NEW YORK CITY

Conditions of Sale

1. All bids to be PER LOT as numbered in the Catalogue.

2. The highest bidder to be the buyer; in all cases of disputed bids the lot shall be resold, but the Auctioneer will use his judgment as to the good faith of all claims and his decision shall be final. He also reserves the right to reject any fractional or nominal bid which in his judgment may delay or injuriously affect the sale.

3. Buyers to give their names and addresses and to make such cash payments on account as may be required, in default of which the lots purchased to be immediately resold.

4. The lots to be taken away at the buyer's expense and risk within twenty-four hours from the conclusion of the sale, and the remainder of the purchase money to be absolutely paid on or before delivery, in default of which The Anderson Auction Company will not be responsible if the lot or lots be lost, stolen, damaged or destroyed, but they will be left at the sole risk of the purchaser, and subject to storage charges.

5. To prevent inaccuracy in delivery and inconvenience in the settlement of purchases, no lot will be delivered during the sale.

6. All lots will be exposed for public exhibition two or more days before the date of sale, for examination by intending purchasers, and The Anderson Auction Company will not be responsible for the correctness of the description, authenticity, genuineness, or for any defect or fault in or concerning any lot, and make no warranty whatever, but will sell each lot exactly as it is, WITHOUT RECOURSE. But upon receiving before the date of sale expert opinion in writing that any lot is not as represented, The Anderson Auction Company will use every effort to furnish proof to the contrary, and in default of such proof the lot will be sold subject to the declaration of the aforesaid expert, he being liable to the owner or owners thereof for damage or injury occasioned by such declaration.

7. TERMS CASH. Upon failure to comply with the above conditions any sum deposited as part payment shall be forfeited, and all such lots as remain uncleared after twenty-four hours from the conclusion of the sale, will be resold by either private or public sale at such time as The Anderson Auction Company shall determine, without further notice, and if any deficiency arises from such resale it shall be made good by the defaulter at this sale together with all the expenses incurred thereby. This condition shall be without prejudice to the right of The Anderson Auction Company to enforce the contract with the buyer, without such resale.

The Anderson Auction Company will afford every facility for the employment of carriers and packers by the purchasers, but will not be responsible for any damage arising from the acts of such carriers and packers.

Fans

The wing of a bird is said to have suggested a fan to the ancients and their use has been known from the earliest times. Terence refers to the fan two hundred years before Christ and the manuscripts of the mediæval times are embellished with drawings of the fans then in use. Catherine de Medici introduced them into France and Queen Elizabeth into England and since then "Marriage Fans," "Church Fans," "Flirtation Fans," and "Fans à Lorgnette" have served their purpose for the use and adornment of women. The following collection will be found to contain several important examples of the various styles of fans of exquisite workmanship.

488. French Marriage Fan.

Boucher panels of the "Chariot of Venus," painted on silk; the reverse side of ivory silk being painted with garlands of roses in gold, by G. Neite. Exquisitely carved pearl and gold sticks, the fan separated into "lorgnette windows," by scrolls of pearl and gold carving. The handle set with brilliants. Signed G. Neite.

489. Ivory Fan with Silver Inlays.

Exquisitely carved, inlaid with two rows of floral paillettes.

490. Ivory Jeweled Fan.

Ivory fan, one guard thickly inlaid with turquoises.

491. Ivory Fan.

Finely carved pierced sticks set with four irregular oval panels of rose du barri satin.

492. Lilliputian Carved and Pierced Ivory Fan.

Sticks carved in relief with classical landscape, and gilt; the outer sticks gilt filigree over gold.

493. Silk and Carved and Gilded Wood Fan.

Painted with garlands of roses and violets, gilded wood sticks elaborately carved and pierced in scroll and floral decoration.

494. Old Spanish "Flirtation" Fan.

Painted on paper with nymphs dancing, a landscape and flowers on the reverse; carved and pierced pearl sticks with gold decoration set with "flirtation windows;" gilt and enameled ring, the guards ornamented with a mirror set in enamel on one and a topaz on the other.

495. Spanish Wedding Fan.

A copy of Fortuny's "Signing the Marriage Contract," painted on black silk. Smoke pearl sticks set with translucent iridescent panels and chased ornamentation gilded. From the collection of Madame de Rothschild and painted on the occasion of her wedding.

496. French Fan.

Groups of figures on both sides painted on parchment. One of the finest of these groups representing the Court at Versailles is signed André. Pierced pearl sticks inlaid in gold and silver set with groups in gold relief on a background of translucent Mother-of-Pearl. With gold, silver and green tassel.

497. Old Chinese Fan.

Decoration on both sides of a Court Gathering with figures in appliqué, the faces of applied ivory carving. The sticks are made of lacquer and painted with a separate subject on each.

Kien Lung Period, 1736-1795.

498. Carved Wood Fan.

1172. Madonna, Child and St. John.

The mother dressed in the conventional red and blue wears a scarf on her head, looking down at the nude boy on her lap who leans across her left arm to take a cross from the Infant St. John, standing at her side. Landscape with rocky hills fills the background. A pupil of Lorenzo di Credi, Sogliani worked in conjunction with Andrea del Sarto and Sodoma on the high altar in the Duomo at Pisa. In Sixteenth Century Carved Wood Frame. Bought in Florence.

Panel. Height, 33 inches; width, 26 inches.

FRANZ POURBUS, THE YOUNGER

1570-1622

1173. Elizabeth de Vos.

Wearing a Court costume of black richly braided with gold and a large ruff, the handsome young woman is seated in a high back red chair against a red curtain, which is drawn aside sufficiently to show a view of a town on the bank of a river. About her neck below the ruff she wears a double string of large pearls from which hangs a jeweled cross and three strings of pearls. From the Van den Hoop Collection, Amsterdam.

Canvas. Height, 42 inches; width, 34 inches.

(See Illustration.)

No. 1173. FRANZ POURBUS, THE YOUNGER. ELIZABETH DE VOS

FRANCESCO DEI ROSSI (CALLED SALVIATI)
1510-1563

1174. Madonna and Child with St. John and an Angel.

The fair-haired mother in a pink dress with her blue mantle across her knees is seated, the nude boy in her lap. Her head is seen in profile as she turns to an angel seen at her back. The Child turns away from her to take a reed cross from the young St. John at his side.

Salviati who took his name from his patron Cardinal Salviati, was a friend of Vasari while both were pupils of Andrea del Sarto and later of Bandinelli. The frame is Italian carved wood of XVI Century. Bought from Prince Panciatici's Palace in Florence where it was said to have hung for three hundred years.

Canvas. Height, 50 inches; width, 37 1-2 inches.

WILLIAM WISSING
1655-1687

1175. Mary, Princess of Orange, Afterward Queen Consort of William III.

Dressed in a robe of white satin with a mantle of red velvet trimmed with ermine held by jeweled clasps, the Princess is seen at full length seated against a brown brocaded curtain which is half drawn revealing a view of Hampton Court. In her right hand she holds a spray of narcissus, while her left holds her mantle to her breast.

For some time Wissing was assistant to Sir Peter Lely after whose death he became a favorite with English patrons. He painted all the Royal Family. Although he soon found a rival in Sir Godfrey Kneller, he was still extensively employed and after the death of Charles II was appointed principal painter to his successor by whom he was sent to Holland to take the portraits of William and Mary. Other portraits of Queen Mary by him are at Hampton Court and in the National Portrait Gallery, London.

This painting was formerly ascribed to Sir Godfrey Kneller.

Canvas. Height, 60 inches; width, 45 inches.

Rugs, Skins and Carpets

The rugs are exquisitely woven in colors softened and enriched by age. They show the individuality of Oriental work and cannot fail to appeal to rug lovers of artistic discrimination. Aside from their merits as works of art, they are by reason of their rarity rapidly increasing in value.

The inscriptions have been translated; they are proverbs and quotations from the odes of Hafiz, the Gulistan of Saa'di and from the Rubaiyat of Omar Khayyam.

1294. Anatolian Mat. 3 x 1.11 feet.
1295. Anatolian Mat.
Blue centre and mulberry border.
1296. Anatolian Mat.
1297. Shirvan Rug.
Small design on a yellow ground. Length, 5 feet; width, 3.6 feet.
1298. Antique Silk Prayer Rug.
Ivory ground, Mihrab and pendants in rose and gold; border of old Fereghan rose color with rosaceæ. An exquisite soft-toned small rug. Size, 4 x 2.7 feet.
1299. Antique Silk Mat.
Magnificent old red ground, with rare green border, conventionalized floral pattern (slightly repaired). Size, 2.4 x 1.7 feet.
1300. Antique Persian Silk Rug.
Blue ground, deep red border of Ispahan design. The centre well covered with floral pattern. Size, 6 x 4 feet.
1301. Giordez Prayer Rug.
Ivory ground, light blue Mihrab in graceful floral design, supported by two columns. The upper and lower panels are also in light blue. The main border is conventionalized lotus on mulberry ground. Inner and outer border formed of three borders in conventionalized lotus. The inside border a soft Nile green. An unusual decoration on the lower part of the panel is of urns with conventional flowers. The design is very fine.
Size, 5.2 x 4.1.

1302. Persian Silk Kashan Rug.

Conventional floral border in deep mulberry; ivory ground with medallion of conventionalized flowers. The ground of the rug turquoise blue with flowers of heliotrope, deep rose and other colors.

Size, 6.10 x 4.2 feet.

1303. Persian Silk Prayer Rug.

Gold ground, light blue border, Seventeenth Century Giordez design, floral pattern. The prevailing color red.

Size, 4.4 x 5.3 feet.

1304. Antique Persian Silk Prayer Rug.

Gold ground, Mihrab of light blue and pink with hanging mosque lamp ornamented with flowers. Turquoise blue border, with lotus pattern.

Size, 2.5 x 3.11 feet.

1305. Antique Persian Silk Rug.

Soft ivory ground with delicate tracery of lotus in bud, blossom and seed. The borders of soft red. The dominating color of the rug a soft red.

Size, 5.10 x 4.6 feet.

1306. Old Persian Silk Rug.

Unusual ground of plain verdure green, old ivory medallion and borders. Corner pieces of deep rose of floral pattern. A most interesting piece.

Size, 5.11 x 4.2 feet.

1307. Antique Persian Silk Prayer Rug.

Rose ground, ivory Mihrab supported by highly ornate columns from which is suspended a hanging lamp. The borders are of the best Giordez pattern.

Size, 5.6 x 4 feet.

1308. Polonaise Rug of the Seventeenth Century.

Gold ground, lotus border, gold and silver embellishments. Soft coloring. Unusual in character, although the rug is worn (square in centre repaired).

Size, 4.11 x 5.6 feet.

1309. Antique Giordez Prayer Rug.

Soft plain Nile green centre, Mihrab of ivory, the upper and lower panels of dark blue with maroon border. Outer border light blue of Giordez pattern. An unusual rug, the plain Nile green rarely found.

Size, 4.5 x 6 feet.

1310. Antique Persian Silk Rug.

Red ground with cream medallion and corners. Seventeenth Century floral pattern. The principal border of cream color with very unusual floral treatment. Size, 11.10 x 8.10 feet.

1311. Antique Turkestan Rug.

Gold ground with silver border. The prevailing colors of the border are light blue and shaded green. The field is of gold woven with conventional flowers in dark blue, orange and shades of green. A very interesting and most unusual carpet.

Size, 11.2 x 5.10 feet.

1312. Old Persian Silk Rug.

Lustrous gold ground, border of lotus leaf and bud on a gold ground. The centre contains a large urn from which springs a lotus plant, most delicately drawn with buds, leaves and full-blown flowers and with butterflies, emblem of Eternity. Simple but unique treatment of border; altogether a most unusual rug.

Size, 6.2 x 4 feet.

1313. Antique Persian Silk Carpet.

Ivory ground with border of Ispahan lotus pattern showing traces of Chinese influence. The colors are soft heliotrope and rose. Four lotus flowers in full bloom form the central medallion. These are outlined in old red. The entire ground is covered with a graceful floral pattern combined with figures of boars, cows and other animals. Unusually heavy quality.

Size, 11.2 x 8.4 feet.

1314. Magnificent Persian Silk Carpet.

Rich Pompeian red ground with cream medallion and border. Floral design of lotus, flowers and buds, and the Tree of Life forming a splendid example of Persian art.

Size, 15.2 x 11.11 feet.

1315. Magnificent Silk Persian Carpet.

Rich Pompeian red ground. The centre medallion represents the Assassination of a Shah on an ivory ground; border and Mihrab are of light rose, the latter containing lions and other wild animals. The field is well covered by a floral pattern.

Size, 12.6 x 9.9 feet.

1316. Antique Persian Silk Carpet.

A panel of ivory ground contains an ornamental vase from which spring flowering trees. The corners are blue with flowering branches. At the base are three portrait panels containing groups of figures, evidently portraits of important personages splendidly executed in various colors. The prevailing tone of the rug is blue. Above the main panel is one of ivory in fanciful design on each side of which is a hanging lamp with pendants. A very unique and rare rug.

Size, 12 x 8.8 feet.

1317. Antique Ispahan Fragment.

Panel ground with blue ornamentation. A very rare piece.

Size, 2.2 x 5.2 feet.

1318. Antique Persian Silk Rug.

Ivory ground, Ardebil medallion, gracefully drawn flowers in blue and shaded reds. Corner piece a replica of the centre in contrasting colors. The border of soft iridescent old rose. With cartouches of old ivory having inscriptions in dark blue. Quotation from Hafiz, mostly in praise of wine, in cartouches around the border, beginning with "Made by special order:"

"I care not if I sell my coat for wine, hoping that the Gods will send me a fair maiden in whose blushes I can see the beauty of wine. Why should I burn with desire far distant from wine and a beautiful maiden. Let us drink the cup in season for without wine and music we have no pleasure." Says Hafiz, "If we do not enjoy them we are like the larks quiet in the season of roses."

Size, 6 x 4.4 feet.

1319. Antique Persian Silk Picture Rug.

Light blue ground, dark blue border: The base of the rug contains a design of a palace, on each side of the entrance to which are rampant lions resting one paw on columns. A cypress tree stands to left and right of the house. Above is a rock overhanging the water and on the rock is a large bear engaged in combat with an alligator rising from the water. Seated in the branches of a tree springing from the rock are three grotesque figures engaged in eating fruit. Above a leopard and an orange-colored tiger prepare to spring on a Bird of Paradise ready to take flight.

Size, 8.6 x 5.10 feet.

1320. Royal Ispahan Rug, Sixteenth Century.

Three borders enclose life-like animals in attitudes of flight, pursuit and combat, typifying the strife towards Eternal Life. The field of the rug is formed of panels with a variety of patterns of birds, animals and fish, conventionalized on a ruby ground of uncommon shade, the whole design being one of mythological significance, showing Chinese influence.

The general motif of beasts and birds of prey with their victims suggests the struggle between right and wrong, light and darkness, the chief motif being the lotus, emblem of Eternity. The prevailing tone of the rug is old ruby color, the narrow outer border being of rose color, the inner border of old pink; both decorated with birds and animals. The principal border is of old Persian blue with trees, flowers, birds and animals. A Museum Piece. Size, 13.5 x 11.9 feet.

(See Illustration.)

1321. Fine Antique Persian Silk Rug.

Ten borders, the chief one of ox-blood red, the secondary border of turquoise blue. The ground of the rug a dull ivory containing six panels. Each of these panels is a rug design in itself; the two upper are of fanciful floral decoration, another contains the Tree of Life, another a coat-of-arms and royal emblems, another a rug with medallion and another a prayer rug. Blue columns support a rich red Mihrab from the centre of which is suspended a lamp. Size, 6.2 x 4.5 feet.

1322. Superb Persian Fish Pattern Silk Rug.

Rich red ground. The ground of the main border and centre medallion is a very dark blue, with alternating lotus blossom and head-dress designs surrounded by elephants' heads and fishes. Running from the centre medallion are two highly ornamental columns with a decoration of heads, on each side of which are beautifully modeled peacocks from which run the old Persian leaf on which are ornamental gold fishes.

The leaves springing from the centre medallion also contain fishes in blue. From the base of the columns spring branches to which cling apes in conflict with mythical animals. The various branches terminate in the heads of dragons, fish, birds, wild boar and other animals. Size, 10 x 6.3 feet.

No. 1320. XVIIth CENTURY, ROYAL ISPAHAN RUG

1323. Antique Persian Silk Hunting Carpet.

Representing a conflict between the Powers of Light and Darkness or Good and Evil. Figures of cows attacked by tigers, and other similar designs, symbolizing domesticity in conflict with evil. The wide border of magnificent red contains large cartouches of ivory with inscriptions, flanked by two borders of deep ivory of conventional floral pattern. The inner border has red ground with cartouches of gold color with inscriptions. The centre a deep ivory ground in harmonious colors of soft red, turquoise blue and gold. The inscriptions in Arabic and Persian are quotations from Saa'di in praise of the King, including:

"May the state of my people be as great as that of King Solomon, and spread as widely as did the branches of King David," said the Caliph Mansour, the glory of his house. (Mansour was second Caliph of the House of Habbas.)

"The dancer of the party is like a servant, who does menial offices."

"A friend who arrives last may be more welcome than he who comes first (or than he who invites himself.)" [Repeated.]

"God knows how I enjoy your presence, for your coming is as news of the coming of the spring (or the coming of the roses)." [Repeated.]

Size, 14.6 x 10.8 feet.

1324. Old Persian Silk Rug.

Dull red ground, soft blue border, floral medallion on cream ground. The ground well covered with floral decoration.

Size, 5.11 x 4.6 feet.

1325. Antique Persian Silk Kashan Rug.

Ivory ground, turquoise blue Ispahan border with floral heliotrope decoration. The field with animal design.

A very unusual piece, the design being of the Shah Habbas Period (towards the end of the XVIth Century) done in only a few colors, the prevailing tone being heliotrope, showing a distinct Chinese influence, with inscriptions which show this to be a "gift rug." The main legend reads:

"I hope you will enjoy this rug as you enjoy the buds of the springtime (or the time of roses). May you, your family and yet unborn children enjoy it. Milardi." (Probably a gift at a birth, the final word reading "a birth-gift.")

Size, 7.1 x 4.3 feet.

1326. Antique Persian Silk Rug.

Ivory ground medallion; pendant and corner pieces of heliotrope. Border rich ivory, the heliotrope decorations outlined with black. Floral design.

6.3 x 4 feet.

1327. Antique Persian Silk Kashan Tomb Rug.

Deep ivory ground, seal brown border with conventional lotus pattern in heliotrope. The inner and outer borders fawn color. The field ornamented with a large Urn from which spring two flowering trees bearing also ripe pomegranates. On either side of the Urn are two trees with broken trunks, symbolical of the lives prematurely ended. The Mihrab of heliotrope. The prevailing colors heliotrope and soft sage green. An interesting feature is the introduction of large orchids of heliotrope color into the design.

Size, 10 x 5 feet.

1328. Antique Persian Silk Carpet, Sehna-Kurdestan Weave.

Five borders of alternate colors in Khorassan design. Inside is an ivory border four inches wide, containing inscriptions all around. The centre of the rug is dark blue covered with Persian floral pattern in rose, turquoise blue and ivory. The weave of this rug is very rare.

The proverbs repeated around the border are:

"A bad friend will be unable to answer the questions put to him in Eternity."

"The Speech of Yusuf is sweeter than the sayings of Religion."

"Your presence is as dear to my heart, as was the presence of Aiyaz to Sultan Mahmoud." (Repeated.)

Size, 11.4 x 8.6 feet.

1329. Antique Persian Silk Carpet.

From the center of the rug on a light rose ground range a series of light blue cartouches with inscriptions, intersected by two similar bands across the width of the rug, thus dividing it into six sections. Each of these sections contain four panels of highly artistic design showing cartouches and floral patterns. The border is dark rose with light blue cartouches with inscriptions and floral patterns. The inscriptions are as follows:

Centre lines: "What says the lark to the rose in the garden?" He said: "That you with your rosy cheeks should bloom. Why weary of life when everything around you is beautiful?"

(The small lozenges repeat: "May you enjoy it,"—meaning the rug.)

Cross line: "I love your presence, therefore you are welcome. May a thousand lives be sacrificed at your every step!" (Repeated twice.)

Border: "What says the rose to the lark?" He says: "He whose deeds are as open as the day has no anxieties." (Repeated.)

Lozenges: "The man whose hat is of silk both inside and out can take it off, he is honest, and has nothing to conceal."

Size, 12.2 x 9 feet.

Conditions of Sale

1. All bids to be per Lot as numbered in the Catalogue.
2. The highest bidder to be the buyer; in all cases of disputed bids the lot shall be resold, but the Auctioneer will use his judgment as to the good faith of all claims and his decision shall be final.
3. Buyers to give their names and addresses and to make such cash payments on accounts as may be required, in default of which the lots purchased to be immediately resold.
4. Goods bought to be removed at the close of each sale. If not so removed they will be at the sole risk of the purchaser, and subject to storage charges, and this Company will not be responsible if such goods are lost, stolen, damaged or destroyed.
5. TERMS CASH. If accounts are not paid at the conclusion of each Sale, or, in the case of absent buyers, when bills are rendered, this Company reserves the right to recatalogue the goods for immediate sale without notice to the defaulting buyer, and all costs of such resale will be charged to the defaulter. This condition is without prejudice to the rights of the Company to enforce the sale contract and collect the amount due without such resale at its own option. Unsettled accounts are subject to interest at the rate of six per cent. per annum.
6. All books are sold as catalogued, and are assumed to be in good second-hand condition. If material defects are found, not mentioned in the catalogue, the lot may be returned. Notice of such defects must be given promptly and the goods returned within ten days from the date of the sale. No exceptions will be made to this rule. Magazines and other periodicals and all miscellaneous books arranged in parcels are sold as they are without recourse.
7. Autograph Letters, Documents, Manuscripts and Bindings are sold as they are without recourse. The utmost care is taken to authenticate and correctly describe items of this character, but this Company will not be responsible for errors, omissions, or defects of any kind.
8. Bids. We make no charge for executing orders for our customers. We use all bids competitively and buy at the lowest price permitted by other bids.

* Only 250 copies privately printed for distribution among his friends. The author in his foreword says: ". . . The studies for these papers were begun twenty-five years ago. Every thought in them has been thought (and accepted as unassailable truth) by millions upon millions of men—and concealed, kept private. Why did they not speak out? Because they dreaded (and could not bear) the disapproval of people around them. Why have I not published? The same reason has restrained me, I think. I can find no other."

This copy was presented by the Author to a friend who gave it to Miss Grigsby.

Accompanying the volume is a one-page autograph letter by Clemens, written from Elmira, N. Y., September 19, 1903, mentioning "those two sittings," and signed "S. L. Clemens."

Dear Sir:

On receiving your note of 30th Nov., requesting autographs for the Sanitary Fair of Cincinnati, I . . . find only three which I should be justified in giving away . . . I regret to make so poor a contribution, but have really nothing else that I could lend; for I set but little value on autographs, and generally give away immediately such as contain nothing private and personal.

Very respectfully yours,
NATH'L HAWTHORNE.

Sunnyside, May 29, 1853.

My dear Sir:

I feel properly sensible of the honor and kindness done me by the Shakespeare Society in electing me an honorary member; and will take occasion, as you suggest, to attend and inscribe my name on the Record Book.

I must forewarn you, however, that I am likely to prove a very delinquent member, as I am growing more and more recluse in my habits and slow to respond to the claims of society. All kinds of public and society dinners I avoid. I am no longer clubable. Quiet life in the country has been the ruin of me.

With this premonition I subscribe myself, with great regard,

Yours faithfully,

WASHINGTON IRVING.

Poems of the English Roadside, with Poems and Ballads.
FIRST EDITION. 12mo, cloth, uncut. London. 1862

* Accompanying the volume is a very interesting 3-page autograph letter, signed in full "George Meredith," to T. B. Mosher, the American publisher, regarding his (Mosher's) edition of "Modern Love."
Written March 24th, 1892, the writer says: . . . "I have received the copy of Modern Love, & my previous letter has come to your hands, I may suppose. Your edition of the work is most creditable.
In England the sumptuous edition is devoted only to very favourite writers. I cannot say it is generally an example of refinement. One has to look to France for an equal to your production; & there seems a probability that Americans will rival the French in the issues of books that honour their stands." The letter is in original envelope, addressed in Meredith's autograph.

“Semele, lying in the arms of Jove,
In madness of too curious womanhood,
Or in a woman’s perilous vanity,
Looked up into his face, and murmured thus—“Thou visitest me secret from the sky,
But as an earthly lover; yet I know
Thou art a god descending in deep night
Down from the flashing silence of the stars,
Immortal for the touch of mortal lips.
As thou art god, beloved, swear to me
One thing that I shall ask thee to fulfill.”
Then answered glorious Jove, in human guise, &c.

* "I have received some time ago through our friend, Miss Taylor, a book of yours. But that was by no means my first introduction to your name. The same book had stood already on my shelves; I had read articles of yours in the Academy; and by a piece of constructive criticism (which I trust was sound) had arrived at the conclusion that you were a good writer. Since then I have seen your beautiful verses to your wife . . . I had and I have to thank you for the intimate loyalty you have shown to myself; for the eager welcome that you give to what is good . . . You are still young and you may live to do much. The little artificial popularity of style in England tends, I think, to die out; the British pig returns to his vomit—to his true love, the love of the styleless, of the shapeless . . ."

A Remarkable Collection of the Writings of Algernon Charles Swinburne, Mainly First Editions in Original Cloth or Wrappers

1061. SWINBURNE (A. C.). Dead Love. FIRST EDITION. 8vo, brick-red wrappers, with title-page reproduced on front cover.
London. 1864

* This story has never been reprinted. Fine copy of a very rare and interesting Swinburne item.

1062. SWINBURNE (A. C.). The Children of the Chapel, a Tale. By the author of "Mark Dennis." FIRST EDITION. 12mo, original cloth (writing on title, the upper blank part of the title cut off and later repaired).
London. 1864

* SCARCE. The interludes in verse were by Swinburne: the tale was by his cousin, Miss Gordon.

1063. SWINBURNE (A. C.). Atalanta in Calydon. A Tragedy. FIRST EDITION. Small 4to, original white cloth gilt, uncut.
London. 1865

* SCARCE. The gilt designs on the front cover are by D. G. Rossetti. It is stated that only 100 copies of the FIRST EDITION were printed.

1064. SWINBURNE (A. C.). Chastelard; A Tragedy. FIRST EDITION. 12mo, original cloth, uncut.
London. 1865

1065. [SWINBURNE (A. C.)]. Rossetti (W. M.). Swinburne's Poems and Ballads. A Criticism. FIRST EDITION. 12mo, gray levant morocco gilt, gilt-tooled design on sides, doublure of similar morocco around borders, gilt top, uncut, (slight water stains on sides and edges).
London. 1866

1066. SWINBURNE (A. C.). Cleopatra. FIRST EDITION.
Square 12mo, original wrappers. Lond. 1866

* RARE. This poem has been entirely dropped by its author, and is not included in any of his collected volumes.

1067. SWINBURNE (A. C.). Notes on Poems and Reviews
FIRST EDITION. 8vo, stitched, as issued, (slightly stained).
Lond. 1866

1068. SWINBURNE (A. C.). Poems and Ballads. FIRST EDITION. 12mo, original cloth, uncut. Lond.: Hotten, 1866

* FIRST EDITION with Hotten's Title-page.

1069. SWINBURNE (A. C.). Laus Veneris, THE EX-TREMELY RARE FIRST EDITION. 8vo, original sheets, uncut and unstitched. Lond. 1866.

* A very few copies were printed and circulated privately among friends of the author. In the 1866 edition of "Poems and Ballads," this work was included. Mr. Thomas J. Wise, Swinburne's best biographer, possesses the original manuscript of "Laus Veneris." There is no copy of this work in the British Museum.

1070. SWINBURNE (A. C.). Unpublished Verses. FIRST EDITION. 12mo, 2pp. leaflet, as issued. Lond. [1866]

1071. SWINBURNE (A. C.). Dolores. FIRST SEPARATE
EDITION. 12mo, original printed wrappers. Lond.: Hotten, 1867

* VERY SCARCE. Reserved for private circulation only. The poem had previously appeared in "Poems and Ballads," Lond. 1866.

1072. SWINBURNE (A. C.). A Song of Italy. 16mo, wrappers (name on cover; Bookseller's stamp on title).
Bost. 1867

1073. SWINBURNE (A. C.). A Song of Italy. FIRST EDITION. 12mo, original cloth, uncut. (Library copy, with stamp). Lond. 1867

1074. SWINBURNE (A. C.). Notes on the Royal Academy Exhibition, 1868. Part I. by W. M. Rossetti. Part II.
by Algernon Charles Swinburne. 8vo, original wrappers.
Lond. [1868]

1075. SWINBURNE (A. C.). Siena. FIRST EDITION IN PAMPHLET FORM. 16mo, original glazed paper covers (slightly spotted on front cover with name thereon, and the lower margins of pages 11 to 16 cut away). Phila. 1868

* Exceedingly rare, and apparently the FIRST EDITION of the poem. This pamphlet is not mentioned in Wise's Bibliography. The earliest issue there described is one printed in London, by Hotten, in the same year, of which Wise says: "Siena first appeared in Lippincott's Magazine, for June 1868, pp. 622-629, and was reprinted in pamphlet form simply in order to secure the English copyright. Mr. Swinburne has informed me that only six copies were printed, one of which was sold, and the others distributed privately. Of these six copies four only can now be traced. The pamphlet, therefore is one of the rarest of the first editions of Mr. Swinburne's writings." The Preface of the present pamphlet is, however, dated "Philadelphia, June 1st, 1868," and its appearance was therefore probably almost simultaneous with that of the June Lippincott. It would therefore take precedence of the London pamphlet which was reprinted from that issue of the magazine.

1076. SWINBURNE (A. C.). Siena. 12mo, orange colored wrappers. Lond. 1868

* Probably one of the first published (second or spurious) editions. It was issued by J. Camden Hotten, who purchased the only copy of the genuine first issue that was sold, the other five (only six were issued) having been presented to the author's friends.

1077. SWINBURNE (A. C.). William Blake. A Critical Essay. Illustrations from Blake's Designs in facsimile, Colored and Plain. FIRST EDITION. 8vo, light blue cloth gilt, uncut. Lond. 1868

1078. SWINBURNE (A. C.). Ode on the Proclamation of the French Republic, September 4, 1870. FIRST EDITION. 8vo, printed wrappers, as issued, uncut. Lond. 1870

* This outspoken utterance of Swinburne's was included in the FIRST EDITION of "Songs of Two Nations" published in 1875. It has never been reprinted in separate form.

1079. SWINBURNE (A. C.). Songs before Sunrise. FIRST EDITION. 12mo, handsomely bound in dark blue levant morocco, gilt panelled back of leaves and stars, sides tooled in a sémis of small stars surrounded with fillets and leaves with gilt crescents in corners, wide inside cover borders, gilt over uncut edges, by The DOVES BINDERY, signed "The Doves Bindery, 18c.-s.99." Lond. 1871

(See Reproduction.)

1080. SWINBURNE (A. C.). Pleasure: a Holiday Book of Prose and Verse. Contains contributions from Tom Hood, Charles Kingsley, &c.; and the First Appearance of "Tristram and Iseult," by A. C. Swinburne. Illustrations. 12mo, decorative boards, gilt edges (rubbed). Lond. 1871

SWINBURNE. SONGS BEFORE SUNRISE.
Bound at the Doves Bindery.
No. 1079

1081. SWINBURNE (A. C.). Songs before Sunrise. FIRST EDITION. 12mo, original cloth, uncut. Lond. 1871

1082. SWINBURNE (A. C.). Under the Microscope. FIRST EDITION. 12mo, original printed wrappers as issued, uncut. Lond. 1872

* Contains the Rare Leaf of Errata at the end.

1083. SWINBURNE (A. C.). Le Tombeau de Théophile Gautier. Etched portrait. Small 4to, original wrappers, uncut. Paris, 1873

* Contains verses upon the death of Gautier by Hugo, Jules Claretie, John Payne, Swinburne, and others.

1084. SWINBURNE (A. C.). Bothwell; A Tragedy. FIRST EDITION. Thick, 12mo, original cloth, uncut. Lond. 1874

1085. SWINBURNE (A. C.). Auguste Vacquerie. FIRST EDITION. 8vo, original wrappers, uncut. Paris, 1875

* VERY SCARCE. Originally published in the "Examiner," but never separately printed in England. Issued in brick-red paper wrappers, with the title page reproduced on front cover.

1086. SWINBURNE (A. C.). George Chapman. A Critical Essay. FIRST EDITION. 12mo, original cloth, uncut. Lond. 1875

1087. SWINBURNE (A. C.). Songs of Two Nations. FIRST EDITION. 12mo, original cloth, uncut (somewhat rubbed). Lond. 1875

1088. SWINBURNE (A. C.). Bothwell. A Tragedy. 2 vols. 12mo, original cloth, uncut. Lond. 1875

* Copies of Bothwell in two volumes as above are exceedingly uncommon. They are made up of the sheets of the original one volume edition issued in 1874, and are considered by collectors generally much more valuable than the actual FIRST EDITION. Contains the eight preliminary pages including the Sonnet to Victor Hugo in French.

1089. SWINBURNE (A. C.). Essays and Studies. FIRST EDITION. 12mo, original cloth, uncut. (Circulating Library Copy; somewhat rubbed and blistered). Lond. 1875

1092. SWINBURNE (A. C.). Erechtheus. A Tragedy. FIRST EDITION. 12mo, original cloth, uncut. Lond. 1876

* With bookplate of Seward Brice.

1093. [SWINBURNE (A. C.)]. The Tatler, Vol. II. August 25th, to December 29th, 1877. Contains "A Year's Letters," by Mrs. Horace Manners [A. C. S.]. A Novel in Thirty Chapters, told in the form of Letters. The whole preceded by a prefatory letter "To the Author." Bound in 1 vol. 4to, boards morocco back, uncut.

* Buried in Chapter XX. (page 326 of The Tatler) is a set of 6 verses by Swinburne, not printed elsewhere, the first verse of which follows,—

Fair face, fair head, and goodly gentle brows,

Sweet beyond speech and bitter beyond measure:

A thing to make all vile things virtuous,

Fill fear with force and pain's heart's blood with pleasure;

Unto thy love my love takes flight, and flying

Between thy lips alights and falls to sighing.

1094. SWINBURNE (A. C.). A Note on Charlotte Brontë. FIRST EDITION. 12mo, "Reckett's Blue" cloth, uncut.

Lond. 1877

* Fine Copy of the Genuine FIRST EDITION, First Issue.

1201. TERRY (ELLEN). A. L. S. (with Initials) to T. B. Mosher, Portland, Maine. 4pp. 12mo. Dated Hotel Vendome, Boston, Thursday, 23d April [n. d.].

Dear Mr. Mosher:—

Won't you come to the play to-morrow? And afterwards come to my room and let me see you? You'll like "Waterloo,"—be interested in Lawrence Irving's "Godefroi and Yolande," and you'll LOVE "Don Quixote."

My Star is tired out and I fear will never dance again. "Heaven take my soul and England keep my bones." Perhaps gentle England will patch me up again. It is so difficult to get dead. Some are born fools. Upon reflection Portland is hours and hours away from this place — but surely you said something once about coming to Boston when we were there. I think I'll telegraph to Portland, Maine, and perhaps then find out you are in Boston."

Yours, E. T.

1202. THOMSON (JAMES). The Original Manuscript of "The Fire that Filled my Heart of Old." (1864). 20 lines. 8vo.
