

1. Increase the Sustainability of Our Movement	2. Improve User Experience	3. Provide for Safety and Inclusion	4. Ensure Equity in Decision-Making	5. Coordinate Across Stakeholders

People-centred approaches to generating and distributing financial resources.	Enabling everyone to contribute to and consume knowledge in Wikimedia projects.	Enabling participation of all contributors in healthy and secure communities.	Sharing responsibility and accountability for decision making and resource allocation in the movement.	Greater support and engagement in the movement with spaces for communication and collaboration.
6. Invest in Skills and Leadership Development	7. Manage Internal Knowledge	8. Identify Topics for Impact	9. Innovate in Free Knowledge	10. Evaluate, Iterate, and Adapt

Investing in individuals and organizations to develop diverse skills crucial for the movement's health and growth.	Ensuring internal knowledge is easy to discover, consume, and adapt, with utility for all users.	Understanding the impact of our work and the potential for abuse. Improving the coverage of key topics.	Exploring and expanding the range of free knowledge content and formats to stay relevant in a changing world.	Providing resources, expertise, and accountability in the movement to monitor, analyze, and learn from our activities.