

This is a digital drawing of the Campanile in a Modern-minimalism and subtractive way. My work is based on the photo of the Campanile which you can find inside the hackthebells.org's image library. I wanted to make a work less detailed but in the same time giving the same feeling. Like Robert Browning and after him Ludwig Mies van der Rohe said: "Less is More".

The work is called "Colors of the Campanile" and was completed at 26.8.2014 .

The size of the work is 38.72 x 25.92 cm.
