PREFACE

The purpose of Esperanto is to be a second language for those persons who have relations with people whose native languages they do not know. This great need of humanity Esperanto supplies. By a few weeks of study, even without the aid of a teacher, one can qualify himself for conversation and correspondence with all the other Esperantists of the world, whatever their nationality. Their number is increasing by hundreds of thousands each year. These facts being established beyond doubt, it would be conferring an undeserved dignity upon those who oppose the language to reply to their arguments. "It has an artificial sound"—so has the voice in the telephone. "It is not artistic"—neither is a steam locomotive. The usefulness of Esperanto is so thoroughly established that the discussion of its artistic merits may well be dismissed, with perhaps the observation that the language is frequently mistaken by the uninitiated for Italian or Spanish, popularly supposed to be the most musical of languages.

The aim of this book is to provide, in one volume, the means of acquiring a thorough, practical knowledge of Esperanto. As suggested by its title, the contents are especially adapted to the American student, due regard being paid to the Americanisms of our language.

Sources of Authority

This volume is based upon the Ekzercaro, by Dr. Zamenhof. All the exercises are taken from it and are therefore absolutely authoritative. The notes and translations, with the discussion of the grammar, while containing much original work, are also indebted to the following sources: The Standard Course of Esperanto, by George W. Bullen, F. B. E. A.; Esperanta Sintakso, by Sro. Paul Fruictier; Grammar and Commentary, by Major-General George Cox. The Esperanto-English vocabulary is compiled from the second edition of the Esperanto-English Dictionary, by A. Motteau, and Worterbuch Esperanto-Deutsch, by Hermann Jurgensen, the latter volume being preferred where the two are not in concord. Supplementing these, the English-Esperanto Dictionary, by J. C. O'Connor and C. F. Hayes, is drawn upon for the matter contained in the English-Esperanto vocabulary.

How to Study

Read carefully the first part of the book, pages 7 to 76 inclusive. It is by no means desirable to attempt to assimilate everything set forth in these pages at once, but the student who has forgotten much of English grammar will find his memory refreshed, and the person who has considered himself a good grammarian will find that Esperanto may widen his knowledge of the subject.

Upon finishing this matter, return to page 7, and commit to memory the sounds of the Esperanto letters described on this and the four succeeding pages. Then take up, in their order, the exercises. Having finished these and memorized all the words contained in them, you will be able to read readily any ordinary correspondence and literature in the language. This book being a modest compendium of Esperanto material, it has seemed necessary to include in the Esperanto-English vocabulary many unusual words and technical terms, and the wise student will not attempt to burden his memory with such as are outside his own needs and uses.

You may put your knowledge of Esperanto to immediate practical use in reading, or in correspondence for any purpose whatever, with persons in any part of the world. Addresses may be obtained on request (with stamp), from Amerika Esperantisto, Chicago.

THE AMERICAN ESPERANTO BOOK

THE ALPHABET

The alphabet consists of twenty-eight letters, each representing one sound only:

Aa, Bb, Cc, Ĉĉ, Dd, Ee, Ff, Gg, Ĝĝ, Hh, Ĥĥ,
Ii, Jj, Ĵĵ, Kk, Ll, Mm, Nn, Oo, Pp, Rr, Ss, Ŝš, Tt, Uu, Ŭű, Vv, Zz.

The Names of the Letters A, E, I, O, U (vowels) are the sounds, and those of the consonants are formed by adding the Esperanto noun ending : b bo, c tso, ĉ cho, d do, f fo, g go, ĝ jo, h ho, ĥ hho, j yo, ĵ zho, k ko, l lo, m mo, n no, p po, r ro, s so, ŝ sho, t toe, ŭ wo, v vo, z zo.

SOUNDS

The sound given each letter is the same as in English, with the following exceptions:

A is like a in father.

C is like ts in hats.

Ĉ is like ch in chop.

E is like a in fate (but not so long).

G is like g in go.

Ĝ is like j in joy, or g in George.

Ĥ is like ch in loch (See explanation).

I is like ee in see.

J is like y in yet.

Ĵ is like z in seizure.

O is like o in roll.

S is like s in so.

Ŝ is like sh in show.

U is like oo in soon.

Ŭ is like w in how.

Z is like z in zone.

It will be observed that the letters bearing the supersign ^ are pronounced ch, gh, hh, jh, sh. Printers unable to procure the special type may substitute these forms.

The Esperanto E is a matter of difficulty to writers of text-books, as there is no English vowel sound which exactly represents it. Authorities agree that it is approximately half-way between our e in men and a in fate. Inasmuch as ej exactly duplicates the English a in fate, it is considered best to advise the student to pronounce e like our long a, but to cut it short. Still, if pronounced long, it cannot possibly be misunderstood except in two or three words; e. g. veno, vejno.

Trill the R.—While not listed as an exception r is pronounced with the trill usually regarded as an affectation in America, but used by most of Europeans. Copy the rrr of your German, French or Bohemian friends.

O in Esperanto is not exactly as in English. Beginners should pronounce it as in vote, roll, etc., shortening the sound as much as possible.

J has the sound of s as in pleasure, measure, leisure, treasure, or z in seizure, azure.

J is classed as a consonant, and the sound is always blended with the preceding vowel in forming the plurals, oj, ojn, aj, ajn, uj, ujn, and its addition to the vowel ending of a word never changes the position of the accent: Plumo, ploo'-mo; plumoj, ploo'-moy; plumojn, ploo'-moyn; granda, grahn'-dah; grandaj, grahn'-dai (ai as in aisle or as i in file); grandajn, grahn'-dine; tiu, tee'-oo; tiuj, tee'-ooy; tiujn, tee'-ooyn; plej, play.

OJ, Pronounced "oy," is not an inconsistency, as many superficial students suppose, nor is aj when given the sound of long i. If you doubt this, pronounce oh yes and ah yes very quickly and you will observe that perfect diphthongs result.

Ŭ is a consonant, and is used after a and e to form the diphthongs aŭ and eŭ. The sound of the letter is like w in English, and sometimes puzzles beginners, who think that they have discovered an exception to the rule that Esperanto letters have each one invariable sound.

AŬ has the sound of ow in how, cow, plow.

EŬ has a sound which may be approximated by a quick pronunciation of ehoo or ayoo, eliminating most of the oo vowel sound. A still better practice combination is ehw as in pronouncing very quickly the words eh Willie. This combination never makes two syllables: eŭropano is pronounced ehw-ro-pa-no, not eh-oo-ro-pa-no.

H̄ presents some difficulty to English-speaking people. It is a strong gutteral aspirate, produced from a position lower in the throat than any English sound. It is used in several European languages, but if the student has not heard it he may approximate it by pronouncing it hH. Fortunately, the letter is seldom used.

Combinations such as kv, kn, gv, ſv, ſt, ſm, etc., are also unfamiliar to one who speaks only English, but present little difficulty, although one must remember that no letters are ever silent. The combination sc is no more difficult than many in our native language, except that we must not slur it, but bring out each detail: sts.

Especial attention is directed to two other combinations: In pronouncing lingvo, and almost every word in which n is followed by g, the inclination of the beginner is to sound the ng as in English. Such words are leen-gvo, feen-gro, etc. The kz in ek-zi-li and similar words is pronounced as written, and should not be given the sound of gz as found in exempt, example, etc.

Accent.—The tonic or principal accent is on the syllable next to the last, no matter how many syllables the word may contain; do-mo; ĉe-va-lo; ak-ci-pi-tro; ad-min-is-tran-ta-ro. The secondary accents are placed where euphony, or good sound, demands, with due respect to derivation. The latter consideration is important in compounding words. For example: juvelo, a jewel; kesto, case; juvelkesto would require the secondary accent on the second syllable, or at least this should sound as strongly as the first.

A syllable is necessary for every vowel, no matter how many come together; there are no double vowels in Esperanto: traire, tra-i-re; boao, bo-a-o; metiisto, me-ti-ist-o; treege, tre-eg-e; zoologio, zo-o-lo-gi-o.

RULES OF THE GRAMMAR

[The paragraphs in Esperanto are the Sixteen Rules given by Zamenhof, a part of the Fundamento de Esperanto. The accompanying English paragraphs are a translation].

I

The Article.—There is no indefinite article; there is only a definite article, la, alike for all sexes, cases and numbers.

Remark.—The use of the article is the same as in other languages. Those persons to whom the use of the article presents a difficulty may at first not use it at all.

Artikolo nedifinita ne ekzistas; ekzistas nur artikolo difinita (la), egala por ĉiuj seksoj, kazoj kaj nombroj.

Rimarko.—La uzado de la artikolo estas tia sama kiel en la aliaj lingvoj. La personoj, por kiuj la uzado de la artikolo prezentas malfacilajojn, povas en la unua tempo tute ne ĝin uzi.

II

The Substantive.—Substantives have the ending o. For the formation of the plural we add the ending j. There are only two cases—nominative and accusative^a; the latter is obtained from the nominative by the addition of the termination n. The other cases are expressed by the help of prepositions (the genitive^b by de, the dative^c by al, the ablative^c by per or other prepositions according to the meaning).

^aAccusative, in English grammar, is termed objective.

La substantivoj havas la finigojn o. Por la formado de la multenombro oni aldonas la finigon j. Kazoj ekzistas nur du: nominativo kaj akuzativo; la lasta estas ricevata el la nominativo per la aldono de la finigo n. La ceteraj kazoj estas esprimataj per helpo de prepozicioj (la genitivo per de, la dativo per al, la ablativo per per aŭ aliaj prepozicioj laŭ la senco).

III

The Adjective.—The adjective ends in a. Cases and numbers as with the substantive. The comparative is made by means of the word pli, the superlative by plej; with the comparative the conjunction ol is used.

La adjektivo finigas per a. Kazoj kaj nombroj kiel ĝe la substantivo. La komparativo estas farata per la vorto pli, la superlativo per plej; ĝe la komparativo oni uzas la konjunkcion ol.

IV

The Numerals.—The cardinal numerals (they

^bIn English grammar, possessive.

^cThese cases do not exist in English.

are not declined) are: Unu, du, tri, kvar, kvin, ses, sep, ok, naŭ, dek, cent, mil. The tens and hundreds are formed by the simple joining of the numerals. For the signification of the ordinal numerals, we add the ending of the adjective; for the multiples—the suffix -obl; for the fractionals—-on; for the collectives, -op; for the distributives—the word po. Besides that, substantival and adverbial numerals can be used.

La numeraloj fundamentaj (ne estas deklinaciataj) estas unu, du, tri, kvar, kvin, ses, sep, ok, naŭ, dek, cent, mil. La dekoj kaj centoj estas formataj per simpla kunigo de la numeraloj. Por la signado de la numeraloj ordaj oni aldonas la finiĝon de la adjektivo; por la multoblaj—la sufikson -obl, por la nombronaj—-on, por la kolektaj—-op, por la disdividaj—la vorton po. Krom tio povas esti uzataj numeraloj substantivaj kaj adverbaj.

The Pronouns.—Personal pronouns: mi, vi, li, ŝi, ĝi (referring to thing or animal), si, ni, vi, ili, oni; the possessive pronouns are formed by the addition of the adjective ending. Declension is as with the substantives.

Pronomoj personaj: mi, vi, li, ŝi, ĝi (pri objekto aŭ besto), si, ni, vi, ili, oni; la pronomoj posedaj estas formataj per la aldono de la finiĝo adjektiva. La deklinacio estas kiel ĉe la substantivoj.

VI

The Verb.—The verb is not changed in person or number. Forms of the verb: the present tense takes the ending -as; the past tense, -is; the future tense, -os; the conditional mode, -us; the imperative mode, -u; the infinitive mode, -i. Participles (with an adjectival or adverbial sense): active present, -ant; active past, -int; active future, -ont; passive present, -at; passive past, -it; passive future, -ot. All forms of the passive are formed by the help of a corresponding form of the verb esti and a passive participle of the required verb; the preposition with the passive is de.

La verbo ne estas ŝangata laŭ personoj nek nombroj. Formoj de la verbo: la tempo estanta akceptas la finiĝon -as; la tempo estinta -is; la tempo estonta -os; la modo kondiĉa -us; la modo ordona -u; la modo sendifina i; Participoj (kun senko adjektiva aŭ adverba): aktiva estanta -ant; aktiva estinta -int; aktiva estonta -ont; pasiva estanta, -at; pasiva estinta, -it; pasiva estonta, -ot. Ĉiuj formoj de la pasiva estas formataj per helpo de responda formo de la verbo esti kaj participo pasiva de la bezonata verbo; la prepozicio ĉe la pasivo estas de.

VII

The Adverb.—Adverbs end in e; degrees of comparison as with the adjective.

La adverboj finiĝas per e; gradoj de komparado kiel ĉe la adjektivoj.

VIII

Nominative with Prepositions.—All prepositions require the nominative.

Ciuj prepozicioj postulas la nominativon.

IX

Pronunciation.—Every word is read as it is written.

Ciu vorto estas legata, kiel ĝi estas skribita.

X

Accent.—The accent is always on the penultimate (next to the last) syllable.

La akcento estas ĉiam sur la antaŭlasta silabo.

XI

Compound Words.—Compound words are formed by the simple joining of words (the principal word stands at the end); the grammatical endings are also regarded as independent words.

Vortoj kunmetitaj estas formataj per simpla kúnigo de la vortoj (la ĉefa vorto staras en la fino); la gramatikaj finiĝoj estas rigardataj ankaŭ kiel memstaraj vortoj.

XII

Negation.—With another negative word the word ne is omitted.

Ce alia nea vorto la vorto ne estas forlasata.

XIII

Direction.—In order to show direction, words take the ending of the accusative.

Por montri direkton, la vortoj ricevas la finiĝon de la akuzativo.

XIV

The Preposition Je.—Every preposition has a definite and constant meaning; but if we have to use a preposition and the direct sense does not show us what special preposition we ought to take, then we use the preposition je, which has no independent meaning. Instead of the preposition je we can also use the accusative without a preposition.

Ciu prepozicio havas difinitan kaj konstantan signifon; sed se ni devas uzi ian prepozicion kaj la rekta senco ne montras al ni, kian nome prepozicion ni devas preni, tiam ni uzas la prepozicion je, kiu memstaran signifon ne havas. Anstataŭ la prepozicio je oni povas ankaŭ uzi la akuzativon sen prepozicio.

XV

Foreign Words.—The so-called foreign words, that is, those which a majority of the languages have taken from one source, are used in the Esperanto language without change, receiving only the orthography of this language; but with various words from one root it is better to use unchanged only the fundamental word, and to form the rest from this latter according to the rules of the Esperanto language.

La tiel nomataj vortoj fremdaj, t. e., tiuj kiujn la plimulto de la lingvoj prenis el unu fonto, estas uzataj en la lingvo Esperanto sen ŝango, ricevante nur la ortografion de tiu ĉi lingvo; sed ĉe diversaj vortoj de unu radiko estas pli bone uzi senŝange nur la vorton fundamentalan kaj la ceterajn formi el tiu ĉi lasta laŭ la reguloj de la lingvo Esperanto.

XVI

Elision.—The final vowel of the substantive and the article can be omitted and replaced by an apostrophe.

La fina vokalo de la substantivo kaj de la artikolo povas esti forlasata kaj anstataŭigata de apostrofo.

THE ARTICLE

No indefinite article, such as a, is used in Esperanto, this being implied in the noun: hundo, a dog; arbo, a tree.

The definite article is la: la hundo, the dog; la arbo, the tree. Its use is much the same as in English, with some very important exceptions. For example, when we use a word in its generic sense, the article is employed: The sentence, Man is a slave, we translate La homo estas sklavo. La medicino estas scienco=Medicine is a science. Tiel blanka kiel la neĝo=As white as snow.

Instead of possessive pronouns the article is used when referring to a relative of the speaker or person addressed, or even of a third person when the identity is unmistakable. La patro=My (or your) father. [See Exercises 8 and 9].

Before numeral adjectives which denote day, hour, etc.: Venu je la deka horo=Come at ten. La unua de januaro=The first of January.

The apostrophe may be substituted for the a of the article. In Exercise 27 Dr. Zamenhof adds: "but only after a preposition which ends in a vowel." This permission is useful chiefly in poetry, when necessary to eliminate a syllable.

THE SUBSTANTIVE

A substantive (noun) is a word expressing the name of anything: domo, a house; birdo, a bird; penso, a thought; riĉeco, wealth; ago, an act. The sign of the substantive is the final o. When more than one thing is spoken of, we add the plural sign, j: katoj, cats; knaboj, boys; arboj, trees.

The nominative form of the substantive is the regular form, either singular or plural. This is used in all relations except three, hereafter explained.

Possession is indicated by the preposition de preceding the substantive: La libro de la knabo= The boy's book (literally, the book of the boy).

The accusative form is used where the substantive stands as the object of a transitive verb; that is, a verb which implies some action or change directed against the substantive: La knabo batis la hundon= The boy beat the dog. Here, the dog is the object of the action implied. Hence, we add the accusative sign, n, to hundo. This change is necessary in Esperanto because this is an international language, to be used by many millions of people who put the object of an action before the word expressing the action.

After a preposition the accusative case is not used, except for the purpose indicated in the paragraph following :

To show direction or motion toward a given place, when no accompanying word indicates this, the accusative form is used: Li iris Bostonon=He went to or toward Boston.

Accusative Without Preposition.—According to Rule XIV we may omit the preposition and substitute the accusative form. This is frequently done in expressing date, measure, etc., but there is no set rule demanding it: Li venos lundon=He will come Monday. Li venos je lundo=He will come on Monday. Each of these forms is correct. Mi laboris ok horojn=I worked eight hours. Mi laboris dum ok horoj=I worked during eight hours. It will be noted that in either English or Esperanto the preposition may be omitted; but in Esperanto the omission is indicated by a signal.

Order of Signs.—The sign of the plural precedes that of the accusative case: librojn, homojn.

Elision.—The final o of the noun may be omitted (Rule 16) and the apostrophe (') substituted, but this is usually confined to verse. Writers of Esperanto poetry are inclined to take the similar liberty with oj and ojn where no confusion as to meaning is to be feared.

We omit the preposition, usually, translating such forms as Dominion of Canada, City of New York: Regno Kanado, Urbo Nov-Jorko. The accusative is not used here to indicate an omission, because no Esperanto preposition is left out, this language not confessing the need of a preposition in these cases. So the English preposition is wiped out of existence.

Adjective for Possessive.—A few students are confused by the use of the adjective form for possessive case with the pronoun and not with the substantive. There are, however, cases in which an English possessive is translated by an Esperanto adjective, and these require careful observation: Unuhora dormo=One hour's sleep. Unuhora gardo=The first hour's watch. Close scrutiny will show, however, that these cannot be called an exception to the Esperanto rule, as they are hardly possessives in English, and not at all in Esperanto.

The superiority of Esperanto as a means of precise expression is illustrated in the following sentences: Mia frato amas mian filinon pli ol mian filon=My brother loves my daughter more than my son (more than he loves my son). Mi amas mian filinon pli ol mia filo=I love my daughter more than my son (loves her). In the first sentence, filon, being accusative, must be understood as the object of the implied verb. In the latter, filo, being nominative, can be connected with the sentence only as the subject of the implied verb. In English we must supply the phrase to express the meaning; in Esperanto the case of the noun expresses the sense beyond doubt.

THE ADJECTIVE

An adjective is a word used to express some quality, attribute or limitation of a substantive: blanka domo, a white house; largâ strato, a wide street; alta viro, a tall man. Blanka, largâ and alta are adjectives, each expressing some quality of the substantive. The adjective sign is final a.

Adjectives may be formed from almost any root, and attribute to the substantive the idea expressed by the root: ligno, wood, ligna, wooden; danki, to thank, danka, thankful. Adjectives may be formed also from prepositions, adverbs, etc.; in fact the adjective ending may be applied to almost any word: en, in, ena, inner; tro, too, troa, excessive; tie, there, tiea, of that place.

In number and case the adjective agrees with the substantive to which it belongs: Ruĝa pomo=A red apple. Ruĝaj pomoj=Red apples. Li ŝatas ruĝajn pomojn=He likes red apples.

A predicative adjective, that is, one preceded by some form of esti (if not in the word, then at least in the thought), is always nominative, even though it may refer to an accusative substantive. Mi trovis mian amikon malsanan=I found my sick friend. Here, malsanan belongs directly to amikon. But if we say Mi trovis mian amikon malsana=I found my friend sick, the meaning is materially changed. Literally, it would read: Mi trovis mian amikon esti (aŭ, ke li estas) malsana=I found my friend to be (or, that he is) sick. [See remarks on Adjectival Participles].

Comparison of adjectives is effected by means of various words. Some of them are:

Pli.... ol=More.....than.

Malpli.....ol=Less.....than.

Tiel.....kiel=As.....as.

Tia.....kia=Such.....as.

Tia sama.....kia=The same.....as.

Ju pli.....des pli=The more.....the more.

Ju malpli.....des malpli=The less.....the less.

[For uses of these words see Exercise 4].

Degree may also be expressed by the suffixes, eg and et: varmeta, varma, varmega=lukewarm, warm, hot.

The superlatives are expressed by plej and malplej: La plej granda=The largest. La malplej granda=The smallest.

Adverbial Ending.—Where the indefinite it is employed in English, as it is warm, it rains, Esperanto uses no equivalent for it; in such cases, or where a verb or phrase forms the subject, and all cases where there is neither a noun or pronoun to which the adjective refers, the qualifying word, even if adjectival in meaning, is adverbial in form:
Estas necese=It is necessary. Estas agrable=It is agreeable. Esti bele estas oportune=To be beautiful is fortunate.

PRONOUNS.

A pronoun is a word used to represent a noun or substantive. Its use lends grace and facility to speech, by avoiding repetitions of the real name for which it stands. Many of the cruder languages do not possess pronouns. An Indian, for example, uses his own name instead of the pronoun I. Esperanto is especially well equipped with pronouns. Relative pronouns, with several other kinds, are listed under the head of Correlative Words, as their use is somewhat different from that of the personal pronouns.

The personal pronouns are: mi, I; vi, you (singular or plural); li, he; si, she; gi, it; ni, we; ili, they; si, a reflexive pronoun referring only to subject of proposition and always in the third person, meaning himself, herself, itself, themselves; oni, one or they: oni diras, they say. Oni is always nominative.

The possessive case of pronouns is formed by the addition of the adjective sign, a: mia, my, mine; via, your, yours; lia, his; śia, her, hers; nia, our, ours; ilia, their, theirs; sia, one's, his, hers, their, etc.

The possessive pronoun, being an adjective in form, is governed by the rules of the adjective. It agrees in number and case with the noun which it qualifies. Using the English words, their book, the pronoun is understood to be plural; ilia libro, however, shows the pronoun in the singular form, though obviously referring to more than one person; it becomes plural in form only when the noun is plural—iliaj libroj. Conversely, miaj libroj (my books) shows the personal pronoun in the plural form, though certainly singular in sense. The plural sign is merely an indication that the word belongs to a plural noun.

The reflexive pronoun requires careful study for its correct use. It is always in the third person and can refer only to the subject of the clause or proposition in which it is used. Johano renkontis mian patron kaj lian amikon=John met my father and his (my father's) friend. Johano renkontis mian patron kaj sian amikon=John met my father and his (John's) friend. [See Exercise 12].

THE VERB

A verb is a word used to express action or being. In English these words often vary accordingly as they express the action of one person or more; or the action of the speaker, the person who is addressed, or a third person. For example, we say I am, you are, he is. In Esperanto the verb does not change thus; we say: mi estas, vi estas, li estas.

All verbs are regular.—In English, several hundred verbs have special forms for expressing past or completed action, so that to use the wrong form would give rise to seemingly humorous absurdities ; for example, write, wrote, written; fight, fought, fitten. The various Esperanto verbs use exactly the same forms, and the entire list of these forms in their various uses is called the conjugation.

INDICATIVE MODE

The indicative mode expresses action or being as now taking place, which has, or which will take place. It involves a simple, definite statement, as distinguished from the indefinite, conditional, interrogatory, etc.

ACTIVE VOICE

The active voice represents the action as being performed (present, past or future):

Mi skribas=I write, am writing.

Vi ludis=You played, were playing.

Li laboros=He will work, be working.

Mi estas skribanta=I am writing (emphasizing present continuity of act.)

Vi estis ludanta=You were playing.

Li estos laboranta=He will be working.

Mi estas skribinta=I have written, been writing.

Vi estis ludinta=You had played, been playing.

Li estos laborinta=He will have worked, have been working.

Mi estas skribonta=I am to write, am about to write.

Vi estis ludonta=You were about to play.

Li estos laboronta=He will be about to work.

PASSIVE VOICE

The passive voice describes the action as being received:

Mi estas amata=I am loved.

Vi estis trompata=You were deceived, were being deceived.

Li estos forlasata=He will be forsaken.

Mi estas amita=I have been loved.

Vi estis trompita=You had been deceived.

Li estos forlasita=He will have been forsaken.

Mi estas amota=I am to be (or, about to be) loved.

Vi estis trompota=You were about to be deceived.

Li estos forlasota=He will be about to be forsaken.

The Present Tense.—If an action is in progress at the time of speaking or writing, the verb takes the ending of the present tense. Johano skribas=John writes. This means that John is now writing, but it may also mean that he writes generally, is a copyist. When necessary, however, to emphasize the fact that the action is of present duration and still incomplete, we use the participle and estas, thus: Johano estas skribanta. This can mean only that John is now, at the time of speaking, in the act of writing.

The present tense is also used in Esperanto to describe an act occurring at a time past, but of which a descriptive account is being given. For example, I shakes my fist in his face and I says to him, "Go!" is vividly expressive, but ungrammatical. However, Mi minacas lian vizagón per la mia pugno kaj diras al li "For!" has all the emphasis which the English sentence receives from the use of the present tense, and is grammatically correct.

The Past Tense.—When an act occurred at some time now wholly past, or was occurring at such a time, the past tense is employed: Johano skribis=John wrote, or was in the act of writing. But again, if we wish to state clearly that he was, at some particular time, writing, we use the participle: Johano estis skribanta.

The Future Tense.—When an action is to take place at some future time, we use the future tense. Johano skribos=John will write, or will be writing. As with the other tenses, if we wish so be precise, to say that at some definite future time John will be in the act of writing, the participle is necessary: Johano estos skribanta.

Completed action, indicated in English by what are called the perfect tenses, is expressed in Esperanto by some form of esti and a past participle of the principal verb: Ili estas kantintaj=They have been singing (literally, “they are were singing”). This means that now, at this time, the act of singing is complete. Ili estis kantintaj=They had been singing. Estis refers to a time past, and kantintaj indicates that the act of singing was, at that time, already finished. Ili estos kantintaj=They will have been singing. At the future time indicated by estos, the act of singing will have been finished.

CONDITIONAL MODE.

The Conditional Mode describes an action that is conditional ; something that might happen or have happened ; something doubtful in itself, or contingent upon something else. It is usually introduced by the conjunction, se (if). The grammatical sign of the conditional mode is -us, alike for all tenses. If time is expressed, this is accomplished by a participle or another verb used in connection.

Se ŝi amus=If she should love.

Se ŝi estus amanta=Were she loving.

Se ŝi estus aminta=If she had loved, or been loving.

Se ŝi estus amonta=Were she about to love, or be loving.

Se ŝi estus amata=Were she loved, or being loved.

Se ŝi estus amita=If she had been loved.

Se ŝi estus amota=Were she about to be loved.

Example: Se pluvus, ni iros fiŝkapti=Should it rain, we shall go fishing. Here, the first verb is conditional, the second indicative. Se estus pluvinte, ni irus fiŝkapti=If it had rained, we would go fishing. Here, both verbs are conditional. The student must not permit himself to be confused regarding the two meanings of should. In one sense, this is a conditional auxiliary, and as such is used in the foregoing translations. In the other sense it expresses duty, as "He should love his parents." This has nothing whatever to do with the conditional mode of Esperanto, and is translated by the verb devi, ought.

IMPERATIVE MODE

The imperative mode indicates command, desire, purpose, etc. Its sign is -u.

In giving commands and making requests it is used directly, without connecting words: Haltu!=Halt! Prenu pomon!=Take an apple! Li venu tien ĉi!=Let him come here!

In expressing purpose it is usually preceded by ke or por ke: Por ke ŝi ricevu pardonon, ŝi ĝin petu=In order that she receive a pardon, let her ask it. Mia patro deziras ke li venu=My father desires that he come.

Participles may be used with the imperative: Li insistas ke vi estu punata=He insists that you be punished.

INFINITIVE MODE

The infinitive mode, sign -i, has no tense, signifying simply to be, to love, etc. As with the conditional and imperative modes, it may receive a suggestion of tense when accompanied by a participle.

Ami=To love.

Esti amante=To be loving.

Esti amite=To have been loved.

Esti amonte=To be about to love.

A substantival sense is expressed by the infinitive, which may of itself be the subject of a sentence: Erari estas home; pardonii, die=To err is human; to forgive, divine.

Note that the adjectives and participles modifying the infinitive take the adverbial form.

INTERROGATION

In questions, the indicative mode is used, and accompanied by an interrogatory word. There are (see Correlative Words) nine interrogatory words beginning with k: kia, kial, kiam, kie, kiel, kies, kio, kiom, kiu. These words are used in precisely the same manner as their English equivalents, what, why, when, where, how, etc.

Kiam li revenos? = When will he return?

Kie ni estas? = Where are we?

Any sentence not introduced by one of these may be changed to a question by the word ĉu, meaning whether: Ĉu vi venos? = Will you come? Ĉu vi nin amas? = Do you love us?

THE PARTICIPLE

A participle is a word derived from a verb root, and implying action, though not directly stating it, as does the verb. Participles in Esperanto are of three classes:

Adjectival—Expressing the quality of being in action : Kantanta birdo=A singing bird; and, with a helping verb, the act itself : La birdo estas kantanta=The bird is singing.

Adverbial—Expressing the fact of the action, usually by way of connecting it with some other act, and always without a directly governing substantive: Vidante muson, ŝi forkuris=Seeing a mouse, she ran away.

Substantival—Expressing the act and agent in the active form, the act and the recipient in the passive: parolanto, the speaker; parolato, the person spoken to.

The participle plays a much more important part in Esperanto than in English, and the student must give it careful study. It may have the ending of the adjective, adverb or substantive. Its signs are:

- ant-, Present active.
- int-, Past active.
- ont-, Future active.
- at-, Present passive.
- it-, Past passive.
- ot-, Future passive.

An adjectival participle may be directly qualifying, and as such is usually placed before the substantive, as in English: Fluanta akvo=Flowing water. When so used, and qualifying a plural or accusative substantive, it takes the same case and number: Ni vidis la brulantajn domojn=
We saw the burning houses.

When used as a predicate, that is, when preceded by a form of esti, expressed or implied, the participle agrees with the noun as to number, but is never accusative: La domoj estas brulantaj = The houses are burning. Ni vidas la domojn brulantajn is translated We see the burning houses. Here, brulantajn is a directly qualifying word and hence is accusative because of domojn. But if we say Ni vidis la domojn brulantaj=We saw the houses burning, this means that we saw the houses (first proposition) and also (second proposition) discovered, or saw, that they were burning: We saw the houses to be, (or, that they were) burning.

Here, although esti and ke ili estas are omitted, the meaning is clearly shown by the nominative form of the participle.

Esperanto participles also convey a suggestion of tense: Mono havata estas pli grava ol havita=Money possessed (now) is more important than (that which has) been possessed. Pasero kaptita estas pli bona ol aglo kaptota=A sparrow caught is better than an eagle to be caught.

Adverbial participles have the regular adverb ending, e, which is invariable. They are usually employed in sentences like the following: Trovinte pomon, mi ĝin mangis=Having found an apple, I ate it. Promenante sur la strato, mi falis=Walking along the street, I fell. Li venis al mitute ne atendite=He came to me quite unexpectedly. Here, trovinte and promenante take the adverbial ending because there is no substantive to which they can directly belong.

Participles should not be used in lieu of simple adjectives and adverbs. When the participial form is used, action should always be distinctly understood. Fluanta akvo (running water) is correct, because action is implied; amanta edzo (a loving husband) would ordinarily be incorrect, because quality, and not action, is expressed. Here, the simple adjective, ama (affectionate), would be the proper word. Li kantas ĉarme (He sings charmingly), not ĉarmante.

Substantival participles have the regular o sign of the substantive, and indicate, in the active form, the person or thing performing the action (a participle invariably implies action). In the passive form they indicate the recipient of the action:

Amanto=A lover—one who is now loving.

Aminto=A lover—one who did love.

Amonto=One who will love.

Amato=A beloved person.

Amito=A beloved—one who has been loved.

Amoto=One about to be loved.

THE ADVERB

The use of the adverb is to qualify, emphasize or explain verbs, adjectives, participles or other adverbs. Example: La tre bela, bone vestita virino agas apenaŭ ĝentile = The very beautiful, well dressed woman acts hardly politely. The four adverbs, tre, bone, apenaŭ and ĝentile have the following positions in the sentence : Tre belongs to the adjective, bela; bone belongs to the participle, vestita; ĝentile to the verb, agas; apenaŭ to the adverb, ĝentile. As will be seen, each adverb conveys some added meaning to the word to which it belongs.

Adverbs regularly derived from a root have the ending e, thus: from bel', the root for beauty, we have bele, beautifully. Besides this, there are some so-called primary adverbs, which do not belong to the word-families which spring from each root. A few of these have the ending e, but most have not.

THE PREPOSITION

Prepositions are used to define relations between other words, or phrases: La hundo kuſas antaŭ la fajro=The dog lies before the fire. Resti apud vi estas, sen escepto, la plej bone el ĉiuj plezuroj=To stay near you is, without exception, the best of (from among) all pleasures.

The complement (accompanying substantive) of a preposition is always in the nominative case, unless, to show direction, the accusative is used.

Rule XIV permits the omission of the preposition where the sense does not clearly show which one to use, and in such cases the substantive is made accusative. We can also use the general, undefined preposition, je.

Every preposition except Je has a fixed and constant meaning, which should be learned. So many English prepositions are used for more than one idea that ridiculous errors would arise from their literal translation: He talked over the telephone, to a firm over the river, and sold over eighteen cases of eggs that had been left over. Here, two prepositions, per, meaning by means of, and trans, beyond, would be used, in the two other cases the meaning would require words which are not prepositions, and at no point does the Esperanto preposition, super, meaning over or above, enter into consideration!

The following examples show most of the ordinary uses of the prepositions:

AL—TO, TOWARD

Li iros al Bostono=He will go to Boston.

Mi rompis al mi la brakon=I broke my arm.

Li havas amon al la patro=He has love for his father.

Donu al mi la libron=Give (to) me the book.

Ordonu al li ke li venu=Order (to) him to (that he) come.

Antaŭ ol morgaŭ, li venos=Before tomorrow, he will come.

Antaŭ tri tagoj, li venis=Three days ago, he came.

The use of antaŭ in the last two sentences is worthy of special observation. The tense of the verb, and the conjunction ol, show in the first that a future time is mentioned ; while in the latter, the absence of ol and the past tense of the verb show that the time referred to has passed.

THE CONJUNCTION.

A conjunction is a word used to join other words, phrases or parts of sentences. Its function may be merely that and nothing more, as : Bovo kaj ĉevalo=An ox and a horse. It may also establish a definite relation between the parts of a sentence : Pluvis; tial, ni restis hejme=It rained; therefore, we remained at home.

Conjunctions do not require the careful study necessary for the correct use of the prepositions, and need only be memorized. According to use, some words may be either conjunctions, adverbs or prepositions, but as a rule the student need not trouble himself to analyze these delicate distinctions. Following is a list of the words most used as conjunctions :

Alie, Otherwise.

Almenaŭ, At least.

Aŭ, Or.

Aŭ.....aŭ, Either..or.

Ĉar, Because, for.

Ĉu, Whether.

Do, Indeed, therefore indeed.

Eĉ se, Even if.

Por ke, In order that.

Se, If.

Sed, But.

Sekve, Consequently.

Tamen, However, nevertheless.

Tia kia, Such as.

Tia ke, Such that.

THE INTERJECTION

Interjections are exclamatory words, usually more or less emphatic in meaning. They are not arranged in sentences, have no grammatical responsibilities, and more closely resemble the primitive animal cries and exclamations than any other part of human speech. They may express fear, pain, warning, surprise, doubt, entreaty, command, grief, joy, approval, contempt, etc. Following is a list of Esperanto words, some of which are always interjections, others frequently used as such :

Adiaŭ! Farewell!

Antaŭen! Forward!

Bis! Encore!

Bone! Well!

Bonvenu! Welcome!

Brave! Bravo!

Certe! Certainly!

Efektive! Really!

Fi! Fi!

For! Away!

Ha! Ah! Ha!

He! Hey! Hello!

Kompreneble! Of course!

Ne! No!

Nu! Well!

Ve! Woe!

Vere! Really!

THE NUMERALS

The cardinal numerals do not change in form to agree with words to which they belong. This is the meaning of Rule IV, which says that they are not declined. They are:

Unu, one; du, two; tri, three; kvar, four; kvin, five; ses, six; sep, seven; ok, eight; naŭ, nine; dek, ten; cent, hundred; mil, thousand; miliono, million.

The tens and hundreds are formed by joining numerals; when the relation is one of multiplication the smaller number comes first: dudek, twenty; kvardek, forty; sepcent or sep cent, seven hundred. The units are added to the tens and hundreds when placed after them: dekunu, eleven; dekdu, twelve; dekses, sixteen; kvardek-kvar, forty-four. [See Exercises 12 and 14].

Adjectival ordinals are formed by adding the adjective ending: unua, first; dua, second; tria, third; mil naŭcent kaj sepa, nineteen hundred and seventh.

Adverbial ordinals are obtained by adding the adverb ending: unue, firstly; due, secondly; kvine, fifthly.

Fractionals are made by adding the suffix on, with the ending of the substantive, adverb or adjective, according to meaning: triono, one-third; kvinone, one-fifthly.

Multiples are formed by adding obl, with the adjective or adverb ending: unuobla, single; duobla, double; trioble, triply; kvaroble, quadruply.

Collective numerals are made by the addition of the suffix op: duope, two together; kvarope, four abreast, by fours.

Substantival numerals are formed by adding the substantive ending, o. These are subject to the rules governing all substantives: cento, a hundred (considered as a unit); miloj kaj miloj, thousands and thousands.

PREFIXES AND SUFFIXES

Esperanto is equipped with a system of prefixes and suffixes which give a wide range of expression to a very small vocabulary. Taking a root word for the central thought, these affixes are used to express the various ideas arising from the central idea. In Exercise 42, Dr. Zamenhof shows us fifty-three words thus formed from one root. The only limit to such combinations is legibility and logic.

PREFIXES

BO indicates relationship by marriage: frato, brother; bofrato, brother-in-law.

UM has no definite meaning : mano, hand ; manumo, cuff ; malvarma, cold ; malvarmumi, to catch cold.

UL indicates a person of the quality implied : granda, large ; grandulo, a large person ; pia, pious ; piulo, a pious person.

AĈ, a suffix indicating contempt or unworthiness, being the opposite of ind, is used by many Esperantists, though not yet officially authorized by Lingva Komitato. Example: hundo, dog ; hundaĉo, cur ; pia, pious ; piaĉa, sanctimonious.

ORDER OF AFFIXES

The demand of logic is that the affix standing nearest the root first attach its significance to the word: monto, mountain ; montego, a large mountain ; mont-eg-an-ar-o, a band of people of the large mountain ; mont-ar-an-eg-o, a large mountaineer ; mont-et-an-ar-eg-o, a large band of people of the hills. These are exaggerated illustrations, and simplicity is no less desirable in Esperanto than anywhere else.

THE CORRELATIVE WORDS

Among the few original words of Esperanto (the immense majority having been taken from living European languages) are forty-five pronouns, adjectives, adverbs and conjunctive adverbs, so nicely correlated as to render most of them self-defining.

As to application, they have five significations, indicated by the beginnings :

I, indefinite, signifying some or any.

C, distributive or collective, signifying each, every, all.

K, interrogative or relative, signifying what, which.

NEN, negative, meaning none, no.

T, demonstrative—that.

As to meaning, they have nine general significations, indicated by nine endings : ia, ial, iam, ie, iel, ies, io, iom, iu.

CAPITALS AND PUNCTUATION

The present custom with regard to punctuation is for each writer to follow the methods of his own language, it being practically impossible to change the meaning of a sentence by punctuation, which is so frequently possible in English. The same latitude is permitted in the use of capital letters, but on this point Esperanto printers have arrived at certain seemingly international styles. The main points of variance between English and Esperanto in this respect are :

Names of Countries begin with capitals, but the names of races, with the correlative adjectives and adverbs, do not : Francujo, France; franco, a Frenchman; franca, French; france, in French. The same rule applies to political parties, orders, churches, etc. The names of the days of the week are begun with small letters.

ORDER OF WORDS

Esperanto being intended for ready use by peoples of widely different language systems, it is indeed wise that it be so constructed that changing the order of words would not, ordinarily, change the sense.

La beleta infano senzorge rompis la novan ludilon.
Senzorge rompis la beleta infano la novan ludilon.
Beleta la infano novan la ludilon senzorge rompis.
Ludilon la novan rompis senzorge la infano beleta.

This sentence, "The pretty child carelessly broke the new toy," cannot be erroneously translated, whatever the word order. Although the order first given is preferred, the others are not grammatically incorrect. On the whole, however, the order of words in Esperanto is so nearly the same as in English that the student may safely follow, at first, his natural inclinations. The Esperanto style will not be at all difficult to acquire, and may be attained much more easily by reading good literature than by memorizing rules.

FOREIGN NAMES

As rapidly as possible, all important proper names are being adopted into the Esperanto family and receiving an international spelling. Some of them are rendered according to sound, others according to meaning. Generally speaking, it would seem that the best Esperantists of a given nation are of necessity the authorities as to the spelling of names connected with their own land, as they are naturally more familiar with their origin and spirit. There is no apparent need of attempting to resolve into Esperanto the names of small towns and affairs of local significance, unless they contain letters not found in the Esperanto alphabet.

EXERCISES

The following series of exercises belongs to the Fundamento de Esperanto. They are a part of the unchangeable foundation of the language, carefully arranged by Dr. Zamenhof, author of Esperanto. The compiler of this book has added the translations and comment, with an occasional explanatory word accompanying the vocabularies.

The learner may begin the study of the Exercises without going at length into the foregoing discussion of the Grammar, but will find the latter useful for reference and review.

How to Study

Persons studying in classes will devise methods adapted to their needs and convenience, but to the person studying alone a few suggestions may prove of value. Go over carefully, all least twice, all that is said herein on pronunciation. Then take up, in their order, the Exercises.

Pronounce the words aloud, for this will help to familiarize the sense of hearing, though you hear only your own voice; you will thus be able to converse with the first Esperantist whom you meet.

Memorize each vocabulary as you proceed. A good plan is to memorize also the names of fami-iar objects seen every day, and form sentences addressed to or about them as you see them. Learn to name them in Esperanto at sight.

When you have finished the Exercises, subscribe to at least one Esperanto journal, where you will find announcements concerning a great assortment of books, as well as addresses of persons who wish to correspond in the language.

EXERCISE 1

Before attempting this Exercise, please read very carefully Page 7 and those following, on pronunciation. So many persons have asked that this book contain keyed words showing pronunciation that this is attempted here. The student must realize that the puzzling added consonants are frequently inserted only to certify the vowel sound; and especially note that eh signifies a sound between long a and short e. The accented syllable, marked ', is always the one next to the last.

|------------------------|--------------------------------|
| patro, father. | kolombo, dove. |
| kaj, and. | birdo, bird. |
| frato, brother. | aparteni, to belong to. |
| leono, lion. | al, to. |
| esti, to be. | suno, sun. |
| besto, beast | brili, to shine. |
| rozo, rose. | sana, well, healthy. |
| floro, flower. | tajloro, tailor. |

la, the (definite article).

o, substantive (noun) ending.

a, adjective ending

as, verb ending, present tense.

^aThe use of la here signifies a definite father; the father of whom we have been speaking; my father, your father, etc.

^bAfter esti in all its forms the noun is nominative.

TRANSLATION 5

EXERCISE 6

infano, *child.*ne, *not.*matura, *mature, ripe.*homo, man (general for human being).jam, *already.*cielo, *heaven, sky.*plori, *to mourn, weep.*kie, *where.*blua, *blue.*krajono, *pencil.*libro, *book.*tablo, *table.*sur, *on, upon.*fenestro, *window.*kuſi, *to lie (down).*jen, *lo, behold*plumo, *pen*kiu, *who.*pomo, *apple.*trovi, *to find.*mi, *I.*ſtono, *stone.*tero, earth.

n, ending of accusative (objective).

is, verb ending, past tense.

jam^c ne ploras. ³ La cielo estas blua. ⁴ Kie estas la

^aIn Esperanto, the negative word precedes the verb, and usually precedes other words to which it belongs, though not always: tute ne=not quite; certe ne=certainly not.

^bHomo, a human being, man in general; viro, a man; virino, a woman.

^cJam ne=already not. Jam is used with much greater frequency than the word already in English, and it is well for the student carefully to study the sense wherever it is found.

libro kaj la krajono? ⁵ La libro estas sur^d la tablo kaj la krajono kuſas sur la fenestro. ⁶ Sur la fenestro kuſas krajono kaj plumo. ⁷ Jen^e estas pomo. ⁸ Jen estas la pomo, kiun^f mi trovis. ⁹ Sur la tero kuſas ſtono.

^dSee, in list of prepositions, the uses of sur. Esperanto prepositions require careful study.

^eJen means behold. It translates with equal precision the English phrases here is and yonder is.

^fKiun is here in the accusative (objective) case, being the object of trovis. Pomo is the subject of estas, which (See Note b, Exercise 5) cannot be followed by an accusative. To understand precisely why kiun is accusative, let us remember that it is a pronoun and stands for pomo. If we render the sentence Jen estas pomo, pomon mi trovis, the reason for the accusative becomes clearer. Kiu is frequently thus placed in accusative by verbs which follow it.

TRANSLATION 6

¹ A child is not a mature man. ² The child no longer (already not) cries. ³ The sky is blue. ⁴ Where are the book and the pencil? ⁵ The book is upon the table and the pencil lies upon the window. ⁶ Upon the window lie a pencil and a pen. ⁷ Here is an apple. ⁸ Here is the apple which I found. ⁹ On the ground lies a stone.

EXERCISE 7

|-------------------------------|---------------------------------|
| forta, strong. | dento, tooth. |
| de, of, by, from. | akra, sharp. |
| doni, give. | mano, hand. |
| vidi, to see. | resti, to stay, remain.* |
| kun, with. | dangero, danger. |
| kuraĝa, brave, daring. | rajdi, to ride. |
| paroli, to speak. | pri, about, concerning. |

j, sign of the plural.

e, adverb ending.

i, verb ending, infinitive mode.

u, verb ending, imperative mode.

*Observe that the adjective, akraj, is in the plural form, as the noun to which it refers is plural.

^bInfinitive verb; has no subject, no tense or time of action. For any person, at any time, to stay with a lion, is dangerous.

^cHere, the word dangera takes the adverbial form (ending e) not because it is adverbial in sense, to be translated dangerously, but because it has no noun, the subject of this sentence being the verb, resti. Should we say leono estas dangera, the adjective form would be used.

TRANSLATION 7

¹A lion is strong. ²The teeth of a lion are sharp. ³Do not give your hand to a lion. ⁴I see a lion. ⁵To remain with a lion is dangerous. ⁶Who dares to ride on a lion? ⁷I am speaking about a lion.

EXERCISE 8

diligenta, diligent.

veni, to come.

filo, son.

apud, near, close by.

koni, to know (to be acquainted with).

per, by means of.

flari, to smell.

mangî, to eat.

bušo, mouth.

nazo, nose.

domo, house.

ĉambro, room.

^aSee Note a, Exercise 5.

^bDiru al=Tell to. The preposition al is used in expressions such as speak to, recount to, etc.

^cKune kun=Together with. Here, a word is repeated with no apparent purpose other than that of emphasis. This is often done with prepositions, especially in connection with verbs. See Note c, Exercise 31.

^dNote again that the preposition is followed by the nominative case. Literally, this would read give to I bread. 'Panon is in the accusative case from the verb, donu.

^aThe article here is used in a sense not known to English. It refers to birds generally—the song of birds. La is used with the plural form in speaking of a species or race: La birdoj, birds in general; la homoj, mankind in general. Of a science or trade, we use the singular form, with the article: Science, la scienco; medicine, la medicino.

^bA preposition may thus be joined to any verb, modifying its meaning: Iri, to go; foriri, to leave, to go away; eniri, to enter, to go into; preteriri, to go past.

^cThe sign of the accusative case follows that of the plural.

^d*De* is translated by several English prepositions. See examples of da and de, Page 50.

^e*Skribas* may be translated writes or is writing, according to sense. See The Verb, Indicative Mode.

³ Li promenas kun tri hundoj. ⁴ Li faris ĉion per la dek fingroj de siaj^c manoj. ⁵ El ŝiaj multaj infanoj unuj^d estas bonaj kaj aliaj estas malbonaj.

^bThis use of multe is quite confusing to the beginner. The final e frequently has a neutral rather than an adverbial sense. Multaj birdoj, multo da birdoj and multe da birdoj all mean about the same, the adverbial form being most often used. This is similarly true of kelke da, which is used instead of kelkaj.

^cBe sure that you understand the use of this pronoun. See Reflexive Pronoun, Page 27.

^dSee Note a, Exercise 11.

^eSee El, Page 51.

^fNote that the imperative form is used in a subjunctive clause indicating purpose. See Imperative Mode, Page 34.

^g*What date have we?* Instead of How old are you? the Esperanto query is What age have you?

^hSee Rules of the Grammar, XIV, Page 17. Neither sur (on), ĉe (at) nor en (in) expresses the sense, so we can use je or the accusative without a preposition.

ⁱThe adjective ending denotes the ordinal numeral. We say, in English, Nineteen hundred and seven. In Esperanto the sense is always The nineteen-hundred-and-seventh.

^aLi, here, and not si, because if si were used it would refer to kiu, which is the subject of this clause, and again refers to persono, the person who is loved. In the same sentence sian is used because it refers to the subject of the phrase in which it appears.

^bTiu sama tempo=That same time. Esperanto often uses a demonstrative adjective or pronoun instead of la.

^cMalamon kontra^ü=Hatred against. In a similar sense we would use, in English, for or toward.

^dAccusative because an implied preposition is omitted. Je du fojoj=For two times. This is also written dufoje.

^cThat she give her to drink. This use of the infinitive, though once common in the English, is now obsolete, and represents a peculiarity of Esperanto which the student should remember.

^dHere, sian, the reflexive pronoun which always refers to the subject of the clause, is properly used: The girl washed the girl's pitcher.

^eSee Note c, Exercise 8.

^fThe use of the adverbial ending here supports our previous statements that this frequently has a neutral significance. When the participle is directly qualifying it is adjectival: fluanta akvo=flowing water. When it is a part of the predicate, preceded by some form of esti, it is adjectival: La akvo estas fluanta=The water is flowing. When, however, it refers to the noun, yet is not connected with it in either of these ways, it is adverbial: Fluante, akvo sin purigas=(When) flowing, water purifies itself.

g For to see, for to do, etc., are forms of expression often used. Por means in order to, for the purpose of.

¹ One day, when she was near the spring, there came to her a poor woman, who asked her that she give her a drink. ² "Very willingly, my good [woman]," said the beautiful girl. ³ And she at once washed her pitcher and drew water in the cleanest place in the spring and carried [it] to the woman, all the time holding the pitcher, in order that the woman could drink more conveniently. ⁴ When the good woman had quieted her thirst, she said to the girl: "You are so beautiful, so good and so honest, that I must make you a gift" (for this was a fairy, who had taken upon herself the form of a poor village woman, to see how great would be the politeness of this young girl). ⁵ "I make you a gift, continued the fairy, "that at every word which you say there shall come out of your mouth either a flower or a precious stone."

^a See uses of the present tense, page 30.

^b Kie may have either an interrogatory or relative sense:
Iru kie gloro vin atendas=Go where glory waits thee.

^c As in English, it (gi) is used with reference to a child, when unnecessary to specify sex.

^d Ne has only a neutral significance and does not mean, like mal, the direct opposite. Here, the sense is that the boy is not polite, though not necessarily that he is rude.

^e Oni translates the English one or they in such sentences as one ought, they say, etc. As the author indicates (Sentence 24), it may be followed by a plural adjective if the sense requires this. Oni is always nominative, its accusative and possessive being reflexive, sin, sia: Oni devas sin gardi rilate sian reputacion=One ought to watch himself with respect to his reputation.

sia bu^{so} multego da diamantoj. ⁹ "Se estas tiel," diris la patrino, "mi devas tien^d sendi mian filinon. ¹⁰ Marinjo, rigardu, kio eliras el la bu^{so} de via fratino, kiam ŝi parolas; ĉu^e ne estus al vi agrable havi tian saman kapablon? ¹¹ Vi devas nur iri al la fonto ĉerpi akvon; kaj kiam malriĉa virino petos de vi trinki, vi donos ĝin al ŝi ĝentile."

^a Insultis ŝin kial—literally, insulted her why. In English insult would not be the proper word, though obviously the writer intends to express a humiliating invasion of the girl's dignity and "feelings."

^b Longe is adverbial, there being no noun to which it could be joined. If we say dum tia longa tempo, the adjective is of course properly used.

^c See Note c, Exercise 8.

^d Accusative sign for direction. It is not proper to refer to words of direction as in the "accusative case," as it is seen that adverbs may have this ending.

^e Ĉu (whether) is the sign of the question, when no other word indicates it. Kie vi estas? = Where are you? Here, kie indicates the question. Ĉu vi estas en la domo? = Are you in the house?

^d Jam, translated already, is used in this sentence where no such word would be required in English, and its significance can best be understood by a careful study of its uses in these Exercises. See Note c, Lesson 6.

^e Mr. Bullen, in his Standard Course of Esperanto, says: "This sentence should be carefully noted, as it illustrates the fact that Esperanto always uses the conditional in -us, where a real condition or supposition (that is, that the fact is non-existent) is implied." We observe here that both verbs are conditional: If I were healthy (but I am not) I should be happy (but I am not).

^f Note the various uses of the imperative in this Exercise. In English, the imperative is used for direct command or entreaty, but in Esperanto we have mi iru, ni iru, etc.

TRANSLATION 23

The Fairy (Concluded)

¹ The prince, who saw that from her mouth issued some pearls and diamonds, begged her to tell him whence this came. ² She told him her whole adventure. ³ The prince considered that such a gift had greater value than all which one could give as a dowry to another maiden, [and] took her away to the palace of his father, the king, where he married her. ⁴ But concerning her sister we may say that she became so hateful that her own mother drove her away from her; and the unhappy girl, having run about a great deal and having found no one who wished to receive her, soon died in a corner of the forest.

os, sign of future tense of verbs: amos, will love.

⁴ Kiam vi vidis nin en la salono, li jam antaŭe diris al mi la veron (aŭ li estis dirinta al mi la veron).

⁷ Se mi petus lin, li dirus al mi la veron. ⁸ Mi ne farus la eraron, se li antaŭe^c dirus al mi la veron (aŭ se li estus dirinta al mi la veron). ⁹ Kiam mi venos, diru al mi la veron.

¹⁰ Kiam mia patro venos, diru al mi antaŭe la veron (aŭ estu dirinta al mi la veron). ¹¹ Mi volas diri al vi la veron.

¹² Mi volas, ke tio, kion mi diris, estu vera (aŭ mi volas esti dirinta la veron).

^a Diri, to say; ad, suffix of continued action; diradas, continues to say, to tell.

^b Antaū ol, before than. See Page 49.

^c Observe that the conditional, or -us mood, has no time. Here, the past tense is inferred from antaue.

TRANSLATION 24

¹ Now he tells me the truth. ² Yesterday he told me the truth. ³ He always tells me the truth. ⁴ When you saw us in the drawing-room he had already (previously) told me the truth. ⁵ He will tell me the truth. ⁶ When you come to me he will previously have told me the truth (or he will have told me the truth; or, before you come to me he will tell me the truth). ⁷ If I should ask him, he would tell me the truth. ⁸ I should not have made the mistake if he had previously told me the truth. ⁹ When I shall come, tell me the truth. ¹⁰ When my father comes, tell me (previously) the truth. ¹¹ I wish to tell you the truth. ¹² I wish that what I said be true (or, I wish to have told the truth).

In connection with this Exercise the student should review the conjugations of the Infinitive, Imperative and Conditional modes. See pp. 32-35.

nun la ŝuldoj de mia filo ne estos pagataj de mi.
²³ Estu trankvila; mia tuta ŝuldo estos pagita al vi baldaŭ. ²⁴ Mia ora ringo ne estus^a tiel longe serĉata, se ĝi ne estus tiel lerte kaŝita de vi. ²⁵ Laŭ la projekto de la ingenieroj^c tiu ĉi fervojo estas konstruota en la daŭro de du jaroj; sed mi pensas, ke ĝi estos konstruata pli ol tri jarojn^d. ²⁶ Honesta homo agas honeste. ²⁷ La pastro, kiu mortis antaŭ^e nelonge (aŭ antaŭ nelonga tempo), loĝis longe en nia urbo. ²⁸ Ĉu hodiaŭ^f estas varme aŭ malvarme?
²⁹ Sur la kameno inter du potoj staras fera kaldrono; el la kaldrono, en kiu sin trovas bolanta akvo, eliras vapro; tra la fenestro, kiu sin trovas apud la pordo, la vapro iras sur la korton^g.

^a The use of estus in Sentences 4, 10 and 16 indicates the presence of a condition or contingency, though this is not stated, as in Sentence 24. Be careful not to translate should by estus where duty is expressed—use devas=ought.

^b The passive participle is connected with the source of the action by de. See Rule VI, Page 15.

^c This word means civil engineer. The word for locomotive engineer is mašinisto, or a more precise term, lokomotivisto. Fervojo (iron-way) is the Esperanto term for railway.

^d Do not forget that where a preposition is omitted the accusative case is used. Here, the absent preposition is dum.

^e Antaŭ nelonge is the expression usually used for not long ago, a short time ago, recently.

^f Hodiaŭ, hieraŭ and morgaŭ are not nouns, but adverbs. Hence the adverbial form of varme and malvarme. The noun form, when necessary so to speak of today, tomorrow, is la hodiaŭa tago, la morgaŭa tago.

^g Accusative to show direction.

(or, is today warm or cold?) ²⁹ On the hearth between two pots stands an iron kettle; from the kettle, in which is (finds itself) boiling water, issues steam; through the window, which is near the door, the steam goes into the yard.

^a I move my hand toward the table in the act of placing it upon the table. Hence, n for direction. Note carefully this sign of direction in Sentences 4, 6, 8, 10, 11, 16.

^b Observe the use of sin trovas here, as in Sentence 29, Exercise 25. This is often used instead of estas. A similar form is sin turnu al, to address oneself to, to turn to. Ĉiuj sin turnu al la redaktoro=Let all address the editor.

^c Sukero here, because kun is a preposition. Without the preposition, it would be teon kaj sukeron.

^d Esperanto often uses the pronoun thus: Ĉe mi=At my house. Ĉe vi=At your house.

See Note c, Exercise 25.

^f This meaning, in English, has two forms of expression—he asks that I be attentive, or he asks me to be attentive. In Esperanto the former is invariably used.

⁸ Dubi in any form is followed by ēu to connect a proposition containing a verb, and by pri when followed by a noun: Mi dubas ēu vi estas fidela=I doubt whether you are faithful Mi dubas pri via fideleco=I doubt (concerning) your fidelity.

(kiu daŭras unu tagon); unuataga (kiu estas en la unua tago); vaporŝipo (=ŝipo, kiu sin movas per vaporo); matenmangi, tagmangi, vespermangi; abonpago (=pago por la abono).

^a Observe this use of tiam kiam=then when. In English we use when alone, and frequently in Esperanto simply kiam. Tiam kiam is more definite and emphatic.

^b Note that kiuj is plural because it represents more than one person.

TRANSLATION 27

¹ The article la is used when we speak of persons or things known. ² Its use is the same as in the other languages. ³ Persons who do not understand the use of the article (for example Russians or Poles who do not know another language beside their own), may at first not use the article at all, for it is convenient but not necessary. ⁴ Instead of la we can also say l' (but only after a preposition which ends with a vowel). ⁵ Compound words are formed by simple junction of words; we generally take the pure roots, but if euphony or clearness demands, we can also take the whole word; i. e., the root together with its grammatical ending: ⁶ Examples: skribtable, or skribotable, a table on which one writes; internacia, that which exists between or among various nations; tutmonda, of the whole world; unutaga, lasting one day; unuataga, of the first day; vaporŝipo, a ship which moves by steam; matenmangi, tagmangi, vespermangi, to breakfast, to dine, to eat supper; abonpago, payment for subscription.

| iam, at any time, ever | nominativo, nominative. |
| akuzativo, accusative | tie, there. |
| dependi, to depend. | kaŭzo, cause. |

| celi, to aim. | egala, equal. |
| ia, any kind of. | veturi, to journey, travel |

| neniel, in no way. | nek...nek, neither...nor |
| dis' same as the English prefix dis : | semi, sow; |
| dissemi, to scatter broadcast, disseminate. | |

birdo ne sin trovis antaŭe en la ĝardeno kaj tie flugis, sed ke ĝi de alia loko flugis al la ĝardeno, al la tablo (ni volas montri ke la ĝardeno kaj la tablo ne estis la loko de la flugado, sed nur la celo de la flugado); en tiaj okazoj ni uzas la finiĝon n tute^a egale ĉu ia prepozicio starus aŭ ne. ⁴Morgaŭ mi veturos Parizon (aŭ en Parizon). ⁵Mi restos hodiaŭ dome. ⁶Jam estas tempo iri domen. ⁷Ni disiĝis kaj iris en diversajn flankojn: mi iris dekstren kaj li iris maldekstren. ⁸Flanken, sinjoro! ⁹Mi konas nenion en tiu ĉi urbo. ¹⁰Mi neniel povas kompreni, kion vi parolas. ¹¹Mi renkontis nek lin, nek^b lian fraton (aŭ mi ne renkontis lin, nek lian fraton).

^aEgale is here used where one would expect same.

^bNote nek.....nek, translated neither.....nor. A similar form, though practically obsolete, is sometimes used in English: nor voice nor sound.

TRANSLATION 28

- ¹ All prepositions, in themselves, always require only the nominative. ²If we ever, after a preposition, use the accusative, the accusative there depends not on the preposition, but on other causes.
- ³ For example, to express direction, we add to the word the ending n; consequently, tie, in that place; tien, to that place; similarly, we also say "the bird flew into the garden, upon the table"; and the words "garden," "table," here stand in the accusative not because the prepositions "in" and "on" require this, but only because we wish to express direction; i. e., to show that the bird was not previously in the garden and flew about there, but that it flew from another place into the garden, upon the table (we wish to show that the garden and table were not the place of the flying, but only the goal of the flight); in such cases we use the accusative just the same, whether any preposition is there or not.

⁴ Tomorrow I shall go to Paris.

⁵ I shall remain in the house today.

⁶ It is already time to go home.

⁷ We separated and went in different directions; I went to the right and he went to the left.

⁸ To one side, sir!

⁹ I know no one in this city.

¹⁰ I can in no way understand what you are saying.

¹¹ I met neither him nor his brother (or, I did not meet him, nor his brother).

| | permesi, to permit, allow. |

^a Note indicative mode following se. The need of a preposition is not a matter of doubt. See Note e, Exercise 20.

^b Another peculiar Esperanto form, very frequently used: Kiel eble plej frue, kiel eble plej bone, kiel eble plej multe.

čiam uzi la akuzativon. ⁹ Ekzemple, ni povas diri “obei al la patro” kaj “obei la patron” (anstataŭ “obei je la patro”). ¹⁰ Sed ni ne uzas la akuzativon tiam, kiam la klareco de la senco tion ĉi malpermesas; ekzemple: ni povas diri “pardon al la malamiko” kaj “pardon la malamikon,” sed ni devas čiam diri “pardon al la malamiko lian kulpdon.”

TRANSLATION 29

- ¹ If we need to use a preposition and the sense does not show us what preposition to use, then we can use the common preposition je. ² But it is well to use the word je as seldom as possible.
- ³ Instead of the word je we can also use the accusative without a preposition. ⁴ I laugh at his simplicity. ⁵ The last time I saw him at your house.
- ⁶ I travelled two days and one night. ⁷ I sigh for my lost happiness. ⁸ From the said rule it follows that if, concerning any verb, we do not know whether or not it requires the accusative after it (i. e. whether or not it is transitive) we can always use the accusative. ⁹ For example, we can say “to obey ‘to’ the father” and “to obey the father.”
- ¹⁰ But we do not use the accusative when the clearness of sense forbids this; for example, we can say “to pardon ‘to’ the enemy” and “to pardon the enemy”; but we should always say “to pardon to the enemy his fault.”

ante la literon ĉi ni ricevas vortojn komunajn : čia, čial, čiam, čie, čiel, čies, čio, čiom, čiu. ⁶Aldonante la prefikson nen ni ricevas vortojn neajn : nenia, nenial, neniam, nenie, neniel, nenes, nenio, neniom, neniu. ⁷Aldonante al la vortoj montraj la vorton či ni ricevas montron pli proksiman ; ekzemple : tiu, pli malproksima, tiu či (aŭ či tiu) pli proksima ; tie, malproksime, tie či aŭ či tie, proksime. ⁸Aldonante al la vortoj demandaj la vorton ajn ni ricevas vortojn sendiferencajn : kia ajn, kial ajn, kiam ajn, kie ajn, kiel ajn, kies ajn, kio ajn, kiom ajn, kiu ajn. Ekster tio el la diritaj vortoj ni povas ankoraŭ fari aliajn vortojn, per helpo de gramatikaj finigoj kaj aliaj vortoj (sufiksoj) ; ekzemple : tama, čiama, kioma, tiea, či-tiea, tieulo, tiamulo, k. t. p. (=kaj tiel plu).

In connection with this lesson, the student should review what is said of Correlative Words, pp. 70-73. A few explanations are added here :

Tia is the demonstrative of quality, translated that, such a, such kind. With the relative, kia, it translates such as. Also, it is used as a demonstrative article, in the sense of the for the purpose of giving added force, just as unu is similarly used in a less definite sense. (See Note a, Exercise 11). In this sense, it loses its significance of quality, and may be followed by kiel, the relative of manner. In Exercise 27,

Sentence 2, we have tia sama kiel, which is correct, because tia means the. But we must not say tia bona kiel, the sense here being as good as, and the correct form tiel bona kiel.

Io, tio, kio, ĉio, nenio. These all refer to objects and are not used as modifying words. They indicate the thing itself. Kio estas tio? Nenio=What is that? Nothing. But if we wish to use the correlatives as modifying words, we say: Ia birdo=Any kind of bird. Ĉiuj birdoj=All birds.

Ĉiu means each, or every, but does not mean all, as do ĉiam, ĉie, ĉiel, ĉiom, etc. Iu and the other four words of this series express individuality, but refer, when not otherwise specified, to persons. Hence, to express plurals, ĉiuj, kiuj, tiuj are the correct forms.

TRANSLATION 30

¹ Some kind, for some reason, some time, somewhere, somehow, somebody's, something, some quantity, somebody.. ² The nine words shown we advise [the student] to learn thoroughly, because from them everyone can make for himself a large series of other pronouns and adverbs. ³ If we add to them [as a prefix] the letter k, we obtain interrogative or relative words: what kind, why, when, where, how, whose, what (thing), how much, who. If we add the letter t we get demonstrative words: such, therefore, then, there, thus, that person's, that, that much, that person. ⁵ Adding the letter z we get collective words : each and every kind, for every reason, always, everywhere, in every way, everybody's, everything, all, everyone. ⁶ Adding the prefix nen, we obtain negative words : no such, for no reason, never, nowhere, nohow, no one's, nothing, none, nobody. ⁷ Adding to the demonstrative words the word ci, we obtain a meaning of proximity ; for example: tiu, that, tiu ci, this; tie, there, tie ci, here. ⁸ Adding to the interrogative words the word ajn, we get indifferent words : whatever kind of, for whatever reason, whenever, wherever, however, whosesoever, whatever, whatever quantity, whoever. ⁹ Besides this, from these words we can make still other words, with the help of the grammatical endings and other words (suffixes); for example: contemporaneous (existing then), eternal, how much, there, a person living there or being present, a contemporary or person of that time.

- ¹ Lia kolero longe daŭris. ² Li estas hodiaŭ en kolera humoro. ³ Li koleras kaj insultas. ⁴ Li fermis kolere la pordon. ⁵ Lia filo mortis kaj estas nun malviva. ⁶ La korpo estas morta, la animo estas senmorta. ⁷ Li estas morte malsana, li ne vivos pli, ol unu tagon. ⁸ Li parolas, kaj lia parolo fluas dolĉe kaj agrable. ⁹ Ni faris la kontrakton ne skribi, sed parole. ¹⁰ Li estas bona parolanto. ¹¹ Starante ekstere, li povis vidi nur la eksteran flankon de nia domo. ¹² Li logas ekster la urbo. ¹³ La ekstero de tiu ĉi homo estas pli bona, ol lia interno. ¹⁴ Li tuj faris, kion mi volis, kaj mi dankis lin por la tuja plenumo de mia deziro.

¹⁵ Kia granda brulo! kio brulas? ¹⁶ Ligno estas bona brula materialo. ¹⁷ La fera bastono, kiu kuſis en la forno, estas nun brule^a varmega. ¹⁸ Ĉu li donis al vi jesan respondon, aŭ nean? ¹⁹ Li eliris el^b la dormoĉambro kaj eniris en la mangoĉambron. ²⁰ La birdo ne forflugis; ĝi nur deflugis de la arbo, alflugis al la domo kaj surflugis sur la tegmenton. ²¹ Por ĉiu aĉetita funto da teo tiu ĉi komercisto aldonas senpage funton da sukero. ²² Lernolibron oni devas ne tralegi, sed tralerni. ²³ Li portas rozkoloran^c superveston kaj teleroforman ĉapelon. ²⁴ En mia skribotablo sin trovas kvar tirkestoj. ²⁵ Liaj lipharoj estas pli grizaj, ol liaj vangharoj.

^a In Sentences 1, 2, 3, 4, kolero, kolera, koleras, kolere; in 15, 16, 17, brulo, brulas, brula, brule. These sentences are designed to show with what facility an Esperanto root may be used as a noun, adjective, verb or adverb. To add the participles in their adjectival, substantival and adverbial forms, with the variations and degrees of meaning made possible by the use of affixes—it would puzzle the expert Esperantist to measure the possible range of expression.

^b Eliris el, deflugis de, alflugis al, surflugis sur. See Note c, Exercise 8.

^c This lesson contains a number of compound words. The student may at first find it difficult to distinguish these at sight, but he will soon "catch the spirit" of Esperanto. Failing in this, he will search the vocabularies in vain for seeming roots which are only simple combinations.

drapo. (Metro de drapo signifus metron, kiu kuſis sur drapo, aŭ kiu estas uzata por drapo).⁷ Mi aĉetis dekon da ovoj. ⁸ Tiu ĉi rivero havas ducent kilometrojn da longo. ⁹ Sur la bordo de la maro staris amaso da^b homoj. ¹⁰ Multaj birdoj flugas en la aŭtuno en pli varmajn landojn. ¹¹ Sur la arbo sin trovis multe (aŭ multo) da birdoj. ¹² Kelkaj homoj sentas sin la plej feliĉaj^c, kiam ili vidas la suferojn de siaj najbaroj. ¹³ En la ĉambro sidis nur kelke da homoj. ¹⁴ “Da” post ia vorto montras, ke tiu ĉi vorto havas signifion de mezuro.

^aNote the use of ricevas where the inclination would be to use akiras. The latter would mean that he desired or cultivated the manner, rather than that it simply “stuck to him,” and in some instances at least would be fully appropriate.

^bIf the student will thoroughly study the uses of da in this exercise he should never err regarding its use.

^cSentas sin feliĉaj=Feel themselves happy. Feliĉaj is nominative, being a predicative adjective. Supplying the full sense, we have sentas sin esti feliĉaj. See also Sentence 7, Exercise 33.

pies himself with mechanics is a mechanic, and he who occupies himself with chemistry is a chemist.

Glaso de vino is a glass in which was previously wine, or which one uses for wine; glaso da vino is a glass full of wine. ⁶Bring me a meter of (da) black cloth (metro de drapo would mean a meter which lay on the cloth, or which is used for cloth). ⁷I bought ten eggs. ⁸This river is two hundred kilometers long. ⁹On the shore of the sea stood a crowd of people. ¹⁰Many birds fly in the autumn to warmer countries. ¹¹Upon the tree were many birds. ¹²Some people feel happiest when they witness the sufferings of their neighbors. ¹³In the room sat only a few people. ¹⁴*Da* after a word shows that this word has a sense of measure.

^a Study carefully the distinction between ig and iĝ. The former is always transitive, while the latter is intransitive: purigi, to clean; puriĝi, to become clean. Sentences 7 and 11 well illustrate this difference.

CORRESPONDENCE

In the date-line of a letter, we usually omit the preposition je and write the day of the month with accusative sign following the figures:

St. Louis, 18^{an} de Aügusto, 1908.

San Francisko, 26^{an} de Marto, 1914.

Everyone may safely use his own taste as to the form of salutation, conforming, however, to the relations between adresanto and adresato. By a peculiar paradox, the most formal style of address for Americans, “My Dear Madam”, is far from formality in its literal meaning, and should the average European be addressed as Mia Kara he would infer at least some degree of affection. A few of the many forms of greeting are:

Sinjoroj:

Respektata Sinjorino:

Tre Estimata Amiko:

The forms of closing letters are much the same as in English:

Tre vere via,

Kun granda estimo, etc., etc.

Especially in correspondence with foreign persons, one should be careful to write plainly, as to many of these Esperanto script is not easy to read unless clearly written. Be particularly careful as to name and address. We Americans, many of whom habitually use figures of speech called slang while new, and good English when the gloss is worn off, must remember that such language cannot be translated. An Indiana man writes me that a certain book is a persiko. He is a rare American who doesn't know what is meant by a metaphorical "peach," and most Europeans would understand if we mentioned "bird"; but to the home-grown Japanese or Maori these words would indicate things pertaining to horticulture and ornithology.

LA ESPERANTISMO

La sekvanta Deklaracio estis eldonata de la Unua Internacia Kongreso Esperantista en Boulogne-sur-Mer, la 9an de Aŭgusto, 1905:

Ĉar pri la esenco de la esperantismo multaj havas tre malveran ideon, tial ni subskribintoj, reprezentantoj de la esperantismo en diversaj landoj de la mondo, kunvenintaj al la Internacia Kongreso Esperantista en Boulogne-sur-Mer, trovis necese laŭ la propono de la aŭtoro de Esperanto doni la sekvantan klarigon.

1. La esperantismo estas penado disvastigi en la tutu mondo la uzadon de lingvo neŭtrale homa, kiu, "ne entrudante sin en la internan vivon de la popoloj kaj neniom celante elpuſi la ekzistantajn lingvojn naciajn," donus al la homoj de malsamaj nacioj la eblon kompreniĝadi inter si, kiu povos servi kiel paciga lingvo en publikaj institucioj de tiuj landoj, kie diversaj nacioj batalas inter si pri la lingvo, kaj en kiu povos esti publikigataj tiuj verkoj, kiuj havas egalan intereson por ĉiuj popoloj. Ĉiu alia ideo aŭ espero, kiun tiu aŭ alia esperantisto ligas kun la esperantismo, estas lia afiero pure privata por kiu la esperantismo ne respondas.

2. Ĉar en la nuna tempo neniu esploranto jam dubas pri tio, ke lingvo internacia povas esti nur lingvo arta, kaj ĉar el ĉiuj multegaj provoj faritaj en la daŭro de la lastaj du centjaroj, ĉiuj prezentas nur teoriajn projektojn, kaj lingvo efektive finita, ĉiuflanke elprovita, perfekte vivipova kaj en ĉiuj rilatoj pleje taŭga montriĝis nur unu sola lingvo, Esperanto; tial la amikoj de la ideo de lingvo internacia, konsciante ke teoria diskutado kondukos al nenio kaj ke la celo povas esti atingita nur per laborado praktika, jam de longe ĉiuj grupiĝis ĉirkaŭ la sola lingvo Esperanto kaj laboras por ĝia disvastigado kaj la riĉigado de ĝia literaturo.

3. Ĉar la aŭtoro de la lingvo Esperanto tuj en la komenco rifuzis unofoje por ĉiam ĉiujn personajn rajtojn kaj privilegiojn rilate tiun lingvon, tial Esperanto estas "nenies propraĵo" nek en rilato materiala, nek en rilato morala. Materiala majstro de tiu ĉi lingvo estas la tuta mondo kaj ĉiu deziranto povas eldonadi en aŭ pri tiu ĉi lingvo ĉiajn verkojn, kiajn li deziras, kaj uzadi la lingvon por ĉiaj eblaj celoj; kiel spiritaj majstroj de tiu ĉi lingvo estos ĉiam rigardataj tiuj personoj, kiuj de la mondo esperantista estos konfesataj kiel la plej bonaj kaj plej talentaj verkistoj de tiu ĉi lingvo.

4. Esperanto havas neniu personan legdonanton kaj dependas de neniu aparta homo. Opinioj kaj verkoj de la kreinto de Esperanto havas, simile al la opinioj kaj verkoj de ĉiu alia esperantisto, karakteron absolute privatan kaj por neniu devigan. La sola unofoje por ĉiam deviga por ĉiuj esperantistoj fundamento de la lingvo Esperanto estas la verketo "Fundamento de Esperanto," en kiu neniu havas la rajton fari ŝanĝon. Se iu deklinigas de la reguloj kaj modeloj donitaj en la dirita verko, li neniam povos pravigi sin per la vortoj "tiel deziras aŭ konsilas la aŭtoro de Esperanto." Ĉiun ideon, kiu ne povas esti oportune esprimata per tiu materialo, kiu troviĝas en la "Fundamento de Esperanto," ĉiu esperantisto havas la rajton esprimi en tia maniero, kiun li trovas la plej ĝusta, tiel same, kiel estas farate en ĉiu alia lingvo. Sed pro plena unueco de la lingvo al ĉiuj esperantistoj estas rekomendate imitadi kiel eble plej multe tiun stilon, kiu troviĝas en la verkoj de la kreinto de Esperanto, kiu la plej multe laboris por kaj en Esperanto, kaj la plej bone konas ĝian spiriton.

5. Esperantisto estas nomate ĉiu persono, kiu scias kaj uzas la lingvon Esperanto, tute egale, por kiaj celoj li ĝin uzas. Apartenado al ia aktiva societo esperantista por ĉiu esperantisto estas rekomendinda, sed ~~de~~ deviga.

VOCABULARIES

The following Esperanto-English Vocabulary contains all of the word-roots found in the Fundamento de Esperanto, with some hundreds of others in general use. The student must understand that the great majority of these roots can be changed by the addition of the various grammatical endings and of the prefixes and suffixes; so that, having appropriated a thousand Esperanto roots, he will possess a working vocabulary of several thousand words.

The English-Esperanto Vocabulary is merely a supplementary help, to assist the student in finding the root connected with the idea he has in mind. It contains few feminine nouns, these being formed from the general or masculine term by adding the suffix in. Hundreds of words for which Esperanto has no root equivalent are translated by the word of contrary meaning, with the prefix mal. The method of word-building is shown in the following series of words from the root for health:

Sano, health.

Sani, to be healthy.

Sana, healthy.

Sane, healthfully.

Sanigi, to make healthy.
