From the Boston Statesman, March 27 More Brazilian Insolence. - We have seen a letter dated at Campeachy, Dec. 6th 1828, which relates to the detention and confiscation of the ship Transit, of Boston, the emprisonment of the master and owner, Capt. Mitcheal W. Reed, and the entir dispersion of the crew, with the exception of the cook and stewad, for no other reason than his being guilty of exciting suspicions-in the minds of those who were determined he should appear suspicious, whether, justly or not. The Transit arrived at Sisal on the 8th of November, with the intention of loading with that country's produce, and brought goods and Merchandize to the amount of about $2000, and a package of letters directed to Vinal and Shields, her consigness.
