

UNITED STATES – Severe Weather

- Severe weather with heavy rains and strong winds hit the south-eastern United States in the past two days.
- Flooding and wind damage by possible tornadoes were reported in Mississippi, North Carolina and Alabama. According to media, two dead (Mississippi, Georgia) and at least seven people injured.
- Heavy rains are expected to abate later on the day.

Media (1, 2, 3), NOAA

PHILIPPINES - Tropical Cyclone PEIPAH

- On 8 April, at 06.00 UTC, PEIPAH (locally known as DOMENG) was a tropical depression located approx. 500 km east of Mindanao.
- In the next 24h, it is forecast to continue moving towards Caraga, Eastern Visayas and Bicol Regions, roughly maintaining its intensity. It may approach these areas on 11-12 April.

GDACS, PAGASA, NDRRMC

Atlantic Ocean

Pacific Ocean

Indian Ocean

Pacific Ocean

Coral Sea

Legend

Symbols

Tropical Cyclone

Severe Weather

Affected

Countries

Regions/Provinces

Last 7 days Acc. Rain In Tropical Areas (NASA/TRMM)

100 - 200 mm

200 - 300 mm

300 - 400 mm

> 400 mm

Tropical Depression

Tropical Storm

Hurricane/Typhoon

ARGENTINA – Severe Weather

- Heavy rains and floods affected several parts of Argentina over the past few days.
- 3 000 people in seven provinces had to evacuate their homes (media). Worst affected was the province of Neuquen.
- In the next 24h more rain is expected over the affected areas.

WMO, Argentina NMS, Local Media (1, 2)

AUSTRALIA, PAPUA NEW GUINEA - Tropical Cyclone ITA

- Tropical Cyclone ITA formed on 4 April, south of Solomon Islands. On 8 April, at 06.00 UTC, it had max. sustained wind speed of 121 km/h and it was located near the coast of Milne Bay province (southern Papua New Guinea). Heavy rains have already affected parts of this province. As of 8 April, there are no reports on damages or casualties.
- In the next 48h, it is forecast to move west-southwest over the Coral Sea, intensifying, away from the Papua New Guinea. It is expected to approach the north-eastern coast of Queensland on 11 April.

GDACS, BOM, WMO

PHILIPPINES

Region V (Bicol Region)
Region VIII (Eastern Visayas)
Region XIII (Caraga)

8 Apr, 06.00utc
56 km/h sust. winds

PAPUA NEW GUINEA

Port Moresby Milne Bay

AUSTRALIA

Queensland

Brisbane

Canberra

8 Apr, 06.00utc
121 km/h sust. winds