

EN ROUTE TO FRANCE

MEMBER OF CLEVELAND UNIT, WOMEN RED CROSS NURSES, DESCRIBES VOYAGE

The following letters written by Miss Marie Taylor (a member of the first Red Cross Nurses contingent of Cleveland, Ohio, to leave the United States and also to arrive in France) to her mother, Mrs. J. W. Taylor of Cleveland, O., and going the rounds of the scattered members of the family, have been received by Mrs. O. A. Townsend, 1429 Stocker street, Casa Verdugo, a sister of Miss Taylor, who has kindly furnished them for publication:

Atlantic Ocean, Sunday.
Dear Ones at Home:

I wish you might know this afternoon where we are and that every one here is safe, but I am hoping that instead, you think we are somewhere in camp and will continue to think so until you hear of our arrival. We went directly from Cleveland to the boat and were not delayed long before sailing. I have been woefully seasick but had plenty of company. Carrie and Florence both stood it like old sailors. We three have a stateroom together and they took pretty good care of me, but I was might glad to get through this part of the trip.

There has been something doing on board most of the time and there has been no monotony. The enlisted men have done a good bit of drilling on the lower deck. The doctors have drilled some and they have tried to organize the nurses, but I am afraid we never will present a very military spectacle. We are a lively bunch and a pretty busy one. Just here they called a "life boat" drill. That means we appear immediately on the upper deck in life preservers at the life boats assigned to us, or rather to which we are assigned.

This morning it is pouring rain. We are all perfectly willing to have it rain for the rest of the trip, because they say that it is impossible to see through the periscopes in a hard rain, and a rough sea prevents shooting torpedoes straight. The submarine is sort of a joke with us. While we all know perfectly well what might happen, I don't think there is anyone on board who is really frightened. If we should be torpedoed the loss of the ship would be the only big calamity.

It is really funny the way each one gets ready for the night. We each have a system of our own. I think we will all be prepared to make good firemen when we get through with this.

We expect this to be the last day of our voyage. Last night we had an amateur concert which was really very amateurish but loads of fun. We have all learned to sing God Save the King with as much enthusiasm as any of them, and the English make an attempt at our Star-Spangled Banner, which is mostly a fizzle, for they have the words and rather a difficult tune to remember, while we can think of My Country 'Tis of Thee while we sing theirs.

The Red Cross ladies in New York brought us about twenty half-bushel baskets of fruit and candy, so we have been well supplied.

Midland Adelphi Hotel, Liverpool.

We are all here in Liverpool safe and sound. When we arrived we gave the military authorities one big surprise as Washington had informed them they were sending male nurses. They had a real white elephant on their hands and did not know what to with it. After some talking it over and considering, they came across very nicely and so here we are at the best hotel in town and having the best of everything. We leave here to-morrow and don't know whether a few days or a few weeks will find us in France. We are all very tired to-night and will be glad to sleep without expecting any hurry-up calls to the lifeboats.

Hotel York, London, May 23, 1917.
This morning, after due primpling and curtseying, we were taken to a house and presented, each personally, to Queen Alexandra. "Queen Mother" she is called. She presented each of us with her own photo. Then we went to Buckingham Palace, were presented to King George and Queen Mary and saw the Prince of Wales and Princess Mary.

Afternoon we went through the largest London hospitals, where number of noted people, then Mrs. Whitelaw Reid. This we attended the theater as guests of Harry Lauder. After performance went back and met them. They were all very nice to us, Lauder especially so because he

PLANS FOR FOURTH

INDEPENDENCE DAY CELEBRATION AT PACIFIC AVENUE PLAYGROUNDS

The Pacific avenue Playground committee are making preparations for a safe and sane Fourth of July celebration, one that will fittingly observe the day and to which all Glendale people are welcome.

The committee plans to formally open the playground for the season at this time. The exercises will begin at 3 o'clock, when the following program will be given:

America, by the audience, led by Mrs. Zetta Gibbons.
Address of Welcome, by Mrs. George H. Herald.

Mrs. Herald is in charge of the program, while the committee on refreshments consists of Mrs. Robinson, assisted by Mesdames Begg, Clark, Wilson and Penochi. Messrs. Clark, White and Hartmann, the Chaffee Grocery, Spahr Fruit Co. and Crystal Ice Company are furnishing the materials for free lemonade to be served on the grounds. There will be ice cream for sale.

RETURN FROM FISHING TRIP

Saturday evening a group of Glendale boys, including Paul Richardson, Miller Fishel, Russell Tummell, Allen Williams, Joe Fishel and Howard McGillis, returned to their respective homes after a week's outing at Big Bear Lake, where they enjoyed that time in fishing, boating and other similar sports. The trip was made by automobile, and when six boys and their blankets, food, etc., were packed on one machine it made the journey across the desert quite difficult as well as unpleasant. However, with the exception of several blow-outs, the trip turned out quite successfully, the hundred and sixty-odd miles being covered in about fourteen hours, this, of course, including the several stops.

Each one of the boys enjoyed fair luck at fishing, and as a result a number of their friends partook of trout meat for their Sunday's breakfast. The largest fish caught by any member of the party was hooked by Russell Tummell, his prize measuring eighteen inches in length.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S BRANCH

The Young People's Branch of the W. C. T. U. will meet at the home of Miss Isabel Barrett, 1464 West Third street, Tuesday evening, July 3. All young people are invited to attend.

WEATHER FORECAST—Fair to-night and Tuesday. Westerly winds.

likes America and is so well liked there. He lost his only son in France about six months ago.

The next news you get from us will reach you before this does and we are all hoping more for your sakes than ours that it will be good news.

We are leaving London this morning. We have our hats and capes, and our luggage (it isn't baggage any more) has gone. We don't know where we are going. We will all be glad to get at some real work again. Good-bys again.

DRAFT MACHINERY IN MOTION

PRESIDENT WILSON ISSUES PROCLAMATION INAUGURATING WORK OF SINGLING OUT MEN FOR ARMY

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, July 2.—President Wilson has set in motion the gigantic machinery of the draft by his proclamation, starting the huge task of singling out the manhood for the great American army. Only small groups of men are exempt from the draft. All must appear before the exemption boards and on hearing the evidence the board will either discharge or draft the men. In a few weeks the actual work of drafting will be begun.

AKABO SINKS SUBMARINE

PASSENGERS ARRIVING ON BIG TRANSATLANTIC LINER TELL OF RUNNING FIGHT WITH FOUR U-BOATS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

AN ATLANTIC PORT, July 2.—How the big liner, Akabo, sunk one out of 4 submarines in a running fight of six hours was told by the passengers of the liner arriving here this morning. The liner evaded all torpedoes and succeeded in exploding one submarine.

JAPAN NEGOTIATES TRADE

WOULD GIVE SOUTH SEA ISLANDS SEIZED FROM GERMANY TO U. S. IN EXCHANGE FOR PHILIPPINES

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

TOKIO, July 2.—The proposition that Japan negotiate with the United States for the exchange of the Philippine Islands to Japan for the South Sea Islands seized by the Mikado from Germany was made in parliament this morning. The belief was expressed that America will consent to the exchange, thus removing many difficulties tending to cause friction between the two countries. In discussing the Japanese policy in the Orient, it was said that America is suspicious of the Mikado's attitude toward China. Viscount Tomo, replying to this charge, said present conditions showed a marked improvement in this particular.

RUSSIA CONTINUES BIG OFFENSIVE

ONE TOWN AND 10,000 PRISONERS TAKEN IN VIGOROUS AND CONTINUED ATTACK ON GERMAN LINE

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

PETROGRAD, July 2.—Russia's first great offensive under a democratic regime is continuing vigorously. One town, 10,000 prisoners and a large number of machine guns were taken. German positions were stormed along a front of eighteen and a half miles in Galicia. The Russians made night attacks on both sides of Brzezany and Zwyzyn. The artillery arm of the Russian forces has been very active and violent fighting has been in progress from the region of Brzezany as far northward at Volhynia, a distance of 175 miles. Brzezany is an important position, being one of the keys to Lemberg, the capital of Galicia.

TWENTY-NINE MISSING IN NIAGARA DISASTER

FORTY MAY HAVE LOST THEIR LIVES WHEN GORGE ROUTE CAR SLID INTO NIAGARA RIVER SUNDAY

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

NIAGARA FALLS, N. Y., July 2.—Forty persons may have lost their lives when a Gorge route car left the rails and plunged down an embankment into the Niagara river yesterday. Eleven are known to be dead and twenty-nine are still missing. A washout due to recent heavy rains was the cause of the disaster which occurred just below the cantilever bridge and sixty feet below the point where the Niagara breaks into the turbulent waters of the rapids. There were more than fifty passengers on board. As the car slid down the twenty-foot embankment from the tracks to the edge of the river many escaped from the car but were unable to gain a footing on the slippery and steep bank.

CONGRESS OF MOTHERS PICNIC

The Annual Meeting of the First District California Congress of Mothers was held at Santa Monica Canyon, Saturday, June 30th. After the transaction of certain routine business and the reading of the reports of chairmen of committees, the officers for the coming year were installed. The list follows:
President, Mrs. W. A. Gallentine, Redondo Beach.
First Vice-President, Mrs. F. E. Tyson, Santa Monica.
Second Vice-President, Mrs. Phil Crockett, Willowbrook.
Third Vice-President, Mrs. Archibald, South Pasadena.
Fourth Vice-President, Miss Clara Brown, Pomona.
Recording Secretary, Mrs. Richardson D. White, Glendale.
Financial Secretary, Mrs. Pearl Meinert, Burbank.
Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Anna C. Corey, Hollywood.
Treasurer, Mrs. P. S. Soyster, Willowbrook.

Auditor, Mrs. S. E. Sanger, Monrovia.
Historian, Mrs. E. D. Taylor, Downey.
Parliamentarian, Mrs. P. S. McNutt, Glendale.

Mrs. Arthur Brown also became a member of this board as the president of the Glendale Federation of Parent-Teacher associations.

The special committee for work among soldiers and sailors, of which Mrs. C. E. Hutchinson, of Glendale, is chairman, was made a standing committee, during the period of the war, and a new committee on War Relief was created.

The meeting took the form of an all-day picnic, and a delicious picnic luncheon was served in the pavilion of the Bath House.

As usual, in all good things, Glendale was in the forefront, having the largest representation of any Federation. This is not only true of the office holders on the new executive board of the district, but also of the

AID RED CROSS

MAKE AMBULANCE PILLOWS AND COLLECT OLD NEWSPAPERS

Monday, June 25th, the children began making ambulance pillows and collecting newspapers for the Red Cross at the Third street school. It was an encouraging beginning. Mrs. H. E. Betz came every day and cut cloth and directed the children, as well as getting a number of orders for newspapers and collecting and preparing considerable material for cutting. Mrs. Goode and Mrs. Howe gave up three afternoons besides giving much outside help. Mrs. Cora S. Taylor was with us two afternoons and Miss Berry, Miss Church, Mrs. Duffield and Mrs. Barnes came also. Eight ambulance pillows were finished and two more nearly done. The paper will be reported on next week.

The section will not be open on Wednesday of this week which is July 4.

The children who helped so loyally are:

visitors present. The following Glendale people were present:

Mrs. Arthur Brown, Mrs. Ella Richardson, Mrs. C. E. Hutchinson, Dr. Jessie A. Russell, Mr. and Mrs. Richardson D. White, Mr. and Mrs. Kelley, Mrs. Florence Kurtz, Mrs. Burr, Mrs. Chas. Lehman, Mrs. P. S. McNutt, Miss Annie McIntyre.

A stirring address was made by Dr. Jessie A. Russell, state president of the Congress of Mothers, who was also a representative of Glendale. Dr. Russell promised to put into the work for the next three years just as much of her time and energy as possible, and those who know her realize that this means great things for the State Congress of Mothers during the next three years.

One of the most important matters discussed at the afternoon session was the proposed referendum on Bill No. 1013. This bill on its face seems to be simply a bill to limit taxation, which is, of course, a good thing; but upon close analysis it is found to contain several provisions which are positive menaces to the public schools of California.

In brief, it repeals all minimums heretofore provided in the school law and while permitting the county supervisors to increase the county tax by only 5 per cent. annually, leaves it entirely in their discretion as to how this increase shall be distributed. In other words, if this law goes into effect, school districts not only will not receive any increased support as they grow larger but will probably lose some of the support which they now receive. Moreover, a rapidly growing school district is directly penalized, since it does not receive increased financial support in proportion to the increase in the number of pupils. Furthermore, the bill is direct class legislation, since San Francisco city and county schools are expressly excepted from its operation.

Realizing the dangers in this bill, the executive board passed a resolution favoring its repeal by referendum, and pledging themselves to bend all of their energies to that end. In pursuance of this resolution, the Glendale Federation of Parent-Teacher associations expects to do some very active work in the next few days in circulating petitions for the referendum. These petitions must be filed not later than Friday of this week, and very rapid work will therefore be necessary.

After a very delightful and profitable day, the meeting broke up about four o'clock, after offering a rising vote of thanks to the Santa Monica and Venice Federations, who were the hostesses of the day.

MOUNTAIN FIRE

CASA VERDUGO HOME GUARDS DO VALIANT WORK IN EXTINGUISHING FLAMES

There was considerable excitement caused in the Glendale-Casa Verdugo community Sunday afternoon on account of fire breaking out in the Verdugo hills just north of Brand boulevard. The fire started on the stubble ground near the Priest residence, and a strong wind soon put it beyond the control of the men in charge. A call was sent out for the Casa Verdugo Home Guards and soon Capt. W. B. Kelley and members of the Guards were climbing the mountain side with shovels, spades and axes. The Glendale Fire Company was also called and upon reaching the scene of trouble found that no use could be made of the auto fire truck. Fire Chief Lankford, City Marshall Herald and others remained and did good work subduing the flames.

From all parts of Casa Verdugo and Glendale, men rushed to the foothills with shovels and got busy at once. At first the indications were that the fire would be a destructive one and would continue over the hills to the La Crescenta territory, but the diligent efforts of the members of the Casa Verdugo Home Guards and many others who worked so hard, kept the fire under control, and in the course of two hours the flames were entirely extinguished. E. K. Barnes, who is a genuine booster for the Home Guards, was everywhere present, speaking words of encouragement to the members, gathering up fire fighting tools, and giving his advice.

RED CROSS DISPLAY

At the Red Cross display of hospital garments and supplies on Thursday afternoon, the following chairmen and assistant chairmen will be in charge of exhibits:

DEATH OF HENRY D. MAC MASTER

Mr. Henry D. MacMaster passed away at the home of U. H. Emick, 219 S. Maryland avenue. He was born April 15, 1865, at Bergen, N. Y. It is a year and a half since his sickness began and during the past three months he was confined to his bed. Although every human effort was put forth for his recovery, he was called to give up his life June 30, 1917. He has lived a happy and successful life and was fully resigned to God's choice for him, and while the dear ones of the quiet sleeper mourn his absence, still they know the comfort of Him who does all things well. He is laid to rest in Forest Lawn Cemetery to await the resurrection morning.

The immediate family of the deceased include his beloved and faithful wife, A. D. MacMaster of Denver, Colo., J. D. MacMaster and Mrs. T. D. Palmer of Churchville, N. Y., Daniel and Watson MacMaster of Pittsburgh, Pa., Chas. MacMaster and Mrs. Harry C. Litts of Abilene, Kansas, Mrs. J. L. Dewey of Larned, Kansas.

Mr. Watson MacMaster and two sisters, Mrs. Litts and Mrs. Dewey, came from their homes to be with the loved brother during his long illness.

Services were held at the parlors of the Jewel City Undertaking Company of Glendale, Monday, July 2, at 2 p. m.

To the many friends, the family wish to extend their sincere appreciation of their sympathy and beautiful floral tokens of love.

HIGH SERVICE FOR WOMEN

Congresswoman Rankin from Montana has come forward with an idea that is worthy at once of her high office and of her sex.

"Food conservation on a national scale," she said, amid the cheers of the House, "is but the natural outgrowth of woman's traditional work. Women in the past have been concerned with the immediate preparation of food from one meal to another. They must now consider the food supply for the year. They must be individually concerned with the food supply for the whole country. Women are well fitted for these activities. They are so closely related to the home. Women officials, with their understanding and sympathy for home problems, will inspire confidence in the home woman and will encourage her to co-operate with the government in this emergency."

The key to the perplexing problem lies in Miss Rankin's suggestion of "women officials"—women leadership, women experience, women sense—in the department of food conservation.

Certainly the men upon whom official responsibility rests have shown little acumen toward any practical solution of the food-supply problem. They have given us words, words, words, high-sounding but without meaning, and they are hysterically heaping confusion upon confusion. Men by the thousands, who have never given a thought except by proxy to the food supply even of their own households, are now advancing amazing theories as to the food supply of the nation. Rich society women, who never enter their own kitchens, are touring in automobile parties, preaching "Preserve or perish" to the country women who have been preserving all their lives.

In the midst of such din and confusion the wise words of Miss Rankin strike a true note. For practical help in the food crisis we must turn to the women, who every day of every year have been dealing with the difficulties of feeding the nations.—Christian Herald.

TREES

(By Samuel Parker)

Californians are so accustomed to declaring that we of this state have "bigger, better and more of it" of anything than anywhere else in the world, that one runs great risk of loss of standing by venturing to insinuate anything to the contrary, and yet our boast in regard to the biggest trees, big and wonderful as they are, are excelled by eucalyptus specimens in Australia, nearly 500 feet in height and ranging from 80 to 100 feet in circumference, while a Mexican "bald cypress" is recorded with a girth of 112 feet. It is but a brief step from a tree to a forest, which is but an aggregation of trees. While forests exist in nearly all habitable countries, and no matter where found but give proof of the truth of the statement in Miss Gilmer's poem (printed Tuesday) that "No one but God could make a tree," it is in evidence in this case as in many others that the wise purpose of the Creator of all things is easily and often perverted by the rash act of man in puny effort to amend the works of the Almighty. The most notable and saddest instance of this was Father Adam, the first gardener and the first forester. Had he been less presumptuous it might have been easier for his progeny to-day. By the way, if you only take the Bible record of the tree you never get out of sight of it. Surely it cut a figure in Adam's case, and take the tree out of St. John's vision as recorded in Rev. 22, and the vision would lose a most valuable feature.

It is worthy of note here that Bible lands ages ago suffered for neglect of some very common methods of maintaining the producing ability of the soils in the matter of grain. But the fruits went out also. Destruction of forests, denuding the hills of their greenage, were common methods by which moisture was estopped and drought with its blighting effects invited. Any one caring to investigate, and the study is intensely interesting, will find that Bible countries, ancient or today, are no exceptions to the natural laws controlling rainfall, "seed time and harvest," except in cases of Divine intervention, as given by the prophet Elijah, when it didn't rain for so long, and then the down-pouring came, the dry and wet extremes, in answer to prayer of the man of God. Rainfall, the wide world over, is nature's method of preparing the soil for the reception of the seed, to be given back in due time in abundant harvests and fruits for the sustenance of human life and all animal life as well. Primarily all must come from the soil.

The growing tree must be taken into consideration as an important factor in producing the proper atmospheric conditions for wooing the rainfall, and maintaining of groves in our vast treeless realms becomes a patriotic duty wherever possible. While town-lot farming is now receiving so much attention at the hands of our boys (Glendale may well be proud of what they are doing), with this should go as a part of the same grand purpose, "I will plant a tree and give it a good chance for life and growth."

Plant a Tree

Dedicated to the School Children of America

By Samuel Parker

Is he a benefactor who
By skill or craft caused one blade more,
Of grass to grow where only grew
A single blade all time before?
A more than benefactor he
His name with saints should be arrayed,
Who generously plants a tree
For future service, shelter, shade.

In native groves how sad to see
The woodman's tireless ax at play,
The slow growth of a century
Destroyed within a single day.
Quickly restore the wanton waste
Invite the moisture, woo the breeze,
The forest's slain must be replaced—
Let everybody set out trees.

Let age and youth in friendly strife
Seek each the other to excel,
Till treeless plains assume new life
And homes where happy children dwell,
Surrounded each by grove and lawn,
Shall happier and brighter be,
This gladsome day to hasten on—
Let every pupil plant a tree.

A-down the lane of future years,
As verdant groves dot all the plain
And songs of birds salute our ears,
The record, "He lived not in vain
Who planted thus and planned that we,
Might shade and song so sweet enjoy."
Such benefactor you may be
* If Arbor Day you well employ.

FILLING THE BAG

Some of the largest fortunes to-day are the outgrowth of small savings. Little by little the store was added to; slowly, but surely, the amounts accumulated. What has been done can be repeated. Life is cast in a common mould. Equality is the universal heritage.

Your chances are as good as your fellow's. You alone can design your future, build the structure for the stretching years.

If you build it on the sure foundation of thrift, savings and economy, you will enjoy the reward these virtues earn.

TEACHERS PLAN BUSY SUMMER

Realizing the seriousness of the situation, the teachers in our public schools are foregoing their usual well-earned rest and are devoting themselves largely to some work of patriotic nature or to better preparing themselves for their work.

The Columbus avenue school teachers have imbibed the spirit of Preparedness. Mrs. Cora S. Taylor, principal, will spend the summer in Glendale, devoting herself largely to the Red Cross work, in which she has done such noble work the past few months.

Miss Bertha T. Berry, 225 Mountain avenue, will take work at the U. S. C. and is also devoting her afternoons to the Red Cross work at the Intermediate school.

Miss Maybelle Douglas will be at the Intermediate school in the interest of the Red Cross work. Miss Douglas has finished the home nursing course and is now taking French, first aid and dietetic courses, and has registered as a Red Cross nurse.

Miss Patterson has gone east for the summer.

Miss Tyler will be at home and is giving her time to Spanish children, increasing their knowledge of English.

Miss Ina M. Johnson will recuperate at her home, 1637 West Second street.

Miss Elsie Church will be at home most of the summer, but will take

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen P. Veselich, 601 Vassar avenue, are spending a month at Venice.

Mrs. Thomas Delgado of Inyo is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. O. Delgado, 906 Lomita avenue.

Miss Bertha Berry of the Columbus avenue school will attend the summer term of school at the U. S. C.

Mrs. Mary Ogden Ryan of Fifth street, with her house guest, Mrs. W. L. Wheeler of San Francisco, spent the week-end at Long Beach.

Miss Edith M. Church, who is taking library work at Riverside, writes that she is enjoying the work, but weather spells h-o-t in big letters.

Miss Marion Boomer is visiting her sister, Mrs. G. H. Peterson, 711 Lomita avenue. Miss Boomer is a teacher in the public schools at Bakersfield.

Mrs. W. E. Edmonds, Miss May Lyon, Miss Helen Wallace, Ed Stafford and Roy D. King were in attendance at the C. E. convention at Riverside Sunday.

Mr. William M. Lane and Miss Margaret Burgess were married at The Manse Saturday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock, Rev. W. E. Edmonds officiating. Only immediate members of the family were present.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Hutson and daughter Margaret, of Claremont, motored to Glendale Sunday, where they were joined by Mrs. E. R. Naudain and daughter Lois and enjoyed a very delightful trip to Ocean Park.

Mrs. Norma Rockhold Robbins, the well-known musician, connected with the U. S. C., is spending the summer in New York City. She was accompanied by four of her pupils, one of whom, Miss Zetie S. Duncan, lives in Glendale, at 331 S. Central avenue.

Miss Vantine Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Lucas Smith of 305 North Adams street, who is employed in the Los Angeles public library, will spend two weeks of her month's vacation acting as librarian at the municipal playground in the San Bernardino Mountains.

Mrs. R. T. Burr, 823 Campbell street, entertained as week-end guests Miss Tacie Hanna, English teacher in the San Bernardino high school, and Miss Genevieve Sullivan, also a teacher in San Bernardino high school. Miss Sullivan is a sister of Mrs. Burr and will spend the summer with her, taking a course of oratory in the U. S. C.

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Vesper, 907 Lomita avenue, were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Bachman on Friday evening and on Sunday motored to Santa Monica, where they enjoyed a visit with old-time friends. They were the guests of Mr. John G. Smith, who was entertaining for his brother, Mr. Smith, president of the Algona, Iowa, bank. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Cook of Hollywood, also former residents of Algona, Iowa.

Mrs. E. T. Otis of the Dolly Varden confectionery has received a large photograph of Co. D-9, U. S. Navy training station, taken on Goat Island. Mrs. Otis' son Norman is a member of this company, which comprises one hundred men. Norman's friends will be sorry to hear that he has been ill a large part of the time he has been at the training camp. The boys of Co. D-9 expect to be called to active service within two weeks. They may be sent to San Diego or into Asiatic waters.

Miss Clara Midcalf of 344 Orange street, who was overcome by the heat during the recent hot wave, has recovered sufficiently to be removed to the beach, where she will spend the summer.

The many friends of Mrs. A. J. Maxwell will be glad to know that she is convalescing from her very serious operation at Thornycroft Hospital and is at home at 236 South Maryland avenue.

The Pasadena Good Templars will hold their annual picnic at Brookside Park July 4th. All members of the Glendale Lodge are invited. Basket luncheon. Pasadena Lodge will furnish free coffee.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie M. Parker, 311 S. Louise street, were visitors to Whittier Thursday, where they attended the Marshalltown, Iowa, Birthday Club, which meets monthly. Mrs. Cora Marsh of Glendale was also in attendance.

Mr. Stephen C. Packer leaves today for Boston, where he goes as delegate from the Elks Lodge, Glendale to the National Convention of the B. P. O. E. He will be absent from the city about three weeks. Mr. Packer is a Past Exalted Ruler of Glendale Lodge.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Bartlett were called to Pomona to the bedside of Mr. W. D. Simpson, a cousin, who has suffered what will probably prove a fatal stroke of paralysis. Mrs. Bartlett has recalled the invitations which she had issued for Tuesday afternoon.

Dan Campbell, president of the First National Bank of Tropic, proved himself to be a real fire fighter Sunday afternoon at the fire on the Verdugo hills. Mr. Campbell has a beautiful home on the foothills and he is well aware of the importance of keeping the hills free from fire.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Tyler of Edgerton, Wisconsin, are spending the summer with their sister, Miss Edith Tyler, 1463 Salem street. Miss Edith Tyler and her guests, Miss Elsie Tyler, and Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Kingsley of South Burlington avenue, Los Angeles, spent the week-end at Santa Monica.

Miss Viola Yorba of Casa Verdugo is mourning the loss of a valuable Elk's tooth pin which she treasured very highly. The pin is engraved with the name Viola and with the initials H. S. D. and V. Y. S. 1912. Miss Yorba will amply reward the finder if the pin is returned to the Elks Lodge, to H. S. Duffield, or to her, Glendale 370.

Rev. and Mrs. R. W. Mottern and son Dorsey have returned from Riverside where they have been attending the C. E. convention. They report a glorious convention and a delightful visit. Rev. Mottern was pastor in Riverside for five and a half years and it was like going home. Miss Elizabeth Mottern, who accompanied her parents to Riverside, will remain for a week's visit.

Miss Jeanette McLennan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Preson, 725 South Adams street, will go to Chicago to take a two years' course in Physical Culture at the Chicago Normal School of Physical Culture. Miss McLennan was one of the class of 1917, Glendale Union High School and it is a source of much gratification that so many of the students will take advance work.

PATRIOTIC SERVICES

The International Patriotic Service held at the First Methodist church Sunday evening was largely attended and a spirit of patriotism of the highest order was exhibited by those present.

The fife and drum corps of the Soldiers' Home was on hand and after playing a number of patriotic airs before the church, led the file of the veterans of '61, composing the N. P. Banks Post, the Woman's Relief Corps and the recently enlisted coast artillery down the aisle to the front of the auditorium, where places had been reserved for them.

It was an inspiring sight and one that thrilled the hearts of the congregation which greeted their appearance with prolonged applause.

The contrast between those veterans in blue, who were the defenders of our country in '61, and the manly forms in the khaki-colored uniform of the coast artillery only emphasized the thought that when the Civil War began, these same veterans were the stalwart youth of our land, and they too went out to defend principles rather than for conquest.

The Processional, Onward, Christian Soldiers, by the large chorus choir was very appropriate and added largely to the impressiveness of the service. Kipling's Lest We Forget was also rendered by the choir. Dr. Henry R. Harrower sang the Welsh national anthem in a most inspiring manner. The pastor, Rev. B. Dudley Snudden, spoke on "America, the Land of Destiny" in tones of unmistakable patriotism. An appropriate selection with Peace as its theme was given by a quartet composed of Miss Isgrig, Mrs. Starkey, Mr. Haines and Dr. Ralph Lusby.

The congregation by unanimous vote authorized the church treasurer to send a night letter to President Woodrow Wilson urging him to use his influence to include beer and wine in the national food conservation bill.

GLENDALE CITY UNION

Mrs. Ruby J. Smart, 336 Olive street, was the gracious hostess to a large number of members and friends of the W. C. T. U. Friday afternoon. Mrs. Smart is the beloved president of this union, and is untiring in her labors of love and good work for her union, as also the County, State and National W. C. T. U. The decorations were part of the observance of flower of work of which Mrs. Cora Pettit is the superintendent. Many beautiful flowers were used, the national colors predominating. One very attractive part of the decorations was a unique Japanese arrangement of the flags of all nations, which was a gift to Mrs. Smart from friends in Japan.

The program was very pleasing and was varied in its many ways of instructive entertainment.

Mrs. Hyatt, president of West Glendale Union, gave a short address which was much enjoyed. Miss Olive Taylor gave a reading, "The Great Awakening," also readings by Miss Alma Beckman, "The Price of a Glass"; Mrs. Hartley, "Flower Mission Relief Work." The musical numbers were: vocal solo, Miss Hazel Walter; piano solo, Miss Faith Tarling; violin solo, Miss Evangeline Quackenbush.

Mrs. Smart presented the War Service Work of the W. C. T. U. and gave a resume of the work done by the organization, and explained the making of comfort bags. Also read letters from state officers of the W. C. T. U. telling that a War Service Bureau has been opened at the headquarters, the Temple, where all unions can get comfort bag supplies at wholesale price. The making of these bags will be begun at our next meeting, Friday, July 6th, at 2:30 p. m., at the home of Mrs. John Esterly, 800 Adams street. A telegram was sent to President Wilson, pleading for bone-dry prohibition.

A donation of money was sent to help the W. C. T. U. Ambulance Fund.

Mrs. L. M. Warner, 624 Adams street, social superintendent, assisted the hostess.

Delicious, cooling refreshments were served at the close of the meeting.

SECOND OFFICERS' TRAINING CAMP.

August 27-Nov. 26, 1917, the Presidio, San Francisco, Cal.

General Plan—To provide officers for the drafted forces of the National Army the War Department has adopted the policy of commissioning all new officers of the line (Infantry, Cavalry, Field and Coast Artillery) purely on the basis of demonstrated ability after three months' observation and training in the Officers' Training Camps.

A second series of Officers' Training Camps will be held beginning August 27, 1917, with the definite mission of producing a body of line officers (Infantry, Cavalry, Field and Coast Artillery) capable of filling all places in the grades above Lieutenant and many of the places in the grade of lieutenant in the second 500,000 troops.

Date and Location of Camp—The second camp for the Western Department will be held at the Presidio Reservation, San Francisco, Cal., and will open on August 27, 1917, and close November 26, 1917.

Qualifications—(a) Members of the Officers' Reserve Corps (line sections) who, through no fault of their own, were unable to attend the first series of camps; also Reserve Officers of Staff Corps under 50 years of age with at least two months' service in war and who have had experience in Infantry, Cavalry or Artillery.

(b) Non-commissioned officers of the Regular Army recommended in March, 1917, for temporary appointment in case of war, and who, through no fault of their own, were unable to attend the training schools for Regular Army non-commissioned officers in April, 1917. Maximum age limit 50 years.

(c) Resigned officers of the Regular Army. Maximum age limit 50 years.

(d) Men of proper qualifications made eligible for the Officers' Reserve Corps by the Army appropriation of May 12, 1917. Maximum age limit 50 years.

(e) Men who have qualified for commissions under General Orders No. 42, War Department, 1915. Maximum age limit 50 years.

(f) Citizens of the United States who have had war service in the present war as officers or non-commissioned officers of the line in the armies of allied powers. Maximum age limit 44 years.

(g) Men of exceptional qualifications who tendered their services to the government prior to June 5, 1917, and who have been listed under G. O. 37, War Department. Maximum age limit 50 years.

(h) Citizens with valuable military experience and adaptability for commissioned grade, or citizens who have demonstrated marked ability and capacity for leadership, and are clearly adapted for military service in commissioned grade. Maximum age limit 44 years.

Employees of the United States must inclose the signed recommendation and consent of their chiefs.

Note—Men who applied for the first series of camps must re-apply whether or not certified as suitable for the first camps. They will have no preference in selection for these camps but will be on an equal basis with other applicants.

The minimum age limit for all applicants is 20 years and 9 months. However, in order to obtain the experienced class of men desired, preference will be given to men over 31 years of age other things being equal. Because of the anticipated large number of applications, it will probably be difficult for men under that age to qualify except in instances where the applicant has pre-eminent qualifications or unusual military experience.

No Letters of Recommendation—Note particularly that letters of recommendation are not wanted, but only the names of three responsible citizens who know the applicant best. Each applicant must be examined physically at his own expense by a reputable physician who will fill out the physical report forming part of the official application blank. This preliminary examination is subject to review and the examining officer may require another examination. Men who submitted physical examination of the army blank for the first series of camps may submit these reports in lieu of a new examination.

Applications will be received up to July 15, 1917. Under no circumstances will an application be considered if received after July 15.

Obligation—Accepted applicants, unless they are reserve officers or members of the Regular Army or National Guard in Federal service, will be required to enlist for a period of three months, under Section 54, National Defense Act, and will agree to accept such commission in the army of the United States as may be tendered by the Secretary of War. The enlistment obligates one to service in the training camp only.

Pay and Expenses—The government will pay the men in training $100 per month during the three months' course and will provide transportation, uniforms and subsistence except that Reserve Officers in training will receive the pay of their grades and will provide uniforms and subsistence at their own expense.

Character of Men Desired—Since the special object of these camps is to train a body of men fitted to fill the more responsible positions of command in the new armies, every effort will be made to select men of exceptional character and proved ability in their various occupations. While it is desired to give full opportunity for all eligible citizens to apply, no man need make application whose record is not in all respects above reproach and who does not possess the fundamental characteristics necessary to inspire respect and confidence.

How to Make Application—Every candidate must file his application in person with the Local Committee of the Military Training Camps Association in the town in which he resides. A Military Training Camps Association Committee will be appointed in every town having a population of not less than 2500 within the eight States from which candidates are to be drawn for the Presidio Camp. From these committees application blanks can be secured. Information as to the identity and address of the above mentioned local committees can be had from the cashier of any bank. Do not mail your application.

THE CROAKER

Once, by the edge of a pleasant pool, Under the bank where it was dark and cool.

Just where the brook flowed out of the bog,

There lived a gouty and mean old frog.

Who'd sit all day in the mud and soak,

And just do nothing but croak and croak.

Where the bushes over the water hung,

And the grasses nod and the rushes swung,

And voiced his woes with a mournful croak.

Till a blackbird whistled, "I say, you know—"

What's the matter down there below?

Are you in pain, or sorrow or what?

And the frog answered, "Mine is a gruesome lot—"

Nothing but dirt and mud and slime For me to look at the live-long time.

"Tis a dismal world," he sadly spoke.

"But you're looking down," the blackbird said,

"Look at the blossoms overhead;

Look at the beautiful summer skies;

Look at the bees and butterflies;

Look up, old fellow; why, bless my soul,

You're looking down into a muskrat's hole!"

But still with gurgling sob and choke

The frog continued to croak and croak.

But a wise old turtle—who boarded near—

Said to the blackbird, "Friend, see here,

Don't waste your tears on him, for he

Is miserable 'cause he wants to be—

He is one of the kind that won't be glad,

And it makes him happy to think he's sad;

I'll tell you something—and it's no joke—

Don't waste your pity on those who croak."

DIAMOND MINING.

In Kimberley, South Africa, the DeBeers Company find it necessary to use the most stringent means to protect their diamonds. When a man goes to work for this company he must sign a contract for four months, and during that time he cannot leave the compound except to go to his work. A large per cent. of the workmen are Kaffirs.

The twenty square miles owned by this company are fenced with barbed wire stretching for miles through a tangle of underbrush. If a man attempts to escape, or break in, there a system of alarm bells which notifies the guard and indicates the exact point. At night the mines are brilliantly lighted with great electric arcs. But in spite of all precautions the DeBeers Company estimated their annual loss into the millions. How the stealing of diamonds is possible where the workmen are closely watched no one can imagine. In some cases Kaffirs about to leave have been known to tie up a valuable diamond in a rag, and when opportunity offered, would throw it over the barbed wire fence, hoping to find it again when once outside. The guards have several times picked up diamonds done up in this fashion.—Exchange.

INFORMATION FOR AUTO TOURISTS.

According to a report just issued by the Automobile Club of Southern California, there is an average of 25 transcontinental touring parties starting from this section to eastern points daily, over the National Trails Route, while during the same time more than 40 parties of eastern motorists are starting for California. These figures were secured through the agency of a "counter" who was located at the bridge at Topock, over which all motorists going across the country must travel. This condition has existed for weeks, and travel is now growing rapidly.

This being true, it would seem natural to believe that there are hundreds of residents of this section who have decided or are contemplating a trip to eastern points over this particular trail during the coming weeks and months. To these motorists the Automobile Club of Southern California has a message, this being in the form of a list of the prices that are being charged for gasoline at various points along the route, along with brief road conditions. This "gas cost" seems at this time to be a "burning" question and one which will interest motorists other than those who are going eastward.

The list, compiled by the Automobile Club at considerable expense, is as follows:

Barstow—Gasoline 25c. Barstow to Needles, highway good.

Needles—Gasoline 25c to 30c. Needles to Topock excellent; Topock to Yucca slow because of numerous cross-washes and road having received no care from Mohave county for many months. Gang is now at work improving same, but it will need considerable work to put it in good shape. Yucca to Kingman very good.

Kingman—Gasoline 30c. Kingman to Seligman fair.

Ashfork—Gasoline 30c. Seligman to Ashfork in very poor condition for 20 miles—deep tire track, rough and rocky. It is not advisable from Ashfork to Grand Canyon owing to poor condition of road.

Williams—Gasoline 35c. Ashfork to Williams fair. Williams to Grand Canyon good. Williams to Flagstaff good.

Flagstaff—Gasoline 33c. Flagstaff to Grand Canyon in better condition than ever before. Santa Fe trail this section in good shape.

Holbrook—Gasoline 30c. Road from Holbrook to Springerville dry and dusty and trifle rough, especially through Petrified Forests.

Springerville—Gasoline 45c. St. Johns—Gasoline 40c.

Queamadeo—Gasoline 50c. (Highest price for gasoline on Santa Fe Trail—over 100 miles from railroad.)

Datjil—Gasoline 45c. Holbrook to Magdalena and Socorro roads dry and in fairly good shape—dusty in places.

Magdalena—Gasoline 35c. Roads in good shape.

Albuquerque—Gasoline 30c. Trail in excellent shape in this section.

Trinidad—Gasoline 26c. Road between Trinidad and La Junta in fair shape; somewhat rough in places due to recent rains and heavy travel.

La Junta—Gasoline 27c. Roads are good in this section.

Lamar—Gasoline 27c. Trail in excellent condition.

McPherson—Gasoline 22c. Lots of rain recently in this section, but roads not materially harmed.

Kansas City—Gasoline 19 1-3c. Roads in good shape.

PHILIPPINE EXPORTS

During the year 1916 exports from the Philippines amounted to nearly seventy million dollars. Hemp, sugar, and tobacco are among the main exports.

SABOTS

Scarcity of leather in England has led to the revival of the art of making wooden shoes. The demand for wooden "clogs" is so great in England that an order from the Belgian Government for one hundred thousand pairs had to be declined.—The Classmate.

KEEP ON BUILDING

About that improvement you are planning—

Why not go ahead with it? Every reason in the world says you should.

At no period in our history have we been so sure of the future. The eastern world's stomach is feeling the pinch of hunger, and its demands on the products of America's broad acres and American industries are growing with every passing hour. A great market is opening wider and wider. Honest and fair profits in all lines of legitimate effort are certain.

There should be no curtailment in building and road construction. Let both public and private useful construction proceed. Production and handling of building materials and public and private construction work are fundamental industries of the country. Any tendency to suspend or postpone building projects is inconsistent with maintaining our prosperity. The country is prosperous. Building investors should not hesitate to go ahead with their plans.

Railroad should spare no effort to supply the building industry with the cars needed to transport materials. Government, state, county, and municipal authorities should encourage the continuance of all kinds of building. Road and street improvements in particular should go on unabated. Bad roads and streets are factors of first importance in the present high cost of foodstuffs. Never before was the improvement of highways so essential.

The lumber, brick, cement, lime, sand, gravel, stone, and other building materials industries are basic. Neither Government regulations nor railroad restrictions should be imposed unnecessarily to interfere with them. If any action is taken which results in the prostration of so fundamentally important industries, there is real danger of a surplus of unemployed labor, a surplus of railroad cars and a crippling of business that will seriously embarrass the Government in financing the war.

The right thing to do is to keep building.—The Builder and Contractor.

HOW RED CROSS MONEY IS TO BE EXPENDED.

The following telegram has been sent to all Red Cross chapters in Southern California for their information:

The $100,000,000 will be spent: First—For base hospitals in Europe and wherever made necessary to protect our men at war.

Second—For beds, bandages, antiseptics, ambulances and thousands of doctors, nurses, drivers, and other attendants.

Third—For the relief of the dependents of fighters left at home.

Fourth—To aid our Allies in supplying their men these things, because every man of them is now fighting for us.

Fifth—To aid devastated parts of France which have been recaptured to get on a self-supporting basis, thus relieving necessity for sending them food and supplies. If we don't fight in Europe now we'll have to fight here later.

(Signed) JOHN J. BYRNE.

THE BRIDGE BUILDER

An old man, going a lone highway, Came at the evening, cold and gray, To a chasm dark and deep and wide.

The old man crossed in the twilight dim— The sullen stream had no fear for him;

But he turned, when safe on the other side, And built a bridge to span the tide.

"Old man," said a fellow-pilgrim near, "You are wasting your strength with building here;

Your journey will end with the ending day; You never again will pass this way; You've crossed the chasm deep and wide;

Why build a bridge to span the tide?"

The builder lifted his old gray head—"Good friend, in the path I have come," he said,

"There followeth after me to-day, A youth whose feet must pass this way."

This chasm that has been as naught to me, To that untried youth may a pitfall be;

He too must cross in the twilight dim . . . Good friend, I am building this bridge for him."

—The Builder and Contractor.

Two good old Scotch ladies were holding a stairhead confab one morning on the troubles of life, and husbands in particular.

"I dinna wonder at some pair wives having to help themselves out of their husbands' trouser pockets," remarked the one.

"I canna say I like them underhand ways myself," responded the second matron. "I jist turn ma man's breeches doonside up, and help mase' off the carpet."—Tit-Bits.

SCHEME TO PRODUCE ARTISTIC BUILDINGS

One method of accelerating the artistic impulse, and one that would seem to offer great possibilities, has, says the American Architect, been adopted in the South American city of Buenos Ayres. That municipality exempts from taxation each year the most beautiful building erected during the preceding twelve months, and in addition awards a medal to the architect. A more direct form of encouragement, or one that would possess a greater appeal for the average owner, it would be difficult to devise. It is possible that the decoration of the architect may be unnecessary to the success of the plan, but doubtless it is with the idea of taking cognizance rather than paying a reward that the medal is bestowed.

EVAPORATED VEGETABLES

American growers of vegetables have been experimenting with various drying treatments, and the result is a new industry, the evaporated vegetable industry, which is mostly supplied in western New York. Thousands of tons of evaporated vegetables have been shipped to the armies.

STEPPED HOUSES

Paris architects have built in the Rue Vavin a house in which each successive floor is set back several feet, with the idea of permitting light and air to reach the lower stories. This is a direct reversal of the ancient custom of building houses with over-hanging stories. The Architectural Review, of London, makes the assertion that while the "stepped" houses will solve several problems it will create several others. "Think of the effect," says The Review, "of an entire street of 'stepped' buildings, one side of the road receding from the other as in horror at a row of protruding chins and receding foreheads."

CO-OPERATION

"It ain't the guns nor armament, nor funds that they can pay, But the close co-operation that makes them win the day. It ain't the individual nor the army as a whole, But the everlastin' team-work of every bloomin' soul." —Kipling.
