Japanese Awaiting Information About Pacific Conference

Will Not Commit Themselves Until Scope of Discussion Is Outlined, Says Tokio Newspaper; London Papers Discuss Conference.

Tokio, July 14.—(Associated Press)—Japan's answer to President Harding's proposal for a conference on limitation of armaments, which has been forwarded to Washington, while accepting the suggestion for an armament conference, says The Jiji Shimpo to-day, makes reservations concerning general Far Eastern questions until more has been learned as to the scope and nature of the questions to be considered.

London, July 15.—Continued discussion of the proposed disarmament conference by newspapers here testifies to sustained interest in the subject.

The question of a preliminary conference to be held in London was given prominence by a number of newspapers here to-day, which printed long dispatches from Washington, most of which indicated such a meeting would not be favored in the United States.

It was argued in some quarters the idea should be abandoned. It was made clear, moreover, that the question had not advanced as yet beyond the stage of discussion while the engagements of Dominion Prime Ministers would make it difficult to fix a time for such a conference.

Invitations. The view that it was improbable the Washington treaty could be held in November if the Pacific question was to be discussed in conjunction with the limitations of armaments was expressed by The Daily Mail, which declared that neither Australia nor New Zealand would be willing to have Pacific matters discussed at any meeting here at which they were not directly represented. The newspaper added that in view of the national status accorded the Dominions at the Versailles conference, it was possible Mr. Harding would send formal invitations to Canada, Australia, New Zealand, South Africa and India.

Japan. Any tendency to place a sinister construction upon the omission of mention of Pacific and Far Eastern problems in that Government's reply to President Harding's proposal was deprecated by The London Times to-day. The newspaper cited the traditional sagacity and moderation of the Japanese and suggested that any such construction would be more of the details of plans laid for the conference before promising to participate in discussions.

LEAGUE UNION SUPPORTS HARDING

British World League Workers Urge Disarmament

London, July 15.—The British League of Nations Union, which is working in support of the League, is anxious not to appear opposed to the conference on armaments proposed by President Harding. It has issued through Lord Robert Cecil a statement that the Union feels great satisfaction over this new move for peace and that the idea that there exist any rivalry between the two efforts for the same end, the statement declares, "will receive no support from any intelligent protagonist of the League. This Union desires to associate itself with virtually all Britishers in expressing satisfaction over this new move for peace and extends congratulations to President Harding for his courageous and statesmanlike initiative."

CANADIANS SHOOT IN BISLEY MATCH

Bisley Camp, July 15.—(Canadian Associated Press).—Conditions were thifty for the first stage of the St. George's Challenge Cup competition to-day. The scores made by Canadians out of a possible 75 were as follows: Major C. R. Crowe, Toronto 72; Sergeant G. M. Emalie, Guelph 61; Sergeant W. A. Hawkinson, Toronto 58; Captain W. E. Swain, Kingston 58; Sergeant H. R. Roberts, Toronto 58; Sergeant J. T. Steele, Guelph 56; Sergeant C. H. Trevin, Ottawa 56; Private A. H. Caplin, Vancouver 45; Sergeant J. G. O. Nix, Winnipeg, 62; Sergeant A. Lucas, Toronto, 61; Major George Wortmer, Ottawa, 60.

The St. George's match is shot in two stages, the first being 15 shots at 100 yards, and the 100 highest competitors are qualified to shoot in the second stage, 15 shots at 400 yards which will be fired on July 20.

NO POSTPONEMENT. Chicago, July 15.—The stock refused to allow a traffic cop to interfere with its business here last night. A policeman stopped a doctor's automobile for speeding and the delay prevented the latter reaching a hospital with Mrs. Sarah Cohen, who gave birth to a baby girl in the morning. Mrs. Cohen is the mother of six children.

Boy Scout Movement Building Foundation For World's Progress

Boy Scout organizations throughout the world are part of a great educational movement which is seeking to cultivate to the highest degree all that is best in manhood—a movement which, by developing the individual, is building up a firm foundation for the progress of the Empire and of civilization.

This was the message which Dr. James W. Robinson, LL.D., C.M.G., Chief Boy Scout Commissioner for Canada, conveyed to the Canadian Club of Victoria in the course of a speech at the Club luncheon in the Empress Hotel to-day.

Sturdy, Healthy People. "The problems of life have not changed as a result of the war," Dr. Robertson pointed out. "It is the same old fight between the soul and the instincts of the body. During the war the appeal to the emotions, the intensity of it all enabled us to do much so that now we have to face our problems under a greater handicap. But the spirit of our race has not decayed—devotion to duty, love of justice, patriotism are no longer mere phases, they are ordinary characteristics of daily life. "But what of the body?" he asked as he went on to recall the poor physical condition of the British people as revealed by the war. "We met disaster from without—but we are threatened by catastrophe from within because no nation, no Empire can continue great without sturdy health among its peoples."

Three Requisites. "The three requisites of a continued greatness, a continued service to mankind, are good health, good character and good citizenship. These are the three characteristics which we are trying to give to the Boy Scouts," the speaker proceeded as he described the history of the Boy Scout movement.

The movement seeks to do what the churches and the schools have not done in the development of our youth," he said.

Seventy Scout Officers Killed. "Scouting is entirely non-military, but it is not anti-military. Some people who are anti-military, so far, they are anti-military."

ADDISON LEAVES BRITISH CABINET Annoyed Because the Housing Scheme Was Dropped

London, July 15.—(Canadian Associated Press).—The resignation of Christopher Addison, Minister without portfolio in the Lloyd George Government, was announced in the House of Commons last night. The reason for the resignation, The Evening Standard says, was the throwing over by the government of the housing scheme initiated by Mr. Addison while he was Minister of Health.

In April last when Lloyd George re-constructed his Government, Sir Alfred Mond was made Minister of Health, but Dr. Addison was permitted to remain in the Government without a portfolio but with the substantial salary of £5,000 a year. The reason for the resignation of Dr. Addison in a position of emolument and only recently Premier Lloyd George declared that Dr. Addison's appointment would end the case of the present session of Parliament.

Beaver Smuggling Ring Has Been Run to Earth

Vancouver, July 15.—The discovery that a highly organized smuggling "ring" is in existence, dealing with beaver skins taken in this Province, has led to a drastic Order-in-Council at Victoria, whereby the beaver industry is practically made a Government monopoly and any person found illegally in possession of a beaver skin will be liable to six months' imprisonment without the option of a fine.

The full story of the unearthing of the "ring" through the activities of the Game Conservation Board cannot yet be told. It will make interesting reading and will probably provide some sensations, for identified with the fur smugglers, it is said, are some highly placed persons who have been helping the fur traders to get their catches safely across the border into Alberta.

5,000 Skins. In the meantime, the knowledge that they have been discovered and watched has come to the ears of the smugglers, who are sitting tight while some 5,000 skins held by Indian trappers and safely cached away are running the risk of being spoiled. The accumulation of 5,000 is valued at well on to $100,000, and rather than have this loss made to the Province, the Government has decided to announce the purchase of the skins and will proceed to market them itself through Dr. A. R. Baker admitted this was so, and added that the Board had conclusive proof of the "beaver bootlegging" as it is termed. "It is shown that no fewer than from 4,000 to 6,000 beaver skins had left this Province for Alberta this year. These beavers were illegally killed, and the skins illegally bought and illegally shipped out of British Columbia.

MAY END MYSTERY OF MISSING NURSE

Woman Found at Ten-Mile Point Answers Description

Worn Out and Burned by Sun Rays, Now in Home

A well-dressed woman of between thirty and forty, weakened from exposure to the sun and lack of food, and in a depressed state of mind, has been wandering at Ten-Mile Point.

She is believed to be Miss Marian Kilpatrick, the nurse who has been missing from the Pulmonary Hospital at Alhambra, Washington, since 6:30 o'clock last Sunday. The nurse has been placed in the sanctuary of the Spanish Nurses' Home by Chief Wogan of the Spanish Police.

The fact that the woman had for two days been wandering in an aimless fashion around Ten-Mile Point, near Alhambra Bay, was reported to Mr. Brogan, acting chief of police, Wednesday and he immediately went to the spot, arriving there about one o'clock Thursday morning. The woman was dressed in a grey jersey and cloth suit.

To Be Medically Examined. She is 5 ft. 6 in. in height, and is now awaiting a medical examination at the Nursing Home, it being considered that she is not responsible for her actions.

Two men at Cadboro Bay, Mr. Tallamy and Mr. Howe, Junr., saw the woman, and on the same day, considering her actions unusual, they reported the matter to Constable Suckling of the Oak Bay force, who handed the matter over to Chief Wogan of the Spanish Police, immediately.

For a couple of days she had been wandering around the beach. For nourishment she had had nothing more than a couple of biscuits. Her skin was frightfully burned from the burning rays of the sun and she was almost prostrate with fatigue.

Her Disappearance. She has been unable to give a connected story, but the fact that she mentions a brother in Winnipeg and that she states that she has a week's wages due her from the Pulmonary Hospital at Alhambra, leaves little doubt that she is the missing nurse whom the Seattle police are endeavoring to locate.

The missing nurse was known to have a brother, W. A. Kilpatrick, of Winnipeg, and also to have friends in Vancouver.

Arrest of two brothers asked Berthiumes Dispute Control of Montreal Presse

Montreal, July 15.—At the request of Arthur Berthiume, president and general manager of La Presse Publishing Company, Judge Cassen has issued five warrants of arrest for Dr. Berthiumes' two brothers, Eugene and Edouard Berthiume.

The proceedings taken by Arthur Berthiume are the result of dispute over the control of La Presse, in which the three daughters of the late Hon. Trefle Berthiume and their eldest brother, Arthur, have been at variance with their two younger brothers, Eugene and Edouard.

Patched Up. The dissension is an old one. It was temporarily patched up five or six years ago, when members of the Berthiume family agreed to make secure amendments made to the will of the late Mr. Berthiume, who had created a trusteeship, appointing his eldest son, Arthur, and Zenon Fontaine, K. C., and J. R. Malville, a notary public, trustees to manage La Presse. For reasons which may be explained if the present proceedings are pushed, the bill before the Legislature was withdrawn and apparently the difficulties were settled for the time being. The recent death of one of the trustees, Mr. Malville, caused the trouble which has now come to a head.

PACIFIC DISCUSSION IN STATES IS URGED BY LONDON TIMES

London, July 15.—The view that the proposed international conference on Pacific problems should be held in Washington was endorsed to-day by The London Times, which quoted the reasons for that city being chosen which were cabled to it by a Washington correspondent.

The correspondent emphasized that President Harding's initiative entitled the United States to the site of the conference, and he added the interest in the United States public would take in the meeting would be notable and that the press of the United States would strain its entire resources reporting the proceedings.

AMERICANS DESIRE NORMAL EXCHANGE

Consuls in Canada Instructed to Assist

London, Ont., July 15.—An important circular was received here yesterday by United States Consul Taggart from the State Department at Washington directing him to assist by all possible means the measures that will result in the restoring of normal exchange conditions between Canada and the United States.

It is pointed out in the circular that the balance of trade which now exists so largely in favor of the republic to the south is not only a detriment to Canada but to the United States as well, in as much as it is resulting in the curtailing of the export business from that country to Canada. It is suggested that everything possible be done to assist Canadians in the marketing of their goods "beyond the line" so that they may be able to purchase their requirements from United States exporters.

Mr. Taggart is also advised to keep an eye open for good investments for United States capital in this country.

ALBERTA CAMPAIGN PRODUCES RUMOR Stewart as Head of Farmer Cabinet

Calgary, July 15.—(Canadian Press).—In political circles throughout Alberta there is a rumor, which of necessity cannot be verified at this time, that in the event of a victory at the polls on Monday's provincial election for the United Farmers of Alberta the premiership in the Farmers' administration will be offered to Hon. Charles Stewart, present head of the Liberal Government.

Those who claim to credit this report point to confirmation of an expression of the view of H. W. Wood, president of the United Farmers of Alberta, that the former "should get the best administrator possible, regardless of whether he is elected by us, or is even a member of our organization." It is pointed out that neither Mr. Wood nor Herbert Greenfield, vice-president of the United Farmers Association, has had any administrative experience, and that few of the official Farmer candidates have sat in any legislative body.

Premier Stewart is on record as stated that he would be leader of no Government but a Liberal Government, but it is suggested that entirely new conditions might arise under which he might consider it his duty to adopt a different attitude.

GERMAN BONDS TO HELP SETTLERS

Plan to Send Britishers to the Dominions

London, July 15.—(Canadian Associated Press).—The Parliamentary Empire Development Commission is considering a novel scheme of overseas development. The proposal is that part of the indemnity which Britain is to receive from Germany should be placed in a fund out of which loans would be made to suitable men and families to enable them to settle in the Dominions. Next December Great Britain will receive £250,000,000 worth of German bonds and the idea is that £25,000,000 worth of these bonds should be guaranteed by the British Government and made the basis of advances to overseas settlers, such advances to be secured by mortgages on properties acquired and developed by the settlers.

Lloyd George Saw Craig To-day After Talk With Valera

Conferred With Premier of Ulster After Having a Discussion With Valera, With Whom He Is to Confer Again Next Monday.

London, July 15.—With his interviews with the Irish "republican" leader concluded for the time being, Mr. Lloyd George this afternoon received Sir James Craig, the Ulster Premier. Upon reaching Downing Street, Sir James went directly to the Cabinet room to confer with the Prime Minister.

London, July 15.—"A further conversation between Mr. Lloyd George and Mr. De Valera took place this morning in Downing Street and will be resumed at a later date, probably Monday," stated an official communique issued this afternoon.

The discussion this forenoon of the preliminaries of the hoped-for Irish peace settlement lasted about an hour and a half. As yesterday, it was a two-man talk. In an adjoining room, however, Sir Hamar Greenwood, the Chief Secretary for Ireland; Lord Curzon, the Foreign Secretary; Art O'Brien, president of the Gaelic League in London, and Robert C. Barton, of the Irish delegation, were on hand should their presence be desired.

On leaving Downing Street, De Valera said there would not be any further meeting to-day. A meeting of the British party gave definite assurances that nothing in the nature of a deadlock or a breakdown of the conference threatened at any time during the discussion to-day.

During the disturbances the mob looted a number of public-houses.

TARIFF DEBATE IN UNITED STATES
Washington, July 15.—(Canadian Press).—Because the effect of the recent emergency tariff law in some respects has been to increase the cost of living in the great cities and centres of population, strong opposition is developing among eastern members of Congress to the agricultural duties provided for in the new bill for the permanent revision of the tariff. The proposed wheat duty of 25 cents intended chiefly to shut out Canadian wheat, will encounter strong opposition. While this is lower than the present emergency rate, it is criticized by members from the wheat states as too high and sure to mean enhanced prices for wheat flour and bread.
The House and Senate Democrats in the forthcoming tariff debate are preparing to demand the utmost practicable freedom of trade between Canada and the United States. In fact, the subject of the commercial relations with

DEATH SENTENCE PASSED ON INDIAN
Fort McMurray, Alta., July 14.—Alber Lebeaux, the Slave Lake Indian for whose trial a special judicial party went north a few weeks ago, has been found guilty of the murder of his wife and child and sentenced to death.
Judge Huber conducted the trial at Fort Providence, with C. C. McCaul as counsel for the prosecution and John Cory for the defence. The case was handled with as much care and legal precision as it had been in one of the city courts, instead of the first trial ever held in the Territory.
Evidence was submitted in support of the charge that definitely established the prisoner's guilt, however, and sentence was accordingly passed on him. The local Indians have been impressed with the fact that while Canadian justice cannot be escaped, Lebeaux was given a fair trial.

POLICE SEEKING OREGON DENTIST
Man Charged With Having Murdered Laborer
Roseburg, Ore., July 15.—A warrant has been issued for the arrest of Dr. R. M. Brumfield, dentist, following the finding of his wrecked and burned automobile beside a road near here with the body of a man beneath it. The warrant charges Brumfield with the murder of Dennis Russell, a laborer, and it is based on the hearsay of Sheriff Dismore, who said that Brumfield killed Russell at the latter's home and buried the body in his car to the scene of the wreck. Where he blew off the head with a stick of dynamite after placing his own ring and watch on the head, Sheriff Dismore said that Brumfield killed Russell at the latter's home and buried the body in his car to the scene of the wreck. Investigation disclosed, the sheriff said, that Brumfield was a highly educated man and that he carried life and accident insurance to the amount of $28,000 in favor of his wife. Mrs. Brumfield yesterday identified the headless trunk found beneath the automobile as that of her husband, although other persons who knew them said it was Russell.

COOLER AFTER RAIN IN ONTARIO
Toronto, July 15.—Rain having come and the forecast being for further scattered showers and somewhat cooler temperature, Ontario may safely anticipate a few days' relief from the heat wave. With the exception of the two hours' rain last week and the substantial downpour of yesterday, Ontario has had close to a month of hot and dry weather. The rain yesterday caused a drop of the temperature from 92 to 77 in Toronto, and this situation was fairly general over the province. The storm was worth millions to the famishing troops, especially in the southern part of Ontario.

BLIND VETERAN IS CIVIL SERVANT
Goes to London For Ottawa Government
Ottawa, July 15.—A striking example of perseverance against the physical disability of blindness is furnished by James H. Rawlinson, ex-Canadian soldier, blinded in action, who has just left Ottawa on the first part of his journey to London, Eng., where he is to assume the duties of clerk-stenographer in the London office of the Department of Immigration and Colonization. During the last two and a half years Rawlinson, who was trained at St. Dunstan's School in England, was one of the most efficient and accurate stenographers on the staff of the Department of Soldiers' Civil Re-establishment in Toronto.
Rawlinson spent sixteen months in learning the Braille system of shorthand and the use of the typewriter. Despite his handicap, he passed the civil service examination for clerk-stenographer, and not only passed, but obtained a percentage of 89.3 on the test. He is the first blind applicant known to have tried and passed a civil service test in the British Empire. The author of "Through St. Dunstan's to Light," which has been widely read in Canada.

Hot Summer Sun Trying On the Complexion
How to Protect Your Skin and Bring Roses to Your Cheeks
A Free Oatmeal Prescription Does Its Work Overnight—You Can Prepare it at Home
New York—Exposure to sun, dust and wind has a very bad effect upon the skin and complexion. There is a way to overcome this. "It is my own discovery and takes just one night to get such marvelous results," says Mae Edna Wilder when her friends ask about her wonderful complexion. "You can do the same thing if you follow my advice," she says. "I feel it my duty to tell every girl and woman what this wonderful prescription did for me. Just think of it—All this change in a single night. I never tire of telling others just what brought about such remarkable results. Here is the identical formula that removed every defect from my face, neck, hands and arms. Until you try it, you form no idea of the marvelous change it will make in just one application. The prescription, which you can prepare at your own home, is as follows:
"Go to any grocery store and get ten cents' worth of ordinary oatmeal, and from any department or drug store a bottle of Derwillo. Prepare the oatmeal directed in every package of Derwillo. Before applying Derwillo cleanse the skin thoroughly with a good cleansing cream—cold cream. I have found to be the best. The first application will astonish you. It makes the skin appear transparent, smooth and velvety. I especially recommend this method for dark, sallow skin, freckles, tan, sun spots, coarse pores, rough skin, rudeness, wrinkles and, in fact, every blemish the face, hands and arms are heir to. If your neck or chest is discolored from exposure, apply this combination there and the objectionable defect will disappear as if by magic. It is absolutely from any and will not produce or stimulate a growth of hair. Since short sleeves are in vogue it is necessary to have beautiful hands and arms and no matter how rough and ungly the hands and arms or what abuses they have had through hard work and exposure to sun, dust and wind, a combination will work a wonderful transformation. Thousands who are using it report the same results as I have had."
Miss O. C. says: "My complexion was poor and my skin rough. My neck, chest, hands and arms were dark from exposure. The very first application of this wonderful Derwillo-oatmeal combination convinced me that my poor complexion and skin blemishes would soon be a thing of the past. In a few weeks all these unsightly defects had entirely disappeared and I still always use it to keep my complexion at its best all the time. I have recommended it to my girl friends, and they are just as enthusiastic over it as I am. We all use it before going to the theatre, dances or parties, and it's wonderful what a difference it makes in our appearance."
Mrs. G. V. writes: "Oatmeal and Derwillo have worked miracles with my complexion. I had many deep wrinkles and a sallow, rough skin. My hands and arms were covered with freckles. After the regular use of Mae Edna Wilder's wonderful complexion prescription these objectionable defects have entirely vanished. I look ten years younger, and advise every girl and woman to try it, and feel confident that it will make you look ten years younger. I recommend it to all my friends."
NOTE—To get the best effect be sure to follow the complete directions on the package of Derwillo, and it is so simple that anyone can use it, and so inexpensive that any girl or woman can afford it. Department stores and druggists guarantee that there will be a noticeable improvement after the first application or they will refund the money. It is sold in every city at all toilet counters under a money refund guarantee, including the Owl Drug Co. and Vancouver Drug Co. (Adv.)

Small Island a World-Trade Focus; Java's Wealth a Cause for Envy

(From The Toronto Globe)
With an area equal to that of the State of New York, Java, the most valuable jewel in the crown of the Dutch East Indies, is one of the prosperous countries in the world today. Her trade has been sought by Great Britain, United States, Germany, Japan, Australia and China, and all have succeeded in getting a good slice of it. She produces practically all the world's supply of quinine, and, in proportion to her area, exports a vast amount of sugar, tobacco, tea, rubber, tapioca, coconut and kapok. As a producer of raw materials Java, along with the other Dutch islands, has a favorable trade balance, but, as a result of increasing development, the import figures are growing rapidly. How the war affected Java's export trade and how the great powers have jockeyed for her business are told in an interesting article in Scribner's Magazine by John W. Prins. He says:

War Finds New Channels
For three hundred years the stream of products of Java first went to Dutch, later to European markets, until 1879 around Cape Good Hope, from then on through the Suez Canal. The war also changed Java's destiny. Europe and these colonies became practically impossible. The products of Java were keeping up in the warehouse. Then it was that Java knocked at America's door and discovered America. The sugar which so long had been going the old route, the rubber, the tea, the kapok, and many other products, now entered the harbors of New York and San Francisco. And from there the ships of the newly established American-Java line took American-finished articles back to Java. For Java is not an industrial country, and is in need of all the finished products which modern society requires. Infant industries are now being nursed, but practically all that the Hollanders and also the natives need comfortably to house and dress themselves, to till the fields and build the roads, comes from abroad. Naturally not only the United States but even more so Australia and Japan drew closer to Java. Their situation was even more advantageous than America's, and the Japanese and the colonial Hollanders were no strangers. Already in the seventeenth century the Holland colonial had ventured North capturing Formosa, and traded with Japan on the little island of Decima two hundred years before Perry was admitted.

A Big Race For Trade
It is not too early to say how the battle for the products of the markets between the Europeans on the one side and the Americans and Japanese on the other is going to end. Perhaps all will stay and find enough business. Yet the extremely high rate of the dollar, which during the latter part of the past year has been up to 30 Dutch cents above par, is also threatening to throw back into the hands of the European manufacturers that which the Americans were so fortunate to capture during the last years of the war. With the low value of the mark and the franc, the Germans and French are coming back with the Hollanders, English and Scandinavians, and even when their prices are much higher than before they are yet lower than the American.

The Japanese again are suffering from another handicap. They do not always find the Chinese shopkeepers in a responsive mood to buy from them, and last year were boycotted for several months as a protest against the Shanghai affair. Yet Japan, which is occupying a fairly isolated position in the world, and is in need of a friend in the Pacific is doing everything to draw closer to the Dutch East Indies. Japanese engineers, bankers and business men have visited Java, official committees of both countries are making trips vice versa, in which the old relations between the two peoples are much dwelt upon and which seem to be the beginning of a more healthy relation than is now existing between Japan and any other Pacific country. The number of Japanese ships which entered Dutch East Indian harbors increased from fifteen, in 1911 to 229 in 1918.

Golden Time In Sugar
Mainly through the increased demand for sugar the past few years have been a golden time for Java. The price rose from ten to sixty guilders per picol, and the white employees on the plantations, who are working on salary plus bonus, have during the past years cashed bonuses of 30,000 guilders on a salary of 600 to 700 guilders per month. The managers of the estates, who get ten per cent of the profit have made fortunes; most of them have realized several hundred thousand guilders each year.

Less important than the sugar, but yet producing big harvests for every-thing, are the tobacco, tea, rubber, tapioca, coconut, and kapok plantations. The cultivation of the cinchona, which tree was under the greatest difficulty imported into Java from South America during the middle of the last century, has been a great success.

Hollander "in Dutch."
The relationship between the Hollander and the native is not as good as it has been. There was a time when the native ruler spoke about his Dutch superior official as his older brother. That time has passed; not only because the Hollander has neglected his duties toward the native, but also because the native has become more self-conscious. Far more has the Hollander done for Java than for the Javanese. It is true the native, no matter whether he is Javanese, Madurese, Sundanese or Malay, is generally lazy and untrustworthy. Yet this is no reason to hold him responsible for everything that happens in life. When the electric bulb is burned out, when the harvest is not as big as expected, the native is at fault. Every Hollander coming to the Indies soon learns to adopt this all-condemning attitude. Surely the native must be treated sternly, but not unjustly. It goes without saying that, however docile the brown man may take his scoldings, his attitude will revenge itself. In the native burns the holy Mohammedan fire, a hatred for the white ruler, a fire which is kindled by many religious-political workers, whose superior education (one trip to the Holy City of Mecca) gives them an unusual prestige. Sooner or later the outbreaks against the white man will not be limited to individual cases of poisoning or murder, but will extend over greater regions.

POLICING AERIAL DERBY

R34, the monster British dirigible which is to act as a "traffic policeman" to guide the crowds gathering for the Aerial Derby at Hendon, by wireless. During the real Derby the dirigible kept the roads free from congestion in a manner that was the wonder and delight of the police officials who annually are puzzled by the difficult problem.

Saturday is the date set for the great Aerial Derby at Hendon, England, an event that year by year has become more impressive and popular. Special arrangements are under way to take care of the traveling hordes of motor cars on the roads leading to Hendon, several navy dirigibles with wireless being used for this purpose. Traffic control posts with wireless are to be spread all over the routes affected, and the great stream of traffic will be watched and visually guided from the air. At the real Derby dirigibles performed the same service, and no jam of more than a few minutes duration occurred at any time during the day, while thousands of cars were handled from control posts to or diverted from road to road as occasion demanded, the vast concourse being adequately policed from the broad air lanes. This year's aerial exhibition at Hendon will be of more than usual interest, for outside aircraft manufacturers will be exhibiting in large numbers. Several new commercial machines are to be shown as well as models of some of the latest helicopter devices now being experimented with in nearly every leading nation of the world.

YELLOW FEVER IN NORTH PERU

Government and Rockefeller Foundation Conduct Campaign

Nearly 1,000 deaths occurred from yellow fever during the last nine months in the departments of Lambayeque and La Libertad, in northern Peru, according to statements published here attributed to Doctor Henry Hansen, an American physician, who is in charge of the sanitation campaign directed against the fever by the Peruvian Government and the Rockefeller Foundation, says an Associated Press mail dispatch from Lima, Peru.

The Rockefeller Foundation contributed $20,000 to fight the epidemic which is now reported to be decreasing as a result of the campaign and the winter season. It was estimated there were about 10,000 cases in the affected area. The feature of the campaign has been the war against the Aedes triseriatus mosquito and the closing of water containers and stagnant pools in which mosquito breed.

Doctor Hansen's staff is composed of three supervising inspectors, five Peruvian physicians and 100 inspectors. It is believed the affected districts will be entirely rid of the fever by the end of the year.

ON INSPECTION TOUR.

Sidney, July 15.—J. P. Fordé, District Engineer of the Federal Department of Public Works, accompanied by A. P. Mitchell, who until Mr. Fordé's appointment has been acting district engineer, was in Sidney Monday on a trip through the Gulf Islands inspecting the wharves that come under the supervision of the Department of Public Works. While here Mr. Fordé inspected the work recently done at Roberts' Bay by the King Engineering Company of Vancouver, who brought back and secured the float which had broken away during one of the severe storms in the past winter, and also looked over the repairs to the slips at Sidney Wharf finding them quite satisfactory. The party traveled in one of the Government's launches and were anchored in Roberts' Bay for the night.

MAKING A START.

If the recommendation of the sub-committee of the special Parliamentary Committee on soldiers' civil re-establishment shall be adopted by the Dominion Government and a tubercular colony established on the Indian Reserve at Kamloops there will have been commenced in this Province a programme of practical proportions in a fight that must be waged by the State if it is to be successful.

Upon numerous occasions we have emphasized the desirability of putting this proposal into effect, not only because of the presence of a large number of ex-soldiers who were unfortunately enough to contract tuberculosis during their service with the army and whose condition demands lengthy or permanent residence where they may obtain constant supervision and engage in sheltered employment; but also because of the fact that until the vital importance of after-care is more generously and practically recognized the value of institutional treatment will be seriously reduced.

As far as the location for the model town is concerned the Indian Reserve at Kamloops could scarcely be improved upon. It is situated but a stone's throw from the city itself. The land is about the finest obtainable. Irrigation ditches—which would have to be improved—provide all the water from the Thompson that is necessary, and the Provincial Government's institution at Tranquille may be reached from the neighborhood suggested in about a quarter of an hour by automobile.

One of the most important points about the undertaking proposed is the opportunity which it presents for Federal and Provincial co-operation. We are of the opinion that a colony of this kind should not be an exclusive one. There would be much brighter prospects for self-support in the adoption of the broadest principle. The larger and more varied the settlement the sooner should it reach a self-supporting status. Sheltered employment does not mean a spoon-fed system and continuous community liability. It means that trades may be pursued by the arrested cases that will not only provide them with a means of livelihood but also improve their physical condition. The greater the colony the greater the production and the greater the benefits from social and economic standpoints.

In view of the fact that this proposal has reached its present stage with its promise of early consummation it is fitting to pay tribute to the untiring efforts of Mr. Henry T. Denison, of Kamloops, with whom the idea originated more than three years ago and by whom—in spite of many rebuffs and disappointments—it has been developed unceasingly.

FAVORABLE PROGRESS.

Although the most that has been said of the two preliminary conversations which have taken place between Mr. Lloyd George and de Valera amounts to a declaration that at no time were the two in danger of parting company without anything accomplished, the prospects of ultimate success for the negotiations are considerably brightened by the fact that the interviews of yesterday and to-day are to be followed up with further conversations early next week—presumably after an opportunity has been afforded to the two principals to report progress to their colleagues. In the meantime Ireland itself is breathing more freely under the peaceful influence of the truce with the exception of one or two points at which the temptation to continue in the "good old way" has been rather too insistent. On the whole, however, the spirit of the people of the United Kingdom has been tuned to a new hopefulness to which the apparently friendly nature of the Downing Street discussion has contributed a good deal of substance.

HOPELESSLY WRONG.

Our morning contemporary is apprehensive lest the Hon. T. D. Pattullo should assume the responsibility of telling the people of Great Britain that they should build wooden houses and solve their housing problems by that means. It fears the suggestion at this time would only be received with amusement because of the prices at which brick houses may now be built. In fact The Colonist declares that the Minister of Lands would "have no arguments to offer" in favor of the introduction of the wooden house "whatever might have been advanced a few years ago." And it continues the suggestion with an assertion that "since then the prices of material and labor for dwellings have materially declined and the problem is by no means as acute as it was."

For the benefit of those who may be inclined to accept the statement of the morning paper as it stands and thus give up the idea that this Province still might solve its unemployed problem—about which our contemporary is seriously concerned—by launching out into the cut-to-fit house business it may be as well to point out that Dr. Addison's successor voiced his doubt the other day as to whether Britain's housing shortage ever would be overcome "unless some utterly new lines of dwelling houses be evolved." These are the words of Sir Alfred Mond and one of the principal reasons for dropping the national scheme is directly attributable to the enormous cost involved in erecting the ordinary brick and mortar house to which Old Country people have been accustomed from time immemorial.

The morning paper asserts that the wooden house idea never was popular in England. It is true that changes are effected slowly in conservative Britain. But one only requires to pick up any weekly journal to find that the smallest of villages are pressing for the provision of anywhere from fifty to one hundred houses of any kind whatever as long as they will reasonably answer the purpose, provide the remedy for unhealthy overcrowding, and insure a decent amount of comfort. Therefore, in view of the actual facts concerning the problem, and more especially by reason of the authoritative statement of the Minister of Health himself, we are still of the opinion that the average dweller in the tight little isle is ready to drop his particular insular prejudice in his search for a comfortable home.

A CLEAR CASE.

If Germany means to dispense justice at Leipzig the testimony of a naval expert representing the German war office at the Llandovery Castle trial provides a first class opportunity. Although one of the officers of the submarine which committed the foul deed endeavored to convince the Court that the Germans always suspected hospital ships as constituting a real danger to underwater craft the expert referred to admitted that there was no proof of any abuse of a hospital ship's status on the part of the Llandovery Castle. It now remains to be seen whether or not the Court will interpret this confession—quite remarkable for a Prussian conscience—as its authority to pass the death sentence upon those who were responsible for the merciless bombardment of lifeboats which were cast off from the ill-fated ship.

A NEWS BAN.

Nothing is to be gained by treating the Northcliffe papers to a news ban in respect of information from the Prime Minister's residence and the Foreign Office as a rejoinder to the attack made by The Times upon Mr. Lloyd George and Lord Curzon. Unwarranted and malicious as the observations of "The Thunderer" obviously were it is surely recognized by the two Ministers attacked that the public press has a perfect right to criticize the Government of the day or any particular members of the Government as long as it shall be fair and legitimate criticism. In this case most of the press of the country has joined in chorus of condemnation of the action of the Northcliffe wing and has not minced words in expressing its disapproval of the language employed. By ignoring the whole incident the Government would have been better served and would have retained for itself the support of the rest of the press unmingled with expressions of disfavor in respect of the news embargo.

NOTE AND COMMENT

Former Kaiser William objects to the payment of his municipal taxes to the authorities of Doorn on the plea that his stay there is an involuntary one. Very naturally the good people of the locality observe that his room is preferred to his company.

The congress of the communist trades unions at Moscow has decided to take steps to unite all trade unions into one fighting organization with itself as the international centre. But the steps it has taken and may take will not lead it out of its own territory.

At the next general election the Labor Party expects to place about five hundred candidates in the field. This is the proper course to take if it desires to bring about industrial reform; but it will have to do a good deal of educational work before the general public will be ready to swallow many of the doctrines which have made their appearance from time to time during the last three years.

HOROSCOPE

FRIDAY, JULY 15, 1921. (Copyright, 1921, by The McClure Newspaper Syndicate.)

Evil stars held sway to-day, according to astrology—Mercury, Neptune, Mars, Jupiter and the Sun are all in malefic aspect.

During this sway there should be careful living, for many dangers beset the inhabitants of earth, it is believed.

The mind is likely to be disturbed by forebodings and lack of confidence that reason there should be no depressing thoughts admitted and a positive attitude of "optimism" should be cultivated.

This sway is conducive to mental unbalance, and many suicides are likely to occur. Wise men and women will not be introspective, while this configuration prevails.

Reasons of trouble that may cause activity in the army and navy may be prevalent while this rule prevails.

Because of the mental disturbance likely to be manifested at this time there may be severe criticism of men in public office.

Lovers of peace will become deeply concerned by events that take place before the Autumn.

The end of next month will be marked by the conjunction of Mars and Saturn. It is foretold that there will be serious strikes that affect shipping. Turbulence among the people is indicated.

Great heat for August and September are prophesied. There will also be a danger of mistakes in diplomacy.

Service should be carefully chosen for grave examples of partiality and will be exposed, in the future, to the same public office.

Disputes concerning treaty obligations are prophesied for Great Britain.

Brotherly love will be much needed in everyday application before the snow flies, if the planets' messages are wisely interpreted.

Persons whose birthdate it is may have a strenuous year in which they meet with many surprises. They should keep on the watch for good opportunities in business.

Children born on this day may be too fond of pleasure and company. These subjects of disease usually love change and adventure.

613,486 REPORTED

AS EMPLOYED

Canadian Statistics For Week Ended June 11

Ottawa, July 14—A checking of the upward trend in employment was shown by the reports of 5,235 firms, employing 613,486 workers, to the Department of Labor for the week ended June 11. The previous week's pay rolls had included 613,333 employees, making a decrease about one-third of one per cent. The index number of employment, compared with the base week of January, 1920, was 88.1. For the corresponding week of 1920 it was 107.00.

Fifteen industrial groups recorded increases over the previous week, aggregating less than 2,000 employees, while fifteen reported decreases aggregating about 4,500 employees. Firms in the iron and steel industry reported reductions. Other outstanding contractions were in logging and water transportation.

Alderman Sangster Explains Trouble to Housing Critic

Differences of opinion which recently led to the resignation of Alderman George Sangster as chairman of the Civic Housing Committee were thrashed out for about an hour this morning at an informal conference between Alderman Sangster and Alderman A. M. Aitken, persistent critic of the housing administration. Alderman Aitken renewed his assertion that Alderman Sangster's housing committee had attempted to violate the City Council's fixed housing policy by giving housing loans to soldiers who did not own lots. Alderman Sangster explained that the committee has never done anything of the sort. He said that the committee had recommended that loans be extended to two men who did not own lots but who guaranteed to buy land with their own money before they received any assistance from the city. Alderman Aitken replied that applications had been received from soldiers who already owned their own land and these men, he thought, should have been given preference. "The men we recommended for loans were the very best risks among all the applicants," Alderman Sangster replied.

For the benefit of Alderman Aitken, Alderman Sangster explained how tenders for soldier houses were let and managed to dispose of some ideas which Alderman Aitken had been entertaining. After the conference Alderman Aitken said that he was glad to hear Alderman Sangster's explanation, but he was still convinced that the Housing Committee had not acted wisely in the awarding loans. He added that he would investigate the matter further.

"After all the work we put in on this scheme it is rather disgusting to have this sort of thing brought up," Alderman Sangster remarked after the conference, of which Alderman E. B. Andros, chairman of the Civic Finance Committee, was a passive spectator.

WHO STARTED TAX RUMOR?

Government Knows Nothing About Compulsory Assessment of Improvements

Who started the City Hall rumor that the Provincial Government has intimated that it intends to make taxation of improvements compulsory to 50 per cent. of the assessments so as to increase the scope of municipal revenue? That is what no one seems to know.

The Trades and Labor Council, the Victoria Realty Board and the Building Owners' Association have all announced that they are going to take up the rumored proposal at their next meetings and protest against it to the Government.

Premier Oliver to-day said that he knows nothing about the proposal. "It has never been taken up or discussed by the Government," he said. "And no such intimation has ever been sent on to anyone by the Government."

The Premier explained that he thought the rumor must have started through somebody reviving a reference that he himself made early this year when questions of municipal finance were being discussed with delegations. At that time he pointed out that there was about $25,000,000 of property in Victoria which went without taxation because of the improvement exemption law. But nothing more was said about it.

An unprecedented wave of occultism is sweeping in Germany. Card readers, mediums, astrologers and all the motley crew are opening up everywhere and are doing a land office business. Large numbers of pseudo-scientific societies to study "spiritualism," "astrology" and "other phases of occultism" are being organized.

PASTOR WOOD IS CALLED TO WEST INDIES

Will Be President of Jamaica Mission Conference

Pastor C. E. Wood, who has been connected with the evangelistic work of the Seventh Day Adventists in Western Canada, and who has been a resident of Victoria for the past three years, has accepted a call to the presidency of the Jamaica Mission Conference, and will leave for his field of labor in about two weeks.

This Conference comprises the island of Jamaica, the Cayman, and the Turks Islands, with a population of almost one million. The gospel message, carried by the Seventh Day Adventist denomination, has made considerable progress in this island, there being at the present time over two thousand believers. The city of Kingston itself has an Adventist church with a membership of five hundred.

Jamaica is one of the most beautiful islands of the tropics, and is very fittingly spoken of as "an emerald gem set in a sapphire sea." Mr. Wood will speak at the Seventh Day Adventist Church, corner of Hillside Avenue and Graham Street, on Sunday at 8 p. m. This will be his last Sunday night service here.

Gordon Head Dance.—The Gordon Head Athletic Association will give this evening a strawberry pickers' dance at the Gordon Head Hall, Esquimalt Avenue, and everyone wishing to share the evening's amusement will be welcomed.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO TO-DAY

Fairall's Hall, Victoria West, was comfortably filled last night by the electors of that suburb, who discussed several propositions to secure bridge communication across Victoria Arm. Mayor Beaven occupied the chair. A committee composed of Messrs. Boggs, Ledingham, Fairall, Fraser and Saunders was appointed to interview the City Council and if necessary to co-operate with the Board of Trade in order to get action on the bridge project.

Discouraged miners, who did not find Cook's Inlet an Eldorado, arrived here to-day on the Topoka. They report considerable suffering among the miners who remained at Cook's Inlet. Those interested in the sailing schooners on the Japanese coast were reassured of their safety by another cablegram received this morning by E. B. Marvin & Co. from Capt. J. G. Cox at Yokohama.

SOMETHING TO THINK ABOUT It was in a tramcar, and he was a fearfully-got-up masher—over his pince-nose he eyed the other passengers haughtily, and they in turn looked at him with amused, indulgent smiles. Presently a soldier of the Seaforth Highlanders entered and took his seat beside the masher. A stalwart fellow, he soon became the cynosure of all eyes. The masher looked at him for a moment. Then, sliding up to him, he said: "I say, I've got—er—a brother who is a soldier, don't you know?" "Is that a fact?" said the soldier, taking a look at the questioner: "weel, that's queer. Ye see, I've got a brother who is a confounded idiot, so we're about even, I'm thinking. For a moment the masher looked as if he had swallowed something that had disagreed with him. Then he sank back in his seat and thought it over for the remainder of the journey.—Tit-Bits.

DISCOVERED PHOSPHORUS What we now call phosphorus was discovered by a chemist called Brand in 1669, who prepared it in small quantities from bones. In those days of mysticism a substance that burned and emitted light without being ignited was hailed as a discovery of the principle of life. The sensation was just what was made 250 years later by the discovery of radium.

A TAILOR IN TROUBLE

There was a tailor in Durham who occasionally indulged in what is called a "paralytic drunk." On these occasions he relapsed into sleep, from which no power on earth could wake him.

Some colliers found him in this state on the side of the road one afternoon, and, bent on fun, took him with them down the pit.

After many hours he awoke in the darkness and gazed at the mysterious dim lights and moving figures in the distance; but by arrangement no one took the slightest notice of him.

"What place is this?" he asked someone who came near enough to be spoken to.

"This is the abode of Satan!" was the sepulchral reply.

"How long have you been here?" asked the tailor.

"Five years," said the collier.

The tailor, putting his hand in his pocket, said: "Then you know my name. Get me a pint of beer."

"Til-Bits."

TRAINING FACTORY GIRLS IN HOUSECRAFT

Interesting Results of New Experiment in London Areas

London, July 15—Ninety girls, all of whom are young and most are girls from factories, are now being trained from Canning Town, in the settlement in all the elements of housework. This is the first centre opened under the new scheme of the Central Committee for Women's Employment, by which girls unskilled in housework have a thirteen weeks' course in cooking, laundry, needlework, infant care, and general housekeeping. Woolwich opened a centre a week ago, and centres under the scheme are being opened at Canning Town, Deptford, and Shoreditch. The girls at the Canning Town Centre, which is run by the West Ham Education Department, are already learned in housework for four weeks, and are doing well. They have been in training for four weeks, and are doing well. They have been in training for four weeks, and are doing well.

Half the girls were at work in the large hall. Some of them were learning to make their own cotton frocks, aprons and caps, and others under the direction of a V. A. D. commandant were practising first aid or learning with a large doll as submissive baby management, the girls were very interested in this, and if one of them were asked a question about baby management they would answer in chorus from the whole class. The visitor who asked a guileless question to test their knowledge was so overwhelmed by the shocked section of the massed reply that she did not venture to ask another. The laundry class was not at work, but specimen garments which the girls had washed and ironed were exhibited. It is not of course, the intention of the committee to have these students do expert laundresses work that may be required in an ordinary home.

Experimenting in the cookery classes, which in the girls enjoy, they are taught how to make soups, milk puddings, sweets and pastries, how to prepare and cook vegetables, and how to cook joints. They cook the dinners for staff and pupils, and the visitors acknowledged that they made very good cakes, and were doing so well in their settlement, being both optimistic and generous, has allowed the students, while he is away on holiday, to practise all the arts of Spring cleaning in his flat. They go up in detachments armed with mops and brooms, cleansing guide, and polishes, and rub away with such vigor that when he returns he will be able to skate on the linoleum. The girls appreciate the chance of practising in a real home, and talk happily about their tasks.

Most of those who were questioned said that hitherto they had worked in factories. Some had been box-makers, many had been packers, few had had any real experience at home. But they said they found it interesting, and they liked the variety of occupation. Two or three had helped in houses as day workers. All knew something about house cleaning and kitchen work, but these said that they had learned a great deal since they came to the centre, and they realized the value of the training with right methods. It seems likely that nearly all the students

Physical Training

The visitors were impressed by the neatness and general appearance of efficiency of all the girls. Forgetting that applicants came before a selection committee which takes care that the students chosen shall be those who are likely to profit by the training.

If any had wondered whether it were worth while including physical drill in the curriculum, they were satisfied when the girls lined up cheerfully to go through their exercises. These were healthy, jolly-looking girls able to dance with zest, but they most certainly needed to learn how to walk and how to hold themselves erect. The first month's drill has made a difference, in that they can go through their housework with the minimum of effort and fatigue. It may prove in the end that this is the most important part of the admirable training.

EXIT BETTY

By Grace Livingston Hill (Mrs. Lutz)

Author of "The Search," "Marcia Schuyler," "The Enchanted Barn," etc.

Betty was still sleeping. Jane stood watching her for a full minute with awe in her face. She could not but recognize the difference between herself and this fine sweet product of civilization and wealth. With the gold curls tossed back like a ripple of sunshine, and a pathetic little droop at the corners of her sweet mouth, nothing lovelier could be. Jane hurried to the window and turned her back on the bed while she perused the paper, her rage rising at the theories put forth. It was even hinted that her mother had been insane. Jane turned again and looked hard at the young sleeper, and the idea crossed her mind that even she might be deceived. Still, she was willing to trust her judgment that this girl was entirely sane, and anyhow she meant to help her. She stuffed the paper down behind the trunk and began to get breakfast. When it was almost ready she gently awoke the sleeper.

Betty started at the light touch on her shoulder and looked wildly around at the strange room and stranger face of the other girl in the dim light of the evening. She had scarcely got to know Jane's face. But in a moment all the happenings of the day before came back, and she sat up excitedly. "I ought to have got away before it was light," she said, gripping her hands together. "I wonder where I could go, Jane?" It was pleasant to call this girl by her first name. Betty felt that she was a tower of strength, and so kind. "I have this ring," she said, slipping off an exquisite diamond and holding it out. "Do you suppose there would be any way I could get money enough to travel somewhere with this? If I can't I'll have to walk, and I can't get far in a day that way." Betty was almost light-hearted and smiling. "The night had passed and no one had come. Perhaps after all she was going to get away without being stopped."

Jane's face set grimly. "I guess there won't be any walking for you. You'll have to travel regular. It wouldn't be safe. And you don't want no rich jewelry anyhow. Was that your wedding ring?" "Oh, no, father gave it to me. It was mother's, but I guess they'd want me to use it now. I haven't anything else." "Of course," said Jane shortly to hide the emotion in her voice. "Now eat this while I talk," thrusting a plate of buttered toast and a glass of orange juice at Betty. "I'm just waiting to pour an inviting cup of coffee."

"Now, I been thinking," she said sitting down on the edge of the bed and eating the toast. "The piece of she had burned—Betty's was toasted beautifully—" "I got a plan. I think you better go to Ma. She's got room enough for you for a while, and I want my sister to come over and take a place I can get for her. If you was there she could leave. Mebbe you could help Ma with the kids. Of course, if you ain't used to common things like we have them, but I guess you ain't got much choice in your fix. I got a paper this mornin' that says 'huntin' fer you hot foot. They say you was temporary insane, an' 'I was you'd keep out of 'er way a while. You lay low an' I'll keep my eye out and let you get a little money under the mattress. I can let you have till that ring gets sold. You can leave it with me an' I'll do the best I can if you think you can trust me. Of course I'm a stranger, but then, land! So are you! We just gotta trust each other. And I'm sending you to my mother if you'll go!"

"Oh!" said Betty springing up and hugging her impulsively. "You're so good! To think I should find someone just like that right in the street and I needed you so. I almost think God did it!" "Well, mebbe!" said Jane, in her embarrassment turning to hang up a skirt that had fallen from its hook. "That's what they say in 'em in 'Christen Deavor meetin'. Ever go to Christen Deavor? Better go when you get out home. They have awful good socials an' ice cream, and you'll meet some real nice folks. We've got a peach of a minister, and his wife is perfectly dandy. I tell you I missed 'em when I came to the city! They was always doing something nice for the young folks."

"How interesting!" said Betty, wondering if she might really be going to live like other girls. Then the shadow of her danger fell over her once more, and her cheek paled. "If I can only get there safely," she shuddered. "Oh, Jane! You can't understand what it would be to have to go back!" "Well, you're not going back. You're going to Tinsdale, and nobody's going to find you ever, unless you want 'em to see. Now listen! We haven't any time to waste. You oughta get off on the ten o'clock train. I put out some clothes there for yeh. They ain't like yours, but it won't do for you to go dressed like a millionaire. Folks out to Tinsdale would suspect yeh right off the bat. You gotta go plain like me, and this way: You're a friend I picked up in the city whose mother is dead and you need country air a while, see? So I sent you home to stay with Ma. Ma'll you got strong again. I'm wirin' Ma. She'll understand. She always does. I kinda run Ma anyhow. She thinks the sun rises an' sets in me, so she'll do just what I say."

"I'm afraid I oughtn't to intrude," said Betty soberly, taking up the coarse, elaborately trimmed lingerie with a curious look, and trying not to seem to notice that it was different from any she had ever worn before.

"Facin' here!" said Jane Carson, facing Betty from her coffee cup on the washstand. "I'm sorry to criticize, but if you could just take a little slash or something. Folks I never think you belong to me. Intrude! Now, that sounds stuck up! You oughta say 'be in the way,' or something natural like that. See?" "I'm afraid I don't," said Betty dubiously. "But I'll try."

"You're all right, kid," said Jane with compunction in her voice. "Just let yourself down a little like I do, and remember you don't wear underclothes now. I'm afraid those stockings won't feel very good after yours, but you gotta be careful. An' 'I was you'd cut my hair off. I'm so pretty, but I'll grow again. How old are you?"

"Almost twenty-one," said Betty thoughtfully. "Three months more and I'll be twenty-one." "H'm! Of age!" said Jane with a sharp significant look at her, as if a new thought had occurred. "You don't look like you could pass for fifteen, especially if you had your hair bobbed. I can do it for you, if you say so."

"All right," said Betty promptly without a quail. "I always wanted it short. It's an awful nuisance to comb."

"That's the talk!" said Jane. "Say awf! a long and you'll kinda get into the hang of it. It sounds more—well, natural, you know, not like so—society talk. Here, sit down an' let me do it quick before you get cold feet. I sure do hate to drop them curls, but I guess it's best."

HEALTH CENTRE

FINANCE EXPLAINED

Council Informed Saved Interest Offsets Increased Construction Costs

Health centre financing was placed before the Saanich Council last night, a half-yearly financial report including final figures as to the cost of the Saanich War Memorial.

The final cost was placed at $25,796.97, an increase of $4,568.85 over the amount paid last year and $19,200.50 from this year's funds. The Centre is to be paid for by an issue of $25,000 of 3 1/2 per cent. debentures, and by careful financing this will be sufficient on a basis explained in the report as follows: "These debentures will have to be sold this year. If they are held until, say November 1, 1921, although they are to be dated March 1, 1920, we shall have saved the paying of interest at 3 1/2 per cent. for one year and the amount, this amount, available to construction costs, being $2,316.66. If the debentures are then sold to yield investors 4 1/2 per cent. the price will be $25,796.97. This amount is within less than $5 of the entire cost, although the original price was $24,480.31 through extras and the initial estimate was considerably more than the face value of the bonds to be issued."

WELSH PICNIC

The adjourned Welsh picnic will be held at the Upland's end of the Willow's beach. Anyone wishing to participate take Upland's car to Estevan Avenue, then walk to end of beach on the left. The committee have made suitable arrangements for the supply of hot and cold water. A number of children's races and other interesting events will be the chief features, the whole to end with Welsh community singing. All are welcome.

NEWS AND NOTES OF THE MINES

Patricia Group

H. C. Magee was in Stewart, says the Portland Canal News, for a short time early in the week and reports that he is at present driving a tunnel on his Patricia group, which is situated four miles from tidewater, up the south fork on the Marmot River. The work so far is being confined to drifting on a lead on the Silver Leaf claim of the group. At the moment he is in some 20 feet where in the face he has four feet of solid ore assaying $22 in all values, $12 of which is in gold. He has ten tons of this ore on the dump at present. It is the intention to prosecute this work throughout the summer. Dr. E. R. McKechnie, of Vancouver, is associated with Mr. Magee in this property and will arrive in Stewart, to inspect the property, about August 1.

Victoria Men Interested

The M. C. Group is situated on the east side of the Bear River, about nine miles from Stewart, and directly opposite the mouth of Bitter Creek, at an elevation of some 5,900 feet, and is owned by Messrs. McKenzie & McCallum of Victoria. Mr. McCallum, who arrived in Stewart from the south on June 11, has been very busy ever since establishing camps, it being the intention of the owners to do considerable development work on the property this year. One camp will be at the foot of the hill at Bitter Creek; a tent camp will be established half way up the hill, and the third on the opposite slope, and no more than about two miles from it. Like the Premier it carries very high gold and silver values, wire and free gold having been found on the surface in a number of places.

It is expected that Mr. McKenzie will arrive on the next boat.

Receipts at the Trail smelter for the week ending July 7 were 6,969 tons of ore and concentrates. The Consolidated Mining & Smelting Company's own properties were credited with a tonnage of 4,912, while a shipment of 57 tons from the Surprise Mine of the Republic Camp completed the receipts. This is the third week in succession that the Surprise has been in the shipping list.

For the year to date 215,458 tons of ore and concentrates have been received at the Trail smelter.

Babine Bonanza

James Cronin of the Babine Bonanza property in the Babines, has returned from Spokane. Everything is in readiness to start work again on his property immediately. The mine never looked better than it did at the shutting down last Fall. The big tunnel which had been run in was tamped an immense body of ore though it is not the main body in the opinion of Mr. Cronin. When this main body is encountered it will assure the property being ranked among the greatest mines in the north.

Oil Seepages

The Kitsumgallum Basin Petroleum Co., Limited, with head office at Terrace, was recently gazetted. The company has holdings near Roswood, Kitsumgallum Valley, about thirty miles from Terrace, consisting of eight sections. C. F. Schaub promoted the company and he has associated with him a wholly local directorate as follows: George Little, of Terrace; W. H. Tobey, Prince Rupert; J. P. Kirkpatrick, Smithers; H. H. Grosart, Cedarvale, and S. T. Finnegan of Terrace. Oil seepages were found on the property some years ago but no attempt was made to prospect it or to promote a company. Geologists years ago reported it a good country to prospect in for oil. The company recently organized hope to meet with success and thus develop a new source of wealth in the district. The prospectus issued states that the company will secure the services of an experienced and reliable driller with a modern outfit. It is expected the drilling will be started in August and it is estimated the oil will be reached at a depth of between 1,500 and 2,000 feet.—Omineca Herald.

Luck Boy, Stewart

H. F. W. Benson, of Victoria, has arrived in Stewart. After spending a few days in town he went up to the Lucky Boy property on Fish Creek, in which he is interested, and on which his son Pat has been doing extensive development work since early Spring.

Canada's Output

Official statistics place the value of Canada's mineral output in 1920 at $212,715,080. Of this total $77,328,853 represents production of coal, which exceeded in value the total output of gold, silver, copper, iron and other metallic minerals. Canadian coal resources are extensive and production is increasing.

TABLES REPORT ON SAANICH FINANCES

Half Yearly Report of Public Expenditures Presented to Council

The Saanich Council last night received a half yearly report of the municipal finances as at June 30 last, and laid the document over until next session for examination at the convenience of the councillors.

The following outstanding points mark the report:

Of the expenditures for the year coming under general revenue headings estimated at $134,885, $68,463.05 has been spent. Of roadwork appropriations of $9,000 per ward and $2,000 for general highways, the following have been spent: General, $355; Ward One, $4,072; Ward Two, $6,207; Ward 3, $4,101; Ward Four, $4,845; Ward Five, $5,975; Ward Six, $3,844; Ward Seven, $5,282. In addition, in Ward Seven $1,256 has been spent of the five-year special levy totalling $5,122. These Ward improvements total $28,058 of the $70,000 available for road work. The police are effectively collecting dog taxes, the receipts amounting at June 30 to $907 of the year's estimate of $1,000. Pound fees have amounted to $440 of the estimated $600. The library service is proving popular in Saanich, of the estimate of $200 for the year, over $189 has been taken in as library ticket fees. The estimated general revenue, without considering the tax levy for the present year, was set at $108,641, and of this Saanich has already collected $40,557.

MOTOR CAR MARVELS

One in London Weighs Only 155 Pounds.

"A car you can put in your pocket," admirably describes an automobile now being put on the market by a London firm, says Answers. It weighs but 155 lbs., its petrol consumption is extraordinarily low, and its price is $180. One reason for the lightness is that the chassis is made of plywood, as used in the construction of aeroplanes, where every ounce counts.

For this car it is claimed it may be carried on the owner's back without fatigue; it can be stored in the hall at home without inconvenience, and it can even run over an intrepid foot-passenger without the least injury.

Motor engineers on the continent are devoting their attention to another tiny roadster, called "a little basket on wheels." Square in design, and four-wheeled, it is driven by two electric batteries. A large dog kennel will suffice for garage, and when one desires company en route, a neat, two-wheeled trailer, precisely similar in design to the car, can be affixed rigidly at the back.

Another motor trifle which is attracting a lot of attention is the same automobile. A standard cabriolet is mounted on a light chassis; steering gear and other connection are brought through the bottom of a cosy seat for the driver, and a couple or so more behind, complete the turnout.

John: "Are you dining anywhere on Thursday?" Sandy (anticipating a cheap dinner): "Thursday? Let me see. Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, I'm not dining anywhere on Thursday."

John: "Won't you be hungry on Friday, old boy?"

No charter has been secured for the American four-masted barquentine Puako, now swinging at anchor in Esquimalt harbor waiting for something to turn up, according to Capt. C. E. Helms, master of the vessel, who is back from San Francisco, where he conferred with his owners, Hind, Ralph & Co.

Capt. Helms will stand by his ship until she is again put into commission. The bottom is out of the charter market, but the skipper expects a change before long.

PORT ANGELES TO WELCOME EXCURSION FROM THIS CITY

S.S. Princess Adelaide Will Carry Many Across Straits To-morrow Week

The C. P. R. Social and Athletic Club of Victoria has secured the palatial steamer Princess Adelaide for an excursion to Port Angeles on Saturday, July 23, leaving Victoria at 1.30 p. m. (Victoria time) and leaving Port Angeles at 7 p. m. (Standard time).

This excursion will give everyone an excellent opportunity of visiting the American city across the Straits. The officials of the C. P. R. Social and Athletic Club have been in communication with William Taylor, secretary of the Port Angeles Commercial Club, who has advised that everything will be done to make the visit a pleasant one.

A committee of Port Angeles citizens will be on hand to show around parties desirous of inspecting the paper mills and other industries of the city. Suitable picnic grounds are located a short distance from the wharf with facilities for boiling water, tables and fresh water, available, also a playground for children.

The Club officials are determined to make the picnic a pleasant one for all those who participate in it. Arrangements are being made for a baseball game between the Port Angeles and the C. P. R. teams. It will also be possible for anyone who wish to visit Lake Crescent and Lake Sutherland, to make the trip by automobile at a reasonable charge.

Canadian currency will be accepted at par at Port Angeles, providing the correct amount is tendered, but if large denominations are given, the usual rates of exchange will be charged unless sufficient Canadian currency is in hand at the place of business to make the change.

Tickets for the excursion are now on sale at the C. P. R. ticket offices, Government Street, C. P. R. wharf and E. & N. Railway office. The public are advised to purchase tickets early as there is a limit to the number of persons carried by the steamer.

SERVICE IS GIVEN DIRECT TO DANZIG

S.S. Saxonia Will Carry Passengers for Polish, German and Baltic States

The first Cunard Line passenger steamship to sail into Danzig will be the 14,200-ton Saxonia, favorably remembered by travelers to many European ports. She will sail from New York on Saturday, July 23, the sailing appealing strongly to Polish passengers, as it will be thus possible for travelers to go direct to Danzig.

The Cunard Line announces that it has arranged this sailing because of the general demand for passage direct to Danzig by Poles and Baltic States passengers returning from this country, and has selected the large and commodious Saxonia so as to accommodate a great number of passengers.

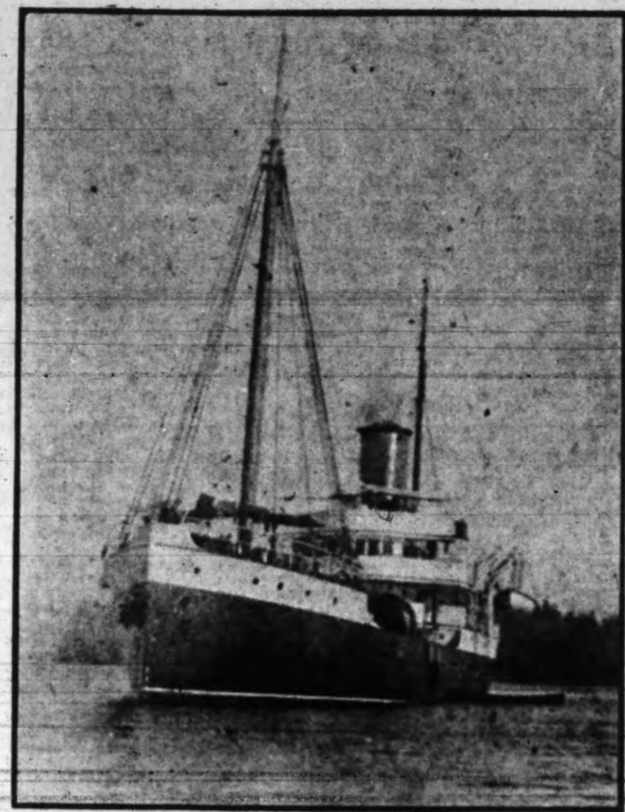

The Saxonia is a cabin and third class ship, with exceptional accommodations in both classes.

This midsummer sailing will also appeal to vacationists who wish to travel to Europe at rates far below those charged on the de luxe flyers Aquitania, Berengaria or Mauretania. The Saxonia is one of the most comfortable ships on the ocean and is famed for her steadiness in all kinds of weather.

Too many people begin at the bottom by throwing rocks at the man who is on top.

DISABLED SAILING SHIP MAKES PORT

Barquentine Echo Picked Up by Tugs 150 Miles From Golden Gate

San Francisco, July 14.—The barquentine Echo arrived in San Francisco to-day, 34 days out from Melbourne, Australia, with her sails and rigging badly damaged by a storm encountered 150 miles off the coast.

Tugs from San Francisco went to the vessel a few miles out and towed her into port. The wind during the storm reached a terrific velocity, Captain Samson stated.

SEATTLE PLACES BAN ON LIQUOR

Seattle, July 15.—To make the Port Commission terminals as dry as the Sahara is the aim of a resolution adopted by the commission under suspension of the rules. The resolution was introduced by Commissioner George B. Lamping and provides that any person in the employ of the port having knowledge of any intoxicating liquor on port property or adjacent property who does not promptly report it to the commission, or any employee of the port who has liquor in his possession while on port property or aboard a vessel moored at any of the port terminals, will be discharged.

The commissioners explained that much liquor is being brought ashore from ships arriving from the Orient and they intend to put a stop to it. In the future employees of the port will be expected to co-operate with the prohibition enforcement officers in keeping the port district dry.

STATES ASSEMBLING ARMADA ON PACIFIC

NEWS IN BRIEF

Saanich Delegates.—Councillors Kingwell and Simpson were last night named as representatives of Saanich on the Economic Council, co-ordinating plans for employment during the coming winter.

Naval G. W. V. A.—The regular fortnightly meeting of the Naval Branch of the Great War Veterans' Association will take place to-night at 8 o'clock, in their new quarters, on Bastion Street. A large attendance of members is looked for.

Mrs. Pankhurst and Veterans.—To-morrow evening at 8 o'clock Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst will speak to the Veterans of France in their headquarters, Douglas Street. Brief addresses will also be given by the Rev. H. T. Archbold and H. T. Ravenhill of the Island Council for Social Hygiene.

Beach Fire Dangerous.—The Saanich Council was last night informed by Councillor Vantreight that bathers at the Gordon Head beach near the Keith Wilson farm had left a fire which had grown to dangerous dimensions with a hay field in close proximity. The police were notified at once.

Must Not Block Roads.—The Saanich Council last night decided to take action against motorists stopping their cars on the travelled portions of the highways in such a manner as to block traffic. Councillor Vantreight asked for action as a result of difficulties caused by Sunday sight-seeing parties.

Uniform Applications.—The Saanich Council last night authorized the preparation of uniform application forms, to be filled in by applicants for housing loans under the extended Soldiers' Housing Scheme. Saanich has $11,000 additional in prospect, though the Council had not, up to last night, received definite word of an appropriation.

Profitable Waterworks.—The Saanich Council was last night informed that, up to June 30 last, the balance of waterworks revenue over expenditures was $2,472.78, as compared with $5,463.52 shown at the same period last year. The operating revenue for six months was $18,119, with expenditures of $3,711. Of construction funds amounting to $5,454.44 available, including $5,000 voted this Spring, but $673.76 has been spent.

Paying Tax Arrears.—The Saanich treasury has already received $12,023 of tax arrears of the estimated $50,000 expected during the year. Ordinarily the main bulk of these arrears are collected much later in the year, just in time to save the properties from the September tax sale, and this collection is considered very good.

Will Only Supply Tiling.—Because the many demands for ditch crossings have become a great expense to Saanich as a result of the municipal council last night put an end to further contributions of this nature. Instead the municipality will supply free of cost, any tile needed for crossings, the construction to be done at the entire expense of the land owner benefited, but to the satisfaction of the municipality's Road Superintendent.

Displaced by Delays.—The Saanich Council last night agreed in denouncing delays in commencement of repairs to the permanent paving system, guaranteed by the Warren Construction Company. The contractors have stated that work will commence as soon as they can secure the use of the Victoria city paving plant, but the Council feared this would not be possible until September, too late for effective repair work. The opinion of the municipal solicitors will be secured as to the legality of Saanich doing the work at once and suing the contractors, and also as to the possibility of trouble arising should Saanich prepare a statement of the controversy with the Warren Company for presentation to the Union of B. C. Municipalities.

Water Usage Jumps Vastly.—Reporting to the water and sewer committee of the Saanich Council that water used for irrigation by gardeners had boosted consumption in Saanich from the winter daily normal of 300,000 gallons to 900,000 gallons on Monday, 1,200,000 gallons on Wednesday and 1,800,000 gallons yesterday. Clerk Cowper stated that the effect of obtaining water by flat rate consumers on such a basis would cause profits to vanish entirely as it would mean a bill of at least $1,800 from Victoria for the month. On motion by Councillor Ormond a resolution prohibiting use of water for irrigation by flat rate connections at other hours than from 7 to 9 a. m. and 7 to 10 o'clock in the evenings was passed, and a by-law giving effect to this will be immediately prepared.

Favors Local Government Board.—On motion of Councillor Kingwell the Saanich Council last night went on record as in favor of the creation of a Local Government Board. Councillor Horner opposed the motion, and Reeve Watson, while endorsing the suggestion, feared that if the convention of the Union of B. C. Municipalities this year is attended by the same delegates as those present at Nelson last year "there would be little chance of getting such an idea endorsed."

Appeals Decision.—The Saanich Council was last night informed that L. N. Anderson, owner of property on the Old West Road which he desires to subdivide, has applied to the Lieutenant-Governor-in-Council against the refusal of the Council to approve his plan without a roadway required by Saanich. The Council will contest his action.

In Esquimalt Court.—In the Esquimalt police court yesterday afternoon before Magistrate Jay three cases were heard. Messrs. George Calder, and L. Schmeir were each fined $5 for leaving automobiles parked without lights after dusk, while H. Palmer, who was charged with peddling without a license, was remanded until Thursday next.

Made Fast Run.—From Campbell River to Victoria on motor cycles in a time of ten hours even was the record made by Messrs. Eric Stewart and Howard Shemitt on Wednesday. The pair left Campbell River at 5.30 a. m. and arrived in Victoria at 4.30, almost without stopping on the way. Tire trouble caused the slight delay that was occasioned.

Fire Did Damage.—Fire in the kiln and boiler house of the Sweeney Co-operative in Esquimalt did damage to the extent of $2,500. Through the efforts of the fire fighters, aided by the Victoria West fire engine and men the fire was confined to the two sections named. The blaze broke out about 7.00 p. m. last night and gave the fire-fighters a hard time until the blaze was controlled.

McBride Conservatives Debate.—Chinese immigration with its effect on workers in this Province and the action of the Dominion Government in connection with the completion of the two ships under construction by the Victoria B. C. Shipowners' League will be the subjects of addresses and general debate at the meeting of McBride Conservatives in Elmhurst House at 8 o'clock to-night.

On Murder Case.—Tom O'Connell, Dominion police officer in charge of the Indian's, with Provincial Constable Robert Owens, returned yesterday from the Indian murder case in Salt Spring Island, and to-day left for up-island still in connection with the matter. Both officers declined to announce anything at the present time. Superintendent McMynn attended the meeting of the Game Conservation Board in Vancouver this week, and is expected back in town shortly.

In Saanich Court.—In the Saanich Police Court yesterday afternoon before Magistrate Jay two cases were heard in connection with the theft of fruit from a Saanich orchard. W. Ledingham, Saanich, laid the information charging Charles L. Holloway and Iver Davis with stealing cherries from his orchard. Holloway, a private in the Canadian Machine Gun Company at Hazel's rifle range, was fined $10 and given a severe reprimand by the magistrate. Davis, a sixteen-year-old boy, was allowed out on suspended sentence, but given a severe warning to remind him of what would meet any further offence along these lines.

TRUSTEES DIVIDED ON APPOINTMENT OF SCHOOL INSPECTOR

Expects Vigorous Contest For Position To-night

With a vigorous fight between the various candidates for the position in prospect, the City School Board will meet to-night to appoint a new Municipal Inspector.

The Trustees went over the six applications for the post after their regular meeting Wednesday night, but were unable to agree upon any applicant. In fact, there is a wide division of opinion on the subject, although G. E. Deane so far has received most support. It is expected that if the first ballot fails to elect an Inspector to-night a large number of subsequent ballots will be required.

Only six trustees will vote on the appointment unless there is a tie ballot. Some years ago it was the practice of School Board Chairmen to vote some time ago and Chairman Dr. Raynor has never cast a ballot except in the case of a tie.

Mr. Deane Favored.
The contest now appears to be between Mr. Deane and an eastern man who is greatly favored by some trustees. The members feel that an outsider would assume the very delicate position of Municipal Inspector free from all prejudice. "A new broom sweeps clean" is their motto. It is quite probable however, that the Board may be forced to accept a compromise, as the strength of these two applicants proves equal.

No business besides the appointment of a municipal inspector will be transacted to-night, as the Board will meet again some time next week to attempt to unravel the High School tangle following the receipt of a letter on the subject from Dr. Alexander Robinson, principal of the school.

It is agreed that the appointment of a Municipal Inspector is one of the most important matters which the Board has been called upon to make this year because the new head of the city school system will have on his hands a situation more serious than has faced any other Inspector for years. It will rest largely with the Municipal Inspector to solve the High School trouble, it is expected.

COMMITTEES STRUCK

The Chamber of Commerce committees on commerce yesterday agreed upon nominations for the personnel of the following special committees, to be confirmed by the directors at their next meeting:

1. Committee on foreign trade. To assist in the promotion of foreign trade in the port of Victoria, with special attention to keeping in touch with firms in foreign countries for the purpose of obtaining Canadian products or manufactured articles.

2. Committee on entertainment of delegates to the International Peace Arch ceremony, who will visit the city on September 5. This committee to assume the responsibility for the arrangement of a joint meeting of public organizations of the city in honor of the visitors and to provide whatever entertainment may be approved by the directors.

3. Committee on excursion to Blaine. To arrange and carry out details for an excursion to Blaine, September 4 to attend the dedication ceremonies of the International Peace Arch.

4. Committee on harbors and navigation. This committee is to act for the Chamber of Commerce in co-operation with the shippers and shipping companies for the advancement of the shipping trade in the port of Victoria.

5. Committee to take up the matter of landing regulations to facilitate the landing of first class passengers from ocean steamers at Victoria.

Persistent Pests.—The trouble with thistles in Saanich this year is the moisture, which results in two shoots coming up to replace every thistle cut down. Councillor Horner last night, when Councillor Ormond bitterly complained of conditions in Ward 2.

A. and N. Veterans.—A meeting of the Army and Navy Veterans' Association, Victoria Unit, took place last night in their rooms, Hamley Building, when matters of a routine character were discussed. Comrades Dupon and Thompson were appointed to vacancies on the executive committee. The next meeting of the executive will take place on Monday evening at 8 o'clock.

Tackle Colquitz Creek.—This is making a start on Saanich's worst drainage proposition, said Reeve Watson last night when the Council was debating the proposal of Councillor Kingwell that Saanich expend $1,000 on improving Colquitz Creek from Marjold to Burnside Road, provided the Provincial Government contribute at least $5,000. A strong deputation, headed by James O'Connell, had advanced this suggestion after expressing conviction that if Saanich took the lead, the Government would fall in line, the petitioners having been so informed informally. The motion carried with Councillor Brooks in opposition on grounds that the undertaking was not fair to the rest of Saanich, unless it was regarded as the initiation of a wide plan of drainage works.

Victoria Comes Through With A Brace Bagged From Beavers

Gifted Mainland Performers Were Humbled On Their Own Lot; Jimmy Church Right There On Second.

First Game—Victoria, 6; Vancouver, 3.
Second Game—Victoria, 4; Vancouver, 1.

Vancouver, July 15.—Vancouver Beavers suffered a setback yesterday afternoon and evening when the invited guests from Victoria humbled our gifted performers. In the afternoon game they won by a 6-3 count, and in the twilight affair came through again on the long end of a 4-1 count. Marquis and Brinda were the victims. The former's offerings were combed for an even dozen blows in the first combat. The collection included two triples and a double. Vancouver nicked Johnny Washington for seven, but with the exception of the first and second stanzas he was invincible. Several of Victoria's bingles went for extra sacks, a heavy south-west wind playing tricks with the balls which went out to the fielders.

Even At Fourth.
The teams went into the fourth on even terms, but in that session the champions collected one marker and added two more in the sixth on a couple of walks, a triple and a single.

Victoria won the evening fracas in the third frame when they bunched on Brinda's march, coupled with walk and a stolen base, netted three runs. Vancouver got a lone counter in the second. Both games produced some smart fielding. Solomon had a tough time in the left pasture but in the evening made three fine catches.

Had 'Em Tamed.
Thompson had the Beavers tamed all along the round. They got but four singles against Victoria's six. Patton started around short, while Jimmy Church did some fancy work at second. Mark Purcell in out of the game again making a new crop of both and his absence has weakened the local squad.

A BATTLE ROYAL BILLED FOR STADIUM
Knight of Columbus and Elks Clash at 3 o'Clock

Another good battle is in order when the Knights of Columbus meet the Elks at the Stadium to-morrow afternoon at 3 o'clock. The Knight's struggle has jumped way above par through their victory over the Elks last night, and special interest is being taken in to-morrow's contest owing to the Knight's decisive victory over the Elks when the teams last met. On the occasion the Knights landed on Cathar's offerings for nine hits in six innings, chasing him to the dug-out and causing Lortimer to send a hurry up call. Forbes to stop the slaughter. The remainder of the game, but the damage was done and the Elks went down to defeat, 9 to 2. Neither manager has announced their battery as yet but as both teams are out for a win, the fans can rest assured that they will use the best they have and a great old hot battle is expected.

HOT WEATHER FANS SAY IS GOOD FOR HURLERS
New York, July 15.—Big league pitching has become so effective with hot weather that talk of the lively ball has subsided recently, say a host of fans, thought so much of the solution of the mystery that he wrote to the newspaper about it to-day.

As proof he cites the following in recent games: Alexander to stop the White Sox showed how lively the Chicago Cubs gave the Giants one run scored on an error. Neft of the Giants held the Chicago Nationals to three hits and no runs. Ryan of the Giants held the Chicago Cubs to one run. Tyler of the Chicago Cubs gave the Giants one earned run, but lost the game through an error. Kerr and Faber of the White Sox showed how lively the ball is by holding the Yankees to a few hits. Faber held Washington yesterday to three hits, making his season's record thirteen victories and six defeats.

RACING CLUBS STILL GATHER THE BERRIES IN SPITE OF TAXES
Toronto, July 15.—The racing clubs are still making substantial profits in spite of the cut made by the federal government on their percentages, according to returns filed with the provincial treasurer covering the Spring meetings. The Metropolitan Racing Association with its half-mile tracks are taxed only one-third of the amount levied by the province on mile tracks. Gate receipts at the Woodbine totalled $174,583 and members' privilege badges brought in $13,755 extra. The Niagara Racing Association at Fort Erie had total receipts of $235,421 with a surplus of $11,198. The total receipts at the Thorncliffe track totalled $3,261,682, on which the club's commissions were $101,368 plus $9,647 in "breaks".

Two Day Regatta at Indian River To-day Opened With Junior Races

W. N. KENNEDY.
Who will row in singles against Jack MacDonald, and also in doubles with Kent.

With crowds from Vancouver, Portland and Victoria lining the embankments the two-day regatta opened under the auspices of the North Pacific Association of Amateur Oarsmen, opened under favorable conditions to-day at Indian River. Crews from the three cities named were on hand, accompanied by a good number of supporters. Ladies in their gaily colored summer dresses and men in appropriate summer clothes, combined to make a pretty scene, and the weather was highly favorable for a regatta.
Junior event occupied the afternoon, the junior single sculls at 2:45 p.m., the 149-lb. four-oars at 4:30 p.m., and junior double sculls at 5:15 p.m., and the junior four-oared race being down for decision.
Local sportsmen are watching with interest to-morrow's event, when W. N. Kennedy defends his title in the singles.

ANNUAL EVENT AT CORDOVA BAY ON LARGER SCALE

August 3 Set For Popular Regatta; Silver Cup Is Donated

At a meeting of Cordova Bay campers held on Wednesday at William Dee's camp preliminary arrangements were made for the forthcoming regatta, which is to be held on August 3 at 2:30 o'clock. Officers were elected at this meeting and their assignments given them. Mr. Dee was re-elected this year as president of the sports, as also was Secretary George Russell.

Many Interesting Events.
Wednesday afternoon was selected for these sports, the majority of campers having the half-holiday in mind when they selected this date. Many interesting events will be held at the bay on this day, the hundred yards swimming cup having to be competed for. Alastair Hemingway secured it last year and will most likely defend the title this year. George Russell, secretary of the sports, has kindly donated a silver cup for the hundred yards canoe single paddle. Open events will be on the list for those who are non-campers at the bay.

In addition to a splendid programme of events, the Navy League Brass Band will entertain during the afternoon, having a large camp fire, and which is sure to be as popular as the last concert they presented at the bay.

A special meeting will be held on Tuesday evening at 8:30 at W. Dee's camp, at which officers will report progress, and final arrangements will be made, including the drawing up of the programme.

The committee is endeavoring to secure a concert party for the evening, having a large camp fire, and with community singing of the popular kind.
These sports were started in 1912, and in 1914 were called off on account of the war. It was permanently established as an annual event when the first regatta since 1914 was held at the bay in 1919. This year sports will run on a large scale, attracting many picnickers interested in the affair from the city to witness it and also to enter the open events.

The officers for this year's regatta are as follows:
President, Wm. Dee, re-elected; vice-president, M. Rodger; secretary, J. C. Pendray; secretary, G. W. Russell, re-elected; finance committee, F. Gillinsky (chairman), Nodel, Harris, Bullock and Russell; judges, H. H. McCann, Wm. Dee, Lumden, Lane and Mellor; programme, Wm. Dee (chairman), Nodel, Pendray and Russell; prize fund, J. C. Russell (chairman); rowing, Gillinsky, Dodds, H. Dee; investigation, T. Lumden; G. Bullock; entertainment, Wm. Dee (chairman), H. Beckwith, E. J. Williams, G. Russell.

JOHNSON MAKES BIG TALK; HAS RECEIVED HALF DOZEN OFFERS

Chicago, July 14.—Jack Johnson, former heavyweight champion, arrived home to-day after ten months in Fort Leavenworth, and was greeted by a huge crowd at the railroad station. He was accompanied by his white wife. The famous golden smile was not much in evidence, but he declared he was "mighty glad" to get home.
"Certainly I'm going to fight," he said. "I've not had a dozen offers to step back into the old ring right now. Dave Driscoll, of Jersey City, has offered me $35,000 flat guarantee to fight either Harry Winstone or Brennan, but will not close with anybody until I go East within the next ten days. It won't take me long to get into condition."
Chicago negroes are arranging a big homecoming reception for the former champion of the Ring and Wingo; he has a chance to fight Jack Dempsey, he is quoted as saying, "half of the proceeds to go to wounded soldiers. If Dempsey's end is not enough I will give him mine."

TEAMS FOR SATURDAY
Cricketer teams for to-morrow's games have been announced as follows:

SPRANGER FINED.
Winnipeg, July 14.—C. Spranger, second baseman of the Rega baseball club, was fined $13 and costs in the police court to-day for using rowdy language. According to the evidence, Spranger became riled by shouting in the bleachers and used indecent language toward the spectators. In defence, he said that he had always been heckled by Winnipeg baseball fans, and that last Monday a pop bottle had been thrown at him.

WILSON DEFENDS TITLE TO-NIGHT

Wants Tex There to See How He Would Handle Carpenter

Boston, July 15.—Johnny Wilson, for the second time since he won the middleweight championship from Mike O'Dowd, will defend his title here to-night in a ten-round decision bout. He will meet G. Robinson of Cambridge, a negro boxer who has a twelve-round decision over Wilson to his credit, obtained before Wilson became champion. In two ten-round no-decision bouts Robinson has been credited with the popular verdict by sport writers.

An invitation to view the bout was extended to Tex Richard, in view of Wilson's challenge to meet Carpenter in light heavyweight title.

NEEDED THE CORKS
A Scottish lad was sent by his father to a neighboring public house with the following order: "I want to see our house ten dozen bottles of ale."
One of the publican's faults is a propensity to poke his nose into other people's business, and he could not help exclaiming, "Guld gracious, lad, and whatever is yer father's name, he'd wae' sae muckle ale!"
For a moment Johnnie was puzzled. Then he replied, quietly, "I'm no vera sure, but I think he's meant to mak' a cork frame, and he'll need the corks."—Tit-Bits.

ROYAL VICTORIA

The Royal Victoria Theatre will present again to-day a programme which contains two features. Those who like comedy can be accommodated with Mack Sennett's five reels of laughter, entitled "Love, Honor and Behave." And those who like drama will be pleased with Mildred Harris Chaplin in "The Inferior Sex." One of the dramatic scenes in "The Inferior Sex" is that which takes place on a yacht. The young married woman, whose husband has shown great indifference to her has been wooed by a wealthy clubman, and finally has decided to elope with him. She goes to meet him aboard the yacht. But there she is followed by her sister-in-law who explains the situation to the captain. The gallant old sea dog turns on his master and tells him that by the laws of the sea he is in command of the yacht and that he will not sail, placing his own position in jeopardy rather than be a party to a scandal and the wrecking of a home. There is a sharp clash between the captain and the owner, but the captain wins out and the

PANTAGES
To-day and Saturday are the last dates for "Alf's Button" at the Pantages, and those who do not hurry to get their seats may discover that they are too late, if the history of other cities repeats itself here. The picture that caused the Prince of Wales to send his congratulations to the producer has also caused the entire continent to take off its hat, and together appearing to John Bull for this excellent production. Mack Sennett's mastercraft productions will be shown in Canada before long as a result of the firm foothold "Alf's Button" has given British pictures in this country.

SONG FROM THE AIR
Chief White Elk will sing from the highest point of the David Spencer building at 12 o'clock noon Monday, July 18, after which he will be introduced to a number of Victoria people.

VARIETY
COMING TO VARIETY
An attraction of exceptional merit will be presented at the Variety Theatre next week. "Before the White Man Came" is the title of the picture. It is an Indian production produced on the Crow and Cheyenne reservations in Montana and Wyoming, and is positively the only production ever attempted where every character is portrayed by a full-blooded Indian.
Not only are the people of Victoria going to see the most remarkable photoplay yet published, they will also be afforded the opportunity of witnessing among other members of his company the noted Indian tenor and movie star Chief White Elk, accompanied by his little wife, White Elk, and a fourteen-months old papoose.
These people will present their magnificent program and epilogue in connection with this valued production, as well as lecture on same throughout.
It has been said by the newspapers in other towns where this attraction played that it was the most delightful attraction of the year, and it is thought that theatre-goers of this city will be given the trophy of the city next week at the Variety.

ELKS ENTERTAIN AGAIN SUCCESSFULLY
Strong Social Committee Shows Its Organizing Ability
Ever since its inception the Elks Club has in its membership some of the best social functions in any community. In this respect the local club, now established in the new quarters in the Weller building, on Douglas Street, has been during the past twelve months particularly active in concert, soiree and dance. Thus in this manner do they carry out the symbolism of the word ELK—equality, love, and kindness. Music always plays a prominent part in their entertainments, and as far as the local club is concerned, which is the second largest in the Dominion, it is singularly fortunate in having among its members several who are identified with the leading music affairs of the city.
The committee, consisting of Bros. F. C. Dillabough, R. T. Loughheed, Alex. Peden, G. Watson, E. Carlow, and C. H. Mertley, is an energetic one, and in their hands, with Bro. Loughheed as music convenor, was due the success of last night's "Elk Rally" in their large hall, which marked the occasion of the visit of Grand Exalted Ruler Joseph E. Morris to the lodge, and also to arouse the club membership to the fact of the Dominion convention to be held at Calgary on August 18, 17 and 18.
A most enjoyable programme was arranged for the occasion, with Exalted Ruler Mark Graham in the chair, who, with Past Exalted Ruler Alex. Peden, Grand Exalted Ruler Bro. Joseph Morris, Bro. Kenneth Ferguson, and Supreme Lady Carlow, gave several addresses, interspersed with musical numbers contributed by Mrs. Graseley Bick, soprano, who gave with much distinction, "La Stagione-Arriva, from

WOMEN OF MIDDLE LIFE
A Dangerous Period Through Which Every Woman Must Pass
Practical Suggestions Given by the Women Whose Letters Follow

After, Tenn.—"I want other suffering women to know what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. During the Change of Life I was in bed for eight months and had two good doctors treating me but they did me no good. A friend advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it always does me good. I wish all women would try it during the Change of Life for I know it will do them good. If you think it will in your case, please write to the Vegetable Compound and I will publish this letter." Mrs. A. KELLER, Afton, Tenn.
Mrs. Mary Lister of Adrian, Mich., adds her testimony to the value of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to carry women safely through the Change of Life. She says:
"It is with pleasure that I write to you thanking you for what your wonderful medicine has done for me. I was passing through the Change of Life and had a displacement and weakness so that I could not stand on my feet and other annoying symptoms. A friend told me about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and the first bottle helped me, so I got more and I am now doing my housework. Your medicine is certainly woman's friend and you may use this testimonial as you choose." Mrs. MARY LISTER, 608 Frank Street, Adrian, Mich.
It is said that middle age is the most trying period in a woman's life, and owing to modern methods of living not one woman in a thousand passes through this perfectly natural change without experiencing very annoying symptoms. These annoying spells, the dreadful hot flashes that send the blood rushing to the head until it seems as though it would burst, and the faint feeling that follows, as if the heart were going to stop, those sinking or dizzy spells, all symptoms of a nervous condition, and indicate the need for a special medicine.
Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a root and herb medicine especially adapted to act upon the feminine system. It acts in such a manner as to build up the weakened nervous system and enables a woman to pass this trying period with the least possible annoying symptoms.
Women everywhere should remember that most of the commoner ailments of women are not the surgical ones—they are not caused by serious displacements or growths, although the symptoms may be the same, and that is why so many apparently serious ailments readily yield to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, as it acts as a natural restorative and often prevents serious troubles.
Lydia E. Pinkham's Private Text-Book upon "Ailments Peculiar to Women" will be sent to you free upon request. Write to The Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Massachusetts. This book contains valuable information.

PRESENT CIVIC SYSTEM IS BEST. MEETING AGREES

But Various Changes Are Suggested to Improve It

ALDERMEN DEFEND COUNCIL'S RECORD

Victoria's present system of civic government with a few changes is about the best that can be devised, members of Alderman A. E. Todd's Civic Reform Committee and representatives of public organizations appeared to agree at their first meeting in the City Hall yesterday.

The main points brought out in a two-hour discussion, which will be resumed at a later meeting, were: The necessity of removing some of the legislative restrictions which encumber the city at present by giving Victoria a charter of its own; the advisability of consolidating the Council, School Board and Police Commission to secure greater efficiency; the need for extending mayoral and aldermanic terms and increasing the salaries of the Mayor and Aldermen, so that better men will be attracted to civic positions; and the fact that Victoria citizens will never have a better civic administration until they get over their present indifference and vote at the civic elections.

Among those at the meeting were Mayor Porter and Aldermen Dewar, Fullerton, Woodward, Harvey, Sargent, Dinsdale and Todd; Messrs. Jas. Forman, of the Victoria Realty Board; E. A. Tomlin, of the Rotary Club; Christian Sivertz, of the Trades and Labor Council, and R. Yates, of the Gyro Club.

Defends Council.

Alderman Todd, opening the meeting, pointed to the almost insuperable financial difficulties with which the civic authorities had been forced to struggle during recent years. "The present system is not to blame for the present condition," he declared. "The blame is ninety per cent on the public, which encouraged rash expenditures, and ten per cent on the Council."

"It would have been a pleasure to serve on the Council about ten years ago," the Alderman remarked, "but there is no pleasure now when all the fine schemes we would like to put into effect are made impossible by the absolute lack of money."

Lack of Encouragement

Alderman Todd pointed with great regret to the indifference of the citizens to civic affairs. "There is little encouragement to a man to run for the Council when even his best friends won't bother to come out and vote for him," he remarked.

"However before making any drastic changes I think we should give the present system a fair trial with some changes regarding continuity of office and making Council positions easier and more attractive so that we can encourage more of our young business men to enter our civic life. At all events I don't think we or the public generally have a right to call the present system a failure at all."

City Management Plan.

Mayor Porter repeated the statement quoted in a recent issue of The Times, that he favored the city manager system of civic government. A city manager, he said, would be able to introduce and enforce up-to-date business methods in the city's affairs and would be indirectly responsible for his work to the people through a council elected to fix civic policies. His Worship defended the work of the City Council in the past.

Alderman W. F. Fullerton declared that a Victoria alderman who honestly fulfilled his duty had to make great personal sacrifices, and really was more occupied with public affairs than the members of the Provincial Legislature, who met only once a year.

The huge expenditures in which the city had indulged during boom days, he said, had been forced upon the civic authorities by insistent property owners who were now "paying the piper."

Commission Government.

Alderman Fullerton was not greatly impressed with argument in favor of the commission form of government, which, he feared, might lead to the formation of cliques. So far he had not seen any system which would be an improvement on that in force here. He believed, however, that the city's powers should be broadened so that the City Council would not be worried by too rigorous legislative restrictions.

"Young men in our jobs couldn't do one whit better than we under the restrictions with which we are hedged about in the form of the Municipal Act and other regulations," he asserted.

Alderman Fullerton favored the inauguration of the initiative and referendum and the amalgamation of all spending bodies.

Not Applicable Here.

"I have always favored commission government in theory, but it has less application in Victoria than in most American cities, which are the centres of graft and corruption," said Alderman Woodward. "I suppose I shall raise objection when I say that municipal tradition in Germany is higher than ours. The highest place in Germany is the position of burgomaster. The German system of municipal government is on a level, or was before the war, which England has not reached in efficiency and freedom from all objectionable features."

Alderman Woodward did not think that a change in the present system would solve the city's difficulties. "The education of the public in civic affairs, he thought, would assist more than anything in improving conditions. "It is not so much the form of government as the spirit that underlies it," he added.

"I have not seen a trace of politics in this Council, nor action by any alderman actuated except by a sense of public duty," he declared.

Alderman Woodward urged the civic authorities to be cautious in dealing with large corporations so that the city would not always get the rough end of the stick. He thought that the city had borne too large a share of Johnson Street Bridge costs, half of which should have been paid by the Canadian Pacific Railway Company.

Voice of Democracy.

"The great thing is to conserve democracy—the voice of the people—in our legislative bodies," Christian Sivertz, president of the Trades and Labor Council, advised. "It doesn't matter much what form of civic government we have so long as it expresses the will of the people. If it cannot go far wrong."

"The present system is a pretty good device all through if the people would do their duty by coming out and electing the men of their choice."

Alderman Sargent described in some detail various systems of municipal government in force in Canadian cities. "My experience has been that the Aldermen here have tried to carry out the wish of the people," he said. He recalled that Victorian voters had been given an opportunity some two years ago to decide what form of civic government they favored. The people, he pointed out, had voted for the present system with aldermen elected for two years. "I am not committed to any system and am prepared to go into any," he stated.

"I think I express the opinion of the club when I say we don't wish to see any change in the form of our civic government," said R. Yates, of the Gyro Club. "Some changes, such as have been mentioned here, however, might be advisable. I refer to the amalgamation of spending bodies." He thought that some of the young business men of the city should offer themselves for civic office and urged that organizations like the Rotary and Kiwanis Clubs should place candidates in the civic field.

Longer Terms of Office.

"Every member of the City Council during the past few years has been doing his best to advance the interests of Victoria," said Alderman Robert Dewar, who urged that the aldermanic term of office be increased to three or four years, so that civic administrations could shape a policy and mature it. He urged also that the mayoral term should be longer than one year, with the idea of improving the material available for the Chief Magistrate's position.

Alderman Dewar was inclined also to favor increasing aldermanic salaries, so that young business men, in civic positions, would be compensated for the time spent in public affairs.

"We should have full control of the expenditures in the school and police departments," said Alderman Dinsdale. "We have been shorn of practically all power but that of paying the bills."

"I don't see very much the matter with our present system," said Alderman Harvey.

SAANICH PAYROLL AGAIN DISCUSSED WITHOUT ACTION

With Reeve Watson viewing the battle from a detached eminence, Councillor Brooks last night led a filibustering forlorn hope against the entrenched payroll of Saanich, opening the fight with: "I move that the wages of day labor be set at $4."

After a desperate struggle marked by the weakening of his allies, Councillors Simpson and Vantreight, the contest ended in a stalemate, when Councillor Horner moved "the debate be deferred until a full Council is present," the same tactic which defeated the payroll reduction the last session of the Council. Last night Councillor McWilliam was the absentee, while on the last occasion the absence of Councillor Brooks provided the means of delay.

Councillors Simpson and Vantreight considered that the proposed cut was too great and preferred a percentage basis, which would former thought should include the salaried staff as well as the day workers. Councillor Vantreight was willing to support a ten per cent cut.
