TITLE 5—ADMINISTRATIVE PERSONNEL

Chapter I—Civil Service Commission

PART 24—FORMAL EDUCATION REQUIREMENTS FOR APPOINTMENT TO CERTAIN SCIENTIFIC, TECHNICAL, AND PROFESSIONAL POSITIONS

METALLURGIST POSITIONS AND ENGINEER TRAINEE

The following sections are added to this part:

§ 24.45 Metallurgist positions (P-2 through P-8) involving highly complicated or fundamental scientific research or similar difficult scientific duties—(a) Educational requirement. Certification for these positions will be restricted to those eligibles who show the successful completion of a four-year course in a college or university of recognized standing, leading to a bachelor's degree in metallurgy or metallurgical engineering. This study must have included courses in metallurgical subjects consisting of lectures, recitations, and practical laboratory work totaling at least 20 semester hours.

(b) Duties. The duties of these positions are as follows:

(1) Critical investigative work requiring a sound knowledge of the fundamental principles, theories, practices, and terminology of metallurgy and related sciences and having for its objective the development or extension of new theories or principles, or a new interpretation of known facts leading to a revision of accepted theories and practices.

(2) The application of the known laws and facts of the physical sciences and principles of metallurgy to the development of new processes or products.

(3) The coordination of a broad research program requiring the combined efforts of several specialists in different scientific fields. The leader of such a program must have an understanding of the metallurgical principles, practices, and potentialities of the scientific fields involved, and the ability to coordinate the activities of the various specialists.

(c) Knowledge and training requisite for performance of duties. The advances in metallurgy have been dependent upon and related to the advances made in the various physical sciences. A knowledge of the principles and theories of metallurgy and of the related physical sciences, particularly physics and chemistry, is indispensable in formulating new concepts in metallurgy, in interpreting experimental data, in establishing new processes, and in developing new products. Further advances in metallurgy will be dependent upon the number of highly qualified and properly trained metallurgists who are competent to explore the field and are able to bring new scientific knowledge or established scientific concepts to bear on the problems met in research. Consequently those engaged in highly complicated fundamental research or similar difficult scientific duties in metallurgy must of necessity possess a fundamental knowledge of metallurgy, chemistry, physics, mathematics, and in addition that of pertinent allied fields in order that they may successfully attack complex problems.

Private industry using metallurgists for research positions has long recognized the necessity for broadly trained men for professional metallurgist positions who are well grounded in the fundamentals of the related sciences. They are required to have education represented by at least the attainment of a Bachelor's degree in metallurgy, and in many cases, a higher degree with specialization in a particular field is demanded.

(d) Method of obtaining basic knowledge and training. The above are statements of the minimum knowledge and training required to carry on successfully professional research work in the field of metallurgy. The only method by which such knowledge and training may be acquired is by attending a college or university where competent instruction and guidance are available, where courses are arranged in a systematic progressive schedule, and where adequate laboratory facilities and libraries are provided, and where objective evaluations are made of a person's progress in acquiring professional and scientific information.

§ 24.46 Engineer Trainee, Bureau of Reclamation—(a) Educational requirement. Applicants must have successfully completed two years of a standard professional engineering curriculum leading to a bachelor's degree in engineering, in a college or university of recognized standing.

(b) Duties. The duties of an engineer trainee will consist of a combination of on-the-job training in one of the branches of engineering by the Bureau of Reclamation, and scholastic training in the last two years of a college engineering curriculum in a college or university designated by the Bureau of Reclamation. Upon successful completion of the program, trainees will be considered for advancement to the professional engineering service in the Bureau of Reclamation.

(c) Justification for educational requirement. Since the duties of the position are twofold—to perform actual engineering work while in training, and to pursue academic studies in the last two years of a college engineering curriculum in order to attain the capacity needed to perform successfully duties at the professional engineering level in the Bureau of Reclamation—applicants must have the education specified in order to be qualified to enroll in the third year of a standard college engineering curriculum in a college or university designated by the Bureau of Reclamation.

POST COMMANDER

Section 502.18, Part 502, Chapter V, Title 10, Code of Federal Regulations, is superseded by the following:

§ 502.18 General duties—(a) Assignment of quarters, civilians. The post commander may grant permission to civilian employees and other civilians whose presence on the post is desirable because of the nature of their duties, to occupy such quarters as are available, and will be responsible that payment for or deduction from salary of the value of such quarters is affected as prescribed in Civilian Personnel Regulations. Bona fide servants occupying rooms built in existing quarters for such purpose will not be required to pay rental.

(b) Employment of civilian mess attendants—(1) Units stationed outside the zone of interior. The employment and payment from voluntary contributions of civilians as mess attendants is authorized in Army messes of units stationed outside the zone of interior under the following conditions:

(i) When the oversea commander determines that local conditions are favorable and such employment is in the best interest of the service.

(ii) Payment for such employment will be from moneys contributed, strictly on a voluntary basis, from military personnel using the mess.

(iii) The contributions collected will be taken into and disbursed from unit funds in order to insure adequate control.

(iv) Such attendants will be used only as KP's, dining room orderlies, dishwashers, and other personnel who do not perform duties of cooks, cook's helpers, bakers, and butchers.

(2) Units stationed within zone of interior. The employment and payment from voluntary contributions of civilians as mess attendants is not authorized in Army messes of units stationed within the zone of interior.

(c) Welfare—(1) Young Men's Christian Association. At posts where Young Men's Christian Association buildings have been constructed pursuant to the act of 31 May, 1902 (32 Stat. 282); 10 U. S. C. 1346; M. L. 1939, sec. 1001, the Young Men's Christian Association will be permitted to continue to conduct thereat helpful physical, intellectual, and nonsectarian religious activities. The post commander will assist and facilitate these activities in such ways as he may deem appropriate and desirable.

(2) American National Red Cross. The activities of the American National Red Cross at posts will be as prescribed or implied in AR 850–75, and the post commander will assist and facilitate such activities in every appropriate manner.

(d) Competition with civilian enterprises. The post commander is charged with the responsibility that no military member of his command will be detailed, ordered, or permitted to leave his post to engage in any pursuit, business or performance in civil life, for emoluments, hire, or otherwise, when it will interfere with the customary employment and regular engagement of local civilians in the respective arts, trades or professions. He will prohibit the use of military personnel or civilian employees of the Army during normal working hours, in conducting cooperatives (other than Army exchanges and Army Motion Picture Service) which operate in competition with civilian enterprises.

(e) Construction—(1) New construction. New construction will be performed only in accordance with and within limitations of War Department and implementing directives. See AR 100–70, AR 100–80, and TM 5–600 (administrative regulations relative to the Corps of Engineers.)

(2) Construction of buildings other than public. No buildings other than public will be erected or constructed on military reservations unless authority is granted by the Secretary of War under a revocable license in which the conditions for occupancy will be clearly set forth. Exceptions may be made with respect to unimportant or temporary structures such as are necessary and incident to the work of contractors on Government work, provided that such temporary buildings will be removed at the expiration of the permit. Construction outside the continental United States will conform to such instructions as may be issued by the War Department from time to time. [AR 210–10, May 6, 1947] (R. S. 161; 5 U. S. C. 22)

TITLE 14—CIVIL AVIATION

Chapter I—Civil Aeronautics Board

PART 03—AIRPLANE AIRWORTHINESS: NORMAL, UTILITY, ACROBATIC, AND RESTRICTED PURPOSE CATEGORIES

INTERPRETATIONS AND STATEMENTS OF POLICY

The following interpretations and statements of policy relating to Part 03 of the Civil Air Regulations (11 F. R. 13368) were issued by the Administrator of Civil Aeronautics on May 15, 1947:

§ 03.02 Airplane categories. * * *

Utility—Suffix "U"

* * * * *

(CAA Interpretation)

The phrase "limited aerobatic maneuvers" as used in § 03.02 of the Civil Air Regulations (14 CFR § 03.02, 11 F. R. 13368) is interpreted to include steep turns, spins, stalls (except whip stalls), lazy eights and chandelles.

§ 03.05 Changes. * * *

(CAA Statement of Policy)

There are currently available newly designed engines of approximately the same size and weight as previously designed engines, but with considerable variations in power. It is possible to interchange these engines with little or no installation changes, and although minor changes in engine weight may be involved, it will still be practical to operate the aircraft at the originally approved gross weight. Under § 03.2111 of the Civil Air Regulations (14 CFR § 03.2111, 11 F. R. 13374), the maneuvering load factor is not dependent upon engine power, and under § 03.2110 of the Civil Air Regulations (14 CFR § 03.2110, 11 F. R. 13374), the design airspeeds can be independent of engine power. Therefore, a change which involves or permits a practical power increase by exchange of engines shall be approved by the Administrator: Provided, That such exchange of engines is not accompanied by increase in the gross weight of the aircraft or an increase in placard speeds. Under these conditions it will not be necessary to restrict the maximum continuous horsepower by a placard because of the airplane speed limitations, since the latter are indicated on the speed placards. Aircraft alterations involving weight or speed changes beyond those set forth above will be approved by the Administrator only if the applicant shows compliance with all of the applicable sections of Part 04a of the Civil Air Regulations (14 CFR Part 04a), or all of the applicable sections of Part 03 of the Civil Air Regulations (14 CFR Part 03, 11 F. R. 13368), or relies on the provisions of § 03.01 of the Civil Air Regulations (14 CFR § 03.01, 11 F. R. 13368) by complying with certain particular and related items of the requirements under Part 03 of the Civil Air Regulations, and certain of the requirements under Part 04a of the Civil Air Regulations, i. e., the level of safety for certain particular and related items is equivalent to the requirements under Part 03 of the Civil Air Regulations and the level of safety for the remaining items is equivalent to the requirements under Part 04a of the Civil Air Regulations. Under § 03.05 of the Civil Air Regulations (14 CFR § 03.05, 11 F. R. 13369) it will be necessary to require such investigations of local structure, weight and balance, powerplant installations and flight tests as are normally involved in a change of engine type.

§ 03.121 Definition of stalling speeds. * * *

(a) * * *

(CAA Interpretation)

As used in §§ 03.121 (a) (1) and (b) (1) of the Civil Air Regulations (14 CFR §§ 03.121 (a) (1) and (b) (1), 11 F. R. 13370) the term "zero thrust" contained in the phrase "engines idling, throttles closed (or not more than sufficient power for zero thrust)" is interpreted to permit "zero thrust at a speed not greater than 110% of the stalling speed."

§ 03.1210 Stalling speed. * * *

(CAA Interpretation)

In connection with any application to have an aircraft certificated for airworthiness under a combination of the requirements of Part 03 of the Civil Air Regulations (14 CFR Part 03, 11 F. R. 13368), and Part 04A of the Civil Air Regulations (14 CFR Part 04a) as authorized by the provisions of § 03.01 of the Civil Air Regulations, the stalling speed of "not to exceed 70 M. P. H." established in § 03.1210 of the Civil Air Regulations (14 CFR § 03.1210, 11 F. R. 13371) is interpreted to apply only to airplanes which comply with all of the following sections of the Civil Air Regulations which are construed by the Administrator to cover "related items:"

§ 03.122 (Takeoff) (14 CFR § 03.122, 11 F. R. 13371); § 03.124 (Landing) (14 CFR § 03.124, 11 F. R. 13371); § 03.134 (Stalling) (14 CFR § 03.134, 11 F. R. 13373); § 03.1340 (Climbing Stalls) (14 CFR § 03.1340, 11 F. R. 13373); § 03.1341 (Turning Flight Stalls) (14 CFR § 03.1341, 11 F. R. 13373); § 03.1342 (One-engine-inoperative Stalls) (14 CFR § 03.1342, 11 F. R. 13373); § 03.14 (Ground and Water Characteristics) (14 CFR § 03.14, 11 F. R. 13373).

§ 03.122 Takeoff. * * *

(CAA Statement of Policy)

To meet the requirements of § 03.122 of the Civil Air Regulations (14 CFR § 03.122, 11 F. R. 13371) pertaining to certification of takeoff performance and to provide the Airplane Flight Manual performance data required in §§ 03.632 (c) and (d) of the Civil Air Regulations (14 CFR §§ 03.632 (c) and (d)) (11 F. R. 13397), it is necessary that a suitable method be used for the purpose of determining these items during official type tests. The Administrator will accept the following procedure for this purpose:

The ground and climb distances may be determined separately and the corrected data placed together (as is now done in the transport category). Thus, for the simplest procedure, the airplane shall be accelerated on (or near) the ground with gear extended to a speed not less than 1.3 V_{s_1}, and a climb segment to the 50 ft. height point with gear extended shall be determined by saw-tooth climb data. If it is desired to assume retraction of the landing gear at an earlier point, such point shall be assured to occur not earlier than that which would be used in normal takeoffs. The acceleration to 1.3 V_{s_1}, shall then be measured as above, with gear retraction being initiated at the selected speed. If gear retraction is completed before reaching 1.3 V_{s_1}, only one climb segment, with gear retracted, need be determined. If retraction is not completed during acceleration to 1.3 V_{s_1}, two climb segments shall be determined; one with gear extended for the time period necessary to complete retraction; the second with gear retracted. The acceleration segment shall be determined photographically, and a minimum of three trials shall be made up to speeds equal to or greater than 1.3 V_{s_1}.

NOTE: (CAA camera equipment may be obtained on a loan basis).

NOTE: It is permissible for other methods to be used in accomplishing these tests, providing that any method used is one which the average pilot may be reasonably expected to duplicate without use of unusual skill or experience, and one which produces equivalent accuracy. The operating procedure which must be followed to achieve the measured performance, shall in all cases be described in the Airplane Flight Manual.

§ 03.123 Climb. * * *

(CAA Statement of Policy)

To meet the requirements of § 03.123 of the Civil Air Regulations (14 CFR § 03.123, 11 F. R. 13371) it is necessary that a suitable method be employed for the purpose of determining the rates of climb. The Administrator will accept the following procedure for this purpose:

This method of obtaining rates of climb is through the derivation of a polar curve obtained from a series of sawtooth climbs at various speeds. When sawtooth climbs are employed, a minimum of five different speeds is required. However, demonstration climbs to prove the article meets the minimum climb requirement may be made at one given airspeed. In such cases, the minimum number of climbs at one airspeed shall be not less than three. This may not be interpreted to mean the best three of a number of climbs. In the event additional climbs are made the average of the total shall be the value to be accepted. It shall be permissible, however, to discard any climbs which are obviously in error due to such factors as turbulent air.

§ 03.123 Climb—(a) Normal climb condition. * * *

(CAA Interpretation)

In connection with any application to have an aircraft certified for airworthiness under a combination of the requirements of Part 03 of the Civil Air Regulations (14 CFR, Part 03, 11 F. R. 13368), and Part 04a of the Civil Air Regulations (14 CFR, Part 04a) as authorized by the provisions of § 03.01 of the Civil Air Regulations (14 CFR, § 03.01, 11 F. R. 13373) the items of "normal climb" (14 CFR, § 03.123 (a), 11 F. R. 13371) and "cooling test procedure for single-engine airplanes" (14 CFR, § 03.4403, 11 F. R. 13390) shall be construed by the Administrator as "related items."

§ 03.123 Climb. * * *

(c) Balked landing conditions. * * *

(CAA Interpretation)

The Administrator will consider retraction of flaps in two seconds or less as compliance with the factor of "rapid retraction" as that phrase is used in § 03.123 (c) of the Civil Air Regulations (14 CFR, § 03.123 (c), 11 F. R. 13371).

For multi-engine airplanes in which the design landing weight (14 CFR, § 03.240, 11 F. R. 13379) is less than the maximum weight (14 CFR, § 03.113, 11 F. R. 13370) for which certification is desired, the weight for items of performance and flight characteristics shall be construed by the Administrator as the maximum weight defined in 14 CFR, § 03.113. Such items of performance and flight characteristics shall consist of balked landing (climb) conditions (14 CFR, § 03.113, 11 F. R. 13370), landing over 50 foot obstacles (14 CFR, § 03.124, 11 F. R. 13371), and all flight characteristics tests in the landing configuration. The design weight covered in § 03.240 of the Civil Air Regulations (14 CFR, § 03.240, 11 F. R. 13379) is intended for use for structural design purposes only.

§ 03.132 Trim. * * *

(b) * * *

(CAA Interpretation)

(2) Section 03.132 (b) (2) of the Civil Air Regulations (14 CFR § 03.132 (b) (2), 11 F. R. 13372) provides that for airworthiness certification an airplane must maintain longitudinal trim under the following conditions: During a glide with power off at a speed not in excess of 1.4 times stall speed, landing gear extended, wing flaps both retracted and extended under the forward center of gravity position approved with the maximum authorized weight and under the most forward center of gravity position approved, regardless of weight.

In the case of new airplane designs which, due to their being equipped with high life devices, cannot meet the required trim at 1.4 times stall speed with the landing gear and flaps extended, the Administrator, as authorized in § 03.00 of the Civil Air Regulations (14 CFR § 03.00, 11 F. R. 13368), will accept, as being of equivalent safety, performance with the flaps extended based on the following standards:

(a) The flap down, power off, stalling speed shall not exceed 90% of the flap retracted, power off, stalling speed.

(b) The minimum trim speed with power off, flaps and landing gear extended, under the forward center of gravity position approved with the maximum authorized weight, and under the most forward center of gravity position approved, regardless of weight, shall not exceed 1.5 times the stall speed for that configuration.

(c) The force required to maintain steady flight in this configuration at 1.4 V_{s_1}, shall not exceed 10 pounds.

(d) It shall be possible trimmed in this configuration to execute a normal power off landing without exceeding a stick force of 40 pounds.

(e) It shall be possible with the stick free, to reduce the rate of descent to zero and simultaneously bring the airplane to an attitude suitable for landing, using not more than maximum continuous power. During this demonstration the flaps extended speed shall not be exceeded.

When the standards set forth above are relied upon to determine compliance with this section of the Civil Air Regulations, the Administrator will accept as equivalent safety a demonstration of the following items at 1.5 times stall speed instead of 1.4 times stall speed:

Longitudinal control (14 CFR §§ 03.13100, 03.13101 (a) (2), (b) (2) and (c), 11 F. R. 13371).

Specific Conditions (14 CFR § 03.13310 (a), 11 F. R. 13372).

§ 03.13330 Three control airplanes. * * *

(CAA Statement of Policy)

(e) The tests made necessary in § 03.13330 (c) of the Civil Air Regulations (14 CFR § 03.13330 (c), 11 F. R. 13372) may be conducted at speeds up to 1.2 times stall speed, flaps up and down, and with power up to 75% of maximum continuous rating.

§ 03.134 Stalling. * * *

(CAA Statement of Policy)

To meet the requirements of § 03.134 of the Civil Air Regulations (14 CFR § 03.134, 11 F. R. 13373) pertaining to the maximum loss of altitude permitted during the stall, it is necessary that a suitable method be used for the purpose of measuring such loss during the investigation of stalls. Unless special features of an individual type being investigated render the following instructions inapplicable, the procedure described shall be used for this purpose:

(a) The standard procedure for approaching a stall shall be used as specified in § 03.134 of the Civil Air Regulations (14 CFR § 03.134, 11 F. R. 13373).

(b) The loss of altitude encountered in the stall (power on or power off) shall be the distance as observed on the sensitive altimeter testing installation from the moment the airplane pitches to the observed altitude reading at which horizontal flight has been regained.

(c) Power used during the recovery portions of a stall maneuver may be that which, at the discretion of the inspector, would be likely used by a pilot under normal operating conditions when executing this particular maneuver. However, the power used to regain level flight shall not be applied until the airplane has regained flying control at a speed of approximately 1.2 V_{s_1}. This means that in the investigation of stalls with the critical engine inoperative, the power may be reduced on the operating engine (S) before re-applying power on the operating engine or engines for the purpose of regaining level flight.

§ 03.202 Strength and deformations. * * *

(CAA Statement of Policy)

Section 03.202 of the Civil Air Regulations (14 CFR § 03.202, 11 F. R. 13374) permits dynamic testing in lieu of stress analysis or static testing in the proof of compliance of the structure with strength and deformation requirements. In demonstrating, by dynamic tests, proof of strength of landing gears for the stipulated landing conditions contained in §§ 03.2421, 03.2422, and 03.2423 of the Civil Air Regulations (14 CFR §§ 03.2421, 03.2422, and 03.2423, 11 F. R. 13380), it is necessary to employ a procedure which will not result in the accepting of landing gears weaker than those qualified for acceptance under present procedures, i. e., stress analysis or static testing. The Administrator will accept, as an adequate procedure for this purpose, the following dynamic tests:

The structure shall be dropped a minimum of ten times from the limit drop height, and at least one time from the ultimate drop height, for each basic design condition for which proof of strength is being made by drop tests.

With regard to the extent to which the structure can be proved by dynamic tests, such dynamic tests shall be accepted as proof of strength for only those elements of the structure for which it can be shown that the critical limit and ultimate loads have been reproduced.

§ 03.21110 Maneuvering load factors. * * *

(CAA Statement of Policy)

In connection with any application to have an aircraft certified for airworthiness under a combination of the requirements of Part 03 of the Civil Air Regulations (14 CFR Part 03, 11 F. R. 13368), and Part 04a of the Civil Air Regulations (14 CFR Part 04a) as authorized by the provisions of § 03.01 of the Civil Air Regulations (14 CFR § 03.01, 11 F. R. 13373), reduced maneuvering load factors may be used provided it is shown: (a) that the basic flight envelope for the airplane meets the requirements of the applicable provisions of Part 03 of the Civil Air Regulations (14 CFR Part 03, 11 F. R. 13368) and, (b) that the related operating limitations found in § 03.6 of the Civil Air Regulations (14 CFR § 03.6, 11 F. R. 13395) are complied with. The actual analysis may be done on the basis of the requirements contained in Part 04a of the Civil Air Regulations. These requirements specify wing load factors. The net load factor for each condition, n_2, should be determined from the balancing computations. This net load factor shall be equal or greater than the airplane load factor as determined from the Part 03, Civil Air Regulations flight envelope. This analysis procedure may also be used for airplanes certificated entirely under Part 03, Civil Air Regulations.

§ 03.21120 Gust load factors. * * *

(CAA Statement of Policy)

For purposes of gust load computations as required in § 03.21120 of the Civil Air Regulations (14 CFR § 03.21120, 11 F. R. 13375) the slope of the lift curve may be assumed equal to that of the wing alone.

§ 03.2131 Rolling conditions. * * *

(b) * * *

(CAA Statement of Policy)

Aileron Rolling Conditions

Section 03.2131 of the Civil Air Regulations (14 CFR § 03.2131, 11 F. R. 13375) requires that airplane structure be investigated for the loads resulting from the aileron deflections and speeds specified in § 03.223 (11 F. R. 13378), in combination with an airplane load factor of at least two-thirds of the positive maneuvering factor used in the design of the airplane. The Administrator will accept the following simplified procedure as complying with this action in the investigation of airplanes of small to medium size and speed:

(1) Steady roll. Determine the C_n value, corresponding to ⅔ the symmetrical maneuvering load factor. The C_n distribution over the span may be assumed the same as that for the symmetrical flight conditions. Modify the wing moment coefficient over the aileron portions of the span, as described in the "note" under § 03.2131 of Civil Air Regulations (14 CFR § 03.2131, 11 F. R. 13375), corresponding to the required aileron deflections. The wing may be critical in torsion on the up as well as the down aileron side, depending upon airfoil section, elastic axis location, aileron differential, etc. (For the up aileron, the moment coefficient increment will be positive).

(2) Maximum angular acceleration. This condition need be investigated only for wings carrying large mass items outboard. In such cases instantaneous aileron deflection (zero rolling velocity) may be assumed and the local value of C_n and C_m over the aileron portions of the span modified accordingly to obtain the spanwise airload distribution. The average C_n of the entire wing should correspond to ⅔ of the symmetrical maneuvering load factor. The resulting rolling moment should be resisted by the rolling inertia of the entire airplane.

§ 03.2201 Pilot effort. * * *

(CAA Statement of Policy)

Section 03.2201 of the Civil Air Regulations (14 CFR § 03.2201, 11 F. R. 13376) establishes a criterion for the pilot control forces used in determining the loads on control surfaces, and provides that "in applying this criterion, proper consideration shall be given to the effects of * * *, and automatic pilot systems in assisting the pilot." The Administrator will accept the following procedure as giving proper consideration of automatic pilot systems in assisting the pilot under this section: the autopilot effort need not be added to human pilot effort but the autopilot effort shall be used for design if it alone can produce greater control surface loads than the human pilot.

§ 03.230 Primary flight controls and systems. * * *

(CAA Statement of Policy)

Section 03.230 of the Civil Air Regulations (14 CFR § 03.230, 11 F. R. 13379) requires that flight control systems and supporting structures shall be designed for loads corresponding to 125% of the computed hinge moments of the movable control surface in the conditions prescribed in § 03.22, subject to certain maxima and minima.

The 125% factor on computed hinge moments need be applied only to elevator, aileron and rudder systems. The Administrator will accept a factor as low as 1.0 when hinge moments are based on test data, the exact reduction which the Administrator will accept, depending to an extent upon the accuracy and reliability of the data.

§ 03.230 Primary flight controls and systems. * * *

(a) * * *

(CAA Statement of Policy)

Section 03.230 (a) of the Civil Air Regulations (14 CFR § 03.230 (a), 11 F. R. 13379) provides that the system limit loads need not exceed those which can be produced by the pilot and automatic devices operating the controls. The Administrator will accept the following procedure as compliance with this section:

When the autopilot is acting in conjunction with the human pilot, the autopilot effort need not be added to human pilot effort but the autopilot effort shall be used for design if it alone can produce greater control surface loads than the human pilot. When the human pilot acts in opposition to the autopilot, that portion of the system between them shall be designed for the maximum effort of human pilot or autopilot, whichever is the lesser.

§ 03.231 Ground gust conditions. * * *

(CAA Interpretation)

Section 03.231 of the Civil Air Regulations (14 CFR § 03.231, 11 F. R. 13379) requires ground gust loads to be investigated when a reduction in minimum pilot effort loads is desired. In such cases the entire system shall be investigated for ground gust loads. However, in instances where the designer desires to investigate ground gust loads without intending to reduce pilot effort loads, the ground gust load need be carried only from the control surface horn to the nearest stops or gust locks, including the stops or locks and their supporting structures.

§ 03.2421 Level landing. * * *

(CAA Statement of Policy)

Section 03.2421 of the Civil Air Regulations (14 CFR § 03.2421, 11 F. R. 13380), requires that spin-up loads be taken into account in structural designs.

Section 03.242 of the Civil Air Regulations (14 CFR § 03.242, 11 F. R. 13380), permits the use of arbitrary drag loads for this purpose. If it is desired to use a method more rational than the arbitrary drag components, referred to in § 03.242, in determining the wheel spin-up loads for landing conditions, the Administrator will accept the following method from NACA T. N. 863 for this purpose: (However, the minimum drag component of 0.25 times the vertical will still apply),

$$F_{H_{max}} = \frac{1}{r_e}\sqrt{\frac{2I_w\ (V_H - V_c)\ nF_{V_{max}}}{t_z}}$$

r_e = effective rolling radius of wheel under impact-feet based on recommended operating tire pressure (may be assumed equal to the rolling radius under a static load of $n_j W_e$).

I_w = rotational mass moment of inertia of rolling assembly slug feet required.

V_H = linear velocity of airplane parallel to ground at instant of contact, assumed $1.2V_{s_0}$, in feet/sec.

V_c = peripheral speed of tire if pre-rotation is used (feet per second)—a positive means of pre-rotation should be provided before pre-rotation can be considered.

= effective coefficient of friction, 0.80 is acceptable.

$F_{V_{max}}$ = maximum vertical force on wheel, (pounds) $= n_j W_e$, where W_e and n_j are defined in §§ 03.3611 and 03.3612 of the Civil Air Regulations (14 CFR §§ 03.3611 and 03.3612, 11 F. R. 13384).

t_z = time interval between ground contact and attainment of maximum vertical force on wheel (seconds). If the value of $F_{H_{max}}$ from the above equation exceeds $0.8F_{V_{max}}$, the latter value should be used for $F_{H_{max}}$.

NOTE: This equation assumes a linear variation of load factor with time until the peak load is reached and under this assumption determines the drag force at the time that the wheel peripheral velocity at radius r_e equals the airplane velocity. Most shock absorbers do not exactly follow a linear variation of load factor with time. Hence, rational or conservative allowances should be made to compensate for these variations. On most landing gears the time for wheel spin up will be less than the time required to develop maximum vertical load factor for the specified rate of descent and forward velocity. However, for exceptionally large wheels, a wheel peripheral velocity equal to the ground speed may not have been attained at time of maximum vertical gear load. This case is covered by the statement above that the drag spin up load need not exceed 0.8 of the maximum vertical load.

Dynamic spring back of the landing gear and adjacent structure at the instant just after the wheels come up to speed may result in dynamic forward acting loads of considerable magnitude. This effect may be simulated in the level landing condition by assuming that the wheel spin up loads are reversed. Dynamic spring back is likely to be critical only for landing gear units having wheels of large mass supported by relatively flexible cantilever struts.

The arbitrary drag loads referred to in § 03.242 (Fig. 03–12) are usually sufficient to provide for wheel spin-up except for airplanes having large diameter wheels or high stalling speeds. For the latter, it is recommended that a more rational investigation, such as that described above, be made.

§ 03.310 Material strength properties and design values. * * *

(CAA Statement of Policy)

Section 03.310 of the Civil Air Regulations (14 CFR § 03.310, 11 F. R. 13382) provides: (a) that strength properties shall be based on a sufficient number of tests of material conforming to specifications to establish design values on a statistical basis, and (b) that the design values shall be so chosen that the probability of any structure being understrength because of material variability is extremely remote.

With reference to section 5.00 of ANC–5, Amendment No. 1, it will be noted that allowable design property columns headed "Army-Navy" represent design properties which will be equalled or exceeded by the properties possessed by approximately 90% of the material. All other allowable design property columns relate to the minimum guaranteed properties and are based on values given in the various material specifications. The Administrator will permit uses of these design properties as outlined in I and II below, based on the objectives of § 03.310.

I. In the case of structures where the applied loads are eventually distributed through single members within an assembly, the failure of which would result in the loss of the structural integrity of the component involved, the guaranteed minimum design mechanical properties listed in ANC–5 shall be used.

NOTE: Typical examples of such items are:
1. Wing lift struts
2. Spars in two-spar wings
3. Sparcaps in regions such as wing cutouts and wing center sections where loads are transmitted through caps only
4. Primary attachment fittings dependent on single bolts for load transfer.

II. Redundant structures wherein partial failure of individual elements would result in the applied load being safely distributed to other load carrying members, may be designed on the basis of the "90% probability" allowable.

NOTE: Typical examples of such items are.
1. Sheet-stiffener combinations
2. Multi-rivet or multiple bolt connections.

Certain manufacturers have indicated a desire to use design value greater than the guaranteed minimums even in applications where only guaranteed minimum values would be permitted under I above, and have advocated that such allowables be based on "premium selection" of the material. Such increased design allowables will be acceptable to the Administrator: Provided, That a specimen or specimens of each individual item are tested prior to its use, to determine that the actual strength properties of that particular item will equal or exceed the properties used in design. This, in effect, results in the airplane or materials manufacturer guaranteeing higher minimum properties than those given in the basic procurement specifications.

When strength testing is employed to establish design allowables, (such as in the case of sheet-stiffener compression tests) the test results shall be reduced to values which would be met by material having the design allowable material properties for the part under consideration, as covered in I and II above.

NOTE: Sections 1.543 and 1.544 of ANC–5 outline two means of accomplishing this, but are by no means considered as the only methods available.

§ 03.31100 Castings. * * *

(CAA Statement of Policy)

With reference to paragraphs (b) and (c) of § 03.31100 of the Civil Air Regulations (14 CFR § 03.31100, 11 F. R. 13383), the Administrator has approved specific proposals which permit the use of lower casting factors as specified in (b), with 100% radiographic inspection on initial runs, but with radiographic inspection gradually reduced on production lots as it becomes evident that adequate quality control has been established. All such procedures require the submittal and execution of a satisfactory process specification and statistical proof that adequate quality control has been achieved.

§ 03.3300 Ribs. * * *

(CAA Statement of Policy)

Section 03.3300 of the Civil Air Regulations (14 CFR § 03.3300, 11 F. R. 13383) was drafted so as to allow the proof of strength of ribs in stressed skin wings to be made as part of 100% ultimate load test of the wings, in cases where the complete wing is tested in such a manner as to stimulate the actual air load distribution. In such cases the Administrator will not require that separate rib tests be made. When ribs of stressed skin wings are tested separately from the wing and a rational load distribution is made, a suitable variability factor (see § 03.8110 of the Civil Air Regulations (14 CFR § 03.8110, 11 F. R. 13383)) shall be employed in determining the test loads. Although no specific value is stated in § 03.8110 of the Civil Air Regulations, a factor of 1.15 is considered acceptable. However, consideration may be given to a lower factor if such lower factor were substantiated by tests on a large number of ribs.

§ 03.3571 Cable systems. * * *

(CAA Interpretation)

Section 03.3571 of the Civil Air Regulations provides that "cables smaller than ⅛-inch diameter shall not be used in primary control systems". Primary control systems are normally considered to be the aileron, rudder, and elevator control systems. Hence this minimum of ⅛ inch need not be applied to tab control cables having high strength margins. However, in cases where the airplane would not be safely controllable in flight and landing with tabs in the most adverse positions required for the various critical trim, weight and center of gravity conditions, the Administrator will require that tab systems be so designed as to provide reliability equivalent to that required for primary systems. Examples are pulley sizes, guards, use of fairleads, inspection provisions, etc.

§ 03.3610 Shock absorption tests. * * *

(CAA Statement of Policy)

Landing Gear Drop Tests

Section 03.3610 of the Civil Air Regulations (14 CFR § 03.3610, 11 F. R. 13384) provides: "It shall be demonstrated by energy absorption tests that the limit load factors selected for design in accordance with § 03.241 (14 CFR § 03.241, 11 F. R. 13379) will not be exceeded in landings with the limit descent velocity specified in that section."

Several questions concerning landing gear drop tests have been received recently.

(a) The first question concerns acceptable methods of determining the effective mass to be dropped in drop tests of nose wheel landing gear assemblies. The Administrator has approved the following method as acceptable for this purpose:

For aircraft with nose wheel type gear, the effective mass to be used in free drop test of the nose wheel shall be determined from the formula for W_e (sections 03.3611 and 03.3613 of the Civil Air Regulations) using $W = W_n$ where W_n is equal to the vertical components of the resultant force acting on the nose wheel, computed under the following assumptions: (1) the mass of the airplane concentrated at the c. g. and exerting a force of 1.0 g downward and 0.33 g forward, (2) the nose and the main gears and tires in static position, and (3) the resultant reactions at the main and nose gears acting through the axles and parallel to the resultant force at the airplane c. g.

NOTE: By way of explanation, the use of an inclined reactions condition as the basis for determining the mass to be dropped with a nose wheel unit is based on rational dynamic investigation of the landing condition, assuming the landing is made with simultaneous three point contact, zero pitching velocity, and a drag component representing the average wheel spin-up reactions during the landing impact. Although spin-up loads on small airplanes may be less than the value implied by the formula, such airplanes are more likely to be landed with a nose dropping pitching velocity, or in soft ground. The vertical component of the ground reaction is specified above because the method of defining the direction of the inertia force at the c. g. gives a resultant effective mass greater than that of the airplane.

(b) The second question concerns the attitude in which the landing gear unit is dropped. The Administrator has approved the following procedure as acceptable for this purpose:

The attitude in which a landing gear unit is dropped shall be that which simulates the airplane landing condition which is critical from the standpoint of energy to be absorbed by the particular unit, thus: (1) For nose wheel type landing gear, the nose wheel gear shall be drop tested in an attitude which simulates the three point landing inclined reaction condition. (2) The attitude selected for main gear drop tests shall be that which simulates the two-wheel level landing with inclined reactions condition.

NOTE: In addition, it is recommended that the main gear be dropped in an attitude simulating the tail down landing with vertical reactions condition if the geometry of the gear is such that this condition is likely to result in shock strut action appreciably different from that obtained in level attitude drop tests; for example, when a cantilever shock strut has a large inclination with respect to the direction of the ground reaction.

(3) Tail wheel units shall be tested in such a manner as to simulate the tail down landing condition (3 point contact). Drag components may be covered separately by the tail wheel "obstruction" condition.

(c) The third question concerns the use and determination of slopes of inclined platforms when such are used in drop tests. The Administrator has approved the following procedure as acceptable for this purpose:

When the arbitrary drag components given on Fig. 03–12 (a), Part 03, Civil Air Regulations, are used for the design of the landing gear in the level landing conditions, the drag loads in the drop tests for these conditions may be simulated by dropping the units onto inclined platforms, so arranged as to obtain the proper direction of the resultant ground reactions in relation to the landing gear. (If wheel spin-up loads for these conditions are determined by rational methods and found to be more severe than the arbitrary drag loads, it is suggested that the spin-up loads be simulated by dropping the gear onto a level platform with wheels spinning.) In at least one limit drop test the platform should simulate the friction characteristics of paved runways and the rotational speed of the wheel just prior to contact should correspond to an airplane ground speed of 1.2 V_{s_0}. (It is suggested that additional limit drops be made onto surfaces of lower friction coefficient and at several wheel rotational speeds; coefficients for example, corresponding to 0.6, 0.8, and 1.0 V_{s_0}.) The direction of wheel rotation in the drop test should be opposite to that which would occur in landing the airplane. Spin up loads which are slightly greater than the arbitrary drag loads can probably be simulated satisfactorily by inclined platforms, but platforms having greater inclinations may not simulate spin up loads correctly and are not recommended.

§ 03.3622 Position indicator and warning device. * * *

(CAA Interpretation)

Section 03.3622 of the Civil Air Regulations (14 CFR § 03.3622, 11 F. R. 13385) requires that when retractable landing wheels are used, means shall be provided for indicating to the pilot when the wheels are secured in the extreme positions. These means may consist of lights of various colors. The signal "all lights out" will be considered by the Administrator as satisfactory if used to indicate intermediate gear positions but it will not be considered as providing adequate safety if used to indicate either extreme gear locked position.

§ 03.4 Power-plant installation, reciprocating engines.

§ 03.40 General. * * *
(b) * * *

(CAA Statement of Policy)

Section 03.40 (b) of the Civil Air Regulations (14 CFR § 03.40 (b), 11 F. R. 13386) requires that: "All components of the power-plant installation shall be constructed, arranged, and installed in a manner which will assure the continued safe operation of the airplane and power plant. Accessibility shall be provided to permit such inspection and maintenance as is necessary to assure continued airworthiness."

(a) The Administrator has received numerous requests and applications for permission to install reverse thrust propeller installations in various types of aircraft. The Administrator will approve as providing adequate safety only those reverse thrust propeller installations which conform in all details with the following standards:

(1) Exceptional pilot skill shall not be required in taxiing or any condition in which reverse thrust is to be used.

(2) Recommended operating procedures and operating limitations and placards shall be established.

(3) Throttle movement shall be such that the motion is in the direction of the desired acceleration of the airplane.

(4) The airplane control characteristics shall be satisfactory with regard to control forces encountered, and buffeting shall not be such as to be likely to cause structural damage.

(5) The directional control shall be adequate using normal piloting skill.

(6) It shall be determined that no dangerous condition is encountered in the event of a sudden failure of one engine in any likely operating condition.

(7) The operating procedures and airplane configuration shall be such as to provide a reasonable safe-guard against serious structural damage to parts of the airplane due to the reverse airflow.

(8) It shall be determined that the pilot's vision is not dangerously obscured under normal operating conditions on dusty or wet runways and where light snow is on the runway.

(9) It shall be impossible to place the propellers in the reverse thrust position until the airplane is on the ground, unless it is demonstrated that it is safe to reverse the propellers in any likely flight condition. Consideration shall be given to possible rebound of the airplane following initial contact, at which point propeller reversal has taken place.

(10) The mechanism actuating the propeller and controlling the engine shall maintain sufficient power to keep the engine running at an adequate speed to prevent engine stalling during or after the propeller reversing operation.

(11) It shall not be possible under any likely condition to cause excessive overspeed of the propeller during the propeller reversing operation.

(12) The propeller control arrangement shall be such as to provide adequate safeguards against inadvertent reversal of propellers.

(13) The engine cooling characteristics shall be satisfactory when operated within the operating limitations.

(14) If it is desired to certificate reverse thrust for use in taxiing only, it will be permissible to omit requirement of items 3 and 9, if the following are complied with.

a. Deliberate action with intent to reverse the propellers is required.

b. Placard in plain view of pilot must warn not to reverse the propellers in the air and to be used for taxiing only.

(b) The Administrator also has received requests and applications for permission to use reverse thrust in the performance item of determining the landing distance to be used in establishing airport lengths. (See § 03.124 Civil Air Regulations, 14 CFR § 03.124, 11 F. R. 13371.) The Administrator will not approve the use of landing distances obtainable with reverse thrust propellers in establishing landing field lengths until such time as sufficient experience with their use is available for proper consideration of all related factors involved in the establishment of adequate airport lengths for routine landings.

§ 03.43 Oil system. * * *

(CAA Interpretation)

The word "capacity" as used in § 03.43 of the Civil Air Regulations (14 CFR § 03.43, 11 F. R. 13389–13390) is interpreted by the Administrator as follows:

(a) Only the usable fuel system capacity need be considered.

(b) In a conventional oil system (no transfer system provided) only the usable oil tank capacity shall be considered. The quantity of oil in the engine oil lines, the oil radiator, or in the feathering reserve shall not be included. When an oil transfer system is installed, and the transfer pump is so located that it can pump some of the oil in the transfer lines into the main engine oil tanks, the quantity of oil in these lines which can be pumped by the transfer pump may be added to the oil capacity.

§ 03.5222 Fuel quantity indicator. * * *

(CAA Interpretation)

Section 03.5222 of the Civil Air Regulations (14 CFR § 03.5222, 11 F. R. 13393) provides: "Means shall be provided to indicate to the flight personnel the quantity of fuel in each tank during flight."

The Administrator will accept, as compliance with this provision, a fuel tank calibrated to read in either gallons or pounds, providing the gage is clearly marked to indicate which scale is being used.

§ 03.632 Performance information. * * *

(CAA Statement of Policy)

Section 03.632 of the Civil Air Regulations (14 CFR § 03.632, 11 F. R. 13397) requires that the calculated effects of variations in temperature and altitude on: (a) the take-off distance (14 CFR § 03.122, 11 F. R. 13371), (b) the landing distance (14 CFR § 03.124, 11 F. R. 13371), and (c) the steady rate of climb (14 CFR § 03.123 (a), (b), and (c), 11 F. R. 13371), shall be included in the airplane flight manual. The following ranges of these variables will be considered acceptable by the Administrator:

(1) The altitudes and temperatures for which performance in take-off distance, landing distance, take-off climb and balked landing climb shall be calculated are sea-level to 7,000 ft. and 0° F. to 100° F. respectively, except that take-off and landing distances for a seaplane need not show temperatures below 30° F. at altitudes above 1,000 ft.

(2) For multi-engined aircraft, the climb with the critical engine inoperative shall be calculated for an altitude range of sea-level to absolute ceiling and a temperature range from 60° F. below the standard temperature to 40° F. above the standard temperature at the altitude involved.

PART 04b—AIRPLANE AIRWORTHINESS REGULATIONS EFFECTIVE ON NOVEMBER 9, 1945

STATEMENT OF POLICY

The following statement of policy relating to Part 04b of the Civil Air Regulations (14 CFR Part 04b) was issued by the Administrator of Civil Aeronautics on May 15, 1947.

§ 04b.4 Power plant installation; reciprocating engines.

§ 04b.40 General. * * *
(b) * * *

(CAA Statement of Policy)

Section 04b.40 (b) of the Civil Air Regulations (14 CFR § 04b.40 (b)) requires that: "All components of the power plant installation shall be constructed, arranged, and installed in a manner that will assure their continued safe operation between normal inspections or overhaul periods. Accessibility shall be provided to permit such inspection and maintenance as is necessary to assure continued airworthiness."

(a) The Administrator has received numerous requests and applications for permission to install reverse thrust propeller installation in various types of aircraft. The Administrator will approve, as providing adequate safety, only those reverse thrust propeller installations which conform in all details with the following standards:

(1) Exceptional pilot skill shall not be required in taxiing or any condition in which reverse thrust is to be used.

(2) Recommended operating procedures and operating limitations and placards shall be established.

(3) Throttle movement shall be such that the motion is in the direction of the desired acceleration of the airplane.

(4) The airplane control characteristics shall be satisfactory with regard to control forces encountered, and buffeting shall not be such as to be likely to cause structural damage.

(5) The directional control shall be adequate using normal piloting skill.

(6) It shall be determined that no dangerous condition is encountered in the event of a sudden failure of one engine in any likely operating condition.

(7) The operating procedures and airplane configuration shall be such as to provide a reasonable safeguard against serious structural damage to parts of the airplane due to the reverse airflow.

(8) It shall be determined that the pilot's vision is not dangerously obscured under normal operating conditions on dusty or wet runways and where light snow is on the runway.

(9) It shall be impossible to place the propellers in the reverse thrust position until the airplane is on the ground, unless it is demonstrated that it is safe to reverse the propellers in any likely flight condition. Consideration shall be given to possible rebound of the airplane following initial contact, at which point propeller reversal has taken place.

(10) The mechanism actuating the propeller and controlling the engine shall maintain sufficient power to keep the engine running at an adequate speed to prevent engine stalling during or after the propeller reversing operation.

(11) It shall not be possible under any likely condition to cause excessive overspeed of the propeller during the propeller reversing operation.

(12) The propeller control arrangement shall be such as to provide adequate safeguards against inadvertent reversal of propellers.

(13) The engine cooling characteristics shall be satisfactory when operated within the operating limitations.

(14) If it is desired to certificate reverse thrust for use in taxiing only, it will be permissible to omit requirement of items 3 and 9, if the following are complied with.

a. Deliberate action with intent to reverse the propellers is required.

b. Placard in plain view of pilot must warn not to reverse the propellers in the air and to be used for taxiing only.

(b) The Administrator also has received requests and applications for permission to use reverse thrust in the following performance items: (1) Showing that a duplicate set of wheel brakes is unnecessary (§ 04b.365 of Civil Air Regulations, 14 CFR § 04b.365), (2) Establishment of the accelerate-stop distance in combination with the brakes installed (§ 04b.1221 of Civil Air Regulations, 14 CFR § 04b.1221) and (3) Determination of the landing distance to be used in establishing airport lengths (§ 04b.1240 (c) of the Civil Air Regulations, 14 CFR § 04b.1240 (c)).

The Administrator will approve, as providing adequate safety, reverse thrust for the purposes outlined in b (1) and (2) above only in instances when it is shown that such use provides a level of safety equivalent to that contemplated by the present regulations when wheel brakes alone are used, including proper consideration of pilot skill required and likelihood of attaining the necessary performance under conditions of simulated brake failure in item b (1) above and engine failure in item b (2) above.

The Administrator will not approve the use of landing distances obtainable with reverse thrust propellers in establishing landing field lengths until such time as sufficient experience with their use is available for proper consideration of all related factors involved in the establishment of adequate airport lengths for routine landings.

Issued this 15th day of May 1947.

PART 14—RADIO STATIONS IN ALASKA, OTHER THAN AMATEUR AND BROADCAST

FREQUENCIES FOR SHIP STATIONS

In the matter of amendment of Part 14 of the Commission's rules and regulations: Implementing the amended § 14.54.

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 14th day of May 1947;

The Commission having under consideration the matter of providing a more effective radio communication system for vessels operating in Alaskan waters, and on May 8, 1947, having adopted an order amending § 14.54 of the Commission's rules to read as follows:

§ 14.54 Frequencies for ship stations. (a) The following frequencies are allocated for use by ship stations in Alaskan waters in addition to those set forth in the general regulations: 1592 and 2538 kilocycles; A1, A2, A3 emission, maximum power 100 watts.[1]

(b) The frequency 2134 kilocycles is allocated for use by ship stations in Alaskan waters for communication primarily with Government coastal stations for types A1, A2, and A3 emission with a maximum power of 100 watts, upon the condition that no interference will result to other services. And,

It appearing, that an immediate need exists for use of the additional frequency 2134 kilocycles provided in the amended § 14.54; and,

It further appearing, that there is insufficient time for the filing and processing of individual applications for authorization of the additional frequency to ships operating in Alaskan waters prior to their departure for 1947 seasonal fishing operations;

It is ordered, That the licensees of all presently outstanding valid Alaskan ship station licenses authorizing the use of any one or more of the frequencies specified in §§ 14.51, 14.53 or 14.54 (a) of the Commission's rules be, and they are hereby, authorized immediately to use the frequency 2134 kc in accordance with the provisions of the hereinbefore referred to § 14.54 (b) of the Commission's rules.

It is further ordered, That this order shall be effective immediately.

(§ 303 (b), (c), and (f), 48 Stat. 1082, § 303 (r), 50 Stat. 191; 47 U. S. C. 303 (b), (c), (f), (r))

T. J. SLOWIE,
Secretary.

Chapter XXIII—War Assets Administration

[Operations Notice 1, Amdt. 1]

PART 8401—ORGANIZATION OF WASHINGTON OFFICE OF WAR ASSETS ADMINISTRATION

RULES PERTAINING TO OFFICIAL DOCUMENTS AND DISCLOSURE OF INFORMATION

Part 8401, August 28, 1946, entitled "Organization of the Washington Office of War Assets Administration" (11 F. R. 177A-750) is hereby amended by adding a new § 8401.14a as follows:

§ 8401.14a Rules pertaining to official documents and the disclosure of information—(a) Disposal of documents. All records, opinions, claims, accounts, correspondence and other official documents and exhibits attached or pertaining thereto, and copies thereof are the property of the Government. While copies of such documents may be temporarily kept in so-called personal custody of officials and employees to provide information for official use, they cannot be construed to be the personal property of officials and employees having such custody even though other copies of such documents may be located in official files or elsewhere. Upon termination of employment in the War Assets Administration any official or employee shall surrender all official documents to his successor or to his immediate superior.

(b) Confidential material. No copy of, or information relative to, any such document or to any other official business of the Administration which appears to be of a confidential nature, shall be given to any person unless such person obtains a court order or subpoena therefor, or makes application therefor in the manner prescribed in this section, and it appears to the Administrator, Associate Administrator, or General Counsel, or to the Deputy Administrator, that the furnishing thereof would not be contrary to the public interest. Applications need follow no standard form but shall be addressed to the General Counsel, and must set forth under oath the interest of the applicant in the subject matter and the purpose for which such copy or information is desired. Applications by duly accredited governmental officials need not be under oath.

(c) Testifying before courts, etc. (excluding Congressional committees). War Assets Administration officials and employees are prohibited from testifying in court or otherwise with respect to information obtained in their official capacities, without the prior approval of the Administrator, Associate Administrator, or General Counsel.

(d) Congressional committees. (1) In order to give direction and coordination to statements reflecting the official policies of the Administration and to assure that such statements truly and adequately reflect such official policies, officials or employees shall coordinate such statements with the General Counsel or his designated representative before making such statements or appearing before any Congressional committees. In those instances where the exigencies of the situation do not permit such coordination, any official or employee concerned shall transmit promptly to the Office of General Counsel a memorandum setting forth the statements furnished and the names of the persons seeking the statements, the committee with which that person is associated and such other relevant facts as may be deemed necessary to reflect a true statement of the information furnished.

(2) In order that the responsible heads of offices may know the whereabouts and activities of employees while on duty during office hours, any employee of this Administration who receives a request or subpoena from an authorized representative of a Congressional committee or any member thereof to appear and give information before such committee, or members of its staff, shall report the receipt of such request to the immediate supervisor of the office or project upon which such employee is engaged.

(3) The provisions of this section shall not impair or affect the right or duty as may be fixed by law of any official or employee of the Administration to testify before or give information to any duly authorized Congressional committee or member thereof; nor shall this regulation require any coordination of information given to Congressional committees with the office of general counsel except as provided above for statements reflecting the official policies of the Administration.

(e) Application of this section to other Government agencies. This section shall not be applicable to official requests of other Government agencies or officers thereof acting in their official capacities unless it appears that compliance with such requests would be in violation of law, or contrary to the public interest. Cases of doubt should be referred to the administrator, associate administrator, or general counsel.

(f) Authority to waive this section. The provisions of this section may be waived in proper cases by the Administrator, Associate Administrator, or General Counsel, or by the Deputy Administrator in charge of the subject matter involved.

This amendment shall become effective the 20th day of May 1947.

TITLE 43—PUBLIC LANDS: INTERIOR

Chapter I—Bureau of Land Management, Department of the Interior

Appendix—Public Land Orders

[Public Land Order 370]

UTAH

REVOKING PUBLIC LAND ORDERS 256 AND 273, WITHDRAWING PUBLIC LANDS FOR CLASSIFICATION UNDER JURISDICTION OF SECRETARY OF INTERIOR

By virtue of the authority vested in the President and pursuant to Executive Order No. 9337 of April 24, 1943, it is ordered as follows:

Public Land Orders Nos. 256 and 273 of January 4, 1945 and April 17, 1945, respectively, withdrawing certain public lands from all forms of appropriation under the public land laws and reserving such lands for classification under the jurisdiction of the Secretary of the Interior are hereby revoked.

Applications for these lands which are reported to be rough and broken desert lands may be presented under any applicable public land law as hereinafter provided. Non-mineral applications for lands which contain minerals are allowable only if there is authority for the reservation of the minerals to the United States.

This order shall become effective immediately so as to permit the issuance of mineral prospecting permits and leases upon applications which were filed prior to the dates of the respective withdrawals and which are still pending in the Bureau of Land Management or have been rejected solely because of the withdrawals provided such rejected applications are reinstated upon petitions timely filed.

This order shall not otherwise become effective to change the status of such lands until 10:00 a. m. on July 23, 1947. At that time the lands shall, subject to valid existing rights and the provisions of existing withdrawals, become subject to application, petition, location, or selection as follows:

(a) Ninety-day period for preference-right filings. For a period of 90 days from July 23, 1947, to October 22, 1947, inclusive, the public lands affected by this order shall be subject to (1) application under the homestead or the desert land laws, or the small tract act of June 1, 1938 (52 Stat. 609, 43 U. S. C. sec. 682a), as amended, by qualified veterans of World War II, for whose service recognition is granted by the act of September 27, 1944 (58 Stat. 747, 43 U. S. C. secs. 279–283), subject to the requirements of applicable law, and (2) application under any applicable public-land law, based on prior existing valid settlement rights and preference rights conferred by existing laws or equitable claims subject to allowance and confirmation. Applications by such veterans shall be subject to claims of the classes described in subdivision (2).

For a period of 20 days from July 2, 1947, to July 22, 1947, inclusive, such veterans and persons claiming preference rights superior to those of such veterans, may present their applications, and all such applications, together with those presented at 10:00 a. m. on July 23, 1947, shall be treated as simultaneously filed.

(c) Date for non-preference right filings authorized by the public-land laws. Commencing at 10:00 a. m. on October 23, 1947, any of the lands remaining unappropriated shall become subject to such application, petition, location, or selection by the public generally as may be authorized by the public-land laws.

(d) Twenty-day advance period for simultaneous non-preference right filings. Applications by the general public may be presented during the 20-day period from October 1, 1947, to October 21, 1947, inclusive, and all such applications, together with those presented at 10:00 a. m. on October 22, 1947, shall be treated as simultaneously filed.

Veterans shall accompany their applications with certified copies of their certificates of discharge, or other satisfactory evidence of their military or naval service. Persons asserting preference rights, through settlement or otherwise, and those having equitable claims, shall accompany their applications by duly corroborated affidavits in support thereof, setting forth in detail all facts relevant to their claims.

Applications for these lands, which shall be filed in the district land office at Salt Lake City, Utah, shall be acted upon in accordance with the regulations contained in § 295.8 of Title 43 of the Code of Federal Regulations (Circular No. 324, May 22, 1914, 43 L. D. 254), and Part 296 of that title, to the extent that such regulations are applicable. Applications under the homestead laws shall be governed by the regulations contained in Parts 166 to 170, inclusive, of Title 43 of the Code of Federal Regulations and applications under the desert land laws and the small tract act of June 1, 1938, shall be governed by the regulations contained in Parts 232 and 257, respectively, of that Title.

Inquiries concerning these lands shall be addressed to the district land office at Salt Lake City, Utah.

PROPOSED RULE MAKING

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION

[47 CFR, Parts 2, 5, 10, 11, 13, 16, 17]

[Docket No. 8288]

OPERATION OF CERTAIN LICENSED RADIO STATIONS BY UNLICENSED PERSONNEL

SUPPLEMENTAL NOTICE OF PROPOSED RULE MAKING

1. Supplemental notice is hereby given of proposed rule making in the above-entitled matter.

2. On April 25, 1947, the Commission released a notice of proposed rule making (Mimeograph #7414) to which was attached as an appendix a proposal for the amendment of Commission Order 133, adopted May 10, 1946. The final date for submitting comments on this proposal was set in the notice at May 25, 1947.

3. Order 133, and the outstanding proposal for the amendment of that order, are intended by the Commission to constitute a waiver of the operator license requirements of section 318 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, only as to persons who operate a portable or mobile station with the authority and on behalf of the station licensee. In order to clarify this intention, it is proposed to add an additional numbered paragraph to the outstanding proposal for the amendment of Order 133, namely:

"8. This order, insofar as it constitutes a waiver of the operator license requirements of section 318 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, applies only to persons whose operation (including the adjustments authorized by paragraphs numbered 6 and 7, above) of a station is with the authority and on behalf of the station licensee."

4. The proposal herein is authorized by sections 303 (f), (l), and (r), and section 318 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended.

5. In view of the fact that the proposal herein constitutes in effect an interpretation by the Commission of its Order 133 and of its proposal for the amendment of Order 133, it is considered to be unnecessary and not in the public interest to defer beyond May 25, 1947, the final date for submitting comments upon the proposal as herein supplemented for the amendment of Order 133.

6. Except as hereinabove set forth, the notice of proposed rule making released April 25, 1947, in the above-entitled matter is unchanged.

Adopted: May 15, 1947.

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION

[Docket No. 6651]

ALLOCATION OF FREQUENCIES TO VARIOUS CLASSES OF NON-GOVERNMENTAL SERVICES IN DESIGNATED RADIO SPECTRUM

ORDER ADOPTING FREQUENCY ALLOCATION PLAN

In the matter of allocation of frequencies to the various classes of non-governmental services in the radio spectrum from 10 kilocycles to 30,000,000 kilocycles.

At a meeting of the Federal Communications Commission, held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 15th day of May 1947;

The Commission having under consideration frequencies for the industrial, scientific, medical service [1] proposed in Public Notices 7125 and 7126, dated April 14, 1947, which public notices made provisions for comments or requests for oral argument from interested persons; and

The Commission having received and considered all comments submitted in connection with this proposal; and

The Commission having determined that the public interest, convenience and necessity would be served by allocation for use in the United States by industrial, scientific and medical devices of the frequencies 915 Mc, 5850 Mc, 10,600 Mc, 18,000 Mc, and a frequency at approximately 6 Mc (specific frequency to be announced later) as set forth in the proposal referred to above;

Now, therefore, It is hereby ordered, That the frequency allocation plan set out below be, and the same is hereby, adopted, effective June 23, 1947, to supersede any plan heretofore adopted for the said frequency bands, or any portion thereof, and the Commission's proposal of Revised Frequency Service-Allocations Between 1000 and 13000 Megacycles to Non-Government Fixed and Mobile Services (Public Notice 99615) is amended accordingly:

[1] Industrial, scientific, medical service: A service other than a radiocommunication service, for industrial, scientific, or medical uses, which results in the transmission of energy by radio.

[4] The frequency 915 mc. is designated for the operation of industrial, scientific and medical devices. All emissions must be confined to the band 890–940 mc.

[5] This service recognizes that interference to its operations within this band may result from the emissions on the frequency 915 mc. of industrial, scientific and medical devices. Separations between assigned frequencies will be 100 kc. and exact multiples thereof, and assignments will be made, in any area, progressively upward from 890 mc.

[6] This service recognizes that interference to its operations within this band may result from the emissions on the frequency 915 mc. of industrial, scientific and medical devices. Separations between assigned frequencies will be 100 kc. and exact multiples thereof, and assignments will be made, in any area, progressively downward from 940 mc. Assignments to FM studio-to-transmitter links may be made in any area in this band where insufficient space in that area is available in the band 940–952 mc.

[7] Separations between assigned frequencies will be 100 kc. and exact multiples thereof.

[8] Assignments in any area will be made progressively upward from 940 mc.

CHARLES REDER, HAROLD REDER & GILMORE RUDNICK

CONSENT ORDER

Charles Reder, Harold Reder and Gilmore Rudnick, all of North Adams, Massachusetts, are the owners of a restaurant and bar known as the "1896 House" located on Cold Spring Road, Williamstown, Massachusetts. Charles Reder, Harold Reder and Gilmore Rudnick are charged by the Office of the Housing Expediter with having commenced in July of 1946 the construction of cinder block boiler shed and of an addition to the restaurant at an estimated cost of $5,000 without authorization, which construction was not permitted under any exemption provided for in the Order and therefore constituted a violation of Veterans' Housing Program Order 1.

An authorization from the Civilian Production Administration was obtained to "install a complete heating system utilizing one 1200 square feet capacity boiler and 1,829 square feet of radiation." Under this authorization the boiler shed and addition were completed except for the applying of clapboards to the outside of the addition and except for certain interior alterations. This construction of this addition and boiler shed which were not covered by the authorization granted by the Civilian Production Administration constituted a violation of paragraph (i) of Veterans' Housing Program Order 1.

Charles Reder, Harold Reder and Gilmore Rudnick admit the violations as charged and consent to the issuance of this order.

Wherefore, upon the agreement and consent of Charles Reder, Harold Reder and Gilmore Rudnick, the Regional Compliance Director and the Regional Compliance Attorney, and upon the approval of the Compliance Commissioner, It is hereby ordered, That:

(a) Neither Charles Reder, Harold Reder nor Gilmore Rudnick, their successors or assigns, nor any other person shall do any further construction on the premises known as the "1896 House" on Cold Spring Road, Williamstown, Massachusetts, including the applying of clapboards or altering the interior unless hereafter specifically authorized in writing by the Office of the Housing Expediter.

(b) The provisions of paragraph (a) above do not apply to the work to be done under CPA authorization dated September 4, 1946, and carried as Case No. 1–2–478.

(c) Charles Reder, Harold Reder, and Gilmore Rudnick shall refer to this order in any application or appeal which they may file with the Office of the Housing Expediter or any other federal agency to do any further construction on this project.

(d) Nothing contained in this order shall be deemed to relieve Charles Reder, Harold Reder, and Gilmore Rudnick, their successors and assigns, from any restriction, prohibition or provision contained in any other order or regulation of the Office of the Housing Expediter, except insofar as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

ST. LOUIS-SAN FRANCISCO RAILWAY CO. VOTING TRUST, EXPIRING JANUARY 1, 1952

FINDINGS AND ORDER GRANTING UNLISTED TRADING PRIVILEGES

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pa., on the 22d day of May A. D. 1947.

The Boston Stock Exchange has made application to the Commission pursuant to section 12 (f) (2) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and Rule X-12F–1 for permission to extend unlisted trading privileges to the Voting Trust Certificates for Common Stock, No Par Value, of the St. Louis-San Francisco Railway Company Voting Trust, Expiring January 1, 1952.

After appropriate notice and opportunity for hearing and in the absence of any request by any interested person for hearing on this matter, the Commission on the basis of the facts submitted in the application makes the following findings:

(1) That this security is listed and registered on the New York Stock Exchange; that the geographical area deemed to constitute the vicinity of the Boston Stock Exchange for the purpose of this application is the New England States exclusive of Fairfield County, Connecticut; that out of a total of voting trust certificates outstanding covering 1,241,157 shares, voting trust certificates covering 10,306 shares are outstanding in the vicinity of the Boston Stock Exchange; and that in the vicinity of the Boston Stock Exchange there were 222 transactions involving voting trust certificates covering 56,238 shares from January 1, 1946 to December 31, 1946;

(2) That sufficient public distribution of, and sufficient public trading activity in, this security exist in the vicinity of the applicant exchange to render the extension of unlisted trading privileges thereto appropriate in the public interest and for the protection of investors; and

(3) That the extension of unlisted trading privileges on the applicant exchange to this security is otherwise appropriate in the public interest and for the protection of investors.

Accordingly it is ordered, Pursuant to section 12 (f) (2) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, that the application of the Boston Stock Exchange for permission to extend unlisted trading privileges to the Voting Trust Certificates for Common Stock, No Par Value, of the St. Louis-San Francisco Railway Company Voting Trust, Expiring January 1, 1952, be, and the same is, hereby granted.

EAST COAST PUBLIC SERVICE CO. ET AL.

FINDINGS AND ORDER RELEASING JURISDICTION AND PERMITTING DECLARATION TO BECOME EFFECTIVE

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pa., on the 20th day of May 1947.

In the matters of East Coast Public Service Company, Virginia East Coast Utilities, Incorporated, Tidewater Electric Service Company, Floyd W. Woodcock, Applicants, File No. 54–85; East Coast Public Service Company, Virginia East Coast Utilities, Incorporated, Tidewater Electric Service Company, Respondents, File No. 59–90.

The Commission in its findings, opinion and order dated April 2, 1947,[1] approved the Plan, as amended, of East Coast Public Service Company ("East

[1] East Coast Public Service Company et al., — S. E. C. — (1947), Holding Company Act Release No. 7326.

Coast"), Virginia East Coast Utilities, Incorporated ("Virginia"), Tidewater Electric Service Company ("Tidewater"),[2] and Floyd W. Woodcock under section 11 (e) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935. Our order reserved jurisdiction, among other things, with respect to the terms of the proposed issuance and sale by Virginia at competitive bidding of $1,300,000 principal amount of First Mortgage Bonds, Series A, due in 1977, and 60,000 shares of common stock, and with respect to all the fees and expenses to be paid in connection with the plan. Subsequently, by order dated April 29, 1947, the United States District Court for the District of Delaware approved the plan, as amended, of East Coast and its subsidiary companies.

In its order dated May 8, 1947,[3] the Commission permitted the amended declaration to become effective, with respect to the issuance and sale of the said bonds and common stock, subject to the condition that the proposed public sales of such securities of Virginia shall not be consummated until the results of the competitive bidding have been made a matter of record in these proceedings and a further order shall have been entered by this Commission in the light of the record so completed.

A further amendment has been filed herein and the hearing was reconvened for the purpose of completing the record with respect to the results of the competitive bidding, pursuant to Rule U-50. The record shows that pursuant to the invitation for competitive bids, two bids for the said $1,300,000 principal amount of First Mortgage Bonds of Virginia[4] were submitted as follows:

Underwriter	Coupon rate	Price to company (percent of principal amount)	Annual cost to company
	Percent		Percent
Woodcock, McLear & Co....	3⅛	102.051	3.02065
Halsey, Stuart & Co., Inc...	3⅛	101.079	3.06995

The record shows that East Coast and Virginia have accepted the bid of Woodcock, McLear & Co. for the bonds, as set forth above. The record further shows that Woodcock, McLear & Co. was bidding as the agent for the Provident Mutual Life Insurance Company of Philadelphia, which latter company is acquiring said bonds as an investment and not for resale or distribution. As a result of this transaction the Provident Mutual Life Insurance Company proposes to pay Woodcock, McLear & Co. a fee of $6,000, of which $2,750 is to be paid to Morris, Steel, Nichols and Arsht, counsel for the underwriters. We have examined the record herein and find no basis for imposing terms or conditions with respect to the price to be paid to East Coast and Virginia for said bonds, the interest rate thereon or the redemption prices. The fee to be paid Woodcock, McLear & Co. and its counsel does not appear to be unreasonable.

A witness for the company testified that East Coast publicly invited bids for the common stock at the same time that bids were invited for the bonds, and that as a result three bidders were qualified to submit bids for the common stock, but only one bid was received. Upon learning that certain prospective bidders had decided not to submit bids, the company determined to return the one bid unopened and to postpone the sale of the common stock. While in our opinion this does not amount to a modification of the plan of East Coast and its subsidiaries,[5] but is rather a change in the timing of the proposed transactions, the Commission has been requested to petition the United States District Court for the District of Delaware for a supplemental order approving the action of the company as a procedural matter. We think such action is appropriate and we shall grant the request.

The estimated fees and expenses to be paid by Virginia in connection with the issuance and sale of the bonds are as follows:

Registration fee—S. E. C.	$134
Trustees' fees and expenses	1,600
Counsel to Trustees	1,500
Printing	9,350
Company expenses	4,976
General counsel:
Miles, Walsh, O'Brien & Morris	6,500
Virginia counsel:
Frank P. Pulley, Jr.	3,500
Disbursements of counsel	1,500
	29,060

The above fees and expenses do not appear to be unreasonable and jurisdiction with respect to them will be released. All other fees and expenses in connection with the section 11 (e) plan including the merger of Tidewater into Virginia, the recapitalization of Virginia and the liquidation and dissolution of East Coast are to be paid by East Coast, and the reservation of jurisdiction with respect thereto will continue.

It is therefore ordered, That the jurisdiction heretofore reserved with respect to the matters to be determined as a result of competitive bidding for the First Mortgage Bonds of Virginia under Rule U-50 be, and the same hereby is, released and that the amendment filed on May 20, 1947, to the declaration herein be, and hereby is, permitted to become effective, subject to the terms and conditions prescribed in Rule U-24.

It is further ordered, That the jurisdiction heretofore reserved with respect to the payment by Virginia of all the fees and expenses in connection with the issuance and sale of the bonds and the legal fee for counsel to the successful bidder be, and the same hereby is, released.

UNITED GAS IMPROVEMENT CO. AND CONNECTICUT GAS & COKE SECURITIES CO.

NOTICE OF FILING OF PLAN AND NOTICE OF AND ORDER FOR HEARING

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, on the 21st day of May 1947.

Notice is hereby given that The United Gas Improvement Company ("UGI") and its subsidiary holding company, The Connecticut Gas & Coke Securities Company ("Coke Company"), have filed a joint application, pursuant to section 11 (e) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, for approval of a plan, designed to effectuate partial compliance with that portion of an order issued by the Commission on May 7, 1942, directing UGI to sever its relationship with New Haven Gas Light Company ("New Haven") and The Hartford Gas Company ("Hartford"), both of which are public utility subsidiaries of Coke Company.

In general, the plan provides for (1) the dissolution of Coke Company and the distribution of its assets, consisting principally of holdings of securities of New Haven and Hartford, to Coke Company's preferred stockholders; the common stockholders of Coke Company receiving nothing in the liquidation, and (2) the transfer by UGI of all its direct holdings of securities of New Haven and part of its holdings of Hartford to Coke Company, the elimination of claims for indebtedness allegedly owned by Coke Company to UGI, and the release and discharge of UGI and Koppers Company, Inc. ("Koppers") of obligations and agreements relating to the guaranty of dividend payments on Coke Company's outstanding preferred stock.

All interested persons are referred to said application which is on file in the office of this Commission for a statement of the transactions therein proposed, which are summarized below:

Coke Company, solely a holding company incorporated in 1926 under the

---

[2] On April 30, 1947, Tidewater was merged into Virginia, and on May 1, 1947, Virginia, the surviving company, changed its name to East Coast Electric Company which, for purposes of this findings and order, we shall refer to as "Virginia".

[3] Holding Company Act Release No. 7392.

[4] Of the total, $800,000 principal amount was offered by East Coast and $500,000 principal amount by Virginia.

[5] The record before both this Commission and the United States District Court for the District of Delaware shows that the applicants originally contemplated a simultaneous sale of Virginia's bonds and common stock.

laws of the State of Connecticut, has outstanding 198,997 shares of $3 Cumulative Preferred Stock and 299,498 shares of no par common stock, which securities are owned as follows:

Owner	Preferred shares	Percent	Common shares	Percent
UGI	------	------	210,617	70.3
New Haven	597	0.3	631	.2
Public	198,400	99.7	88,250	29.5
Total	198,977	100	299,498	100

Coke Company also has open account indebtedness of $171,173.38 owing to UGI for cash loans advanced by it in 1935. It is alleged that Coke Company also has contingent liabilities at March 31, 1947 for $1,326,484.41, representing amounts paid by UGI under the terms of an indemnification agreement made January 11, 1935 between UGI and Koppers. Under this agreement, UGI agreed to indemnify and hold Koppers harmless on account of a guaranty agreement entered into by a predecessor of Koppers in 1926, guaranteeing every future holder of the preferred stock of Coke Company the payment of dividends as provided for in their certificates for a period of 25 years from October 1, 1926. It is stated that this indemnification agreement resulted from the acquisition of the controlling interest in Coke Company by UGI from a predecessor of Koppers in 1927.

Coke Company's principal assets consist of 273,911 shares (99.6%) of the capital stock of New Haven and 20,999 shares (14.00%) of common stock of Hartford.

New Haven and Hartford are both incorporated under the laws of the State of Connecticut and are engaged in the business of rendering gas utility service in and around New Haven and Hartford, Connecticut. New Haven has outstanding 275,000 shares of capital stock with an aggregate par value of $6,875,000, or $25 per share. Hartford has outstanding 30,000 shares of 8% Non-Callable Preferred Stock (par value $25) and 150 000 shares of common stock (par value $25), each of which has equal voting rights.

The outstanding securities of New Haven and Hartford are owned as follows:

	New Haven		Hartford
	Common	Percent	Preferred	Percent	Common	Percent
UGI	350	0.1	------	------	18,565	12.38
Coke Co	273,911	99.6	------	------	20,999	14.00
Public	739	.3	30,000	100	110,436	73.62
Total	275,000	100	30,000	100	150,000	100

Under the provisions of the plan, both Koppers and UGI would be released and discharged of all obligations in respect of the guaranty of dividend payments on the preferred stock of Coke Company in consideration for delivery by UGI to Coke Company of 10,841 shares of common stock of Hartford, 350 shares of the capital stock of New Haven, the payment of cash for liquidating expenses of Coke Company not in excess of $30,000, and the release by UGI of its claim against Coke Company on account of (a) open account indebtedness of $171,173.38 and interest thereon; and (b) the sum of $1,326,484.41 paid out under UGI's indemnification agreement referred to above.

Coke Company is to be dissolved as of July 1, 1947 and in connection therewith will pay and discharge its debts, if any, and will distribute as full payment and satisfaction of all rights and interests of its preferred stockholders against surrender of their certificates 1⅜ shares of the capital stock of New Haven and 1/25 of a share of common stock of Hartford for each share of preferred stock of Coke Company; no distribution of assets is to be made by Coke Company to the holders of its common stock, whose rights are to cease and become void at the effective date of the dissolution of Coke Company.

Each holder of the preferred stock of Coke Company who is entitled to a fractional share either of the capital stock of New Haven or the common stock of Hartford is to receive in lieu thereof nonvoting scrip in bearer form which, when combined in amounts aggregating one or more full shares of the same stock, may be surrendered within three months after the issuance of such scrip in exchange for full shares of the capital stock covered thereby. The scrip will provide that, as soon as practicable after the expiration of the three months' period, any shares covered by the then outstanding scrip are to be sold and the proceeds held for account of the holders of the scrip without interest, the bearer of the scrip to be entitled to no other rights in respect thereof.

The plan further provides that, after July 1, 1947, the outstanding shares of preferred stock of Coke Company shall represent no rights other than the rights of the holders thereof to receive, on surrender thereof, shares of stock of New Haven and Hartford and scrip therefor and any accrued and unpaid dividends on such preferred stock to July 1, 1947. Pending consummation of this plan, dividends received by Coke Company on the stocks of New Haven and Hartford subsequent to July 1, 1947, less deductions for Coke Company's ordinary expenses, including provision for taxes, are to be paid out by Coke Company quarter annually to the holders of record of its preferred stock, such quarterly payments, however, not to exceed 75¢ per share of preferred stock. All other rights of Coke Company's preferred stockholders against or with respect to Coke Company and the guaranty of any dividends on such stock by UGI or Koppers shall cease and become void. The plan further provides for the discretionary appointment by Coke Company of an exchange agent for the purpose of the plan in connection with the distribution of stock of New Haven and Hartford, the issuance of scrip, the distribution of dividends received on shares of New Haven and Hartford, and the distribution of such stock, and other related matters incident to the effectuation of the plan.

Coke Company will pay such fees, expenses and remuneration in connection with the plan and any amendments thereto as the Commission may duly approve.

Consummation of the plan is subject to the following conditions: (a) the Commission shall find the plan and any amendments thereto necessary to effectuate the provisions of section 11 of the act and fair and equitable to the persons affected thereby and enter an order of approval, such order to conform to the pertinent requirements of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended, including Supplement R of Chapter I and section 1808 (f) of Chapter II thereof; (b) the Commission, shall have instituted proceedings in a court of competent jurisdiction, pursuant to section 18 (f) of the act, and such court shall have entered a decree or order to enforce and carry out the terms of the plan and any amendments thereto.

The Commission being required by the provisions of section 11 (e) of the act before approving any plan thereunder to find, after notice and opportunity for hearing, that the plan as submitted or as modified is necessary to effectuate the provisions of subsection (b) of section 11 and is fair and equitable to the persons affected thereby; and it appearing appropriate to the Commission that notice be given and a hearing be held on the plan filed by UGI and Coke Company to afford all interested persons an opportunity to be heard with respect thereto:

It is ordered, That a hearing on said application, pursuant to applicable provisions of the act and the rules and regulations thereunder be held on June 10, 1947, at 10 a. m. e. d. s. t., at the offices of this Commission, 18th and Locust Streets, Philadelphia 3, Pennsylvania. On such date the hearing room clerk in Room 318 will advise as to the room in which such hearing shall be held. In the event that amendments to the plan are filed during the course of said proceedings, no notice of such amendments will be given unless specifically ordered by the Commission. Any person desiring to receive further notice of the filing of any additional plans or amendments should file an appearance in these proceedings or otherwise specifically request such notice.

It is further ordered, That Richard Townsend, or any other officer or officers of this Commission designated by it for that purpose, shall preside at such hearing. The officer so designated to preside at such hearing is hereby authorized to exercise all powers granted to the Commission under section 18 (c) of the act and to a hearing officer under the Commission's rules of practice.

The Public Utilities Division of the Commission having advised the Commission that it has made a preliminary examination of the application and amended plan and that, upon the basis thereof, the following matters and questions are presented for consideration without prejudice to its specifying additional matters and questions upon further examination:

It is further ordered, That particular attention be directed at said hearing to the foregoing matters and questions.

It is further ordered, That any person desiring to be heard in connection with this proceeding, or proposing to intervene herein, shall file with the Secretary of the Commission on or before June 5, 1947, his request or application therefor as provided by Rule XVII of the rules of practice of the Commission.

Any such request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, 18th and Locust Streets, Philadelphia 3, Pennsylvania. At any time after May 29, 1947 at 11:30 a. m., e. d. s. t., said joint declaration, as amended, may be permitted to become effective as provided in Rule U-23 of the rules and regulations promulgated under the act, or the Commission may exempt such transactions as provided in Rule U-20 (a) and Rule U-100 thereof.

All interested persons are referred to said joint declaration, as amended, which is on file in the offices of this Commission for a statement of the transactions therein proposed, which are summarized as follows:

Texas is a corporation organized under the laws of the State of Texas and owns and operates certain ice and cold storage facilities in that State. All of its issued and outstanding securities, consisting of 10,000 shares of common stock without par value and a past-due 7% income note in the principal amount of $2,200,000, are owned by American. American states that it has invited bids from a limited number of prospective purchasers for the securities of Texas and accepted the highest of six bids submitted, namely, that of a group consisting of 20 residents of Texas ("Thompson Group"), none of whom is affiliated or associated with declarants. Prior to consummation of the proposed transactions, Texas will pay to American its accumulated cash amounting to $160,556.13.

American has further entered into an agreement with Texas under which Texas agrees to assign to American its claims against Electric Bond and Share Company and the latter's present or former subsidiary service companies and American agrees to reimburse Texas out of any proceeds from such claims for all amounts subsequently paid by Texas as State or Federal income or excess profits taxes on account of the proceeds of such claims and all expenses incurred by Texas in connection with the claims so assigned. American further agrees to indemnify Texas against liability for Federal income or excess profits taxes in excess of the amounts shown therefor on the books of Texas for the years ended December 31, 1942 to 1946, inclusive, and that portion of 1947 ended the last day of the month preceding the sale of the securities. It is further agreed that American may include Texas in a consolidated income tax return up to the date last above mentioned.

It is stated that no commission was paid or is to be paid in connection with the sale of the securities.

American requests that the order permitting the declaration herein to become effective recite that the proposed sale of the securities of Texas is necessary or appropriate to the integration or simplification of the holding company system of which American is a member and necessary or appropriate to effectuate the provisions of section 11 (b) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, all in accordance with the meaning and requirements of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended, including section 1808 (f) and Supplement R thereof.
