An Act to remove some Defects in the Administration of the Criminal Law. [20th June 1867.]

WHEREAS it is found that Delay and Inconvenience are frequently caused by the Provisions contained in the First Section of the Act Twenty-second and Twenty-third Victoria, Chapter Seventeen, in Cases not within the Mischief for Remedy whereof the same Act was made and passed, and it is expedient to restrict the Operation thereof:

Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same:

1. That the said Provisions of the said First Section of the said Act shall not extend or be applicable to prevent the Presentment to or finding by a Grand Jury of any Bill of Indictment containing a Count or Counts for any of the Offences mentioned in the said Act, if such Count or Counts be such as may now be lawfully joined with the rest of such Bill of Indictment, and if the same

Limitation of 22 & 23 Vict.
c. 17.

Criminal Law.

Count or Counts be founded (in the Opinion of the Court in or before which the same Bill of Indictment be preferred) upon the Facts or Evidence disclosed in any Examinations or Depositions taken before a Justice of the Peace, in the Presence of the Person accused or proposed to be accused by such Bill of Indictment, and transmitted or delivered to such Court in due Course of Law; and nothing in the said Act shall extend or be applicable to prevent the Presentment to or finding by a Grand Jury of any Bill of Indictment, if such Bill be presented to the Grand Jury with the Consent of the Court in or before which the same may be preferred.

On Acquittal, &c. of Person indicted, who has not been committed or held to Bail, Court may order Prosecutor to pay Costs to Accused if it think the Prosecution unreasonable.

2. Whenever any Bill of Indictment shall be preferred to any Grand Jury, under the Provisions of the Act Twenty-second and Twenty-third Victoria, Chapter Seventeen, against any Person who has not been committed to or detained in Custody, or bound by Recognizance to answer such Indictment, and the Person accused thereby shall be acquitted thereon, it shall be lawful for the Court before which such Indictment shall be tried, in its Discretion, to direct and order that the Prosecutor or other Person by or at whose Instance such Indictment shall have been preferred shall pay unto the accused Person the just and reasonable Costs, Charges, and Expenses of such accused Person and his Witnesses (if any) caused or occasioned by or consequent upon the preferring of such Bill of Indictment, to be taxed by the proper Officer of the Court; and upon Nonpayment of such Costs, Charges, and Expenses within One Calendar Month after the Date of such Direction and Order, it shall be lawful for any of the Superior Courts of Law at Westminster, or any Judge thereof, or for the Justices and Judges of the Central Criminal Court (if the Bill of Indictment has been preferred in that Court), to issue against the Person on whom such Order is made such and the like Writ or Writs, Process or Processes, as may now be lawfully issued by any of the said Superior Courts for enforcing Judgments thereof.

Accused Person to be asked by Justice if he desire to call Witnesses.

3. 'And whereas Complaint is frequently made by Persons charged with indictable Offences, upon their Trial, that they are unable by reason of Poverty to call Witnesses on their Behalf, and that Injustice is thereby occasioned to them; and it is expedient to remove, as far as practicable, all just Ground for such Complaint: ' Therefore, in all Cases where any Person shall appear or be brought before any Justice or Justices of the Peace, charged with any indictable Offence, whether committed within this Realm or upon the High Seas or upon Land beyond the Sea, and whether such Person appear voluntarily upon Summons, or has been apprehended with or without Warrant, or be in Custody for the same or any other Offence, such Justice or Justices, before he or they shall commit such accused Person for Trial or admit him to Bail, shall, immediately after obeying the Directions of the Eighteenth Section of the Act Eleventh and Twelfth Victoria, Chapter Forty-two, demand and require of the accused Person whether he desires to call any Witness; and if the accused Person shall, in answer to such Demand, call or desire desire to call any Witness or Witnesses, such Justice or Justices shall, in the Presence of such accused Person, take the Statement on Oath or Affirmation, both Examination and Cross-examination, of those who shall be so called as Witnesses by such accused Person, and who shall know anything relating to the Facts and Circumstances of the Case or anything tending to prove the Innocence of such accused Person, and shall put the same into Writing; and such Depositions of such Witnesses shall be read over to and signed respectively by the Witnesses who shall have been so examined, and shall be signed also by the Justice or Justices taking the same, and transmitted in due Course of Law with the Depositions, and such Witnesses, not being Witnesses merely to the Character of the Accused, as shall in the Opinion of the Justice or Justices give Evidence in any way material to the Case or tending to prove the Innocence of the accused Person, shall be bound by Recognizance to appear and give Evidence at the said Trial; and afterwards upon the Trial of such accused Person, all the Laws now in force relating to the Depositions of Witnesses for the Prosecution shall extend and be applicable to the Depositions of Witnesses hereby directed to be taken.

4. All the Provisions of the said Act Eleventh and Twelfth Victoria, Chapter Forty-two, relating to the summoning and enforcing the Attendance and Committal of Witnesses, and binding them by Recognizance and Committal in default, and for giving the accused Person Copies of the Examinations, and giving Jurisdiction to certain Persons to act alone, shall be read and shall have Operation as Part of this Act.

5. The Court before which any accused Person shall be prosecuted or tried, or for Trial, before which he may be committed or bailed to appear for any Felony or Misdemeanor, is hereby authorized and empowered, in its Discretion, at the Request of any Person who shall appear before such Court on Recognizance to give Evidence on behalf of the Person accused, to order Payment unto such Witness so appearing such Sum of Money as to the Court shall seem reasonable and sufficient to compensate such Witness for the Expenses, Trouble, and Loss of Time he shall have incurred or sustained in attending before the examining Magistrate, and at or before such Court; and the Amount of such Expenses of attending before the examining Magistrate, and Compensation for Trouble and Loss of Time therein, shall be ascertained by the Certificate of such Magistrate, granted before the Attendance in Court; and the Amount of all other Expenses and Compensation shall be ascertained by the proper Officer of the Court, who shall, upon Receipt of the Sum of Sixpence for each Witness, make out and deliver to the Person entitled thereto an Order for such Expenses and Compensation, together with the said Fee of Sixpence, upon such and the same Treasurers and Officers as would now by Law be liable to Payment of an Order for the Expenses of the Prosecutor or Witnesses against such accused Person; and if the Accusation be of such Kind that the Court shall have no Power to order the Expenses of the Prosecutor, then upon the Treasurer or other Officer in the Capacity of a Treasurer of the County, Riding,

Criminal Law.

Division, City, Borough, or Place where the Offence of such accused Person may be alleged to have been committed, which Treasurer or other Officer is hereby required to pay the same Orders upon Sight thereof, and shall be allowed the same in his Accounts: Provided always, that in no Case shall any such Allowances or Compensation exceed the Amount now by Law permitted to be made to Prosecutors and Witnesses for the Prosecution; and provided always, that such Allowances and Compensation shall be allowed and paid as Part of the Expenses of the Prosecution.

Power to take Deposition of Person dangerously ill, and not likely to recover, and to make same Evidence in certain Events, after Death of such Person.

6. ' And whereas by the Seventeenth Section of the Act ' Eleventh and Twelfth Victoria, Chapter Forty-two, it is permitted under certain Circumstances to read in Evidence on the ' Trial of an accused Person the Deposition taken in accordance ' with the Provisions of the said Act of a Witness who is dead, ' or so ill as to be unable to travel: And whereas it may happen ' that a Person dangerously ill, and unable to travel, may be able ' to give material and important Information relating to an indictable Offence, or to a Person accused thereof, and it may not be ' practicable or permissible to take, in accordance with the Provisions of the said Act, the Examination or Deposition of the ' Person so being ill, so as to make the same available as Evidence ' in the event of his or her Death before the Trial of the accused ' Person, and it is desirable in the Interests of Truth and Justice ' that Means should be provided for perpetuating such Testimony, ' and for rendering the same available in the event of the Death ' of the Person giving the same: Therefore, whenever it shall be made to appear to the Satisfaction of any Justice of the Peace that any Person dangerously ill, and in the Opinion of some registered Medical Practitioner not likely to recover from such Illness, is able and willing to give material Information relating to any indictable Offence, or relating to any Person accused of any such Offence, and it shall not be practicable for any Justice or Justices of the Peace to take an Examination or Deposition in accordance with the Provisions of the said Act of the Person so being ill, it shall be lawful for the said Justice to take in Writing the Statement on Oath or Affirmation of such Person so being ill, and such Justice shall thereupon subscribe the same, and shall add thereto by way of Caption a Statement of his Reason for taking the same, and of the Day and Place when and where the same was taken, and of the Names of the Persons (if any) present at the taking thereof, and, if the same shall relate to any indictable Offence for which any accused Person is already committed or bailed to appear for Trial, shall transmit the same with the said Addition to the proper Officer of the Court for Trial at which such accused Person shall have been so committed or bailed; and in all other Cases he shall transmit the same to the Clerk of the Peace of the County, Division, City, or Borough in which he shall have taken the same, who is hereby required to preserve the same, and file it of Record; and if afterwards, upon the Trial of any Offender or Offence to which the same may relate, the Person who made the same Statement shall be proved to be dead, or if it shall be proved that there is no reasonable Probability that such Person will ever be able

able to travel or to give Evidence, it shall be lawful to read such Statement in Evidence, either for or against the Accused, without further Proof thereof, if the same purports to be signed by the Justice by or before whom it purports to be taken, and provided it be proved to the Satisfaction of the Court that reasonable Notice of the Intention to take such Statement has been served upon the Person (whether Prosecutor or Accused) against whom it is proposed to be read in Evidence, and that such Person, or his Counsel or Attorney, had or might have had, if he had chosen to be present, full Opportunity of cross-examining the deceased Person who made the same.

7. Whenever a Prisoner in actual Custody shall have served or shall have received Notice of an Intention to take such Statement as herein-before mentioned, the Judge or Justice of the Peace by whom the Prisoner was committed, or the Visiting Justices of the Prison in which he is confined, may, by an Order in Writing, direct the Gaoler having the Custody of the Prisoner to convey him to the Place mentioned in the said Notice for the Purpose of being present at the taking of the Statement; and such Gaoler shall convey the Prisoner accordingly, and the Expenses of such Conveyance shall be paid out of the Funds applicable to the other Expenses of the Prison from which the Prisoner shall have been conveyed.

8. 'And whereas Relief has been given by the Statute Twenty-fourth and Twenty-fifth Victoria, Chapter Sixty-six, to Persons refusing, from alleged conscientious Motives, to be sworn as Witnesses in Criminal Proceedings, and it is expedient to extend that Relief to Persons required to serve as Jurors: Therefore if any Person summoned or required to serve as a Juror in any Civil or Criminal Proceeding shall refuse or be unwilling, from alleged conscientious Motives, to be sworn, it shall be lawful for the Court or Judge, or other presiding Officer or Person qualified to administer an Oath to a Juror, upon being satisfied of the Sincerity of such Objection, to permit such Person, instead of being sworn, to make his or her solemn Affirmation or Declaration in the Words following:

'I A.B. do solemnly, sincerely, and truly affirm and declare that the taking of any Oath is, according to my Religious Belief, unlawful; and I do also solemnly, sincerely, and truly affirm and declare,' &c.

Which solemn Affirmation and Declaration shall be of the same Force and Effect, and if untrue shall entail all the same Consequences, as if such Person had taken an Oath in the usual Form; and whenever in any legal Proceedings it is necessary or usual to state or allege that Jurors have been sworn, it shall not be necessary to specify that any particular Juror has made Affirmation or Declaration instead of Oath, but it shall be sufficient to state or allege that the Jurors have been "sworn or affirmed."

And whereas there is a Sum of Twenty thousand six hundred and fifty-six Pounds Four Shillings remaining due, including Interest up to the First Day of May One thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, to the Commissioners of Public Works, in respect of such Advances (after deducting the Payments annually made in respect of Principal and Interest), and the said Commissioners of Public Works are now, and have been for some Years, in receipt as Mortgagees in Possession of the Rates, Tolls, and Duties levied in the said Harbour, and of the Rents and Profits of said Premises, for the Purpose of securing the Repayment of the Principal and Interest due as aforesaid:

And whereas the Rates, Tolls, and Duties heretofore payable in respect of the said Floating Dock and Works have not only proved insufficient for the Repayment of the Principal Sum and Interest, but have prejudiced the Development of the Trade and Commerce of the said Port and Harbour of Galway:

And whereas it is expedient to relieve the said Port and Harbour from a Portion of the said Debt, so as to enable the said Galway Harbour Commissioners to make certain Repairs to the Piers and Quays of said Harbour, and in other respects to improve the same, and for that Purpose to enable the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury to compound the said Debt for the Sum of Ten thousand Pounds:

'said Committee were also authorized to consent to any Act of 'Parliament binding the said County of the Town to compromise
'the said Debt, and to act on their Behalf as herein-after provided :

'And whereas the said Michael Bernard Mullins has agreed
'to accept the Sum of Five thousand Pounds for the said Judg'ment Debt, Interest, and Costs, provided that Sum be paid to
'him out of the first Monies to be borrowed under this Act from 'the Public Works Loan Commissioners as herein-after provided :

'And whereas the Harbour Commissioners propose, subject to
'the Sanction of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury,
'to borrow any Sum or Sums of Money not exceeding Twenty-
'two thousand Pounds (including the said Sum of Five thousand 'Pounds) from the Public Works Loan Commissioners, if the said
'Public Works Loan Commissioners shall be satisfied from Time
'to Time with the Security tendered to them by the Galway
'Harbour Commissioners, and to permit the Annuities which 'shall be granted for the same respectively by the Harbour Com-

'said Sum of Ten thousand Pounds, provided the County of the 'Town of Galway levy a Rate as additional Security in manner
'herein-after mentioned :

C A P. LXXXVII.

An Act to facilitate the Transaction of Business in the Chambers of the Judges of the High Court of Chancery, and in the Offices of the Registrars and Accountant General of the said Court, and in Lunacy.

[12th August 1867.]

WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Session of Parliament held in the Third and Fourth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Ninety-four, intituled An Act for facilitating the Administration of Justice in the Court of Chancery :

3 & 4 Vict.
c. 94.

' And

Court of Chancery (Officers).

‘ And whereas a Second Act was passed in the Session of Parliament held in the Fifteenth and Sixteenth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Eighty, intituled An Act to abolish the Office of Master in Ordinary of the High Court of Chancery, and to make Provision for the more speedy and efficient Despatch of Business in the said Court : 15 & 16 Vict. c. 80.

‘ And whereas a Third Act was passed in the Session of Parliament held in the Eighteenth and Nineteenth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter One hundred and thirty-four, intituled An Act to make further Provision for the more speedy and efficient Despatch of Business in the High Court of Chancery, and to vest in the Lord Chancellor the Ground and Buildings of the said Court, situate in Southampton Buildings, Chancery Lane, with Powers of Leasing and Sale thereof : 18 & 19 Vict. c. 134.

‘ And whereas a Fourth Act was passed in the Session of Parliament held in the Twenty-third and Twenty-fourth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter One hundred and forty-nine, intituled An Act to make better Provision for the Relief of Prisoners in contempt of the High Court of Chancery, and Pauper Defendants, and for the more efficient Despatch of Business in the said Court : 23 & 24 Vict. c. 149.

‘ And whereas a Fifth Act was passed in the Session of Parliament held in the Twenty-seventh and Twenty-eighth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Fifteen, intituled An Act for making better and further Provision for the more efficient Despatch of Business in the High Court of Chancery : 27 & 28 Vict. c. 15.

‘ And whereas the Number of Chief Clerks and Junior Clerks now authorized to be appointed to be attached to the Courts of the Master of the Rolls and the Vice-Chancellors respectively has been found insufficient for the due Despatch of the Business transacted by the said Judges when sitting at Chambers, and the Services of Assistant Clerks are required :

‘ And whereas by an Order of the Court of Chancery dated the Twenty-sixth Day of January One thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, made under the first-recited Act, it was ordered that there should be a temporary Junior Clerk in the Chambers of the Vice-Chancellor Sir John Stuart during such Time as the Lord Chancellor should think fit, and by an Order of the Court dated the Seventh Day of November One thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, made under the same Act, the yearly Salary of Two hundred and fifty Pounds was ordered to be paid to William Arthur Marshall as such temporary Junior Clerk :

‘ And whereas by another Order of the Court dated the Third Day of November One thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, made under the Provisions of the first-recited Act, Mr. Henry Francis Church was appointed temporary Chief Clerk in the Chambers of the Vice-Chancellor Sir John Stuart until a permanent Chief Clerk should be appointed by Authority of Parliament, and Mr. William Wright and Mr. Jonathan Pinnington were respectively appointed Junior Clerks in the same Chambers for the Period aforesaid :

Court of Chancery (Officers).

‘ And whereas by another Order of the Court dated the Twenty-seventh Day of November One thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, made under the same Act, it was ordered that there should be paid to the said Mr. Henry Francis Church as such temporary Chief Clerk, and to his Successors, the yearly Salary of One thousand two hundred Pounds, and to the said Mr. William Wright and Mr. Jonathan Pinnington, as Junior Clerks to such Chief Clerk, the yearly Salary of Four hundred Pounds each :

‘ And whereas by another Order of the Court dated the Sixteenth Day of January One thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven Mr. Samuel John Bakewell was appointed additional Junior Clerk in the Chambers of the Master of the Rolls, and by another Order of the Court dated the Thirty-first Day of the same Month the yearly Salary of Four hundred Pounds was ordered to be paid to him as such additional Junior Clerk :

‘ And whereas by divers Orders of the Court made under the first-recited Act Assistant Clerks, at Salaries not exceeding One hundred and fifty Pounds each, have been from Time to Time appointed in the Chambers of the Master of the Rolls and each of the Vice-Chancellors :

‘ And whereas Doubts may be entertained whether the recited Orders, or some of them, were authorized by the first-recited Act, and whether the Junior Clerks appointed by or pursuant to the Power contained in the fifthly-recited Act can hold Office longer than during the Continuance in Office of the Chief Clerk appointed by the same Act, and in consequence of the Increase of administrative Business of the Court of Chancery it is expedient that Powers should be given for enabling the Appointment of additional Chief Clerks, Junior Clerks, and Assistant Clerks, to be attached to the Courts of the Master of the Rolls and Vice-Chancellors respectively, as the State of the Business in such Courts respectively may from Time to Time require, and that certain Appointments already made should be confirmed or made permanent ; and it is also expedient that Power should be given for enabling the Appointment of additional Registrars of the Court, and that Power should be given to alter the Salaries of Officers of the Court :

‘ And whereas it is also expedient that the Jurisdiction in Lunacy of the Lords Justices of the Court of Appeal in Chancery should be vested in them not only when sitting together, but also when sitting separately :’

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows :

2. The first-recited Act extended to authorize the Appointment, &c. of Assistant Clerks.

The Appointment made pursuant to the recited Order of the Twenty-sixth Day of January One thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, and the Appointments made by the recited Orders of the Third Day of November One thousand eight hundred and sixty-six and the Sixteenth Day of January One thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, and the Salaries ordered to be paid by the recited Orders of the Seventh Day of November One thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, and the Twenty-seventh Day of the same Month, and the Thirty-first Day of January One thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, shall be and the same are respectively hereby confirmed, and shall respectively be considered as permanent Appointments duly made, and as Salaries duly ordered to be paid, under the Provisions of this Act; and the Appointments made of Junior Clerks by or pursuant to the Power contained in the fifthly-recited Act shall be and the same Appointments are hereby declared to be permanent and not determinable

Recites that the Undertaking of the Company, which now is and for the most Part has long been open to the Public, consists of Railways exceeding 100 Miles in Length, commencing in London, where they are directly or indirectly connected with all the Railways having Termini in London; that Questions have arisen as to the mutual Rights and Liabilities of the several Undertakings of the Company and Sections of their Railways, and as to the Priorities of their several Capitals, and as to the Validity of certain Leases and Working Agreements, and numerous Proceedings have been taken in the Court of Chancery with reference to the Matters in dispute; that by reason of the Complication of Interests and the large Number of Persons interested, it is expedient that special Powers be conferred upon the said Court; that by reason of the incomplete State of the Company's Undertaking and the undeveloped Condition of its Traffic, the Company have been unable to pay Interest on their Debentures, or to discharge certain other Claims, and the Debts of the Company are large and are constantly increasing; that certain Creditors of the Company have obtained Judgments and issued Executions against the surplus Lands and Rolling Stock of the Company, and Proceedings have also been taken by unpaid Vendors of Land against the Company, and the whole Undertaking of the Company is now in the Hands of Receivers appointed by the Court of Chancery at the Instance of Debenture Holders of the Company; that in order to avoid the Stoppage of the Traffic, Monies in the Hands of the Receivers have, by the Direction of the Court of Chancery, been provisionally applied in making necessary

Payments on Capital Account; that the Company have executed a Deed, dated the 19th Day of January 1867, purporting to assign all their Rolling Stock and other Chattels to Trustees upon trust for the Debenture Holders and all other Creditors of the Company, and the same are now being used for the Purposes of the Line at a Rent payable to such Trustees; that in order to enable the Company to keep the Line open for Traffic and ultimately to meet its Engagements, it is essential that the Provisions herein-after contained should be made, and that during the Period herein-after defined all Suits, Actions, Executions, Attachments, and other Proceedings against the Company and its Property with respect to existing Debts shall be stayed, subject to the Provisions herein-after contained, unless with Leave of the Court of Chancery; that it is expedient that during such limited Period the Management of the Company should be vested, with all necessary Powers, in a Board, on which both the Mortgagees of the Company and the Shareholders should be represented, and that Powers should be given with reference to the Sale and leasing of the superfluous Lands of the Company, and for the Application of the Proceeds thereof, and that it is expedient to facilitate the Consolidation into Debenture Stock of various Classes of Mortgages, and to facilitate the Conversion into Debenture Stock of the Sums due to general Creditors of the Company, and to give Facilities to the Mortgagees and to the Shareholders of the Company for effecting a general Compromise and Readjustment of their respective Rights and Liabilities; that Mortgagees of the Company, representing more than 2,000,000*l.* of Loan Capital, have appointed a Committee for the Protection of their Interests, and the Provisions herein-after contained are assented to by the said Committee, who have concurred with the Directors in the Promotion of this Act.

Certain Parts of 26 & 27 Vict. c. 118. incorporated, § 2.

4. Save as is herein-after provided, from and after the passing of this Act no Actions, Suits, Executions, Attachments, or other Proceedings against the Company, or affecting the Property thereof, except Proceedings against the Company as Carriers of Goods or Passengers, or in respect of Liabilities contracted after the passing of this Act, shall be continued or commenced during the Period herein-after defined and referred to as "the Suspense Period," unless with the Leave of the Court, and upon such Terms as the Court may impose: Provided that the Costs of any Actions, Suits, Executions, Attachments, or other Proceedings against the Company, or affecting the Property thereof, which shall be discontinued pursuant to this Clause, shall be in the Discretion of the Court, and, if allowed, shall be added to the Debt.
