1893. Department No. 10. Bureau of Statistics.

Treasury Department,

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY,

Washington, D. C., January 17, 1893.

To Collectors of Customs and others:

It having been represented to this Department that, owing to the numerous railroad stations throughont the country where goods are delivered for exportation to or through Canada and Mexico, railway and transportation companies have not been able to fully instruct their agents, and acquaint exporters with the requirements of the act of July 16, 1892, providing for statistics of exports by railways from the United States to foreign countries, they will be allowed until the 1st of April, 1893, to make the necessary preparations, at which date they will be expected to comply fully with the provisions of the law.

In view of this extension of time, officers of railway and transportation companies are requested to take active measures to inform their agents and the public of the requirements of the law, through notices posted at their stations and by the preparation of suitable blanks, instructions, and other means necessary to enable them to comply fully with the terms of the law.

This Department will freely furnish copies of the law, and the regulations and instructions issued under it, to all applicants.

To Collectors and other Officers of the Customs, and to Officers of the Revenue Marine:

Section 1956 of the Revised Statutes of the United States provides that no person shall, without the consent of the Secretary of the Treasury, kill any otter, mink, martin, sable, or fur seal, or other furbearing animal within the limits of Alaska Territory or in the waters thereof, and that any person convicted of a violation of that section shall for each offense be fined not less than $200 nor more than $1,000, or be imprisoned not more than six months, or both; and that all vessels, with their tackle, apparel, furniture, and cargo, found engaged in violation of that section, shall be forfeited.

No fur-bearing animal will be allowed to be killed by persons, other than natives, within the limits of Alaska Territory or in the waters thereof.

The killing by anyone of fur seals, except upon the Pribilof Islands by such party or parties as are permitted so to do, pursuant to the terms of a contract between the Government of the United States and such party or parties, is prohibited.

White men married to natives and residing within the Territory will not be entitled to the privilege of natives under this order.

The use of rifles, shotguns, or other firearms by the natives in killing sea otter, or the use of nets in taking them, is hereby prohibited.

No vessel except United States revenue cutters will be allowed to transport parties of natives to or from localities where sea otter are found.

Masters of vessels having on board skins of otter, mink, martin, sable, fur seal, or other fur-bearing animals taken in Alaska or Alaskan waters, before unlading the same shall report to the collector of customs at Sitka, or to a deputy collector at one of the ports of delivery in the district of Alaska, and shall file a manifest thereof and obtain a permit for their transportation if destined for a port in some other collection district, or if destined for a foreign port shall obtain a clearance.

Masters of vessels failing to comply with these regulations will be considered as having violated the provisions of section 1956 of the Revised Statutes, and will be liable to the penalties prescribed therein.

It will be the duty of the officers of the United States who may be in the localities where sea otter, mink, martin, sable, or fur seal, or other fur-bearing animals are taken, or who may have knowledge of any such offense committed, to take all proper measures to enforce the penalties of the law against persons guilty of a violation thereof.

These regulations supersede all others previously in force.

O. L. SPAULDING, Acting Secretary of the Treasury.

Nore.—The present ports of delivery in Alaska are Mary Island, Wrangle, Juneau, Sand Point, Kadiak, and Unalaska.

DISINFECTION OF EFFECTS AND BAGGAGE OF IMMIGRANTS AND OTHERS.

1893. Department No. 12. Division of Customs.

Treasury Department,

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY,

Washington, D. C., January 21, 1893.

To Collectors of Customs, Medical Officers of the United States Marine-Hospital Service, Immigration Officers and others:

The Department finds it necessary to call your attention to the provisions of Circulars No. 141, of August 17, 1892, and No. 147, of August 24, 1892, in regard to the disinfection of the personal effects and baggage of immigrants prior to embarkation. The Circular of August 17 provides for such disinfection of baggage coming from Russia or from any cholera-infected districts, while the Circular of August 24 extends these provisions to include the baggage and personal effects of immigrants from all European and Asiatie ports.

In case no consular certificate of such disinfection at the port of embarkation can be produced by the owners of such baggage, or if, for any reason, the supervising officers shall deem further disinfection desirable, the baggage of immigrants and of all other steerage passengers must be disinfected by the officers of the Marine-Hospital Service prior to delivery.

Recent circumstances have made it imperatively necessary that the utmost care should be exerted in regard to the matters treated of herein.

• O. L. SPAULDING, Acting Secretary.

REGARDING REQUIREMENTS AS TO CONSULAR INVOICES, MODIFYING CIRCULARS 170 AND 207 OF 1892.

1893. Department No. 14. Division of Customs.

Treasury Department,

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY,

Washington, D. C., January 25, 1893.

To Collectors and other Officers of the Customs:

The following letter addressed to the collector of customs at New York, under date of the 13th instant, regarding the requirements of consular invoices, is published for your information and guidance in connection with Department's circulars of September 22, 1892 (No. 170), and December 21, 1892 (No. 207).

JNO. H. GEAR,

Assistant Secretary.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT, JANUARY 13, 1893.

SIR:

The Department has received a letter from ——, of your port, inclosing for the inspection of the Department certain invoices of goods purchased by them, in which the prices are set forth f. o. b., and acceptance of which was refused by you on entry as contravening the requirements of Department's Circular No. 207.

While the Department justifies your action in the matter, it now instructs you that the invoices in question may be accepted, notwithstanding their nonconformity with the strict terms of the circular.

The circular in question was explanatory of Circular No. 170, which was based upon recent decisions of the Board of General Appraisers cited therein.

It appears, however, that notwithstanding the language used by the Board of General Appraisers in their decisions G. A. 1202 and 1660, invoices containing prices from which inland freight is deducted have been confirmed by them on reappraisement (No. 3986) as accurate.

The Department therefore accepts as its rule of action the decision of the board in the case cited, and you are instructed that whenever invoices shall be presented for entry which set forth a price f. o. b., you may admit the same with a deduction from the gross value of the costs of freight included in such price.

As this decision renders nugatory the terms of Circulars Nos. 170 and 207 so far as they apply to purchased goods, you will hereafter be ruled by the provisions of said circulars only so far as regards merchandise consigned to this country by a foreign owner.

Respectfully, yours,

O. L SPAULDING, Assistant Secretary.

COLLECTOR OF CUSTOMS, New York, N. Y.

TELEGRAMS TRANSMITTING INFORMATION OF DISASTERS.

1893. Department No. 16. Life-Saving Service.

Treasury Department,

OFFICE OF THE GENERAL SUPERINTENDENT LIFE-SAVING SERVICE,

Washington, D. C., February 2, 1893.

To Keepers of Life-Saving Stations:

Hereafter you will transmit to this office, by telegraph or telephone, where such facilities exist, a report of every wreck or marine casualty occurring within the limits of your station as soon as it can be done without interfering with the work of saving life and property, being careful to include in the message only such words as are absolutely necessary to give accurate information. In cases where loss of life occurs the messages should not only give the number of persons lost but also brief particulars of the loss. In signing the messages only the last name, without title, should be used.

Two short forms are given below, which it is believed can, with necessary modifications as to names, dates, etc., be used in most cases.

"CAPE HENRY STATION, January 13, 1893.

"GENERAL SUPERINTENDENT LIFE-SAVING SERVICE, Washington, D. C.

"Schooner Helen of Baltimore, from Savannah to Philadelphia, crew seven, cargo lumber, stranded 2½ miles north of station 2 o'clock this morning. All saved in surf boat. "PARKER."

OIROULAR No. 395.

PROPOSALS FOR PAPER UPON WHICH TO PRINT UNITED STATES IN-TERNAL-REVENUE STAMPS.

1893. Department No. 17.

Treasury Department,

OFFICE OF THE COMMISSIONER OF INTERNAL REVENUE,

Washington, D. C., February 6, 1893.

Scaled proposals will be received until 12 o'clock m. of March 8, 1893, for furnishing this office with such paper to be used in the printing of United States internal-revenue stamps during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1894, as may be from time to time ordered.

The paper must, in respect to composition, sizing, strength, and calendering, be equal to the samples of the paper now used in the printing of internal-revenue stamps which are to be found for examination at the office of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue—the degree of sizing, calendering, and strength to be such as may be prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury—and must be free from clay or other adulterations, thread knots, grit, or other foreign substances. A proportion of chemically prepared wood fiber (not exceeding 40 per cent) will be admitted in the composition. Each sheet of paper shall be made distinctive by being closely watermarked with the letters "U. S. I. R." in such manner that each square inch of the sheet shall bear some portion thereof.

The quantity required under the contract contemplated by this circular will be about eight hundred thousand (800,000) pounds, and will be white, plain green, or such other color, not more expensive, as may at any time be prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, but the coloring material used must not be such as to be injurious to persons handling the paper.

The paper is to be manufactured and delivered in such quantities, and in sheets of such sizes and weights, as this office may from time to time order, and must be counted, examined, and separated into lots of one thousand (1,000) sheets, each hundred separated by a paper tag, and each lot to be tied with strong twine.

The paper is to be manufactured under the supervision of an agent of the Government, and under the protection of guards to be stationed at the mill; and the contractor will be required to provide, without charge, in the building in which the paper is made rooms suitably furnished, to be used as an office by such agent, and for the persons designated to guard the paper delivered, and also a room in which to store it until shipped; and he will be further required to conform to such reasonable regulations as may be made by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, to prevent the improper removal from the mill of any of the paper manufactured under the contract. All paper will be receipted for by the agent at the mill, subject to future examination, and the contractor will be required to furnish perfect paper with which to replace any returned to him as defective.

The contractor will be required to sign a written contract and commence the manufacture of the paper at such time after June 30, 1893, as the Commissioner of Internal Revenue shall designate, and will also be required to enter into a bond in the sum of ten thousand dollars ($10,000), with approved sureties, for the faithful execution of the contract. The contract will bind the contractor to manufacture the special paper for the United States only. Bills accruing under the contract will be paid monthly.

Bidders will state in their proposals the price or prices per pound for the paper, deliverable at the Treasury Department, in the city of Washington, District of Columbia, securely packed, in the presence and under the direction of the agent of the Department stationed at the mill, in wooden boxes strapped with iron, scaled and marked ready for shipment, all at the expense of the contractor; and it is expressly stipulated that in case it shall be at any time necessary, in the opinion of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, to require shipment of paper by express, instead of by the ordinary freight delivery, the Gov erament shall not be responsible for the cost of transportation except to the extent of the ascertained difference between the express rate and the rate by freight.

All paper returned from the Department to the contractor as defective, for which he is required, as hereinbefore stated, to furnish paper to replace the same, shall be returned at the expense of the contractor, and the paper furnished in place thereof shall be delivered at his expense at the Treasury Department as aforesaid.

The contractor will be required to furnish new dandy rolls for watermarking the paper, unless those now owned by the Government can be used, and will be required to pay all expenses connected with the repairing of such dandy rolls from time to time as necessity may require. Such rolls shall be manufactured (and repaired, if necessary) under the supervision of an agent of the Government, and will become and remain the property of the United States.

Each proposal shall be accompanied by a written guarantee, signed by two (2) responsible persons, that if the award is made to the proponent the contract and the bond will be executed promptly on the making of the award.

Bids will not be considered unless made by persons actually engaged in the manufacture of paper, and the right to reject any and all bids and to waive informalities, in case it shall be deemed to the interest of the Government so to do, is hereby reserved.

The bids will be opened on Wednesday, the 8th day of March, 1893, at 12 o'clock m., and bidders are invited to be present.

Bids should be indorsed "Proposals for Internal-Revenue Stamp Paper," and addressed to the "Commissioner of Internal Revenue, Washington, D. C." No blanks for such proposals are furnished, nor are they required. Proposals may be made by letter.

Bidders are required to deposit with their bids samples of the paper which they propose to furnish at the price or prices bid, which samples will be subjected to the usual tests as to strength and quality.

JOHN. W. MASON,

Commissioner.

PROCEEDINGS ON ENTRY OF IMPORTED MERCHANDISE.

1893. 00.13769 Department No. 18.

Division of Customs.

Treasury Department,

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY,

Washington, D. C., February 4, 1893.

To Collectors of Customs and others:

The practice at some of the ports in relation to the entry of imported merchandise having become lax and irregular, the Department finds it necessary to remind officers of enstoms that the provisions of Circular No. 84 of 1880 (Synopsis 4672), are still in force, and that the procedure therein set forth must be strictly followed; said provisions are now republished for general information, with such changes as are required by the existing regulations:

1. Entries must be made on the proper form, as prescribed by Chapter V of the Customs Regulations of 1892.

2. Duties should be estimated upon such entries, according to the invoice and entered value, and when merchandise is entered for consumption, the duties must be collected before the examination of the merchandise and accounted for without deduction. A proper number of packages should be designated for examination as required by law.

3. Due examination and appraisement must be made either by the appraiser of the port, by an officer to be designated as acting appraiser, or by the collector, as the circumstances may render necessary, and a proper return of such appraisement will be noted on the face of the invoice, and signed by the appraising officer.

4. When the amount of duties on merchandise depends upon the weight, gauge, or measure, such merchandise will be weighed, gauged, or measured by the proper customs officer, and a return thereof will be made in due form, signed by him.

5. Upon the receipt of the returns of the appraiser, weigher, gauger, measurer, etc., the liquidation will be made upon the face of the entry in red ink, showing the particulars thereof, be signed with the initials of the liquidating clerk, and recorded in the record of liquidations prescribed by the Department.

6. When, upon liquidation, additional duties are found to be due the collector will exact them before delivering the merchandise remaining in his enstody, or the packages designated for examination.

7. Any excess of deposits found to be due the importer, must be paid to him out of moneys to be drawn from the Treasury by the collector, and the amount paid should be accounted for as excess of deposits refunded. But at ports where no remittances are received for the above account, the refund may be made by means of a certified statement duly transmitted to this Department.

TRANSMISSION OF GOVERNMENT MESSAGES OVER BOND-AIDED OR SUB-SIDIZED TELEGRAPH LINES.

1893. Department No. 19.

Treasury Department, FIRST COMPTROLLER'S OFFICE, Washington, D. C., February 7, 1893.

To Disbursing Officers and other Officers and Agents of the Government:

The observance and enforcement of the following regulations will hereafter be required of the disbursing officers and other officers and agents of the Government whose accounts are examined and certified by the First Comptroller of the Treasury. A strict compliance therewith will obviate the necessity of disallowances and suspensions in the settlement of their accounts:

1. The statutes of the United States require that the compensation for messages sent at Government expense over telegraph lines constructed in connection with Pacific railroads, to which bonds have been issued by the United States in aid of their construction, shall be withheld by the Secretary of the Treasury and applied in payment of the subsidy bonds and interest. In order that these provisions of law may be complied with, the accounts of the respective telegraph companies for Government messages sent over bond-aided or subsidized lines must be transmitted to the Treasury Department for settlement, and not be paid by disbursing officers or by any other officers or agents of the Government.

2. Officers or agents of the Government, in sending messages on Government business, are instructed to use the bond aided or subsidized telegraph lines, whenever practicable to do so, in preference to other lines which are not subject to the same conditions. In such cases the officer or agent sending the message must indorse thereon a request that it be sent over the bond aided or subsidized line, designating it by name.

3. Where the entire service is over bond-aided or subsidized telegraph lines no payment to the tele graph companies must be made by the officer or agent of the Government who sends the message or by any disbursing officer. In such case the officer or agent sending the message is not charged with any duty respecting the payment thereof, except to inform the agent or operator of the telegraph company who receives the message that it is the duty of the company under the law to transmit the same, and to present its account therefor to the proper Department of the Government, to be approved by the head of such Department, under the proper appropriation, and forwarded to the accounting officers of the Treasury for settlement in accordance with the requirements of the law. Such accounts should be forwarded by the respective telegraph companies, through their usual channels, to that Department of the Government with which the officers or agents sending the respective messages are connected. For example : An account for messages sent by officers of the Interior Department should be transmitted to that Department to be approved and forwarded to the accounting officers of the Treasury for settlement; an account for messages sent by officers of the Department of Justice should be forwarded in like manner to that Department, or an account for messages sent by officers of the Treasury Department should be transmitted to the Secretary of the Treasury. 4. Where the service is continuous and entire over lines partly subsidized and partly not, or over connecting lines one of which is subsidized and the other not, but one account for the entire service should be rendered by the telegraph company which receives and transmits the message, showing the respective amounts claimed for aided and nonaided service. Such account is not to be paid by any disbursing officer or by the officer or agent sending the message, but must be forwarded by the telegraph company to the proper Department of the Government in the manner already indicated, and in the settlement thereof by the accounting officers, the amount found due and payable in money for nonaided service will be certified for payment to the telegraph company, and the amount found due for service over the bond-aided lines will be applied as required by law.

For the information and guidance of all concerned is subjoined a list descriptive of the bonded Pacific railroads in connection with which bond-aided or subsidized telegraph lines have been constructed, and a reference to the several acts of Congress relating thereto.

ENTRY OF RETURNED FLOUR BAGS.

1893. Department No. 21. Division of Customs.

Treasury Department,

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY. Washington, D. C., February 8, 1893.

To Collectors and other Officers of the Customs:

Jute bags of American manufacture, known commercially as "one-hundred-and-forty-pound flour bags," exported filled with flour and returned empty, in respect to which the importer is, at the time of importation, unable to furnish the proofs required by article 336 of the Customs Regulations of 1892, as to the name of the exporting vessel, marks and numbers, and date of manifest under which the bags were exported, may, on completion of other proofs required by the Regulations, be admitted to entry on a deposit by the importer equal to one and one-half cents per bag, to cover any allowance of drawback which may have been paid on the exportation thereof; and if within one year from the date of importation the importer shall furnish all the proofs required by existing regulations, he shall be entitled to a refund of any excess of deposits which may, by means of such proofs, be shown to have been made.

REGULATION IN REGARD TO ENTRIES IN BOOK FORMS 2112 A, B, AND C.

1893. Department No. 22.

Treasury Department,

STEAMBOAT-INSPECTION SERVICE, OFFICE OF THE SUPERVISING INSPECTOR-GENERAL,

Washington, D. C., February 9, 1893.

To Supervising and Local Inspectors of Steam Vessels:

The attention of the Department has been called to a seeming neglect or misunderstanding on the part of some of the local and assistant inspectors to a strict and intelligent compliance with the last paragraph of the lefter of the Supervising Inspector-General, printed on the first page of Book Forms 2112 A, B, and C, which paragraph reads as follows: "Under the head of remarks on the tenth and following pages, inspectors must note all changes that may have occurred in the outfit and general conditions of the hull (Book 2112 B, boilers and engines), giving in detail the nature of the repairs made since last inspection ; also of all repairs made at the time of inspection under their direction."

The object of Books 2112 A, B, and C is for the purpose of keeping in the office of the inspectors, for the use of the inspection service generally, a complete record of the condition of the hulls, boilers, and engines of steamers at the time of their inspection from year to year, as a ready reference to determine therefrom the actual condition of any inspected steam vessel when such information may be desired by the Department without the necessity of an examination of the vessel itself, and is also intended as a protection to the officers who make the inspection, in case such vessels shall meet with disaster after inspection, as record evidence of the proper performance of duty on their part at the time of inspection.

On the first pages of "Remarks" should be entered in detail a full description of all repairs that may have occurred, if any, since date of previous inspection. On the following pages should be entered in detail a full description of repairs ordered by the inspectors to hull, boilers, or engines.

All orders to steam vessels for repairs of any kind whatever, or for replacing outfits of any kind found short, must be in writing, and a copy made for the office records, to be referred to by date in Form 2112. Inspectors are further informed that they must not, in any case, issue a certificate to a steamer until they are satisfied that all shorts and repairs ordered have been supplied, which fact must also be noted in Form 2112 A, B, or C.

A failure on the part of any officer of the inspection service to comply with the foregoing requirements will subject such officer to the extreme discipline of the Treasury Department.

Supervising inspectors, when visiting the local boards in their districts, will examine the record books referred to herein to see that they are kept in the proper manner, and are directed to report to the Department any failure to comply with the instructions therein on the part of their subordinates, so that the Department may take cognizance of such neglect.

JAS. A. DUMONT, Supervising Inspector-General.

CHARLES FOSTER, Secretary of the Treasury.

CIRCULAR No. 397.

VERIFICATION OF LANDING CERTIFICATES BY FOREIGN AGENTS OF EXPORTING VESSEL, IN LIEU OF "OATH OF MASTER AND MATE," FOR ARTICLES EXPORTED UNDER INTERNAL-REVENUE LAWS.

1893. Department No. 23. Internal Revenue.

Treasury Department, office of internal revenue,

Washington, D. C., February 9, 1893.

In view of the difficulty often experienced in obtaining the oath of the master and mate to landing certificates covering articles exported from the United States by steamship lines, collectors of customs are hereby authorized, in all cases of exportation under internal-revenue laws, where the articles are exported by steam vessels belonging to, or chartered by, any steamship line having an agent at the foreign port of landing, to accept, in lieu of the prescribed oath of the master and mate, the sworn statement of such foreign agent. The statement of the agent in such cases must be substantially in the form heretofore prescribed for the master and mate of the exporting vessel, and must be sworn to before a United States consul or some foreign revenue officer having a seal.

So much of Regulations, Series 7, No. 4, revised October 27, 1885, and Series 7, No. 8, revised January 23, 1892, as relate to foreign landing certificates are hereby modified so as to conform to the foregoing instruction.

JOHN W. MASON,

Commissioner.

APPROVED:

O. L. SPAULDING, Acting Secretary.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,

WASHINGTON D. C., February 9, 1893.

The foregoing regulation is hereby made applicable to landing certificates for distilled spirits exported with benefit of internal-revenue drawback under section 3329, Revised Statutes, as amended, and Department Regulations, Appendix to Series 7, No. 7, approved February 7, 1890, and Appendix No. 2, approved July 14, 1892.

CIRCULAR.

AMENDED STEAMBOAT RULES AND REGULATIONS.

1893. Department No. 25.

Treasury Department,

OFFICE OF THE SUPERVISING INSPECTOR-GENERAL, STEAMBOAT-INSPECTION SERVICE,

The Maltby Building, Washington, D. C., February 14, 1893.

At the regular meeting of the Board of Supervising Inspectors of Steam Vessels, held in the Maltby Building, Washington, D. C., January and February, 1893, in pursuance of section 4405, Revised Statutes of the United States, amendments were made to various sections of Rule II, section 7 of Rule IV, and various sections of Rule V.

Changes were made in forms of Certificates of Inspection Nos. 2115 and 2115¹/₂, for which inspectors should make requisition, and, as soon as supplied, use the new forms exclusively, interlining the changes in original in book of certificates.

Section VIII of Pilot Rules (lakes and seaboard) was amended generally in regard to steamers passing and going in the same direction, and specially for steamers meeting or passing "in the navigable channels on the Great Lakes and their tributary and connecting waters less than 500 feet in width." This rule to go into operation at and after midnight April 30, 1893.

The boundary line between the fourth and fifth districts on the Missouri River will be hereafter "the month of the Niobrara River at its junction with Missouri River," instead of at Yankton, as formerly.

The Board also passed the following resolution :

Resolved, That all drums attached to coil, pipe, sectional, or water-tube boilers not already in use at the date of the approval of this rule (February 9, 1893), shall be required to have the heads of wrought iron or steel flanged and substantially riveted to the drums, in all cases where the diameters of such drums exceed 6 inches.

These amendments having received the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, dated February 9, 1893, have now the force of law, as provided in section 4405, Revised Statutes, and must be observed accordingly.

The following devices were approved by the Board, and have also received the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, as required by section 4491, Revised Statutes:

Air mattress, presented by W. H. Huntington, Metropolitan Air Goods Company, Boston, Mass., rated as a single life-preserver.

Kearns' pop safety valve, J. T. Kearns.

J. Walter Douglas' lifeboat.

No. 2 Hunt gun (20 inches long, 21 inches diameter of bore) may be used on steam vessels from 100 to 500 tons when the gun is constructed in all its parts of material same as used in the large Hunt gun already approved by this Board.

The Board, under the authority conferred upon them by section 4429, Revised Statutes, approved the following coil and pipe boilers, when constructed in all their parts of wrought iron or steel plates : Henry Sutter, Griswold Pipe Generator and the Sutter Sectional Porcupine boiler; Louis S. Clark, Pittsburg, Pa.; H. H. Frederick, New Orleans (3 horse power); E. A. Magee, Brooklyn, N. Y.; A. E. Corey, Allegheny, Pa.; Stillman Saunders, Providence, R. I.; Wickes Bros., East Saginaw, Mich.; Augustus Bailey, Spuyten Duyvil, N. Y.; Thomas Fearon, Yonkers, N. Y.; Howard Steam Generator, H. J. Haucock, New York, N. Y.; Coller Sectional Boiler, Coller Yacht and Engine Works, Detroit, Mich.; Taylor Bros., Trenton, N. J.; Seachrist & Parker, Eric, Pa.; Laughlen & Co., Pittsburg, Pa.; B. Lonis Toquet, Westport, Conn.; Warner & Papst, San Francisco, Cal.; Geo. D. Bower, Trenton, N. J.; A. C. Harding, Chicago, Ill.; Fenlayson & Popkins, Detroit, Mich.; Joseph Mohr, Chicago, Ill.

Following is the text of the paragraphs of sections of rules amended in part only, the parts stricken out inclosed in brackets [thus], while the amendments to such paragraphs are printed in italies. Entirely new sections and paragraphs of sections are in plain type preceded by the word (new) in parenthesis.

An amendment to section 3 of Rule II, relating to strength of the longitudinal seams of boilers, failed to receive the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury.

JAS. A. DUMONT,

Supervising Inspector-General, President of the Board of Supervising Inspectors of Steam Vessels.

Approved, February 14, 1893. CHARLES FOSTER,

Secretary of the Treasury.

RULE II.

Section 7. [Added to section.] (New.) Steel stay bolts exceeding a diameter of 11 inches and not exceeding a diameter of $2\frac{1}{2}$ inches at the bottom of the thread may be allowed a strain not exceeding 8,000 pounds per square inch of cross section; steel stay bolts exceeding a diameter of $2\frac{1}{2}$ inches at bottom of thread may be allowed a strain not exceeding 9,000 pounds per square inch of cross section; but no forged or welded steel stays will be allowed.

The ends of such stays may be upset to a sufficient thickness to allow for truing-up and including the depth of the thread.

And all such stays after being upset shall be thoroughly annealed.

All steel bars intended for use as stay bolts to be allowed a strain exceeding 6,000 pounds per square inch of cross section shall be tested by the inspectors, in lots not to exceed fifty bars, in the following manner: Inspectors shall promiseuously select one bar from each lot and bend one end of such bar cold to a enrve the inner radius of which is to equal one and one half times the diameter of the test bar; and should any such test bar break in the bending process, the lot from which the test bar was taken shall not be allowed to be worked into stay bolts for marine boilers.

And all manufacturers of marine boilers desiring to employ the steel stays provided for herein shall be required to furnish the inspectors with the following form of affidavit:

STATE OF _____, County of _____, ss:

Personally appeared before me, a notary public for and in the county of --- and State of ---, Mr. ---, who, being first duly sworn, deposes and says that he is the --- of the steam-boiler works situated at ---, and known as the ---, and that the lot or lots of steel bars from which test bars were taken and tested by the inspector- on the ----, and or ---, 189-, and allowed for use in the steam boiler- to be constructed for the steamer ----, and to be allowed a strain not to exceed ----- pounds per square inch of section as a working steam pressure, will be used in the construction of the boiler- for the steamer ----, and no material for stay bolts required to carry a strain equal to ---- pounds per square inch of section will be used as stay bolts or stays in the construction of the boiler- for the steamer muless tested by the inspector and approved by him in accordance with the requirements of law.

Sworn to and subscribed before this — day of —, 189-.

Notary Public.

Sections 8,9, and all of that part of section 10 which precedes "corrugated furnace flues" were repealed.

RIVETED AND LAP-WELDED FLUES.

8. (New.) The following table shall include all riveted and lap-welded fines exceeding 6 inches in diameter and not exceeding 40 inches in diameter not otherwise provided for by law. And all such fines shall be made in sections, according to their respective diameters, not to exceed the lengths prescribed in the table, and such sections shall be properly fitted one into the other and substantially riveted, and the thickness of, material required for any such flue of any given diameter ; and all such flues may be allowed the prescribed working steam pressure if in the opinion of the inspectors it is deemed safe to make such allowance. And inspectors are therefore required, from actual measurement of each flue, to make such reduction from the prescribed working steam pressure for any given in the form of the flue from that of a true circle, as in their jndgment the safety of navigation may require.

Kiveted and lap-welded flues of any thickness of material, diameter, and length of sections, prescribed in the table, may be made in sections of any desired length, exceeding the maximum length allowed by the table, by reducing the prescribed pressure in proportion to the increased length of section, according to the following rule:

RULE.—Multiply the pressure in the table allowed for any prescribed thickness of material and diameter of flue by the greatest length, in feet, of sections allowable for such flue, and divide the product by the desired length of sections, in feet, from center line to center line of rivets in the circular seams of such sections, and the quotient will give the working steam pressure allowable.

EXAMPLE.

Taking a flue in the table, 24 inches in diameter, required to be made in sections not exceeding 2.5 feet in length, and having a thickness of material of 0.44 of an inch, and allowed a pressure of 157 pounds and it is desired to make this flue in sections 5 feet in length.

Then we have

$$\frac{.57 \times 2.5}{5} = 73.5 \text{ pounds pressure allowable.}$$

THICKNESS OF MATERIAL REQUIRED FOR TUBES AND FLUES NOT OTHERWISE PROVIDED FOR.

9. (New.) Tubes and flues not exceeding 6 inches in diameter, and made of any required length; and Lap-welded flues required to carry a working steam pressure not to exceed 60 pounds per square inch, and having a diameter not exceeding 16 inches and a length not exceeding 18 feet; and

Lap-welded flues required to carry a steam pressure exceeding 60 pounds per square inch, and not exceeding 120 pounds per square inch, and having a diameter not exceeding 16 inches and a length not exceeding 18 feet, and made in sections not exceeding 5 feet in length, and fitted properly one into the other and substantially riveted; and

All such tubes and flues shall have a thickness of material according to their respective diameters, as prescribed in the following table: \cdots

10. (New.) Lap-welded flues not exceeding 6 inches in diameter may be made of any required length without being made in sections. And all such lap-welded flues and riveted flues not exceeding 6 inches in diameter may be allowed a working steam pressure not to exceed 225 pounds per square inch, if deemed safe by the inspectors.

11. (New.) Lap-welded flues exceeding 6 inches in diameter and not exceeding 16 inches in diameter, and not exceeding 18 feet in length, and required to carry a steam pressure not exceeding 60 pounds per square inch, shall not be required to be made in sections.

12. (New.) Lap welded and riveted flues exceeding 6 inches in diameter and not exceeding 16 inches in diameter, and not exceeding 18 feet in length, and required to carry a steam pressure exceeding 60 pounds per square meh and not exceeding 120 pounds per square meh, may be allowed, if made in sections not exceeding 5 feet in length, and properly fitted one into the other and substantially riveted.

13. (New.) Riveted and lap welded flues exceeding 6 inches in diameter and not exceeding 40 inches in diameter, required to carry a working steam pressure per square inch exceeding the maximum steam pressure prescribed for any such flue in the table of section 8 of this rule, shall be constructed under the provisions of section 15 of this rule, and limited to the working steam pressure therein provided for furnace flues; but in no case shall the material in any such riveted or lap-welded flue be of less thickness for any given diameter than the least thickness prescribed, in the alore-mentioned table, for flues of such diameter.

New section 14 includes the part of old section 10 beginning with "corrugated furnace flues," with the addition of the following words to the last paragraph thereof, viz, "and in top of center of corrugation."

New section 15 includes section 11, Rules and Regulations of 1892, pages 25, 26, and 27, with the exception of a new proviso to take the place of old (on page 25 ib., amended), as follows:

Provided, That when such these are made in sections of less than 8 feet in length and flanged to a depth of not less than 2½ inches, and substantially riveted together with wronght-iron rings between such flanges, and such rings having a thickness of not less than half an inch and a width of not less than 2½ inches, or, in lieu thereof, angle-iron rings are employed, and such rings having a thickness of material of not less than 2½ inches, or, in lieu thereof, angle-iron rings are employed, and such rings having a thickness of material of not less than 2½ inches, or, in lieu thereof, angle-iron rings are employed, and such rings having a thickness of material of not less than 2½ inches, or and substantially riveted in position with wrought-iron thimbles between the function of such ring and outer surface of the flue, at a distance from the flue not to exceed 2 inches, with rivets, having a diameter of not less than one and one-half times the thickness of material in the flue, and placed apart at a distance not to exceed 3 inches from eventer to eventer at the outer surface of the flue, the distance between the flanges or the distance between such angle-iron rings shall be taken as the length of the flue in determining the pressure allovable.

And the following paragraphs added, to precede the last paragraph on page 25, pamphlet copy Rules and Regulations, 1892:

(New.) The strengthening rings may be made of half round iron containing an area of cross section of not less than 9.6 times the thickness of material in the flue, and held in position around the flue with thimbles, at a distance from the surface of the flue not to exceed 2 inches, and substantially riveted with rivets spaced not more than 8 inches from center to center at the surface of the flue, for rivets having a diameter of not less than seven-eighths of an inch; and not more than 6 inches from center to center for rivets having a diameter of not less than three-quarters of an inch; and not more than 4 inches from center to center for rivets having a diameter of not less than five-eighths of an inch, and no such rivets shall be allowed having a diameter of less than five-eighths of an inch, and the size of all such strengthening⁴ rings shall be determined according to the following example:

EXAMPLE.

Let .5 = thickness of material in the flue in decimals of an inch, 9.6 = a constant, 2 = a constant, .7854 = a constant, Then we have $1.5 \times 9.6 \times 2$ of 54 km s himself.

$$\sqrt{\frac{.5 \times 9.6 \times 2}{.7854}} = 3''.5$$

^{*}The same result can be obtained more readily by means of the equivalent formula, $1\sqrt{24.448} \times T$, where T=thickness of material in the flue in decimals of an inch.

The working steam pressure allowable on fines having half-round-iron strengthening rings shall be determined according to the following example:

EXAMPLE.

Let 89,600 = a constant,

.5 = thickness of material in flue, in decimals of an inch,

.75 = a coefficient,

40 = diameter of flue, in inches.

3 = distance from center to center of strengthening rings, in feet,

Then we have

 $\frac{89600 \times .5 \times .5 \times .75}{40 \times 3} = 140 \text{ pounds working steam pressure per square inclu allowable.}$

The thickness of material required for flue shall be determined by the following example: Let 140 = pressure per square inch,

40 = diameter of flue in inches,

3 =distance from center to center of strengthening rings.

89,600 = a constant,

.75 = a coefficient,

Then we have

$$\sqrt{\frac{140 \times 40 \times 3}{89600 \times .75}} = .5$$
, thickness of material required in decimals of an inclusion

The distance from center to center of strengthening rings of half-round iron shall be determined by the following example:

EXAMPLE.

Let 89600 = a constant,

.75 = a coefficient,

.5 =thickness of material in decimals of an inch,

140 = given pressure per square iuch,

40 = diameter of flue in inches,

Then we have

$$\frac{39600 \times .75 \times .5 \times .5}{140 \times 40} = 3$$ feet, distance from center to center of strengthening rings

Section 16. Old section 12.

Section 17. (New, in lieu of old section 13 repealed :)

All heads employed in the construction of cylindrical boilers for steamers navigating the Red River of the North, and rivers whose waters flow into the Gulf of Mexico, shall have a thickness of material as follows: For boilers having a diameter exceeding 32 inches and not exceeding 36 inches, not less than half an inch; for boilers exceeding 36 inches in diameter and not exceeding 40 inches in diameter, not less than nine sixteenths of an inch; for boilers exceeding 40 inches in diameter, not less than one-sixteenth of an inch additional thickness for every 8 inches additional diameter, required for boilers 40 inches in diameter.

And the heads of steam and mud drums of such boilers shall have a thickness of material of not less than half an inch.

Pressure allowed on bumped heads,—Multiply the thickness of the plate by one sixth of the tensile strength and divide by the radius to which head is bumped, which will give the pressure per square inch of steam allowed.

The remaining sections of Rule II are remaindered, beginning with old section 14 as section 18 (new). Section 38, (Old section 34 amended to read as follows:)

All holes cut through the bottom or bilge of a steam vessel that are covered by a sea valve or cocks, and secured to the skin of the vessel by bolts, and connected to the engine and boilers by pipes, shall be arranged so as to be accessible at all times, so that if a leak or defect occur it can be reached.

Said valves, seats, stems, and bolts shall be of brass when used in salt water.

On all boilers built after July 1, 1891, a flauged bronze or brass seated stopcock or valve shall be attached to the boiler between all check valves and all steam and feed pipes and boilers, in order to facilitate access to connections.

(New.) All copper steam pipes shall be flanged to a depth of not less than four times the thickness of the material in the pipes, and all such flanging shall be made to a radius not to exceed the thickness of material in such pipes. And all such pipes shall have a thickness of material according to the working steam pressure allowed on the boiler, and such thickness of material shall be determined by the following rule:

RULE.—Multiply the working steam pressure in pounds per square inch allowed the boiler by the diameter of the pipe in inches, then divide the product by the constant whole number 8000, and add .0625 to the quotient; the sum will give the thickness of material required.

EXAMPLE.

Let 175 pounds = working steam pressure per square inch allowed the boiler,

5 inches = diameter of the pipe,

8000 = a constant,

Then we have

 $\frac{175\times5}{8000}$ + .0625 = .1718+, thickness of material in decimals of an inch.

The flanges of all copper steam pipes over 3 inches in diameter shall be made of bronze or brass composition, and shall have a thickness of material of not less than four times the thickness of material in the pipes plus .25 of an inch; and all such flanges shall have a boss of sufficient thickness of material projecting from the back of the flange a distance not less than three times the thickness of material in the pipe; and all such flanges shall be counterbored in the face to fit the flange of the pipe; and the joints of all copper steam pipes shall be made with a sufficient number of good and substantial bolts to make such joints at least equal in strength to all other parts of the pipe.*

The terminal and intermediate joints of all wrought-iron or homogeneous steel feed and steam pipes, over 2 inches in diameter, and not over 4 inches in diameter, shall be made with wrought iron, homogeneous steel, or malleable iron flanges having a depth through the bore of not less than the diameter of the pipe, and such bores shall taper slightly towards the face of the flange, and such pipe shall be expanded in such flanges and substantially beaded in a recess in the face of the flange, but all such pipes 2 inches and less in diameter may be attached at their terminal and intermediate joints with good and substantial flanges or wrought-iron or steel sleeves screwed onto the pipe.

* See further rule relating to feed and steam pipes included under section 7 of Rule IV.

All lap welded iron or steel steam pipes over 4 inches in diameter, or riveted wrought-iron or steel steam pipes over 4 inches in diameter, in addition to being expanded into tapered holes, and substantially beaded into recess in face of flanges as provided in preceding paragraph for steam and feed pipes exceeding 2 inches and not exceeding 4 inches in diameter, shall be substantially and firmly riveted with good and substantial rivets through the hubs of such flanges; and no such hubs shall project from such flanges less than 2 inches in any case.

When holes exceeding 6 inches in diameter are cut in boilers for pipe connections, man and hand hole plates, such holes shall be reinforced with wrought-iron or steel rings of sufficient width and thickness of material to equal the amount of material cut from such boilers, except when holes are cut in any flat surface of such boilers and such holes are flanged inwardly to a depth of not less than 1½ inches, measuring from the outer surface, the reinforcement rings may be dispensed with.

RULE IV.

Section 7. (New.) (Last paragraph amended to read as follows:)*

All feed and steam pipes exceeding a diameter of 2 inches shall be attached at their terminal joints with good and substantial flanges, and all feed and steam pipes exceeding 1 inch in diameter and not exceeding 2 inches in diameter shall be attached at the terminal joint with a jam nut on inside and on outside of surface where the pipe connection is made, unless the material of the boiler at the place to which the pipe is to be attached has a thickness of not less than half an inch, in which case the jam nuts and flanges may be dispensed with.

RULE V.

Section 1. (Third paragraph, new.) Any person who has served as master, commander, pilot, or engineer of any steam vessel of the United States, in any service in which a license as master, commander, pilot, or engineer was not required at the time of such service, shall be entitled to license as master, commander, pilot, or engineer, if the inspectors, upon written examination as required for applicants for original license, may find him qualified; Provided, That the experience of any such applicant within three years of making application has been such as to qualify him to serve in the capacity for which he makes application to be licensed; but no such license shall be granted except under such restrictions as may be prescribed by the supervising inspector of the district in which the applicant files his application.

(Third paragraph, old, amended.) No original master's, mate's, [or] pilot's, or engineer's license shall be issued hereafter, or grade increased, except upon written examination, which written examination shall be placed on file as records of office of the inspectors issuing said license.

Section 2. (New.) Paragraph added as last paragraph under classification of "chief" engineers: Engineers of all classifications may be allowed to pursue their profession upon all waters of the United States in the class for which they are licensed, if found upon examination qualified therefor.

(Following paragraph substituted for last paragraph under heading "First assistant," relating to promotion chief engineers:)

(New.) Engineers of lake, bay, and sound steamers who have actually performed the duties of engineers for a period of three years shall be entitled to examination for engineer of ocean steamers, applicant to be examined in the use of salt water, method employed in regulating the density of the water in boilers, the application of the hydrometer in determining the density of sea water, and the principle of constructing the instrument, and shall be granted such grade as the inspectors may find him competent to fill.

Section 5. No person shall receive an original license as engineer, or assistant engineer, except for special license on small pleasure steamers of 10 tons and under, and ferryboats, sawmill boats, pile-drivers, and other nondescript similar small vessels, navigated outside of ports of entry and delivery, who has not served at least three years in the engineer's department of a steam yessel, which experience must have been obtained within two years preceding the application: Provided, [That any person who has served for a period of three years as a locomotive or a stationary engineer, or as a regular machinist in a steam-engine works at least three years] That any person who has served as a regular machinist in a marine engine works for a period of not less than three years, not including any time he may have served as an apprentice, may be licensed as an engineer of steam vessels of 100 tons and under, and for inferior grade of license above 100 tons; and any person who has served for a period of not less than three years as a locomotive engineer, stationary engineer, regular machinist in a locomotive or stationary engine works, apprentice machinist in an engine works, and graduates as mechanical engineer from a duly recognized school of technology, may be licensed to serve as engineer on steam vessels after having had not less than one year's experience in the engine department of a steam vessel, which experience must have been obtained within two years preceding the application (which fact must be verified by the certificate in writing of the licensed engineer or master under whom the applicant has served, said certificate to be filed with the application of the candidate), and no person shall receive license as above, except for special license, who is not able to determine the weight necessary to be placed on the lever of a safety valve (the diameter of valve, length of lever, and fulcrum being known) to withstand any given pressure of steam in a boiler, or who is not able to figure and determine the strain brought on the braces of a boiler with a given pressure of steam, the position and distance apart of braces being known; such knowledge to be determined by an examination in writing and the report of examination filed with the application in the office of the local inspectors, and no engineer or assistant engineer now holding a license shall have the grade of the same raised without possessing the above qualifications.

And no original license shall be granted any engineer or assistant engineer who can not read and write and does not understand the plain rules of arithmetic.

Section 11. Inspectors are forbidden to issue original lieenses to pilots who can not read and write. Inspectors having jurisdiction over the Red River of the North, and rivers whose waters flow into the Gulf of Mexico are forbidden to issue original lieenses to pilots for routes extending beyond these rivers; except inspectors having jurisdiction of the coast of the Gulf of Mexico, who may grant such lieenses for coastwise routes, subject to the approval of the adjoining boards.

Section 14. That no original master's license on lake [or] bay steamers shall be issued hereafter to any person who has not been licensed and served at least one year as first-class pilot or chief mate on such steamers, such service as pilot or chief mate to have been within three years preceding the application for license: Provided, however, That the foregoing clause shall not apply to any person [s] who [have] has served at least three years as master [mate, or pilot] on sailing vessels on waters for which the applicant desires to obtain a license. Whenever a master or mate desires to act as pilot, and furnishes the necessary evidence of his ability, the local inspectors for the district where the license is issued shall indorse such pilot routes on the master's or mate's certificate.

Mates and pilots of sailing vessels who have served three years on such vessels may be licensed in the same capacity on steam vessels after serving a year in the deck department of a steam vessel, such experience to have been within three years preceding the application.

(No change in last two paragraphs of old section 14.)

Section 18. Except by the consent in writing of the board that granted the license, no other board shall raise the grade of an engineer, mate, or pilot during the year for which the license was granted; and the grade of no original license shall be raised during the term for which it is issued, nor at any time thereafter, untess the holder can show one year's actual service in the capacity for which he has been licensed.

Section 19. Whenever an officer shall apply for a renewal of his license for the same grade, the presentation of the old certificate [may] shall be considered sufficient evidence of his title to renewal, which certificate shall be retained by the inspectors upon their official files, as the evidence upon which the license was reacwed: Provided, It is presented within twelve months after the date of its expiration, unless such title has been forfeited, or facts shall have come to the knowledge of the inspectors which would render a renewal improper; nor shall any license be renewed in advance of the date of the expiration thereof, unless there are extraordinary circumstances that shall justify a renewal beforehand, which may be granted by anticipating, not to exceed thirty days, the expiration of the license; in which case the reasons therefor must appear in detail upon the records of the inspectors renewing the license.

All examinations for licenses to be made by the board of local inspectors.

RULE VIII, Pilot Rules for Lake and Seaboard, amended to read as follows :

VIII. (New.) When steamers are running in the same direction, and the pilot of a steamer which is astern shall desire to pass on the right or starboard hand of the steamer ahead, he shall give one short blast of the steam whistle as a signal of such desire and intention, and shall put his helm to port; or if he shall desire to pass on the left or port side of the steamer ahead, he shall give two short blasts of the steam whistle as a signal of such desire and intention, and shall put his helm to starboard, and the pilot of the steamer ahead shall answer by the same signals, or if he does not think it safe for the steamer astern to attempt to pass at that point, he shall immediately signify the same by giving several short and rapid blasts of the steam whistle, and under no circumstances shall the steamer astern attempt to pass the steamer ahead until such time as they have reached a point where it can be safely done, when said steamer ahead shall signify her willingness by blowing the proper signals. The boat ahead shall in no case attempt to cross the bow or crowd upon the course of the passing steamer.

Second. That in the navigable channels on the Great Lakes and their tributary and connecting waters less than 500 feet in width, no steam vessel shall pass another going in the same direction unless the steam vessel ahead be disabled and signify her willingness that the steam vessel astern shall pass; when the steam vessel astern may pass at a rate of speed not exceeding 5 miles per hour.

Third. And when steam vessels running in opposite directions are about to meet in such channels, both such vessels shall be slowed down to a speed not exceeding 5 miles per hour.

Fourth. That in such channels the descending steam vessel shall have the right of way. The pilot of such descending steamer shall signify his desire and intention by giving the proper signal before the steamers have arrived at a distance of one-half mile of each other. This rule, when approved, to take effect May 1, 1893.

CIRCULAR.

APPOINTMENT OF STOREKEEPERS, GAUGERS, AND STOREKEEPERS AND GAUGERS IN THE INTERNAL-REVENUE SERVICE.

1893. Department No. 26. Division of Appointments.

Treasury Department, office of the secretary, Washington, D. C., February 20, 1893.

To Collectors of Internal Revenue:

Hereafter in recommending persons for appointment to the office of storekeeper, gauger, or storekeeper and gauger, Collectors of Internal Revenue will require each person recommended to make an application in writing, addressed to the Secretary of the Treasury, stating his age, legal residence, place of nativity, service in the Army or Navy, if any; names of relatives, if any, in the Government service, and in what capacity employed; experience in the duties of the office for which he applies; business in which engaged at date of application; also whether or not he holds any State or municipal office; and if so, stating fully the nature and title of such office.

The application must be accompanied by testimonials as to character for sobriety, industry, and business habits of the applicant, and will be inclosed in a letter addressed by the collector of the district to the Secretary of the Treasury, and forwarded to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, stating explicitly the necessity for the appointment and his personal knowledge as to the fitness of the applicant for the position.

If the appointment will involve the dismissal of any person in the service, that fact should be stated by the collector, as well as the reasons why, in his opinion, the dismissal should be made.

Correspondence relative to the removals and resignations of incumbents should be addressed to the Secretary of the Treasury through the Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

All papers relating to the appointment and removal of such officers (including copies of reports of revenue agents) will be forwarded by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with his recommendation in each case indorsed thereon, to the Secretary of the Treasury for action.

WOOL SAMPLES.

Treasury Department,

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY,

Washington, D. C., February 21, 1893.

To Collectors and other Officers of the Customs:

Paragraph 379 of the act of October 1, 1890, provides as follows:

The standard samples of all wools which are now or may be hereafter deposited in the principal custom-houses of the United States, under the authority of the Secretary of the Treasury, shall be the standards for the classification of wools under this act, and the Secretary of the Treasury shall have the authority to renew these standards and to make such additions to them from time to time as may be required, and he shall cause to be deposited like standards in other custom-houses of the United States when they may be needed;

And paragraph 380 of said act provides that:

Whenever wools of class three shall have been improved by the admixture of Merino or English blood from their present character as represented by the standard samples now or hereafter to be deposited in the principal custom houses of the United States, such improved wools shall be classified for duty either as class one or as class two, as the case may be.

In pursuance of the above provisions of law, the Department, in April, 1891, appointed the following committee to advise the Department as to the propriety of adding to or renewing the standard wool samples then in use: Mr. EDWARD A. GREENE, of Philadelphia, Pa. (chairman); Mr. JOHN T. RICH of Elba, Mich.; Mr. NICHOLAS MAUGER, of New York City; Mr. JOHN L. HOUSTON, of Hartford, Conu.

In their final report, which is dated February 15, 1893, the committee remark that the principle of classification recognized by them was that of race and blood only and not that of use or adaptability; and they further state that, in their classification, it will be found that there are wools in the first class suitable only for carpets and others in the third class from which a fair article of clothing could be made.

Cabinets of the standard samples prepared by the committee will be furnished to the collectors at all of the principal ports.

The committee recommend that samples of such wools as are lacking from the cabinets prepared by them should be procured and added to the cabinets; also, that the customs examiners at the several ports should take samples of any wools not included in the standard samples, and should advise the Department whether such wools should be added to the cabinets.

The committee further recommend that, in order to indicate the different classes, samples of noils should be numbered upward from No. 1, first-class wool from No. 101, second-class wool from No. 201, third-class wool from No. 301, and free hair from 401.

1893. Department No. 28. Division of Customs.

The samples contained in the cabinets are numbered as in the following list, and are hereby estabtished as standards for comparison in the examination and classification of wools, pursuant to the provi sions of the act of October 1, 1890, entitled "An act to reduce the revenue and equalize duties on imports and for other purposes."

ROCKPORT, TEX., A SUBPORT OF ENTRY.

1893. Department No. 30. Division of Customs. Treasury Department,

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY,

Washington, D. C., February 24, 1893.

To Officers of the Customs and others:

The following act of Congress, approved February 8, 1893, constituting Rockport, Tex., a subport of entry, is published for the information of officers of the customs and others concerned.

O. L. SPAULDING,

Assistant Secretary.

AN ACT to make Rockport, Tex., a subport of entry.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That Aransas (Lockport) in the customs collection district of Corpus Christi, Tex., be, and is hereby, constituted a subport of entry in said district.

CIRCULAR.

AMENDMENT TO RULE VIII, PILOT RULES FOR LAKES AND SEABOARD.

1893. Department No. 31.

Treasury Department,

STEAMBOAT-INSPECTION SERVICE, OFFICE OF THE SUPERVISING INSPECTOR-GENERAL,

Washington, D. C., February 25, 1893.

Masters and pilots of steam vessels navigating the inland waters connecting with the Atlantic and Pacific coasts, and the waters of the Great Lakes, Lake Champlain, and tributary waters, are hereby notified that Rule VIII, Pilot Rules for Lakes and Seaboard, was amended at the recent meeting of the Board of Supervising Inspectors at Washington, D. C., the rule to take effect at and after midnight of April 30, 1893.

Following is the text of the amended rule :

VIII. When steamers are running in the same direction, and the pilot of a steamer which is astern shall desire to pass on the right or starboard hand of the steamer ahead, he shall give one short blast of the steam whistle as a signal of such desire and intention, and shall put his helm to port; or if he shall desire to pass on the left or port side of the steamer ahead, he shall give two short blasts of the steam whistle as a signal of such desire and intention, and shall put his helm to starboard, and the pilot of the steamer ahead shall answer by the same signals, or if he does not think it safe for the steamer astern to attempt to pass at that point, he shall immediately signify the same by giving several short and rapid blasts of the steam whistle, and under no circumstances shall the steamer astern attempt to pass the steamer ahead until such time as they have reached a point where it can be safely done, when said steamer ahead shall signify her willingness by blowing the proper signals. The boat ahead shall in no case attempt to cross the bow or crowd upon the course of the passing steamer.

Second. That in the navigable channels on the Great Lakes and their tributary and connecting waters less than 500 feet in width, no steam vessel shall pass another going in the same direction unless the steam vessel ahead be disabled and signify her willingness that the steam vessel astern shall pass; when the steam vessel astern may pass at a rate of speed not exceeding five miles per hour.

Third. And when steam vessels running in opposite directions are about to meet in such channels, both such vessels shall be slowed down to a speed not exceeding five miles per hour.

Fourth. That in such channels the descending steam vessel shall have the right of way. The pilot of such descending steamer shall signify his desire and intention by giving the proper signal before the steamers have arrived at a distance of one-half mile of each other. This rule, when approved, to take effect May 1, 1893.

Local inspectors on the lakes and seaboard are directed to make requisition for a sufficient number of copies of this circular to furnish each licensed master and pilot in their district with a copy.

JAS. A. DUMONT,

Supervising Inspector-General.

Approved, February 25, 1893: CHARLES FOSTER, Secretary.

CLAIMS OF INFORMERS AND DETECTORS AND SEIZORS.

1893. Department No. 32. Division of Customs.

Treasury Department,

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY, Washington, D. C., February 27, 1893.

To Collectors and other Officers of the Customs:

As it appears to be the practice at some ports for collectors to transmit claims of informers and detectors and seizors for compensation under the antimoiety act of June 22, 1874, with their accounts to the Anditing Office, your attention is called to Department's Circular of June 23, 1888, (Synopsis 8915), which requires that such claims shall be forwarded to the Secretary of the Treasury.

KILLING OF FUR-BEARING ANIMALS IN ALASKA.

Department No. 34. Division of Special Agents.

Treasury Department,

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY,

Washington, D. C., March 2, 1893.

To Collectors and other Officers of the Customs, and to Officers of the Revenue Marine:

Section 1956 of the Revised Statutes of the United States provides that no person shall, without the consent of the Secretary of the Treasury, kill any otter, mink, marten, sable, or fur seal, or other fur-bearing animal, within the limits of Alaska Territory or in the waters thereof, and that any person convicted of a violation of that section shall, for each offense, be fined not less than $200 nor more than $1,000, or be imprisoned not more than six months, or both ; and that all vessels, with their tackle, apparel, furniture, and cargo, found engaged in violation of that section, shall be forfeited.

No fur-bearing animal will be allowed to be killed by persons, other than natives, within the limits of Alaska Territory or in the waters thereof.

The killing by anyone of fur seals, except upon the Pribilof Islands by such party or parties as are permitted so to do, pursuant to the terms of a contract between the Government of the United States and such party or parties, is prohibited.

White men married to natives and residing within the Territory will not be entitled to the privilege of natives under this order.

The use of rifles, shotguns, or other firearms by the natives in killing sea otter, or the use of nets in taking them, is hereby prohibited.

The master of any vessel having on board skins of otter, mink, marten, sable, fur seal, or other furhearing animals taken in Alaska or Alaskan waters, before unlading the same, shall report to the collector of customs at the first port of arrival of such vessel in the United States, and shall file a manifest of such skins with said collector.

Masters of vessels failing to comply with these regulations will be considered as having violated the provisions of section 1956 of the Revised Statutes, and will be liable to the penalties prescribed therein.

It will be the duty of the officers of the United States who may be in the localities where sea otter, mink, marten, sable, or fur seal, or other fur-bearing animals are taken, or who may have knowledge of any such offense committed, to take all proper measures to enforce the penalties of the law against persons guilty of a violation thereof.

These regulations supersede all others previously in force.

CHARLES FOSTER.

Secretary.

THE ANCHORAGE AND MOVEMENT OF VESSELS IN THE PORT OF CHICAGO, ILL.

1893. Department No. 35. Divis'n of Revenue Marine, No. 43.

Treasury Department,

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY,

Washington, D. C., March 1, 1893.

The Rules and Regulations relating to the anchorage and movement of vessels in the harbors of Chicago, made this day, will be strictly observed, and all officers of revenue cutters at the port of Chicago, are hereby empowered and directed, in cases of necessity or when a proper notice has been disregarded, to use the force at their command to remove from the channel ways any vessel found violating the rules, a copy of which is subjoined.

Violations of the Regulations that require immediate action may be communicated to the Collector of Customs.

All communications referring to the rules and limits of anchorage grounds at the port of Chicago, as defined by the Secretary of the Treasury, are to be addressed to the Department.

CHARLES FOSTER,

Secretary.

RULES AND REGULATIONS RELATING TO THE ANCHORAGE OF VESSELS IN THE PORT OF CHICAGO.

The following-described anchorage grounds for vessels in the harbors of Chicago and the waters of Lake Michigan adjacent thereto, are hereby defined and established, and the following Rules and Regulations in relation to the same are hereby adopted and published for the government of the owners, masters, or persons in charge of vessels in the port of Chicago, pursuant to the Act of Congress approved February 6, 1893, as follows:

AN ACT relating to the anchorage and movement of vessels in the port of Chicago.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury be authorized and directed to define and establish anchorage grounds for vessels in the harbors of Chicago and waters of Lake Michigan adjacent thereto, to adopt suitable rules and regulations in relation to the same, and also to adopt suitable rules and regulations governing the use of marked inshore channels in Lake Michigan, in front of the city of Chicago, and to take all necessary measures for the proper enforcement of such rules and regulations. SEC. 2. That in the event of the violation of any such rules or regulations by the owner, master, or person in charge of any vessel, such owner, master, or person in charge of such vessel shall be liable to a penalty of one hundred dollars, and the said vessel may be holden for the payment of such penalty and may be seized and proceeded against summarily by libel for the recovery of the same in any United States district court for the district within which such vessel may be, and in the name of the officer designated by the Secretary of the Treasury.

Vessels shall anchor within the following specified limits :

1. U. S. Exterior Breakwater Anchorage, within lines running from Chicago Pierhead Light on North Pier, Chicago River, to the easterly and westerly ends of Exterior Breakwater, and a line parallel to said Breakwater, 2,000 feet southwesterly from the same.

2. Anchorage Grounds in the basin opposite Lake Front and north of Van Buren Street Pier. Men of war of all nations, vessels of the United States Government, vessels carrying a distinctive signal prescribed by the Secretary of the Navy, and small excursion vessels, only, may anchor west of a line drawn south from Ogden's Slip, south of a line running east and west at a distance of 300 feet south from the south line of the Randolph Street Viaduct, and not within 300 feet of the Illinois Central Breakwater, nor to the southward of a line running parallel to the Van Buren Street Pier, 700 feet north from the same.

3. Anchorage Grounds in the basin opposite Lake Front south of the Van Buren Street Pier, west of a line drawn from the east end of Van Buren Street Pier to the east end of Illinois Central Pier, at south entrance not within 700 feet of said Van Buren Street Pier, nor within 300 feet of Illinois Central Railroad Breakwater or the Illinois Central Pier.

4. U. S. Southerly Breakwater Anchorage, within lines drawn to intersection north and west from the southern and northern ends of the breakwater.

5. Anchorage Grounds in Lake Michigan, opposite the World's Columbian Exposition at Fifty-sixth Street-

Westerly limit, from a point 360 feet eastward from and in extension of the south line of the Fifty-sixth Street Pier to the northeast corner of the Naval Pier.

Northerly limit, a line 200 feet south of and parallel to the Fifty-sixth Street Pier.

Southerly limit, 500 feet north of and parallel to the Naval Pier; and the Easterly limit, parallel to and 600 feet from the westerly limit.

This area contains 17 acres.

6. Between the Naval and the Casino Piers, northerly limit, a line parallel to and 500 feet south of the Naval Pier-

Easterly limit, from a point 400 feet westward from the northeast corner of the Casino Pier running N. 27° W.

Southerly limit, a line parallel to and 500 feet northward from the Casino Pier.

Westerly limit, 900 feet from and concentric with the line of the beach.

This area contains 473 acres.

7. South of Casino Pier-

Northerly limit, a line parallel to and 500 feet south of Casino Pier.

Easterly limit, a line extended through the easterly face of Casino Pier.

Southerly limit, a line running through the foot of Sixty-seventh Street, north side of street and parallel to Casino Pier.

Westerly limit, a line 1,000 feet from and parallel to the general direction of the shore line. This area contains 56 acres.

8. General Anchorage Grounds-

Southerly limit, a line running due east from the southeast corner of the Casino Pier, intersecting at a point on this line 2,000 feet from the said pier corner, with the westerly limit running from this point N. about 36° E. to the South Park Shoal Bnoy (red and black), thence the northerly limit running due east.

Easterly limit indefinite.

9. Anchorage Ground Southward from the entrance to Calumet Harbor, anywhere south of a line running parallel to and 300 feet sonthward from the South Pier extended and eastward of a line running parallel to and 300 feet eastward of the "Calumet" and Chicago Canal and Dock Company's Breakwater.

During the year 1893, grounds Nos. 5, 6, and 7 are reserved for the use of men of war of all nations, vessels of the United States Government, vessels carrying a distinctive signal prescribed by the Secretary of the Navy, and small excursion vessels, only.

GENERAL REGULATIONS.

No vessel shall anchor within 100 feet of any United States Pier or Breakwater.

Nothing in these regulations shall be held to prevent any vessel in stress of weather, or in great emergency, from anchoring anywhere that may seem necessary for safety at the time, but the revenue-cutter officer charged with the enforcement of these regulations shall be the judge as to when such emergency shall have terminated.

The commanding officer of the Revenue Cutter at the port of Chicago is charged with the enforcement of these rules and regulations, and is empowered---

(1.) To remove from her anchorage any vessel not anchored within the limits hereby prescribed.

(2.) To require, when he may deem it advisable, vessels to moor head and stern.

(3.) To assign vessels to such part of the anchorage grounds as is suitable to their draft.

(4.) To assume such general direction of the movement of vessels in the inshore channels as shall least obstruct navigation of the same.

(5.) To see that the acts of Congress prohibiting dumping of solids into navigable waters of the United States are complied with and enforced.

LAW AND REGULATIONS FOR THE COLLECTION OF STATISTICS OF EXPORTS FROM THE UNITED STATES TO FOREIGN COUNTRIES BY RAILWAY CARS, ETC.

Treasury Department,

Washington, D. C., March 14, 1893.

To Collectors of Customs and others:

1893.

Bureau of Statistics.

The attention of officers of customs and others is directed to the following provision in section 1, act of March 3, 1893, amending section 1 of the act of July 16, 1892, for the collection of statistics of domestic exports by land carriage, etc :

That hereafter collectors of eustoms shall render to the Bureau of Statistics, in such manner and form and at such periods as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe, returns of exports to foreign countries leaving the United States by rail. Any person who shall hereafter deliver to any railway or transportation company or other common carrier commodities for transportation and exportation by rail from the United States to foreign countries, shall also deliver to the collector of customs at the frontier port through which the goods pass into the foreign country a manifest, in such form as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe, duly certified as to its accuracy by said person or his agent, exhibiting the kinds, quanti-ties, and values of the several articles delivered by such person or his agent for exportation. And no railway car containing commodities, the product or manufacture of the United States or foreign goods. duty paid or free of duty, intended to be exported to any foreign country, shall be permitted hereafter to leave the United States until the agent of the railway or transportation company, or the person having such ear in charge, shall deliver to the customs officer at the last port in the United States through which the commodities pass into foreign territory a manifest thereof, which shall specify the kinds and quantities of the commodities in the form prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury, and until the manifest, exhibiting the kinds, quantities, and values of the several commodities, shall have been delivered to the collector of customs, as above required, by the person exporting such commodities, or by his agent, or information satisfactory to such customs officer as to the kind, quantities, and values of the domestic and foreign free or duty-paid commodities laden on such car. The agent or employé of any railway or trans-portation company who shall transport such commodities into a foreign country before the delivery to the collector of customs of the manifest(s), as above required shall be liable to a penalty of fifty dollars for each offense: Provided, That the provisions of this law shall apply to commodities transported to the frontier in railway cars for exportation and transshipment across the frontier into the adjacent foreign territory in ferryboats or vehicles, so far as to require the person in charge thereof to furnish to the collector of customs information of the kinds, quantities, and values of such commodities: And provided further, That nothing contained in the foregoing shall be held as applicable to goods in transit between American ports by routes passing through foreign territory or to merchandise in transit between places in the Dominion of Canada by routes passing through the United States, or to merchandise arriving at the ports designated under the authority of section three thousand and five of the Revised Statutes, and which may be destined for places in the Republic of Mexico.

Under the authority conferred by said provision of law, the following regulations are hereby prescribed, and will supersede previous regulations on the subject:

ART. 1. This provision of law applies only to articles intended to be exported by land earriage or ferryboat to or through adjacent foreign territory for a market, and not to articles shipped from one part of the United States to another part thereof, whether for exportation from the latter point or otherwise, nor to merchandise passing through the United States in transit from one foreign country to another, or from one portion of a foreign country to another portion thereof, across the territory of the United States.

ART. 2. The list or manifest of articles to be exported, required to be furnished by the person exporting them or by his agent, to the collector of customs of the frontier enstoms district in the United States through which the articles are transported into the foreign country, shall be in the following form :

OWNER'S OR AGENT'S MANIFEST OF ARTICLES EXPORTED BY RAILWAY

List, or manifest of articles of domestic production or manufacture, and of foreign articles, free of duty or duty paid, delivered by (name of owner or agent) to (name of railway or transportation company, station, and agent) for exportation to (place of intended destination in foreign councily) et (name of lest pure in United States whence the articles puss into the foreign country).

I, _____ [name of owner, shipper, or consignor], hereby certify that the above is a full and true statement of the kinds, quantities and values, and destination of all the articles delivered by me for exportation as aforesaid.

Owner or agent.

Any owner or agent may include in a single manifest all articles exported by him on one train.

ART. 3. The manifest of the owner, or of his agent, will be transmitted and delivered to the collector of customs at the last port in the United States through which such commodities pass into foreign territory, in such manner as the exporter may elect; but to obviate delay at the frontier port, it is recommended that the manifest be intrusted to the railway or transportation company, to be carried along with the goods and delivered by such company with the car manifest which said company is also required to deliver to the collector at the frontier port before the goods can pass into the foreign territory.

ART. 4. The manifests of owners or shippers of goods to be exported, intrusted to railway and transportation companies and collectors of customs should be treated as contidential, and their contents should not be disclosed to outside parties without the consent of the Government, and then not in such manner as to disclose the business of individuals.

ART. 5. The law further provides that no railway car containing commodities the product or manufacture of the United States, or foreign goods, duty paid or free of duty, intended to be exported to any foreign country, shall be permitted hereafter to leave the United States until the agent of the railway or transportation company, or person having such car in charge, shall deliver to the customs officer at the last port of the United States through which the commodities pass into foreign territory a manifest thereof, which shall specify the kinds and quantities of the commodities in the form prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury.

ART. 6. The car manifest which the railway or transportation company is required to deliver to the customs officer must exhibit the marks, numbers, description, and quantities of the goods corresponding to those contained in the manifest thereof furnished by the person exporting the goods, or his agent, but is not required to show their values; and shall be in the following form:

CAR MANIFEST OF ARTICLES EXPORTED BY RAILWAY.

List, or manifest, of articles of domestic production or manufacture, and of foreign articles free of daty or duty puid, taken on board car No. ----, to be transported by the ----- railway (or. ----- transportation company) to Canada (or Mexico) via (name of port on the frontier where the goods pass into foreign territory).

Agent or employé of railway or transportation company.

ART. 7. The collector of the customs district through which the commodities to be exported pass into foreign territory will detain at the frontier port any railway car containing such commodities until the manifest of the railway or transportation company, prescribed in Article 6, is delivered to him; and until the manifest, exhibiting the kinds, quantities, and values of the several commodities, shall have been delivered to said collector, by the person exporting such commodities, or by his agent; or the information required by Article 9, satisfactory to such customs officer is furnished him as to the kinds, quantities, and values of the domestic, and foreign free or duty-paid commodities laden on such car.

ART. 8. The agent or employé of any transportation company who shall transport such commodities into a foreign country before the delivery to the collector of customs of the manifests, or information, as above required will be liable to a penalty of fifty dollars ($50) for each offense.

ART. 9. The information satisfactory to the customs officer of the contents of the car, required by law to be furnished him, in case the manifests of the owners, shippers, or consignors of the articles, for good reason shown, are not delivered to the collector of customs as provided by Article 2, will be a manifest or list of the articles laden on the car for export, which must show the kinds, quantities, and values of the articles and their destination, made up as accurately as possible by the railway or transportation company transporting the same, from an examination of the contents of the car by an officer of the customs and of said railway or transportation company.

ART. 10. The law further declares that its provisions shall apply to commodities transported to the frontier in railway cars for exportation and transshipment to adjacent foreign territory in ferryboats or vehicles, so far as to require the person in charge thereof to furnish to the collector of customs of the frontier port information of the kinds, quantities, and values of such commodities.

ART. 11. The form of the manifest to be delivered to the collector of customs by the person in charge of such vehicle or ferryboal shall be as follows:

MANIFEST OF ARTICLES EXPORTED IN VEHICLES OR FERRYBOATS.

List, or manifest, of articles of domestic production or manafacture, and of farcign articles free of duly or duty paid, intended to be exported to (place of intended destination in farcign country) in (state whether in rehiele or ferrybod, and if in the latter, give name).

I, _____ [name of person in charge of vehicle or ferryboat], certify that the above is a full and true statement of the kinds, quantities, and values, and destination of all the articles in my charge for exportation as aforesaid.

In charge.

[Place] ______. [Date] ______.

ART. 12. Any vehicle or ferryboat on which such goods are laden for export will be detained by the enstons officer at the frontier port of the United States until the person in charge thereof shall furnish the customs officer such manifest, and said person will be liable to the penalty of fifty dollars ($50) for each offense if he removes the goods to foreign territory before complying with the terms of the law.

ART. 13. Masters of ferryboats or vessels required by preexisting law to clear their vessel and deliver to the collector of the port whence they depart for the foreign country a manifest of the kinds, quantities, and values of the goods laden thereon for exportation, are exempted from the requirements of the above law relating to exports by railways, etc.

GENERAL EXPLANATIONS.

ART. 14. Manifests of personal effects or baggage of travelers carried on passenger trains en route to Canada or Mexico are not required to be delivered to the collector of customs at the border port when such effects or baggage are for the use of such travelers and not for sale.

ART. 15. Manifests of merchandise shipped from an interior point in the United States for export from a seaboard port of the United States, are not required to be delivered to the collector of enstoms at the border port where the transportation of the merchandise is partly through Canada or Mexico, the statistics of exports in such case being secured at the port of export under a preëxisting law, relating to exports by vessels.

ART. 16. In the case of express companies carrying goods from this country into Canada or Mexico, the agent of the express company may act as agent of the exporter and furnish, besides the car manifest, the manifest required by Article 2, including in the latter manifest all the articles carried by the express company on a single train, taking care to enumerate the various articles exported with reasonable particularity as to kinds, quantities, and values.

ART. 17. The car manifest provided by Article 11 may be prepared by the railway or transportation company at any point which may be deemed most convenient.

ART. 18. Goods shipped from the United States through Canada or Mexico for a market beyond those countries should be declared as for export to the country of destination and not to Canada or Mexico.

ART. 19. Care should be taken to report on the manifests the foreign goods duty free or which have paid duty, separately from goods of domestic product.

ART. 20. In distinguishing between foreign and domestic goods only those goods, will be reported as foreign which have undergone no change in form or condition, or enhancement in value by the application of labor in the United States. Articles made from foreign materials, or changed from the condition in which they were when imported, by repacking, grinding, etc., will be classed as of domestic product or manufacture.

ART. 21. Collectors of customs shall report without delay to the nearest United States district attorney and to the Secretary of the Treasury all violations of the provisions of this law.

MILEAGE ALLOWED UNITED STATES MARSHALS.

Treasury Department,

FIRST AUDITOR'S OFFICE,

Washington, D. C., March 16, 1893.

The attention of the United States marshals is directed to the following provisions contained in the sundry civil act approved March 3, 1893:

Provided further, That hereafter no marshal or deputy marshal shall be allowed more than one mileage for each mile actually and necessarily traveled, irrespective of the number of writs he may execute in making such travel; nor shall any marshal or deputy marshal be allowed any additional mileage incident to the execution or return of any writ of arrest, commitment or removal other than the ten cents a mile now allowed by law for each deputy, prisoner and guard; and no mileage shall be allowed on any writ not executed.

Provided, It shall be the duty of the marshal, his deputy or other officer who may arrest a person charged with any crime or offense, to take the defendant before the commissioner or nearest judicial officer having jurisdiction under existing laws, for a hearing, commitment or taking bail for trial, and the officer or magistrate issuing the warrant, shall attach thereto a certified copy of the complaint; and upon the arrest of the accused, the return of the warrant, with a copy of the complaint attached, shall confer jurisdiction upon such officer as fully as if the complaint had originally been made before him; and no mileage shall be allowed any officer violating the provisions thereof.

The foregoing laws will be enforced from and after March 3, 1893.

TRACKAGE RIGHTS OVER BOND-AIDED RAILROADS.

Department No. 43. Division of W. E. & A.

Treasury Department,

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY, Washington, D. C., March 15, 1893.

The following communication from the Commissioner of Railroads, of February 15, 1893, relative to the right of certain railroad companies, by lease or agreement, to use a portion of the tracks of the bondaided Union Pacific Railroad Company, is published for the information of all concerned:

> DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR, OFFICE OF COMMISSIONER OF RAILROADS, Washington, D. C., February 15, 1893.

StR: In response to your letter of the 13th instant, I have the honor to furnish yon "the names of such of the bond-aided lines of railroad, as under contract, lease, or otherwise give a trackage right to the use of their roads, showing the points between which such trackage right exists, and giving the names of the railroads having such rights."

The records of this office do not show that either the Central Pacific, Central Branch Union Pacific, or the Sioux City and Pacific Railroad Companies have granted any such rights.

The Union Pacific Railway Company has entered into agreement with several other companies whereby the right to use certain portions of its tracks have been granted upon what were considered fair and equitable terms, the consideration in nearly every instance being a certain annual percentage upon the cost of such portion of the road, and a proportion of the current expense of operation and maintenance based upon the amount of traffic done by each. The following is an abstract of the various agreements, and shows in detail the portions of the road over which trackage rights have been granted to other railroad companies:

Under agreement dated March 19, 1887, the Union Pacific Railway Company, party of the first part, leases to the Chicago, Kansas and Nebraska Railway Company, party of the second part, for a term of 999 years from September 1, 1887, "the right and privileges to connect the tracks of its railway with the track of the party of the first part, at North Topeka and Kansas City and Armstrong, and to run, operate, and manage its engines, cars, freight and passenger trains in both directions, over the railway of the party of the first part between said point of connection at North Topeka and the western boundary of the town of Armstrong; also over two main tracks which shall occupy a strip of land 30 feet wide between said boundary and the point where they intersect the northern boundary of the Union Pacific Railway grounds in Wyandotte, about 1,880 feet westerly from the Union Pacific and Missouri Pacific Railway bridge across the Kansas River; also over the tracks which are and shall be located on a strip of land 100 feet wide, extending from said point on the said northern boundary of said bridge; also over the tracks of said first party on said bridge; also over two main tracks from the eastern terminus of said bridge, which shall occupy a strip of land 30 feet wide extending through the grounds of the party of the first part in Kansas City in the State of Kansas, and Kansas City in the State of Missouri ; also over the tracks of the party of the first part by way of Tenth street in said last-named eity to the Union Depot grounds on Union avenue in said city. The engines, cars, and trains of the party of the second part, when on said leased and demised premises, shall have all the rights and privileges accorded by the party of the first part to its own engines, cars, and trains on that portion of its lines. The said party of the second part shall have the right to use in common with the party of the first part, in the operation of its engines, cars, and trains, all of the side tracks, telegraph offices, and water stations of the party of the first part, hetween said points herein specified and demised." The Chicago, Kansas and Nebraska Railway was sold under forcelosure in April, 1891, and purchased by the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific Railway Company, which now operates the road.

Under agreement dated April 30, 1890, the Chicago, Milwankee and St. Pant Railway Company for a term of nine hundred and ninety-nine years, is granted full, equal, and joint possession and use of the Union Pacific main and passing tracks, now located and established or which may hereafter be located or established, between the terminus of said tracks in the city of Conneil Bluffs, Iowa, to a line drawn at a right angle across said tracks within 1½ miles southerly of its passenger station at South Omaha, Nebr., including the bridge over which said tracks extend across the Missouri River between the eities of Conneil Bluffs and Omaha; connection with the Union Depot tracks in Omaha; the side or spur track leading from its lower track to the lower grade of the Pacific Company's siding and spur tracks in Omaha, and such extensions as may be hereafter made; and side tracks in Omaha on which to receive from and deliver to the party of the first part; the connections with the Union Stock Yards in South Omaha; and conveniently located grounds in South Omaha, on which the party of the second part may construct, maintain, and exclusively use a track or tracks, aggregating 3,000 feet in length, for the storage of cars, etc.

Under agreement dated May 1, 1890, the Chicago, Rock Island, and Pacific Railway Company, for a term of 999 years, is granted full, equal, and joint possession and use of the Union Pacific main and passing tracks, now located and established, or which may hereafter be located or established between the terminus of such tracks in the eity of Council Bluffs, Iowa, and a line drawn at a right angle across said tracks within 14 miles southerly from the passenger station at South Omaha, Nebr., including the bridge on which said tracks extend across the Missouri River between the eities of Council Bluffs and Omaha; connections with the Union Depot tracks in Omaha; the side and spur track leading from its main tracks to the lower grade of the Pacific Company's sidings and spur tracks in Omaha, and such extensions thereof as may hereafter be made; side tracks in Omaha on which to receive and deliver freight that may he handled through warehouses or switched by the Pacific Company; the connections with the Union Stock Yards in South Omaha; and conveniently located grounds in South Omaha upon which to construct, maintain, and exclusively use a track or tracks, aggregating 3,000 feet in length, for the storage of cars and other purposes.

The foregoing embodies all the contracts which have been filed in this office, whereby trackage rights have been granted over any portion of the bond aided railroads.

Respectfully, yours,

H. A. TAYLOR. Commissioner.

Secretary.

Hon. G. M. LAMBERTSON, Assistant Secretary of the Treasury.

In the transportation of freight, and in all cases of travel, on account of the Government service, application should be made by officers of the Government to the bond-aided railroad companies and not to any company running its cars by lease or agreement over the tracks of such bond-aided lines.

IMPORTATION OF ANIMALS FOR BREEDING PURPOSES UNDER THE PRO-VISIONS OF PARAGRAPH 482 OF THE ACT OF OCTOBER 1, 1890.

1893. Department No. 45. Division of Customs.

Treasury Department,

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY, Washington, D. C., March 18, 1893.

To Officers of the Customs and others:

Circular No. 66, of May 2, 1892, in regard to the importation of animals for breeding purposes, is hereby revoked, and the following rules will be observed in lieu thereof by officers of the customs and all others concerned in the importation of live animals, under the provisions of paragraph 482 of the act of October 1, 1890.

It having been ascertained that animals which are crossbred, and others with unknown pedigrees, have been recorded in certain registers, with the sole object of unking them eligible for free entry into the United States, and as paragraph 482 of the act of October 1, 1890, provides that no animal shall be admitted free unless pure bred of a recognized breed, the object of the law being, in the opinion of this Department and the Department of Agriculture, to exclude from free entry animals not absolutely and strictly pure bred, it is hereby directed that on and after April 1, 1893, no animal which is bronght into the United States from foreign countries for breeding purposes shall be admitted free of duty unless the importer furnishes a certificate of the record and pedigree in the form hereafter given, showing that the animal is pure bred and admitted to full registry in a book of record established for the same breed; together with the affidavit of the owner, agent, or importer that such animal is the identical animal described in said certificate of record and pedigree.

In the case of sheep, the females are frequently recorded by flocks, and not individually; therefore, when the requirements as to pedigree can not be complied with, the animal will be admitted on the certificate of the secretary of one of the recognized associations named in this circular that it is pure bred and registered in the flock book of that association.

Unless the certificate of record and pedigree herein provided for is produced, the animal shall be considered dutiable as not being pure bred of a recognized breed; and not duly registered in the book of record established for that breed. In case such certificates are not at hand at the time of the arrival of the animals, and other evidence is produced, satisfactory to the collector, showing that the animals are entitled to free entry, the collector may so admit them, taking a bond in double the value of the animals for the production of the proper certificate.

In accordance with the recommendation of the Secretary of Agriculture, made under the provisions of the aet of July 5, 1892 (27 Stat., p. 80), officers of the customs are hereby directed not to admit"animals to free entry unless they are recorded in one of the registers mentioned in this circular.

J. G. CARLISLE,

Secretary.

INFORMATION FOR PERSONS DESIROUS OF ENTERING THE MEDICAL CORPS OF THE U.S. MARINE-HOSPITAL SERVICE.

1893. Department No. 48.

sk:

Treasury Department,

OFFICE SUPERVISING SURGEON-GENERAL U. S. MARINE-HOSPITAL SERVICE,

Washington, D. C., March 23, 1893.

The following extract from the Revised Regulations of the Marine-Hospital Service is hereby published for the information of candidates for appointment into that Service :

* 7. The following is the act governing appointments:

Medical officers of the Marine-Hospital Service of the United States shall hereafter be appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate; and no person shall be so appointed until after pussing a satisfactory examination in the several branches of medicine, surgery and hygiene before a board of medical officers of the said Service. Said examination shall be conducted according to rules prepared by the Supervising Surgeon-General, and approved by the Secretary of the Treasury and the President.

SEC. 2. That original appointments in the Service shall only be made to the rank of assistant surgeon; and no officer shall be promoted to the rank of passed assistant surgeon until after four years' service and a second examination as aforesaid; and no passed assistant surgeon shall be promoted to be surgeon until after due examination : Provided, That nothing in this act shall be so construed as to affect the rank or promotion of any officer originally appointed before the adoption of the regulations of eight-een hundred and seventy-nine; and the President is authorized to nominate for confirmation the officers in the Service on the date of the passage of this act.

8. No person will be appointed an assistant surgeon whose age is less than twenty-one or more than thirty years, and, as a preliminary to a recommendation for appointment, the applicant must have gradaated in medicine at some respectable medical college, and must pass a satisfactory physical and professional examination before a board of surgeons of the Marine-Hospital Service, which will be convened, from time to time, for that purpose, by the Secretary of the Treasury.

9. Medical officers in the Marine Hospital Service will not be appointed to any particular station, but to the general service. They will be subject to change of station, as the exigencies of the Service may require, and shall serve in any part of the United States wherever assigned to duty. 10. A vacancy in the grade of surgeon will be filled by promotion from among the passed assistant surgeons, who shall be eligible for promotion to the grade of surgeon in the order of seniority, but no such officer will be promoted until he shall have passed a satisfactory examination in the several professional branches.

11. The passing of an examination will not be considered as giving assurance of appointment, as, in case there should be more candidates than vacancies, the Department will select for nomination to the President those of the highest attainments.

12. No qualified candidate will be eligible for appointment more than one year. If not appointed within that time, he may, if he desire, be reëxamined, when, if successful, he will take position with the elass last examined.

13. An applicant failing at one examination may be allowed a second examination after one year, but not a third.

14. Assistant surgeons, after four years' service, are examined for promotion to the grade of passed assistant surgeon. The application for this examination must be accompanied with testimonials of correct deportment and habits of industry from the surgeons with whom they have served, and the applicant must be familiar with these regulations, and must also certify that he is physically able for service in any elimate.

15. The order of the examination will be: 1. Physical. 2. Written. 3. Oral. 4. Clinical.

which would disqualify them for active service in any climate. 17. The examinations will be chiefly in writing, and this portion of the exercise will begin with a short autobiography of the candidate, in which he will concisely state : Whether married or single ; the date and place of his birth : the school, institution, or college at which he received his general education : the several branches studied, including his knowledge of general literature, and of the ancient and modern languages; the exact title of the medical school or schools at which he received instruction, and the date of his graduation : the name and place of residence of his preceptor, and the time when he commenced the study of medicine ; also the title of the text-books studied or read on chemistry, matomy, physiology, histology, materia medica, pharmany, therapeutics, theory and practice of medicine, principles and practice of surgery, minor surgery or mechanical therapeutics, modical jurispendence, toxicology, obstetrics, hygiene, biology, and physics; the opportunities he has had of engaging in the practice of medicine, surgery and obstetrics, or of receiving clinical instruction ; or whether he has or has not been a resident physician or interne in a civil or military hospital ; and the number of subjects or parts of subjects he has dissected while at college. The candidate will append to this statement his name in full, post-office address, and his local address at the date of the examination.

18. The remainder of the written exercise will consist in examinations on—(1) auatomy, (2) physiology, (3) elemistry, (1) materia medica and therapenties, (5) practice of medicine, (6) practice of surgery, (7) obstetries and diseases of women, (8) hygiene, (9) reports on selected cases at a hospital; these cases will be selected by the examiners so as to give at least two cases, one medical and one surgical, to each candidate.

19. The board will examine the candidates orally in their proficiency in general literature, history of the United States, geography of the United States, and such branches of general science as they may in their discretion think pertinent.

20. When practicable, candidates will be required to perform such surgical operations on the cadaver as may be directed by the examiners.

21. Examinations for promotion will be made chiefly in writing, but may be supplemented, in the discretion of the examiners, by an oral examination on any subject connected with the official and professional duties of the officer. No officer will be recommended for promotion who shall be found physically disqualified, and no assistant surgeon will be recommended for promotion who shall fail to reach the minimum mark in anatomy and physiology, and no passed assistant surgeon will be recommended for promotion who shall fail to reach the management), the practice of medicine, and the practice of surgery. Candidates for promotion, of what ever rank, must show themselves proficient in the regulations governing the Service. The examiners will also examine carefully the record of the service of the officer as furnished from the Bureau.

24. * * * Surgeons shall receive twenty-five hundred dollars, passed assistant surgeons eighteen hundred dollars, and assistant surgeons sixteen hundred dollars per annum, and after five years' service an additional compensation of ten per centum on the annual salary for each five years' service shall be allowed medical officers above the grade of assistant surgeon, but the maximum rate shall in no case exceed forty per centum.

25. * * * When a medical officer is serving at a post on active duty where there are no quarters belonging to the Service, he shall approximately receive commutation for quarters at the same monthly rate allowed medical officers of the Army of the same relative rank, * * * namely, surgeons fifty dollars, past assistant surgeons forty dollars, and assistant surgeons thirty dollars a month.

On appointment, the young officers, as a rule, are first assigned to duty at one of the large marine hospitals, as at Boston, New York, Baltimore, New Orleans, Chicago, or San Francisco. Officers traveling under orders are allowed actual expenses. Boards of examiners are usually called once a year, and appointments are not influenced by polities.

WALTER WYMAN,

Supervising Surgeon General.

Approved :

O. L. SPAULDING,

Acting Secretary.

IMPORTATIONS OF BLACK PLATE.

1893. Department No. 53. Division of Customs.

Treasury Department,

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY,

Washington, D. C., April 10, 1893.

To Collectors and other Officers of the Customs:

Paragraph 142 of the act of October 1, 1890, imposes certain specific duties on black sheets of iron or steel, according to gauge, and paragraph 144 of said act provides for an additional duty of one-fourth of 1 cent per pound on such as have been "pickled or cleaned by acid, or by any other material or process, or * * * cold rolled, smoothed only, not polished."

It having been reported that black plates treated as above described are being sold in this country at prices which would indicate that they do not pay duty under the proviso in paragraph 144, you are hereby authorized to reject all invoices of such merchandise which bear date on and after the 15th proximo, provided the same do not contain one of the following descriptions: "Pickled or smoothed or cold rolled."

O. L. SPAULDING,

Acting Secretary.

FREE ENTRY OF LUMBER MANUFACTURED IN NEW BRUNSWICK FROM LOGS CUT IN THE STATE OF MAINE.

1893. Department No. 54. Division of Customs.

Treasury Department,

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY,

Washington, D. C. April 11, 1893.

To Collectors and other Officers of the Customs:

It appearing that the Department's special regulations of February 2, 1888 (Synopsis 8652), are no longer adequate to meet the changed conditions of the lumber industry at St. John, New Brunswick, and that difficulties have arisen which render it necessary that the system of accounting under the aforesaid regulations now followed by the United States consult at St. John be extended to meet these changed conditions of the trade, the special regulations of February 2, 1888 (Synopsis 8652), are hereby amended as follows:

Citizens of the United States owning timber grown upon the river St. John or its tributaries in the State of Maine, and desiring to import the product thereof into ports of the United States free of duty, under sections 2508 and 2509, Revised Statutes, such timber having been exported through the channel of the St. John River and sawn in the province of New Brunswick, must comply with the following regulations:

They shall present to the collector of customs at Houlton, Me, or to the deputy collector nearest the place from which the logs are to be floated, the manifest in triplicate and the surveyor's affidavit (Forms Nos. 1 and 2, Regulations of February 2, 1888); the inspector's certificate, Form No. 3 (ibidem) will be dispensed with and the same is hereby abolished. The collector at Houlton, or the deputy before whom the manifest of logs is verified, will transmit one copy thereof by mail to the United States consular officer at St. John, New Brunswick, deliver one copy to the owner of the logs or his agent, and retain the remaining copy for the files of his office. A record of such manifests shall be kept in proper books by the collector of customs at Houlton, Me.

The United States consul at St. John shall keep a proper book of record in which he shall enter all "manifests of logs" received from the United States customs officers, and he shall also receive and file duplicates of the usual returns made from day to day by the St. John official scalers to the American mills.

Upon shipping to the United States lumber sawn from the aforesaid logs, the shipper shall file a statement under oath with the United States consul at St. John, distinctly setting forth the kind and quantity of lumber to be exported to the United States, its quality, value per thousand feet, where and by whom maunfactured, and the number, kind, and marks of logs from which manufactured. If the total quantity of lumber so exported to the United States and manufactured from any specific "mark of logs" does not exceed by 7 per cent the number of feet estimated for the logs of that mark and credited on the books of the consul as per "St. John scale," the consul shall issue his certificate for the free entry of the lumber into the United States. No "overrun" will, however, be allowed by the consul in excess of 7 per cent above the quantity credited as per "St. John scale" on the books of the consul above mentioned.

If practicable, the United States consul at St. John will obtain duplicates of the returns made by the St. John official scalers to the American mills since January 1, 1893, and he may apply these instructions to shipments of lumber sawn from logs covered by such returns.

O. L. SPAULDING,

Acting Secretary.

AMENDING ARTICLE 608, CUSTOMS REGULATIONS OF 1892, AS TO ENTRIES FOR IMMEDIATE EXPORTATION.

1893. Department No. 55. Division of Customs.

Treasury Department,

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY,

Washington, D. C., April 13, 1893.

To Collectors and other Officers of the Customs:

Article 608 of the Customs Regulations of 1892 provides for the cancellation of export bonds covering merchandise which is simply transferred from the importing to the exporting vessel without passing through any portion of the United States.

It having been shown that the facilities afforded by this article have been abused, and that machinery, equipments, and stores for vessels have been placed on board such vessels under the pretext that exportation of the same was thereby intended, and that said articles have been thereupon appropriated for use without landing, Article 608 is hereby modified so as to exclude from its benefits the articles above enumerated, and the cancellation of export bonds given in such cases will be effected under the provisions of Article 609.

Collectors are further authorized to apply the provisions of Article 609 to other immediate exports whenever they have reason to believe that the interests of the revenue would thereby be more fully protected.

> O. L. SPAULDING, Assistant Secretary.

KILLING OF FUR-BEARING ANIMALS IN ALASKA.

1893. Department No. 56. Division of Special Agents.

Treasury Department,

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY,

Washington, D. C., April 14, 1893.

To Collectors and other Officers of the Customs, and to Officers of the Revenue Marine:

Section 1956 of the Revised Statutes of the United States provides that no person shall, without the consent of the Secretary of the Treasury, kill any otter, mink, marten, sable, or fur seal, or other fur-bearing animal, within the limits of Alaska Territory or in the waters thereof, and that any person convicted of a violation of that section shall, for each offense, be fined not less than $200 nor more than $1,000, or be imprisoned not more than six months, or both ; and that all vessels, with their tackle, apparel, furniture, and cargo, found engaged in violation of that section, shall be forfeited.

No fur-bearing animal will be allowed to be killed by persons, other than natives, within the limits of Alaska Territory or in the waters thereof.

The killing by anyone of fur scals, except upon the Pribilof Islands by such party or parties as are permitted so to do, pursuant to the terms of a contract between the Government of the United States and such party or parties, is prohibited.

White men married to natives and residing within the Territory will not be entitled to the privilege of natives under this order.

The use of nets by the natives in taking sea otter is hereby prohibited.

The master of any vessel having on board skins of otter, mink, marten, sable, fur seal, or other furbearing animals taken in Alaska or Alaskau waters, before unlading the same, shall report to the collector of customs at the first port of arrival of such vessel in the United States, and shall file a manifest of such skins with said collector.

Masters of vessels failing to comply with these regulations will be considered as having violated the provisions of section 1956 of the Revised Statutes, and will be liable to the penalties prescribed therein.

It will be the duty of the officers of the United States who may be in the localities where sea otter, mink, marten, sable, or fur seal, or other fur-bearing animals are taken, or who may have knowledge of any such offense committed, to take all proper measures to enforce the penalties of the law against persons guilty of a violation thereof.

These regulations supersede all others previously in force.

J. G. CARLISLE, Secretary.

DEFINING THE DUTIES OF THE SUPERINTENDENT OF IMMIGRATION.

1893. Department No. 58.

Treasury Department,

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY,

Washington, D. C., April 22, 1893.

In view of the fact that section 7 of the act of March 3, 1891, authorizing the appointment of a Superintendent of Immigration, provides that "the Superintendent of Immigration shall be an officer in the Treasury Department under the control and supervision of the Secretary of the Treasury," and inasmuch as the duties of the Superintendent of Immigration are not clearly defined by law, the following regulations are hereby prescribed, subject to any modifications which the Secretary of the Treasury may from time to time deem it expedient to make :

1. All official mail relating to immigration matters, after being opened in the Division of Mail and Files, Secretary's Office, will go, in the first instance, to the office of the Superintendent of Immigration.

2. All official communications in connection with the immigration service conveying authority to expend money will be signed by the Secretary, as required by law.

3. All rulings or opinions covering new applications of the immigration laws, or new questions arising thereunder, and all modifications of previous rulings, will be signed by the Secretary.

4. All inspection and other officers in the immigration service after their appointment will be assigned to duty by the Superiutendent, their official duties and conduct will be supervised by him, and all correspondence between the Department and the officers in the immigration service will be conducted by the Superintendent.

5. In the interest of economy and efficiency in the public service immigration inspectors under the alien contract-labor laws will be expected and required, in connection with their regular duties, to render all assistance in their power to the enforcement of the United States customs laws, and to this end, wherever circumstances render this course practicable, they will be subject to the immediate authority of the respective collectors of customs in the districts to which they are assigned. Regulations are already in force requiring customs officials, wherever practicable, to coöperate with officers of the immigration service in the enforcement of the immigration laws.

6. Section 5 of the act of March 3, 1893, provides that it shall be the duty of every inspector of arriving alien immigrants to detain for a special inquiry, under section 1 of the immigration act of March 3, 1891, every person who may not appear to him to be clearly and beyond doubt entitled to admission, and all special inquiries shall be conducted by not less than four officials acting as inspectors, to be designated in writing by the Secretary of the Treasury or the Superintendent of Immigration, for conducting special inquiries, and no immigrant shall be admitted upon special inquiry except after a favorable decision made by at least three of said inspectors, and any decision to admit shall be subject to appear by any dissenting inspector to the Superintendent of Immigration, whose action shall be subject to review by the Secretary of the Treasury, as provided in section 5 of said immigration act of March 3, 1891. When an appeal is thus taken to the Superintendent of Immigration he will prepare and signature his approval or disapproval. If the decision is approved it will be promulgated as written; if disapproved it will be promulgated as revised.

J. G. CARLISLE,

Secretary.

INFORMATION FROM THE FILES OF CUSTOM-HOUSES IN CASES OF APPEALS SUB-MITTED TO THE BOARD OF UNITED STATES GENERAL APPRAISERS, TO BE ACQUIRED BY PROTESTANTS AT PORTS DISTANT FROM NEW YORK.

1893. Department No. 60. Division of Customs.

Treasury Department,

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY,

Washington, D. C., April 22. 1893.

To Collectors and other Officers of the Customs:

It having been represented to the Department that importers filing notices of dissatisfaction under the provisions of section 14 of the act of June 10, 1890, who live at ports distant from the sitting place of the Board of United States General Appraisers, do not enjoy the advantages accorded to importers at New York in the matter of the examination of cases presented for decision; that in the majority of such cases the amount involved is disproportionate to the cost of employing attorneys to appear before the Board, or to the expense which would be incurred by a personal attendance; that in such cases the importer's knowledge in the matter is confined solely to his side of the controversy; and recognizing his right to proper opportunity and facilities for presenting to the Board of General Appraisers his view of the contention between himself and the collector, and in accordance with the recommendation of the President of the Board of United States General Appraisers, it is hereby directed that collectors and other chief officers of the customs shall afford protestants full and free access to the record of their cases, consisting of invoices, bills of lading, returns of United States appraisers, reports of customs officers, and other documentary evidence, in order that such protestants may acquaint themselves fully with the status of cases as they are made up for the consideration of the Board.

In carrying out the provisions of this circular it is expected that collectors and other chief officers of the customs will see to it that the due and orderly transaction of the business of the port is not embarrassed thereby, and paragraphs 4 and 5 of Department's Circular No. 41, of March 21, 1892 (Synopsis 12498), will continue to govern customs officers in matters pertaining to the examination of custom-house records by unofficial persons.

> CHARLES S. HAMLIN, Assistant Secretary.

AMENDING PARAGRAPH 151, REVISED REGULATIONS OF THE LIFE-SAVING SERVICE, 1884.

1893. Department No. 61.

Treasury Department,

UNITED STATES LIFE-SAVING SERVICE,

Washington, D. C., April 21, 1893.

To the Officers and Employes of the Life-Saving Service:

Paragraph 151 of the Revised Regulations of the Life-Saving Service, 1884, is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

The regular crews of stations are not entitled to salvage, it being a part of their duty as Government employés to assist without charge in saving property from wreeked vessels so far as it can be done without interfering with the duty of saving life, which must always be the paramount consideration, or endangering the effectiveness of the appliances for prompt service at any moment, and they are strictly forbidden to solicit or receive any other compensation for the performance of such duty than that which the Government pays.

Any infraction of the foregoing regulation should be promptly reported to this office.

S. I. KIMBALL,

General Superintendent.

APPROVED:

O. L. SPAULDING,

Acting Secretary.

RELATIVE TO THE PROHIBITION OF CONTRIBUTIONS BY OFFICERS, CLERKS, OR EM-PLOYÉS IN THE GOVERNMENT SERVICE FOR GIFTS OR PRESENTS TO THOSE IN SUPERIOR OFFICIAL POSITIONS.

1893. Department No. 62. Appointment Division

Treasury Department,

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY,

Washington, D. C., April 22, 1893.

To the Heads of Bureaus, Chiefs of Divisions of the Secretary's Office, and all persons in, above, or below the Classified Service of the Treasury Department:

Your attention is particularly called to the requirements of section 1784 of the Revised Statutes, as follows :

"SECTION 1784. No officer, clerk, or employé in the United States Government employ shall at any time solicit contributions from other officers, clerks, or employés in the Government service for a gift or present to those in a superior official position; nor shall any such officials or clerical superiors receive any gift or present offered or presented to them as a contribution from persons in Government employ receiving a less salary than themselves; nor shall any officer or clerk make any donation as a gift or present to any official superior. Every person who violates this section shall be summarily discharged from the Government employ."

The provisions of the above section must be strictly complied with in every particular.

THE PREPARATION OF PRINTER'S COPY, REQUISITIONS FOR PRINTING AND BINDING, ETC.

(Superseding all previous Regulations on the Subject.)

Treasury Department,

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY,

Washington, D. C., May 8, 1893.

To all Officers and Clerks of the Treasury Department whom it may concern:

1893.

Department No. 64. Division of S., P., & B.

To secure uniformity and economy in printing and binding, and to prevent confusion in the use of blanks and blank books, a strict compliance with the following regulations is hereby enjoined upon all officers of the Department:

I. All copy for the printer should be carefully and thoroughly prepared, to avoid, as far as possible, alterations in proof; and, to enable the Public Printer to furnish the estimates of cost required by law, the copy must invariably accompany requisitions.

II. When it is desired that a form be printed in other than ordinary black ink, the particular color or kind should be specified on the copy.

III. In ordering blanks, the numbers of the forms only need be written on requisitions, the necessary instructions for the printer being written on copy.

IV. To avoid the mutilation of record books, loose sheets of each form should be kept on hand, to be used as printer's copy when ordering new supplies.

V. The title of each blank book will be written on requisition, but directions for making books will appear in detail on the copy, and must specify—1. The number of leaves or openings required. 2. Size of paper. 3. The style of binding desired, i. e., whether *Russia ends and bands; †half Russia, patent back; ‡half Russia, cloth sides; ‡half Russia, plain, or §board covers, cut flush. 4. Specific instructions for titling, paging, indexing, tagging, canvas covering, etc.

VI. Blank books must conform as nearly as practicable to the following standard sizes of paper (or fractional division thereof): .14 by 17 inches; 17 by 28 inches; 16 by 21 inches; 21 by 32 inches; 18 by 23 inches; 19 by 24 inches; 20 by 28 inches; 23 by 31 inches.

VII. Each blank book must have printed, on the back or side, its title, the serial number of the volume, the name of the division and office in which it is to be used, and the name of the Department; and, whenever practicable, the heading of each page will distinctly show the character of the transactions to be entered, and the subheadings of columns should be sufficiently full to clearly indicate their purpose.

^{*}Suitable for books of 250 leaves or more.

[†] Suitable for books of from 175 to 250 leaves.

[‡]Suitable for books of from 88 to 175 leaves.

[§] Suitable for books of less than 88 leaves, which are not subjected to much handling.

VIII. Printed books and documents can, under the law, be bound only in cloth or sheep. When sheep binding is deemed necessary, the particular style desired should be specified on the requisition, i. e., either full sheep (light or dark), half sheep (light or dark), cloth sides, or half sheep (light or dark), paper sides. Directions for titling should accompany the material to be bound : and, when it is desired to have lettering. etc., agree with the previous volumes of a series, a sample copy should to be sent with the material.

IX. Concerning the sizes of blank forms, their briefing, numbering, etc., the following extracts from Department Circular No. 107, of 1890, are here reproduced, with the injunction that their provisions be strictly observed ;

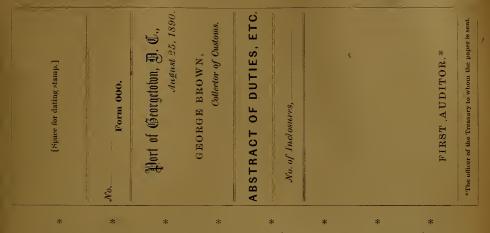

To maintain the desired uniformity, method and watchfulness will be required. The existing diversities in sizes and styles of blanks have chiefly arisen from a lack of system in preparing copy for the printer, the necessity for uniformity in the files, and the possibility of such uniformity, not having been usually considered in the printing of new blanks.

To remedy this defect of system, it is hereby ordered that the head of each bureau or office of the Department, and the chief of each division of the Secretary's Office, designate a competent person, whose duty it shall be to attend to the ordering of all blank forms for use in his office or division. The persons so designated will be required to familiarize themselves with necessary technicalities connected with the preparation of printer's copy, and will be held to a strict responsibility for the faithful performance of this duty. They shall (1) make out all requisitions for printing for the signature of the head of the office (chief of division, in case of the Secretary's Office); (2) see that all copy accompanying requisitions is properly prepared and has the approval of the head of the office (chief of division, in case of the Secretary's Office); (3) see that new blanks, when introduced, are of the official standard size ; and (4) confer with the chief of the Division of Stationery, Printing, and Blanks, Secretary's Office, upon all questions that may arise in connection with the printing and preparation of blank forms.

The officers and clerks in the accounting offices will aid the Department in perfecting this system by reporting any deviation from the standard sizes that may come to their notice in the examination of accounts.

To secure economy in the use of paper, different sizes of each form may be prepared, to consist of divisions or multiples of the standard, and administrative officers will instruct their subordinates to use the smallest size that will meet the requirements in cach case.

Each blank form will have a number, and also a title indicating as nearly as possible the purpose for which it is to be used. The name of the office (or division, in case of the Secretary's Office) in which it originates should also appear at the head of every blank. There should be a uniform system of numbering blanks in every bureau of the Department and division of the Secretary's Office, a list of the forms to be kept in a book, the number and title being given in each case. When a blank becomes obsolete its number should not be used on any other form. Fractions of numbers should not be used, and letters in councection with numbers should be used only as a distinguishing feature between blanks of different sizes of the same form. For the purpose of numbering, every printed form regularly used in the transaction of the business of the Department, with the exception of letter heads, may be defined as a blank. Every blank form going into the files must have a proper indorsement. To secure uniformity in this important matter, the following model is submitted, which contemplates a uniform size and style for the date and receipt stamp:

X. Each circular, circular letter, report, or other printed document must have a brief heading showing its contents or the use to which it is to be applied.

XI. No requisition should be for more than one form.

XII. A year's supply of standard forms should be ordered at one time.

XIII. Blank books should be ordered at least four months and blank forms two months before needed for use. No requisition will be advanced or specialed except in case of absolute and unavoidable necessity.

XIV. A record of printing requisitions should be kept in each office of the Department and division of the Secretary's office, in order that the date may be furnished whenever it becomes necessary to refer to a requisition on the books of the Division of Stationery, Printing, and Blanks.

XV. After a careful examination and correction of proofs they should be returned to the Division of Stationery. Printing, and Blanks, in the envelopes or jackets in which they were received from the printer.

XVI. Heads of bureaus, in making requisitions for their annual and other reports authorized to be printed, should order only such editions as necessity imperatively demands. The appropriation for printing and binding for the Department being limited, rigid economy is required in its expenditure.

J. G. CARLISLE,

RELATING TO THE LABELING OF BAGGAGE AND THE ISSUE OF INSPEC-TION CARDS TO STEERAGE AND CABIN PASSENGERS.

1893. Department No. 65, Marine Hospital Service.

Treasury Department,

Washington, D. C., May 4, 1893.

To Consular Officers of the United States, Medical Officers of the United States serving in foreign ports, and others:

In accordance with the act of Congress approved February 15, 1893, it is hereby ordered that, until further notice, all baggage of steerage passengers destined for the United States shall be labeled. If the baggage has been inspected and passed, the label shall be a red label, bearing the name of the port, the steamship on which the baggage is to be carried, the word inspected in large type, the date of inspection, and the seal or stamp of the consulate or of the medical officer of the United States serving in the office of the consul. All baggage that has been disinfected shall be pasted with a yellow label, upon which shall be printed the name of the port, the steamship upon which the baggage is to be carried, the word disinfected in large type, the date of disinfection, and the seal or stamp of the consulate or of the medical officer of the United States serving in the office of the consul. It is understood, and it will be so printed on the blank, that the label is not valid unless bearing the consular or medical officer's stamp or seal.

It is further ordered that each immigrant or steerage passenger shall be furnished with an inspection card (see form below), on which shall be inscribed or stamped the port of departure, name of the steauship, date of departure, name of immigrant or steerage passenger and last residence, and the seal or stamp of the United States consulate or the detailed medical officer. This card is to be retained by the immigrant until he reaches his point of destination in the United States, and is for the purpose of giving information to the maritime quarantine officers of the United States and the health officers of the several States through whose boundaries the immigrant must pass, and will greatly facilitate his transportation. The eard will also contain blank spaces for stamping at the local quarantines of the United States and at the immigration stations. On the same eard are blank spaces to be filled in by the ship's surgeon or agent, when it is desired by the steamship company to utilize this card for compliance with article 13 of the Immigration Regulations promulgated April 25, 1893; also a column indicating the inspection by the ship's surgeon of each immigrant during the voyage, as demanded by the local quarantine officer at the port of arrival. On the reverse of the card is a certificate of vaccination, to be filled out when the immigrant has been vaccinated; also instructions, in several languages, to the immigrant to retain the card until he reaches his destination in the United States in order to avoid detention.

This eard is to be issued by the consular or medical officer to each steerage passenger, to every member of a family as well as to the head thereof. If not used by the steamship in complying with article 13 of the lumnigration Regulations. April 25, 1893, a separate card must be furnished by the vessel, in compliance with the law.

Cabin passengers from cholera-infected ports or places shall be given a special inspection card, on which shall be printed the port of departure, name of passenger, name of ship, date of departure, and an indicated space for the seal or stamp of the consular or medical officer.

The baggage of said cabin passengers shall be properly labeled.

EXCLUSION OF CHINESE.

1893. Department No. 66. Division of Special Agents.

Treasury Department,

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY,

Washington, D. C., May 4, 1893.

To Collectors of Internal Revenue, Collectors of Customs, and all other Customs Officials of the United States:

The time within which Chinese laborers are required by the act of May 5, 1892, to procure certificates of residence will expire on the fifth day of the present month, and it is evident from the partial reports made to this Department by the Collectors of Internal Revenue that in some of the States and Territories large numbers of such persons have failed or refused to make application as required by the law, but until complete reports are received the names and residences of those who have registered and procured certificates, and who are therefore exempt from arrest, can not be officially known.

Collectors of Internal Revenue and Collectors of Customs and all other Customs Officials of the United States are therefore instructed to refrain from making arrests under the provisions of the sixth section of the act approved May 5, 1892, entitled "An act to prohibit the coming of Chinese persons into the United States," until further orders and instructions from this Department.

CIRCULAR No. 403.

SPECIAL TAX STAMPS FOR THE SPECIAL-TAX YEAR ENDING JUNE 30, 1894.

1893. Department No. 68.

Treasury Department,

OFFICE OF INTERNAL REVENUE,

Washington, D. C., May 9, 1893.

1. Immediately on receipt of this circular, collectors will make out and transmit to this office requisitions on Form 100 (revised December, 1890), for special-tax stamps for the special-tax year commencing July 1, 1893, and ending June 30, 1894.

2. Collectors who have already forwarded their requisitions for the special-tax year commencing July 1, 1893, will, upon receipt of this circular, each make and forward an order based upon the instructions as given herein. In no case will stamps be issued to a collector in excess of an estimated three months' supply.

3. These stamps will be denominated "Series 1893," and requisitions therefor should have this denomination distinctly indersed thereon.

4. Collectors, in ordering special-tax stamps, should base their estimates of the quantity they will need upon the number of each kind issued by them during the first three months of the current year, but in no case should less than one book of any denomination be ordered.

5. Collectors will insert, in red ink, in the left-hand column of Form 100 (revised), on which requisition is made, directly opposite the number of stamps of each kind ordered, the number of whole books of such stamps, "Series 1892," in their hands on the day requisition is forwarded to this office.

6. It is expected that all stamps for the coming year will be transmitted from this office on or before June 10, 1893.

7. Collectors will not issue special-tax stamps for the special-tax year ending June 30, 1894, nutil Form 11, properly filled out, and the money for the stamps have been received; and the stamps must be issued in consecutive order, the dates upon the stubs so indicating.

8. On June 30, 1893, collectors will return to this office all special-tax stamps of the series of 1892 (B), and all coupons and stubs of such stamps remaining in their hands, reporting them on line 10 of Form 68 for June as "in transitu" June 30, 1893. Collectors are informed that this instruction is mandatory; that no excuse for not complying with the same will be accepted, but that in every case where a collector, for any reason, shall fail to comply herewith, he will be required to forward amended Forms 68, on which such stamps and coupons returned must be reported as "in transitu June 30, 1893."

9. When special taxes are collected for other than the current year the collector will issue stamps of Series C, writing across the face thereof, and also across the stubs, in red ink, "Issued ______, 189 , for the last ______ months of the special-tax year ended June 30, 18 ," signing the same in his official capacity.

G. W. WILSON, Acting Commissioner.

CIRCULAR No. 240,-Revised May 9, 1893.

RESTAMPING PACKAGES OF SPIRITS, TOBACCO, CIGARS, SNUFF, CIGAR-ETTES, AND FERMENTED LIQUORS.

1893. Department No. 69.

Treasury Department, office of internal revenue,

Washington, D. C., May 9, 1893.

Section 3315, Revised Statutes, as amended by the act of March 1, 1879, provides that the "Commissioner of Internal Revenue may, under regulations prescribed by him, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, issue stamps for restamping packages of distilled spirits, tobacco, eigars, snuff, eigarettes, and fermented liquors which have been duly stamped, but from which the stamps have been lost or destroyed by unavoidable accident."

The following regulations are prescribed in pursuance of the authority conferred by the section above quoted :

1. APPLICATIONS.—Persons desiring to have packages restamped will make application in writing to the collector of internal revenue for the district in which the same are situated, stating the number of packages, the articles contained therein, where they are located, and the nature of the applicant's interest in them.

2. EVIDENCE REQUIRED.—The application should be accompanied by evidence that the articles were once properly stamped. If the stamps were lost or destroyed while in transit, the evidence should consist of the affidavit of the consignor that the packages were properly stamped when shipped, and the affidavit of some one having knowledge of the facts as to the circumstances attending the destruction en route; if lost or destroyed after they came into the possession of the applicant, his own affidavit, or that of some one in his employ cognizant of the facts, that the packages were properly stamped when received, and that the loss or destruction of the stamps was unavoidable—from accident or otherwise—all the attending circumstances being shown.

3. INSPECTION OF PACKAGES.—On receipt of the application and evidence, the collector will order an immediate inspection of the packages. If they contain spirits the inspection should be made by a gauger, when possible, otherwise by a deputy collector, who will at the same time regauge them. If they contain other articles the inspection should be made by a deputy collector.

4. REPORT OF INSPECTION.—The inspecting officer will make a written report to the collector of the number of packages which require restamping; of the condition and contents of each, and of the stamps or fragments of stamps remaining attached, if any.

5. In the case of spirits, a full report of the regauge and also of the marks and brands found upon the bung stave and stamp head of the package should be made to the collector, who will cause the same to be transmitted, on Form 59, with the officer's report of inspection.

6. PRESENTATION OF CASE.—The collector will forward to this office the evidence herein required, with his certificate as to the correctness of the same, and his recommendation in the premises. In addition thereto he will submit—

7. In the case of distillery-warehouse stamps, a certified copy of the report on Form 59 of the original inspection of the spirits.

8. In the case of tax-paid spirit stamps, a certified copy of the report on Form 59 of the inspection of the spirits upon which the tax was paid; and

9. The certificate of the collector in whose district the spirits were produced as to the payment of the tax thereon.

10. In the case of stamps for imported spirits, export stamps for distilled spirits, and special warehousing and rewarehousing stamps for grape brandy, a certified copy of the report of the gauger who affixed the stamps.

11. In the case of wholesale liquor dealers' stamps, a certified copy of the application (on Form 92 or 924) for the stamps.

13. The certificate of the collector that the spirits were reported, as alleged, on Form 340 on file in his office.

G. W. WILSON, Acting Commissioner.

APPROVED: J. G. CARLISLE,

INFORMER'S SHARE OF FINE.

1893. Department No. 70. Bureau of Navigation.

Treasury Department,

Washington, D. C., May 11, 1893.

To Collectors, Chief Officers of the Customs, and others:

Referring to the practice of the Department in allowing the claims of Revenue Marine and other officers of the United States to the informer's share of a moiety of a fine paid for violation of the Navigation Laws, your attention is invited to section 7 of the act of June 22, 1874, known as the "Anti-Moiety Act."

That section provides, "that except in cases of smnggling as aforesaid, it shall not be lawful for any officer of the United States, under any pretense whatever, directly or indirectly, to receive, accept, or contract for any portion of the money which may, under any of the provisions of this or any other act, accrue to any such person furnishing information; and any such officer who shall so receive, accept, or contract for any portion of the money that may accrue as aforesaid shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and, on conviction thereof, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding five thousand dollars, or imprisonment for not more than one year, or both, in the discretion of the court, and shall not be thereafter eligible to any office of honor, trust, or emolument. And any such persons of unishing information as aforesaid, who shall pay to any such officer of the United States, or to any person for his nee, directly or indirectly, any portion of said money, or any other valuable thing, on account of or because of such money, shall have a right of action against such officer or other person, and his legal representatives, to recover back the same, or the value thereof."

The language employed in this section is absolute, and therefore all officers of the United States, except in cases of smuggling in violation of the customs revenue laws, are debarred from receiving any share of a fine. All decisions and regulations of the Department to the contrary are hereby revoked.

J. G. CARLISLE,

AMENDMENT TO CIRCULAR REQUIRING EXAMINATIONS FOR POSITIONS AS CHIEFS OF DIVISIONS.

1893. Department No. 73. Division of Appointments.

Treasury Department,

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY,

Washington, D. C., May 15, 1893.

The following amendment to the provisions for Pass Examinations for Chief of Division, Treasury Department, as required by Circular No. 195, 1891, entitled, "Circular relative to Competitive Examinations for Promotion of persons within the Classified Service and of Pass Examinations before appointment of Chiefs of Divisions and of Special Agents," is hereby made:

Chiefs of Divisions in the Secretary's Office may be excepted from the Departmental Examination at the discretion of the Secretary of the Treasury, and the rules of 1891 are modified to this extent.

REGARDING DEBT CLAIMS AGAINST EMPLOYÉS.

1893. Department No. 72. Division of Appointments.

Treasury Department,

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY,

Washington, D. C., May 12, 1893.

To whom it may concern:

In view of the disputes continuously arising in reference to claims for indebtedness against the officers, elerks, and employés of this Department, and the impracticability of the Secretary acting in a judicial capacity in the settlement thereof, it is hereby announced that hereafter the Department will not enforce the collection of, or give consideration to, such claims. The Department will not answer letters making complaints of the above character.

J. G. CARLISLE,

APPOINTMENT OF SUBSTITUTES TO REGULAR PLACES.

1893. Department No. 74. Division of Appointments.

Treasury Department,

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY,

Washington, D. C., May 20, 1893.

To whom it may concern:

In order that all substitute clerks now on the roll may have an equal chance, notice is hereby given that when a vacancy occurs on the regular rolls to which a substitute is eligible for appointment, and the first substitute on the roll refuses, or declines for any reason, to accept such vacancy, such substitute will not be called until all the others on the list have either accepted or declined regular appointment.

J. G. CARLISLE,

AMENDED STEAMBOAT RULES AND REGULATIONS.

1893. Department No. 75.

Treasury Department,

STEAMBOAT-INSPECTION SERVICE,

OFFICE SUPERVISING INSPECTOR-GENERAL OF STEAM VESSELS.

Washington, D. C., May 17, 1893.

To Inspectors of Steam-Vessels, Boiler Manufacturers, and others:

A special meeting of the Board of Supervising Inspectors of Steam Vessels was held at the Maltby Building, Washington, D. C., May 10 to 16, inclusive, by direction of the Secretary of the Treasury, in letter dated March 24, 1893, when amendments were made to section 3, Rule I, testing samples of steel boiler plate, and the resolution of the Board of Supervising Inspectors, adopted January 23, 1893, relating to coil and pipe boilers and pressure for bumped heads of boilers, were also amended.

Local inspectors when called upon to inspect new coil or pipe boilers having heads of steam drums over 6 inches diameter, serewed on, will require the affidavit of the builder that the boiler was contracted for and its building commenced previous to February 9, 1893.

The new rule for hydrostatic pressure is only to be applied to coil and pipe boilers whose construction was commenced at a date subsequent to May 13, 1893.

Following is the full text of the amendments to the rules and the modified resolution which have received the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, dated May 13, 1893, and have now the force of law, as provided in section 4405, Revised Statutes, and must be observed accordingly.

JAS. A. DUMONT,

Supervising Inspector-General, President of the Board of Supervising Inspectors of Steam Vessels.

Approved, May 17, 1893. CHARLES S. HAMLIN, Acting Secretary of the Treasury.

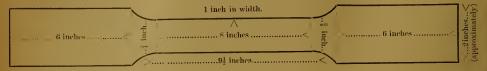

RULE I.

SEC. 3 (last paragraph new). Resolved, That section 3, Rule I, be amended by adding thereto the following proviso as a new paragraph, namely: Drovided, however, That where contracts for boilers for ocean-going steamers require a test of material in compliance with the British Board of Trade, British Lloyds, or Bureau Veritas rules for testing, the inspectors shall make the tests in compliance with the following rules:

Steel plates shall in all cases have an ultimate elongation not less than 20 per cent in a length of 8 inches. It is to be capable of being bent to a curve of which the inner radius is not greater than one and a half times the thickness of the plates after having been heated uniformly to a low cherry red, and quenched in water of 82 degrees Fahrenheit. Such tests to be made at the place of manufacture of the material, by a local or assistant inspector of the district in which such material is to be used, whenever possible. If, however, from distance or other sufficient reason, the inspectors of the district are nuable to make such tests, the Supervising Inspector-General may direct a local or assistant inspector from another district to make them. In every case, however, the inspector making the tests shall stamp the initials of his name above the manufacturer's stamp on the plates, and also the letters "U. S. 1.," with the initials or abbreviated signs of the name of the port to which the inspector making the tests belongs.

The test piece under this proviso shall be prepared in form according to the following diagram :

COIL AND PIPE BOILERS.

Resolved, That the resolution adopted by this Board January 23, 1893, and published on page 1, Department Circular No. 25, dated February 14, 1893, be amended to read as follows:

Resolved, That all drums attached to coil, pipe, sectional, or water-tube boilers not already in use, or actually contracted for, to be built for use on a steam vessel, and its building commenced at or before the date of the approval of this rule (February 9, 1893), shall be required to have the heads of wronght iron or steel flanged and substantially riveted to the drums, or secured by bolts and nuts of equal strength with rivets, in all cases where the diameters of such drums exceed 6 inches.

That all coil and pipe boilers hereafter made be subjected at inspection to a hydrostatic pressure double that of the steam pressure allowed in the certificate of inspection.

Be it further resolved, 'That the rule for bumped heads of boilers adopted at the last meeting of the Board, and printed on page 8 of Circular No. 25, 1893, be amended to read as follows:

Pressure allowed on bumped heads.—Multiply the thickness of the plate by one sixth of the tensile strength, and divide hy six-tenths of the radius to which head is bumped, which will give the pressure per square inch of steam allowed.

FREE ENTRY OF DOMESTIC PRODUCTS AND MANUFACTURES EXPORTED AND RETURNED.

1893. Department No. 76. División of Castoms.

Treasury Department,

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY,

Washington, D. C., May 20, 1893.

The following extracts from the Customs Regulations of 1892, relating to the clearance of vessels and the free entry of domestic products and manufactures, are published for the information of all concerned, viz:

FOREIGN CLEARANCES.

ARTICLE 129. Before a clearance shall be granted to any vessel bound to a foreign port, it must be shown by the discharging officer's return that all the cargo imported in the vessel has been duly discharged and accounted for, and the master shall file with the collector an outward manifest, in the prescribed form under oath, of all the cargo laden on board, which must agree with the manifests filed by the several shippers. For failure to file such outward manifest the master shall be liable to a penalty of $500.

The clearance granted by a collector for a vessel and her cargo need not specify the particulars thereof, unless required by the master or other person in charge or command of the vessel.

FREE ENTRY OF ARTICLES RETURNED.

ARTICLE 331. Articles of the growth, produce, and manufacture of the United States, exported to a foreign country and returned without having been advanced in value or improved in condition, by any process of manufacture or other means, and upon which no drawback or bounty has been allowed, are entitled to entry free of duty, but this privilege does not extend to articles exported in bond from a manufacturing warehouse and afterwards returned to this country. The exportation must be bona fide and not for the purpose of evading any revenue law.

Merchandise, the growth, produce, or manufacture of the United States, ostensibly exported to ports in Canada in foreign vessels, but really shipped from one place in the United States to another by routes part water and part rail, and passing through foreign territory, are not bona fide exportations, and the merchandise is not entitled to free entry on importation.

A sale abroad does not destroy the right to free entry, nor does damage incurred on the voyage.

If returned to the port of original exportation, the fact of regular clearance for a foreign destination must be shown by the records of the customs, except in regard to exports to Canada, and by the declaration of the person making the entry. But when the reimportation is made into a port other than that of original exportation, there shall be required, in addition to the declaration, a certificate from the collector and the naval officer, if any, of the port where the exportation was made, showing the fact of exportation from that port. If the importation be made within one year after the date of exportation, the collector shall require the importer to produce the affidavit of the exporter to the fact that such exportation was made in good faith and without any purpose or intention to reimport the merchandise.

CAT. NO. 594.

Outh for return of American products exported.

1. _____, do solemnly, sincerely, and truly swear (or affirm) that the several articles of merchandise mentioned in the entry hereto annexed are, to the best of my knowledge and belief, truly and bona fide of the growth (or production or manufacture) of the United States; that they were truly exported and imported as therein expressed; that they are returned without having been advanced in value or improved in condition by any process of manufacture or other means, and that no drawback, bounty, or allowance has been paid or admitted thereon, or on any part thereof.

Port of -----. Sworn to this ---- day of -----, 18--. _____, Collector.

CAT. NO. 773.

DISTRICT OF _____, ____, Port of _____, *18*__.

This is to certify that there were cleared from this port on the _____, in the _____, whereot _____, was master, for the following articles of merchandise (here enumerate the number of packages, their denomination, marks, numbers, and contents) on which no drawback, allowance, or bounty has been paid or admitted. _____, Collector.

[SEAL.] SEAL.

If such certificate can not at once be procured, and the proof otherwise required be produced, free entry will be permitted on bond (Cat. No. 596) being given for the production of the certificate in a sum ARTICLE 332. To guard against fraud, and to insure identity, the collector shall require, in addition to proof of clearance, the production of a statement, certified by the proper officer of the customs at the foreign port from which the reimportation was made, and authenticated by the consul of the United States, that such merchandise was imported from the United States in the condition in which it is returned, and that it has not been advanced in value or improved in condition by any process of manufacture or other me'ans.

If there be no such customs officer at the foreign port of exportation, a certificate of the foreign recipient of the merchandise, or of his representative having knowledge of the facts, duly authenticated by the consul, may be admitted in lieu thereof; but if it be impracticable to produce either of the certificates referred to at the time of making entry, bond may be given for the production of such statement or certificate.

ARTICLE 333. Collectors, with concurrence of naval officers, if any, may wrive the record evidence of clearance and foreign customs certificate, and in lieu thereof accept other satisfactory evidence of exportation, in the case of domestic goods on which no drawback has been allowed, valued at not over $100, if satisfied that the failure to produce the record evidence did not result from willful negligence on the part of the importers.

In default of observance of the foregoing requirements, such merchandise will be treated as foreign. ARTICLE 334. Should it appear that any internal-revenue tax was remitted, or refunded by way of drawback, on the original exportation of any articles of the growth, manufacture, or product of the United States, a duty must be exacted upon their return equal in amount to the tax imposed by the internal-revenue laws upon such articles at the time of their reimportation, but all articles manufactured in bonded warehouse are subject to duty, on reimportation, as foreign merchandise, and all articles on which drawback was made are liable to a duty equal to the drawback allowed. In order that domestic liquors shall be entered on importation at a duty equal to the internal-revenue tax, there must be produced with the entry a duly authenticated certificate from the proper officer of customs at the foreign port of reshipment, stating that the merchaudise is returned to the United States in the condition in which it was imported. In case of the absence of such certificate, a bond may be taken for its production in a penal sum equal to double the duty on foreign merchandise of the same class.

Collectors are requested to direct, so far as practicable, the attention of parties concerned to the regulations above set forth.

J. G. CARLISLE,

WOOL SAMPLES.

1893. Department No. 77. Division of Customs.

Treasury Department,

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY,

Washington, D. C., May 22, 1893.

To Collectors and other Officers of the Customs:

The Department has had under consideration several applications from importers of wool, for relief from the immediate enforcement of Department's Circular No. 28, of February 21, 1893, establishing standards for comparison in the classification of wool. It has been represented that the result of classification according to the new standards, has, in many cases, thrown wools which have hitherto been held as of the third class into the first class, and that, in consequence, the duty has been largely increased. It is further contended that wools which had been ordered in ignorance of any impending change of the classification prevailing up to the issuance of said circular, have in some cases been sold in advance of arrival at prices based upon the then prevailing rates of duty, and as a result of the change importers have been subjected to heavy loss without remedy.

On November 26, 1888 (Synopsis 9136), the Department in instructing the collector of customs at New York in regard to the classification of hat trimmiugs, which had been changed in consequence of conclusions arrived at by the appraisers, used the following language:

A change in the classification which has prevailed for so long a period of time should not be made except upon timely notice to all persons engaged in the business of importing and dealing in such merchandise, and, in the jndgment of the Department, where it is made to appear to the satisfaction of the collector, that the goods were ordered prior to the announcement of his decision changing the classification, the entry should be liquidated and the duty assessed according to the practice which prevailed before the change was made.

On January 10, 1891 (Synopsis 10587), in promulgating the new regulations regarding the valuation of foreign coins, in accordance with which certain currencies were subjected to a higher valuation, the Department said :

With a view, however, of affording relief to importers of merchandise from such countries * * * where it would seem that a great hardship would be imposed by immediately enforcing the said decision, * * * the Department has reached the conclusion that entries of importations made prior to April 1, 1891, from countries having such depreciated currency * * * may be adjusted by estimating the value of the currency in accordance with the consular certificate which may be attached to the invoice, provided that such value shall be returned as correct by the appraiser.

In accordance with the precedents thus established, the Department has concluded to direct that entries of wool covered by invoices certified on or before May 1, 1893, shall be subjected to classification for duty in accordance with the rules which prevailed before the issuance of Circular No. 28, and when it is found that under these conditions duties have been paid in excess, refund will be made of such excess.

OVERCROWDING PASSENGER STEAMERS.

1893.Department No. 80.

*

Treasury Department,

OFFICE OF SUPERVISING INSPECTOR-GENERAL STEAMBOAT-INSPECTION SERVICE.

Washington, D. C., May 27, 1893.

Collectors or other chief officers of customs and inspectors of steamboats are hereby notified that Department Circular No. 64, June 11, 1881, in relation to their duties under section 4496, Revised Statutes, is still in force, and must be observed accordingly. The essential part of said circular is quoted as follows:

In view of the large number of passengers carried on passenger and excursion steamers during the season of summer travel, and the frequent complaints that many carry an excess of passengers over the number allowed by their certificates of inspection or excursion permits, it is desirable that officers of the Government whose duty it is to prevent such abuses shall give especial attention to the matter, and prevent the overcrowding of such steamers by prosecution for penalties, if such action shall be found necessary.

Collectors and surveyors of customs are, therefore, directed to instruct their subordinates to make careful examination of such steamers, and to report all cases of violation of law for prosecution. Extra efforts should be made upon Sundays, and particularly upon the Fourth of July. The section of law referred to herein reads as follows:

"Section 4496. All collectors or other chief officers of the customs, and all inspectors within the several districts, shall enforce the provisions of this title against all steamers arriving and departing."

Supervising inspectors will instruct the local inspectors to detail one-half their force upon each alternate Sunday for duty in the vicinity of their home ports for the purpose of ascertaining, by actual count of passengers, if necessary, whether the law is complied with, and upon the Fourth of July the whole force will be so employed. Inspectors of steam vessels will confer with the chief officers of customs of their districts as to the best methods of carrying out this order. In all cases where it is found necessary to prosecute, the officer prosecuting will report all the facts to the Department for its information. A zealous effort on the part of the officers named herein in the performance of the duties required will, it is believed, effectually check the evil complained of.

In view of a conflict of opinion having arisen in some of the districts as to the authority of inspectors issuing excursion permits on waters not included in the local inspection district issuing such permit, inspectors are informed that any local board of inspectors can issue an excursion permit under section 4466, Revised Statutes, to any steamer then in the waters of their district, to cover all the waters named in the steamer's regular annual certificate of inspection, she being properly equipped and safe, in their judgment, to carry the additional passengers; and such excursion permit is valid, even though used in waters wholly without the district in which the permit is issued.

In view of the large additional excursion traffic anticipated in consequence of the Columbian Exposition at Chicago, Ill., it is expected that all officers of the service will be exceptionally vigilant in enforcing a strict compliance with the laws relating to both passenger and excursion steamers, to the end that passengers on steam vessels may have the utmost confidence in the safety of American steamboat travel.

RULE REGARDING NEW CUTTINGS.

New cuttings, meaning the waste from new cotton or linen cloth taken from factories, shall be considered as new merchandise, and come within the provisions of Section 3, Article VII, of the Quarantine Regulations of February 24, 1893.

Amending Section IV, Quarantine Laws and Regulations.

Article IV, U. S. Quarantine Laws and Regulations, dated February 24, 1893, is hereby amended after the eleventh line by substitution of the following :

The air space, ventilation, etc., must conform to the following extracts from the Passenger Act of 1882.

SEC. 3. That every such steamship or other vessel shall have adequate provision for affording light and air to the passenger decks and to the compartments and spaces occupied by such passengers, and with adequate means and appliances for ventilating the said compartments and spaces.

To compartments having sufficient space for fifty or more of such passengers at least two ventilators, each not less than twelve inches in diameter, shall be provided, one of which ventilators shall be inserted in the forward part of the compartment, and the other in the afterpart thereof, and shall be so constructed as to ventilate the compartment; and additional ventilators shall be provided for each compartment, in the proportion of two ventilators for each additional fifty of such passengers carried or brought in the compartment.

All ventilators shall be carried at least six feet above the uppermost deck of the vessel, and shall be of the most approved form and construction. In any steamship the ventilating apparatus provided, or any method of ventilation adopted thereon, which has been approved by the proper emigration officers at the port or place from which said vessel was cleared, shall be deemed a compliance with the foregoing provisions.

INSPECTION OF IMMIGRANTS AND THEIR BAGGAGE.

1893. Department No. 82. Bureau of Immigratioo.

Treasury Department, office of the secretary.

Washington, D. C., June 1, 1893.

To Customs Officers, Quarantine Officials, and Immigrant Inspectors:

Hereafter alien immigrants shall not be permitted to enter the United States at places on the Canadian and Mexican frontiers between the hours of 6 o'clock p. m. and 7 o'clock a. m. All alien immigrants and their baggage arriving at such places must be subjected to the inspection now prescribed by the immigration, quarantine, and customs laws of the United States so far as the same can be made applicable in the transit of persons and baggage by railroad and inland navigation.

Where such inspections have been made by the proper officers upon landing of immigrants at ports in the United States, and the route by which such immigrants in proceeding directly to destination passes through foreign territory from one point to another in the United States, such immigrants will not be subject to reinspection at the point of reëntry into this country.

Immigrants who, with their baggage, were inspected by an officer of the U. S. Marine Hospital Service upon landing at any port on the American continent, will be exempt from further quarantine inspection unless there is reason to believe that disease has developed among such immigrants since such landing and inspection.

NONLANDING CERTIFICATES FOR DRAWBACK GOODS SHIPPED BY VES-SEL SUBSEQUENTLY TOUCHING AT A DOMESTIC PORT.

1893. Department No. 85. Division of Enstoms.

Treasury Department, office of the secretABY.

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY,

Washington, D. C., June 5, 1893.

To Collectors and other Officers of the Customs:

The attention of customs officers is called to the last paragraph of article 767 of the Customs Regulations of 1892, authorizing the issuance of nonlanding certificates, when "drawback goods are laden for exportation by sea on board a vessel subsequently touching at a domestic port." In cases where no part of the cargo was landed at the port of final clearance, the collector at such port shall, on the clearance of the vessel and the receipt of certified copies of drawback entries filed at the port of original shipment, forward to the collector at the port of shipment a certificate of nonlanding in form as follows:

	CUSTOM-HOUSE, PORT OF , 189
THIS IS TO CERTIFY that the	whereof is master, from	bound to via	, duly entered at this port on the day of	and cleared hence on the day of, 189	,
and that no part of the cargo of sai	d vessel was unladen at this port.

. Collector.

Naval Officer.

Such nonlanding certificate as well as the certificate of exportation prescribed by the first paragraph of said article 767, being for the use of customs officers, shall be exempt from any custom-house fee.

The schedules of custom house fees in articles 1312 and 1314 of the Regulations are hereby amended by striking out the paragraphs prescribing a fee of 20 cents for "certificate nonlanding drawback goods at intermediate port."

CONTRACTS FOR THE CARE OF SEAMEN, ETC.

Treasury Department,

1893. Department No. 86. Variae-Hospital Service.

OFFICE OF THE SUPERVISING SURGEON-GENERAL U. S. MARINE-HOSPITAL SERVICE,

Washington, D. C., June 19, 1893.

The following contracts for the care of seamen entitled to relief from this Service, for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1894, are published for the information of accounting officers of the Treasury Department, disbursing agents, medical officers of the Marine-Hospital Service, Acting Assistant Surgeons, and customs officers. This circular is to be regarded as official notification of the acceptance of the proposals made by the parties designated, and must be cited, giving its number and date, on all bills for the treatment and maintenance of seamen, and for the burial of deceased patients, as the authority for any expenditure incurred under its provisions. Charges will be allowed for the day of admission of a hospital patient, but not for the day of discharge or death. The right is reserved by the Secretary of the Treasury to terminate any contract whenever the interests of the Service require it. All relief must be furnished in accordance with the Revised Regulations of the Marine-Hospital Service; and, in consequence of the largely increased expenditures for relief, and of the limited sources of income, it has become necessary to give notice that, as provided in the Regulations, no allowance will be made for expenditures incurred at any other station than those named in this Circular.

The term "contagious diseases" wherever occurring in this Circular, except as to specific contracts made otherwise, includes only those diseases which, under usual municipal regulations, are required to be treated in a pesthouse, namely: Cholera, yellow fever, plague, or smallpox, and in some numicipalities, measles.

INDORSEMENT AND PAYMENT OF TREASURY DRAFTS AND POST-OFFICE DEPARTMENT WARRANTS.

1893. Department No. 87. Treasurer's Office, No. 60.

Treasury of the United States,

Washington, D. C., June 7, 1893.

Treasury drafts and Post-Office warrants must not be paid until the indorsements conform to the following regulations:

1. The name of the payee, as indersed, must correspond in spelling with that on the face of the draft; no guarantee of an indersement, imperfect in itself, can be accepted. If the name of a payee, as written on the face of a draft, is spelled incorrectly, the draft should be returned to the Treasurer U. S. for correction.

2. Indersements by mark (X) must be witnessed by two persons who can write, giving their places of residence.

3. Indorsements by executors, administrators, guardians, or other fiduciaries must be accompanied by certified copies, under seal, of letters testamentary, letters of administration, of guardianship, or other evidence of fiduciary character, as the case may be.

4. Payees and indorsees must indorse by their own hands; officials, officially with full title; firms, the usual firm signature by a member of the firm, not by a clerk or other person for the firm.

5. Every indorsement must be by the proper written (not printed) signature of the person whose indorsement is required.

6. Powers of attorney for the indorsement of drafts in payment of claims must be excented as required by section 3477 of the Revised Statutes of the United States. The letter of attorney must state the number, date, and amount of the draft, also the number and kind of warrant on which the draft is issued; must be signed by the constituent in the presence of at least two attesting witnesses subsequently to the date of the draft, and be acknowledged by him before a notary public, and certified by such officer under his hand and official seal; or, when not before a notary public, the acknowledgment must be before an officer having anthority to take acknowledgments of deeds within the State or Territory in which it is taken, which authority must be shown by a certificate as to the official character and signature of such officer and setting forth that he is duly authorized to take acknowledgments of deeds, made by the clerk of a court of record of such State or Territory, under the seal of the court, or by some other officer of the State or Territory authorized to make such certificate, under his official seal.

If executed in a foreign country, the acknowledgment must be before a notary public, and certified under his hand and official seal, or before a consul or minister of the United States, under the seal of the legation or consulate.

The officer taking the acknowledgment must certify that the letter of attorney was read and fully explained to the constituent at the time of acknowledgment, and that said constituent is personally well known to him to be the identical person named in and who subscribed his name to said power of attorney. 7. Evidence of authority to indorse for incorporated or unincorporated companies must have been previously filed with the First Comptroller of the Treasury, or accompany drafts drawn or indorsed to the order of such companies or associations. Such evidence should be in the form of an extract from the bylaws or records of the company or association showing the authority of the officer to indorse and receive and receipt for moneys for the company, and giving his name and the date of his election or appointment, and the period for which he was elected or appointed, and that such authority shall be binding on the company until notice of revocation has been filed with the First Comptroller of the Treasury, which extract must be verified by a certificate nuder seal signed by the president and secretary, or by one of these officers and not less than two of the directors; which certificate must state that such authority remains unrevoked and unchanged. If the company have no seal, the extract should be certified as correct by a notary public or other competent officer under his seal. When a resolution is adopted at a special meeting of directors, it must be shown that all had notice of the time and place of such meeting, and that a quorum assented to the resolution.

The evidence of authority to indorse required in paragraph 7, above, may be dispensed with in the case of drafts or checks not exceeding in amount the sum of twenty-five dollars ($25), payable to a corporation or company which necessarily employs a number of local agents in the transaction of its business—such as railroad, telegraph, steamboat, express, transfer, turnpike, hotel, newspaper, gas, and ice companies—when it is impracticable to obtain the indorsement of the secretary, treasurer, or other principal officer of such corporation or company : Provided, that the draft or check be indorsed by a local agent of such corporation or company who is authorized to receive and collect money on behalf of the same, and that his indorsement as such agent be gnaranteed by a bank, or by some other responsible and satisfactory gnarantor.

8. In cases where an individual or a copartnership is doing business under a company title, the affidavit of the owner or of at least two members of the copartnership will be required, showing the fact of ownership, and in the case of copartnerships, naming the member of the copartnership who is authorized to indorse and receive and receipt for moneys for the owners.

9. The indorsement of all the joint holders or co-trustees, executors, administrators, guardians, or other fiduciaries will be required on drafts, and in the execution of a power to a third party to collect all must join. In case of the death of either, the survivors will be recognized as having full authority, upon due proof of such death and survivorship.

ABSENCE OF EMPLOYÉS.

1893. Department No. 89. Division of Appointments.

Treasury Department, office of the secretary,

Washington, D. C., June 7, 1893.

To the Officers, Clerks, and all other Employes, Treasury Department:

Your attention is called to the fifth section of the act approved March 3, 1893, making appropriations for the legislative, executive, and judicial expenses of the Government for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1894, which reads as follows:

SEC. 5. That on and after July first, eighteen hundred and ninety three, it shall be the duty of the heads of the several Executive Departments, in the interest of the public service, to require of all clerks and other employees, of whatever grade or class, in their respective departments. not less than seven hours of labor each day, except Sundays and days declared public holidays by law or executive order: Provided: That the heads of the Department may, by special order, stating the reason, further extend or limit the hours of service of any clerk or employee in their Departments, respectively; but in case of an extension it shall be without additional compensation: And provided further, That the head of any Department may grant thirty days' annual and thirty days' sick leave, with pay, in any one year to each clerk or employee, the sick leave to be allowed in cases of personal illness only, or where some member of the immediate family is afflicted with a contagious disease and requires the care and attendance of such employee, or where his or her presence in the Department would jeopardize the health of fellow clerks: And be it further provided, That in exceptional and meritorious cases, where to limit such sick leave would work peculiar hardship, it may be extended, in the discretion of the head of the Department, with pay not exceeding sixty days in any one case or in any one calendar year. This section shall not be construed to mean that so long as a clerk or employee is borne upon the rolls

This section shall not be construed to mean that so long as a clerk or employee is borne upon the rolls of the Department in excess of the time herein provided for or granted, that he or she shall be entitled to pay during the period of such excessive absence, but that the pay shall stop upon the expiration of the granted leave.

The Attorney-General in an opinion dated June 2, 1893, decides that the section quoted applies to the current calendar year.

Therefore, in view of the section and opiuion referred to, notice is hereby given that thirty days' leave of absence, and thirty days' sick leave will be the maximum absence allowed the chiefs of divisions, clerks, and other employés of this Department, with pay, during the current calendar year, 1893, and thereafter.

The "exceptional and meritorious cases" mentioned in said section will be considered and decided in each individual case on its merits.

Notice is also given that the services of all substitute clerks now on the rolls, who have not received permanent appointment on or before the 30th instant, will cease on the 30th day of June, 1893.

Their names will be retained on the list, and they will have preference for appointment to regular places as vacancies occur in the order of their appointment as substitutes

Heads of bureaus and chiefs of divisions will take particular note of this circular and be governed accordingly.

J. G. CARLISLE,

Secretary.

ISSUE AND REDEMPTION OF CURRENCY.

Department No. 91. Treasurer's Office, No. 61.

Treasury of the United States,

Washington, D. C., June 14, 1893.

The following regulations govern the issue, redemption, and exchange of the paper currency and the gold, silver, and minor coins of the United States and the redemption of national bank notes by the Treasurer of the United States:

I.—ISSUE OF UNITED STATES PAPER CURRENCY.

1. The Treasurer will forward new United States notes by express, at the expense of the consignee, at Government contract rates, or by registered mail, registration free, at the risk of the consignee, in return for United States notes unfit for circulation, national bank notes, fractional silver coin, or minor coin.

2. Silver certificates are issued by the Treasurer or Assistant Treasurers upon a deposit of standard silver dollars, or in return for such certificates unfit for circulation received for redemption.

3. Treasury notes of 1890 are issued in payment of silver bullion purchased under the act of July 14, 1890, or in return for such notes unfit for circulation received for redemption.

II.—ISSUE OF GOLD COIN.

4. Gold coin is issued in redemption of United States notes, in sums not less than $50, by the Assistant Treasurers in New York and San Francisco, and in redemption of Treasury notes of 1890, in like sums, by the Treasurer and all the Assistant Treasurers.

III.-ISSUE OF STANDARD SILVER DOLLARS AND FRACTIONAL SILVER COIN.

5. Standard silver dollars are issued by the Treasurer and Assistant Treasurers in redemption of silver certificates and Treasury notes of 1890, and are sent by express, at the expense of the Government, in sums or multiples of $500, for silver certificates deposited with the Treasurer or any Assistant Treasurer.

6. Upon the deposit of an equivalent sum in United States currency or national bank notes with the Treasurer or any Assistant Treasurer or national bank depositary, fractional silver coin will be paid in any amount by the Treasurer or Assistant Treasurers in the cities where their several offices are, or will be sent by express, in sums of $200 or more, at the expense of the Government, or by registered mail, at the risk of the consignee, in packages of $50, registration free, from the most convenient Treasury office, to the order of the depositor. For this purpose drafts may be sent to the Treasurer or any Assistant Treasurer, payable in their respective cities, to the order of the officer to whom sent.

IV.—ISSUE OF MINOR COIN.

7. Minor coin is issued under the following regulations of the Director of the Mint:

Five-cent nickel and one-cent bronze pieces will be furnished, in the order of application, from the United States mint at Philadelphia, Pa., to points reached by the United States and connecting express companies, free of transportation charges, in sums of $20 or multiples thereof, upon receipt and collection by the superintendent of that mint of a draft on New York or Philadelphia, payable to his order. To points not reached by express companies, delivery under contract with the Government being impracticable, these coins will be sent by registered mail at applicant's risk, registry fee to be paid by the Government.

A supply of these coins will be kept on hand by the Assistant Treasurers of the United States at New York, Boston, Baltimore, Philadelphia, Cincinnati, Chicago, St. Lonis, New Orleans, and San Francisco, and applications for them in these cities should be made to the subtreasuries.

8. Minor coin is not forwarded by express to applicants by the Treasurer or Assistant Treasurers, nor is it forwarded by the mint at Philadelphia to applicants in cities where there are subtreasuries.

9. The Treasurer and Assistant Treasurers will pay out for lawful money any minor coin not needed in the current business of their offices, but in no case should drafts be sent to them for it.

V.-ISSUE OF THE TREASURER'S TRANSFER CHECKS.

10. Subject to the convenience of the Treasury, the Treasurer will issue transfer checks on the Assistant Treasurers, payable to the order of the sender or his correspondent, for United States notes and Treasury notes of 1890 unfit for circulation or national bank notes sent to the Treasurer for redemption, or for fractional silver coin or minor coin sent in multiples of $20 to the Treasurer or an Assistant Treasurer, but not for silver certificates sent for redemption.

VI.-REDEMPTION OF PAPER CURRENCY.

11. United States notes, fractional currency notes, gold certificates, silver certificates, and Treasury notes of 1890, are redeemable by the Treasurer, and when not mutilated so that less than three fifths of the original proportious remains, by the several Assistant Treasurers, at face value. United States notes are redeemable in coin, in sums not less than $50, by the Assistant Treasurers in New York and San Francisco. Treasury notes of 1890 are redeemable in coin, in sums not less than $50, by the Assistant Treasurers in New York and San Francisco. Treasury notes of 1890 are redeemable in coin, in sums not less than $50, by the Treasurer and all the Assistant Treasurers. Silver certificates are redeemable in standard silver dollars only, or exchangeable for other silver certificates. National bank notes are redeemable by the Treasurer, but not by the Assistant Treasurers.

12. United States notes, fractional currency notes, gold certificates, silver certificates, Treasury notes of 1890, and national bank notes, when mutilated so that less than three-fifths, but clearly more than two-fifths, of the original proportions remains, are redeemable by the Treasurer only, at one-half the face value of the whole note or certificate. Fragments not clearly more than two-fifths are not redeemed, unless accompanied by the evidence required in paragraph 13.

13. Fragments less than three-fifths are redeemed at the face value of the whole note when accompanied by an affidavit of the owner or other persons having knowledge of the facts that the missing portions have been totally destroyed. The affidavit must state the cause and manner of the mutilation, and must be sworn and subscribed to before an officer qualified to administer oaths, who must affix his official scal thereto, and the character of the affiant must be certified to be good by such officer or some other having an official seal. Signatures by mark [X] must be witnessed by two persons who can write, and who must give their places of residence. The Treasurer will exercise such discretion under this regulation as may seem to him needful to protect the United States from frand. Fragments not redeemable are rejected and returned.

VII.-REDEMPTION OR EXCHANGE OF SILVER AND MINOR COIN.

14. Fractional silver coin and coins of copper, bronze, or copper-nickel may be presented in sums or multiples of $20, assorted by denominations in separate packages, to the Treasurer or an Assistant Treasurer for redemption or exchange into lawful money, and standard silver dollars for exchange into silver certificates only. When forwarded by express, the charges should be prepaid.

15. Depositors of fractional silver coin will obtain quicker returns and aid the Department in retring the old issues from circulation, if they will present coins of the old designs and the new in separate packages.

16. No foreign, mutilated, or defaced silver coins or coins to which paper or any other substance has been attached as an advertisement or for any other purpose, will be received. Reduction by natural abrasion is not considered mutilation.

17. Minor coin that is so defaced as not to be readily identified, or that is punched or clipped, will not be redeemed or exchanged. Pieces that are stamped, bent, or twisted out of shape, or otherwise imperfect, but showing no material loss of metal, will be redeemed.

VHI.—TRANSMISSION TO THE TREASURER.

18. United States notes, gold certificates, silver certificates, Treasury notes of 1890, and national bank notes should be sent in separate remittances. The notes should be assorted by denominations and inclosed in paper straps, not more than 100 notes to each strap, and the straps should be marked with the amount of their contents. Not more than 8,000 notes should be put in one package.

19. An inventory, giving the amount of each denomination of notes, the total amount in the package, the address of the party sending, and the disposition to be made of the proceeds, should be inclosed with each package, and a letter of advice sent by mail.

20. The package, if it be sent by express, should be scaled up in stout paper and addressed to the "Treasurer of the United States, Washington, D. C." The wrapper should be plainly marked with the owner's name and address, the amount and kind of currency inclosed, and, if the sender desires the benefit of the Government contract, with the words "under Government contract with the United States Express Company."

21. It is the duty of postmasters to register free of charge all letters on which the postage has been fully prepaid, addressed to the Treasurer, containing currency of the United States for redemption. It is recommended that all such letters be registered as a protection against loss.

22. Remittances of money by mail should be addressed to the "Treasurer of the United States, Washington, D. C." Such remittances and returns therefor by mail are invariably at the risk of the owners. All communications to the Treasurer in regard to packages lost in the mail are referred for investigation to the Chief Post-Office Inspector, Post-Office Department, Washington, D. C., to whom any subsequent inquiry on the subject should be addressed.

IX.-EXPRESS CHARGES.

23. The Government contract with the United States Express Company for the transportation of moneys and securities extends to all points accessible through established express lines reached by continuous railway communication, in all the States and Territories of the United States, excepting Alaska, Arizona, California, Idaho, Nevada, New Mexico. Oregon, Utah, and Washington, but does not embrace sea, river, or stage transportation of any kind.

24. The contract rates for the transportation of all kinds of paper currency to or from Washington are--

Between Washington and points in the territory of the United States Express Company and reached by it, 15 cents per $1,000 or fractional part thereof over $500; sums of $500 or fractional part thereof, 10 cents.

Between Washington and points in the territory of another express company, excepting points in Texas, 'Arkansas, Colorado, Kansas, Nebraska. Montana, North Dakota, South Dakota, Wyoming, and the Indian and Oklahoma Territories, 50 cents per $1,000 or fractional part thereof over $500; sums of $500 or fractional part thereof, 30 cents.

Between Washington and points in Colorado, Kansas, and Nebraska, 75 cents per $1,000 or fractional part thereof over $500; sums of $500 or fractional part thereof, 50 cents.

Between Washington and points in Texas, Arkansas, Montana, North Dakota, Sonth Dakota, Wyoming, and the Indian and Oklahoma Territories, $1 per $1,000 or fractional part thereof over $500; sums of $500 or fractional part thereof, 65 cents.

25. Express charges are paid by the Government, at contract rates, on standard silver dollars sent by the Treasurer or Assistant Treasurers in sums or multiples of $500, on fractional silver coin in sums of $200 or more, on minor coin sent from the mint at Philadelphia in sums or multiples of $20, and on national bank notes sent to the Treasurer for redemption in sums or multiples of $1,000.

26. On United States notes, gold certificates, silver certificates, or Treasury notes of 1890, sent for redemption, on any kind of lawful money sent for credit of the 5 per cent redemption fund, and on national bank notes sent for redemption in other amounts than multiples of $1,000, the charges, if not prepaid, are deducted from the proceeds at contract rates.

27. On United States notes, gold certificates, silver certificates, or Treasury notes of 1890, returned for United States currency or national bank notes redeemed, the charges are deducted at contract rates.

28. On standard silver dollars, fractional silver coin, and minor coin, sent for exchange or redemption the charges must be prepaid by the sender.

29. On transfers of funds from national bank depositaries, under letters of instruction, the charges must be paid by the depositaries.

30. The Treasurer has no control over rates exacted when the charges are prepaid, or for transportation outside of the territorial limits of the contract.

31. No charge is made for the amount of express charges inclosed with a remittance of even thousands of dollars, when separately noted on the wrapper. Packages should always be marked with the exact amount of the contents.

X.—GENERAL INFORMATION.

32. Paper currency presented for redemption or exchange or for credit of the Treasurer at the offices of the Assistant Treasurers must be assorted by kinds, and inclosed in paper straps, the straps not to contain more than 100 notes each, and to be plainly marked with the amount of the contents.

33. The act of June 30, 1876 (19 Statutes, 64), requires "that all United States officers charged with the receipt or disbursement of public moneys, and all officers of national banks, shall stamp or write in plain letters the word "counterfeit," "altered," or "worthless" upon all fraudulent notes issued in the form of and intended to circulate as money which shall be presented at their places of business: and if such officers shall wrongfully stamp any genuine note of the United States or of the national banks, they shall, upon presentation, redeem such notes at the face value thereof."

34. Counterfeit notes or coins found in remittances to this office are returned to the sender canceled for the purpose of enabling him to make reclamation, and after such use they must be returned to this office for transfer to the Secret Service Division of the Treasury Department.

35. In case of the loss or destruction of one of the Treasurer's checks, and upon application for a duplicate, payment of the original check is stopped, and the applicant is furnished with a form of bond of indemnity, upon return of which, properly executed, a duplicate is issued.

Compliance with the foregoing regulations is enjoined on all officers of the Department, and observance of them will be expected of all making remittances to this office.

D. N. MORGAN,

Treasurer U. S.

Approved :

J. G. CARLISLE,

Secretary of the Treasury.

DISCIPLINE OF OFFICIAL FORCE.

1893. Department No. 93. Division of Appointments.

Treasury Department,

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY,

Washington, D. C., June 7, 1893.

To Heads of Burcaus, Treasury Department, and Chiefs of Divisions, Secretary's Office :

Special attention is requested to the following rules and regulations of the Treasury Department, which are hereby promulgated:

The office hours of the several Bureaus, offices, and divisions shall be from 9 o'clock a. m. to 4 o'clock p. m., with a recess of half an hour between 12 o'clock m. and 1 o'clock p. m. each day.

All delinquencies in not promptly attending at the morning hour, or in not continuing diligently employed during business hours, must be daily reported by those having immediate supervision of subordinates to the heads of their respective Bureaus, offices, and divisions, who will cause the same to be entered on the efficiency records, as required by the rules and regulations.

Chiefs of divisions and other officers of the Department are directed to see that employés are not allowed under any circumstances to visit each other or to receive visits during business hours, and loitering and entertaining persons in the halls of the Department are strictly prohibited.

The reading of newspapers or other unofficial matter, or writing private letters or matter not connected with the business of the Department, will not be tolerated.

To prevent interruption and delay in the dispatch of public business, no person, except an official of the Department, will be admitted into any of the rooms of the Treasury building or its branches without the authority of the Secretary, one of the Assistant Secretaries, or the chief clerk, or that of the heads of the respective Bureaus, offices, or chief clerks thereof, or chiefs of divisions, Secretary's office.

Persons having business to transact with any Bureau, office, or division must apply to the head thereof or the chief clerk.

No information in regard to transactions of an official character is to be communicated to anyone not authorized to receive it.

Hereafter any infraction of the above rules and regulations will be considered as sufficient cause for dismissal from the public service.

⁴ Any officer or employé attached to the Secretary's office must feel at liberty to call on the Secretary and state to him any fact or well-grounded belief on his part that affects the integrity of the service, or the official conduct of anyone employed in it.

J. G. CARLISLE,

QUARANTINE. REGULATIONS.

1893. Department No. 93. Marine-flospital Service,

Treasury Department, office of the secretary.

Washington, D. C., June 15, 1893.

To Officers of the Treasury Department, Consular Officers, and others whom it may concern:

You are hereby informed that the quarantine regulations of the Treasury Department approved by the Secretary of the Treasury February 24, 1893, and April 4, 1893, with subsequent circular additions and amendments, supersede all circular quarantine regulations previously issued; and all quarantine circulars issued prior to the dates of approval of said regulations are hereby revoked.

Collectors of customs, in enforcing the provisions of the quarantine laws and regulations denying entry to vessels, or detaining the same, are directed to report immediately by telegraph to the Supervising Surgeon General of the Marine-Hospital Service the reasons therefor, and other necessary information.

While the quarantine rules can not be relaxed, no unnecessary detention or delay to vessels should be caused in enforcing the same, as it is the purpose of the Department to facilitate commerce in every proper way consistent with the public safety.

J. G. CARLISLE,

STATISTICS OF IMPORTS FROM COUNTRIES HAVING A DEPRECIATED CURRENCY.

1893. Department No. 95. Division of Customs.

Treasury Department,

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY.

Washington, D. C., June 19, 1893.

To Collectors and other Officers of the Customs:

The Department has been notified that the statistics of imports from countries having a depreciated currency are seriously vitiated by the fact that collectors of customs in reporting the values of such imports make out their returns in the depreciated currency indicated by the invoice, instead of in its equivalent in United States money, as is the intent of the laws and regulations governing the method of stating the values of imports.

This defect is especially noticeable in returns of free goods, as, for example, coffee and india rubber coming from Brazil; and goods subject to specific duty, such as wool coming from the Argentine Republic.

At the present time, in view of the fluctuating balance of trade, it is especially important that statistics of imports and exports shall be prepared as accurately as possible.

You are therefore instructed to require importers to declare upon all entries of goods which are free of duty or subject to specific rates of duty, whether the value of the goods is expressed in the depreciated coin, or paper currency of the country of exportation, and if expressed in depreciated coin or paper currency they shall reduce the same to its equivalent value in the standard coin of the United States at the time of exportation.

In accordance with urgent requests received from importers, the Department, ou January 23, 1893, issued instructions (Synopsis 12294) to collectors to waive the requirement of currency certificates on all goods not subject to duty ad valorem. This concession seems to have resulted in neglect on the part of importers to state the value of the currency shown by the invoice and in the adoption of the careless practice of simply declaring the invoice amount as if it represented standard coin.

Unless more accurate information shall henceforth be given in entries, the Department will find it expedient to revoke its action suspending the requirement of currency certificates in cases where the value of the currency does not affect the dutiable value of the merchandise.

WRECKS AND DERELICTS TO BE REPORTED.

1893. Department No. 98. Bureau of Narigation.

Treasury Department,

Washington, D. C., June 13, 1893.

To Collectors of Customs and others :

To facilitate the removal of wrecks and derelicts along the coasts and in bays, harbors, and other navigable waters of the United States, which are a menace to navigation, masters of merchant vessels, and officers of Revenue-Marine Cutters, of vessels of the Light-House Establishment, and of the Coast and Geodetic Survey are directed to keep a lookout for such dangerous wrecks and derelicts in the waters in which their vessels cruise in their regular course. The officers observing them will make report direct to the Commissioner of Navigation, Treasury Department, Washington, D. C. Such report should embrace as accurate a description of the wreck or derelict as possible; its locality, the class of vessel, name, official number, and home port, if it can be ascertained; whether sunken on bottom or a floating wreck, and, if abandoned, apparently how long; and if in the fairway of any channel, sound, or harbor, and any other material facts which should be communicated to the Department relating to the matter.

PROMULGATING REVISED RULES AND REGULATIONS TO CARRY INTO EFFECT THE PRESIDENT'S ORDER OF DECEMBER 4, 1891, WHICH REQUIRES THAT A PLAN BE DEVISED AND PUT INTO OPERATION FOR KEEPING AN EFFICIENCY RECORD OF ALL PERSONS IN THE CLASSIFIED SERVICE, WITH A VIEW TO PLACING PROMO-TIONS WHOLLY UPON THE BASIS OF MERIT.

1893. Department No. 102. Division of Appointments.

Treasury Department,

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY,

Washington, D. C., June 29, 1893.

To the Heads of Bureaus, Treasury Department, Chiefs of Divisions, Secretary's Office, and all persons in the Classified Service, Treasury Department:

Special attention is requested to the following order of the President as to promotions in the classified service :

EXECUTIVE MANSION,

Washington, December 4, 1891.

To the SECRETARY OF THE TREASURY:

SIR: In my message to the first session of the Fifty-first Congress, I said :

I have suggested to the heads of the Executive Departments that they consider whether a record might not be kept in each Bureau of all those elements that are covered by the terms "faithfulness" and "efficiency," and a rating made showing the relative merits of the clerks of each class, this rating to be regarded as a test of merit in making promotions.

In some of the Departments this suggestion has been acted upon in part, at least, and I now direct that in your Department a plan be at once devised and put in operation for keeping an efficiency record of all persons within the classified service, with a view to placing promotions wholly upon the basis of merit.

It is intended to make provisions for carrying into effect the stipulations of the civil service law in relation to promotions in the classified service. To that end the rule requiring compulsory (competitive) examinations has been rescinded. In my opinion, the examination for promotion of those who present themselves should be chiefly, if not wholly, upon their knowledge of the work of the Bureau or Department to which they belong and the record of efficiency made by them in their previous service. I think the records of efficiency, kept from day to day, should be open to the inspection of the clerks.

Very respectfully, yours,

BENJ. HARRISON.

For the purpose of carrying into effect the order of the President above referred to, the following rules and regulations are hereby promulgated, and the officers, elerks, and employés of the Department will be governed accordingly:

1. In each Bureau or Office of the Treasury Department or Division of the Secretary's Office, there shall be kept such record of the faithfulness and efficiency of the clerks and employés as will enable the heads thereof to give their rating in such elements when recommending for examination for promotion.

2. All credits for faithfulness and efficiency shall be based on a scale of 100 per cent for each element, and shall be rated from promptness in attendance during official hours and the manner in which duties are discharged according to the view of the responsible officers under whose direction and supervision the service is rendered and upon whose recommendation examinations for promotions are approved.

3. When a vacancy occurs or is to be provided for in any Office or Bureau in the Treasury Department, or in a Division in the Secretary's Office, the right to competitive or noncompetitive examination for promotion shall be limited to the clerks and employés of the Office or Bureau of the Department or Division of the Secretary's Office where such vacancy exists or is to be provided for.

t. Upon the recommendation of the head of a Bureau or Office of the Treasury Department, or chief of Division, Secretary's Office, in which clerks or employes render service, and the approval of the Secretary, competitive or noncompetitive examinations may be held for promotions to fill existing vacancies or those to be provided for.

5. Questions in examination for promotion shall relate exclusively to the qualifications necessary to perform the duties to be required of the person to be promoted.

6. No promotion shall be made until the examination papers have been approved by the Board of Examiners, consisting of the head of the Bureau or Office of the Treasury Department or chief of Division in the Secretary's Office, where the person examined is to be employed, the Chief Clerk of the Department and the private secretary of the Secretary of the Treasury, or their alternates, certifying that the person examined attained an average of 80 per cent or more, provided that in competitive examinations the person attaining the highest average shall be selected.

7. Promotions shall be made from grade to grade, but in special meritorions cases the Secretary may in his discretion designate for examination for promotion from any grade to any grade.

S. No clerk or employé in the classified service who has not attained an average of 80 per cent in examination for promotion shall be advanced or placed on eligible lists for promotion, and all clerks and employés on eligible lists shall be promoted in the order of the highest percentage attained.

9. All rules and regulations or parts of rules and regulations in conflict herewith are hereby abolished, and this amended order shall take effect on the 1st day of July, 1893.

J. G. CARLISLE, Secretary.

BILLS OF LADING, TRANSPORTATION OF MERCHANDISE IN VESSELS, ETC.

1893. Department No. 104. Bureau of Navigation.

Treasury Department,

Washington, D. C., June 30, 1893.

To Collectors of Customs and others:

The act relating to "navigation of vessels, bills of lading, and to certain obligations, duties, and rights, in connection with the carriage of property," approved February 13, 1893, is printed below to supply requests made to the Department for copies.

O. L. SPAULDING,

Assistant Secretary.

[Act referred to.]

[PUBLIC—No. 57.]

AN AOT relating to navigation of vessels, bills of lading, and to certain obligations, duties, and rights in connection with the carriage of property.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled; That it shall not be lawful for the manager, agent, master, or owner of any vessel transporting merchandise or property from or between ports of the United States and foreign ports to insert in any bill of lading or shipping document any clause, covenant, or agreement whereby it, he, or they shall be relieved from liability for loss or damage arising from negligence, fault, or failure in proper loading, stowage, custody, care, or proper delivery of any and all lawful merchandise or property committed to its or their charge. Any and all words or clauses of such import inserted in bills of lading or shipping receipts shall be null and void and of no effect.

SEC. 2. That it shall not be lawful for any vessel transporting merchandise or property from or between ports of the United States of America and foreign ports, her owner, master, agent, or manager, to insert in any bill of lading or shipping document any covenant or agreement whereby the obligations of the owner or owners of said vessel to exercise due diligence properly equip, man, provision, and outfit said vessel, and to make said vessel seaworthy and capable of performing her intended voyage, or whereby the obligations of the master, officers, agents, or servants to carefully handle and stow her cargo and to care for and properly deliver same, shall in any wise be lessened, weakened, or avoided.

SEC. 3. That if the owner of any vessel transporting merchandise or property to or from any port in the United States of America shall exercise due diligence to make the said vessel in all respects seaworthy affd properly manned, equipped, and supplied, neither the vessel, her owner or owners, agent, or charterers shall become or be held responsible for damage or loss resulting from faults or errors in navigation or in the management of said vessel nor shall the [the] vessel, her owner or owners, charterers, agent, or master be held liable for losses arising from dangers of the sea or other navigable waters, acts of God, or public enemies, or the inherent defect, quality, or vice of the thing carried, or from insufficiency of package, or seizure under legal process, or for loss resulting from any act or omission of the shipper or owner of the goods, his agent or representative, or from saving or attempting to save life or property at sea, or from any deviation in rendering such service. SEC. 4. That it shall be the duty of the owner or owners, master or agent of any vessel transporting merchandise or property from or between ports of the United States and foreign ports to issue to shippers of any lawful merchandise a bill of hading, or shipping document, stating, among other things, the marks necessary for identification, number of packages, or quantity, stating whether it be carrier's or shipper's weight, and apparent order or condition of such merchandise or property delivered to and received by the owner, master, or agent of the vessel for transportation, and such document shall be prima facie evidence of the receipt of the merchandise therein described.

SEC. 5. That for a violation of any of the provisions of this act the agent, owner, or master of the vessel guilty of such violation, and who refuses to issue on demand the bill of lading herein provided for, shall be liable to a line not exceeding two thousand dollars. The amount of the line and costs for such violation shall be a line upon the vessel, whose agent, owner, or master is guilty of such violation, and such vessel may be libeled therefor in any district court of the United States, within whose jurisdiction the vessel may be found. One half of such penalty shall go to the party injured by such violation and the remainder to the Government of the United States.

SEC. 6. That this act shall not be held to modify or repeal sections forty two hundred and eighty-one, forty two hundred and eighty-two, and forty-two hundred and eighty-three of the Revised Statutes of the United States, or any other statute defining the liability of vessels, their owners, or representatives.

SEC. 7. Sections one and four of this act shall not apply to the transportation of live animals.

SEC. S. That this act shall take effect from and after the first day of July, eighteen hundred and unety-three.

Approved, February 13, 1893.

REMITTING RULES OF BOARD OF SUPERVISING INSPECTORS FOR LIGHTS ON TOWS, FOR FURTHER CONSIDERATION, AND CANCELING PUBLI-CATION.

1893. Department No. 105. Steamboat Inspection Service.

Treasury Department,

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY,

Washington, D. C., July 1, 1893.

To Officers of the Customs and Others whom it may concern:

The publication as a Department Circular dated May 29, 1893, of the "Rules and Regulations—Lights for barges and canal boats in tow of steamers," adopted by the Board of Supervising Inspectors of Steam Vessels at their last meeting, in the Synopsis of Decisions for the months of April and May, 1893, page 442, was made by mistake.

The said publication is hereby withdrawn, and any approval thereof by the Secretary of the Treasury is hereby revoked.

In view of the numerous communications on the subject received by this Department and the differences of opinion therein displayed, the Board of Supervising Inspectors are earnestly recommended to give the subject further consideration at their next meeting in January, 1894, and all the papers have been remitted to them for that purpose.

J. G. CARLISLE,

Secretary.

OIROULAR No. 405.

COLLECTION OF TAX ON FRUIT BRANDY.

1893. Department No. 107.

Treasury Department,

OFFICE OF- THE COMMISSIONER OF INTERNAL REVENUE,

Washington, D. C., July 8, 1893.

To Collectors of Internal Revenue:

In order to secure a close supervision of the operations of fruit distilleries during the approaching season, Collectors are instructed to give prompt attention to all notices and bonds, that distillers may suffer no delay in beginning work, nor have pretext for commencing work before they are notified of the approval of their papers.

The notices and bonds should be carefully scrutinized to see that they are prepared and executed in strict compliance with the regulations. The former must contain a particular description of the room or building on the distillery premises to be used as a designated place of deposit of the brandy produced.

In the bonds the location of the distillery must be correctly and accurately given. If the distillery is located in a village, town, or city, the blank should be filled out as printed; but if otherwise, the distillery should be described as neur the nearest village, town, or city, or post-office.

Distillers should be notified that they will be expected to pay the tax on, or to warehouse, the product of each month; and that all singlings must be doubled and ready for gauging by or before the end of the month; otherwise singlings will be liable to be taxed as brandy.

To effect a frequent visitation of distilleries, you will, when necessary, lay off your districts into snitable divisions, and arrange for a force of competent officers sufficient to thoroughly effect the purpose of maintaining such a supervision of these distilleries as shall afford the distiller overy facility for compliance with the law, and shall limit the opportunities for its evasion. The visits should be from two to four in number in each month during the period of active operations, each successive visit to be made, so far as practicable, by a different officer, and not less than two of the visits to be made by a gauger, who shall gauge all ungauged brandy found at the distillery, and in season to facilitate the distiller's monthly report.

Gangers should not be employed in this service until the distilleries have actually begun operations.

Form 192 will be used for reporting these visits, and the statements therein should be made with care and particularity, and in accordance with the instructions printed upon the form; as also should be the inventory of all the brandy upon the premises, which must be made upon Form 59½ by the first visiting officer.

Upon receipt of the distiller's return, Form 15, for any month, the several statements on Form 192 for that month should be carefully examined and summarized, and compared with the distiller's return; and if then, or at the close of the season's operations, it shall be found that the distiller has had on his premises quantities of material that have not been accounted for or brandy that has not been reported or gauged, the facts should be reported to this office with a view to assessment.

To facilitate these comparisons, if Collectors so desire, they may adapt a blank book for the entry of the essential facts reported.

The employment of special officers should cease at the close of active operations in each district, and not later than December first, unless specially authorized for a further period.

Collectors will be held responsible for a prompt and vigorous execution of the work proposed.

STATISTICS OF IMPORTS FROM COUNTRIES HAVING A DEPRECIATED CURRENCY.

1893. Department No. 111. Division of Customs.

Treasury Department,

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY,

Washington, D. C., July 19, 1893.

To Collectors and other Officers of the Customs:

The following is a reproduction of Circular No. 95 of June 19, 1893, with changes in certain references in the fifth paragraph :

"The Department has been notified that the statistics of imports from countries having a depreciated currency are seriously vitiated by the fact that collectors of customs in reporting the values of such imports make out their returns in the depreciated currency indicated by the invoice, instead of in its equivalent in United States money, as is the infent of the laws and regulations governing the method of stating the values of imports.

"This defect is especially noticeable in returns of free goods, as, for example, coffee and india rubber coming from Brazil; and goods subject to specific duty, such as wool coming from the Argentine Republic.

"At the present time, in view of the fluctuating balance of trade, it is especially important that statistics of imports and exports shall be prepared as accurately as possible.

"You are therefore instructed to require importers to declare upon all entries of goods which are free of duty or subject to specific rates of duty, whether the value of the goods is expressed in the depreciated coin, or paper currency of the country of exportation, and if expressed in depreciated coin or paper currency they shall reduce the same to its equivalent value in the standard coin of the United States at the time of exportation."

In accordance with urgent requests received from importers, the Department, on February 13, 1892, issued instructions (Synopsis 12399; see also Synopsis 12294, of January 23, 1892) to collectors to waive the requirement of currency certificates on all goods not subject to duty ad valorem. "This concession seems to have resulted in neglect on the part of importers to state the value of the currency shown by the invoice and in the adoption of the careless practice of simply declaring the invoice amount as if it represented standard coin.

"Unless more accurate information shall henceforth be given in entries, the Department will find it expedient to revoke its action suspending the requirement of currency certificates in cases where the value of the currency does not affect the dutiable value of the merchandise."

Secretary.

ASSIGNMENT OF UNITED STATES REGISTERED BONDS.

1893. Department No. 112.

Treasury Department,

OFFICE OF THE REGISTER,

Washington, D. C., July 19, 1893.

To Officers Authorized to Attest Assignments of United States Bonds:

In taking acknowledgment of the assignment of United States registered bonds you are respectfully requested to call the attention of assignors to the ruling of this Department that an assignment by an excentor, administrator, trustee, guardian, or attorney to himself individually is void in law, and that no transfer will be made upon such an assignment except upon special authority granted therefor by the court having jurisdiction of the matter.

When such assignments have been unadvisedly executed, and the bonds forwarded for transfer without having first obtained an order of court, the bonds will be retained and action suspended until a certified copy of an order of court ratifying and confirming the assignment so made, giving date of assignment and describing bonds by loan, unmber, and denomination, shall be furnished this office.

The order of court may be as follows :

COUNTY OF SHELBY,

 $State \ of \ Tennessee.$

In the Probate Court of said County.

IN THE MATTER OF ESTATE OF RICHARD ROE, DECEASED, JOHN DOE, ADMINISTRATOR.

Be it remembered that on this the 19th day of July, 1893, it is made to appear to the satisfaction of the court, upon the petition of John Doe, administrator of the estate of Richard Roe, deceased, and upon the evidence submitted at the hearing, that said John Doe is justly and legally entitled in his own right to the two United States registered 4 per cent bonds, for $1,000 each, numbered 12236 and 12237, and inscribed in the name of said Richard Roe: It is now, therefore, adjudged and decreed that said John Doe, as such administrator, be anthorized to assign said bonds to himself (or, it is adjudged and decreed that the assignment of said bonds heretofore executed, to wit, on July 10, 1893, by said John Doe, as such administrator, to himself as an individual, is now hereby in all things ratified and confirmed), to the end that he may have new bonds issued in his name and his title thus perfected.

THOS. M. SCRUGGS, Judge of said Court.

Have the clerk of said court certify to the official character of the judge, the gennineness of his signature, the correctness of the copy, and affix the seal of the court. And have the judge make a like certificate as to the authority and signature of the clerk.

Care should be taken to have assignors sign their names exactly as written on the face of the bonds, or in the powers under which they assign, and to fill blank spaces on back of bonds as to date, place of execution of assignments, and names of assignees.

Attention is called to printed instructions on the back of the bonds.

J. F. TILLMAN, Register.

APPROVED : C. S. HAMLIN, Acting Secretary.

RECIPROCITY OF WRECKING BETWEEN THE UNITED STATES AND CANADA.

1893. Department No. 114.

Treasury Department,

BUREAU OF NAVIGATION,

Washington, D. C., July 28, 1893.

To Collectors of Customs and others:

The following proclamation of the President issued by virtue of the act of May 24, 1890, is published for the information of officers of the customs and others concerned.

E. C. O'BRIEN, Commissioner.

Approved : W. E. CURTIS, Acting Secretary.

[Proclamation referred to above.]

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

A PROCLAMATION,

WHEREAS an Act of Congress amendatory of an Act in relation to aiding vessels wrecked or disabled in the waters conterminous to the United States and the Dominion of Canada was approved May 24,

Congress assembled, That an Act entitled 'An act to aid vessels wrecked or disabled in the waters conterminous to the United States and the Dominion of Canada,' approved June nineteenth, eighteen hundred and seventy eight, be, and the same is hereby, amended so that the same will read as follows:

"'That Canadian vessels and wrecking appurtenance may render aid and assistance to Canadian or other vessels and property wrecked, disabled, or in distress in the waters of the United States contiguous to the Dominion of Canada : Provided, That this act shall not take effect until proclamation by the President of the United States that the privilege of aiding American or other vessels and property wrecked, disabled, or in distress in Canadian waters contiguous to the United States has been extended by the Government of the Dominion of Canada to American vessels and wrecking appliances of all descriptions. This act shall be construed to apply to the Welland Canal, the canal and improvement of the waters between Lake Erie and Lake Huron, to the waters of the Saint Mary's River and Canal : And provided further, That this act shall cease to be in force from and after the date of the proclamation of the President of the United States to the effect that said reciprocal privilege has been withdrawn, revoked, or rendered inoperative by the said Government of the Dominion of Canada ;""

And Whereas an act of Congress making appropriation for the legislative, executive and judicial expenses of the Government for the fiscal year ending June thirtieth, eighteen hundred and ninety-four, and for other purposes, approved March 3, 1893, further amended the act of May 24, 1890, as follows :

"That an act approved May twenty fourth eighteen hundred and ninety, entitled 'An act to amend an act entitled "An act to aid vessels wrecked or disabled in waters conterminous to the United States and the Dominion of Canada,"' approved June nineteenth, eighteen hundred and seventy eight, be, and is hereby, amended by striking out the words 'the Welland Canal.'"

And Whereas by an Order in Council dated May 17, 1893, the Government of the Dominion of Canada has proclaimed an act entitled "An act respecting aid by United States wreckers in Canadian waters," to take effect June 1, 1893, said act reading as follows:

"Her Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and Honse of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:

¹⁰ 1. United States vessels and wrecking appliances may salve any property wrecked, and may render aid and assistance to any vessels wrecked, disabled, or in distress, in the waters of Canada contignous to the United States.

"2. Aid and assistance include all necessary towing incident thereto.

¹⁰3. Nothing in the customs or coasting laws of Canada shall restrict the salving operations of such vessels or wrecking appliances.

"4. This act shall come into force from and after a date to be named in a proclamation by the Governor General, which proclamation may be issued when the Governor in council is advised that the privilege of salving any property wrecked or of aiding any vessels wrecked, disabled, or in distress, in United States waters contiguous to Canada, will be extended to Canadian vessels and wrecking appliances to the extent to which such privilege is granted by this act to United States vessels and wrecking appliances.

"5. This act shall cease to be in force from and after a date to be named in a proclamation to be issued by the Governor General to the effect that the said reciprocal privilege has been withdrawn, revoked or rendered inoperative with respect to Canadian vessels or wrecking appliances in United States water contiguous to Canada :"

And Whereas said proclamation of the Governor General of Canada was communicated to this Gov ernment by Her Britannic Majesty's Ambassador on the 2d day of June last :---

Now, THEREFORE, being thus satisfied that the privilege of aiding American or other vessels and property wrecked, disabled, or in distress, in Canadian waters contignous to the United States has been extended by the Government of the Dominion of Canada to American vessels and wrecking appliances of all descriptions, 1, GROVER CLEVELAND, President of the United States of America, in virtue of the authority conferred upon me by the aforesaid act of Congress, approved May 24, 1890, do proclaim that the condition specified in the legislation of Congress aforesaid now exists and is fulfilled and that the provisions of said act of May 24, 1890, whereby Canadian vessels and wrecking appliances may render aid and assistance to Canadian and other vessels and property wrecked, disabled or in distress, in the waters of the United States contiguous to the Dominion of Canada, including the canal and improvement of the waters between Lake Erie and Lake Huron and the waters of the Saint Mary's River and Canal, are now in full force and effect.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States of America to be hereunto affixed.

DONE at the City of Washington this seventeenth day of July, in the year of our Lord one [SEAL.] thousand eight hundred and ninety-three and of the Independence of the United States the one hundred and eighteenth.

GROVER CLEVELAND.

By the President :

W. Q. GRESHAM, Secretary of State.

CANCELLATION OF EXPORT BONDS COVERING SHIPMENTS TO MEXICO, VALUED AT NOT OVER $100.

1893. Department No. 115. Division of Customs,

Treasury Department,

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY,

Washington, D. C., July 28, 1893.

To Collectors and other Officers of Customs:

You are hereby authorized to cancel the bonds hereafter filed, on exports to Mexico, of merchandise or passenger's baggage, whenever the value of the shipment does not exceed $100, upon the production, in addition to the frontier certificate (Form 42) now required, of a lauding certificate under the hand and seal of the Collector or other chief revenue officer at the foreign port (Form 35).

This makes the practice in regard to exports to Mexico conform, within the limits specified above, to that in regard to exports to Canada (see Article 438 of the Customs Regulations), and Article 448 of the Customs Regulations is modified accordingly.

W. E. CURTIS,

Acting Secretary.

And on and after July first, eighteen hundred and ninety-three, the same and no other shall be used in determining duties and taxes levied by the United States of America on sheet and plate iron and steel. But this act shall not be construed to increase duties upon any articles which may be imported.

SEC. 2. That the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and required to prepare suitable standards in accordance herewith.

SEC. 3. That in the practical use and application of the standard gauge hereby established a variation of two and one-half per cent either way may be allowed.

In accordance with the requirement of section 2 of said act, and on the recommendation of the Superintendent of the Coast and Geodetic Survey, standard gauges have been procured and tested, which will be furnished by the Department to the appraisers at the principal ports, viz: New York, Boston, Philadelphia, Baltimore, New Orleans, San Francisco, Chicago, St. Louis, Cincinnati, Cleveland, Portland, Me., Portland, Oregon, Sayannah, and Charleston.

The use of said gauge shall be restricted to the gauging of sheet and plate iron and steel, as prescribed by said act, and the present custom of gauging wire by the Birmingham gauge will be continued.

In determining the gauge of sheets and plates the approximate thickness in fractions of an inch or in millimeters should be made use of, and, in case of appeal, reference will be had to the weight per unit of area in determining the question.

The following directions will be observed in the use of the standard gange, viz:

The pitch of the serew is 0.5 millimeter. The graduation on the hub, in a line parallel to the axis of the screw, is in millimeters, and is figured 0, 5, 10, 15, etc., every fifth division. As the pitch of the screw is only 0.5 millimeter, two complete revolutions are necessary to open the caliper 1 millimeter. The beveled edge of the thimble is graduated into fifty parts, and is also figured 0, 5, 10, 15, etc., every fifth division. Each division, when passing the line of graduation on the hub, indicates that the screw has made one-fiftieth of a turn and the opening of the caliper increased one-fiftieth of 0.5 millimeter or onehundredth of a millimeter.

Hence, to read the caliper, add to the number of millimeters visible on the scale of the hub the number of division on the scale of the thimble from zero to the line coincident with the line of graduation on the hub, care being taken to note whether the thimble has made a complete revolution or not since registering the last number of whole millimeters; if it has, 0.5 millimeter must also be added.

In addition to the regular graduation on the hub, there are three extra marks thus, T, one to the left the others to the right of the regular graduation. They are marked 10, 20, and 25, and correspond to these numbers in the new gauge adopted by Congress March 3, 1893. To set to these numbers it is only necessary to make the beveled edge of the thimble tangent to the crossing of the two lines, and the zero line of the thimble coincident with the line of the T, parallel to the axis of the screw.

Constant use will cause some slight wear on the gauge screw and on surfaces brought in contact with objects measured. To compensate for wear of the screw there is a taper out on the hub, which, when turned, contracts the hub and causes the screw to be held more tightly. In making this adjustment the sleeve should be withdrawn only just far enough to use the small wrench furnished with the caliper.

Should the zero of the thimble not coincide with the zero line on the hub when screwed up with gentle force, the thimble should then be turned until the zero points on the two scales coincide, and the stationary measuring surface adjusted by means of a screw-driver until the two surfaces are in contact. This adjustment will be necessary at intervals, owing to the wearing of the measuring surfaces.

W. E. CURTIS, Acting Secretary.

CLASSIFICATION OF LEAF TOBACCO.

1893. Department No. 124. Division of Customs.

Treasury Department,

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY,

Washington, D. C., August 11, 1893.

To Collectors and other Officers of the Customs:

On February 8, 1892 (S. 12526; G. A. 1210), the Board of General Appraisers reversed the decision of the collector of customs at Tampa, Fla., as to the classification of certain tobacco imported by Emilio Pons & Co., npon which duty was exacted at the rate of $2 per pound under paragraph 242 of the tariff act of 1890, which provides as follows: "Leaf tobacco suitable for eigar-wrappers, if not stemmed, two dollars per pound; if stemmed, two dollars and seventy-five ceuts per pound: Provided, That if any portion of any tobacco imported in any bale, box, or package, or in bulk shall be suitable for cigar-wrappers, the entire quantity of tobacco contained in such bale, box, or package, or bulk shall be dutiable, if not stemmed, at two dollars per pound."

The board had theretofore held that the word "portion" must be held to mean an appreciable quantity. The board in its decision set forth certain of its conclusions regarding the nature of Havana tobacco, including the statement "that Havana filler tobacco of uniform kind, having 15 per cent or less of leaves suitable for wrappers for cigars, is not recognized in trade as tobacco containing any portion suitable for wrappers for cigars * * * and the percentage * * * does not constitute an appreciable quantity."

In conclusion the board held that "within the meaning of the statute there is no portion of the tobacco covered by this protest suitable for wrappers for cigars," and the protest was sustained.

The Department took no appeal in this case, relying upon the thoroughness of the examination made by the board, and it now appears that the Department's acquiescence in above decision has led to a loose enforcement of the law.

The difficulties which arose in the administration of paragraph 246 of the tariff act of March 3, 1883, demonstrated the evils of a classification which is dependent upon the private judgment of an examiner. It was found almost impracticable to ascertain whether the admixture of an inferior grade of tobacco in any bale reached or exceeded 15 per cent of the whole contents, and, as a result of this difficulty, examiners were sometimes subjected to the charge of intentional perversion of the facts.

In framing the tariff act of 1890, Congress abandoned the attempt to define arbitrary percentages of admixture, and provided that the higher duty shall apply to any package of tobacco of which "any portion shall be suitable for cigar wrappers," but the effect of the decision of the Board of General Appraisers in the case above cited has been virtually to revive the objectionable features of the obsolete law of 1883.

The language of the existing law is free from ambiguity, and the Department holds that it should be enforced according to its legitimate meaning.

Collectors of customs and officers acting as such will hereafter classify the entire contents of all packages of imported leaf tobacco, any portion of which is suitable for cigar wrappers, for duty at the rate of $2 per pound.

CHARLES S. HAMLIN,

Acting Secretary.

REQUISITIONS FOR BOOKS AND BLANKS.

1893. Department No. 125. Division of S., P., and B.

Treasury Department,

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY,

Washington, D. C., August 14, 1893.

I. Requisitions from customs officers for blank forms contained in the catalogue, No. 995, should be made upon form 996, and be addressed to the Secretary of the Treasury. Requisitions for Nos. 154, 399, and 491 should always be thus made and never upon the Commissioner of Customs.

(b) Nothing should be asked for in such requisitions except the forms catalogued.

(c) The catalogue number, quantity desired, and title only need be given; sizes should be omitted.

(d) The numbers should be arranged progressively and be given in figures.

(e) When a less number than 100 of a blank is desired, it should be ordered by the 5, 10, 20, 25, 50, or 75.

(f) Catalogue No. 111 is intended for the exclusive use of custodians of public buildings who are not customs officers. Custodians who are also collectors or surveyors of customs should include all needed forms, contained in catalogue No. 995, in their semiannual requisitions as customs officers upon form 996.

(g) When a form can not be indicated by the catalogue, a copy (if a blank) or a leaf (if a book) should be forwarded.

(h) Letters of transmittal should not be forwarded with requisitions for blank forms, as when the latter are properly prepared they explain themselves.

II. Officers will order, as follows:

Weekly .- Collectors of customs at naval office ports.

Monthly .- Naval officers, surveyors, and appraisers at naval office ports.

Quarterly.-Collector of customs at Chicago, Ill.

Semiannually.—All chief officers of the enstous not named above, eustodians of public buildings, commissioners of immigration, shipping commissioners, assistant treasurers, national banks acting as United States depositaries, superintendents life saving stations, medical officers in command marine hospital service, commanders of revenue steamers, and supervising, local, and special inspectors of steam vessels.

Annually .- Receivers of public moneys.

(b) Weekly, monthly, and quarterly requisitions should include a three months' supply of the particular forms desired. Semiannual requisitions should be made April 1 and October 1, and should state that they are for the six months ending SEPTEMBER 30 or MARCH 31. Should forms be needed during a preceding March or September, the regular half-yearly requisition may then be made, the object being to limit requisitions to two per year.

(c) Cashiers of national bank depositaries should order form No. 1 (Certificates of Deposit) at least two months before it is needed for use, as the book has to be specially prepared for each bank. (d) Officers who are required to send moneys by express for deposit with United States depositaries may make requisition at any time for books of "Express Receipts and Way Bills;" but such requisitions should invariably be made upon, and sent direct to, the Secretary of the Treasnry.

(c) Only the forms actually needed, and the probable quantity of each required during the period covered by the requisition, should be requested.

(f) Supplementary requisitions should be avoided as far as possible, but when made should contain an explanatory note.

111. When books or blanks not catalogued are desired, a full statement as to the uccessity that exists therefor should be submitted in crery case with the requisition. Specimen leaves of said books should be narked with the number of quires or leaves desired, if to be paged, indexed, or tagged with ordinary or special schedule, and if the latter the schedule should be given in full. The paper should be made to conform, if possible, to the following regular sizes:

Double folio	×	34	inches.
Imperial	\times	31	inches.
Special	\times	31	inches.
Super-royal20	\times	28	inches.
Double demy
Double cap	\times	28	inches.
Double cap 161	×	26	inches.
Royal
Medium			inches.
Folio17	×	22	inches.
Demy 16	\times	$20\frac{1}{2}$	inches.
Cap	×	17	inches.
Cap	×	$16\frac{1}{2}$	inches.
Quarto10	×	16	inches.

The above sizes of paper are not only commercial sizes and therefore the most economical to use, but shey are symmetrical in shape and therefore the most convenient to handle and file.

Two months must be allowed for the printing of special blanks, three months for the preparation of special books requiring no printing, and four months for books requiring printing.

Special printing should not be requested except when absolutely necessary. The aim should be to lessen rather than increase the number of forms; to simplify rather than complicate the manner of doing business.

IV. Articles of stationery must not be included in requisitions for blank forms, nor should blank forms be ordered in stationery requisitions.

V. Requisitions should be properly briefed (the name of chief officer, and not that of deputy or assistant, being given) before transmittal.

(b) Letters of notification of transmission of forms should be signed, briefed, and promptly returned as receipts to the Department.

(c) Officers who receive blank forms for which they have made no requisition, and for which they receive no letter of transmittal, should promptly notify the Department of the fact.

VI. Suggestions are invited from officers as to changes in forms, including better titles and subheadings, reducing the size of paper in books and blanks, and the number of leaves in books, the abolishing and consolidating of forms, and such other changes as may be thought desirable.

VII. Any Department regulation heretofore published in conflict with the above is hereby revoked.

CHARLES S. HAMLIN, Acting Secretary.

GOVERNMENT RATES FOR TELEGRAPHING.

1893. Department No. 126. Division of 8., P., and B.

Treasury Jepartment, office of the secketary,

Washington, D. C., August 17, 1893.

The following communication from the Postmaster General, prescribing rates to be paid by the Government for telegraphing for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1894, is hereby published for the information of officers of the Treasury Department and others whom it may concern. Officers of this Department are specially informed that no charge in excess of these rates will be allowed by the accounting officers.

The Department and office should be designated upon all official telegrams sent.

CHARLES S. HAMLIN,

Acting Secretary.

RATES OF PAY FOR COMMUNICATIONS BY TELEGRAPH.

ORDER NO. 128.

POST-OFFICE DEPARTMENT, Washington, D. C., August 5, 1893.

Pursuant to the authority vested in the Postmaster-General by the act of Congress entitled "An act to aid in the construction of telegraph lines, and to secure to the Government the use of the same for postal, military, and other purposes," approved July 24, 1866, and by the Revised Statutes of the United States, Title LXV, I hereby fix the rates at which such communications as the said statutes prescribe (not including those passing over circuits established by the Chief of the Weather Bureau, Department of Agriculture) shall be seut during the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1893, and terminating June 30, 1894, by the several companies within the effect of said statutes, as follows :

For day messages containing not more than twenty (20) words, exclusive of place from and date, twenty (20) cents, not exceeding one thousand (1,000) miles, and one (1) cent for each additional word. One quarter of this rate to be added for each five hundred (500) miles, or fraction thereof, but no rate on a message of twenty (20) words to be more than forty (40) cents, nor on an additional word more than two (2) cents. The rate between all points in any State, Territory, or the District of Columbia shall be twenty (20) cents for twenty (20) words, and one (1) cent for each additional word.

In cases where the price of a message, determined as herein provided, shall include a fraction of a cent, such fraction, if less than one-half, is to be disregarded; if one-half or more, it is to be counted as one cent.

For night messages not exceeding twenty (20) words, exclusive of place from and date, fiftcen (15) cents for any distance within two thousand (2,000) miles, and for greater distances twenty five (25) cents; in each case one (1) cent for each additional word.

Instead of computing the actual distances of transmission, the distance for payment shall in all cases be taken absolutely to be the number of miles between the capital of the State or Territory, or from the -city of Washington, if from within the District of Columbia, from within which (whatever the place) the message is sent, and the capital of the State or Territory, or the city of Washington, if within the District of Columbia, within which (whatever the place) the message is received, as shown in the accompanying table, wherein such distances are given as computed upon the shortest practicable route, between such capitals, and which is to be taken as part of this order.

But it is provided that if, on the 1st day of July, 1893, or at any time during the ensning year, any such company shall charge the public for a message of ten words or less, exclusive of the date, address, and signature, a less rate than is herein fixed for twenty words, exclusive of place from and date, the rates here prescribed shall, as to such company, thenceforth during the year be reduced to the rates so charged to the public.

The statutes provide that telegrams between the several Departments of the Government and their officers and agents, in their transmission over the lines of any such company, shall have priority over all other business. All officers of the United States sending such telegrams should indorse thereon the words "Official Business," and should report to the Postmaster-General any failure to transmit them in such priority, and any charge made in excess of the rates above prescribed.

Each company will be allowed to charge for messages received from another line at the same rate as if received from the Government direct, at the point of transfer for transmission over its own line.

> W. S. BISSELL, Postmaster-General.

ENTRIES IN DOCK-BOOKS OF U.S. WEIGHERS AND GAUGERS TO BE HEREAFTER MADE IN INK INSTEAD OF PENCIL.

1893. Department No. 129. Division of Castoms.

Treasury Department,

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY, Washington, D. C., August 25, 1893.

To Collectors and other Officers of the Customs:

The Department has been informed by the Special Investigating Commission now sitting at the New York Custom House, that it is expedient to require all United States Weighers and Gaugers to hereafter use ink, instead of pencil, in making entries in their dock books.

It has been discovered that pencil marks are liable to obliteration and erasure, and that in some instances the figures have been altered after the books have left the hands of the Weighers. Suitable writing implements will be furnished to the officers above-named when necessary.

Attention is further called to the provision in Article 1086 of the Customs Regulations for the prompt return of dock-books.

CONCERNING CERTIFICATES OF EXPORTATION REQUIRED BY ARTICLE 331 OF THE CUSTOMS REGULATIONS OF 1892.

1893. Department No. 130. Division of Customs.

Treasury Department,

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY,

Washington, D. C., August 26, 1893.

To Collectors and other Officers of the Customs :

It appearing that in several instances bags exported with benefit of drawback have been admitted to free entry on reimportation, contrary to the provisions of paragraph 493, imposing upon such bags a duty equal to the drawback allowed, and that such instances occurred in consequence of uncautious issuance of certificates of exportation, Form 773, mentioned in article 331 of the Customs Regulations of 1892, a careful examination of the records of drawback entries, as a condition precedent to the preparation of such certificates, is hereby enjoined upon the officers authorized to issue the same.

ADDITIONS TO ARTICLE 1 OF THE REGULATIONS FOR MARITIME QUAR-ANTINES OF THE UNITED STATES, PROMULGATED APRIL 4, 1893.

1893. Department No. 133. Marine-Hospital Service.

Treasury Department.

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY.

Washington, D. C., August 29, 1893.

To the Officers of the Treasury Department, Quarantine Officers of the United States, and others concerned :

Pursuant to the act of Congress, approved February 15, 1893, entitled, "An act granting additional quarantine powers and imposing additional duties upon the Marine-Hospital Service," and in execution of the responsibility with which this Department is charged by said act, the following regulations are hereby prescribed additional to article 1 of the Regulations for the Maritime Quarantines of the United States, issued April 4, 1893:

1. BB. All vessels from domestic ports where yellow fever, cholera, typhus fever, or smallpox is prevailing.

5. In the performance of the duties imposed upon him by the act of February 15, 1893, the Supervising Surgeon-General of the Marine-Hospital Service shall, from time to time, personally or through a duly detailed officer of the Marine-Hospital Service, inspect the Maritime Quarantines of the United States, State and local, as well as national, for the purpose of ascertaining whether the Quarantine Regulations prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury have been or are being complied with.' The Supervising Surgeon-General, or the officer detailed by him as inspector, shall at his discretion visit any incoming vessel, or any vessel detained in quarantine, and all portions of the quarantine establishment, for the above-named purpose and with a view to certifying, if need be, that the regulations have been or are being enforced.

CIRCULAR LETTER

DIRECTING THE CONDUCT OF OFFICIAL BUSINESS RELATING TO THE PERSONNEL OF THE PUBLIC SERVICE UNDER THE TREASURY DEPARTMENT.

Treasury Department,

office of the secretary, Washington, D. C., August 31, 1893.

To Heads of Bureaus and Offices, and Chiefs of Divisions, Secretary's Office, Treasury Department.

GENTLEMEN: Under the rules and regulations of the Department it is provided that all official communications, of whatever kind or character, having relation to the personnel of the public service under the supervision and control of the Treasury Department, after having been received or formulated in your bureau, office, or division, and duly recorded, shall be sent directly to the Division of Appointments, Secretary's Office.

The supervision and direction of this subject-matter has been reserved for the personal consideration of the Secretary of the Treasury, and no action will be taken without his written approval, and, in order that the reasons for any contemplated action may be fully presented and discussed, it is the desire of the Secretary to confer with Department officials verbally before any recommendation for appointment, promotion, increase of compensation, or dismissal shall be made by them.

Official matter requiring such approval will be immediately submitted by the Chief of the Division of Appointments to the Secretary for instructions if they are not appended thereto.

The recommendation by officers of the Department of persons not in the service is not in accordance with the rules and regulations.

Respectfully, yours,

J. G. CARLISLE,

Secretary.

IN AID OF THE ENFORCEMENT OF QUARANTINE REGULATIONS.

1893. Department No. 134.

Treasury Department,

OFFICE OF THE GENERAL SUPERINTENDENT LIFE-SAVING SERVICE,

Washington, D. C., September 2, 1893.

To Keepers of Life-Saving Stations:

Information has been received that quantities of bedding, garbage, and other articles are being washed ashore from vessels sailing from ports infected with epidemic disease. Some of these may have been used by patients on the voyage, and the danger from them may be serious.

You are therefore directed to watch carefully for such articles, and in the event of any being found, to collect the same by rakes or other means, without_actually handling them, dry and burn them, in the _ meantime guarding them and allowing no person to handle them.

Efforts may also be made to evade the quarantine regulations of the country by persons attempting to land from vessels from infected ports on beaches and places outside of established ports of entry. You will prevent the accomplishment of all such attempts within your province.

This circular will supersede Circulars, Department Nos. 156 and 162, of 1892.

S. I. KIMBALL, General Superintendent.

APPROVED:

CHARLES S. HAMLIN, Acting Secretary.

CONFERENCES OF LOCAL APPRAISERS.

Department No. 135.
Division of Customs.

Treasury Department, office of the secretary,

· Washington, D. C., September 2, 1893.

To Collectors and other Officers of the Customs:

Semiannual Conferences of Local Appraisers will be held during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1894, at the United States Appraisers' Office at New York on the second Tuesdays of October, 1893, and April, 1894, respectively, in the same manner and subject to the same regulations as prescribed in Department Circulars of February 10, 1887, Synopsis 8042, and June 6, 1887, Synopsis 8276, with the exception that they will be attended by the Local Appraisers at the following ports:

The Conference in October, 1893, by the Appraisers at New York, Philadelphia, St. Paul, St. Louis, Buffalo, San Francisco, and New Orleans.

The Conference in April, 1894, by the Appraisers at New York, Boston, Baltimore, Chicago, Ill., Cleveland, Detroit, and Cincinnati.

At ports where it may be impracticable for the Appraiser to attend, and the attendance of an Assistant Appraiser is desired in his stead, such substitution may be made by and with the approval of the Collector and on due notice to the Department in advance of the meeting.

C

RELATIVE TO MERCHANDISE AT THE WORLD'S COLUMBIAN EXPOSITION.

1893. Department No. 137. Division of Customs.

Treasury Department, office of the secretARY.

Washington, D. C., September 4, 1893.

To Officers of Customs and all others concerned:

In order to promote the convenience of exhibitors at the World's Columbian Exposition, the following additional regulations are hereby issued:

1. Under the special act of Congress establishing the World's Columbian Exposition, sales are permitted during its continuance, but delivery of goods sold is to be withheld until the close of the Fair. The enforcement of this latter restriction devolves properly upon the Exposition authorities, who are in control of the local police and responsible for the protection of the exhibits. When the duties have been received by the collector upon the merchandise contained in any exhibits, he will regard such exhibit as released from customs control, except so far as concerns the supervision necessary to secure export with refund of duty.

(2) Any exhibitor intending to dispose of all or a portion of his exhibits will be allowed at any time to make entry for consumption and to pay the duties thereon, subject to a refund of the duty actually paid upon any portion of the same which shall not be removed from the Exposition until duly exported in bond therefrom. Whenever any exhibitor shall notify the Collector of his desire to avail himself of this privilege and shall furnish an itemized invoice of his exhibit, it will be at once appraised and assessed for duty in order that entry may be made and duty paid accordingly.

(3) Exhibitors who desire to avoid the delays and confusion which are likely to attend the breaking up of the Exposition are invited to avail themselves of the opportunity herein offered for payment of duty in advance of sales.

(4) Goods which have been imported by exhibitors in excess of those used as exhibits, and stored on their account in bonded warehouse, may be withdrawn at any time for consumption and payment of duty. Whenever duty-paid goods of this class shall be exported without having left the custody of the Collector, the duty paid thereon, less 1 per cent, will be refunded, provided the duty paid on any such exported package shall have amounted to $50. Exhibits entered for exportation without payment of duty are not subject to appraisement.

(5) Merchandise comprised in any exhibit at the Chicago Exposition may be entered, after appraisement, for transportation in bond to other ports, and the duties on the same will be collected at the ports of delivery.

(6) Exhibits entered for consumption will be appraised and the valuation of such goods for duty purposes shall be their value in the country of exportation in present condition as found. No claim will be entertained for loss or damage occurring after appraisement has been made.

(7) Imported materials admitted as exhibits and utilized at the Exposition in the construction and decoration of buildings, booths, stands, etc., may be abandoned by the owners thereof, and will be sold at public anction, or otherwise disposed of to best advantage. The proceeds will, so far as practicable, be applied to the payment of expenses and duties, under the rules governing unclaimed merchandise. Any imported exhibits may be similarly abandoned and will be treated as unclaimed. Exhibitors are requested to give formal notice of such abandonment in order to facilitate the closing of their accounts with the Government.

(8) The collector must receive due notice of the proposed packing of any exhibits for export, in order that the contents of packages may be examined and verified by the customs officers.

(9) If any articles in the Exposition shall have become so injured by exposure and handling as to have lost their commercial value, they may be returned by the appraiser as of "no dutiable value." If imported materials in legitimate use in the Exposition have become so incorporated with other materials as to have lost their identity, thus preventing separate valuation, the appraiser may report the aggregate dutiable value and the Collector may classify according to material of chief value.

(10) A special blank form of entry for transportation and exportation will be furnished by the Collector at Chicago. This blank will be filled out in duplicate by the owner or exporter of the goods, and will be signed by him or by his authorized agent, and will declare the line of transportation and the shipping agents at the final port. A manifest must accompany each invoice and must be made out in triplicate, one copy to be filed with the Collector at Chicago, one copy mailed with duplicate entry to the Collector at the port of export, and one copy given to the conductor of the railroad car or train by which the goods are sent. The lading at Chicago will be done under enstoms supervision, the same as goods under T, and E, bond, and the value of each shipment shall be charged against the bond of the transporting company. Packages will be addressed—and will be delivered by the transportation line to the designated Collector or his authorized officers. The receipt of the transporting line shall be duly filed in the Custom-House at Chicago, and the warehouse account may thereupon be closed.

Per _____.

(11) On making entry for transportation and export the owner or his agent will file a special bond, without surveites, conditioned upon the direct exportation of the merchandise described in the entry.

This bond will be cancelled by the Collector at Chicago on satisfactory evidence of shipment for exportation.

(12) Every package before being laden for transportation shall have affixed to it a label to be furnished by the Collector on application, said label to contain the words :

"World's Columbian Exposition, for exportation to -----," and the name of the foreign port of destination shall be stated thereon.

(13) Whenever the bond above provided for shall have been filed and the package duly labeled as prescribed, the collector will issue a delivery permit for transportation, and the lading on board the ears or vessel shall be done neder enstoms supervision at the expense of the exporter.

(14) Collectors at ports of final shipment will, when necessary, notify the shipping agents named on the entry of the arrival at their respective ports of any goods to be exported under these regulations and will furnish to the Collector at Chicago certificates of the lading of the same.

(15) All abstracts and reports of transactions relating to merchandise imported under the Exposition Act of April 25, 1890, must be separately made and must be stamped with the words, "World's Columbian Exposition,"

Secretary.

DISPLAY OF COLORS ON LIGHT-HOUSE VESSELS.

1893. Department No. 138. L. H. Board No. 3, of 1893.

Treasury Department,

OFFICE OF THE LIGHT-HOUSE BOARD,

Washington, D. C., September 6, 1893.

All light-house vessels when under way shall display the National Ensign at the peak or flagstaff. When lying at depots or at anchor near the same, no colors will be shown.

On Sundays and National Holidays colors shall always be shown, unless the weather be such as to prevent.

Whenever an officer of the Light-House Establishment or a member of the Light-House Board is afloat in a vessel of the Light-House Establishment, the light-house flag shall be shown at the mainmast head. When such officer or member is in a boat, the same flag shall be shown from a staff in the bow.

No other flags shall be shown by vessels of the Light-House Establishment.

When shown, colors shall be hoisted at 8 A. M. and hauled down at sunset. At such times all persons in the Light-House Service, who may be present and not busily employed, will salute by facing the colors and removing their hats.

Light-vessels will display colors and light-house flag to all passing vessels of war and vessels of the Light-House Service.

JAMES A. GREER,

Rear-Admiral, U. S. N., Chairman.

APPROVED :

JOHN G. CARLISLE, Secretary.

UNLABELED BAGGAGE OF STEERAGE PASSENGERS, AND UNLABELED BAGGAGE OF SECOND-CABIN PASSENGERS FROM CHOLERA-INFECTED PORTS OR PLACES, TO BE DISINFECTED AT THE QUARANTINE STATION FOR THE PORT OF ARRIVAL.

Treasury Department,

1893. Department No. 141. Marine-Hospital Service.

Washington, D. C., September 19, 1893.

To Quarantine Officers of the United States, Commissioners of Immigration, Collectors of Customs, Steamship Agents, and others:

Department Circular No. 65, May 4, 1893, relating to the labeling of baggage and the issue of inspection cards to steerage and cabin passengers, provides that all baggage of steerage passengers destined for the United States shall be labeled at the port of departure, said label to bear the seal or stamp of the consulate or of the medical officer of the United States serving at the foreign port; also, that the baggage of cabin passengers from cholera-infected ports or places shall be likewise labeled. Information has been received that occasionally pieces of baggage arrive without being labelled as above required.

It is hereby directed that any piece of baggage, including hand baggage, belonging to a steerage passenger, not bearing a label as provided for in said circular, shall be disinfected by steam at the quarantine station for the port of arrival; also, that the baggage of second cabin passengers coming from cholerainfected ports or places, not bearing the label as provided for in said circular, shall be likewise disinfected by steam at the quarantine station for the port of arrival.

In view of the difficulty of accurately inspecting each piece of baggage while on board ship at the quarantine, Commissioners of Immigration and Custom Officers are hereby directed to scrutinize the baggage of immigrants when landed at the immigrant station, and should any piece of baggage, including hand baggage, be discovered to be without a label, as above required, they are directed to return the same to the quarantine of the port, where said baggage shall be disinfected by steam, and properly labeled with a certificate to that effect, before said baggage shall be allowed to pass into the United States.

> CHARLES S. HAMLIN, Acting Secretary.

may be made and a third examination granted in particularly meritorious cases where an applicant has successfully passed one examination, having failed of appointment through lack of vacancies only.

9. The examinations will be strictly competitive. Candidates who pass the required standard in both the physical and mental examinations will be eligible for appointment, and their names will be placed upon a list in the order of proficiency exhibited by them. respectively, in the mental examination. From this list names will be taken in regular order for appointment to fill existing vacancies and such as may occur before the class for the year is made np. It is to be observed, however, that the passing of the required standard does not guarantee a candidate's appointment, as the list may not be exhausted in making up the class. If two candidates should obtain the same general average on the entire examination, preference will be given to the one whose standing in mathematics is the higher.

10. The examinations will be held at the Treasury Department, Washington, D. C. No part of the expense incurred by any candidate in going to or returning from Washington, or while undergoing examination, will be defrayed by the Government. The mental examination will occupy about four days.

11. Upon receiving his appointment, the cadet will be required to take and subscribe the prescribed oath of office.

12. Cadets will be required to provide themselves with regulation uniforms, and to wear the same at all times on board the vessel or vessels to which they may be attached and on all occasions of duty.

13. The probationary term of cadets is two years, during which time they will be required to pursue a prescribed course of study, and to perform such duties on board ship or elsewhere in the Service as may be assigned them by proper authority. During the probationary term they will be examined semiannually in those subjects in which they have been instructed. Should a cadet fail to attain the standard in two successive examinations, or in the final examination at the end of the course, he will not be continued longer in the Service. If at any time it becomes manifest that a cadet is not in other respects fitted for the Service, or is guilty of gross misconduct, he will be dropped or dismissed forthwith. Those who pass a satisfactory probationary term will at its conclusion be examined for appointment to the grade of Third Lientenant; but a cadet whose term has not been satisfactory, and the deficiency be due to any other cause than long continued illness, will be permitted to resign or will be dropped from the Service.

14. The specific requirements of the examinations herein prescribed will be determined and published from time to time by the Secretary of the Treasury.

CHARLES S. HAMLIN,

ADMISSION OF CANDIDATES TO THE GRADE OF CADET IN THE REVENUE-CUTTER SERVICE OF THE UNITED STATES.

1893. Department No. 143. Roreaue Mariae, No. 45.

Treasury Department,

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY,

Washington, D. C., September 21, 1893.

By direction of the President, the following revised Regulations governing the admission of candidates to the grade of cadet in the Revenue Cutter Service of the United States are hereby published for the information of all concerned:

1. No person will be examined for, or appointed to, the grade of cadet who is not a citizen of the United States.

2. The application for examination must be in the handwriting of the applicant and addressed to the Secretary of the Treasury. It must state the date and place of birth of the applicant and the State of which he is a resident (if he be of foreign birth, he must show that he is a citizen of the United States and the means whereby he became a citizen), and that he is unmarried.

3. The application must be accompanied by satisfactory evidence in writing of the good moral character and correct habits of the applicant. Unless such evidence be filed with the application the latter will not be considered.

4. Candidates must not be less than eighteen nor more than twenty-three years of age, and no person will be appointed whose age is not within these limits.

5. No married man will be appointed a cadet; and the marriage of a cadet will be considered as equivalent to his resignation, and his name will be stricken from the register forthwith.

6. Candidates will be required to pass a satisfactory examination as to their physical qualifications before a board of medical officers, to be designated by the Secretary of the Treasury. They must be of vigorous constitution, physically sound and well formed, and not less than five feet and three inches in height. The physical examination will precede the mental, and should the candidate be found physically disqualified he will be examined no further.

7. The mental examination, which will be entirely in writing, will be confined to the following subjects: Mathematics (including arithmetic, algebra, geometry, and trigonometry), physics, chemistry, grammar, composition and rhetoric, history, spelling, geography, literature, language (German, French, or Spanish), and general information. This examination will be conducted by a board of line officers of the Revenue-Cutter Service, to be designated by the Secretary of the Treasury.

8. The standard of proficiency has been fixed at 75 per cent, and candidates failing to attain that average will be rejected. They may, however, if otherwise qualified, take a second examination at the next annual convening of the board of examiners. Failure in two examinations will result in the final rejection of the candidate. While applicants, as a rule, will not be accorded more than two examinations, exceptions

EXAMINATION OF CANDIDATES FOR ADMISSION TO THE GRADE OF CADET IN THE REVENUE-CUTTER SERVICE OF THE UNITED STATES.

1893. Department No. 143. Revenue Marine, Nn. 46.

Treasury Department,

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY,

Washington, D. C., September 21, 1893.

The following is the general scope of the examination required under paragraph 7 of the Regulations governing the admission of candidates to the grade of Cadet in the Revenue-Cutter Service of the United States (Revenue-Marine Circular No. 45):

MATHEMATICS—Arithmetic.—A thorough knowledge of the various rules and principles contained in approved text-books on the subject is necessary. Various problems will be given to test the candidate's knowledge.

Algebra.—Factoring; equations of the first degree with several unknown quantities; quadratic equations with several unknown quantities; theory of exponents; square and cube root; ratio and proportion; logarithms and binomial theorem.

Geometry.—Plane and solid. The candidate must be able to demonstrate original propositions as well as to explain and demonstrate those given in the text-books.

Trigonometry.—Plane and spherical; theoretical (or analytical) and practical. In this subject will be included the elements of surveying. The candidate must show a familiarity with the use and application of logarithms, and his knowledge of them will be tested by suitable problems, in the solution of which he will be permitted to refer to no other book than the table of logarithms furnished by the examiners.

PHYSICS.—The elements of physics as found in such books as Avery's Elements of Natural Philosophy or Gage's Elements of Physics.

CHEMISTRY.—Elementary, organic, and inorganic, as contained in such text books as Barker's or Remsen's.

GRAMMAR, COMPOSITION, AND RHETORIC.—The candidate must exhibit a familiarity with the whole of English grammar and a fair knowledge of composition and rhetoric. Exercises in false syntax, parsing, and analysis will be included in the examination. Each candidate will be required to write an essay of not less than two pages in length on a subject to be selected by the examiners, as a test of penmanship and composition.

HISTORY.—The candidate must possess a thorough knowledge of the history of the United States and a good general knowledge of the history of the world, and especially of the important political events of the present century.

SPELLING.—Besides taking cognizance of the spelling throughout the examination, a list of thirty words will be given.

GEOGRAPHY.—The examination will embrace questions on the grand divisions of land and water, including the locations and political connections of important islands, the locations of cities of historical, political, or commercial importance; the character and general directions of coast lines, the waters through which a vessel would sail in making a voyage from one given port to another, the nature of the cargoes usually shipped to and from the various countries, etc.

LITERATURE.—The candidate must possess a good, general knowledge of the principal writers, their works, etc., and of the growth and development of English literature.

LANGUAGES.—A fair knowledge of German, French, or Spanish is requisite; exercises in translation will be given.

GENERAL INFORMATION.—Questions will be given to test the candidate's familiarity with the topics of the day, and with other matters of general importance and common knowledge.

BICYCLES ENTITLED TO FREE ENTRY AS PERSONAL EFFECTS.

1893. Department No. 145. Divisiou of Castoms.

Treasury Department,

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY,

Washington, D. C., September 26, 1893.

To Collectors and other Officers of the Customs:

Frequent applications are made to this Department for relief from the payment of duty on bicycles brought by persons arriving in the United States, generally tourists, who go abroad with their wheels, or who return with wheels purchased and used in Europe, the claim being made that they are free of duty as personal effects under paragraph 752 of the act of October 1, 1890, which is as follows:

"752. Wearing apparel and other personal effects (not merchandise) of persons arriving in the United States, but this exemption shall not be held to include articles not actually in use and necessary and appropriate for the use of such persons for the purposes of their journey and present comfort and convenience, or which are intended for any other person or persons, or for sale."

Under date of April 4, 1834, Attorney General Brewster rendered an opinion, which was adopted by this Department, to the effect that a bicycle accompanying the passenger was entitled to free entry as a personal effect, and the following language was used by the Department in promulgating this opinion (Synopsis 6384):

"The question has since been referred to the Attorney-General, and he holds * * * that bicycles accompanying a passenger may be regarded as personal effects, not merchandise, within the language of the free list, and therefore exempt from duty, * * * and the Department concurs in this opinion."

Under date of November 3, 1890 (Synopsis 10395, G.A. 86), the Board of General Appraisers held that bicycles were not personal effects, the following language being used :

"Bicycles not being in the nature of wearing apparel, or intended for analogous purposes, in our judgment do not come within the intention of the lawmakers, and can not be regarded as 'personal effects' as the term is used in T. I. 815 of the act of March 3, 1883."

In view of this conflict of opinion between the Attorney-General's Office and the Board of General Appraisers, the Department, on the 24th of August, 1893, addressed a letter to the Attorney-General, in which an expression of his opinion was requested as to whether or not this Department would be justified in following the opinion of Attorney-General Brewster, notwithstanding the contrary ruling of the Board of General Appraisers.

Under date of the 28th ultimo, the Acting Attorney-General replied to the inquiry of the Department as follows:

"I am in receipt of your communication of August 24 respecting a conflict between rulings of this Department and of the Board of General Appraisers in construing the tariff law of 1883.

"The conflict arose in relation to bicycles. It appears that in May, 1884, they were held to be 'personal effects' within the meaning of that law by an official opinion of Attorney General Brewster (17 Op., 679), which opinion was concurred in and officially adopted and promulgated by Secretary Folger on April 9, 1884 (Syn. of Dec., Treas. Dept., No. 6384); but that in November, 1890, the Board of General Appraisers held to the contrary. It does not appear that any express ruling has been made by either, or by the Secretary of the Treasury, under the tariff act of October 1, 1890.

"My opinion is asked as to whether your Department would be justified in following the opinion of Attorney-General Brewster, notwithstanding the adverse decision of the Board of General Appraisers. I concur entirely in the opinion expressed by yon, with relation to the decisions of the Board, that while your Department may accept such decisions as a rule of action to be followed in the classification of other importations, it is not compelled by law to do so. On the other hand, while the Attorneys-General have never claimed for their official opinions the force of law, it has always been regarded as the proper practice to follow their guidance (5 Op., 97; 6 Op., 334; 7 Op., 699; 9 Op., 37), and Congress, while never directly legislating upon this point, seems to contemplate that they are to be given practical effect. (Rev. St., Sec. 358.)

"I understand your question, therefore, substantially to be whether, in view of the decision of the Board of General Appraisers, and of the changes in statutory phraseology made by the act of 1890, the opinion of 1884 is still adhered to by this Department. I would answer, after eareful consideration, that I see no reason to change it, and that in my opinion, bicycles are exempt from duty under the act of 1890 in like cases with other 'personal effects.'"

In accordance with the above opinion, the Department now decides that bicycles brought by persons arriving in the United States, in use by them, are entitled to the benefit of free entry as personal effects under the provisions of paragraph 752 of the act of October 1, 1890, aforesaid.

Collectors and other officers of the customs will be governed accordingly.

CERTIFICATES OF EXPORTATION OF OLEOMARGARINE.

1893. Department No. 146. Miscellaucous Divisiou.

Treasury Department,

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY,

Washington, D. C., September 27, 1893.

To Collectors of Customs:

Your attention is called to the following requirement on page 30 of Internal Revenue Regulations, Series 7, No. 9, Revised, issued March 12, 1891, concerning Oleomargarine:

"After the inspection and clearance of the article, the Collector of Customs will issue, in duplicate, his certificate of exportation in the following form, one copy of which will be forwarded to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue and one copy to the Collector of Internal Revenue, from whom the application (Form 220 A) was received."

Blank certificates can be had by sending orders to the Department for Cat. No. 798 (Internal Revenue Form 220 E).

CERTIFIED STATEMENTS—NUMBERING OF ENTRIES OF IMPORTED MER-CHANDISE.

1893. Department No. 147. Division of Customs.

Treasury Department,

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY, .

Washington, D. C., September 28, 1893.

To Collectors and other Officers of the Customs:

It is hereby required that, at all ports, all entries shall bear serial numbers commencing with each calendar year, and all papers pertaining thereto shall respectively be stamped with such number; and hereafter, in preparing certified statements for refund of duties paid in excess on imported merchandise, collectors and other officers of the customs will note thereon the numbers of the entries covered respectively by such statements.

CHARLES S. HAMLIN,

DEPARTMENT RULE XII.

1893. Department No. 148. Miscellaneous Division.

Treasury Department,

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY,

Washington, D. C., September 27, 1893.

To the Heads of Bureaus and Chiefs of Divisions of the Secretary's Office:

Rule XII of the Rules and Regulations of the Treasury Department, published December 30, 1892, is hereby amended so as to read as follows :

RULE XII.

No information in regard to transactions of an official character in this Department is to be communicated to anyone not authorized to receive it.

No information in regard to the claim of any person which has ever been filed in the Department is to be given to any other person unless proper authority is shown by way of power of attorney, or by letters of administration, or otherwise in a manner satisfactory to the Secretary, or an Assistant Secretary, or to the head of the proper Bureau in the Department, or Chief of the proper Division in the Secretary's Office.

No account, document, or paper of any kind on file in the Department shall on any occasion be withdrawn by agents, attorneys, or other persons; and no copies of any such accounts or papers shall be furnished to any person, except upon application to, and with the previous written consent of, the Secretary, one of the Assistant Secretaries, or the head of the proper Bureau, and are to be furnished only to such persons as may have a personal material interest in the subject-matter of the papers, or at their request. An affidavit setting forth the interest of the applicant, and showing the reason why and the purpose for which copies are desired, must be submitted with each application for the same.

In all cases where copies of documents or records are desired by or on behalf of parties to a suit, whether in a court of the United States or any other, such copies shall be furnished to the court only, and on a rule of the court requesting the Secretary of the Treasury to furnish the same.

Exceptions to this rule will be made only on the written order of the Secretary, or of an Assistant Secretary.

Washington, D. C., October 1, 1893.

The foregoing estimate, by the Director of the Mint, of the values of foreign coins, I hereby proclaim to be the values of such coins in terms of the money of account of the United States, to be followed in estimating the value of all foreign merchandise exported to the United States on or after October 1, 1893, expressed in any of such metallic currencies.

J. G. CARLISLE,

Secretary of the Treasury.

ASCERTAINMENT OF DUTIABLE QUANTITY OF GRAPES.

1893. Department No. 150. Division of Customs.

Treasury Department,

office of the secretary, Washington, D. C., September 28, 1893.

To Collectors and other Officers of the Customs:

In order to ascertain the dutiable quantity of imported grapes in cubic feet, as indicated in the decision of the Board of U. S. General Appraisers of February 4, 1891 (G. A. 204, Synopsis 10741), a sufficient number of each kind of packages in each importation shall be tested by the appraising officer, and the average capacity found for each be multiplied by the number of packages of the same kind.

C. S. HAMLIN,

PRESCRIBING UNIFORM AND OUTFIT FOR CADETS IN THE REVENUE-CUTTER SERVICE OF THE UNITED STATES.

1893. Department No. 151. Revenne Marine, No. 47.

Treasury Department,

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY,

Washington, D. C., September 30, 1893.

Cadets will supply themselves, immediately after receiving their appointments, with the following articles, viz:

UNIFORM.

ONE SACK COAT of dark navy-blue cloth, lined with black silk serge, shaped to the figure, and to descend to top of inseam of trousers; single breasted; standing collar, and to button at the neck; five medium-size Revenue-Cutter Service buttons on right front, spaced from 4 to 5 inches apart; cuffs closed without buttons; no pockets on the outside; a slit over each hip extending 5 inches from the bottom of the coat. The front ends of coat collar to be ornamented with a gold embroidered prolongé knot in gold cord one-eighth inch diameter, covering a space of 14 inches square. In the bight of the cord the letters "U. S." in old English, all in gold, as per pattern; ends of cord to extend to corners of collar.

Two PAIRS TROUSERS, of dark navy-blue cloth or serge, cut full in the legs, and without spring at the bottom. One pocket on each hip, but none in front or sides will be allowed.

ONE WAISTCOAT of dark navy-blue cloth or serge, single breasted, without collar, cut high in front, and with seven small Revenue-Cutter Service buttons, the upper one to be not more than 4 inches below the collar button in neckband of shirt.

ONE CAP of dark navy-blue cloth, the diameter at the top to be slightly less than at the base; the quarters 1[‡] inches high, and of the same height front and back; the seam around the top to be made without a welt, and neatly stitched on each side; the band to be 1^½ inches wide, with a welt one-eighth of an inch in diameter at the top and bottom. A band of lustrous black mohair braid will be worn between the upper and lower welts. The visor to set horizontally, to be of black patent leather, 1[‡] inches wide in front, and rounded; a small Revenne-Cutter Service button placed on each side, at the ends of the visor, immediately above the lower welt; two eyelets on each side to be inserted in the quarters for ventilation. Attached to the front of the cap, in the center above the welt, shall be worn a gold embroidered foul anchor 1 inch in height, vertical, and surmounted by a five-pointed star, half an inch in diameter, embroidered in silver. The chin strap for the cap shall be a double loop of braided gold cord one-fourth of an inch in diameter.

ONE ROUND JACKET of dark navy-blue cloth or flannel, faced with same material, and lined with black farmer's satin; double breasted; made to button to the neck with two rows of medium-size RevenueCutter Service buttons, five in each row, the rows placed $4\frac{1}{2}$ to 5 inches apart from eye to eye at the top and $2\frac{1}{2}$ inches at the bottom; rolling collar; cuffs to be closed without buttons. No ornaments will be worn on the jacket.

ONE OVERCOAT of dark navy-blue beaver (smooth faced), lined with dark-blue material, the bottom of the skirt to be from 9 to 12 inches from the ground; double breasted; made to button to the neck, with rolling collar of the same material as the coat, and broad enough when turned up to protect the cars. Seven plain, flat, black buttons, 11 inches in diameter on each front, the lower buttons to be placed as low as the knee, the others to be equally spaced up to the throat. An outside pocket in each breast, the openings to be up and down, and the lower part of the openings to be level with the elbow. A belt 27 inches wide, of the same material as the coat, to be worn through loops placed above each hip, and to be fastened in front with buttons similar to those on the coat.

OUTFIT.

One rain coat (black); one rain hat (black); two pairs shoes (black); two working snits, unbleached cotton duck; two white cotton duck hats; six white shirts; twelve linen collars (standing): six pairs of linen cutls; two woolen shirts; four undershirts; four pairs drawers; eight pairs socks; two black silk neckties, 32 inches long, 1 inch wide; twelve white handkerchiefs; three pairs white thread gloves; one comb and brush; one razor, shaving brush, and soap; one whisk brush; six sheets (single); four pillow cases; eight towels; six table napkins.

The owner's name shall be plainly marked on all articles and on clothing with indelible ink.

C. S. HAMLIN, Acting Secretary.

RECIPROCITY OF WRECKING BETWEEN THE UNITED STATES AND CANADA.

1893. Department No. 154. Bureau of Narigation.

Treasury Department,

Washington, D. C., October 5, 1893.

To Collectors of Customs and others:

The attention of collectors and other officers of the customs upon the northern frontiers of the United States is invited to the President's proclamation, dated July 17, 1893, relative to reciprocity of wrecking between the United States and Canada.

The Acting Secretary of State, under date of the 30th ultimo, recommends that further regulations regarding the matter be promulgated by this Department, and states that during the visit of the Canadian commissioners to Washington in October last the subject of reciprocal privileges in wrecking was under consideration, and that a declaration was then made on the part of the Government of the United States that under the act of Congress approved May 24, 1890, relating to vessels wrecked or disabled in the waters conterminous to the United States and Canada, the aid and assistance provided for in said act includes all necessary towing incident to said aid and assistance, and that nothing in the coasting or customs laws of this country restricts the salving operations of such vessels and their appliances.

The proclamation, and the act of May 24, 1890, on which it was based. are embodied in this Department's Circular No. 114, dated July 28, 1893, and should be construed and observed by all customs officers in such a manner as to give due effect to the declaration aforesaid, in the case of Canadian vessels and wreeking appliances rendering aid and assistance to Canadian and other vessels and property wreeked. disabled, or in distress in the waters of the United States contiguous to the Dominion of Canada, including the canal and improvement of the waters between Lake Erie and Lake Huron and the waters of the St. Marys River and Canal. In case of doubt as to the action which should be taken in any case, the Department will give special instructions.

Similar regulations have been made by the Canadian Government.

PENALTY OF BONDS OF COMMON CARRIERS TRANSPORTING UNAP-PRAISED MERCHANDISE.

1893. Department No. 155. Division of Special Agents.

Treasury Department,

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY,

Washington, D. C., October 7, 1893.

To Collectors and other Officers of the Customs:

Article 399 of the Customs Regulations is hereby modified so as to prescribe that the penalty of bonds of common carriers of unappraised merchandise from ports other than the port of New York shall be $100,000 instead of $250,000, as heretofore required.

RELATING TO THE INSPECTION OF FOREIGN IMMIGRANTS LANDED AT THE PORTS OF THE DOMINION OF CANADA.

1893. Department No. 156. Bureau of Immigration.

Treasury Department,

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY.

Washington, D. C., October 7, 1893.

U. S. Immigration Service,

In view of the agreement between the various steamship companies in the Dominion of Canada and the Secretary of the Treasury of the United States of America (copy attached hereto), the following rules and regulations governing the inspection and entry of immigrants into the United States, through foreign contiguous territory, are prescribed in accordance with section 8 of the act approved March 3, 1891, entitled "An act in amendment to the various acts relative to immigration and the importation of aliens under contract or agreement to perform labor:"

1. That all foreign immigrants arriving in Canada, destined to the United States, shall be inspected at the following ports : Halifax, N. S., Quebec, Point Levis, Vancouver, and Victoria, and the holders of certificates, duly signed by the Commissioner of Immigration at any of the said ports, shall entitle the holders thereof to admittance into the United States without further examination by the customs or immigration officers at any of the customs ports along the border as to their right to enter, and to whom the said certificates must be presented and surrendered, which certificate must be as follows:

Form No. 1524. Under Dept. Circular No. 156 of 1893.

IMMIGRANT CERTIFICATE.

This is to certify that _____, a native of _____, who arrived at the port of _____, per steamship -, on the ----- day of -----, 189 , has been duly inspected and registered, and will be admitted into the United States upon presentation and surrender of this certificate to any customs or immigration officer at the frontier. His description is as follows: Age, ——; height, ——; color of hair, ——; color of eyes, -----.

Remarks :-----.

Commissioner of Immigration.

2. That the per capita tax provided for in said agreement shall be paid to the United States Commissioner of Immigration at the port of landing by the steamship company within twenty four hours after arrival of immigrants.

3. All such moneys so collected shall be transmitted by said Commissioner to an Assistant Treasurer of the United States, to be deposited to the credit of the Treasurer of the United States on account of "Immigrant Fund," in the same manner as other miscellaneous collections are reported by Collectors of Customs of the United States. Statement of such receipts, under this agreement, must be rendered monthly to the Secretary of the Treasury on forms to be furnished by the Government for that purpose.

____, 189 .

4. Commissioners of Immigration shall give bond to the United States in the sum of $10,000, with sureties approved by the Secretary of the Treasury, conditioned for the faithful discharge of their duties and the remittance of above collections. They shall make monthly reports to the Superintendent of Immigration, and such other reports from time to time as he may require, upon blanks to be furnished by the Treasury Department, of all immigration arriving at their stations destined to the United States. They shall have charge of all immigration officers at their respective stations, and shall utilize their services in all matters pertaining to immigration.

5. United States officers charged with the execution of the immigration laws and regulations along the border will, at the end of each month, and from time to time as may be required, report in writing to the Superintendent of Immigration, upon blanks to be prescribed, the number of immigrants passing through their respective districts and the foreign ports at which landed.

6. Commissioners shall collect the per capita tax on all Chinese merchants and other persons of the exempt class destined to the United States, not citizens thereof, arriving at their stations, but shall not issue certificates entitling them to enter. The right of a Chinese to enter the United States must be, by law, determined by the Collector of Customs at the port of entry.

7. That the immigration regulations now in force, under date of April 25, 1893, Treasury Doc. No. 1600, shall apply, in so far as it may be practicable, to the inspection of immigrants coming through foreign contiguous territory destined to the United States.

J. G. CARLISLE, Secretary.

ARTICLES OF AGREEMENT BETWEEN THE UNITED STATES AND CANADIAN TRANS-PORTATION COMPANIES AS TO THE INSPECTION OF IMMIGRANTS.

In consideration of the unitual benefits and advantages which shall ensue to the steamship, railway, and transportation companies of the Dominion of Canada and to the United States of America by the inauguration of immigrant inspection stations at the ports of landing in the said Dominion, for foreign immigrants destined to the said United States, by United States commissioners and inspectors of immigrants destined to the said United States, by United States commissioners and inspectors of immigrants, acting under the provisions of the United States laws now in force or which may hereafter be enacted, so far as the same may be found applicable, and such rules and regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury of the United States may from time to time impose in virtue of the act of Congress of the United States approved March 3, 1893, the undersigned steamship, railway, and transportation companies, transporting immigrants to and within the said Dominion of Canada, parties of the first part, and Herman Stamp, Superintendent of Immigration of the United States, of the States, on behalf of the United States Government, hereby agree:

1. That all immigrants destined for the United States shall be landed at the ports of Halifax, Quebec, Point Levis, Vancouver, or such other ports as may be authorized by the Canadian Government and advised to the party of the second part.

2. That all facilities in the way of accommodation, access to immigrants, and the keeping of immigrants apart from the public until after inspection shall be afforded to the immigrant inspectors of the United States at the ports of landing to enable them to make such inspection as is required by the laws of the United States. 3. That the United States officers will inspect all immigrants destined for the United States at ports of landing as rapidly as possible, and will furnish a certificate or passport containing a personal description of said immigrant sufficient to identify him, signed by the officer making the inspection, which upon the Cauadian frontier will entitle said immigrant to enter the United States without further examination or hindrance.

4. That the steamship companies shall supply the United States inspectors at ports of landing prior to the disembarkation of immigrants a list of all immigrants, whether infant or adult, destined for the United States, containing the following information, viz: Full name, age, sex, married or single, occupation, whether able to read or write, nationality, place of last residence and of embarkation and debarkation, destination, whether he has a through ticket or money to procure it, who paid his passage, whether going to join relatives, if so, who, and where he expects to find employment.

5. That the railway and transportation companies will not, nor will either of them, sell to any immigrant en route to any port of the United States a ticket for his transportation, or transport him in cars or vessels from the port of entry, until after he has exhibited his certificate or passport as herein provided, and said railway and transportation companies will not knowingly transport any rejected or undesirable immigrant, or one who is by law prohibited from entering the United States, into its territory.

6. That for the purpose of defraying the expense to the United States Government incident to said inspection, and for the care of such immigrants as may fall into distress or become a public charge in the United States, there shall be paid to an inspection officer at the port of landing, to be designated by the United States Superintendent of Immigration, the sum of 50 cents for each immigrant admitted into the United States, to be paid by the transportation companies through the steamship company landing such immigrants, and this fee of 50 cents per capita shall be the only charge which shall be made for the admission of such immigrants to the United States. This provision to go into effect thirty days after approval and ratification of this agreement.

7. That the word "immigrant," as used in this agreement, shall be understood as meaning all persons who intend to remain in the United States who are not already residents or citizens of the United States.

S. That all parties to this agreement shall in good faith perform all the obligations assumed by each as far as the same can be done without the violation of positive rights of others over whom they have no control and the laws of the Dominion of Canada and the United States.

9. That this agreement shall take effect on the 15th day of September, 1893, or as soon thereafter as it is approved by the Secretary of the Treasury of the United States, and shall be subject to cancellation by either of the parties hereto on sixty days' written notice to the other party.

10. It is agreed on behalf of the Canadian Pacific Railway Company that Victoria, B. C., be added as one of the ports named in the first clause of the above agreement.

CALIFORNIA MIDWINTER INTERNATIONAL EXPOSITION.

1893. Department No. 157. Division of Castoms.

Treasury Department,

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY,

Washington, D. C., October 7, 1893.

To Collectors and other Officers of the Customs :

The following act of Congress was approved by the President on September 1, 1893:

AN ACT in aid of the California Midwinter International Exposition.

Whereas there will be held in the city and county of San Francisco, State of California, from and after January first, eighteen hundred and ninety-four, an exposition to be known as the California Midwinter International Exposition, in which foreign nations and foreign exhibitors have been invited and have agreed to participate: Therefore,

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That all articles which shall be imported from foreign countries for the sole purpose of exhibition at said exposition, npon which there shall be a tariff or enstoms duty, shall be admitted free of payment of duty, customs fees, or charges, under such regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury shall prescribe, and all articles which have been imported from foreign countries and which are now on exhibition at the World's Columbian Exposition at Chicago, upon which there is a tariff or customs duty, and which have been heretofore admitted free of payment of duty, customs fees, or charges, may, under regulations prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury, be removed to the city of San Francisco, in the State of California, for the sole purpose of exhibition at said California Midwinter International Exposition.

SEC. 2. That it shall be lawful at any time during such exposition to sell for delivery at the close of the exposition any of the goods or property imported for and actually on exhibition in the exposition buildings or on its grounds, subject to such regulations for the security of the revenue and for the collection of the import duties as the Secretary of the Treasury shall prescribe: Provided, That all such articles when sold or withdrawn for consumption in the United States shall be subject to the duty, if any, imposed upon such articles by the revenue laws in force at the date of the importation; and all penalties prescribed by law shall be applied and enforced against such articles and against the persons who may be guilty of any illegal sale or withdrawal thereof.

SEC. 3. That all of the provisions of public resolution numbered thirty, entitled "Joint resolution authorizing foreign exhibitors at the World's Columbian Exposition to bring to this country foreign laborers from their respective countries for the purpose of preparing for and making their exhibits," approved August fifth, eighteen hundred and ninety-two, are hereby extended to and made applicable to said California Midwinter International Exposition to the same extent as if said California Midwinter International Exposition was therein specifically named. In conformity with the above act, and by virtue of the authority therein conferred upon the Secretary of the Treasury, it is hereby directed that the regulations issued by this Department on November 5, 1891, governing the free importation of articles for exhibition at the World's Columbian Exposition at Chicago, shall be applied, so far as practicable, to the California Midwinter International Exposition, for which purpose the name "San Francisco" shall be substituted for the name "Chicago" whenever the latter shall appear in said regulations; and the words "Midwinter International Exposition" shall be substituted for the words "World's Columbian Exposition" whenever the latter may appear.

Exhibits may be transferred from the Exposition at Chicago to the Exposition at San Francisco by any railroad company which is bonded for the transportation of appraised merchandise, for which purpose entry will be required under the form of "Warehouse and Transportation Entry," a bond being taken from the owner or his agent, without sureties, conditioned upon the due entry of the exhibits at San Francisco. All merchandise so transferred will be appraised and classified before being laden at Chicago, and may then be repacked into smaller packages to suit the convenience of the exhibitor.

Every package laden for transportation as above shall have affixed to it a blue label, bearing the words:

IN TRANSIT TO THE MIDWINTER EXPOSITION AT SAN FRANCISCO.

Exhibit from

and the name of the country of origin shall be placed thereon.

The entry at San Francisco and the records there kept will be made under the same forms as are established at the Columbian Exposition at Chicago.

C. S. HAMLIN,

DUTIABLE CLASSIFICATION OF LEAF TOBACCO.

1893. Department No. 158. Division of Customs.

Treasury Department,

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY,

Washington, D. C., October 7, 1893.

To Collectors and other Officers of the Customs:

In order to establish uniformity in the classification of tobacco imported at different ports, the following rules are hereby prescribed for the guidance of collectors of customs in applying the provisions of paragraph 242 of the tariff act :

The paragraph above cited provides "that if any portion of any tobacco imported in any bale, box, or package, or in bulk shall be suitable for cigar wrappers, the entire quantity of tobacco contained in such bale, box, or package, or bulk shall be dutiable; if not stemmed, at two dollars per pound; if stemmed, at two dollars and seventy-five cents per pound."

A doubt has arisen at some of the ports as to the exact signification of the term "suitable for wrappers" as used in the paragraph referred to. As a matter of fact, it might be possible to apply some leaves in almost any package of tobacco to use as wrappers, and a literal interpretation of the language of the law might justify the exaction of the higher rates of duty upon most of the tobacco imported into this country.

It is hardly necessary to point out the inadmissibility of any interpretation which perverts and defeats the intention of Congress. The provision referred to is intended to prevent the willful admixture with filler tobacco of that which is meant for use as wrappers with the direct purpose of defrauding the revenue. The presence, therefore, in a package of filler tobacco of any tobacco which, although capable of use as wrappers for inferior and cheap cigars, is not commercially recognized in the trade as wrapper tobacco, should not determine the classification of the whole package. It is only such tobacco, of whatsoever grade, as is commonly and commercially known as "wrapper tobacco" which is referred to in paragraph 242 as "suitable for wrappers."

In Circular No. 124 the Department instructed officers of customs that it could not acquiesce in the establishment by the Board of General Appraisers of any maximum percentage of wrapper tobacco which would relieve the merchandise from classification as filler tobacco. The law does not establish any such definite limit, nor will it bear such a liberal construction; it provides that the inclusion of "any portion" of wrapper tobacco in a package of alleged filler tobacco shall subject the entire quantity contained in such package to classification at the higher rate. The discussions in Congress in regard to the provision just cited clearly show that its object was the frustration of all attempts at evasion of the duty by the intentional mingling of different classes in the same package. It would be manifestly, however, a strained construction of the law to classify the whole contents of a package as wrapper tobacco merely because of the incidental commingling of stray leaves of a quality or size suitable for possible use as wrappers. Such an interpretation would be prohibitive of all importations of filler tobacco, whereas the provision is to be administered not as an unreasonable and oppressive measure, but as a wise precaution against fraud. Unless tobacco, commercially recognized as wrapper tobacco, is designedly packed with filler tobacco in such a way as to render it difficult of detection, it should not (unless in what would be commercially regarded as an appreciable quantity) interfere with the classification of the package as tiller tobacco.

In the absence of any specific limitations to the word "portion" as used in the statute, collectors and appraising officers should be governed by the views above set forth, which, while rejecting the arbitrary line proposed by the Board of General Appraisers, allow a reasonable margin for such slight admixture of grades and qualities as may happen incidentally.

OFFICIAL TELEGRAPHING.

1893. Department No. 160. Division of S., P., and B.

Treasury Department,

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY,

Washington, D. C., October 20, 1893.

The special attention of officers of this Department is called to the following regulations regarding the sending of official telegraphic messages:

1. All official telegrams sent out from the different bureaus and offices of the Department (except the Secretary's office) will be signed by the head of the office, or officer acting in that capacity, unless the subject-matter thereof should be of such a nature as to require the signature of the Secretary or an Assistant Secretary.

Messages originating in the different divisions of the Secretary's office will be signed by the Secretary or an Assistant Secretary.

At the end of each message, but following the officer's signature, this direction will be given for the guidance of the telegraph officials : "Official business. Government rates. Charge Treasury Department." The direction will apply to collectors of customs and other officers outside of Washington when telegraphing to the Department or to any of its offices or bureaus in Washington.

2. Telegrams passing between collectors of customs and internal revenue and other chief officers of the service outside of Washington, and their subordinates, and between the subordinates of such officers, will be paid for in advance at Government rates by the officers sending them, except when sent from or to a place where the sender or receiver is regularly stationed, in which latter case the charge may be paid by either. When it is desired that it be paid by the addressee, the sender will indorse on the message the following: "Official business. Collect. Government rates." The officer paying for the message must retain a copy of it (written in ink), which will accompany his expense account as a voucher, the receipt of the person receiving the money being appended in the following form :

"Received $-----, in full payment for the above dispatch, the charge being at Government rates.

"For, Operator, "For Telegraph Co."

This regulation is intended to apply to special agents and other officers of the Department traveling under orders.

3. Expenses incident to telegrams pertaining to those bureaus or offices having appropriations for departmental telegraphing, or for their respective services at large, must in either case be charged to the proper appropriations.

4. Amounts paid for telegrams in excess of Government rates will be disallowed by the accounting officers of the Department; and, in order that officials may be kept informed regarding the rates annually established by the Postmaster-General, schedules of those rates, when promulgated by this Department, should be promptly placed in the hands of officers of all branches of the service.

Attention is here called to Department Circular No. 30 of 1889 concerning economy, ctc., in expeuditures on account of telegraphing.

1893. Department No. 162. Division of Appointments.

Treasury Department,

office of the secretary, Washington, D. C., October 14, 1893.

To Heads of Bureaus and Offices and Chiefs of Division, Secretary's Office, Treasury Department:

GENTLEMEN: Referring to the opinion of the Attorney-General dated September 8, 1893, and numbered 8909-93, in the matter of the legal jurisdiction of the First and Second Comptrollers of the Treasury, the Commissioner of Customs, and the Solicitor of the Treasury, the following regulations are hereby established and promulgated, and will be observed by officers of the Department in consulting with; or requesting opinions from, the Attorney-General or the Solicitor of the Treasury, and advice from the First and Second Comptrollers of the Treasury and the Commissioner of Customs:

1. All requests for opinions required by law to be rendered to the Secretary of the Treasury by the Attorney-General shall be brought to the attention of the Secretary through the Assistant Secretary in charge of the bureau or office of the Department or division of the Secretary's Office in which the question originates, and copies of such requests shall be furnished the Solicitor of the Treasury.

2. All requests for opinions required to be rendered to the Secretary of the Treasury by the Solicitor of the Treasury shall be brought to the attention of the Secretary through the Assistant Secretary in charge of the bureau or office of the Department or division of the Secretary's Office, Treasury Department, in which the question originates.

3. No oral or written request for advice in regard to accounts finally settled,'or to be finally settled in their respective offices, shall be made to the First or Second Comptrollers of the Treasury or to the Commissioner of Customs except through the head of the bureau or office of the Department or division of the Secretary's Office where the question arises.

4. All opinions received by the Secretary's Office from the Attorney-General shall be referred, after copies have been furnished to the Solicitor of the Treasury, to the bureau or office of the Department or division of the Secretary's Office where the request therefor originated.

5. All opinions received by the Secretary's Office from the Solicitor of the Treasury shall be referred to the bureau or office of the Department or division of the Secretary's Office where the request therefor originated.

6. The verbal advice of the Comptroller may be sought by the Register of the Treasury upon the sufficiency of powers of attorney to transfer registered bonds; by the Chief of the Loans and Currency Division of the Secretary's Office upon the sufficiency of the evidence presented on application for the issuing of duplicate bonds; and by the Chief of the Warrant Division of the Secretary's Office in regard to questions relating to the issuance of warrants in accordance with the existing customs and regulations of the Department.

J. G. CARLISLE,

Secretary.

EXAMINATIONS AND QUALIFICATIONS REQUIRED OF ASSISTANT IN-SPECTORS OF STEAM VESSELS.

1893. Department No. 163. Division of Appointments.

Treasury Department,

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY.

Washington, D. C., October 19, 1893.

To Supervising Inspectors of Steam Vessels:

The following requirements in relation to the examination and qualifications of persons who are applicants for appointment as Assistant Inspectors of Steam Vessels, whose employment is provided for under the provisions of section 4414. Revised Statutes, is printed for your information and others whom it may concern.

No examination is to be held except of persons duly designated by the Scoretary of the Treasury.

When such designations are made you will be duly notified through the office of the Supervising Inspector-General of Steam Vessels.

C. S. HAMLIN,

Acting Secretary.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT, OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY, Washington, D. C., October 13, 1893.

SIR: You are directed hereafter to cause all applicants for the position of assistant inspector in the various supervising inspection districts, whose names may be referred to you for that purpose, to be examined by the supervising inspector of the district in which application is made.

The examination shall be noncompetitive and cover their practical qualifications only, and pertain to the duties of assistant inspectors required by law and by the rules and regulations of the board of supervising inspectors.

Each applicant must write a fair, legible hand, spell correctly, and be able to calculate the various problems and examples relating to his particular branch of the service set forth in the "General rules and regulations prescribed by the board of supervising inspectors" (Form 2101).

Each applicant shall, in the presence of the supervising inspector conducting the examination, write a letter, without help or suggestion from any person whatever, addressed to the Secretary of the Treasury, stating his experience and qualifications. The letter shall contain not less than one hundred words, which shall include the address and signature.

During the course of the examination the candidate may have access to the Rules and Regulations, but shall have no assistance from any person whatever to aid him in his work. The time of the examination shall not in any case exceed a single continuous session of six hours.

Upon the conclusion of the examination the papers used therein shall be sealed up by the supervising inspector conducting the examination, and transmitted to the Supervising Inspector General.

As soon as practicable after their receipt au examination of the papers shall be made, and the Supervising Inspector General shall then transmit them to the Secretary, and report the standing of the candidate, as shown by the papers, with such recommendation in the case as he shall consider justified by the circumstances.

Every applicant shall, before entering upon the examination, satisfy the supervising inspector that he has had, if an applicant for assistant inspectorship of hulls, at least three years' experience as a practical master shipbuilder and superintendent of construction of hulls of steam vessels, either wood or iron, or has been a licensed master or pilot of the highest grade granted upon the waters upon which he has been employed of not less than three years' actual practical experience, under license, which fact must be of record in the Treasury Department. If an applicant for assistant inspectorship of boilers, he must satisfy the supervising inspector, before examination, that he is a practical master boiler-maker, having had at least three years' experience as superintendent of construction of marine boilers, or is a licensed engineer of steam vessels of the highest grade on the waters upon which he has been employed of not less than three years' actual practical experience, under license, which fact must be of record in the Treasury Department.

Respectfully, yours,

J. G. CARLISLE, Secretary,

JAMES A. DUMONT, Esq., Supervising Inspector General Steamboat Inspection Service.

REQUISITIONS FOR BOOKS OF CUSTOMS CATALOGUE Nos. 154, 399, AND 491.

1893. Department No. 164. Division of S., P., and B.

Treasury Department,

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY,

Washington, D. C., October 25, 1893.

To Collectors and other Chief Officers of the Customs:

The attention of customs officers is hereby called to the regulation of the Department that requisitions for Catalogue No. 154 ("Certificate of services performed to be paid for by the United States"), No. 399 ("Receipt for duties and fees"), and No. 491 ("Certificate of payment of tonnage duty"), should invariably be made upon Catalogue No. 996, and addressed to the Secretary of the Treasury.

It is highly important that the above regulation be strictly complied with in order that confusion, delay, and unnecessary work may be avoided.

So far as possible, requests for the above books should be included in the regular semiannual requisitions for customs blank forms made April 1 and October 1.

After use, and at the expiration of each month, No. 154 and the stubs of Nos. 399 and 491 should be promptly forwarded to the Commissioner of Customs.

TIME FOR FILING SICK CERTIFICATES.

Treasury Department,

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY,

Washington, D. C., October 26, 1893.

To Heads of Bureaus, Treasury Department, and Chiefs of Divisions, Secretary's Office, Treasury Department:

You will please notify the employés of your respective offices that all certificates of sickness must be filed in the Division of Appointments, Secretary's Office, on or before the 25th day of each month.

In cases where a deduction of pay has been ordered for excessive absence, but which can be accounted for by sick certificate, no removal of said deduction will be made until after the 5th day of the succeeding month unless certificates are filed as directed above.

J. G. CARLISLE,

Secretary.

1893. Department No. 166. Division of Appointments.

DESTROYED AND DEFACED BONDS AND LOST REGISTERED BONDS OF THE UNITED STATES.

Treasury Department,

1893. Department No. 167. Division of Loans and Currency.

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY,

Washington, D. C., October 27, 1893.

The following provisions of the Revised Statutes of the United States, and the regulations thereunder, concerning relief in cases of bonds of the United States which have been defaced, destroyed, or lost, are published for the information and guidance of all concerned :

DUPLICATES FOR DESTROYED OR DEFACED BONDS.

SEC. 3702. Whenever it appears to the Secretary of the Treasury, by clear and unequivocal proof, that any interest-bearing bond of the United States has, without bad faith upon the part of the owner, been destroyed, wholly or in part, or so defaced as to impair its value to the owner, and such bond is identified by number and description, the Secretary of the Treasury shall, under such regulations and with such restrictions as to time and retention for security or otherwise as he may prescribe, issue a duplicate thereof, having the same time to run, bearing like interest as the bond so proved to have been destroyed or defaced, and so marked as to show the original number of the bond destroyed and the date thereof. But when such destroyed or defaced bonds appear to have been of such a class or series as has been or may, before such application, be called in for redemption, instead of issuing duplicates thereof, they shall be paid, with such interest only as would have been paid if they had been presented in accordance with such call.

SEC. 3703. The owner of such destroyed or defaced bond shall surrender the same, or so much thereof as may remain, and shall file in the Treasury a bond in a penal sum of double the amount of the destroyed or defaced bond, and the interest which would accrue thereon until the principal becomes due and payable, with two good and sufficient sureties, residents of the United States, to be approved by the Secretary of the Treasury, with condition to indemnify and save harmless the United States from any claim upon such destroyed or defaced bond.

DUPLICATES FOR LOST REGISTERED BONDS.

SEC. 3704. Whenever it is proved to the Secretary of the Treasury, by clear and satisfactory evidence, that any duly registered bond of the United States, bearing interest, issued for valuable consideration in pursuance of law, has been lost or destroyed, so that the same is not held by any person as his own property, the Secretary shall issue a duplicate of such registered bond, of like amount, and bearing like interest and marked in the like manner as the bond so proved to be lost or destroyed.

SEC. 3705. The owner of such missing bond shall first file in the Treasnry a bond in the penal sum equal to the amount of such missing bond, and the interest which would accrue thereon, until the principal thereof becomes due and payable, with two good and sufficient sureties, residents of the United States, to be approved by the Secretary of the Treasury, with condition to indemnify and save harmless the United States from any claim because of the lost or destroyed bond.

Parties presenting claims on account of a coupon or registered bond of the United States which has been destroyed wholly or in part, or on account of a registered bond which has been lost, will be required to present evidence showing—

1st. The number, denomination, date of authorizing act, and rate of interest of such bond; whether conpou or registered; and, if registered, the name of the payee. In the case of a registered bond, it should also be stated whether it had been assigned or not previous to, or since, the alleged loss or destruction, and, if assigned, by whom, and whether assigned in blank or to some person specifically by name; and if assigned in the latter manner, the name of the assignee should be given. 2d. The time and place of purchase, of whom purchased, and the consideration paid.

3d. The place of deposit of the missing bond; whether or not any person or persons, other than the owner, had access thereto; and in the event of its having been accessible to other parties, their affidavits, in addition to that of the owner, should be furnished, showing their knowledge of the existence of the bond, and of the fact of its loss or destruction.

4th. The material facts and circumstances connected with the loss or destruction of the bond.

5th. It should be shown by the affidavils of eredible persons, if practicable by United States officers, that the statements of the claimant as set forth in his affidavit are worthy of the confidence of this Department; and that he is the identical person named in the application.

6th. Affidavits sworn to before a notary public, a United States commissioner, or a justice of the peace, must be accompanied by a certificate from the proper court, showing that the officer was in commission on the date of the execution of the document.

In all cases, the evidence should be as full and clear as possible, that there may be no doubt of the good faith of the claimant. Proofs may be made by affidavits duly authenticated, and by such other competent evidence as may be in the possession of the claimant.

GENERAL FORM OF AFFIDAVIT.

Personally appeared before me, a —— in and for the city of ——, county of ——, and State of _____, the subscriber, _____, of _____, county of _____, and State of _____, who, being duly sworn according to law, deposes and says that —— is the lawful owner of the following-described registered bonds of the United States, viz:

No. —, for — dollars, act of ____, 18—, ____ per cent; and No. ___, for ____ dollars, act of ____, 18—, ____ per cent, registered in _____ name on the books of the Treasnry Department. ____, 18—; that no assignment or transfer of said bonds [or either of them] has been made or authorized by _____ or ____ attorney, either in blank or by a specific assignment, or in any manner whatever; that said bonds have not, nor has either of them, by hypothecation, pledge, loan, or otherwise, passed from the enstody or control of said ______ with [his or her] knowledge or consent; that said bonds were purchased ______, 18__, at _____, of ______, and the consideration paid was ______ dollars; that the place of deposit of the bonds was ______, and that no person but deponent had access thereto [in the event of the bonds having been accessible to other parties, it should be so stated, and their affidavits must be furnished]; that the said bonds were stolen [if lost or destroyed, the material facts connected therewith should be given] from ______, the said _______, at ______, on the _______, by some person or persons unknown to deponent; and that due diligence has been exercised in endeavoring to recover the said bonds, without success. [State what has been done.]

of _____,

Sworn to and subscribed before me, this the —— day of ——, A. D. 18—; and I certify that said _____ is personally well known to me to be the identical person mentioned in the foregoing affidavit.

[SEAL.]

THE AFFIDAVITS REQUIRED BY THE FIFTH PARAGRAPH MUST BE FURNISHED.

Affidavits and other evidence pertaining to the claim should be transmitted to the SECRETARY OF THE TREASURY. Upon receipt of such documentary evidence it will be referred to the First Comptroller of the Treasury for his opinion as to its sufficiency. The applicant will be advised of the decision as soon as it is reached; IF IT BE FAVORABLE TO SUCH APPLICANT, a blank indemnity-bond will be forwarded to him for execution; and when this indemnity-bond shall have been duly excented, returned to the Department, and approved by the First Comptroller and the Secretary, the relief desired will be granted.

A duplicate in lieu of a lost registered bond will not be issued within six months from the time of the alleged loss.

The interest on an uncalled registered bond will be paid to the payee thereof, even though the bond has been lost or destroyed.

These regulations do not apply in any way to coupon bonds which have been lost, or to coupons lost or destroyed after having been detached from the bonds to which they belonged, as no relief, in such cases, can be granted under existing laws.

Secretary.

INVITING SUGGESTIONS RELATING TO RULES FOR LIGHTS ON BARGES AND CANAL BOATS IN TOW OF STEAM VESSELS.

1893. Department No. 168.

Treasury Department,

STEAMBOAT-INSPECTION SERVICE, OFFICE OF THE SUPERVISING INSPECTOR-GENERAL,

Washington, D. C., October 26, 1893.

To Steam Vessel, Barge, Canal Boat Owners and Agents,

Masters and Pilots of Steam Vessels, and others whom it may concern:

You are hereby notified that at the next regular annual meeting of the Board of Supervising Inspectors, which will meet in Washington, D. C., Wednesday, January 17, 1894, the Board will, by direction of the Secretary of the Treasury, consider and act on the requirements of the act of Congress approved March 3, 1893, which is quoted, for your information, as follows:

"Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That rule seven, section forty-two hundred and thirty-three, Revised Statutes, be, and the same is hereby, amended by adding in the last paragraph of that rule, after the word "ferryboats," and preceding the word "shall," a comma and the words "barges and canal boats when in tow of steam vessels," so as to read:

"The lights of ferryboats, barges, and canal boats, when in tow of steam vessels, shall be regulated by such rules as the Board of Supervising Inspectors of Steam Vessels shall prescribe."

Approved March 3, 1893.

All persons interested are invited to communicate, in writing, with the Supervising Inspector-General, President of the Board, The Maltby Building, Washington, D. C., submitting such suggestions, diagrams, etc., as may in their opinion seem best to carry out the purposes of the law quoted, all of which communications and suggestions will be laid before the Board of Supervising Inspectors for their consideration.

As it will be necessary to print, for the convenience of the Board, the communications and suggestions that may be received, it will be absolutely necessary that such communications should be in the hands of the Supervising Inspector-General not later than January 1, 1894. Communications received thereafter will not be guaranteed consideration.

JAS. A. DUMONT,

Supervising Inspector-General, President of the Board of Supervising Inspectors.

Approved : J. G. CARLISLE, Secretary.

ADDITIONAL REGULATIONS GOVERNING THE EXPORTATION OF EXHIBITS FROM THE WORLD'S COLUMBIAN EXPOSITION.

1893. Department No. 171. Division of Costoms.

Treasury Department,

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY,

Washington, D. C., November 10, 1893.

To Collectors and other Officers of the Customs :

1. Whenever the owner of any exhibits upon which duty has been duly paid shall desire to transfer the same directly to the Midwinter Exposition at San Francisco, in whole or in part, the amount of duty which has been so paid will be refunded by the collector at San Francisco upon the due exportation therefrom of the exhibits so transferred.

2. No further delivery of samples, free of duty, shall be made under the regulations of this Department relating to the Chicago Exposition.

3. As the protection of the property at the Chicago Exposition has devolved solely upon the Exposition authorities, the Department can not consider claims for allowance on account of losses resulting from theft or depredations.

4. The intention having been expressed by several of the foreign commissioners and exhibitors of donating valuable exhibits to Government and State institutions, colleges, etc., the following provisions are established for customs procedure in the cases mentioned :

Large provision is made in the tariff act for the exemption from duty of articles of a scientific, philosophical, and artistic character, when imported for institutions established for educational, philosophical, literary, or religious purposes, or for the encouragement of fine arts, etc. (See paragraphs 514, 515, 524, 677, 679, 692, 712, 757, 758, 759, etc.)

Whenever the articles which it is proposed to donate, as above described, may properly be treated as comprised within the terms of one of the above cited paragraphs, free withdrawal may be permitted after identification of the goods by one of the examiners. A declaration will be required in each case from the beneficiary of the gift, or a duly authorized representative of such beneficiary, that the articles to which conditional free entry is allowed under one of the special paragraphs above cited are to be applied to the permanent use of such beneficiary, and are not to be sold or transferred.

5. Whenever an exhibitor shall, under the regulations already provided, export from the Exposition, with benefit of refund of duty paid, any exhibit upon which he has duly paid the duty, he will be required to enumerate upon his withdrawal the particular articles so exported, and to state the amount of duty paid thereon, otherwise no claim for refund shall be allowed. After the articles so named have been identified by the examiner, the exportation will be allowed, and on the reliquidation of the entry the collector of enstoms will refund to the exhibitor the amount of duty paid upon the articles exported.

WORLD'S FAIR PRIZE WINNERS' EXPOSITION.

1893. Department No. 173. Division of Customs.

Treasury Department,

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY,

Washington, D. C., November 14, 1893.

To Collectors and other Officers of the Customs:

The following act of Congress was approved by the President on November 3, 1893.

AN ACT in aid of the World's Fair Prize Winners' Exposition to be held at New York City.

Whereas there will be held in the city of New York, State of New York, from and after November twenty-fourth, eighteen hundred and ninety-three, to January fifteenth, eighteen hundred and ninetyfour, an exposition to be known as the World's Fair Prize Winners' Exposition, in which foreign nations and foreign exhibitors have been invited and have agreed to participate: Therefore,

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That all articles which shall be imported from foreign countries for the sole purpose of exhibition at said exposition, upon which there shall be a tariff or customs duty, shall be admitted free of payment of duty, customs fees or charges, under such regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury shall prescribe, and all articles which have been imported from foreign countries and which are now on exhibition at the World's Columbian Exposition at Chicago, upon which there is a tariff or customs duty, and which have been heretofore admitted free of payment of duty, customs fees or charges, may, under regulations prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury, be removed to the city of New York, in the State of New York, for the sole purpose of exhibition at said World's Fair Prize Winners' Exposition.

SEC. 2. That it shall be lawful, at any time during such exposition, to sell for delivery, at the close of the exposition, any of the goods or property imported for and actually on exhibition in the exposition buildings or on its grounds, subject to such regulations for the security of the revenue and for the collection of the import duties as the Secretary of the Treasury shall prescribe : Provided, That all such articles, when sold or withdrawn for consumption in the United States, shall be subject to the duty, if any, imposed upon such articles by the revenue laws in force at the date of the importation; and all penalties prescribed by law shall be applied and enforced against such articles and against the persons who may be guilty of any illegal sale or withdrawal thereof.

SEC. 3. That all of the provisions of public resolution numbered thirty, entitled "Joint resolution authorizing foreign exhibitors at the World's Columbian Exposition to bring to this country foreign laborers from their respective countries for the purpose of preparing for and making their exhibits," approved August fifth, eighteen hundred and ninety-two, are hereby extended to and made applicable to said World's Fair Prize Winners' Exposition to the same extent as if said World's Fair Prize Winners' Exposition was therein specifically named : Provided, No liability shall be incurred by the Government of the United States. In conformity with the above act, and by virtue of the authority therein conferred upon the Secretary of the Treasury, it is hereby directed that the regulations issued by this Department on November 5, 1891, governing the free importation of articles for exhibition at the World's Columbian Exposition at Chicago, shall, unless otherwise ordered, be applied, so far as practicable, to the World's Fair Prize Winners' Exposition, for which purpose the name "New York" shall be substituted for the name "Chicago" whenever the latter shall appear in said regulations; and the words "World's Fair Prize Winners' Exposition" shall be substituted for the words "World's Columbian Exposition" whenever the latter may appear.

Exhibits may be transferred from the exposition at Chicago to the exposition at New York by any railroad company which is bonded for the transportation of appraised merchandise, for which purpose entry will be required under the form of "Warehouse and Transportation Entry," a bond being taken from the owner or his agent, without sureties, conditioned upon the due entry of the exhibits at New York. All merchandise so transferred will be appraised and classified before being laden at Chicago, and may then be repacked into smaller packages to suit the convenience of the exhibitor.

Every package laden for transportation as above shall have affixed to it a blue label, bearing the words :

IN TRANSIT TO THE PRIZE WINNERS' EXPOSITION AT NEW YORK.

Exhibit from

and the name of the country of origin shall be placed thereon.

The entry at New York and the records there kept will be made under the same forms as are established at the Columbian Exposition at Chicago.

Direct importations of exhibits for the Prize Winners' Exposition at New York must be accompanied. by the usual triplicate invoice, certified by the consul, and articles will be duly appraised on entry and classified for duty. Duty will be collected accordingly before delivery of any exhibits withdrawn from the exposition for consumption in this country.

> C. S. HAMLIN, Assistant Secretary.

CHARGES FOR TRANSPORTATION OF NATIONAL BANK NOTES FOR RE-DEMPTION TO BE PAID BY SENDERS.

1893. Department No. 174. Treasurer's Office No. 62.

Treasury of the United States,

Washington, November 17, 1893.

On and after November 27, 1893, the charges for the transportation of National Bank Notes to the Treasurer of the United States for redemption under the act approved June 20, 1874 (18 Statutes, 123), must be paid by the party making the remittance. MAINTENANCE AND DEPORTATION OF ALIEN IMMIGRANTS.

1893. Department No. 177.

Treasury Department,

BUREAU OF IMMIGRATION,

Washington, D. C., November 29, 1893.

The attention of all concerned is called to the following instructions:

RULE 1. All alien immigrants before they are landed shall be inspected and examined, as by law provided, on shipboard or at a suitable place provided for the convenience of the owners of vessels transporting them and the comfort of the immigrant, where they may be temporarily placed whilst undergoing such examination. During such time, and until finally discharged and landed, said immigrants shall be deemed and treated as on shipboard, and the owners, consignee, or master of the vessel transporting them shall be liable for all expenses incurred in lodging, feeding, and caring for them, or said immigrants may be remanded on board ship, or taken on board ship, by the master thereof, who shall be responsible for their safe-keeping.

RULE 2. Upon arrival all alien immigrants shall be inspected and examined without unnecessary delay. Those qualified to land shall be promptly discharged. Those detained for special inquiry shall have a speedy hearing and be either discharged or ordered deported. If an appeal is prayed the record of proceedings shall at once be transmitted to the Superintendent of Immigration at Washington. All expenses incurred in lodging, feeding, and maintaining alien immigrants, during the period covered by these proceedings, shall be borne by the steamship company, owners, or master of the vessel transporting them. No appeal shall be received or transmitted which is applied for after the immigrant has been transferred from the immigrant station to be deported.

RULE 3. Upon the arrival of an alien immigrant, helpless from sickness, physical disability, or infancy, who is detained for further inquiry, one person only (if necessary) shall be detained to look after and care for such helpless immigrant, the natural guardian or a relative to be selected. The transportation company to be responsible for their maintenance whilst so detained. The remainder of the family (if any) shall proceed on their journey or defray their own expenses.

RULE 4. In case of an immigrant not qualified to land, but who would be entitled, upon proof of certain facts, such as the case of a woman who claims to have a husband, father, or brother, residents in this country, able and willing to support her, she may be detained a reasonable time until such husband, father, or brother can be communicated with. The transportation company to be responsible for her maintenance in such and like cases until a final decision is reached.

RULE 5. Immigrants qualified to land shall be promptly discharged and landed, and if they desire to wait for friends or remittances they may be permitted to do so upon payment of all costs and expenses, which should not be charged to the transportation company. In cases where an immigrant qualified to land is unable, from accident or unavoidable circumstances, to immediately continue his journey and is without sufficient means to defray the expenses of the enforced delay, the Commissioner of Immigration may, in his discretion, pay said expense, reporting said case to the Bureau of Immigration with reasons for his action, and ask that such expense be paid out of the "immigrant fund." RULE 6. That in case of the arrival of sick and disabled immigrants unable to travel, said immigrants shall be removed to hospitals provided for their care, and shall be maintained at the expense of the owner or master of the vessel transporting them until sufficiently recovered either to be landed or deported, and whilst detained in hospital shall not be considered as landed until examined and discharged, or said immigrant shall remain on shipboard until able and ready to be landed or deported.

RULE 7. Any alien immigrant who shall come into the United States in violation of law may be returned, as by law provided, at any time within one year from the date of his arrival, at the expense of the person or persons, vessel, transportation company, or corporation bringing such alien; and any alien immigrant who shall become a public charge within one year after his arrival from causes existing prior to his landing may be returned at the expense of said above-named parties. The expense above mentioned shall include all expenses incurred for maintenance and transportation on land, after such cases are brought to the attention of the Bureau of Immigration, provided said Bureau, upon investigation, has ascertained the case to be one for deportation, and has so ordered.

RULE 8. Any immigrant who has been lawfully landed and has become a public charge within one year from date of landing, from accident or bodily ailment, or disease, or physical inability to carn a living, which is likely to be of a permanent character, shall be deported at the expense of the "immigrant fund," npon a proper case for relief being first established to the satisfaction of the Burean of Immigration : Provided, said pauper immigrant is delivered at a port designated by the Burean of Immigration, free of charge, and said "immigrant fund" shall be liable to pay any public or charitable institution fixed charges, agreed upon, for the care of any alien immigrant who has fallen into distress within and until the end of one year from the time of landing, and has become a public charge from above causes, from the date of notification to the Bureau of Immigration and establishment of said immigrant's right to relief.

RULE 9. Immigrants who are detained under Rules 4 and 6 (awaiting proofs, etc., or who are sick and in hospital) should pay for their own maintenance, and the transportation company shall be held only as security for the payment of subsistence and hospital expenses. Access to such immigrants shall be permitted to an agent of said transportation company to request payment thereof, and should said immigrants refuse or be unable to pay the same, it shall be a circumstance to be considered, upon arriving at a decision in his case, as to whether he may or may not be likely to become a public charge.

RULE 10. No charge for food, lodging, or maintenance, or for hospital attendance, medicines, or other expenses shall be made in excess of the actual cost of furnishing the same, the intention being to make the service self-sustaining without profit.

HERMAN STUMP, Superintendent of Immigration.

Approved : J. G. CARLISLE, Secretary.

From and after the 1st day of January, 1894, when it becomes known to the Department that any person is serving under a name other than his or her proper legal one, such person will be dismissed from the Service.

In no case will pay be allowed after the 1st day of January, 1894, to persons serving under an illegal name.

Respectfully, yours,

J. G. CARLISLE,

Secretary.

PAYMENT OF EXPENSE OF DEPORTING CHINESE.

1893. Department No. 180. Division of Special Agents.

Treasury Department,

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY,

Washington, D. C., December 6, 1893.

To United States Marshals and others:

The expense of the deportation of Chinese convicted of unlawfully being within the United States will be paid from the appropriation for the "Enforcement of the Chinese Exclusion Act" under the control of the Treasury Department.

United States marshals and their deputies will be allowed only their actual and necessary expenses incurred in going from the place of conviction to the port from which the Chinese are to be deported and return and the actual and necessary expenses incurred in transporting the prisoners from the place of conviction to such port. Where in the opinion of the marshals or their deputies the presence of guards is necessary, authority to employ them should first be obtained from the Secretary of the Treasury, to whom the names of the persons to be designated as guards should be submitted. A per diem allowance not to exceed $2, with their actual and necessary traveling expenses, will be paid to persons acting as gnards. All accounts must be made on blank forms furnished by this Department to collectors of customs at ports of deportation. Such accounts must be itemized and sworn to by marshals or their deputies, and accompanied, whenever practicable, by subvonchers for all expenditures and a copy of the order of deportation.

When the route to the Pacific coast is via the Union Pacific Railroad between Council Bluffs, Iowa, and Ogden, Utah; the Southern Pacific Railroad between Ogden, Utah, and San Jose, Cal., or the Kansas Pacific Railway between Kansas City, Mo., and Denver, Colo., money paid by marshals for tickets will not be reimbursed. On application to the Secretary of the Treasury orders for transportation over the lines above named will be issued to the marshal, and upon submission by him to the ticket agents of either or all of the above-named railroads, railway tickets will be promptly furnished. Applications for transportation orders should state the number of deputies or guards, as well as the number of prisoners and their names, and the date and place of sentence.

All actual and necessary expenditures by marshals, including transportation of guards and prisoners where the route is by other than the above-named lines of railroad, will be paid by collectors of customs at ports of deportation upon presentation of accounts in duplicate made upon the blauks hereinbefore referred to and in the manner indicated. All correspondence of United States marshals or other persons in relation to the deportation of Chinese after sentence has been passed should be with the Secretary of the Treasury and not with the Department of Justice.

> W. E. CURTIS, Acting Secretary.

EXPORTS OF OIL CAKE.

1893. Department No. 182. Bureau of Statistics.

Treasury Department,

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY,

Washington, D. C., December 15, 1893.

To Collectors of Customs and others:

For the information of those interested in the oil-cake industry and export trade, it is deemed desirable that cake made from cotton seed should be reported separately from that manufactured from flaxseed or linseed in the statements of domestic exports.

Class 153 of the Domestic Export Schedule B, of June 2, 1891, will therefore be subdivided as follows:

Oil cake and oil-cake meal:

 153. Of cotton seedlbs.

 153a. Of flaxseed or linseedlbs.

This change will take effect on and after January 1, 1894.

Collectors of customs are directed to bring this change of classification to the notice of exporters of oil cake, and require them to show the two classes separately in their manifests of domestic exports.

QUALIFICATIONS AND MANNER OF APPOINTMENT OF OFFICERS AND EMPLOYÉS IN THE CUSTODIAN AND JANITOR SERVICE.

1893.Department No. 184, Division of Appointments.

Treasury Department,

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY.

Washington. D. C., December 20, 1893.

To the Custodians of Public Buildings:

It is hereby ordered that on and after January 1, 1894, the following rules and regulations and manner of procedure shall govern entrance into the custodian and janitor service in all public buildings under the control of this Department:

RULE I. Appointments to subordinate places in the custodian and janitor service are to be made by the Secretary of the Treasury, and custodians will forward to the Department, with their recommendation for its action, the papers and recommendations of all applicants for such appointments.

RULE II. All appointments, removals, or changes of persons whose compensation is paid from the appropriation "Pay of assistant custodians and janitors" will be written in the Department at Washington and transmitted to the custodian for delivery.

RULE III. Nominations forwarded to the Department must, in each case, be accompanied by an application in the handwriting of the nominee, when practicable, giving the following data in relation to the applicant:

- 1. The full name.
- The position applied for.
 Whether the applicant is a citizen of the United States.
 Date of birth.
- 5. Whether married or single.
- 6. Whether any member of the applicant's family is holding a position in the public service, and, if so, the name of such person and what position he or she holds.
- 7. Service in the United States Army or Navy, giving company, regiment, or vessel, and length of service.
- S. Whether honorably discharged.
- 9. Present legal residence, giving town, county, State, and number of Congressional district.
- 10. Qualifications and any special experience possessed, together with previous occupations.
- 11. References as to character and ability.
- 12. Evidence that the applicant is physically and mentally capable of performing the duties of the place for which he applies.
- 13. If the position applied for is that of engineer or assistant engineer, the application must be accompanied with a certificate from a local inspector of steam vessels, if within convenient reach; otherwise a satisfactory certificate from a practical and responsible engineer, or such certificate as is required in such case, made and provided by the State or municipal authorities where the applicant is to perform duty.

RULE IV. Whenever there are two or more members of a family in the public service, no other member of such family shall be eligible to appointment.

RULE V. Persons habitually using intoxicating beverages to excess shall neither be appointed to nor retained in any office, appointment, or employment in the custodian and janitor service.

RULE VI. Candidates must not be less than twenty one nor more than sixty years of age, of suitable physical condition and mentally qualified, the same as required by the rules and regulations of the Civil Service of the United States: Provided, That if otherwise duly qualified the limitation as to age shall not apply to persons who may have been honorably discharged from the military or naval service of the United States. (22 Stats., 406, sec. 7; C. S. Rule XII.) Provided, also, That the limitation as to age shall not apply to persons possessing qualifications of special value to the service, if their physical condition is excellent.

RULE VII. Custodians are specially warned against assigning persons to duty, except in cases where immediate service is necessary in connection with the heating apparatus or electric light plants, and are directed not to administer oaths under any other circumstances before appointments have been made by the Department.

RULE VIII. All oaths of office should be forwarded to the Department as soon as administered, and pay rolls bearing the names of persons whose oaths of office have not been forwarded will be returned or held until the receipt of the oaths.

RULE IN. Any incompetency, unfitness, or inefficiency on the part of employés should be reported at once to the Department for its consideration and action, with proper recommendation in the premises.

RULE N. Pay rolls in duplicate should be made out on the last day of each month on the form prescribed by the Department, viz, Catalogue No. 114½ B, and forwarded on said day for approval and payment; the duplicate roll must correspond in every particular with the original. The rolls to be designated as "Original" or "Duplicate" in upper left-hand corner. All rolls should be footed up and the total placed at the bottom of the roll, ruling out all blank lines between the names and the total.

RULE XI. Only the names of employés who are regularly appointed will be borne on the regular pay roll.

RULE XII. The names of the employés should be written in the proper column in as distinct and legible a manner as practicable, and in all eases the names as written by the custodian shall correspond with the signature of the employé. When the employé is unable to sign his name in a legible manner, he should sign by mark, and his signature be witnessed.

RULE NIII. The fiscal year against the appropriation for which the amount covered by any roll is chargeable should be stated in the proper space at the top of the roll.

RULE NIV. Ineidental expenses, such as washing towels, removing ashes, rubbish, etc., should be submitted on blank (Catalogue No. 114); the number of towels washed, the price charged per dozen, or the number of loads of ashes or rubbish removed, and the price charged per load therefor, etc., should be stated in the voucher.

RULE XV. A strict compliance with the above rules will be required, and changes made other than in accordance with the provisions thereof will not be regarded as valid.

All officials of the Treasury are prohibited from giving letters of recommendation in relation to any article of manufacture or in behalf of any firm or corporation.

ADMEASUREMENT OF FRENCH VESSELS.

1893. Department No. 186.

Treasury Department,

BUREAU OF NAVIGATION,

Washington, D. C., December 30, 1893.

To Collectors of Customs and others:

Article 88, Regulations of 1892, directs that French vessels whose registers indicate their gross and net tonnage shall be taken in ports of the United States to be of the tonnage so expressed in their documents, with the addition of the amount of the deductions and omissions made under the laws of France but not authorized by the admeasurement laws of the United States. The regulation was a reproduction, substantially, of the instructions embodied in circular of August 24, 1888, stating that the rules for the admeasurement of vessels of the United States had been substantially adopted by the Government of France. This Department is advised that the rules of France upon the subject have been materially modified, and that they are no longer substantially in accordance with those obtaining in the United States.

It has been the practice of the customs officers in the United States to add to the tonnage expressed in French registers the amount of deductions or omissions not authorized by the admeasurement laws of the United States. Thus, in the case of the French steamer La Gascogne, which arrived from Havre February 27, 1893, tonnage dues were levied at New York on 3,766 tons, the dutiable tonnage returned by the surveyor under the regulations eited. Mr. A. Forgét, agent, however, immediately filed a protest against the exaction, on the ground that the tonnage dues should have been assessed on the French measurement as shown on the steamer's register, to wit, on 2,913 tons only. This protest is similar to many others filed, it appearing to be the practice to make such protest on the entry of every French vessel.

Under date of the 23d instant the Secretary of State informed this Department that "the arrangement of 1888–'89 between the two Governments can not be regarded as effectively continuing, in view of the evident and considerable discrepancy which results from applying to the admeasurement of vessels the unchanged rule of the United States which formed the basis of that agreement and the subsequently modified French rule." The Secretary of State's letter shows that the general matter of these discrepancies was brought to the attention of the French Government November 3, 1891.

All instructions or regulations authorizing the acceptance of certificates of registry or other national papers as denoting the tonnage of French vessels are hereby suspended. The officers of the customs will take action accordingly.

EUGENE T. CHAMBERLAIN,

Commissioner.

APPROVED:

W. E. CURTIS, Acting Secretary of the Treasury.
