HEADQUARTERS
ARMY AIR FORCES
LUBBOCK ARMY FLYING SCHOOL
OFFICE OF THE COMMANDING OFFICER

LUBBOCK, TEXAS.

January 2, 1943.

TO THE GRADUATES OF CLASS 43-B:

You have proven that you have what it takes. We are proud to have had you with us here at Lubbock Army Flying School, and proud to send you on to tactical units. Do not let us down, but press on with the same degree of enthusiasm and determination that you have displayed here. Your goal should be to become the best officers and pilots in the Army Air Forces.

Good luck, and keep 'em flying!

OFFICE OF THE COMMANDANT

LUBBOCK, TEXAS

-TO THE CLASS OF 43-B

It has been a genuine pleasure to work with you, and we, the Officers of the Cadet Detachment, extend our heartiest congratulations and best wishes for your future success.

Continue to display as Officers in the Air Corps, the same fine spirit that marked you as Cadets, and for VICTORY do the best you can with what you have at your disposal wherever you may be.

John S. Lorr
JOHN S. LORR,
Major, Air Corps,
Commandant of Cadets.

MAJOR JOHN S. LORR
Commandant of Cadets

Dedicated to the American Fighting Man—be he a Soldier, a Sailor, a Marine, or a member of the Coast Guards.

At heart he is peaceful, but when aroused by treachery becomes a formidable force of war against which no powers of oppression can stand.

Although used to the better things of life, when the occasion demands, he is willing to undergo any privation so his country may be better served.

The type man who is not a military machine, but from the lowest Private up, has the initiative and intelligence to take over the place of the leader.

He, who in the words of John Marshall, "Looks up to nobody, looks down on nobody, and keeps his conscience clear enough to look everybody straight into the face."

DOT LINK TRAINER

For two-tree mont my brudder Pierre
Take course on Link to fly de hair
She's haireplane of new special make
On first solo your nerves she shake
You take heem of wit nose to sky
That Goddam ting to floor she's tie
Wit needle, ball and hairspeed dial
Your fly like hell for two-tree mile

Wit system Pierre call one, two, tree
Dat Link she's fly like hay bee cee
Go right, go left, its all de same
Dat needle she's like bear to tame
But Pierre he's tell me once on leve
Hees boss called Slim gets plenty peeved
When hairspeed, height above groun
Don't stay pat, go hup and down.

Dat Link she's fonyy bird to see
Got wings and tail so Pierre tell me
I hask heem why he's not fly home
'Dat Link she's nailed to floor of stone'
I visit once dot Lubbock Place
Dot's radio noise on Link he's ride
But hwn dey give wots called de gun
Dey's come back to where she started from.

Pierre comes home for heaster heggs
Starts talking beams and cones and legs
Dot's radio noise on Link he's ride
Ducked under hood Pierre must ride
Wit phone on ear and eye on board
Hear noise from hell and voice from Lord
Pierre say, "Eyes get cross on day
He's turn to left, go udder way."

Pierre he change he's modder tink
Since he's been ridigg in the Link
Hees appetite on week-end trips
She's shrink on down to little bits
But two weeks more Pierre pass by
No more in Links he's got to fly
He' proved to Slim he's now ver' able
He's fly dat Link from T' Goddam Table.

WELL MR SENSEL!
DID YOU BRING YOUR
STAR-MONEY
TO-DAY?

LT. COONEY

CADET SOLILOQUY

Drive out here, you dodoes;
I've got a tale to tell
Of a trip I took from Heaven
To the frothing gates of Hell.
Now, you all think that you can fly;
Well, I thought that I could too
Until the day I got assigned
The toughest man that flew.
He's six feet two of football brawn;
Completely poker-faced—
Except when any student failed
A check to be an ace.
To give you some idea
Of what I'm up against,
I'll name a certain instance
That led to these events:
I felt my knees start quaking
As we strode out to the plane.
(By "we" I mean just God and me, and the man I thought insane.)
As things turned out, however,
I see now in my mind
That when He saw my boss along
My God remained behind.
Well, that left just the two of us
To ride around up there
And hear the damndest cussing
That ever went on air.

"Now look, godamit, Miller,
"You watch that pin and ball.
"You've got to use the rudder
"If you want to fly at all.
"There're TWO controls within this ship,
"You can't just take your pick;
"Forget about the rudder,
"And fly with just the stick.
"Say, did you hear what I just said?
"Why don't you look around?
"You'd better pay attention
"Or I'll put you on the ground.
"My God, Man! Fly your airplane,
"And raise that low right wing;
"Must I sit here and tell you
"When to do each little thing?
"Now try some stalls and spins next,
"And then some gliding turns;
"Why do I get cadets like you?
"Oh Hell! You'll never learn.
"All right, all right!
"Watch your air-speed fix.

"You know you glide at ninety-five,
"Does that mean ninety-six?
"O. K., Miller, pick a field;
"Forced landing then, you know.
"And make a clear-cut pattern,
"Don't take those turns so low.
"Geezacripes, man. Loosen up,
"Your base leg's much too close.
"My God! Look out; low turn—
"You damned near killed us both.
"I'll fly 'er back to Lubbock, you dope.
"You've got your head inside.
"You came here to learn to fly,
"And not just sit and ride.
"Now you watch how I land this ship.
"Don't be afraid of ground,
"Cause if you are, By God, I'll see
"That I get that fear downed.
"Now climb out of this airplane,
"I want to talk with you;
"And find out if I ever can,
"Why must I cuss you blue?
"I know you think that I am tough,
"But I don't like abuses;
"Now tell me what's the matter—
"Don't give me those excuses.
"And you stand at attention
"Don't unhook that parachute.
"I'll tell you when I'm finished,
"Til then you just stay mute.
"You won't do what I tell you,
"You think that you are hot;
"Well here I am to tell you
That By God, you are not.
"You'd better start improving,
"Or write back home and state
"That inside just a few more days
"To set another plate.
"So you show me tomorrow
"That you've improved your flying,
"And I'll teach you how to fly
"Or break your damn back trying."

He turned around and walked away,
That day eight weeks ago,
While I stood there alone so sad,
And shook my head so slow.
But now I'm off for foreign fields
So ends this last adventure.
My instructor HAS taught me to fly,
But my thoughts on him are censored.

OWED TO A FLYING CADET

Blessings on thee, Flying Cadet
Your silly puss I can't forget—
With thy head of solid bone
Its inner functions stay unknown—

Dressed up in thy fine attire
I wish that clothes could make the flyer—
And thy take-offs, never straight
Look more like a pylon eight—

And thy over-banked chandelle! !
How I wish you were in hell—
Thy landings leave me black and blue—
God made you half-kangaroo—

With thy skidding down-wind turn
I give up! ! You'll never learn—
With thy feet on rudder froze
What keeps you up, God only knows—

With thy pylon-eight down-wind
You are in a constant spin—
With thy ever-dragging wing,
Please, sweet death, where is thy sting?

With thy goggles encased in dust
If the loops don't get you, the snap rolls must—
Blessings on thee, Flying Cadet—
Stay in and pitch, you'll get there yet—

I only hope someday you'll be
A flight instructor, same as me! !

"I SAY, CADET, WHAT'S A FORMATION PEEL OFF?"

"2WR5—FORMATION OVER THE FIELD—REQUESTS LANDING INSTRUCTIONS"

"IT'S H— BEING LOST HERE, EVERY TOWN I HAVE BUZZED HAS THE NAME WRITTEN IN GERMAN."

"I BEG TO REPORT, SIR—DOT 43-B HAFF ARRIVED"

"SAY, WHY DON'T YOU GUYS COME UP AND FLY IN OUR FORMATION SOME TIME?"

"LOOKA — A LOOP —"

WALTON'S

By this time, Gentlemen, the Class Book of 43-B has unfolded its pages to you. Undoubtedly, you have formed an opinion not adverse, we hope. We realize that there was much we wanted to do that we could not do. That some things we should have done were necessarily omitted.

It is hoped that you realize the task involved in the inception of a new book, and that, in addition to flying duties, the job had to be done in the limited time allotted. The editors of "Wings Aloft" are offering no apologies. We are selfishly proud of our book. We hope you too are proud, as it is your book as well. If so, it is your seal of appreciation of our work—and satisfaction enough.
