B. at the instant request of his loving frende, M. L. Folio, 17 leaves. Br. Museum.

Printed from this or another MS. in Miscellanea Antiqua Anglicana, 1816, of which series it forms No. 8. Tracts of the present character are not very plentiful in our literature, and this has a peculiar value as containing a lively description of antient manners, just before (with the Civil Wars) great changes occurred. It is possible that these Rules were set down for one of the Lawson family, into which Braithwaite married. The signature at the end has been erased.

The MS. printed in Miscellanea Antiqua Anglicana, was published in April, 1821, at the dispersion of some of Mr Ruding's books, by R. Triphook.

BRANDON, SAINT.

The lyfe of saynt Brandon. W. de Worde, 4°.

See T. Allen's Cat. 1795, No. 288. This legend is also in the Legenda Aurea. Compare La Legende Latine de S. Brandaines, ed. Jubinal, 1836, 8°, and the Percy Society's tract on the same subject.

BRANDON, SAMUEL.

The Tragicomedie of the vertuous Octavia. . . . 1598.

Of this little volume Mr Huth has a copy, which came from the Hastings sale, and another is in the Dyce collection, which cost Mr D. £25.

BRANDT, SEBASTIAN.

The Shyppe of Fooles. [This title is in a scroll.] At the end: Thus endeth the Shyppe of fooles of this worlde. Enprynted at London in Flete strete by Wynkyn de Worde. m.cccccc.ix. The fyrste yere of the reygne of Henry VIII. The vi. daye of Julii. 4°, black letter. Bibl. Imper. Paris (on vellum).

This appears to be the copy described by Dibdin. See Mr Furnivall's Captain Cox volume (Ballad Society, 1871), p. xciv. I have not met with any copy of the volume in this country on paper or vellum.

See Harrisse's Bibl. Amer. Vetust. Additions.

BRASSE, SAMUEL.

Raworth for I. S. 1635. 8<sup>o</sup>, A—C in eights, first and last leaves blank. In prose. Britwell (Heber's copy) and Bodleian.

The Passionate Shepheard. . . . 1604.

The copy, formerly belonging to Mr J. P. Collier, and the only one known, was purchased by him about 1823 for £25. He was asked £30. It was in a volume with other tracts.

Crossing of Proverbs : A Merry Book ; Divided into two parts : The first part containing many pleasant Jests, and Proverbs of several sorts. The second part contains many excellent Questions and Answers. Which will yield comfort to the Hearer : Merriment to the Reader, pleasure to the Buyer, and profit to the Seller. Newly Corrected, with Additions. The last part, By B. R. Gent. London, Printed for William Whitwood, at the sign of the Bell in Duck Lane near Smithfield. . . . [The date cut off.] 12<sup>o</sup>, 8 leaves, or A in eights. Br. Museum.

in eights, but of B and (B 2) there is a duplicate entirely differing, and apparently from some other edition. Br. Museum.

On B 4 is a catchword : Cross. evidently by an error, as the verso of the leaf is blank.

Cornv Copiæ. Pasquils Night-cap : Or, Antidot for the Head-ache. The second Impression corrected and amended. London, Printed for Thomas Thorp. 162 . 8<sup>o</sup>, A—H 6 in eights. Dyce Coll.

The last figure of the date has dropped out of the copy here used, nor is any other known to me.

The Mothers Blessing. London, Printed for Iohn Smethwicke, and are to bee sold at his shop in Saint Dunstons Church-yard vnder the Diall in Fleetstreete. 1621. 4<sup>o</sup>, 18 leaves. In verse.

This poem was first published in 1602, of which original edition copies are in the Bodleian and at Sir C. Isham's, Lamport, near Northampton. See, for a tolerably copious account of this volume, Corser's Collectanea, part 3, pp. 76-8.

Strange Newes out of Divers Countries, neuer discovered till of late by a strange Pilgrime in those parts. London, Printed by W. Iones for George Fayerbeard, and are to be sold at his shop at the Royall Exchange. 1622. 4<sup>o</sup>, 14 leaves. With a woodcut on the title. Br. Museum, Bridgewater House, and H. Huth, Esq. (imperfect).

The writer of this note much regrets having missed the opportunity of examining a tract, which was sold by auction some years since ; the title was, Newes from diuerse Countries. London, V. Sims, 1597, 4<sup>o</sup>. It reads extremely like the original edition of the tract now described.

Imprinted at Geneue in Sauoye / by Myghell boys / [London, A. Scoloker and W. Seres, circâ 1548.] 8°, black letter, A—H in eights.

This edition differs throughout from the preceding.

"I have another edition printed 1548, without the colophon, and the assumed name of Roderigo Mors, but adding to the title, 'for some certaine great vyces used therein.' It omits a few passages, particularly that in the first edition, where the author speaks of his own personal peril in the publication."—Maskell's Selected Centuries of Books, 1843, p. 83.

Mr Furnivall points out to me that the first impression mentions an occurrence on June 16, 1541-42, and must therefore have been printed subsequently to that date.

It now appears that there were four, not three, impressions of this remarkable work, viz. the first of (1542) printed abroad in Italic type, and three purporting to have been printed at Geneva, but really from a London press, probably that of Scoloker and Seres, in or after 1547.

The lamentacyon of a Christē agaīst the Citye of London, for some certaine greate vyces vsed therī. Psal. lxx. Let them be a-basshed and ashamed that seke after my soule, let them be put to flight and shame, that wyl me euyl. Imprinted i yere of our Lord m. d. xlviij. 8°, black letter, F 6 in eights. *Br. The Life of Charles the Great. W. Caxton, 1485. Folio.

This work is a translation of the Third Book of a French work, printed, according to Brunet, in 1478, under the title of La Conquête de Charlemagne. The author, whoever he was, seems to have resorted considerably to the Speculum Historiale of Vincent of Beauvais. See a note in Hazlitt's Warton, ii. 197.

In the Grenville Catalogue, i. 244, Bolomyer, the promoter of this publication, is mentioned as the author of the romance of Pierebras.

CHAUCER, GEFREY.

The Workes of Geffray Chaucer newly printed, with dyuers workes whiche were neuer in print before. As in the table more playnly dothe appere. Cum priuilegio. [Colophon:] Imprynted at London by Thomas Petit, dwellyng in Paules churche yarde at the sygne of the Maydens heed. Cum priuilegio ad imprimendum solum. [Circa 1538.] Folio, black letter, printed in two columns. With woodcuts to the Knight's and Squire's tales and a separate title-page to the Romance of the Rose. A—Qqq in sixes.

The Plowmans Tale is here first printed, and precedes the Parson's. In the edition of 1542 it follows it. See Herbert's Ames, p. 557, where, however, the capital error is committed of supposing this to belong to the same edition as that dated 1542—a mistake into which Herbert could not have fallen, had he compared the two. This is the second collected edition.

There can be no question that this was a trade book, as well as the edition of 1542. A copy before me, otherwise identical, has the following colophon: "Imprinted at London by Rycharde Kele dwellyng in Lombarde strete nere vnto the stockes market at the signe of the Egle. Cum priuilegio," &c. This is at the bottom of the left-hand column of Qqq 5 verso. The last leaf is blank.

The Workes of our Antient and Learned English Poet, Geffrey Chaucer, newly Printed. In this Impression you shall find these Additions.

1. His Portraiture and Progenie shewed.
2. His Life collected.
3. Arguments to euery Booke gathered.
4. Old and obscure words explained.
5. Authors by him cited declared.
6. Difficulties opened.
7. Two Bookes of his neuer before Printed.

London, Printed by Adam Islip, at the charges of Thomas Wight. Anno 1598. Folio, black letter, printed in two columns.

Edited by Thomas Speght. The two Books here first added are the Dream and the Flower and Leaf, the latter possibly not Chaucer's. This was the speculation of three (or more) booksellers. Some copies have the imprint: "Impensis Geor. Bishop;" while others read: "London, Printed by Adam Islip, at the charges of Bonham Norton. Anno 1598." Collation: a—c, in sixes, first leaf blank: ¶, 4 leaves: Portrait and Progeny, 1 leaf: the work, A—V, in sixes: Aa—Tt, in sixes: Vv, 8 leaves: Xx, 8 leaves: Yy—Bbbb, in sixes: Cccc, 8 leaves, the last blank. This edition, dedicated by Speght to Sir Robert Cecil, includes Lydgate's Story of Thebes, the apocryphal Testament of Love, and the Boethius, of which a better text has been published by Dr Morris. Prefixed to the volume is an Epistle from Francis Beaumont (not the dramatist) to Speght. Fine clean copies are very difficult to procure.

The Workes of Ovr Ancient and learned English Poet, Geffrey Chaucer, newly Printed. To that which was done in the former Impression thus much is now added. 1. In the life of Chaucer many things inserted. . . . London, Printed by Adam Islip. An. Dom. 1602. Folio. Black letter, printed in two columns. With Speght's dedication to Cecil, and F. Beaumont's epistle to Speght, dated June 30, 1597, as in the former edition. a—c in sixes, first leaf blank: A—Ttt in sixes: Uuu in eights. The last leaf has only the Errata.

The Complaynte of a Louers Lyfe. W. de Worde, 4<sup>o</sup>.

This, as well as the Maying or Disport of Chaucer, printed at Edinburgh in 1508, is printed in the Works as The Complaint of the Black Knight; but the poem was more probably written by Lydgate.

Jack vp Lande. . . . John Gough, 8<sup>o</sup>.

T. Rawlinson had a MS. on vellum of this; but its present destination does not seem to be known.

The Plowmans Tale. Printed at London by Thomas Godfray. Cum priuilegio. [Circâ 1535.] Folio, 20 leaves, or A—D in sixes and fours alternately. Britwell (Heber's copy).

This wants a leaf at the end, but no other seems to be known.

The Ploumans tale compylled by syr Geffray Chaucher knyght. [Col.] Imprinted at London in Paules churchye verde at the sygne of the Hyll, by Wyllyam Hyll. [Circâ 1545.] 8<sup>o</sup>, 32 leaves. Black letter. Britwell.

Amorvm Troili et Creseidæ Libri duo priores Anglico-Latini. Oxonia, Excudebat Johannes Lichfield, Anno Domini 1635. 4<sup>o</sup>. A, 3 leaves: commendatory verses, &c., 11 leaves: B—Nn in fours.

Among the writers of verses are Dudley Digges, W. Strode, W. Cartwright, Arthur Jonston, and Francis Junius, Royal Librarian, to the last of whom Sir F. Kinaston, the translator, dedicates the work.

No more than Books 1 and 2 were printed; but Mr James Crossley has the complete MS. purchased at Mr Singer's sale in 1860. A specimen was published by Waldron in 1796. In the old printed book the Latin and English occur on opposite pages, the latter in black letter.

A Paraphrase vpon the three first Bookes of Chaucers Troilus and Cresida. Translated into our Moderne English for the satisfaction of those, who either cannot, or will not, take the paines to vnderstand the Excellent Authors Farr more exquisite and significant Expressions, though now growen obsolete, and out of vse. By J[onathan] S[idnam.] Semel insaniuimus omnes. . . . [Circâ 1630.] Folio, 70 leaves. In 7-line stanzas.

An unpublished MS. sold at Puttick and Simpson's in June 1873. There is no introductory matter.

CHAUCER'S GHOST.

Chaucer's Ghost: Or, A Piece of Antiquity. Containing twelve pleasant Fables of Ovid penn'd after the ancient manner of writing in England. Which makes them prove Mock-Poems to the present Poetry. With the History of Prince Corniger, and his Champion Sir Crucifrag, that run a tilt likewise at the present Historiographers. By a Lover of Antiquity

Multa renascentur quæ jam cecidere. &c. Hor.

Heber, part 2, No. 2453, £5.

The wyse chylde of thre yere olde. . . .
W. de Worde, 4°

This is one of the extraordinarily rare tracts, which were sold (in 1859, I believe) to Mr Maskell by Jefferies & Son of Bristol for £300. All are now in the British Museum.

The Children of the Chapel stript and whipt, 1566.

Mr Halliwell told me (May 24, 1869) that, since I had search made in the Bodleian for this tract, said to be among Bishop Tanner's books, it had been looked for again in vain, so that it is pretty clear it is not there now.

Pueriles Confabulatiunculæ. . . 1627.

I only know this from the original title-page among the Bagford Papers. But it appears from the inventory of John Foster of York's stock, taken in 1616, that the book was then already in existence (Davies's York Press, p. 360); and in fact it is mentioned under the title of Pueriles in Nash's Pappe with an Hatchet (1589), so that the edition of 1627 was almost certainly a late reprint.

The Childs Delight. Together with an English Grammar. By Tho. Lye, M.A. and sometimes Minister of the Gospel at Allhallows Lombard-Street, London. London: Printed for Tho. Parkhurst at the Bible and Three-Crowns in Cheap-side, near Mercers Chappell. 1684. 8°, A—L 4 in eights, the last 4 leaves of A occupied by a series of cuts.

CHRIST.

The Life of Christ. [Circa 1640.] 4°, 25 leaves, and (probably) a title-page.

A series of engravings, at the foot of which occurs: Are to be sould by Robert Peake. There is no artist's name, but they are in the style of the Passes. In Mr Corser's copy (Part VI. No. 212), which seemed to want the title, the plates were interleaved with a curious contemporary MS. illustrating (in verse) the respective stories in the series. This volume cost Heber £2, 10s. at Perry's sale in 1822.

CHRISTIAN.

CLERK, JOHN.

De Mortvorvym Resvrrrectione, & extremo iuditio in quatuor linguis succinete conscriptum opusculū. Ioanne Clerco Autore. Cui, ut studiosa iuuenta facilius peregrinarum linguarum comprehenderet mysteria, recenter accessere eiusdem Autoris Italice & Gallicæ verborum coniugationes. Anno. M.D.XLVII. [Colophon:] Imprinted at London by John Herforde for Robert Toye, dwellynge in Paules church ye, at the signe of the Bell. 1547. 4<sup>o</sup>, L 2 in fours. Black and roman letter. Br. Museum and H. Huth, Esq.

The four languages are printed in parallel columns, two on a page, the Latin and Italian in white, and the French and English in black, letter. It is a curious volume, of which only two copies seem to be known. Inglis, 1871, £6, 2s. 6d.

CLERKENWELL.

An Account of the Fire at New-prison By Clerkenwel, whereby the greatest part of that House was burnt down on Friday Night May the 9th. 1679. Presumed on very violent Suspicions to be set on Fire by a Papist that was there in Custody, and by that means Escaped. Taken from the Mouth of the Keeper of the said Prison. With Allowance. London, Printed for L. C. 1679. 4<sup>o</sup>, 4 leaves.

CLEVELAND, JOHN.

On the first page, there being no regular title, is written in a coeval hand, "by Jo: Cleveland Poet."

Possibly by Samuel Austin the younger; See the list attached to his Panegyrick, 8<sup>o</sup>, 1661. It is reprinted in the Rump Songs, 8<sup>o</sup>, 1662, p. 259. But see Cleveland's Poems, 1687, p. 46, where the piece is printed as his. Were there two poems with the same title?

The Scots Apostacy. [London, March 20, 1646.] A broadside, printed in two columns, and in verse. Br. Museum.

Cleveland is written in a coeval hand at the foot of this sheet.

Midsummer-Moone. Or Lynacy-Rampant Being a Character of Master Cheynell, the Arch Visitor of Oxford, and Mungrell-President of Saint John Baptist's Colledge. With a Survey of the three Renegade-fellows Web, Inkersell, and Lownds. Jam Seges est ubi Troja fuit.

The Idol of the Clowns, 1654.

It seems to be open to question whether Cleveland is really answerable for this volume, though it has been usually ascribed to him. In a communication to Notes and Queries, the present writer suggested Francis White of Gray's Inn as the more likely person to have produced it.

The tract, however, is inserted as Cleveland's in the edition of his Works, 1687.

Cleveland's Petition to His Highness the Lord Protector. Printed for William Sheares. [October, 1657.] A sheet. Br. Museum.

London, Printed for Charles Mearne, his Majesties Bookseller at the Kings Arms at Charing-Cross. 1685. 8°, A—X in eights, including a portrait of Comenius by T. Cross.

In this impression the original preface, dated from Lothbury, Jan. 25, 1658, is retained.

Joh. Amos Commenii Orbis. . . . Joh. Amos Commenius's Visible World. . . . Translated in English by Charles Hoole. . . . London, Printed for, and sold by, John Sprint, at the Bell in Little Britain, 1700. 8°, O in eights, including the portrait of Commenius.

COMMON CONDITIONS.

A Pleasant Comedie called Common Conditions. [1576.] 4°. Black letter.

Heber, part 2, 4617, from the libraries of Dr Wright, George Steevens, and the Duke of Roxburghe, no title-page, £32, bought for the Duke of Devonshire.

"Of this dramatic piece no copy, except the present mutilated one, has hitherto been discovered. The present drama exhibits perhaps the earliest examples of naval dialogue on the stage, as well as of the English language distorted by foreign pronunciation."—Bibl. Heber. part 2, No. 4617.

COMPANION.

The Citizens Companion : or the Tradesman's Mirrour. Wherein Most parts of a Trading Life are accommodated to the Judgments and Examples of the Ancients. A work enriched with Proverbs, and Historically beautified with the Deeds and Sayings of the Wisest and Worthiest Men that ever were in the World. [Quotation from Cicero.] London, Printed by J. C. for Barber Tooth, near York-House in the Strand, 1673. 8°. A, 4 leaves : B—L, in eights. With a frontispiece by Vaughan.

The Cheerful Companion : Or, Songster's Pocket-Book. Containing the most approved Songs, Odes, Cantatas, &c. in the English Language. London : Printed for G. Kearsley, at N° 1, in Ludgate-street. 1768. 12°, A—Kk in sixes, but Kk has 9 leaves. With the Music, which does not count in the sheets. Dedicated to J— B— Esq. by the (anonymous) Editor.

COMPLIMENTS.

The Marrow of Complements, Or, A most Methodicall and accurate forme of Instructions for all Variety of Love-Letters, Amorous Discourses, and Complementall Entertainments. Fitted for the use of all sorts of persons from the Nobleman's Palace to the Citizens Shop. With many delightful Songs, Sonnets, Odes, Dialogues, &c. Never before published. London, Printed for Humphrey Moseley. . . . 1655. [July 15, 1654.] 8°, A—H in twelves. Br. Museum.

The preface is subscribed Philomnus.

CONCEITS.

A boke of pretie conceiptes. Licensed to Abel Jeffes in 1586.

I suspect this to be the very book under the same title printed for Edward White without date, most probably by Jeffes.

The Booke of pretty conceites, taken out of Latin, French, Dutch and English. Very merry, pleasant and good to be read of all such as doe delight in new and merry conceites. Newly enlarged, corrected and amended. London Printed by Ralph Blower, dwelling on Lambert hill neere old Fish streete. Anno Dom. 1612. 8°, black letter, A—E in eights. Title within a border. Corpus Christi College, Oxford.

The Book of Pretty Conceits : Taken out of Latine, French, Dutch, and English. Very merry and Pleasant, and good to be read of all such as do delight in new and merry Conceits. Newly enlarged, corrected and amended. London, Printed by James Flesher. [Circa 1630.] 8°, black letter.

The only copy which I have yet seen of this impression ended imperfectly on B 3 ; there was probably another leaf, making 12, as in the earliest edition.

CONCUBINES.

The Unfortunate Concubines : The History of Fair Rosamond, Mistress to Henry II.; and Jane Shore, Concubine to Edward IV.; Kings of England. Shewing how they came to be so. With Their Lives, Remarkable Actions, and Unhappy Ends. Extracted from eminent Records, and the Whole Illustrated With Cuts suitable to each Subject. London : Printed by W. O. and Sold by A. Bettesworth, at the Red Lion on London-bridge. 1708. 12°, A, 6 leaves, including a frontispiece in two blocks, with verses under each : B—H 6, in twelves. With cuts.

In prose, except a song on the death of Rosamond, and another of the "supposed Ghost of Shore's Wife, To the tune of Live with me, &c.," the latter in 19 6-line stanzas.

CONEYCATCHER.

The repentance of a Conycatcher : with y<sup>e</sup> life & death of — Mourron and Ned Browne, two notable conycatchers ; the one latic executed at Tyborne, y<sup>e</sup> other at Aix in Fraunce. Licensed to John Danter in 1592.

CONEYHOOD.

Questions, concernyng Conie-hood, and the Nature of the Conie. Of which, vnder the Moderatorship of Honie-mouth Stenglor, the Knaue of Clubbes, being Aunswerer. To take degree in the same facultie shalbe disputed: In the afternoon howers, euening & night-times, amongst a great Concourse of all Studentes in the same Facultie, these next eating, playing and bibbing Kalendes, in the Regent house of Phantastiques. As they were studioslie acted in Germanie. [Beneath this title are 6 verses.] Read, vnderstand, iudge. Sine ulla nota, 4<sup>o</sup>, 8 leaves.

The only copy I have seen, formerly Steevens's Heber's, and Corser's, had 6 leaves; but A 1 and 2, and B 1 and 2, appeared to be deficient. Entirely in prose; Greene's authorship seems very doubtful.

CONFERENCE.

Certe godly / learned / and comfortable conferences / betwene the two Reuerende Fathers / and holye Martyrs of Christe / D. Nicolas Rydley late Bysshoppe of London / and M. Hughe Latymer sometime Bysshoppe of Worcester / during the tyme of theyr imprysonmentes. Wherunto is added. A Treatise agaynst the error of Transubstantiation / made by the sayd Reuerende Father D. Nicolas Rydley. M.D.LVI. [Quot. from Psalm 116.] No place, printer's name, or date [1557.] 8<sup>o</sup>, 12 in eights. Black letter.

A Private Conference in the yeare 1647. [On the verso of the 14th leaf occurs in the same hand:] Epigrammes by H. N. 1656. [The Epigrams end on the 42d leaf, and on the verso of that leaf we have a new half-title:] The Traveller. A Poeme. 1657. 8<sup>o</sup>, 56 leaves.

Perhaps by Henry Neville. A MS. volume sold at Sotheby's in May, 1873, among Sir Wentworth Dilke's books, No. 605.

Winter-Evening Conference between Neighbours. In Two Parts. The Third Edition Corrected. [Quot. from Prov. 27, 17.] London, Printed by J. M. for R. Royston Bookseller to His Most Sacred Majesty, in Amen-Corner. 1686. 8<sup>o</sup>. A, 4 leaves: B—O 4, in eights.

In three parts, the last here first printed. It appears from the publisher's prefatory address, that the writers were anxious to preserve their incognito; and they have succeeded!

CONFOLENS IN POICTIERS.

A True and Admirable Historie of a Mayden of Confolens, in the Prouince of Poictiers; that for the space of three yeeres and more hath liued, and yet doth, without receiuing either meate or drinke. Of whom his Maiestie in person hath had the view, and (by his command) his best and chiefest Phisitions haue tried all meanes to find whether this fast and abstinence be by deceit or no. In this Historie is also discoursed, whether a man may liue many dayes, moneths, or yeeres, without receiuing any sustenance. Published by the Kings especiall Priuiledge. [Translated from the French by Anthony Munday.] At London, Printed by I. Roberts, and are to be sold at his house in Barbican. Anno Dom. 1603. 8<sup>o</sup>, 59 leaves.

Dedicated to the Master and Governors of the Mystery of Barber-Chirurgeons, by A. M., and verses addressed to the translator by T. Dekker. See Notes and Queries, 4th Series, i. 7-9, and Herbert, p. 1036.

CONSET, JOHN, M.D.

The Rod of Recompence, in the Punishment of the Enemies of Church and State, By Gods Providence and Justice brought about, after they had by the space of eighteen years afflicted and tormented both. Written by John Consey, D. in Physick. [Quotation from Psalm 9, 16.] London, Printed by T. R. for the Author, A.D. 1660. 4<sup>o</sup>, 8 leaves. In verse.

The running title is "The Rod of Justice."

CONSTABLE, HENRY.

Refvtation de l'ecrit de Maistre Daniel Tilens contre le Discours de Monsieur l'Euesque d'Eureux, touchant les Traditions Apostoliques. Par ledict Sieur Euesque. A Evreux, Chez Anthoine le Marie. 1601. Auec Priuilege du Roy. 8<sup>o</sup>. a, 8 leaves: e, 4 leaves: i, 4 leaves: A—Cc in eights. Br. Museum.

With a Preface by the Bishop of Evreux; but the greater portion of the volume is occupied by the Refutation by Henry Constable (the poet) of Tilenus, in which the former prints his opponent's text paragraph by paragraph, and annexes his own reply. This volume supplies a gap in Constable's biography, and was unknown both to Mr Thompson-Cooper and myself, till a copy occurred for sale in July 1870.

CONSTABLE, W.

Poem to imitate the saying of St. Peter, when hee spoke to the cripple at the Temple gate. A MS. of the early part of the 17th century on fourteen folio leaves, including the title. In 75 6-line stanzas.

Not printed. The original sold at Puttick & Simpson's, March 7, 1873. It was not in good condition, and only the dedication appeared to be autograph.

CONTENTION BETWIXT YORK AND LANCASTER.

The First Part of the Contention. . . . 1594.

It is supposed that the unique copy, now in the Bodleian, and formerly in the Tyssen and Heber Collections, once belonged to Malone, who certainly had the use of a copy. See "Shakespeare's Library," by Hazlitt, v. 383. The play was licensed March 12, 1593-4.

The First Part of the Contention betwixt the two famous houses of Yorke and Lancaster, with the death of the good Duke Humphrey: And the banishment and death of the Duke of Suffolke, and the tragical end of the prowd Cardinall of Winchester, with the notable rebellion of lacke Cade: And the Duke of Yorkes first clayme to the crowne. London: Printed by W. W. for Thomas Millington, and are to be sold at his shoppe vnder Saint Peters Church in Cornewall. 1600. 4°. A—H in fours, or 32 leaves. Bodleian (title in MS.).

Reprinted from the first edition, but carelessly, omitting about two dozen words necessary for the sense. It possesses, however, a few important corrections. This edition is very rare, and I have unwillingly used the Bodleian copy, which has a manuscript title.—Haltwell (Note in "Shakespeare's Library," v. 383).

The First Part of the Contention betwixt the two famous houses of Yorke and Lancaster, with the death of the good Duke Humphrey: And the banishment and death of the Duke of Suffolke, and the Tragical end of the prowd Cardinall of Winchester, with the notable Rebellion of lacke Cade: And the Duke of Yorkes first clayme to the Crowne. London Printed by Valentine Simmes for Thomas Millington, and are to be sold at his shop vnder S. Peters church in Cornewall. 1600. 4°, [A—H in fours.] Capell Coll. (imperfect).

This is the same impression as the preceding, excepting a very few literal variations of no importance, with a different title-page. The copy in the library of Trinity College, Cambridge, etc., has only the first 25 leaves, and concludes with the first leaf of sign. G, but no other is known.

CONWAY, SIR JOHN.

COOKERY.

This is the Boke of Cokery. . . . R. Pynson, 1500.

The Duchesse of Portland (Margaret Cavendish Harley) was to have brought up this book for Herbert to see; but it does not appear that she did so. The title, which Herbert gives, was therefore most probably supplied by her grace.

A proper new Booke of Cookery, Declaryng what manner of meates is best in season, for all tymes in the yeare, & how they ought to be dressed and serued at the table both for flesh daies and fyshe dayes. With a new addition, very necessary for all them that delight in Cookery. Anno domini, 1576. [Col.] Imprinted at London for Antony Kytson. 8°, black letter, A—B in eights, last leaf blank. *Br. The 42d edition.

COPLAND, ROBERT.

The Hye Way to the Spyttel Hous. R. Copland, 4°.

The copy in Bibl. Heber, part 8, 498, wanting two leaves, had the autograph of Herbert, and was afterwards in the Roxburghe collection, the Duke's arms being impressed on the covers. In July, 1868, it occurred among Mr Corser's books, with one of the missing leaves—the title-page—supplied. It is now at Britwell, having been purchased by Mr Miller to improve the copy already there from the fourth part of Bibl. Heber. No others are known.

Jyl of Breyntfords testament. . . . W. Copland, 4°.

Reprinted from the Bodleian copy by Mr Furnivall, with other tracts, Ballad Society, 1871, 8°. Mr F. thinks the Bodleian copy earlier than that formerly Heber's, because it is more correct; but that argument may be used either way.

Made and published for the benefite of the Church and common wealth of England: by Samuell Cottesford Minister and publike Preacher of the woord of God. [Quot. from Proverbs, 17, 14.] At London Printed by E. A. for William Holme. [1592.] 8<sup>o</sup>, roman letter, H 4 in eights, besides prefixes.

The dedication is dated 6 Nov. 1591. This, Mr Pyne says, is a disappointing book, and is of no literary importance.

COTTESFORD, THOMAS.

The Prayer of the Prophet Daniell. . . . [1560.

This broadside seems to be reprinted separately from a work by Cottesford, published at Geneva, 1555, 16<sup>o</sup>, under the title of "The Accmpt, rekenynge, and confession of the faith of Huldrick Zwinglius byshop of Zuryk;" or indeed the broadside may have preceded the book.

COTTON, CHARLES.

Scarronides: Or, Virgile Travestie. A Mock-Poem. Being the First Book of Virgils Æneis in English Burlesque. [Extract from Pliny the Elder.] Imprimatur, Roger L'estrange. London: Printed by E. "Calling at St Paul's Churchyard, looked upon a pretty burlesque poem called 'Scarronides; or, Virgile Travesty;' extraordinary good."—Pepys' Diary, 22 Feb. 1663-4. According to Wood, this was written, not by Cotton, but by John Smyth, of Magdalen College, Oxford. This is not very probable.

The Planters Manual: Being Instructions for the Raising, Planting, and Cultivating all sorts of Fruit-Trees, whether stone-fruits or Pepin-fruits, with their Natures and Seasons. Very useful for such as are Curious in Planting and Grafting. By Charles Cotton Esq; London, Printed for Henry Brome at the Gun in St. Pauls Church-yard. 1675. 8°. A, 4 leaves: B—K in eights. With a frontispiece.

The Confinement. A Poem, with Annotations. Licensed. Roger L'Estrange. London: Printed for C. C. 1679. 8°, A—M in half-steets.

The present copy was bought by Heber at Bindley's sale in 1818, and has a duplicate title as follows: The Confinement. A Poem. London: Printed by J. C. 1679. It has likewise a few MS. corrections, &c. which appear to be in the hand of Charles Cotton, to whom the poem is attributed.

The Compleat Gamester: Or, Instructions how to play at Billiards, Trucks, Bowls, and Chess. Together with all manner of usual and most Gentile Games either at Cards or Dice, &c. The Second Edition. London, Printed for Henry Brome, &c. 1680. 8°, M. in eights. With a frontispiece in compartments and metrical explanation.

At the end are Dr Wild's copies of verses on two cocks fighting.

A third edition, or at least another edition, is appended to Lydgate's Stans Puer ad Mensam, printed by W. de Worde, 4°, without date. Mr Furnivall observes to me that the original of these Courtesy tracts by Lydgate, Rhodes, &c., was the Italian Tesoretto of Brunetto Latini, which is noticed by Mr Rosetti in his account of the early Italian works of this description. See also the short Latin Stans Puer ad Mensam printed in his Babees Book, Part II., p. 30-2. Russell's Boke of Nurture (in the Babees Book) is an independent treatise on carving, a valet's duties, &c., part of which Wynkyn de Worde lifted hoddily into his Boke of Keruyng: see Babees Book, p. cxi.-cxii.

What wants in us imagin in the workes
What in the workes, condemne the writer of, [both,
But if the worke and writing please you
That Zenophon from whence we borrow write

Being both a souldier and philosopher
Warrants what we record of Panthea
It is writ in sad and tragicke tearmes
May meue your teares, then you content, our muse

That seemes to trouble you, againe with
Or needlesse anticke imitations, [toies
Or shewes, or new devises strung a late,
We have exilde them from our Tragicke stage [bring

As trash of their tradition, that can Nor instance, nor excuse. For what they do [sings

In stead of meurnefull plaints our Chorus
Although it be against the upstart guise,
Yet warranted by grave antiquitie,
We will revive the which hath long beene

D'ANCRE, CONCHINI DE' CONCHINO, MARECHAL.

The Oration made vnto the French King by the Depvties of the National Synode of the Reformed Churches of France, vpon the death of the Marquesse d'Ancre, with the Kings answer therunto, 27 maij. 1617. Also, a Discovrse of the Beginning, progression, actions and behaviour of Cochino, Marquesse d'Ancre, and his wife Galligaia, with his proiects and practises, life and death, Compendiously, but more fully, expressed then heretofore. Faithfully Translated out of the French Copie. London Printed by Felix Kyngston for Nathanael Newbery. . . . 1617. 4°, 8 leaves, first blank.

The True Relation of the Deserved Death of that Base and Insolent Tyrant, the Marquis d'Ancre, the most unworthy marshal of France. Together with a Manifestation of the combination and Tyranny of him and his adherents. London, Printed by Felix Kyngston, &c. 1617. 4<sup>o</sup>, A—F in fours, first and last leaves blank.

The Last Will and Testament of the Marquis d'Ancre Together with his Araignement. His Osequies. His Wifes teares on his death. The Re-union of the King with his men of warre. The rousing of the Soldat François. All declaring the diuine judgement of God on the death of the said Marshall d'Ancre. Out of the French Copies printed at Paris and Roan. London Printed by Felix Kyngston for William Arondell, at the Angell in Pauls Church-yard. 1617. 4<sup>o</sup>, E in fours, D 4 blank.

The Ghost of the Marquesse d'Ancre, with his Spirits attending him. Or the Fiction of a Dialogue betweene Galligala, Conchini by name, or Marquesse d'Ancre his wife, and Misoquin a deluding spirit, by whom her Husband was misse-lead. Together with the same Spirits meeting the good Genfus to Monsieur the Prince of Conde: Faithfully translated out of the French Copie printed at Roan. Printed at London for Nicholas Bourne, and are to be sould at the South-entrance of the Royall Exchange. 1617. 4<sup>o</sup>, A—B in fours, or 8 leaves.

On the title is a woodcut purporting to represent the ghost of the marquis; but on the title of one of Richard Niccols's tracts, printed the year before, it had been used for the ghost of Sir Thomas Overbury.

A True Relation of those things that have been done in the Covrt of France, since the death of the Marshall d'Ancre, vntill the departure of the Queene mother from the King. With the Orations made vnto the King by his chiefe Officers and Courts of Iustice, and the Kings Answers thereunto. Together with the maner of the Adieu (or farwell betweene the King and the Queene mother. Translated out of the French Copie printed at Paris. London Printed by Felix Kyngston for Nathanael Newbery, &c. 1617. 4<sup>o</sup>, A—C2 in fours, first leaf blank.

The French Ivbile: Or, The Ioy and Thanksgiving of all France, to God and their King, for the death of the Marquise d'Ancre. Translated out of the French Copie printed at Paris. London Printed by Felix Kyngston for Nathanael Newbery, &c. 1617. 4<sup>o</sup>, A—B in fours.

The Letter of the French King to the Parliament of Roan, concerning the death of the Marshall d'Ancre. Together with an Act of the saide Parliament thereupon. London Printed by H. L. for Nathanael Newbery, &c. 1617. 4<sup>o</sup>, A—B 2 in fours, or 6 leaves.

The Marechal d'Ancre aimed at the same objects as Buckingham in England; but were equally unpopular; but, though each died a violent death, Buckingham fell by the hand of an assassin, while Louis XIII. himself arrested the career of d'Ancre.

DANGERFIELD, THOMAS.

Don Tomazo, Or the Juvenile Rambles of Thomas Dangerfield. London, Printed for William Rumbold in the Old Change, 1680. 8<sup>o</sup>, P in eights.

Dangerfields Memoires, Digested into Adventures, Receipts, and Expences. By his Own Hand. London, Printed by J. Bennet for Charles Brome, at the Gun in St. Paul's Church-Yard. 1685. 4<sup>o</sup>. A, 2 leaves: B—F in fours.

DANIEL.

The Dreames of Daniell, with the Expositions of the xij. Sygnes, deuyded by the xij. Monthes of the Yeaere; and also the Destenyys both of Man and Woman borne in eche Monthe of the Yere. Very necessarye to be knowen. Imprinted by me Robert Wyer. 16<sup>o</sup>, F in half sheets. Black letter.

A new ballad Intituled, Daniels sifytyng in these our dayes: aptly applied to the true Preachers of the Gospell.

What God hath willed us, to that good care geue: [scene.]

DANIEL, GEORGE, of Beswick.

Trinarchodia. . . . 1649.

A copy of this MS., I believe the same as that mentioned in the Handbook, occurs in T. Davies's catalogue of W. Oldys's books, 1764, No. 3625. George Daniel's Poems, comprised in the folio volume in the Br. Museum, were apparently written between 1636 and 1653.

DANIEL, SAMUEL.

The Works of Samvel Daniel Newly augmented. Ætas prima, &c. London Printed for Simon Waterson. 1602. Folio. The title is within a woodcut compartment, as in the issue of 1601 and the folio edition of the Panegyric, &c.

Collation: A, 2 leaves: B—O in sixes: P, 4 leaves, and R—T, 4 leaves each, last leaf of T blank : A—N in sixes : A—B, in sixes, and C, 4 leaves. The present copy appears to be on large paper, and is bound up with one of the Panegyricke, &c. [1603.] Folio, also on large paper. The volume was apparently printed at two presses, the second typographer taking up the work at Musophilus, and continuing to the end.

The Whole Workes of Samvel Daniel Esquire in Poetrie. London, Printed by Nicholas Okes for Simon Waterson, and are to be sold at his shoppe in Paules Church-yard at the signe of the Crowne. 1623. 4<sup>o</sup>.

Collation: Title and dedication to Prince Charles by the Editor, 2 leaves (followed in the copy here used by a blank) : B—C in fours : D—R 4 in eights : Funeral Poem on Lord Devonshire, with a new title, A—B in eights : then the Panegyric, &c., with continuous signatures, C—N 4 in eights, N 4 blank : Philotas, with new title and signatures, Aa—Tt 6 in eights. In this edition the poems are arranged without regard to chronological propriety, and the text is by no means trustworthy. An edition of the poetical works of Daniel, 1718, 2 vols, 12<sup>o</sup>, is of sufficiently common occurrence ; but it is utterly worthless.

Collation : A, 2 leaves : B—H 3 in fours : Rosamond, B—G(2) 2 in fours.

The First Fowre Bookes of the ciuile warres betweene the two houses of Lancaster and Yorke. By Samvel Daniel. Ætas prima, &c. Printed at London by P. Short for Simon Waterson. 1595. 4<sup>o</sup>, B—Ee in fours, and the title-page.

The title is within a totally different border from the other edition of the same year, and instead of the IHS, has a shield of arms in the upper centre. There are no prefixes. The leaves are paged from 1 to 108 as in the other.

The Poeticall Essayes of Sam. Danyel. Newly Corrected and augmented. Ætas prima, &c. At London Printed by P. Short for Simon Waterson. 1599. 4<sup>o</sup>, title within an ornamental woodcut border in compartments. Dedicated to Sir Charles Blunt, Lord Mountjoy, K.G.

Collation : General title and dedication, 2 leaves : title to the Civil Wars, The Civil Wars of England, betweene the two Houses of Lancaster and Yorke. Sam. Daniell. At London &c. 1 leaf : The Civil Wars, Books i.—iv., B—Z in fours : The fift Booke, Aa—Ee in fours, besides the Errata, 1 leaf : Musophilus (dedicated to Fulke Grevill, afterwards Lord Brooke), A, 2 leaves : B—F 3 in fours : A Letter from Octavia to Marcus Antonius, A, 2 leaves : B—D 2 in fours (dedicated to the Countess of Cumberland) : The Tragedie of Cleopatra (dedicated to the Countess of Pembroke), A—K, in fours : The Complaint of Rosamond, Bb—G[2] 2 in fours.

One of the copies in the British Museum (under the pressmark 11622 d), instead of the proper title-page and reprinted text of Book v. of Civil Wars, has those which belong to the First Fowre Bookes, &c. 1595. The Complaint of Rosamond is the same text and setting-up as that attached to the Collier (now Ouvry) copy of Delia, 1592.

A Panegyrike Congratulatory Deliuered to the Kings most excellent maiesty at Burleigh Harrington in Rutlandshire. By Samvel Daniel. Also certaine Epistles. With a Defence of Ryme, heretofore written, and now published by the Author. Carmen amat, &c. At London Printed by V. S. for Edward Blount. [1603.] Folio.

Collation : Title, 1 leaf : A—B 4 in sixes : [new title] Certaine Epistles after the manner of Horace written to Divers noble Personages. By S. D. Carmen amat, &c. At London Imprinted for Edward Blount. 1603. 1 leaf : C—D 2 in fours : E—F 2 in sixes, but between F and F 2 a leaf, containing a letter to the Earl of Hertford respecting the poem called The passion of a distressed mind : [a third title] A Defence of Ryme against a Pamphlet entituled : observations in the Art of English Poesie. Wherein is demonstratiuely proued that Ryme is the fittest harmonie of words that comportes with our language. By Sa : D. At London Printed by V. S. for Edward Blount. G—H in sixes, and a leaf of 4.

The 8<sup>o</sup> edition of 1603 varies a good deal from this, and omits the letter to Lord Hertford, as well as the intimation on the title to the Epistles, that they were "after the manner of Horace." Corser, 1870, £6. 18s.

Certaine Small Workes Heretofore diuulged by Samuel Daniel one of the Groomes of the Queenes Maiesties priuie Chamber, & now againe by him corrected and augmented.

Ætas prima canat vengeres postrema tumultus. At London Printed by I. W. for Simon Waterson. 1607. 8<sup>o</sup>, V in eights, first leaf of A blank. With separate titles to all the pieces, except the Funeral Poem on Lord Devonshire.

The dedications to Cleopatra and Musophilus appear to have been left out by accident, and in the copy before me there are 8 cancel leaves, on which the titles and prefixes are printed, as the author intended.

Certaine Small Workes. . . . 1611.

Collation : A—Q 3 in twelves. Each portion has a separate title, except Delia and one or two of the shorter pieces.

The Ciuile Wares [sic] betweene the Howses of Lancaster and Yorke corrected and continued by Samuel Daniel one of the Groomes of hir Maiesties most honorable Priuie Chamber.

Ætas prima . . . .
Printed at London by Simon Watersonne.

1609. 4<sup>o</sup>, A—C in fours, A 4 blank : D—S 4 in eights. With the title-page engraved by Cockson, and containing in the centre a portrait of the author.

This edition of the entire poem has a new Preface by the author, addressed to Lady Pembroke.

The First Part of the Historie of England. By Samuel Daniel. London, Printed for the Company of Stationers. 1613. 4<sup>o</sup>, A—Gg 2 in fours.

The last leaf contains the author's own Apology for the Errata. Dedicated to Sir Robert Carr, Viscount Rochester.

The Collection of the History of England. By Samuel Daniel. Revised, and by his last corrected Coppy Printed. London, Printed by Tho. Cotes for Simon Water-son, &c. 1634. Folio. A, 4 leaves : B—Z in sixes.

DANVERD, JOHN.

The Royal Oake : Or, an Historical Description of the Royal Progress, wonderful Travels, Miraculous escapes and Strange Accidents of his Sacred Majesty Charles the II. . . . London, Printed for G. Horton, living near the three crowns in Barbican. 1660. 4<sup>o</sup>, 4 leaves.

D'ANVERS, HENRY.

Solomon's Proverbs, English and Latin, Alphabetically Collected for help of Memory. Fitted for the use of Schools. By H. D. [Three quotations.] London, Printed by J. R. for William Redmayne at the Crown on Addle-hill near Carter-Lane. 1676. Sm. 8<sup>o</sup>, L 4 in eights.

Prefixed is an Epistle to the Reader, explaining the use of Proverbs, and also some verses by S. P.

DAPHNIS AND CHLOE.

Daphnis and Chloe. A Most Sweet, and Pleasant Pastorall Romance for Young Ladies. By Geo. Thornley, Gent. [Quotation from Sen. Philos.] London, Printed for John Garfield, at the Sign of the Rolling Presse for Pictures near the Royal-Exchange in Cornhill, over against Popes-Head-alley. 1657. 8<sup>o</sup>, with a frontispiece by Cross and a vignette of a rolling-press on the title. A, 8 leaves : D—S 3, in eights (no B or C). Br. Museum.

The figure of Chloe in the frontispiece seems to resemble very closely that engraved two years later for Lovelace's Lucasta.

DARIEN.

A Defence of the Scots Abdicating Darien : Including an Answer to the Defence of the Scots Settlement there. Authore Britanno sed Dunensi. [Quot. from Ovid. de Trist.] Printed in the Year, 1700. 8<sup>o</sup>, N in half sheets.

The Epistle Dedicatory is signed Phil[ol]-Scot[us].

A Defence of the Scots Settlement at Darien. With An Answer to the Spanish Memorial against it. And Arguments to prove that it is the interest of England to join with the Scots, and protect it. To which is added. A Description of the Country, and a particular Account of the Scots Colony. Edinbvrgh, Printed in the Year M.DC.XC.IX. 8<sup>o</sup>, F in eights.

The Epistle Dedicatory is signed Philo-Caledon.

DARIOT, CLAUDIUS.

King John and Matilda: A Tragedy. As it was acted at the private House in Drury-lane by Her Maiesties Servants with great Applause. Written by W. Daven. Gent. [sic] London, Printed for Richard Gammon, over-against Excester-House in the Strand, 1662. 4<sup>o</sup>, A—H in fours. Dyce Coll.

In the Stationers' Registers, under April 8, 1630, is entered by Robert Allot: "The Pedler, a comedy," with Davenport's name to it as the writer. Was this not the same piece as Randolph's Conceited Pedlar, printed by Allot in 1630, and erroneously given to Davenport at the time of registration?

In the Bodleian Catalogue, Malone's copy of Davenport's Crowne for a Conqueror, 1639, is misdated 1623. See T. Allen's Catalogue, 1795, No. 406, where a copy occurs of this very rare book. Was Malone the purchaser?

DAVIES, JAMES.

The History of his Sacred majesty Charles the II. King of England. . . . Begun from the Murder of his Royal Father of Happy memory and continued to this present year, 1660. By a Person of Quality.

Bona agere & mala pati Regium est.

London, Printed for James Davies, and are to be sold at the Turkes-head in Ivie-Lane, and at the Grey-hound in St. Pauls Church-yard. 1660. 12<sup>o</sup>. A, 12 leaves, first blank: A—K in twelves, last leaf blank.

It is somewhat hard to decide upon the authorship of this scarce volume, as Davies seems to claim it in his Preface, while "a Hearty well-wisher to his country," in an address "To the Reader in general," speaks of the work as his. Perhaps he and Davies were one and the same. The book was written before the Restoration. The last page has some verses "On his Majesties Picture, Anno 1659."

DAVIES, JOHN, of Hereford.

Microcosmos. . . . 1605.

DECKER, THOMAS.

Canaans Calamitie. . . . 1598.

This volume is a 4<sup>o</sup>, not an 8<sup>o</sup>. The only copy known of the edition of 1598, formerly in the Bliss and Corser collections, ends imperfectly on C 4. The edition of 1625 I know only from an original title-page among Bagford's papers.

The Magnificent Entertainment: Given to King James, Queene Anne his wife, and Henry Frederick, the Prince, vpon the Day of his Maiesties Tryumphant Passage (from the Tower) through the Honourable Citie (and Chamber) of London, being the 15. of March. 1603. As well by the English as by the Strangers: With the Speeches and Songes, deliuered in the seuerall Pageants. Mart. Templa Deis. . . . Tho. Dekker. Imprinted at London by T. C. for Tho. Man the Yonger. 1604. 4<sup>o</sup>, A—I in fours, title on A 2.

Part of I 4 recto is occupied by a notice to the Reader, correcting some errors of the press, and stating that, from want of time, some of the matter here printed was not delivered. This appears to be the original issue.

The Whole Magnificent Entertainment: Given to King James, Queene Anne his wife, and Henry Frederick the Prince, vpon the day of his Majesties Tryumphant Passage (from the Towre) through the Honorable Citie (and Chamber) of London. the 15. of March, 1603 [-4.] Aswell by the English, as by the Strangers, with the Speeches and Songes, deliuered in the seuerall Pageants. And those speeches that before were publish't in Latin, now newly set forthe in English. Tho. Dekker. Imprinted at London by E. Alde for Tho. Man the yonger. 1604. 4<sup>o</sup>, 34 leaves.

Three editions or issues the same year. It was also reprinted at Edinburgh by Thomas Finlason, 1604, 4<sup>o</sup>, of which the only copy known is now in the British Museum. On A 2 occurs a headline: "A Device (projected downe, but till now not publish't) that should haue serued at his majesties first accesse to the Citie," which, from the Towneley copy wanting the title-page, led the compiler of the Towneley Catalogue to enter it under that name, and induced Lowndes to put Dekker his Device among that author's works as a separate piece.

The Magnificent Entertainment: Given to King James, Queene Anne his wife, and Henry Frederick the Prince, vpon the day of his Maiesties Tryumphant passage (from the Tower) through his Honourable Cittie (and Chamber) of London, being the 15. of March, 1603. As well by the English as by the Strangers: With the Speeches and Songes, deliuered in the seuerall Pageants. [Quot. from Martial.] Tho. Dekker. Edinburgh, Printed by Thomas Finlason and are to be sold at Niddries wynde heide. Anno. Dom. 1604. With Licence. 4<sup>o</sup>. 28 leaves.

This is an entirely different edition from the former, and not merely a new title-page.

Britannia's Honor: Brightly Shining in seuerall Magnificent Shewes or Pageants, to Celebrate the Solemnity of the Right Honourable Richard Deane. At his Inauguration into the Majoralty of the Honourable City of London, on Wednesday, October the 29th, 1628. Faithfully taken out of the Report of M. Christopher Ceely, Ellis, Hixom, and others, who were in the same Voyage with him. By Philip Nichols, Preacher. Reuiued by Sir Francis Drake himselfe before his death, and much holpen and enlarged by diuers Notes, with his owne hand here and there Inserted. Set forth by Sir Francis Drake Baronet (his Nephew) now liuing. London, Printed for Nicholas Bourne, dwelling at the South Entrance of the Royal Exchange, 1628. 4<sup>o</sup>, L in fours. With a vignette portrait on the title-page, apparently a reduced copy of the larger print, which is sometimes found with the editions of the World Encompassed.

In this impression, the Errata in the 4<sup>o</sup> of 1626 have been attended to, and the Table of five pages is of course omitted. There is, in the copy before me, an impression of the portrait of Drake by W. Marshall inserted; it is by no means an unfavourable specimen of the engraver.

The World Encompassed by Sir Francis Drake. Being his next Voyage to that to Nombre de Dios, formerly imprinted; Carefully collected out of the Notes of Master Francis Fletcher, &c. London, Printed by E. P. for Nicholas Bourne, and are to be sold at his Shop, &c. 1635. 4<sup>o</sup>, M in fours, last leaf blank.

DRAYTON, MICHAEL.

The Barons Wars. . . . 1600.

"I have a copy of the Poems [of Drayton] with the date of 1600, which cost me 10s. 6d."—MS. note by Sir F. Freeling in his interleaved copy of the B. A. Poetica.

To the Maiestie of King James. A gratulatorie Poem by Michael Drayton. At London Printed by Iames Roberts, for T. M. and H. L. 1603. 4<sup>o</sup>, 6 leaves. With a genealogical table.

A Pæan Triumphall. . . . 1604.

Garrick, 1823, No. 766, in a vol.

Poems: By Michael Draiton Esquire. London, Printed for N. Ling, 1605. 8<sup>o</sup>, A, 4 leaves: B—Ii 6 in eights.

This is the earliest collected edition of Drayton's poems, and with the exception of his Poemes Lyrick and pastorall, elsewhere noticed, contains all that he had written down to this time, judged by himself to be worth preservation. The volume does not include the Harmonie of the Church, 1591, which was never republished, although the unsold copies were reissued with a new title-page in 1610.

Contents: 1. The Barrons Warres; 2. Englands Heroicall Epistles; 3. Idea; 4. Legends. Each of these portions has a separate dedication, and of the Epistles each is inscribed to a different patron. There are complimentary verses through the volume by Thomas Greene (the actor and poet), Sir John Beaumont, E. St. Gent., Thomas Hassall, Gent., and William Alexander Scotus.

Poems: By Michael Drayton Esquire. Newly Corrected by the Author. London, Printed for Iohn Smethwicke, and are to bee sold at his Shop in Saint Dunstanes Church-yard, vnder the Diall. 1610. 8<sup>o</sup>, A, 4 leaves: B—Ii 6 in eights.

This edition closely corresponds with that of 1613, and it may be observed that the 8<sup>o</sup> editions from 1605 to 1613 do not seem to differ in any respect, except that that of 1613 has an additional leaf of verses.

Poems: By Michael Drayton Esquire. Newly Corrected by the Author. London Printed by W. Stansby for Iohn Smethwicke, and are to bee sold at his Shop in Saint Dunstanes Church-yard vnder the Diall. 1613. 8°, A, 4 leaves: B—li in sights, last leaf but one blank.

With the dedication to Sir Walter Aston, and the verses by Sir John Beaumont and Thomas Greene. But the last leaf contains two complimentary poems by John Selden and E. Heyward, first printed here; this leaf is nearly always wanting. In other respects, this impression corresponds and collates with that of 1610.

London, Printed by W. Stansby for Iohn Smethwicke, and are to be sold at his Shop in Saint Dunstans Church-yard in Fleet-Streete vnder the Diall. [1619.] Folio. A, 4 leaves, including printed title with portrait on the back (Anno ætat. L. 1613) and frontispiece: B—Qqq, in fours.

Each portion has a separate title-page dated 1619.

Poems by Michael Drayton, Esquyer, Newly Corrected & Augmented. 1630. London Printed by Willi: Stansby for Iohn Smethwick. 8°, li, in eights. The title is engraved.

Some copies have no date on the first title.

The Legend of Great Cromwel. By Michael Drayton, Esquier. At London Printed by Felix Kyneston, and are to be sold by I. Flasket, dwelling in Paules Churchyard at the signe of the black Beare. 1607. 4°, A—F in fours, and a leaf of G. With commendatory verses by J. Cooke, Henry Lucas, and Christopher Brooke.

Dedicated to the "Deserving Memorie of my Worthy Patron Sir Walter Aston, &c." The author's notice to the Reader occupies two pages, and is very curious. The poem is in 8-line stanzas, and varies from the text printed in 1609.

The copy of this volume entered in the catalogue of Drummond's books, 1627, can no longer be found.

The Battaile of Agincovrt. . . . 1627.

Collation: A, 4 leaves: a, 2 leaves: B, 6 leaves: C—Eo in fours, last leaf blank. With verses by Ben Jonson, John Vaughan, John Reynolds, &c. Two copies are known on large paper, one of which is at Britwell. The other wants the portrait.

The Battaile of Agincovrt. Fovght by Henry the Fift of that name, King of England, against the whole power of the French: vnder the Raigne of their Charles the sixt, Anno Dom. 1415. The Miseries of Queene Margarite, the infortunate Wife, of that most infortunate King Henry the sixt. Nimphidia, the Court of Fayrie. The Quest of Cinthia. The Shepheards Sirena. The Moore Calfe. Elegies vpon sundry occasions. By Michaell Drayton, Esquire. London, Printed by A. M. for William Lee, and are to be sold &c. 1631. 8°, V in eights. With commendatory verses by John Reynolds, and [Sir] I. Vaughan.

The Mysen Elizivm, Lately discovered, By a New Way over Parnassvs. The passages therein, being the subject of ten sundry Nymphalls, Leading three Diuine Poemes, Noahs Flood. Moses, His Birth and Miracles. David and Goliath. By Michael Drayton Esquire. London, Printed by Thomas Harper for Iohn Waterson, &c. 1630. 4°, Dd in fours, the title on A 2. Dedicated to Edward Earl of Dorset and his Countess.

The only portion of this volume which seems to have passed the press before was the second poem, which, under the title of Moyes in a map of his miracles, was printed in 4°, 1604.

DREAMS.

The Interpretation of Dreams. . . . [1566.]

No copy of this book has been seen, I believe, otherwise than in the edition of 1626. Herbert knew it only from the registration of it by W. Copland in 1566.

ETIENNE (or STEPHANUS) ROBERT. A World of Wonders: Or An Introduct

tion to a Treatise touching the Conformation, &c. Edenbvrgh, Imprinted by Andrew Hart and Richard Lawson. 1608. Folio. T, 6 leaves, first blank: A, 4 leaves: B—T in sixes: V, 4 leaves (with the title &c. to the Second Part): X—Hh in sixes.

The translator, in the dedication of the First Part to the Earls of Pembroke and Montgomery, reminds them of the friendship which subsisted between the author, Henry Stephens, and their uncle, Sir Philip Sidney. The dedication of the Second Part is still more interesting; it is "To the Honorable Knight Sir Robert Rich and to the worthy Gentleman master Henry Rich his Brother: Sonnes to the Right Honorable the Lord Rich." R. C. here says: "The worke you may iustly challenge at my hands by a double right. First, in that it was begun at my Honourable good Lord your Fathers house in Essex: where being destitute of other books, and knowing not how to passe those long nights with better recreation: at your intreatie together with my entire friend monsieur Beaufort (then your Schoolmaster for the French tongue, and now Doctor of Physick in Basil) I first vndertooke the Worke: beginning (as you know usteron proteron omneikos, with the Second part in the First place." It further appears that chapter 36 was translated by Sir Robert Rich himself, and afterwards very slightly revised by R. C.

Mr Caldecott was, it is believed, the first person who drew attention to the probability that in some of his later productions Shakespeare made use of this volume.

Panacea. . . . 1659.

Dr Everard produced other works, of which some account may be found in Notes and Queries, 4th Ser. i.

EVERY MAN, THE SUMMONING OF.

Such in Skot's copies is the catchword printed at the foot of the gatherings. It was from the copy, which afterwards belonged to Jolley, when at Lincoln, that this morality was reprinted by Hawkins. Although it might be rash to speak too confidently, the edition by Skot without a colophon seems to be the second, as it exhibits many corrections and important changes.

A. B. C. and so forthe— A—B, 4 leaves each: Aa—Xx in eights: Aa—Ff in eights: Gg in sixes. With the printer's mark beneath the colophon.

The Grenville copy of this rare and important book is very defective; but complete copies are said to be at Ham House and in the library of Mr Cunliffe. It is, perhaps, to be regretted that so valuable an assemblage of books as that formed by Mr Grenville should have been so imperfectly described; but the Bibliotheca Grenvilliana is little better than a bookseller's catalogue, supplemented by the owner's MS. notes, too often based upon erroneous information.

The Chronicle of Fabian, whiche he nameth the concordance of histories, newly perused. And continued from the beginning of Kyng Henry the seventh to thende of Queene Mary. 1559. Mense Aprilis. Imprinted at London, by Jhon Kyngston. Small folio, black letter. A—B, 6 leaves each: A—Z in sixes, and A—H 4 in sixes.

[1559.] Folio. Aa—Zz in sixes: Aa—Zz in sixes (repeated): Aaa—Bbb in sixes, the last leaf blank.

There is a title to each part in a compartment as described by Herbert, 834–5. On the back of the title to Part 1 is the address of the Printer to the Reader, and on that of the one to Part 2, the Envoy of Fabian (3 stanzas of 7 lines).

FAIRFAX, THOMAS, first Baron of Cameron.

The High way to Hedelbergh. By T. Fairfax. MS. in folio [circa 1625]. 25 leaves, including one appropriated to the title.

The copy here described appears to be a transcript of the original MS. signed by the author. It has many corrections and interlineations, and contains a good deal of information as to the relations between England and Spain, &c.

FEYLDE, THOMAS.

A controuersye bytwene a louer and a Jaye. . . . [1522.]

The date between brackets I have selected on the ground that Hawes, who is mentioned as dead by Feylde in the course of his poem, is supposed to have been still living in 1521–2. See Mr Laing's Abbotsford Club edition of Hawes's Conversion of Suerers, Introd. vii. Feylde's tract has been reprinted for the Roxburge Club.

FIAN, DR.

Newes from Scotland. . . . 1592.

Douce probably obtained his copy at Gough's sale. See Herbert's Ames, 1346.

FIELD, NATHANIEL.

A Woman is a Weather-cocke. A New Comedy, As it was acted before the King in White-Hall. And diners times Privately at the White-Friers, by the Children of her Maiesties Reuels. #### FIELDING, HENRY.

The Fyftene Joyes of Maryage. . . .
W. de Worde, 1509.

This is a translation from the Quinze Joyes de Mariage. There is a MS. of the French in the public library at Rouen, and many early printed editions. Heber's copy of De Worde's English, the only one known, is at Britwell.

FISH, SIMON.

A Supplicacyon for the Beggars. . . .

There can be no doubt that Fish wrote this; it is expressly ascribed to him in a tract printed in 1555.

The Supplication of the poore Commons is by Robert Crowley.

In Bibl. Heber., Part 2, No. 5795, and in the Br. Museum, a copy of the Supplication of the poor Commons occurs, with the other tract adjoined, and "compyled by Symon Fyshe" added; which leaves little doubt on the subject, and shows that there was more than one issue sine ullâ notâ of the two pieces together. Heber had also the one in which Fish's name is not given. See Part 2, 6382. (Crowley.)

[FISHER, JASPER, D.D., of Magdalen College, Oxford.]

Fvimmvs Troes, Æneid. 2. The Trve Troianes, Being a Story of the Brittaines valour at the Romanes first invasion: Pablykely represented by the Gentlemen Students of Magdalen Colledge in Oxford.

This is the copy assigned by some bibliographers to 1505.

FISHER, PAYNE.

Marston-Moor. . . . 1650.

The first leaf is also blank. This volume has commendatory verses by E. Benlowes, Robert Gardiner, P. de Cardonnel, Alexander Ross, Th. Culpepper of the Inner Temple, John Sictor Bohemus, and Thomas Philipot; and there is a copy also by James Howell.

Pœan Triumphans In secundam Inaugurationem Serenissimi nostri Principis Olivari, Ubi celebriores Terra Marique Victoriæ brevissimè perstringuntur. Dedicatus Eminentissimo Cardinali Mazarino. Londini, Typis Rogeri Danielis. . . . M DC LVIII. Folio. With a portrait of Mazarin. Title and dedication, 3 leaves: A—F, 2 leaves each, and F 2 blank.

Irenodia Gratulatoria. . . .

A copy now before me (a different one from that described elsewhere) has in addition a leaf before the title, containing verses, and two portraits of Cromwell, the portraits probably insertions.

But the copies of this and Fisher's other books constantly vary in the contents and arrangement; and they are so unimportant, that it is scarcely worth while to enter into further particulars.

Deus et Rex, Rex & Episcopus. Carmen ad Clerum. Cui Carmini sua superaddit Elogia Sepulchralia P. F. ex œquest. Famil. Generosus, dudumque Collegii, campique Graduatús, Lond. ex Antiquâ Regis Fleta Domu sibi, suisque Hæreditariâ Jeremiæ Whitchcott, Ordinis honorabilis Baronetti, &c. Ibique sub Salvâ Civiliq; Custodiâ Morum, Literarum, Legumq; candidati Thomæ Dikenson, Armigeri, Generosiq; Fletæ Gardiani. [1675.] 8<sup>o</sup>, A—G in fours: no H—K: L—Q 2 in fours: a Tetrastique in Latin and English on Lady Jane Dillington, 1 leaf: contents, 2 leaves. Between pp. 98 and 99 are 6 leaves unpagged and unsigned.

In one copy now before me there are (deficient in the other) 6 leaves, containing, 1. an English title-page to the Elogiums totally different from the Latin one: 2. Dedication to Charles II. in English: a Chronosticon on the execution of Charles I. pp. 3: 3. Verses on the death of Henrietta Maria. 4. Two leaves (the first marked B.) of Latin inscriptions. On the other hand, at the end 4 leaves of additional epitaphs, including one on Sir Jol Davies the poet; these leaves are on unusually thick paper. The original contents have been reprinted in smaller type, and in an abridged shape, so as to occupy only 17 pages, and a leaf of new contents has been added, announcing in broadside type 11 supplementary inscriptions. The epitaph of a Mrs Constance Thomas, wife of the Reverend Dr Thomas, D.D., was, seems, to have been annexed, but was cancelled, for it is in the Index, with a pen struck through it. It is also to be noticed that in one of the copies, in place of the title and blank leaf with a border facing it for the purpose of being filled in according to circumstances, there are merely 2 leaves on thick paper, containing a long list of personages, to whom Fisher pays his respects. In the other copy, this list is in smaller type, and is the final leaf of sign.

A—B in fours: C, 7 leaves: D—G fours, followed by 2 leaves, marked B: H N in fours (N repeated): 11 leaves, apparently belonging to O: P, 4 leaves: Q 3 leaves: 2 leaves marked A.

Typis Gulielmi Downin vico S<sup>t</sup>i Bartholomæi Majoris, 1677. 4 18 leaves.

On the recto of the last leaf is a curio catalogue of Fisher's other works, or sort of them, and the reverse contains a notice respecting him by the bookseller. The following the title has a shield of William's arms, and the 4th leaf one of King's College, Oxford.

The Tombs, Monuments, And Sepulchral Inscriptions, Lately Visible in St. Paul's Cathedral, And St. Faith's under it, Correctly Rendred in Latin and English With Several Historical Discourses, (and Sundry Persons Intombed therein) Work Never yet Performed by any Author Old or New. Amen. And newly in the yere of oure lorde god m. ccccc. ii. Enpryted in Flete strete in y<sup>e</sup> sygne of the sonne By me Wynkyn de Worde. [This portion of the volume commences in the Grenville copy (which evidently wants Aa with the title-page or a blank) on the recto of fol. Aa 2 with the Table of Contents in 10 pages, having the head-title: "Here begynneth a shorte and a trewe table on these cronycles, and ye must vnderstande that euery leaf of the a. b. c. is marked in the margent vnder the .j. and .ij. and .iij. and so forth to .vi. all the letters to the bokes ende / what soeuer ye fynde shortly wyrtyn in this table / ye shall fynde it openly in the same nvmbre of that letter." Then comes the Prologue on sheet A i, the work being printed in two columns, and going on regularly in sixes to Dd 3 (wrongly marked d 3), Dd 4 being blank (and deficient in the Grenville copy, though found in a second imperfect one in the Museum). After the conclusion of the Fructus follows "The descrypcyon of Englonde" over this sub-title: Here foloweth a lytell treatyse the which treateth of the descrypcyon of thislonde whiche of olde tyme was named Alhyon And after Brytayne And nowe is called Englonde and speketh of the noblesse and worthynesse of the same. A woodcut occupies the rest of the page. The colophon. Here endeth the descrypcyon of Brytayne, the whiche conteyneth Englonde Wales and Scotlonde / and also bycause Irlonde is vnder the rule of Englonde and of olde tyme hathe so contynued. therefore I haue sette the descrypcyon of the same after the sayd Brytayne / whiche I haue taken out of Polycronycon. . . . Fynyshed & enprynted in Fletestrete in the syne of the sonne by me wynkyn worde / the yere of our lorde a. m. ccccc. and ij. mensis mayus. A—d 3 in sixes. Folio, black letter. Br. Museum (Grenville).

FRUIT OF REDEMPTION.

The fruyte of redempcyon. [This title is in a ribbon, over a woodcut of the Crucifixion, enclosed in a border of not inelegant design.] At the end: Enprynted by Wynkyn de Worde / the yere of our lorde god .m. ccccc. and .xiii. 4°, black letter, 24 leaves. With large woodcut initials. Br. Museum.

Unseen by Herbert.

☞ The fruyte of redempcyon. [This title is in a ribbon, and beneath is a page-woodcut of the Crucifixion.] At the end, Enprynted by Wynkyn de Worde / the yere of our lorde god .m. ccccc. and .xxx. And fynyshed the .xxi. daye of Maye. 4°, black letter, 23 leaves. With woodcut initials, and the large device of the printer on the last page. H. Huth, Esq.

This impression is not mentioned by Herbert.

The fruyte of redempcyon. [Col.] Imprinted at London in Fletestrete at the sygne of the Sonne / by Wynkyn de Worde. In the yere of our lorde. m. ccccc. xxxij. 4°, black letter, A—F in fours. With woodcuts.

Tite, June 3, 1874, No. 3078.

☞ The fruyte of redempcyon. [This title is in large letters over the large cut of the Crucifixion used by W. de Worde elsewhere.] At the end: Here endeth the treatyse called the fruyte of redempcyon, whiche deuoute treatyse J. Rycharde vnworthy bysshop of London haue studyously radde & ouerseen, &c. [Enprynted by Wynkyn de Worde.] 4°, without date, black letter, 24 leaves. With marginal notes and several initial and other woodcuts.

The only copy I have seen of this impression wanted a leaf in the middle and the last one. The colophon is therefore conjectural. The title-page differs altogether from those in the edits. of 1514 and 1530.

LLANT.

ere begynneth a Treatise of a galaunt.
de Worde, 4<sup>o</sup>.

Heber's fragment of edit. (a), which is reprinted in Censura Literaria, 1st edit. v. 37, was found in the binding of a book of statutes printed by Pynson, belonging to the library at Nash-Court. The copy of edit. (c) in the Museum is supposed to be unique.
It was bought by Mr Maskell (with other rare tracts) of Jefferies of Bristol. It will be found reprinted (with a collation of the other two impressions) in Hazlitt's Popular Poetry, iii.

A copy of the poem, from the libraries of Freeling, Jolley, and Corser, is in Mr
Huth's library. It is much mutilated.

MBOLD, W.

embrookshire. Anno Domini. 1724.
arnarthen, Printed by Nicolas Thomas.
727. 8<sup>o</sup>, S 3, in half sheets, and pre-ces, 8 leaves.

There are commendatory verses by the author's son John Gambold and by a friend, the latter in Welsh, and dated 1722-3, whence it may appear that the Grammar had been a work of some years' labour.
Gambold advertises here a Welsh Dictionary which, he states, had long been ready.

Printed by Henrie Middleton dwelling in Fleetestreat at the signe of the Faulcon.
Anno. 1581. 8<sup>o</sup>, printed within woodcut borders, A—Y 6 in eights. Black and white letter.

A Godlie Garden: out of the which most cōfortable hearbs may be gathered. . . .
Imprinted at London by Richard Bradock, and are to be sold by Thomas Pauier at his shoppe in Cornhill, near to the Royall Exchange. 1607. 8<sup>o</sup>, printed within borders, black and white letter, Y in eights.

At the end of this edition, which appears to be otherwise a reprint of that of 1581, occur on three leaves: "Graces to be said before and after Meales," in verse. The last two leaves have the Table, which should probably be also in a perfect copy of the edition of 1581, completing sign. Y.

A Godlie Garden, out of the which most cōfortable hearbs may be gathered for the health of the wounded conscience of all penitent sinners. Perused and allowed.
Imprinted at London by Iohn Beale for Robert Bird. 1629. 8<sup>o</sup>, black letter, printed within borders. A—Y in eights,

Quarta Editione impressum, cum Supplemento Novissimo. Oxoniæ, Excudebat

H. H. Academiæ Typographus, Impensis Ric. Davis. 1668. 8°, Q in eights.

Under the first title are comprised a variety of Opuscula, each, however, with its own separate title-page, of which this interesting little volume possesses no fewer than nine.

GARDINER, SAMUEL, D.D.

Doomes Day Book. . . . 1606.

But Herbert (ed. of Ames, p. 1342) seems to specify an edition printed for N. Ling in 1600. The original title-page of Gardiner's Pearle of Price is among Bagford's papers.

GARDYNER, GERMEN.

A Letter of a yonge gentylman named mayster German Gardynare, wryten to a frend of his, wherin men may se the demeanour & heresy of Iohn Fryth late burned & also the dysp[os]lycyōs & reasonyng vpon the same, had betwene the same mayster Germen and hym. ARTER, BERNARD.

The Tragical and True Historie. . . . 565.

See the Osterley Park Catalogue, p. 81, where it is entered as "Tragical History of two Lovers."

of Trust and Triall. B. G.

A few lines of verse printed on the same sheet with a strife betwene Apelles and Pigmalion. See Hazlitt's Handbook, 1867, in v.

A Newyeares Gifte. . . . 1579.

The number of leaves assigned to this book by Hazlitt does not include a large folding out of "certaine of the Popes Merchandize lately sent ouer into Englands;" and in fact the volume frequently wants this.

ARVEY, JOHN, Primate of Ireland.

The Conversion of Philip Corwine, a Franciscan Fryar, to the Reformation of the Protestant Religion, Anno 1589. Formerly written by John Garvey, sometime Primate of all Ireland. Being a copy of the original remaining amongst James Usher, late Primate of the same, his Papers; and now entred amongst Sir James Ware's Manuscripts. Published for the good of the Protestant Church of England by R. W[are] Gent. Dublin, Printed by Jos. Ray at Colledge-Green, for a Society of Stationers. 1681. 4<sup>o</sup>, A—C 2 in fours.

ASCOIGNE, GEORGE.

Jocasta. A tragedie written in Greke by Euripides, translated and digested into Acte by George Gascoign and Fraunces Kynwelmershe of Grays ynne. 1566. folio, 38 leaves.

A MS. formerly in the Guilford Collection. It seems to have been a fair copy of the drama prepared in 1568 for presentation to Roger, second Lord North of Kirtling, who succeeded to the title in 1564. It has on the title the autograph and motto of that nobleman thus: Deum Pati. 68. R. North. The text here does not exactly correspond with either of the quartos (1573 and 1575); it may be the precise form and language of the play, as it was presented in 1566. The printed text of 1575 is, after all, the best. Gascoigne appears to have signed the portions, for which he was answerable, and his autograph is in their places. The other names seem to be in the hand of the copyist.

A Hundreth Sundrie Flowers. . . . [1573.]

It is to be remarked that this first 4<sup>o</sup> of Gascoigne contains some valuable matter omitted by the auther in that of 1575, and also exhibits a large number of purer readings than its successors. See Introduction to the Roxburghe Library, edit. 1869-70, where this feature of the so-called spurious impression is pointed out.

The Posies of George Gascoigne Esquire. . . . 1575.

One of the titles to this edition is in a broad woodcut border, with the device in the lower centre of Time bringing Truth to light.

The Glasse of Gouvernement. . . . 1575.

The dedication to Sir Owen Hepton is nearly always wanting. Herbert's copy had it, and that copy seems to have been purchased for the library at Britwell, in order to secure the rare leaf. I have seen 10 copies, all apparently complete, but without it.

The Princelye pleasures at the Courte at Kenelwoorth. . . . 1576.

This original edition is only known by a single copy, which ends imperfectly on sign. D. i. Farmer, in 1798, £1. 11s. 6d., bought by Park, from whose hands it passed into the Bibliotheca Anglo-Poetica, whence (directly or indirectly) to Mr Staunton of Longbridge, in whose library, now transferred to the Midland Institute, it still remains. It does not seem to have been registered, and it was unknown to Herbert. A facsimile of the title is given by Hazlitt.

The Tale of Hemetes the Heremyte.

The Royal MS. is not in the poet's hand; but his autograph signature is to the dedication.

The Noble Art of Venerie or Hvnting. Wherein is handled and set out the Vertues, Nature, and Properties of fiftene sundrie Chaces, together with the order and manner how to hunt and kill every one of them. Translated and Collected for the pleasure of all Noblemen and Gentlemen, out of the best approued Authors, which haue written any thing concerning the same: And reduced into snch order and proper termes as are used here in this noble Realme of Great Britaine. [A large woodcut.] At London, Printed by Thomas Purfoot, An. Dom. 1611. 4<sup>o</sup>. With a profusion of large and spirited woodcuts, some the size of the page (as in the former edit.)

Prefixes, 3 leaves: A—P in eights: Q, 4 leaves: The Measures of Blowing, R and R 2, 2 leaves. Interspersed with poetry believed to be from Gascoigne's pen, and as such inserted in my edition of his Works, 1869-70. The portraits of Elizabeth found in the 4<sup>o</sup> of 1575 have been removed, and others of King James's substituted; but the remainder of the cut has been left untouched, including what I take to be the likeness of Gascoigne.

The Droomme of Doomes day. Wherin the frailties and miseries of mans lyfe are lyuely portrayed, and learnedly set forth. Deuided, as appeareth in the Page next following. Translated and Collected by George Gascoigne Esquyer. Tam Marit quam Mercurio. Imprinted at London for Gabriell Cawood : dwelling in Paules Churchyard, at the Signe of the holy Ghost. 1576. 4<sup>o</sup>, black letter.

Dedicated to the Earl of Bedford. Col-lation: Title, dedication, &c., 6 leaves, of which the 4th and 6th are blanks: A—T 4 in eights.

The Griefe of Joye, Certain Elegies, wherein the doubtfull Delights of Mans Lyfe are displaid. Written to the Queenes most excellent Majestie. 1 Jan. 1577. Royal MS. 18. A. 61.

Printed in Hazlitt's edition.

GATES, THOMAS.

A Summarie and Trve Discovrse of Sir Francis Drakes West Indian Voyage. Wherein were taken the Townes of Saint Iago, Sancto Domingo, Cartagena, and Saint Augustine. With Geographically Mapped exactly describing each of the Townes with their scituations, and the maner of the Armies approaching to the winning of them diligently made by Baptista Boazio. #### GERBIER CHARLES.

Elogium Heroinum. The Ladies Vindication : Or, The Praise of Worthy Women. Written by C. G. Gent. London, Printed by T. M. & A. C. and are to be sold by William Raybould at the Unicorn in Pauls Church-yard, near the Little North-door. 1651. 12°, A—H in twelves, and a (between A and B) 7 leaves.

Dedicated to Elizabeth of Bohemia, the Countess Dowager of Clare, and Lady Anne Hudson, in three separate addresses. There are commendatory verses by R. (or B., for the letter is blurred in the copy before me) S. K<sup>t</sup>, E. B[enlowes?] Esq. J. H. and Geo. Gerbier (the writer's brother) ; after which comes The Printer's Apology for not inserting other verses which he had received.

An Elegie upon the most lamented death the Right Honourable and truly valiant, Robert, Earle of Essex, &c. Sine Vā notā [1646.] 4°, 2 leaves. In verse.

In the copy before me, these two leaves are bound up with Vines's Hearse, 1646; the first leaf is marked A, the second is not marked. The title is a headline.

GEREE, JOHN, M.A.

heiofarmakon. A Divine Potion to reserve Spirituall Health, by the cure of unnaturall Health-Drinking. Tewes from Gulicke and Cleve. . . . 615.

This is probably the piece, which Peacham, in his tract on the subject, 4°, 1615, stigmatises as "a ridiculous and lying pamphlet."

An Appologie of the Illvstrious Princemestvs, Earle of Mansfield, &c. Wherein from his first Entertainment are layd open the occasions of his Warres in Bohemia, Austria, and the Palatinate, with his faithful Service to the King of Bohemia. Translated out of the Originall French coppie [by S. W.] Printed at Heidelbergh. 1622. 4°, A—K in fours, first and last leaves blank.

Protestation of the Most High and mighty Prince, Charles Lodowicke, Count

Palatine of the Rhine, Archidapifer, and Prince Elector. . . . Translated out of the High-Dutch, and Printed at London for Richard Whitaker. M.DC.XXXVII. 4°, A—D in fours, D 4 blank.

The Invasions of Germany. . . . 1638.

In two copies of this piece before me the last four leaves vary in the setting up and arrangement, but not substantially. In one the preface has been corrected with the pen, and some MS. marginalia added in a coeval hand. The Invasions of Germany, and the other four pieces mentioned in the Handbook (Nos. 15-18), are not unusually found in a volume together, but seldom occur in good condition, especially with the bird's-eye map of Germany.

The preface is given in Mr Huth's volume.

A Disputation betweene a Hee Conny-catcher and a Shee Conny-catcher. . . . 1592.

This was reproduced in 1615—at least such is the date of the earliest edition known—under the title of Thieves Falling out, True men come by their goods, with a new Preface, falsely purporting to be by Greene, the names of the interlocutors changed, and the "merry tale" at the end suppressed. See Mr Huth's volume of Prefaces, &c. 1874. p. 126.

Imprinted at London for Thomas Newman, and are to be sould at his Shop in Fleetestreete, in Saint Dunstons Church-yard. [1592.] 4<sup>o</sup>, A—H in fours, first leaf blank (but marked A).

Dedicated by the publisher to M. Nicholas Sanders of Ewell. The tract is said to have been disowned by Greene on his death-bed (in September 1592); but Newman appears to recommend it in good faith to Sanders as a work of the celebrated poet.

Some portions, as Greenes Ode of the wanton writings, the Description of Chaucer and Gower, and Theodoras Song, are in verse. Whoever was the writer, it is certainly a highly curious tract. It begins with these words:—"After I was burdened with the penning of the Cobler of Canterbury"—from which we may infer that it was within the author's knowledge that Greene was concerned in the authorship of that book, first printed in 1590—a fact, if true, not otherwise ascertained.

Steevens, 1800, £2, 7s., resold Roxburghe, 1812, £7, 10s., resold Heber, 1834, £5, 15s. 6d., resold Freeling, 1839, £7, bought for Mr Miller. A taller copy, however, wanting H 2—3, having been discovered subsequently, the two leaves were inserted from the other, and the latter parted with. These are the only copies known.

Greene's Orpharion. . . . 1599.

This was licensed in 1589, and is announced in the Notice prefixed to Perimedes, 1588, as then ready. (Anacreon.)

HAKE, EDWARD.

David's Sling. . . . 1580.

This may be the work described as "David's Sling" in the inventory of the stock of Johu Foster of York, 1616. See Davies (York Press, 1868, p. 35).

A Touchestone for this time present, expressly declaring such ruines, enormities, and abuses as trouble the Church of God, and our Christian common wealth at this daye. Wherevnto is annexed a perfect rule to be obserued of all Parents and Scholemaisters, in the trayning vp of their Schollers and Children in learning. Newly set forth by E. H. Imprinted at London by Thomas Hacket, and are to be solde at his Shop at the Greene Dragon in the Royall Exchange. 1574. 12<sup>o</sup>. A, 4 leaves : B—G in eights. Black letter.

The "Compendious form" is in verse, and occupies from E 3 to the end of the volume. This scarce hook is dedicated by Edward Hake "To his knowne friende mayster Edward Godfrey Merchaunt." The metrical portion should perhaps have a separate title, which may explain the absence of E 3 in the copy I have used. See Herbert, p. 896.

HALE, T.

An account of several New Inventions and Improvements, now necessary for England, in a Discourse by way of Letter to the Earl of Marlborough, relating to Building of our English Shipping, Planting of Oaken Timber in the Forrests, Apportioning of Publick Taxes, The Conservacy of our Royal Rivers, in particular that of the Thames, &c. Herewith is also published at large, the Proceedings relating to the Mill'd Lead-sheathing, and the Excellency and cheapness of Mill'd-Lead in preference to Cast Sheet-Lead, &c. London, Printed for James Astwood, &c. 1691. 12<sup>o</sup>. Title and Table, 6 leaves : a in twelves. b—f in twelves : B—G 6 in twelves.

HALES, GEORGE.

Tam Martis quam martis Nœnia. Or The Soldiers Sorrow and learnings losse. An Elegiacall Poem vpon the euer admired Life and neuer sufficiently deplored Death of Thomas lord Gray, Baron of Wilton, deceased. 1621, 4<sup>o</sup>, 34 leaves.

A MS. in private hands. It was formerly in the Bindley, Heber, and Cerser collections. Dedicated in the following terms : To the right honourable Henrie Lord Viscount Fawkeland. The Legacie or gift of George Hales deceased. Anno Dni. 1621. In the Grenville Collection is the imperfect MS. noticed in Restituta, iv., 343, and printed for the Roxburghe Club, 1822, 4<sup>o</sup>. The Elegy at the end of the Heber MS. is printed in Poems from Inedited MSS. 1870. 8<sup>o</sup>.

HALIFAX, CHARLES, EARL OF.

The works and Life of the Right Honourable Charles, Earl of Halifax. Including the History of His Lordship's Times. London : Printed for E. Curll, &c. MDCCXIV. 8<sup>o</sup>. Prefixes, 4 leaves : A—M in fours : B—M in fours : N—Ll in fours : a in fours. With a portrait by Vandergucht.

HALL, J.

Poems. 1622. 4<sup>o</sup>, 36 leaves.

An unpublished MS. with a dedication "To all hitter Censurers and wilfull mis-beleeuers." At the top of the first leaf of the poems occurs this memorandum : "This booke was begun in September in the yeare of our Lord God 1622." Query, is this an undescribed work by Bishop Hall? Hall was not made a bishop till 1627; these poems are all of a sacred character, and the address at the commencement bears a striking resemblance to his "Defiance to Envy," which precedes his Satires. On the last page is the autograph of Thomas Hall.

HALL, JOHN, of Maidstone.

[The Court of vertue, contayning many holy or spretuall songes, sonnettes, psalmes, balletts, and shorte sentences, as well of holy scripture as others. London, T. Marsh, 1565.] 8<sup>o</sup>, black letter, B—a in eights, last leaf blank, besides title and any other prefixes before the Prologue. Budleian (Douce) and Britwell (Bright's copy).

Beauclerc, 1781, No. 3236. Douce's copy wants title, and Mr Miller's begins with the Prologue on B, and ends on a 4 in second alphabet, a leaf of table being all that is apparently wanting. A perfect copy should probably have A, 4 leaves : B—a in eights. The prologue is in stanzas of 7 lines, and occupies 6 leaves.

The title given above is from Collier's Extracts from the Stationers' Registers, no copy with the title having been yet recovered. The songs and other poems are accompanied by the music.

Doctor Cuninghame, in some introductory matter to Hall's Work of Chirurgery, 1565, refers to this volume as then in the printer's hands; his address is dated from his house in Coleman Street, 18th April, 1565. He says: "This author also hath finished an other worke inuaying against vice, and therefore named the court of vertue."

Bright, in 1845, the copy described, £10.

HALL, JOHN, of Cambridge.

Horæ Vacivæ, Or, Essays. Some Occasional Considerations. By John Hall.

Dedicated "To the Reverend Mr John Arrowsmith master of St. Johns Colledge in Cambridge." There are commendatory verses by T. Stanley, W. Hammond, James Shirley, A. Holden, and T. Goodwin. Also an address to the Reader by John Pawson of St. John's Coll. Camb.

HALL, or DE LA SALLE, JOHN.

Paradoxes by J. de la Salle.

London, Printed for Francis Eaglesfield, at the Marygold in Paul's Church-yard. 1653. 12°.

Collation: Frontispiece and printed title, 2 leaves: dedication to Robert Braithwaite of Buly Castle, Westmoreland, 2 leaves: To the Reader, commendatory verses by Thomas Urquhart of Cromarty and another, and Table, 7 leaves: the Work, A 2—G in twelves, last leaf blank.

Edited by John Davies of Kidwelly, who wrote the dedication and very interesting Address to the Reader, in which he speaks of the work having been partly written in 1649. At p. 54, the third Paradox commences, shewing "That women ought to goe naked."

HALL, JOSEPH, Bishop of Exeter.

Virgidemiarum, Sixe Bookes. First three Bookes. Of Tooth-lesse Satyrs.

1. Poeticall.

London Printed by Thomas Creede for Robert Dexter. 1597. 8°, A—F 4 in eights, title on A 2 and last leaf of A blank. Printed within borders.

Virgidemiarvm. Sixe Bookes. First three Bookes. Of Tooth-lesse Satyrs. . . . Corrected and amended. Imprinted at London by Richard Bradocke for Robert Dexter. 1598. 8°, A—F 3 in eights, title on A 2. Printed within borders.

Virgidemiarvm. The three last Bookes. Of byting Satyres. Imprinted at London by Richard Bradocke for Robert Dexter at the signe of the Brasen Serpent in Pauls Church yarde. 1598. 8°. A, 3 leaves (perhaps first leaf was blank): B—H 5 in eights. Printed within borders.

Virgidemiarvm. Three last Bookes. Of byting Satyres. Imprinted at London by Richard Bradocke for Robert Dexter at the signe of the Brasen Serpent in Pauls Church-yarde. 1598. 8°. A, 2 leaves: B—H 5 in eights. Printed within borders.

As there is a slight variation in the title here from the other copy which has just been noticed, it seems probable that this portion passed the press twice in 1598. The difference in the sheet A arose from the absence of the leaf headed De Suis Satyris, which is inserted in the other copy after the second leaf.

Virgidemiarvm. The three last Bookes. Of byting Satyres. Corrected and amended with some Additions. by I. H. Imprinted at London for Robert Dexter, at the signe of the Brasen Serpent in Pauls Church yard. 1599. 8°. A, 2 leaves: B—H in eights, last three leaves blank. Printed within borders.

Holy Obseruations. Lib. I. Also Some fewe of Davids Psalmes Metaphrased for a taste of the rest. By Ios. Hall. At London Printed by H. L. for Samuel Macham, &c. 1607. 12°, H in twelves. Dedicated to Edward Lord Denny. Br. Museum.

A most rare little volume, undescribed by bibliographers, as is also the following edition.

Holy Obseruations. Lib. I. Also, Some fewe of Davids Psalmes Metaphrased, for a taste of the rest. By Ios. Hall. At London, Printed by Tho: Purfoot for Samuell Macham, and are to be sold at his shop in Pauls Church yard, at the signe of the Bull-head. 1609. 12°, H in twelves, the last leaf blank.

This edition, more complete than that of 1610, contains 24 Characters.

Mvndvs Alter et Idem, Siue Terra Australis antehac semper incognita longis itineribus peregrini Academici nuperrime lustrata. Autor. Mercurio Britannico. Francoforti Apvd hæredes Ascanij de Riniasme. [Circâ 1605.] 8°, O in eights. With the title engraved and five maps.

A satirical work, said to have furnished Swift with the hint of Gulliver. Dedicated "Honoratissimo Domino nec minus Virtute eua quam splêdore generis Dom. Henrico Comiti Huntingdoniæ Mvndvm suum supplex vouet Mercvrius Britannicus." There is a preface of pp. 8 by William Knight. The maps are at pp. 18, 20, 90, 112, and 192. Lowndessays by mistake, four maps. This work passed through several impressions; there is an English translation by John Healey.

Quo vadis? A Ivst Censvre of Travell as it is commonly vndertaken by the Gentlemen of our Nation. By Ios. Hall D. of Diuinitie. London, Printed by Edward Griffin, for Henry Fetherstone. 1617. 8°, G in eights.

Dedicated "To the Right Honourable, my singular good Lord, Edward Lord Denny, Baron of Waltham." The copy before me has a large number of MSS. Notes, said by a former possessor, who had compared the writing with an authentic MS. of Hall, to be in the author's own hand.

The Olde Religion: A Treatise, wherein is laid downe the true state of the difference betwixt the Reformed and Romane Church; and the blame of this schisme is cast vpon the true Avthors. Dedicated by the editor, Robert Hall, to James [Hay] Viscount Doncaster. This is a little volume of considerable interest from the subjects treated of, which are equally curious and varied.

Occasionall Meditations By Ios. Exon. Set forth by R. H. The third Edition with the Addition of 49. Meditations not heretofore published. London, Printed by M. F. for Nathaniel Butter. 1633. 12°, A—Q in twelves, last three leaves blank.

Henochisme: Or A Treatise shewing how to walke with God. Written in Latin by Ioseph Hall Bishop of Exeter and Translated into English by M[oses] W[all.] 1639. 8°, 46 leaves.

An unpublished MS. on paper, dedicated by the translator "To the right wor. Gentlewoman Mrs Elizabeth St. John." The copy before me is in the original binding, with the initials E. S., probably for Elizabeth St. John, stamped in gold on both sides.

HALL, THOMAS.

Vindiciæ Literarum, The Schools Guarded: or, The Excellency and Vsefulness of Humane Learning in subordination to Divinity, and preparation to the Ministry. as also Rules for the Expounding of the Holy Scriptures. Pastor of Kings-Norton in Worcester shire. In the end is annexed an elaborate Defence of Logick by a learned Pen. London, Printed by W. H. for Nathanael Webb & William Grantham. . . . 1655. 8°. Title-page, 1 leaf: epistle dedicatory, 3 leaves: A 2—R 4 in eights.

Each portion has a separate title. The 4 leaves of R are occupied by advertisements. The separate title to the answer to Webster runs: "Histrio-Mastix. A whip for Webster (as tis conceived) the Quondam Player: Or, An examination, &c." Hall wrote this in the country, and was probably not aware that his opponent was a distinct person from the dramatist—the Webster who subsequently published The Displaying of Supposed Witchcraft.

The School of the Heart. . . . 1664.

The frontispiece in this edition differs from that in the first.

HARVEY, GABRIEL.

Pierces Supererogation. . . . 1593.

The introductory portion, extending to 20 pp. may possibly have been an afterthought, as Mr Collier says that in four copies examined by him these pages were wanting. Mr Collier's reprint, 4<sup>e</sup>, 1868, is most inaccurate.

HARVEY, GIDEON, M.D.

Casus Medico-Chirurgicus: Or, A most Memorable Case of a Noble-Man, Deceased. Wherein is shewed His Lordship's Wound, the various Diseases Survening, how his Physicians and Surgeons treated him, how treated by the Author after my Lord was given over by all his Physicians, &c. ## HAWKINS, FRANCIS.

Youths Behaviour, Or Decency in Conversation amongst Men. Composed in French by Grave Persons for the use and benefit of their Youth. Now newly rendred into English by Francis Hawkins, Nephew to S<sup>r</sup>. Thomas Hawkins, Translator of Caussins Holy Court. With the addition of Twenty Six new Precepts. . . . The Eighth Impression. . . . London, Printed for W. Lee. . . . 1663. 8<sup>o</sup>, A—H in eights.

Sign. D verso is occupied by two engravings, representing Virtue and Vice, and D 2 has the separate title to the additions.

The Second Part of Youths Behaviour Or Decency in Conversation amongst Women : Containing excellent Directions for the Education of young Ladies, Gentlewomen, and other Persons. . . . By the same hand that translated the last Volume of Caussin's Holy Court. Whereunto is added a Collection of Select Proverbs and wise Sentences out of severall Languages. . . . Together with severall Letters profitable and delightfull according to the nature of the Subject. . . . London, Printed for W. Lee, . . . 1664. 8<sup>o</sup>, A—R in eights, besides 11 leaves after R. The first leaf of A has a portrait by Lombart.

HAWKINS, HENRY, of the Society of Jesus.

Parthenia Sacra. Or The Mysteriours and Delicivous Garden of the Sacred Parthenes; Symbolically set forth and enriched with Pious Devises and Emblemes for the entertainment of Devout Sovles; Contrived al to the Honovr of the Incomparable Virgin Marie Mother of God; For the pleasure and deuotion especially of the Parthenian Sodalitie of her Immaculate Conception. By H. A. Printed by Iohn Covstvier. M.DC.XXXIII. 8°, S 6 in eights, not including the engraved title and printed one. With plates on the letter-press.

See Corser's Collect. I, i. Dodd, in his Church History, attributes this volume to Henry Hawkins, an English Jesuit, and a native of Kent, in which county he had property, before he joined the Romish Church; and this ascription seems to be supported by the following autograph presentation within the vellum cover of a copy now before me: "For Dame Benedicta Hawkin's w[r]itten by her Borthler Henery Hawkin's of the Societie of Jesus." In Bright's Catalogue, however, the work is assigned to Henry Annesley.

HAWKINS, R.

A Discourse of the Nationall Excellencies of England. By R. H. [Quotation from Cicero de Officiis.] London, Printed by Tho. Newcomb, for Henry Fletcher at the Three Gilt cups in the New-Buildings, near the West-End of St. Pauls. 1658. 8°, R 4 in eights.

HAWKINS, WILLIAM.

Eclogæ tres Virgilianæ. . . . 1633.

I only know this from a sale catalogue, where it was entered separately as a 4°, the date as above. At any rate, the Eclogues are reprinted at the end of the Corolla, with a separate title dated 1633.

Corolla Varia Contexta per Guil. Hawkiniū Scholarchā Hadleianū in agro Suffolciensi. Cantabrigiæ apud Tho. Buck 1634. Venumdatur autem Londini apud Rob. Milbourn in Cœmeterio Paulino ad [a figure of a white greyhound.] 8°, I in eights and the title-page, which is engraved by T. Cecil.

This volume contains a print of the Eclogæ Virgilianæ. Between the Pars Altera per Musas Juridicas, are several sets of laudatory verses, including some by Joseph Beaumont. At p. 62 is inserted a seal of Edmund the Martyr.

HAWKWOOD, SIR JOHN.

The Honour of the Taylors: Or, The Famous and Renowned History of Sir John Hawkwood, Knight. Containing His many rare and singular Adventures, witty Exploits, heroick Atchievements,

A—E in sixes: F—G in fours, G 4 blank: H, 6 leaves: I, 4 leaves. Br. Museum (Grenville) and Britwell.

It is supposed that the translator was Alexander Barclay. The Grenville copy came from Heber's sale, where it sold for £39.7s. 6d. (part I, No. 3461). The only other copy at present traceable was one in a very rotten condition, but very large, which sold at Hodgson's rooms in 1870. It has since been sized and bound.

HAYWARD, SIR JOHN.

History of Henry IV. . . . 1599.

Of this exceedingly common book the copies, though all purporting to be printed by John Wolfe in 1599, vary in date from 1599 to 1630, the book having been popular, and having been reissued from time to time with the old imprint retained.

A, 2 leaves : X 4 leaves : B—Bb 2 in fours.

This appears to be a new title-page only to the Fair Æthiopian, 1631, with the addition of the Testimonies, the Summary, and the Contents. The headline and running-title are The Faire Æthiopian.

HELP, A POOR.

The border round the title-page of this curious poem is precisely identical with that found to the Joci veteres et Recentis of Adrianus Barlardus, printed at Antwerp in 1529, 8°, by Michael Hillenius; but a contemporary typographer at Cologne used it also in a little volume printed there in 1522.

HEL, JAMES.

Representation of the Benefits and Advantages of making the River Avon navigable from Christ-Church to the City of New-Sarum; Humbly submitted to the Consideration of the City aforesaid, and the Counties bordering upon the said River, and to all other Persons that are, or may be concerned therein, for their Incouragement Joyntly to carry on so Noble a Work. By J. H. a real Well-wisher both to the City and Country. London, Printed by John Macock for the Author, 1672. 4°, 11 leaves.

HELYAS, Knight of the Sun.

A leaf of this romance in W. de Worde's types is in Harl. MS. 5919. This seems to corroborate Bagford's account of an edition by that printer.

HEMINGS, WILLIAM.

The Fatal Contract, A French Tragedy. As it was acted with Great Applause by her Majesties Servants. Written by William Hemings, Master of Arts of Oxon. Printed by the Originall Copy. MS. copies of this tract are at Kimbolton, Port Eliot, and Helmingham Hall. In the last named it is said to have been transcribed in 1628, so that it must have been written many years before it was printed.

King Charles his Entertainment, 1641, was, no doubt, attributed to Hepwith improperly and rashly in the Handbook.

HERBAL.

The Greate Herball, which geneth parfyte knowledge and vnderstandinge of all maner of Herbes and theyr gracious vertues, which God hath ordeyned for our prosperous welfare and health, for they heale and cure all maner of diseases and sekenesses, that fall or mysfortune too all maner of creatures of God created, practysed by many experte and wyse maysters, as Auicenna, Pandecta, and more other. . . . The copy here used wanted the title-page.

HERBERT, GEORGE.

Ovtlandish Proverbs. . . . 1640.

It appears to be almost a matter for question whether Herbert had really any concern in this compilation; and in one copy the words, "By Mr G. H." have been carefully erased by some one at the time, as if he knew Herbert not to be the author or editor.

Oratio quâ auspiciatissimum Serenissimi Principis Caroli Reditum ex Hispanijs celebrait Georgivs Herbert, Academiæ Cantabrigiensi Orator. Ex Officina Cantrelli Legge, Almæ matris Cantabrigiæ Typographi. 1623. 4°, 8 leaves, last blank.

[HICKES, GEORGE.]

Ravillac Redivivus, Being a Narrative of the late Tryal of M<sup>r</sup>. James Mitchel, a Conventicle-Preacher, who was executed the 15th of January last, for an attempt which he made on the Sacred Person of the Archbishop of St. Andrews. To which is annexed an Account of the Tryal of that most wicked Pharisee, Major Thomas Weir, who was executed for Adultery, &c. In a Letter from a Scottish to an English Gentleman. London, Printed for Henry Hills, 1678. 4°, K 3 in fours.

HICKS, JOHN.

The Last Speech of that Pious and Learned Divine Mr John Hicks: who was Executed at Glassbury, October 1685. No place, &c. [1685.] 4°, 4 leaves.

HICK-SCORNER.

Of one of the editions of this play Mr Bright had two leaves, the same as described by me in the Handbook (Plays, No. 10) as a fragment of some other and unknown interlude, until Mr Furnivall kindly pointed out that they belonged to Hick-Scorner.

HIDE, THOMAS, Priest.

HILARY, HUGH [JOHN BALE.]

The resurreccion of the masse / with the wonderful vertues of the same / newly set forth vnto the great hartes ease / ioye and comforte of all the catholykes / by Hnghe Hilarie. Ioan. 1. ¶ Come and se. Imprynted at Strasburgh in Elsas at the signe of the golden Bibell / In the month of auguste. the yeare of our Lord. 1554. 8°, black letter, A—C 5 in eights. In verse.

There is slight reason to question that the authorship of this rare poem is as fictitious as the place of printing. On the last page occurs the mark of the London typographer Hugh Singleton, from whose press the little volume certainly emanated; and it is nearly a settled point that the true writer was Bishop Bale.

A copy, probably that sold in a volume of tracts at Heber's sale, is at Britwell. The only others known are those which Mr Huth has and the Grenville one. The title may have been suggested by "The Burying of the Mass" by which name Roy's satire was known at the time, and was proscribed in 1531. Heber, part 9, No. 2988, in a vol.

HOLINSLED, RAPHAEL.

1577. The Firste volume of the Chronicles of England, Scotland, and Irelande. Conteyning The description and Chronicles of England, from the first inhabiting vnto the conquest. The description and Chronicles of Scotland, from the first originall of the Scottes nation, till the yeare of our Lorde, 1571. The description and Chronicles of Irelande, likewise from the firste originall of that Nation, vntill the yeare, 1547. Faithfully gathered and set forth, by Raphaell Holinsled. At London, Imprinted for Iohn Harrison. God saue the Queene. Folio, title within a woodcut border, with the arms of Cecil on the back. Black letter, and printed in two columns. With woodcuts.

Collation: title, one leaf: dedication to Sir W. Cecil, Lord Burleigh, 2 leaves: Preface to the Reader, 2 leaves: dedication by William Harrison of the Description of Britain to Sir W. Brooke, Lord Cobham, Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, &c., 1 leaf: Table to the Description of Britain, 1 leaf: the Authors' names, from whom the History is collected, 1 leaf: the Description of Britain, A—Q 6 in eights: Faultes escaped, 1 leaf: Historie of Englande, a—s in eights, and a leaf of t: the Historie of Scotlande (with a new title), dedicated to Dudley, Earl of Leicester, A, 2 leaves: (b) 2 leaves (the second occupied by a dedication by William Harrison of this portion to Thomas Seeford Esquire, Master of the Requests): a—b 5 in sixes (b 6 was probably a blank): A—i in eights: Kk, 4 leaves: Ll, 6 leaves: Mm, 6 leaves. The Historie of Irelande (with a fresh title)—title and dedication to Sir Henry Sydney, 2 leaves: A—D 4 in eights: A—E 5 in eights: F—G in eights: H, 6 leaves: I, 2 leaves: Faultes and oversightes escaped, 1 leaf.

1577. The Laste volume of the Chronicles of England, Scotland, and Irelande, with their descriptions. Conteyning the Chronicles of Englande from William Conquerour vntill this present tyme. Faithfully gathered and compiled by Raphaell Holinsled. At London, Imprinted for Lucas Harison. God saue the Queene. Folio, black letter. Printed as before in two columns, with woodcuts.

Collation: title, 1 leaf, Preface, 1 leaf: t 2 (continued from former volume, p. 290) —z in eights: A—Zz ii in eights, besides a duplicate leaf 1593 (the Names of the Knights made at Leith) and a folding view between p. 1868 and p. 1869 of the siege of Edinburgh: the Table, A—N 2 in fours: Faultes, &c. 2 leaves.

This was doubtless a trade book, and some copies bear the name of George Bishop on the imprint to vol. 1 instead of that of Harrison. Lowndes describes the History of England as having a separate title; but it does not occur in the copy here noticed. Many of the woodcuts, which are fairly executed, and some indeed excellent, are repeated over and over again. This is probably one of the most difficult books in the language to obtain in thoroughly genuine state, nearly every copy being made up or imperfect.

The History of Scotland here is an Anglicized version by William Harrison, author of the Description of Britain, of Bellenden's Scottish translations of Boeetius's Latin.

The first and second volumes of Chronicles comprising

1. The description and historie of England.
2. The description and historie of Ireland.
3. The description and historie of Scotland.

Dedicated "To the Right Honorable and Noble George Lord Gordon Sonne and Heire to the Right Generous and Potent, the Marquesse of Huntley." With commendatory lines by M. Drayton, Edward Cory, Henry Holland, the author's brother, &c. There is also an acrostic and anagram on the name of George Gordon.

Hollandi Post-huma. A Fvnerall Elegie of King Iames: with a Congratulatory Salve to King Charles. An Elegie of the Magnanimous Henry Earle of Oxford. A Description of the great, fearefull and Prodigious Plagve and diuers other patheticall Poemes, Elegies, and other Lines, on diuers subiects. The Post-humes of Abraham Holland, sometimes of Trinity-Colledge in Cambridge. The Authors Epitaph, made by himselfe. Cantabrigiæ, Impensis Henrici Holland. M.DC.XXVI. 4°, 66 leaves. Br. Museum.

Collation: title-page with Contents on back, 1 leaf: Dedication to George, Earl of Eugin, and To the Reader, 2 leaves: complimentary poems (reprinted from Navmachia, 1622), 1 leaf: Elegy on King James, with two dedications, one to the Duke of Buckingham, the other to Charles I., 8 leaves: Elegy on Lord Oxford, 6 leaves: Miscellaneous poems, 33 leaves or D 3—M 3 in fours: a new title-page: "Vnto these Posthumes is added: Navmachia. Or, A Poetical Description of the cruell and bloudie Sea-fight, &c. Revised by the Author, and now againe Published. Printed for Hen: Holland. M.DC.XXVI." 1 leaf: To the Reader, 2 leaves: then B—D in fours.

Privately printed at Henry Holland's own expense, and only a limited impression for distribution among the friends of the family. The only perfect copy which has come under notice is that among the King's books in the British Museum. Mr Huth's copy, and the Corser one, though answering to the printed Contents, both want the Navmachia. Both are also slightly imperfect, the Corser copy not having the Dedication of the Elegy on K. James to Buckingham and another leaf at end, while Mr Huth's wants the two preliminary leaves after the first title-page. Perhaps copies, as originally issued, presented variations. No known copy has any leaf answering to the catchword The on sign. M verso.

HOLLAND, HENRY.

Monvmenta Sepvchralia Sancti Pavli. The Monvments, Incriptions, and Epitaphs, of Kings, Nobles, Bishops, and others, buried in the Cathedrall Church of St. Pavl, London. Untill this present yeere of Grace, 1614. Together, with the foundation of the Church: and a Catalogue of all the Bishops of London, from the beginning vntill this present. Neuer before, now with authoritie, published, By H. H. London Printed for Matthew Law and H. Holland. [1614.] 4°, 24 leaves, the first having only A upon it.

HOLLAND, R.

HOLLAND, ROBERT, M.A., Preacher at Prendergast.

The Holie Historie of Ovr Lord and Saviour Iesus Christs natiuitie, life, actes, miracles, doctrine, death, passion, resurrection and ascension: Gathered into English meeter, and published to withdraw vaine wits from all vnsauerie and wicked rimes and fables, to some loue and liking of spirituall songs and holy Scriptures. [Quot. from Ephesians.] London, Printed by George Tobie, 1594. 8°, A—Y in eights, Y 8 blank. In verse. Br. Museum (Corser's copy).

This copy is cropped and wormed. Holland dedicates his performance to Mistress Anne Philips of Picton in an epistle, where the only perceptible point of interest is a casual reference to Gargantua and Huon of Bordeaux. There is a complimentary poem in Latin by H. Smart of Oxford, and two others in English. Though said in this copy to be printed by George Tobie, the title bears Richard Field's Aldine anchor, and in fact the book was licensed to Field, and printed by him, certain copies only having Tobie's name instead. That in the Bibliotheca Anglo-poetica bore Field's name.

HOLLAND, SIR RICHARD.

The Bink of the Howlat. [Edinburgh, by Walter Chepman and Andro Myllar. Circa 1510.] 4°, black letter.

See Laing's Adversaria, 1867, p. 15.

HOLT, JOHN.

Lac Puerorum. . . . W. de Worde, 4°.

"Very rare and curious. Not mentioned by Ames or Herbert. See for an account of Holle, the author, Tanner's Bibliotheca, p. 409; Wood's Athenæ, I. 78; Pitseus, p. 689; Bale.

"Though the present Tract is mentioned by all the above writers, I strongly suspect they had none of them seen it."—MS. note by Mr Heber.

This edition is particularly described from the present copy (the only one known), in the new edition of Ames by Dr Dibdin. —Bibl. Heber, part 2, 2756.

HOLYDAY, BARTEN.

Technogamia. . . . London, Printed by Iohn Haviland for Richard Meighen. . . . 1630. 4°, A—O in fours.

The song entitled Tobacco's a Musician is noticed by Rimbault (Book of Songs and Ballads, 1851, p. 175) as being in a MS. dated 1609. Holyday may therefore only have adopted it.

A Survey of the World : in Ten Books. By Barten Holyday, D.D. and Archdeacon of Oxford. Oxford, printed by Will. Hall, for the Authour, anno 1661. 8°, A, 4 leaves : B—I 4 in eights, with half-titles to each book, counting in the sheets and paging.

See Brydges's Restituta, iii. 292-7.

HOMER.

The Iliads of Homer, translated by George Chapman [1612].

In a copy which is now before me, between the last and last but one leaf, is an unpagged leaf, supposed to be uncommon and a subsequent insertion, containing two sonnets (one on each page) 1. To Viscount Cranboroe; 2. To Viscount Rochester. The same leaf is in Mr Huth's copy, but differently placed.

Homer's Odysses. Translated by Tho. Hobbes of Malmesbury. With a Large Preface concerning the vertues of an Heroique Poem. Written by the Translator. London : Printed by J. C for W. Crook, at the Green Dragon without Temple-Bar. 1675. 12°, O in twelves, but A has only the title.

HOWELL, JAMES.

The Vote. . . . 1642.

Reprinted in Epistolæ Ho-Elianæ, 1754, Introd. Parables Reflecting vpon the Times. Printed at Paris. [London.] MDCXLIII. 4°, 8 leaves. In prose.

Dedicated to Sir [Kenelm] D[igby] Knight.

Dendrologia Dodonas Grove, Or The Vocall Forrest. The Second Edition more exact and perfect then the former, with an Addition of two other Tracts: viz. Parables reflecting upon the Times. And England's Teares for the present Warres. By J. H. Esquire. Printed in the Yeare, 1644. 4°, A—Z 2 in fours, besides the frontispiece by R. Vaughan.

Dendrologia. Dodona's Grove, or the Vocall Forrest. The third Edition more exact and perfect then the former; with the Addition of two other Tracts: viz. Englands Tears for the present Wars. And the Pre-eminence of Parliaments. By James Howell, Esq; Cambridge, Printed by R. D. for Humphrey Moseley, &c. 1645. 12°, with a frontispiece and folding plate.

Prefixes, including dedicatory verses by the author, and lines by Sir H. Wotton, &c. 12 leaves: A—G 3 in twelves: England's Tears, H 2—(H 12) in twelves: The Pre-eminence of Parliaments, A, 12 leaves. There is a gap in the signatures and pagination between G 3 and H 2 and pp. 150 and 171, which may be accounted for perhaps by the two tracts at the end (which have new titles) having been printed separately.

Dendrologia. Dodona's Grove, Or The Vocall Forest. Second Part. Sylvæ sunt Consule dignæ. Virg. By James Howell Esquire. Printed according to Order. London, Printed by W. H. for Humphrey Moseley. . . . 1650. 8°.

Collation: portrait of Howell, 1 leaf: a plate called Robur Britannicum, 1 leaf: printed title, 1 leaf: a plate marked in the right-hand bottom corner, F, 1 leaf: verses headed "To the Knowing Reader." 1 leaf: A, 8 leaves: two folded plates of trees by Merian Junior: B—T in eights.

A French version by Howell himself, revised by a Frenchman ("one of the Academie des beaux esprits, says Howell) is mentioned in a letter dated April 1, 1641. See Fry's Bibliogr. Memoranda, 1816, p. 30-1.

Epistolæ Ho-Elianæ. Familiar Letters Domestic and Forren. Divided into Six Sections, Partly Historical Political Philosophicall Upon Emergent Occasions: By J. H. Esq; One of the Clerks of His Majesties most Honourable Privy Councill. London, Printed for Humphrey Moseley. . . . 1645. 4°, A—Mmmmm 3 in fours. With a frontispiece by W. Marshall, in the lower centre of which is a portrait of Howell.

This book deserves republication, not only on account of the letters illustrative of English history, but of those of literary interest. The portrait ought to be re-engraved too: it is not a bad specimen of Marshall's work.

London, Printed for Dorman Newman, and Tho. Cockeril. . . . 1677, 4°, A—C in fours, first leaf blank.

HOWELL, THOMAS.

Pleasant Sonnets and Pretty Pamphlets. [London, T. Colwell, 1568 ?] 8°, black letter, A—(probably) D in eights.

Only a fragment of 3 leaves, one belonging to the Preface, the other two to sign. D, is at present known. It occurs in a portfolio of such relics in the possession of Mr Huth, and formerly said to have belonged to Thomas Martin of Palgrave.

HOWLEGLASS.

A merye Jest of a man called Howle-glass. . . . W. Copland, 4°.

Reprinted by Mr F. Ouvry, 4°, 1867, from two copies, of different impressions, both from Copland’s press, no perfect copy of any edition appearing to exist. The book is curious enough, but perhaps rather over-estimated.

The last leaf of one of the editions (sign. M ij) is among Bagford’s papers in Harl. MS. 5919.

HOWLET, ROBERT.

The School of Recreation: Or, The Gentleman’s Tutor, to these most Ingenious Exercises of Hunting, Racing, Hawking, Riding, Cock-fighting, Fowling, Fishing. . . . By R. H. London, Printed for H. Rodes next door to the Bear-Tavern near Bride-Lane in Fleet-Street. 1684. 12°. A, 6 leaves, including a frontispiece in six compartments: B—K 6 in twelves.

The whole is in prose, except a quotation from “the divine Quarles” at p. 132, and a copy of verses, headed “The Tennis-Court,” at p. 136.

HUBERINE, GASPAR.

A riche Storehouse or Tresaurie for the Sicke, full of Christian counsell, holsome doctrines, comfortable persuasions, & godly meditations. . . . Written in Dutche by Gaspar Huberine, and Englished by Thomas Godfrie Esquire, Remembraunce of the first Fruits & Tenthes, at the request of his daughter Marie, wife vnto Iohn French Gentleman of the Inner Temple. . . . Imprinted at London, by Ralph Newberrie. . . . Anno. 1578. 8°, 102 leaves. Br. Museum.

HUBERT, SIR FRANCIS.

The Deplorable Life and Death of Edward the Second, King of England. Together with the Downefal of the two Vnfortunate Faurorits, Gavestone and Spencer. Storied in an Excellent Poem. London: Printed for Roger Michell. 1628. 12°, A—K 4 in eights, first and last leaves blank.

A spurious edition, printed surreptitiously from an imperfect MS. without any preliminary matter. It is an historical poem, modelled on those of a similar cast by Drayton and others, and possessing considerable merit.

The Historie of Edward the Second, Sur-named Carnarvon, one of our English Kings. Together with the Fatall down-fall of the two vnfortunate Favorites Gaveston and Spencer. Now Published by the Author thereof, according to the true Originall Copie, and purged from those foule Errors and Corruptions, where-with that spurious and surreptitious Poem, which lately came forth vnder the same Tytle, was too much defiled, and deformed. With the Addition of some other Observations both of vse and Ornament. By F. H. Knight. London. Printed by B. A. and T. F. for L. Chapman, and are to be sold at his Shop at the Vpper end of Chancery-Lane 1629. 8<sup>o</sup>, M 4 in eights.

A portrait of Edward II. by Vaughan (?) occupies A. The book is dedicated by Hubert to "His Very Loving Brother, Mr Richard Hubert," and in this inscription the Author states that the poem "was conceiued and borne in Queene Elizabeths time, but grew to more maturitie in King James's." It is in 7-line stanzas. Of course the "surreptitious" poem referred to is the edit. of 1628.

The Historie and Raigne of Edward the Second. Together with his miserable and cruell Death. . . . With Additions both of vse and ornament. By Francis Hubert, Knight. . . . London, Printed by A. M. for L. Chapman, &c. 1631. 8<sup>o</sup>, A—M 4 in eights, first leaf blank, and A 2 occupied by the portrait. Br. Museum.

A reprint of the edition of 1629, but far rarer. Thorpe put a copy in two or three of his catalogues without finding a purchaser.

Egypt's Favorite. The Historie of Ioseph, divided into foure parts:

1. Iosephus in Puteo or, The vnfortunate Brother.
2. Iosephus in Groemio or, The Chaste Courtier.
3. Iosephus in Carcere or, The innocent Prisoner.
4. Iosephus in Summo or, The Noble Favourite.

Together with old Israels Progresse into the Land of Goshen. By Francis Hubert, Knight, and some time one of the Six Clarkes of his Maiesties High Court of Chancerie. London, Printed by A. M. for L. Chapman, and are to bee sold at his Shop at the vpper end of Chancery Lane next Holborne. 1631. 8<sup>o</sup>. A, 4 leaves: B—I 4 in eights. A poem in 4-line stanzas.

The only prefix is a very interesting preface by the publisher, in which he claims an intimate friendship with the deceased Poet, and states that Hubert gave him the MS. before he died. He proceeds to say: "Many yeeres sithence he writ a Worke intituled, The Historie and Raigne of Edward the second, with his miserable and cruell death: But the same being by supreamest Authoritie forbidden to be printed, was for a long time charily kept as a Iewell in his secret Cabinet, or rather (amongst diuers other Workes of his excellently well composed) as a chiefe ornament of his owne priuate Librarie, till at length, &c." Chapman then describes the spurious edition of 1628, which, it seems, spoiled the sale of his in 1629.

HUDSON, JEFFREY.

The New Yeeres Gift. . . . 1636.

Davenant, in his Poems, 1638, pp. 54-65, has a piece in two cantos, entitled: "Ieffereidos, Or the Captiuitie of Jeffery."

HUGGARD, MILES.

HUGHE, WILLIAM.

The troubled mans medicine verve profitable to be redde of al men wherein they may learne pacyently to suffer all kyndes of aduersitie made & wrytten by Wyllyam Hughe to a frende of his. [Quot. from Psalm 76.] Afflictis spiro. [Col.] Prynted at London in Aldersgate strete by Iohn Herford. Anno. 1546. 8<sup>o</sup>, black letter. In two parts. In prose. A—H in eights, and A—G 4 in eights. Br. Museum.

At the back of the title to part I occurs: "Ihoñ Faulkner vnto the reader," by which it appears that he published the work without the knowledge of the author. The second part is dedicated by Hugh himself to his good Lady and Mistress Lady Denny.

The troubled mans medicine, very profitable to bee red of all men where in they may learn pacyently to suffer all kindes of aduersity made and wrytten by William Hughe vnto a freëd of his. . . . [Col.] Imprinted at London at the long shop adioyning vnto Saint Mildreds Church in the Pultrie by Iohn Alde. Anno do. 1567. 8<sup>o</sup>. black letter, A—P in eights. The titles are within borders.

In two parts. The first is introduced by a preface of John Fawkener to the reader; the second has a dedication by the author to Lady Denny, and has a separate title (on the back of which are four English verses): A sweet consolation, and the second booke of the troubled mans medicine. . . . 1567.

The copy before me wants the first title-page.

HUNT, JAMES.

These Spiritvall Verses of Iames Hunt, Concerning the Down-fall of the Ceremonies. Whereby the Bishops and their Clergie have made, as it were, a trade to blinde and deceiue the Children of God, &c. London : Printed for Andrew Coe. 1642. 4°, 4 leaves.

The Sermon and Prophesie of James Hunt : Concerning the Marriage of the Lambe, and of the confounding of the Whore of Babylon, &c. Wherefore I James Hunt humbly beseech the Honourable House of Parliament, for the mercies of God, that you will read this book with observation, &c. London, Printed in the year 1642. 4°, 4 leaves.

HUNT, NICHOLAS.

Iudiciary Exercises, Or Practicall Conclvsions. Whereby any one of meane capacitie may readily and infallibly finde out the Christian names of Men and Women, their Titles of Honour, Ages, Offices, Trades or Callings of life, Places of Birth, Houses of Residence, appertaining to Scholars, either in the Vniuersities of Oxford or Cambridge, or the Innes of Court and Chauncerie. With many other things both pleasant and profitable. By Nicolas Hvnt Master of Arts. [Mottoes.] London, Printed by Ang. Math. for Luke Faune and are to [be] sold at the great No[r]th doore of Saint Paule. 1632. 12°, N in twelves, the last leaf blank.

Dedicated to Charles I. The copy before me, which has on the back of the title-page the engraved hook-plate of "The Hon<sup>ble</sup> Archibald Campbell Esqr 1708," has a half-title without any imprint as follows: "Newe Recreations Or The Mindes release and solacing. In a rare and exquisite invention, for the exercising of acute Wits and industrious dispositions. Replenished with Mysteries, Secrets, and Rarities, both Arithmetically and Mathematicall, not formerly discovered by any." This is an odd little work, consisting of a variety of information thought, doubtless, to be entertaining at the time. Hunt, of whom nothing seems to be known, was astrologically and mystically inclined. I once met with a copy of Mathematical Magick, by Bp. Wilkins, 1648, 8c, in which the name Nicholas Hunt was written twice—probably our author.

HUNT, LIEUTENANT - COLONEL ROBERT.

The Island of Assada, neere Madagascar Impartially defined, being a succinct, yet Plenary Description of the Situation, fertility, and People there in Inhabiting. Clearly Demonstrating to the Adventurer or Planter the right way for disposing his Adventure to his most Commodious advantage. . . . ## HYLTON, WALTER.

Scala perfectionis. [This title is beneath a cut of the virgin and the child Jesus under a canopy enclosed in a border.] On a ii occurs Capla prime partis / Here begynnis the chapytours of this present volume of Waltere hylton / namyd in laten Scala perfectionis englished the ladder of perfeccōn / whiche volume is deuided in two partyes / The fyrst boke of this present volume conteyneth LXXXIII. chapitours / The seconde book. XLVI. whyche hole volume amounteth .c. xxxix. chapitours / a, 4 leaves: b—k in eights: no l and m: n—t 5 in eights: on t 5 occurs: finit felicit<sup>r</sup> liber intitulatus Scala perfectionis impressus anno salutis. M CCCC. LXXXIII. With W. de Worde's small device underneath. t 5 verso is blank. Then follows, with a fresh set of signatures, on a headline: Here begyneth the table of the thyrd booke of water hylton named Vita mixta or scala perfectionis. [Col.] Here endeth the thyrd boke of mayster Walter hylton called Vita mixta or scala perfectionis. A, 8 leaves: B, 6 leaves. Folio, black letter. Univ. Lib. Camb.

Hereafter foloweth a deuoute Boke compyllyd by mayster Hylton to a deuoute man in temperall estate howe he shulde rule hym / whiche is ryghte expedyent for euery man / moste in especyall for theym that lye in the medylde lyfe & it shewyth what medelyd lyfe is / he that wyll dyligently loke vpon it may therby the soner come to some of y<sup>e</sup> hyghe vertues and blessyd lyfe that he shall rede of in the begynnyng of this present Boke of the glorious Seyntys conteynyd in the same. [Col.] Thus endyth a deuoute boke cōpylyd by mayster water Hylton / Empryntyd at lōdon in flete strete at the signe of the George by Rycharde Pynson prynter vnto y<sup>e</sup> kynges noble grace. in the yere of our Lorde god a.M.cccc. & .vi. & endyd in the laste daye of February. 4<sup>o</sup>, 16 leaves, black letter. With Pynson's device on the last page.

In one of the copies in Mr Huth's possession there is a shield of arms in the lower centre of the colophon, which is left blank in the other; but they appear to be of the same impression. The copy with the shield was formerly Herbert's, and that antiquary's supposition that the Deuoute Boke belongs to the Kalendre of the New Legend of England, 1516, with which it is bound up, seems clearly to be a misapprehension.

This is a deuout boke cōpyled by mayster Walter hylton to a deuout man in temperall estate how he sholde rule hym. [Col.] Imprynted at London without Temple barre in saynte Clementes parrysse by me Julyan Notary dwellynge at y<sup>e</sup> sygne of the thre kynges. And this boke fynnysshed the yere of our lorde. ## JACK, UNFORTUNATE.

The Second Part of Unfortunate Jack.

Jack comes once more upon the stage,
And shews the People of the Age
His Fortunes bad, his discontent,
And finally his banishment,
And whatsoever of him I hear
I purpose to you to declare.
Being full of honest mirth and wit,
The merriest Book that e'er was writ.

[Beneath these lines is a large descriptive cut.] London: Printed by and for C. B[at]es and sold by C. Bates at the Sun and Bible in Gilt-spur-street. [Circa 1680.] 12°, 12 leaves.

No copy of the first part is known. Of the second an edition was printed in 1673 for a different stationer. Only a single copy of each seems to be traceable.

The History of Unfortunate Jack is mentioned in The London Chanticleers, 4°, 1659, probably written about 1640.

With a print of James I. on the verso of A (5).

At the end is a curious notice by the printer, that there were counterfeit editions abroad, but that this, with the portrait of the King of England, was the genuine book, and his exclusive property.

The Psalmes of King Dauid translated by King James. Cum Privilegio Regiæ Maiestatis. No place, printer's name, or date [London, 1625 ?] 8<sup>o</sup>, A—Z in eights, last leaf blank. With the prose in the margin.

A great portion of this rare volume was rendered, it is said, by Sir W. Alexander afterwards Earl of Stirling. The title-page is engraved [by W. Marshall?], and opposite to it is an engraved leaf by W. Marshall, containing the licence, surmounted by the royal arms.

The Psalmes of King David Translated by King James. Cum Privilegio Regiæ Maiestatis. [Col.] Oxford, Printed by William Turner, Printer to the famous Vniversity. M.DC.XXXI. 8<sup>o</sup>, or 12<sup>o</sup>, O 4, in twelves, besides the engraved title and plate of arms, the latter (and former also, probably) by W. Marshall.

The engraved title, by an exquisite piece of coxcomby and whimsical impertinence, represents David and James on either side at full length, holding up, each with one hand, the book-shaped label, on which is written a portion of the title.

The True Narration of the Entertainment of his Royall Maiestie, from the time of his departure from Edenbrough, till his receiuing at London: with all or the most special Occurrences. ## JEROME OF BRUNSWICK.

The vertuose boke of the distyllacyon . . . [London, Laurence Andrew, circa 1525?] Folio.

Collation: Title, with large woodcut on the back, 1 leaf: Prologue and Table, 2 leaves: A—B in sixes: C, 4 leaves: D, 4 leaves: E, 6 leaves: F, 6 leaves: A, 4 leaves: B, 4 leaves: C, 6 leaves: D, 4 leaves: E, 6 leaves: F, 4 leaves: G, 4 leaves: H—R in fours and sixes. The copy here used ends imperfectly on R 6.

This is perhaps the edition cited by Herbert as printed by Peter Treveris, folio, 152 (edit. of Ames, p. 1442); but one cannot help remarking that, Andrew the translator being also a printer, and having produced one edition at his own press in 1527, that is more likely to have been the parent and predecessor of the so-called edition (a), as well as of the one noticed just below.

The Vertuose Boke of Distyllacyon of the waters of all maner of Herbes, &c. Cum gratia et preuilegio regali. [Col.] Impryntyd at London in Southwarke by me Peter Treueris. In the yere of our lorde god. M.D.XXIX. the xvii. day of Marce. Folio, black letter, with woodcuts.

Wherein is declared his vnfortunate Death, his Ladies Disloyaltie, his Childrens Honours, and lastly his Death most strangely reuenged. Written by the first Author. London Printed by A. M. 1635.

This is the earliest edition which I have seen. The copy before me is the only one known, but wants the last leaf. It formerly belonged to Heber, Utterson, and Bliss. In Thoms's reprint from the same copy, the missing portion is supplied from a much later and abridged edition, but not completely, as the two texts do not accord.

The Pleasant Conceits of Old Hobson, the merry Londoner. . . . Printed at London for William Gilbertson dwelling in Gilt-spur street at the signe of the Bible. 1640. 8°. Large cut on title.

Mr G. Daniel's copy, now before me, ends imperfectly on sign. C5, and is made up from another edition in 8°, which seems to have consisted of D in eights, D 8 blank. No second copy of either of these is known.

The Famous History of the Seven Champions of Christendom, &c. London, Printed by G. P. for Andrew Crook. 1670. 4°, black and roman letter mixed. Part 1, A—Aa in fours : Part 2, A—Y in fours.

B. Jon : His Part of King James his Royall and Magnificent Entertainment through his Honorable Citie of London, Thurseday the 15. of March, 1603. As much as was presented in the first and last of their Triumphant Arch's. With his Speech made to the last Presentation in the Strand, erected by the Inhabitants of the Dutchy and Westminster. Also, a briefe Panegyre of his Maiesties first and well auspicated entrance to his high Court of Parliament, on Monday, the 19. of the same Moneth. With other Additions. [Quotation from Martial.] Printed at London by V. S. for Edward Blount. 1604. 4°, 30 leaves.

The Panegyre occurs on E 2, and ends on F ; F 2 is blank ; then follows : " A Particular Entertainment of the Queene and Prince their Highness at Althrope, at the Right Honourable the Lord Spencers, on Saturday being the 25. of Iune, 1603, as they came first into the Kingdome, being written by the same Author, and not before published."

More than one writer of the day was employed in celebrating the progress of James I. on his way from Scotland to London—a journey which occupied some months. We here see that the Queen and Prince were at Althorp in June 1603. James does not seem to have entered London till March, 1603-4. The present volume rarely occurs complete ; the " other additions " mentioned on the title, i.e., the Entertainment at Althorp, being frequently deficient.

The New Inne : Or, The light Heart. A Comoeedy. As it was neuer acted, but most negligently play'd, by some, the Kings Seruants. Satyricall, }
Ironical. }

By P. K. London, Printed for Benjamin Billingsley at the Printing-Press, near the Royal Exchange. 1684. 8°, M in fours.

The concluding portion of the book consists of Characters, in prose. Perhaps this volume is to be attributed to Philip King, author of a little hook registered in the Handbook.

KATHERINE [PARR], Queen of England. Prayers or meditations, wherin y<sup>e</sup> minde is styrred pacyentlye to suffer all afflictions here to set at nought the vayne prosperitey of thys worlde, and alwaye to longe for the euerlasting felicitie : collected out of certayne holye workes by the moste vertuous and gracious Princes Catherine Quene of Engelande Fraunce and Irelande. Anno domini (1546.) 48<sup>o</sup>, A—F in eights, the last leaf blank. Br. Museum.

Mr Pyne thinks that this edition, from the appearance of the type and the mention of "our queen and governor" in the piece called Godly Meditations described below, was not printed till the time of Elizabeth. The foregoing and the two next traets were doubtless from the same pen, though separately signatured.

KINASTON, SIR FRANCIS.

Leoline and Sydanis. A Romance of the Amorous Adventures of Princes : Together, With Svndry Affectionate Addresses to His Mistresse, under the name of Cynthia. Written by Sir Fr. Kinnaston. Kt. London Printed by Ric. Hearne. 1642. 4<sup>o</sup>, X 2 in fours, including a frontispiece and a spare leaf before it.

The engraved title is very elegantly executed, but in both the copies before me the engraver's name is wholly or partially lost. The upper corners are occupied by portraits, probably intended for Kinaston and his mistress or wife. In the Address to the Reader, he apologises for "exposing this toy and trifle to the World's view and censure," when he had by him "many pieces of reall and solid learning ready written for the Presse." X 2 has only the Imprimatur.

Leoline and Sydanis. A Romance, &c. (as before.) Written by Sir Fr. Kinnaston, Knight, Late one of the Squires of the Body of His Majesty. London, Printed by Ric. Heron, and are to be sold by Thomas Slater, at the Signe of the Angell in Duck-lane. MDCXLVI. 4<sup>o</sup>, X 2 in fours, X 2 having the Inprimatur only, as before.

A rare reissue of the unsold copies of the volume after the author's death, with a new title-page. The printer who called himself Hearne in 1642 calls himself Heron in 1646. The engraved title is precisely the same.

KING, HENRY, Bishop of Chichester.

Poems, Elegies, Paradoxes, and Sonets. London, Printed for Henry Herringman, and are to be sold at the Anchor in the lower-walk in the New Exchange. 1664. 8°. A, 4 leaves: B—L 4 in eights: (Elegies) A—C 4 in eights.

A Deepe Groane, Fetch'd at the Funerall of that incomparable and Glorious Monarch, Charles the First, King of Great Britaine, France and Ireland, &c. On whose Sacred Person was acted, &c. Written by D[octo]r H[enry] K[ing]. Printed in the Yeare, M.D.C.XL.IX. 4°, 4 leaves. In verse.

KING, JOSIAH.

The Tryal of Old Father Christmas. . . London: Printed and Sold by T. Boreman. . . MDCXXXV. 8°, A—B in eights.

This edition omits the dedication, and has no frontispiece.

KING, WILLIAM.

Poems of Mr. Cowley and others. Composed into Songs and Ayres with a Thorough Basse to the Theorbo, Harpsecon, or Base-violl; By William King Organist of New-Colledge in the University of Oxon. Oxford, Imprinted by William Hall, for the Author. 1668. Folio, A—P, 2 leaves each. Br. Museum.

Two of the songs purport to have been harmonised by others, one by George King the author's father, the other, by E. Y., "A Friend and Lover of Musique." The only piece not by Cowley, in the book as printed, appears to be one by Sandys; but King mentions that he had intended to insert many more, but, thinking them unworthy companions to Cowley, left them to find more suitable acquaintance.

KING, WILLIAM, Chancellor of St. Patrick's Dublin.

An Answer to the Considerations which obliged Peter Manby, late Dean of London-Derry in Ireland, (as he pretends) to embrace what he calls, the Catholick Religion. London, Printed for R. Taylor. . . 1687. 4°, A—O in fours.

An independent and earlier translation has been (not very carefully) edited by Mr Wright for the Early English Text Society; but the MS. employed (the only one known), being imperfect in one place, has been completed from Caxton's edition. A good text of the original French is given in the Bibliothèque Elzevirienne. See a curious allusion to the Knight of the Tower in Fitzherbert's Book of Husbandry, 1523.

LANE, JOHN.

The corrected historie of Sir Gwy Earle of Warwick, surnamed the Heremite: begun by Don Lidgate, Monck of St. Edmundes Berye, but now dilligentlie exquired from all Antiquitie, by John Lane, 1621. Large 4<sup>o</sup>, 87 leaves. Harl. MS. 5243.

This MS. was prepared and intended for the press, and appears to have been written at least four years before the title given above was added, since a licence to print the work, which accompanies it, is dated July 13, 1617. Attached is a commendatory sonnet by John Melton. See the Romance of Guy of Warwick, edit. Turnbull, xxv.-vii. Dr Farmer (Catal. 1798, No. 8047) had a MS. of the poem dated 1616.

Tritons Triumph to the Twelve Months, Husbanded and Moralized. A poem. 1621. Royal MS. 17, B. xv. and Trin. Coll. Camb. O. ii. 68.

The Complaint of England. Wherein it is clearely proueed that the practises of Traitrous Papists against the state of this Realme, and the person of her Maiestie, are in Diuinitie vnlawfull, odious in Nature, and ridiculous in pollicie. In the which they are reprooued of wilfull blindness, in that they see not the filthines of the Romish government: and conuincd of desperate madnesse, in that they feare not the mischief of Spanish inuasion:

The former whereof is exemplied by the Popes practises both here in England; and abroad in other countries: the later by the Spaniards outrages, in his exactions raised vpon Nobles, and his tyrannies executed in the Indies. Lastly the necessitie, equitie, and benefits of the late proceeding in iustice are set downe; with a friendly warning to seditious Papists for their amendment; and an effectuall consolation to faithfull subiectes for their encouragement.

LUCANUS, MARCUS ANNÆUS.

Lvcans Pharsalia : Containing the Ciuill Warres betweene Cæsar and Pompey. Written in Latine Heroicall Verse by M. Annæus Lvcanus. Translated into English verse by Sir Arthur Gorges Knight. Whereunto is annexed the life of the Authour, Collected out of Diuers Authors. Fides fortibus fraus formidolosis. London : Printed for Edward Blount. 1614. Folio, A—Qq in sixes.

This was the property of more than one stationer : another copy before me purports to have been "Printed for Thomas Thorp." The work is dedicated by Carew Gorges, the translator's son, to Lucy, Countess of Bedford in a very interesting and sensibly written Epistle. The version was evidently executed some time before 1614. There are commendatory verses by W[alter] R[aleigh ?] S. S., A. I., and T. W.

Lvcans Pharsalia : Or The Ciuill Warres of Rome, betweene Pompey the great and Ivlivs Cæsar. The whole ten Bookes Englished by Thomas May. Esquire. London Printed for Thomas Iones and John Marriott. 1627. 8°, T in eights, not reckoning the metrical explanation of the frontispiece, the frontispiece by F. Hulsius, and the dedication, &c. 9 leaves.

The whole volume is dedicated "To the True Louer of all good Learning, and iust honour of his owne Ranke, William, Earle of Deuonshire, &c." A dedication was originally prefixed to each Book, but these were subsequently cancelled, and are deficient in the signatures. Dr Bandinel's copy, however, had eight of these suppressed inscriptions, and Mr Heber's, nine. No entirely perfect copy seems to be known.

Lvcans Pharsalia : Or The Ciuill Warres of Rome, &c. The Second Edition, corrected, and the Annotations enlarged by the Author. London, Printed by Aug. Mathewes, for Thomas Iones, and are to be sold, &c. 1631. 8°, a, 8 leaves : A—T 2 in eights. With the same frontispiece (but an inferior impression) and the leaf of metrical explanation.

Lucans Pharsalia : Or, The Civil Warres of Rome, between Pompey the great and Iulius Cæsar. The whole Ten Bookes, Englished by Thomas May, Esquire. The Third Edition, Corrected by the Author. London, Printed by A. M. and are to be sold by Will: Sheares at his Shop in Britaines Bursse, and neere Yorke House. 1635. 8°. Title, dedication to William, Earl of Devonshire, &c., 8 leaves, besides engraved title by Hulsius and portrait of Lucan : A—T 2 in eights.

The engraved title bears the imprint : London Printed by A. M. for Tho : Iones 1635.

A Continuation of Lucan's Historical Poem till the death of Iulivs Cæsar By T. M. London Printed for James Boler at the Signe of the Marigold in Paules Church-yard. 1630. Sm. 8°, K in eights.

The title-page is engraved by Cockson, and the volume is dedicated to Charles I. Before the main poem, which does not seem to have been executed under royal patronage, occurs "The Complaint of Calliope against the Destinies," presumably by the author of the rest.

A Continuation of the Subject of Lucans Historical Poem till the Death of Iulivs Cæsar. The 2<sup>d</sup> Edition. Corrected & amended by T. M. 1633. London Printed for James Boler at the Signe of the Marigold in Pauls Church-yard. 1633. 8°, A, 6 leaves : B—K in eights, last leaf blank. With the title engraved by Cockson. Dedicated to Charles I.

A Continuation of the Subject of Lucans Historical Poem, till the death of Iulius Cæsar. London, Printed for William Sheares, at the signe of the blew Bible in Coven-garden, 1567 [1657.] 8°. A, 6 leaves, the last blank, besides an engraved frontispiece (in which it is called the 5th edition), different from that to the impressions of 1630 and 1633 : B—K 2 in eights, K 2 blank.

The edition of May's Lucan, printed in 12°, 1650, should have a portrait of Lucan in a bust as a frontispiece.

LUCIAN.

Lucians Ghost : Or, Dialogues between the Dead, wandering in the Elyzian Shades. Being Certain Satyricall Remarques upon the vain ostentations humours of several learned and Philosophical Men and Women, as well Ancient as Modern. Composed first in French, and now Paraphras'd into English by a Person of Quality [George, Lord Lyttelton.] London, Printed for James Norris, at the King's Arms without Temple-Bar. 1684. 8°. Title, dedication & Table, 6 leaves : a, 2 leaves : B—G 3 in twelves.

Dedicated "To Lucian in the Elyzian Fields." This appears to be the first edition.

Kirkman Junior, 2 leaves: B—G in twelves, (G 12) blank. Br. Museum.

Falsely attributed to Marlowe, yet it is included in Robinson's edit. 3 vols., 8o, 1826. Reprinted in Hazlitt's Dodsley, xiv.

LUTZEN.

The Great and Famovs Battel of Lvtzen, Fought betweene the renowned King of Sweden, and Walstein; Wherein were left dead vpon the place between 5. and 6000. of the Swedish party, and between 10. and 12000. of the Imperialists, where the King himselfe was vnfortunatly slain, whose death counterpoyz'd all the other: Poppenheim, Merode, Islonain, and diuers other great Commanders were offered up like so many Sacrifices on the Swedish Altar to the memory of their King. Here is also inserted an Abridgment of the Kings life, and a Relation of the King of Bohemia's Death. Imprinted 1633. 4<sup>o</sup>, F in fours, title on A 2.

LYCOPHRON.

Lycophonis Chalcidensis Alexandra. In vsu Academiae Oxoniensis. Excudebat Iosephvs Barnesivs celeberrimæ Academiae Oxoniensis Typographus. MDCLXXII. 4<sup>o</sup>, 24 leaves.

Unseen by Herbert. The title is in Greek and English. The last leaf is blank. The signatures run from alpha to zeta in fours.

LYDGATE, JOHN.

[A lytell treatyse of the horse, the sheep, and the Ghoos.]

At Sir W. Tite's sale in July 1874, a copy occurred of this poem, printed by W. de Worde, with 11 leaves, that containing the end of the piece and a gloss, with (presumably) the colophon or mark of the printer, being deficient. In this copy the first leaf was occupied by a woodcut on the recto, repeated on the reverse; and the poem commenced on the third page, under a head-line, where goose was spelt Goos. The first signature, however, being aa, it is a question whether the impression under notice was not really intended to form part of some larger volume.

The vertue of y<sup>e</sup> masse. [This is in a ribbon over a woodcut occupying the remainder of the page, in which are depicted a priest surrounded by pupils. The colophon is:] Here endeth the vertues of the masse. Imprinted at London by Wynkyn de worde. [1500-5.] 4<sup>o</sup>, 8 leaves. In 8-line stanzas. Public Library Cambridge (supposed unique).

This poem has never been included in any list of Lydgate's writings which I have seen. Unnoticed by Ritson. In the Handbook, 1867, it is entered, but somewhat incorrectly, under Mass. Reprinted in Mr Huth's Fugitive Tracts, 1875, 1st Series. The authorship is claimed by Lydgate in the 11th stanza.

Stans puer ad mēsā. W. de Worde, 4<sup>o</sup>.

To this edition of Lydgate's English adaptation of Sulpitius is annexed The Boke of Courtesye, or lytyll Iohn, already twice printed by Caxton.

The Life and Death of Hector. One and the First of the most Puissant, Valiant, and Renowned Monarches of the world, called the Nyne worthies. Shewing his invincible force, together with the marvailous and most famons Acts by him atchieved and done in the great, long, and terrible Siege, which the Princes of Greece held about the towne of Troy, for the space of Tenne yeares. And finally his vnfortunate death after hee had fought a Hundred mayne Battailes in open field against the Grecians. The which herein are all at large described. . . . Written by Iohn Lidgate Monke of Berry, and by him dedicated to the high and mighty Prince Henrie the fift, King of England. At London, Printed by Thomas Purfoot. Anno Dom. 1614. Folio. ¶, 6 leaves, the first blank: A—Dd 3 in sixes, but sign. L has 9 leaves, pp. 127—31 being repeated. In 6-line stanzas, and in two columns.

This is a modernisation by Thomas Heywood, whose name does not, however, occur, of Lydgates original poem, the dedication to Henry V. Envoy, &c., included.

LYLY, JOHN, M.A.

London Printed by William Stansby for Edward Blount. 1632. 12<sup>o</sup>. A, 6 leaves; B—Dd in twelves. Dedicated by the Publisher to Viscount Lumley.

The songs, omitted in the quartos, are printed here. Each of the plays, except the first, has a separate title-page.

LYNDSAY, SIR DAVID.

The Warkis of the famous & worthie Knight, Sir David Lindsay of the Mont. . . . Imprintit at Edinburgh be Henrie Charteris. 1597. Cum Priuilegio Regali. 4<sup>o</sup>, black letter, A—Z in eights. Britwell (George Chalmers's copy).

Sotheby's, Feb. 15, 1873, £26. 10s. The Squire Meldrum &c. announced on the back of the title is not in either of these copies. Perhaps, though mentioned, this matter was not really printed, as is the case with the edit. of 1592.

The Workes of the Famous and worthie Knight, S<sup>r</sup>. David Lindsay of the Mount, Alias, Lyon King at Armes. Newlie corrected &c. [Quot. from Job 7.] Edinburgh, Printed by Gideon Lithgow, Anno Dom. 1648. 8<sup>o</sup>, U 2 in eights, black letter.

MACHIAVEL.

Machiavels Ghost. As he lately appeared to his deare Sons, the Moderne Projectors.
Divulged for the pretended good of the Kingdomes of England, Scotland, and Ireland. Printed by authority : In the yeare of Grace 1641. London : Printed by J. O. for Francis Constable, &c. 1641.
4<sup>o</sup>, A—D in fours, the first leaf blank.
In prose and verse.

In prose, but the narrative is introduced by a poem headed : "Nicolaus Machiavelus Dilectis Filiis suis Proiectoris Salvtem, &c." A cleverly-written, but rather coarse pamphlet.

MACHIN, LEWIS.

The dumbe Knight. A historicall Comedy, acted sundry times by the children of his Maiesties Reuels. London, Printed by Nicholas Okes, for Iohn Bache, and are to be sold at his shop in the Popes-head Pallace, neare to the Royall Exchange. 1608. 4<sup>o</sup>, A—K 2 in fours, first and last leaves blank.

In this issue which, as it was the form of the title retained in 1633, when the play was reprinted, was (it is to be presumed) the second given to the volume in 1608, there is no author's name; but Machin's is to the preface. There is very slight probability that Markham had any important share in the composition of this strong drama, which has passages and touches beyond his pitch.

The Dumbe Knight. An Historicall Comedy Acted sundry times by the Children of his Maiesties Revels. London Printed by A. M. for William Sheares, and are to be sold at his shoppe in Chancery Lane, neere Sericantes Inne. 1633. 4<sup>o</sup>, A—I in fours. Br. Museum.

July 9, 1642. 4<sup>o</sup>, 4 leaves.

MAJESTAS.

Majestas Intemerata. Or, The Immortality of the King. [Three quotations.] Printed in the Year, 1649. 12<sup>o</sup>, A—G in twelves, first leaf blank.

Following the title is the same leaf of extract from Lydgate as occurs in the Idol of the Clowns, 1654, commonly ascribed to Cleveland. On the title-page of a copy of the present volume, an early MS. note attributes it to Francis White of Gray's Inn, who very probably—far more probably, at least, than Cleveland—also wrote the Idol of the Clowns.

MAJOR, JOHANNES, Scotus [Anglice John Elder.]

Historia Maioris Britanniae, tam Anglie q̄ Scotie, per Ioannē Maiorem, nomine quidem Scotum, professione autem Theologum, e veterum monumentis concinnata. Venundatur Iodoco Badio Ascensio. The preface is addressed to James V. King of Scots; the arms of Scotland, with 4 lines by the printer addressed to the king beneath, are on the back of the title. This book is remarkable as containing the earliest printed notice of Robin Hood, which has, however, been often quoted. Reprinted at Edinburgh, 4<sup>o</sup>, 1740.

Synodvs Avivm, &c. 1558. 4<sup>o</sup>, no place or printer's name, 11 leaves.

MALBIE, NICHOLAS.

A plaine and easie way to remedy a Horse that is foundered in his feete. By which vsing this remedy (within xxiiii. howres after his instant foundering) you may within xxiiii. hours after the cure vsed, trauell your horse and iourney him at your pleasure, as if he had not benee foundered at all. Set out by Nicholas Malbie Gentleman Seruaunt to the Queenes most excellent maiestie. Imprinted at London by Thomas Purfoote. 1583. 4<sup>o</sup>, D 2 in fours, black letter. With two woodcuts.

Between A 2 and A iii are three leaves apparently inserted by an afterthought: they contain an address to the Reader, and notes for the use of the remedy. Dedicated by the author in prose to Edward Fitzgerald, Esquire, and by the printer in eight 7-line stanzas to Lord Robert Dudley.

Remedies for the dyseseas in Horses. Approoued and allowed by diuers very auncient learned Mareschalls. Imprinted at London, by Thomas Purfoot. 1594. 4<sup>o</sup>, A—D 2 in fours, or 14 leaves. Black letter. With the woodcuts omitted, but a large folding leaf containing the figure of a horse, the Dudley arms above, and 14 lines To the Reader beneath, substituted.

In this impression the dedication by Malbie himself is omitted, and the dedicatory stanzas by the printer (the writer perhaps of the others on the folding leaf) are dated April 1576; so that there may have been an earlier edition than that of 1583.

The Tragedy of Dido, Queen of Carthage. . . . 1594.

"This copy of the extremely rare first edition of the Tragedie of Dido is rendered particularly interesting by the autographs of its three former possessors, Isaac Reed, George Steevens, and the Duke of Roxburgh.

"Isaac Reed's note :—

"At the sale of Dr Wright's library, 2d May 1787, a copy of this Play of Dido, and the only one, besides, known to exist, was purchased by Mr Malone for sixteen guineas."

"George Steevens' note :—

"This copy was given me by Mr Reed. Such liberality in a collector of Old Plays is at least as rare as the rarest of our dramatic pieces.—G. S."

"The Duke of Roxburgh's note :—

"Mr Warton, Hist. of Eng. Poetry, vol. iii. p. 433, note 9, observes that "Nashe in his Elegy prefixed to Marlowe's Dido, mentions five of his plays"—surely this must be a mistake. But two copies of Dido are known to exist, and no verses of any kind are prefixed to either of them." [But compare Dyce's edit. of Marlowe, 1850, i. xxxviii.—ix.]

"Three copies are now known of this play, one in the collection of the Duke of Sutherland, another in the Bodleian (Malone's), and the present."—Bibl. Heber, part 2, 3766.

Mr Huth's copy, purchased at Mr Corser's sale, had previously belouged to Chalmers and Bright.

MARSHALL, S.

A Sacred Panegyrick. [Circa 1656.] 4<sup>o</sup>. [In verse?]

Advertised in London's Catalogue, 1658, among the Poems. I have never met with any piece so entitled. Probably the Panegyric was written by Dr Stephen Marshall, of whom there was a biography published in 1670. Marshall preached the funeral sermon on Pym in 1644, and was a noted divine in his day.

MARSTON, JOHN.

The Malcontent. By Iohn Marston. 1604. At London Printed by V. S. for William Aspley, are to be sold at his shop in Pauls Church-yard. 4<sup>o</sup>, A—I 2 in fours, A blank, and I 2 having the Prologue. Br. Museum.

Norton, and are to bee sold at his shop neere Temple-barre. MDCXCV [1615.] 8<sup>o</sup>, A—E 4 in eights, first and last leaves blank. Br. Museum.

Divided into two portions, each of which has its title-page and dedication. The first, inscribed to Sir F. Bacon, is in prose, except some verses to the author by "R. G. Armiger;" the second, inscribed to Mrs Mary Grey, is in verse, and consists of funeral poems on Elizabeth Martin (horn Grey) by her three sisters, Mary, Anne, and Penelope. An imperfect copy of this work is noticed by Collier. Perfect copies are in the British Museum and at Llanhydrock (Lord Robartes).

MARTIN MAR-PRELATE.

Mar-Martin. No place, printer's name, or date. 4<sup>o</sup>, 4 leaves. In verse.

As to the disputed authorship of Pappe with an Hatchet, it may perhaps be thought that Gabriel Harvey's testimony (Pierces Supererogation, 1593, repr. Collier, 71) goes no inconsiderable way to fix the book on Nash.

MARTYN, W., Recorder of Exeter.

Youths Instruction. Composed and Written by William Martyn Esquire, Recorder of the honourable Citie of Exeter. London, Printed by Iohn Beale. 1612. 4<sup>o</sup>, P in fours.

The Heire. A Comedie. As it was acted by the Company of the Revels. 1620. Written by T. M. London, Printed by Augustine Mathewes, for Thomas Iones, and are to be sold at his shop in S. Dunstons Church-yard in Fleetstreet. 1633. 4°. A—H in fours, first and last leaves blank.

There are two title-pages to this comedy in the year 1633, but they are both the same edition. The one has the words the second impression upon it, the other is without them; but in all other respects they are precisely similar. Whether the performance did not sell well in the first instance, and the stationer resorted to this expedient to get rid of copies remaining on hand, must be matter of conjecture only.—Collier (note in Hazlitt's Dodsley, xi. 502).

A curious notice of May will be found in Taylor's Mercurius Aquaticus, 1643, Pref.

MIEGE, GUY.

A short Dictionary English and French, with another French and English. According to the present Use and modern Orthography. By Guy Miege, Gent. London. Printed for Tho. Basset, at the George in Fleet street, near St. Dunstans Church. 1684. 8°, A—Xx in fours.

The Preface says : "Here you have but a curtailed Volume, a short Abstract of a large Dictionary, a Book therefore that must needs be imperfect on several accounts. Here is a Heap of Words, and but a few Phrases to shew the use of those Words. In short, 'tis a Dictionary not so much fitted for the Speaking as the Reading part."

At the end of the Preface is an Advertisement. The author has put out two French Grammars, both of them well approved of by all unprejudiced persons. The One is short and concise, fitted for all sorts of Learners, but especially New-Beginners. The Other is a large and complete Piece, giving a curious and full account of the French Tongue. To This is annexed a copious Vocabulary, and a long Train of useful Dialogues. Sold by Thomas Basset, at the George in Fleetstreet, near St. Dunstans Church.

At the end of the Book he says the Author has also published—

A New Cosmography, or Survey of the Whole World, In six Ingenious and Comprehensive Discourses : Together with a previous Discourse, shewing a rational New Way of bringing up Young Men to Learning. Price bound 18d.

The Present State of Denmark. Accurately Written ; and humbly Dedicated to his Royal Highness George, Prince of Denmark. Price bound 18d. Both sold by Thomas Basset, at the George in Fleet-street, near S. Dunstans Church.

MILDMAY, SIR WALTER.

A Note to Know a good man.

Henry Roberts, in his Fames Trumpet Soundinge, 4°, 1589, mentions a book in print, now extant, by Mildmay which, according to a marginal note, bore such a title as that given above. See the poem by Roberts reprinted entire in Hazlitt's Fugitive Poetry, 1875, 1st Series.

London, Printed for Humphrey Moseley, at the signe of the Prince's Armes in S. Pauls Church-yard. 1650. 12<sup>o</sup>, A—D 7 in twelves, D 7 blank. With a portrait (having no engraver's name), beneath which are four lines of verse. Br. Museum (the Bindley, Heber and Corser copy).

Purchased at Corser's sale in 1870 for £12. 12s. Many of the pieces in this extremely rare volume are of local interest. Two of the commendatory verses describe Murford as a merchant of King's-Lynn. Some particulars of the writer's life might be derived from this publication, and among his acquaintances occur the names of May, Revett, Holbeach, Toll, &c. At sign. C 2 is an elegy on the death of his daughter Amy.

MURRAY, SIR ALEXANDER, of Stanhope, Baronet.

The True Interest of Great Britain, Ireland, and our Plantations : Or, A Proposal for making such an Union between Great Britain and Ireland, and all our Plantations, as that already made betwixt Scotland and England. Whereby the Attempts and Endeavours of foreign Powers and Domestick Factions towards Dividing, Disuniting, Weakening and Dismembering us, may be prevented. And A New Method of Husbandry by Greater and Lesser Canals : Whereby the present Value and Product of our Lands and Waters may, in Five or Six Years, be, at an Avarage, at least quadrupled : The Publick Debts may be paid off ; and such of our Taxes as are most Burthen-some and Hurtful to our Trade and Industry, removed. And all this, at an Expence of Money and Labour, at the utmost Extent, within Britain, not exceeding Three or Four Years of the ordinary Expence of Money and Labour now, at an Avarage, Annually Bestowed upon our Lands and Waters. With Proposals for Removing the Hurtful Parts of the Heretable Courts and Jurisdictions, and of the present Holdings and Tenures of Lands in Scotland, and other such Obstructions to all good Laws, Power, Government, Union, Industry and Improvement whatsoever. A Letter and Remonstrance, &c. to the Right Honourable, Philip Lord Hardwicke, Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, Arthur Onslow, Esquire, Speaker of the House of Commons, and Mr Attorney and Mr Solicitor General, from Sir Alexander Murray, of Stauhope, Baronet, in Relation to a Petition, and some Proposals, which he addressed last Sessions to Both Houses of Parliament. Wherein the Miserable State of Scotland, from the Slavish Dependence of the People on a few Families, and the great Danger thence arising to Great Britain are considered. With A New Method of Improving all the different Products of our Lands and Waters, and Paying off the National Debts. London: Printed for the Author in the Year M.DCC.XI. Folio, 11 leaves.

MURRAY, SIR DAVID, of Gorthy.
The Tragical Death of Sophonisba. . . 1611.

See Phineas Fletcher's Works, edit. Grosart, ii. 5, and Laing's Adversaria, 1867, 35-8.

MURRAY, THOMAS.
Nauactiados Metaphrasis. . . 1604.

I presume that this is the same person to whom John Dunbar addresses an epigram (Epigr. 1616, p. 114). He appears, if so, to have been preceptor to Prince Charles.

MUSEUM MINERVÆ.
The Constitutions of the Mvsævum Minervæ. London, Printed by T. P. for Thomas Spencer. 1636. 4°. ¶, 4 leaves, first blank: ¶¶, 4 leaves: A—C 2 in fours, C 2 blank.

London, Printed by R. H. for Laurence Blaikelocke, and are to be sold at his shop at the signe of the Sugar-loafe next Temple-barre in Fleet-street. 1640. 4<sup>o</sup>, A—I in fours, A 4 blank, and the last leaf having only the Imprimatur.

From the dedication to the generality of the gentlemen of the Inns of Court, it is to be inferred that the printed text was the first genuine appearance of the play. Nabbes has verses before Marmion's Cupid & Psyche, 1637.

NANFAN, BRIDGIS.

Essays Divine and Moral By Bridgis Nanfan, Esquire. London, Printed for William Leach at the Crown in Cornhil, near the Stocks-Market. 1680. 8<sup>o</sup>. A, 4 leaves: B—O in eights.

Dedicated to the Bishop of St David's. A copy before me has a varying imprint as follows: London, Printed for Sams. Evans, Bookseller in Worcester. 1680.

NASH, THOMAS, M.A. of St. John's College, Cambridge.

Terminus et non Terminus.

See Collier's Hist. of Engl. Dram. Poetry, iii. 110.

The Isle of Dogs.

Not printed, and at present unknown in MS. It is referred to by Meres in 1598, and by other writers.

The First parte of Pasquils Apologie. . . . 1590.

Collation: A—E 2 in fours, first and last leaves blank.

Pierce Pennilesse his Supplication. . . . R. Jones, 1592.

Herbert says 24 leaves, but there are 42.

In the library of Caius College, Cambridge (Collett's Cat. p. 17), is a copy of Nash's Pierce Penniless, wanting the title, but having L in fours. This may be one of the impressions to be accounted for.

It is in reference to Nash's printer that Harvey, in his Pierces Supererogation, 1593, calls Nash "Danter's gentleman." It appears from Nash's Epistle before his Christ's Tears, edit. 1594, that his Jack Wilton was suspected to be an anagram of Wittenberg—evidently some joke. See Collier's reprint of Harvey's New Letter, 1593, Intro.

Strange Newes. . . . 1592.

The "low-countries" mentioned are the water-closet. Compare Hazlitt, Art. Mercurius Lepidus. Mr Pyne notices, in his MS. Collections, p. 102, a copy of Nash's Strange Newes, with merely "Printed 1592" at the foot of the title, and I have a copy before me with the date 1593 and the original title.

Plaine Percevall the Peace-Maker of England. . . .

Mr Collier (Bibl. Cat. ii. 5) rightly gives this, not to Nash, but to Richard, the brother of Gabriel, Harvey.

Nashes Lenten Stuffe. . . . 1599.

See Fry's Bibliographical Memoranda, 1816, p. 196.

A Pleasant Comedie, called Summers last will and Testament. . . . 1600.

Sign. C. has only 2 leaves, and sign. F. is wrongly marked D. Reprinted in Hazlitt's Dodsley, viii.

Tom Nash his Ghost. To the three scurvy Fellowes of the upstart Family of the Snufflers, Rufflers and Shufflers; the thrice Treble-troublesome Scufflers in the Church and State, the one by Lay Ecclesi-Ass, I call Generallissimos. Being like Jobs 3. Comforters, or the Churches 3. Anti-Disciples, the Clergies 3. Persecuters, the States 3. Hors-leeches, the Divels 3. Chaplaines, namely, the Anabaptist, the Libertine, and the Brownist. Written by Thomas Nash his Ghost, with Pap with a Hatchet, &c. Printed first at Yorke, and since re-printed at London. 1642. 4<sup>o</sup>, 4 leaves. With a woodcut figure of Nash's ghost on the title used for another tract, and to represent a different person. (Pountney)

London, Printed for Hum: Robinson at the Three-Pidgeons, and Hum: Moseley at the Princes Armes in St. Pauls Church-yard. 1649. 8°. A—D in twelves (but 13 leaves in C): A—E 8 in twelves (but A has only 3 leaves), besides the general title.

Each of the dramas has a separate title-page; that to the Country Captain is as follows: "The Covenry Captaine a Comoedy lately presented by his Majesties Servants at the Blackfryers. Iu's Grave van Haghe. Printed by Samuell Broun English Bookseller at the Signe of the English Printing-house in the Achter-ome. Anno 1649." Of the Variety there was no Dutch edition. It purports to be printed for Humphrey Moseley. The impression of the Country Captain was probably bought up by Robinson and Moseley, to bind with the other play.

The only copy I have seen wanted the end, and contained H in fours. Dedicated by T. M[ainwaring?] to Lucy Countess of Bedford. There are several copies of commendatory verses, but an anagram by Tho. Cotton seems to disclose the translator's name—

“With warre thou matest man, but many men
Are more amated by thy learned pen :
No wauering man thou art, for Manwaring
Through all Europa do thy manners ring.”

The copy above described was in Longman's Bibliotheca Curiosa, 1813-14, at £1. 11s. 6d., and afterwards in Lilly's Catalogue for 1869 at £2. 12s. 6d.

The notable historie of . . . Astianax and Polixena. . . . 1566.

This, with Partridge's History of Pandavola, 1566, was reprinted for the Roxburgh Club, 4<sup>o</sup>, 1873.

The Treasury of commodious Conceits. . . . 1586.

Mr Collier says that this was printed also in 1591 by Richard Jones, 4<sup>o</sup>. There were certainly later editions under the same or other titles, and with variations and additions. Herbert had one under the original title in 1594, 16<sup>o</sup>.

PARVULA.

Longe Parvula. W. de Worde, 1509.

"This very curious and rare tract of eight leaves, which was unknown to Ames and Herbert, commences thus (on the reverse of the title-page, which has the first two words, as above, upon a scroll, over the schoolmaster and his eight boys). "What shalt thou do when thou hast an englysshe to make in latyn? I shal reherse myn englysshe ones, twyes, or thryes, and loke out my princypal and aske the question who or what, &c." At the bottom of the reverse of the eighth leaf we have the date as above.'—From the description of this copy by Dr Dibdin in the Typog. Antiquities.—Bibl. Heber. part 2, No. 3474.

Here begynneth a treatyse called Peruula. [This title is in rather small black letter over a large cut of a master attended by his pupils.] At the end: ¶ Et sic est finis. With W. de Worde's smallest device. 4<sup>o</sup>, 6 leaves.

[Parvula.] At the end occurs this colophon: Here endeth a treatise called puula. For the instruction of children. Empretyd by me Nicole marcât. [Circa 1510.] 4<sup>o</sup>, black letter, 4 leaves, or a in fours. Althorp.

Collation: Title, 1 leaf: "The Epistle Dedicatory to His Sacred Majesty Antiquity," 6 leaves: A Preface on a certain Preface, 3 leaves: the Work, A—Z in fours. Perhaps this volume contains in the Preface the earliest reference to Defoe's Robinson Crusoe.

[PATESON, FATHER.]

The Image of Bothe Chvrches, Hiervsalem and Babel, Vnitie and Confvsion: Obedience and Sedition. By, P. D. M. Printed at Tornay, By Adrian Qvinqve. M.D.C.XXIII. With Licence. 8°, Ff in eights, and prefixes, 4 leaves, marked (A 1) &c.

The last leaf is blank on the verso, the recto being occupied by the following curious Notice: "Blame not my will, but my wants; that the Latin is not translated into English: I had not paper, nor means, (being stinted.)" A copy is extant, possessing MSS. additions by the Author.

In Mr Heber's copy, the ensuing note occurs on the title-page: "Pateson. So I find him called by knowing Mr Baxter answ. to Mr Morris, p. 211. Father Pateson was one that was wont to consult with Bristow, Bishop, Wright, &c. at the Apothecaries in Fetter Lane. See Vox Populi, [by Tho. Scot, 1620,] p. 55."

On the verso of the leaf preceding the title is this memorandum in a later hand: "The Image of Both Churches, by Mr Pateson, now in London, a bitter and seditious book. V. J. Gee's Foot out of the Snare sub finem, Lond. 1624." The recto of this leaf has the autograph: "Tho. Maydwell, 1663," and a note in his hand, commencing Latet anguis in herba—There are several notes in the book in this same hand. The Image is dedicated to Charles, Prince of Wales, probably without permission; and sign. (a 4) is occupied by an extract from Daniel's Civil Wars, lib. 6.

PATHOSE.

Peele*, 1 leaf: B—C, 4 leaves each: D, 1 leaf. Dyce Coll.

The Battell of Alcazar. . . . 1594.

Perhaps the commonest of Peele's dramas, although there was but one edition. Two copies, however, before me present slight typographical and literal differences, for which we may account by supposing changes made at press.

The old Wives Tale. . . . 1595.

“The Old Wives Tale, by G. P. (George Peele), 1595, is also in the Royal Library at the Queen's House, I have not heard of any third copy.”—MS. note by Steevens. A third copy is in the Duke of Sutherland's [now the Bridgewater] Library. ‘In Longman's Cat. for 1817, was a copy of Peele's Old Wives Tale wanting the two last leaves.’—Note by Mr Heber. ‘In 1595 Peele's Old Wives Tale was printed, having been performed perbaps several years earlier. This play has been described in the Biographia Dramatica, and in T. Warton's edition of Milton's Minor Poems, as a production from which the great poet seems partly to have derived the plan and character of Comus; and consequently the students of English poetry are familiar with its name, but with its name only, as very few of them can have perused a drama of such excessive rarity.’—Peele's Works, by Dyce.”—Bibl. Heber. part 2, No. 4394.

The Love of King David and Fair Bethsabe. . . . 1599.

Collation: Title, 1 leaf: B—H in fours, and a leaf of I.

Merrie conceited Jestes of George Peele. . . . 1607.

T. Allen, 1795, No. 1023, perhaps the same copy as West's.

PEELE, JAMES.

1569. The Pathe waye to perfectnes, in th' accomptes of Debitour and Creditour: in manner of a Dialogue, very pleasaunt and profitfable for marchautes and all other that minde to frequente the same: once agayne set forthe, and verie muche enlarged. By Iames Peele Citizen and Salter of London, Clercke of Christes Hospitall, practizer and teacher of the same. Imprinted at London, in Paules Churchyarde, by Thomas Purfoote, dwellinge at the signe of the Lucrece. 16. August. Dedicated to John Mershe Esquire Governor, the Assistants and Company of the Merchants Adventurers of England: On the reverse of which occurs A Breffe admonition, 14 lines, subscribed James Peele; then the Preface, after which is “To the Reader in commendation of this present Worke,” 30 couplets containing an acrostic, signed A. G.

Collation: Title, 1 leaf: Dedication, 1 leaf: Preface, &c., 2 leaves: A—K in sixes: L in fours: M—Mm in sixes. This was evidently not the first edition. The work was licenced in 1568.

A very remarkable volume, in the original vellum cover, and containing 25 Forms of Prayer of the reign of Elizabeth, each with the autograph of Humphrey Dyson, has lately fallen into the hands of my friend Mr H. Pyne. It is mentioned specially in the Preface to the Parker Society's volume of Occasional Forms of Prayer, but it had been lost sight of for 200 years. Mr Pyne considers three of the pieces unique, and at least twelve are unknown to Herbert.

Q.

QUARLES, FRANCIS.

Hadassa. . . . 1621.

On the back of the title-page of this scarce volume are the arms of the Prince of Wales gartered, and on the opposite page occurs the inscription to Charles. The Preface to the Reader is in prose, and is followed by a poetical Introduction. Then follows the Argument in prose, after which we get the same sort of metrical prayer to God as in the Feast for Wormes, but here in three stanzas. The History of Ester is related in twenty sections, each section accompanied by a Meditation, also in verse.

Argalys and Parthenia. . . . Written by Fra: Quarles. Lusit Anacreon. London Printed by Iohn Marriott in S. Dunstons Church yard fleetstreet. 1629. 4°, A—X in fours, X 4 blank, and the engraved title by T. Cecill. Emm. Coll. Cambr.

Each part has a separate title-page, all of which, except the one to the Feast for Wormes, bear date 1632. The volume concludes with an alphabet of Elegies on Dr Aylmer.

Divine Poems: Containing the History of Jonah. . . . Written and newly augmented by Fra: Quarles. London, Printed by M. F. for I. M. . . . 1638. 8°, A—Mm 3 in eights, the first leaf having the mind of the frontispiece, not including the engraved title dated 1632.

Divine Poemes Renised and Corrected with Additions By the Author Fra: Quarles. London, Printed for B: T: and T: S. 1669. 8°, Hh 4 in eights, including the portrait. With the title-page engraved, as before. Br. Museum.

This edition contains two additional poems, Elegies on the deaths of Dr Wilson, of the Rolls, and Mildred, Lady Luckyn. It is also accompanied by six copper-plates in four compartments.

Divine Fancies: Digested into Epigrammes, Meditations, and Observations. By Fra: Quarles. London, Printed by M. F. for Iohn Marriot, and are to be sold at his Shop in St. Dunstanes Church-yard in Fleet-street. 1632. 4°, Dd in fours, last leaf blank, and prefixes, 4 leaves, first blank.

Dedicated to Charles, Prince of Wales, then a mere child of two or three years of age.

Divine Fancies: Digested into Epigrammes, &c. London: Printed by M. F. for Iohn Marriot, &c. 1636. 4°, A—Ee in fours, the last leaf blank.

Divine Fancies, &c. London, Printed for W. Shears, and are to be sold by John Symons, &c. 1660. 12°. A, 6 leaves, including a portrait: B—L 6 in twelves.

The copy before me has the book-plate of William Byron, Lord Byron, and on the back of the portrait the autograph of Charles Cotton.

Divine Fancies, digested into Epigrams, Meditations, and Observations. By Fran. Quarles. The fifth [eighth] Edition, Corrected. London, Printed by T. R. for John Williams at the Crown and Globe in St. Paul's Churchyard, 1664. 8°. A, 4 leaves: B—N 4 in eights.

Divine Fancies. Digested into Epigrams. . . . The sixth Edition, Corrected. London, Printed by J. R. for John Williams. . . . 1671. 8°. A, 4 leaves : B—N 4 in eights.

Emblems by Fra: Quarles. London printed by G. M. and sold at Iohn Marriots shope in St. Dunstons Church yard fleet-street William Marshall sculpsit 1635. 8°, V in eights, besides the Quarles (often deficient) by E. Benlowes, 10 leaves.

The Quarles, a collection of Latin verses addressed to Charles I., has an allegorical title engraved by W. Marshall, besides a printed one. In two copies before me there are variations, showing that the piece was printed more than once. The printed title runs : Lesus Poeticus Pœtis. Londini, Excudebat G. M. 1634.

Emblemes By Fra: Quarles. London Printed by I[ohn] D[awson] for Francis Eglesfield, and are to be sold at the signe of the marigold in S. Pauls Church-yard. 1639. 8°, Bb 4 in eights.

This is the first appearance of the Emblems and Hieroglyphics of the Life of Man in the same volume. The Hieroglyphics had been printed separately in 1638. Here they commence with a new title-page, also dated 1639, on sign. X. This edition of both works seems to have escaped the notice of bibliographers, who refer to the impression of the Emblems in 1643 as the second.

Emblemes. By Fra. Quarles. London. Printed for William Freeman at the Bible in Fleet Street. [Circa 1680.] 8°, Aa in eights.

The Hieroglyphics occur at the end with uninterrupted signatures and pagination. This is the last of the later editions.

An Elegie vpon the truly lamented Death of the Right Honorable Sir Julius Cæsar, Knt. Master of the Rolles and of Snt. Katherins ; and One of his Majesties most Honorable Privy Counsell. Wept by Fra. Qva. Micat inter omnes, &c. London, Printed for Iohn Marriot. 1636. 8°, 7 leaves.

Inscribed, in a double dedication, to Lady Cæsar and to her three sons. See Athenæum, Sept. 17, 1870.

Signes at the contemporary deaths of those incomparable Sisters, The Countesse of Cleaveland, And Mistrisse Cicily Killegrve, Daughters of Sir Iohn Crofts Knight of Saxom Hall in the Countie of Suffolke Deceased, And his Noble Lady now living. Breathed forth by F. Q. London, Printed by Tho. Cotes for N. Alsop ; and are to be sold at the Angell in Popes head Alley. 1640. 8°, A—B in eights, or 16 leaves, the first and last blank.

The Signs, dedicated to Lady Crofts, conclude on A 8, and on sign. B occurs, with a new title-page : An Elegie vpon the truly lamented Death of Sir Iohn Wolstenholme, Knight, who, on the of November, 1639, quitted this lower World, and put on Glorious Immortalitie. By Fra. Quarles. London, Printed by Tho. Cotes. . . . 1640. This is dedicated to Sir Iohn Wolstenholme (the younger). The date of death is left blank in the original.

QUARLES, JOHN.

The Tyranny of the Dutch against the English. Wherein is exactly declared the (almost unvaluable) loss which the Common-wealth of England hath sustained by this Usurpation. And likewise the Sufferings and Losses of Abraham Woofe, then Factor at Lantore, and others in the Island of Banda. Never published before. Formerly collected in loose Sheets by Mr Woofe himself, and now Illustrated and extracted out of his Papers; By John Quarles. London, Printed by John Crowch and Tho. Wilson, and are to be sold at Mr Woofe's house over against the water Gate in Cole-Harbour. 1653. 8°. A, 3 leaves: B—G 3 in eights. With a folded frontispiece by Robert Vaughan, picturing the cruelties of the Hollanders, in the left-hand upper corner of which is a small portrait of Abraham Woofe.

On the flyleaf of the copy here used Sir F. Freeling has noted: "The Portrait of Woofe is extremely rare. The frontispiece has been re-engraved by Sturt from this impression." Another copy of the book is in the British Museum. There was a second edition with the same print in 1660, and it is at least equally rare.

Divine Meditations Upon Several Subjects. Whereunto is annexed God's Love. . . . London, Printed by T. J. for Peter Parker. . . . 1671. 8°. A, 4 leaves: B—M in eights, the last leaf occupied by advertisements.

REVETT, ELDRED.

See Halliwell's Manuscript Rarities of the University of Cambridge, p. 34. Perhaps the Edward Revett of Clare Hall there mentioned may have been our poet, wrongly named, or a relative. Revett has lines before Swinhoe's Irene, 1658.

REYNARD THE FOX.

Reynard the Fox . . . 1550.

Of this edition a copy is said in the catalogue to be at Ashburnham Place. Ames, 1760, No. 712, 3s. 6d.

The most delectable History of Reynard the Fox, &c. London, Printed by J. Bell at the East-End of Christ-Church. 1656. 4<sup>o</sup>, M in fours. Black letter, with woodcuts. Br. Museum.

The only copy known of this edition occurred in lot 161 of Mr Gourlay's sale, 2d day, August 15, 1871, at Great Yarmouth. It was slightly defective at the end.

The Most Delectable History of Reynard the Fox. Newly Corrected and Purged &c. To which may now be added a Second Part of the said History: As also the Shifts of Reynardine, &c. London, Printed by Tho. James, for Edward Brewster, at the sign of the Crane in St. Pauls Church-yard. 1694. 4<sup>o</sup>, black letter, U in fours. With cuts.

REYNELL, CAREW.

The True English Interest: Or An Account of the Chief National Improvements; in Some Political Observations, demonstrating an infallible Advance of this Nation to infinite Wealth and Greatness, Trade and Populacy, with Imployment and Preferment for all Persons. By Carew Reynel Esq; London, Printed for Giles Widdowes, &c. 1674. 8°, A—G in eights, besides a, 4 leaves between A and B.

A volume full of curious and interesting information. Of the author there is a large and fine print by Faithorne.

A Discourse of the Advancement of Learning.

Mentioned at p. 79 of the preceding work, but not at present known in print or MS.

REYNOLDS, HENRY.

Mythomystes, wherein a Short Survey is taken of the Nature and Value of true Poesy, and Depth of the Ancients above ovr Moderne Poets. To which is annexed the Tale of Narcissus briefly mythologized. London, Printed for Henry Seyle at the Tigers-head in St. Pauls Church-yard. [Circa 1625.] 4°, 60 leaves.

The Tale of Narcissus (a translation from Ovid made several years before, as the author tells us) begins on M 4, after a second title-page; it is in 8-line stanzas. As Drayton published his address to Reynolds in 1627, it is at least a probability, that the Narcissus had already then made the name of the writer more or less celebrated in connection with the subject, unless Drayton saw the translation in MS. The whole volume is dedicated to Lord Maltravers.

REYNOLDS, JOHN.

A Defence of the Iydgement of the Reformed churches. That a man may not onelie put awaie his wife for her adulterie, but also marrie another. Wherin both Robert Bellarmin the Iesuites Latin treatise, and an English pamphlet of a namelesse author mainteyning the contrarie are cofuted by John Reynolds. &c. Printed Anno 1609. 4°, N in fours.

REYNOLDS, JOHN, of Exeter.

The Triumphs of Gods Revenge against the Crying and Execrable Sinne of (Willfull and Premeditated) Murther. With his Miraculous Discoveries, and severe Punishments thereof. In Thirtie severall Tragickall Histories (Digested into Sixe Bookes) committed in divers Countries beyond the Seas, never published, or Imprinted in any other Language. Histories which containe great varietie or mournfull and memorabell Accidents, Historicall, Morall, and Divine, very necessary to restraine and deterre us from this bloodie Sinne, which in these our dayes makes so ample, and large a Progression. With a Table of all the severall Letters and Challenges, contained in the whole sixe Bookes. Written by John Reynolds. [Quotations.] London, Printed for William Lee, and are to bee sold at his shop. . . . 1635. Folio. Engraved frontispiece in compartments by Payue, and printed title, 2 leaves: A, 6 leaves: (a) 6 leaves: B—Rrr 4 in sixes. Br. Museum (imperfect).

This seems to be the second edition of the work, but the first in folio, and the earliest appearance of Books iv.—vi. Dedicated to Charles I. Reynolds in this inscription refers to his translation of Refuges's Treatise of the Court, 1622. There is a second epistle to the Marquis of Buckingham.

The Triumphs of Gods Revenge. . . London, Printed by Edward Griffin for William Lee. . . . 1639. Folio. A, 6 leaves, the first having probably had a frontispiece, which the Museum copy at all events wants; a, 6 leaves: B—Ccc in sixes, except that Ccc has 8 leaves. Br. Museum (probably imperfect).

In this, as well as in the edition of 1635, there are separate titles and dedications to each book. The latter disclose some interesting biographical items.

The Triumphs of Gods Revenge. . . The Second Edition [sic.] London, Printed by Edward Griffin for William Lee. . . . 1640. Folio. Engraved and printed titles, 2 leaves: A, 6 leaves: a, 6 leaves: B—Ggg 4 in sixes. Br. Museum.

The Triumphs of Gods Revenge. . . The Fifth and Last Edition. Whereunto are added the lively Pourtraictures of the severall Persons, and resemblances of other Passages mentioned therein, engraven in Copper Plates. London, Printed by A. M. for William Lee. . . . 1670. Folio. Engraved and printed titles, 2 leaves: dedication, 1 leaf: a, 4 leaves: b, 4 leaves: B—Ooo in fours.

The plates are on the letterpress.

The Triumphs of Gods Revenge against . . . Murther. The Seventh and Last Edition. Whereunto are added the Lively Pourtraictures of the Severall Persons, and resemblances of other Passages mentioned therein, engraven in Copper Plates. London, Printed for C. Griffin. . . . MDCCIV. Folio, with a frontispiece and separate titles to the several parts, dated 1702. The preliminary leaves, and B—Ooo in fours. The plates are all on the letterpress.

The Flower of Fidelitie. Displaying in a Continuate Historie, the various Adventures of three Foreign Princes. By John Reynolds, Author of that Excellent Historie, Entituled, Gods Revenge against Murther. London, Printed by T. M. and A. C. for George Badger, and are to be sold at his Shop in S. Dunstons Church-yard in Fleet-Street. 1650. 8°. A, 4 leaves: B—N in eights. In prose and verse.

Dedicated to his father-in-law, Richard

Waltham Esq. At the beginning and end are a sonnet by Reynolds and a piece of poetry called his Farewell.

Reynolds held a situation in the Mint. I have met with copies of his Tables of Coins, 8<sup>o</sup>, 1651, and of his translation of Refuges, 1622, with his autograph.

A Payre of Spy-Knaves. [London, 1613. ?] 4°, 16 leaves ?

From a careful examination of the Collier imperfect but supposed unique copy, I am led to the conclusion that this tract originally consisted of four sheets, A—D in fours, and that the copy, as it stands, wants 4 leaves therefore.

Heavens Glory, Seeke it. Eart[h]s Vanitie, Flye it. Hells Horror, Fere it. London printed for Michael Sparke A°. 1638. 12°, M in twelves, last leaf blank. With an engraved and printed title (the latter dated 1639). The Common Calles, Cries, &c. commence with a new title on the last leaf of L.

See Fry's Bibliographical Memoranda, 1816, p. 256.

A Crew of Kind London Gossips All met to be Merry. Complaining of their Husbands, with their Husbands Answer in their own Defence. To which is Added Ingenious Poems, Or Wit and Drollery. Cottrel, for Edward Blackmore. . . . 1658. 4<sup>o</sup>. A, 2 leaves: B—I in fours. With a large woodcut on the title.

ROY, WILLIAM.

A Lytle treatous or dialoge very necessary for all christen men to learne and to knowe. No place, printer's name, or date [Strasburgh, John Schott, 1527-8.] 8<sup>o</sup>. A, 4 leaves: B—G 4 in eights. In prose. Dedicated by Roy to the Noble Estates and others of the town of Calais. Imperial Library Vienna and Longleat.

It appears that 1000 copies were printed of this little work, and that Roy wrote it, while a literary acquaintance of his, one Jerome [Barlow?] of Greenwich, was writing some rhymes at Roy's suggestion—it is to be presumed perhaps the satire against Wolsey, usually ascribed to Roy himself. See the introduction by Mr Arber to his reprint of Tyndale's Testament. The Lytle Treatous itself has been reprinted lately from the Vienna copy by Adolfe Wolff, Wien, 1874, 80.

The true beliefe in Christ and his sacramentes, set forth in a Dialoge between a Christen father and his sonne, verye necessary to be learned of all men, of what estate soeuer they be. [Quot. from Prov. 4.] Imprinted at London for Gwalter Lynne, dwellinge on Somers kaye, by Byllinges gate. Anno Domini

M.D.L. Cum Priuilegio ad Imprimendum solum. 8<sup>o</sup>. a, 4 leaves: then Roy's book (as before), B—G 4. Publ. Lib. Camb.

This is the little treatise of 1527-8 re-issued bodily with Roy's preface omitted, and a new title, and a dedication to Anne, Duchess of Somerset, in which Lynne speaks of the author as unknown to him, and describes this as a work of a very godly character, suitable for universal reading, unlike the stories of Robin Hood, Clim of the Clough, &c.

[Satire against Wolsey.] 1546.

Collation: A—H in eights, the last leaf blank. On H 7 recto is the following colophon: Prynted at Wesell in the yeare of our Lorde 1546 in the last of June. By Henry Nycolson. Dedicated in an epistle of some length by L. B. to all them that love God's Word; which is succeeded by "The Authoure of the booke," a dialogue in verse between the two. This edition of Roy is quite as rare as the first.

ROYALIST.

The Libertie of the Imprisoned Royalist. No place, printer's name, or date [London, 1647]. 4<sup>o</sup>, 4 leaves. In verse. Br. Museum.

This tract contains a short series of poems, of which the authorship is unknown, except that the one which is named above, and which forms a headline on sign. A, there being no regular title-page, bears every mark of having either proceeded from the pen of Lovelace himself, or of being an imitation by another hand of his celebrated ode to Althea.

The Royalists Address lately presented to the Honorable Committee of Parliament chosen to consider their Condition. London, Printed by Tho. Newcomb. 1662. 4<sup>o</sup>, 4 leaves.

ROYAUMONT, SIEUR DE.

The History of the Old and New Testament, extracted out of Sacred Scripture and Writings of the Fathers; for the Government of our Actions in all Conditions. Illustrated with Sculptures; Aptly and accurately delineated by good Artists. . . . Translated from the Works of the Learned, Le Sieur de Royaumont, by Mr John Coughen and Mr Joseph Raynor, Masters of Art; and supervised by Dr Horneck and other Orthodox Divines. . . . London, Printed for and Sold by Richard Blome. . . . 1691. 8<sup>o</sup>. Frontispiece, printed title, &c. 5 leaves: A—Dd 4 in eights. With plates and maps, of which there is a list.

Dedicated by Blome to Jeffrey Jeffreys Esq. of Llywell, Co. Brecon. The plates were presented to the work by a variety of persons, each one having its separate donor. They are by different artists, Kip, Vander-guht, &c., and of unequal merit. The New Testament has a fresh title and frontispiece, the former also dated 1691.

ROYDON, MATTHEW.

The first piece in the Phoenix Nest is "an Elegie or Friends Passion for his Astrophell" [Sir P. Sydney], attributed to M. Roydon, and reprinted with Spenser's Colin Clout, 1595.

RUFUS, RUTILIUS.

A View of Valyaunce. Describing the famous feates and Martiall exploits of two most mightie nations, the Rômaines and the Carthaginians, for the conquest and possession of Spayne. Translated out of the auncient Recorde of Antiquitie, written by Rutilius Rufus, a Romaine Gentleman, and a Captaine of charge vnder Scipio, in the same warres. The running title is Godly Prayers, which is also the headline on A 2.

RUMP.

Rump : Or an Exact Collection of the Choycest Poems and Songs Relating to the Late Times. By the most Eminent Wits, from Anno 1639 to Anno 1661. London, Printed for Henry Brome at the Gun in Ivy-Lane, and Henry Marsh at the Princes Armes in Chancery-lane. 1662. 8°. A, 4 leaves : B—Oo 4 in eights. With an engraved title-page and a frontispiece, the latter having full-length portraits of the Puritan and the Covenanter.

This is a very important and interesting volume, containing reprints of a large number of the fugitive pieces circulated during, and immediately after, the Civil Wars, and down to the period of publication. Some of these have not been recovered in their original broadside shape ; others were perhaps never printed so. There is an edition of the Rump songs and poems in 1731, 2 vols. 12°.

A Conference between the Ghost of the Rump and Tom Tell-Troth. Together with her sad Complaint of that dismal and total Eclipse that is like to fall out on the 20th April, 1660. [Col.] Imprinted at London in Fletestrete at the signe of the Sunne ouer agaynst the Conduit by John Waylande. Cum privilegio per septenium. [1555.] 8<sup>o</sup>, black letter, A - F in eights, the last three pages occupied by the Queen's Letters patents to Wayland for the exclusive privilege of printing certain books.

It has lately appeared to the present writer that it is not an improbable thing that the JOHN ELDER, who subscribes this letter to the Right Reverend Robert Stuard, Bishop of Cathenes, and Priest of Dunbrin Colledge in Scotland, was the same person who, under the Latin form of his name, published in 1521 a History of Britain. The proface to the letter is dated from the Parisian Gymnasium, and the volume may have been a youthful production. (Major.)

Just towards the conclusion of this tract, Elder remarks: "I haue also sent your lordship certaine verses and adages written with the hande of the Lorde Henry Stuarde lorde Dernley, your nephew, which he wrot this tyme tweluemonth: I bingee with him then at Temple Newsome in Yorkshire." Elder at the same time praises Darnley's proficiency in his studies, and in Latin and French, and speaks of his (Darnley's) parents as having been his own patrons.

SHAKESPEARE, WILLIAM.

Comedies, Histories. . . . 1623.

There are three copies in the British Museum of this common and absurdly over-estimated volume. Nasmyth, February 27, 1874, no verses, but otherwise extremely fine, £154.

Lucrece. . . . 1594.

The copy sold among Sir W. Tite's books was obtained, as Mr J. O. Phillips informs me, by Tite in the country in a volume of law tracts.

Venus and Adonis, 1599.

The copy of this poem in the Bodleian, dated 1600 in the Catalogue, belongs neither to the edition of 1599 nor to that of 1602, nor does any edition of 1600 appear to be known. The title of this copy is in MS.

Venus and Adonis. . . . 1602.

The copy in the British Museum is said to be printed on a better paper than the Malone copy, from which it appears to differ also in one or two typographical minutiae.

Loves labors lost. . . . 1598.

Dent, 1827, part 2, No 1025, £36.

The History of Henrie the Fovrth. . . . 1599.

A copy is in the Hunterian Museum, Glasgow.

The Second part of Henrie the fourth. . . . 1600.

Licensed, August 23, 1600. There were two editions the same year; both are in Ashbee's series.

Merry Wives of Windsor. . . . 1602.

Assigned by John Busby to Arthur Johnson in 1601-2.

King Lear. . . . 1608.

Licensed to Nathaniel Butter, 26 Nov. 1607.

Anthony and Cleopatra.

Although no quarto is at present known, and was probably never printed, the book was licensed separately May 20, 1608.

Troilus and Cressid. . . . 1609.

Licensed to Richard Bonian and H. Wally, January 23, 1608-9.

Pericles. . . . 1609.

This play was entered at Stationers' Hall by Edward Blount, May 20, 1608, and probably transferred by him to Gosson, though there appears to be no record of the transaction. Mr F. Locker tells me that, after a careful perusal of this piece, he is persuaded that it was partly written by Fletcher, but that Shakespeare certainly had a hand in it.

Othello. . . . 1622.

Gilchrist, 1824, No. 1065, £19. 10s. Dent, 1827, part 2, No. 1026, £22.

SHEPHERDS.

The compot and Kalendayr of Shyppars. [Paris, 1503?] Folio, black letter, with beautiful woodcuts.

In the library at Althorp is a copy of this edition, as it appears, unfortunately deficient of the title-page, a 8, 2 leaves in g, sign. h, m 1-2, and all after m 6. Sign. m is wrongly placed between g and i. There is not much wanting at the end.

Here begynneth the Kalender of Shep-ardes. [This title is over a large woodcut. London, Julian Notary.] Folio, black letter, with many cuts.

The copy before me, formerly Sir F. Freeling's and Corser's, ends imperfectly on M 7. It collates regularly in eights. Of the cuts many are found in other books, applied to a variety of purposes. The copy is probably the same as that described by Dibdin, who gives some of the cuts.

Here begynneth the Kalender of Shepherdes. [This is the whole of the title over a woodcut occupying the rest of the page, another being on the back of the leaf.] Here endeth the kalender of shepardys / drawn out of Frenche in to Englysshe in the honowre of Jhesu cryste and his blessyd mother Mary and all the sayntes of heuen Imprynted at London in flete strete at the sygne of the George by Rycharde Pynson the dat of oure lorde a. m. ccccc. and .vj. Folio, black letter. With woodcuts. A—O in sixes.

Br. Museum (Grenville) and Althorp.

Both these copies are imperfect ; the Museum copy is very poor, and wants signatures B—C, 7 leaves in I—K, and N 6. See Bibl. Heber, part 2, No. 3316, where this very copy is described. It is there said to want 20 leaves, and sold for 25s.

Here begynneth the kalender of Shepherdes. Newly augmented and corrected. [Col.] Imprinted at London in Fletestrete at the sygne of the George next to Saynt Dunstones Church by Wylliam Powell, for John Walley. Anno Donini. M.D.LIX. Folio, black letter, large woodcut on title, and others through the book, A—N in eights. Corpus Christi College Cambridge (the only copy known).

This is the copy mentioned by Nasmyth and Herbert, but not fully described by either.

SIDNEY, SIR PHILIP.

The Covntesse of Pembroke's Arcadia. . . . 1590.

See Harvey's Pierces Supererogation, 1593, repr. Collier, p. 54. Sotheran, 1871, very fine, £31. 10s.

The Covntesse of Pembrokes Arcadia. . . Now the Fovrth [sixth] time published, with some new Additions. London Imprinted by H. L. for Simon Waterson. 1613. Folio. Title and dedication, 2 leaves: A—Bbb in sixes.

The unpagged leaves in Mr Huth's copy between 332-3, being an addition to the narrative by Sir W. Alexander, appear to have been inserted from a different and later edition. They do not remedy the seeming hiatus in the text and sense occasioned by the catchword Thus at the bottom of p. 332, with nothing to answer to it on p. 333; but from the note at the top of 333 it is to be collected that the original MS. was at fault here, and required a certain amount of editorial assistance. The catchword in the folio of 1605 is correct, and therefore Thus may be a mere misprint.

The Covntesse of Pembrokes Arcadia. . . . Now the sixth time published, with some new Additions. Also a supplement of a defect. . . . London, Printed by W. S. for Simon Waterson. 1627. Folio. Title, dedication, and to the Reader, 3 leaves: A—Fff in sixes.

The Countesse of Pembrokes Arcadia. Written by Sir Philip Sidney Knight. Now the eighth time published, with some new Additions. With the Supplement of a Defect in the third part of the History by Sir W. A. Knight. Whereunto is now added a sixth Booke, by R. B. of Lincolnes Inne Esq. London, Printed for Simon Waterson and R. Young, Anno 1633. Folio. Title, dedication, and to the Reader, 3 leaves: A—Fff in sixes.

The Covntesse of Pembrokes Arcadia, &c. Now the ninth time published, with a twofold supplement of a defect in the third Book : the one by S<sup>r</sup>. W. A. Knight ; the other, by Mr Jo. Johnstone Scotobrit. dedicated to K. James, &c. London, Printed for J. Waterson and R. Young. 1638. Folio. Title (with blank before it), &c. 4 leaves : A—Fff in sixes : aa—bb 4 in sixes.

The Countess of Pembrokes Arcadia Written by S<sup>r</sup>. Philip Sidney Knight. The tenth Edition. With his Life and Death : a brief Table of the principal heads, and som other new Additions. Collation : A, 5 leaves (including print) : b—d in fours : B—Iii in sixes, and a leaf of Kkk. This edition has the two continuations, as well as the Poems and the Apology for Poetry.

The Countess of Pembrokes Arcadia written by Sir Philip Sidney Knight. The eleventh Edition. With his life and Death, a brief Table of the principal Heads, and som other new Additions. London, Printed by Henry Lloyd for William Du-Gard : and are to be sold by George Calvert, &c. MDCLXII. Folio. A, 4 leaves : b—d in fours : B—Iii in sixes, and a leaf of Kkk. With a portrait.

The Countess of Pembrokes Arcadia written by Sir Philip Sidney Knight. The Thirteenth Edition. With his Life and Death : a brief Table of the principal Heads, and some other new Additions. London, Printed for George Calvert, at the Golden - Ball in Little - Britain. MDCLXXIV. Folio. A, 4 leaves : b—d in fours : B—Iii in sixes, and a leaf of Kkk. With the same portrait.

This includes the additions of Beling and Johnston.

Apology for Poetry, 1595.

This tract was written between December 1579, and November 1585. Prefixed are "Four Sonets written by Henrie Constable to Sir Phillip Sidneyes Soule." These are reprinted in Constable's Works, 80, 1859.

The Psalmes of David metaphrased into verse by the noble learned & famous gent. S<sup>r</sup>. Philip Sidney Knight. [Circá 1610.] 4<sup>o</sup>, 162 leaves.

A MS. on paper, plainly and beautifully written in the earlier part of the reign of James I. It varies from the text of 1823, which was printed from a copy in the handwriting of John Davies of Hereford. Corser, 1870, part 5, No. 556.

The Works of the Honourable S<sup>r</sup>. Philip Sidney, K<sup>t</sup>. In Prose and Verses. In Three Volumes. Containing,

- I. The Countess of Pembroke's Arcadia.
- II. The Defence of Poesy.
- III. Astrophel and Stella.
- IV. The Remedy of Love, Sonnets, &c.
- V. The Lady of May. A masque.
- VI. The Life of the Author.

[Quot. from Spenser.] The Fourteenth Edition. London M.DCC.XXV.—XXIV. 8<sup>o</sup>. With a portrait by Vertue, and plates, the number of which varies in copies.

Collation : Vol. I., title, portrait, and dedication by the Editor to the Earl of Leicester, 4 leaves : Life of Sidney, &c. A—B in eights : another title to Vol. I., and Sidney's dedication to his sister of the Arcadia, 3 leaves : frontispiece to Book I., 1 leaf : then B—Ee 2 in eights, including frontispiece to Book II. Vol. II., B—Hh in eights, and the title, but 9 leaves in Hh. Vol. III., First title and Explanation of Characters, 2 leaves : The Sixth Book of the Arcadia, by R. Beling, A—D in eights, including title page : Poetical Works, B—N in eights, including title-page.

This is the only octavo edition of the collected works of Sidney, and though the text is modernised is in some request. There was a reprint of it at Dublin the same year, in three volumes duodecimo.

SLATER, SAMUEL.

Poems in two Parts. First, An Interlocutory Discourse concerning the Creation, Fall, and Recovery of Man. Secondly, A Dialogue between Faith and a doubting Soul. By Samuel Slater. Licensed, March 26th 1679. London: Printed for Tho. Cockeril at the Three Legs in the Poultry, 1679. Sm. 8<sup>o</sup>, A—H in eights, the Dialogue with a new half-title.

In the preface the author seems to intimate that a perusal of Milton's Paradise Lost, with which he was "much taken," led to his attempt at a poem touching the same ground. The Dialogue at the end was written first, and had been intended for publication by itself.

SLATYER, WILLIAM.

SMITH, WALTER.

The Wydow Edyth. . . . 1525.

It should be pointed out, perhaps, that the description given by Ames, who is implicitly followed by his editors here, is inexact.

XII. mery Iests of the wyddow Edyth. 1573.

The copy which Mr Huth has come from Helmingham Hall, Suffolk, the seat of the Tollemaches, with the Ballads. The little lot was obtained by G. Daniel of Mr Fitch, a chemist at Ipswich, whose wife (it is said) had been housekeeper at the Hall.

SMITH, WILLIAM.

Chloris. . . . 1596.

The copy which Mr Huth has belonged to Narcissus Luttrell and T. Park, and has some MSS. notes by the latter. It was formerly in a volume of tracts. See Mr Huth's Catalogue in v. There is only one poem by Smith in Englands Helicon, 1600; it is taken from Chloris.

[1644.] And now republisht to satisfie tender Consciencs in the Grounds upon which the late thorough Reformation proceeded. . . . London, Re-Printed by T. B. . . . 1684. 4<sup>o</sup>, a—f 2 in fours, besides two leaves marked A after the title with the dedication by John Turner to Sir George Jefferies : B—E in fours.

The long preface is subscribed also with Turner's initials. He was, no doubt, the Editor.

SOLIMON AND PERSEDA.

There is little doubt that this drama should be given to Kyd. On the title-page of the copy which Dr Bliss had occur the words, "Newly corrected and amended," upon which Bliss writes: "I have compared this copy of Solimon & Perseda with that of the same date in Mr Malone's Collection. I find that it agrees in every particular, except that in this TITLE the play is said to have been 'Newly corrected and amended,' when, in fact, there are no corrections whatever; the title alone constitutes the second Edition, and I even doubt if the type was reset for the title."

SOLME, THOMAS.

Here begynnyth a traetyes callyde the Lordis flayle handlyde by the Bushops powre thresshere Thomas Solme. [This title is within a pretty border of foreign workmanship.] At the end : Printyde at Basyll by me Theophyll Emlos vndere the sygne of sente Peters kay. 12<sup>o</sup>, black letter, E in eights. #### SONGS.

Ane Cōpendious buik of gollie Psalmes. . . . 1578.

See Mr Laing's Preface to the edition of 1868. Mr Corser's copies of edits. 1600 and 1621 are now in the British Museum.

A most excellent Song of the love of young Palmus and faire Sheldra, with their unfortunate love. To the Tune of Shackley-hay. Printed at London for I[ohn] W[hitte.] In two parts. A broadside. Roeb. Coll.

This ballad was licensed 16th March, 1612-13 to Mistress White, wife of Edward White Sen. The present, which is the oldest known impression, appears to be a reprint of Mistress White's, if she really issued the piece.

A Song or Story for the Lasting Remembrance of Diuers famous works, which God hath done in our time. With an Addition of certaine other Verses (both Latine and English) to the same purpose. [Quot. from the Psalms.] London, Printed by R. Young for I. Bartlet, at the Golden Cup in Cheape-side. 1626. 4°, G in fours. In verse.

The Paynims Songs. No place, printer's name, or date [July 8, 1654]. 4°, 4 leaves. Br. Museum.

This metrical trifle contains only the first Canto, probably all that appeared.

Mock Songs and Joking Poems, all Novel; Consisting of Mocks to several late Songs about the Town. With other New Songs and Ingenious Poems much in use at Court, and both Theaters. Never before Printed. By the Author of Westminster Drollery. London, Printed for William Birch, at the Peacock in the Poultry, near Old Jury. 1675. 8°, K in eights, last leaf blank.

A Collection of Thirty One Songs Written by Several Hands. And set by several Masters of Musick. With the Tunes Engraven on Copper Plates, with great Care. Most of them within the Compass of a Flute. London, Printed by F. Leach for Charles Corbet, and published by W. Davis, in Amen Corner, &c. 1685. Price One Shilling. 4°, 16 leaves.

Spiritual Songs; Or, Songs of Praise to Almighty God, &c. The Seventh Edition Corrected. With an Addition of a Sacred Poem on Dives and Lazarus. London. Printed for Tho. Parkhurst, &c. 1701. 8°. A, 2 leaves. B—K 2 in eights: The Penitential Cries, with a new title, A—C in eights.

Sonets des Grands Exploicts Victorieux de havlt et pviissant Seignevr Mavrice Prince d'Orange. . . . Sur la Fin sont adionstez certains Poemes Latin & François de la defaictie miraculeuse de l'Armade navale (escrièe invincible) . . . et joints quelques Sonet Particuliers par I. F. L. P. G. D. B. Anno 1598. 4°, L in eights, last leaf occupied by the Errata.

Sir J. Simeon, Sotheby's, March 10, 1871, No. 2341.

SOOTHERNE, JOHN.

Pandora. . . . 1584.

King and Lochees, Dec. 30, 1807, £12, 12s., bought by Mr Heber; resold Heber, part 4, No. 2609, £12. See in that Catalogue a long and curious note about the book which, according to Mr Heber (a very excellent judge), is of very small intrinsic value. A copy wanting the title appears to be in the Capel Collection.

SOPHOCLES.

Electra of Sophocles: Presented to Her Highness the Lady Elizabeth; With an Epilogue, Shewing the Parallell in two Poems, The Retvrvn and The Restavration. By C[hristopher] W[ase]. At the Hague, for Sam. Brown, MDCXLIX. 8°. ¶, 8 leaves: A, 4 leaves: B—F 4 in eights. With portraits of the Lady Elizabeth and Prince Charles.

Without the print, this volume, which is merely an adaptatioo of the Electra, is of no value. Of the portrait of Charles I have seen two distinct impressions: the one usually found in the book, with the printed inscription merely, Ætatis suæ 19, the other, a very superior print, with an engraved description: [Natus May 29 Anº 1630 Ætatis suæ [19.]] What is between brackets was lost in the only copy I have seen.

SOROCOLD, THOMAS.

Supplications of Saints. A Book of Prayers and Praises. . . . The 38 Edition Corrected and Enlarged. London: Printed for Peter Parker, &c. 1693. 12°, with a frontispiece. A—H in twelves, but sign. D (with pp. 57-76) omitted.

SOUL.

The Sovles Preparation for Christ: Being a Treatise of Contrition. Wherein is discovered how God breakes the Heart, and wounds the Soule, in the conversion of a Sinner to Himselfe. [Quot. from Psalm 51, 17.] Printed (for the use and benefit of the English Churches) in the Netherlands. Anno 1639. 8°. A, 3 leaves: A (repeated)—T in sixes. Emm. Coll. Camb.

SOUTH, ROBERT.

Musica Incantans, Sive Poema Expri-mens Musica Vires, Juvenem in Insaniam adigentis, et Musici inde Periculum. Au-thore Roberto South Art. Bac. Ex Æde Christi. Oxonii, Typis W. H. Impensis G. West, Anno Dom. 1667. 4<sup>o</sup>, 11 leaves.

SOUTHWARK.

An Impartial Account of the late Discovery of the Persons taken with Fire-Balls in Southwark. And the Circumstances attending what materially happened during their being in Custody. . . . London, Printed for J. C. 1688. A folio sheet.

SOUTHWELL, ROBERT.

A Supplication to Queen Elizabeth, 1593.

Mr Grosart supposes this to belong to the poet's father. See his edition of Southwell, p. lvi., where in general will be found much printed for the first time or in a better text from MSS. at Stonyhurst.

An Epistle of Comfort to the Reverend Priestes & to the Honorable, Worshipful, & other of the Laye sort restrayned in Durance for the Catholicke Fayth. [Quotation from Matth. 11, &c.] Imprinted at Paris. [1593.] 8<sup>o</sup>, roman letter. A—Z in eights : &, 8 leaves : Aa—Cc in eights.

It appears, from the notice to the Reader prefixed to this very rare prose publication, which appears to have been Southwell's first appearance in print, that the work was not intended for general circulation, but was written for a particular friend. The circumstances of the time, however, and the importunity of several persons, led to a change of purpose.

Saint Peters Complaint, Newly augmented with other Poems. London. Printed by H. L. for William Leake, and are to be sold at his shop in Paules Church-yard at the signe of the holy Ghost. [Circa 1605.] 4<sup>o</sup>, in fours, with the title within a broad engraved border.

This is an imperfect copy of an undescribed edition, varying much from that republished by Mr Grosart, with the same imprint, and also undated. This contains three poems, apparently wanting in the other impression, namely, "the nativite of Christ," "Christ's Childhood," and "Joseph's Amazement;" but as two or three leaves are deficient in various parts, there may have been others. The orthography and language differ frequently from the text supplied by Mr Grosart. In that gentleman's edition the three pieces just referred to are inserted among the Maconie, a collection originally printed in 1595.

The edition now noticed should contain probably, in a complete state, A—M 2 in fours, or 46 leaves; but the present copy wants a leaf in F, one in L, and M 2.

3. Peters Complaint. [Doway.] M.DC.XVI. 3<sup>o</sup>.

In this and the other Doway edition of 1620 some of the poems are inserted under different titles. Thus the verses called elsewhere "Of the blessed Sacrament of the Aulter" are here called "The Christians Manna."

See Harvey's Pierces Supererogation, 1593, repr. Collier, p. 135, and Fry's Bibliogr. Memor. 1816, p. 352, 356.

A foure-fold Meditation of the foure last things :

viz. 1.	} of the	{	Hour of Death
2.			Day of Judgement.
3.			Paines of Hell
4.			Joyes of Heaven.

Showing the estate of the Elect and Reprobate. Composed in a Divine Poeme. By R. S. The author of S. Peters Complaint. Imprinted at London by G. Eld for Francis Burton. 1606. 4<sup>o</sup>. Sir C. Isham (a fragment).

A poem in 6-line stanzas.

Marie Magdalens funeral Teares. [Quotation from Jeremiah.] At London: Printed for William Leake dwelling in Paules Church-yard at the signe of the holy Ghost. 1609. 4<sup>o</sup>, M in fours, last leaf blank.

The title to this edition is within an elegant border of figures, &c. at the sides, with common blocks at top and bottom. Over the imprint is Leake's somewhat profane device of the Holy Ghost.

SPACKMAN, THOMAS, Doctor of Physic.

Dedicated to Sir Robert Wroth.

SPAIN.

The Copie of a Letter sent ovt of England to Don Bernardin Mendoza Ambassadovr in France for the King of Spaine, declaring the state of England, contrary to the opinion of Don Bernardin, and of all his partizans, Spaniards and others. This Letter, although it was sent to Don Bernardin Mendoza, yet by good hap Copies therof, aswell in English as in French, were found in the chambers of one Richard Leigh, a Seminarie Priest, who was lately executed for high treason committed in the time that the Spanish Armada was on the seas. Whereunto are adioyned certaine late Aduertisements, [out of Ireland,] concerning the losses and distresses happened to the Spanish Nauies aswell in fight with the English Nauie in the narrow Seas of England, as also by tempests, and contrarie winds, vpon the West and North coasts of Ireland, in their returne from the Northerne Isles beyond Scotland. Imprinted at London by T. Vautrollier for Richard Field. 1588. 4<sup>o</sup>, black letter, f 2 in fours : the Advertisements (with a new title), A—C 2 in fours.

Ventura. 1593. 4°. A, 2 leaves : B—G in fours : H—I, 2 leaves each : K—L in fours, last leaf blank : also the title and dedication to Sign. Marcantonio Martinengo, 2 leaves.

This tract, which is a translation, appears to form part of a volume, to which it is annexed in the copy before me, and entitled : "Raccolta d'Alevene Scrittvre Publicate in Francia nel principio degli vltimi Moti di quel Regno. All' Illustriss. Sig. Marc Antonio Martinengo, Conte di Villachiarà." Bergamo, 1593. 4°.

The Spaniards Perpetvall Designes to an Vniuersall Monarchie. Translated according to the French. Printed 1624. 4°, 7 leaves.

This is a translation of the French tract, of which a copy is in the Grenville Collection, and which was also printed without place and printer's name, 4°, 1624.

A Second Part of Spanish Practises. Or A Relation of more Particular Wicked plots, and cruell, inhumane, perfidious, and vnnatural practises of the Spaniards. With more Excellent reasons of greater consequence, deliuered to the Kings Maiesy to dissolve the two treaties both of the March and the Pallatinate, and enter into Warre with the Spaniards. Herevnto is adioyned A Worthy Oration appropriated vnto the most Mighty and Illustrious Princes of Christendome, wherein the right and lawfulness of the Netherlandish warre against Phillip King of Spayne is approved and demonstrated. [By Thomas Wood.] Printed. M.DC.XXIV. 4°.

The copy here used seems to be imperfect. "Written by Tho. Wood," is in a contemporary hand on the title.

A True Relation of a Brave English Stratagem, Practised lately vpon a Sea Towne in Galicia (one of the Kingdomes in Spaine) and most valiantly and successfully performed by one English Ship alone of 30. Tonne, with no more than 35 Men in her. As also, with two other remarkable Accidents betwene the English and Spaniards, to the Glory of our Nation. Printed for Mercurius Britannicus. 1626. 4°, 8 leaves.

A Journey into Spain. [Quot. from Seneca de Vita Beata.] London, Printed for Henry Herringman, and are to be sold at the Sign of the Blew Anchor, &c. 1670. 8°. A, 4 leaves : B—R 4 in eights.

This seems to be an original narrative; the author's name does not appear.

SPARE YOUR GOOD.

Spare yo[ur Good.] [? W. de Worde.] 4°, black letter. Two mutilated pages (including the title in a ribbon). Bodleian (Selden).

This appears to be of a different impression from the large fragment reprinted in Censura Literaria, as the title says nothing about Syrs before Spare. The text of the poem commences on the verso of the title-leaf. The present bit is bound up with Kytson's edition.

Spa[re your good.] 4<sup>o</sup>, black letter. Bodleian.

This is a second fragment, being the title-leaf of a different impression of the poem; it is also bound up with the Selden copy. Both fragments were originally fly-leaves to one of Bishop Tanner's volumes.

SPARKE, EDWARD.

SPARKE, THOMAS.

A Brief and short Catechisme necessarise for all them that would be Christians in deed, to be able to vnderstand & to answer vnto. Printed by Ralph Newberie. 8<sup>o</sup>. A—H in eights, two last leaves blank. Br. Museum.

A Sermon Preached at Cheanies at the Byriall of the right honorable the Earle of Bedford, the 14. of September. 1585. By Thomas Sparke, Doctor in Diuinitie. [Beneath this title is a large cut representing in the upper part a corpse in a Shroud, and below a skull and cross-bones.] Imprinted at London. 1585. 8<sup>o</sup>, black letter, excepting the preliminary matter, G in eights.

This appears to be the original edition (unknown to Herbert and Lowndes) of the funeral oration over a nobleman, who is known as the patron of some of the literary men of his day, Gascoigne, Whetstone, &c. From the absence of a printer's name, it may be almost conjectured that it was intended in the present impression for private circulation.

SPEED, JOHN.

Dedicated to the King. Accompanying this tract is a folding leaf, entitled: "The Figure of the Plot;" and in the copy before me is inserted the original proclamation of James I., dated from Andover, August 1, 1611, recommending the book and its author to the nobility and gentry, and granting Standish exclusively the advantages arising from the publication. Attached to the volume are two 6-line stanzas in commendation of the work and writer by Henry Peacham [the younger?]

New Directions of Experience to the Commons Complaint by the encouragement of the Kings most excellent Maiesty, as may appeare, for the planting of Timber and Fire-wood. With a nere Estimation what Millions of Acres the Kingdome doth containe, what Acres is waste ground, whereon little profit for this purpose will arise. . . . Invented by Arthur Standish. Anno Domini, MDCXIII. 4<sup>o</sup>. A—D 2 in fours; E, 4 leaves, and a leaf of F.

Following the title, and marked A 2, is the King's privilege to Standish, originally printed on a sheet.

The author states in the dedication that, at the request of the printer and others, he had brought his work into a new form, but Stow had already published in 1566 an abridged version of his Collections.

Herbert (p. 502 note) is in error with respect to this dedication, for it makes no mention whatever of the time (i.e., 2 years), when Stow began his labours as an antiquary.

SUCKLING, SIR JOHN.

Fragmenta Avrea. A Collection of all the Incomparable Peeeces. . . . London, Printed for Humphrey Moseley. . . . 1648. 8°. Portrait by W. Marshall, as in the edit. of 1646, 1 leaf ; first title and Preface, 2 leaves : the Poems, with a separate title, A—H 4 in eights, the Letters and Account of Religion having separate titles : Aglaura, with a new title, A—F 4 in eights, including the variations between the play as presented at the two houses : The Goblins, with a new title, A—D in eights : Brennorall, with a new title, A—D in eights.

Fragmenta Avrea : A Collection of all the Incomparable Peices, written by Sir John Svckling. And Published by a Friend to perpetuate his Memory. The Third Edition, with some New Additionals. Printed by his own Copies. London : Printed for Humphrey Moseley at the Prince's Armes in St. Paul's Churchyard. 1658. 8°, A—X in eights : the Appendix, A—G in eights. With the same print.

Dedicated to Lady Southeot, the poet's sister. This edition contains a variety of poems, with the Tragedy of the Sad One (left by the author unfinished), not in those of 1646 and 1648. The Sad One is introduced by an Address from the publisher to the Reader. The Additionals have a separate title dated 1659.

Fragmenta Avrea : . . . London, Printed for Humphrey Moseley. . . . 1658. 8°.

The copy here used ends on K, and wants the Additionals named on the title-page. It has an anonymous portrait, very like Marshall's, with Stanley's verses beneath it. This appears to be a spurious, or at least a surreptitious, impression. The copy in the British Museum wants the print.

The Works of Sir John Suckling, Containing all his Poems, Love-Verses, Songs, Letters, and his Tragedies and Comedies. Never before Printed in One volume. London, Printed for H. H. and sold by R. Bentley in Covent-Garden, J. Taylor in Fleet-street, T. Bennet in St. Paul's Church-yard, and F. Saunders in the New-Exchange. 1696. 8°, B—Dd 2 in eights, and the general title-page.

With separate titles to the various pieces dated 1694, and a portrait after Marshall.

The Works of Sir John Suckling. . . . London, Printed for Jacob Tonson. . . . MDCCLX. 8°. A, 4 leaves : B—Bb 4 in eights. With a portrait by Vandergucht.

The Works of Sir John Suckling. Containing his Poems, Letters, and Plays. London : Printed for Jacob Tonson. . . . 1719. 8°. Title and Preface, 10 leaves : pp. 420. With a portrait after Marshall by Vandergucht.

Aglaura. London, Printed by John Haviland for Thomas Walkley, and are to be sold at his shop, &c. 1638. Folio, A—O, 2 leaves each, last leaf blank.

A Copy of a Letter found in the Privy Lodgings at White-Hall. Printed in the year. 1641. 4°, A—B in fours, first leaf blank. In prose.

This is a fuller text of the letter printed in the Fragmenta. Reprinted in Hazlitt's edition.

The Svcklington Faction; Or (Svcklings) Roaring Boyes. Printed in the yeare, MDC.XLI. A large folio broadside in prose, having in the centre a very curious copper-plate engraving, which represents two cavaliers carousing. Br. Museum.

In Hazlitt's edition of Suckling, Appendix, where the print is copied.

Newes from Sir John Sucklin. Being a Relation of his Conversion from a Papist to a Protestant. Also, what Torments he endured by those of the Inquisition in Spaine, and how the Lord Lekeux his Accuser was stricken dumbe, hee going to have the Sentence of Death passe upon him. Sent in a Letter to the Lord Conway, now being in Ireland. Printed for M. Rookes, and are to be sold in Grubstreet, 1641. 4<sup>o</sup>, 4 leaves. In prose. Br. Museum.

Reprinted in the Appendix to Hazlitt's edition of Suckling; but it is a mere fabrication, emanating probably from the Puritans.

A Letter sent from Sir Iohn Suckling from France, deploring his sad estate and flight: With a discoverie of the plot and conspiracie, intended by him and his adherents against England. Imprinted at London. 1641. 4<sup>o</sup>, 4 leaves. In verse.

Two editions the same year, differing only, it seems, in the arrangement of the lines of the title. Attributed to William Norris.

An Elegie vpon the Death of the Renowned Sir Iohn Svtlin. Printed in the Year, 1642. 4<sup>o</sup>, 4 leaves. Br. Museum.

This, and all the other tracts relating to Suckling, are reprinted in the Appendix to Hazlitt's edition, 1874. 2 vols. 12<sup>o</sup>.

SYLVESTER, JOSHUA.

Monodia. . . . 1594.

The peculiarity pointed out in a former note to this article occurred in the Bright and Cosser copy now in the British Museum, and the only one known.

Lachrimæ Lachrimarum or The Distillation of Teares Shede For the vntymely Death of The incomparable Prince Panaretvs. by Iosuah Syluester. [Col.] London, Printed by Humfrey Lownes. 1612. 4<sup>o</sup>, 16 leaves.

Printed on one side of the page only; the title is on a black ground in white letters. On C occurs: "The Princes Epitaph written by His High. seruant, Walter Qvin," which is followed by poems in Latin, French, and Italian from the same pen. The copy here described seems to be large paper.

Lachrymae Lachrymarū or The Spirit of Teares Distilled for the vn-tymely Death of the incomparable Prince Panaretvs. by Iosuah Syluester. The third Edition, with Addition of His Owne. [Col.] London, Printed by Humfrey Lownes. 1613. 4<sup>o</sup>, A—I in fours, sign. D repeated.

On sign. D 2 (rep.) occurs a fresh title: Six Funeral Elegies, On the Vntimely Death of the most excellent Prince Henry, Late Prince of Wales. Composed by seuerall Authvors. No place or printer's name. 1613. On H is a third title: An Elegie & Epistle Consolatorie against Immoderate Sorrow for th' immature Decease of Sr. William Sidney Knight, Sonne and Heire apparant to the Right Honorable Robert, Lord Sidney, L. Vi-Count Lisle; L. Chamberlain to the Queen & L. Governour of His Maiesties Cautionarie Towne of Vlvsing. 1613.

To some copies of Sylvester's minor poems are annexed the following additional poems with irregular signatures and paging.

Tobacco Battered; & The Pipes Shattered (about their Eares that idly Idolize so base & barbarous a Weed; Or at leastwise ouer-loue so loathsome Vanitie;) By A Volley of Holy Shot thundered from Mount Helicon. 22 leaves, the last blank.

Avto-machia; Or The Self-Conflict of a Christian from the Latin of Mr George Goodwin, Translated & Dedicated to the Honorable (late) La. Mary Nevil. By Iosvah Sylvester. 8 leaves.

Dedicated to Mistress Cecilia Nevil.

TAMING OF A SHREW.

Taming of a Shrew, The . . . 1594.

See the Catalogue of a Collection of the Rarest Old Plays, &c., sold by Sotheby, April 12, 1826, No. 109, where the identical copy of the 4<sup>o</sup> of 1594, afterwards Inglis's, Heber's, and the Duke of Devonshire's, occurs.

On the 19th Nov. 1607, N. Ling's interest in this drama was purchased by John Smethwick, who, however, did not reprint it. It has been thought (Dyce's Shakespeare, 1868, iii. 102) that Smethwicke, having become also the proprietor of Shakespeare's play on the subject, was merely desirous of buying up the right to print the older piece, with a view to its republication not interfering with his own book.

TANGIER.

A broadside. Britwell.

Tarltons Newes out of Pvrgratorie. . . . Edward White, n. d. 4<sup>o</sup>.

This work was licensed June 26, 1590, to Thomas Newman and Thomas Gubbin. White's edition may have been a reprint of one published by them, unless they transferred the copyright to him.

Tarlton's Jestes. . . . 1611-38.

Mr Huth says that Mr Halliwell is now of opinion (1874) that there is no edition of 1611, although he formally gave the imprint of such in his Shakespeare Society edition. The work was assigned to John Budge, Feb. 21, 1608-9. Certainly no copy with a title-page dated 1611 has been met with: nor is any perfect copy of the tract known except Malone's, dated 1638. Mr Collier has (or had) a fragment belonging to some other impression.

TELL-TRUTH.

Tell-Trothes New yeares Gift being Robin Good-fellowes newes out of those Countries where inhabites neither Charity nor honesty. With his owne Invective against Ielousy. London Imprinted by Robert Bourne 1593. 4<sup>o</sup>, A—G 2 in fours: the Passionate Morrice, with a new title (here wanting), A, 2 leaves : B—T in fours. In prose and verse. Peterborough Cathedral Library (the only copy known).

This work was licensed to John Oxenbridge and Thomas Adams in 1593 (Herbert's Ames, p. 1369); Dibdin saw the present copy, but describes it very cursorily (Northern Tour, i. 49). The first portion is a discourse on the evils of jealousy and the remedies for them; the second, a description of, and comment on, several couples of lovers, and their wooing, with the mischief arising from mercenary marriages. To the New Year's Gift there are no prefaces, but the second piece has an epistle "To the Gentlewomen and others of England."

Lib. Cambridge.*

Terentii Comœdiæ. . . . 1497.

There is little or no doubt that the copy among the King's books in the Museum is the same which Herbert cites, and which he saw in the possession of Mr G. Mason. Mason's books were sold in 1797, when the Terence was probably bought for the King.

Terence in English. Fabvlæ Comici Facetissimi et Elegantissimi Poetae Terentii. Omnes Anglicæ Factæ. . . Cantabrigiæ ex Officina Iohannis Legat. 1607. 4°, A—Ff in eights.

Flowres for Latine Spekyng selected and gathered oute of Terence, and the same translated in to Englysshe, together with the exposition and settinge forthe as welle of suche latyne wordes, as were thought nedefull to be annotated, as also of dyuers grammatical rules, very profytable & necessarye for the expedite knowlege in the latine tongue: Compiled by Nicolas Vdall. [Col.] Londini in Aedibvs Tho. Bertheleti. M.D.XXXIII. Cvm Privilegio. 8°, black letter.

Title, 1 leaf: Nicolai Vdalli carmen endecasylabum ad libellum suum, Ioannis Lelandi Londinensis decastichon, Edmundi Ionsoni carmen in laudem operis, 1 leaf: Epistola nuncupatoria, dated pridie Calendarum Martias, 1534 [query, 1535], 4 leaves: Tabula, 6 leaves: the work, A—Aa in eights.

Apparently not seen by Herbert. There is a discrepancy between the date of the Epistle and that found in the colophon, for which it is not easy to account, unless the epistle was added after the original issue of the volume.

Flowres for latine speaking selected and gathered out of Terence, and the same translated into englishe together with the exposition and setting forth aswel of such latine words, as wer thought nedefull to be annotated, as also of diuers Grammatical Rules, very profitable and necessarye for the expedite knowledge in the latine tongue: compiled by Nycholas Vdall. Newly corrected and imprinted. Anno. 1568. Imprinted at London in Fletestrete nere to S. Dunstones Church by Thomas Marshe. 8°, black letter, Aa 4 in eights, besides A—B 4 in eights, containing the prefixes. With the verses by Udall himself, John Leland, and Edmund Jonson.

THEODOLUS.

[Col.] Sanctissima explanatio Theodoli finit feliciter. Impensis Iudoci pelgrim & Henrici Iacobi, In hoc opere sociorum. Anno .M.CCCC.VIII. 4°. A—G in sixes, and H in eights.

This tract was attributed in a catalogue of books sold at Sotheby's rooms, June 26, 1869, to the press of W. de Worde; but the type appears to be foreign.

THEODORA.

The Martyrdom of Theodora, and of Didymus. By a Person of Honour. London: Printed by H. Clark, for John Taylor, &c. 1687. 8°. A, 8 leaves: a, 8 leaves: B—Q in eights, last leaf blank.

On the title-page of the copy here used occurs, in a contemporary hand: "Ye Honourable. Boyle sent," appearing to signify that the volume was sent to the owner by the Honourable [Roger] Boyle, afterwards Earl of Orrery.

THERSITES.

Thersites, The Interlude of (1550).

At the conclusion of this play Queen Jane Seymour and Prince Edward are prayed for. The latter had been born on the 12th October, 1537, and his mother died very shortly after. But as Tisdale, the printer of the only copy known at present, appears to have produced nothing prior to 1550, there may have been an earlier edition, or it may have lain by in MS. Thersites was reprinted by Joseph Haslewood for the Roxburghe Club, with Jack Juggler, 4<sup>o</sup>, 1820, and again in Hazlitt's edition of Dodsley.

The copies of the original editions of these two interludes came, with many other extraordinary rarities, from Lee Priory, the seat of Sir Egerton Brydges. They were sold at Sotheby's rooms, April 12, 1826, Nos. 141-2 of sale catalogue.

Coll.* Take Time while Time is. . . . To the Tune of The Ladies Daughter of Paris. London, Printed by M. P. for Henry Gosson. . . . A sheet in two parts, with a cut to each. Roxb. Coll.

TINDALL, HUMPHREY.

Two Prophecies full of Wonder and Admiration. Made by Humphrey Tindall Vicar of Welling, two hundred yeares past: And after his death found in his Study, with his Name subscribed thereunto. And some sixty yeares since copied out by a worthy Gentleman, and ever since kept private. Foretelling many strange accidents which shall befall to this Kingdom. London, Printed for Bern: Alsop, according to Order, 1644. f 4<sup>o</sup>, 4 leaves. With a woodcut head on title.

Wellingley, in the West Riding of York, is probably the place intended here. Compare the Handbook, 1867, p. 608. The separate edition there specified of Tindal's prophecy is reprinted entire in Mr Huth's Fugitive Tracts, 2d series.

TIPPER, ELIZABETH.

The Pilgrim's Viaticum: Or, The Destitute, but not Forlorn. Being a Divine Poem, Digested from Meditations upon the Holy Scripture. [Quot.] London: Printed by J. Wilkins, &c. 1698. 8<sup>o</sup>, L 2 in half-sheets.

Dedicated to Lady Coventry. With some sets of commendatory verses. The writer seems to have been a Wiltshire woman.

TISDALE, ROGER.

The Lawyers Philosophy: Or, Law

brought to Light. Poetized in a Divine Rhapsodie or contemplative Poem. By Roger Tisdale, Gent. Sat. Sero. At London printed for I. T. and H. G. and are to be sold at the Widdow Gossons in Pannier Alley. 1622. 8<sup>o</sup>, A—D 4 in eights, first and last leaves blank. Br. Museum.

Dedicated, in an odd epistle, to the writer's friend John Donne, D.D., Dean of St. Paul's. At the end is a postscript, recommending the perusal of the poem to the author's son Roger. It is a prettily-printed little volume, with woodcut borders at the top and bottom of each page of the text.

TOBACCO.

The Metamorphosis of Tabacco. . . . 1602.

A copy is among the King's books in the Museum. It is reprinted in Sir John Beaumont's Works, ed. Grosart, conjecturally. The dedication runs thus: Ad mare riuali. "To my loving Friend Master Michael Drayton." The Author speaks of the work as "my first-borne rimes." The production possesses considerable merit; but it can scarcely be given as Sir John Beaumont's. A copy wanting the title was sold among Mr George Chalmers's books in 1842. As to the tract on Tobacco, 8s, 1595, see Herbert, p. 1277.

TODD, JAMES, B.D.

[Beneath this is a large cut representing a gentleman (perhaps Lord Warwick) in hawking costume, attended by two other gentlemen, one of whom seems to be the same, who is introduced into the Art of Venerie.] At London, Printed by Thomas Purfoot. An. Dom. 1611. 4<sup>o</sup>. A—Aa 4 in eights, last leaf blank, and prefixes, 4 leaves.

With many cuts, in some of which (asin the Book of Venerie) Gascoigne and another, perhaps Turberville, are introduced, waiting on the King. Turberville has an original poem at the beginning "in commendation of Hawking," and a poetical epilogue, 12 stanzas.

TURBERVILL, EDWARD.

The Information of Edward Turbervill of Skerr in the County of Glamorgan, Gent. Delivered at the Bar of the House of Commons, Tuesday the Ninth day of November, in the Year of our Lord. 1680. . . London, Printed by the Assigns of John Bill. . . . 1680. Folio, A—C, 2 leaves each.

This is a curious piece, relating to the Roman Catholics in Wales. The author says that he was a younger brother, and about 1673 became gentleman-usher to Lady Mary Mollineux, daughter to the Earl of Powis, in which service he acquired the intelligence here disclosed.

TURELL, EBENEZER.

Memoirs of the Life and Death of the Pious and Ingenious Mrs Jane Turell, who died at Medford [N. E.] March 26th 1735. Aet. 27. Anno. 1555. 10 Calen. Martii. Imprinted at Rome by the vaticane church, by Marcus Antonius Constantius. Otherwyse called, thraso miles gloriosus. 8<sup>o</sup>, N in eights, the last leaf blank. Br. Museum.

See Herbert, p. 1581-2.

A new Herball, wherin are conteyned the names of Herbes in Greke, Latin, Englysh, Duch, Frenche, and in the Potecaries and Herbaries Latin, with the properties degrees and naturall places of the same, gathered and made by Wylliam Turner, Phisition vnto the Duke of Somersettes Grace. Imprinted at London by Steven Mierdman. Anno 1551. Cum Priuilegio ad imprimendum solum. And they are to be solde in Paules Churchyarde. This title is within a compartment, having E. R. on either side. Folio.

This title-page (for I have nothing more of it) differs from that given by Herbert, p. 770, who does not profess to have seen the book. However, the present edition, though bearing the original date 1551, would appear from the E. R. to have been printed after 1558. The leaf was probably taken from a copy of an edition reissued about that time, and is inserted in a copy before me of the Cologne edition of 1568.

The seconde parte of Vuilliam Turners Herball / wherein are conteyned the names of herbes in Greke / Latine / Duch / Frenche / and in the Apothecaries Latin / and somtyme in Italiane / with the vertues of the same herbes with diuerse confutations of no small erroours / that men of no small learning haue committed in the intreating of herbes of late yeares. Title, dedication to Sir Thomas Wentworth, Lord Wentworth, and Table, 3 leaves : A—Ff 5 in sixes, the last two leaves having the Errata.

The thirde parte of Vuilliam Turners herball / wherein are contained the herbes / trees / rootes / and fruytes / whereof is no mention made of Dioscorides / Galene / Plinye / and other olde Authores. God saue the Quene. Imprinted at Collen . . . M.D.LXVIII. . . . ; 4 leaves : Aaa—Ggg 5 in sixes.

Dedicated by Turner from Wells, 24 June, 1564, to the Surgeons' Fellowship and Company.

A most excellent and perfecte homish apothecarye or homely physick booke for all the grefes and diseases of the bodye. Translated out of the Almaine speche into English by Jhon hollybush. Imprinted at Collen by Arnold Birckman / In the yeare of our Lord M.D.LXI. a—h 3 in sixes.

The only edition. Collation of Part I. : * , 3 leaves : Table, 1 leaf : Faultes escaped, 2 leaves (this includes the errors in the transcript made from the original MS. for the press) : A—T in sixes, T 5-6 blank. This and the other two parts have a profusion of woodcuts. The three should be found bound up with Turner's Book of Baths and Hollyhush's [Coverdale's?] Homish Apothecary, the latter dated 1561, as above. In the dedication of the 1568 edition of his Herbal to Queen Elizabeth, the author refers to his intended Treatise on British Fishes, of which we know nothing further. See Herbert's Ames, p. 770, and Gen. Hist. of Printing, under 1568.

A Booke of the natures and properties / as well of the bathes in England as of other bathes in Germanye and Italye / very necessarye for all sycke persones that can not be healed without the helpe of

Following the title is the "Preface of the Author vnto his wellbeloued neighbours of hath Bristow / Wellis / Winsam / and Charde," dated 10 March, 1557-8, from Basle.

A Book of the Names and Natures of Fishes.

This is the treatise promised in the Preface or dedication to Turner's Herbal, edit. 1568 ; but it is not otherwise known.

TUSSER, THOMAS.

A Dialogue of wuyunge and thryuynge of Tussers.

This was probably a broadside edition of the Dialogue found in the Book of Husbandry (edit. 1586, fol. 115).

Five hundred pointes of good Husbandrie, as well for the Champion, or open countrie, as also for the woodland, or seuerall, mixed in euerie Month with Huswiferie, ouer and besides the booke of Huswiferie, corrected, better ordered, and newly augmented to a fourth part more, with diuers other lessons, as a diet for the fermer, of the properties of winds, planets, hops, herbes, bees, and approued remedies for sheepe and cattle, with many other matters both profitable and not vnpleasant for the Reader. Also a table of husbandrie in the beginning of this booke : and another of huswiferie at the end : for the better and easier finding of any matter contained in the same. Newly set forth by Thomas Tusser Gentleman, seruant to the Honorable Lorde Paget of Beaudesert. Imprinted at London by Henrie Denham, dwelling in Paternoster Row, at the signe of the Starre. 1580. 4<sup>o</sup>, black letter, A—Aa in fours, first leaf blank.

Five Hundred Points of Good Husbandry. . . . At London, Printed for the Company of Stationers. An. Dom. 1614. 4<sup>o</sup>, chiefly black letter, A— in eights.

The copy here employed ended imperfectly on I 8. A new edition of this valuable book is promised by the Dialect Society.

The date is on the printed title-page.

URANUS AND PSYCHE.

Vranvs and Psyche: A Pastorall : The first Booke. [Circa 1620.] 8<sup>o</sup>, 102 leaves.

An unpublished MS., entirely in verse. The author does not appear, but under the disguise of Coridon dedicates the performance "To the Perfection of Beauty, PHILLIS." The MS. is exquisitely written, and the poetry possesses considerable merit. Corser, 1870, part 5, £30. 10s.

URINES.

The Judycyal of Vryns : Consyderynge that it is expedient for every man to Know the operation and qualites of his body / and to know in what state and condicyon his body standeth in / whiche can not be Knowne so well as by the vryne. In consideration wherof this worke is collected and gadered out of y<sup>e</sup> sentécyals sayngis of al Auctours of Phisike / to the entent that euery man myght breffly come to the knolage of y<sup>e</sup> pmisses / whiche sayd worke is diuided into iii. seuerall bokes / where of the fyrst boke declareth pryncypaly, &c. [This title is over a large cut containing a full-length portrait of a physician holding a bottle in his hand.] No place, printer's name, or date. [Circa 1510.] Folio, black and Italic letter, with marginal notes, A—B in fours, no sign. C : D—G in fours : H—I, 4 leaves each : K—S 3 in fours.

This is the impression described by Ames as having no Italic letter in the opening pages (pp. 1-6) ; but it seems to correspond with Herbert's account, p. 1757.

Here begynneth the seyng of Urynes / of all the coleures that Urynes be of / with medycynes annexed to euery Uryne / & euery Uryne his Urynell / muche profytable for euery man to knowe. The Cambridge and Museum copies of the earlier book are incomplete.

URQUHART, SIR THOMAS, of Cromarty.

The Discovery of a most exquisite Jewel, more precious then Diamonds inched in Gold, the like whereof was never seen in any age ; found in the kennel of Worcester-streets, the day after the Fight, and six before the Autumnal Æquinox, 1651. Serving in this place to frontal a Vindication of the Honour of Scotland from that Infamy whereinto the rigid Presbyterian party of that Nation, out of their Covetousness and Ambition, most dissemblingly hath involved it. . . . London, Printed by Ja: Cottrel. . . . 1652. 12°. A, 8 leaves : a, 8 leaves, the last blank : B—T in eights.

This is the curious book so often quoted by me in my edition of Brand.

USHER, JAMES, Archbishop of Armagh. Strange and Remarkable Prophecies and Predictions of the Holy, Learned, and excellent James Usher, Late L. Arch-Bishop of Armagh, and Lord Primate of Ireland. Giving an Account of his Foretelling 1. The Rebellion in Ireland Forty Years before it came to pass, &c. Written by the Person who heard it from this Excellent Persons own Mouth, &c. [Quotations from St. Jerome and Horace.] London: Printed for Thomas Parkhurst, at the Bible and Three Crowns at the lower end of Cheapside near Mercers Chappel 1686. 8°, E 5 in eights.

In the copy before me the leaf following the title is marked A 3, so that there may have been a dedication or preface occupying A 2.

VALENTINE AND ORSON.

The edition of this romance, printed by Copland, was a translation from the French by Henry Watson. According to Mr Halliwell (Popular English Histories, p. 29), Dr Farmer had a fragment of "a very old edition probably printed by W. de Worde." The fragment in the Devonshire collection is said to have been discovered in the old library at Bolton Abbey, Yorkshire. There is a leaf of an edition, apparently in De Worde's type, among Bagford's Collections.

VALERIUS, ADRIANUS.

Neder-Landsche Gedenck-Clauck. Kortelick openbarende de voornaemste geschiedenissen van de seventhien Nederlandsche Provincien . . . tot den Iare 1625. . . . De Liedskens (meest alle nien zijnde) gestelt op Mnsyck-Noten. . . . Door Adrianum Valerium. Tot Haerlem, Gedruet voor d'Erffgenamen vanden Autheur. . . . 1626. Met privilegie. Obl. 4°, A—Oo in fours, and prefixes, 4 leaves. With engravings and musical notation.

This volume is noticeable on account of the English tunes and airs which it contains, and to which full attention has been drawn by Mr Chappell.

VALERIUS FLACCUS.

The Story of Jason, how he gotte the golden flece, and how he did begyle media, oute of laten into englesshe by Nycholas Whyte. Licenced in 1565.

See Hazlitt's Warton, iv. 293, and also ibid. i. 180, and ii. 128.

VALLANS, WILLIAM.

A Tale of Two Swannes. . . . 1590.

See this extraordinarily rare book in T. Allen's Catalogue, 1795, No. 1392, in a volume with other tracts. Allen seems to have acquired possession of many of Rawlinson's books, and perhaps therefore this was the identical copy used by Hearne.

VALOIS, MARGARET OF.

The Memorials of Margaret de Valoys, First Wife to Henry the Fourth, King of France and Navarre. Compiled in French by her owne most Delicate and Royall hand: And Translated into English by Robert Codrington, Master of Arts. London, Printed by R. H. 1641. 8°. Title, 1 leaf: A, 2 leaves: B—Q 4 in eights, Q 4 blank.

Dedicated "To the truly Honourable John Lenthall, Esquire," by Robert Codrington, who dates this epistle March 18, 1643[-6]. In two copies which I have seen, the date was pasted over by a printed slip which bore a later year, and came off by applying damp.

Memorials of Margaret de Valoys, &c. London Printed by R. H. 1663. 8°, Q 3 in eights, but A has only 4 leaves.

VANE, SIR HENRY.

The Tryal of Sir Henry Vane, K<sup>t</sup> at the Kings Bench, Westminster, June the 2<sup>d</sup> and 6th 1662. The text of this edition differs much from that of 1650.

Thalia Rediviva: The Pass-Times and Divisions of a Countrey-Muse, In Choice Poems on several Occasions. With some Learned Remains of the Eminent Eugenius Philaethes. Never made Publick till now.

—Nec erubuit sylvas habitare Thalia, —Virgil.

Licensed Roger L'Esrange. London, Printed for Robert Pawlet at the Bible in Chancery-lane, near Fleetstreet, 1678. 8°, G in eights.

Dedicated by the editor, J. W., to the Marquis of Worcester. Skegg, 1842, £1. ls., resold Corser, 1871, £8., bought for the British Museum. Only two others seem to be known. H. Vaughan's Works have been edited by the Rev. A. B. Grosart, 1871, 4 vols. 8°.

VAUGHAN, ROBERT.

A Dyalogue defensiuæ for women. . . . 1542.

Mr Corser told me (November 1869) that the copy of this tract, then his, and since Mr Miller's, cost him nearly £30. It was originally in a volume of tracts bound together in a parchment wrapper at Lincoln, and was in the lot bought by Dibdin. See Lincoln Nosegay, p. 11.

[VAUGHAN, THOMAS.]

Anthroposophia Theomagia: Or, A Discourse of the Nature of Man and his State after death; Grounded on his Creator's Proto-Chimistry, and verifid by a practicall Examination of Principles in the Great World. By Eugenius Philaethes. London, Printed by T. W. for H. Blunden at the Castle in Corn-hill. 1650. 8°, F in eights. With a print of Cornelius Agrippa at p. 52.

At the end, with separate signatures, A—E 4 in eights, occurs another treatise, Anima Magia Abscondita, not mentioned on the first title. Compare Philoponus, p. 352.

VAUGHAN, WALTER.

The Adventures of Five Englishmen from Pulo Condoro, A Factory of the New Company in the East-Indies. Who were Shipwreckt upon the little Kingdom of Jehore, not far distant, and being seized on by the Inhabitants, were brought before the King, and detain'd for some months; With the many Accidents that befel them during their Abode in the Island. Together with an Account of the Manners and Customs of the Inhabitants, and of the Birds, Beasts, Fruits, &c. both of the Islands of Jehore, and Pulo Condoro: written by Mr Vaughan, One of the Adventurers. London: Printed for C. Bates, &c. 1714. 12°, G 4 in twelves, the first leaf occupied by half-title, and sign. A misprinted B.

God
The Devil
Man, as to his Heaven, Hell,
Judgment, &c.

{ Body, Soul, and Spirit.

Propounded to { George Fox,
John Perrott,
Samuel Fisher.

And after that (with a complaint for want of, and stricter Urgency for an Answer) repropounded to Edward Burroughs. &c. London Printed for Robert Wilson. 1661. 4<sup>o</sup>, 15 leaves.

VENNER, TOBIAS, M.D.

Via Recta ad vitam Longam. . . The second Edition corrected and enlarged. . . . London, Printed by T. S. for Richard Moore. . . . 1622. 4<sup>o</sup>, A, 2 leaves: B—Dd 2 in fours, Dd 2 blank: Part 2, with new title, dated 1623, A, 2 leaves: B—E in fours, and a leaf of F: a Briefe and Accurate Treatise concerning the taking of the fume of Tobacco, which very many in these dayes doe too too licentiously, with a new title, A, 2 leaves: B—D in fours, D 4 blank.

VENNER or VENNARD, RICHARD.

The Plot of the Play called England's Joy. See Mery Tales and Quicke Answers, 1567, No. 133 (Hazlitt's Jest-Books, 1864), compared with John Chamberlain's Letters, 1861, p. 163. As to Venner, see Manningham's Diary, pp. 82, 93.

The Right way to Heaven, and a good presedent for Lawyers and all other good Christians. With an Exhortacion to continue all Subjects in their due obedience: together with the reward of a faithful subject to his Prince. Compiled by Richard Vennard of Lincolnes Inne Gent. [Quot. from Matth. 10 & Acts 14, 22.] At London: Printed by Thomas Este, and are to be sould vnder Lincolnes [Inne] gate. 1602. 4<sup>o</sup>, A—H 2 in fours.

This edition differs from the preceding in the matter and arrangement.

VENUS.

The Courte of Venus. Newly and diligently corrected with many proper Ballades newly amended, and also added therunto which have not before bene imprinted. [London, circa 1540.] 8<sup>o</sup>. The title is within a woodcut border. Britwell (Bright's copy of sheet A only).

This is the only portion known, except some fragments from the middle of a copy of the book in the Douce Collection, but not included in the printed catalogue. Mr Furnivall says that this latter fragment exhibits many misprints, and drops lines, features generally characteristic of slovenly republications. The Court of Venus was attributed by Bale to Chaucer.

VERE, SIR FRANCIS.

Extremities Vrging the Lord General Sir Fra. Veare to offer the late Anti-parle with the Arch-duke Albertus. Written by an English Gentleman of very good account from Ostend, to a Worshipful Gentleman his friend here in England: Imprinted verbatim according to the originall. With a declaration of the desperate attempt made since by the sayd Arch-dukes forces, for the winning of the old Towne. At London Printed for Thomas Pauier. 1602. 4<sup>o</sup>, black letter, A—C in fours, last leaf blank. Br. Museum (Grenville).

The Commentaries of S<sup>r</sup>. Francis Vere, Being Diverse pieces of service, wherein he had command, written by himself in way of Commentary. Published by William Dillingham, D.D. [Quotations from Tacitus Annal.] Cambridge. Printed by John Field, Printer to the famous University. Anno Dom. 1657. Folio. A, 6 leaves: B—Cc in fours: DD in sixes.

With portraits of Sir F. and Sir H. Vere, and Sir John Ogle, and seven other plates. Dedicated "To the Right Worshipfull Horace Townshend, Baronet," by the Editor.

The Commentaries of S<sup>r</sup>. Francis Vere, Giving an Account of divers Remarkable Sieges, Fights, and other Eminent Services, both at Sea and Land, performed by him for the Dutch, in the Low-Countreys. In which may easily be discerned to what Greatness they have been raised by the English Arms, under the Conduct of our Valiant Heroes. Published by William Dillingham, D.D. [Quotation.] London, Printed and are to be sold by Peter Parker, at the Sign of the Leg, over against the Royal Exchange in Cornhil. 1672. Folio. A reissue.

The curiosity of the reissue of 1672 consists in the amplified title, which sets forth the services of the English on behalf of the Low Countries in Elizabeth's time, with a view to shewing the ingratitude of the Dutch in making war against us in Charles the Second's reign.

VERMUYDEN, SIR CORNELIUS, Knight.

A Discourse touching the Draining the Great Fennes lying within the severall Counties of Lincolne, Northampton, Huntington, Norfolk, Suffolke, Cambridge, and the Isle of Ely, as it was presented to his Majestie. Whereunto is annexed the Designe or Map. Published by Authority. London, Printed by Thomas Fawcett. . . . 1642. 4<sup>o</sup>, A—E 2 in fours. Br. Museum.

VERNEY, FRANCIS.

The tragedye of Antiope with other poeticall verses. June, 1622. Laus Deo. 4<sup>o</sup>, 47 leaves.

An unpublished MS., dedicated to Prince Charles. The tragedy is written in rhyme, and is in five acts. At the end is a long list of proposed errata to acts i.—iv. A good deal of poetry is interspersed. Only one copy seems to be known. This was sold among some books and MSS. formerly belonging to the family of Oxenden of Barham, Co. Kent, in January 1870.

VERON, FRANCIS.

The Rule of Catholick Faith: Sever'd from the Opinions of the Schools, mistakes of the Ignorant, and abuses of the Vulgar. [Quotations.] London: Printed for Iohn Hodgets. 1614. 4<sup>o</sup>, I in fours, the last leaf blank.

Dedicated to Richard, Earl of Dorset. At p. 19 of this discourse there is a very amusing tale taken from Strabo:—"Strabo tels vs a pretty story, which may fitly be applied to these fellows [earthworms]. A Musitian (saith hee) did on a time come to shew his skill in Iassus among a company of Fishe-men: they all gaue him audience, to his seeming, with much attention. But so soone as euer they heard the Market-bell ring, they ranne all at once, in all haste from the musicke, euey man to his Market: one onely, that was hard of hearing, staves still behinde and continues a hearer. The musitian, imagining that the loue of his Musicke had wonne him this mannes company, when all the rest had left him, comes nearer to him, and giues him solemne thanks for that hee had heard him with so good attention, when all the rest did so rudely leaue him vpon the ringing of the Market-bell. 'And hath the Bell rung indeede,' quoth the deafe man? The Musitian tels him it had; whereupon he also flings away after his fellows, murmuring that for his hearkening to a fidler he had like to haue lost his Market."

All the Lyrick Poems in this Booke were set by Mr Henry Lawes, Gent. of the Kings Chappel, and one of his Majesties Private Mnsick. Printed and Published according to Order. London, Printed by I. N. for Hu. Mosley, at the Princes Armes in Paul's Church-yard. 1645. 8°. a (4 leaves)—N 4 in eights: O—P 2, in eights.

The speeches of the author in Parliament commence on O.

Poems, &c. Written by Mr Ed. Waller of Beckonsfield, Esquire; lately a Member of the Honourable House of Commons, &c. London, Printed by T. W. for Humphrey Mosley, at the Princes Armes, &c. 1645. 8°. A (4 leaves)—G 6 in eights, and I, 4 leaves.

There is no sign. H, but from the pagination being unbroken, and the Table not mentioning any matter, not found here, between pp. 92 and 93, the volume seems to be complete without it; the four leaves of I appear to have been added as an afterthought. Both in the Preface to this and to the edition printed in the same year by I. N. for H. Mosley, the surreptitious edition is denounced, apparently that called the Workes, cited above.

Poems, &c. Written upon several Occasions, and to several Persons: By Edmond Waller, Esq; The Seventh Edition with several Additions, never before Printed.

*Non ego mendaci distrinxi carmine quenquam,

A Passionate Poem expressing such Passages as happ'ned to the Avthor thereof at Sea, about the latter end of Iannarie last 1623. [Quotations from Seneca and Psalm 107.] 4°, 43 leaves.

Dedicated to Prince Charles.

The dedication "To the High and hopeful Prince, Charles Prince of Wales, &c." appears to be in the autograph of Watson, the rest to be the work of an amanuensis. This is an unpublished production, and occurred in a miscellaneous sale at Sotheby's, Nov. 9, 1872. It is in the original gilt vellum cover, with the rare autograph on the flyleaf of Sir David Murray of Gorthy, author of Sophonisba. The Poem itself concludes on the 40th leaf; at the top of the 41st occurs a headline: "The cvii. Psalme paraphrased by the Author." Murray himself published a paraphrase of the 104th in 1615.

WEBBE, EDWARD.

The Rare and most wonderfull things. . . . 1590.

Following the title is "The Epistle to the Reader," dated from the writer's lodging at Blackwall, the 19th May, 1590; next succeeds a dedication to Queen Elizabeth, after which we get "Verses written vpon the Alphabet of the Queenes Maiesties name," an acrostic. This edition is reprinted by Mr Arber, 1868, 12°. Mr A. tells me that he has collated all the editions, and that, although two of them contain more leaves, the text is, with the exception of literal or immaterial changes, the same. Reprinted also in facsimile by Mr Ashbee.

This edition differs so greatly from of 1661, as to deserve to be cons: rather a new publication. Some c pieces included are chiefly remarkab their outrageous coarseness.

The Contract of a Marriage betwixt Wit and Wisdom (1570).

The right of printing a play with this title was transferred to Thomas Orwin, June 23, 1591, by the representatives of Thomas Marsh, who may have printed, and probably did print, an edition of it.

WITCHCRAFT.

The case of Agnes Bridges and Rachel Pinder. 1571.

See Holinshed, iv. 395, where the narrative is expressly stated to have been published, and also Stow's Annales, 1615, p. 678.

The Lawes against Witches, and Convivration. And Some brief Notes and Observations for the Discovery of Witches. #### WITHALS, JOHN.

A shorte Dictionarie for yonge begyn-ners. Gathered of good authours, specially of Columel, Grapald, and Plini. Anno M.D.LIII. [Col.] Thus endeth this Dictionarie, verie necessarie for children: Compiled by J. Withals. Imprinted at London in Fletestrete in the Howse of Thomas Berthelet. Cum priuilegio ad imprimendum solum. 4<sup>o</sup>, black and roman letter mixed, printed in two columns. Z in fours, Z 4 blank.

Dedicated to Sir Thomas Chaloner Knight, clerk of the Privy Council. This is evidently the long-sought-for first edition of the book, and the terms of the Prologue, as it is called, addressed by the author to Chaloner, seem to set at rest the question whether there was really any impression published in Caxton's house by W. de Worde, as stated by some of our earlier bibliographers. See Mr Huth's Prefaces, &c., 1874, p. 13.

A Dictionarie in English & Latine devised for the capacitie of Children, and young Beginners. At first set fourth by M. Withals, with Phrases, both Rhythimical and Prouerbial; Recognized by Dr Euans; after by Abr. Fleming; and then by William Clerk. . . . Printed at London by Thomas Purfoot. 1616. 8<sup>o</sup>, black and roman letter. A, 6 leaves: B—Rr in eights.

WITHER, GEORGE.

Prince Henries Obseqvies. . . . 1612.

The line found here, "Hell, where's thy triumph, &c.," is taken from Paul's First Epistle to the Corinthians, xv. 55.

Abvses Stript and Whipt Or Satirical Essays. By George Wyther. [Greek motto and two lines in English.] At London, Printed by G. Eld, for Francis Bvrtton, and are to be sold at his shop in Pauls Churchyard at the signe of the Green-Dragon. 1613. 8<sup>o</sup>, X in eights, first two leaves blank, and title on A 3.

The Essays end on T6, and the rest of the volume is occupied by the Scourge, a satire, and by a series of Epigrams, many of which are of autobiographical interest. This edition does not contain the cut of the satyr.

Among the Epigrams should be noticed those addressed to his father and mother, to his dear friend, Master Thomas Cranley, to his cousin-german, Mr William Wither, and to his schoolmaster, Master John Greaves.

Mr J. B. Fulham, to whom the copy before me belonged, has noted: "This copy differs from my other three. . . . From the incorrect orthography, which occurs in this copy, and is amended in the other three, was not this the first edition? There are also passages in this omitted in the others.' I have another copy before me of this same edition (apparently), in which the Greek verse is in different and larger type, and other variations present themselves throughout, showing it to be a distinct impression.

Abyses Stript and Whipt: Or Satirical Essayes. By George Wyther. Divided into two Bookes. [Motto, &c., as before.] London, Printed by T. S. for Francis Bvrtton, and are to be solde at his Shop in Paules Church-yard, at the signe of the Greene-Dragon. 1614. 8<sup>o</sup>, X in eights, A 1 and 2 blank.

This edition also includes The Scourge on 8 leaves.

A Satyre: Dedicated to his Most Excellent Maestie. By George Wither, Gentleman. Rebus in adversis Crescit. London, Printed for George Norton, and are to be solde at the signe of the red-Bull, neere Temple barre. 1614. 8<sup>o</sup>, F in eights, the first and second, and last, leaves blank.

This appears to be the first edition of the Poem. It was written in the Marshalsea, to which Wither had been committed for the publication of his Abuses Stript and Whipt, 1613; and it had the effect of procuring his release.

The Shepherds Hunting: Being, certaine Eglogs written during the time of the Authors Imprisonment in the Marshalsey. By George Wither, Gentleman. London: Printed by Thomas Snodham for George Norton, and are to be sold at the signe of the red-Bull neere Temple-barre. 1615. Sm. 8<sup>o</sup>, H in eights, first and last leaves blank.

It is difficult to tell which of the impressions was the prior. They are both addressed by the poet "To those Honovred, Noble, and Right vertuous Friends, my visitors in the Marshalsey: And, To all other, my vnknowne Favovrites, who eyther p[ri]vately or publicly wished me well in my imprisonment," yet the running title or headline is "To the Reader."

A Preparation to the Psalter. [Col.] London Imprinted by Nicholas Okes. 1619. Folio, 74 leaves. With an engraved title and portrait of the author by F. Delaram.

"Accompanying this copy is a long MS. paper in the autograph of Lord Strangford, respecting his collateral ancestor Sir John Smith, 'onely Sonne to Sir Thomas Smith, Governor of the East India Company, &c.,' to whom the work is dedicated, and his descendants.

"At the end is a metrical paraphrase upon the first eight verses of the twelfth chapter of Ecclesiastes, of which the following is a specimen:—

'Oh, do not thou the [evil] time till th long,
But minde him, whilst the silver c stroug,
Now, whilst the golden ewer uncr found,
And at the fountain-head the pitcher s
Before the wheel be at the cistern tore,
Or, dust grow earth, as earth it was bef
And, from the bodie quite dissolved fr
The soul returns to God, from whe came.'

"This is one of the scarcer pieces only copy noticed by Lowndes was th in the Bibliotheca Anglo-Poetica."—J Cut. for 1862.

Exercises vpon the first Psalm. 1620.

"This volume is inscribed to C. Prince of Wales, and extends to fo chapters of learned comment and c dissertation on the author, names, c titles, poesy, music, rhetoric, excell matter, form, and end of the Psalm commences with 'A Sonnet, wherei creatures are provoked to joyne tog in prayse of their Almighty Creat two pages, which lyric paraphrase c CXLVIII. Psalm is reprinted at 1 on account of its great excellency i British Bibliographer; and at the e nine pages in verse, namely 'A Solil or the Author's Preparation of himsel the Studie and Use of the Psalter Prayer,' and 'A Hymne of Thankes; after Sicknesse,' the last in double col "On the top of the first page occu autograph of 'Norreyes, 1647.'"—J Cut. for 1862.

This edition includes not only the Motto, but the Mistress of Philarete. At the end the stationer has a notice to the effect that three or four of the Songs in the Philarete were printed from a surreptitious copy in the Workes of George Wither, 8°, 1620.

In the present copy is inserted a printed title page after the engraved one, not known to exist elsewhere: "The Poems of Geo: Wither: Heretofore Imprinted, and now comprised in two Volumes, are these," enumerating Abuses Strippt and Whipt, and the remaining contents of Juvenilia, 1622, with the addition of the Motto and Philarete, as the pieces to form the first volume. The second volume was to contain Britain's Remembrancer only, being, no doubt, the unsold copies of 1628. Compare Mr Huth's Catalogue under Wither, where an account of the copy referred to will be found.

[An Answer to a Speech without Doores: Or, Animadversions upon an unsafe and dangerous Answer to the Scotch Papers, printed under the name of Mr Challenger his Speech, which while it offereth to reach a blow at the Scotch Papers, doth indeed strike at the honour of the Parliament, and interest of the Kingdome of England. Collation: A, 4 leaves: B—F in eights; but between F 5-6 are inserted four un-paged leaves. With a portrait of Charles II., to whom the volume is dedicated, an. æt. 19.

To the most honourable the Lords and Commons in Parliament assembled: The humble Declaration and Petition of Major Geo. Wither. 'No place, printer's name, or date [1649?]. A broadside.

It may be suspected that this and what the author describes in the list of his works as "The Tired Petitioner" are identical.

Republica Anglicana Or the Historie of the Parliament in their late Proceedings. Wherein the Parliament and Army are vindicated from the calumnies cast upon them in that libellous History of Independency, and the falshoods, follies, raylings, impieties, and blasphemies in that Libell detected. The Necessity and Lawfulness of Secluding the Members, laying aside the King, and House of Lords, is demonstrated. The Lawfulness of the present power is proved, and the just and necessary grounds of the Armies march into Scotland are represented. Published for publicke satisfaction. The Author G: W:

Fides Anglicana, Or, a Plea for the Publick-Faith of these Nations, lately pawned, forfeited and violated by some of their former Trustees, to the rendring it as infamous as Fides-Punica was heretofore. It is humbly offered to consideration, in a Petitionary Remonstrance to all in Authority, on the behalf of many thousands, to whom Securities were given upon the said Publick-Faith; and was prepared to have been put forth during the sitting of the last Parliament. By the Author George Wither. It comprehends, likewise, an Expedient, whereby the Honour of the King and Nation may be preserved in redeeming the same, without oppressing private persons, or overburthening the Publick: And thereto are added two or three Exemplary Narratives out of Antiquity, evidencing that Neglect of Justice is dangerous; and that the freedom of expression assumed by the Author is neither needless in such cases, nor unjustifiable by warrantable precedents.

Veritas non querit Angulos.

London, Printed in the Year MDCLX. 8°, A—M in half-sheets, or 48 leaves. In prose.

At the end of this scarce pamphlet is a catalogue (reprinted in the British Bibliographer) of some of Wither's writings, a portion of which were even then lost in MS., and others are no longer known.

A mere reissue of the unsold copies of 1688 with a new title-page. The words "Never before Printed," are of course a deception.

Divine Poems, &c. London: Printed for Joseph Marshall, at the Bible in Newgate-street. 1728. 8<sup>o</sup>.

This is called The Second Edition, but it is merely a third title-page to the book printed in 1688. Prefixed to this volume is an address to the Reader by Wither's daughter "To all such as have formerly been friends to the Author, his Daughter and only surviving Child Dedicates these Meditations." The address is signed E. B., and is dated: "From my Lodgings at Mr Snowden's a Printer, at the lower end of Great Carter-lane, the 23d of April, 1688."

Below this is this Advertisement: "The Copper Plates mentioned in my Father's following Epistle, in some of his removals from one Habitation to another have been lost, so that I have been forced to get new ones made."

By Iames Yates Seruingman. 1582. [Four short lines and a device.] London Imprinted by Iohn Wolfe, dwelling in Distaffe Lane, neere the Signe of the Castle. 4°, black letter, in verse, With separate titles to the several pieces.

Collation: The Castle of Courtesie, A—C in fours, dedicated to the author's friend, Master Henrie Reynolds Esquire: The Hold of Humilitie and Chariot of Chastitie, A—S 2 in fours. The latter is dedicated to Mistress Elizabeth Reynolds, wife of Mr Henry Reynolds.

The Hold of Humility and the Chariot of Chastity have distinct title-pages, as follow:—

The Hold of Humilitie: adioyned to the Castle of Courtesie. Compiled by Iames Yates seruingman.

Captious Concepts / good Reader, doe dismiss,
And friendly weigh / thes willing minde of his,
Which more doth write / for pleasure then for praise,

Whose worthless workes / are simple pend
alwaies

London Imprinted by Iohn Wolfe, dwelling in Distaffe Lane neere the Signe of the Castle. 1582.

The Chariot of Chastitie, drawne to publication by Dutiful Desire, Good will and Commendation. Also a Dialogue betweene Diana and Venus. With Ditties deuised at sundry idle times for Recreation sake: Set downe into such wise as insueth by Iames Yatis. London Imprinted by Iohn Wolfe. . . . 1582.

The only perfect copy known is that which was formerly in the B. A. Poetica, and which, after passing through the hands of Midgley and Sykes, was purchased by Mr Heber, who completed it from another. It is now at Britwell. At the sale of the 7th portion of Mr Corser's books (July 12, 1871) two copies of Yates occurred, both imperfect, one from Heber's sale, part 8 (the missing portion having gone to make up the B. A. P. copy). I thought both, but discovered that they would not make a complete one between them.

In one of the Corser copies the words compiled and seruingman on the title of the Hold of Humility were printed in large black letter, in the other, in roman of smaller size, shewing apparently a change made at press.

ADDITIONS.

[** During a recent visit to Cambridge I have entered into a personal examination of a large number of early English books, either not known to me before, or imperfectly described; and in doing so, I have met with the most unfailing courtesy and hearty co-operation from Mr Henry Bradshaw at the University Library, the Rev. J. B. Pearson and Mr A. G. Greenhill at Emmanuel, the Rev. F. Pattrick and the Rev. F. Gunton at Magdalen, and the Rev. S. S. Lewis at Corpus Christi. The result is partly below; but several of the articles were obtained in time to fall into their places in the first alphabet, and a few come from other sources.]

EVELYN, JOHN, and ROSE, JOHN.

The French Gardiner. . . . The third Edition illustrated with Sculptures. Whereunto is annexed, the English Vineyard Vindicated by J. Rose, now Gardiner to his Majesty: with a Tract of the making and ordering of Wines in France. London, Printed by T. R. & N. T. for B. Tooke. . . . 1675. 8°. The French Gardener, A—T in eights, including the frontispiece, with engravings at pp. 1, 54, 135, and 263: the tract by Rose, A—D in eights.

The list of fruits, especially of pears, is very curious. Rose had been originally gardener to the Duchess of Somerset. From sign. C 3 to the end is an account of wines by Evelyn himself, compiled at Rose's request. This third edition of the French Gardener does not purport to be enlarged, but merely to be corrected.

GAINSFORD, THOMAS.

Rich Cabinet. . . . 1616.

This is a very curious and amusing chiefly consisting of original observa ranged under heads in the order c alphabet. The allusion to Robin Good at folio 98 verso, and the description Player (folio 116-18), as he appear 1616, are particularly instructive and taining. Some old proverbs, not elsewhere, occur here. Under "merc there are some interesting paragraphs volume is as rare as it is curious, on copies having occurred for sale.

It appears from the Address of the F to the Reader that this was an and more methodically digested issue earlier publication.

The section devoted to Player w found reprinted in English Dram Stage, 1869 (Roxburghe Library Serie

London, Printed for Nath: Brooke. . . . 1654. 12<sup>o</sup>. A—R in twelves, first two leaves blank. With a portrait by T. Cross.

HALLE, EDWARD.

Chronicle. . . . 1548.

This edition was, as Herbert says (Ames, pp. 526-7), printed without tables; but tables were printed for it afterwards. They differ entirely from the tables to the edition of 1550. A complete set of the text of Halle's Chronicle will contain—

	Editions.	Impressions of
		Sheets A and B.	Rest of Pts. I, II, and III.	The re- maining Parts.
a.	I. (1548)	1	} 1	} 1
b.		2
c.		3	2
d.		4	} 1 & 2 in- termixed.	} 2
e.	II. (1550)	5

—H. Pyne.

Three or four titles were given to this edition, and of the first 250 leaves there were two impressions. In the first, the initial paragraph words are mostly printed in black, in the second in roman. A genuine first edition should have the initial letter at sign. B i. verso, correspondent with that at sign. A i. recto. There are probably a larger number of variations in the copies of this book than in any in the language.

HALYBURTON, THOMAS.

Memoirs of the Life of the Reverend Mr

Thomas Halyburton, Professor of Divinity in the University of St Andrews, Digested into Four Parts. . . . The Second Edition corrected and amended. . . . Edinburgh, Printed by the Heirs and Successors of Andrew Anderson. 1715. (Price 1<sup>s</sup>. 6<sup>d</sup>.) 8°, A—P 2 in eights.

Dedicated by Halyburton's wife (or widow) Janet Watson to Lady Henrietta Campbell.

HAYWARD, SIR JOHN.

The Sanctuarie of a troubled Soule. By Jo. Hayward. London Printed by George Purslowe. 1616. 12°. Engraved title with a miniature print of Hayward, 1 leaf: *, 2 leaves: ¶, 12 leaves: A, 8 leaves: B—Ll 4 in eights, Q 10 blank: Errata, 1 leaf.

Dedicated to George [Abbot] Archbishop of Canterbury; With a separate (printed) title to the second part.

HELP.

A pore helpe. . . . No place, printer's name, or date. [London, J. Day and W. Seres, 1548-50.] 8°, A in eights. Pub. Lib. Camb.

An impression hitherto unrecognised. The title is enclosed within Day and Seres's ordinary compartment.

HELYAS, Knight of the Sun.

It should be noted that Mr Bradshaw has two leaves of Helyas, apparently in the same type as the single one among Bagford's collections noticed at p. 207.

HERBAL.

Here begynneth a newe mater / y<sup>e</sup> whiche sheweth and treateth of the vertues & properties of herbes / the whiche is callyd an Herball. Cum priuilegio. [Col.] Cum priuilegio. #### HEYWOOD, JOHN.

The play of the wether A newe and very merry enterlude of all maner wethers made by John Heywood. The players names. . . . 4°, A—F in fours. Pub. Lib. Camb. (last leaf deficient).

HEYWOOD, THOMAS.

The English Traveller. . . . 1633.

In the dedication of this play, Heywood speaks of the friendship between Sir Henry Appleton "and that good old Gentleman, mine vnkle (Master Edmund Heywood) whom you pleased to grace by the Title of Father;" and in the address to the Reader, he mentions this drama as "one being reserved amongst two hundred and twenty, in which I haue had either an entire hand, or at the least a maine finger."

The Actors Vindication, Containng, Three brief Treatises, viz; I. Their Antiquity. II. Their antient Dignity. III. The true Use of their Quality. Written by Thomas Heywood.

Et prodesse solent & delectare—

London, Printed by G. E. for W. C[artwright]. Circa 1655]. 4°, A—G in fours, G 4 blank, and a, 4 leaves between A and B. Capell Coll.

In this re-edition by Cartwright there is an additional preface to the Marquis of Dorchester, in which he, oddly enough, speaks of Heywood as having, "a little before his death," made this vindication his subject. The Apology was printed in 1612, and Heywood was certainly living in 1640-1.

HIGGS, SUSAN.

The sorrowfull complaint of Susan Higges a lusty Countrey Wench, dwelling in Risborow in Buckinghamshire, who for twenty yeeres most gallantly maintained her selfe by Robberies on the high-way side, and such like practises. And lastly how she was executed at Brickhill, at the Assises, for a Murther by her committed upon Misseldon Heath. To the tune of Lusty Gallant. Printed at London for H. G. Pepysian.

The Divine Wooer; Or a Poem, setting forth the Love and Loveliness of the Lord Jesus, and his great desire of our welfare and happiness. . . . London, Printed for R. Taylor, and T. Sawbridge. . . . 1673. 8°, A—Y 4 in eights, and between B 2-3, ¶, 4 leaves.

HOWELL, JAMES.

The Divinement of a King: Or, A short Discovrse of The Sword. The Scepter. The Crowne. . . London. Printed in the Yeare, 1648. 4°, 8 leaves. Emm. Coll. Camb.

Howell's name is subscribed at the end.

A German Diet: Or, The Ballance of Europe. Wherein the Power and Weaknes Glory and Reproch. . . . of all the Kingdoms and States of Christendom are impartiallie poiz'd. . . . Made fit for the Meridian of England, By James Howell Esq. Senesco, non Segnesco. London, Printed for Humphrey Moseley. . . . 1653. Folio. With a frontispiece, containing a full-length portrait of the author. Title, frontispiece, and dedication to John, Earl of Clare, 3 leaves: A—S, 2 leaves each (L repeated): Aa—Rr, 2 leaves each (Gg in fours, and no Hh): Aaa—Nnn, 2 leaves each: [*], 2 leaves: ¶, 2 leaves.

Som Sober Inspections made into the Cariage and Consults of the Late-long Parliament, Wherby Ocasion is taken to speak of Parlements in former Times, and of Magna Charta, with some Reflexions upon Government in general. Cupio, ut recte capiar. London, Printed by E. C. for Henry Seile. . . . 1655. 8°. A, 4 leaves: B—N 4 in eights.

Dedicated to the Protector. The orthography of this piece, which is very lucidly and plainly written, and deals a good deal in abuse of the Scots and Presbyterians, is very remarkable.

HUGO, HERMANNUS.

Pia Desideria: Or, Divine Addresses, In Three Books. . . . London, Printed by J. L. for Henry Bonwicke. . . . MDCXC. 8°. A, 4 leaves, and the frontispiece: B—Q in eights, including a leaf of advertisements. With the plates counting in the sheets.

HULDERICUS, Bishop of Augsburg.

An Epistel of moche learnig, sent by saint Huldericus, Bisschoppe of Augusta, called Augsburg, vnto Nicolas, the fyrst of that name: agaynst the vmaried Chastitie of Pryestes. No place, printer's name, or date [? Augsburg, circâ 1550.] 8°, black letter, a—b in eights, first and last two leaves blank, b iii apparently misprinted b ii.

Herbert (edit. of Ames, p. 1760) says 12 leaves; but he must have counted rather hastily, or have used the very copy before me, which has 12 leaves, but then one (a iii.) is deficient, and there are the blanks besides.

HUNNIS, W.

Seuen Sobs of a Sorrowfull Soule for Sinne. . . . Wherevnto are also annexed his Handfull of Honisuckles; the Poore Widowes Mite. . . . newlie printed and augmented. 1592. 12°.

The copy examined ended with the first tract on D II. It is almost certain that the work licensed to Denham in 1581 as the "Seven Steps to Heaven" (see Hazlitt, p. 288) is the same as the Seven Sobs, the author or bookseller having afterwards substituted a more popular and alliterative title. The Handful of Honeysuckles, no doubt, is punningly allusive to the writer's own name.

I., H.

A Spirituall Duell between A Christian and Satan. . . . London, Printed by W. Wilson for Richard Thrale. . . . 1646. 12°. A, 6 leaves: B—T in twelves.

INSTITUTUM.

Herbert describes an edition of this book (from a fragment of one leaf), printed by H. Pepwell. The tripartite device on the last page is like that in the Mirror of the Church.

Morbus and Mors are not, as Herbert supposed, speakers, but merely catchwords.

INTERCESSION AND PRAYER.

A deuout Intercescion and praier to our sauour Jesu Christ. [Col.] Deo gratias. Imprinted in Durhan rentes by Richard Fawkes. [Circâ 1530.] 4°, 4 leaves. Trin. Coll. Camb.

KEMPE, W.

A Dvtifvl Invective. . . . 1587.

The late Mr Dyce (repr. of Kempe's Nine daies wonder, 1840, xviii.-ix) is no doubt correct in attributing this tract to Kemp the schoolmaster of Plymouth rather than to his theatrical namesake.

As to the actor, see Nash's Strange News, Collier's repr. p. 39.

MONTAIGNE, MICHEL DE.

The Essays of Michael Seigneur de Montaigne. In Three Books. With an Account of the Author's Life. Made English by Charles Cotton, Esq; London, Printed for T. Passet at the George in Fleet-street, and M. Gilliflower and W. Hensman in Westminster - Hall. 1685-6. 8°. 3 volumes. With a portrait.

Dedicated by the translator to the Marquis of Halifax.

Collation: Vol. I.; A, 8 leaves: a, 2 leaves: B—Ss in eights, last two leaves blank: Vol. II., dated 1686, and with an additional paragraph on the title, "with Marginal Notes and Quotations of the cited Authors;" A, 2 leaves: B—Aaa 4 in eights: Vol. III.; A, 2 leaves: B—Ooo 4 in eights, last leaf blank. This is the first edition, and the only one published during Cotton's life.

This translation was republished in 1693, 1700, and 1743, all three volumes octavo. It is a version incomparably superior to Florio's, where we miss almost altogether the freedom and idiomatic raciness of the original. Both works have their errors, as there are passages which seem to have been misunderstood.

The copy of Cotgrave's Dictionary, folio, 1650, which appears to have been employed by Cotton, while at work on his Montaigne, is in the possession of Mr F. W. Cesens.

It possesses his autograph on a flyleaf, and copious MSS. notes.

In the Notice to the Reader prefixed to the next article this tract is thus exposed:—"Hauing written . . . from thence priuately to some of my acquaintance, the coppies of my letters (contrarie to my intention) were since my returne, by some of them giuen abroad, and lastly not long since, a discourse printed in Paules Church-yard, containing some parte of the substance thereof, but many things that I had written left out, and many things inserted that I neuer ment. . . ." He goes on to say that he was induced, by patriotic motives, to publish a true text, and that the former treatise, though suppressed, was still offered surreptitiously for sale; a copy in MS. having been stolen by a fellow who had "foysted it to the print," and "now when the matter comes to examination, stipps his head out of the Coller, and will not be found."

The Estate of English Fvgitives vnder the king of Spaine and his ministers. This volume is brimful of historical interest, and contains references to the surrender of Daventer to the Spaniards by Sir William Stanley, and a variety of other matters connected with the relations between ourselves and Spain at that interesting, but critical, period.

The Estate of English Fvgitives vnder the King of Spaine and his ministers. . . . Newly corrected and augmented. London, Printed for Iohn Drawater, and

At p. 11 is a long poem addressed to Flatman. On sign. Q2 occurs a second title: Poems by Several Hands, and on Several Occasions. Collected by N. Tate. This scarce volume comprises several pieces 30 or 40 years older than the date of publication.

TATE, N., and BRADY, N.

A New Version of the Psalms of David, Fitted to the Tunes used in Churches. London: Printed by M. Clark: for the Company of Stationers. 1696. 12°, A—O4 in twelves, and title and dedication. 2 leaves more.

This is the first edition of the version.

A New Version of the Psalms of David, Fitted to the Tunes used in Churches. London, Printed by T. Hodgkin for the Company of Stationers. 1698. . . . Price Bound one Shilling. 12°, A—M6 in twelves, first leaf with the patent.

There were, of course, a number of later editions.

TAVERNER, RICHARD.

[The Garden of wysdome (probably as below). . . . Anno. M.D.XXXIX. London, Richard Bankes.] 8°, black letter. The First Book, A—F in eights: the Second Book, with a separate title, A—M[?] in eights.

This is the original edition, unknown to Herbert; the copy examined is very incomplete, but has the title to part 2, which is in the same border as the second edition. The passage at F6, commending Cromwell, is of course omitted in the latter, as that minister had in the mean time been disgraced. This is also, apparently, the only edition with the Third Book, which opens with a headline on sign. G7 verso, being a first issue of the Proverbs and Adages, afterwards printed separately. This portion is introduced by a very curious and quaintly written Preface.

The garden of Wysdom wherin ye maye gather moste pleasaunt flowres, that is to say, proper wytty and quycke sayenges of princes, philosophers, and dyuers other sortes of men. Drawen forth of good authours, as well Grekes as Latyns, by Richard Tauerner. 1539. Solde in Lomberdstreet at the signe of the Lamb by Johñ Haruye. [Col.] Prynted at London by Richard Bankes. Cum priuilegio ad imprimendum solum. 8°, black letter. The First Book, A—F in eights: the Second Book, with a separate title, A—F in eights, with a Table to each portion at the end of Book 2.

At the conclusion of the first portion we read: Londini in ædibus Richardi Tauerneri. Cum priuilegio ad imprimendum solum; from which, however, we are probably not to infer that the first part was actually printed by Taverner, but merely that it was on sale by him.

The Garden of Wysdome conteynyng pleasaunte floures, that is to saye, propre and quicke sayenges of Princes. . . . Newly recognised and augmented. No place, printer's name, or date [query, John King, circa 1560.] 8°, black letter. The First Book, A—F in eights: the second, the same, last page blank.

"This is proved to be J. Kyng's ed. by the typographical ornament on the title of the 2d part, which is the same as that used in his ed. of the Flores Sententiarum of Erasmus."—H. Pyne.
