

Fragment

However, I think that after having been to Plymouth I may take a day or two. — if that date will suit you & Brown. At any rate, I will write to you then.

Henry D. Thoreau.

M2
345
6

P. 281 of "The Familiar Letters" the day of its publication, and it should have reached you before. I am encouraged to know that it interests you as it now stands - a printed book - for you apply a very severe test to it - you make the highest demand on me. Concord Sept. 21 '54.

H. P. C.

ms. B. 1. 10. 17

I cut out to-day, ^{Jan. 12, 1885} above, for Mr. ~~C. H. Skinner~~ Charles H. Skinner of Brooklyn, N. Y., connected apparently with the Brooklyn Daily Times, The following words on this page:

'However, I think that after having been to Plymouth I may take a day or two. — if that date will suit your program. At any rate, I will write to you then. Henry D. Thoreau.'

in your own favour if I speak of, I should like it well, indeed I thought of posting the same thing to Boston some months ago.
Perhaps it would have been I had done so then, for in case I should have been to enter into it with the joint margin being written full length