PREZIONIN'S LAST CONCRIT.—Madame Prespositing gave the third and least of her series of concerts at Cdd Fellow's Hall inst evening. The house was nearly, if not quite, as large as that which greated her first appearance among us, and she was received, if not with enthusiam, at least with marked favors. The rendered the difficult Polacos from "Linda di Ghamouniz" very siegensty.—we may say a requisitely. The aris from the Trovatore was also sung with great tasts and brilliancy. Penhaps no cent that did och hear her in these two piecos last evening can form a correct idea of her real worth as a semicariet. We helleve no artist, of whatever ability or fange, appears for the first time before an entirely, new audience without experiencing a sort of nervousness which very frequently comman, and which tends to impair the general effect of the performance. Madame Frezolini coret in the state of the performance, we regret to say, did not allots half the applause it merited. We are sorry that this charming series of concerts in at an end, and wish that arrangements could be to made for giving the public another opportunity of hearing Madame Frezolini cores as Parthenia in the play of Ingonar. This young and charming actress is drawing large houses every night, and we are glad to know that a decrease a penars to night at the St. Charles Tasarts and Parthenia in the play of Ingonar.
