CROCUS

Every gardener loves these courageous little flowers which appear early in March. Tightly folded buds develop into vivid cup-shaped blossoms above the prettily striped foliage. Planted in small clumps they resemble a collection of quaint old-fashioned bouquets. Planted in a scattered fashion, they dramatize a lawn. They may be used for edgings, or massed under trees and shrubs. The Crocus lend a gala effect and are always a perennial delight.

The Hollanders plant literally carpets of Muscari in their gardens, and combine them with the Daffodils, the Hyacinths, and the Early Tulips with equal effectiveness. Muscari should be planted thickly, spacing the bulbs 3 inches apart.

HOLLAND GROWN HYACINTHS

There is nothing shy about the Hyacinths in the early spring. Hyacinths are of bold strong colors, intense fragrance, firm flower substance and of uniform height; a marvel of composition. One of Nature's most lavish gifts, they are an integral part of the spring gardens. Few displays can equal their brilliance, few are more welcome after the long winter months. Hyacinths bloom from late March through April, depending on locality. The plants grow from 9 to 12 inches tall, and should be spaced about 9 inches apart. Plant in colonies of a single color for the best effect.

Flowerfield offers large 17 to 18 cm. bulbs packed to our special order in Holland. Therefore, we cannot open bags for smaller quantities. Bulbs are sold only in units as listed.

NOTE: There is a difference of ten days in the blooming period of certain varieties. We have grouped these under separate headings.

A SCENE PHOTOGRAPHED AT KEUKENHOF, THE DISPLAY GARDENS OF HOLLAND

Notice the way the Hyacinths are planted in masses and drifts instead of the ordinary straight rows and rigidly confined beds. Also notice, that they are planted in clumps of a single color. These same colors are repeated here and there again to achieve rhythm and balance. A superb flower "painting" vastly effective, has been composed, using the bold, strong colors of the Spring blooming Hyacinths.

Flowerfield's

FLOWERFIELD sells only Holland grown Tulips, supplied through the best growers there. We test every variety for a year or two beforehand and select only the most significant ones of each type and color. This means not only the newer introductions but also many of the older varieties that have not yet been superseded. Further, sample plantings are made from each year's shipments of every variety offered. As a result, we respect and endorse the high standards of the Holland growers in producing healthy, true-to-name and beautiful Tulips. A visit to the growing fields of Holland makes one realize how well they have mastered their art.

Bulbs are packed to our special order in Holland. We cannot open bags for smaller quantities.

For earliest spring bloom, we especially recommend: Single Early Tulip BELLONA, a recent introduction of great merit. The large sweetly scented oval-shaped blooms are a deep golden yellow of pure clear color. Borne on strong sturdy stems, the flowers have unusually good keeping qualities. Planted in large clumps and drifts the effect is superb. Height 18 inches. Illustrated. Good for forcing. 10 for $1.35, 25 for $3.00

HOLLAND GROWN TULIPS

Tulips bloom from early April to mid-May, according to type. They may be grown in full sun or open shade. In planting, space them 8 to 12 inches apart, preferably in groups of ten or more bulbs of a single color (avoid single rows). For harmony and balance, repeat clumps of the same color in the planting.

BOTANICAL TULIPS

The Tulips of Early April

FOSTERIANA, RED EMPEROR. A huge and magnificent satiny red Tulip with long pointed petals measuring at least 4 inches long. When fully open, displays a fascinating yellow base etched with black. The flowers, carried on strong 18-inch stems, are in bloom almost 3 weeks ahead of the Darwin types, consequently should be planted apart from the other Tulips, preferably near the Daffodils. "Fabulous" describes RED EMPEROR.

Top size bulbs, 10 for $1.35, 25 for $3.00

KAUFMANNIANA HYBRIDS

Earliest to bloom, the attractive starlike flowers nestle in the broad and spreading leaves that are distinctively striped and mottled with purple. These are unique and beautiful Tulips, especially in the rock garden type of planting as they may be left undisturbed to multiply by themselves.

Kaufmanniana, GAITY. White, striped red on the outside. Height 6 inches. "The Water Lily Tulip." 10 for $2.35

Kaufmanniana, SWEELINCK. Bright yellow throughout. Height 8 inches. Striped leaves. Charming flower. 10 for $3.00

Kaufmanniana hybrida, VIVALDI. Pale buff with a crimson zone. Taller growing; 12 inches, gracefully formed. 10 for $2.35

Kaufmanniana, RAINBOW MIXTURE. Various colors of red, yellow, white, pink, many unnamed seedlings. 10 for $1.65

SINGLE EARLY TULIPS

BELLONA. Illustrated on opposite page. 10 for $1.35, 25 for $3.00

GENERAL DE WET. Softly tinted orange suffused with gold; garden effect, a warm apricot. A delightfully fragrant Tulip, it is superb for bedding because of its uniform height (15 inches) and prolonged period of bloom, starting in mid-April.

10 for $1.25, 25 for $2.50, 100 for $9.25
(Purple Pansies are charming with the above)

PINK BEAUTY. Deep rose-pink, flushed with white, large white base, this is a lovely bedding or clump planting Tulip for that intimate portion of the garden. In bloom in mid-April. Height 12 inches. 10 for $1.50, 25 for $3.25

TRIUMPH TULIPS

In bloom ten days ahead of the Darwin Tulips, but with flowers just as large, this strain, because of the shorter stems, can withstand the strong winds prevalent in some areas of the garden. They are also suited for forcing.

KANSAS. Large, pure white globular flowers with a gleaming yellow base. 22 inches tall. 10 for $1.00, 25 for $2.15

TELESCOPIUM. Dark rose-violet, beautiful with Azaleas of that color. A sturdy garden variety and an excellent forcer. Height 22 inches. 10 for $1.00, 25 for $2.15

KAUFMANNIANA TULIPS IN A NATURAL PLANTING

BREEDER TULIPS

*Similar in growth to the Darwin Tulips and blooming at the same time, the Breeder Tulips are distinguished by the muted and blended colors of the flowers. # BULBS for Indoor Growing

AMARYLLIS Royal Dutch Hybrids

FLOWERFIELD proudly offers the new, rare and internationally famous Warmenhoven strain of Royal Dutch Hybrid Amaryllis, sent to us direct from the Warmenhoven greenhouses in Holland. A departure from the older types, they are truly magnificent in flower form. Measuring at least 6 inches across, they are broad and flattened rather than bell-shaped. The colors are brilliant and clear, and somewhat luminous because of a delicate crepe-like surface. The tall strong stalks hold 4 to 5 blooms aloft; some as high as 40 inches, according to the individual characteristics of a variety (they vary not only in color and height, but also blooming period).

Bulbs may be used over again for many years (after the usual resting period), plant in a 7-inch pot, with the "neck" protruding.

All the Royal Dutch Hybrid Amaryllis will have their roots attached, having been treated for early bloom. We offer two sizes; both will bloom this year, the top size however, will produce at least two blooming stalks. In general, they are all about four or more years old. November delivery.

Flowerfield's IRIS

The Iris of Japan

A FLOWERFIELD SPECIALTY SINCE 1903

FLOWERFIELD has been known for many years as a specialist in the development and culture of the Japanese Iris which are more properly identified as "Iris Kaempferi." We have enjoyed the reputation of being a reliable source of these plants.

Our own collection was first established by John Lewis Childs with varieties selected in Japan and imported from there in 1895. The nucleus of this original collection was made up of the classic Matsudaira varieties of Hana-Shobu (Japanese Iris) which had been confined to the Imperial court. These plants were brought to Flowerfield where they have been in continued cultivation. Besides these, scores of seedlings were developed and introduced to the gardening world. Flowerfield has cultivated this valuable flower for over 58 years with the utmost care and vigilance in preserving trueness of variety.

BANGKOK. One of the earliest to bloom, this lovely delphinium-blue flower has perfect form as well as being exceptionally long lasting. The falls, overlapping and arching, are waved and creped. The narrow, pointed standards are held vertically and are of the same blue. Tall growing, 42 inches high, it is an excellent mixed border plant.

Each $1.00, Three $2.75, Doz. $8.00

BETTY F. HOLMES. The most luxuriant flower of all the white varieties. The falls, broad and overlapping, are held somewhat horizontally. The standards, deeply waved, are equally large in size. The styles and style branches form a high-rounded cluster in the crown. Tall growing, well over 4 feet high, it attracts immediate attention in the garden. This variety combined with the deep red-purple Koki No Iro and tall white Madonna Lilies make a stunning picture. Illustrated.

Each $1.50, Three $4.25

BLUE OPAL. Lavender-blue with a blue overcast. A double flower with standards and falls alike in size, each marked with a bright blue band around the yellow signal patches. Styles are white tipped with rose; bloom has an opalescent effect. A variety just recently released. Each $1.00, Three $2.75, Doz. $8.00

DIMOONEATHE. Flowerfield origination. This stunning variety of triple formation opens Delphinium-blue, gradually paling to white. The falls, standards and styles are large and ruffled. Accessory style branches form an airy crown on the bloom. Midseason, it is a beautiful companion plant to the Madonna Lilies.

Each $2.75, Three $7.50

HATSU SHIMA. Very early blooming and pure white throughout. A single flower of triangular form, the falls are separate and held horizontally. Standards are small and compact. The styles, closely set on the falls, almost cover the yellow signal patches. A good sturdy grower, tall growing and erect, an excellent variety for massing.

Each $1.00, Three $2.75, Doz. $8.00

HENDERSONI. Deep red-purple medium-sized flowers with standards and falls neatly overlapping and alike in size. Bright yellow signal patches and white styles create a pleasing contrast. Tall growing, 42 inches high, it blooms in early midseason, one of the earliest of the double "reds" to show color.

Each $1.00, Three $2.75, Doz. $8.00

HOWAKAN. Mauve-rose veining on white, with the areas in between also splashed with the same color which disappears at the edges leaving a fine border of white. The falls, held horizontally, are beautifully waved and creped. Standards of deep mauve are pointed and narrow, with styles of white tipped mauve. Garden effect is pale rose. This variety is early blooming and like Hatsu Shima, has an unusually prolonged period of bloom. Height 36 inches.

Each $1.50, Three $4.25

LA FAVORITE. A double large white bloom of imposing beauty. Both the falls and standards are held horizontally with edges deeply ruffled. Pale blue veins radiate from the yellow signal patches, enhancing the whiteness of the bloom. White styles veiled with blue are firm textured and upright on the crown. Height 45 inches. Bloom in early midseason.

Three $2.00, Doz. $6.75

CULTURE is uncomplicated. The IRIS KAEMPFERI is slower growing and therefore compact; division every third or fourth year is sufficient. Contrary to general belief, they do not require a damp location; this would hinder good drainage which is more essential. However, a good soaking prior to and during the blooming period will result in larger flowers. A good rich garden loam, on the acid side, rather than a soil with too much lime is better. A liberal addition of peat moss is beneficial. IRIS KAEMPFERI needs full sun although it tolerates some open shade.

FURTHER CULTURAL INSTRUCTIONS ENCLOSED WITH SHIPMENTS.

Flowerfield's IRIS KAEMPFERI

IZUMI GAWA. Late to bloom, this pretty flower has great appeal. The circular, firm textured falls and standards are alike in size (a true double), and measure 7 in. in diameter. The deep violet veins on pure white ground make it look like printed calico. Deep violet styles and style branches form a rounded cluster above the yellow signal patch. 30 in. tall.
Each $1.00, Three $2.75, Doz. $8.00

KAMATA. "CITY OF DREAMS", deep blue-purple of velvety texture with waved and arching falls quite broad at the margin. Standards are rounded and cup-shaped. Styles of self color are upright and prominent.
Each $1.00, Three $2.75, Doz. $8.00

LIGHT IN THE OPAL. One of the loveliest orchid-pink flowers in existence. Fully double, falls and standards are marked with a bright blue border around the yellow signal patches and this, together with the light styles clustered in the crown adds to the airiness of the opalescent flowers. Late blooming, 36 inches tall.
Each $2.00, Three $5.75

YAMA YAMA. Also known as "Mountain Glacier." A conical white flower. The broad falls overlap at the haft and drape downward. Veined with mauve-blue, the color pales into the ruffled edges. The standards and styles are white flushed with mauve, forming a saucer-like "crater." Garden effect is white. Height 30 inches. Early bloom.
Three $2.00, Doz. $6.75

KOKI NO IRO. Rich royal purple; a double flower of enormous size with large white styles tipped with purple, often accessory style branches are large enough to form another row of petals making it triple in form. Tall and imposing, it is a splendid companion plant to Betty F. Holmes as it blooms at the same time.
Each $1.50, Three $4.25

KONGO SAN (Diamond Mountain). Red-purple double flower, with standards and falls alike in size. Each is clearly marked by a vivid blue zone around the yellow signal patch. A medium sized flower, it is held open in a flat, disc-like form. Bloom in late midseason. 36 inches tall.
Each $1.00, Three $2.75, Doz. $8.00

MARGARET HENDRICKSON. Medium blue-violet, almost French-blue; a triple flower, with falls, standards waved and ruffled. The center styles and accessory style branches are white, edged blue-violet. The whole flower has the appearance of a Peony-like bloom.
Each $1.50, Three $4.25

KURO-KUMA. Brings to a close the Japanese Iris season of bloom. Dark, velvety blue-purple (almost black), with no other markings distinguishes this exquisite flower. Falls and standards are deeply waved forming a rounded, high-crested bloom of double, sometimes triple form. Foliage pale green; height 36 inches.
Each $1.50, Three $4.25

SIBERIAN IRIS Early June

The blooms are comparatively small, about 3 inches across, but it is not unusual for one plant of Siberian Iris to have as many as 30 flowers at a time on long wiry stems. The plants are hardy, increase rapidly, and are decorative. The foliage remains green throughout the summer.
