WONG JOY DECIDES COWPER NOT GUILTY

EDITOR ACTS AS OWN COUNSEL AT WONG HEARING

J. S. Cowper in Vancouver To-day Freed of Charge of Kidnapping Wong, But Tried on Counts of Confining and Assaulting Chinese.

Vancouver, Nov. 10—The jury returned a verdict of not guilty at 3 p.m. in the case of J. S. Cowper, charged with complicity in the abduction of Wong Foon Sing.

Vancouver, Nov. 10—Acting as his own counsel, John Sedgewick Cowper, editor of The Vancouver Weekly Tribune, who was arraigned in the assize court here to-day on charges arising out of the abduction on March 20 of Wong Foon Sing, Chinese, at the conclusion of the crown's case succeeded in having dismissed one count in the indictment, charging him with kidnapping the Chinaman.

Mr. Justice D. A. McDonald refused the defence motion to dismiss other charges and held sufficient evidence had been adduced by the prosecution to justify the case going to the jury on charges of unlawfully confining and assaulting Wong.

In addition to Wong Foon Sing, Verity W. Norton and William Robinson, C. W. Craig, K.C., Crown prosecutor, called William Hill, deputy official court reporter, who read to the jury from his shorthand notes the evidence Cowper had given on cross-examination at the trial of Oscar B. V. Robinson and William Robinson.

Neither Hon. A. M. Mason nor M. P. Jackson, K.C., was present in court to-day.

PLEADS NOT GUILTY After Cowper was arraigned and pleaded not guilty, Mr. Justice McDonald inquired from Mr. Craig whether the crown intended to proceed on the charges recited in the indictment.

Crown counsel offered to strike out the assault charge, as had been done at the Robinson trial, but the judge said he was making no suggestions and the trial of Cowper proceeded therefore on the indictment without alteration.

JUROR CHALLENGED The only juror challenged by Cowper was W. E. Beveridge, who was foreman of the jury which heard the Robinson trial. Three jurors were stood aside by the prosecution.

Cowper drew attention to the fairness of the crown in bringing on his trial on short notice. He said he had been told the Point Grey police officials would be tried to-day.

"If you had moved for an adjournment before the jury was sworn I would have considered it on its merits," replied his lordship. "But it is too late now."

JURORS EXCUSED Jurors not empanelled were excused until 2 1/2. The trial was a possibility of the trial of Point Grey officials would open.

"I only discovered yesterday that prisoner was not represented by counsel, and I called him up myself," concluded on page 2.

M.P.'S ARE TO BE GAZETED SATURDAY

First Group of Names of Newly Elected Members to Appear Then

Ottawa, Nov. 10 (Canadian Press)—From now on till the opening of Parliament there will be a hurrying up of public business. Estimates have to be prepared, and considered first by the Treasury Board and then by the Cabinet, before they can be submitted to the House.

Department reports and any necessary legislation will have to be put under way. But the first question at issue will be the test of strength. For that both Liberals and Conservatives are preparing. Probably it will come on the address, but how and in what form still remains to be determined.

ONE BY ELECTION Premier King has intimated that outside of Bagot, Quebec, there probably will be no by-elections until the question of majority control of the House has been definitely settled.

It was held here that Premier King be unable to speak in the debate on the vote in the crucial division, but that he can not well secure election until Parliament has probably been sitting for several weeks.

LAPORTE LEADER In that interval, Hon. Ernest Lapointe, Minister of Justice, probably will be acting Liberal leader in the House. But there has not been any official decision. Mr. Lapointe meanwhile has left for a few days' rest at Atlantic City.

SEVERE EARTHQUAKE WAS RECORDED HERE

Disturbance This Morning Probably Centred in Japan Region, Says Denison

Instruments at Fordham University, N.Y., Also Registered the Tremors

A severe earthquake was recorded on the instruments at the Geonolas Heights Observatory this morning. The first tremors were recorded at 6.07 o'clock, the maximum wave being reached at 6.13 o'clock, and the four hours later. Superintendent Denison computes the distance as about 5,000 miles, with the centre probably in the region of Japan.

New York, Nov. 10—One of most severe earthquakes of the year was recorded to-day at Fordham University. The exact distance of the disturbance was not given, but experts at the university said its centre was more than 5,000 miles from New York.

The first tremors were recorded at 6.07 a.m. and a maximum disturbance was reached at 6.13 o'clock, continuing at its height for twenty minutes. The whole shock lasted for more than an hour, being in progress when the record was removed.

NO CHANCE FOR PEACE RIVER EXTENSION OF P.G.E. NOW: EXPERT CONDEMNS PROPOSAL

While the Provincial Legislature may decide at its present session to complete the Pacific Great Eastern Railway to Prince George and North Vancouver it is practically certain now that it will not entertain the idea of building the Government-owned line into the Peace River country—a project which would cost $20,000,000 or more.

The hands of those opposed to the Peace River extension are strengthened by expert advice which strongly condemns the proposal. Members who have interested themselves in the railway problem have been looking over railway reports written by three experts for the Government. These condemn the Peace River extension in vigorous terms.

J. G. Sullivan, chief expert to investigate the future of the P.G.E., declared emphatically: "Under no consideration, as conditions are at present, should the company undertake any construction north of the Grand Trunk Pacific."

First, because there is no development to justify the building of such lines; and, second, if such lines were built, the Pacific Great Eastern Railway would not get the business.

It is in a lengthy discussion of the situation Mr. Sullivan warns the Government that a railway built into the Peace River country from Prince George, while it might open up big agricultural resources, would not benefit the present P.G.E. line to any large extent.

THE PEACE RIVER COUNTRY, he says, would go to tide-water by the shortest possible route, that is to Prince Rupert over the Canadian National line from Prince George, and not along the P.G.E. to Vancouver.

NICARAGUA FACTIONS REPORTED IN CLASHES

Vice-President Sacasa Opposing Chamorro Leader of Recent Revolution

Washington, Nov. 10—Private advice received here indicate revolutionary activity has again broken out in Nicaragua.

Dr. Juan Bautista Sacasa, Vice-President of Nicaragua, a Liberal in politics and opposed to General Chamorro, leader of the recent revolution, has arrived at La Union Salvador.

Other reports say the Conservative troops directed by Chamorro's son, the Liberal stronghold and the residence of Dr. Sacasa.

It was held here that Dr. Sacasa's flight indicated he expected to assume the presidency if President Solorzano should resign at the convening of Congress in December.

Tribute of Silence Asked by Mayor in Honor of Heroes

Confident that citizens will unanimously tender a tribute of respect to the memory of those who fell in the Great War, Mayor Pendray has issued a request that the two minutes "Tribute of Silence" be generally observed at 11 o'clock to-morrow morning, by suspension of all activity in factories, stores, homes and on the streets.

GOVERNMENT GIVES BUSINESSMEN LITTLE HOPE OF ABOLITION OF SUCCESSION TAXES IN B.C. NOW

When British Columbia business men came before the Government to-day with the request that succession taxation in British Columbia be abolished so as to attract capital into the Province they were told by Hon. J. D. MacLean, Minister of Finance, that their ideas were of extremely "debatable wisdom."

NOT CONVINCED "When you suggest abolition of this tax," the Finance Minister warned, "you are entering a field very debatable as to its wisdom. You say also that were the tax abolished, more people would come to the Province and invest capital here."

Dr. MacLean stated that his department in reference to the succession duty law was endeavoring to make the tax "more palatable."

MEETING OBJECTIONS Some of the objections to the present succession duty law, Dr. MacLean affirmed, already were being met by the Government in the course of its administration.

While assuring that succession duties at present levied in British Columbia keep out capital the department, through Mr. E. Payne, secretary of the Vancouver Board of Commerce, submitted a memorandum proposing alterations in the present taxation laws.

In reference to income tax the delegation asked that interest paid on debentures may be deducted in arriving at the sum on which the tax shall be calculated, the same as tax shall be adopted by the Dominion Government.

Two amendments to the Succession Duty Act of an estate for calculating tax be the net value within the Province, and second, that rebate be allowed on duties paid in other provinces, or any British dominion.

COMMUNIST PLOT TO KILL KING OF RUMANIA FAILS

Troops Capture Band of Extremists Lying in Wait to Kill Ferdinand on Highway; As Result of Reports of Fascist Outbreaks in Trieste People in Several Yugoslav Towns Burn Italian Flags and Make Other Demonstrations; Italian Government Demands Satisfaction.

The Balkan region of Europe occupied a prominent place in the news to-day with reports of the frustration of a Communist attempt to murder King Ferdinand of Rumania and Yugoslav-Italian incidents in which citizens of several towns in Yugoslavia invaded Italian consulates and burned flags, looted stores and beat Italians, a demand of Rome for satisfaction from the Belgrade Government being the result.

The attempt on King Ferdinand's life was reported in the following dispatch: Vienna, Nov. 10—A communist attempt to assassinate King Ferdinand of Rumania has been thwarted.

Lying in wait at a country inn for the king to return from hunting, a band of communists was captured by troops after refusing to surrender with revolvers and hand grenades yesterday. Advice to-day from Galatz, Rumania, described the affair.

One soldier and one gendarme were wounded. VIENNA, Nov. 10—In retaliation for alleged Fascist excesses against the Yugoslav consulate and the Slavonian newspaper Edinostuj in Trieste, Yugoslavians in several cities have carried out reprisals against Italians. Consulates were attacked, stores demolished and flags burned or dragged through muddy streets.

CONSULATES INVADED In Belgrade, capital of Yugoslavia, anti-Italian demonstrators, among them numerous students, invaded the precincts of the Italian consulate, secured the consulate flag and burned it, and later in Galatz, Rumania, destroyed another flag they had captured.

Italian stores in Spalato were raided and wrecked and their owners beaten by a mob. Croatian students in Agram held the Italian consulate under siege for twelve hours after they had broken into it and captured its flag, which they dragged through the mud and later burned.

DEMAND BY ITALY Rome, Nov. 10—The Italian Government has asked "fitting satisfaction" from the Yugoslav Government for Sunday's anti-Italian demonstration which resulted in the destruction of Italian flags in various cities of the country.

PRECAUTIONS TAKEN Belgrade, Yugoslavia, Nov. 10—The Yugoslav authorities are taking every precaution to prevent further anti-Italian demonstrations such as those which occurred throughout the country Sunday. A great mass meeting called for Thursday at Agram has been forbidden.

Foreign Minister Nincicheli was received by the king after an interview yesterday with the Italian Minister, General Brodero, who protested against the burning of Italian flags during the demonstrations in Ljubka, Spalato, Agram and Belgrade.

QUESTIONS ASKED The Foreign Minister faced interpellations in the Skupstina (National Assembly) to-day on the subject of the Fascist treatment of the Yugoslav minority population in Trieste, which caused Sunday's outbreaks.

The Fascist are alleged to have attacked the Yugoslav consulate in Trieste and also the officers of the Slavonian newspaper Edinostuj, which had characterized Italian accounts of plots against the life of Premier Mussolini as pure inventions.

PROGRESSIVE WON PROVENCHER SEAT

Winnipeg, Nov. 10.—A. L. Beaubien, Progressive, was elected in the Federal constituency of Provencher, Manitoba, by a majority of eighty, according to an official announcement made last night by A. Herbert, returning officer for the constituency.

Results from Provencher were slow in coming in and a great many mistakes were made in the transmission of the voting figures. Mr. Beaubien was first declared elected, then his Liberal opponent. Both candidates demanded the recount. Edward Comeault was the Liberal candidate. With the election of Mr. Beaubien the Progressives split even with the Conservatives for representation from Manitoba in the Federal House. Each of those parties carried seven seats, while the Liberals have one and Labor two.

$75,000 FIRE SEEN IN VANCOUVER TO-DAY

Old City Market Building Destroyed; Five Firms Suffered Losses

Vancouver, Nov. 10.—Damage estimated at $75,000 was caused when the old City Market here, occupied by a number of small business firms since the inauguration of a curb market two years ago, was destroyed in a spectacular fire early this morning.

Fanned by a strong wind from the east, the blaze for a time was a menace to other properties fringing the eastern border of the False Creek industrial area. A general alarm was sounded and by efficient firefighting the progress of the flames were confined to the structure in which they had originated.

FIRMS SUFFERED LOSSES
Five companies suffered losses of varying amounts in the blaze, but no check has yet been made of the individual damage to stocks.

The large wooden structure proved a veritable torch for the flames, which were rising high from the roof a few minutes after the outbreak was discovered at 2.30 a.m.

The cause of the blaze has not been determined.

SHAWNIGAN WOMEN TOLD OF CONVENTION

Report Presented at Monthly Meeting of Institute

Special to The Times

Shawnigan Lake, Nov. 10.—The regular monthly meeting of the Shawnigan Women's Institute was held in the Shawnigan Lake Amateur Athletic Hall, Thursday. There was a good attendance of members. The main feature of the meeting was to receive the report of the delegates to the conference of institutes held recently in Victoria.

Mrs. A. E. Wheelton, the official delegate gave a very comprehensive and interesting report. She wishes more members were able to attend. Attendance at these annual meetings could not fail to give a fresh impetus to efforts in institute work. It was an inspiration to hear how much work small and newer institutes were doing under disadvantageous and discouraging conditions, creating real interest in the lives of women who live at remote distances from the towns and cities.

Mrs. Mason Hurley supplemented the report touching upon some of the resolutions passed, particularly the rural school situation. Favoring the recommendation of the educational survey for a three-year junior high school, she also determined effort for consolidation and a fairer method of school taxation. The speaker dealt also with old-age pensions and health insurance, both of which were heartily endorsed. The meeting declined to continue the practice of supplying hot cocoa at the noon hour to the public school children. The half-hour each week devoted to sewing instruction at the public school is meeting with great success. Miss E. M. Dee, teacher of the second division, has charge, and is doing good work. Tea was served, and a profitable afternoon was spent.

PUBLIC LIBRARY
The monthly meeting of the public library board was held in the library on Saturday. The secretary reported good progress made. The number of books issued during the month were 608. The treasurer reported the finances in good shape, there being a balance in hand, seventy-two subscribers are now enrolled. The librarian reported that the books loaned by the Victoria public library are due to be exchanged on November 14, and desired to return before that date. J. Foreman of Victoria donated six months' issues of Blackwood and a copy of the Geological Survey Report No. 124 has been received, and is available for subscribers and reference. Capt. W. T. McDonnell was appointed assistant librarian to take the place of Mr. Mason Hurley, who will be absent from the lake during the winter months.

Mr. and Mrs. Mason Hurley and family have taken up their residence at Beach Drive, Oak Bay, for the winter months. Masters Pat and Dennis Hurley are attending the Oak Bay High School.

SOCIAL CLUB
The Shawnigan Social Club held its weekly meeting in the Shawnigan Lake Amateur Athletic Hall on Wednesday. In addition to the regular members the club entertained eight visitors. Progressive 500 was played, followed by a dance. The winner at cards were Mrs. C. Page and Geoffrey Twist.

SPIRIT OF LOCARNO IS NEED OF WORLD

So Says Austen Chamberlain in Speech at Guildhall Banquet in London

London, Nov. 10.—That peace prospects were now brighter than a year ago was the belief expressed by Austen Chamberlain, Foreign Secretary, in the course of a speech at the annual Lord Mayor's banquet in the Guildhall last night.

Mr. Chamberlain said he was convinced what had been done at Locarno responded to the conscious need of the whole world and would be ratified by every country, for, he added, "no statesman would dare assume the responsibility before history of dashing from our lips the cup of hope that Locarno has presented."

"But it is not the written treaties of Locarno which alone will work the changes we desire," continued Mr. Chamberlain. "It is the spirit of Locarno the world needs and must cherish."

"My lord mayor, thanks to your hospitality, I have drunk to-night a loving cup with the ambassador—What he and I have done this evening may our nations do to-morrow. We will work in the spirit of Locarno—that the peace of our world may be kept an inviolable possession from its wounds."

Mr. Chamberlain concluded with the hope that the same spirit of mutual goodwill would hover over the treaty powers' conference at Peking, bringing new fellowship between the East and the West.

SPANISH AMBASSADOR SPOKE

Senor Merry del Val, the Spanish Ambassador, dean of the diplomatic corps, paid a high tribute to Mr. Chamberlain's accomplishment at Locarno. It was not only at Locarno that Great Britain had given evidence of her will for peace. She had sent the Prince of Wales half around the world as a messenger of peace, who had journeyed indefatigably in many countries and among many races, bearing in the folds of his mantle that "Pax Britannica," founded less on force than on the power of justice.

PROUD OF RESULTS

Premier Baldwin, replying to the toast to His Majesty's Ministers, warmly praised Mr. Chamberlain's efforts at Locarno, saying: "Every one of his colleagues is proud of him."

Apart from this reference, Premier Baldwin's speech mainly concerned home and Dominion affairs and British trade and industrial prospects, in which he expressed tempered optimism. He believed a large supply of cotton from the United States would stimulate Lancashire trade and the peaceful settlement of Western Europe would greatly help in restoring prosperity.

Dealing with "the valuable unseen and unheralded work of the common people," he caused laughter by remarking: "There are millions of good men whose names never get into the newspapers."

The other speakers included the Air Minister, Sir Samuel Hoare, and Admiral Earl Beatty.

Rowntree's PURE COCOA

Favoured for Its Flavour Two Centuries Ago

Still England's Favourite Cocoa

TWO centuries ago, when particular care was paid to the flavour of food, Rowntree's Cocoa was favoured in the homes of the wealthy. Today, with its flavour made even finer by two hundred years' perfecting, it is still England's favourite.

Now you also may enjoy England's choice—the cocoa which has been preferred for its flavour for two centuries. With this important difference —that, although sold originally at a price which limited its purchase to those of abundant means, it is yours for no more than you have been paying for other brands. Costs but half-a-cent a cup.

Ask your grocer for Rowntree's Cocoa. Should he not have it, he can readily get it for you.

Rowntree's Cocoa should be your children's beverage. It contains muscle and tissue-building proteins, energy and heat-producing carbohydrates. It is a real food—as well as a drink they'll fully enjoy.

AUSTRALIANS PLAN NEWSPRINT INDUSTRY

Special to The Times
Melbourne, Australia, Nov. 10.—The establishment of a newsprint industry in Australia or Tasmania is probable in view of an announcement by the Prime Minister, Mr. Bruce. "The Government is most sympathetic in its desire to establish this industry," he said, "but the subject is one of very great complexity. It is proposed to assist this industry in the same way as others, in order to give it a fair measure of protection." At present Australia obtains a large proportion of its newsprint supplies from Canada.

The official figures given out by the returning officer were:
Davis, 5,562; Conservative, Irving, 3,710; Labor, Davidson, 2,519; Liberal, Total, 11,791.

EAST CALGARY VOTE

Calgary, Nov. 9.—Following the final count, G. A. Trainor, returning officer for East Calgary, declared Fred Davis, Conservative, elected member for that Federal riding.

Fifty Dollars a Month

(Guaranteed to you by the Canada Life)

You know of men well up in years who are still "drudging along." They cannot stop if they would, but must go on to the end of their days working for a living. You can avoid that.

Why Not Pension Yourself?

Why not "take stock" of your present financial position—to size up your personal affairs and decide on a plan for the future?

Our New Pension Plan

guarantees that upon reaching a certain age in life you will receive a monthly cheque for $50.00, $100, $200, $250—as you may now decide—and this monthly payment cannot cease as long as you live.

An Income for Life

Think what it may mean to you to be certain of an income right up to the end of life, when you consider that 97% of people in their later years are partially or wholly dependent upon others for support.

When they were younger they did not have the chance now offered you. It was not then possible to secure such a convenient and certain provision as this Monthly Pension Plan.

And This is Not All

Suppose some day before you reach age sixty you meet with a mishap and become totally and permanently disabled through accident, illness or any cause. (Such a thing has happened soon after men have secured this new policy of the Canada Life.) Immediately, the payment of further premiums would be cancelled. The Canada Life would become responsible for sending you $50.00, $100, $200, $250, a month, as arranged, for the rest of your life.

There are many other benefits.

An average deposit of only a few dollars a month will return you $50.00 a month later on.

Dear Sir:—Without obligation on my part, you are cordially invited to call on me at my office, 1111-1113 Government Street, Victoria, B.C., and see how we can help you.

How Fifty Dollars a Month looks to the Average Man

Age 20—Happy on Fifty Dollars a Month.

Age 21—Fifty Dollars a month is not enough.

Age 35—Thinks he can easily afford to "spend" Fifty Dollars a month.

Age 50—Things are not going as well as they were.

Age 55—Strange how those smelt have depreciated! Fifty Dollars a month is good interest on $10,000, and not to be despised.

Age 60—He finds Fifty Dollars a month pension, added to what income is left, brings happiness.

THE PERIOD OF SILENCE

THERE SHOULD BE AN EFFORT ON the part of all the people in this community to observe the two-minute silence to-morrow at the right moment. It is not reasonable to suppose that all the watches and clocks of the city keep in time to the second; but it should not be difficult for all who are on the streets about eleven o'clock to mark the passing of the minutes and thus be in readiness for the general halt.

REASON FOR GRATITUDE

QUIETLY BUT GENUINELY CANADA gave thanks yesterday for the many good things which her people are enjoying. And she has much to be thankful for. Economic conditions in the Dominion compare favorably with those in many other countries. Her trade is growing from month to month. The Canadian dollar is worth just as much as the American dollar, and a good deal more than one hundred cents in many capitals.

DEMANDING OUR SALMON

INDICATIONS FROM GREAT BRITAIN point to a spirited demand for British Columbia salmon as a direct result of the publicity which this commodity has received through the excellent displays at the British Empire Exhibition. Contributing to the bigger demand is undoubtedly the word "Canada" which is now embossed on the top of the can to inform the housewife in the Old Country that the contents are Canadian.

WHERE IT CAME FROM

THANKSGIVING DAY, OBSERVED IN Canada yesterday, originated with the Pilgrims at Plymouth, Mass., who set aside a day for giving thanks immediately after their first harvest in 1621. It was tenaciously adhered to throughout the New England states and was adopted by the Dutch in New Netherland, afterwards New York, gradually being taken up by the other colonies.

WHAT OTHER PAPERS SAY

THE FALL OF THE YEAR. Only to a few—and nearly all of them must be dwellers in deep country—does the communique of inner mystery, which is that, under her rule, a great quiet falls upon the earth between the year's activities, a quiet, not primarily of death or decay, but of suspense.

WHAT'S IN A NAME?

When addressed to an opera singer, the old question, "What's in a name, taken on a deeper significance than ordinarily," is asked. This is much in a name, to him or her, pursuing his delightfully personal talk to members of the Ottawa Canadian Club on Wednesday, Edward Johnson, Canada's famous tenor, told how, when a striving young artist in Italy, he was persuaded to counteract a characteristic suspicion on the part of Italians that foreigners are not such good singers as their compatriots by changing his name for opera purposes to Edouardo Di Giovanni.

A NOTED CANADIAN

CANADIAN JOURNALISM LOST AN outstanding figure in the death of T. H. Preston, publisher and editor of The Brantford Expositor. Mr. Preston's connection with newspaper work covered half a century, beginning with an association with The Toronto Globe, which with other journals he represented at Ottawa, and followed by his management of The Winnipeg Sun which particularly distinguished itself for enterprise during the Riel rebellion. About 1890 he took charge of The Brantford Expositor, which under his direction became one of the most influential newspapers in Ontario.

NOT PLEASANT READING

IF IT IS TRUE THAT THREE ARABS were publicly hanged in Damascus on Sunday, and their bodies left exposed for all eyes to see for six hours afterwards, civilized people will put another black mark against France's record in Syria. This is not the first time during recent weeks that reports have reached the outer world of the somewhat barbaric policy of repression which seems to have been chosen as a means of subduing all who refuse to be controlled against their will.

GOVERNMENT GIVES BUSINESSMEN LITTLE HOPE OF ABOLITION OF SUCCESSION TAXES IN B.C. NOW

While these amendments might entail some loss of revenue the delegation of the duty to the provinces is being encouraged by investment of additional capital in this province. Bad advertising was given the Province when a large estate had perhaps only one small piece of property in British Columbia and the succession duty was calculated on the value of the whole estate. The effect being to wipe out practically the whole B.C. assets of the estate.

CAPITAL SCARED AWAY

Joseph C. Bridgman of Victoria told the government that Succession Duty Act has worked out so unsatisfactorily that many financial companies had left the Province. Abolition of succession duties, he said, would result in a large influx of rich people into this Province to produce a much larger revenue for the Government through other taxes than is collected now in inheritance levies.

WOULD BRING WEALTH

Mr. Bridgman persisted that abolition of succession duties would cause a huge movement of wealthy people into this Province, producing new property investments here. He said he knew of 1,000 well-to-do farmers near Regina who would come to British Columbia to live if they did not have to pay inheritance duties.

HITS MUNICIPALITIES

Alderman A. E. Todd of Victoria asserted that the operations of the Succession Duty Act seriously interfered with the operations of municipal councils all over British Columbia. He explained how the Act had prevented the city of Victoria from collecting its taxes on the large Quaghtill estate because the Government had claimed that succession duties must first be paid on it.

VALUATIONS HIGH

"I think you would sell much more land than the valuation were not so outrageously high," the Premier interjected. With this Alderman Todd agreed, but suggested that the valuations be too big a subject for discussion at the conference. When Mr. Wollenfeld said he wanted to introduce the Succession Duty Bill from Florida, the Premier promptly retorted: "I have no intention of hearing Mr. Warren."

MUST HAVE REVENUE

Dr. MacLean explained that the suggestion of duty legislation of last session had not been brought into effect yet because officials were still grappling with certain technical difficulties which must be settled before the new law could be enforced. He warned the delegation that if the Government's succession duty revenue were reduced, some other source of revenue must be provided to make up the present total. Dr. MacLean demanded whether succession duties had interfered with the city's recent large sale of reverted lands and Mayor Penderay replied that the city appreciated keenly the assistance granted by the Government in this transaction.

THE FINANCE MINISTER DEFENDED

The Finance Minister defended the Government's methods of valuating properties. This work, he said, was carried out with every desire for fairness. Victoria men who attended to-day's conference included Mayor J. Carl Penderay, Alderman A. E. Todd, James Foreman, E. Winslow, F. B. Patterson, J. H. Gillespie and H. P. Patterson and Arthur Wolfenden, who introduced the other gentlemen.

SAM W. EDWARDS DIES SUDDENLY Former Customs Officer Passed Away at 2 a.m. To-day

With a suddenness which shocked his family as well as a wide circle of friends, death came this morning at 2 o'clock to Samuel Wesley Edwards, a resident of Victoria for thirty-five years and a former customs officer. Mr. Edwards had apparently been in the best of health when he retired at his home last night after spending the evening with friends. On Sunday he attended the memorial service at the City Temple for the late William B. Deaville, an old friend, and there was nothing to indicate that his end was so near.

The late Mr. Edwards was a native of Kempenfelt, Ontario, where he was born fifty-eight years ago. He came to Victoria thirty-five years ago and in August, 1897, was appointed as a customs officer, from which position he retired in June, 1921, after long and faithful service. He was a Past Worthy Master of Columbia Lodge, No. 1, A. F. & A. M.

MANY STATE REGRET

J. H. PRESTON DIED

Prominent Ontario Was For Many Years Publisher of Brantford Expositor

Brantford, Ont., Nov. 9.—Arrangements have been completed for the funeral here to-morrow of the late J. H. Preston.

Messages of regret at the death, which occurred on Saturday, have been received from many points.

Few Ontario newspaper men have been better known throughout Canada than was the late J. H. Preston, publisher and editor of The Brantford Expositor. Possessing capacity and enthusiasm for public service in an unusual degree, he was being endowed with more than ordinary ability and energy in following the best of his heart and mind in the way of doing good to his fellow men.

STARTED AS BOY

Mr. Preston began his newspaper work early in life, as he continued therein up to the time of his death. He passed through the various stages of the printing trade. As he himself stated, the first step in his career was as a printer in the Brantford Expositor. He was elected president of the Canadian Daily Newspaper Association in May, 1925.

OUTSTANDING EVENTS

On that same occasion Mr. Preston recalled some of the interesting events in his life. "It is fifty-two years since as a mere apprentice, I took part in what is known as the George Brown strike in Toronto—a strike which led to some of the men being put in jail for conspiracy," he said. "It is forty-seven years since I entered the Parliamentary Press Gallery at Ottawa as a representative of the Ottawa Free Press. Twenty-nine years ago I became president of the Canadian Press Association."

WORK IN WINNIPEG

Mr. Preston's connection with The Winnipeg Sun was from 1882 till 1890. He made a fine record for enterprise for his newspaper during the Northwest Rebellion in 1885. Shortly afterwards he represented the Canadian press at the Durbar in Delhi, India.

AS A BRANTFORD PUBLISHER

As already stated, Mr. Preston began his apprenticeship as a printer in the office of The Woodstock Sentinel. It was his duty to light the fire, sweep the floor, twist the roller on an old Washington hand-press, turn the crank for the power press on publication day, paste bills, papers, deliver routes, paste bills, and incidentally set type—for all of which I received the magnificent sum of $20 the first year, $40 the second year, $60 the third year and $80 the fourth year and the privilege of boarding with the boss.

Legislature he secured the appointment of a special committee to investigate child labor in Ontario. Mr. Preston was an unsuccessful Liberal candidate for the House of Commons in the Dominion general election of 1911.

He was a public school trustee in Brantford for some years. He was president of the Southern Fair Board in 1888, president of the Brantford Board of Trade in 1900, and president of the Children's Aid Society, Brantford, in 1907. He was a member of the Parole Board of Ontario, and governor of Brantford General Hospital.

BORN IN UNITED STATES T. H. Preston was born at Mount Vernon, Indiana, U.S.A., October 22, 1855, a son of Rev. James and Emma (Phillips) Preston. He came to Canada when quite young, and was educated in Ontario public and high schools. He married Lillian MacDonald, daughter of A. R. MacDonald of Montreal, in 1876. Five children were born of the union. Mr. Preston was a Methodist.

JOCKEY INVESTS MONEY Chicago, Nov. 10.—More than half of the $50,000 he has earned by bringing his mounts home in front has been invested by Jockey Arthur Mortensen, seventy-year-old ninety-two pounder, in a ranch in Idaho, his home State. The rest went into bonds, he said, on passing through here yesterday en route to visit his mother in Honolulu, Idaho.

JOHNSON OFFERS SERVICE New York, Nov. 10.—Jack Johnson, former heavyweight champion, has offered to coach the new light heavyweight champion, Paul Berlenbach, a drive to the heavyweight peak. Berlenbach's manager is willing, Johnson says, he will train Berlenbach, the champion's approaching bout with Jack Delaney.

TO-MORROW'S HOROSCOPE

By Genevieve

Excellent conditions are to obtain on this day, according to the auspicious rule of important planets. The major benefic, Jupiter, holds sway both by Solar and Lunar aspect. This propers all ambitions and undertakings, expanding the business and making for increase of wealth. Saturn assists in the reward for industry and perseverance, also promises substantial friends. But it is warned that removals, changes or journeys are not advantageous. Those in employment are in line for recognition or promotion, if qualified.

Woman's Happiness

Rests largely on solving their oldest hygienic problem this new way

To be fresh and charming every day, to live every day unhandcapped, to wear sheerest frocks without a second thought, any day, anywhere... you can now do all, a new way.

It is called "KOTEX." Ends the lasciviousness of the old-time sanitary pad. Five times as absorbent as Deodorized, too. And thus ends ALL fear of offending.

As easily disposed of as a piece of tissue. No laundry. No embarrassment.

You get it at any drug or department store, simply by saying, "KOTEX"; you ask for it without hesitancy.

Costs only a few cents. 8 in 10 better class women employ it. Proves the folly of old ways.

KOTEX

No laundry—discarded like tissue

A Good Servant Is a Jewel

The servant problem and the laundry problem prove equally vexing in many homes.

This laundry has a just pride in its service and wants an opportunity to serve you. Don't worry about the Monday washings—send it to us, or rather, let us send for it.

Hair Secrets

Gleamy, Thick, Wavy Hair in a Moment

A delightful surprise awaits those who try this. When combing and dressing your hair, just moisten your hair brush with a little "Dandarine" and brush it through your hair. The effect is startling! Your hair will appear twice as thick and heavy—sparkling with life and possessing that incomparable softness, freshness and luxuriance, and just delicately perfumed.

While beautifying the hair "Dandarine" is also toning and stimulating each single hair to grow thick, heavy and strong. Hair stops falling out and dandruff disappears. Get a 35-cent bottle of "Dandarine" at any drug or toilet counter, and just see how healthy and youthful your hair appears after this delightful, refreshing dressing. (Adv.)

W.I. MOVEMENT IN BRITAIN PASSES TENTH BIRTHDAY

Mrs. Alfred Watt Attends International Conference in Brussels

Canadians will be interested to learn that the Women's Institutes of England, as founded there by a Canadian on the same lines as the Canadian W.I., Mrs. Alfred Watt, M.B.E., have passed the first ten years' test successfully. This year the anniversary of the first decade has been marked by increased development. The first W.I. in the British Isles, Llanfairpwllgwyngyllgogoch, on the estate of the Marquis of Anglesey, North Wales, in the village of that name, which means the church of St. Mary under the Hill, was founded in 1915, and there were only six others in that year. To-day there are 3,400 Women's Institutes in Wales and England. Every year there are over 40,000 W.I. meetings.

A recent estimate showed that there are over 200,000 members wearing the badge with the motto taken from Ontario, "For Home and Country." At a recent fete organized by Hampshire W.I.'s over 10,000 people, chiefly W.I. members and their families, passed through the gates of the beautiful Stratton Park, Lord Northbrook's seat, where the festivities were held.

In a recent article in the Queen Mrs. Watt writes: "The Women's Institute movement was transplanted bodily with its foundations intact from Canada to England, and there has since been no structural alteration. It is surely unique that a part of the social order of a new country should become an equally established part of the social order of an older country. It is especially curious since the Women's Institute is a typically Canadian product, an original conception of pioneer Ontario, and yet here it is today blossoming graciously in the loveliest villages of old Mother England."

Mrs. Watt took the institute plan from British Columbia to England.

INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE

Mrs. Watt has recently had the signal-honor of being chosen to represent the English National Federation of Women's Institutes at an international conference of rural women's organizations in Brussels.

The conference was organized by the government of Belgium, and there were present delegates from Italy, France, Belgium, Czechoslovakia, Poland, Lithuania, Finland, Scotland, Switzerland, Hungary and England. All proceedings were in French and took place in the beautiful Salle de Marbre of the Academy of Fine Arts of Belgium. The Banquet of the Croquerie de Belgique, the Banquet of the Croquerie de Belgique, and the others on the dais were the two elected vice-presidents, Mrs. Watt and Madame Slawaska of Poland.

By the fact that the English delegate was a Canadian, and wishes were freely expressed that Canada would be officially represented at the next gathering.

Mrs. Watt reported afterwards in England that all the newly organized or reconstructed institutes represented the incomparable Belgium for a lead in organized rural women's work, whereas it was really Canada which gave the lead originally to European countries in this way through its Women's Institutes, and it was England where the greatest development had been.

Mrs. Sutherland to Open W.A. Bazaar At St. Joseph's

Mrs. W. H. Sutherland, wife of the Minister of Public Works, will formally open the annual bazaar of the auxiliary of St. Joseph's Hospital on Thursday at 2.45. The sale is to be held at the hospital and the proceeds will be used for the auxiliary's work in the institution. Mrs. Frank Sehl, president of the auxiliary, is acting as general convenor and Mrs. R. L. Miller is in charge of the bridge tables, which may be reserved at telephone 2611. Other stalls will include dainty novelties, dressed dolls, fancy work, home cooking and plants, home-made candy. Afternoon tea will be served.

Donations for the stalls may be left at the hospital to-morrow or Thursday.

To avoid confusion and delay at the box office on Wednesday evening when Efrem Zimbalist is to give his recital, holders of season tickets for the Ladies' Musical Club artists' series are urged to secure their theatre tickets before to-morrow afternoon by paying amusements tax at the Royal Victoria box office.

LADY BYNG OPENED WOMEN'S RESIDENCE

Made L.L.D. Following Ceremony Yesterday at Queen's University

Kingston, Ont., Nov. 10.—Bah High Hall, the women's residence, was opened yesterday afternoon by Lady Byng with a golden key given her by the Queen's Alumnae Association. The hall cost $183,000 and is paid for. The alumni worked twenty-five years in bringing about the erection of the hall.

A special feature was the holding of convocation at Queen's presided over by Chancellor Sir Robert Borden, when Lady Byng was presented for the honorary L.L.D., the fourth lady so honored in the life of the college.

Ex-Naval Officer to Receive $7,500 For Screen Plagiarism

New York, Nov. 10.—Olga Petrova, stage and screen star and playwright, yesterday lost the damage suit brought against her by Eugene O'Neil by William H. Roberts, former British naval officer, who charged her with drawing without his consent upon the play "The White Peacock."

The jury returned a verdict of $7,500 for the plaintiff. Damages of $25,000 had been asked.

NEARLY MARRIED THE WRONG MAN

Toronto Minister in Amusing Situation at Polish Wedding

Toronto, Nov. 10.—A solemn comedy threatened a religious ceremony at a church attended by Polish people in West Toronto. A Canadian minister had been called in to marry two young Poles. Accompanied by two others of the same nationality for bridesmaid and best man, they took their places before him.

Slowly and solemnly the minister began the service. "Do you take this woman?" The man before him seemed to nod assent. "Do you take this man?" The bride also nodded.

Suddenly there was a commotion at the back of the church. An elderly man rushed down the aisle, seeing the young man standing beside the bride, he shoved him to the left, grabbed the other young man, who stood near the bridesmaid, and pulled him alongside the bride.

Then in broken English he explained: "You are marrying not the right man. That man he's what you call the best man. They were not standing right."

The minister started the service again.

Sale of Work.—The members of the Royal True Blues will hold their annual sale of work at 724 Yates Street, on Thursday, November 12, instead of November 14. There will be various stalls of fancy work, plain sewing, home-cooking, candy and spinning-lenny. The sale opens at 10 a.m. Luncheon will be served from 12 to 2 p.m., also afternoon teas. The convenor would like all committees to be at the store on Wednesday afternoon at 2 p.m.

Man. Following the ceremony the bridal party repaired to the home of the bride, where a reception was held, only immediate relatives of the contracting parties being present. Mr. and Mrs. Savage left on the afternoon boat for Seattle and will continue their trip by motor to Portland. Upon their return they will reside on Superior Street.

SAANICH DEMANDS HALT IN CITY'S WATERWORKS PLAN

Legislature Asked in Petition to Prevent Esquimalt Water Expropriation

Saanich commenced its fight against the city's expropriation of the Esquimalt Waterworks to-day when T. G. Coventry, Conservative, Saanich, laid before the Provincial Legislature a petition asking the House to halt the expropriation and take the control of Elk Lake out of the city's hands. The Saanich Council's petition is as follows:

To the Honorable the Speaker and members of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of British Columbia. The humble petition of the Corporation of the District of Saanich sheweth as follows:

1. That the Corporation of the City of Victoria has entered into an arrangement to purchase the waterworks rights and property of the Esquimalt Water Works Company.

2. That the said City of Victoria and the Esquimalt Waterworks Company are applying to your honorable body for an act to confirm and validate the said arrangement.

3. That the Corporation of the District of Saanich points out that the said arrangement is passed that far as the southern portion of Vancouver Island is concerned that a monopoly will be created, which said monopoly will work against the best interests of the three municipalities adjacent to the City of Victoria, and also the unorganized districts adjacent to the waterworks.

4. That the City of Victoria has demanded the sum of $1,000,000 Imperial gallons for water taken from the main supply pipes of the City of Victoria, notwithstanding the fact that the said City of Victoria has asked and obtained the right to demand water from the Esquimalt Waterworks Company at a price of six cents (6c) per 100 Imperial Gallons.

5. That the said price of 10c per 100 Imperial gallons is far in excess of a reasonable cost of the said water as appears from a report of the water commissioner of the said City of Victoria. The report referred to being a report of the water commissioner dated November 23, 1924, and addressed to the Public Works Committee of the City of Victoria (a copy of which report is submitted herewith).

6. It will undoubtedly be represented to the Legislature that the acquisition of the Esquimalt Waterworks was necessary in order to assure the City of Victoria a supply, but your petitioners would point out that there was and still is available to the City of Victoria a supply of 1,221,000 Imperial gallons per day from the Saanich Waterworks System.

7. It may be represented to you that the City of Victoria has annually lost money on the operation of its waterworks system, but your petitioners would point out that in the year 1924, according to the financial report of the City of Victoria, there was a loss of $1,774,482.924 gallons (one billion seven hundred and seventy-four thousand four hundred and thirty-four) and for this the City of Victoria has charged the sum of $15,920. Assuming, therefore, a reasonable allowance for leakage, the City of Victoria charges its services about 14 cents (one and one-half cents) per 1,000 Imperial gallons.

8. It may be further represented to you that the City of Victoria bears the cost of the waterworks system. In this regard your petitioners would refer you to the report of the City Water Commissioner in which he specifically includes interest and sinking fund in arriving at his costs.

9. It may also be represented to you that Saanich Municipality has made profits from its waterworks system, this your petitioners wish most emphatically to deny. The books of the Saanich Waterworks have been produced to officials of the City of Victoria and show a loss on operation of the system. There is not now and never has been a profit.

10. Your petitioners have expended the sum of $525,000 for a water distribution system and a great portion of this expenditure has been made on representations made by members of the City Council of Victoria, that they were favorable to selling water at a low rate for agricultural use.

11. It may also be represented that water rates are lower in Saanich than in the City of Victoria, as to this we would point out that the average user of water uses less than 2,000 Imperial gallons per month, and that until a user uses over 7,000 Imperial gallons per month the rate is now and has always been as great or greater than the Victoria rate. In the original agreement between Saanich and Victoria provision was made for preferential treatment for users of over 5,000 gallons per month. This was done with the knowledge and consent of the City of Victoria, for the purpose of encouraging irrigation use of water.

12. That it is contrary to good British Government to permit a body of eleven men to dictate a policy of control so vital a commodity as water without first ascertaining the wishes of all the people in the districts thereby affected.

For the above and other reasons, your petitioners therefore pray:

1. That the Act passed on the 21st day of February, 1913, being "An Act for the supply of water to the City of Victoria" and the amendments thereto, be further amended so as to declare that any rights which the City of Victoria or the water commissioner of the said City of Victoria have or claim to have in the waters of Elk Lake are non-existent, and also for a further declaration that all lands held in connection with the said Elk Lake are liable for taxation as if the said Act and amendments thereto had never been passed.

2. That the legislation requested for the purpose of purchasing the Esquimalt Waterworks be refused.

3. That an Act be passed following the lines of the Greater Vancouver Water District Act.

4. That pending the formation of a water board, a public utilities commission or commissioner be appointed, who shall have power to ascertain the cost of water and that Saanich municipality shall have the right to take water from the city mains at cost or in the alternative to purchase the Esquimalt Waterworks be granted, provided that the City of Victoria agree to supply water to Saanich at cost, such cost to include full capital charges, sinking fund and interest, plus maintenance charges on supply mains to point of delivery.

5. Such other regulations as to your honorable body seems best to insure that the right to water be kept in the hands of the community at large, and that the said regulations be of such a nature as to be of benefit to the community in respect to a vital necessity.

And your petitioners as in duty bound will ever pray.

Signed on behalf of the Corporation of the District of Saanich the 23rd day of October, 1925.

ROBT. MACNICOLL, Reeve.
R. R. F. SEWELL, Clerk.

CITY ENGINEER'S REPORT

Office of the City Engineer, Victoria, B.C., Nov. 26, 1924
To the Chairman and Members of the Public Works Committee
Re Saanich Water Supply Gentlemen:

The existing agreement expires on May 31, 1925. The agreement during the time when the water was first delivered adequately from Sooke Lake to the city and continuing for ten years from May 31, 1915.

Water was not used by Saanich until February 1, 1916. The prices agreed upon were for the first million gallons per day, 6 cents per 1,000, on the over plus from 1,000,000 to 2,000,000 5 cents per 1,000 and for the balance up to a limit of 5,000,000 gallons per day 4 cents per 1,000 gallons.

On August 6, 1921, a special rate was given for the Gordon Head district whereby for the first year all water to be supplied solely to the Gordon Head district through a special meter a discount of 75 per cent was to be allowed, for the second year 60 per cent, third year 45 per cent, fourth year 30 per cent and fifth year 15 per cent.

Taking into consideration all capital and maintenance charges during the past eight years Sooke water delivered to the city reservoir has cost on an average of 7.25 cents per 1,000 gallons, being 2.53 cents per 1,000 in 1916 and 5.8 cents per 1,000 in 1923. Assuming a steady increase of the average annual consumption over the next ten years then the probable average cost for the latter period will be 6.5 cents per 1,000 gallons.

Capital charges and maintenance average over the last eight years to approximately $161,463, of which $3,890 is for maintenance; with an average annual consumption of 2,225,000 gallons. For the next ten years capital and maintenance charges will average $167,000, $10,000 being allowed for maintenance, since considerable repairs to intake and pipe line are required, and the average annual consumption is estimated at 2,000,000 gallons.

The city has lost, for Saanich water, approximately 1,100,000 gallons in the eight years from 1916 to 1923 inclusive. An increase of 1 cent per 1,000 gallons on the rate charged the Saanich will average about $2,250 per year over the next ten years.

The millinery slippers are a dangerous condition, owing to electrolysis that has taken place in the past and at least $20,000 will be the cost of replacing it, probably next year.

The repairs to this main have cost approximately $5,600 to date, $2,000 having been repairs or are owing to being destroyed by the B.C. Electric Railway Company, but apart from the damage to the main the pavement has been destroyed to the extent of about $40,000 through settlement caused by this leakage.

The city has also nearly 300,000 feet of street mains laid in the period 1908 to 1912 which may probably have only a further life of ten to fifteen years and represent at present prices a cost for replacing between $400,000 and $500,000.

It must be therefore noted that in order to provide funds for such purposes as a water supply and every other service should be made to sell water at an advantageous rate as possible.

I am most firmly of the opinion that the rate charged for the next period should be 10c per 1,000 gallons or 6 1/2c per 100 cubic feet, and that no allowance be made, as at the present time, for any excess above one million gallons per day. I was informed recently by a good authority that the average rate in America for wholesaler water was 25c per 1,000 gallons.

For your information the present rate charged in the city is 14c for 100 cubic feet and water consumed above 500 cubic feet, is charged for at the rate of 12c per 100 cubic feet. Both rates subject to 10 per cent discount.

F. M. PRESTON,
City Engineer and Water Commissioner.

SORE THROAT

IS A COMMON ILLNESS WHICH MAY LEAD TO A SERIOUS AFFECTION OF THE THROAT. IT IS OVERCOME BY THE USE OF DR. THOMAS' ECLECTIC.

DR. THOMAS' ECLECTIC

SS. POLERIC IS LABORING THROUGH HEAVY SEAS WITH LIST CAUSED BY CARGO SHIFT

Steamer Beating Way Back to Port Under Difficulties While Salvage King Steams Through Half Gale to Bring Her Aid; Grain Cargo Shifting Gave Glasgow Vessel Fifteen Degree List.

With a twelve to fifteen-degree list, occasioned when her grain cargo shifted at sea, Ss. Poleric is making slow progress towards this port through heavy seas.

The Salvage King, of the Pacific Salvage Company, slipped out of port yesterday afternoon and will reach the crippled vessel this afternoon. On her way to the scene the Salvage King ran into heavy weather.

The Poleric loaded a grain cargo at Vancouver and sailed on Friday last for the Orient. She ran into heavy seas as soon as she left the Cape and her cargo shifted as the result of the buffeting the freighter sustained. When the Poleric stood 300 miles out to sea on the steamship track to the Orient the list increased and she is now reported to have a list of from twelve to fifteen degrees.

Spoken by Canadian wireless on Sunday night the Poleric gave her position as 50.41 N. 133.00 W. and within 250 miles of the Swiftsure Lightship. From her present rate of progress the Poleric and the Salvage vessel gone to her aid will hook up sometime this afternoon, it is said here.

The Salvage King put out yesterday afternoon at 3 p.m. as soon as further word from the vessel disclosed her position and predicament. The first messages received did not state the trouble but merely that she had turned about on her course and was headed for Victoria. Later the shifting of her cargo was mentioned and the fact that the Poleric rode with a considerable list, in fact, a list of from twelve to fifteen degrees, was reported.

Late this afternoon further messages are expected from the Salvage King telling of her success in locating the Poleric.

The present mission of the Salvage King is the first real test of the main purpose for which she was specially constructed and brought out

POSITION IMPROVED

Two brief messages from the Ss. Poleric to local agents, told the story of her misadventure yesterday. The first came to Rihets Consolidated at 11.24 a.m. and requested a towing vessel be sent to her assistance. The second, at 5.47 p.m., cancelled the order for a tow and indicated that her master felt more secure in her position and progress than when the first wireless was sent. Despite the second message, however, it was thought advisable to allow the salvage vessel to proceed an additional measure of safety.

To B.C. waters. The salvage vessel was designed as an ocean-going rescue craft with a steaming radius that would take her across the Pacific if necessary and powerful and staunch enough to throw a line aboard any deep sea vessel to tow her back to port.

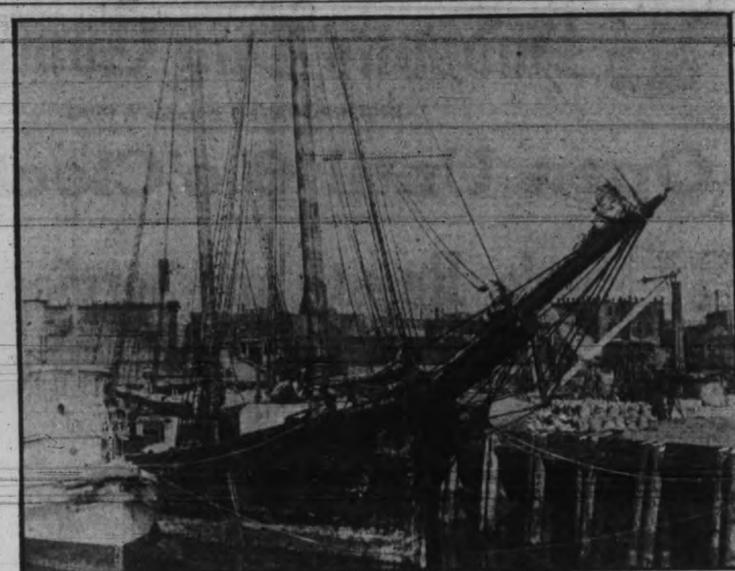

Though the Salvage King raised the naval trawler Armentiers and towed the Ss. Blendyk from the rocks this is her first ocean salvage feat since she arrived on this coast. It was hoped to meet the condition present in this case that she was built to special designs which enable her to steam out into the thick of any weather and pick up her boat in mid-Pacific if necessary.

The Poleric is carrying ore as well as grain.

OWNERS APPEAL AGAINST CONFISCATION OF CRAFT

The schooner Lirio de Agua, whose owners have appealed from a Federal ruling ordering the confiscation of the vessel for the alleged transfer of 1,005 cases of liquor to the Oououkish off Nootka this Spring. The owners of the Oououkish have already entered an appeal in proceedings to be argued before the Exchequer Court of Canada next year. The Lirio de Agua, after her seizure in July was brought to the wharf of the Marine Department here, where she has since lain pending a ruling of the court. The confiscation order was made a few weeks ago, and now comes word of the appeal from that ruling. Leonard C. Mills, a Victoria barrister, is acting in the matter for the owners of the Nicaraguan vessel.

MARINE NOTES

The findings of the Marine court which sat in inquiry on the loss of the tug Hope at Bentinck Island will be handed down within the next three days, according to a statement made to-day by Capt. J. D. Macpherson, Dominion Wreck Commissioner, who with Capt. F. M. Cutler and Capt. Basil Combe composed the investigations body.

The Canadian Government Merchant Marine carrier Canadian Freighter is due at Esquimaux tomorrow for drydocking. General overhaul and repairs will be made by Yarrows Limited.

Some 200 tons of cargo and heavy mails are on board the N.Y.K. Tokiwa Maru, inbound for the Orient and due on Saturday morning. Capt. J. Nirel has wired ahead to say he hopes to bring his ship to William Head early on that day.

Formerly well-known as the Ss. Annur, the Ss. Famous called at Ogden Point docks to-day to discharge a shipment of canned salmon. Capt. Brown is in command. The famous was sold by Victoria owners recently to a Vancouver firm.

Outbound for the Orient the Admiral Oriental liner President Jackson will call here at 4 p.m. Wednesday and take on eighty passengers before clearing at 5.30 p.m. for sea. Inbound from the Orient in the same service is the President McKinley, which is expected to make port on Friday morning with 200 of cargo for local discharge and ninety bags of mail. Some fifty passengers will step ashore from the McKinley here. The inbound vessel brings word of the damage to the Ryuwo Maru, with which vessel she was in wireless communication in mid-Pacific.

FINE IS IMPOSED

Confiscation of a deposit of $400 made on behalf of a Seattle gasoline-speed cruiser, the Jack M994, is announced to-day. The deposit was seized by Canadian customs officers in local waters several weeks ago and was held with the derelict fleet in the Inner Harbor awaiting a ruling of the Federal authorities. The fine was paid down an amount equal to what the fine would be in the event of an adverse ruling and took charge of the vessel some time ago. Now the deposit is taken in satisfaction of the fine, which was finally imposed for breach of the regulations calling for clearance at a customs port on entry into Canadian waters.

BAYCHIMO RETURNS TO UNITED KINGDOM

Hudson's Bay Arctic Trading Vessel Was Damaged by Ice in Northern Seas. To Call Here at End of Week to Pick up Lumber Cargo For Voyage Home.

The Baychimo, Arctic trading post tender of the Hudson's Bay Company, will call here at the end of this week to take on a lumber cargo for United Kingdom points. After a brief but tempestuous season in northern seas the Hudson's Bay vessel is to be sent back. Her place will be taken by a larger and stancher vessel, it is understood here.

The Baychimo at the close of navigation in the North brought out a cargo of over 1,000,000 worth of raw furs, collected from the Arctic trap-ping posts of the company. She had difficulty in winning free from the closing ice fields and at one time was reported to have been seized in the ice, though this proved to be incorrect. The Baychimo was free from the barriers and came South a few weeks ago. Her hull sustained some incidental repairs will be made before the little vessel sails for the United Kingdom. Her lumber cargo will be taken from local mills. She will dock at Rihets' pier and load by scow, it is stated.

Big City Business Slow, Visitors Find

New York, Nov. 10.—Almost every out-of-towner complains about the difficulty of doing business with dispatch in New York. Back home it is possible to get your leading banker, your broker or a purchasing agent on the telephone and arrange a meeting with him for some time when he is out at lunch and when he is in his office. Here there seems to be no definite lunch hour. Business men get to their offices early in the morning, clean up the work by noon and play golf the rest of the day. They are in at ten of eleven, stay at their desks until their work is done and do not go out for lunch. Others follow the more orthodox scheme of coming in at nine, leaving for lunch at twelve and returning to their offices at two. Despite the rush of people on the streets and the external manifestations of speed, business moves no faster in New York than elsewhere.

U.S. SCHOONER IS BOARDED BY SOVIET OFFICIALS IN NORTH

Educational Mission Wins Free From Detention After Word Skirmish. Seattle, Nov. 10.—The schooner Boxer, operated by the United States Bureau of Education in the Far North, was in Seattle harbor to-day after returning from the annual Alaskan summer cruise. A $20,000 cargo of reindeer meat, fox furs and ivory and eight passengers were aboard. Near seizure by a Soviet gunboat while seeking shelter from a storm in Russian waters furnished thrills for the crew.

The Russian vessel followed them into Seattle behind Big Diamond Island, September 25, and demanded to see their papers. "We showed them copies of Seattle and Nomin papers," said Capt. S. T. L. Whitlam. "Then they wanted to know what we were doing in their waters without a permit. I told them we happened in there by an act of God, that we were a United States Government ship on an educational mission. The only one who could speak English said: 'All right; stay as long as you like.'"

The gunboat was on the lookout for American trading vessels operating without traders' permits.

WOULD USE HERRING FOR FISH REDUCTION

West Coast Plants Seek to Utilize Catch For Oil. Careful consideration to the appeal from West Coast fisheries for permission to use herrings for fish reduction will be given by the Chamber of Commerce committee appointed for that purpose, said at a meeting to be held to-morrow night John P. Babcock, assistant Commissioner of Fisheries for British Columbia, will answer questions on the subject. It is pointed out by the West Coast plants that herrings are ideal fish from which to secure oil and to utilize them for this purpose would be more profitable than exportation of the packed fish to the Orient. The Oriental market absorbs a large proportion of the catch each year. Of the three fishing districts in British Columbia, two are allowed to use herrings for fish reduction. On the West Coast of Vancouver Island where the fish are prolific it is prohibited. Before taking action on the appeal the Chamber of Commerce committee will make inquiries to ascertain whether it would lead to the extermination of herrings in British Columbia waters.

In the city police court this morning, Louis de Macedo was brought before Magistrate Jay charged with having failed to fulfill his obligations under a court order to pay his wife a monthly sum to support her and three children. De Macedo pleaded that he had not earned sufficient to send her money for maintenance. In seven weeks, P. C. Elliott, counsel for Mrs. de Macedo, stated the husband had only given the wife $9. The court order called for $10 weekly. Magistrate Jay ordered de Macedo two weeks in which to make an effort to pay his wife a supporting allowance, as the court ordered. Otherwise he will be severely dealt with, the court said.

KLU KLUX KLAN GETS BUSY HERE

Organization of the Kanadian Ku Klux Klan started in Victoria to-day. Capt. W. B. Laycock, D.S.O., one of the leaders in the movement on the mainland, arrived from Vancouver on Thanksgiving Day and at once started things going.

The Klan here will be a branch of the Canadian organization which has its headquarters in Shaughnessy Heights, Vancouver. To-day Capt. Laycock was busy at the Klan headquarters, interviewing leaders in the movement here and bringing them officially into the organization. He said that the organization is being formed along salubrious, its object being to improve moral and political conditions and to maintain British traditions, and religious freedom.

Local Klansmen will wear the full hooded regalia and take their oath under the burning cross. The last organization was in North Vancouver last week when 500 attended the demonstration in the Agricultural Hall and were addressed by Klansmen in full regalia.

EDITOR ACTS AS OWN COUNSEL AT WONG HEARING (Continued from page 1) and told him the case would proceed this morning, and there wasn't anything to be done. He wasn't prepared," said Mr. Craig.

Outlining the case to the jury, Mr. Craig read from the criminal code that everyone is guilty of an offence if he commits an act for the purpose of aiding any person to commit the offence.

The prosecutor said the prisoner had raised a fine for the purpose of providing funds to keep Wong in captivity, that he had paid the money over to Robinson, and if he had done that, he was guilty.

NOT ABDUCTION "We say Cowper is a man who would not have the courage to do a thing like that," said Mr. Craig, speaking of the abduction. "Apparently he thought he would be safe in a house, and let him. He is not entitled to much sympathy when he oversteps the law and becomes entangled in the law."

OBJECTIONS FORECAST Mr. Craig stated that in this trial, contrary to what he proposed to object to the admission of any evidence which was not strictly legally admissible. At the previous trial, he explained, he had not objected because an attack had been made on people in responsible positions and he thought it was best to let them go and let them have their fling.

G. WADDINGTON MINS KIWANIS SCHOLARSHIP

Presentation Features Today's Luncheon of Kiwanis Club Presentation to Guy Waddington of the Kiwanis Club scholarship of $100, annually given to a student at Victoria College, was the feature of today's luncheon of the Kiwanis Club at the Chamber of Commerce.

President Dr. Howard Miller made the presentation on behalf of the Kiwanis Club, recalling that the three previous recipients had all done well, and proved themselves fine young citizens.

The scholarship is awarded to a nominee of the college faculty, the basis of selection being success in studies supported by the standing of the youth among his fellows and in athletics.

"We are sure you will fulfill all our expectations, as have those who before you have won our scholarship," President Miller assured the young man. "The Kiwanians will watch your progress in the year to come." Mr. Waddington was assured, as he was handed the scholarship.

Guy Waddington was accorded great applause as he gave thanks for the cheque. He assured the Kiwanians that the scholarship was a great stimulant to all the young men at Victoria College, to use their best efforts in making the most of their opportunities.

Dr. E. H. Paul, principal of Victoria College, assured the members that the faculty and student body of Victoria College feel very indebted to the Kiwanis Club for the interest taken in their work. "It is a great thing that the students know such a powerful body as this club is in active support of their work," he said, closing with praise of Guy Waddington as "a very worthy student."

VOTE AS A DUTY Atwell D. King spoke upon the franchise and the duty resting upon the patriotic citizen to use his vote. He traced the history of public enfranchisement from extremely ancient times, showed that to-day the people have control of affairs in their own hands, and expressed pleasure that recent years have shown a greater realization by the citizens of the necessity of registering their vote.

DEBT CANCELLING Hugh Allan advocated international cancellation of war debts, in a brief talk, pointing out that the United States should shoulder a share of war costs incurred prior to her entry in the Great War. This would best be accomplished by debt cancellation, and was justified because had the Allies' gallant struggle of 1914-17 not been successful, Germany would have been the United States' ruler neutrality.

Mr. Allan pointed out that debt cancellation would greatly benefit all commerce and would prove a profitable as well as generous action.

RAIDS BY ARMED MEN IN IRELAND Movie-Film of Recent Tour of Prince of Wales Seized By Gang

Dublin, Nov. 10.—An armed party raided a motion picture theatre at Kingstown, seven miles from Dublin, last night and seized a film of the recent tour of the Prince of Wales, which was being shown. The raiders made their escape.

That and three other raids yesterday are said to have been outrageous in a recrudescence of the republican activities brought on by the preparations being made to celebrate Armistice Day. The republican agitators, however, profess to be of the political color of the British Empire.

THEATRE DISTURBANCE Seven armed men yesterday afternoon entered a motion picture theatre where a film of the battle of Ypres was being shown and seized eight reels, the manager being forced to refund the audience's money.

Six men raided the offices of the British Legion, an organization of ex-service men, and seized books presumably with the intention of obtaining names of collectors for the Flanders poppy fund.

Yesterday morning Patrick Sheehan, once a supporter of Eamon de Valera, but now a member of the Free State police board, was kidnapped and held for an hour as a protest against the treatment accorded republican prisoners.

ONE TAKEN TO COURT At the theatre where the battle picture was being shown, seven men, all armed, compelled the manager to return the money of the spectators, after which they made their way out of the theatre. One of them, however, lagged and was taken by the police. Later he was remanded by a magistrate for theft of the film and for carrying a loaded revolver.

In Kingstown the gang that seized the picture of the Prince of Wales paid admission to the show. The men donned masks and then drew their revolvers and made a rush to the operating room. They quickly overawed the staff of the theatre and made their escape through a back door.

SEIZED BOOKS The raid on the offices of the British Legion headquarters of the Armistice Day committee succeeded by the same methods. The men entered in a group, pointed their revolvers at a clerk, searched the office, seized the books containing names of the collectors of the "Flanders Poppy Fund" and made their way out of the building without molestation.

SHEEHAN THREATENED After his release Patrick Sheehan said he had not been ill-treated by his captors, but he had been soundly berated for alleged ill-treatment of the prisoners and threatened with death if conditions in the prisons did not improve.

Notwithstanding the fact that civic guards searched throughout Dublin and the suburbs last night the only person taken was the man made prisoner in the moving picture house.

REPUBLICANS MET The Republicans held a meeting last night and protested against the "imperialist spirit which is about to manifest itself on Armistice day."

Mrs. P. Sheehy Skeffington, in a speech, said the Republicans would not tolerate the streets of Dublin being desecrated by such a procession as that of last year. "If the flag of serfdom is flaunted in the people's faces, Wednesday," said Oscar Traynor, a former member of the Dail Eireann, "the result will be turmoil."

Edmonton Franchise May Shift To Regina

Kenny McKenzie, Manager of Eskimos, Has Been in Regina Considering Offer of Sportsmen There; Assured of Wholehearted Support of Fans, Which He Cannot Count on in Edmonton; Trouble-makers Eliminated

Calgary, Nov. 10.—While I have made no definite decision regarding the transfer of the Edmonton Eskimos to Regina, for the 1925-26 season of the Western Hockey League, I favor the Regina proposition that has been offered me, and no one in Edmonton can prevent me from moving as I have already secured the consent of the majority of the clubowners for a transfer, stated Kenney Mackenzie, owner of the Eskimos who is in Calgary conferring with President Richardson.

"I am absolutely satisfied that I can get the wholehearted support of the Regina newspapers and every hockey fan in that city and the surrounding country, while in Edmonton, I doubt very much if the public will be behind the team, notwithstanding the fact that I have eliminated all the trouble-makers and have every belief that the new Eskimos will be as strong as the lineup that won the championship in 1922-23."

"I am absolutely satisfied that I can get the wholehearted support of the Regina newspapers and every hockey fan in that city and the surrounding country, while in Edmonton, I doubt very much if the public will be behind the team, notwithstanding the fact that I have eliminated all the trouble-makers and have every belief that the new Eskimos will be as strong as the lineup that won the championship in 1922-23."

"You can say for me," said Mackenzie before leaving here for Regina, "that I will give the Regina offer every consideration. If the proposition offered looks good to me, and I think that the citizens of Regina will be behind me wholeheartedly, I'll move the team. The exact details of the Regina offer are unknown to me at present, but I'm on my way to find out."

THE BONE OF CONTENTION
Questioned as to his differences with the city in regard to the leasing of the rink, McKenzie said that it wasn't the inclusion of the fair wage clause that he objected to—not because it was the fair wage clause. His attitude was that the hockey club and the exhibition board had reached an agreement. Asserting that he was given to understand that the board had been authorized to deal with the lease question, McKenzie said that he was satisfied with the arrangement made with the board, and was ready to go ahead when the council inserted a couple of clauses in the lease agreement.

Besides the squabble over the rink lease, McKenzie admitted that he was doubtful of the support his team would get here this season. He claims his club lost $12,000 last season, and he feels that the citizens are not solidly behind his team. He hasn't a chance to break even, let alone make a little money.

"I know the club is plenty of knockers in the town," he said, "and I also know that my team did not play the kind of hockey they should have done last season. The trouble-makers this year, and I expect to have a team that will be well worth watching on leaving Edmonton, but if the Regina proposition looks better to me than the one I have here, I'll move."

Cricketers to Meet On Friday Evening; Important Business

Maranville Passes To Brooklyn Club
New York, Nov. 10.—Walter ("Rabbit") Maranville, veteran Chicago National League shortstop manager of the Cubs for a time last year, has been obtained by the Brooklyn National League Baseball Club for the waiver price of $4,000. The Brooklyn club announced yesterday it also had obtained William Marrott, third baseman, by the same route from the Boston Nationals.

BOAT CANCELLED
Seattle, Nov. 10.—A six-round bout here tonight, which was cancelled when Reddick, claimant to the lightweight championship of Canada, withdrew. He had been matched against Roy Chitt of Alberta, but the Seattle boxing commission was called to consider disciplining Reddick. The programme still includes a six-round meeting between Vic King, bantamweight champion of Australia, and Bud Riddle, Seattle.

"Rep" Eleven and Veterans Play To A Three-all Draw

Largest Crowd of Season Attended Match Yesterday at Royal Athletic

All-Stars Missed Two Penalties; Juniors Win From Wednesday Leaguers by 3-1

Before the largest crowd that has attended a football game this season, the "rep" eleven from the First Division, battled to a three-all draw at the Royal Athletic Park yesterday afternoon. The game was hard-fought from start to finish, although play was inclined to be ragged at times. The grounds were in a slippery condition, which made the ball exceedingly difficult to handle.

The Veterans, without the services of three of their star players, McCormick, "Nobbie" Clark and "Taffy" Edwards. They were all injured in the match last Saturday afternoon in Vancouver against St. Saviours.

Harry Copas, Pat Mulcahy and Warren were absent from the "rep" team, but Tuckwell, Spiers and J. Watt, who took their places, showed up well.

The "rep" eleven were forced to play with only eleven men at the start, but after fifteen minutes of play Johnny Watt and Spiers brought the team up to full strength. It was too bad that with such a good crowd on hand the teams could not have started with full sides.

Cameron, the Vets' flashy inside right, put his team in the lead by a neat shot at the goal, which crossed the mouth of the goal looking in the corner of the net not long after the start.

A PRETTY GOAL
Carrying the ball down the right wing, Cozier put in a lovely centre that Hay headed over to Tommy Watt. Tommy put his head to the ball and sent it into the net after Bridges had made an unsuccessful attempt to get it out. It was a pretty goal and did the first division players credit.

With the score tied the "rep" team continued to storm the Vets' goal, and Cozier put them in the lead when he rushed in after Tommy Watt had been in attempting to shoot, and scored.

Carrying the ball up the field from the centre-off, Joe Clark put the redoubt in even terms. He headed the leather between the posts after Thornett had passed to him in front of the net. Another score was done in the first half, although the Vets had a couple of fine opportunities.

MISS PENALTY KICK
The "rep" team was awarded a penalty a few minutes after the start of the second half when Clancy stopped a shot with his hands. "Red" Cummings, who took the kick, tried for the corner of the net and his shot missed the goal by at least three feet.

John Watt put the All-Stars in the lead once again when he beat Bridges. His brother, Tom, placed a neat pass with defeat staring them in the face. The Veterans worked hard and Cameron sent in a bullet shot that Watt netted out. The ball landed at "Spud" Merfield's toe and he centred it to give Clark, who headed it into the goal.

ANOTHER PENALTY BUNGLED
The "rep" team missed a grand chance to secure the lead and probably gain a victory when they were awarded another penalty. Hawkes took the kick and missed, booting the ball to the same spot as Cummings had done. It looked very much as if another player tried to score on the shots. The final whistle blew with the Vets facing the play.

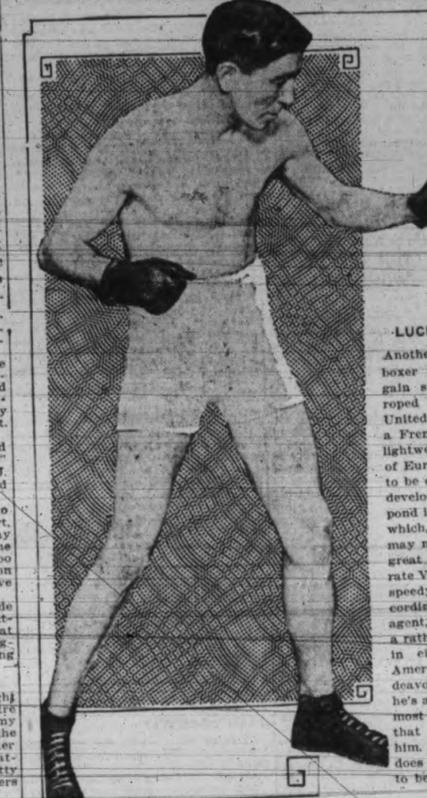

Stokes refereed and the teams were as follows:
Veterans—Bridges, Campbell, Clancy, McKarracher, Preston, Thornett, Merfield, Cameron, Joe Clark, Spiers and Clackson.
"Rep" team—Watt, Joe Watt, Tuckwell, Shanks, Hawkes, Hay, Cummings, John Watt, Tommy Watt, Spiers and Cozier.

At Beacon Hill yesterday morning the slope in their favor the Wednesday League "rep" team a nice little surprise packet in the form of a 2-1 defeat. The Juniors put up a splendid exhibition. Their sparkling speed earned them a well-deserved victory over the Wednesday Leaguers. They set a gruelling pace at the start, maintaining it until the end of the half time the Juniors were leading 1-0.

The Juniors are to be congratulated on the fine brand of soccer they set up. They should send up a number of fine players to the senior clubs in the next few years.

Another From Old Sod

Lucien Vinez, European Lightweight Champion, Out to Hang Up Reputation Over Here

LUCIEN VINEZ
Another European boxer who hopes to gain success in the roped arena in the United States. He's a Frenchman and is lightweight champion of Europe. He's said to be one of the best developed across the pond in a long while, which, of course, may not be saying a great deal. At any rate Vinez is a shifty, speedy fellow, according to his press agent, and commands a rather stout wallop in either mitt. In America he will endeavor to prove that he's a bit better than most of the invaders that have preceded him. Whether he does or not remains to be seen.

Plenty Of Deer, But Very Few Pheasants in North
Rain that was general on Vancouver Island north of Victoria Thanksgiving day failed to dampen the enthusiasm of sportsmen seizing the opportunity the holiday offered for a week-end in search of game. The up-Island roads were well lined with automobile parties while the Esquimalt and Nanaimo Railway carried scores of sportsmen and their dogs.

Birds were reported unusually scarce and there were many empty bags. Few of the huntsmen had more than two or three pheasants. Many had none. Those out after deer had better luck one sportsman declaring that in twenty years on the Island he had never seen more deer.

The deer are plentiful at Sooke. Yesterday Mrs. George Weller brought down two bucks with her rifle. One was a "spike" and the other a "fork" weighing 140 pounds.

Campbell River is a popular venue for the many successful bags reported there from long distances. During the past week the stage driver has brought out on an average of many cars from Campbell River were seen on the highway with deer roped behind. Last Sunday a buck weighing over 200 pounds dressed, was shot at Quathlakhi Cove after having swum across the Straits from Campbell River. A buck weighing 210 pounds dressed was shot at Sandwick last week.

The offensive and during a heated attack the junior's goal one of the youngsters handled the ball in the penalty area, Hay scoring on the free kick.

A few minutes after this Shrimpton was injured, being forced to retire from the game. During his absence the Juniors secured their third goal from a free kick outside the penalty area.

S.S. Basketball Teams Open Season To-night
Sunday School basketball teams will get into action to-night when three games will be played at the Memorial Hall. The first game will start at 7.45 o'clock. A large crowd is expected.

The first game will be between the Congos Intermediate girls and the Christ Church Intermediates. The Congregationals are now amalgamated with the Metropolitan, but will keep their last season's team intact. They had a fast team last season and should be considerably stronger this season. Intermediate boys will provide the entertainment in the second game when St. Andrew's Presbyterians clash with the City Temple, Husters. This should be a real fast game as both teams are reported to have formidable line-ups.

First Presbyterian senior men will be out again this season but little is known of their line-up. They can be depended upon putting a strong team on the floor and should give the On-Wa-Gos a good battle in the final game of the evening.

Boy Sensation of Links To Play Vet In Colwood Finals

Golden Terry Will Meet A. V. Macan in 36-Hole Match For Club Championship

Terry Defeated Findlay, Medalist, and McQuade, City Champ, Yesterday

Youth and experience will compete for the championship of the Colwood Golf Club next Sunday. A. V. Macan, who has been in the golf limelight of these parts for many years, will meet Golden Terry, who came upon this planet long after Macan took up the game, in the final. The match, which will be over thirty-six holes, should be extremely well contested.

Terry has been the sensation of the tournament this year. He had two hard matches on his hands yesterday. They were against two seasoned players. In the third round in the morning he defeated "Jack" Findlay, the medalist, who is playing fine golf at present. Terry went to the nineteenth hole before he succeeded in breaking through Findlay's game and winning. In the semifinal in the afternoon Terry was drawn against Ed. McQuade, the city champion. Terry won this match on the eighteenth green.

MACAN PLAYS WELL
To reach the finals Macan eliminated Art Beasley in the morning by 3 and 2, while in the afternoon he accounted for R. J. Darcus by 5 and 4.

The semi-finals in the first flight will also be played on Sunday. C. S. Whiting and H. Lineham will contest the honors.

The finals in the second and third flights were played yesterday. M. R. Jamieson won the second flight and B. R. Cleer won the third flight. Yesterday scores were as follows: Championship Flight—Third Round—G. Terry won from J. N. Findlay, 19th.

Second Round—M. R. Jamieson won from C. I. MacKenzie, 5-4. R. J. Darcus won from E. P. Johnson, 4-2. A. V. Macan won from A. G. Beasley, 3-2.

Fourth Round—G. Terry won from E. C. McQuade, 1 up. A. V. Macan won from R. J. Darcus, 5-4. First Flight—Third Round—H. W. Lamay won from W. S. Ellis, 4-1. H. Lineham won from E. L. Poock, 4-5. E. M. Brown won from J. R. Kingham, 2-1. C. S. Whiting won from W. Rastbush, 6-5.

Harlequins Refuse To Play Rugby With Newport in Future
London, Nov. 10 (Canadian Press Cable)—Sensation has been sprung in the Rugby Union by the decision of the Harlequins Club to discontinue fixtures with the Newport Club of the Welsh Union following alleged flagrant violations of the rugby code at Newport on Saturday. The game resulted in a victory for Newport by 10 points to 3.

The Harlequins' decision was taken following a meeting of the club's executive. Newport's offence is said to have been, in particular, the use of the hands in the scrums. The Harlequins have no further fixtures with Newport this season and Harlequins' ruling will take effect from next season.

CUBS TO TRAIN ON COAST
Chicago, Nov. 10.—The Chicago Cubs will leave for their Spring training camps at Catalina Island, February 11, with a squad of 25. Training will start February 15.

Edmonton Ruggers Again Defeated By Vancouver Fifteen
Vancouver, Nov. 10.—Edmonton "rep" ruggers shut out Vancouver's best 19-0 in the second match of the inter-city series here yesterday afternoon and the Albertans went home with three points as their total score against local aggregations. The score in the first game on Saturday was 20-3.

Monday's performance was somewhat of a disappointment to the 1,500 enthusiasts, because the local tribe failed to show the form expected of them, though they were still lacking the rep fifteen seldom revealed any of the power that was expected of them. The forwards failed to shine, as the three main chances to shine, as they seldom got the ball out of the scrum, while the three, when they did swing into action, furnished miserably and failed to show very much team work.

But despite their shortcomings the Vancouver side was much the superior. The Albertans worked hard, held their own in the scrum and at times threatened. But their back division lacked system and they could not get going against the stiff back most of their scoring in the first period, when they piled up thirteen points. They added two more tries in the second session, but had they played up to their individual reputation in league fixtures the score would have been much larger.

Uplands Club Meets
A special meeting of the members of the Uplands Golf Club will be held this evening at 8 o'clock in Room 418, Belmont Building. The question of playing water-mats on the fairways will be discussed and all members are urged to attend.

ANOTHER PLAYER MAY QUIT HOCKEY RANKS

MICKEY ROACH

The popular little sorrel-topped forward of last year's Hamilton N.H.L. club, is back from his trip to the western coast and still determined to play hockey this year. His success as a traveller has convinced him that it is better to have steady employment than to toss up a job to play hockey for a few months and then have to look elsewhere for work after the hockey season is over.

Holiday Foursomes Won By Young Pair With Splendid Score
Tommy Lampman and Miss Marion Wilson won the mixed foursomes played yesterday at the Victoria Golf Club. They turned in a splendid score of 164, gross, which was 27, net, with a handicap of 16½, left them with a net score of 60½. They finished ten points better than Mr. and Mrs. J. Hutchinson, who were second.

The foursomes attracted a very fine entry list. In the putting competition Robert Baird took but fourteen putts for nine holes. He had four "ones" and five "twos."

The scores in the foursomes were as follows:
T. Lampman and Miss Marion Wilson, 77, 16½, 60½.
Mr. and Mrs. J. Hutchinson, 87, 16½, 70½.
W. P. D. Pemberton and Miss M. Pitt, 89, 16, 73.

Wednesday League Soccer Teams Will Be Idle To-morrow

No Half-holiday so Games Discontinued For One Week

Wednesday League football matches will be played to-morrow afternoon. There will be no half-holiday due to the fact that Thanksgiving Day fell this week and all the stores will be open to-morrow.

First Division soccer teams will clash in the final round of the Dominion Cup series on Saturday afternoon. Last week in the second round the Victoria Wests and United Services each received their first defeat of the season. This week's matches will be: Victoria Wests vs. James Island at Central Park; referee, Alcock. Esquimalt vs. Sons of England at Beacon Hill; referee, Oliver. United Services vs. Victoria Wests at Central Park; referee, Alcock.

At present the Victoria Wests, United Services and Esquimalt are tied for the league leadership, each club having lost one match. Competition has been keen in the cup games and there will be a hot race before the finish.

Last week the Wests fell before the Sons of England and in order to hold their position at the top of the league they must notch a victory over the Islanders. James Island secured a draw with the Victoria United last Saturday.

SONS ARE STRONG
The Sons of England scored a fine win over the Wests in their second round match and are now anxious to send Esquimalt, their old rivals, down to defeat. The Englishmen have a formidable club this season and will have to be reckoned with before the season closes.

When the United Services meet the Victoria United they will have all their regular team on hand. The Services have had four of their main players out of the game for the past couple of weeks but they are now ready for action. The United have not been going very good this season although they have given several teams a hard run.

Last Minute News on Stocks and Financial Affairs

New York, Nov. 10 (By R. P. Clark & Co.)—The advance in the Boston bank rate was the main topic of discussion and also the chief factor in directing heavy liquidation which was prominent throughout the dealings. Resulting in severe declines in some of the more volatile stocks. Attempts at various times to stem the tide of liquidation by rallies in the oils, coppers and rails was but of temporary influence to the main body of stocks, each succeeding rally meeting with a freer supply of stocks.

The steel tonnage report afforded definite evidence of improvement in the industry since the late summer, but received no particular recognition, evidently, the recent upswing in the securities reporting the steel industry had discounted this evidence of returning prosperity. The oil figures were favorably interpreted while the copper earnings reports for the September quarter that more appearance seemed favorably with comparison figures.

We expect a further development of the reactionary trend until more equitable adjustment of the market technical position is attained at.

New York, Nov. 10 (By B. C. Bond Corporation's direct Wall Street wire.)—The evening stock market edition of The Wall Street Journal says:

Notwithstanding the phenomenal activity and advances in prices of many securities in the stock exchange member last week, the clearing house institutions, in their actual conditions at close Friday reported a decrease in loans of $34,562,000. This contrasted with the average figures where the loan item showed an increase of $44,000,000.

Other things being equal, the volume of loans in a securities remains fairly constant, regardless of stock market activity. The effect of rising security prices is scarcely perceptible, except over a long period. A way to the market trading simply means a shifting of securities from one hand to another, and likewise a shifting of loans between bank accounts.

Fundamentally, the present cause of increase in the stock market securities is against new issues of securities.

Approximately $15,000,000 in loans was called by bank as a result of the deficit in actual reserves reported in Saturday's clearing house statement. Bankers look for higher call money rates, which will result in a short time until the reserve position corrected.

due after the close, many were inclined to hold aloof. The demand for offerings of corn on spots remains active with premiums higher than those on the crop. The same was true in the southwest. Movement of corn from the country moderate and reports from Iowa indicated that farmers were receiving considerable premiums for corn and not complaining.

Corn is fundamentally strong and worthy of support on weak spots. Oats: Averaged fractionally higher. Wheat and other leading commodities houses operating on both sides. Run of news. Chicago, Nov. 10 (By B. C. Bond Corporation's Direct Pit Wire)—Wheat opened easier with light trade and a dull tendency. After the close, the market was endeavored to cover and found few offerings.

Chicago, Nov. 10 (By R. P. Clark & Co. Limited)—Dullness characterizes time money market. Rates continue unchanged from last week, ranging from 4 1/2% to 5% for sixty days to six months. Offerings are plentiful. Commercial paper market quiet with rates unchanged from last week at 4 1/2% for prime names and 4 3/4% for less well known. Supply of paper is limited with out-of-town banks principally in the market.

WINNIPEG GRAIN

Winnipeg, Nov. 10—Trading in the wheat market here today lacked feature and prices followed the trend of Chicago, recording early declines and a recovery late in the session. There was a fair class of buying during the morning, especially in November which looked like export business. During the closing hour, however, the market became very dull and at times the pit was practically empty. Seaboard reported a poor demand for wheat. Threshing operations are again proceeding in the western provinces under favorable weather conditions. Cash wheat was featureless.

Coarse grains, both future and cash, followed the trend of wheat and experienced a dull day. Winnipeg, Nov. 10 (By R. P. Clark & Co.)—Wheat: The market displayed a stubborn undertone to-day and after being about one cent lower during the early part of the session gradually turned up, being influenced by the strength at Chicago and generally closed from one cent to one-quarter cent higher. There appeared to be a fair class of buying at times, especially in the November, which looked like export business, but the volume was not large. Commission houses were buying May on the break and there was undoubtedly reating orders in the pit at around $1.20. At times the market was very dull, the pit being practically empty and the total day's business was not large.

Offerings early came from elevator companies against their purchases in the country, but later in the afternoon the strength at Chicago was probably due to evening up the holiday, and pending the Government report due this afternoon. Receipts continue heavy, there being 4,584 cars of wheat inspected in the past three days, while farmers continuing to market around 2,600,000 bushels daily. The Canadian wheat crop showed an increase for the week of 2,390,500 bushels, the figures being 4,978,500 bushels.

The cash market was featureless, offerings light with only an ordinary demand existing. Coarse grains. These markets were very narrow to-day with little feature going on. Out prices closed 3/4 to 1/2 cent lower, while barley closed 1/2 cent up to 1/4 cent lower. Rye was firm, but practically nothing going on. Coarse grains followed the wheat market, with a tendency to close early with prices off about two cents, which was recovered later. The market was featureless.

Winnipeg, Nov. 10 (By B. C. Bond Corporation's Direct Pit Wire)—Wheat opened sharply lower in sympathy with weakness in American markets, meeting with excellent class of buying on the break led by Canadian American mills also scattered buying by houses with export connections.

Market turned strong with shorts endeavoring to cover towards latter part of session. Believe immediate situation warrants higher prices and take advantage of all breaks to make purchases.

THE TIME-WORN TOWN

By J. S. Fletcher

The Coroner was already turning to the jury. He began with his notes of the first day's proceedings and spent some time over them, but eventually he told his listeners that all that had transpired in the opening stages of the enquiry faded into comparative insignificance when viewed in the light of the evidence they had heard that morning. He analyzed that evidence with the acumen of the cute old lawyer that everybody knew him to be, and at last got to what the sharpened intellects amongst his hearers felt with him, to be the crux of the situation: was there jealousy of an appreciable nature between Wallingford and Wellesley in respect of Mrs. Saumarez? It was there (and he brushed aside, rather cavalierly, Wellesley's denial that it existed at the time of Wallingford's death, then the evidence, as they had it, clearly showed that between seven-thirty and seven-forty-nine on the evening of the late Mayor's death, Wellesley had ready and easy means of access to the Mayor's Parlor, and something might have occurred which had revived the old jealousy; there might have been a sudden scene, a quarrel, high words. It was a pity, a thousand pities, that Dr. Wellesley refused to give the name of the person who, according to his story, was with him during the nineteen minutes' interval which—been put before you, and I am bound to tell you that there is no evidence that Dr. Wellesley had any caller."

A woman's voice suddenly rang out, clear and sharp, from a point in the audience immediately facing the Coroner.

"He had! I was the caller."

In the excitement of the moment Tansley sprang to his feet, stared, sank back again.

"Good God!" he exclaimed. "Mrs. Mallet! What?"

Brent too, got up and looked. He saw a handsome, determined-looking woman standing amidst the closely-packed spectators. Mallet sat by her side—He was evidently struck dumb with sudden amazement and was staring open-mouthed at her. On the other side, two or three men and women—evidently friends—were expostulating with the interrupter. But Mrs. Mallet was oblivious of her husband's wonder and her friends' entreaties; confronting the Coroner, she spoke again.

"Mr. Coroner, I am the person who called on Dr. Wellesley!" she said in a loud, clear voice. "I was there all the time you're discussing, and if you'll let me give evidence, you shall have it on my oath. I am not going to sit here and hear an innocent man traduced for lack of a word of mine."

The Coroner, who looked none too well pleased at the interruption, motioned Mrs. Mallet to come forward. He wavered aside, impatiently a protest from Wellesley, who seemed to be begging this voluntary witness to go back to her seat and say nothing, and, as Mrs. Mallet entered the witness-box, turned to Meeking.

"Examine you'll be good enough to examine this witness," he said, a little irritably. "These irregular interruptions . . . But let her say what she has to say."

Mrs. Mallet, in Brent's opinion, looked precisely the sort of lady to have her say, and to have it right out—She was calm enough now and when she had taken the oath and told her questioner formally who she was, she faced him with equanimity. Meeking, somewhat uncertain of his ground, took his cue from the witness's dramatic intervention.

"Mrs. Mallet, did you call on Dr. Wellesley at seven-thirty on the evening in question—the evening on which Mr. Wallingford met his death?"

"I did."

"By arrangement?"

"Certainly—by arrangement."

"When was the arrangement made?"

"That afternoon—Dr. Wellesley and I met in the Market-Place, about four o'clock. We made it then."

"Was it to be a strictly private interview?"

"Yes, it was. That was why I went to the side door in Piper's Passage."

"Did Dr. Wellesley admit to himself?"

"Yes, he did, and he took me straight up to his drawing-room by a side staircase."

"No one saw you going in?"

"No, nor leaving either!"

"Why all this privacy, Mrs. Mallet?"

"My business was of a private sort, sir."

"Will you tell us what it was?"

"I will tell you that I had reasons of my own—my particular own—for seeing Dr. Wellesley and the Mayor."

"The Mayor! Did you see the Mayor—there?"

"No, I meant to see him, but I didn't."

"Do you mean that you expected to meet him there—in Dr. Wellesley's drawing-room?"

"No, Dr. Wellesley had told me of the door between his house and the Moot Hall, and he said that after he and I had had our talk, I could go through that door to the Mayor's Parlor, where I should be sure to find Mr. Wallingford at that time."

"I see—Then—did you go to see Mr. Wallingford?"

"I did."

"After talking with Dr. Wellesley?"

"Yes. He showed me the way—opened the door for me—"

"Stay! What time would that be?"

"About seven-thirty-five or so, I went along the passage to the Mayor's Parlor, but I never entered."

"Never entered? Why, now, Mrs. Mallet?"

"Because, as I reached the door, I heard people talking inside the Parlor. So I went back."

WHOSE VOICES?

Meeking, who by long experience knew the value of dramatic effect in the examination of witnesses, took full advantage of Mrs. Mallet's strange and unexpected announcement. He paused, staring at her, knowing well enough that when he stared other folk would stare, too. So for a full moment the situation rested; there stood Mrs. Mallet, resolute and unmoved, in the box, with every eye in the crowded court fixed full on her, and Meeking still gazing intently and of set purpose, half-incredulously. There was something intentionally sceptical, cynical, in his tone when, at last, he spoke.

"Do you say—on oath—that you went through the door between Dr. Wellesley's house and the Moot Hall to the Mayor's Parlor that evening?"

"To the door of the Mayor's Parlor," corrected Mrs. Mallet. "Yes, I do, I did!"
