

Wednesday, night

Dear Caroline

I should have written to you before but I could get no chance, Ma's health has been improving very fast, she thinks that she feels today, as well, if not better than before her illness she looks quite well, I think, Aunt Priscilla is still very poorly, she has got some more homeopathy which she hopes will revive her, I am perfectly at a loss to imagine where Lucia & Anne are, sometimes I think they are in town by this time but then I remember that it is Anne, I suppose Anne will come home immediately - you must send out the saddles by her and Warrens straw hat, Will you, or the when she comes get & bring for me a pattern of a collar of Mary Chappin and a round linen antibiotic one with a ruffle & thread edging I think Lizzy knows what one I mean Aunt & Peter's beloved Mrs Ford took her there the other day, full of her grievances about Mrs. Nash's will, and the way in which people talked about her, all which talking Aunt Mary aggravated all she could, "You must 'at mind that" said she people will talk, these your ministers now, says that we are all infidels," Indeed," said Mrs Ford with a good deal of spite, "I never heard that, I know he says that the Coverts are all impudent Nuppies, Stanton's lecture came off on Sunday evening, he had a small audience, few besides this faithful, Mr Perkins made a long prayer with some choking. The lecture was entirely the Bible argument and he spoke very spiritfully against the church & ministry at the South. Secretaries & some others thought him much altered in his speaking for the worse, but the majority, Mrs, Fisfield among them, thought him very much improved. We had a letter today from Deborah I will not send it as I suppose you have heard from her send my white gown as soon as it comes, I send Henrietta Temple, which is I think a little, only a very little too silly to be true to nature; Remember I paid for the "Woman of the Household" when I got it, no news at all, Mrs Charles Hunt has a baby, which weighed twelve pounds at the birth, Give my love to Polly and Titi, her I mean to write to her (how does my darling Annie get on, Let Lucie write to me as soon as she comes, what she will do about Suxbury, Write as soon as you get in town all the news to come out by Mr Houghton, be sure tell us every thing, and you Maria give her this letter when she gets in town I not hide it when you have read it yourself, our apples are almost fit to eat, you shall have some soon!

it Amal should be in town - perhaps she will come out with the Glinesburg - at any rate - with still we call - about New-Gleny - is
