RE : Observation of Conditions of Children admitted to Institutions under the Child Welfare Law and expenses

It is necessary for welfare officals to investigate and know all about institutions under their jurisdiction which became child welfare agencies under the provision of the Child Welfare Law, Article 67, and 69, and to know all about foster parents and institutions which will become child welfare agencies in the future under the provisions of the law.

1. Admission to child welfare agencies shall be made after careful study of each child is made and the agency selected which will most nearly meet the specific child's needs.

2. Survey should be made by Child Welfare Center workers at each of the welfare agencies of the children at present in child welfare agencies. If another insfitution would better meet the child's needs he should be transferred.

This does not apply to kyogo-ins.

3. Agencies within the prefecture may be reorganized as to function; for example, a home for dependants, neglected and abused children may be changed to a home for feeble-minded children or a kyogo-in if there is a graater need for that kind of institution. The same kind of homes may be classified according to the children's sexes, ages, histories, or physical or mental conditions.

DECLASSIFIED E.O. 12065 SECTION 3-402/NNDG NO. 775 013

II - Expenses

1. Living expenses and other expenses shall be paid for the care of children in foster homes and welfare agencies when the procedure in preceding paragraphs has been completed. Beside the instructions in the enforcement of the Child Welfare Law the following should be kept in mind.

a. In regard to charging for expenses under provisions of the Child Welfare Law, Article 56, a thorough investigation must be made of the family's economic capacity so that there will be no overlooking of families who are able to pay. In the cases of the families who are unable to pay the full cost of care the mayor of the city, town, or village must secure a written statement from the child welfare worker or child welfare official to that effect. The family social investigation should be clearly made so that there will be no looseness in allowing or continuing partial reduction for those who are able to pay. Payments shall be regulated according to the ability of the family to make payment.

b. Date of beginning payment

April 1 -- Those admitted to kyogo-ins
Homes for homeless children provided by special program to protect these children.

May 1 -- All other agencies for whom the procedure of the provisions of the Law have been completed

Separate notification of expense for the care of children in foster homes.

Forms included for reporting on completion of procedure to ministry.

RE : Grasping the conditions of the admitted children under Child Welfare Law and the expenses for it.

It is understood that the precedure for the admitted children under the provisions of Child Welfare Law, Article 22 to 24 inclusive and 27, paragraph 1, item 3 have been taken since January this year. Each paragraph of the following note shall be understood for its execution and about its expenses.

Note :

1. Re: Grasping the conditions of the admitted children.

(1) The admitted children under Child Welfare Law means those who have been admitted to the child welfare agencies (inclusive of those by Law, Article 67 and 69 -- welfare agencies as will be called hereinafter) and who have been placed under the care of foster parents, and the procedure under the Law ~~must~~ have been completed.

(2) Consequently it is necessary for you to investigate and know about all the welfare agencies under your jurisdiction which have already become welfare agencies under the provision of Law, Article 67 and 69, the foster parents and those to become the welfare agencies in future under the provision of Law,

DECLASSIFIED E.O. 12065 SECTION 3-402/NNDG NO. 775 013

Article 35, paragraph 1 and 2 and Article 70.

(3) The procedure by the Law shall be followed by the provisions of Law, Article 22 to 24 inclusive and 27, paragraph 1, item 3 and each item of the following note shall be kept in mind.

1. Admission to the welfare agency shall be made after careful study and discrimination and according to the children's capacities and characteristics the suitable agency for each child's character development must be selected with technical efficiency; this is the object of admission care under this Law.

2. The children who are in the welfare agencies already (inclusive of those under Article 69) shall be examined and discriminated individually and if necessary they must be transferred to other suitable kind of welfare agencies. These examinations shall be carried out immediately by the child welfare center workers at each of welfare agencies according to necessity.

Those in Kyogo-In under the provision of Law, Article 67, however, do not need to go through the procedure.

3. According to preceding paragraph, transfer of the children in one agency to another will be made ~~doubtlessly~~ must be made and reorganization of the agencies within your district, for instance a home for dependent, neglected and abused children may be refitted for the feebleminded children or Kyogo-In if they are in need, or the same kind of homes may be classified according to the children's sexes, ages, histories or physical or mental conditions, ~~must be made~~.

DECLASSIFIED E.O. 12065 SECTION 3-402/NNDG NO. 775 013

4. New cases to be admitted to the welfare agency shall go through the procedure under this Law.

II. Re: Expenses.

(1) Living and other expenses for the care of the children in the welfare agencies and in foster homes shall be paid for those for whom the procedure of each of preceding paragraphs have been completed. Besides the instruction on enforcement of Child Welfare Law -- Welfare Ministry Hatsu-Ji No. 20, March 31st, 1948, each paragraph of the following note shall be kept in mind.

1. As for charging for the expenses under the provision of Law, Article 56, through investigation shall be made on one's economic capacity so that there may be no over-looking of persons who are able to afford to pay for the expense. And as for those who are not able to pay whole part of expenses the mayor of the city, town or village shall secure the written statement of the opinion of the child welfare official or the child welfare worker while he shall make the basic standard for its judgement clear. He shall have always the recipients social investigation made clear so that no losseness in allowing or continuing partial reduction for those who are able to afford may be allowed. It shall be regulated adequately according to the actual conditions of the recipient.

2. As for the date to commence its payment, "the instruction on the expense required for enforcement of Child Welfare Law" was issued as Hatsu-Ji No. 137, March 18th, 1948.

DECLASSIFIED E.O. 12065 SECTION 3-402/NNDG NO. 775 013

The payment shall be commenced on April 1st for those admitted to Kyogo-In and the homes for homeless children provided by the special program to protect these children, and on May 1st for others all of whom the procedure of the provisions of Law has been completed.

3. As for the amount of the expense for the care of children in the homes shall be notified separetely.

III. Reports of those for whome the procedure of the provision of Law, Articles 22 to 24 inclusive and 26, paragraph 1, item 1 and 27, paragraph 1, item 3 with attention on each of preceding paragraph, and of each agency shall be made by the forms No. 1 and No. 2 respectively to this bureau for the time being.

RE : Expenses required for the enforcement of Child Welfare Law.

Child Welfare Law has been in total effect since April 1st this year. Although the expenses accompanied with the enforcement of this Law are to be paid out of its own budget, the expenses for those for whom the procedure under the provisions of Law, Articles 22 to 24 inclusive and 27, Paragraph 1, Item 3, have been taken by the mayors of cities, towns and villages or the governor of the prefecture and are eligible for Daily Life Security Law are required to be paid out of the budget of the same Law as their cases. With the expenses for those admitted to the homes for the homeless children established by the special program for the protection of the homeless children in Metropolis and the prefectures of 6 largest cities and Kyogo-Ins (prefectural as well as approved private Kyogo-Ins), however, the above statement is not applicable.
