What is Wikipedia?

Imagine a world in which every single person on the planet is given free access to the sum of all human knowledge.

Jimmy Wales

A photograph of a library aisle. The aisle is lined with dark metal shelving units on both sides. The floor is a light-colored, polished surface that reflects the overhead lights. In the distance, a green door is visible at the end of the aisle. A large, glowing orange and red 'EXIT' sign with a left-pointing arrow is mounted on the ceiling. The number '285' is overlaid in large white text, with the word 'languages' in smaller white text below it.

Another type of Wikipedian is a Wikipedian in Residence. This type of writer is assigned to a museum or cultural organization to make contributions about the artifacts and historic information that is not already in the Wikipedia database.

They coordinate projects and strengthen the partnerships between the museum and Wikipedia.

Here's a look at some of the things a Wikipedian in Residence does:
