

NOTED ARTIST HERE

EDWIN M. DAWES OF MINNEAPOLIS WILL PAINT VERDUGO HILLS

Among the latest arrivals in Glendale this winter is Edwin M. Dawes of Minneapolis, Minn., and of whom that city may well be proud. Discovered three years ago while painting gold lettered signs for office doors and windows, he has risen to a painter of pictures that command the serious attention and admiration of connoisseurs. Judging from articles in the Minneapolis Tribune, we feel assured that a real painter has arrived, for when a man has sold a dozen pictures in a little over a year, has attracted the attention of his own little art world, and of the big art world outside, and has had the first picture he submitted to an exhibit accepted, I repeat, when an artist has had all these things happen to him, he has a claim to renown such as few of his fellow workers can boast.

There are any number of devotees of the velvet coat and long hair who have painted gems of purest art serene, but who has ever heard of a struggling young aspirant for artistic laurels who could persuade an admiring public to do anything more substantial than admire, or an exhibition jury to accept a masterpiece upon its initial tendering or even upon its fourteenth attempt?

For that matter, who ever heard of a young writer who did not have his undoubted work of genius returned by many a flinty publisher or of the composer who pined for years in obscurity?

This Minneapolis artist is going against all rules and traditions of the artistic game and yet he is succeeding marvelously well. He is of a surety favored of the gods.

To begin with, Mr. Dawes does not look like an artist, and is the most modest, unassuming genius you may ever expect to meet; he is direct and natural in his manner.

In speaking of himself, Mr. Dawes said: "In '93 I was in Denver, Colo., and accidentally came onto hard times. So I started in on sign painting. I knew nothing about the trade—just did it. It was the same way with my painting. Up to eleven years ago I had never seen any good paintings—just cheap pictures in crude colors. One day a friend took me to the Walker art gallery and it was like coming into a new world. I do not remember how long I stayed. I only know the wonderful impression those pictures made on me."

An interesting incident led to Mr. Dawes' "discovery" three years ago. The artist was busy working over a canvas in his little sign painting studio, when J. W. Young, an art connoisseur of Chicago, found him and was enthusiastic over the astonishing force and individuality of the canvas. The picture is entitled "Burning Leaves," and shows the figure of a woman stooping as she brushes the leaves from her rake into the bonfire. It is the wonderful representation of the flames of the fire that seem to leap out of the darkness of the background and to light the face and figure of the woman that holds the attention. The canvas is 40x50 inches and has been painted in palette knife work, with the exception of the face and hands. Mr. Young said: "There isn't another artist in America who can paint fire like that," and when the art dealer took Nicholas R. Brewer to see the picture, Brewer exclaimed, "How did it happen?" Mr. Young replied: "Such things never happen. I saw Dawes three years ago on his knees before a picture as devout as a Chinese worshipper before his god, and I knew then something would come of such study."

Mr. Dawes has not reached his present standing in this world of art by any special turn of the wheel of fortune, but by constant and intelligent work and study. "I have tried and discarded all the methods of which I could learn or devise," said the self-taught artist, while his wife smiled in her quiet way and added: "Yes, indeed, from the bills for paint and canvass, I should say you have experimented extensively."

"September Morning," a picture done in heavy palette, knife work, was the first painting Mr. Dawes ever submitted to an exhibit. It was accepted by the Minnesota State Art society and shown in the spring of 1909, when it received honorable mention. Alexis Jean Fournier, the well-known artist, saw the picture and praised it highly.

I believe in American art is the first principle of Mr. Dawes' artistic creed. Americans should develop their own art, for the art of any country is the product of that country, of its conditions, its environment, the temperament of its people. America as a country is vigorous and strong. Her artists are

LOCAL TEAM WINS

GLENDALE INDEPENDENTS WIN FROM THE FAST MANUAL ARTS HIGH TEAM

Practically the same lightweight team which represented the Glendale Union high school last year is in the field this year under the name of the Glendale Independents. Thursday evening they played their first game of the season, it being a practice affair with the 122-pound team from Manual Arts. Of course, the local team won; it couldn't have been otherwise with such players as Sid Simon and Johnnie Lovejoy, center and guard respectively of the all-Southern California lightweight team last year; Doug Balthis and Joe Fisher, star forwards of the last year's Glendale team, and "Shorty" Thomas of the U. S. C. lightweight forces. Perhaps no better talent could be found on any one team, and undoubtedly the boys will win first places in the A. A. U. contests, which they will enter the latter part of this month.

Thursday evening's performance was tame. The final score was 30-10 in the Independents' favor, and although Manual Arts was handicapped by having to play on an outdoor court, that handicap would not allow opposition, which had only one previous practice this year, to walk away with a game the way the Glendale five did that evening.

A. L. Ferguson of the high school, who was the boys' coach last year, and who is taking an active interest in the boys, predicts a championship year for the local team. Come out and see the boys play next game and boost 'em along on their way to success. The line-up for Thursday evening's game was as follows:

Manual Arts—Gibson and Evans, forwards; Norton, center; Ordway and Cleverger, guards.

Glendale—Balthis and Fisher, forwards; Simon, center; Lovejoy and Thomas, guards.

Coach Wight refereed very satisfactorily. Tomorrow afternoon the Glendale high school basketball team will play at Alhambra. It is expected that a large number of rooters will attend as the high school team has yet to be defeated in its league and it is not believed that Alhambra will be able to do so.

K. K. K. CLUB

The K. K. K. club was entertained on Thursday at the home of Mrs. Wm. Goodridge, 1432 West Colorado boulevard. Luncheon was served at three tables, each beautifully decorated with smilax and pink blossoms and set with pretty china and dainty food. At each plate was a place card with an appropriate verse. Mrs. Ruth Rauth presided at one coffee urn, Mrs. Goodridge at another, and her granddaughter, Mrs. Gould, at the third. After luncheon Mrs. Capell sang very beautifully and the afternoon was spent in needlework, chatting and music. The following members were present: Mrs. Goodman Phillips, Mrs. Plummer Van Sant, Miss Eva Daniels, Mrs. E. S. McKee, Mrs. Andrew Wightman, Mrs. Purser, Mrs. Capell, Mrs. Frank Buchanan, Mrs. Salo Desky, Mrs. P. H. Curtis, Mrs. John Lyons, Mrs. Ruth Rauth, Mrs. Gould and Mrs. Goodridge.

virile. They are more than that, however; they seek the beautiful and uplifting, while foreign artists frequently depict degrading subjects. I believe that every picture should have an ennobling effect on the beholder.

Mr. Dawes is located at 135 Belmont street, in our city, and expects to remain here over the winter. He was attracted to the Verdugo hills and the surrounding country and expects to do considerable work here. On his return to Minneapolis they will stop in the Grand canyon to paint for the Santa Fe.

Mr. Dawes may possibly give an exhibition of his work before leaving, and if so, the people of Glendale and surrounding cities may enjoy an unusual treat along this line.

It would hardly be right to finish this article without giving the public a hint of Mr. Dawes' companion and sweetheart, who is no less a personage than Mrs. Dawes. Other writers have said she is an ideal wife, made up of the right proportions of sympathy and common sense, and we quite agree; also that she is a most talented lady and her husband's best critic. Mrs. Dawes is a schoolmate and childhood friend of Mrs. J. J. Freeman, wife of the proprietor of the Glendale pharmacy, and their reunion after many years is a most pleasant one.

The Scovern-Letton-Frey company have added a five-passenger Buick touring car to their equipment.

SCHOOL FUNDS LOW

A MASS MEETING AUTHORIZES TRUSTEES TO CALL BOND ELECTION

Pursuant to call, a mass meeting was held in the auditorium of the Third street school Thursday evening for the purpose of discussing and determining the advisability of calling a bond election in the Glendale school district to vote bonds to make up the $4200 deficit from last year, so that the schools may continue for a term of nine months this year.

Mr. J. C. Sherer was chosen chairman and Mr. C. S. Westlake secretary of the meeting.

Superintendent White was then asked by the chair to explain the purpose of the meeting. He spoke at length, explaining the financial conditions of the school district and answering various questions. It was explained by Mr. White that bonds could not legally be voted to run the schools in excess of eight months, but in order to overcome this, bonds may be voted to pay up any indebtedness that has already been made. Of the $4200 deficit which exists, $3785 is for teachers' salaries of last year and the balance is for incidental expenses of last year, which were not provided for in the budget. Mr. White further explained that the income for the current year would pay up all indebtedness and terminate the schools at the end of eight months.

The question arose as to why this deficit had accumulated. This Mr. White explained by stating that in contracting with the teachers last year their contracts were made for a school term of ten months, salary payable in twelve equal installments, and when ten installments were paid the funds were depleted; hence the salary for the two summer months remain unpaid, and cannot be paid from this year's funds until after the schools have been maintained eight months, and then such monies as remain can be used to liquidate the former year's indebtedness.

Some criticism was brought out in the discussion as to why the school trustees had not provided for this deficit in making out the budget for this year's maintenance. Since making up their budget for this year the school district has been deprived of $2980 of poll tax money by the voters of the state passing the amendment to abolish poll tax, and besides this, the board was compelled by law to set aside $1500 for the use of two kindergarten schools (which will be opened January 25th), making $4400 which they supposed they would have at the time the budget was made up, but of which they have since been deprived.

After some spirited discussion it was found that there were only two things for the meeting to decide. One was, shall we pay up the indebtedness and conclude the schools at the end of eight months, or shall we call a bond election and continue the schools nine months, provided the bond election carries.

Mr. J. W. Fairchild spoke against the bond election, stating that our taxes are very high now, and yet our present rate does not include any taxes on the recent school bond issue of $98,000, and further cited the fact that we were still facing another debt which will by no means be a small one—that of taking care of the wash proposition. In closing his plea Mr. Fairchild moved that "it is the sense of this meeting that no bond election be called." Mr. Heald, who seemed to think we have bonds enough, and that bond elections are entirely too numerous in Glendale, seconded Mr. Fairchild's motion.

From that time on the discussion was very enthusiastic from every angle, some taking the stand that high tax, and bond issue after bond issue is driving people and capital out of our city and prospective newcomers would and invariably do ask what is our tax rate and what is our bonded indebtedness, and claim that another bond issue would deteriorate the value of property, thereby injuring the welfare of the community at large. Others put forth the argument that good schools, long terms and efficient teachers can only be had by paying good salaries, and in case the school term is cut to eight months the best of our teachers will seek employment in a more remunerative field, thereby necessitating the employing of less efficient teachers and causing us to take a step backward instead of forward in the progress of our noted school system.

Rev. E. H. Willisford in a very forceful argument setting forth very clearly his views on the matter, moved as a substitute for the previous motion that "it is the sense of this meeting that the trustees of the school district of Glendale call a bond election to vote bonds in the sum of $6000 to relieve the present financial condition and continue the

BURIES HIS BROTHER

GERRET HEERINGA NOT GUILTY OF ALLEGED INHUMAN STATEMENT

Gerrit Heeringa of Penn street, Glendale, is justly incensed over the reports in the Los Angeles papers which quote him as saying that as far as he is concerned the body of his brother, Gilbert Heeringa, who shot and killed Marshal Smith of Tropic might be thrown to the dogs. Naturally the knowledge of his brother's crime and his awful death would bring sorrow to Mr. Heeringa, but such a cold-blooded statement as he is credited with never passed his lips. Mr. Heeringa requests that the following statement be made public:

"To Whom This May Concern:

"It is a great mistake that I said 'throw my brother's body to the dogs.' Today I laid him away in the Odd Fellows' cemetery, for my brother, Gilbert Heeringa, was as dear to me as any other, although I do not approve of the great wrong he did, by any means. I regret that I must make such an announcement, but I do not want my Glendale friends to have the impression that I would request that my brother's body be thrown to the dogs!"

GERRIT HEERINGA.

LOOK OUT FOR FAKERS

Glendale being located so close to a large city, is of course visited by all classes of solicitors, many of them dishonest and not worthy of recognition. The man who makes a business of meeting the public becomes very smooth and cunning in his line of business, and often talks people into buying what they really do not need.

The writer has in mind an instance of a Glendale citizen paying a peddler 25 cents for a connected wire contrivance that might be made to serve as a fruit basket of various shapes. The purchase was made more than a year ago and the owner has never known of a time the so-called basket would be of any practical use to him. The agent's efficiency in speech and manipulating the article in hand induced the purchaser to buy something he would not have bought from any novelty store. Beware of the smooth-tongued agents.

NOTIFY POLICE STATION

Whenever any citizen of Glendale knows of any person wandering about on the streets begging for food or money, it would be well to notify police headquarters and City Marshal Herald will very cheerfully respond to the call. It is a good plan for citizens to report the presence of any suspicious characters to the police station. The phone numbers are Sunset 31, Home 2484.

CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

The Glendale baseball team will go to Redondo Sunday, where they will fight it out for the championship of Southern California, the Redondo club having won the last 24 games. The Glendale boys hope to bring home the bacon.

Our boys say they are sadly in need of new suits and think some arrangement should be made to furnish them with suits, as they are a good advertisement for the city and would do doubly so with proper uniforms. They have had opportunities to have suits furnished them by Los Angeles firms in return for using the name of the firm, but the boys are loyal to Glendale and want to give their home town the first chance.

DEATH OF YOUNG MAN

Alanson E. Bridge, a young man 19 years of age, passed away this morning as a result of injuries received three weeks ago when a horse fell on him at the Jeffries ranch near Calabasas. The remains are at the Pulliam undertaking parlors awaiting the completion of funeral arrangements.

schools for the full term of nine months." This substitute motion was seconded by Mr. H. A. McPherson and carried by a good majority, thereby legally authorizing the trustees to call the election.

A motion prevailed that the details of the election, such as the time, number of precincts, size of the bonds, etc., be left to the discretion of the board of trustees. However, it was suggested very freely that the bonds be made in small denominations, so that our own townpeople could buy them or part of them at least, and keep the money here at home. Rev. Willisford was in favor of making some of the bonds as small as $10, so that the laboring people would have a chance to buy some of them.

SUCCESSFUL PARTY

FOURTH IN SERIES OF TEAS FOR CLUBHOUSE FUND WELL ATTENDED

The Dutch tea, fourth in the series of afternoons being given for the benefit of the Tuesday Afternoon clubhouse fund, held Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. W. McElroy, 712 Adams street, was a great success, both as to the program and in a financial way. There were between seventy-five and eighty ladies present and everyone thoroughly enjoyed the afternoon.

Mrs. McElroy's home had been carefully prepared for the occasion and everything in the large rooms was suggestive of the day. Dutch china was on the tables and plate rails. Dutch pictures adorned the walls, many of them being of well-known scenes. Yellow tulips were everywhere, and smilax ropes were used very effectively. Almost all of the entertainers were dressed in some kind of Dutch costume, and as one entered the door she was amazed at the receiving line, each representing some famous character and each speaking greetings in well-known Dutch phrases. The Van Loon family were all there, even Papa Van Loon, who was faithfully portrayed by Mrs. R. W. Meeker. The program, as published a few days ago, was carried out and it was a great success, every number being received with much pleasure and applause. The ladies were especially pleased with the numbers given by little Teresa Van Grove, who is somewhat of a professional, though only nine years of age. Dutch luncheon was served at small tables in the dining-room and was supplemented by excellent Dutch chocolate served in mugs. The selections by little Miss Shirley Chase were original with her instructor, Mrs. Coral Harrison Sloan and delightfully given.

The receiving line consisted of Mrs. McElroy, Mrs. Nichols, Mrs. A. D. Cross, Mrs. Meeker, Mrs. Ramsey, Mrs. Preston, Mrs. Chase and Mrs. Peterson.

BIRTHDAY SURPRISE

Birthday surprises seem to be the order these days. Another most delightful surprise was that given by Mrs. A. L. Bryant of 421 Jackson street in honor of the seventieth birthday of her mother, Mrs. Belle Ferguson. There were about thirty guests present, consisting of the ladies of the First M. E. church Missionary society, of which Mrs. Ferguson is a member, and a number of other invited guests. The surprise was complete, and Mrs. Ferguson will long remember her seventieth birthday as one of the happy days of her life. Each of the ladies brought a bouquet of flowers and the house was indeed a "garden of roses." There were many other pretty gifts also. Five o'clock tea was served and Mrs. Ferguson cut the great candle-trimmed birthday cake. A delightful program of music and readings was given during the afternoon and everyone present enjoyed a very pleasant day.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

A most enjoyable affair was the birthday party given for Mrs. S. J. Lane at her home, 1017 Chestnut street, on Saturday. Mrs. Lane was seventy-nine years old and thoroughly enjoyed her party, and her birthday cake with candles on it.

The house was tastefully decorated with chrysanthemums, roses and smilax and a bountiful course dinner was served, with turkey, plum pudding and all that goes with them.

Covers were laid for Mrs. S. J. Lane, Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Lane, Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Lane, Master John Lane, Mrs. Addie Smith and son, John Smith, from Dakota; Miss Hawkes of Canada, who has been visiting Mrs. Lane, and Mr. C. A. Damerell of Glendale.

NORTH GLENDALE MAY ANNEX

There is a very strong sentiment in parts of North Glendale favoring annexing to the city of Glendale. A meeting will be held at the Brown residence in North Glendale this evening to consider the annexation question.

ENTERTAIN ENGAGED COUPLE

Mr. and Mrs. Clem Moore entertained at their home, 1468 West Second street, at dinner Wednesday night Miss Agnes Zietlow, formerly of Toledo, Ohio, and her fiance, Mr. Wallace Chambers of Long Beach. These young people will be married next Thursday at their future home at the Poinsettia apartments in Long Beach. The bride has met many Glendale people who will extend hearty congratulations.

INTERESTING MEETING

COMMENDABLE REPORTS GIVEN AT REGULAR MEETING OF D. A. R.

There was a fine meeting Wednesday of the General Richard Gridley chapter of the D. A. R., held at the home of Mrs. Mary Howard Gridley-Braly, 205 North Brand boulevard. A large number of the members of the chapter were present and there was a great deal of business to attend to. Many reports were read from different committees, some of them covering the work of the year 1914. Among others was the report of Mrs. Rathbun, chairman of the committee which gathers supplies for the All Day and Night nursery and the Maternity cottage of Los Angeles. Mrs. Rathbun reported that she had delivered one hundred and forty articles and ten dollars in money to them during the past month, all from this chapter.

Mrs. Leppelman, treasurer, also read a report of the year, and Mrs. Thomas Preston reported the meeting held some time ago for the purpose of forming an associated charities in Glendale, to which meeting Mrs. Preston was a delegate from this chapter.

Delegates were appointed for the state convention to be held in San Francisco February 18th, to which convention Mrs. Braly will be a delegate by reason of her being regent, and Mrs. C. W. Houston was chosen as alternate. Mrs. Houston was also chosen as alternate to the national convention to be held in Washington in April.

Mrs. Rochester, a visitor from the Columbus chapter, of Columbus, Ohio, gave a very interesting talk on the work of her chapter, which has a membership of 276.

The ladies are planning for an interesting meeting next time at the home of Mrs. Thomas W. Preston, which will be an elaborate affair. Mrs. Preston's mother and sister are here from Massachusetts and will be guests of the chapter.

AUCTION BRIDGE

Fourteen Glendale ladies enjoyed a most delightful afternoon Thursday at the home of Mrs. John Robert White, Jr., 101 South Orange street. Auction bridge was played, the first prize, an imported fern, being won by Mrs. Luther G. Brown, Mrs. H. H. Faries winning the consolation, a Japanese basket.

The rooms were decorated in the holiday colors, red and green. Brilliant poinsettias, glowing carnations and the beautiful Parma violets mingled their sweet fragrance. Refreshments were served in the dining-room, the guests being seated at the small tables.

Those enjoying the hospitality of the afternoon were Mrs. Luther G. Brown, Miss Button, Mrs. H. H. Faries, Mrs. C. G. Farrow, Mrs. Frank Gonzales, Mrs. Herrod, Mrs. Frank Hester, Mrs. Alexander N. Lord, Mrs. Clifford S. Mead, Mrs. J. T. Pierce, Mrs. J. C. Waite, Mrs. J. M. Watts and Mrs. Nanno Woods.

MISSOURI DINNER PARTY

Mrs. W. W. Worley of 909 Chestnut street entertained with a pretty dinner party Thursday night a number of former Missouri friends. The fragrance and beauty of many violets added to the pleasure of the guests. A six-course dinner was daintily served from a perfectly appointed table, the centerpiece in the form of a Missouri log cabin bringing pleasant memories to all. Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Sherer of Los Angeles, Mr. and Mrs. Charles G. Orr of Los Angeles and Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Holland of Arden avenue. The evening was spent at cards.

ANDREWS-ROYCE

Miss Hazel Royce and Mr. Sinclair Andrews, both of this city, left today for San Bernardino and it is confidently expected that Miss Royce will not return to Glendale, but that Mrs. Andrews will come instead. This happy pair expect to return to Glendale Monday and begin their married life in a charming and cozy little cottage on Oak street, where everything is in readiness for them and where many good wishes will follow them.

Mr. Andrews recently became the junior member of the Glendale Paint and Paper company and has already demonstrated his industry, honesty and business ability. His bride has made her home with her aunt, Mrs. R. A. Blackburn of this city, for the past few years and for more than a year has been on the public library staff, where her charming courtesy has won her many friends.

The News joins in congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Andrews.

Announcements

Music lovers and the public in general will be delighted to know that the Tuesday Afternoon club has secured the services of the Tuskegee Jubilee Singers. These are negro singers from the Tuskegee Institute and give their own negro folk songs, camp meeting songs and also a number of what might be called our national folk songs, such as "Swanee River," "Old Black Jo" and "Old Kentucky Home." They also sing some modern negro songs and have with them a very fine reader, who gives some delightful humorous readings. They will appear on Tuesday evening, January 26th, at the high school. The program in full will be published later. These singers are being engaged all over the country and have met with great success wherever they have gone. They sang recently before the Friday Morning club of Los Angeles and they are really worthy of support.

VICTIMS OF EARTHQUAKES

LONDON, Jan. 15, 3:22 a. m.—According to the Roma Tribuna, it is estimated that the victims from the earthquake number between 25,000 and 50,000.

LONDON, Jan. 15, 2:48 a. m.—A dispatch to the Morning Post from Rome says:

"In the Marsi, the region around Lake Fucino at Avezzano, there are 20,000 victims of the earthquake. Fifteen other towns in the Marsi have been destroyed and others damaged. Of the 12,000 inhabitants of Avezzano, only 100 survive."

NAPLES, Jan. 14.—The victims of the earthquake at Sora alone number 1000 dead and wounded. Four hundred and fifty bodies already have been recovered from the wreckage in Sora. There are large numbers of injured there.

ROME, Jan. 14.—The toll of dead and injured in the great earthquake that has swept over Central and Southern Italy has not yet been made up, but all advices reaching Rome indicate the ever-growing extent of the disaster.

Towns with thousands of inhabitants have been overthrown and from some of these come details which show an immense loss of life. The estimates ran tonight from 25,000 to 50,000 dead and injured, and yet there are several sections which undoubtedly felt the earthquake in full measure from which no estimate can be obtained.

In the ancient territory of Marsi, which includes Avezzano, the victims are placed at 20,000. Only a small minority is left of the inhabitants of Avezzano, who numbered approximately 10,000. Fifteen other towns and villages in that section have been laid waste.

King Victor Emmanuel is on the scene at Avezzano and 30,000 soldiers have been dispatched to the various centers where the force of the disturbance was greatest.

Italy as a nation has arisen again to give succor, as she did at the time of the Messina earthquake, seven years ago, to those who have fallen in this latest catastrophe from which the country has suffered.

While the greater part of the damage was done by the first earthquake, which occurred Wednesday morning at 7:55, there has been at least one severe shock since then, which resulted in the collapse of many of the structures which escaped the first, and it is estimated that more than 100 shocks, for the most part of a minor nature, occurred during the twenty-four hours after the disaster.

THE REASON WHY

Do you know that practically every article of your wearing apparel was sewn on a SINGER Machine? Department Stores use SINGER Machines in their Factories and Fitting Rooms.

Ask your modiste, your corsetiere, your shoemaker, your furrier, what sewing machines they use. They will say "THE SINGER." "There's a reason"—superior excellence.

Possibly you have an old sewing machine or one that is not satisfactory. Do you know that a fair allowance will be made for it in exchange for an up-to-date SINGER at the Singer Store, 1020 West Broadway? E. J. Upham, Sunset phone 656W.

HOT LUNCHES HOT DRINKS

Delicious Light Lunches, Coffee, Hot Chocolate, all kinds of Confectionery Goods.

We've just added a Candy Factory. All our candies will be home made after Jan. 1.

TROPICO

Miss Melicent Virden, pianiste, a pupil of Theodore Leschetzky, will give a program for the Tropic Thursday Afternoon club on Thursday afternoon, January 21st, in the Knights of Pythias hall on San Fernando road. Miss Virden is a recent arrival in Tropic and is an accomplished pianiste, having been a pupil in Vienna, Austria, of the noted Theodore Leschetzky, who was Paderevsky's piano instructor. Miss Virden, who is arranging the splendid program for Thursday afternoon, will give a talk on the development of the sonata from the earliest times to the present day and illustrate her talk with a Scarlatti sonata in A major and the Beethoven Appassionata sonata. Ferdinand Rigali of Tropic, a violinist of much talent, will assist by playing with Miss Virden the fifth Beethoven sonate for piano and violin. Mrs. John A. Logan, Miss Ida Meyers, Mrs. E. M. McClure and Miss Harriet Meyers will assist as hostesses for the afternoon.

A most delightful afternoon was enjoyed by the members of the Kensington club of N. P. Banks Woman's Relief Corps on Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. William W. Dutton on West Tropic avenue. A very interesting business session was presided over by the president, Mrs. N. C. Kelley, and Miss Mabel I. Thayer, supervisor of manual training in the Glendale schools, spoke on the relation of hand training to mental training, and in a very happy manner presented many excellent suggestions in regard to the training of the children, which were well received. INTEREST IN COMING SHOW

A great deal of interest is being manifested by the poultry raisers and pet stock fanciers in the coming show next week of the Glendale-Tropico Poultry and Pet Stock association, and judging from the amount of entries that have already been made, every indication points to a grand show.

Mr. Dixon of the Glendale pigeon lofts assured the committee that he would have a goodly number of exhibits selected from his lofts, which is the largest collection of pigeons west of the Mississippi river, if not the largest in the United States. This attraction in itself will repay anyone for their time spent in visiting the show. Besides this there has been many other large entries of poultry and pet stock, which will prove equally interesting.

There will be a called meeting of the board of directors to be held at the home of the secretary, Walter M. Ross, 224 West Colorado boulevard, at 7:30 tonight to complete the arrangements and work out the minor details of the show. Every member is urgently asked to attend.

Congress has been asked to call a peace convention at the close of the present war. If we may rely on present indications, the nations now in arms will be the most ardent supporters of the movement when that time comes. They will be willing to keep the peace, at least until they can make the needed preparations for the next outbreak.
