OFFICE OF THE CANADIAN PARLIAMENTARY COMPANION.
OTTAWA, Ont., Feb. 25th, 1877.

The copyright, together with all title and interest in the CANADIAN PARLIAMENTARY COMPANION, having been purchased from Mr. Henry J. Morgan, the new proprietor has endeavored to maintain the character of the work in this, the first issue under his Editorial Management. He has enlarged the form of the volume; and, at the expense of much labour and no small pecuniary outlay, endeavoured to add substantially to the general information hitherto supplied. Many changes have taken place since Parliament last met; these have been faithfully chronicled so far as possible, both from a Dominion and Provincial point of view. The Editor has further endeavoured to add to the acknowledged usefulness of the COMPANION by incorporating several new parts, including a synopsis of Speakers' Decisions since Confederation; Cabinet Changes from 1867 to 1877; Important Divisions in the House of Commons from 1867 to 1876, together with a carefully prepared Alphabetical Index, affording ready reference to any particular member of the Commons, Senate, or grade of the public service. The Editor would further impress upon gentlemen in the Legislatures and service of various Provinces, the importance of supplying reliable information when such is of public importance; and has to acknowledge himself under many obligations to those who so readily responded to his applications during the past two months. The COMPANION is now considered a standard authority upon Canadian affairs, and it is the desire of the Editor not alone to maintain the already enviable reputation of the work, but if possible, to add each year to its importance as a book of reference.

Explanation of Parliamentary Terms and Proceedings.

ADJOURNMENT.—See Interruption of the Sittings of Parliament.

AMENDMENT.—See Order.

AVOIDANCE OF A DECISION.—When a motion has been made upon which the House is unwilling to come to a vote, there are certain formal modes of avoiding a decision, amongst which are “passing of the orders of the day,” or “moving the previous question.” The former means that the House should—casting aside and taking no notice of the matter then before it—proceed to the other business appointed for that day; the latter, that a vote be previously taken as to the expediency of coming to any decision on the question raised. If “the previous question” be negatived as a matter of expediency, the motion to which it referred is only gotten rid of for the time, whereas a direct negative to the motion itself would be a proscription of it for the remainder of the Session, as well as a denial of its principle. With respect to a Bill, moving that it “be read this day six months,” or “this day three months,” is a mode of throwing it out without coming to an express declaration against the principle of the measure.

BILLS (PRIVATE).—Private Bills are chiefly introduced to enable individuals or bodies corporate to undertake works of public utility at their own risk, and chiefly for their own emolument and benefit; but there are other private bills which frequently come before Parliament, such as bills for adjusting claims to property between individual claimants, and bills relating to divorce, naturalization, &c., &c. The expenses of legislation in such matters must be paid by the parties seeking the relief; and a deposit of $200 must be made immediately after the second reading of the Bill. After the second reading, if all the rules of the House have been complied with, Private Bills go to the Committee, and it is before this Committee that proper attention must be given by the parties interested. Individuals or companies may appear by Parliamentary Agents.

BILLS (PUBLIC).—A Bill is the draft or skeleton of a Statute. Any Bill which the Senate can originate may be introduced and laid on the table by an individual Senator without the previous permission of the House; but in the Commons no bill can be brought in unless a motion for leave be previously agreed to. Permission having been granted, a Committee is appointed to prepare the Bill. It is then brought in and read a first time, without amendment or debate, and a day is appointed for a second reading, previous to which it is printed, and a copy furnished to each member. The Bill, after the second reading, is referred to a Committee of the Whole House, at the sittings of which its details are considered, as its principles were at each of its several readings. Members are at liberty to discuss its principles at any of its stages, but no one is considered to have declared decisively in favor of its principles, unless by his vote he supports its second reading. In Committee the Bill is debated clause by clause, the blanks left for names, dates, nature and amount of penalties, etc., are filled up, and sometimes the Bill is entirely remodelled. The blanks, as they are called, which are usually filled up in italics, are agreed to without a question being put, unless a member should propose to alter them. The next proceeding is, that the Chairman of the Committee should make a report to the House of the changes that the Bill has undergone, which he does by presenting it to the Speaker in its altered form. The report of the Committee is agreed to without discussion, the Bill is ordered to be printed, and it is then read a third time, when any further amendments can be made. If a new clause be added, it is called a rider. The last question but one is that the "Bill do pass;" after this nothing remains except to determine its title, which used to be a general one for all the acts passed in the session, but in modern times distinct titles are used for each Statute. During the progress of a Bill, the House may divide on the following questions:—1st, on the second reading; 2nd, that it be committed; 3rd, on the consideration of report of Committee in case of amendments; 4th, or that the Bill be recommitted; 5th, that it be read a third time; 6th, that it do pass; 7th, the title of the Bill. These are quite exclusive of any division in Committee, or any amendments, or of any clauses added to or expunged from the measure in or out of the Committee. Alterations are not usually proposed in a Bill until after its principle has been disposed of on the second reading. Immediately after the passing of a Bill, it is taken by a member to the Bar of the Senate, desiring their concurrence, where it passes through the same forms as in the Commons. If the Bill be rejected, no further proceedings ensue. When the Senate agree with the Commons in the principle of the measure, but differ on matters of detail, a conference usually follows between members deputed from each House, who generally succeed in adjusting the difference; but if both Houses remain inflexible, the Bill is dropped. The same proceedings are adopted mutatis mutandis, when the Bill originates in the Upper House. The Bill having thus passed both Houses, remains with the Senate, except in the case of a Bill of Supply, which is sent back to the Commons, to be by them presented at the Bar of the Senate to the Representative of the Sovereign. The assent of the Crown is the final proceeding which converts a Bill into an Act of Parliament. [See "Royal Assent."]

BUDGET (THE).—The Minister of Finance makes one general statement every year to the House of Commons, the object of which is to present a comprehensive view of the financial condition of the Dominion. Sometimes there are preliminary, or supplemental, or occasional speeches; but the great general statement of the year has, for a long time past, been quaintly called "The Budget," from the French bougette, by a common figure of speech, putting the name of that which encloses, to signify the thing contained. The annual speech, known by that appellation embraces a review of the income and expenditure of the past year, as compared with those of preceding years; remarks upon the financial prospects of the country; an exposition of the intended repeal, modifications, or imposition of taxes during the session; and a detail of the public expenditure during the current period with its grounds of justification.

CABINET.—The Government of a State or community is understood to signify the exercise of supreme authority, and includes the executive, the legislative, and the judicial powers; but in popular acceptation it means only the first of these, the higher and more immediate functions of which are exercised by the Cabinet, a select body through whom, for the time being, the principal functions of royalty are discharged.

It is only since the adoption of the system of Responsible Government that any of the B.N.A. Provinces has had a Cabinet of Ministers. Before this took place, those who advised the Executive, or Her Majesty's Representative, were called, as they were in fact, Members of the Executive Council. They are here dignified by the same name as that by which they are acknowledged in the Parent State—they are called the Government, when the fact is that this word only applies to the three Estates which constitute the Government; but we have come into the use of the term usually employed in England, and as such it will be best to use it. When speaking of the Supreme Government of the Dominion, the people understand the Members of the Queen's Privy Council for Canada in office. The Queen's Privy Council for Canada is at present composed of about forty members, but only thirteen of these are of the Cabinet. It usually includes all those who are bound to retire when a change of Ministry takes place. The Privy Council being more immediately responsible for the conduct of public affairs, their deliberations are always considered confidential and are kept secret. The head of the Cabinet, who has been entrusted with its formation, is called "The Premier," but more properly "the head of Her Majesty's Canadian Government." The Cabinet, as it stands at present, comprises the following offices:—"The Minister of Justice and Attorney-General;" "The Minister of Militia and Defence;" "The Minister of Customs;" "The Minister of Finance;" "The Minister of Public Works;" "The Minister of Inland Revenue;" "The Minister of the Interior;" "The Minister of Marine and Fisheries;" "The President of the Queen's Privy Council;" "The Postmaster-General;" "The Secretary of State of Canada;" "The Minister of Agriculture;" and "The Receiver-General." They usually resign when they have lost the confidence of the House of Commons, or they may be dismissed by Her Majesty's Representative, and either House can, by address to the Governor-General, ask for the dismissal of his Cabinet or advisers. The members of the Cabinet or Administration, are supposed to agree upon principles of policy and legislation, and are expected to co-operate in Parliament, upon all matters and questions not specifically agreed upon as "open questions." The office of Premier may be held in conjunction with either of the principal departments of State, though heretofore (before Confederation), it has been usually associated with the office of Attorney-General.

CLERK OF THE CROWN IN CHANCERY.—The Clerk of the Crown in Chancery is by right an officer of both Houses of Parliament. His duties are to take charge of all the Poll Books and Election Document; to issue Writs of Election, &c., attend with those at the table when so ordered by the House; and at the closing of each session of Parliament, to read aloud the title of each several Bill, before it receives the Royal assent by Her Majesty's Representative. We reproduce from Macqueen's Appellate Jurisdiction of the House of Lords that portion which refers to the duties of this officer in England:—"The duties of the Clerk of the Crown do not now, as heretofore, require his constant attendance in the House of Lords. He assists when the Royal assent is given to Bills; but has no concern with the business of the Appellate Jurisdiction. In an ancient manuscript, preserved in the office of the Clerk of the Crown, the following particulars are given respecting this ancient officer:—"The Clerk of the Crown sitteth in the Upper House of Parliament, by the Clerk of that Court upon the Woolsack, attending there all the Parliament, and is sometimes sent on messages to the Lower House; and on the last day of the Parliament he readeth the Acts, and the Clerk of the Parliament giveth the King's answer; where it is to be noted that all the time of Parliament, he sitteth on the right hand of the Clerk of Parliament, and when he readeth the Acts, he standeth on his left hand, which is the higher place, being on the King's right hand.'"

CLERK OF THE HOUSE OF COMMONS.—"The Clerk of the Commons House of Parliament" holds an office of great trust and importance. He, with two assistants, sits at the upper end of the table. The Crown appoints him by commission under the great seal. It is his duty to make minutes, not of the arguments held in the House, but the decisions at which it arrives—in other words, to make a true and faithful record of all the proceedings in which it may be engaged; to see that they are correctly printed and distributed to the members; to read aloud all such documents as the House may order to be read; to perform the duty (without taking the chair), of president or moderator during the choice of a Speaker, putting a question and directing a division in the same manner that a Speaker would do.

COMMITTALS.—In common with Courts of Law and Equity, the Houses of Parliament can punish all contempt of their authority, or disobedience of their mandates. Each House is armed with power to repress any aggression committed upon its rights, or any interference with its privileges; but in the case of the Commons, the operation of this power is limited to the session of Parliament, committals by that House being invalidated by a prorogation. Either House can delegate to a committee the power of sending for papers and records, and of enforcing the attendance of necessary witnesses.

COMMITTEES.—Are, first, those of the Whole House, which may be to consider certain resolutions, as to the nature of which considerable latitude prevails; or the House itself resolves into such Committee, to consider the details of a bill, the principle of which may be discussed at any or all of its other stages; or there may be Committees for financial purposes, as those of "Supply," or "Ways and Means," (which see.) Secondly, there are Select Committees, chosen by ballot or otherwise, for some specific purpose—the number composing such bodies seldom exceeds fifteen members, except by permission of the House. Thirdly, Committees on Private Bills (which see). When the Whole House is in Committee, the Speaker vacates the chair, the Mace is placed under the table, and some other member is called to preside, who sits in the seat of the Clerk of the House.

CONFERENCE.—This is a species of negotiation between the two Houses of Parliament, conducted by managers appointed on both sides, for the purpose of producing concurrence, in cases where mutual consent is necessary; or for the purpose of reconciling differences which may have arisen. If the conference be upon the subject of a bill depending between the two Houses, it may be demanded by that House which is in possession of the bill at the time of asking the conference. It is the sole privilege of the Senate to name the time and place for holding a conference, no matter by which House it may have been demanded. Reasons in writing for the course resolved to be taken are usually furnished to the managers on both sides, in which case it is simply called "a conference." Should this proceeding fail, "a free conference" must be held, which gives an opportunity for the managers individually, and unrestrained by any precise form of argument, to urge such reasons as, in their judgment, may best tend to influence the House to which they are addressed. A free conference is usually demanded after two conferences have been holden without effect. After one free conference, none other but free conferences can be held touching the same subject.

CROWN.—In speaking of the Crown the reader must remember that the attributes and powers are exercised in Canada by a representative, viz, the Governor-General. Its attributes are:—

To give or refuse to bills "The Royal Assent," to cause the laws to be duly administered and executed; to act in behalf of the whole community in its intercourse with other countries (but the Representative of the Crown can neither declare a war nor conclude a peace—this power cannot be delegated); to direct the Naval and Military forces within the limit of his Administration; to administer the Public Revenue; to prorogue or dissolve Parliament. The Queen's Representative, in appearing for the Crown, represents the source of justice and mercy, confers office, honors and emoluments; but in the same manner as the Monarch acts, by Ministers, who are amenable to the Imperial Parliament, so the Representative in Canada acts by Ministers, who are responsible to Parliament, and the choice of those Ministers is the only prerogative which can be constitutionally exercised without responsible advisers; but even in this, Parliament, or rather the People's Representatives, exercise the controlling power; for the appointment of such Ministers by the Crown's Representative can have no practical effect, unless it rests upon men whose characters and measures prove generally acceptable to the House.

ESTATE OF PARLIAMENT.—Parliament fully assembled, consists of the Monarch, or his Representative, the Upper House and the Lower House. They are more frequently spoken of as the three branches of the Legislature. Neither House deliberates in the presence of the Queen's Representative, nor will either of them permit any allusion in debate to the opinions or sentiments entertained by him. The three branches taken together exercise none but legislative functions, and they must all consent or no law can be passed. But they have separate functions as well. The Monarch, or Representative, holds the whole Executive authority, and while the Lower House alone can originate Money or Tax Bills, the Upper House is deprived of this power. Nor does the Upper House possess the great function of trying impeachments, which is held by the Lords in Great Britain, from the simple fact, we presume, that there is no power invested with the right to impeach. But we will speak of each one separately:

---

HOUSE OF COMMONS.—The Speaker takes the chair at 3 p.m. daily. If there be a quorum, the business is proceeded with; if not, the House is adjourned to the next day, at 3 p.m. Early meetings take place before the termination of the Session, in order to expedite business and bring matters to a close; the House does not usually meet on Saturday, nor does it assemble on any holiday. No one can be admitted to hear the debates without an order from the Sergeant-at-Arms, which is generally obtained through a member. Twenty members, including the Speaker, constitute a quorum.

THE SENATE.—The time for the ordinary meeting of the House is at 3 p.m., unless some other time shall have previously been ordered. If a quorum is not present at thirty minutes after the time of meeting, the House is adjourned until the next sitting day. Fifteen members, including the Speaker, constitute a quorum. The Speaker of the Senate is an officer appointed by the Crown.

FINANCE.—See Budget.

INTERRUPTION OF THE SITTINGS OF PARLIAMENT.—The proceedings of the Legislature may be interrupted or suspended either by adjournment, prorogation, or dissolution.

Adjournment, as the term itself implies, is a postponement of the sittings or proceedings of the House, from one time to another, specified for the re-assemblage. When the sittings of both Houses are interrupted by royal authority, it is called prorogation. Dissolution puts an end to the representative character of the individuals who, at the time, compose the House of Commons, and Parliament cannot therefore assemble until after a new election, except in cases hereinafter mentioned. The power of adjournment is a right belonging to each House, and there are no restrictions to this power.

The House of Commons can interrupt or postpone any debate, defer the consideration of any measure, or altogether adjourn its sitting, but the practice is always to adjourn to some stated time; and we think there can be no doubt that, by the previous permission of the House, the Speaker can leave the Chair for a certain number of hours; but this does not amount to an adjournment, and could not be noted as such by the Clerk. But it must be remarked that the adjournment of one House does not adjourn the other. The Crown may, pending an adjournment, summon by Proclamation either House or both, and may direct either House or both to adjourn to any particular day. But while the power exists, and although in former times it has been frequently exercised in the Imperial Legislature, it has grown into desuetude there, as well as in the Provinces enjoying the privileges of their own local Legislatures.

An individual member may for a time interrupt the progress of business by successive motions for adjournment, which may be repeated indefinitely, with this restriction: no second motion to adjourn can be made until after some intermediate proceeding shall have been had. The motion in committee, that the chairman report progress, is equivalent to a motion to adjourn the debate.

Adjournment does not close the session, nor does prorogation terminate Parliament. The former is an act which either House can perform; the latter is a power vested in the Crown, the duration of which may be subsequently shortened or extended as the Crown pleases. All unfinished business terminates and dies with a prorogation, but during an adjournment they remain in statu quo to be revived on the re-assembling of Parliament. A member who moves the adjournment of a debate, or who is in possession of the floor at the time of an adjournment, is said to be in possession of the House with the right to re-open the debate which has been interrupted. This is not the case, however, when Committees of the whole House adjourn. Prorogation never extends beyond forty days, but it may be repeated from time to time by proclamation, and continue to be renewed until it is intended that Parliament shall meet for the despatch of business. The Crown can summon Parliament to meet at any time by giving fourteen days notice. Dissolution is the simple death of Parliament, and may be brought about in two ways, either by the pleasure of the Crown, or by lapse of time for which it was called into existence. There was a time when the existence of a Parliament terminated by the demise of the Crown, but a special law removed this provision of the Constitution. But there is no power in the Constitution by which a Parliament in Canada can be extended beyond five years. If Parliament, at the time of the Sovereign's death, be separated by adjournment or prorogation, it must assemble immediately, or within a reasonable period. If no Parliament be then in existence, the members of the last must again meet, and may serve as a Parliament for six months unless sooner prorogued. By the British North America Act, 30 Sec., it is provided that "there shall be a session of the Canadian Parliament once, at least, every year, so that twelve months shall not intervene between the last sitting, etc."

LAW CLERK.—It is necessary to mention this officer in particular, because the Rules of the House assign to him and the translators under him certain duties which must be performed to ensure correct legislation. He is appointed by the Crown. It is laid down as the duty of the Law Clerk to revise all public bills after their first reading and to certify thereon that the same are correct; and in every subsequent stage of such bills, the Law Clerk shall be responsible for the correctness of said bills, should they be amended. The responsibility is increased by the fact of all Bills having to be printed in both languages, English and French, before they can be disposed of.

ORDER.—By this word is meant an obedience to certain rules and regulations intended to facilitate the despatch of business, and preserve that necessary decorum so essential in all deliberative assemblies. The rules by which the business of Parliament is conducted are of two kinds; one kind the house possesses in common with all deliberative assemblies—another is peculiar to its own existence and powers. For the proper application of all these rules, the Speaker or Chairman's decision is had, and to this decision due deference is at all times paid. The Speaker, while in the Chair, takes no part in the debate, it being his duty to regulate the manner in which business shall be transacted; to confine those members who address the House to the subject under consideration; to give his opinion in all things which relate to order; to put the matter in dispute into the form of a question, upon which the votes of members are taken, and to declare the majority as soon as it is communicated to him by the Clerk. It is also his duty to declare the business of the House closed, and to see that the affairs of the House are correctly and properly recorded. After routine he calls upon the member whose motion stands first on the paper of notices, or who is otherwise entitled to precedence. All motions must be seconded, or they fall to the ground; being seconded, the motion is handed in writing to the Speaker, who has to read it before debate can be had upon it; having been read, objections may be urged. There are several ways by which a motion may be opposed; it may be met by a direct negative, or by an amendment, or by a motion to postpone, or by proceeding to the next order of the day, or by moving the previous question, or by the simple motion of adjournment. A motion once read cannot be withdrawn without the permission of the House. It must not be forgotten that unless a speech is made objecting to a motion, neither mover nor seconder can speak a second time except in explanation. If, however, a debate does arise, in which an opposition is given to the mover of a motion, he has the right of reply; but it must be understood that this privilege does not belong to the mover of an amendment. All are permitted to explain. The debate being ended, the Speaker or Chairman puts the question, and calls upon those in favor to say "Yea," and those of a contrary disposition to say "Nay." He then declares that in his opinion the "Yeas" or the "Nays" (as the case may be) have it. If his decision is questioned, the house divides, the "Yeas" rising, and their names being taken down, the "Nays" following; the numbers are counted from the record and declared. When an amendment has been moved the vote is simply taken on the amendment, and then on the original question. Should the amendment be adopted, it then becomes the substantive motion, and may be amended in the same way that the original motion was amended. Thus a number of successive amendments to the original motion may be disposed of. Any member is at liberty to interrupt another by "rising to order," which means that he rises in his place and calls the attention of the Chair and the House to a breach of the orders then being committed. In the debate it is contrary to order to mention any member by name; the same rule prevails in Committee of the Whole, except as regards the Chairman, who is sometimes called by his name, and not Mr. Chairman.

ORIGINATING BILLS.—All Bills relating to public income and expenditure, and all Bills usually called Money Bills, must originate in the Commons, and be introduced by the Government.—(See Bills).

---

PARLIAMENTARY AGENTS.—In England all the business transacted for private Corporations and individuals is attended to by what they call Parliamentary Agents, who are parties generally well up in the practice of Parliament, and who take off a great deal of the drudgery from Members. Parliamentary Agents are now employed in Canada, and are a very useful class of men. Comprehending their duties, they do not annoy the Members, nor neglect the interests they have in charge.

PETITIONS.—There are several regulations which govern the presentation of Petitions to Parliament, which should be attended to by those who are interested. Petitions to the House of Commons should be addressed to "The Honorable the Commons of Canada, in Parliament Assembled." The petition must be respectful, the statement of grievance or cause of complaint must there be set forth, and the whole must conclude with a specific prayer. Without a prayer to the petition, it would not be listened to, as the mere complaining for the sake of complaining will never be countenanced by Parliament, and the correct form is, after having alleged your complaint, to finish by connecting it with the prayer, beginning, "Wherefore, your humble petitioner, &c., prays, &c.", setting forth the redress and relief that is sought. Signatures to petitions must be original; no agent should sign a petition to Parliament for any purpose. No chairman can sign for a public meeting, but the common seal of a corporation is received as the petition of the whole body. All petitions must be in respectful and temperate language; they should not animadvert upon the conduct of the Parliament, the Courts of Justice, or constituted authorities. It is not proper to make reference to any motion or subject under debate, or to a motion in the course of preparation. After presentation, all petitions undergo a close inspection in the Clerk's Department, and when the time comes for receiving them, the Speaker offers such remarks as their nature calls for. In England there is a Committee on Public Petitions, which takes this duty from the Speaker, and it appears to work well, for they frequently find it their duty to report the substance, and frequently the exact words of a petition to the House, and not unfrequently recommend such action to be taken as the case suggests.

PREVIOUS QUESTION.—See Avoidance of a Decision.

PRIVILEGES OF PARLIAMENT.—There are three kinds. 1st, The privileges which appertain to members individually. 2nd, Those which belong to the House in its collective capacity. 3rd, Those which belong to two Houses jointly.

It is unnecessary that we should here discuss the points of privilege which appertain to the two Imperial Houses conjointly on the subject of assuming the supreme power of the realm. Amongst the privileges which the Commons claim are:—

The power of committing individuals to prison—the power of publishing matters which, if not issuing from such high authority, might become the subject of proceedings in a Court of Law—the power of directing the Law Officers of the Crown to prosecute persons accused of offences against the laws, or affecting the privileges of Parliament—and finally, of doing anything not directly contravening an existing Act of Parliament, which may be necessary for the vindication and protection of its own rights, in the exercise of its constitutional functions. Questions of privilege take precedence of all other proceedings, and are always in order. The privileges claimed by individual members—are freedom of speech and person, including freedom from legal arrest and seizure under process from the Courts of Law and Equity. This does not extend to indictable offences, or to actual contempts of the Courts of Justice. Members of Parliament are exempt from all duties, the performance of which might interfere with their prompt attendance to their Parliamentary calls. Privilege of Parliament, such as it is, continues for a convenient time after prorogation and dissolution.

PROROGATION.—See Interruption of the sittings of Parliament.

---

ROYAL ASSENT.—The Act by which the Crown agrees to a Bill is called the Royal Assent; this assent is usually given at the end of a Session, unless there is urgent necessity for the Act becoming law without loss of time, in which case, the Governor-General, or the person administering the Government, comes down to the Upper House, and there, in the presence of both Houses, gives his assent. When this is done, either at the close of a Session or on a special occasion, the Governor-General being seated on the throne, the House of Commons is summoned to the bar of the Upper House; being there, the Clerk of the Crown in Chancery reads the title of the Bill, hands it to the Chief Clerk, who says in both English and French: "In the name of Her Majesty the Queen, His Excellency the Governor-General sanctions this Bill." His Excellency specially manifests his assent to the Supply Bill. Bills to which the Royal Assent is not given are pronounced to be reserved for the signification of Her Majesty's pleasure thereon, and are mentioned in the "Official Gazette" as having been reserved for Her Majesty's consideration. Unless a reserve is made in the Act itself, so soon as the Royal assent is given, the Act becomes a Law, and can be proceeded on before any competent Court. In England sometimes the Royal assent is given by Commission, but in a Colony such an event has never taken place, although there can be no doubt that the Governor-General has power to appoint a Commission to give this Royal assent.

SERGEANT-AT-ARMS.—This officer, although in attendance on the House of Commons, is appointed by the Crown. It is his duty to obey the commands of the House, to apprehend and to take into custody all those who are committed for any offence by the House. All the messengers and servants of the House, except the Clerks, are under his orders. He has a seat at the Bar of the House, and directs all arrangements for the maintainance of order in the approaches thereto, and in the galleries. He is of course in imciate attendance upon the Speaker, from whom he takes all orders in connection with his duties. He is assisted by a Deputy.

SESSION.--The Session is the term occupied by Parliament from its commencement to its prorogation. An adjournment does not close a Session. Parliament is annually assembled for the despatch of business. There are certain important Acts which are renewed every year, and without which the Government could not be carried on, which compels the Government to meet the Representatives of the people, and render an account of the past years' transactions once a year at least. Unless this be done, there will be no supplies. By an understanding, Parliament meets in the month of February, although circumstances sometimes arise to postpone the time. While the Crown has a right to summon Parliament where it pleases, it is generally understood that it assembles at the seat of Government. The House being assembled, the Governor-General commands the attendance of the members of the Lower House at the Bar of the Upper House, and delivers a Speech from the Throne. This Speech is the first subject taken into consideration; no other business is commenced until the answer to it is given. As is stated elsewhere, the mere fact of one or both Houses adjourning does not terminate the Session; it can only terminate by being prorogued by the Crown. All bills and other measures left unfinished, when the prorogation takes place, are dead, and parties who wish to revive them must recommence their labours at the next Session, as if nothing had been done in the premises. The mere assembling of members does not constitute a Session—one Bill, at least, must pass both Houses and receive the Royal Assent, before it can be called a Session.

SPEAKER.—Beyond all doubt this officer was designated Speaker, from the fact of being the spokesman of the Commons in their intercourse with the Crown. He is the presiding officer of the body. He reads all communications which come from the Queen's Representative to the Commons; he has to present and read such addresses and petitions as are carried up to the Governor-General by the Whole House, and to deliver the usual speeches, on the part of the Commons, when presenting the Supply Bill, and other Bills calling for peculiar note and remark. Through him, all witnesses and prisoners at the Bar of the House are examined, and he directs all arrangements when the House is to be addressed by Counsel. It is his duty to deliver the reprimand of the House to any one who has incurred the penalty of receiving it; it is also his duty to issue warrants of committal or release for breach of privilege; to communicate with any parties, when so instructed by the House. It is his duty to closely examine the provisions of private Bills, so as to protect the public against any surprise, or undue encroachment or injury; to control and regulate the conduct of subordinate officers of the House; to enforce the Rules of the House; he cannot join in any debate unless in Committee of the Whole House. As the presiding officer of the House, he has all the duties attached to such an office. The Speaker is chosen by the members of Parliament, and holds his office until the Parliament in which he is elected is dissolved. Should a member persevere in disobeying the order of the Speaker, and of the House, the Speaker may "name him," as the term applies, a course uniformly followed by the censure of the House. In extreme cases, the Speaker may order members or others into custody until the pleasure of the House be signified. On divisions, when the numbers happen to be equal, he gives the casting vote, but he never otherwise votes.

SUPPLY.—All proceedings which relate to the public income or expenditure must originate with the Commons, and must be begun by resolution moved in Committee of Supply, which is always Committee of the Whole House. In the course of the Session, estimates are submitted to a Committee of Supply, and resolutions moved thereon, granting to the Crown the sums requisite for the management of the various departments of the Government, and the support of various public and private institutions. Such as are confirmed by the Committee of Supply are reported to the House, where they are again re-considered, and adopted or rejected, as the case may be. Upon these a Bill is passed, and this Supply Bill furnishes authority to the Government for disbursing the various sums appropriated. The Upper House may reject this or any other Money Bill, but they cannot alter or amend the substance of a Supply or Money Bill; such a course would be regarded as an invasion of the privileges of the Lower House. Before any Bill can be introduced authorizing the expenditure of any public money, resolutions must be moved in Committee of Supply, agreed to there, reported and confirmed by the House.

THREE MONTHS (This Day).—See Avoidance of a Decision.

WAYS AND MEANS.—As the Committee of Supply relates to the expenditure of the country, so the functions and duties of a Committee of Ways and Means have reference to the funds by which such expenditure is to be met. Loans, duties, taxes, excise and revenue of every description, are submitted to the Committee of Ways and Means. The propositions of Government on this subject are reduced to resolutions, submitted, considered and decided on, and such as are agreed to are reported to the House. Those which may be adopted are embodied in a Bill or Bills, and in due course and form become the law of the land. As in supply the Upper House may reject these Bills, but cannot amend them, nor can the Upper House insert a pecuniary penalty in any Bill.

PART IV.

Speakers' Decisions.

SYNOPSIS OF THE PRINCIPAL DECISIONS OF THE SPEAKERS OF THE HOUSE OF COMMONS ON POINTS OF ORDER AND PROCEDURE FROM 1867 TO 1876.

SPEAKER—THE HON. JAMES COCKBURN.

1. Speaking Twice on Motion checked.—20 March, 1868. On motion for reference of Petition of Hon. J. C. Chapais, relative to Kamouraska election, to the Standing Committee on Privileges and Elections, a debate ensued, in which Hon. G. E. Cartier drew a parallel between the Lotbiniere election in 1858 and the present case, and alluded incidentally to the Corrigan murder. Mr. Joly raised a point of order, that the murder of Corrigan had nothing to do with the point at issue. Objection OVER-RULED, and debate proceeded. At its close The Speaker said: "That in order to put a check upon such sharp retorts as they had been listening to, he would, in future, enforce a rigid observance of the rule forbidding any member to speak more than once upon the same motion."—Debates, p. 130.

2. Trade—Bill on Banking.—27 March, 1868. On motion for second reading of the Bill to enable Banks in any part of Canada to use notes of the Dominion instead of issuing notes of their own, the Hon. L. H. Holton contended, "that, this being a Bill relating to Trade, and also involving a pledge of the public credit, it ought to have originated in committee of the Whole House; and, that step not having been taken prior to the first reading, the Bill cannot now be read a second time." After considerable discussion, RULED: "I hold that the Bill does not involve an increased pledge of the public credit, and, therefore, ought (see Rule 41, and May, page 364) strictly to have originated in committee of the Whole House."

"But the Bill, having been read a first time, by leave of the House, and subsequently having been moved into committee upon the resolutions, which were afterwards concurred in by the House,

“it is now too late to raise the objection. In none of the precedents quoted where Bills of this class were rejected on the 2nd or 3rd readings had the House been in committee,—that proceeding having been entirely omitted. Here the contrary appears; and we need not enquire at this stage whether the introduction of the Bill, or the resolutions in committee, were the first step in point of time.

“I think the Hon. Member is not required to proceed de novo, but may go on with his Bill.” The Bill was then read a second time.—Journal, p. 161.

3. Trade—Bill on Insurance.—27 March, 1868. On motion for second reading of the Bill respecting Insurance Companies, requiring the deposit of a guarantee of $50,000 from fire, and $100,000 from Life Insurance Companies, to be made in Dominion stock, the Hon. L. H. Holton objected that—“this Bill relates to Trade, and should be based upon resolutions passed in committee of the Whole House. That it is a Bill relating to Trade, and that, from the terms of the ‘British North America Act,’ unless it could be so treated, it is beyond the jurisdiction of this House, as it is only under the head ‘Relating to Trade and Commerce’ that this House can deal with it, and that, if it does not come under that head, the jurisdiction falls to the Local Legislature.”

After much discussion, RULED: “I hold that the term ‘Trade’ does not, in its general and popular sense, apply to Insurance. Trade means buying and selling, importing and exporting goods to market, banking, railways, navigation and telegraphs; all assist trade, and are auxiliaries, but are not branches of trade in the popular sense; yet certainly the first, ‘Banking,’ is more intimately connected with Trade than Insurance. I do not find that Bills relating to these subjects must necessarily be considered in committee of the whole; sometimes it may have been done, but the practice is not uniform, and I see no rule which requires it. I over-rule the point of order.”

The House then proceeded upon the Bill. The other question raised by Mr. Holton, viz: “That the regulation of Insurance Companies is a subject properly within the jurisdiction of the Provincial Legislatures,”—being no point of order, but a question of law, was advisedly passed over by the Speaker. It was, however, decided by the House, on 20 May (see Journal, p. 426), adversely to Mr. Holton’s objection. Journal, p. 161.

4. Amendment Inconsistent with Motion.—6 April, 1868. On motion, for an address for copies of certain papers, including copies of any instructions to Hon. Dr. Tupper, now on a mission to England, Dr. Parker moved, in amendment, an addition to the address, requesting the recall of Dr. Tupper. Mr. Morris objected, that the amendment was inconsistent with the main motion, and that both would be unintelligible if co-joined. Objection OVER-RULED. Journal, p. 185.

5. Complex Amendment to Motion into Committee of Supply.—6 May, 1868. On motion to go into Committee of Supply, Hon. Mr. Holton moved, in amendment, that it is expedient to reduce the salary of the Governor-General, and salaries of all Government employes receiving more than $800 per annum, and to provide against salaried officers receiving emolument for special services. Hon. Mr. Dunkin objected to the amendment as being complex, and requiring sub-division in order to a regular vote thereon, while, being an amendment to go into Committee of Supply, it cannot, if so put, be divided, or an amendment upon it moved. RULED:—“This motion, which contains three distinct propositions, on each of which a separate question might be put (and which is therefore a complex motion), is not, therefore, irregular, or out of order. The House could, in general, according to precedent, order a complex motion to be divided. But that could only be done by amending the motion, which cannot be done now, for but one amendment can be moved in going into Committee of Supply. Therefore the motion must stand or fall as a whole. The difficulty pointed out by the Hon. Member for Brome is one which does not affect the regularity of the motion, and that is all that I have to deal with.” Amendment put and negatived. Journal, p. 268.

6. Petitions for Money Refused.—The reception of various Petitions, on the ground that they asked for grants of public money, or aid, and were not recommended by the Crown, was refused on the following occasions: 7 May, 1868, Journal, p. 297; 1st, 3rd, 7th, 10th March, 1870, Journal, pp. 30, 32, 40, 56; 11 March, 7 and 23 April, 1870, Journal, pp. 59, 167, 233; 20 February and 3 March, 1871, Journal, pp. 18, 44, and on several other occasions, for which refer to Index of the Journals. (See also No. 50 hereof, relative to Petitions for Exemptions from Taxation. See also No. 12 hereof.)

7. Amendments—Greater Expenditure than in Message—Unnecessary Instruction to Committee.—16 May, 1868. On motion to receive report of Committee of the Whole on the Bill respecting Militia and Defence, Mr. Pope moved, in amendment, to re-commit the Bill, to consider two resolutions; the first declaring the inexpediency and injustice of present large sums paid to Staff Officers, while Battalion and Company Officers are inadequately paid; the second providing that no money shall be paid to Staff Officers until such time as all the officers of the Force are properly considered, &c. The Hon. A. T. Galt proposed, in amendment thereto, to refer the Bill back to Committee, for the purpose of so adjusting the Militia expenditure, that the officers "may receive such allowance as will distinguish between their respective ranks and that of the men." Hon. Mr. Holton, raising the question of order on Hon. Galt's amendment, RULED:—"Not in order, inasmuch as its adoption would involve the expenditure of a greater sum than that recommended by His Excellency's Message." Hon. Sir John Macdonald, raising the question of order on Mr. Pope's amendment, RULED:—"Not in order, inasmuch as, if adopted, it would be an instruction to the committee to consider certain resolutions which could have been considered without any instruction from the House; and, moreover, that it involves an increase of the Public Expenditure over that recommended by the message from His Excellency the Governor-General." Journal, p. 390.

8. Petition for Canal Construction Received.—19 April, 1869. On presentation of petition for construction of Ottawa Ship Canal, Mr. Alex. Mackenzie objected to its reception, on the ground that it involved an expenditure of public money. RULED: "That, although the prayer of the petition, if granted, might ultimately involve the expenditure of public money, yet, as it related only directly to public works, it might be received without any violation of the rules." On recommendation of the Minister of Justice, reception delayed till next sitting.

When again presented, Mr. Mackenzie raised a similar objection. A short debate ensuing, RULED: "The reception of this petition is objected to, because of the rule adopted last session, when, for the first time, the English practice was introduced into this Chamber [7 May, 1868, Journal, p. 297.] These are the words in which the decision of the Chair was then announced:—Though there is no rule of this House expressly applicable to the question, yet by rule 116, it is ordered that in unprovided cases, the rules, usages and forms of the English House of Commons are to be followed. The practice in England has been clearly against the reception of such petitions, and I find, by a Standing Order of the House of Commons of the 20th March, 1866, it is declared:—'That this House will receive no petition for any sum relating to Public Service, or proceed upon any motion for a grant or charge upon the Public Revenue, whether payable out of the Consolidated Fund, or out of moneys to be provided by Parliament, unless recommended from the Crown.' That decision

“ having been given, the House agreed unanimously to adopt it as “ the rule to be followed in future. The present Petition does not,
 “ in my opinion, come within that rule. It is very general in its “ terms. It sets out a variety of facts with reference to the con“ struction of a work which would, no doubt, involve an expendi“ ture of money, but it concludes with these words:—‘Therefore
 “ ‘ your petitioners humbly request that Your Honorable House
 “ ‘ will take such measures as will cause the obstructions to this “ ‘ navigation to be removed, and an uninterrupted line, to the full “ ‘ capacity of the leading channel, and the supply of water from “ ‘ the summit level, opened throughout.’ Now, as I take it, this “ is not a petition asking for any grant, which would be a charge
 “ on the public exchequer, and I do not think it would be my duty, “ sitting in this chair, to interfere with the right of the people to “ petition this House, unless there is a clear rule of this House, “ which would prevent the petition, beyond a doubt, from being “ received. I cannot so apply the rule, for by express language it “ does not cover this case. This is not a petition asking for “ money. It is a petition asking simply for legislation, and were
 “ I to say that the petition came within that rule, I should be “ opposing my authority against the rights of the public at large to “ approach this House. If it is the pleasure of the House to “ exclude petitions of this class in future, the proper way would be “ to adopt a substantive rule, which would clearly exclude such “ petitions. I consider, therefore, that the petition must be “ received.” The petition was then received. Journal, p. 22.

9. Motion Over-ruled—Committee on Depreciated Silver.—26 May, 1869. Mr. Dufresne moved that the House go into Committee, on Monday next, to consider a resolution, declaring the expediency of the purchase, by the Dominion of depreciated silver coins now in circulation, their export, and the substitution of Dominion notes. A debate ensued, when the Speaker RULED, his attention having been called to a point of order, that:—“The motion involved a charge upon the public revenue, and should originate by message from His Excellency.” Motion withdrawn. Ottawa Times Debates, p. 77.

10. Amendments Over-ruled—Newfoundland Public Lands.—10 June, 1869. On motion of concurrence in resolutions, reported from Committee, on Union of Newfoundland with Canada, Mr. Blake moved an amendment, relative to Newfoundland Public Lands; negatived. Hon. Mr. Wood moved an amendment, relative to the lands, and to financial arrangements; RULED: “Out of order, inasmuch as it alters the manner in which the amount “recommended by His Excellency’s message is to be applied.” Mr. Wood subsequently moved another amendment, relative to lands only; RULED: Out of order, the House having decided upon this question, on Mr. Blake’s amendment. Journal, p. 219.

11. Nova Scotia Financial arrangements, Amendment, Abstract principle.—12 June, 1869. On motion of concurrence in resolutions, reported from Committee, for adjustment of the financial arrangements with Nova Scotia; Hon. Mr. Wood moved an amendment, declaring inexpediency, unless arrangements be at the same time made, in favor of Quebec and Ontario. Objected to, as proposing an expenditure in excess of that recommended in His Excellency’s message. RULED: In order, as being a mere assertion of an abstract principle. “Beyond that, it proposes nothing; it does not propose to take any step in the direction of legislation; but, on the contrary, as I read the motion, the effect would be, if passed, to present concurrence in the resolutions, and to stop the whole proceedings—so that the question on this proposed appropriation could not be approached again, this session, unless a message came down from the Crown recommending such additional expenditure.” (Extract). Amendment put and negatived.—Journal, p. 235.

12. Private Motion for Taxation over-ruled.—14 June, 1869. Resolution moved to tax American wheat, &c. OVER-RULED, inasmuch as motions for imposition of duties should emanate from Government.—Journal, p. 242.

13. Amendments Irrelevant.—30 March, 1870. On motion of Mr. Blake, for an address to the Queen, for Imperial Legislation, to debar the Canadian Parliament from disturbing the financial arrangements of Union between the Provinces, two amendments, objected to as irrelevant and vague, were RULED in order.—Journal, pp. 122-127.

14. Canada School Lands—Resolution Irregular.—4 April, 1870. On motion of Hon. Mr. Wood, for the adoption of a resolution, detailing the proceedings of the Government of the late Province of Canada respecting the Crown and School Lands, declaring that good faith towards the settlers required that Government to make certain provisions which it had failed to do, and that the objection to carry out the compact made with the settlers, devolves upon the Government of Canada under the B. N. A. Act:—Mr. Casault objected that the resolution cannot be considered in the manner proposed, and should have originated in Committee of the Whole House. The Speaker RULED: That the objection was good, as the Resolution unquestionably involved a charge upon the public purse of the Dominion. With regard to a point raised by the member for Lambton, as to the Dominion Government “having power to pay this money out

“of the Provincial subsidies, the very circumstance of this House being the trustee, as it were, of the Provinces of Ontario and Quebec, should make it all the more necessary that every proper constitutional check should be interposed before any charge should be incurred, which would eventually be imposed upon those Provinces” He moreover thought there should be a message from the Governor-General before such a motion could be entertained, and therefore declared the motion out of order.—Journal, p. 143.

15. Motion on Hop interest—Abstract Principle—Resolution affecting Trade.—4 April, 1870. On motion of concurrence in Report of Select Committee on Hop-growing and Salt interests, Hon. Mr. Wood objected that adoption of motion would lead to imposition of duties. Objection OVER-RULED, as it does not follow conclusively that a tax or duty will be imposed; the measures asked for are measures of relief, so far as the House is informed. The Hon. Sir G. E. Cartier objected, that the subject matter of the Report related to Trade, and should originate in Committee of the Whole House. Objection OVER-RULED as this rule, in express terms, is confined to Bills only; and the Speaker thought the House might adopt a Report of this general character, which would leave it uncommitted as to specific measures. Journal, p. 147.

16. Instruction to a Commission not appointed.—4 April, 1870. Motion to give certain instructions to the Commission shortly to be appointed to consider the question of Canals. OVER-RULED, as the motion purports to give an instruction to a Commission which is not appointed. Motion withdrawn. Journal, p. 149.

17. Senate Bill providing Expenditure.—5 April, 1870. On motion for 3rd reading of Bill from the Senate, amending the Act relating to Lighthouses. Hon. Mr. Holton called attention to certain clauses, which make dispositions respecting public expenditure. Objection OVER-RULED. “By referring to the authorities, it appeared that the Commons had accepted provisions in Bills from the Lords creating charges not directly imposed by the Bill, but to be defrayed out of moneys to be provided by Parliament; but that exception having been taken to this practice, it did not appear to have been continued since 1860.” The present Bill fell far short of the class of Bills alluded to. A clause in it provides that nothing in the Act shall authorize expenditure by the Minister, until previously sanctioned by Parliament. No contract could therefore be entered into unless thus previously sanctioned. (Extracts.) Bill passed. Journal, p. 155.

18. Amendment not connected with Motion.—21 April, 1870. Upon reading of Resolutions reported from Committee of Supply, to defray expenses of certain Dominion offices, Mr. Mackenzie moved, "That this House regrets that the Government should "have deemed it necessary to increase the salaries of officers in the "Public Service, &c." Mr. Masson (Soulanges) then moved, "That "no Public Employeeshall receive more than one salary," &c. This second motion was objected to, on the ground that the two motions had no connection with one another; and the Speaker, concurring, OVER-RULED it. Mr. Mackenzie's motion was put and negatived. Journal, p. 212.

19. Amendment changing Expenditure recommended by Message.—6 May, 1870. On motion for third reading of the Bill for Civil Service Supcrannuation. Mr. Godin moved an amendment as to the mode of administering the fund, and providing that no officer shall benefit unless he has contributed to the fund during five years, and that widows and orphans of employeeshall benefit, &c., &c. Amendment objected to, Imp. Act, 30 Vic., C. 3, sec. 54, providing that the House of Commons shall not pass any vote, resolution, &c., for an appropriation to any purpose not first recommended by message of the Governor General during the same session as the vote. Objection sustained, and amendment OVER-RULED. "This amendment "proposes a substantial change from the proposal recommended in "the message of 2nd May, inst.," &c. Journal, p. 303.

20. Trade—Bill on Insurance—Question already passed upon.—6 & 11 May, 1870. On motion for second reading of Bill to limit the rate of interest, it was objected to, as it related to Trade, and should therefore have originated in Committee of the Whole. The Speaker, in a lengthy decision, and quoting precedents, RULED, that the term "Trade" does not, in its general and popular sense, apply to insurance. "Banking, railways, navigation and telegraphs, all "assist Trade and are its auxiliaries, but are not branches of Trade in the popular sense, yet certainly the first; 'Banking,' is more intimately connected with Trade than Insurance. I do not find "that Bills relating to these subjects must necessarily be first considered in Committee of the Whole; sometimes it may have been done, but the practice is not uniform, and I see no rule which requires it." The Speaker therefore allowed the Bill to be proceeded with. (Mr. Mills then objected, and the Speaker concurred that the same question had substantially been already brought before the House and postponed for three months; whereupon the order for its second reading was discharged.) Journal, pp. 313, 314, 348.

21. Motion Respecting Re-vote Re-committed.—10 May, 1870. The order of the day being read, for resuming debate on amendment proposed on 21st April, to concurrence in resolution of Committee, appropriating $1,300,000 for settlement and Government of N. W. Territories (Re-vote), which amendment provided that no Dominion funds should be expended for regaining, by force of arms, possession of the Territory, &c.

Hon. Mr. Dunkin moved, amendment to amendment, to refer the resolution back to Committee on Supply, for reconsideration with Message transmitting Supplementary Estimates for 1869-70, and with such estimates presently under reference to said Committee. Hon. Mr. Holton objected, that as this was a re-vote of last year, and the Committee of Supply had already before it a second message, accompanying the supplementary estimates, recommending a re-vote in another form, one or other must be withdrawn. Objection OVER-RULED: The House can know nothing of what goes on before the Committee of Supply until it reports. The resolution which is proposed to be referred back, may, or may not, be intended for the same sum of money as that in the Supplementary Estimates which have also been referred to same Committee. If two resolutions are reported for two distinct sums, the House can then refuse concurrence in one or other of them. Mr. Dunkin's amendment put and carried. Journal, pp. 339, 340.

22. Motion Over-ruled for Address on Prov. of Canada Debt.—6 March, 1871. Hon. Mr. Dorion moved that the House will, on Wednesday next, go into Committee, to consider certain resolutions, for an address to the Queen, for amendment of the B.N.A. Act, to assign the debt of the late Province of Canada entirely to the Dominion, &c.

The Speaker, concurring in an objection raised by Hon. Sir G. E. Cartier, OVER-RULED the motion, as conflicting with Sec. 54, of B.N.A. Act, which debars the House from any vote, address, &c., for appropriation of Revenue not first recommended by message. "The contention is that the proposed appropriation being beyond the power of the Parliament of Canada, this provision of the Statute cannot therefore apply. In its literal construction it does apply to the motion, and certainly it seems to me to the full as necessary in a constitutional sense," &c. Journal, p. 50.

23. Decisions on Motions—Address, Debt of the Prov. of Canada.—9 & 13 March, 1871. Hon. Mr. Dorion moved an address to the Queen, praying that the B.N.A. Act be amended, to authorize the Canadian Parliament to legislate on all questions connected with surplus debt of the late Province of Canada.

Hon. Sir G. E. Cartier moved an amendment, to the effect that the House refrains from expressing an opinion on the award rendered by the Arbitrators upon said debt.

Hon. Mr. Chauveau moved a second amendment, declaring that the House will give its most favorable consideration to any measure introduced by the Government, to arrange existing financial difficulties between Ontario and Quebec, "and involving any aid " on the part of the Dominion commensurate with the importance " of the object itself, and with our resources; due regard being had " to the rights of the other Provinces."

Mr. Mills (Bothwell) having objected to the latter motion, as involving an appropriation, and asking the House to commit itself to an expenditure of money, which cannot be done without a message from the Government, RULED: "That the said motion is out of order."

Hon. Mr. Holton moved an amendment to Sir G. E. Cartier's amendment, expressing the regret of the House that the Governor-General had not been advised to recommend the adoption of an address to the Queen, similar to that set forth in Mr. Dorion's original motion. House adjourned.

Previously to the House resuming consideration hereof, on March 13, the Speaker corrected the entry on the Journal of the foregoing RULING. "The motion was out of order, in my opinion, not " because it proposed an appropriation of public money within the " meaning of the 54th Section of the British North America Act, " and should have been preceded by Message, but because it " involved an increase to the Public Debt, and should therefore have " been first considered in Committee of the Whole.

"I am aware that it is doubted whether it is a correct rule of " Parliamentary practice that every abstract proposition which, if " acted on, would increase the Public Debt of the country, should " be first considered in Committee; but my opinion on the point " has been expressed on two or three occasions, and I shall so con- " tinue to decide unless the House should think proper to express a " contrary opinion. This rule, however, being self-imposed, may " be enforced or relaxed as the House shall determine. But the " constitutional rule contained in the 54th Section of the Imperial " Act is one that, being absolutely binding, should be neither ex- " tended nor restrained by implication, but should at all times be " most guardedly considered by the House."

This decision was ordered to be entered on the Journal. Mr. Holton's amendment was negatived, and Sir G. Cartier's carried. Journal, pp. 62 and 72.

24. Bill on Stamp Duties, simply Declaratory.—16 and 20 March, 1871. On second reading of Bill to remove doubts as to the liability to stamp duties of Premium Notes, taken or held by Mutual Fire Insurance Companies, Hon. L. H. Holton objected that,— under Section 54 of B. N. A. Act, the Bill must first be recommended by Message from the Crown, and also that it should have originated in Committee of the Whole. Decision reserved, and debate adjourned.

On March 20 the Speaker RULED:—"The Bill is to remove doubts; and declares that certain notes shall be deemed to be promissory notes within the meaning of the Act 31 Vic. Cap. 9, and shall be subject to the duties thereby imposed, and it provides that all such notes heretofore given and not stamped, shall be made valid by a double stamp.

"There being no appropriation of money proposed, there need be no recommendation from the Crown; and the objection rests on the ground that, as it involves an additional charge on the people, the Bill should have originated in Committee of the Whole, and should, moreover, have been proposed by a Minister.

"It appears to me that the Bill is merely declaratory, and that it involves no new charge except in so far as the double stamp duty may effect that purpose. On looking carefully at the 31st Vic. Cap. 9, I find by Section 7 that the Governor in Council may declare that any kind or class of instruments, as to which doubts exist, shall be chargeable with any and what duty under the Act; and by Sections 10, 11, and 12, provisions are enacted to render valid notes in the hands of innocent holders, and notes passed to third parties. The provision as to double stamps in the present Bill is merely an extension of the former Act in its remedial clauses to the class of notes here referred to, and which are now declared to be within that Act.

"The Bill is one which, therefore, in my opinion, may be properly introduced and proceeded with by a private Member.

"The question, generally, whether private members may introduce and proceed upon measures relating to taxation, which was discussed in the course of the argument, is one of very grave importance, and, though not needful to the decision of the present objections, I think it proper to say a few words upon it to the House. Instances may undoubtedly be found in the Journals of the English House of Commons, of Bills and Motions by private Members to increase taxation, some of which have passed unchallenged, whilst in other cases the indirect assent of a Minister has been deemed sufficient. Recently, however, in 1869, a high authority, Sir Thomas Erskine May, stated before a Joint Committee of the two Houses of Parliament, that 'no private Member is permitted to propose an Imperial tax upon the people; it must proceed from a Minister of the Crown, or be in some other form declared to be necessary for the public service.'

"I think the House may properly accept of this as the correct construction of the rules regulating the introduction of similar measures. The Motion or Bill should either be introduced by a Minister, or, if initiated by a private Member (a practice which should not be encouraged), a Minister should assume the responsibility of it by signifying the consent of the Government to its being entertained by the House.

"If the House agrees with me as to the desirability of adopting this constitutional restriction, it will become my duty to enforce the observance of the rule hereafter."

The Bill was then read and committed.—Journal, p.p. 96, 112.

25. Amendment Contrary to Previous Decisions.—22 & 23 March, 1871. The House having considered in Committee of the Whole, a Bill to amend the Acts relating to duties of customs, Hon. Sir F. Hincks moved that the Bill be read a third time to-morrow. The Hon. L. H. Holton moved, in amendment, that the Bill be now re-committed to a Committee of the Whole House, for the purpose of so amending the same as to repeal the duties on coal, coke, wheat and flour. Hon. Mr. Blanchet moved an amendment to amendment, adding the words, "and also salt, peas and beans, etc." This was agreed to on division. Then Mr. Colby moved, in further amendment, to substitute for Mr. Holton's amendment, as now amended, a resolution that: "It is inexpedient during the present Session of Parliament to make any alteration in the existing duties on coal, coke, wheat, flour, salt, peas and beans, barley, rye, oats, Indian corn, buckwheat, and all other grain, Indian meal, oatmeal and flour or meal of any other grain," inserted instead thereof;

Objection being taken by Mr. Holton, as it proposes to strike out certain words which the House has already decided shall form part of the question; RULED: "The point of order is well taken. It seems conclusively so by English authority, and there is good reason for it. The House has pronounced its decision upon the proposition that salt and other articles shall form part of the question to be submitted to the House, and now the House is asked to say that they shall be struck out of the question.

"This would be a contradiction and is clearly out of order."—Journal, pp. 131, 132.

26. Amendment Substantially Same as Original Motion, but Differing in Details.—23 & 27 March, 1871. Mr. Blake moved that the House do now resolve itself into a Committee, to consider the following resolutions: 1. Detailing the legislative action on which confederation was based. 2. Defining the provisions in the B.N.A.

Act for the admission of the N.W. Territories into the Union, 3, 4 & 5. Setting forth the measures already taken and proposed to be taken by the Imperial and Canadian Governments for the admission of said territories, and the cretion of part of them into the Province of Manitoba. And 6th, "That in the opinion of this House, the sense of both houses of the Parliament of Canada should be taken as to, and should form the basis of such proposed Legislation."

The Hon. Sir. G. E. Cartier moved, in amendment, six resolutions, the first five detailing Legislative and Governmental measures taken for establishing the Province of Manitoba, and 6th, "That the provisions of the said draft Act meet the approval of this House, and are in consonance with the will of this House, as expressed in the most formal manner in the said Act relating to Manitoba."

The Hon. A. A. Dorion moved, in amendment to the amendment, that, "Irrespective of the merits of the measures proposed by the Government of Canada to be submitted to the Imperial Parliament for the purpose of confirming certain Canadian Legislation depriving the Parliament of Canada of certain existing powers, and altering the British North America Act, 1867, this House would be wanting in its duty if it did not express its decided opinion that no such Imperial Legislation should be asked for by the Government of Canada, except after the details of such proposed Legislation shall have been submitted to both Houses of the Parliament of Canada for their judgment, and addresses of such Houses to the Queen, praying for such Legislation, shall have been passed."

Mr. Harrison objected to this amendment, as being, in effect, the same as the original motion. RULED: "The amendment is in order. It proposes to the House a resolution which is substantially the same as that involved in the original motion, but it omits a considerable matter of recital both of fact and law, and in that respect, I think, the proposition is one which the Honorable Member may propose as an amendment. He may say very properly, as he does say, that he has no desire to commit the House to the recitals which form a part of the original motion. I think the motion is therefore in order."

Mr. Dorion's amendment was then put and negatived, and that of Sir G. Cartier carried, on division.—Journal, pp. 136, 145

27. Bill Over ruled—Question Already Passed Upon.—3 April, 1871. A Bill respecting Insolvency having been passed and sent to Senate for concurrence, another Bill, introduced to repeal the Insolvency Laws, was objected to, and OVER-ruLED, on the ground that the House had already passed upon this question, and that no measure could be entertained at variance with the former one during the present Session.—Journal, p. 209.

28. Motion of Urgency—Without Notice—10 April, 1871. On motion for a Select Committee, to enquire into a charge made in the House, that Mr. Delorme, member for Provencher, had been concerned in the rebellion in the Hudson's Bay Territories, and implicated in the murder of Thomas Scott,—it was objected that previous notice of motion was required. The Speaker, after citing May on the subject, said:—"That it rested with the discretion of the House as to whether notice of this motion should be given or not. If the House believed that this was a case of such urgency that it should at once be entertained and disposed of, the House may say that the absence of notice should not bar progress in the matter, but on the other hand, the House may consider the matter of so grave a character as to require time for consideration. I think it rests with the House."

After statements, and amendments, the House, on division, passed to the Order of the Day.—Journal, p. 249.

29. Correspondence Respecting Damages Claim, Referred to a Committee.—10 April, 1871. Mr. Currier moved, that the Return to Address for copies of correspondence between the Department of Public Works and George Sterling respecting a claim for damages by the said Sterling, be referred to a Select Committee.

Mr. Speaker said, that his attention had already been called to this motion. He RULED: "That it does not appear to be objectionable to refer a claim of this nature to a Select Committee. Should their report recommend a payment of money, this House will refuse its concurrence, unless the recommendation from the Crown is announced by a Minister." Question put and motion negatived. Journal, p. 254.

30. Reply to Speech from Throne not a Decision on Special Questions.—11 April, 1871. On motion of Hon. Sir G. E. Cartier, to go into Committee, to consider a resolution, recommended by His Excellency, that the Pacific Railway should be a private, and not a Government work, and should be aided by land grant and subsidy. Mr. Mackenzie objected that the House had, during present session, passed upon a motion in terms similar thereto [by negativing an amendment proposed by Sir A. T. Galt (Sherbrooke) to motion for second reading of Address respecting admission of British Columbia. Journal, 202.] RULED: That if the two Resolutions which have been offered to the House—the Resolution of the Member for

Sherbrooke, and that of the Honorable Minister of Militia, were precisely the same, word for word, it would still be open to the House to consider the Motion of the Minister of Militia at this stage. The reason of that is this:—The Motion of the Honorable Member for Sherbrooke was offered, by way of amendment, as an alternative proposition to the House. The House had its option to adopt either the Main Motion, which was to read the Address a second time there and then, or to adopt the Motion of the Honorable Member for Sherbrooke, which was to postpone the reading of that Address to a future day, and to resolve certain things. The House, in negating the motion of the Honorable Member for Sherbrooke, has not passed upon the Resolution contained in that Motion. It has simply chosen to say, “we will now read the Address a second time, and we will not pass upon the Resolution, offered “by way of amendment, at the present time.”

I think we have only to consider the form used in the House of Commons in England in putting questions, to see what is the true effect of the vote on the Motion proposed by the Honorable Member for Sherbrooke. Had the Question been put as it would have been put in England, that all the words proposed to be omitted “stand part of the Question, that is, that the Main Motion “should be voted upon yea or nay.” The House would not appear to have passed upon the alternative proposition. But though we may vary our form of Question, our votes must have no different effect than if taken in the English House of Commons.

Therefore, according to my view, if the two Motions had been precisely the same, it would have been still open to the House now, to consider and pass upon the Motion of the Honorable the Minister of Militia. But there are, I observe, important variances between the two Motions. I would particularly allude to the one referred to by the Honorable Member for Sherbrooke, that his Motion proposed to pronounce an opinion upon the understanding of the two contracting parties, apart from, and irrespective of the written evidence altogether; this motion does not do that. With regard to the former Motion, the House might well hesitate in coming to a decision upon a Question so difficult to decide upon; whilst it may or may not hesitate about pronouncing upon its own future action, which is what is proposed by the present Motion. Therefore, for these reasons, I think the Motion is in order.”

The House went into Committee accordingly. Journal, p. 264.

31. Motion for instructions already possessed by Committee.—2 May, 1872. On motion into Committee on Bill to repeal Insolventy Laws, a motion to instruct Committee to except Ontario from its operation was OVER-RULED, as the Bill affected the Dominion, and the Committee had already the power asked for. Journal, p. 78.

32. Petition sent by Telegraph, refused.—3 May, 1872. A petition respecting Red River Claims, sent by telegraph from Manitoba, was presented by Hon A. Mackenzie. RULED: "This petition cannot be received, because there are no real signatures attached to it.

33. Bill repealing Insolvency Laws need not originate in Committee of Whole.—17 May, 1872. Third reading of Bill to repeal Insolvency Laws, objected to, the Bill not having originated in Committee of the Whole. Objection OVER-RULED, this Bill not imposing burthens, but repealing them. Moreover, it applies to traders, as individuals, not to Trade as a subject matter. Journal, p. 120.

34. Practical Amendment to an Abstract Motion.—27 May, 1872. On resuming adjourned debate on motion of Mr. Joly, to go into Committee for consideration of a resolution, that the Superannuation Fund should be entirely devoted to the relief of officials and their families, Mr. Jackson moved, in amendment, that it is inexpedient now to alter the Act, and that the subject should be considered by a new Parliament. Amendment objected to as having no relation to the original motion, but RULED in order, Mr. Joly's motion, though merely an abstract opinion, being expressed against the present system, and Mr Jackson's being a practical proposition, which might be adopted in lieu of the other, and pertinent to the subject of the main motion. The amendment was put and carried.—Journal, p. 166.

35. Bill Regulating Bonds—Does not Compound Debts with Government.—16th April, 1873. On motion for second reading of Bill extending provisions of Grand Trunk Act, 1862, so far as relates to certain preferential bonds, etc., Hon. Mr. Cauchon objected that it should have been introduced in Committee of the Whole, as its object was virtually to compound a debt due to the Government. Objection OVERRULED: "Compounding' is strictly the 'taking less than the thing that is due. That is not asked in this case."—Journal, p. 164.

35. Second Amendment to Motion into Committee of Supply.—2 May, 1873. On debates on amendment of motion to go into Committee of Supply, Hon. Mr. Tupper moved, a second amendment, which was objected to by Hon. Mr. Holton as out of order, and OVER-RULED. Journal, p. 262 (See also No. 56).

37. Amendment to an Amendment, Obliterating Original Motion. 8 May, 1873. On motion of Mr. Mackenzie, declaring it reprehenssible for Ministers or other servants of the Crown to use the powers of office in elections, and censuring Gilbert Griffin, Post Office Inspector, for a certain letter by him addressed to J. Rannie, Postmaster, Hon. Mr. Tupper moved in amendment, that the House proceed to the orders of the day. Mr. Joly moved a second amendment, declaring the advisability of so amending the Election Law as to disfranchise the whole Civil Service. Second amendment OVER-RULED: Mr. Tupper's amendment, if adopted, obliterates "the original motion, and no further amendment can be proposed "pending its consideration." Mr. Tupper's amendment put and carried.—Journal, p. 300.

38. Bill from Senate Imposing Burdens.—10 May, 1873. On third reading of Bill from Senate, respecting Inspection of Steamboats, Hon. Mr. Holton took notice that the Bill contained provisions which will be a burden on the people, when the House, by resolution, waived its privileges on this point. Journal, p. 319.

39. Motion not According to Notice.—12 May, 1873. On motion of Mr. Mackenzie to go into Committee on Resolution, that no person interested in the Pacific Railway "shall be capable of being elected to, or of sitting and voting in Parliament." Hon. Sir J. A. Macdonald objected that motion was not in accordance with notice given, which read "shall be eligible to be elected a member of this House." RULED:—"The objection is well taken." Mr. Mackenzie altered his motion accordingly. Journal, p. 326.

40. Reading Papers in House Relating to Matters before Committee.—15 May, 1873. Hon. Mr. Huntington moved, upon information of important documents, in reference to Pacific Railway charges under investigation by Select Committee, being in the hands of a Trustee, under such circumstances, that there is great danger of their being placed beyond the reach of the Committee before 2nd July next, to which date Committee is adjourned; that the Committee assemble to-morrow, and summon the Trustee to produce the documents. The mover proceeding to read certain letters and documents, Hon. Sir J. A. Macdonald objected thereto. RULED:—"The question of Order, as I understand it, is this:—Whether a Member in making a motion is to be permitted to read certain letters and papers which, it is said, will support that motion, and which relate to a charge referred on a previous occasion to a Select Committee for investigation. This is bringing into the House for discussion evidence that must come before that Committee in support of the charge. I do think, and I appeal to both sides of the House, that upon the point of Order, as well as upon the strong justice of the case, I am bound to rule that the Honorable Member cannot read those papers." The motion was then put and carried. Journal, p. 349.

41. Accusing Action of Crown as being "for a purpose."—3 Nov., 1873. In resumed debate upon the amendments proposed to the Address, in reply to the Speech from the Throne, which amendments expressed opinions upon the conduct of His Excellency's advisers, Mr. Mills made reference to the despatches from the Governor-General to the Imperial Government, submitted to the House by Message, "as being sent down for a purpose." Hon. Sir J. A. Macdonald objected, that no Member had a right to say that the Representative of the Sovereign sent down certain despatches for the purpose of influencing debate in this House. RULED;—"There is no doubt an Honorable Member may criticise the subject-matter of such despatches, but he should not say 'they were sent down for a purpose.'" Journal, p. 137.

SPEAKER—THE HON. T. W. ANGLIN.

42. Petition Rejected as an Election Petition.—20 April, 1874. On motion for reception of Petition of II La Boutillier, that Return for last Election for Gaspé be completed and amended, as a matter of privilege, by substituting the name of Petitioner, for that of L. G. Harper. Objection being taken, that the subject is one which could only come under the cognizance of the Courts of Law, as provided by Statute: RULED;—"I cannot find any rule or precedent to guide me in coming to a conclusion on this question. I think it would be well for the House to consider this matter, and lay down a rule with respect to similar Petitions in the future. I am of opinion that it is an Election Petition. Looking over the late English Journals, I cannot find any cases of Petitions of this nature having been ruled out. After considering all the circumstances, I think that the Petition ought not to be received." Journal, p. 82.

43. Trade—Bill on Banking.—30 April, 1874. On motion to introduce a Bill, amending the Acts relating to Banks and Banking, respecting liability of shareholders. Objection being taken that the Bill affects Trade, and should originate in Committee of the Whole. RULED;—"The Bill cannot proceed. Journal, p. 142.

44. Abstract Proposition, Affecting Expenditure, in Order.—11 May, 1874. On motion of Mr. Blain, for a Committee of Seven, to consider the feasibility of an Ontario and Huron Ship Canal, also declaring expediency of the appointment of a Commission to confer with the U.S. Transportation Committee for a similar purpose. Mr. Thompson (Haldimand) objected, that the motion involved

Public Expenditure in recommending appointment of Commissioners. Objection OVER-RULED:—"The motion was an abstract proposition such as could be regularly proposed by a Private Member. If it should pass, it would not necessarily bind the House in any way." Question was again proposed, debated, and finally withdrawn.—Journal, p. 214.

45. Motion of Concurrence in an Improper Report of Committee.—11 May, 1874. On motion of Mr. Bunster, that the House doth concur in report of Select Committee, appointed to enquire into the way in which British Columbia is affected by the present tariff; objection being taken that the motion asked for concurrence in a Report which ought not to have been received by the House. RULED:—"That the objection was well taken. The Report was clearly out of order, inasmuch as it recommended the enactment of a special tariff, which could only be originated with the sanction of the Crown, and in a Committee of the Whole."—Journal, p. 216.

46. Improper Tariff Amendment.—15 May, 1874. On third reading of Bill amending the Tariff, an amendment moved by Mr. Ryan, that the Bill be re-committed, with a view of substituting ad valorem for specific duties on tea and coffee, was objected to and OVER-RULED (on the ground that it might involve an increase of the public burthen).—Journal, p. 243.

47. Committee Cannot Embody Reports of Previous Committees.—20 May, 1874. Mr. Orton, having moved that the House doth concur in the Second Report of Select Committee upon the Agricultural Interests, Hon. Mr. Mackenzie objected that it is not competent for a Special Committee to embody in its report the opinions of a similar Committee appointed in a previous Session. RULED: "My attention has been directed to this subject, and I have come to the conclusion that the motion is decidedly out of order. It is laid down distinctly by May: 'A Committee re-appointed cannot report the evidence taken before the Committee in the previous Session.' This I find has been done in the Report now before the House: 'The Committee having carefully examined the result of the labors of a former Committee on the subject of Agriculture, find that much valuable information had been obtained directly from the farmers and millers of the country, &c. The substance of which information as obtained from a draft Report of a former Committee, the present Committee beg to embody in the Report which they now have the honor to submit';—consequently the Report, and the motion founded upon it, are out of order."—Journal, p. 282.

48. Motion to Change Destination of Grant Recommended by Message.—26 Feb., 1875. On consideration of Resolutions reported from Committee of Supply, Mr. Masson moved, in amendment to the vote for Mennonite Immigration, that a part thereof be assigned to inducing Canadians in the United States to settle in Manitoba. OVER-RULED, it not being competent for the Hon. Member to move to change the destination of the grant recommended by the Crown.—Journal, p. 140.

49. Petition Cannot be Referred to Committee till Called.—8 March, 1875. On motion of concurrence in 1st Report of Select Stand. Com. on Pub. Acets., Mr. Domville moved to refer a certain petition to said Committee. Objection being taken to this motion, as one now on the notice paper and undisposed of, it was OVER-RULED until it was called.—Journal, p. 177.

50. Petitions Refused—Exemptions from Duty.—22nd, 24th, 27th March, 1875.—Presentation of Petitions for the passing of Acts to authorize Commissioner of Customs to exempt certain rolling stock from duty, OVER-RULED, as involving a public charge, and not being recommended by the Crown.—Journal, p.p. 260, 269, 287.—9 March, 1874. A Resolution, declaring opinion of the House that the Welland Canal should be enlarged; similarly OVER-RULED.—Journal, p. 191. (See also No. 6.)

51. Motions Conflicting with Previous Decisions.—11 March, 1875. In the resumed debate upon the motion for an Address to the Queen, upon the New Brunswick Schools question, two amendments (Messrs. Baby and Costigan) were OVER-RULED, on the ground that they conflicted with resolutions just affirmed by the House. Journal, pp. 200, 203.

52. Northern Railway Bill not a Public Bill. 12 March, 1875. Hon. Mr. Markenzie having moved the introduction of a Bill to re-arrange the capital of the Northern Railway Co., to enable it to change its gauge, &c., objection was taken that some of the provisions of the Bill were of a private nature, and should be dealt with under the Rules. RULED: The Bill cannot be introduced as a Public Bill. Bill withdrawn. Journal, p. 213.

53. Amendments to Clauses of Bills in Committee.—1 April, 1875. The Committee of the Whole, on Bill to amend the General Railway Acts, reported for instructions, whether a member might move an addition to the 4th section, to provide that all supplies for Government Railways, for a greater amount than $1,000, should be purchased only upon public tender and contract. It being objected—1st, it was not relevant to the Bill, and could not properly be moved in the Committee; 2nd, it imposed a burthen, and should have been first originated by a resolution in a Committee of the Whole. RULED: "1. There is no doubt that it is perfectly legitimate to make, in Committee, any amendment to a clause, provided that it is relevant to the subject-matter of a Bill, or pursuant to instructions; but if any such amendment shall not be within the Title of the Bill, then the Committee must amend the Title accordingly. 2. The clause, if added to the Bill, will be actually restrictive of the expenditure of public money, and will not tend in any way to increase the public burthens. The amendment is in order." Committee resumed. Journal, p. 327.

54. Abstract Motion Respecting Tariff Allowed.—18th February, 1876. On adjourned Debate, on motion of Mr. Mills, for appointment of a Committee upon the present financial depression, Mr. DeCosmos moved in amendment, that the early revision of the Tariff is very desirable; and that a revised discriminative Tariff would be productive of great benefit, &c. Objection being taken that the amendment involved the imposition of a burthen upon the people, RULED: That being an abstract proposition, and barren of results, it was in order. Journal, p. 69.

55. Motion Affecting Privilege, Unimportant.—28 February, 1876. The Motion of Mr. Masson, to concur in Report of Select Committee on reporting and printing of debates, was not allowed to be put without previous notice, not being considered sufficiently important to be treated as a matter of privilege; but on March 2nd, on which day it appeared on the notice paper, it was allowed to take precedence, when Notices of Motions were reached. Journal, pp. 87, 93.

56. Second Amendment on Motion into C. of Supply.—29 February, 1876. Mr. Workman's motion in favor of Protection was OVER-RULED as irregular, being in amendment of an amendment by Mr. Irving, to the motion that the Speaker leave the Chair for the House in the Committee of Supply. Journal, p. 89. (See also No. 36.)

57. Bill, Examination of Engineers, Relates to Trade.—8 March, 1876. On resuming debate, the motion for second reading of Bill providing for Examining and Licensing Engineers employed elsewhere than on steamboats was OVER-RULED, because: 1. The Bill related to Trade, and should have originated in Com. of Whole. 2. It imposed penalties and exacted a fee, which could only be done with consent of Crown. Journal, p. 119.

58. Amendment Irrelevant to Motion.—7th April, 1876. Two Resolutions reported from Committee of Supply; 1, Grant for expenses of Pacific Railway; 2, Expenses of its Survey. Res. 1 was, with an amendment, adopted. Res. 2 being read, Mr. Plumb moved, in amendment, an addition, recommending the construction of the Railway as speedily as practicable. Objected to, and OVERRULED, as irrelevant to the Resolution under consideration. Mr. Plumb then moved an amendment, recommending the surveys being proceeded with, which motion was put and lost on division. Journal, p. 286.

59. A Member cannot Adjourn a Debate following his own Motion.—February 12th, 1877. Mr. John Macdonald (Toronto), having moved for the reading of prayers daily, on the Speaker taking the Chair, a debate ensued.

Mr. John Macdonald—"I beg to move the adjournment of the debate."

Mr. Speaker—"The Hon. Gentleman cannot, under the circumstances, move the adjournment of a debate on his own motion."
Mr. Holton then moved the necessary resolution.

*Manitoba (1870), British Columbia (1871), and Prince Edward Island (1873) have all been admitted to the Union, but there is no authoritative arrangement as regards precedence. The North West Territories have also (1875) been organized into a Province with a Lieutenant-Governor and an Executive Council appointed by the Crown.

Table of Titles.

Governor General of Canada to be styled "His Excellency."

The Lieutenant-Governor of each Province to be styled "His Honour."

Privy Councillors of Canada to be styled "Honourable" and for life.

Senators of Canada to be "Honourable," but only during office, and the title not to be continued afterwards.

Legislative Councillors in the Provinces not in future to have that title; but gentlemen who were Legislative Councillors at the time of the Union (July 1, 1867) to retain their title of "Honourable" for life.

[Mem.—The title, though without precise warrant, has generally been conceded to the Legislative Councillors apptd. at the time of the Union, as well as to their colleagues who had previously been Councillors.]

By a mere lapsus pennæ the Speaker of the House of Commons was omitted from this list—an omission, we believe, not yet rectified, though usage—which becomes law where none exists opposed to or superseding it—has always conceded the title to him.

posed to the appointment of Senators for life by the administration, and desires their selection for a term of years by the Provinces; thinking that the future of Canada depends very largely on the development of the great North-west, advocates the construction, as rapidly as the resources of the country will permit, of the sections of the Pacific Railway necessary for communication between that country and our interior seaboard, in conjunction with an extensive scheme of exploration and colonization; believes that the cultivation of a national spirit is requisite to the success of the Union; that the present form of connection between England and Canada does not possess the element of permanence; that as the child grows into the man, so the State will come to maturity, and that (notwithstanding the enormous difficulties which surround the scheme), there is a possibility and hope of reorganizing the Empire on a Federal basis, so as to reconcile British connection with British freedom."—Cor. of Metcalfe and Maria Sts., Ottawa; 84 Grosvenor St., Toronto; National Club; Toronto Club; Rideau Club.

Is Presdt. of the Isolated Risk and Farmers' Fire Insurance Co.; and a Commr, ex officio, to assist Mr. Speaker in the management of the interior economy of the House of Commons. Was Major 27th "Lambton" Batt. of V.I., for some years up to Oct., 1874, when he resigned. Was a mem. of the Ex. Council and Treasurer of Ont. (in Mr. Blake's Administration), from 21 Dec., 1871, until Oct., 1872, when he retired with Mr. Blake for the purpose of confining themselves entirely to Dominion politics. Declined a seat in the Can. Cabinet, on the occasion of the retirement of Mr. Brown, 1865. Was leader of Ontario Reform Opposition in House of Commons from the Union until 1873, when elected Leader of the whole Opposition party, and continued in that position until 5th Nov., 1873, when, owing to the resignation of Sir John Macdonald, he was called on to form a new Administration, a duty he succeeded in accomplishing on the 7th of the same month, when he and his colleagues were sworn of the Privy Council, he (Mr. M.) taking the office of Minister of Public Works. (Salary, $8,000.) Proceeded to the Mother Country on public business, June, 1875, and while there was presented with the Freedom of Irvine, Dundee and Perth, and visited Her Majesty at Windsor Castle. Sat for present seat in Can. Assembly from 1861 until the Union. Returned to Commons at g.e., 1867, and at g.e., 1872; re-elected by acclamation on his apptd. to office, and again at last g.e. Represented West Middlesex in Local House, from g.e., 1871 until Oct., 1872, when he resigned. Several important measures owe their existence to Mr. M., as a private member, viz—the Act amending the Assessment Act of U.C. (1863); that consolidating and amending the acts relating to the Assessment of Property, U.C. (1866); and the highly useful measure for providing means of egress from Public Buildings (1866). As Chairman of Committee on Municipal and Assessment laws (1866), wrote and framed the greater part of the General Act on Municipal Corporations, &c. All the measures of his Government, including the enactment of a stringent election law, with the trial of election petitions by judges, and vote by ballot; the abolition of the real estate qualification of members; the inspection of produce and weights and measures; the better administration of Penitentiaries; the enactment of the Marine Telegraph law, which virtually abolishes the monopoly of the Cable Company; the establishment of a Dominion Military College, and the improvement of the militia system; the enlargement of the Canals; the permanent organization of the Civil Service; the establishment of a Supreme Court for the Dominion; the reduction of postage to and from the U.S.; the free delivery of postal matter in cities and towns; the opening of direct mail communication with the West Indies; the construction of a transcontinental telegraph line; the better administration of Government Railways; an improved copyright law; the adoption of a final route for the Pacific Railway; the opening of negotiations, conducted on our behalf by our own delegate in person, between Can. and the U.S. for the establishment of an equitable Reciprocity Treaty between the two countries; a new insolvent law; and the establishment of a territorial government for the great North-West, have all been more or less moulded and directed by him. In addition, two very important questions, which for some time agitated the public mind and threatened the gravest complications—the Manitoba Amnesty and the New Brunswick school questions—have been satisfactorily adjusted, during Mr. M.'s administration. A Liberal; and “has always held those political principles—which by some in England may be considered peculiar—of the universal brotherhood of man, no matter in what rank of life he may have taken his origin. Has believed, and now believes, in the extinction of all class legislation, and of all legislation that tends to promote any body of men, or class of men, for the mere fact of their belonging to a body or class, to a higher position politically than any other class in the country. In our great colonies, while no fault is found with the political organization of the Mother Country, or of any other country, we take our stand simply and completely on the ground that every man is equal in the eye of the law, and has the same opportunity, by exercising the talents with which God has blessed him, of rising in the world, in the confidence of his fellow-citizens—one man quite as much as another. Believes thoroughly in party government and that it is utterly impossible to conduct the Govt. of a new country without it. Sees no reason to doubt that the policy which has always been held by the Liberal party, and which the present Administration are endeavouring to carry out, is one that will ultimately and at no distant day bring about that political peace which will enable us to discuss politics in a respectable way without being forced to discuss Pacific Scandals and things of that sort, will bring into harmonious action all sections of the Dominion, enable every Canadian to be proud to speak of himself as a Canadian, and will promote the cultivation of a broad national spirit which must be cultivated if we are to become a great people on this continent. While an earnest advocate and upholder of the present connection with the Mother Country, he will always endeavour to maintain Canadian rights and to bring Canada into prominence in the eyes of the world.”—190, Wellington St., Ottawa; Sarnia, Ont.; Rideau Club.

MILLS, DAVID, L.L.B. (Bothwell.)

Family, which came from near Plymouth, Eng., proceeded to Holland in the time of Charles I., thence to New Eng. with the Puritans, and the descendants removed to N.S. at the time of the Am. revolution. S. of Nathaniel Mills, who removed from N.S. to Can., 1817. B. in the Tp. of Orford, Kent, Ont., 18 March, 1831. Graduated at Michigan University. M., Dec., 1860, Miss M. J. Brown. Was Supdt. of Schools for Co. of Kent from April, 1856, to April, 1865. Was employed by Ont. Govt. to define the North Western boundary of the Province, 1872. [See Report on that subject.] Author of a pamphlet on The Present and Future Political Aspects of Canada [1869]; and another on The Blunders of the Dominion Government in connection with the North-West Territory [1871]. Elected mem. of the Council of Public Instruction for Ont. [representing the School Inspectors] Aug., 1875. An unsuccessful candidate for a seat in the Council of Public Instruction, Ont., 1874. First returned to Parlt., for present seat, at g.e., 1867; re-elected at g.e., 1872, and at last g.e. Sworn in as Minister of Interior [vice Laird] October, 1876. An advanced Liberal. Favors the amendment of the Constitution so as to provide for the election of the Senate; for the appointment of Provincial Judges by the Provincial Executives, and the complete separation of Provincial and Federal jurisprudence. Was opposed to admission of British Columbia into the Union as premature, and the terms of Union as preposterous. He was of opinion that with more than two thousand miles of unsettled territory between the Upper Ottawa and British Columbia, we were not in a position to undertake the responsibilities of governing the country upon the Pacific coast. He held that railway construction, if needed in British Columbia, was a work to be undertaken by Imperial rather than by Canadian authority. He was opposed to pledging Canada to the construction of a continuous line of Railway to the Pacific, as wholly beyond the resources of this country. He denies that there ever can be a through traffic of Asiatic or European products over the road of any consequence, and that no engagement yet made with British Columbia looking to the completion of the road can be fulfilled. He holds that since the Northern Pacific Railway has been built to the banks of the Red River of the North, that the Eastern terminus of the Canadian road ought to have been at Pembina. He holds that railway travel and traffic are not in any way affected by political boundaries, and that by utilizing the Northern Pacific we would have made it dependent upon the continuance of our trade over it to and from the North-West. Favors the government of Canada by the Canadian Parlt., and not by despatches from the Colonial Office. In favor of the establishment of Canadian Courts having Admiralty jurisdiction. Holds that power to legislate upon the subjects of navigation and shipping carries with it power to establish Courts to adjudicate upon matters arising under such legislation, in accordance with the well-settled rules of maritime law. Favors a national policy, based not upon principles of commercial exclusion, but upon principles of commercial extension. Thinks Canada has outgrown the condition of an ordinary colony. She has commercial relations with Foreign States, in which she alone is interested, and which she alone ought to regulate and control on her own behalf. Is opposed to the People's representatives abdicating their functions, either by failing to maintain an effective control over the expenditure of the national resources, or by surrendering to the Crown and Privy Council an important part of their legislative functions. Does not regard an enormous public debt as a national blessing; and believes that the prosperity of the country is to be promoted by habits of economy among the people, by encouraging a feeling of self-reliance and personal independence, and by fostering a spirit of patriotism—not flunkeyism—by which the interests, the prosperity, and the honor of Canada are made the paramount duty of her representatives, and not upon gigantic and costly works, built in wild and uninhabitable regions. Considers the present state as one of transition; and regards the Confederation of the Empire, for certain specified purposes, as the most satisfactory solution of our political future.—Palmyra, Ont.

ABOLITION OF THE LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL.

Up to January, 1876, the Province of Manitoba had an upper chamber or Legislative Council; but the political machinery for so sparsely populated a Province, was considered altogether too cumbersome, and upon Financial Delegations conferring with the Dominion Govt., an arrangement was entered into in 1875, that the Provincial Govt. should endeavor on condition of the annual subsidy to Manitoba being increased to $100,000, to simplify legislation by abolishing the second chamber. The minority, to meet the views of which the Legislative Council had presumably guaranteed, gracefully yielded to the generally expressed desire, and the abolition motion was carried on the following division:—

Vote on the Second Reading of the Bill, 26 Jan., 1876:—

YEAS: Messrs. Brown, Bourke, Bird, Cornish, Cowan, Chonier, Davis, Dick, Girard, Gunn, Luxton, Lemay, Lepine, Murray, McKay, McKenzie, Norquay, Nolin, Royal, Taylor—20.

ADVANTAGES

SETTLERS

PROVINCE OF QUEBEC,

The Lieutenant Governor in Council may authorize the Commissioner of Agriculture and Public Works to cause a certain number of lots, of one hundred acres each, to be prepared, in townships to be designated by the Lieutenant Governor in Council, to be offered to Canadians from the United States, to European immigrants, and to inhabitants of the Province desirous of settling, and who appear to him to be in a position to succeed as settlers.

The preparation of such lots shall consist in the clearing of four acres in readiness for sowing, and in the construction of a dwelling house of not less than sixteen feet by twenty, and such works shall be, as far as possible, performed by the settlers for whom such lots are intended.

The cost of such work, including the price of the land, shall in no case exceed the sum of two hundred dollars for each lot, and by order of the Lieutenant Governor in Council, the Commissioner of Agriculture and Public Works shall authorize the payment of the said work, from and out of the "Colonization Fund," hereby established.

The price of each of such lots shall be payable in the usual manner, that is to say: one-fifth on taking the location ticket, and the balance in four consecutive annual payments, with interest from the day of the issue of the location ticket.

The cost of the improvements shall be payable in five other consecutive yearly payments, which shall become exigible successively, after the complete falling due of the price of the land, without interest, until maturity of each payment.

The settler who may wish to establish himself in one of the districts where the above mentioned advantages are offered, will have the option of doing himself on his lot the four acres of clearance, and of building himself a house of not less than sixteen feet by twenty. In such case, the settler shall receive, as an advance, the price of these improvements when they shall have been executed to the satisfaction of the Commissioner of Agriculture and Public Works, at the price fixed by him; this advance shall be paid in five yearly instalments, which will become exigible successively after the price of the land shall have completely fallen due.

To be entitled to any lot so prepared, or to receive the advance by clearing himself his lot, the settler must be at least eighteen years of age, possess the qualifications required to succeed as a settler, and not be proprietor of landed property in the Province.

Letters-patent for the lots so prepared shall not be granted until the price of the land and the cost of improvements, or the amount advanced in lieu thereof, shall have been both fully paid, nor until the settler shall have cleared, and in maintaining, in a state of cultivation, at least fifteen acres of his lot.

A Colony has already been established under this act in the Townships of Ditton, Chesham and Emberton, County of Compton. Another is intended to be established in Timiscouata, a block of land in the Townships of Demers, Hocquart and Raudot has been set apart for the purpose.
