Discussion:

a. Since homless children were shut out from Ueno Station of Tokyo, as May 8, some of them came down to Niigata Prefecture. Niigata City Police Office handled 4 or more cases of them, probably Niitsu Police Station & others took more cases on them.

Police Station used identified and sent back them. If they can not prove their identity, should be taken in a institution. There are two troubles they have.

(1) Prefecture Side.

They have no institution to take into them. Prefecture side want to have a small house for them, their most difficulty is how get the money.

(2) Railway Side.

When they find out these children in a train, take off any station or any time, even if it is mid-night or small village, so police side which is hand over them, get into trouble.

When police side want to send back the children and request to railway side to put in train them, railway side does not allow to put them 9:20 p.m. train & 11:00 p.m. train, so they must wait next morning.

b. Teradomari Shinkoryo.
Shimagami Gakuen.

They are both private reformatory which under supervision of procurator office. Every day boys run out from there so police man is picking up them. If they have more foods, they do not run away, police man said.

c. Now some parents understood police and coming over police office to consult on their children them police-man visiting their home and guiding them, in future they will keep in touch with schl. teacher.

d. Child Welfare Section said, when they take care of homeless children soon powdered D.D.T. but usually their clothings are rag, so they want to have stocks. They are very glad to get some clothing from LARA goods, so they want to propose next LARA distribution committee of prefecture.

They are to be distributed to all who hope to grow them next autumn. This was the first time that a large number of them were transplanted into this prefecture. The specialists opine that their growth will possibl be in this Prefecture. In time their splendid red-leaves will be admired by the public, and 30 Kg of resin per tree will be raised when grow up, which will be available as raw material for oil.

(b) Great increase in 'Igoma' (a kind of sesami) crops:

It has never been known hither to that abundant crops of 'Igoma' can be raised in this prefecture. 1,035 Kg of 'Igoma' seeds (12 'Koku') were collected from the Nonuma Districts this year.
2 'Koku' was sent to other Prefectures out of them at the instruction of the Ministry of Agriculture & Forestry.
10 'Koku''(862.5 Kg) were sewn in this prefecture.
An epoch-making large crops of them are expected.
It is hoped that the shortage in 'Igoma' oil, as essential raw material for paints, may largely be mitigated next year.

(5) Measures for supply of edible oil to be rationed to schools and hospitals:

(a) For schools:

Among the above-said seeds and seedlings to be mediated, 222.75 Kg (2.7 'Koku') of 'Oma' seeds and 390 Kg (5.2 'Koku') of sun-flower seeds will be distributed to all the schools free of charge, and the whole quantity of oil to be produced out of the crops will be supplied to them as compensation.

DECLASSIFIED E. O. 12065 SECTION 3-402 / NNDG NO. 775013

Besides, pumpkin seeds, left unavailed hither to, will be collected, and 8.25 Kg (0.05 'Koku') of edible oil will be supplied to deliverers per 75 Kg (1'Koku') of seeds as compensation.

Further, the public will be requested to co-operat in collecting will oil resources growing in the mountains and fields. A certain amount of edible oil will be supplied to deliverers at appropriate rates as compensation.

The above are our schedules for supply of edible oil which is found most scarce now.

(b) For hospitals:

The same measures as stated above (a) will be applied to the supply of edible oil to hospitals. 2.475 Kg (0.03 Koku') of 'Oma' seeds and 20.25 Kg (0.27 'koku') of sun-flower seeds were distributed to hospitals free of charge for this year.

6) Experimental cultivation to find out suitable species:

7 (seven) kinds of peanuts and 3 (three) kinds of sun-flowers were distributed to experimental farms in this prefecture to be cultivated in them with the view to find out most suitable species and localities to cultivate them.

(7) Measures for unavailed oil resources:

(a) To establish an unavailed oil resources distribution research committees.

(b) To make such resources known thoroughly by distributing illustrated panphlets.

(c) To analyse and research oils taken from unavailed oil resources:

The results of analysis attained by Doctor Obara, Advisor to this Society, requested to research some kinds of oil, denote that some precious ingredients are contained in wild resources of this prefecture.

(d) On promising unavailed resources:

'Sbura-chan' - Dr. Obara announces that this herb contains the following ingredients:

Capric acid	40 - 50 %
Lauric acid	30 %
Myristic acid	13 %
Oleic acid	7 - 8 %

DECLASSIFIED E. O. 12065 SECTION 3-402 / NND NO. 775013

7 (seven) kinds of [illegible] flowers were distributed to experimental farms in this prefecture to be cultivated in them with the view to find out most suitable species and localities to cultivate them.

(7) Measures for unavailed oil resources:

(a) To establish an unavailed oil resources distribution research committee.

(b) To make such resources known thoroughly by distributing illustrated panphlets.

(c) To analyse and research oils taken from unavailed oil resources:

The results of analysis attained by Doctor Obara, Advisor to this Society, requested to research some kinds of oil, denote that some precious ingredients are contained in wild resources of this prefecture.

'Sbura-chan' - Dr. Obara announces that this herb contains the following ingredients:

Capric acid	40 - 50 %
Lauric acid	30 %
Myristic acid	13 %
Oleic acid	7 - 8 %

He opines that few herbs contain a large quantity of capric acid and lauric acid and a great success is expected to the utilization of this herb.

A great number of this herb grow wildly in the mountainous regions of the 'Chubu' Region (the middle 'Honshu'). A great quantity is likely to be collected mainly from the mountainous regions of Uonuma Counties, this prefecture. We expect to make its utility understood thoroughly and collect the greatest quantity of them that have ever been taken.

'Urushi' (lacquer-trees):

The prefectural statistics estimates that 262.5 tons (70,000 'koku') will be yielded. Efforts are being made to collect them completely.

DECLASSIFIED E. O. 12065 SECTION 3-402 ON NNG NO. 75013

Other resources:

'Ishagara', 'Shiroki', 'Tsubaki' (amelia) and 'Haze' (Wax-tree) and other unavailed resources are expected to be collected to a good deal, which are considered to pave the way to the utilization of unavailed resources.

(8) Plan for rice-oil production increase:

Among the most essential Japanese potential oil resources ranks rice-bran.

Tens of thousands of thons of rice-oil could be obtained by squeezing the whole amount of rice-bran which would be available out of 9,000,000 tons of rice, the whole yields of rice in Japan. Squeezing the rice-bran of the authorized retention of rice out of the whole product of this prefecture, 600,000 tons, and enforcing delivery of perfectly polished rice, around 40,000 tons of rice-bran could be got at 94 % polishing rate, out of which 3,000 tons of crude rice-oil could be sqeezed, assuming the product rate at 8 %. This could be refined and finished into edible oil, artificial butter, soap, toilet articles, chemicals etc., moreover the oilless remnant would be used as excellent fodder for cattle. This would turn out an important stepping-stone to the recovery of rural economy.

With regard to this point, the prefectural authorities, reflecting that the chief reasons for the unfavourable results of the existing rice-oil industry in this prefecture since last autumn lay in the fact that it was planned and conducted by organizations with no close connection with farmers and farming villages, the real rice producers, from the initial operation, an agricultural and industrial corporation campaign was developed, chiegly aiming to produce rice-oil systematically, worked by the funds of farmers themselves, farmers unions, agricutural associations and other producers groups taking the lead there-of.

21 (twenty-one) plants were established already, where typical oil-squeezing machines, such as cage pressess and oil expellers were installed, and extracting equipments are to be installed before long, which promises to produce about 1,000 tons of crude rice-oil annually. Adding the production of the present rice-oil plants to the above-said amount, over one hundred and several hundred tons of crude rice-oil could be obtainable.

To amend the faults in the present farming-village industry, and treat the above-said crude rece-oil in consistent ways, refinery plants will be built by a co-operative corporation, which will the over-all control of the campaign, where rice-oil will be dealt consistently from the beginning to the last finishing stage, rational speciallized type of industry will be established with highest techniques and scientific operation methods, a perfect model

1. The fundamental principles on which we are protecting and training the children are "affection and sincerity."

2. True affection and sincerity cannot stand together with falsehood. We are determined to make a pleasant home which has not anything false at all.

3. It is indispensable as the means of the children's loving care to improve the material conditions of living to some extent. We, therefore, endeavour to improve food, clothing and habitation for the children all the time.

4. Observing the speech and and behaviour of each child to grasp his own character is essential to attain the object of the children's care. We try to do in this way to the utmost.

5. "Conduct" in the true sense of the word should be founded on self-consciousness of the children. We always try to guide the children to think and act voluntarily.

DECLASSIFIED E. O. 12065 SECTION 3-402 / NND ON 995 NO. 775013

6. The best measures for the children's care are those fitted to the children's individuality. We always make a study of them and put them into practice.

7. We think that to speak too much is not suitable enough to instruct the children. We encourage the children to do something good by taking the initiative ourselves in doing so.

8. It is necessary for the children to complete middle and elementary school course. We, therefore, regard school-work seriously so as to live happy lives as the members of society in future

9. It is important to give the children the joy and respect for labour. That is why we set value on working education.
