

THE BRIDGE OF CAUTERETS.

CAUTERETS is one of the most romantic glens in the passes of the Pyrenees, and is greatly frequented by tourists. Being close to the French and Spanish frontiers, it is the scene of frequent conflicts between the smugglers and the custom-house officers, one of which is sketched in our engraving.